Hospital board studies finances

By Ray Mayo
Editor

The Mitchell County Hospital District board of directors continued to grapple with finances Tuesday afternoon during its regular meeting.

After assistant administrator Richard Murphy explained that Root Memorial Hospital recorded a total net loss of $118,119.12 for the month of April and that average monthly expenses total about $100,000 more than patient revenue, the board decided to offer an incentive to collect past due accounts.

Murphy said there are about 4,000 accounts totaling $2.3 million that are past due.

The board approved a suggestion by Mrs. Marion Bassham that a 10 percent discount be offered on those past due accounts if paid within the month of June.

Administrator Ray Mason had asked the board about the possibility of hiring an extra employee or an outside collection agency to collect the outstanding debts.

He said a Lubbock firm charges 30 percent of the amount collected.

Board members had mixed feelings about a collection agency with Jay Craddock noting that it has been his experience that collect agencies only collect the easy accounts.

No action was taken on the matter until after June when the 10 percent offer is made available to the hard-to-collect accounts.

Mason said that much of the $2.3 million in past-due accounts has to do with the emergency room and out-patient collections and that new policies have been put into effect which require proof of insurance or a payment plan when the patient is treated.

Murphy, in trying to predict what the next few months has to offer as far as the hospital finances are concerned, said "needless to say, it's going to be very tight. Tentatively, I don't think we will have to borrow money to finish the (fiscal) year out."

Murphy said because of reduced patient census, the hospital will continue to lose money each month.

"With eight to fifteen patients a day, there's no way around it," he said.

He said the hospital should start receiving more Medicare reimbursements which should carry the hospital until more tax money is received this fall.

One way to increase patient load at the hospital is to recruit more doctors, and the board agreed to hire a Fort Worth recruiting agency after Mason said he has tried every other way to attract a doctor to town.

The Fort Worth firm, Physician Resource Network, charges $12,000 for each doctor recruited with an upfront charge of $3,000 and the balance due after the doctor has started his practice.

The board left it up to the discretion of Mason whether to try for two doctors depending upon the terms offered by the company if more than one doctor is recruited at a time.

Gus Armstrong had said earlier that he thought drastic measures were needed in order to cut expenses, especially in personnel.

"We need to cut off every

Reward offered in burglaries

On the night of May 8 both Colorado Feed and Seed and Higginbotham-Bartlett were broken into and robbed of the money in their cash registers. Approximately $265 was taken from Higginbotham-Bartlett and approximately $370 from Colorado Feed and Seed.

Crime Stoppers of Mitchell County will pay up to $1,000 reward for information leading to the arrest and indictment of any person connected with these crimes. You will not be asked to give your name. You will be assigned a number to use when you collect your reward if you want one. No one will know you called or who got the reward. Call 728-TIPS. Out-of-town callers may call collect.

dollar we can to cut expenses," he said later. Concerning the continued loss each month encountered by the hospital, he noted that "we can't keep waiting and hoping—something needs to be done."

Mason pointed out that steps have already been taken to reduce the work hours each week "in nearly every department we possibly can."

In his report, Mason said that the physician in Lubbock who had shown an interest in locating to Colorado City has chosen not to make a move at this time.

Mason also reported that the hospital is now under the federal wage and hour law, but predicts changes to be made in order to be in full compliance.

He noted that hospital employees are being sent home when the hospital patient load does not require their presence and that employees are being forced to take vacations or lose them instead of the old policy which allowed employees to be paid double for two weeks if they chose not to take their vacations.

He said that board members will be given a list of bills to be paid in advance of the June meeting so that they will have time to study them. The next meeting will be held again at 1 p.m.

The board rescinded a motion from the last meeting about changing the terms of office from two to three years in order to allow for more staggered terms. Mason said that the state constitution prohibits hospital board members from serving more than two years at a time.

In other business, the board agreed to lease automatic dishwashers for the hospital and nursing home for $100 each per month. Mason explained that the two presently owned by the hospital district are costing about $400 a month to maintain them. The lease price includes new machines with everything else furnished that is needed.

The board took no action on a proposal by lab director Ben Bell about the possible lease of a lab chemistry analyzer instead of the one now owned by the hospital. Bell estimated that based on the last four months, the leased analyzer could save the hospital about $9,000 a year and would be able to do tests not currently done locally that have to be sent out of town. The item will be studied further by the committee.

committee assignments by board president Preston Morris. Morris along with vice president Jack Perkins and secretary Jane McCarley will serve on the executive committee which will work with hospital and nursing home administration in regard to personnel problems and in the recruitment of professional personnel.

