JUNCTION STATE BANK AND CATTLE LOAN COMPANY BOTH DECLARE GOOD DIVIDENDS

County Agent Terraces 630 Acres Of Land

Work Has Gained Confidence Of Kimble County Farmers

Until recently the job of selling the livestock farmer the idea of terracing seemed a hopeless proposition. Now the work has sold itself. County Agent R. E. Homann cannot run enough lines to satisfy the demands.

Eight farm demonstrations were conducted during the month of December with 14,070 yards of terrace lines being run and actually constructed. During the past twelve months, 26,827 yards of terrace lines were run which takes care of 630 acres of fertile soil. The demonstration conducted on the Will Mathews farm was put on with the assistance of the Ivy 4-H Club. The members present were advised by Mr. Mathews in the following manner:

"Boys, if we do not terrace our lands, we cannot hope to leave a farm for you." The boys appreciated Mr. Mathews' remark and were so inspired that they did not quit the job until school was over.

The county agent feels that this work has gained the confidence of the people and only requests them to plan their work 10 days in advance in order that he may take care of their demands.

Motorcade To Inspect 4-H Feeder Calves

Itinerary Will Include Several Prosperous London Farms

Leaving the courthouse square at eight o'clock promptly Tuesday morning, January 13, the motorcade to visit the farms where demonstration work is being carried on, will go to London under the supervision of R. W. Persons, District Extension Agent, A. L. Smith, Beef Cattle Specialist, and R. E. Homann, county agent.

The tour is designated to give everyone interested an opportunity to visit the ranches and farms where demonstration work is being carried on. Demonstrators will explain their operations and give valuable production costs which should be of interest to all. In addition to the work of the demonstrators Mr. Smith will give a short talk on production of beef.

The itinerary is as follows: E. H. Kothmann, Walton Kothmann, B. M. Stewart, Edgar Lambert, Will Mathews, Louie Grobe, McCaleb ranch, Goodall Kothmann, Junction, Dave Turner, Clifton Schraub, and Geo. R. Pepper.

You will miss it if you miss the tour for nine cattle feeding demonstrations, numbers of terracing demonstrations, and poultry demonstrations will be visited which will be gratifying to you. This will be your last opportunity to see the calves in the feed lots.

CHURCH SERVICES AT LONDON SUNDAY 11 A. M.

Rev. G. W. Crofoot, pastor of the Junction Presbyterian Church, will preach in the Community Hall at London next Sunday morning, January 11. Worship will begin at 11 o'clock. Every one is invited.

Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Jetton and children visited the C. S. Chiles family in Kerrville Sunday.

C.T. Holekamp Succeeds E. E. Bolt, Deceased, As Director

At the annual meeting of the directors and stock holders of the Junction State Bank in the directors room Monday afternoon, C. T. Holekamp was elected a director to succeed E. E. Bolt, deceased. A. L. Mudge was elected as vice-president, a position held by Mr. Bolt before his death. Lanan Bissett and Max Riley were elected as assistant cashiers.

A semi-annual dividend of 6% was declared which is evidence of a successful year in spite of the depression. The report of the bank in this issue of the Eagle shows that the bank is in excellent financial condition. The stockholders expressed themselves as well pleased with the condition of the bank and re-elected all the directors for the ensuing year. The directors then re-elected all the officers and employees. The patrons of the bank are requested to study the financial statement in this issue which gives the true status of the bank.

An auxiliary of the Junction State Bank is the Junction Cattle Loan Company which was organized in 1923 with a capital stock of $25,000. It has the same officers and directors the bank has and gives the people of Kimble and adjoining counties a local market for their wool and mohair with ample storage facilities. It is also a boon to livestock men during hard winters like last winter by keeping in stock a full line of all feed products for the ranchman.

It has also been a financial success as is seen from the report mailed to stockholders and patrons this week. The president states that the Cattle Loan Company also paid a 6% semi-annual dividend and that since it was established eight years ago it has paid 10 and 12% each year and a surplus of $40,000 has accumulated which now gives the company a working capital of $65,000.

The friends of these institutions are proud of this excellent financial standing and the service they render the community.

Kimble County Rain For Year 1930 Is Far Below Yearly Average

Lee Craven Is Again In Charge of Laundry

Mr. Lee Craven is again in charge of the Junction Steam Laundry. For a few weeks it was leased to Mr. Green of San Saba, but Mr. Craven assumed the management again Tuesday morning, January 6.

He solicits the patronage of all Junction people and will strive to give satisfactory service. There is no change in the personnel of the force and the same good work will be done as in the past.

Pay Taxes Now

Tax Collector Frank Patterson states that people are paying taxes rather slowly. There are only three more weeks to pay taxes and secure automobile licenses. Since the taxes are paid at the same office that issues the car licenses, Mr. Patterson requests taxpayers to avoid the last minute rush when he and his deputies will be unable to serve the people as they would like.

