The SDN Column

Snyder High School's Tiger Stadium will be the site of one of the better playoff football games Friday night. Slaton and Anson will play their bi-district, Class 2A game here, and it should attract a lot of interest over this area.

Geography plays an important role in determining where playoff games are scheduled, but there are other factors involved also. Usually, playing facilities and the hospitality of a town have something to do with it. Fortunately, Snyder has scored high marks in these two factors, and in this instance we are almost exactly half way between Slaton and Anson.

Our people almost landed another game for the same weekend, which would have been unusual for a town Snyder's size. Lubbock Estacado and Graham considered playing their Class AAA game here, but by the time they met to discuss it, Slaton and Anson already had been booked for Friday night, which is the date that Estacado and Graham preferred. The fact that all four of these schools were interested in playing here speaks well for the community and especially the representatives of the Chamber of Commerce committee that extended the invitations. Spokesmen for the community in the negotiations over the weekend were Milton Ham, the chairman of the Chamber's athletic committee, School Supt. Bill J. Hood and Chamber Manager Mickey Nunley.

They will be dealing with others as the playoffs continue.

The Southwest Conference apparently has pulled off the biggest football bowl deal ever achieved. With three teams still in the running for the conference crown, the SWC reportedly has negotiated pacts that will put all three of the remaining contending teams in bowl games. The conference winner, of course, will go to the Cotton Bowl. The other two are due to appear in the Astro Blubonnet Bowl and the Liberty Bowl.

This will be a valuable venture for the entire conference, since all member schools share in the post-season and the television revenues.

This will not set any record for Southwest Conference teams in bowl participation in a single year. There have been three SWC teams in major bowls in the past and one time two SWC teams played in the same bowl game the same year, but not against each other. Arkansas met Georgia Tech in the Gator Bowl on Jan. 1, 1960. That same year, the Gator Bowl people decided to get off the New Year's Day slate, and Baylor met Florida on Dec. 31, 1960. That same year, Texas played in two bowl games. The Longhorns met Syracuse on Jan. 1, and on Dec. 17 faced Alabama in the Bluebonnet Bowl, which also had moved away from the Jan. 1 logjam.

Rice also played in two bowl games during the same calendar year. The Owls met Ole Miss in the Sugar Bowl on Jan. 3, 1961 and the following Dec. 16 faced Kansas in the Bluebonnet Bowl.

Anyway, according to the reported deal this season, Texas, Texas A&M and Arkansas all be in major bowls after the regular season is finished, which means that the Southwest will be protecting its reputation as the "bowlingest" major conference in the country.

TV and bowl revenues are highly desirable these days, with many college athletic programs facing financial problems. But it just occurred to us this past weekend that the fans in the stands who pay the standard fee to see the games in person pay a penalty at these televised games, as they have to sit there from time-to-time with no activity on the field while the commercials are being run to pay the admission fees for those who remained home to watch on television.—WACIL McNAIR.

AS SECRETARY OF DEFENSE

Senate Confirms Rumsfeld

WASHINGTON (AP) — After only brief debate, the Senate today confirmed President Ford's nomination of Donald H. Rumsfeld as secretary of defense.

The vote was 95 to 2.

Sens. Jesse Helms, R-N.C., and Richard Stone, D-Fla., voted against the nomination. Both said they voted in protest of the "scenario" which brought Rumsfeld the nomination.

Rumsfeld was the only witness at hearings last week by the Senate Armed Services Committee, which then gave the nomination its unanimous approval.

Before becoming Ford's staff chief, the former Illinois congressman served the Richard M. Nixon and Ford administrations as U.S. ambassador to the North Atlantic Treaty Organization, director of the Office of Economic Opportunity, White House counselor and head of the now-defunct Cost of Living Council.

In two days of hearings on his nomination, Rumsfeld said that President Ford plans a close working relationship with his secretaries of state and defense "so any differences will be brought before him in a timely way."

He assured Congress he is "totally dedicated to a strong defense posture for the United States."

Rumsfeld refused to rule himself out as a possible Republican candidate for vice president next year but said, "I would no be seeking anything else" beyond the Pentagon post.

Helms cast what he called "a protest vote, not so much against Mr. Rumsfeld himself, but against the scenario which brought him to this nomination."

The only senator to speak against the nomination in the 30 minutes of debate that preceded the vote, Helms said the substitution of Rumsfeld for Schlesinger "as as unnecessary as it was harmful to our national defense posture."

Helms called Schlesinger "one of those rare men in public service, a man who combines genuine expertise in the area of policy formulation with the ability to translate those policies into effective action."

He said, without mentioning the secretary of state's name, that Ford should have fired Henry A. Kissinger instead of Schlesinger.

"The secretary of state has been a liability to this nation and there is no reason to believe that this state will change," said Helms, one of the Senate's most outspoken conservatives and a backer of Ronald Reagan for the 1976 GOP presidential nomination.

A spokesman for Stone said after the vote that the senator cast his vote in a similar protest against the way in which Rumsfeld came to be nominated.

United Way Campaign Nearly Over

With only a few more hours remaining in the 1975 campaign, the Scurry County United Way reported that eight of nine divisions had exceeded their respective goals.

The final report session is set for 10 a.m. Wednesday at the Snyder Savings and Loan Community room.

Campaign leaders Wilma Dillard and Bill Gilliland said they hoped that all United Way workers could be present for the last reports on the 1975 campaign. Coffee and doughnuts will be served. United Way officials also reminded that refreshments served at the report sessions are provided by campaign leaders and-or business firms interested in he United Way. No funds are used from the campaign, except for office expenses and actual campaign materials.

Although no over-all tabulations were made this morning, United Way leaders were hopeful that the goal would be surpassed at the final report session tomorrow. The latest divisions to exceed goals were the Oil and Industry Division, headed by Mairl McFaul and Bob Wilson, and the professional Division headed by Vera McSpadden, James Rosser and Russell Yorgesen. The Oil and Industry Division had attained 114 per cent of its goal and the Professional Division had accounted for 129 per cent of its goal.

TWO DIVISIONS OVER THE TOP—Leaders of two more United Way divisions reported that goals had been exceeded this morning as plans were made for a final report session Wednesday. From left are Russell Yorgesen and James Rosser of the Professional Division; Mairl McFaul of the Oil and Industry Division, Lou Voss, office secretary, and Ed Micak, United Way Vice President.

6 Nominated For Posts On Chamber Board Here

Snyder Chamber of Commerce Directors yesterday approved a nominating committee recommendation of six candidates for places on the Chamber board and received reports on several activities.

Nominees for posts on the Chamber's board of directors are H.W. Cargile, Bob Wilson, John H. Boren, Jerry McWilliams, Jack Cypert and Henry Clark. Wilson is now finishing out a term after being appointed to fill a vacancy last year and is nominated for a full term.

The new directors will serve two-year terms.

Directors whose terms expire at the end of the year in addition to Wilson are Tommy Deffebach, Milton Ham, Roy Kidd, Ernest Sears and Joe Williamson.

The Chamber board also voted to designate July 3-4-5 as days for celebrating Independence Day next year, which is the nation's Bicentennial year. Independence Day, July 4, falls on Sunday next year, and special observances with a religious theme are to be developed for that day. It will not be determined until later whether the major week-day celebration will take place on Saturday or Monday. However, the entire three-day weekend will emphasize Bicentennial activities.

Roy Kidd reported that plans are advancing for the American Junior Rodeo Association's big rodeo to be held here next August. This will be one of the biggest events of its kind ever to be held in this part of the country. Also, Chamber Manager Mickey Nunley said details are being worked out for an open Hereford Show here next fall. Nunley and other Chamber officials have been in contact with officials of the American Hereford Association concerning this project, and establishing of dates is the only thing remaining to get the show on the calendar.

Ernest Sears reported that the Anxiety 4th Hereford Breeders show and sale held here last month was regarded as a success and that the organization is interested in holding the event here again.

Nunley said the Chamber and Board of County Development would be involved in the boll weevil control program which Scurry County farmers have approved.

Milton Ham gave a report on Chamber Athletic Committee activities. The committee extended an invitation to Slaton and Anson to play their bi-district football game here Friday night, and the invitation was accepted. Ham said Snyder likely will be the site of additional playoff games as play toward state championship continues.

