Resignation Of Cohn Stirs McCarthy's Ire

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis) today announced the resignation of Roy M. Cohn, chief counsel of his Senate Investigations subcommittee and No. 1 target of members demanding a staff shake up.

McCarthy made the announcement in a statement just two hours before a scheduled meeting at which committee members seeking the scalps of Cohn and others were set to seek a showdown vote.

McCarthy made public a letter in which Cohn said he was resigning because "there appears to be a lack of unanimity among the members of the investigations subcommittee upon the question of continuing my services as chief counsel."

Actually, the committee was reported to be lined up 4-3 in favor of firing Cohn.

With his resignation, Cohn becomes the first official casualty of the McCarthy-Army hearings.

The hearings revolved about charges by Army officials that McCarthy, Cohn and Francis P. Carr, staff director for the McCarthy subcommittee, exerted improper pressures for preferential treatment for Pvt. G. David Schine.

Schine, wealthy New Yorker and close friend of Cohn, had been an unpaid consultant on the subcommittee staff until he was drafted last fall.

McCarthy and his aides denied they pressured for any special treatment for Schine. They counter-charged that Secretary of the Army Robert T. Stevens and Army Counselor John G. Adams tried to use Cohn as a "hostage" to "blackmail" the subcommittee into stopping its hearings on alleged subversives in the Army.

At the conclusion of the 36 days of hearings, Sen. Potter (R-Mich) said he felt both sides had proved their basic charges. With the three Democrats critical of Cohn, Potter's stand was decisive in the alignment of the seven-member group.

Before McCarthy's announcement, there had been widely published reports that Cohn was resigning.

The Chicago Tribune quoted Cohn as saying: "I feel that my helpfulness to the subcommittee has been brought to the vanishing point. In any future investigation in which I appeared as chief counsel, all the slanders voiced against me would be repeated to minimize the evidence presented."

Cohn's resignation letter was dated yesterday. McCarthy's prepared statement of comment on it bore today's date, and was released in his absence from his office.

While McCarthy did not state specifically that he was accepting the resignation, he spoke of the young lawyer's withdrawal as an accomplished fact.

He said:

"The resignation of Roy Cohn must bring great satisfaction to the Communists and fellow travelers. The smears and pressures to which he has been subjected make it clear that an effective anti-Communist cannot long survive on the Washington scene.

"He has rendered perhaps unrivaled service in the conviction and exposure of Communists and spies in this nation. He prosecuted Julius and Ethel Rosenberg, the atomic spies; William Remington and the top leaders of the Communist party. He exposed Communist infiltration in the United Nations. With this subcommittee he guided the exposure of Communist infiltration in the government Printing Office, the Voice of America, Ft. Monmouth, defense plants and other key places.

"The jury of the American people saw and heard him during the (McCarthy-Army) hearings. They know first-hand of his ability and his effectiveness. I know that they will resent as deeply as do I the treatment to which he has been subjected."

Nolan Wildcat Failure Due To Be Plugged

Choya Drilling Co. No. 1 Wimberly, West Nolan wildcat, has been ordered plugged and abandoned as a dry hole in the Cambrian.

The well was drilled to 7,666 feet in the Cambrian sand. That formation was topped at 7,653 feet. The Cambrian and Ellenburger both made water with no shows of oil or gas. The final one-hour drillstem test was run from 7,653-666 feet. Recovery was 3,600 feet of salty sulphur water.

The No. 1 Wimberly was seven miles southwest of Roscoe and 660 feet from north and west lines of section 90-23-T&P. It was three miles south of the Roscoe-Ellenburger field.

LOCATIONS SET

Locations have been staked for new projects in the Von Roeder field of Borden County and the Sara Mag field of Howard County.

Tide Water Associated Oil Co. will drill the Borden County well as the No. 2-B J. G. Davis. It is 780 feet from north and 1,980 feet from west lines of section 68-25-H&TC about 17 miles southwest of Snyder and on a 520-acre lease. Projected depth is 6,850 feet, with drilling to start at once.

Three miles west of Vincent, Russell Maguire has spotted the No. 1 Appleton. Drillsite is 660 feet from north and east lines of section 14-25-H&TC. The location is on an 80-acre lease. Contract depth is 8,000 feet, with operations to begin on receipt of approval.

Phillips Petroleum No. 1 Quartz, West Borden wildcat, is drilling in lime and shale below 7,923 feet after drillstem testing. Top of the Dean sand was called by samples at 7,706 feet.

A drillstem test from 7,703-756 feet recovered 440 feet of drilling mud with no shows of oil, water or gas. A test in the lower Dean from 7,752-856 feet recovered 395 feet of drilling mud with no shows of oil, water or gas.

Hanley No. 1 Beal has cemented five and one-half-inch casing at 7,758 feet in lime and perforated it at 7,723-739 feet. The perforations were treated with 500 gallons of mud acid, 3,000 gallons of regular acid, 5,000 gallons of sand oil fracture fluid and an additional 5,000 gallons of regular acid. No report has been made today on testing now underway.

Gulf Oil No. 1-E Higginbotham is drilling in lime below 6,372 feet. Hanley No. 1 Russell is drilling in anhydrite below 1,853 feet.

DRILLING REPORT

Sunray Oil No. 1 Criswell, Northeast Scurry wildcat, is drilling in lime and shale below 5,334 feet.

Lion Oil No. 1 Rogers, extreme Southeast Nolan County wildcat, is preparing to drill ahead after drillstem testing from 5,832-852 feet.

KNOWLAND RAPS FILIBUSTERING

WASHINGTON (AP) — Majority Leader Knowland (R-Calif) said today that by "conducting a filibuster to prevent a vote" Senate foes of the administration's atomic energy legislation are acknowledging they are licked.

"You don't filibuster if you have the votes," Knowland told newsmen shortly before the Senate began a session two hours earlier than usual to continue debate on the measure.

Knowland said every effort would be made to shut off talk and force a showdown vote on the legislation in the afternoon.

But Sen. Gore (D-Tenn), who has been acting as signal caller for opponents of the bill, was not so optimistic.

"I don't see how we can get a vote today," Gore said. "There are a number of speeches and I have one of considerable length."

Gore himself held the floor more than 7 hours in the 13½-hour session that ended late last night. Specifically the group he heads is battling against an amendment which would spell out authority of the Atomic Energy Commission to sign a private power contract for the Tennessee Valley.

Knowland did not outline the strategy he had in mind to bring about a showdown vote. But, he said, if this can't be done the Senate will stay in session even later tonight.

Even though important farm and foreign aid bills among major legislation are being held up by the atomic measure, Knowland insisted "we will not put the atomic bill aside."

Knowland said he intends to keep the Senate in session at least 12 hours a day until action on the bill is completed. He said it will not be laid aside for other legislation, but added the entire legislative program is threatened by an "obvious filibuster."

Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas said chances appeared slim that the Senate would be able to adjourn by the July 31 target set by Knowland and other GOP strategists.

Sen. Gore (D-Tenn), a leader in the fight against the proposed AEC power contract, had been speaking for more than seven hours when Knowland made his filibuster charge. Gore denied any such attempt but said the bill merited full debate.

The 104-page measure would revise the entire atomic energy law, giving the President greater power to exchange information with foreign governments and permitting private development of electric energy from atomic materials.

Most of the argument has centered around the proposal for AEC to negotiate a contract for private power to be furnished the Tennessee Valley Authority at Memphis.

President Eisenhower has directed AEC to deal with a combine known as the Dixon-Yates group for 600,000 kilowatts of power to be delivered to TVA. TVA would continue to deliver a like amount of power to the atomic plant at Paducah, Ky. The proposal is a substitute for TVA's plan to build a steam plant near Memphis with appropriated funds.

Absentee Vote Total Growing

Qualified voters of Scurry County who cannot be present at the polls in the Democratic primary Saturday may still vote by absentee ballot.

Deadline for voting by absentee ballot is midnight tonight. Voting may be done at the office of the county clerk until 5 o'clock. Ballots returned by mail are to be counted if postmarked by midnight.

By noon today, the office had issued 272 ballots of voting absentee, and 171 of these had been cast.

The Daily News yesterday erroneously stated that 248 had voted and that the deadline was last midnight.

Harris County Has Epidemic Of Polio

HOUSTON (AP)—Harris County has reached an official polio epidemic stage as the county recorded 14 more cases and two deaths yesterday.

The new reports brought the county total this year to 212 and deaths to nine. Under standards of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, 200 cases per 100,000 population constitute an epidemic.

Marie Dionne is shown as she entered the Servants of the Blessed Sacrament convent at Quebec City, Canada, last November. She has now left the cloistered religious order, a spokesman for the Roman Catholic archbishop's office in Quebec said, "for reason of health." He added "It is not known if she will return." Her father said she left the convent because she was homesick.

Porter Says He's Backing GOP Ticket

HOUSTON (AP)—National Republican committeeman H.J. (Jack) Porter said today a charge by Gubernatorial candidate Ralph Yarborough "and one of his henchmen that I am urging Republicans to vote in the Democratic primary is not only untrue but utterly ridiculous."