Coke Stevenson Assumes Duties In Legislature

Will Present Bill to Make All Banks in Texas State Depositories

Representative and Mrs. Coke R. Stevenson will leave the last of this week for Austin where Mr. Stevenson will take up his duties as representative of the 86th district. He was the author of the State Auditor Bill passed at the last session of the Legislature. This is one of the most constructive pieces of legislation passed during the Moody administration. He was active during the regular and called session and made an enviable reputation during his first term.

Representative Stevenson has announced that he will submit a bill this session making all banks in Texas state depositories and allowing them to handle tax funds. He is opposed to any plan of delayed tax payments, but believes that if the bill he will submit becomes a law, the banks could afford to assist tax payers who are not able to pay their taxes when due in January. By this plan the banks would remit each month which would materially improve the present plan of all the tax money being sent in one or two months. It is expected that some of the large banks that have been favored with the big deposits will oppose the plan.

Another thing that Mr. Stevenson believes should receive consideration from the Legislature is the repeal of many of the antiquated laws on the statute books relative to live stock. There are many laws that were passed many years ago that only a few students of law know are on the books. There are too many to even mention in this brief article, but some of them pertain to the time, place and manner of branding livestock, county brands, moving cattle from one county to another, etc. They were needed at the time they were passed when the country was open, but are no longer needed, and few know they are on the statute books.

The people of the 86th district have an able representative in the person of Coke R. Stevenson, and he can be depended upon to take care of the interests of this section in the Legislature.

Basket-ball Practice Is Light This Week

Because of examinations at school, there has been very little basketball practice. The coaches are planning active work after this week. The schedule of games have not been completed and it is not known just what teams the Junction players will meet during the next few weeks.

Both boys and girls lost a few good players from the last year's stars, but there is much good material in both teams and a good record is expected this season.

The team should receive sufficient support this season to pay the necessary expenses.

Mr. J. U. Goodwin of Rocksprings is a business visitor in Junction this week.

Annual Report Of County Agent For Year 1930 Reveals Much Activity

Segovia and Ivy Divide Honors In Basket-Ball

Ivy Senior Girls and Junior Boys Are Victorious In Contests

Three spirited games of basketball were played at Segovia last Friday afternoon between the teams of the Segovia and Ivy Schools. Mrs. L. E. Stockard is the principal of the Segovia School and Mr. Orlan Stewart is principal at Ivy. The games were played between the senior girls, the senior boys and the junior boys of the two schools.

Segovia won in the senior boys contest by the score of 22 to 7 while the Ivy senior girls took the big end of a 25 to 19 score. The Ivy junior boys defeated the Segovia juniors 18 to 0.

The following took part in the games:

Money In Eggs At Present Low Market Price

The present low egg market apparently has not affected D. M. Stewart, poultry demonstrator, for what he has lost in price, he has made up in number. Ninety-three brown Leghorn pullets last month consumed 558 pounds of mash and grain valued at $14.05 and returned to their owner 1117 eggs. Seventy-one dozen were sold at 30 cents while 21 dozen only brought 25 cents per dozen. Elton Stewart has 80 mixed farm birds; Everett Stewart has 100 White Leghorns; and Dell and Alton Banskowsky have 32 birds enrolled in the production contest. Records are the only source to verify farm products and losses. How many poultrymen and farmers can say as Mr. Stewart does, "Those birds averaged me 12 eggs each during the cold month of December."

County Agent R. E. Homann has the above demonstrations under supervision and is co-operating with others interested in poultry, making only the difference of demonstrators and co-operators.

Mrs. M. E. Blackburn and son, John, went to Hoover, Texas to the bedside of her father, J. M. Daugherty, who is seriously ill with pneumonia.

Mrs. L. D. Borden, Sr. of Austin left yesterday for her home after a visit with her sons, Messrs. E. R. and L. D. Borden and their families.

Flowers Or Chickens?

The time of the year is here when people are planning their flower beds. Seeds and bulbs are being secured for spring planting. After considerable money and time have been spent to beautify yards it is provoking for the neighbor's chickens to destroy the efforts. Flowers and chickens will not mix. Those desiring to raise chickens should build pens for them.

Feeder Calves Show Wonderful Gains In Month

One Steer Calf Gained 216 Pounds Within Sixty Day Period

When 17 4-H Club calves walked across the scales on January 3, "J. W.," a Hereford steer calf being fed by Dorothy Jarvis of the Tea Cup community, distinguished himself and paid tribute to his owner. "J. W." gained 216 pounds during the last sixty day period or an average daily gain of 3.6 pounds which was produced for 7.25 cents per pound. The calf now weighs 816 pounds.

All the calves made remarkable records since the last period of weighing, the average gain for the group being 161 pounds. "Big Boy" being fed by Neal Lambert is now weighing 875 pounds and will no doubt top the 1,000 pound mark at 11 months of age. The average daily gain of all calves was 2.68 pounds.