Nunley reported that the Chamber expects to move into its new office building north of the Post Office on Avenue R within a few days. An "open house" event has been scheduled for Dec. 3, with Delbert Downing in charge of arrangements.

Tommy Deffebach, treasurer, presented the financial report. Chamber President Joe Williamson presided over the luncheon session at the Blazen Saddles Restaurant.

College Accepts $25,000 Grant

Scurry County Junior College District Trustees last night formally accepted a $25,000 scholarship grant and approved the annual audit of college district funds.

The $25,000 grant came from the Carl B. and Florence E. King Foundation of Dallas and is designated to provide funds for scholarships in the field of petroleum technology. The grant itself is a permanent endowment, but its earnings are expected to yield two annual scholarships of $800 each.

Notice of approval of the grant was received from Carl L. Yeckel, managing director of the Carl B. and Florence E. King Foundation.

Buster Anderson, CPA, presented the annual audit of college district funds, which was unanimously approved by the board.

The board also accepted with regret the resignation of two persons. Arvel Hall, director of maintenance, resigned, effective Nov. 15, and Randy Mosley, assistant professor of electromechanical technology, resigned effective next Jan. 1. Hall has been with Western Texas College since the first construction project was launched on the campus, and Mosley joined the WTC faculty in its second year of operation.

The bid of Head Heating and Air Conditioning was accepted for providing heating equipment for the new WTC maintenance building. The bid of $1,428.20 was the lower of two received.

Gay Hickman, WTC business manager, was authorized to accept the lowest bid which met quality requirements on paper for copy machines at WTC. Hickman said he had asked for samples from the bidders so that the quality of materials they had bid could be checked on WTC machines.

Van Rigby, WTC Rodeo Team advisor, conferred with the board on the possibility of staging a college rodeo here either next spring or late summer. Board members indicated that they favored an indoor rodeo, provided arrangements could be made for use of the coliseum. Rigby said that a rodeo possibly could be held at the outset of the 1976-77 school year, or in late May and early April. The spring date would be an outdoor rodeo, since the coliseum would still be in use for school activities at that time. Rigby is to report further on the situation at a later meeting of the board.

Dr. Robert Clinton, WTC president, said two more telephone lines are being installed to serve WTC and telephones are being installed in faculty offices. He said there had been many complaints because the five lines now serving the college switchboard often are swamped. It is hoped that the two additional lines will provide some relief.

He said the addition of telephones in faculty offices is expected to make it easier for them to be reached by telephone. However, Dr. Clinton reminded that during the day, faculty members will be in their classrooms much of the time, and that callers will have to leave messages when they have important calls.

Hickman and Glenn Davis, financial aids officer, presented a detailed reported on student financial assistance programs and some recommendations for tightening regulations for assistance grants and loans. Davis said that student assistance funds channeled through WTC this year will total nearly three quarters of a million dollars, including the benefits paid to veterans of military service. The estimates for scholarships, loans, grants, etc., from all other sources this school year total nearly $275,000.

Eclipse Visible In East U.S.

WASHINGTON (AP) — A full eclipse of the moon should be visible today in most of the United States east of a line from Louisiana through Indiana, the Naval Observatory said.

The best view will be along the East Coast, and less and less of the eclipse will be visible at increasing distances to the west, said astronomer Myron Miranian.

Totality — complete blackout of the moon — is forecast for 4:49 p.m. EST in the Washington, D.C., area and is to last 42 minutes.

The earth's shadow will give the moon a reddish glow, "a dark red and very unusual sight," said Miranian.

"It should give folks in the rush hour traffic quiet a start if they don't know it's coming," he added.

The National Weather Service predicted generally clear skies for much of the eastern United States.

Panel To Delete Official's Name

By DONALD M. ROTHBERG
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — In an abrupt change in position, the Senate intelligence committee agreed today to delete from its final report the name of a former CIA official identified as a central figure in a plot to kill foreign leaders.

The shift in the committee's position was announced in a one-paragraph statement issued at the U.S. Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia.

Meanwhile, the committee began two days of public hearings into what its investigators call 50 years of "massive surveillance of law-abiding American citizens" by the FBI.

Attorneys for the former CIA official argued Monday in U.S. District Court that publication of his name would place his life in danger. Judge Gerhard Gesell agreed, but rejected their request for a temporary restraining order saying that "the public interest greatly outweighs any private interest of the individual."

The attorneys for the former CIA official immediately appealed Gesell's decision.

The appeals court had scheduled a hearing for 10 a.m. but abruptly canceled it.

Attorneys for both the anonymous former official and the committee met in the office of Court Clerk Hugh E. Kline and then issued the following statement:

"Counsel for appellant has been advised that the Senate select committee has voluntarily and unilaterally reconsidered its action concerning Anonymous. Based upon such representation of the committee's chief counsel, the application on behalf of Anonymous is now moot. The appeal is therefore dismissed."

The statement was headed: "Anonymous, appellant v. Thomas McCormick, public printer, Government Printing Office, et al."

Government printers were awaiting resolution of the matter so they could begin work on the report, scheduled for release Thursday following a secret Senate session.

Carrillo Trial Again Postponed

AUSTIN (AP) — The Senate voted 16-10 today for another postponement of the impeachment trial of South Texas District Court Judge O.P. Carrillo.

Senators met for only 28 minutes before deciding to come back Jan. 5.

Sen. Peyton McKnight, D-Tyler, who made the postponement motion, argued that a special master for the Judicial Qualifications Commission has taken two weeks of testimony in the case and it would be "improper" for two proceedings against Carrillo to be under way at the same time.

Both sides announced they were ready to proceed with the trial, but Carrillo's lawyer, Arthur Mitchell, said he and his client had to be in Corpus Christi next Monday for a ruling in federal court on Carrillo's motion for a new trial in his conviction on income tax charges.

Sen. Tom Creighton, D-Mineral Wells, opposed the postponement. He said it made no difference what the commission did because the Senate under law would have to conclude the impeachment trial sooner or later.

ENDS SEVEN-YEAR EXILE

Cleaver Returns To US Confident Of Fair Trial

By JOHN VINOCUR
Associated Press Writer

PARIS (AP) — Finished with his life on the run, Eldridge Cleaver headed back to the United States today, expressing confidence that what he considers a change in the mood of America will assure him a fair trial.

Cleaver's flight from Charles de Gaulle Airport took off three hours and 40 minutes late after an Air France Caravelle skidded across a runway and blocked take offs. Cleaver is due to arrive at Kennedy International Airport in New York at 5:35 p.m. EST.

The former Black Panther leader kissed his wife goodby and boarded the jetliner accompanied by three FBI agents.

Cleaver was unnoticed in the crowd of American tourists.

He was flying to New York after seven years of exile, with charges of parole violation and a grand jury indictment awaiting him. As a fugitive, Cleaver is subject to arrest on arrival in the United States. He faces California charges of assault with intent to murder.

"I feel completely relaxed," he said. "It's all happening very naturally. Somebody must know I'm coming in the States — I got a telegram this morning from a guy who said, 'Stay away from my house.'"

Cleaver was smiling, but his wife, Kathleen, was more serious. She said: "Eldridge wanted to go back without going to prison. He sees that's not going to happen. He made up his mind that he'll go to prison. He feels that the situation in which he is returning is one in which he'll be clearly understood."

Cleaver, who is 39, said he sent his children back to America on Saturday and his wife would follow him later.

He said his decision to return grew from his conclusion that the end of the Vietnam war, an improvement in the lot of the black man and increased political skepticism in the aftermath of Watergate has created a "really fantastic" climate in America.

"I think we're in a creative period of democracy in the United States," he said. "Recognizing that and thinking that, naturally my ideas have undergone changes."

Cleaver told newsmen Monday that he knew he faced possible arrest in the United States but, "I don't feel like a condemned man being led to prison or to slaughter."

Laughing easily, Cleaver said, "I've got a lot of friends in prison and I think I'll run into them around the circuit."

Then, looking grave, he asserted that prison did not terrify him, and that he believes he "can receive a fair and objective determination of my case in court. Therefore I am returning to have my day in court."