"I have strongly favored primary elections for the Republican party for several years," Porter said in a prepared statement. "Now that we have achieved that goal, I am doing everything I can to encourage voters to participate in our Republican primaries."

"I stated in Wichita Falls the night of July 15 that when any Democrat, be he left-winger, a loyalist, a middle-of-the-roader, a conservative, or extreme right-winger, charges that President Eisenhower has reneged on his campaign commitment concerning Texas' tidelands and is attempting to steal a part of the Texas tidelands, that as leader of the Republican party in Texas I am going to answer them," Porter said.

"Candidate Yarborough made such a charge and I answered it. Then the President, within 24 hours, again stated that he favors ownership by Texas of the tidelands out to the three marine league limit. I am not going to stand idly by and permit any Democratic candidate to build up in the voter's mind in Texas such a myth which would be injurious to Republican candidates."

Verdict At C-City Will Be Appealed

Attorneys for Alpheus D. Jones, Jr., of Dallas, who was convicted last night of second degree negligent homicide, have filed notice of appeal and posted $1,000 bond, according to C. E. McGaw of Snyder, one of the attorneys.

Jones was found guilty by a Mitchell County jury at about 1 o'clock this morning in the county court of Judge Sam Bullock at Colorado City.

The charge grew out of a collision of Jones' automobile and another car driven by Dan Burns of Snyder. The collision occurred March 19 near Colorado City. Two persons, occupants of the car Burns was driving, died from injuries suffered in the wreck. Jones was alone in his car.

Testifying for the defense was Mrs. Opal Dunbar, wife of a Big Spring cafe operator, who said she talked to Jones in Big Spring before the accident and that Jones was not intoxicated at that time. She added that she did not sell Jones any intoxicating beverage and that it was already past the time intoxicants could be sold at night.

A blood analyst for the Department of Public Safety, however, testified that he had tested Jones' blood, taken shortly after the wreck, and that it contained .18 of one per cent alcohol. He testified further that any person would be intoxicated with as much as .15 of one per cent alcohol in his blood, while some would be intoxicated with less. Two highway patrolman, Dan Nowlin and Ed Allen, testified that Jones appeared intoxicated after the accident. Other state witnesses, including a truck driver and a soldier who arrived at the scene shortly after the wreck, said they could smell liquor on Jones' breath but that they could not swear he was intoxicated.

McGaw and George Thomas of Big Spring were defense attorneys, while Frank Ginzel, Mitchell County attorney, was prosecutor.

INDOCHINA PACT IS EXPECTED TONIGHT

Two Submit Guilty Pleas Before Court

Two persons indicted by the grand jury last week pleaded guilty to felony charges in criminal district court this morning, and one was sentenced to two years in the penitentiary in each of two cases. Sentence on the other man was not meted, the case being taken under advisement by the court.

Another case called before the court this morning was scheduled for hearing tomorrow morning at 9:30 o'clock. The defendant, however, stated later this morning that he would probably seek a trial by jury, in which case the trial may be held at still a later date. He is charged with attempt to burglarize with intent to rape.

Levi Wallum, Jr., 24, of Snyder, was sentenced to two years for burglary of the office building of Caperton Bros., a new and used car dealership on May 20, when a safe containing about $100 in cash was stolen. He was also sentenced to two years for burglary of the Snyder Co-operative Gin. The sentences were to run concurrently.

The new sentences of Wallum are also to be concurrent with the remainder of three concurrent county court sentences for misdemeanor theft of gasoline. He is serving three six-month sentences now and is to be given credit for time served on these sentences on his felony sentences. Suspension of his felony sentences was not possible inasmuch as he is under probation in another county in a felony conviction.

Marvin Vernon Hall, 17, whose parents live in Sweetwater, pleaded guilty and was convicted in a case of automobile theft. Judge Sterling Williams announced he would take the case under advisement, consider the youth's application for suspended sentence.

Judge Williams' statement on witholding of sentence was made when Hall told the court he had been convicted in a juvenile court in 1952 of car theft. He had not previously been convicted as a felon, however, in which event he would not be eligible for suspension.

A case passed indefinitely was that of Joe Dell Matthews, 17, of Snyder, indicted on a charge of burglary of Caperton Bros. office, the same offense for which Wallum was convicted.

Matthews told the court this morning that he wanted to plead guilty and also wanted a suspended sentence but that he blamed the grand jury for his having committed the offense. He said that if the grand jury had indicted him on a previous occasion when he was charged with passing forged checks, he would not have committed the burglary.

Asked by the Judge whether Matthews pleaded with the grand jury not to indict him on the forgery charges, he said he did. He also said he then promised grand jurors he would not become involved in other offenses if he were no - billed of the forgery counts.

Matthews told the court today, however, that he blamed the grand jury for not indicting him on the first charge so that he could have been convicted and given a suspended sentence, which he thought would have prevented him from committing burglary.

Judge Williams said he would call the case for trail later.

Roy Jimenez Tavarez, about 20, Snyder, also known as Raul Lelo Tavarez, was brought before the court but returned to jail when he stated he would plead innocent to the indictment of attempt to burglarize a residence here with intent to rape.

Representing the state in the cases was Renal B. Rosson, district attorney. Only one defendant, Wallum, was represented by legal counsel. J. Ray Martin of Snyder was court-appointed attorney for him. An attorney is not necessary for a defendant pleading guilty and seeking suspension of sentence.

Tidelands Question Remains Unsettled

WASHINGTON (AP)—The White House, Texas' two senators and her governor have re-declared their assurances that Texas' tidelands extend to the full three leagues—10½ miles.

But the controversy many thought was settled by the 1953 Tidelands Act threatened to live again as a result of a Justice Department advisory to the Interior Department.

J. Reuel Armstrong, acting solicitor of the Interior Department, said yesterday the Justice Department had advised Interior to continue to regard three miles as the extent of any state's ownership of mineral-rich submerged lands—including Texas.

This put new fire into the controversy between Shivers and his chief opponent for renomination, Austin attorney Ralph Yarborough, and brought these Washington reactions:

From the White House: A presidential aide, asked about Armstrong's statement, said Eisenhower made his position perfectly clear last week in talking to Sen. Daniel (D-Tex). The aide added: "The President always has supported Texas' claim to its historic boundary, and that is three leagues."

From Sen. Daniel, who as Texas attorney general had carried much of the tidelands fight: There is "no question but that the present Congress and all past Congresses which have considered the matter have recognized that Texas has had a three-league boundary in the Gulf of Mexico."

From Sen. Johnson, called from the Senate floor to get the news: "When the tidelands bill was considered by the Senate it was conceded by both proponents and opponents that it gave to Texas 10½ miles. When signed by Eisenhower it was recognized by all concerned that Texas received 10½ miles.

"I believed then and I believe now that Texas received 10½ miles—notwithstanding any statement by any subordinate official in the Interior or Justice Departments."

Gov. Allan Shivers told The Associated Press there may be some question of other states' claims but not of Texas' claim.

"President Eisenhower says it's all right. Price Daniel says it's all right. I'll take their word any time against Yarborough's."

He added that Yarborough "fought for a man who would not have let us have any of it—Adlai Stevenson."

U.S. Plans To Stay On Sidelines

GENEVA (AP)—The two major obstacles to the signing of an Indochina armistice appeared to have been surmounted late today, conference sources said, and an agreement before midnight appeared certain.

A highly reliable source, who declined to be identified, said the Communists have agreed the United States would not be listed among the powers approving the multilateral general declaration to be issued at the close of the session.

It was learned that the Chinese Communists, who originally asked that the United States be included in the list, were now not inclined to insist on this point. This block, thrown into the negotiations at the 11th hour, had dampened optimism for a while.

A responsible Laotian source said that agreement also was reached on the question of regroupment of "resistance forces" in Laos and the withdrawal of an estimated 10,000 Vietminh troops in that kingdom within 60 days.

A few minor issues remained to be settled.

An American source said the British officially informed the U.S. delegation late today that Communist insistence on the listing of the United States in the declaration's preamble had been dropped.

The French said the atmosphere at a luncheon given by French Premier Pierre Mendes-France for Red China's Chou En-lai was cordial and political matters were discussed only perfunctorily.

A well informed source said that things "went a bit better" at this morning's session of Mendes-France, British Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden, Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov and Vietminh Foreign Minister Pham Van Dong.

The ministers, meeting again this afternoon, appeared to be ironing out the few remaining differences between East and West.

Under the agreement reached with the Laotians, it was reported, about 1,500 Laotians opposing the present government will be grouped around Sam Neua and Phong Saly. They will be permitted to keep their arms until elections this fall and retain certain political rights. The French will be permitted to keep bases in Laos.

According to available information:

Laos will issue a separate declaration following signing of the armistice, pledging not to join any foreign alliances which would permit the establishment of foreign bases in the country. A similar declaration will be made by the sister state of Cambodia. There are no questions of regrouping troops or resistance forces in Cambodia.

In some western circles, the Red Chinese request that the United States be listed with other participants agreeing to armistice terms was never taken seriously. It was regarded rather as a last-minute propaganda move to make the United States appear in opposition to the conclusion of peace.

The French advised U.S. Undersecretary of State Walter Bedell Smith of this development, but did not ask the United States to change its refusal to sign the agreement.