The total weight of these calves now aggregates 12,678 pounds as compared to an initial weight of 7,075.

Nine club calf feeders exhibiting 17 head of choice and prime fed steer calves averaging 875 pounds will be shown on the streets of Junction on February 28th.

R. T. Amberson Pioneer Citizen Dies Saturday

Many Friends Mourn Passing Of Aged Kimble County Pioneer

The passing of Uncle Tol Amberson of London last Saturday removes another Kimble County landmark. He has been a citizen of the county many years and has seen much of its progress. He, himself, has had a great part in the development.

On account of the inclement weather the Eagle representative was not able to attend the funeral which was largely attended and is not in possession of many details that should be recorded about this good man. We do not know the date of his birth and many other things that should be recorded in the Kimble County paper.

He was a devoted member of the Baptist Church and an honorary member of the Masonic Lodge. He was loved by all that knew him. For some time his health has not been good and his home-going was not unexpected. His funeral, conducted by the Rev. H. C. Garrett of Mason, was largely attended. The burial was under the direction of the Masonic Lodge.

The Eagle invites some of his family or friends to send in the biography of Uncle Tol for publication.

R. E. Homann Travels 13,194 Miles In Service

630 ACRES TERRACED 26,827 Yards Of Terraces Completed In Past Year

The following report is submitted for publication by County Agent R. E. Homann in order that the people of Kimble County may know in a measure what is being done for its agricultural improvement.

During the year 1930, the agent spent 238 days in the field carrying on demonstrations, and assisting personally in making a start in the employment of new methods. Sixty-one days were spent in the office keeping up records on demonstrations, official correspondence making plans to be carried out and answering 670 office calls and 481 telephone calls. Four hundred and eighty-one official letters were written including the making of monthly reports and giving answer to inquiries in and out of the county. Five hundred and six homes were visited on extension calls, 291 meetings were held or attended by the agent at which 16,034 people attended. There were 13,194 miles travelled on official extension work in carrying out the allotted time and work as follows:

(a) In co-operating with the local Chamber of Commerce, Commissioners Court, local and civic organizations in their meetings and tours pertaining to agriculture and interests of the community, opening of schools and organizations with livestock interests.

(d) One day only was given over to dairy work which was an attempt to secure a demonstration in dairying and milk production.

(e) Ten days were given over to community work which was of a social nature, attending community gatherings, barbecues, opening and closing of schools, auctioneering box lepers and community tours.

(f) Nine days were spent visiting and assisting in County fairs and judging contests. Five days were spent out of the county assisting in the Fair work of other county agents and conducting a tour to Sonora, Rocksprings, and Brady. Four days were spent in two local club shows.

(g) Twelve days were spent in attending the Medina Hereford Short Course, Farmers Annual Short Course at College

JOURNALISM CLUB MEETS MONDAY MORNING

A meeting of the Journalism Club was called last Monday in the high school study hall. The chairman of the program committee took charge of the program. Mae Delle Lowry gave a reading and Mr. Edgar Mc Lendon gave a discussion of several newspapers. He gave the members of the club a few pointers on the arrangement of articles for the front page; he also spoke on the importance of headlines being suited to the articles they are used on. He suggested that criticizing newspapers would be helpful to the Journalism Club.

ALL IN A NAME

(By Marie Sheppard)
Maxine wanted to write a theme about the Martin. She got in her car and rode over the Hill, but she saw a Cow(ser) and decided to write about it. She came to a corner and started to turn. Then a cop drove up and said "Parker." After the cop had gone, she decided not to write about the Martin. The Taylor said she would have to go to the Smith's to get some change so she started out. On her way she met a Sheppard. The Sheppard said, "You have company and they are raising the Roof-us off your house."

WHAT IF?

Raymon forgot to be in love? Louise forgot to powder her nose? Buckshot forgot to wave his hair? Harry failed to visit the library to see a certain brunette? Lucille M wore more rouge when she appeared at her first lesson.

"WORDS OF WISDOM"

(By Ella Simon)

If with pleasure you are viewing,
Any work a man is doing
If you like him or you love him
Tell him now.—
More than praise and more than money
Is the comment kind and sunny
And the hearty warm approval
Of a friend.
If you love him, let him know it
If he merits praise, bestow it;
Let the words of true encouragement
Be said.
Last summer I came across a poem which contained these lines. I do not know the name of the selection; neither do I know who the author is. Considering it one of the most impressive and sensible poems I have ever read, I saved it. Each of the quoted sentences is a lesson in itself. If someone is doing good work, has undertaken a worthy task, or is putting forth his best efforts let him know that you are pleased with his efforts, and that others are aware of his troubles and appreciate his endeavors. "If you like him or you love him, tell him now." Tomorrow may be too late. Our friends are not always with us, and we never know at what time one will be taken from us. It does not make any difference to the dead if everyone is in mourning, if good things are said, or flowers are placed on the grave. It is then too late to do the things that would have brightened his life.
A kind word or a hearty approval often times encourages a person more than any amount of money possibly could. It is surprising to see so many people who really have the ability to do a certain work quit trying, because they have met with nothing but discouragement. Some few come out in the lead despite the lack of encouragement. These are only the people who have an exceptionally strong determination. We can usually find something good in the life of everyone. Why not help make your associates happy and successful?
The sixth grade history class made an average of 95 in the month of December.