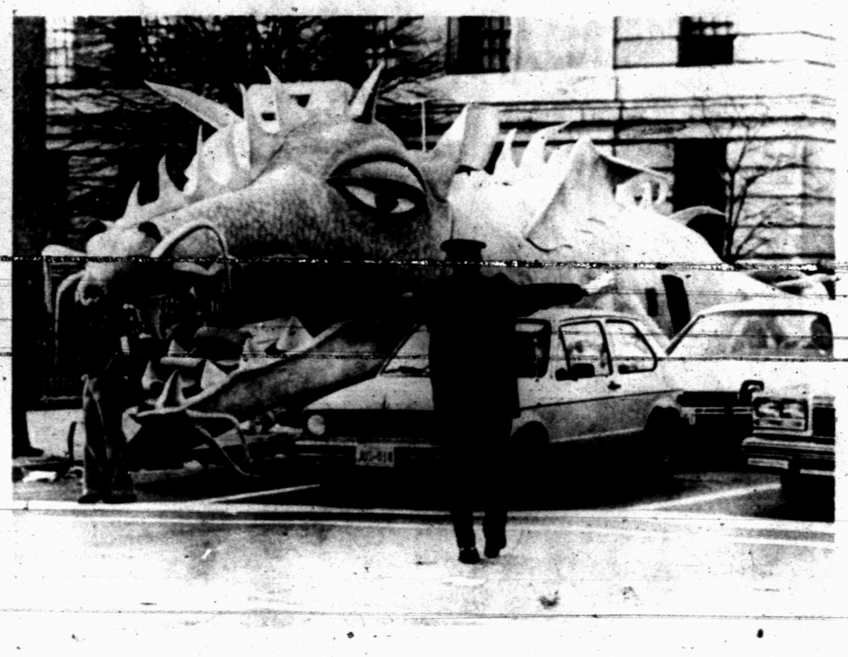

Cleaver said he ran away in 1968 to Cuba, Algeria and France because he feared being "neutralized like Soledad brother George Jackson," the black leader killed in a purported prison break in California.

Cleaver said his lawyers had been in touch with federal and California law enforcement officials, but "there are no deals.

"If I was terrified, I wouldn't be doing this," he continued. "There is nothing compelling me to do this other than a desire to turn a page in this life ...

"Exile is a process of de-politicization and destruction. It's like taking a fish out of water. What does a fish do? He flops around.

"I felt like a fish out of water ever since leaving the water, that is the United States."

Judge Asked To Drop Charges On "Squeaky"

By STEVE LAWRENCE
Associated Press Writer

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP) — Lynette Fromme's attorney has asked that charges against her be dropped because prosecutors withheld evidence he says could prove she did not try to kill President Ford.

Attorney John Virga accused the U.S. attorney's office Monday of "willful suppression of evidence" and said U.S. District Court Judge Thomas MacBride must at least declare a mistrial if he refuses to drop charges. The issue is a statement one witness made to police that Miss Fromme declared, "it wasn't loaded anyway."

"They were actually in contempt of court," Virga said of U.S. Atty. Dwayne Keyes and his assistant, Donald Heller. "They were ordered to give this information to me and they didn't."

MacBride recessed the trial until Wednesday to give Virga time to interview witnesses. He said he would rule on the dismissal motion then.

Virga said he should have been given a copy of statements by James Damir at the start of the trial instead of last Friday when the prosecution rested its case.

Damir, a Sacramento college student, was in Capitol Park on Sept. 5, the day the 27-year-old follower of convicted mass murderer Charles Manson allegedly tried to shoot Ford as he walked from his hotel to the state Capitol.

Secret Service agents say they took a .45-caliber pistol away from Miss Fromme after she pointed it at Ford. A police officer says Damir later told him that he heard Miss Fromme say, "It wasn't loaded anyway," as she was being subdued.

Virga said Damir's statement constitutes exculpatory evidence — meaning it tends to prove innocence — and under a MacBride ruling should have been given to him before the prosecution began its case.

Damir testified before the grand jury that indicted Miss Fromme, but was not called as a prosecution witness during the trial.

Heller denied that he had wilfully withheld critical evidence, noting that Damir had told him he wasn't sure if Miss Fromme had made the statement.

He said Damir had told the FBI that Miss Fromme had said: "It didn't go off. What are you worried about?"

But Heller agreed when questioned by MacBride that he would have wanted to have Damir's police statement if he was the defense attorney.

Police say Miss Fromme's gun contained a magazine with four live rounds. But a cartridge had not been cocked into the chamber so the weapon could not have been fired.

Keyes and Heller are trying to prove that Miss Fromme thought the gun could be fired and had pulled the trigger. They produced witnesses who said they heard a click that sounded like the pistol's hammer striking the firing pin.

Virga contended that Keyes and Heller had tried to mold Damir's testimony by not showing him the statement he had made to police.

He said he should have had a chance to question Damir at the outset "while the events were still fresh in his mind and before the prosecution had a chance to turn him every way but loose.

"Now I may not be able to use the most effective witness in this case," Virga said.

Perot Denies Role In Approved Amendment

By CARL C. CRAFT
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — H. Ross Perot denies he had anything to do with an amendment approved by the House Ways and Means Committee that reportedly would give the Texas businessman a $15-million tax refund. The amendment was passed after he contributed more than $27,000 to some members of the panel.

Perot also has offered to be excluded from any benefits conferred by the amendment, which he termed "sound legislation."

In a letter released Monday, Perot decried "that I, and not the merits of the amendment, have become the central issue" in a controversy following a Wall Street Journal article on Nov. 7 that described how Perot would benefit if the amendment became law.

That article reported that former Internal Revenue Service Commissioner Sheldon S. Cohen "confirmed that he drafted such an amendment on Mr. Perot's behalf and said it 'apparently was used' as the basis" for the committee amendment.

The amendment, adopted Nov. 4, was introduced by Rep. Phil Landrum, D-Ga. It would allow persons with at least $30,000 of capital losses in a year to take a three-year carryback of losses, lowering taxes owed for those years. It would be retroactive, starting with 1974.

The Wall Street Journal said Perot would gain $15 million in "what may be the most gigantic tax break in history for one person."

The panel adopted the Landrum amendment 20 to 14 as part of a tax-cut bill not expected to reach the floor until next month.

The Journal said Perot gave $1,000 to Landrum's election campaign in October 1974, and $27,400 to 12 others on the 37-person committee.

Perot's statements were contained in a letter dated Nov. 14 to Rep. Al Ullman, D-Ore., chairman of Ways and Means.

"Recent press reports have incorrectly labeled this legislation the 'Perot amendment,' stating that the proposal was created for my benefit," Perot wrote Ullman.

"No one representing my interests created this amendment on my behalf. I understand that this amendment was drafted and introduced as part of a proposed tax reform bill several years ago. I knew neither the author nor anything about the origin of this amendment."

He continued: "The Ways and Means Committee members who voted for this amendment had no way of knowing of my interest. I sincerely regret that these fine men have been subjected to unjustified criticism."

Mrs. Ford Back In Show Biz

WASHINGTON (AP) — Betty Ford, a one-time dancer, is back in show biz.

President Ford's wife made her debut as a television actress Monday as CBS shot a segment of the "Mary Tyler Moore Show" in which Mrs. Ford makes a two-minute appearance playing herself.

Asked if she was nervous as she arrived at the hotel where the show was filmed, Mrs. Ford shuddered emphatically and stammered, "n-n-no," then added: "I'm a ham at heart."

Mrs. Ford will be paid minimum union scale, $172.50, for her work, said her press secretary, Sheila Rabb Weidenfeld. She had to sign a Screen Actors Guild waiver restricting her to one performance.

A co-producer of the show, Ed Weinberger, said he first attempted to get the President. But CBS lawyers objected, citing the equal-time rule that requires political candidates to receive equal television exposure. They may have foreseen the necessity of guest appearances by Ronald Reagan, Morris K. Udall, Eugene McCarthy and the numerous other presidential candidates.

So Mrs. Ford was called upon and accepted.

The plot:

When Mary's boss, Lou Grant, was a Washington reporter for The Detroit Free Press, he got to know a new member of the House named Jerry Ford.

Dash Not Sure About Tape Gap

NEW YORK (AP) — Samuel Dash, who was chief counsel to the Senate Watergate Committee, says he believes President Nixon must have ordered a White House tape recording erased because it disproved his version of when he learned about the break-in.