The United States position has not changed, a spokesman said. Smith told a session of the conference Sunday that the United States would assist in reaching an armistice, but would not sign the final act. Instead, the United States will issue a unilateral declaration pledging support of the agreement under the terms of the United Nations charter.

The issue was one of several still unsettled which brought Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov, British Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden, Vietminh Foreign Minister Pham Van Dong, and French Pre-

Local Couple Overcome By Gas Fumes

Mr. and Mrs. Horace H. Eiland, 2901 Avenue U, were taken to Cogdell Memorial Hospital early this morning after being almost asphyxiated in their home during the night, Ivan Gatlin, fire marshal, said.

Cause of the incident is not known, but it is believed a central air conditioning system in the basement of the house picked up carbon monoxide gasses from two big hotwater heaters located near the air conditioner and filled the house with the fumes.

Gatlin said that when firemen arrived Mrs. Eiland was unconscious, and was still unconscious when taken to the hospital by a Bolger Ambulance.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Eiland were taken to the hospital, but Eiland never became unconscious. A Bell ambulance took Eiland to the hospital.

Hospital attendants reported that Mrs. Eiland quickly revived.

Gatlin said that the incident could have been serious if Eiland had not waked up and called his son, Bill Eiland, 2503 Thirty-second Street, who called the fire department.

Gatlin warned that everyone sleeping in an air conditioned house should leave at least one window partly open in their bedrooms at night to admit fresh air from the outside of the house.

Economy Bloc Faces Battle

WASHINGTON (AP) — House budget-cutters ran into White House opposition today in their attempt to make a whopping cut in an appropriation bill.

Led by Rep. Taber (R-NY), the self-styled economy bloc faced an administration-backed drive to restore an estimated 100 million dollars cut from the bill by the Appropriations Committee. Taber is chairman of the committee.

The $1,195,188,079 recommended by the committee is $765,770,188 less than President Eisenhower asked. The bill carries funds for a number of activities in the fiscal year which started July 1. It is a "supplemental" bill—that is, one carrying funds in addition to those provided in the regular departmental money bills. The Senate has yet to act on it.

Specifically, Speaker Martin (R-Mass) told newsmen, the President wants the House to override the committee's refusal to provide 22 million dollars for the federal aid airport program and 71½ millions for ship construction.

Committee Works On Social Security

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate Finance Committee meets today to put finishing touches on a bill to extend social security to about six million persons instead of the 10½ million President Eisenhower asked.

In a burst of speed yesterday the committee virtually completed closed-door voting on legislation to liberalize and broaden the 18-year-old program.

The senators accepted without change the increases in benefits and tax base recommended by the President. But they rewrote coverage provisions to cut sharply the number of additional persons the administration had suggested for social security.

The increased benefits, as in the House-approved bill, would mean an average $6-a-month boost for the five million persons over 65 now on social security rolls. The new average monthly payment would be about $57. Everyone on the rolls now and retiring in the future would get a minimum $5-a-month hike over present scales.

In addition, benefit formulas would be liberalized so that, for instance, the maximum payment to a retired individual would be $108.50 a month instead of $85 as at present. For a couple, the maximum would be $162.75. Now it is $117.50.

To finance these, the annual amount of wages subject to taxes would be increased from $3,600 to $4,200. The tax now is 2 per cent on workers and employers.

The major coverage change made by the Senate committee was to eliminate entirely from social security 3,600,000 farm operators and 500,000 professional persons, such as doctors, lawyers, dentists and engineers.

This was a reversal of its vote last week to put them in on a voluntary basis. Members explained yesterday it was felt that if coverage were optional, only those likely to receive the most benefits and pay the least taxes would enter the system. The administration had asked compulsory coverage.

Candidates For Governor Turn On Steam As Vote Date Nears

By The Associated Press

With only four more days in which to sway undecided voters—or change the view of some—Gov. Allan Shivers and Ralph Yarborough were warning against state income and sales taxes and against political machines as they campaigned for governor.

The warning against sales and income taxes came from Shivers Monday. He said that if Yarborough kept all his campaign promises, they would add up to the necessity of sales and income taxes.

Yarborough declared Monday that "experience has shown us that when an administration stays in office too long the fixers, the back door boys, the influence peddlers somehow find a way."

Tuesday, Yarborough was in the Houston area and Shivers was to speak at a Baptist Brotherhood rally at Denison.

A third candidate for governor, J. J. Holmes, said Monday in a radio address: "It makes me sad to review the scoreboard, for on it appears the obvious workings of my million-dollar opponents, with all the money they desire at their disposal; I see that in the programs of both of my million-dollar opponents, the people are forgotten, and that political fixers and public relations men are remembered."

Shivers Monday wound up an 11-speech day in the lower Rio Grande Valley with a broadcast in which he said he was not going to "promise the moon" with the hope of delivering "a piece of cheese."

"I don't think the people of Texas want to be fooled. The budget has been kept in balance during the administration of Allan Shivers. We have tried to stay out of the pockets of the working man, the farmer, the small business man and the home owner."

He said his opponent, obviously Yarborough—Shivers doesn't call him by name— had made "reckless promises" and added:

"He has promised to triple and quadruple all of the state's expenditures. The state is now spending 530 million dollars a year. My opponent could not provide what he has already promised without doubling all of the taxes on natural resources and other tax sources, then adding a general sales tax and a state income tax."

But Yarborough, at about the same time, was saying he had always fought and would veto any state income taxes "and I am opposed to creeping sales taxism, and I am against any new sales tax."

Yarborough, in a radio speech at San Antonio, spoke of "fixers, the back door boys, the influence peddlers," said "They find the weak link in the chain of government, they establish and consolidate positions in the aging administration. From that point on, the ship of state is fouled, hampered, slowed down progressively until it is docked and cleaned and this regardless of whether the shipmaster is inclined to resent the barnacles or not."

Yarborough brought up again what he calls "the insurance mess in Austin" and passed on to bloc voting in the Rio Grande Valley.

"In my opinion, 99 per cent of our insurance companies, large and small, new and old, are honest companies," Yarborough said. "But all this great business is being clouded by the operations of a few unscrupulous promoters, and a few of the governor's cronies like John VanCronkhite, who received $11,000 from Lloyds of North America, before that insolvent company was put into receivership."

Story Of Spies In Australia Being Pieced Together Slowly

MELBOURNE, Australia (AP) — The jigsaw of Soviet spying in Australia is being slowly put together before the royal commission of three judges sitting here in Melbourne.

The pace of this royal commission on espionage has proved painfully slow to Australians, who had expected sensation packed in sensation once Vladimir Petrov went into the witness box.

Petrov, who fled his post as third secretary at the Russian Embassy in Canberra, says he also was the chief Red spy in Australia. His request for political asylum started a chain of events that led to Russia breaking diplomatic relations with Australia.

Petrov, 47, short and plump, and his small, honey-blonde wife Evokia, 40, both have spent many hours in the witness box. But they have given only a small part of their evidence because the inquiry has been split into what William J. V. Windeyer, senior counsel assisting the commission, called compartments.

The idea is to fit cleanly into one piece the pattern of Soviet espionage and to give any person named as a Soviet helper an opportunity to get quickly into the witness box and tell his side of the story. Only two Australians have been named as helpers so far.

Petrov disclosed Russia had a special directorate in Moscow for technical and atomic espionage and described the system by which Russians serving in official positions outside Russia are watched by secret police who report back to Moscow.

Petrov said both he and his wife had come to Australia with orders to recruit agents. He said money was paid to some Australians who supplied information to the Soviet intelligence system. Some Australians, he said, were given code names by Moscow.

On Petrov's fifth day in the box, the evidence turned to money and Australians pricked up their ears. Petrov told the commission he received 5,000 pounds ($11,250) from Deputy Director of Australian Security Richards on April 3, the day he left the Russian service. Newspaper headlines reflected Australian surprise.

The same day Petrov and his wife gave evidence about their pay checks. The size of these was an even bigger surprise to Australians.

Petrov said as an officer of the Soviet Internal Affairs Ministry's secret police, his salary at the beginning of 1954 was more than 4,000 rubles—$1,000—per month. This was four or five times the earnings of a skilled Australian tradesman.

Petrov said he was paid 101 pounds ($227.25) in Australian money and the rest was deposited for him in Moscow.

Following her husband into the box, Mrs. Petrov said her salary was the equivalent of 3,240 pounds ($7,290) a year. Australians quickly added the husband's and wife's salaries to total over 8,000 pounds ($17,000) a year. Only a handful of Australians earn that much money.

The end of the commission is not yet in sight and the sittings possibly will continue into next year.

Kelly's Body At Decatur

DECATUR, Tex. (AP) — The body of Machine Gun Kelly, a key figure in one of the nation's most sensational kidnapings, rested here today awaiting burial near the scene of the crime.

Kelly — his real name was George — died Saturday in Leavenworth Prison. His body was brought here yesterday.

L. C. Christian, Decatur funeral director, said funeral arrangements still were incomplete. They will be made by R. G. (Boss) Shannon, Kelly's father-in-law and his partner in crime on whose farm the kidnap victim was held.