Craddock and Bob Reilly along with Dr. Joe Terry will serve on the finance committee which will work with hospital and nursing home administration in formulation of budget and possible acquisition of equipment.

The committee will also help in looking into ways of diversifying hospital and nursing home services to obtain additional revenues.

Mrs. Bassham and Armstrong were named to the building and maintenance committee which will work with the administration in regard to needed improvements of the hospital and nursing home facilities.

The committees will work with the hospital and nursing home administration in an advisory capacity only and will bring recommendations to the board for approval or further directives.

Root Valley Fair Lodge administrator Marsha Rickard reported on activities at the nursing home. She said several residents will be participating in the senior olympics to be held in Sweetwater in September.

TSTI registration slated for June 3

Registration for day and evening classes offered this summer at TSTI-Sweetwater is June 3. Classes begin June 4.

Programs admitting new students for daytime classes include autobody repair, automotive mechanics, air conditioning and refrigeration, computer science, diesel mechanics, drafting, and technical office training.

Many programs including computer science and technical office training offer courses easily adaptable to the part time student's schedule. Contact the respective departments for course scheduling information.

A full range of credit courses will be offered at night. Most classes meet two nights a week for twelve weeks. The cost varies according to the number of credit hours.

Courses include basic electrical skills for air conditioning and refrigeration repair, autobody refinishing, automotive emission controls, introduction to BASIC programming, data entry and computer operations, program maintenance, computer logic I, and advanced BASIC programming.

Also being offered are DEC circuit principles, algebra, trigonometry, accounting I and II, payroll accounting and income tax accounting.

Tuition and fees for a full time student at TSTI are $95.50. This cost includes payment of tuition for a 12 credit hour load, student services fee, parking and ID card. Tuition and the student services fee are prorated for part time students.

Applicants to TSTI must have a high school diploma or a GED for admittance to associate degree programs. Diploma or equivalency requirements may be waived in some skill development programs with the consent of the program chairman and completion of all other entrance requirements.

All entering students must take the Differential Aptitude Test. The test is given every Monday and Friday at 9 a.m. and 1 p.m. in the Student Center. After June 1, the exam will be given every weekday at 9 a.m. and 1 p.m.

A selection of noncredit classes is also planned. Noncredit classes may or may not be drawn from the school's regular curriculum, and continuing education units (CEU's) are given instead of college credit.

Courses offered this summer include troubleshooting GM computer control commands. The class begins June 6 and costs $35.

Automotive air conditioning servicing is an eight hour course which meets on Saturday. Two all-day sessions are planned for June 2 and July 16. The cost is $25.

Heat pump installation and repair meets on Monday and Wednesday nights beginning June 12. The cost is $125 for the 60 hour course.

Defensive driving will be offered June 17 and 19 and July 15 and 17. The cost is $20 for the eight hour course. Defensive driving may be used to erase a traffic violation or for a reduction in insurance rates. Students must complete all eight hours to qualify for either benefit.

A 30 hour introductory course in regional Spanish or "Tex-Mex" begins June 11. The class meets on Tuesday nights and costs $35.

A popular course from last fall, Personal Investing, is returning June 11. The 18 hour course meets on Tuesday evenings and costs $40.

Petroleum drafting begins June 6. The 36 hour course explores maps, plats, symbols, lettering and terminology used in the oil industry. Previous experience in drafting is necessary to receive full benefit from this course. The cost is $55 and the class meets on Thursday evenings. Students are required to furnish their own instruments.

For further information on any credit or noncredit evening class, contact the Office of Special Projects at (915) 235-8441 ext. 296.

Problems in Texas schools worry new commissioner

AUSTIN—When Dr. W. N. Kirby became interim commissioner of education in November, he often joked that his early jobs as a volunteer fireman and school janitor were excellent preparation for the interim commissioner's post "because now I spend all my time putting out fires, and if anything ever hits the fan, who has to clean it up?"

But Kirby, named April 13 as the state's new full-time commissioner of education, does not joke when he talks about public education in Texas. On the contrary, he's very serious and concerned when he talks about the problems facing Texas public schools in the May-June issue of ATPE News, official magazine of the 42,000-member Association of Texas Professional Educators (ATPE).