Postal 'Steps' Challenged

WASHINGTON (AP) — The financially pressed Postal Service is taking steps to hold down its labor costs, but postal employes are challenging some of the measures.

Postmaster General Benjamin F. Bailar said in an interview Monday he has ordered these steps:

—Involuntary transfers of employes whenever any postal facility has a surplus of workers in any craft.

—A curtailment of recruitment of new supervisory employes from private industry.

—Reduced use of overtime.

—Elimination of automatic cost-of-living raises for some supervisory personnel.

The Postal Service, which is losing close to $7 million per day, says about 85 per cent of its costs are labor-related.

"Our financial situation is pretty grim. And if we're going to ask the public to pay higher postal rates and if we're going to ask Congress to consider increasing our subsidy, then we should be making some economies on our own," Bailar said.

The National Association of Postal Supervisors and the two postmasters' associations have announced plans to challenge in court the elimination of automatic cost-of-living raises.

In addition, the National Association of Letter Carriers is blocking implementation of a previously announced economy measure known as the Kokomo plan. This plan would redistribute mail delivery routes to insure that all letter carriers have a full day's work.

Arbitration on the Kokomo plan begins Wednesday and Bailar said if the Postal Serice wins on the issue the controversial new work rules would go into effect early next year.

Bailar said postal unions have agreed to the policy of involuntary reassignments, although they have insisted that agreed-upon procedures be followed in making the transfers.

Nixon Speaks Out In Interview

NEW YORK (AP) — Former President Richard M. Nixon says American lives may have to be threatened by war to rekindle Americans' belief in the United States and in the country's need for strength.

In his most extensive remarks since he was forced from office by the Watergate scandal, Nixon told the Ladies Home Journal, "We are so cynical, so disbelieving — it may take the shock of an invasion in Korea or in Thailand. If American lives are threatened, we may regain our sense of belief in our country and our need for strength."

Businessman-author William M. Fine conducted the unpaid, copyrighted interview for the Journal in May at Nixon's home in San Clemente, Calif.

Nixon had begun the interview by asking Fine, "How is the world in general, and what do they think of me lately?"

And at another point the former President said, "Yes, I know all the things that were and are still being said about me. Do you think the mood of the people is changing?" The article included no remarks about the Watergate scandal.

Nixon noted the potential peril in a dispirited America: "We are a compromised country at the moment. The Communist countries don't need any troops or military acts right now.

"They can just keep adding pressure points and take strategic advantage in the Far East and Middle East. Japan will be questioning its position regularly. We gave the Philippines their independence too soon, I fear."

". . . Anyhow, if the church and the media and business and educators all allow the undermining of our strength and values, we will keep drifting that way — and our allies in the Far East won't put any belief in our commitments. I worry most about Japan."

To counter what he sees as a loss of pride, Nixon said, "I think I would ask five or six of the best brains around me to go off on a retreat for several weeks and ponder some things — how we could make our people feel more pride, not be so concerned with Arab wealth.

"What's wrong with being the second wealthiest country for a while? We as a country have to provide strength and leadership."

Dr. Lamb

Opinions differ on kidney stones

By Lawrence E. Lamb, M.D.

DEAR DR. LAMB—A couple of years ago I had a kidney stone removed. The analysis showed it to be calcium oxalate. The surgeon told me to avoid all tea, chocolate and greens. Recently a neighbor had the same type of stone removed. His doctor told him to avoid all dairy products, chocolate and greens.

Why did the doctors differ on the dairy products and tea? I love tea and consume a large amount of milk. Now I am worried about the milk I drink. I can't understand why he can drink tea and I can't. He can't have milk and I can, yet our analysis was exactly the same. Please answer soon as neither one of us wants to undergo surgery again.

DEAR READER—The differences in recommendations probably represent the degree of confusion that exists, even among doctors, on what is the best treatment to prevent kidney stones. There is not enough known about diet and formation of kidney stones to be very positive about what is the best treatment.

There are some rules you can follow. First about milk. There is no evidence that avoiding milk or milk products will prevent the formation of kidney stones. It used to be restricted because of its calcium content, and many kidney stones contain a calcium salt, as in your case.

The exception to this statement is the treatment of a person who has a stone or stones formed along with or as a result of an infection in the kidney. These patients are asked to avoid all milk products. So, even if you and your neighbor had the same kind of stone, what caused it may be more important in preventive treatment.

Now about tea. Tea, beer, cola drinks and fruit juices are fairly high in soluble oxalate. At the present state of our meager knowledge, it is a good idea to avoid these if you form oxalate stones. Certainly no more than a pint a day of these drinks should be used.

Oxalate is in vegetables, particularly greens, but it is rather insoluble in these foods and will not be absorbed in important quantities from the digestive system. If it is not absorbed it can't get into the blood or arrive in the kidney to form stones. So, you don't need to be overly restrictive on these foods as you do with the beverages listed here.

There is a lot more to forming kidney stones than diet. A concentrated urine specimen is loaded with chemical salts that can easily form crystals. These may form around old cells or protein within the kidney and start the stone formation. The crystals won't form as long as the urine contains enough "water softeners" or special chemicals that prevent this. Infection predisposes to stone formation.

Regardless of other dietary measures you can do a lot for yourself by maintaining a dilute urine. How do you do that? Drink plenty of water regularly and just before going to bed. That usually means at least four quarts of liquid a day spread over the day to keep the urine always dilute. If you sweat or are hot and lose water that way, increase your water intake to provide a regular flow of dilute urine.

I want to add here that oxalate stone formers should not use lots of vitamin C. It is readily absorbed, and the excess is converted to oxalate which makes matters worse. Old vitamin C tablets may already contain a high percentage of oxalate.

'Jesus Jeans' Ad Protested

NEW YORK (AP) — Two billboards, displaying a woman's posterior clad in tight-fitting shorts and branded with the Biblical inscription, "He who loves me, follows me," are part of an ad campaign that has drawn denunciations from the Vatican, prompted debate in the British Parliament and attracted hundreds of protest letters and calls.

The advertising on Manhattan's East Side is for Italian slacks called "Jesus Jeans."

"The concept is wholly offensive," said the Rev. Kenneth Jadoff of the Roman Catholic archdiocese of New York. "They are making money off someone Christians all over the world hold sacred" with a merchandising campaign that is "less than tasteful."

Hundreds of protest letters and calls have resulted in promises to dismantle one billboard. Bloomingdale's department store says it has canceled its spring order of the jeans, and other retailers are being requested to do the same.

"We don't want any publicity," said George W. Newman, the chairman of Allied Outdoor Advertising Inc., who put up the billboard at 54th Street and Third Avenue. "We're going to take the sign down. It was one of those things that slipped by us."

Barry Carson, national sales manager for Compact Apparel Inc., which sells the jeans for the manufacturer, Maglificio and Calzificio Torinese of Turin said the ad campaign was the brainchild of the Italian manufacturer.

According to the apparel company, Vatican denunciations of the campaign in Italy and a question raised about it in the British Parliament had brought no change in the company policy.

The jeans sell for $30 to $40 in sizes to fit men and women, in denim, cotton and wool.

Opening lead — 4 ♠

By Oswald & James Jacoby

When should you make a passive lead in order to sit back and wait for tricks to come in?

The answer is, "very infrequently". The man who sits back and waits is very likely to still be waiting after his opponents have fulfilled their contract.

There is one classic exception. When your opponents have reached a slam and it does not appear that they have any long suit to work with. In this instance it is up to you to make the lead that is least likely to help them.

West holds three jacks. Not much in the way of defense against a slam, but his partner may have some cards and it is up to West to find the lead that is least likely to help declarer. That safest possible lead is a spade. If West makes this lead, declarer will struggle along. As long as the defenders take care, declarer will only collect 11 tricks.

A lead of either red suit will give him a 12th. A club lead won't help him, but there is no reason for West to do any guessing.

Rebekah, Odd Fellows Host Meeting Here

The local Rebekah and Odd Fellow Lodges were hosts Saturday to members, their families and friends from throughout the area for a Fellowship Meeting. A covered dish supper was served to more than one hundred fifty persons representing 13 different lodges.

