NUMBER ELEVEN

AROUND TOWN

With Otto B. Grate

Hull a gull-handful, and we do have a handful of news for you Around Towners this week.

March may be moving in and all of that, but winter had his day in the home town last week. The thermometer dropped umpteens and even the bottled drinks froze while on the delivery trucks. Now, we wouldn't have swallowed that tall tale either, but what's that about seein' is believin'?

Get a load of the smile Granddad Stanley is passing out these days and Baby Sue Ann Everett, first vor grandbaby, is the cause of it all. Sue Ann, by the way, is enough to bring forth glows of pride from the relations. While we're on the subject of babies, Martha Sue Martin is another sweet little lady, and Anna V and C. B. Snyder's curly-headed bundle of joy is just getting sweeter all the time. Of course we never mention babies without tossing a few bouquets to those sweet heartaches-Billie Beth Bell and Dorothy Henry, who are charter members of Around Town's baby corner.

He's not a baby, but he's some one's pride and joy. We mean Jiggs! the sassy bull pup belonging to J. T. Lawrence. The dawg is an intelligent critter—pert nigh hooman.

Baird lost a good guy last week when Milton Bryont resigned his position in the Baird schools to go to McCamey. However much as we hate to say "Adios" to Milton, he goes with our best wishes and finest recommendations.

We knew Manager Pawkett's Squeeze-box serenades were causing some talk, but we didn't take it seriously until we saw a Big Springs stiff wagon parked in front of the theatre last week. Seems the funeral home heard the Maestro and though the sweet moosie was the wail of the dying—oosh!

March, as we have said before, will be a socko month for ye movie bugs. To start thing off there's "Paris Honeymoon" on the 5th and 6th, followed by "Kentucky" on the 9th and 10th, and "Zaza" on the 12th and 13th. All of which leads up to the highlight of the month, "Jesse James" on the 22nd, 23rd, and 24th. The outlaw opus just naturally outshines all coming attractions but don't let that make you miss "Kentucky" Thursday week taken from the novel "The Look of Eagles"; the story concerns horse raising in Kentucky and one man who knew better than all the rest how to "pick a winner". Good photography and snazzy coloring plus a fine a fine story make this picture a rare treat.

Spotlight of the week goes to Mrs. Hamilton Wright, who is just one of those very pleasant people who always have something nice to say no matter what the occasion and that, so we think, is reason enough for our applause.

Basketball Game At County Teachers Cross Plains Association Meets In Putnam Feb. 24-25

The girls basketball team from Highland High School, eight miles south of Roscoe, will play the Cross Plains High School team of the high school auditorium, J. E. Cross Plains Friday and Saturday February 24 and 25. The games President and R. F. Webb of Putnam, Vice-President and Secretary

A program will be presented with Dr. T. T. Taylor, president of Howard Payne College, and Mrs. Lexie Dean Roberson of Rising Star, recently appointed poet laureate of Texas, as principal speakers. In that game of Texas, as principal speakers, game Highland won in a game marked by very little scoring. The final score was 14 to 11 in favor of Highland.

The Highland team lays claim to being the tallest girls team in Texas. The average height is said to be almost five feet seven inches. These girls have entered nine invitation tournaments this season and won all of them. The only time they have been defeated was in an early season game with a team from Meadow. The Highland girls came back the following evening, however, to win by a wide margin. Their outstanding players seem to be the Hawkins sisters, one a forward and the other a guard.

The Cross Plains girls have had a very successful season. Though Cross Plains girls basketball teams have never before won a tournament, this season they have won four, been runner-up in four and tied for another. In the tournament held in Cross Plains recently between Cross Cut, Pioneer, Rising Star, and Cross Plains the final result was a tie for first place with the final game ending 16-16. In the toss for the first place trophy the Cross Plains captain failed to call the coin. Their chief strength lies in a very effective defense led by Doris Gray and ably assisted by Mary of the theatre last week. Seems the funeral home heard the Maestro and though the sweet moosie was the wail of the dying—oosh!