On Friday, December 19th, the sixth grade had a Christmas tree in their home room. Each pupil received a present. A short program was given. The room mothers, Mesdames C. S. Amick and Clay Secrest, served refreshments.

MID-TERM EXAMINATIONS COMMENCE TUESDAY
The first mid-term examinations were given Tuesday afternoon. English and Algebra examinations were given at this time.

CRITICIZES SCOOLO PAPER
(By Lorena Couey)
It is useless to say that we have a good high school paper for we all know this. At least, I think so. However, there are some ways in which I think we can improve it.
If we reporters would study the books on Journalism we would get better ideas on how to write up assignments. We need to give a little more time and thought to our reports. Many times we wait until the last minute to write them, and then scribble them off in a hurry and say, "Oh, I can't think of anything else; this will be enough." If we really put our minds on what we are doing, we will have a much better report. Another thing, we all like to read funny things, and especially if they are original. Almost every day something funny happens during our classes. Just jot it down and then get it ready to go in the paper. As things happen during the week, jot them down and put them some place where you can find them. Turn them in for the next paper. Each reporter should urge the members of his class to tell him the news each week. There are some students who can write good articles and will do so when asked to, but they ought to do these things without being asked. Let's urge the members of our classes to tell us the latest happenings.

COUNTRYSIDE BROADCASTINGS

By Rev. G. W. Crofoot
Pastor Junction Presbyterian Church

EDITORS of county-seat newspapers are prophets of the people. They live among the people and are personally known to many of their readers. They usually advocate ideals that are calculated to preserve the basic interests of society. These papers, read by the town and country people, are as a rule, the allies of the town and country churches in their endeavor to promote better social order.

TOWN and country ministers do not always appreciate the opportunities, which are offered them by the newspapers, of sending messages of helpfulness to the town and farm families. We wish here to record our appreciation of the generosity of the editor of this paper in giving space for these paragraphs. We shall do our utmost, with the publishers help, to make our messages free from bigotry or sectarianism. It is our intention to offer only what is calculated to unify rather than to divide the people in their work of making the right kind of communities.

DANGERS threaten America today. They are not enemies from without which can be defeated by armies or by the sea and air navies. If America fails, it will be because of enemies which are developed from within. If we are to continue to have a democracy that is safe for the world, the citizens who are the self-sovereigns must be intelligent. To that end, we support our public-school system and pay most of our taxes. But it seems that the more educated we become, the larger the crop of criminals. Educated criminals are the most dangerous and more difficult to bring to the bar of justice than are those who are uneducated. Our citizens must not only be educated but trustworthy. We must have a Christian citizenship. The country communities are the sources of the nation's supply. The prime requisite for the perpetuation of our institutions is a sufficient number of the right kind of country communities. To have the right kind of country community, there must be maintained in it the right kind of a country church.

A NUMBER of people of the Segovia Community met last Sunday afternoon and organized a Sunday School. The following officers and teachers were elected: Superintendent, Mr. C. C. Phillips; Assistant Superintendent, Mr. W. G. Ward; Secretary and Treasurer, Miss Mildred DeFreest; Adult Class Teacher, Mr. Floyd Bierschwale, and young People's Class Teacher, Mrs. C. C. Phillips. This Sunday School will meet every Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. There are classes for all and everyone is invited. The aim of this organization is to PROMOTE THE WORSHIP OF GOD THROUGH THE DEVELOPMENT OF CHARACTER. A Sunday School social will be held next Friday night, January 9, at 7:30 o'clock in the schoolhouse. A most cordial invitation to come and enjoy a period of Christian fellowship is extended to everyone.

LONDON LOCALS

Death has claimed a noble citizen. Another old landmark has fallen.

On Saturday 3-31, Mr. R. T. Amberson affectionately called Uncle Tol gave up his life in response to the unerring summons. Uncle Tol Amberson was loved and respected by our citizens to that extent few enjoy. Even the little children loved Uncle Tol, and no greater tribute could be paid his memory than to say the children loved him. This good man was the embodiment of truth and honor in regard to any statement he might make, or any responsibility he might assume. He was straight-forward in all his dealings with his fellowmen. He was an old citizen of London and is one who has seen this section develop and has assisted materially in its progress.

