LOOKING TOWARD 1976

A projected income of $9 million in agricultural income for Collingsworth County by 1976 is the goal of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service as part of the state-wide "3.76 in '76" program. This would mean a $2.5 million increase for the county, with most of it coming from development of the livestock industry. The goal for Texas is $3.76 billion in agricultural income by 1976, an increase of one billion dollars from the base years of 1968-9.

City State Bank Doubles Capital At Annual Meet

The City State Bank in Wellington has doubled its capital stock and the action has been approved by the Department of Banking of Texas and the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, according to Jeff D. Wilson, president of the bank.

The capital was increased from $50,000 to $100,000 through a 100 percent stock dividend voted by the bank directors at their regular annual meeting Jan. 12.

In announcing the payment of a 100 percent stock dividend to the stockholders, Mr. Wilson said he would be remiss if he did not note that the people of Collingsworth County have undeniably demonstrated their ability to grow and prosper even with the economic reverses they have suffered during the last two years.

"The people of Collingsworth County and the surrounding area have just gone through the worst drought in their history and still the deposits and total assets of the banks of our area have shown a nice increase," Mr. Wilson continued.

"The year of 1970 saw continued inflation and a market that was continuously making

Eighteen years old, she is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. V. K. Orr, Jr.

Goal of $9 Million Set for Agricultural Income by 1976

If Collingsworth County sets its sights on a $2.5 million annual increase in agricultural income in the next five years, it is not dreaming an impossible dream.

This is the belief of the local Extension Service staff and the farm and ranch leaders who make up the County Program Building Committee. They have projected the $2.5 million figure as this county's part in the statewide "3.76 in '76" goal. That means simply bringing Texas agricultural income to $3.76 billion in 1976. It represents an increase of one billion dollars and does not include government farm program monies.

For Collingsworth County it could mean an agricultural income of $9 million plus.

Because of the continuing importance of the agricultural industry on the state's economy, the program was worked out by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service and the Texas A&M University. The starting point was an accumulation of 16 years of agricultural data, about as accurate as could be found. The program aims toward potential production, not average production.

Texas A&M task forces in the different agricultural fields projected the long range goals that made the $1 billion state figures realistic. Goals for the individual counties were set.

Collingsworth County's agricultural income for the 1968-69 year, $6,918,000, was the base and this was projected to more than $9 million in 1976, not counting government farm payments.

The greatest potential for growth in Collingsworth is in livestock, which should account for about $2 million of the increase, believes County Agent Don Reeves.

He broke the figures down further.

There should be an increase of one-half million dollars in fed cattle, but one million in stocker cattle and mother cows. Hogs will account for just under one-half million.

The biggest increase in field crop income should be from alfalfa and other hay, Mr. Reeves and the program building committee believe.

Guar will account for some

Earl Hunter to Head Red Cross

Earl Hunter was elected chairman of the Collingsworth County Red Cross Chapter for 1971 in a business meeting held Wednesday, Jan. 27.

Trusten A. Thomas, Jr., was named to two offices, chapter vice-chairman and Blood Chairman.

The meeting was presided over by Charles Fodor, division representative from Fort Worth.

Its Congressional charter imposes on the American Red Cross the duties to act as the medium of voluntary relief and communication between the American people and the armed forces, and to carry on a system of national and international relief to prevent and mitigate suffering caused by disasters, he pointed out.

Those attending were Mr. Thomas, Mrs. Murray Dodson, J. T. Forbis, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Isbell, Mrs. Harwell, Riley Dunson, Mrs. Sosa, Mrs. Price, Mrs. Aguilar, Mrs. Darter, Mr. Sikes, Mayor John S. Coleman, Mrs. Poteet, Mr. Fodor, and Mrs. Betty Moody, area coordinator from Childress.

W. B. Wilson Dies Monday At Age of 93

W. B. Wilson, who helped to settle and develop the Salt Fork community, died in Thomas Nursing Home at 5:55 p.m. Monday, Feb. 1, after a lengthy illness. He was 93.

Mr. Wilson had lived in the county since 1906, when he brought his family from Ellis County. He had bought a farm in the Salt Fork community at an earlier date, however.

In looking back to those early days in Collingsworth County, Mr. Wilson remembered that he and his brother-in-law, Freeman Gilbreth, shipped their household goods and farming equipment by rail and wagon to Quail, then to their farm.

His community was just being settled, and Mr. Wilson broke the sod for his fields and built a comfortable home for his family.

This farm remained his home until 1944, when he retired from farming.

Mr. Wilson helped to build the Salt Fork School and served as a trustee many years. He was the road overseer. One of those who organized the Salt Fork Methodist Church, he helped to construct two of the buildings, the first in 1916 and the other in the mid-1930s.

Born in Ellis County March 12, 1877, he made that area his home until he moved to Collingsworth County.

After he retired from farming, Mr. Wilson worked four years in Borger before returning to Wellington.

At Shamrock

Quail-Allison to Meet for District 3-B Crown

Coach Bill Wilson's Quail Quails go into the final part of their basketball season as winner of round robin play in the south zone of District 3-B and holder of a 23-4 record.

The district winner will be determined when the Quails meet the Allison boys at Shamrock Thursday, Feb. 11. Game time will be announced.

The Quails will follow this with a Feb. 16 practice game at Clarendon, then will go into the district tournament at Lefors Thursday through Saturday, Feb. 18 to 20.

Both round robin and tournament play determine the winner in Class B basketball.