In an interview with ATPE News Managing Editor Joey Lozano, Kirby says one of the problems with which he is concerned is restoring parental involvement in education.

"I can remember when I was a student," Kirby says, "...that there was a different attitude in many places that exists today. And that what that at home, I was expected in fact to do what the teachers wanted me to do and my parents insisted that I behave and they insisted that I get my work done."

"We didn't need a no-pass, no-play provision that was insisted upon by the schools when I was in school," Kirby says of the controversial rule governing extracurricular activities in Texas schools, "because whether they had that system or not, if I didn't get my schoolwork done, my parents would have not let me play...So we need to get back to some sort of point where the parents take more responsibility and have more of a cooperative attitude in working with the school."

Kirby also talks about making the Texas Education Agency more open and adds that he is concerned about low teacher morale.

"To that (low morale) I would ask teachers to hang in there, to give us one to two more years, give us a chance to improve the system," Kirby says. "If they'll just hang in there and let's see how-together—we can make it better."

In other articles, ATPE News continues to examine the effect of the no-pass, no-play rule and reveals that students at some Texas parochial high schools which belong to the Texas Christian Interscholastic League (TCIL) will be allowed to fail a course and still participate in extracurricular activities beginning next fall. Among the parochial schools which will follow the "one-fail" rule are the nine Houston area Catholic high schools, ATPE News reports.

Also included in the May-June issue is complete coverage of ATPE's March convention which commemorated the association's fifth anniversary.

ATPE News is published bi-monthly by ATPE, Texas' second-largest and fastest-growing teacher association. Approximately 94 percent of ATPE's members are classroom teachers, but the association's members also include paraprofessionals, principals, and school superintendents.

Veteran bond program is working

By Garry Mauro
Texas Land Commissioner
Next November Texas voters will again have a chance to support a government program that works. That's when Texas voters will get a chance to renew bonding authority for the Texas Veterans Housing Assistance Program.

The Texas Veterans Housing Assistance Program has not cost the taxpayers of the state one penny and that's one reason why it is a government program that works. The funding for the program comes from the selling of these bonds, which are repaid by the Veterans who participate—including the cost of administering the program.

Through the program eligible Veterans can receive up to $20,000 at a 9.97 percent interest rate to apply toward the purchase of a home. When combined with a conventional or a VA loan, a Texas Veteran can purchase a home with no down payment.

Since the program began a little over a year ago, the Veterans Land Board has certified more than 16,500 applications for loans to Texas Veterans. Providing $20,000 to each Veteran to apply toward the purchase of a home, this program has already put $300 million into the Texas economy. As a result, the housing program stimulates the homebuilding industry as well as creating jobs in the state so that not only the Veteran benefits, but all Texans as well.

Because the program works so well and contributes so much to the state's economy, it has been called the greatest single Veterans benefits program to be enacted by a state since World War II. This program can provide the opportunity for every Texas Veteran to own his or her own home—especially thousands of Veterans who have been unable to afford it—especially the Vietnam-era Veterans.

And with Texas facing these tough fiscal times, it is encouraging to look at one government program where Texas taxpayers get back more than they pay for. The Texas Veterans Housing Assistance Program is one such program—a successful combination of cooperation between the public and private sectors that benefits both Texas Veterans and the Texas economy without costing the taxpayer one single penny.

Boating Week, June 2-8, proclaimed by White

To help kick off summer vacation for millions of Texans, Governor Mark White has proclaimed June 2-8 as Texas Safe Boating Week. In a ceremony at the State Capitol, Governor White joined with representatives of boating industry, service and safety organizations to draw attention to the need for boaters to have required safety equipment on board and to act courteously and responsibly on the water.

Boaters both in Texas and nationwide have apparently been taking such reminders to heart. Boating fatalities in Texas last year dropped 30 percent from the previous year, according to Texas Parks & Wildlife figures, and the U.S. Coast Guard reported boating deaths nationwide hit a record low in 1984.

With more than 600,000 registered boat owners, Texas ranks as the third largest boating state in the country.