The winner in this series will be unofficially acclaimed the champion of girls basketball in West Texas. Admission prices will be 10 and 20 cents.

F. F. A. NEWS

Atrelle Estes

Marshall Phillips, F. F. A. Member reports the sale of his project. Phillips put a pig on feed October 21 and sold it February 17. During the feeding period the animal consumed 535 lbs of feed baining 120 or a little more than 1 pound per day. Phillips estimates that feeding cost plus price of pig brought his total expenses to $10.44, so when marketed for $11.84, he realized a profit of $1.40.

Humorous if unfortunate is the case of Milton Dunagan. Dunagan sold a shote at 1-2 per pound, guessing his weight at 200 lbs. At this price, Milton made a profit of $3.05. Dunagan's father, the purchaser, sold the same shote for 7 3-4 cents per pound. Mr. Dunagan netted a porfit of $4.35 in a few hours while son Milton worked 134 days to make $3.05. Big difference in Mr. Dunagan's profit an that of his son's was not the 1-4 cent in price, but the fact that the elder Mr. Dunagan weighed his animal before selling. Miltons shote, guessed to weigh 200 lbs, really tipped the scales at 250.

Practically the same thing happened to Harold Cummings who sold his porker, guessing his weight to be 150 and thereby "throwing in" so to speak, the Cooper, Hub Warren and Bob Estes pigs extra 26 pounds. It might be well for the Future Farmers to know their projects before selling and check weights more closely.

New projects keep coming in. The latest to report new work are Milton Dunagan with one pig and Mike Hughes, who has a shote on feed.

Entrees for the Spring Show are being shaped up and if the interest the members show in any indication the F. F. A. boys are preparing to walk off with their share of the prize money.

The following boys are planning to enter animals:

Paul Sherruble, 1 shote
Glenn Gibson, Troy Robinson, Hub Warren, Aubrey Grounds, Billy Frank Alexander, Mike Hughes, Wilbert Voshelle, Wallace Blakley, 2 sheep

Ben Glover, 1 calf
Buddy Brumbough, 1 sheep
Donald Williams, 4 sheep
L. W. McIntosh, 2 calves
Gene Finley, 2 calves
Richard Windham, 1 calf
J. W. Evans, 1 sheep
Ben L. Russell, 1 calf
Charlie Coats, 2 sheep
Nick Jackson, 1 calf
R. J. Wiley, 1 calf
J. C. Cook, 1 pig
Gene Warren, 2 pig
Robert Warren, - shote.

Jack Browning, enterprizing young F. F. A. member, marketed his pig which he has had on feed for 111 days, for a nice profit of $9.86. Jack bought his animal for $5.00 and placed him on feed. The Browning's feeding ration included 275 pounds maize, 50 pounds cottonseed meal, 7 bushels oats, 145 gallons of milk. Coet of pig, plus feed made a total expense of 11.14. When sold for $21.00, Jack realized a gain of $9.89. The reason for this feeders' profit lies in his Carter, Billy Walker, Robbie Wal. feeding. Jack's pig weighed 72 pounds at the beginning and finished at 208 pounds representing a gain of 136 pounds per day, and in this Honorary pall bearers were, all rapid gain per day, and in this of his many friends. Many relatives and friends from out of town cotes attended the funeral. All of his meant added semoleons in the feeding children were present when death er's pocket.

Buck Cargal is the third F.F.A. member to report a profit sale the past week. Buck's pig brought him a profit of $3.34. The pig was placed on feed Dec. 5 at a weight of 50 pounds. Buck's feeding ration was 200 pounds maize, 100 pounds corn, 6 bushels barley, 10 pounds tankage and 25 pounds charcoal. Price of animal, plus feed, Bill made a total of $9.56 and when sold for $13.00, Buck pocketed $3.34 profit.

Thoroughly satisfied with the results of their labors on first projects, many F.F.A. Boys are entering into new undertakings. A few of these Chapter Members who have reported new projects are: Harold Cummins, Jim Bod Denny Cummings and Delta Ray Mayes. Cummings has 2 pigs, Denny, 1 pig and Mayes, 25 chickens.