Uncle Tol Amberson was a member of the Baptist Church and was an honorary member of the Masonic Lodge at London, No. 814. As an evidence of the high esteem in which this good man was held, though the weather was rough, and rain falling during the funeral service, our community auditorium with a capacity of 500 was filled to its capacity. Friends of this good man attended his funeral from Junction, Menard, Hext and Mason. The floral offering was grand but nothing could compare with the manifestation of the love and esteem of the host of friends who attended his funeral. Brother H. H. Garrett of Mason conducted the funeral services while the Masonic Lodge performed the interment rite. Thus a good man has gone to his reward, while this writer with hundreds of others has lost a true personal friend, but the will of God be done.

Mr. A. J. Ivy and family of Sanderson, Texas were visiting relatives and friends here last week.

Mr. Will Gentry is up and going again after a few days of severe illness.

Miss Melby Walton now sports a new Crevrolet coupe. Melby is as proud of that little old Chevvie as I was of the first red top brass toed pair of boots I ever possessed, and I can say that the new car brought real joy to Melby. And if you don't think the red top brass toed boots brought real joy just ask Larkin Taylor of Roosevelt. He can tell you.

Mrs. Selma Turberville has returned from Leakey where she spent several days with her brother's family. Editor and Mrs. E. T. Hensley.

Our 4-H boys are very enthusiastic over their baby beaves this winter. Their progress in putting on flesh is satisfactory. We are glad to see this development because we are strongly of the belief that we can raise the feed and the livestock both here in Kimble County and by a little work and extra attention can turn out the finished animal and thereby retain for ourselves the extra profit. Lets encourage this feed raising and fattening process because in normal times it will pay good returns.

Mr. E. H. Kothmann was in town Monday and informed the writer he had recently visited the 4-H Club pens and found the calves are doing well.

Fire destroyed the barn on the Chas. Bierschwale farm Sunday morning. Origin of fire unknown. Mr. Jones of Mason County was moving in the place and he lost his wagon and considerable corn. with feed and a little money to cover his loss. Here goes, boys. I will give $2 to help replace his loss.

School is moving fine now. The holidays have passed. Every one should work more earnestly than ever. We should not forget to back up our school in every way possible. Teachers should encourage pupils to concentrate on their studies, and parents should let their children understand that the holiday revelry is over and school must occupy their time and minds.

I used the word revelry above and I am one who believes it to be a monumental shame on our civilization the way we celebrate the Birth of the meek and lowly Jesus, the Saviour of Sin-cursed man. I also realize that I am entirely too short to change our custom, and can do no more than speak just what I feel about it.

NOXVILLE NOTES

Bells have tolled the dirge of 1930, those twelve months that we have spent mostly worrying over conditions that we could not change. Because the lights of prosperity which a few years before glittered and gleamed on golden shores, become dim, and worse still our country was suffering from the effects of a drouth of long standing. The rains which we had hoped would automatically give relief to business of every character have come in abundance, but we are still wondering what the New Year will give us. We are, of course, hoping it will give us first, a solution of our economic problems. Ranchmen of the Hill Country are fairly prosperous in spite of disturbed conditions, with plenty of rain, stock and range in good condition and ideal winter weather, we feel that we have about weathered the financial storm. With all nature in our favor, may the New Year bring us wisdom and courage to work out our financial salvation.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Jones and children were guests at the A. T. Whetstone home Sunday. Garland Milam spent a few days last week visiting his sister, Mrs. Dee Taylor in Junction.

Mozann Calentine is suffering from an attack of appendicitis this week.

Our genial friend, Charlie Roberts, is circulating among his many friends at Noxville this week. We are always glad to have Charlie with us. His pleasant smile and warm handclasp is a benediction wherever he goes.

Mr. and Mrs. Willie Collins visited friends in Rocksprings during Yuletide.

ALLSPICE

Some people think that allspice is a mixture of all the spices. This is not correct. Allspice is really a kind of pepper. It is the dried, unripe fruit of the pimento tree, which belongs to the same family as the clove tree. It gets its name, allspice, from the fact that it has been said to have the odor of all spices.

PRODUCTION OF EGGS IN WINTER TIME PAYS

There is no place in the farm poultry yard for a feathered flapper. Unless the hens are working as hard as the folks there is an uneconomic balance that the owner must pay. Culling always is timely. There is no month in the year when a poor worker is profitable; not even when she and her more industrious sisters are molting.
Fall culling is particularly timely. This is the season when the farmer is getting ready for that short period of winter egg production when the largest profits are made. Every cent he pays out for feed and labor for maintenance of a flapper hen comes directly out of his profits.

Culling cannot be too rigorous. It is better to err on the side of your bank account than on the side of the border-line layer. An average sixty-egg hen is a loss. A 120-egg hen may return a profit, but the chances are she will not. You may be sure that the 180 egg hen is worth keeping.

