UAW Strikes GM As Bargaining Fails

Message Sent By Dulles In Efforts To Soothe Chiang

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of State Dulles has sent President Chiang Kai-Shek a message designed to assure him the United States is standing by its basic policies on Formosa and Nationalist China.

The message represents a move by Dulles to bridge the split which developed from statements Dulles made at a news conference Tuesday.

His statements were interpreted as meaning the United States was prepared to bargain with Red China on the future status or at least the military use of Nationalist-held islands of Quemoy and Matsu.

Chiang replied Wednesday in an exclusive interview with the Associated Press saying he found Dulles' news conference statements unbelievable and that the U.S. attitude expressed by Dulles appeared to be "completely incompatible" with Nationalist China's determination to defend Quemoy and Matsu.

While the Dulles message to Chiang was secret, officials informed of his thinking about the general problem of carrying on friendly relations with the Nationalist allies while trying to start active negotiations with the Communists, stressed these points:

In his news conference talk, Dulles imposed a major condition which the Communists would have to fulfill before the United States would wish to have a reduction or pullback of Nationalist forces from the coastal islands.

The condition is that there must be a "dependable cease fire," and so far the Reds have rejected the whole idea of a cease fire.

Dulles left unchanged the U. S. pledge not to bargain with the Reds over any concession involving Nationalist Chinese rights. Specifically, he avoided any comment that would change the U.S. stand for leaving the legal title to Quemoy and Matsu in Nationalist control even if the defenses were modified.

The Nationalist Foreign Ministry declined immediate comment on President Eisenhower's statements at his news conference Wednesday. Officials were studying a transcript of the conference.

The President agreed with Dulles that Chiang should not have concentrated 100,000 troops on the offshore islands.

Eisenhower implied he backed Dulles on a tighter U.S. control over Chiang's ability to drag the United States into war with Red China. Washington officials are reported confident that in a showdown the United States would prevail over the Nationalist regime, which it has long befriended.

American officials in Taipei were hopeful that the less explicit tone of Eisenhower's answers to questions might soothe the sharp reaction here to what Dulles said. The President heavily stressed that the policy of avoiding retreat in the face of force still stands.

Chiang said in an interview with AP correspondent Spencer Moosa that he opposed reducing the offshore garrisons. He implied he would not be bound by any cease-fire negotiated between Washington and Peiping.

The Foreign Ministry later flatly rejected the Dulles formula and insisted that the large force on Quemoy is necessary to defend the island against the first step of an assault on Formosa.

NEEDS GUITAR, TOO

Elvis Interested In German Girls

By RICHARD O'REGAN

FRIEDBERG, Germany (AP)—Pvt. Elvis Presley said today he wants to meet German girls, see German opera and buy a guitar during his tour of duty with the U.S. Army in West Germany.

The rock 'n' roll singer, temporarily turned soldier, also said he still wants to meet French actress Brigitte Bardot.

The 23-year-old Presley held a news conference before 150 reporters and photographers in the enlisted men's club of the 3rd Armored Division. He arrived in this old German garrison town Wednesday night with 142 other recruits to start rigorous training as a tank crewman.

Of German girls, Presley said, "I've heard lots of rumors about them and I want to meet them."

What rumors? He quickly replied: "I'd better not answer that question. But nevertheless I would like to meet them."

"I would also like to see German opera and hear classic music concerts," he said. "I do not read music myself but I have a great admiration for musicians of all sorts.

"I hope to get a pass this weekend to go to Frankfurt to buy a guitar. I didn't bring one with me because I couldn't put it in my duffle bag. But it is hard to get along without one."

Presley appeared nervous before the battery of newsmen—both American and German. He frequently scratched his ear.

Asked about a New York statement that he would like to meet Bardot, he said he knew she was engaged to another guitarist—Sascha Distel—and added: "I got sort of shot out of the saddle on that one."

Still, he said, "I admire her very much. She has a terrific personality and I would consider it a privilege to meet her."

Of his Army life, Presley said soldiers frequently have asked him to shoot craps "but I never indulge because it would have a bad effect on the young people. They would lose their respect for me."

He said he had lost 10 pounds since entering the Army and added: "I expected a lot of kidding when I entered the Army. I thought the other soldiers would give me a hard time. Actually, it has been the complete opposite."

CLEANS UP IN RUSSIA—Sporting a Russian karakul cap, 38-year-old Romaine Fielding of Los Angeles poses next to some laundry equipment after his return from Russia — where he sold a batch of clothes washing machinery for $30,137. It all started out as a potential tax-free junket to Russia for a trade fair. The fair was called off but Fielding went to Russia anyway, set up his equipment in a basement and hung out a sign. After a couple of weeks a Soviet official asked what he'd take for the works. Fielding named his price and got it. (AP Wirephoto)

Thousands Leave Early

By CHARLES C. CAIN

DETROIT (AP) — The United Auto Workers Union today struck General Motors after a final 20-hour bargaining session failed to bring contract agreement covering 250,000 workers.

General Motors said the strike was almost 100 per cent within 30 minutes.

Thousands of GM workers struck well in advance of the official strike deadline, 10 a.m. EST.

GM Vice-President Louis Seaton, head of the company bargaining team, conceded an hour before the deadline that efforts to reach a settlement had failed.

Seaton termed the strike "a useless type of thing which will result in loss of wages, losses to our suppliers and dealers, and to everyone from the baker to the butcher."

UAW President Walter Reuther, who Wednesday reached contract agreement with Chrysler Corp., expressed disappointment at his failure to achieve the same result with GM.

Reuther said he was not asking any more from GM than he had obtained in the Ford-Chrysler agreements. The UAW reached agreement on a three-year contract with Ford Sept. 17. The Chrysler pact nearly duplicated the Ford pattern.

Reuther insisted GM workers "are entitled to some special consideration in matters pertaining to wage inequities and short work weeks."

GM, like the other auto makers, had a disappointing sales year for 1958 models and many workers had long layoffs or short work weeks most of the year.

Today's was the first national strike at GM since 1945 when the nation's largest automobile manufacturer was tied up for 113 days in a dispute over wages.

Reuther's UAW settled with Chrysler and Ford on a pattern calling for increases of 24 to 30 cents an hour over the three-year life of the new contracts. The pacts also provided increases in supplemental unemployment pay and severance pay for workers who lose their jobs because of plant shutdowns or transfers.

Seaton was asked if GM planned any move in the final hour of bargaining. "We see no necessity for a new offer when we've already made one exactly like that of Ford and Chrysler, which the union said was good for the UAW and good for the nation," he replied.