A delightful program was given which included a report and slides of the Children's Home at Corsicana presented by P.W. McClendon, Grand Secretary of the Grand Lodge of Texas; a skit, "The Womanless Wedding" made up of a cast of members of the Big Spring Lodges as well as local talent; and a magic act by Bruce the Magician of Big Lake. Also, throughout the evening musical entertainment was furnished by a string band, Smokey Burgess and his Ramblers, members of the Mullin Lodge of Big Spring.

Out-of-town guests, in addition to the Grand Secretary, P.W. McClendon and his wife, Gladys, were: Deputy Grand Master of the Grand Lodge, H.O. Trent and his wife Ava, the Junior Past Grand Master H.K. McEntyre and his wife Connie; Special Deputy Mosely Laws of Odessa, as well as representatives from Lodges in Dallas, Coriscana, Denver City, Big Spring, Midland, Odessa and Snyder.

Drawings were held for the many door prizes given by Snyder merchants, in addition to the shot gun given by the local Odd Fellows. The lucky ticket holder for the gun was held by Justin Jones of Ira.

The Snyder Odd Fellows expressed appreciation to the Rebekah members and to all the people who helped make the affair a success.

Fewer Premature Babies With Home Deliveries

By C.G. McDANIEL
AP Science Writer

CHICAGO (AP) — Mothers whose babies are delivered at home by midwives have fewer complications and healthier babies than those who go to the hospital, a California study shows.

The study, reported today in a paper prepared for the annual meeting of the American Public Health Association, was done by a health research team from Stanford University and the University of California at Santa Cruz. The team studied 287 home births performed by midwives from the Santa Cruz Birth Center from 1971 to 1973.

Of these, 231 "had completely unremarkable births at home," the researchers reported. For those complications that did occur, the researchers said, the rate was lower than that for the population as a whole.

It concluded that mothers who were not anesthetized and not drugged had lower risks than the general population and that natural childbirth at home with the assistance of midwives did not increase risks.

There also were fewer premature babies born to these mothers and the incidence of pregnancy toxemia — poisoning — was lower.

The researchers attributed "the excellent results of this population" to the lack of pain killers and anesthesia in the women, to their preparedness for childbirth, to the avoidance of the lying-flat position during labor and to the lack of stresses usually present in hospitals.

The team consisted of Dr. Lewis E. Mehl and Gail Peterson, now of the University of Wisconsin, Madison, and Drs. Nancy Shaw and Don C. Creevy.

The researchers noted that there appears to have been a great increase in home births over the past decade. Similar studies of home births have shown similar excellent results in Chicago, Appalachia and the Netherlands, they said.

Soviet Pianist Is Politically Free

WASHINGTON (AP) — Soviet pianist Vladimir Viardo says he is his own artistic self without official guidance on his fourth United States tour.

"I do not know the word guidance," Viardo told newsmen on Friday. "I am politically free, I play what I want, I feel no pressure."

Friday was Viardo's 26th birthday. The Washington Performing Arts Society gave him a huge birthday cake.

Celebrations Of Thanksgiving Vary

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Not everybody celebrates Thanksgiving Day on the fourth Thursday in November. In Canada it's observed on the second Monday in October, according to Hallmark Cards' researcher Sally Hopkins. And in southeastern Pennsylvania, members of the Schwenkfelder religious sect celebrate Thanksgiving Day on Sept. 24, as they have since 1734.

The Schwenkfelders, whose ancestors fled religious persecution in Germany to settle in the Pennsylvania Dutch country, traditionally commemorate the day with bread, water and apple butter.

Bedoya Named To Embassy Post

VERNON, Conn. (AP) — School officials say Carroll Spinney, who plays Big Bird on the Sesame Street television program, stormed out of a school and cancelled three scheduled performances.

Principal David Engelson said Spinney, invited by a parent-teachers group to perform at three elementary schools Monday, arrived 70 minutes late at the first school and said he had been lost in Vernon.

Engelson said when he suggested Spinney skip the first show to be on time for the second, Spinney responded: "The hell with all of you."

Then, the principal said, the performer "ran out so fast ..." Officials said he did not show up for the other two shows.

Sparkling fruit cocktail turned into ice cube trays and frozen makes a colorful cooler for punches and tall drinks.

Spinney Cancels Performances

LIMA, Peru (AP) — Carlos Garcia Bedoya, secretary general of Peru's Foreign Office, has been appointed ambassador to Washington by the military government.

Garcia Bedoya will leave for his new post in late December, the government said Monday. He will succeed Rear Adm. Jose Arce, who resigned last August after a coup ousted Gen. Juan Velasco and replaced him with Gen. Francisco Morales Bermudez as chief executive.

Nebraska Turns Down Fiesta Bid

Nebraska, one of the nation's top college football powers, is laying it on the line with an "either-or" policy — and as a result, it may not participate in a bowl game for the first time in seven years.

The unbeaten Cornhuskers, currently ranked second in the nation, voted twice Monday to reject a Fiesta Bowl invitation and either accept a bid to the Orange Bowl or none at all.

That situation developed after Coach Bear Bryant of Alabama surfaced to deny his team was ducking anybody, as charged by the coaches of Nebraska and Oklahoma. But Bryant admitted he hand-picked Penn State to face his team in the Sugar Bowl game.

The flurry of activity two days after the opening of bowl invitations left only one berth definitely open among the 11 major bowls — and possibly two, if Oklahoma beats Nebraska Saturday in the showdown for the Big Eight title and the Orange Bowl berth awaiting the winner.

Oklahoma, ranked sixth, has agreed to face the Western Athletic Conference champion — either Arizona State or Arizona — in the Fiesta Bowl, but Nebraska declined to join in the agreement.

"It's just that all the players want to put all their eggs in one basket, and that's defeating Oklahoma," said Coach Tom Osborne of Nebraska, which twice has used bowl victories to nail down national championships in The Associated Press poll.

The definite vacancy is in the Tangerine Bowl, where six teams reportedly are still under consideration to provide the opposition for Miami of Ohio. Another spot was filled Monday when West Virginia accepted a bid to the Peach Bowl.

The bowl line-up looks like this:

—Rose Bowl, Jan. 1: Big Ten champion (Ohio State or Michigan) vs. Pacific-8 champion (UCLA, California or Stanford).

—Orange Bowl, Jan. 1: Nebraska-Oklahoma winner vs. Ohio State-Michigan loser.

—Cotton Bowl, Jan. 1: Southwest Conference champion (Texas A&M, Texas or Arkansas) vs. Georgia.

—Sugar Bowl, Dec. 31: Alabama vs. Penn State.

—Gator Bowl, Dec. 29: Florida vs. Maryland.

—Fiesta Bowl, Dec. 26: Arizona State or Arizona vs. Oklahoma, or team to be determined if Oklahoma earns Orange Bowl berth.

—Astro-Bluebonnet Bowl, Dec. 27: Colorado vs. Texas A&M or Texas.

—Liberty Bowl, Dec. 22: Southern California vs. Arkansas or Texas A&M.

—Sun Bowl, Dec. 26: Pitt vs. Kansas-Missouri winner.

—Peach Bowl, Dec. 31: North Carolina State vs. West Virginia.

—Tangerine Bowl, Dec. 20 — Miami of Ohio vs. opponent to be selected.

Both Osborne and Coach Barry Switzer of Oklahoma have criticized Bryant, charging he was bypassing their teams in favor of 11th-ranked Penn State. The Sugar Bowl, however, denied Bryant had applied pressure to bypass the Big Eight powers.

Oilers Plan For Steelers

HOUSTON (AP) — Houston Oiler Coach O. A. "Bum" Phillips says he hopes to keep his defensive backs in their zones better next Monday night when the Oilers meet the Pittsburgh Steelers in the Astrodome.

"We left the receivers alone on a couple of pass plays in the game at Pittsburgh," Phillips said, referring to the Steeler's 24-17 victory two weeks ago.

"We'll try to stay in our zones a little better and make (Terry) Bradshaw run for the first down," Phillips said. "And he might do that too. He's a good quarterback."

Bradshaw had one of his best games as a pro when the defending Super Bowl champions beat the Oilers in Pittsburgh, dropping the Oilers into second place in the American Football Conference's Central Division race.

Houston is 7-2 after a heart-stopping 20-19 victory over Miami Sunday. The Steelers blasted Kansas City 28-3.

"Miami is the kind of team you get a little extra pleasure out of beating because they are one of the best," Phillips said. "They've been to the playoffs and they've been to the Super Bowl."