Cost Is the Same
It costs as much, if not more, to maintain a poor layer than it does a good one. She eats as much and usually she is unruly enough to make the labor of looking after her a little difficult. Usually she will make a good dinner, and that is all. Put her in the pot.

Many, if not most of the star boarders, may be recognized on sight. By going through the flock carefully long before winter laying has begun, many hens can be discarded before the characteristics that brand a cull have been fully developed.

When a hen quills laying, her comb usually shrivels up. First her beak, then her legs turn yellow (if she is of a breed with natural yellow legs). She will begin a slow molt and gradually appear in a fine, shifty set of feathers, while her hard-working sisters are continuing their labor in their old shabby coats, worn and frayed from continuance performance on the nest.

Swat the Boarders
If, in a boarding house, some of the boarders would stop paying their weekly or monthly bills, or continue to eat and pay only a part of what was due, the housekeeper soon would be bankrupt and the boarding house would have to close.

Too many unprofitable boarding houses are being run for flocks of hens. Absence of cost accounting and neglect to keep up with production hides the unprofitableness of the undertaking, but it is being paid for, day by day, out of profits from other farm projects.
Be sure your hens are paying for their keep. It is the only way the farmer can pay his own way.

Japanese Grow Pearls in Scientific Way 'Pearl Farms' are Profitable Businesses Pearls Produced by "Irritated" Oysters

By leasing about 40,000 acres of warm salt water in various bays along the shores of Japan, planting 3,000,000 small oysters—known scientifically as Margaritifera marteni—each year, performing a major surgical operation on each of them...

on an operating table where a surgeon prisms its shell open, makes an incision deftly inserts a seed pearl not much larger than a pin-head, or a tiny, round piece of mother of pearl from a Missouri River mussel shell...

The originator and controlling factor in this strange industry is Kechichi Mikimoto, known as the Pearl King of Japan. For twenty-three years he operated nine "pearl farms" before raising a profitable crop. Now, though, by means of the scientific methods he developed, he and his thousand assistants care for 7,000,000 pearl oysters constantly...

Fresh from the operating table, the prospective producers of culture pearls are laid, twenty to the tray, in especially made and patented wire cages, each holding fourteen of the trays. Fifty thousand of these cages, suspended from bamboo rafts, are hung simultaneously within a few feet of the ocean's floor...

All pearls are produced by irritated oysters. A "wild," "natural," or "virgin" pearl results when a bit of sand, a minute crustacean, or some other tiny foreign substance accidentally gets into the oyster's body. If it is not able to eject the intruder, the oyster surrounds it with layers of a substance which in time, becomes a pearl. The great value of "natural" pearls is due chiefly to the fact that relatively few of them are of profitable size and quality.

Spanking Child Causes Divorce Parents may spank their offspring, but not each other, according to a ruling of a Los Angeles judge. Mrs. Lavern Scofield spanked her son, Jimmie, contrary to the father's wishes. Mr. Scofield thereupon spanked Mrs. Scofield, who was later granted a divorce and the custody of son Jimmie.

In the comparatively warm sea water of the Mikimoto pearl farms, millions of small oysters hatched naturally, but under a certain amount of supervision, float for a while and then attach themselves to small stones strewn on the bottom. There they remain for three years. Then Japanese diving girls go down and get them. In one day, preferably between May and November—for the divers do not like cold water—a lively girl will bring up a thousand oysters. Girls are said to make better divers than men because they have greater lung capacity. Each captured oyster is placed

Judge Can't See Joke In Hunting Geese By Plane

The tenderfoot who was sent out to round up the lambs on a western ranch, and at nightfall closed the corral on 50 panting jackrabbits, met his match recently in two native Oklahomans who set out in an airplane to ride herd on a flock of wild geese.

They succeeded, but too well. Circling about the river banks they forced together an enormous flock, and drove the birds southward along the river. Here hunters were waiting in blinds, and fired almost point blank into the mass of birds.

The fun was taken out of this new form of slaughter, however, when the "herd riders" in the airplane learned that game wardens had witnessed the incident. Oklahoma like many other of the states with progressive fish and game commissioners, prohibits the hunting of birds from airplanes, and the two airplane pilots paid fines of $131 each.

Michigan Governor Who Never Cashed Pay Check Gives Daughter Salary

LANSING, Mich.—When F. W. Green retires Thursday as governor of Michigan, a cigar box on the gubernatorial desk will be relieved of its treasure. The State will be $20,000 poorer and the daughter, the only child of the governor, will be $20,000 richer.

The governor, who has never cashed a pay check during his four years as state executive, revealed Wednesday that he will turn his checks over to Mrs. Norvall Tyrell, the daughter. The checks have been kept in a cigar box on the governor's desk.

Chevrolet wins first place for the fourth time

First place at the National Automobile Shows—a position granted on the basis of annual sales volume—is again awarded to Chevrolet.