Both GM and the UAW conceded that the GM bargaining picture is the most complicated in the industry because the company has many more plants and thousands more workers than either Ford or Chrysler, other members of the industry's Big Three.

Seaton said that GM's output is so diversified, ranging from automobiles to refrigerators to electric locomotives, that there are thousands of pay scales. The union has insisted that the wage rates of an assembler, for example, should be uniform in GM plants but Seaton declared the types of work are so varied, it would be impossible to adopt a standard rate.

The International Electrical Workers, with 20,000 members in GM plants, also went on strike with the UAW today.

GM deals with 17 other unions in addition to the UAW and the IUE.

Like other auto makers, it is just getting rolling on production of 1959 cars.

The UAW strike plan will go into operation at the beginning of the third week of the strike and will cost the union an estimated $8,274,000 a week. Strike benefits will run from $12 for a single person to $22 for a family man.

There were no reports of any incidents as workers walked off the job and set up huge picket lines around many GM plants.

More Rains Falling Over South Texas

By The Associated Press

Texas, already water-logged over wide areas, faced another cloudy day Thursday with rain falling over much of South Texas and along the coast.

More scattered rains were forecast along the coast and in South Texas, with a slow warming trend predicted.

Predawn temperatures Thursday ranged from Dalhart's 43 degrees to Galveston's 62.

Water drained off slowly in the area around Alice, soaked by rains of up to five inches Tuesday night. Highway 281 north of Alice and Highway 44 between San Diego and Freer were closed until midday Wednesday after creeks overflowed.

Downpours of up to six inches swept the Lower Valley Wednesday, flooding U.S. 83 near McAllen and closing several low residential streets.

The Brownsville Weather Bureau said there was some minor flooding in the lowlands between levees.

Official rainfall reports for the 24 hours ending at 6 p.m. Wednesday included Victoria 2.05 inches, Beaumont 1.46, Laredo 1.07, Harlingen 1.26, Port Isabel 1.03, San Antonio 1.10, Austin .01, Galveston .04, Houston .47, San Angelo .01, Palacios .16, Beeville .98, Kingsville .27 and Cotulla .48.

Highs Wednesday varied from 72 at Brownsville to 57 at Beeville and Van Horn.

The Rio Grande continued falling at Presidio after 18 days of high water there. No major flooding was expected downstream, but releases at Falcon Dam were stopped up to make room for the extra water coming down the river.

A weak low pressure area in southeast Colorado was expected to bring more cool air into the Texas Panhandle late Thursday, the Weather Bureau reported.

Rainfall for 24 hours ending at 6 a.m. Thursday included Brownsville 2.45 inches, Victoria 1.10, San Antonio .49, Cotulla 36, Beeville .28, Laredo .26, Palacios .13, Kingsville, Houston, and Corpus Christi .02, and Austin .01.

Nationalist Plane With 11 Missing

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP) — A Chinese Nationalist flying boat carrying 11 persons, including four U. S. servicemen, was missing today on a flight from the offshore Matsu Islands.

The plane disappeared shortly before sunset Wednesday. Almost 24 hours later Nationalist search planes and two U. S. destroyers had failed to find a trace. Officials speculated that the slow-flying plane had encountered bad weather. They said there was no sign of Communist fighters in the area.

The four U. S. military men aboard are connected with the U. S. military advisory team stationed on Matsu. Their names were withheld.

Work To Begin On New Junior High

Construction is to begin next week here on the new junior high school in west Snyder.

Kelley Construction Co. of San Angelo is general contractor, Howell Electric of Snyder electrical contractor, and R. W. Gray of Odessa mechanical contractor on the project, which is to cost $997,800.

The building will have about 85,000 square feet of floor space. It is the largest of the projects scheduled under the school district's $2,325,000 building program, which also includes the new Stanfield Elementary School now under construction.

The new junior high will have 18 regular classrooms plus auditorium, girls and boys gymnasium facilities, cafeteria, library, and a number of special rooms, including choral, band, typing, business, homemaking rooms, science laboratories, arts and crafts room, ceramics room, speech arts rooms, girls physical education room, team rooms, and others.

When the building is complete, the school district will use the two junior highs here for reorganization of the upper grades of the school system into three-grade junior highs and a three-grade high school. There are now four grades in the high school and two in the junior high.

The main portion of the new junior high will be of quadrangular shape, facing east and fronting El Paso Avenue. West of the main building and facing Thirty-second Street will be the gymnasium. Houston Avenue will run along the west side of the campus.

The Kelley firm has specified 365 days to completion of the building.

Liz Still Loves Mike

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — "I will love Mike Todd to the day I die. It was only a few weeks ago that I came out of my shell, could even force myself to look at pictures of Mike again. I know that Mike, of all people, would want me to be happy."

The speaker: Elizabeth Taylor, movie actress, widow of showman Todd and barefoot hostess at a house party celebrating Eddie Fisher's return to television.

Fisher, a close friend of Todd, concurred:

The party was after the singer's Tuesday night show. Reporters outside Miss Taylor's swank Bel-Air mansion saw her skipping gaily over the lawn, barefoot.

Fisher's wife, Debbie Reynolds, has said she would divorce the singer, who squired Miss Taylor about town while in New York recently.

Dallas Restaurants Asked To Hold Line

DALLAS (AP)—The State Fair and the Dallas Restaurant Assn. have appealed to the city's restaurants not to raise their prices during the Texas-Oklahoma football weekend, Oct. 11.

James Stewart, general manager of the fair, yesterday sent restaurant owners a letter in which he said that the University of Texas Ex-Students Assn. informed him one of its members checked restaurant prices here before and during the weekend of last year's game and found prices had been increased.

Coeds Ruled Out At A&M

WACO (AP)—The 10th Court of Civil Appeals reversed today a lower court decision granting two Bryan women permission to attend all-male Texas A&M College.

The decision reverses a ruling by Dist. Judge W. T. McDonald of Bryan in holding that women should be admitted to A&M.

The suit was brought by Mrs. Lena Ann Bristol and Mrs. Barbara Alice Tittle after A&M officials refused to let them enroll at the college.

Both claimed they would be unable to attend a state school and that the distance, about seven miles, from their homes made A&M the more practical school to attend.

Today's ruling was read by Justice Jake Tirey with Chief Justice Frank McDonald concurring. The third member of the court, Justice Joe Hale, is ill and was not present.