Shannon, Kelly and their wives were convicted for the kidnaping of Oklahoma oilman Charles F. Urschel. They held him on Shannon's farm and released him July 31, 1933, when the $200,000 ransom was paid.

Kelly got life, as did his wife Kathryn and Mrs. Shannon. Shannon got 11 years. The wives are still in prison.

Man Injured In Accident

Carl Smith, about 50, suffered minor head injuries yesterday afternoon when the late model Dodge pickup he was driving left a paved farm road, jumped a creek bed, and struck a fence.

Investigating highway patrolmen, E. W. Green and Bill Zimmerman, measured three-tenths of a mile that the vehicle traveled alongside the road after leaving the pavement before jumping the creek.

The vehicle traveled about 40 feet parallel to the road but on a 45-degree slope without overturning, then plunged across the creek bed, about 15 feet deep and 20 feet wide, stuck the bank and rolled into a fence.

Smith was taken to Battenfield Hospital in a Bolger ambulance. Dr. Wilton N. Jones said Smith's condition was not serious.

The accident occurred about 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon one miles south of U. S. Highway 84 on a farm-to-market road connecting this highway with China Grove.

mier Pierre Mendes-France into urgent session today.

French sources were uncertain how much importance should be attached to the new Chinese demand. A French spokesman said he expected many other snags would appear during the day requiring feverish consultation.

The U.S. delegation was under the impression that the request for United States signature to the conference agreement came from the Russians.

"Of course they want us to sign a declaration," this source said. "They've wanted it all along."

The official Red Chinese spokesman said: "I know nothing about it."

Premier Mendes-France has pledged to the French Parliament that he will get a peace by midnight or quit.

The meeting at French delegation headquarters of Molotov, Eden, Mendes-France and Dong started shortly before noon. The participants, with Molotov at the head of the table, had bulky piles of conference documents before them as they sat down.

In addition to the question of signature, they faced differences over participation of Viet Nam, the date of elections and the question of Vietminh forces in Laos.

American Prestige Sags In Viet Nam

SAIGON, Indochina (AP) — American prestige in Viet Nam, largest of the states of Indochina, appears to have hit its lowest ebb since World War II.

Until a few days ago, the United States could still count on the friendship of some element of the population—anti-Communist Vietnamese in the North and the Nationalist government of Catholic leader Ngo Dinh Diem.

But reports from Washington that President Eisenhower's administration now accepts the principle of partition of the country seem to have wiped away much of this good will.

In the closing days of the Geneva conference and on the verge of a possible cease-fire in the long and exhausting war, the United States stands discredited in the eyes of many elements of the population.

It was to save this population from communism that the United States contributed billions to the Indochina war effort against the Vietminh and substantial civilian aid now being directed to help the hapless refugees of evacuated areas in the North. The general feeling in Viet Nam now appears to be that the United States didn't do enough, and much of what it did wasn't done right.

The aid program, for example, is a major cause of dissatisfaction among Vietnamese nationalists.

"Instead of giving us aid money and materiel through the French, why doesn't the United States turn it over directly to us?" one prominent Vietnamese asked recently. "In this way Viet Nam would be able to stand on her own feet, feel herself really independent, and the impression that the United States is siding with France in an attempt to keep us under her control would be eliminated."

Yet, there is no open hostility toward Americans here, except in a few isolated cases. Many Vietnamese nationalists still look upon Americans as possible friends and hope for direct aid when the French are gone.

Much resentment, among both French and Vietnamese, stems from widely published reports of American concern that the aid she has given might fall into the hands of the Communist-led Vietminh.

"Of course we sympathize with this attitude," a Vietnamese official explained. "But to stress it at this time hardly is in good taste. Many of my people, unjustly or not, feel the United States is acting like a man whose house is afire and is more concerned with the furniture than his family inside."

SOCIETY SCRIBBLINGS

Civic Work, Professional Outlook Are B&PW Aims

By JANE GILMORE

Business and Professional Women's Clubs see themselves as the feminine counterpart of men's service organizations.

With "Better business women for a better business world" as its motto, the organization emphasizes the professional outlook and community service.

The local B&PW club was organized in 1950. Years before, in 1928, a group had been organized here, but it had long since ceased to meet. The oil boom brought more business women to Snyder and helped provide incentive for a new attempt, according to Miss Zaida Brown, president.

Nine charter members have been continuously active in the group. They are Mrs. Forrest Beavers, Mrs. Ethel Eiland, Mrs. E. P. Ketner, Miss Mantha Landfried, Mrs. John Leftwich, Mrs. Carrie Line, Miss Vera Periman, Mrs. Mollie Pinkerton and Mrs. Raymond Williams.

From its beginning, the present club has been closely associated with state and national programs. It has sent delegates to state conventions consistently.

This year Miss Brown served on the state rules committee at the convention in Beaumont. Also attending from Snyder were Mrs. Line, Mrs. Pinkerton and Mrs. Norman Spencer.

A list of activities of the club during the past year, according to the president, is an example of the work usually undertaken by the organization.

The group sponsored Jane Houston, fourth place winner, in the Bathing Beauty Contest on July 4.

Fifty chairs at $2 each and draperies for the youth center at $287.70 were furnished.

Long range plans were completed to assist a high school girl by furnishing clothes and money without which she could not finish school.

Participation in the Diamond Jubilee Week and in plans for a women's clubhouse was undertaken.

Mrs. Bennie F. Pinnell was selected as a member of the Chamber of Commerce board of directors.

An isolator costing $500 was provided for Cogdell Memorial Hospital.

To make part of the money used for civic projects, $519.74 worth of fruit cakes were sold.

In previous years, similar activities have been characteristic of the group. Mrs. Sam Williams had served as a chamber of commerce director before Mrs. Pinnell.

In addition B&PW members take part in such annual campaigns as Red Cross, March of Dimes and local civic projects.

On the state level, they contribute money for such club projects as the foreign scholarship award, which was granted this year to a Philippine nurse to study at the University of Texas.

Meetings take place on the second and fourth Tuesdays of the month. At the first meeting business is taken care of; at the second, a dinner meeting, a program is given.

Next year's program, as announced in the organization's national magazine, Independent Woman, is entitled Adventure in Achievement. Topics include: Your Health and Your Community, Your Financial Future, Know Your World Neighbors, Pull Your Weight on Main Street and Build Positive Americanism.

Membership of the local group is made up mostly of teachers, secretaries and women in business for themselves. Only 25 per cent of the membership at any time can be made up of housewives.

The new club year will begin with 25 continuing members, Miss Brown, said, although other women plan to enter the club.

Present officers, besides Miss Brown, are Miss Evelyn Levisay, first vice president; Mrs. Carrie Line, second vice president; Mrs. C. E. McGaw, recording secretary; Mrs. Chuck Wolfe, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Mollie Pinkerton, treasurer; and Mrs. John Leftwich, parliamentarian.

The local group has one honorary member, Mrs. Ethel Eiland. Honorary members are chosen on the basis of ability, character and past achievement.

Two members are candidates for public office in this year's Democratic primary. They are Mrs. Pinkerton and Mrs. Leona Weathers, both running for county treasurer.

Martins Attend Family Reunion

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Martin, 3211 Avenue U, have returned from Buffalo Gap where they attended the nineteenth annual Angel family reunion. There were 117 descendents of the late Willis Angel present.

Out of town members of the family who returned to Snyder to visit the Martins and Mrs. N. W. Autry are Mrs. J. A. Leach and Mrs. J. W. Taylor, Abilene; Mrs. A. A. Baggett, Sundown; Mr. and Mrs. Tom Angel, Mr. and Mrs. John Pinkston and Mrs. Ruby Burns, Stanton; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Angel, Redlands, Calif.; Mrs. E. H. Angel, Redondo Beach, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Buddy Martin, Big Spring; Burton Rhoads, Colorado City; Mr. and Mrs. Earl Foree, Gulfport, Miss.

Mrs. Martin and Mrs. Autry entertained 50 guests Sunday night with an al fresco covered dish supper.

Town To Observe Its 200th Anniversary

TANEYTOWN, Md. (AP)—They're letting their hair grow in this Carroll County town so that they'll all look like early settlers when celebrating Taneytown's 200th anniversary next week.

Tomorrow through Friday there will be a pageant depicting the history of this community of about 2,000. More than 600 persons will take part in the pageant.

This is one of the places in which George Washington slept and it's the birthplace of Roger Brooke Taney, who became chief justice of the Supreme Court.

Rites for Shirley Miller, Doyle Newton Read in Gail

Miss Shirley Ann Miller became the bride of Doyle Calvin Newton at 8:30 o'clock Sunday evening in the Gail Methodist Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Miller of Fluvanna and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Newton of Ira.

The Rev. J. W. Hawkins read the double ring ceremony. Mrs. Bobby Newton sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "I Love You Truly," accompanied by Mrs. Charlie Miller, aunt of the bride.

Miss Barbara Miller, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Bobby Ray Newton, brother of the bridegroom, was best man.

Donna Cox of Quinton, Okla., and Beverly Miller of Uvalde, nieces of the bride, were flower girls.

Frank Miller Jr. and Buck Layne were ushers.