Quail girls have been less successful; nevertheless, they will play in the district tournament Thursday through Saturday, Feb. 4 through 6, also at Lefors.

Their first game will be with Briscoe girls Thursday at 5:30 p.m., Coach Wilson said.

Chamber of Commerce Banquet Will Be Held Monday Night

Dr. James H. Granberry, who became mayor of Lubbock only a few days before the tornado truck his city, will be the Collingsworth Chamber of Commerce speaker Monday, Feb. 8. The event will be held in Bura Handley Community Center at 7:15 p.m.

A crowd of approximately 200 is expected to hear this dynamic young speaker.

Friday, Feb. 5, is the deadline for buying banquet tickets.

Banquet plans were announced by Jack Sanford, outgoing vice president.

The Rev. Roy D. Collins, Jr., pastor of First Baptist Church, will be the master of ceremonies, and entertainment will include group singing led by Tom Wilkins and dinner music by Mrs. Truman Estes.

The Rev. Tom Rogers, pastor of the Assembly of God, will give the invocation and Rev. Collins the welcome.

Deskins Wells, the outgoing Chamber of Commerce president, will give the president's report and present the traditional Chamber awards. The identity of the recipients will not be revealed until the presentation.

The new president, Harold Gattis, will present the new officers and the board of directors.

Introducing Dr. Granberry will be a long-time friend, Jeff Wilson.

Several Wellington residents who have heard the speaker endorse him enthusiastically as one whose talks have serious content spiced with humor.

Dr. Granberry is the youngest mayor Lubbock has ever elected. Four years as a member of the city council gave him the experience for such decisive action in the catastrophe that came so soon after he took office.

An orthodontist and graduate of Baylor University College of Dentistry, his activities in Lubbock range from Chamber of Commerce to the Lubbock Symphony. His city named him Outstanding Young Man in 1963 and he was chosen one of five Outstanding Young Texans in 1964.

He is active in district, state and national organizations of his profession.

In service to others, he established the Continuing Research Grant to the Physiology Department of the Baylor University College of Dentistry and a pre-dental scholarship at Tyler Junior College.

He is vice president for programming of the Texas Partners of the Alliance and is on the Board of Trustees of Methodist Hospital, Lubbock, the President's Council, Texas Tech University, and second vice president of the Texas Municipal League.

He received the SCADA (International Dental Group) Achievement Award in 1969.

Dr. Granberry's service goes beyond the borders of the United States, for he is chairman of the committee to set up an Indigent Dental Clinic in Mexico City, and he is a member of the Peruvian Earthquake Voluntary Assistance Group, an international group formed by President Nixon.

Officers of the Chamber of Commerce for 1971 are Harold Gattis, president; W. E. (Dub) Marchant, vice president; Jack Neeley, secretary; and Lynn Jenkins, treasurer.

Directors are C. T. Hubbard, A. J. Fires, Jr., Bobo Castleberry, Robert Lewis, John S. Coleman, Alvin Horton, Billy Hatch, Jimmy Kelso, Don Welch, Jack Sanford, George Shadid and Robert Owens. Mr. Coleman is the West Texas Chamber of Commerce director and Mr. Shadid the C-C Water Board representative.

Retiring officers, in addition to Mr. Wells are Mr. Sanford, vice president; Mr. Jenkins, secretary; Mr. Hatch, treasurer. Retiring directors are Earl Patterson, W. R. Breeding, Mr. Gattis and Mr. Marchant.

This year's banquet meal will be prepared by Mrs. C. M. Aaron, and table decorations and arrangements will be by wives of the directors.

A special feature will be an exhibit of paintings by Wellington artists. Miss Bonnie Willis is in charge.

Firemen Answer Two Calls Sat.

Wellington firemen answered two calls Saturday, Jan. 30, one of them a false alarm.

A grass fire was reported near Ellison Park Saturday morning, but firemen drove up and down several streets and alleys and could locate nothing, said Alton Wilkins.

The rural unit was called to a truck fire about five miles west of the US 83-62 intersection Saturday afternoon.

A truck driver from Wheeler, whose name was not learned, told firemen a brake drum overheated, causing a fire. However, he was able to get it out before the unit arrived.

Field Review Due Elm Creek

A field review of the proposed tri-county Elm Creek Watershed Development Project is scheduled for March 8 thru 12, Gary Reed, SCS unit supervisor, has been notified.

The project, on which complete watershed development is sought, covers much of the northeast quadrant of Collingsworth and extends in southern and southwestern Wheeler and eastern Gray counties.

Making the review will be engineers and economists representing the State Soil Conservation District Board and the State Soil Conservation Service, Mr. Reed said.

The purpose of the review is to put a dollar and cents per year figure on the damage that is incurred on the Elm Creek Watershed from flooding and erosion. Against this, the projected benefits which may be expected from watershed development will be figured.

From this ratio, it will be determined if the project is feasible, Mr. Reed explained.

If it is approved, the next step will be planning the project.

Elm Creek Watershed development is sponsored by the counties of Collingsworth, Gray and Wheeler and the Salt Fork, Gray and Wheeler County Soil and Water Conservation Districts.

County Steers Rank High at Amarillo Show

Five steers were exhibited in the Junior Livestock Division of the Amarillo Fat Stock Show recently, and none placed lower than eighth place. It is believed Collingsworth is the only county to accomplish this, reported County Agent Don Reeves.

Ranking highest was a steer owned by Keith Davis that placed second in a field of 57 in the lightweight Hereford class, while another was eighth in the lightweight Angus class, with 45 steers entered.

These two steers also brought Keith third place in the pair of steers class.