The opinion read:

"Since the state supports one all-male and one all-female and 16 coeducational schools; it exalts neither sex at the expense of the other. But to the contrary recognizes the equal rights of both sexes to the benefit of the best, most varied system of higher education the state can supply."

The next legal step would be the Texas Supreme Court.

W. L. Heaton, representinging A&M, appealed Judge McDonald's ruling to the Civil Appeals Court here. Arguments on the appeal were heard two weeks ago.

In a legal brief, Atty. Gen. Will Wilson said the all-male college should not be changed to a co-educational status by the courts but only by the Legislature.

The brief contended the U.S. Supreme Court has held that classification by sexes is a state power. A&M directors, Wilson wrote, have legislative authority to set admission standards and has decided against allowing women to enroll.

Wilson also contended that A&M, set up primarily as an agricultural and engineering college, does not offer courses appealing to women.

Founded in 1876, A&M has been an all-male school, although there has been at least one woman to get a degree from the college and others received certificates of completion.

Little Rock School Corp. Has Big Task

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP) — The Little Rock Private School Corp. today faced the stupendous task of organizing an educational system for 2,600 white high school students within days. The corporation has no plan for educating Negroes.

After announcing that it will seek to set up high school classes in private buildings and operate them with donations, the corporation issued an appeal for funds and facilities.

Dr. T. J. Raney, corporation president, revealed that the program does not include any plans for the 700 Negroes who normally attend Horace Mann High.

The city's senior high school students now have been out of classes five weeks past the normal fall opening. Gov. Orval E. Faubus closed the high schools before they opened. He said he did so to prevent violence such as occurred at Central High a year ago when integration took place with military support.

De Gaulle Arrives In Algeria To Inspect Troops, Tell Plans

By ANDREW BOROWIEC

ALGIERS (AP) — Premier de Gaulle returned to Algeria today to inspect troops and deliver a policy statement. He is expected to spell out at least some of his plans for this troubled North African territory.

He was given a big welcome, though scattered hit-and-run incidents of sabotage and terrorism were staged by nationalist rebels in the countryside overnight.

He planned to start his Algerian tour with an inspection of troops in the Moroccan frontier area.

This is the fourth visit of the 67-year-old World War II hero to Algeria since he assumed the premiership June 1.

De Gaulle gave no hint of a new policy for Algeria in his first speech at Tiaret. He spoke only in general terms.

However, it was clear that he is not accepting rebel demands for independence.

He is delivering a policy statement at Constantine Friday.

The mixed peoples of Algeria—French, Arabs and Berbers—waited with mixed emotions for clarification of his intentions toward the territory, officially regarded in Paris as part of France.

They had contributed heavily (about 30-1) to the landslide endorsement Sunday of De Gaulle's new constitution. The Fifth French Republic, with the strongest executive branch the nation has known for three quarters of a century, will be born under the new charter next Sunday.

The tone of the reception by Algeria's French settlers, outnumbered by North Africans about 9-1, was intended to remind De Gaulle that his victory in the constitutional referendum was an outgrowth of their May 13 right-wing uprising that swept him back to power.

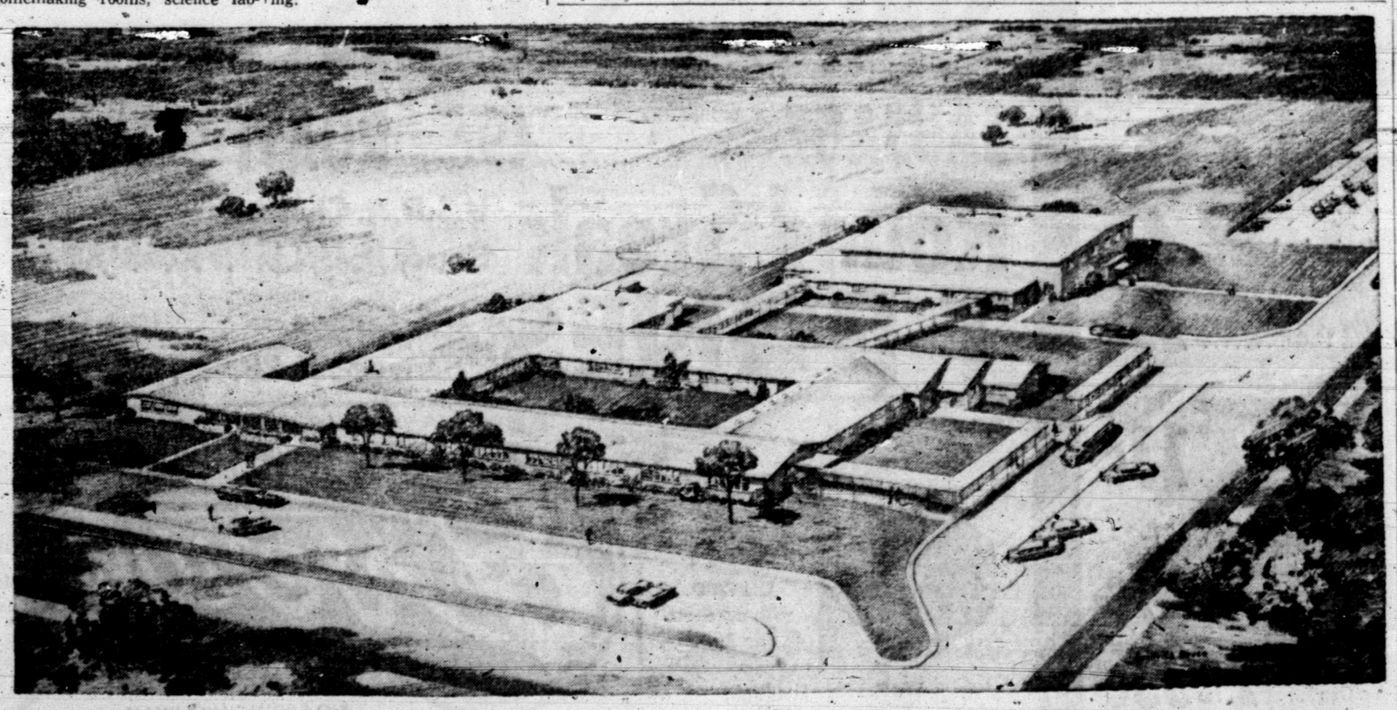
The settlers' major demands are for continued French rule and complete integration of Algeria into the French administrative and economic system.