"Boating is one of the most popular forms of family outdoor recreation and we want to make sure it is enjoyable for everyone," said Pat Helton, president of the Boating Trades Association of Texas. "By reminding boaters to check safety equipment, understand and follow the rules of the road and to act safely and responsibly while behind the wheel, we can insure that Texans can more thoroughly enjoy our vast water resources."

Trade policy is hurting industrial workers

By Lloyd Bentsen
United States Senator

The Texas Gulf Coast, and other areas of the United States that depend on refining and petrochemical industries, are paying dearly for this country's lack of an aggressive trade policy.

Failure to develop a trade strategy has forced these industries to compete with unfairly subsidized competitors abroad.

Because of this, the United States has lost a third-about 106-of its gasoline refineries in the past five years. Most of them were driven out of business by OPEC refineries with access to cheap, subsidized oil. Those that remain are operating below capacity.

Along the Texas Coast, more than 54,000 jobs, virtually all related to petroleum, have been lost since 1980, according to a report by the John Gray Institute of Lamar University in Beaumont.

This report was released at a hearing of the Joint Economic Committee, the third hearing on U.S. trade policy over which I have presided this year.

Testimony at the hearing confirmed that refineries are starting depression in the face. Petrochemical producers are also under the gun.

The number of ammonia plants, for example, is down 40 percent since 1978. The Chemical Manufacturers Association reports the loss of 43,000 jobs nationwide.

Petrochemical imports are soaring. Ammonia and urea imports this year will double 1981 levels and methanol imports will be up an estimated seven-fold.

The major factor responsible for the grim refining and petrochemical outlook is major new state-controlled refining capacity in the OPEC nations of the Middle East and Africa.

These refining and petrochemical projects are able to undercut any competition by using state-owned oil and gas. OPEC countries provide crude oil to their refineries at $2.50 a barrel or more below world prices. The cheap final products enter a world market already glutted by excess capacity.

The Amoco oil company has estimated that 20 percent of the world refining capacity—some 12 million barrels a day—is idle. Demand is expected to grow only 600,000 barrels a year. And by 1987, world petroleum demand is projected to be three million barrels a day below what it was back in 1979.

Yet, OPEC nations, with 5.1 million barrels of refining capacity already on line, are now adding a further 2.5 million barrels to their capacity.

Other nations have reacted to this market glut by limiting imports.

Japan, for example, permits no gasoline or middle distillate imports. Countries as diverse as Italy and Sweden have imposed quotas.

But the U.S. market remains almost wide open, with areas like Texas Gulf Coast paying the price.

The Senate Democratic Working Group on Trade Policy, of which I am chairman, recently outlined a tough trade strategy for the U.S. Although this is a democratic effort, we have not taken a partisan approach in our recommendations, for we will need bipartisan support to translate them into a program of action.

The United States must develop a comprehensive, aggressive trade strategy, one that will stop unfair foreign competition in its tracks.

Those attending were Bess Cooper, Geneva Killian, Leona Feaster, Irene Ritchey, Ruth Adams, Lodena Blassingame, Lena Bullard, guest, Vera Webb, Lucille Blassingame, Jane McCarley and Rochelle Smith.

Autry presents program

The Fairview Home Demonstration Club met recently at the Mitchell County Library with Mrs. Sherry Autry as hostess.

Mrs. Velma Hester, president, presided. Roll call was answered by "one household improvement I would like to make."

During the business meeting, announcements were made and the council report given by Mrs. Autry.

Mrs. Autry presented a program on silk flower arranging.

A refreshment plate and punch was served to Mrs. Velma Hester, Mrs. Nellie Haley, Mrs. Edna Pace, Mrs. Mary Womack, Mrs. D'Dee Morris and the hostess, Mrs. Autry.

St. Ann's No. 1 returns to first place in church league

St. Ann's No. 1 is back on top of the Mitchell County Church League softball standings after posting two victories Monday night.

Four make-up games were played in the Memorial Day evening, games that were originally scheduled for May 16 and May 20.

The first game pitted St. Ann's vs. the Calvary Scrubs. The Scrubs entered the game undefeated and in sole possession of first place.

St. Ann's changed that by taking a close 9-8 victory with a tie-breaking hit in the bottom of the seventh and final inning. The win upped St. Ann's record to 7-1 while the Scrubs stand at 5-1.

St. Ann's led off with five first inning scores and led by as many as 8-2 after three innings.

Yardy Powell and Chuck Claxton both went four for four for the Scrubs and scored their first three times at bat to keep their team in the game.