SHOCKING PHYSICAL CONDITIONS

Last year I named eleven boys to a single place at the Naval Academy before one of them passed the physical requirements. This year out of eight boys sent so far only one of them has passed the preliminary physical examination. Our people should look into the physical condition of the coming young men of this country. Most of the defects noted could have been remedied if taken in hand soon enough.

REGENT LEGISLATION INTRODUCED

Some of the latest measures introduced in both Houses of Congress were: Hap, May's bill containing the President's national defense program; Reduction of the FCC from 7 to 3 members is advocated by Senator Wheeler, of Montana. Senator King of Utah wants the President to have authorization to call on arms limitation conference.

FAVORABLE OUTLOOK

Within the United States, business prospects remain favorable. Industrial production for the first quarter is holding up to the forecasted levels and trade is better than anticipated. Although there is a decline in factory employment and payrolls, this is in line with expectations.

CCC TRAINING BENEFICIAL

There seems to have been some misunderstanding among the people of this country in regard to the suggestions that the Civilian Conservation Corps enrollees be given military training. A number of objections to this have been written in, urging that if such training is desirable it should be made universal. Some explanation may help. These young men would not be tied into service because they receive military training. In case of war, they would be no nearer enlistment or draft than they would be without the training, while on the other hand, when and if they are enlisted or drafted and do have this training they would be just that much ahead in line for appointment as corporals and sergeants, and in some cases to officers' training camps. This would also be of great value to the country.

DESTINY OF THE NATION

The destiny of the Nation seems likely to be determined in large measure by children from the rural or high-birth-rate areas. One fourth of all families in the 1930 census had four children or more or 63 per cent of all children in the Nation. It is these large families, living mostly in rural areas, which, according to present birth rates, will exercise the greatest population influence in the Nation of the future.

ON BAIRD CAMPUSES

By Atrelle Estes

The Baird Schools seemed to have been bitten by the party bug last week. The Pep Squad started the ball roll in Valentine's Day with levels and trade is better than anticipated. Although there is a decline in factory employment and payrolls, this is in line with expectations.

Superintendent Williams and Coach Bill White announce the football schedule for 1939. Here's an idea of what the next razz-matazz season will hold.

*Conference Games.

September 22—Merkel at Baird
September 29—Anson at Anson
October 6—Roby at Baird
Oct 13—no game to be scheduled
October 20—Strawn at Strawn
October 27—Moran at Baird
November 3—Moran at Baird

THE LAW OF COMPENSATION

*** * * * ***
NOBODY'S BUSINESS
By Julian Capers, Jr.

Austin—A quick funeral, with few mourners, was being prepared this week for the O'Daniel transaction tax scheme, as the House committee on taxation and revenue, finished with its public hearing on the Townsend-inspired plan submitted by the Governor, prepared to take up sales tax and natural resources tax bills, in the order named.

By common consent, it was agreed the transaction tax got nowhere at the hearings. Its only backers were a motley crew of men, women and children, numbering about 200, who were headed together by professional pension advocates, and marched to the capital carrying banners. Half a dozen Townsendite professional organizers, and promoters of rival pension organizations, appeared and endorsed the O'Daniel bill. Most of them admitted they had never read it.

Meanwhile, under way in both houses was a movement by conservative leaders, to yet at the so-called security program sensibly, by enacting legislation liberalizing the pension law somewhat, and defining "need" in definite terms. These accurate estimates will be made to determine the cost of pensions and other phases of social security. The next step will be, if the plan of this group works out, to attack the problem of raising what-ever additional revenue is needed but with definite knowledge of how much. Efforts also were scheduled to combine the social security program with a better governmental set up. Some leaders were hopeful of divorcing specific functions, such as pensions, from certain individual tax sources, and getting all but the constitutional allocations of income into a general fund, from which appropriations would be made to each governmental department or function. That is an ambitious program, but one on which the governor and many legislators are thoroughly agreed. So there is some hope of achievement.