THE BIG PLAY—A jumping Mel Gray of the St. Louis Cardinals appears to have the ball in his hands while being hit by Pat Fischer on a controversial touchdown pass that sent Sunday's NFL game between St. Louis and Washington into overtime. Officials ruled it was a touchdown despite the football popping away when Gray came down across the goalline. St. Louis went on to win 20-17. (AP Wirephoto)

Ohio State Still Reigns As No. 1

By HERSCHEL NISSENSON
AP Sports Writer

Ohio State, Nebraska, Texas A&M, Michigan and Alabama held onto the top five spots in The Associated Press college football poll today while Texas moved up to sixth place ahead of defending national champion Oklahoma and Notre Dame and Southern California dropped completely out of the Top Twenty.

With two weeks left in the regular season, Ohio State received 46 first-place votes and 1,136 of a possible 1,160 points from a nationwide panel of sports writers and broadcasters following a 38-6 rout of Minnesota, the unbeaten Buckeyes' 10th consecutive triumph.

Nebraska received 11 No. 1 votes and 1,058 for a 52-0 mauling of Iowa State. Last week, Ohio State led 49-8 in first-place votes and 1,138-1,054 in points.

The other first-place vote and 887 points went to Texas A&M, a 33-14 winner over Rice. Michigan, which meets Ohio State Saturday, earned 756 points by defeating Illinois 21-15 while Alabama trimmed Southern Mississippi 27-6 and totaled 671 points.

Texas climbed from seventh to sixth with 609 points by downing Texas Christian 27-11 while Oklahoma needed a late touchdown and two-point conversion to nip Missouri 28-27 and slipped from sixth to seventh with 590 points.

Arizona State held onto eighth place by trouncing Pacific 55-14 but Notre Dame, No. 9 a week ago, bowed to Pitt 34-30 and disappeared from the Top Twenty. It was believed to be the first time since a 2-7 record in 1963 that the Irish were not in the rankings.

Colorado moved up from 10th to ninth by beating Kansas 24-21 while idle Penn State rose from 11th to 10th.

The Second Ten consists of Arizona, Florida, California, UCLA, Georgia, Miami of Ohio, Pitt, Missouri, Arkansas and Maryland. Last week it was Penn State, Arizona, Southern Cal, Florida, California, Miami, Kansas, Missouri, UCLA and Georgia.

Pitt, which dropped out of the Top Twenty a week ago following a loss to West Virginia, made it back by whipping Notre Dame. Arkansas reappeared following a four-week absence by trouncing Southern Methodist 35-7 and Maryland climbed back in after a week's absence by edging Clemson 22-20.

Ken Anderson Shines As Bengals Bomb Buffalo

BY NORM CLARKE
AP Sports Writer

CINCINNATI (AP) — How good was Cincinnati quarterback Ken Anderson Monday night?

Teammate Chip Myers thinks Anderson's 447-yard aerial assault against the Buffalo Bills puts the young National Football League signal caller at the head of the class.

"I've never seen a day when a guy was so precise," said Myers, whose seven recpetions for 108 yards helped the Bengals overcome a 197-yard rushing feat by O.J. Simpson for a nationally televised 33-24 victory over the Bills.

"He's by far the best quarterback in the game," said Myers. "Every pass he had time to throw was perfect."

The fifth-year pro from little Augustana (Ill.) College called it "my best performance."

Even the vanquished Bills agreed that Anderson was something else.

"Anderson was unreal," said Simpson, who fell three yards shy of breaking Jimmy Brown's all-time career mark of five 200-yard games.

"He's cool, efficient ... the best we've ever played," said Bills' defensive end Walt Patulski.

Anderson, hitting 30 of 46 passes with no interceptions, shredded the Buffalo secondary to shatter by 95 yards his former club record of 352 yards set last year against Houston. He fired a pair of touchdown passes to Lenvil Elliott and Charlie Joiner and methodically moved the Bengals the length of the field when necessary.

"We knew we'd have problems with the pass," said Simpson, "but he just picked us apart."

The victory put the Bengals, now 8-1, back in a first-place tie for the American Conference with the Pittsburgh Steelers, who face a stern test Monday at Houston. Buffalo dropped its fourth game in the last last five outings to fall to 5-4.

Cincinnati never trailed in the offensive free-for-all, twice building 10-point leads and opening the margin to 13 early in the fourth quarter.

But Simpson, who bolted for 154 yards in the first half alone, kept the Bills battling back. Buffalo closed the gap to 30-24 with eight minutes left, but Anderson marched the Bengals 79 yards for an 18-yard field goal by Dave Green that provided breathing room.

"The game went the way we were afraid it would go," said Cincinnati Coach Paul Brown. "We couldn't stop them and they couldn't stop us. We threw a lot because seven points came so suddenly."

Anderson hit three of his receivers for a total of 337 yards. Isaac Curtis, who suffered a bruised ankle, caught seven for 139 yards, Myers had seven for 108 and Joiner snared five for 90.

Cincinnati's 33 first downs represented a club mark. The Bengals never punted in the game. Rookie running back Stan Fritts had two Cincinnati touchdowns on goal line dives.

Boston Gets Ranger Star

BOSTON (AP) — The Boston Red Sox, who missed winning the World Series by one game last season, have acquired veteran pitcher Ferguson Jenkins, a righthander with a habit of winning 20 or more games a year.

The Red Sox announced early today that they acquired Jenkins, a Cy Young award winner in 1971, from Texas in a deal that sent outfielder Juan Beniquez, and pitcher Steve Barr to the Rangers.

The Red Sox also tossed in a minor league prospect to be named later and an estimated $250,000 for Jenkins, who has won more than 20 games per season from 1967 through 1974.

Jenkins had a 17-18 record last season, his second with the Rangers. The Rangers acquired Jenkins from the Chicago Cubs, where he joined the majors as a rookie in 1960.

The Chatham, Ontario, native had 157 strikeouts last season while giving up just 56 walks. He surrendered 40 home runs, but went the distance 22 out of 37 games.

He and Bob Lemon are the only two righthanders since 1920 to win as many as 20 games in seven seasons.

Jenkins, 32, joins righthanders Luis Tiant, Rick Wise and Reggie Cleveland on the Boston pitching staff, and with lefthanders Bill Lee and Roger Moret, should give the Red Sox good pitching depth.

Benequiz, who joined Boston in 1971 but spent a couple of seasons in the minors, is leaving a team rich in outfield talent.

Jack Nicklaus paced the 1975 PGA tour in earnings with $298,149. Johnny Miller finished second with $226,118.

Four golfers won more than $205,000 on the 1975 PGA golf tour. They were Jack Nicklaus, the leader, Johnny Miller, Tom Weiskopf and Gene Littler.

Tiger Cage Girls Open 1975 Slate

The Snyder High School girls basketball team makes history tonight when it inaugurates the sport at SHS with a game in Hamlin tonight. Tipoff in the JV tilt is on tap for 6:30 p.m. The varsity contest begins at 8 p.m.

Coach Geral Greene of the Tigers said probably starters for the varsity include Cathy Minton, Deborah Waltz and Lorindo Jordan at forward and Patti Ayers, Paula Grimmett and Tammy Maxfield at guard.

Minton has playing experience at Loraine and in Oklahoma. Waltz saw action at Des Moines, New Mexico, and Jordan played on a girls team at Fluvanna. Ayers is the only starting guard with experience. She played at Loop.

Two other girls have some experience. Kim Davis, 5-6 junior forward, played some at Jayton, and Felicia Hopper, 5-8 senior forward, played at Fluvanna. She, Minton and Waltz may be the best shooters on the team.

"We're pretty quick, but need more height at guard," said Coach Greene, who coached girls basketball at Fluvanna for seven years. He also coached boys basketball in Snyder for eight years.

Other girls on the varsity squad are Kathy Dever, 5-2 junior guard; Jerri Farren, 5-8 junior guard; Vicky Johnson, 5-4 senior guard; Clinta McCowen, 5-8 junior guard; Dody Robinson, 5-5 junior guard; and, Pat Stewart, 5-6 junior guard.

Probable starters for the JV include Kristi Hughes, Diana Underwood and Debbie Newman at forward and Christi Sellars, Brenda Owens and Jill Hodges at guard.