Joel Ross exhibited the fourth place Hereford in the middleweight class in which 49 entries were listed.

Two steers were shown in the crossbred division.

Allen Havens had the fourth place winner in the heavy class, Keith Martin eighth place winner in the lightweight class. Each of these classes had 27 entries.

The two crosses were sold in the junior sale that followed the show and each brought 35 cents per pound. Keith's weighed 930 pounds and Allen's 1130 pounds.

Mr. Reeves expressed his pride in the boys who won at Amarillo and the high placing all the animals received.

The three calves that were brought home and seven others have been entered in the Houston Livestock Show which opens the first of March.

Besides Keith and Joel, the seven included Jenny Ernest, Lynn Fulcher, Joe Baumgardner, one each, and Denny Carter and Keith Martin, two each, along with the two Davis calves and the Ross calf.

Besides Keith and Joel, the seven who exhibit calves will be Jenny Earnest, Lynn Ful-

Serves Multi-County Area

First TB Control Clinic Slated for Feb. 9 and 10

First of the series of quarterly chest clinics will be held in Wellington Tuesday and Wednesday, Feb. 9 and 10, for Collingsworth and surrounding counties.

This will serve more than 100 persons and is the follow-up phase of the tuberculosis control program of the Texas Public Health Department. All these were positive reactors in the Mantoux Test (tuberculin skin test) program conducted in these counties in early January.

The clinic will be in Bura Handley Community Center, beginning each morning at 7:30 a.m. It will run until 6:30 p. m. Tuesday and close at 1:00 p.m. Wednesday, according to Mrs. Ernest Harwell, who is in charge of booking appointments.

Dr. Robert McCarty of Lubback, director of the State Health Department TB Control Division for Region 10, will be in charge of this and succeeding clinics. He will be assisted by Miss Sue Barfoot, R.N., nursing supervisor, and Mrs. Marilyn Metcalf, RN, from the Amarillo office.

Most of the positive reactors have had their chest x-rays, and those who have not will receive them at St. Joseph's Hospital Wednesday morning. Dr. McCarty will discuss the x-rays with all clinic patients during the two days.

(Not all positive reactors have active cases of tuberculosis, but a person with an inactive case may be a carrier.)

Also at the clinic, each patient will receive a prescription of INH, the single antimicrobial drug generally used for chemoprophylaxis, the prevention of disease in infected individuals.

INH is available only through the Texas State Health Department, and there is no charge.

Dr. Carter Holcomb, county health officer, strongly urged all persons who were positive reactors to keep their appointments at the Clinic and begin immediately their treatment.

Chemoprophylaxis for the prevention of tuberculosis will continue a year for those infected but not active. Others will be treated as long as necessary.

INH, the popular name for isoniazid, is the single drug which has revolutionized the therapy of tuberculosis, effectively used in chemoprophylaxis.

Chemoprophylaxis presumably acts by diminishing the bacterial population in "healed" or invisible lesions of the person taking the drug. It is in reality treatment of infection and prevents clinical disease from developing or relapsing.

The Rev. and Mrs. Nath Franks

Former County Couple to Observe Fiftieth Anniversary in Sayre

On Sunday afternoon, February 7, the Rev. and Mrs. Nath Franks, 208 West Elm, Sayre, Oklahoma, will celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary at an Open House reception in their home. Their daughters will be the hostesses.

All friends, relatives and neighbors in this area are invited to visit with them on this special day.

Rev. Franks spent most of his boyhood in this area, coming here with his parents from Arkansas in 1907. His first memories of Wellington are the board sidewalks in front of the stores and his father's wagon yard business.

He married Beulah Nunn in Blue Mountain, Arkansas, on February 6, 1921, and brought his bride to his farm near Arlie, a community southeast of Wellington. To this union were born two children, Mrs. Joyce Pressler, Oklahoma City, and Mrs. Ruth Mantooth, Arlington. There are five granddaughters and three great-greatgrandchildren.

Music Club Has Beethoven Study

The January meeting of the Wellington Music Club had Mrs. B. M. Sims and Mrs. Truett Holland as co-hostesses.

Presiding at the business session was Mrs. Dan Henard, Jr., club president.

Program director and commentator was Mrs. Hiram L. Cudd. "A Salute to Beethoven" was the theme. Born 200 years ago, Ludwig Van Beethoven still casts his shadow over all composers. This year, in celebration of the bicentennial of his birth, the world pays homage to his revolutionary genius. His creative ability, spanning 35 years, bears witness to a striving for perfection. All writers seem to class his works by three periods: ages 24-30; 30-45 (began to lose his hearing; 45-56 (was totally deaf until his death.) Hayden was his main teacher.

"Hundreds of books and articles have exposed the life and works of this complex genius," Mrs. Cudd related. Her commentary was partially based on critical and biographical sketches by Eugene d'Albert, Harold Schonberg, and Longyear.

Many traits in Michelangelo's character are followed by Beethoven's thoughts and ways. Their devotion to work and perfection is a definite parallel. Beethoven's works include one opera, Fidelio, nine symphonies, 10 violin sonatas, 16 string quartets, 32 piano sonatas.

Opus 48, No. 1, A Prayer, was presented by Mrs. Cudd, soprano, with Mrs. Henard at the Piano. Musical excerpts called "The Heavens Resound", "Sardis," "Alsace," and "Dolcetta" were performed by Mrs. Henard. "Hymn to Joy" was presented by Mrs. Kyle Lindley, pianist.