DIVERSION GRAB RAPPED
The scheme of some County Judges to divert gasoline tax money to pay off millions of "dead horse" county lateral road bonds, scheduled for a showdown this week, was given a severe setback when Thomas E. McDonald, chief of the U. S. Bureau of Good Roads, wired Alfred Petsch, opponent of the bill that the diversion contemplated by the bill would draw a penalty of $4,000,000 which would be withheld from the State's federal highway allocation of about 12,250,000 annually. The bill is being actively opposed by the Texas Good Roads Association, headed by Lowry Martin, Corsicana publisher, and the Federal ruling was regarded at its probable death knell, as numerous members of both houses expressed an unwillingness to do anything that would jeopardize the State's allocation of Federal road-building money.

Lobby gossip in Austin credited certain bond speculators as being Texas commercial and civic groups the real behind-the-scenes backers who are waging a battle there to equalize freight rates and remove discrimination against the Southwest in present rate structures. Both House and Senate have passed resolutions, calling upon the Federal government to give Texas relief from discriminatory freight rates.

RESOLUTION OF RESPECT

WHEREAS: the Baird Volunteer Fire Department has again been forcibly reminded of the unrelenting hand of death;

WHEREAS, on Thursday, December 22, 1938, our beloved Brother Fireman Franklin H. Buckles, was called from our midst by the Messenger of death;

BE IT RESOLVED, That while we reverently cherish the memory of Frank and in his departure, we recognize the supremacy of the will of God, "for as high as the bids of heavens are above earth, so much higher are His ways than our ways", therefore we humbly submit to His will.

That Frank was a true and loyal fireman, always willing and anxious to do his part and to help his fellow-man. He lived a clean life and his association will be greatly missed. That we unanimously extend our heartfelt condolence to the bereaved relatives.

That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of the Baird Volunteer Fire Department, and a copy sent to The Baird Star and that the Secretary of this department be instructed to forward a copy to his relatives.

BRING HOME THE BACON

The man who always comes home with the bacon, knows what he's about, is seldom mistaken. He may not live in the greatest of style, but he gets what he needs that's really worth while. He always has money saved up in advance, keeps his eye open, looking for the main chance. Some people may wonder how he gets along; it's saving his money, not doing things wrong. The First National Bank now has his account; it runs into figures, is quite an account.

BEAM OF LIGHT GUIDES THREE SAFELY DOWN MT. WHITNEY, HIGHEST U. S. PEAK

REACHING the summit of Mt.
Whitney, highest peak in the continental United States, after an all-day climb, three Californians were forced by cold to descend the mountain in darkness, a feat described by experienced climbers as "almost a miracle."

Cutting through snowbanks, fording streams and negotiating rocky trails covered with ice, they made their way down the famous California mountain. They owe their lives to flashlights, which made it possible for them to follow the trail and avoid disaster on cliffs hundreds of feet high.

John M. Conrad, of Inglewood, Calif., and two friends started on their adventure at 2:30 in the morning. They reached the base of the mountain after a five-hour trip, and at once began to climb. They made good progress up to 10,000 feet, but there the rare atmosphere began to affect their breathing. From then on, more time was spent resting than walking.

Near the top of the 14,495-foot mountain, Conrad became ill. His friends did what they could for him, but he did not respond rapidly. It looked as though the project would have to be abandoned. But, as the afternoon wore on Conrad recovered somewhat. Meanwhile the temperature was dropping sharply. The trio were now determined, however, to try to reach the summit.

"At length we got there," said Conrad, "but by that time it was so cold and the wind was so high that we knew we had to start back down at once—or freeze to death. We also realized we were going to be up against it when it got dark, but we had to make the attempt."

"We had a flashlight, and we saved this until darkness came down. Then we switched the light on and took our chances on the cliffs. With this single light, we went safely along precipices which dropped off hundreds of feet. By our light we located trails that we had not while fording streams.

After an hour we worked through snow drifts, crept across icy ledges, and stuck to the trail.
If our light went out, we were done for, but I had loaded it with batteries that I knew were fresh, and they did a job for us. They were what saved our necks."