Most of the Arabs and Berbers, largely poverty-stricken and illiterate, look to De Gaulle as a man who in the past has spoken of independence as a right of North African peoples.

It was at Constantine that De Gaulle, as the Free French leader in World War II, first came out in favor of equal rights for the North Africans of Algeria. That was Dec. 12, 1943.

In his coming policy statement at that city, often a target now of nationalist rebel violence, De Gaulle probably will unveil important social and economic measures aimed at lifting their living standards.

Army sources hinted that he may also announce important measures aimed at stemming the four-year-old rebellion, perhaps a sizable increase in the 500,000-strong French army that has so far failed to crush it.



THE NEW JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL to be built here is shown in an architect's drawing by Fred Buford & Associates of Dallas. The school will front on El Paso Avenue. Running alongside the north side of the campus will be Thirty-second Street, and behind the campus will be Houston Avenue.

Scientists Plan More Cooperation

WASHINGTON (AP)—Scientists from 21 nations start considering plans today for continuing cooperative research work after the International Geophysical Year ends.

The General Assembly of the International Council of Scientific Unions gathered for the opening of a four-day meeting to act on proposals for future work on space matters, antarctic studies and oceanography surveys.

The council's executive board has recommended creation of a special committee on space research to coordinate post-IGY research of all nations in the field of rockets, satellites and space probes generally.

Jayne Likes Pink House

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—This may cause quite a few arched eyebrows in interior decorating circles, but the new dream house of Jayne Mansfield and hubby Mickey Hargitay will have 11 bathrooms.

One bathroom will have walls of fur. Pink fur.

Pink predominates. There will be pink tinted mirrors in the master bedroom. The fireplace in the living room will be heart shaped. The swimming pool will be heart shaped. The gates, in sharp contrast, will be shaped like gates. But all these things will be pink.

Recently, Jayne and Mickey claimed they had to sleep on the floor. It developed that it was a temporary situation. The custom furniture arrived.

"We're spending $75,000 to redecorate," Mickey explained yesterday. Which should dispense with any rumor the couple is in a financial bind.

The home that the couple is redecorating was built by crooner Rudy Vallee in his boola-boola heyday.

New Moon Rocket Has Ground Test

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—For the second day in a row the Air Force unveiled what is believed to be the first stage of the next U.S. moon rocket for a ground test.

The modified Thor missile puffed out smoke off and on for three hours Wednesday after its service tower was rolled clear.

Just as in a similar test Tuesday, no rocket engine ignition was seen, however.

It apparently was a static test of the missile to prepare it for launching.

The next opportune time to launch a lunar probe will come Oct. 12 and three days thereafter then the moon is closest to earth.

Court Adjourned For Appraisal

GUEST SPEAKER—Mrs. Raymond Williams, right, Snyder school nurse was guest speaker for the Woman's Culture Club Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Williams gave an enlightening talk on health. Pictured on the left is Mrs. T. W. Pollard who had charge of the program and introduced the guest specker. (Lee Watson photograph)

Health Program Presented To Woman's Culture Club

In the business session Mrs. Floy Smith was welcomed as a new member.

The theme of the program was "Health", led by Mrs. T. W. Pollard. Each member answered roll call with some new method of treatment.

Mrs. Raymond Williams, school nurse was guest speaker. She spoke from the standpoint of "Protective Health", which was most interesting and instructive.

In substance she said: "Our future rests on the shoulders of the children of our land. These children are our responsibility.

"It is the responsibility of the parents and the teachers, alike that the students develop and maintain proper health. These two groups should share the responsibility work together, as a team, to develop good health habits in the children. How well these children succeed will depend upon how well we do our part in establishing in them good health habits.

"Health is the most important thing in life. Health includes mental, emotional, as well as physical condition, and not just the absence of disease. In other words good health means good citizenship.

"The teacher as well as the parent, must be ever on the alert. Each should be able to readily recognize signs of disease in a child, so that steps could be taken at once to avoid development of serious conditions or exposure to others. Even at the first sign of a cold the child should be kept at home. A parent should realize that health should come before perfect school attendance.

"Of great concern to all is the prevention of accidents. So often these are caused by carelessness. Anything that tends to present a hazard should be done away with.

"Health can be classified in three divisions: first, health education; second, health environment and third, health services.

"It is very essential that the child be taught good mental attitudes. Two vital health environments are cleanliness and proper lighting. Invaluable health services are rendered by the school and the school nurses. Often a child's eye-sight is defective, which the nurse detects and notifies the parent. The same is true when a child's teeth need to be checked by a dentist.

"An observant teacher knows when a child is not feeling well and helps the parent in determining whether or not medical attention is needed.

"Of great concern are the children that are handicapped, crippled, or retarded. The school strives to give adaquate health services to make the lives of these easier and happier. These services create a better understanding between home and school. In conclusion, health is complete physical, mental, emotional, social and spiritual welfare."

Mrs. Mable Belsher, hostess, served refreshments to 20 members and one visitor, Mrs. Mary Swindle.

NEW TWIST

A very interesting item in the line of notions is the twist pin. These little pins have cork screw like tips to fasten things to cushioned surfaces such as slip covers of tidies at backs and arms of overstuffed furniture. They hold auto seat covers neatly in place. These rustproof pins are decorative too, having clear plastic or other heads.

It's best not to re-freeze ice cream after it has softened because it tends to shrink in volume and gain a coarse texture.

TESCO's Annual Dinner Meet Set

Aobut 50 employes and wives or husbands from the Snyder office of Texas Electric Service Co. will attend the annual dinner honoring the compani's Quarter Century Club members in this area Friday night.

The dinner will be at 6:30 p.m. Friday at the Civic House in Colorado City for the Snyder, Colorado City, and Sweetwater offices.

Snyder has two Quarter Century Club members, according to Bill Brown, local manager for TESCO. J. E. Blakey, former manager here and now consultant for the company, will attend the dinner. The other member, Mrs. Ethel Eiland, retired, will be unable to attend because of ill health.

Dr. Kenneth McFarland, educational consultant for General Motors and the American Trucking Association, will be main speaker at the dinner. Dr. McFarland, considered one of the nation's outstanding public speakers, is well-known in this area. Prior to his present field of work, he was for 24 years a school executive and became nationally-known as such. McFarland lives at Topeka, Kan.

J. B. Thomas of Fort Worth, TESCO president, will discuss company and employe accomplishments during the year and will outline some of the company's plans for future growth to keep abreast of development of cities, towns, and rural areas served.