Hymn of the Month was directed by Mrs. Don Van Pelt.

Presented as Junior Musicians of the Month were Susan Peters and Kathy Scott.

An informal song fest by all members and guests completed the evening's agenda.

Attending were Mrs. Rodney Kane, a guest, and Mrs. Henard, Mrs. L. W. Wells, Mrs. A. J. Peters, Mrs. Van Pelt, Mrs. Cudd, Mrs. Elaine White, Mrs. Lindley, Mrs. Holland and Mrs. Sims.

Home Furnishing Correspondence Course Enrolls 25 HD Members

Twenty-five Collingsworth women are enrolled in the Home Furnishings correspondence course offered through the office of Mrs. Leta Hill, home demonstration agent. This is the capacity enrollment.

The course is free to Collingsworth women, although most counties charge for it.

The first lesson was mailed February 1 and the course consists of six.

Mrs. Hill outlined the lesson material that will be covered:

In the first lesson, the homemaker students will analyze furnishing needs, make a furnishing plan and learn to arrange furniture properly.

Lesson II — Your Furnishing Dollar, teaches the student to determine the amount she can afford for furnishings, determine the method of obtaining needed furnishings, the method of paying for them, and make a furnishings purchasing plan.

Potatoes

Potatoes are on the February Plentiful Food List published by the USDA. I thought I would try this potato recipe:

Potato Strips with Cheese

3 cups raw potato strips (cut for French fries)
½ cup milk
1 T butter or margarine
1 t Salt
Pepper
½ cup thinly shaved process cheese
1 T finely cut parsley

Put the strips into a greased baking dish and pour the milk over them. Dot with butter or margarine and sprinkle with salt and pepper. Cover and bake in 425 degree oven for 40 minutes, or until the potatoes are tender. Sprinkle with cheese and parsley and bake, covered, for five minutes more. Serves four.

February Garden Calendar

1. Continue to plant trees and shrubs.

2. Don't neglect the recently transplanted landscape plants. Dry winter winds can soon dry out the soil and damage plants before they become established.

3. Prune established hybrid tea and florabunda roses. Delay pruning climbing roses until after the peak of spring bloom.

4. Spring flowering trees and shrubs should not be pruned until after they have bloomed. All necessary pruning of summer flowering trees and shrubs as well as most evergreen shrubs should be completed this month.

5. Clean up lawn area, removing any fallen leaves and dead grass before fertilizing.

6. Fertilize lawns in late February, or early March, just as new growth starts.

7. Check new plant growth for aphids. Control with Malathion or Diazinon.

8. Don't neglect tender plants in the event of a late winter storm. Be prepared to provide temporary cover.

9. Gladioli bulbs should be planted now. Space planting dates at two-week intervals to extend blooming season.

10. New growth on spring flowering bulbs should be no cause for alarm if cold weather reappears unless the flower buds are starting to push through. Unless protected, the new flower buds are sometimes damaged by a late spring freeze.

1971 All American Flower Selections

The following plant varieties have received recognition after thorough testing and screening as the outstanding new introductions for 1971. They should be available through nurseries and garden centers throughout the state.

This recognition indicates that these are new and different but does not necessarily mean that they are any better than some of the older varieties that have withstood the test of time.

NEW ZINNIAS

Peter Pan Plum — A lavendar rose color with large individual flowers on a dwarf size plant.

Peter Pan Pink — A coral pink with varying color of lighter and darker shades as the flowers mature. Both varieties are excellent for massing or as a border display.

NEW DIANTHUS

Queen of Hearts — Brilliant scarlet-red flowers appearing in clusters on plants of 12 to 15 inches. Blooms from seed the first year and should over-winter in Central and South Texas.

NEW HIBISCUS

Southern Bell — Claims of large 7- to 10-inch single flowers on 5 to 6 foot plants with a variety of color. Will bloom from seed the first year if started early indoors. Will freeze to the ground with first hard freeze but root should survive many years.

NEW SNAPDRAGON . . .

Little Darling — Short plant of 12 inches suitable for both cut flowers and landscape plantings. Available only as a mixture of colors.

NEW HOLLYHOCK

Silver Puffs — One of the first truly dwarf hollyhocks, reaching a height of only two feet. If seeds are started early indoors they will bloom the first year. Flowers are double, fluffy in texture and have a delicate silver-pink color.

Blender Has Many Uses

"Your blenders should not be stored away, but left out on the cabinet top for easy access," Mrs. Helen Gribble, home economist for West Texas Utilities Company advised a group of Young Homemakers at Lakeview recently.

Discussing the many uses of the blender which can save time and money, she stressed that small amounts of food should not be thrown away but rather put to good use by means of the blender.

Bread, crackers, cookies, etc. when put into the blender, can be used for toppings on desserts or vegetables.

INSIDE THE LEGISLATURE

REP. TOM CHRISTIAN

The areas causing the most discussion concerning current controversy in the Capitol center around:

1. The proposed ethics and financial disclosure bills currently being introduced.

2. The resolution proposed by Rep. Curtis Graves of Houston asking Speaker Gus Mutscher and certain committee chairmen to step down until an investigation can be held into the areas of alleged misconduct.

There is a great deal of support in the House for disclosure, a measure which has been two decades late in coming. The question now revolves around which bill will be acceptable.

Ethics bills have been introduced by Rep. Jim Nugent of Kerrville, Charles Patterson of Round Rock and Maurice Angly of Austin. A simple resolution sponsored by Sonny Jones and Bill Blythe of Harris County has also been read in the House.