Other girls on the JV roster are Linda Alvarez, Vicki Border, Marcy Franks, Kim McPherson, Kathy Merritt, Belinda Price, Sherene Shoemaker and Susan Waller.

The Freshmen A and B teams play at Colorado City at 6 p.m. and 8 p.m. Thursday while the JV and varsity will be at Levelland Friday for 6 p.m. and 8 p.m. tilts, respectively.

Bass Bite At Spence

Good striped bass catches are being reported at Lake E.V. Spence with one weighing in at 13 pounds during the week. There was another for 10 pounds.

Several strings of channel catfish, along with white bass and crappie also were reported.

The week's highlights included from these concessionairies:

Y.J.'s Marina—Mary Cherry, Odessa, 9¼ stripped bass, 15 white bass to 2 lb.; Cecil Cherry, Odessa, 6-lb. stripper; Scott Turner and Ken Cole, Odessa, 35 white bass to 2 lb.

Dink's Bait—Bill Keggler, Midland, 5½-lb stripper and 10 channel cat to 2 lb.; Mr. and Mrs. John Page, Robert Lee, 9-lb. and 13-lb. stripers, also 12 channel cat to 5 lb.; Mr. and Mrs. Mike McCrary, 6½ and 7½-lb. striped bass; Mike Noles, Midland, 5½-lb. striper; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Shoults, Odessa, 10 channel cat to 3 lbs.

Dusters Meet Tech Tonight

The Western Texas College girls' basketball squad will journey to Lubbock this afternoon for a 6:30 p.m. encounter with Texas Tech in Womens Gym on the Tech campus.

"They played us real hard down here in a scrimmage," declared Duster Coach, Sid Simpson, "and they have beaten Angelo State, and lost a pretty close ball game to South Plains."

The Texanettes of Levelland are in the Dusters' conference and have a very respectible unit this year.

"Tech uses a 1-2-2 zone, and they're bigger than we are. They have one girl from Ralls who is 6-2" explained Simpson. "But we should be quicker than our opponent."

Probable starters for the Dusters will be Dale Mitchel, 5-7 sophomore from Coahoma, and Tootie Stevenson, 5-8 freshman from Seagraves, at guards; Theresa Beal, 5-10 sophomore from Coahoma, and Marilyn Payton, 5-11 sophomore from Lubbock, at forwards; and Annie Tillman, 5-10 freshman from Lubbock at the post.

Rosemary Scott is also scheduled to see plenty of action at a guard spot.

"We're expecting a tough game," concluded Simpson.

Gail Had Best Area Record

Area football teams had a rough time of it this season as only one of the four teams in this area ended the season with more victories than losses. The Borden County team at Gail finished with a 5-4 mark; all of the other teams lost more games than they won.

Borden County will compete in 11 man football next season. This was the last season for 8-man competition over the state.

The season records:

The sophomore team combined with the junior varsity team after the season started and only played three games. One game each for the JV and the sophs include the same game, a 35-0 victory.

Patty's Lawyers Will Be Ready Under New Date

By LINDA DEUTSCH
Associated Press Writer

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Attorneys for Patricia Hearst say they will be ready to present their case under the new Jan. 26 trial date and the prosecution says it expects to wind up its case against the newspaper heiress in two weeks' time.

"It's just impossible for us to know right now how many witnesses we will call," said Albert Johnson, one of Miss Hearst's attorneys, following U.S. District Court Judge Oliver J. Carter's postponement Monday of the trial from the original Dec. 15 date.

"Our investigation is just starting, for obvious reasons," Johnson said Monday following an hour-long meeting with Carter and the prosecution.

Lawyers said the judge had based his decision to postpone on a recent ruling by the 9th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals. The appelate court held that a judge may, at his discretion, exclude psychiatric testing time from the 90-day arraignment-to-trial deadline imposed by the federal Speedy Trial Act. The interim provisions of the act now in effect make no provision for such exceptions.

Browning said the government did not oppose the postponement because it feared Miss Hearst might be denied due process if rushed to trial.

The 21-year-old Miss Hearst, daughter of newspaper executive Randolph Hearst, was a fugitive for more than a year before she was captured in a San Francisco apartment Sept. 18. She was kidnaped Feb. 4, 1974, subsequently renounced her family and said she had joined the Symbionese Liberation Army. She is charged with the SLA robbery of a San Francisco bank on April 15, 1974.

Her defense team claimed she participated in the robbery under threat of execution by the SLA.

Carter's decision came a few hours after U.S. Judge Samuel Conti refused to delay the Dec. 15 starting date for Sara Jane Moore on charges of attempting to assassinate President Ford here last Sept. 22. The Moore case had prompted the appeals court ruling allowing judges to exclude psychiatric testing from trial deadline.

Johnson had sought the trial delay for Miss Hearst, saying the defense team was unable to prepare during the 51 days that she was under psychiatric examination.

Now, Johnson said, time and psychiatric treatment will help restore Miss Hearst's mental health.

"Her condition has improved to the extent where I believe the additional time provided by the court will enable us to prepare an adequate defense," Johnson said.

Johnson declined to speculate on how long her trial may last. But U.S. Atty. James L. Browning said he expects to rest the prosecution's case two weeks after the trial gets under way.

Browning said he plans to subpoena about 90 witnesses, only half of whom will actually testify.

Getty Cleared In Kidnaping

LAGONEGRO, Italy (AP) — After two years of investigation, a state atttorney has ruled out the possibility that J. Paul Getty III may have initially helped stage his kidnaping to get money from his oil billionaire grandfather.

Attorney Maurizio Rossi said the kidnaping was the work of a six-man gang. Five of the suspects are in jail; a sixth escaped last year.

'Skipped Beats' Warning Hints Of Sudden Death

By RICHARD SALTUS
AP Science Writer

ANAHEIM, Calif. (AP) — Premature heart contractions, commonly known as "skipped beats" and often harmless, may be warning hints of sudden death, says a panel of researchers.

This recently discovered link may eventually save some of the thousands of people who drop dead each year without warning, the doctors said Monday.

They emphasized that many people with completely normal hearts have occasional, momentary heartbeat irregularities and shouldn't be alarmed. Too much coffee and nervous tension are common causes of skipped beats.

The researchers said, however, that PVC's — premature ventricular contractions — are associated with a higher risk of ventricular fibrillation. This is a wild, disorganized fluttering of the heart that frequently causes death in minutes. About 250,000 persons die each year from sudden ventricular fibrillation.

"The significance of PVC's depends greatly on their setting — the company they keep," explained Dr. Barnard Tabatznik at the 48th Scientific Session of the American Heart Association. Tabatznik, chief of the cardiology department at North Charles General Hospital in Baltimore, Md., said PVC's are of more significance in people who have already had a heart attack, or in people who have a large number of the skipped beats.

A PVC occurs when the heart's nerve center that acts as a pacemaker jumps the gun slightly and the heart muscle begins to contract before the resting phase of the previous heartbeat is over. If a person notices the PVC, he may feel as if his heart is "turning over."

"Certain types of PVC's occurring in a particularly early part of the cycle are more likely to set off fibrillation," said Dr. Lawrence E. Hinkle of the Cornell University Medical School.

Hinkle, who has done much of the pioneering work, said he has examined more than 1,000 men randomly chosen, who wore portable electrocardiographs for six to 24 hours at a time.

He said that the frequency of PVC's increases with age — more than 60 per cent of men have them by age 57 and more than 80 per cent by age 62.

"The risk of death associated with PVC's is greatly enhanced if they occur in a setting of myocardial ischemia (damaged heart muscle), hypertrophy (enlarged heart), congestive heart failure or metabolic abnormalities," Hinkle said. "In the absence of those, the short-term prognosis is relatively benign."

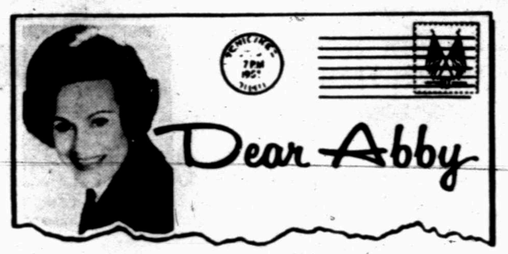

One of Hinkle's subjects, a 59-year-old man with a history of heart trouble, died while wearing the portable electrocardiograph.