This is the fourth consecutive time that Chevrolet has achieved this honor. And the reason lies in the exceptional value which Chevrolet cars consistently provide.

This year, in its bigger and better Six, Chevrolet is offering an outstanding example of the value which has brought it such record success.

In fact, no previous Chevrolet car has ever represented such a high degree of quality and advancement, and sold at such low prices as today's Chevrolet Six.

County Agent Report Shows Much Activity

(h) Agronomy played an important part in the work of the agent and 21 days were spent and devoted to the securing of 9760 pounds of pureline seed which was distributed to the farmers at cost. This movement was backed and financed by the Chamber of Commerce and involved the expenditure of $487.50. This work netted the farmers of Kimble County many thousand dollars in that they were able to secure good seed at cost and their returns were greater.

(i) Terracing and irrigation work required 27 days of the agent's time and as a result 26,827 yards of terrace lines and 10,000 yards of irrigation lines were run. On January 1st, 1930 none of this work had been done in the county. Practically all terraces are constructed and as a result 630 acres of land have been saved from erosion. The value of this work is estimated at $10.00 per acre. The increased valuation on this land being $6,300. One twenty-acre alfalfa demonstration produced 33 tons of hay during the 9 months of production. The seed planted in this demonstration was properly inoculated and was 99% pure. Row crops were grown on other irrigated lands. Kimble County needs more irrigated land.

(j) Hogs are lacking in numbers, breeding and quality in county. One hundred and thirty-eight head of hogs is that was listed in the census this year. There are 454 farms in the county and over 5,000 people yet we do not make a start to produce our own meat. This condition must be materially aided if we are to become a prosperous "Live at Home Class of People." Three days were spent in curbing outbreaks of hog cholera. Your agent is willing to give demonstrations in vaccination against this disease, however, do not insist on making him your veterinarian.

(k) Twelve and one half days were spent in the beef cattle work. The major portion of this time was given over to bloodless castration, dehorning, vaccination against charbon and blackleg. Ten demonstrations were given in the bloodless castration of calves, two herds, 325 head were vaccinated for charbon and three herds were vacinated for blackleg. Fourteen pure bred Hereford bulls were shipped into the county during the year.

(l) Four days were devoted to veterinary work treating cases of bloat, brush fever, milk fever which are always a constant source of calls for personal service. The agent receives no credit for this type of work even though during the year 40 cows were saved from death by the above causes. The above mentioned work is far from being good method demonstration work and cannot be reported. Owners of livestock should supply themselves with milk fever instruments, trocars for bloat, and oils for compaction.

(m) Seventy-four days were devoted to club work which results in the idea of selling extension methods to numbers of boys and girls in the county. Two 4-H club shows were held during the year with all junior demonstrators taking part in the show and contest. Thirty-five club members carried on active demonstrations and aside from technical knowledge gained, financial success was attained in practically all demonstrations. Neal Lambert sold the top calf for $159. Leon Turner sold the top buck lambs at $75 each, and Max and Gus Camp the top goats at $120 each. Poultry records were much above the average for the state.

(n) Three days were spent answering calls for proper feeding methods on the range and one day was devoted to working out feed rations for local feed dealers.

(o) Thirty-four days were given over to the systematic drenching of approximately 50,000 head of sheep at a saving of three and one-half cents per head, or a saving of $1,500 on sheep verminifuges by home mixing.

(p) During the National Drouth Relief period, through the work of the agent, Kimble County was placed on the list and Mr. Homann acted as the chairman for the county. Certificates were issued to those desiring to take advantage of the reduced rates and 53 cars

THE NEW YEAR

By Anna Beals Phipps

He took twelve steps out of the realm of space,
Twelve steps that rang with chiming of distant bells,
Crossing the threshold of that magic place
Which separates the years. His presence spells
Youth, vigorous and strong, hands filled with gifts,
The ruddy glow of sunlight in his cheeks;
Snowflakes adorn his head which proudly lifts
To meet the future days, he eager seeks.
It is the New Year greeting us again,
With joy that, oft repeated, still is new,
And all the fervent hopes that long have lain
Dormant within us rise to greet him too.
And waiting multitudes, with hearts aglow,
At midnight hear his steps across the snow.

None of us objects to flattery provided we are the object of it.

The struggle for existence is the most interesting part of existing.

STATE HIGHWAY BULLETIN

From numerous inquiries that have recently been received at the State Highway office, it appears that a great many of the local officers throughout the state do not understand the Law regarding motor vehicle registration.

We have an opinion from the Hon. Rice M. Tilley, First Assistant Attorney General advising us as follows:

The last day that a motor vehicle may be lawfully operated that has not been registered for the new year is midnight of February 1st. On the morning of February 2nd any one operating a motor vehicle that has not been registered for the current year is subject to arrest and if the vehicle has been operated during the month of January without being registered, the owner is not only subject to arrest on February 2nd but must pay a penalty of 20% of the registration fee.