Probably gaining the most backing at the moment is a move toward voluntary disclosure that has been signed by 15 members of the House and Senate (14 of whom are Democrats).

This includes a simple form providing a listing of loans obtained, stocks bought and sold, all assets in real property, a standard balance sheet showing assets as of Dec. 31, 1970, and the source and amount of income in the past two calendar years.

This statement is to be signed and filed with the office of the Secretary of State.

The move is gaining support among House members simply because most do not wish to pass judgment prior to hearings on the case at hand.

The Graves resolution is crowding legislators to make a decision before results of the Securities and Exchange Commission investigation are revealed in the Federal District Court in Dallas.

Another point in this matter of disclosure is to decide whether the people want disclosure laws to be applied just to primary state officials. Or do they wish them applied to all persons in positions of public trust from the school system to the courthouse.

Another point to discuss is the difficulty in obtaining information from the so-called public records that are already required to be filed with the Secretary of State.

As it stands now, anyone wishing to check records filed with the Secretary's office, such as campaign expenditures, is required by statute to register his name, address and who he is representing. To copy these records he must duplicate them by hand unless he wishes to pay $1 per sheet to use a copy machine located in that office. These records may contain any where from 20 pages to several hundred in major races. The average citizen does not have the time or money to purchase such an investigation.

The office of the Secretary of State explains that this is a protective measure passed by the Senate to prevent people from copying lists to sell to potential candidates. They also concede that it prevents most other people from copying the list, which is probably what the Senate had in mind in the first place.

Inquiries concerning legislation should be mailed to Rep. Tom Christian, P.O. Box 2910, Austin, Texas 78767.

Newest Garbage Dump

The sea, once the source of much romance, food, transportation and military functions, has taken on a new dimension. It's the world's biggest garbage dump.

Even before the Army began dumping its old chemcal warfare munitions in the sea, civilization was several jumps ahead. Especially our civilization.

According to a study conducted by the U. S. Department of the Interior, this country today contributes 90 per cent of the world's effort toward polluting the ocean. We have filled it with garbage, industrial chemicals, radio-active waste, pesticides, sludge, thermal heat and oil slicks. Now it's nerve gas.

"The whole problem is a very critical one," says Dr. George J. Ridgeway, who helped prepare the Department of the Interior's report on the possible effects of dumping the nerve gas in the ocean. "If we don't stop using the ocean as a ready disposal unit, eventually some very serious problems are going to evolve.

It was only small things at first but now they are getting bigger.

Aside from the battleships & passenger ships, aircraft carriers and PT boats that sank, there were old bricks from demolished buildings, old automobiles. old concrete sidewalks, old rusty pipes nobody wanted any more, old chemicals too weak to kill anything but fish, old DDT that somehow got washed out to sea off somebody's cotton crop. Things like that.

Eventually, the question was asked: How long until the ocean is full? How long until it is just a sea of protruding port bows and steering wheels and elbow joints. Not as long as you might suppose.

According to Dr. Paul Maughan of the Earth Satellite Corporation, the sinking of the Liberty shop LeBaron Russel Briggs and its nerve gas cargo is just one instance in thousands of willful acts that pullute the ocean. "They have been dumping this stuff for years," he said.

"People seem to figure that if you dump something in the ocean, it will not come back. This is not true. The ocean, like our rivers and streams, is being altered. It's bigger, true, but we're already measuring DDT (one part to one billion in the Gulf of Mexico.)

"Every body of water can assimulate certain amounts and kinds of waste products, but every body of water — including the ocean — has a limit. The oceans are not infinite and they must not be considered the ultimate solution for waste disposal problems." —News-Herald, Hillsboro, Ohio.

There are good jokes that are funny and poor jokes that are not funny and other poor jokes that are so bad that they are funny. If you're still with us, consider this story:

An Irish potator married a Long Island potato. Soon they had a little sweet potato and when the little sweet potato grew up , it said, "I want to marry that radio announcer." Mama replied, "You can't marry him. He's a commentator."

Profanity

BY GAYLORD COOK

Profanity seems to have swept across our country like a dread plague. Today it seems to be fashionable habit all around us. In times past those who cursed and swore seemed to have some respect for the presence of women and children, but today there are no place nor time limits upon the practice. Today the women and children are themselves often heard using unbecoming language. Even our national leaders—men of intelligence and position speak forth cursing, even in public addresses. All of this does not make the practice right nor remove the condemnation of God against it. Do you believe that profanity has ever (1) Replaced a lost or stolen article? (2) Healed or bound a bruise or cut? (3) Repaired broken or damaged property? (4) Gained or retained an honorable friend?, or (5) Served any useful or beneficial purpose? Can even on REAL reason be given why it should be practiced? No! In the name of common sense, why do men not cease to use profanity?

STATE Capital NEWS

By VERN SANFORD

AUSTIN.—Legislators face a week of major decisions.

Before the House are key portions of Gov. Preston Smith's finance plan.

House followed the Senate in hurrying to a vote the proposal to lift the $80 million a year welfare spending lid.

An emergency $48.4 million deficit spending bill to avert a welfare crisis is perhaps their biggest problem today.

A four-fifth vote of both houses is required to suspend the Texas constitutional "pay as you go" requirement and permit lawmakers to go into the red for the balance of the fiscal year ... which ends in August.

If legislators decline to take this route, they must pass a tax bill to raise the money by March 1. To place a revenue raising measure into immediate effect would require passage by a two-thirds majority.

Alternative is reduction in welfare benefits by early spring.