Following the dinner and speaking, there will be dancing music by Jack Free and his orchestra.

Electoral College To Gain Three

WASHINGTON (AP) — With Alaska becoming the 49th state, it's going to take more electoral votes to pick the next president.

When Alaska holds its first election Nov. 25 to choose two senators and one representative it will increase total Senate membership to 98 and House membership to 436 in the 86th Congress convening next January.

The Electoral College for the 1960 presidential election will be raised by three votes to 534—one for each senator and House member. This compares with the 531 total in effect since the 1912 election.

The winning presidential candidate in 1960 will have to poll at least 268 electoral votes, a majority of 534, instead of 266 as before.

Unless Hawaii meanwhile is made the 50th state, the Electoral College vote would be reduced by one—to 533—for the 1964 election. This is because the addition of a House member for Alaska only temporarily raises the total House membership to 436. After the 1960 reapportionment, the over-all total is due to drop back to the present legal 435. The Senate total will not drop back.

Ministers To Meet Friday

The Snyder Ministerial Alliance will have its monthly meeting Friday instead of the first Monday of the month.

The luncheon meeting will be at 11:30 a.m. Friday at the B 'n B Steakhouse.

The annual election of officers will be held during the meeting. President officers are the Rev. Jack Dean, pastor of the Northside Baptist Church, president; the Rev. Donald Hungerford, vicar of St. John's Episcopal Church, vice-president; and the Rev. Ralph Odom, pastor of the Union Methodist Church, secretary-treasurer.

Guests of the alliance at the meeting will be Joe Bohannan, Wayland G. Holt, and Dan Cotton, representing the Boy Scouts of America.

At the alliance's last meeting there was a record attendance of 20 Snyder ministers.

Integration Saves Money In Oklahoma

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)—Gov. Raymond Gary estimates that integration in Oklahoma's school system saved about one million dollars last year.

R. H. Emans, school finance director, said savings, plus tighter tax enforcement and redistricting, gave the schools about 2½ million dollars more than was anticipated.

Emans said it was difficult to estimate the actual amount saved through integration but that it was appreciable. The governor said, "I would say integration has saved us between $750,000 and $1,000,000 a year."

More People Do Less In More Time

TORONTO (AP) — The more people there are to do less work, the more time it takes them to do it.

That's the gist of Parkinson's Law—so named by C. Northcote Parkinson, professor of history at the University of Malaya.

His book "Parkinson's Law and Other Studies in Administration" poses this idea: in any organization the number of subordinates multiplies at an annual rate determinable in advance, regardless of the amount of work the staff turns out.

Here for an education meeting, Parkinson said he discovered his theories while he served as a staff officer with the British air force in World War II.

He explained: "I was posted to staff headquarters where there was a very senior officer whom I'll call A. Under him there was another senior officer we'll call B. Under B was a fairly senior officer, C, and I was D."

All four worked hard getting through mountains of paperwork each day.

Then A went on leave. The work was easier. B was called away. The work became easier still.

"At this point C fell ill. I was left alone and had everything cleaned up by lunchtime each day," the professor said. "I suppose if I had left the sergeant in charge he could have completed it all before morning tea break."

Parkinson hastily explained the law doesn't apply to history professors and other actual workers. It affects only those who go about organizing other people's work. He cited this example:

A senior civil servant is getting older and finds his work too much for him. He doesn't want a man of equal status to help him so he asks for two assistants and he directs their work. Other civil servants demand assistants also.

Result? In time the assistants ask for assistants and the pyramid builds. But the amount of work remains the same.

The British Colonial Office is a good example, Parkinson says. Britain's colonies decrease annually, yet the administrative staff increases.

Burkett-Carr Tiff Resumed

AUSTIN (AP) — The question of who will be the next speaker of the Texas House remained in doubt as Rep. Joe Burkett of Kerrville again challenged his opponent to a showdown yesterday.

Burkett said Speaker Waggoner Carr of Lubbock who seeks re-election, had not lived up to a claim to release the names of his pledges as he said he would on Aug. 24.

Burkett claims the support of 77 members. Carr says he has 80 pledges of the total 150-member house.

"On Aug. 31, I issued a sincere challenge to my opponent to lay down his cards along with mine, to any reasonable, impartial individual," Burkett said in a letter sent to all nominees for state representative.

"I asked that the authenticity of our respective pledges be checked by this impartial individual, then the one of us lacking a majority to get out of the race."

Burkett said Carr ignored the challenge. He said Carr should either make public his list of pledges "or suffer the embarrassment of admitting the falsity of his claims."

New Drive For Water Code Starts

AUSTIN (AP) — A new drive to give Texas an inclusive water and boat code to make the lakes and rivers safer was under way here today.

Rep. Ben Atwell of Dallas, who tried to push such a measure through the last legislature will try again in the 56th session starting in January.

To help the bill pass, a steering committee decided yesterday to abandon a suggestion that a water zoning provision be included. It is so controversial, Atwell advised, that it would make passage of the general measure more difficult. He suggested that is such measure is needed, it should be included in a separate bill.

Water skiers, swimmers and fishermen are in constant conflict on Texas lakes. Fishermen curse the skiers for churning up the water and endangering their lives. Skiers complain that fishermen clutter up the lakes and spoil their fun.

Decision to shelve the zoning plan was an outgrowth of a gun and boat safety conference held here last May, sponsored by Gov. Daniel.

The proposed law, generally followed a uniform code adopted by other states, deals specifically with such questions as overloading and overpowering boats, reporting of accidents, requirement of safety devices.

It would forbid carless or reckless operation of all skies, surfboards and boats, with penalties for violation; prohibit operation of boats by persons under the influence of alcohol or narcotics. It would apply to salt and fresh water operations and would not conflict with existing Coast Guard regulations.

It would provide for registration of boats for a yet-undetermined period by the Highway Department, using the present motor vehicle registration machinery. The fees would be used to defray administrative expense.

No separate agency would be set up for collection offices or enforcement of the act. The law would give the enforcement job to state and local officers, game wardens, or other officers with general policing powers. It would be written specifically to include juveniles.

Jobless Pay Claims Drop

AUSTIN (AP) — The Texas Employment Commission said yesterday unemployment compensation claims dropped slightly during the week ending Sept. 25.

Claims for insured employment during the week totaled 61,543, down from the 61,922 jobless of the previous week.

The TEC reported on Sept. 1 Amarillo had the smallest unemployed ratio of any major labor market of the state. Only 4.1 per cent of its labor force was jobless.