BRIDE WORE BLUE

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a full-skirted princess dress of sky blue lace. Her circular illusion veil was waist length and fell from a rhinestone and beaded blue velvet hat. She carried a white Bible topped with a white orchid. For something old she wore a cameo pin which belongs to her grandmother, Mrs. Alice Miller, and which has been worn by all the Miller granddaughters at their weddings. For something borrowed she carried a blue handkerchief belonging to Mrs. Clyde Miller, aunt of the bride.

The maid of honor wore a tiered pink net dress. Little flower girls wore matching dresses. Their hats were matching net with pink and blue flowers and white gloves. They carried hand corsages of nosegays made of Esther Reed daisies, pink asters and pink sweetheart roses.

The alter was a sunburst of pink gladiola banked by a double array of pink candles arranged in the shape of a V.

RECEPTION HELD

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the home of the bride's parents. The bridal table was laid with a blue lace cloth. The three tiered wedding cake was decorated with a miniature bridal couple surrounded by pink carnations.

For going away the bride wore a black polished cotton suit with pink design. Her accessories were avocado green shoes and bag and a black velvet picture hat.

The couple will live in Ira.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Exel Smith of Trinchera, Colo., Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Miller of El Paso, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Miller Jr. and Mrs. J. W. Cooksey of Uvalde, Mrs. Mac Weston and daughter of Camp Chaffee, Ark., Mr. and Mrs. Don Cox of Quinton, Okla., and Mr. and Mrs. Buford Newton of Tucumcari, N.M.

Mae West Is Giving Advice To Marilyn

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Mae West has some advice for Marilyn Monroe: you'd better win over the ladies, baby.

Miss West, still the epitome of sex, is a logical party to hand out advice. She made millions by muttering spicy comments. She can still command a top salary, as she will when she opens at Las Vegas' Sahara July 27.

I won an audience with the fabulous star in her sixth-floor apartment near the heart of Hollywood. The living room was unbelievably garish. It was all done in white, with Louis XIV furniture trimmed in gold. On one wall was a nude painting of Miss West, for which she says she has refused $100,000. Atop the piano was her nude likeness in white marble. Beside the statue were tintypes of her parents.

Miss West's entrance was in character—she sauntered into the room in a flowing negligee. She looked impressive. The record books indicate she's around 60, but she seems 20 years younger. Her figure is still plump and curvesome, her skin smooth and her chin singular.

I asked her how she felt about Marilyn Monroe.

"I haven't seen her on the screen," Miss West said in her soft, nasal voice. "But folks tell me she is using a lot of the things I do. The walk, for instance. They tell me she walks the same way I do. And the humorous things she says. I don't know whether she has said them herself or not. At any rate, the press boys have done a good job on her."

Everyone should have a recipe for rolls that can be made and baked in a very short time.

Here is one for three dozen rolls that can be mixed and baked in an hour.

The method in Step 5 tells you to add enough more flour to make a "soft dough." This is a bit indefinite if you are not used to handling doughs of various types. A soft dough is one that is barely [illegible] to handle. It is a good idea to place a little extra flour on your kneading board. Then it is easy to knead flour into the dough to keep it from sticking to your fingers.

SIXTY-MINUTE ROLLS

2 packages yeast
¼ cup water
1 cup milk
¼ cup melted shortening
1 tablespoon sugar
2 teaspoons salt
5 cups sifted flour
2 eggs

Water should be lukewarm for compressed, warm for dry granulated yeast.

Method:

1. Soften yeast in water.
2. Scald milk, remove from heat. Add shortening, sugar and salt. Cool to lukewarm. Beat in 2 cups of sifted flour.
3. Beat in softened yeast and eggs. Beat until well mixed.
4. Cover and let rise in a warm place 15 minutes. Stir down until bubbles break.
5. Add enough more flour to make a soft dough.
6. Turn out onto floured pastry cloth and knead five minutes or until dough is smooth.
7. Roll out into a 12 inch square.
8. Cut with a sharp knife into 2 inch squares or cut and shape into rolls.
9. Place on greased baking sheet at least two inches apart. Cover and let rise for 20 minutes.
10. Bake in a pre-heated hot oven, 425 degrees, for 12 minutes.
11. Brush with butter while still hot for a shiny soft crust.

Here are some notes for the cook.

Using two packages of yeast speeds up rising of rolls. Milk is scalded when bubbles form around the edge and a slight scum starts to form. Don't throw away this scum as it is part of the protein of the milk.

A mixing time of only five minutes is allowed in this recipe so you will have to work fast.

For sweet rolls, spread with thin confectioner's sugar frosting, then top with raisin or chopped dates before it sets.

Keep extra [illegible] after oven has been turned off.

Carnival To Be Held This Fall

The Election Day carnival which had been planned by Cosmorama Club to augment woman's club house funds has been postponed, according to Mrs. John T. Lynch Jr.

Mrs. Lynch explained that the club felt more people would participate in the project if it were held in late September or October, when all clubs are active and not so many people are out of town on vacations.

The carnival now being planned for early fall will include a midway of special interest to the children, as well as different kinds of booths, Mrs. Lynch said.

FACE YANKS 7 TIMES

Next Ten Days Can Make Or Break Chicago White Sox

By BEN PHLEGAR

The next 10 days can go a long way in deciding the American League pennant chances of the Chicago White Sox.

During that spell the Sox face the New York Yankees seven times, starting tonight at Comiskey Stadium. The Yanks trail first-place Cleveland by half a game. The White Sox are another four lengths back.

It's going to be a long hard road for Paul Richards' Go-Go Boys, but their four-game sweep over the Indians just before the All-Star break convinced a lot of fans the Sox still are a big threat.

The Yankees are the big stumbling block. In 12 meetings so far the White Sox have come out on the short end eight times. Against every other team, including Cleveland, Chicago holds a winning edge.

Sandwiched in between the home-and-home series with Chicago, the Yankees meet Cleveland in a three-game set in New York over the weekend.

It could turn out that the recently revived Boston Red Sox will hold the immediate key to the first-place scramble. While the White Sox are playing the Yankees, the Indians will be meeting Boston. And when Cleveland switches to New York, Chicago goes to Boston.

The Indians and Yanks both won yesterday. Chicago had the day off. Cleveland defeated Washington, 4-3. New York whipped Detroit, 8-0. Boston won a pair from Baltimore 9-7 and 8-5.

In the National League, Harry Perkowski of Cincinnati pitched a 12-inning, three-hit shutout over the league-leading New York Giants, winning 1-0 on Hobie Landrith's home run. Second-place Brooklyn also lost, 9-4 to Chicago. St. Louis beat Philadelphia 5-1 and Milwaukee defeated Pittsburgh 4-1.

The big thriller was in Cincinnati. Perkowski, a left-hander who had lost seven out of eight decisions this year, pitched brilliantly against the Giants. He walked five, struck out six, two of them in the 12th inning, and was in danger of being scored upon only in the seventh when Monte Irvin led off with a double against the scoreboard. Irvin, however, was picked off second. Whitey Lockman doubled with two out in the second. Al Dark beat out an infield single in the 11th.

Brooklyn put on one of its worst fielding performances of the season, committing five errors in losing to the Cubs for the first time in 10 games.

Peace and quiet reigned at Busch Stadium in St. Louis, scene of Sunday's riot, as the Cardinals whipped the Phillies. Rookie Brooks Lawrence scattered 10 hits in winning his fifth game since joining the Redbirds less than a month ago.

In Milwaukee, Jim Wilson continued to defy the jinx that's supposed to dog no-hit pitchers, as he won his seventh straight game. He limited the Pirates to three hits.

Allie Reynolds, back in action after a hip injury, stopped Detroit on three hits for his 10th in a row after losing his first decision. The Yankee attack included Willie Miranda's second major league home run and Mickey Mantle's 19th homer of the season.

Cleveland had to struggle against the Senators. Manager Al Lopez employed three pitchers to check a Washington threat in the ninth. Dale Mitchell's pinch single in the seventh drove in the winning run.

Home runs accounted for both Boston triumphs over Baltimore. In the first game veteran Mickey Owen climaxed a six-run rally in the ninth with a grand-slam drive. In the nightcap the Sox came from behind with five homers. Jackie Jensen hit a pair and Ted Williams, Milt Bolling and Jim Piersall hit one each.

Lamesa Again In American Legion Finals

FORT WORTH (AP)—The four American Legion baseball teams that competed in the state tournament last year—St. Thomas of Houston, Sunset of Dallas, Thomas Jefferson of San Antonio and Lamesa—again are seeking berths this season.

Lamesa is one step ahead of the other three. The West Texas club already has qualified for the area playoff and if it wins will compete in the state tournament here Aug. 5-8.

Lamesa, after dropping the opening divisional playoff game to El Paso 5-6, came back to win a doubleheader Sunday 8-1 and 6-0 to enter the area playoff.

Amarillo, which drew a bye in the divisional round, will oppose Lamesa in the area round. Amarillo is unbeaten in 16 games.

St. Thomas, defending state champion, opens its divisional playoff against Nederland in Nederland tonight. The Houston team has been beaten only once in 16 games. It eliminated Wharton 19-0 and 12-0 in the bi-district round.