Powell scored his fourth run in the top of the sixth and brother Jardy added a run as the Scrubs tied the game at 8-8.

The Scrubs couldn't come up with a score in the seventh, then Felix Franco crossed the plate with the winning run in the bottom of the inning.

Franco, Big Rock Smith and Tanis Moreno each scored twice for St. Ann's.

St. Ann's also defeated the Calvary Baptist No. 1 team 11-5 in a 9:30 game.

The score remained 1-1 after three innings, but then Calvary scored three in the top of the fourth to take a 4-1 lead. St. Ann's answered with five in the bottom of the inning and added five insurance runs in the sixth.

Israel Franco, Jimmy Mendoza and Armando Rivera all hit two for three for St. Ann's.

Calvary went into the night's games with a share of first place but the loss coupled with an earlier loss to the St. Ann's Lowriders dropped them to 2-3 and into fifth place.

In the loss to the Lowriders, the Baptists from Calvary managed only three scores—one in the first inning and two in the last.

The Lowriders meanwhile scored in each of the first five innings enroute to their 9-3 victory.

Benny Arispe went three for three for St. Ann's while he, Hector, Ernest Aguilar and Robert Gomez each scored twice.

The win upped the Lowriders record to 5-3 and into third place.

An 8:30 contest involving a slugfest between the Over 40 Gang and Christian Temple finally saw Temple take a 25-24 victory.

The lead swayed back and forth during the game, and it looked like the Over 40 Gang would notch win number one after they took a 24-16 lead in the top of the seventh.

Christian Temple had other thoughts and stole the game with nine runs in their last bat.

Little League season opens

Little League baseball players opened the 1985 season last Monday night and posting opening night victories were two hardball champions from last season.

The Farm League Blue Sox, who tied for last year's crown along with the Colts, Mets and Cubs with a 4-3 record, bettered the Wilcats 18-6 in a 6 p.m. contest.

Two first inning scores gave the Wilcats the early lead but then Rusty Blair, Michael Molina and Terrie Johnson each came across home plate in the Blue Sox second to give their team a 3-2 lead.

Heath Mann scored in his second in as many bats to tie the game for the Wilcats after three complete innings.

With the score 3-3, the Blue Sox then exploded for 10 fourth inning scores to take a 13-3 lead.

The visiting Blue Sox scored five more in the final fifth inning.

Winning pitcher for the Blue Sox was Juan Ybarra, who got relief from Adrian Martinez and Tyrone Ridge. Heath Mann and Greg Conway pitched for the Wilcats.

Blair and Molina were perfect at the plate for the Blue Sox while Mann and Jeff Hill battled two for three for the Wilcats.

In a nightcap game involving Freshman League teams, the 1984 champion Astros picked up where they left off last year by defeating the Yankees 17-8.

The Astros, who won last year's crown with an 11-4 record, blew the game open with 10 second inning runs.

The visiting Yankees led 2-1 going into the second inning behind scores from Jesse and Tim.

In the Astros big second inning, the defending champs jumped on losing pitcher Woods by batting through the line up. In the inning, Abel Salazar scored twice.

Winning pitcher was Chris Williams.

Justin Dockrey hit three for three for the Astros while Jub went three for four.

Shortstop Jesse went three for three for the Yankees.

A Spoonful

It is not a good idea to use a teaspoon from your regular service to measure out medicine for a child. Although it is common practice, the bowls on teaspoons vary so widely that you run the risk of seriously over or under-medicating the child. Instead, use the medicine spoon provided with the medication or one which you can be provided by the pharmacist. It consists of a spill-proof tube, with a spoon at one end, calibrated in teaspoons and milliliters. If the child has not yet graduated to using a spoon, ask the pharmacist for an oral syringe.

EDDIE'S of Colorado City looks forward to meeting the complete pharmaceutical needs of every member of your family...from the newborn baby to grandma and grandpa. Our pharmacists are pledged to further and maintain the highest ethical standards of the pharmaceutical industry. For accurate, sound and safe advice, you will find us located at 1001 Hickory, 728-3476.

Special discounts available for senior citizens on their prescriptions when they pay cash. 30 day charge accounts. We have a drive up window for prescriptions plus we offer complementary prescription delivery. Open: Mon.-Sat. 8-6, 24 emergency service available.