San Antonio had 4.2 per cent unemployment, Austin, Dallas and El Paso 4.3; Lubbock 5.1; Longview, Kilgore and Gladewater 5.6; Corpus Christi and Waco 5.8; Wichita Falls 6, Abilene 6.4; Fort Worth 6.5; Houston and Baytown 6.8, San Angelo 7.5, Galveston and Texas City 7.8, Texarkana 8.9, and Beaumont-Port Arthur 10.7.

The TEC said Austin, El Paso and San Antonio were designated as moderate labor surplus areas. Substantial labor surplus areas included Beaumont-Port Arthur, Corpus Christi, Fort Worth, Houston, Laredo and Texarkana.

BUCKIN' THE LINE

By BUCK FRANCIS
News Sports Editor

TOMMY HART, THE BIG SPRING scribe, vows that his beloved Steers just might have ended the Tigers three-game streak over the Bovines had Buddy, Barnes, Benny McCrary and Roger Flowers been healthy.

All three of these boys suited up and played most of the game.

It might be of interest to Hart that the Tigers had two regulars that didn't even suit up for the Big Spring game in addition to a couple of first line reserves.

Hart also opined that the Tiger offense would be just so-so without Dick Hayes. Wonder what the Big Spring scribe makes of the 100 yards gained by fullback Paul Stanley and the 74 yards gained by Jimmy Allen in the Steer game?

And quarterback Richard Mahan, one of the finest field generals in the schoolboy ranks, is no slouch at lugging the mail, either. Mahan's running chores were limited somewhat in the Big Spring game because of a shoulder injury. Richard carried only six times against Big Spring but averaged about six yards per tote, gaining a net of 35 yards.

And you certainly can't overlook Mahan's deceptiveness in handling the ball off the T that has a lot to do in making the Tiger offense click.

Blocking Essential

Another thing that Hart apparently overlooked was the blocking in the Tiger line. A back, regardless of how good a runner he might be, can't go unless there's some holes to run through at the line of scrimmage.

The Tiger backs have made good use of this fine blocking as they have averaged 311 yards rushing per game in the three outings to date.

By looking over the game statistics, we can prove what we mean by blocking being a vital factor in making an offense click. The Steer fullback, Wayne Fields, is one of the most powerful runners we've seen perform in the schoolboy ranks but even as powerful as he is, he still has to have some help from the boys up front.

In last Friday's game, Fields was stopped for two yards or less on 14 occasions. He netted only eight yards on these 14 carries. On each of these occasions there probably was no hole to run through.

Yep, to succeed in this game of football, you've got to have team work.

As long as Kenny Drake and Bill Dubose at the ends, Ronnie Giles and Terry Lee at the tackles, Mickey McGrew and Tommy Minton at the guards, and Devane Jones at center, keep clearing the way for Tiger ball carriers as they have done in the three games to date, the Bengals will be hard to stop on the ground regardless of who may be lugging the mail.

Ball Control Paying Off

Ball control has been a secret to the Tiger success in the three games to date. The Bengals have executed 180 rushing plays to 101 for the opposition and 28 passes to 40 for the foes. The Tigers, thus, have gotten off 208 scrimmage plays not counting punts to 141 for the opposition.

An ex-Tiger of last season, Dickie Martin, has already broken into the scoring column in college football. Martin scored a touchdown in Texas Western's 15-8 win over New Mexico University last Saturday. Martin gained a total of 11 yards on six carries from his fullback position.

Another ex-Bengal, Jack Spikes, has gained 75 yards on 23 carries in TCU's first two games against Kansas and Iowa.

Bauer 'Goat' In Opener

By TED SMITS

MILWAUKEE (AP) — What would have happened in the first World Series game if Hank Bauer hadn't been so eager in the first inning?

And what would have happened if Warren Spahn hadn't been waiting for just what Bauer did?

Bauer, first up for the New York Yankees, rapped a single to left and thereby broke his own World Series record by hitting safely in 15 consecutive games.

Maybe that made him a little too careless. At any event, he took too wide a lead off first and Spahn, on the mound for the Milwaukee Braves, whipped the ball to Joe Adcock at first as Bauer, hopelessly trapped, bolted for second. Adcock threw to Johnny Logan and Bauer was out.

Then up came Gil McDougald. He singled through short. If Bauer had played it safe, this would have put Yankees on second and third with none out. Mickey Mantle popped out to Del Crandall, but Elston Howard flied to center—and if Bauer had been on third he could have scored on the fly ball.

That would have meant a Yankee run, which could have meant that instead of the game being tied at 3-3 in the ninth, the Yankees would have been on top 4-3. Instead it was the third out.

What did the principals say?

Bauer — "I was just caught running."

Spahn — "I felt beforehand the Yankees were going to try a running game and I believed I could cope with it."

Manager Fred Haney of the Braves—"Picking off Bauer was the key play of the game."

And so the game, which began in a rather leisurely, sloppy fashion, wound up in a tense 10th-inning drama that was decided by Billy Bruton's slashing hit to right center scoring Adcock with the run that made it 4-3 for the Milwaukee Braves.

Both left-handed pitchers, Spahn for the Braves and Whitey Ford for the Yankees, were hit freely in the opening innings, but not until the fourth was a run scored. Then with two out Bill Skowron lofted a ball barely fair into the left field bleachers for the first home run of the 1958 World Series and the first score for the Yankees.

The Braves came back in their half of the fourth to score two. Hank Aaron drew a base on balls, advanced to second on a passed ball and to third on a fielder's choice. Then with two out Crandall brought him home with a single to left. Andy Pafko singled to center, putting Crandall on second, and he scored on Spahn's single to left.

The Yankees went ahead in the fifth when Bauer atoned for his base running by lahing a home run over the left field fence after Ford had drawn a walk.

So at the end of the ninth the score was tied at 3-all.

In the 10th, with Ryne Duren pitching (since the eighth) for Ford, and one out, Adcock singled to center, advanced to second on Crandall's single through short, and scored on Billy Bruton's low liner to right center.

But second-guessers will talk about this one long into the hot stove season because of what happened in the first inning.

Blue Devils, Big Spring In Twinbill Here

Snyder's two junior high teams, both undefeated in three games, will host Runnels Junior High of Big Spring at Tiger Stadium tonight.

The 7th grade contest will start things off at 7 p.m. to be followed immediately by the 8th grade game at about 8:30.

Tonight's game will be the Blue Devil 8th graders' initial home appearance of the season. The 7th graders have played one home game this season as compared to two road tilts.