Another matter being moved to an early showdown is Gov. Smith's proposal to float a $450 million state bond issue secured by income from permanent school fund revenue diversion. Both bond issue and tapping of school land lease money would require constitutional amendments.

Courts Speak

Third Court of Civil Appeals here turned down the plan of the Fredericksburg Community Savings and Loan Association to provide mobile service to Burnet, Bandera, Kimble, Llano and Mason counties via trailer.

Third Court also affirmed the savings and loan commissioner's decision to grant a charter to Matagorda County Saving and Loan Association in Bay City.

An April 7 hearing is set in the Third Court for the Sharpstown Bank of Houston dispute with an insurance company over a performance bond to insure repayment of a loan.

Mustang Island park purchase — whether State Parks and Wildlife Commission has authority to spent $4.2 million in state and federal funds for the property — has been the subject of a lengthy hearing in the federal district court at Austin for two weeks.

New Car Insurance Plan

Auto insurance agents in a hearing before the Insurance Board proposed "a much better insurance package" at reduced cost.

But a spokesman acknowledged no actuarial studies have been made to back up their claim.

While their plan keeps present liability coverage, it also would extend unlimited medical expense benefits to the insured regardless of who is at fault in accidents. It would replace up to 60 percent of wages lost due to accident injuries to maximum of $250 a week, and provide death and dismemberment coverage.

Although all of the above (proposed as mandatory coverage in each policy) would increase costs, agents claimed the overall premium would be reduced if $150 deductible damage coverage was substitured for $50 and $100 deductible.

AG Opinions

A Justice of the Peace is not authorized or required to present the state's case, or undertake representation of the state's interest, in any matter before him, Atty. Gen. Crawford C. Martin has held.

In another recent opinion, he concluded that the El Paso county treasurer is duty bound to countersign checks signed by the county auditor when the commissioners court orders money transferred from the general fund to a special bank account for disbursement by check to welfare recipients. However, said Martin, the treasurer may refer checks to the commissioners court for direction.

Martin obtained a $1,000 judgment against Proler Steel Corporation of El Paso as the result of an air pollution suit.

Treasure Display Urged

An interim committee advised the Legislature in a written report to direct permanent display of treasure recovered from ancient Spanish galleons off Padre Island.

Actual ownership still is subject of a dispute in court. Platoro Inc. of Gary, Ind., which recovered the artifacts, won a decision in the Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals that it had a valid contract with the state for a 50-50 share of the treasure.

House interim committee on housing the treasure concluded it should become the property of the permanent school fund, and transferred around the state in a mobile unit occasionally, so school children can see it in their own communities.

Registration Extension

A bill to extend voter registration through February sailed through the Senate 27-1 but ran into a delay in the House.

Another Senate bill passed to the House would provide for precinct-by-precinct reporting of statewide election returns to the secretary of state.

Still another would change the name of Pan American College, Edinburg, to Pan American University.

Federal Help Lauded

Word that the Secretary of Interior has announced the availability of more than $2 million to the State of Texas for fish and wildlife research in 1971 was greeted with enthusiasm by E. A. (Gene) Walker, director of Wildlife Services for the state.

Texas has participated in the Federal-State wildlife program since 1937 and the Sport Fish restoration project since 1950.

"This is the backbone of the work program in Wildlife and Fisheries," said Walker, "and the results of this basic research has provided tremendous increases in hunting and fishing opoprtunities for the people of this state."

As an example, Walker cited the fact that Texas has more deer than any other state; larger bag limits and longer seasons on quail ... just to mention a few of the benefits made possible by Federal financial assistance.

The Lone Star State will receive $1,538,500 in wildlife funds and $653,750 for fish restoration.

Money for wildlife research is derived from the 11 per cent excise tax on sporting arms and ammunition. Funds for fish projects come from a levy of 10 percent on sport fishing equipment.

Appropriation is made available through the Interior's Bureau of Sport Fisheries and Wildlife. Formula for appropriating hinges on the number of hunting and fishing licenses issued in the state.

Money also can be used for purchase of land and water for wildlife and public use.

CROSSROADS REPORT

I see where a statistician says the average family on welfare in New York City draws $7,435 a year, while the average factory wage in that town is $6,000.

Which is a better balance of privilege than would be found if anybody statisticated on the average income of public officials compared with the average income of productive working people.

But our social order does not operate on a statistically equal plan. The worm who catches the fish never gets the same size piece of it that the fisherman takes.

I see where it has been proclaimed by the Food and Drug Administration that 14 percent of the medicines we take are ineffective and therefore don't do us any good.

Apparently it hasn't been decided yet whether to exile any citizen who ignores the FDA pronouncement and gets well after taking one of these useless drugs.

But my calculatious neighbor says 86-to-14 odds are real good, and he wishes the proportion of ineffective congressmen, presidents, etc., was as low as 14 percent.

D. E. SCOTT.

Firecrackers First

Junior High Teams Win Trophies at Shamrock

Wellington Junior High Firecrackers won the Shamrock Junior High Invitational Tournament Saturday night, Jan. 30, defeating Shamrock 8th graders 55 to 42.

Earlier in the day, Wellington's Junior High girls won the consolation in a 26-12 victory over Erick, Okla., girls. Both teams received trophies.

Wellington defeated Shamrock seventh grade 58 to 36 in the opener, with Bobby Jo Shrubs scoring 30 points for Wellington and Joe Martinez 18 for Shamrock.

The Firecrackers' next opponent was McLean, and that team went down 60 to 28.