Nederland qualified by defeating Galveston in a series, 2-7, 6-2 and 12-8.

Baxter Is Favorite In Junior Tourney

SAN ANTONIO (AP)—Amarillo's Rex Baxter Jr., fresh from a runner-up finish in the Trans-Mississippi, tees off as favorite today in the 28th annual Texas Junior golf tournament.

A field of 221 was scheduled for qualifying rounds today over Brackenridge Park course, trying for the state title and three berths available in the national meet.

Baxter won the national crown last year.

Match play will get under way Wednesday and run through Saturday's finals.

PONY PLAYOFFS ARE GETTING BIGGER NOW

The team which comes out winner of the district Pony League tournament here this week will really have its hands full.

After the Midland-Snyder district playoff here, bi-district comes up. This district champion will play the winner of a district west of here which includes leagues from Pampa, Plainview, and Childress in Texas and Roswell, Clovis, Tucumcari, Lovington, and Hobbs in New Mexico. This playoff must be held next week.

Following the bi-district tourney will be the regional meet, which will be Aug. 5-7 in Abilene. Five states, Texas, Oklahoma, New Mexico, Arkansas, and Louisiana, will be represented in this playoff. The winner of the regional tourney will go to the Pony League world series.

The local playoffs will be held at 8:15 o'clock each night on Thursday, Friday, and Saturday if the third night is needed for the two-out-of-three series. Shorty Lawson and Gus Steiner will be umpires. The local team, headed by Eddie Hight and Justin Corbell, beat Lubbock in sub-district finals, while Midland beat Big Spring.

Sun Takes Win In City League Play

Only two games remain on the schedule of the city baseball league before it goes into playoffs.

One of those games will be played tonight. This game, while it could change the league standings, cannot knock either of the teams playing out of the first division. Meeting at 8 o'clock tonight are Tri-Service, which is leading the league with an 8-1 record, and Magnolia, which is running second with 7-2.

Magnolia could, by beating Tri-Service, tie for first place. Tri-Service, by beating Magnolia, could put the Magnolia team no lower than its present second place.

The other game, one postponed from last week, will not be played until later. Time will be announced. Sunray and Hermleigh are opponents in that game. Tonight's match was originally scheduled for Friday night but was moved up because of Pony League playoffs late this week.

Last night, Sun downed the DeMolays 8-3 and moved out of a tie for third place to take it alone. Hermleigh was tied for the place.

The DeMolays got ahead 1-0 in the first inning when they got two on base by fielder's choice and followed with a single by J. Morris. Sun edged ahead 2-1 in the second on an error and two singles by Henry Pyle and Bobby Hicks. The team got one more run in the fourth when Pyle got on base by fielder's choice and stole the rest of the way home. In the top of the fifth, the DeMolays tied it up when they tallied two runs on a walk and singles by J. Morris and David Harlin. In the bottom of that inning, however, Sun burst loose with five runs, scored on two walks, an error, doubles by Hicks and J. W. Cooke, and a single by Pyle.

Sam Parrish started the game on the mound for Sun and went two innings. He allowed two hits, struck out none, and walked two. He was relieved by Don Ballard, who was winning hurler. Ballard fanned six, walked only one, and gave up five hits. The only extra base hit by the DeMolays was a triple by Max Coffee. Loser was Tommy Morris, who went the whole game to allow seven hits, fan 10, and walk two.

Suspensions Lifted From Four Aggies

COLLEGE STATION (AP) — Prospects for Coach Paul (Bear) Bryant's 1954 Texas A&M football team were considerably brighter today following news that suspensions have been removed from four of its players.

Suspensions were removed from 13 other students at the same time.

The four—halfback Billy Huddleston of Iraan, guard Ray Barrett from San Angelo, and tackle Norbert Ohlendorf and end Bill Schroeder, both from Lockhart—were among 17 Aggies suspended last spring for membership in the "Tonkawa Tribe," a secret society forbidden by A&M.

They were declared eligible for immediate re-admission yesterday.

Texas A&M officials said the decision was made after the discovery of conflicting Army and Air Force regulations which would have made some of the number eligible for the draft while others were being commissioned second lieutenants.

President David Morgan said he and other A&M officials felt the discrimination which resulted from the conflicting rules was unfair to the boys involved. And this led to the decision to re-admit them.

At least two—Huddleston and Ohlendorf—said they were eager to return.

Clovis Has Tie For First

By The Associated Press

The battle between Pampa and Clovis for the top spot in the West Texas-New Mexico League is keeping the race close.

Clovis, knocked out of first place last weekend, beat Pampa 13-8 Monday night to pull into a virtual tie for the league lead, just one percentage point back.

That left Abilene, beaten 15-3 by Albuquerque, just 4½ games off the pace and Plainview, 11-4 victor over Amarillo, another half game back. Amarillo is only nine games out and Albuquerque 9½.

Socky (short for Socrates) Red kept nine hits scattered as Albuquerque snapped a 4-game losing streak. New shortstop Gil Valentin homered, doubled and singled twice to pace the 18-hit Duke attack on Andy Alonso and Walt Novak.

At Pampa, Red Dial, with relief help from Jim Waugh, helped Clovis break its 4-game losing string. A combination of 19 Clovis hits and five Pampa errors made the Clovis victory easy despite the fact Dial was nicked for 11 of Pampa's 12 hits in the 5-plus innings he worked.

Women Meet Haskell In Softball Tonight

The Fikes & Grimmett women's softball team will play on the softball diamond at Towle Park tonight, meeting the Rousettes of Haskell.

The Snyder team now holds a 5-3 record. Two of its losses were to the team it is playing tonight, 9-6 and 8-5. Game time is 8 o'clock.

Battery for Snyder will be Ruby Medford, whose pitching record is 5-3, and Nita Burris.

Alabama Gets Bid

HOUSTON (AP)—The colorful University of Alabama basketball team which won the consolation championship of last year's Southwest Conference basketball tournament here has been invited back, this year, the SWC athletic staff announced yesterday.

TROPHY WINNER

Bernard Bartzen (left) of San Angelo, receives the championship trophy from James H. Bishop, president of the U.S. Lawn Tennis Assn., as Tony Trabert of Cincinnati looks on. Bartzen upset Trabert to win the National Clay Courts singles championship at the River Forest Tennis Club in Chicago Sunday, downing Trabert 6-2, 4-6, 6-0, 6-2.

Court Today In Stanky-Moore Spat

ST. LOUIS (AP) — National League President Warren Giles holds court here today on a free-for-all between the St. Louis Cardinals and Philadelphia Phillies Sunday in a game the umpires forfeited to the Phils.

Giles arrived in town yesterday from Cincinnati but quickly made himself unavailable for comment.

Giles suspended Cardinal Manager Eddie Stanky, catcher Sal Yvars and pitcher Ellis (Cot) Deal of the Birds and first baseman Earl Torgeson of the Phils pending the hearing. He took no action against Phil Manager Terry Moore, who also was involved in the rukus.

Coach Johnny Riddle directed the Cards as they defeated the Phils 5-1, last night in a game as quiet and orderly as the second game of the double-header Sunday was riotous.

Presumably the circumstances leading to the forfeiture of the game, as well as the fight, will be considered at the hearing.

Giles notified the Cardinals of his action in a telegram yesterday after Redbird General Manager Dick Meyer asked the league prexy to come here for an on-the-spot investigation.

To be on hand for the hearing, Giles said, are Managers Stanky and Moore, their coaches, not more than three other representatives of each club, Yvars, Deal and Torgeson and the umpires.

The brawl started after Torgeson objected to close pitches by Deal and then got into a fight with Yvars. The two managers, enemies since Stanky fired Moore as a Cardinal coach in 1952, and players from both teams poured onto the field.

Police broke up the free-for-all after about eight minutes. Shortly afterward, still in the fifth inning, Umpire Babe Pinelli forfeited the game to Philadelphia because of delaying tactics by the Cards.

Casualties from the fray were minor.

Play In Little Loop Tonight

The Holder Indians beat the Kiwanis Braves 4-2 and the Lions Cubs downed the Quarterback Giants 19-5 in Little League play last night.

With the win, the Indians remained in second place with a 6-2 record, while the Braves now have a mark of 3-6. The Cubs are running with a 2-7 record compared to the Giants' 2-6. Leading the league are the American Legion Yankees with 7-0, while the Rotary Cardinals have a 4-3 count.

Play will be held in the league tonight, with the Yanks vs. Indians and Giants vs. Cards.

San Angelo Man Is Called Good Netter But No Sensation

NEW YORK (AP)—The successive victories scored by Bernard Bartzen over our two fair-haired tennis stars, Vic Seixas and Tony Trabert, as he won the National Clay Courts Championship over the weekend are not to be taken too seriously in sizing up the summer's grass court campaign beginning this week at Philadelphia or the annual Davis Cup embroilment in Australia during the winter.

Bartzen is no meteoric newcomer who might sweep through the Eastern fixtures, including the National Championships at Forest Hills, and lead a triumphant invasion of Aussieland. The thin left-hander is just a very good tennis player who happens to be at his best on the slower clay surface. His victory at Chicago, while no doubt a happy one for him, does little to brighten this country's over-all tennis picture.