Both Blue Devil teams are unscored upon this season. The 8th graders, however, have a 0-0 tie tie against South Abilene to mar an otherwise perfect record. The two 8th grade wins were over Big Spring Goliad, 22-0, and Lamesa 22-0.

The Blue Devil 7th graders have swept to three straight wins, 22-0 over Big Spring Goliad, 22-0 over Colorado City and 46-0 over Lamesa.

While the junior high teams are entertaining the home folk, the Tiger Freshmen and "B" teams will be playing on foreign turf. The Tiger Frosh go to Sweetwater and Tiger B to Midland, both set for 7:30 tonight.

It will be the second meeting between Snyder and Midland B teams. Midland got the best of the first game here, 28-14. In two other games this season, Tiger B defeated Lamesa, 20-8, and bowed to San Angelo by a thin point, 13-12.

The Tiger Freshmen will carry a 2-1 record to Sweetwater tonight. Wins have been over Lamesa, 24-8, and Big Spring, 24-0, while the lone loss suffered by the Tiger Yearlings was a 24-8 decision to Edison of San Angelo.

Dixie Series Site Switches After Flood

BIRMINGHAM, (AP) — The trouble-beset 49th Dixie Series came back to Birmingham today.

Corpus Christi and Birmingham were forced out of the playing field at Corpus Christi by a deluge of rain after Tuesday night's game. The Giants had evened the series 2-all with a 6-3 score.

The field was all but floating. The fifth game of the best-of-seven series was shifted to Birmingham.

Corpus Christi owner E. J. Himphries and Manager Ray Murray agreed to finish the series in Birmingham because "we believe we can win the Dixie Series anywhere."

There will be no change in the starting pitchers, already announced. Baron Manager Cal Ermer will start Bill Harrington while Murray has picked Dick Maibauer.

Breck-Abilene Tilt Features Schoolboy Slate Tomorrow

By The Associated Press

The clash of Breckenridge with Abilene headlines a bulky Texas schoolboy football schedule this week.

Breckenridge is one of 81 undefeated, untied teams risking their records as the high school races move to the half-way mark.

The Bucaroos, who felled such stalwarts as Wichita Falls of Class AAA and Sweetwater of Class AAA, will be faging an Abilene team that wants to return to the top.

Abilene was a victim of Sweetwater and obviously will be the underdog against Breckenridge, a Class AAA team that's rated the best in the state, all classes considered.

The carnage is due to be heavy among the undefeated and untied over the state this week because many of them meet each other. Seven of the 88 teams with perfect records have open dates and they'll be the only comfortable ones.

The big game of Class AAAA sends Arlington against once-tied Garland. Laredo, also undefeated and untied, clashes with Beeville, an unbeaten but once tied outfit from Class AAA.

There is plenty of action among the perfect record teams in Class AA where Perryton rolls against Phillips of AAA, Burkburnett plays at Electra and Mart, co-champion of Class A, makes a foray into the upper class for a scrap with Marlin.

Class A has three games matching undefeated, untied teams—Grapeland at Trinity, West Orange at Hull-Daisetta and Katy at Sugar Land.

There are conference games in all divisions except Class AAA this weekend. In Class AAAA unbeaten El Paso Burgess plays El Paso Bowie in a Dist. 1 game while the conference race opens in Dist. 3 with Amarillo playing at Borger and Amarillo Tascosa at Pampa.

Five Class AA districts have conference warfare with Burkburnett's clash with Electra in Dist. 9 the feature.

Class A has championships play in 10 districts. The Trinity-Grapeland game is a Dist. 19 affair. The West Orange-Hull-Dalsetta melee is a Dist. 23 game and the Katy-Sugar Land battle is a District 25 feature.

Taking Stock Of The Press

We are in the midst of National Newspaper Week. It is not an occasion for the press to pat itself on the back, but certainly is one for newspapers to take stock of their role in the great American pageant, which is unfolded by the people themselves.

The newspaper, as Americans know it, has two basic functions as we see it. It assembles information, usually referred to as "news," and transmits it to the public via the printed page.

What constitutes news? In America, everything that happens involving people or property.

The newspaper is published to provide knowledge, enlightenment and, yes, even to fulfill the desires of the curious.

The newspaper has been a vital fixture on the American scene since the Boston News Letter began circulation in early colonial days.

It has grown up with the nation itself, and the advancement of both has been enhanced by the freedom of expression which the newspaper typifies.

Occasionally there are those who profess to believe that such freedom of expression should be muffled. In almost every case however, they refer only to occurrences of an unpleasant nature involving themselves. When it involves the other fellow, they're for it.

Fortunately, the press in general plays it down the middle when the news columns are composed.

The strength of the system is evident in public acceptance. During the month of August this year, American newspapers used half a million tons of newsprint (paper). That matched the paper stock consumption of all book publishers in the country for all of 1957.

Fear Of Inflation Tightens Coffers

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business Ness Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—It's costing more to borrow all the time. Dearer money is returning with what might be called all deliberate speed.

Already there is talk of mortgage money getting tighter at a time when house building is booming again.

It costs businessmen more now to borrow from the bank to finance the movement of the crops or the production and stocking of goods for the Christmas trade.

Of late every time the U.S. Treasury has gone to the money market it has had to pay a little more. And its trips will continue as it finances the record peacetime deficit.

Fear of inflation is the bogey that causes the Federal Reserve Board to nudge interest rates higher — although it claims it is following rather than leading the trend.

Fear of inflation also seems to motivate many of the borrowers who had held back during the recession and hesitated for a time when the U.S. government securities market was at its most confused during the summer. Industry's trips to the money market are increasing now — before the costs get still higher.

Few bankers doubt that further hikes in interest rates are ahead. They expect tighter money too—insofar as Federal Reserve drives against inflation can offset the boost to inflation given by Treasury deficit financing.

The trend toward higher interest started in the West and spread to the East. The San Francisco Federal Reserve Bank was the last to lower its discount rate in 1957 and the first to raise it in 1958.

In the words of S. Clark Beise, president of California's Bank of America, the nation's largest, directors of the San Francisco Federal Reserve Bank are allergic to inflation.

He also notes that the demand for loans in California had stayed higher during the recession than in the nation as a whole and that the slump had dealt more kindly with his state than with some others.

Some fear that the rise in interest rates, and especially any tightening in the supply of credit, could chill the business recovery just as it is getting under way.

But most hold that confidence is running so high now that dearer money will affect it very little.