Again Shrubs led the scoring with 38 points and Larry Wright contributed a strong 16 points. Driven scored 9 for McLean.

The finals saw Shrubs at the head of the scoring column with 41 points; Barefoot made 28 for Shamrock.

"I felt this was one of the better games we have played all year," said Coach Carroll Nunnelley. "Shamrock has a fine team and they have been beaten only four times this year. Wellington has contributed two of those losses."

Rockets Bow to Top District 2-AA Teams

Wellington Rockettes defeated the strong Altus varsity girls team by one point, 43-42, to provide the only victory for the high school teams during the week.

The Skyrockets were handed defeats by the two top District 2-AA teams, No. 1 Childress on Tuesday night, Jan. 26, and No. 2 Seymour Friday night, Jan. 29.

Wellington B team lost to Childress B Tuesday night, and the Rockettes lost to Panhandle girls Friday night in the only game played away from home.

"Altus girls had defeated the Rockettes by more than 20 points on their home court, then we came back and beat them. The girls had to play an excellent game to do that," said Coach Don Lacy.

The game was close from the start and Wellington led only 2 points at the half and 3 at the third quarter. Cathy Singley scored 29 points for Wellington and Peggy Castle 18 for Altus.

Childress Bobcats took their fifth straight district victory when they defeated Wellington 77-44. It was also their 11th win in 22 outings.

The Cats jumped to a 23-9 lead in the first period and widened it to 42-19 at the half and 58-31 at the third. Bobby Saied and Ray Shrubbs scored 10 points each for Wellington, and Brett Parr had 14 for the Bobcats.

Childress B team defeated Wellington B 70 to 50.

Friday Games

Wellington girls lost to Panhandle 38 to 30 Friday night in Rocket Gym.

"They played an outstanding game, and both the guards and forwards did a real good job, but we had cold shooting and it cost us the game," said Coach Lacy.

Cathy Singley led the scoring with 21 points. Reining had 14 for Panhandle.

Seymour A defeated the Skyrockets 63-47 the same evening in a game that was tied 9-9 at the first quarter and 25-25 at the half. Wellington trailed only 2 points at the third, but in the fourth quarter the Rockets got in foul trouble and couldn't stay with their opponents.

Shrubs scored 15 points for Wellington and Reyfelt 16 for Seymour.

Wellington B team boys were defeated by Childress 70 to 50 Tuesday night, and lost again Friday to Seymour.

This was a much closer game than the 50-41 score indicated, said Coach Jimmy Forrester.

Wellington led by 1 point at half time, 19 to 18, and the score was tied 29-29 at the third. As play went into the final sections, Wellington was only 3 points out when they got into foul trouble. Failure to hit their free shots also was costly as they were able to hit only three out of 16 free shots.

Jay Thomas led the scoring with 12 points; Fulbright of Seymour had 22.

The Childress game was never close, and that school has one of the better B teams in the area. Randy Vaughan hit for 17; Seal scored 14 for Childress.

Wellington and Childress B teams will meet there Feb. 12.

AUSTIN.—Veterans who have lived in Texas for at least five years are now eligible to buy land under the Texas veterans land program, according to Land Commissioner Bob Armstrong.

"All a veteran has to do is mail a written request to me at the General Land Office, Austin, Texas, to receive an application. This is a new program and requests on the old applications are not being accepted," Armstrong said.

"A Special American Quality"

TB Group Commends County Participation

Efforts by the people of this community in behalf of the TB testing program brought this letter of thanks from the Top of Texas TB Association, with headquarters in Amarillo. Its executive director, Charles McIntosh, wrote:

When a lot of people have worked diligently to make a big job a success, it is simple good manners to say "thank you." The recent TB testing program in Collingsworth County was a success, the most successful yet held in the Panhandle area.

The Top of Texas TB and Respiratory Disease Association is taking this opportunity to thank all the people who worked to bring about that remarkable success. There are too many of you to thank individually in this letter, but we do want you to know that your Christmas Seal association is grateful— especially to all those young people who got out and worked like troopers, as well as a certain county judge and a certain policeman!

There is a special American quality about the people of Collingsworth County that made the TB program such a success. You care about your community, and you have pride in your citizenship.

Our country is very much in need of those qualities today; it makes us proud to have such people in the area we serve.

Sincerely,
Top of Texas TB Association

TANE Services Slated at Two City Churches

Subjects of many sermons on Sunday will be alcohol abuse and drug abuse. Speakers from Texas Alcohol Narcotics Education (TANE) will occupy pulpits in two churches in Wellington on Sunday, Feb. 7. They are the Church of the Nazarene, Rev. Philip Daniels, pastor, and the First Baptist Church, Rev. Roy D. Collins, pastor.

"Problems of alcohol and drug abuse are growing daily. It is going to be up to the people who care, to do something about these problems," said Rev. Albert F. Tucker, TANE executive director. "We find people who care in Texas' churches," he said.

TANE's purpose is to prevent, through education, problems that arise from use of alcohol, narcotics, and other dangerous drugs.

"We do not speak in local churches with the idea of reaching drunks and dope addicts, but to report to the people on the problems and what is being done about them," Rev. Tucker said.

A non-profit, educational organization, TANE has been in existence since 1935. Programs include the speakers bureaus, made up of more than 150 men; public school assembly programs; publishing; production of audio visual aids; legislative information service; research; a free film lending library; an annual school on alcohol and narcotics education, sponsored jointly by TANE and Baylor University, held each February in Waco, and public information service.