Trabert and Seixas, despite their indifferent showings at Wimbledon, remain the best we have in sight. No report has reached here of a single bright young prospect coming up this summer with any hope of blazing to the top, as they used to do. Even California seems to have run completely dry.

There is an outside chance of an important development in this week's Pennsylvania Championships. Some think that Ham Richardson, the intercollegiate king, might be ready to come into his own in this one and supplant Seixas as our No. 2 man. Both Seixas and Art Larsen are entered. But even if Ham should win it, our Davis Cup prospects would be very little improved, as the Australians have four or five players who are better than the Tulane senior. That is, they have been up to now.

Trabert, who must win two singles if we are to have a chance of bringing the big cup home next winter, is passing up the first grass court event this week in favor of the Colorado state tournament, on clay. So are Gardnar Mulloy and Billy Talbert. Sponsors of the Denver event must have sent out some seductive invitations.

It might be a mistake to dismiss Bartzen so lightly. The 26-year-old sporting goods salesman could have improved tremendously since last season. But there always is a tendency to accept victories scored on clay with a minimum of excitement and wait until the winner proves that he can hold his own against the "big" games on grass, where the national rankings are exclusively decided.

Former world's heavyweight champion Ezzard Charles had 42 fights as an amateur and won them all.

Majority Of German Citizens Honor Beck-Witzleben Circle

By TOM REEDY

BERLIN (AP)—Ten years ago today a Prussian nobleman, crippled by war wounds and disillusioned by Nazism, placed a briefcase against a pillar in Adolf Hitler's Rastenburg military headquarters.

Count Claus von Stauffenberg had worked hard to reach a position of confidence that made his "briefcase" visit possible.

No one noticed when he left the headquarters in East Prussia, that he had left anything behind.

As he reached the outer barriers of the tightly guarded area, a giant explosion rocked the building and the walls of the Hitler hideout belched smoke, dust and flame. The deadly bomb contained in the briefcase had gone off right on time.

But Hitler was only wounded in the left arm. He lived to compel Germany to struggle on another year with a war that already was lost.

Had the July 20 putsch succeeded a government headed by honorable anti-Nazi military men would have taken over Germany and sued for peace while the Allied nations were still outside its border. A million lives would have been spared and the Soviet Union might not now be planted solidly in central Europe.

Despite this, in Germany today there is still argument whether the men who planned and executed the attempted assassination were heroes or traitors. Aside from the physical danger involved in bucking the dictatorship, a moral principle was involved. All of them had at one time sworn the traditional military oath of fealty. In their secret councils they decided, however, that the Fuehrer had prostituted the oath by exacting it personally rather than directing it toward the interest of the fatherland.

The West German government has taken its stand definitely on the side of the band as patriots who thought of their nation first and their personal lives and liberty second.

But die-hard Nazis and sticklers for sworn oaths, regardless of the implications, still regard the attempted putsch as treasonable. History as it is being taught in the German schools does not pin down the decision either way. However, the textbooks cautiously point out that the 10 months of war that followed smashed the nation for many years to come.

The mainsprings of the plot were senior officers trained for years to know when a battle is won or lost. Top man was Col. Gen. Ludwig Beck, former chief of state. With him was Col. Gen. Fritz Oster, his boon companion. Adm. Wilhelm Canaris, head of Hitler's military secret service, was executive officer. Another high official connected with the group was Field Marshal Erwin von Witzelben.

Their plan had one gigantic flaw: no one was assigned to seize Radio Berlin. Propaganda Minister Joseph Goebbels capitalized on this weakness immediately. He quickly took to the air and told the German people the Fuehrer was alive and well and presented Hitler's voice in a recording. This turned the tide in a revolt that conceivably could have succeeded even without Hitler's immediate death.

Beck took the Prussian officer's traditional way out. His pistol beat approaching SS guards by a matter of hours. Three of his closest associates in the old Wehrmacht headquarters on Bendlerstrasse were hauled into the courtyard, lined up against a wall and summarily shot without trial.

The headquarters now is a refugee center. A bronze statue in the center honors the conspirators as men who fought for liberty.

SS squads in various parts of Germany mowed down several thousand suspects, again without trial.

The total had been estimated at slightly less than 5,000.

Witzleben, Leipzig Mayor Karl Goerdeler, Canaris and Oster were jailed. Hitler ordered a trial and put in charge the notorious "hangman" of the people's courts, Roland Freisler. There was no doubt about the trial's outcome.

Witzleben and five lesser figures in the plot were hanged in Ploetzensee prison as "examples." They were strung up with wire nooses on meathooks. Motion pictures were made to be shown to Hitler later. The Fuehrer chuckled with sadistic glee when he saw them.

Canaris and Oster were executed in Flossenburg concentration camp.

In most official circles today, the Beck-Witzleben group has a position of honor ranking with the current victims of Soviet Communist dictatorship. The Reds, planted firmly from the Elbe to the Oder, have done more to increase public sympathy toward the victims of the plot than anyone else. Those who can forget or minimize the oath of loyalty to Hitler, sworn by every German, think with some bitterness that the Russians might never have seen the soil of Deutschland had Stauffenberg's bomb succeeded.

Negro Leader's Home Ripped By Gun Blasts

SULPHUR SPRINGS, Tex. (AP)—Shotgun and pistol blasts have ripped through the home of the Sulphur Springs chairman of the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People.

The shooting occurred early yesterday morning or late Monday night while Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Ridge were away from home. Ridge has been active in demanding better school facilities for Negroes in the city.

Chief of Police Vaughn Deaton said the Ridges reported the shooting yesterday morning. "We have a description and license number of an out-of-town car that might have been involved, but we haven't been able to trace the owner yet," Deaton said.

Fighting Pays Off For Writing Couple

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Fighting between married people often ends in black eyes and divorce suits. But 22 years of almost continuous verbal warfare have made Albert Hackett and Frances Goodrich into one of Hollywood's most successful husband-and-wife marrying teams.

Their long wordy quarrel has resulted in several jointly written Broadway plays, 25 movie scripts, and an annual income in the high clear financial stratosphere somewhere above $50,000.

"But if we take time off to do a play, as we have this year, we sometimes don't earn a nickel," said Miss Goodrich.

Both started out as actors. They turned to writing during lean seasons. After their third play, "Up Pops the Devil," made the grade on Broadway, they went to Hollywood, married, and settled down with the M-G-M studio.

"We were in the doghouse for a long time," Miss Goodrich recalled. "It was easy to get lost out there then. The studio had 155 writers, and everybody was taking a fling at everybody else's script.

"Now they have only 30 writers, and they cast a writer almost as they do an actor for a part. They try to fit the writer to the kind of material he is best at."

Frances and "Hacky" hit paydirt first with "The Thin Man." Among other well known screenplays they fought out together are "Ah, Wilderness," "Father of the Bride," and their recently completed "Seven Brides for Seven Brothers."

For mutual safety many collaborating teams divide a script into acts, and the partners write alternate scenes. But the Hacketts believe fighting makes good writing. Each does the same scene, and then comes the nerve-wearing job of piecing them together.

"We fight, fight, fight—every line of the way," said Frances.

"—And rewrite, rewrite, rewrite," murmured Hackett.

"We used to have separate rooms, but now we write together in the same room, and that's better," continued his wife. "We're closer in the clinches. We don't have so far to walk to fight, do we, Hacky?"

"Um-m-m-m," murmured Hackett.

Plenty Evidence To Support The Charge

PETERSBURG, Va. (AP)—Police charged Noel B. Mills, a Ft. Lee soldier, with breaking and entering when they found:

1. Mills standing outside an animal hospital, minus his pants and boots.

2. The pants and boots inside the animal hospital.

Mills, facing a police court hearing today, told officers those were his pants and boots, all right, but that he couldn't remember going into the hospital.

Flanders Discovers He Has No Team For Fight On McCarthy

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP)—When he bats against Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis) in the Senate league, Sen. Flanders (R-Vt) needs a team and a scorecard. There's no sign he has a team. And he's learning the score the hard way.

He has swung twice and missed. There's a good chance he'll strike out.

Persistence may be all the two senators have in common. They've used it on each other. The 72-year-old Vermont Republican persists in trying to get the Senate to rebuke McCarthy some way, somehow.

McCarthy persistently ignores Flanders, paying no more attention to him than he'd pay to a gnat. He dismisses Flanders, his most outspoken Senate Critic, with the word "senile."

For months Flanders has been after McCarthy with Senate speeches and television statements that got headlines. For all their effect on the Senate it was like a batter warming up with popflies.

But Flanders apparently felt ready for the big try. He asked the Senate to vote McCarthy out of his committee chairmanships, which would be a shattering rebuke.

Flanders had stepped into one of the most sensitive areas of the Senate. All its members yearn to be committee chairmen, a job that comes to them not by brilliance or ability but by seniority: by sticking around long enough.

Senators, being politicians, have a heightened sense of survival. Once they started something like this in motion — taking a senator's chairmanship away — it might happen to them someday.

Besides, there were other considerations:

In this election year 37 of the 96 Senate seats are at stake. McCarthy has a host of friends, well-wishers and admirers who might make their anger at a vote against him felt at the polls in November.