In the course of their ascent and descent of Mt. Whitney, the climbers covered some thirty-two miles.

HAMILTON WRIGHT, Pastor

Last Sunday was a good day for us. Around 140 in Sunday School. Good crowds at morning and evening service. Dr. Turner, McMurry president, brought a wonderful message at the evening hour. An offering for the institution brought a large sum.

 Around 50 attended the Youth Crusade at St. Paul Church, Abilene, Wednesday evening. Transported by the church know and love the Church. A well ordered religious life is certainly dependent upon a proper conception of the Church. In the Scriptures we find that Christ and the inspired writers referred to the Church as, the Bride of Christ, the Body of Christ, the Building of God, the Temple of God, the House of God, custodian of the Faith delivered to the Saints—and the ordinances of the New Covenant. We certainly enjoyed the Sunday morning we expect to con-hour with the people. We expect to return on the Third Sunday in March.

Tuesday the pastor conducted a funeral for Mr. H. B. Wilson, prominent resident of Lorraine. Mr. Wilson succumbed from pneumonia following an appendicitis operation. He was 77.
 Our spring revival has been definitely set for March 31. It will continue through Easter Sunday. Rev. H. H. Hunt, young pastor of Tuscola-Braadshw, will do the preaching. We want our people to be much in prayer for this meeting. It should be a time of ingathering of souls.

Come to Church Sunday. Interest is increasing and attendance is growing and, we feel, the spirit of fellowship. The pastor has two messages of special interest to his congregation next Sunday! Unless we change topics the morning message will be on the "Christian Home."

We feel the Bob Jones revival at Abilene has done wonders for all this country. We heard him several times and believe him to be really a man of God with a living message for this day of atheism and infidelity and instability.

The pastor had the privilege of addressing the high school student body at chapel Monday morning on the Youth Problem. The response the group gave inspires us per bushel. For sale at my farm to do everything possible for them in Midway community. Mrs. R. They are always welcome in our W. Cook, Rt. 1, Baird Tex. 8-2tp church.

First Baptist Church

A. A. DAVIS, Pastor

The services at the Baptist Church were well attended last Sunday. 132 came to Sunday School and interest was evident through out the service. We enjoyed bringing the morning message on the Church, as the Temple of God from 1 Cor. 3:16. We do believe that it was in the mind and purpose of God for us to know and love the Church. A well ordered religious life is certainly dependent upon a proper conception of the Church. In the Scriptures we find that Christ and the inspired writers referred to the Church as, the Bride of Christ, the Body of Christ, the Building of God, the Temple of God, the House of God, custodian of the Faith delivered to the Saints—and the ordinances of the New Covenant. We certainly enjoyed the Sunday morning we expect to continue this series of sermons on the Church and will perhaps discuss the subject "The Imperative prerequisites of a Good Church."

Sunday night we hope to bring a message on the subject, "Some Things Jesus Would Doubtless Do And Say If He Were In Baird Tonight". Certainly this should prove an interesting subject—and we have a boundless source of information for study in the New Testament. We know Jesus is the same Yesterday, Today and Forever, and that time has no effect upon truth. What He said in Jerusalem-Gethsamane-Pilates Judgment Hall-Bethany-or elsewhere, it is safe to believe He would say today in Baird. We urge your presence at the Services next Sunday.

We are asking for-and believing that we will have 150 n Sunday School next Sunday. Especially do we call attention to the Young Men's class recently organized. Some 16 are already enrolled and many more are expected in this class. The Pastor is the teacher. The Book of Romans the Lesson study (next Sunday, 3rd, chap.) Mr. Tankersley is President of the class, Mr. West the Vice-President. Mr. Bruce Bell the Sec-Treas., with Mr. Risinger the class reporter. Social Committee and Membership Committee also appointed. This class is new, but believe me, it is really getting off to a good start. Interest is fine and you'll be hearing from that group of young men. Make your plans now to attend the services over at the Baptist Church next Sunday.