And others think the Treasury has put the Federal Reserve on the horns of a dilemma. The Treasury must meet its expected 12-billion-dollar deficit by borrowing and adding to the federal debt. The Federal Reserve is needed to see that there is enough money provided the banks to lend to the government.

The other horn is that the Federal Reserve would like to tighten up on the supply of money at each sign of further inflation.

The creeping rise in prices on many manufactured goods continues—all the way from the price of the new cars to the price of some textiles.

The stock market has shown the most evident belief that more inflation is coming. Stock prices have been built up to record highs apparently in this belief.

The cost of short-term borrowing goes up week by week. The flight from long-term bonds with fixed interest rates has been marked. Where the money market will level off is still to be seen.

Somalia, the United Nations Trust Territory in east Africa, is larger than California. But, Somalia has no written language of its own. Only a few native residents in the coast ports have learned to write Italian or English.

Formosa Debate Confuses Public

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP News Analyst

The American public — to say nothing of the rest of the free world—must be getting more and more confused as the debate over Formosa proceed along its fog-bound course.

First, Secretary of State Dulles tells the American public that if a dependable cease-fire could be achieved in the Formosa Strait, it would be foolish for Chiang Kai-shek to keep so many Nationalist troops on offshore islands hugging the China mainland. Chiang has an estimated 100,000 there now.

President Eisenhower follows this up by saying that if there is a cease-fire, there will be an opportunity to "negotiate in good faith."

The President denies Dulles' remarks indicate appeasement. And he warns that the United States cannot retreat before force without suffering for it.

What is retreat? What is appeasement?

According to Webster's, appeasement is the act of appeasing, and to appease means "to reduce to a state of peace, to pacify, often by satisfying demands, hence to make quiet or calm."

A retreat, says Webster's, is "the act of retiring or withdrawing from what is dangerous or disagreeable."

It seems safe to assume Secretary Dulles' remarks indicated the United States would not be averse to a situation in which it was committed to the defense of no more than Formosa and the Pescadores, as the outposts of the free world's western Pacific positions.

To this, the President adds the thought that if —a big "if"—the offshore islands should be demilitarized, it is possible 'we could get somehwere."

Is this a U.S. attempt to withdraw from a position which is dangerous or disagreeable? Does it mean that pouring American supplies into the offshore islands is useless? Is this being suggested in the face of force? Is it, in fact, retreat? And if it is, will the United States, as the President says, be bound to suffer by it?

When force, violent enough to raise a real threat of international war, is applied by Peiping, U.S. policy statements openly suggest Chiang's forces never should have been on the offshore islands. The United States now is hopefully exploring prospects for cease-fire and negotiation. But negotiation suggests there is something that can be negotiated, something to be offered.

The juxtaposition of all these ideas hints the United States is studiously seeking ways to calm a dangerous situation. By tossing the prospect of demilitarization into the hopper, the United States, regardless of Chiang's furious reaction, cautiously raises the hope that Red China might get the offshore islands eventually without risking a war of annihilation.

Is this an attempt to "reduce to a state of peace, to pacify, to make quiet or calm?" Is it, in fact, appeasement?

Perhaps administration thinking has reached the point where it is not too far removed from that of Democratic leader Adlai Stevenson. Perhaps it is ready to regard the islands close to the China coast as a mainland matter and is thinking in terms of a Formosan state.

In the name of nationalism, which all Communists profess to admire so deeply, a Formosan state, ruled by Formosans, might be politically defensible.

Chiang must be wondering too.

Ike, Nixon Differ On Campaign Plan

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower and Vice President Nixon have different ideas on how to elect a Republican Congress.

Eisenhower told his news conference Wednesday if all the registered Republicans went out to vote there would be no trouble about electing GOP candidates. He mentioned Maine, a normally Republican state.

Nixon is campaigning in California, where party registrations give the Democrats a 7-5 advantage. He has been calling on Democrats to forget party lines and support Republicans in order to continue what he calls the best six years in the country's history.

Political strategists said Nixon's tactics of trying to enlist Democratic support appear more realistic in view of party registration strength in California and several other vital states.

Registered Democrats outnumbered Republicans by about 900,000 in California in 1956 and have been topping Republicans 5-1 in new registrations since then.

Registrations are seldom a deciding factor in elections, as Californians proved by rolling up a 600,000 margin for Eisenhower two years ago.

In last month's Maine election, which Eisenhower cited as a specific example. Democratic Gov. Edmund S. Muskie polled 172,704 votes to 111,522 collected by GOP Sen. Frederick G. Payne in the senatorial race.

Since 1956 figures showed 250,734 Republicans and 103,419 Democrats, the supposition was that a great many Republicans who went to the polls in Maine didn't vote that party's ticket when they got there.

If the balloting trend should follow registration lines in next month's elections, Republicans might be in trouble in states such as New York, Arizona, Delaware, New Mexico, Nevada, Maryland and West Virginia. All of these have Senate seats at stake and in all of them Democratic registration has outstripped that of the Republicans.

In the once-Republican stronghold of Pennsylvania, where a new senator will be elected, Democrats have shown a recent upsurge. The GOP led by about 400,000 registrations in the state in 1956 but an estimated 60 per cent of new registrants this year listed their party as Democratic.

Irving Berlin, noted composer of popular songs, was born in 1888.

Andrew Jackson was the first President of the United States to be elected on a Democratic Party ticket. That was in 1829.

Oregon Centennial Picks Snyder Pair

Two Snyder men have been named ambassadors from here to the Orgeon Centennial Exposition and international trade fair, set next June 10-Sept. 17.

The Orgeon centennial commission has named Mayor Harold Bennett ambassador to the event from Snyder and Ted Masters, 207 Thirty-third Street, ambassador from Texas.

The naming of ambassadors from various parts of the U. S. is a part of the centennial's public relations work a year in advance of the event, in which Orgeon will celebrate its 100th birthday as a state.

The exposition will feature the first U. S. showing of the multi-million dollar Atomic Energy Commission display from Brussels. The exposition will have the first international trade fair ever held on the West Coast.

Smooch Lines Still Out At Kansas State

Formerly, students lined up for a kiss at the announcement of engagements, marriages or pinnings at sorority houses. A flu epidemic last fall brought restrictions on social activities, including smooch lines.

Other restrictions have been lifted, but the smooch line still is out, college officials said.

"Trench mouth and respiratory diseases can be spread to a great many people during one smooch line," explained Margaret Lahey, associated dean of students.