"He walked into Grand Central Station, sat down in a train, opened his newspaper and slumped over, dead. We looked at the recording and he had had a PVC five minutes earlier," said Hinkle.

Specialists are currently trying to decide how to put this knowledge to use, screening programs aimed at persons who are recovering from heart attacks or are otherwise at high risk may be developed.

Treatment is still in an undefined stage. One promising tool, the doctors said, is chemical therapy to reduce the heart's irritability, although the drugs that seem effective are still in early testing.

First Wife's Photo Chills Second Wife's Passion

By Abigail Van Buren
© 1975 by Chicago Tribune-N.Y. News Synd., Inc.

DEAR ABBY: I am 39 and Len is 42. We've been married less than a year. My first husband died, and so did Len's first wife.

The problem: Len put two pictures in a large double frame—one of me and one of his first wife. He put these pictures in our bedroom on the dresser facing our bed, and he keeps looking at these pictures when we're in bed. (He's slightly cross-eyed so I can't tell whether he's looking at the picture of me or the one of his first wife.)

I feel very self-conscious with his first wife staring at me from the dresser, but I don't know how to tell him. I wouldn't mind so much if Len kept that picture in another room. Am I making myself clear?

How do I handle this?

INHIBITED IN INDIANA

DEAR INHIBITED: Level with Len. Tell him it's difficult to entertain romantic notions with that picture on the dresser. Len will have to make a choice between a dead wife on the dresser and a live one in bed.

DEAR ABBY: I'm a divorced woman, 23-years-old, with two small children. I met a 44-year-old man. He's a widower with a 15-year-old daughter living at home. He wants to marry me and take care of me and my children.

He has offered me a lovely home, a new car and lots of new clothes. He says he loves me. I told him I wasn't sure I loved him because he's my father's age, but he told me that I would learn to love him.

Abby, can a person "learn" to love somebody?

It is hard to pass up everything he's offering me, but I'm afraid my mom and dad won't think he's right for me because he's kind of bald, wears glasses and is not much to look at.

Also, I'm afraid everyone will notice the difference in our ages, and they'll think I married him for his money.

Another thing: His daughter acts kind of cool to me. I'm afraid she might think I am taking her father away from her but I swear I'm not.

I had such a bad marriage that this offer is tempting. What should I do?

TEMPTED

DEAR TEMPTED: When in doubt, do nothing. You have too many fears and doubts about this man to marry him. Go slowly, dear.

And in answer to your question: No, I don't think a person can "learn" to love somebody. Perhaps in time, you could learn to appreciate his generosity, but that's not love.

DEAR ABBY: My husband and I have been married for 46 years. He is a good provider, but in other ways he is something else.

For example, he nevers wants me to go anywhere without him. One night, I went to a movie with our daughter, and he was so mad when I got home that the bedroom door was locked and I had to sleep on the floor since we don't have a full-length sofa.

He does all the grocery shopping. I quit going along because every item I'd put in the shopping cart he would put back.

I get a Social Security check for $101.94. My husband says that $2 a month is enough for me, and he wants the rest of it.

I am not happy. He has been this way since we've been married, but I stayed with him because of the children, and now it's too late to pull out.

I need your help.

CONFUSED

DEAR CONFUSED: If your husband has been this way for 46 years, I doubt if you can change him. Have a key made for your bedroom door in case he locks you out again, hang on to your Social Security money and try to keep the peace.

Love Terminal Recycled

DALLAS (AP) — Two years ago the Love Field main passenger terminal seemed destined to join the mothball fleet of municipal buildings whose usefulness to the city was over.

The eight major airlines using the building pulled out their ticket counters and moved to the new Dallas-Fort Worth Regional Airport in 1973, leaving the 2½-acre building almost empty.

But this week people returned to the terminal to find Love—a multi-million dollar indoor amusement center complete with three movie theaters, ice and roller skating rinks, dance floors and restaurants.

"To my knowledge, this is the first massive recylcing of an old airport terminal in the country," said Pierce Allman, a Love spokesman.

The Love Field terminal was opened in 1957. Its demise was confirmed in 1969 when Dallas and Fort Worth city officials agreed to build a joint airport between the two cities.

Wes Goyer, one of the originators of the Six Flags over Texas theme amusement park, said the Love concept had been in his head for 10 years. In April 1974 the Dallas City Council leased him the terminal. Construction began a year later.

Goyer said he made no structural changes in the terminal. He even left the old tree-filled garden, which can be seen through the windows near the stairs up to the old USO, now the Oasis room.

Love Field remains a busy airport with one trunk airline, Southwest, still operating out of another part of the terminal and several commuter airlines as well as hundreds of private planes land at the air field daily.

Allman said Love tried to capitalize on the familiarity of people with Love Sield, -

"We left the old observation deck open," Allman said. "One day I'm sure we'll have a party here where all the guests will fly in and get out right at the terminal just like in the old days."

Betty Praises Plane Paint Job

WASHINGTON (AP) — Artist and sculptor Alexander Calder's latest work — an airliner painted in Bicentennial plumage — has been praised by First Lady Betty Ford as "an attractive, bigger-than-life reminder that 1976 is our Bicentennial year."

The "Flying Colors" Boeing 727 for which Braniff International commissioned Calder to design a new exterior paint job for was dedicated Monday at Dulles International Airport.

The second Braniff plane painted to a Calder design in the last several years, this one suggests a flying flag with red and blue wave-like designs on a white background.

J. Carter Brown, director of the National Gallery of Art, declared that "purely in art terms, the plane is a great success."

Calder showed up for the dedication in his own characteristic plumage — casual tweed jacket, contrasting slacks, red flannel shirt, and a necktie of his own design.

We're building power plants that use lignite coal.

It's our answer to the rising price of natural gas.

This power plant is being built in East Texas at Martin Lake near Henderson. It will make electricity by burning lignite coal.

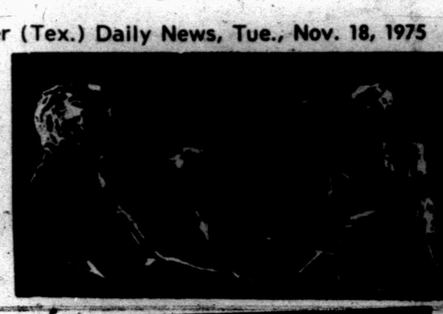

We have to build lignite plants because we're running out of low-cost natural gas, our main fuel, today. New supplies are hard to get and very costly.

Lignite plants cost more than twice as much to build as comparable gas-fired plants, and that means electricity will cost more. But expensive as they are, lignite plants will still make electricity more cheaply than plants using high-priced gas.

That's because our large lignite supplies, acquired many years ago, are much cheaper than new supplies of gas. And using cheap fuel is one way we're keeping your electric bill as low as possible.

The average bill for Texas Electric customers is already 27 per cent below the national average, and we're working to keep it that way.

Abducted Girl Survives Fire In Car Trunk

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — Karen Estelle Citino, a 16-year-old Texas girl who said she was abducted, locked in the trunk of her car, and driven to Oklahoma City, was reported in satisfactory condition today at an Oklahoma City hospital.

Authorities said the car apparently was set on fire by her kidnaper as he abandoned the vehicle with Miss Citino still inside the trunk.

Although suffering from smoke inhalation, the girl avoided suffocation by punching a hole in the trunk lid with a tire tool, officers said. The fire apparently smothered itself after the alleged kidnaper shut the car doors with the windows rolled up, police said.

Miss Citino, from Plano, Tex., was freed from the car trunk after two children told Sue Clark, principal of Edison Fifth Year Center School, that they had heard a woman calling for help from the locked trunk of a car parked on a vacant lot just west of the school. Mrs. Clark called police.

Officers said the girl told them as she was driving to church in Plano, a Dallas suburb, to pick up her sister about 8:30 p.m. Sunday, a black man opened the car door and said, "Take me as far as you're going."

She said she told him she wasn't going very far, but he pulled a nickel-plated revolver and said, "We're going to Oklahoma City."

The girl told officers she was locked in the trunk for the trip. She said her abductor stopped once to ask directions to Oklahoma City and a service station attendant told him they were about two miles south of here.

Miss Citino told officers she guessed the car was parked on the vacant lot in Oklahoma City about 2 a.m. Monday.