TANE's books and film strips have been distributed throughout the United States and the English-speaking world. Some have been translated into other languages, for use in South America and the Far East.

headlines in the newspapers. We anticipate that 1971 will see a small decrease in the money rates with interest rates firming up again in late spring and early summer.

"It is most significant to note that the doubling of our capital stock was done completely from the retained earnings of our bank and that not one stockholder was asked to contribute additional money or to purchase additional shares of stock to effect the capital increase. Applying the principles of accounting used by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation and the State Department of Banking, the City State Bank is still the strongest bank in the county and one of the strongest in the surrounding territory.

"It is a pleasure to thank our stockholders, directors, bank staff and many customers who have recommended our bank to their friends. They have made all of this possible and with their continued support we pledge to bring them the best banking service possible," Mr. Wilson said.

Officers of the City State Bank are. Jeff D. Wilson, president; Joe C. Terry, vice president; Billy Moseley, cashier; and June Owens, assistant cashier. Directors are Earl Lynn Bartlett, Wayne Cudd, Joe John Henard, Joe C. Terry and Jeff D. Wilson.

Land Bank Drops Some Interest

Jack Williams, manager of the Federal Land Bank Association of Shamrock, received word recently that The Federal Land Bank of Houston has reduced the interest billing rate on variable rate loans to 8%.

"This reduction affects more than 90 million dollars of variable rate loans to more than 2800 farmers and ranchers throughout Texas," Williams said.

The variable rate loan plan which was introduced by the Houston Bank in July 1969 lets the interest rate "float" over the variations in the money market. In large measure, therefore, the rate in any specific year will reflect the changes in prices which the bank must pay for the money it makes available for farm mortgage loans. Williams pointed out that this action is in line with the bank's policy in providing farmers and ranchers credit at the lowest possible cost consistent with sound business practices.

The Federal Land Bank of Houston makes long term real estate loans on farm and ranch lands throughout Texas. On Jan. 1 of this year, the bank had over $529 million in volume of loans outstanding.

The local association makes and services loans in Collingsworth and Wheeler counties.

Members of the local board of directors are J. C. Emmert, Woodrow Wood, Tom Cunningham, Robert Terry, C. F. Waters and H. J. Finsterwald.

increase and so will peanuts if the county can get more allotted acres.

Hunting leases now bring an estimated $5,000 per year into Collingsworth. A figure of $100,000 by 1976 is not out of line, said Mr. Reeves.

Little if any increase is expected from cotton and grain sorghum, although wheat should account for a little more than now. Income from these three depends heavily on the government farm program.

"The '3.76 in '76' program has the endorsement of all the state and federal agricultural agencies and the farm organizations within the state," said Mr. Reeves.

The counties within the state made a larger projection for themselves than did the specialists at A&M for those counties.

"It is felt by all experts in the agricultural field that this goal of $3.76 billion is obtainable and of course this will have a tremendous impact on the overall economy of Texas.

"All economists agree an agricultural income has a multiplier effect of about three to one as it moves through the channels of trade. Therefore this billion dollars of new agricultural income could have a three billion dollar impact on the economy of Texas," said the county agent.

By that formula, the $2.5 million increase in Collingsworth County could have a $7.5 million impact on this county.

Phipps Leaves for Rockport

Jack Phipps left last week for Rockport, where he plans to stay for the next three months.

Mr. Phipps said he will be employed by a carpet firm which is working in the area damaged last summer by Hurricane Celia. He will be away about three months, then return here to begin farming operations.

Group Attends McLean Service

A group from here attended the funeral of their aunt, Mrs. Edna Simpson of McLean on Monday, Feb. 1. Mrs. Simpson died Saturday, Jan. 30, of an apparent heart attack.

Her son, daughter-in-law and granddaughter, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Simpson and Pat Day were killed April 5, in the tornado that struck Sherwood Shores. Her husband, Mr. Simpson, died June 14, and a brother, P. A. Smulcer of Wichita Falls also died Saturday.

Attending the McLean service were Mr. and Mrs. Dick Sweat and Rufus Sweat of Wellington, and Mr. and Mrs. Otis Emmert of Quail.

Sandy Morris at City State

Mrs. Sandy Morris has begun work in the bookkeeping department of City State Bank, Jeff Wilson, president, announced this week.

Collingsworth County FARM NEWS

By Don Reeves
County Agricultural Agent

There is no profit in feeding cattle lice. These parasites are among the most damaging to beef cattle.

Infested cattle spend a lot of time rubbing against fences, posts and other objects due to the annoyance caused by these pests. More feed is required to maintain the condition of breeding cattle and to keep feedlot cattle gaining.

Infested cows lose weight and their calves become prime targets for the pests. Reduced weaning weights of calves can result when control measures are not used.

Cattle lice are common over the entire state and include both the biting and the sucking types. Their populations build up rapidly after cool weather arrives.

Sucking lice, short and long-nosed, pierce the animals skin and feed by sucking blood. They are usually found on the sides of the animal's neck, on the brisket, back, inner surface of the thighs, tail and around the nose, ears and eyes.

Chewing lice are smaller and are usually found on top of the shoulders and around the root of the tail, but also may infest other parts of the body.

Several chemicals are available for controlling lice as well as other external parasites of farm livestock.

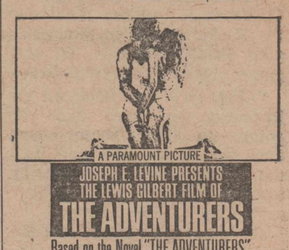

Follow the instructions on labels of the chemical containers and use control methods before cattle became too infested.