You should try to impress upon the public that, although it is not unlawful to operate a motor vehicle through the month of January with 1930 plates attached, they should not wait until the last few days in January to register, as it will be an utter impossibility for the Tax Collector to wait on them, and no one has the power or authority to extend the time and the officers of this Department will begin making arrests on the morning of February 2nd.

The radio is making people so particular about their entertainment that a street band of five pieces will soon be declared a public nuisance.

Beans is beans. New Mexico and Colorado produced 4,847,000 bushels of Pinto Beans in 1930. The Pinto bean is said to contain more food value per dollar than any other staple food. One pound of Pinto beans is said to be equal in nutritive value to 4.4 pounds potatoes, or 1.6 pounds beefsteak or 8.6 pounds eggs, or 5 pounds of whole milk. . . . And the price of Pinto beans is so cheap that it requires a grown person to carry a dollar's worth home from his local merchant. . . . However, the average one of us is not so much concerned with Vitamins B. or C as he is in getting the beans on the table.

With the advent of the New Year many thousands of workers have been returned to jobs in auto factories and railroad shops in the East, which condition indicates the anticipated economic upward trend. . . . Livestock on the range of Kimble County are reported as going into winter in splendid condition, with feeding at a minimum. . . . Much local interest is attached to the feeding operations of the 4-H Clubs, some of the calves having gained as much as 216 pounds during the sixty-day period. U. S. GOVERNMENT PLANS EXPENDITURE $724,000,000 ON PUBLIC WORKS IN 1931

For some time reports have been circulated that the U. S. government is planning to spend large sums of money during 1931 to relieve, to some extent, the depressed conditions throughout the country. The Associated Press under the date of December 23, carried the following dispatch:

"Moving to the aid of its jobless, the American Government will spend $724,000,000 on public works during the calendar year of 1931, the largest peacetime construction program in its history.

"The amount compares with the average fiscal expenditure of approximately $275,000,000. Figures announced by President Hoover today showed the largest amount for any purpose was the $219,922,000 to highways.

"Running a close second was public buildings construction with $173,869,000 available. Rivers and harbors will receive $159,857,000 and ship construction $129,920,000.

"Fifth on the list was an item which 20 years ago would have seemed an impossible dream. A total of $30,882,000 will be used for building aircraft.

"Of the $724,000,000, total of $116,000,000 was made available last week by Congress as an emergency unemployment relief measure.

"In addition to the appropriations for public works, the government will expend $170,000,000 for agricultural relief, $45,000,000 of which will be used for seed and fertilizer loans to farmers stricken last summer by the drought.

"In order to arrive at the expenditures for the calendar year 1931 President Hoover took half of the 1931 budget figures and half of the 1932 budget figures and added the emergency and acceleration appropriations to the amount.

"At the same time the President announced the Government intended to see that its contractors maintained the wage levels existing before the business depression set in. He said that through conferences year ago industry and labor had reached an agreement whereby the wage level would be maintained wherever possible and that certainly the Government could not consistently do otherwise.

"Difficulties with a number of minor contractors have been experienced, the President said, but they have been adjusted.

"After the president made his statement, the Department announced the allocation to the states of emergency funds for highways and the War Department allocated money for rivers and harbors improvements.

"A total of $30,000,000 was added to the public buildings fund by the application of accumulated and unexpended balances from previous appropriations which can now be applied through the expedition gained from authority to employ outside architects.

"Government construction experts estimated that of the total amount, about one-half will go for the payment of labor and the other half to the purchase of sites and materials.

"Most of the projects for which appropriations have been made have passed through the technical stages and the actual work can begin in the near future. In many cases sites already have been completed or nearly so.

"The highway apportionment to the states include the following: Arizona, $1,170,841; California, $3,108,233; Colorado, $1,507,832; Connecticut, $520,491; Delaware, $400,000; Idaho, $1,008,035; Illinois, $3,400,116; Indiana, $2,045,929; Iowa, $2,116,369; Kansas, $2,192,301; Kentucky, $504,715; Maine, $715,799; Maryland, $678,752; Massachusetts, $1,141,460; Michigan, $2,521,382; Minnesota, $2,249,993; Montana, $1,671,930; Nebraska, $1,708,031; Nevada, $1,049,338; New Hampshire, $400,000; New Jersey, $1,107,807; New Mexico, $1,303,288; New York, $4,050,566; North Dakota, $1,298,532; Ohio, $2,998,538; Oklahoma, $1,926,351; Oregon, $1,320,287; Pennsylvania, $3,512,943; Rhode Island, $400,000; South Dakota, $1,337,973; Texas, $5,088,080; Utah, $926,521; Vermont, $400,000; Washington, $1,270,933; West Virginia, $875,384; Wisconsin, $1,992,410; Wyoming, $1,029,383; and Hawaii, $400,000.