That goes for Democrats and Republicans alike.

Behind closed doors a group of Senate Republicans who plan their party's strategy in the upper chamber — the Senate's Republican Policy Committee — decided to tell Flanders about the facts of politics.

They voted against his resolution, in effect killing it before it had a chance to be debated on the Senate floor. He couldn't fight McCarthy and his own party's policy committee too. He dropped his resolution in a hurry.

The fact that he did, and that the committee vote against him was unanimous, was pretty thorough evidence all Flanders had from the start was a pious hope. He had no team. He had been swinging in the dark.

That he had taken a stand against McCarthy may have been personally satisfying to Flanders. It certainly got him a lot of publicity. But batting against McCarthy single-handed has been a useless occupation.

Undaunted, Flanders stepped up to the plate again, took another swing, and missed again. This time he asked the Senate simply to pass a vote of censure against McCarthy. The vote was supposed to be taken today.

Late yesterday Flanders decided to postpone his request for a censure vote from today until July 30. This was one of the reasons he gave:

That the "Republican leadership" expressed concern that throwing the censure question into the Senate now might snarl up its efforts to get through with its regular work by the end of this month.

But since Flanders is now going to wait until the end of the month to ask for censure of McCarthy, a milder rebuke than taking his chairmanships away, it stands a good chance of being trampled to death in the Senate's last-minute rush to go home.

Famous Gold Rush Center All But Dead

DAWSON, Yukon (AP)—This once-famous gold rush center is now almost a ghost town, but its 500 residents are striving to keep the place alive by luring tourists.

The home in 1898 of 40,000 gold-hungry prospectors, dance hall girls and bartenders, it now is a collection of sagging, decaying buildings.

The old Floradora Dance Hall, Nugget Saloon and Royal Alexandra Hotel lean precariously as if ready to fall. Dozens of other famous old honky-tonks, hotels and amusement places have disappeared.

Deterioration started after the gold rush. Raw gold worth 200 million dollars was carried through Dawson streets, but when the creeks were panned out, the prosperous and the penniless trekked out together.

A second crushing blow came when the Alaska highway bypassed the town, establishing rival Whitehorse, 470 river miles south, as the territory's trading center. Finally, the federal government stripped the dying city of its status as capital of the territory and moved the administration to Whitehorse.

The big Yukon Consolidated Mining Co. is still employing crews who comb through the panned-out creeks with giant modern dredges and some old-time prospectors make a living by conducting guided tours of the ruins.

All steamboats coming down the Yukon River from Whitehorse this year will be greeted by quaintly costumed pioneers and their ladies. The Nugget Saloon, threadbare and torn, will rock again to the sound of big money gambling (with play money sold at the rate of $10,000 for a dollar) and hard drinking (of soft drinks at 25 cents a bottle.)

But the colorful days Robert Service wrote about in verse will never be seen again in Dawson.

Two Entries From Greece

LONG BEACH, Calif. (AP) — The Miss Universe committee today finds itself in a Hellenic predicament — two entries from Greece.

The unusual problem was created by the U.S. State Department.

Rika Dialina, who originally won the Miss Greece title in Athens, was refused a visa to this country for the international beauty contest. An artist, she had once drawn an illustration used in a Communist book. Her sponsors vouched for her patriotism, but the McCarran Act denies a visa to anyone who aids in the production of Communist literature.

That meant that runner-up Effi Ardoulakakis came here to represent her country.

But Secretary of State John Foster Dulles gallantly stepped in and cleared Miss Dialina for entry. She arrives in this country today.

One pageant official predicts that both girls will be allowed to compete.

"When the U.S. State Department puts you on such a spot," he asked, "what else can we do?" He believes that one will go into the finals as Miss Island of Crete.

Preliminaries of the Miss U.S.A. contest get under way today with four days of weeding out ahead of them.

The domestic winner will be crowned tomorrow night and then will go on to compete against the foreign entrants for the Miss Universe title Friday night.

Discuss Plans For A Supervising Group

NEW DELHI, India (AP)—Prime Minister Nehru and British Acting High Commissioner George H. Middleton today discussed composition of an international commission to supervise an Indochina cease-fire, an Indian government spokesman said.

The spokesman declined to say whether the subject of Indian membership on such a body was taken up. Sources at the Geneva conference reported yesterday that the French and the Communists had agreed to a supervisory commission made up of India, Canada and Poland.

Seek Motive For Slaying

DALLAS (AP)—Police today still sought a motive for the murder of a father and the attempted murder of his wife and daughter as they slept outdoors to escape searing Dallas heat.

A 22-year-old suspect was held but not charged immediately. He was picked up hours later from descriptions of his wife and daughter.

Killed was Durward G. Bursby, 36, a city bus driver. His wife Annie, 31, was shot twice in the chest.

The slayer attempted to shoot Patricia Ann, 11, but the pistol misfired twice.

The Bursbys had moved a mattress on to the back lawn Sunday night and Patricia Ann was sleeping on a pallet near her parents.

About 1:10 a.m., the girl was awakened by a man stooping over her. He seized her by the throat. Her screams awakened her father.

The slayer shot him twice in the chest. The mother then was shot twice and some bullets apparently went wild. The man attempted to shoot the girl, but fled when his pistol failed to fire.

Bursby's wallet, containing between 3 or 4 dollars, was missing. He had left it inside the house.

Everybody connected with the Miss Universe beauty contest insisted that a reported feud between two Pennsylvania contestants was inspired mostly by press agents, but the girls had only cool looks for each other when they met in a corridor in Los Angeles. They are Elaine DuFeen (left), who is Miss Philadelphia, and Helen Vidovich, entered as Miss Pennsylvania. Miss Pennsylvania also was unhappy about the official program which listed her measurements as 35-24-35. She insisted they are 36-24-36.

Father Refuses To Take Custody Of Son

BALTIMORE (AP) — Irvin J. Adams, 16, was brought before Magistrate Howard L. Aaron yesterday and charged with burglary of $6.50, a novelty machine and a clock-radio from a grocery store.

The magistrate offered to release the boy in the custody of his father. But the father, Thomas E. Adams, refused custody and said the boy belonged in jail.

"I can't handle him," Adams told the magistrate. "The only time I ever see him is on Friday night when he comes in for his allowance."

The youth then was sent to city jail when he could not furnish bail of $1,000.

Grandstand Burns As Repairs Being Made

COSHOCTON, Ohio (AP)—Coshocton County Fair officials were worried about their grandstand. It had been condemned as a fire hazard.

So they ordered a $7,000 repair job. The job was just about finished yesterday when some paint thinner exploded.

The 100-year-old structure burned to the ground, causing an estimated $50,000 damage.

Science Can Stop Long Dry Speeches

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP) — Cross a scientist with a practical joker and you get a way to knock the breath out of the long-winded speaker at a businessman's get-together.

Many a convention-goer won't believe it possible to stop a speaker once he's hit his stride.

But scientists of the Standard Oil Development Co. say they have found ways to make a convention sound businesslike, run along on schedule, and induce a minimum of sleeping sickness among the captive audience.

With the aid of electronic gadgets they see to it that a speaker at their twice-a-year meetings keeps to his allotted time.

If the speaker doesn't — lights flash on the rostrum panel before him; comic cartoons appear upon the projection screen behind him, bringing guffaws from the audience he thinks he is impressing; or clouds of smoke puff up in his face.

Emily Post might take a dim view of such practical jokes, might even call them juvenile.

But the scientists who have to listen to some 50 or more formal presentations during a four-day conclave think the end justifies the means.

They've worked out an elaborate, electrical control center to do the trick. The convention's secretary and an assistant operate it.

When the speaker still has two minutes left, a yellow light flashes on the rostrum. When his time is up, a red light blinks brightly in his eyes — and the rosy reflection lets his listeners also know that he's talking too long. The wise one will shut up and sit down.

The secretary who controls the gadgets can even pull a dirty trick on a speaker who proves too boring. He can cut off some of the speaker's time, if he appears to be wasting it.

This is done through souped-up electric clocks — one at the control center synchronized with the second on the speaker's reading stand. The secretary at the control board can regulate the frequency of the current to the rostrum clock, unknown to the speaker. The control man can use this setup to cut off up to 20 per cent of a speaker's time.

The souped-up clock and most of the electronic devices are designed and made by the employes of Standard Oil Development Co. — doubtless in self-defense.

Brevity, however, isn't the prime object of the meetings. Actually some 400 petroleum scientists and plant operations officials representing Jersey Standard Oil affiliates located in many countries gather for the serious purpose of comparing notes on research and techniques of practical application.

They read papers on "production of cyclohexane" and "hydrodesulfurization" and come to conclusions about the "conversion of residua."

In cases like that you need terminal facilities.

Grasshoppers Invade Farmland In Utah

ROOSEVELT, Utah (AP)—County commissioners met in emergency session yesterday to draft an appeal to Gov. J. Bracken Lee for help as hordes of grasshoppers devastated a 20,000-acre area in Duchesne and Uintah counties of eastern Utah.

Grasshoppers were reported "two to three inches deep" in some fields and eating everything in sight.
