THAT SKYROCKET BAND

That Skyrocket Band, directed by Stephen Schmidly, came home with Sweepstakes Honors from the University Interscholastic League district contest Wednesday, April 11. This indicates they won first division ratings in marching earlier, and in concert playing and sight reading.

That Skyrocket Band Wins UIL Sweepstakes Award

That Skyrocket Band came home from Interscholastic League competition holding high the Sweepstakes Award, the only Class A band in the Panhandle to be so honored. The contest was held Wednesday, April 11, in Panhandle.

Their home town heard of it almost as soon as did the Skyrockets, and when they arrived at the Quail Y 3 miles north of town, a happy motorcade of some 25 cars met the band and, led by Police Chief Jim King, accompanied the musicians into town.

Eugene Griffin of Enid, Oklahoma, agreed. The trio liked the style and sound presentation, and thought That Skyrocket Band "very musical." Paul Fry of Southwestern State College, Weatherford, —See #4, page 2

Two Men Die In Accident Early Monday

Two Wellington men died in a one-vehicle accident, which occurred on Oklahoma State Highway 30 about 18 miles east of Wellington in the early hours of Monday, April 16.

They were Wayne Lee, 53, and his nephew, Jody Lee, 20. Sheriff John Rainey, who was called to the accident scene by Harmon County, Oklahoma, officers, said the accident occurred about two miles south of the intersection of Oklahoma Highway 30 and Highway 9.

The pickup in which the two were riding apparently missed a curve, Sheriff Rainey said, went down into a draw, up the opposite bank and overturned twice. Both men were thrown clear of the wreckage.

The accident was discovered by passersby shortly before Sheriff Rainey was notified at 7:15 a.m. He said that it is possible the accident occurred around midnight.

Officers could not determine who was driving.

Investigating the accident were members of the Oklahoma Highway Patrol from Altus, Harmon County Sheriff Pete Cunningham; Sheriff Rainey and Deputy Sheriff Alvin Minatrea.

Wayne Lee, a resident of the county 28 years, was farming for Jerry Nix.

Jody Lee was the son of Raymond Lee and was graduated from Wellington High School with the class of 1972. He was employed by his brother, Jerry Lee, in his grocery and station.

Lawrence Wayne Lee, a resident of the county 28 years, was farming for Jerry Nix. He was born September 18, 1919, at Erick, Oklahoma and was the son of Mrs. Alma Lee and the late H.E. Lee.

Eddie Joe Lee, called Jody throughout his life, was the son of Raymond Lee, 1301 Galveston Street.

He was born here January 16, 1953 and had lived in —See #1, page 12

At the band hall, Mayor John Coleman welcomed the group and publicly congratulated them. The band, in turn, held high its Sweepstakes Award for all to see.

"I was super-proud of the kids," said band director, Steve Schmidly. "They did a real fine job and we were very appreciative of the reception we got when we got back home."

Contest judges thought they did fine, too. All four gave them a first division rating, essential if they were to win sweepstakes. The critique that meant most to That Skyrocket Band was probably the one from Ralph Zamrippa, director of Van Horn High School band.

"This is the product of a lot of hard work that paid off. Good things happened from the beginning to end, and (You should) feel very proud of this performance," he said.

The other contest judges, James Streit of Crowell and

County Out Of Scabies Quarantine

The United States Department of Agriculture has released 7 more counties from cattle scabies quarantine. The quarantine for psoroptic cattle scabies was lifted from Armstrong, Collingsworth, Donley, Hemphill, Lipscomb, Roberts and Wheeler Counties.

The action was taken by the USDA Animal and Plant Health Inspection Service in order to relieve the restriction put into effect to prevent the spread of cattle scabies. Since October, 1971, the Animal and Plant Health Inspection Service and State livestock officials have reported 143 cases of cattle —See #5, page 2

Sunrise Easter Service Planned in Ellison Park

Wellington area residents will worship this Easter at sunrise services, to be conducted in Ellison Park, beginning at 6:30 a.m.

The Ministerial Alliance is sponsoring the worship.

Charles Waugh, minister of First Christian Church, will preach the Easter sermon, and all other clergymen whose churches are members of the Alliance will have a part.

People of all faiths are invited to attend this outdoor worship service, which will commemorate the most sacred of all church days, the Resurrection of the Lord.

In the event of bad weather, the services will be moved to Bura Handley Community Center.

The One-Way Believers of First Baptist Church directed by Cliff Rogers, will give the call to worship, singing "Mine Eyes Have Seen The Glory."

The Rev. James Boswell, pastor of First United Methodist Church, will give the invocation and greeting, then Mr. Rogers will lead the singing of "Low in The Grave He Lay," by the congregation.

The responsive readings will be led by the Rev. Steve Dolloff, pastor of Fundamental Baptist Church, to be followed by a congregational hymn, "One Day," the reading of the Scripture, and the Easter prayer by the Rev. Ted Savage, pastor of First Baptist Church.

After the sermon, the congregation will sing "Crown Him With Many Crowns," and the One Way Believers will present a medley of well-loved hymns, "O, How I Love Jesus," "There is a Fountain Filled With Blood," and "Amazing Grace."

The Rev. Windol Robbins, pastor of the Assembly of God, will give the benediction. Pianist for the service will be Mrs. Truman Estes.

One thing marks this service as different from any Easter services. All clergymen taking part have moved to Wellington within the past year, with Rev. Dolloff and Rev. Robbins arriving here to lead their congregations only a few weeks ago.

Larry Wright Day Set Here Friday

A youth who has put up a courageous fight against leukemia will be honored Friday, April 20, as Mayor John Coleman proclaimed Larry Wright Day in Wellington.

The young man, who will be 16 years old on May 11, will be the guest of honor at a reception in the Heritage Room from 10:00 to 11:00 a.m. This is planned by the 1954 Study Club, of which his mother, Mrs. Lynn Wright, is a past president.

City officials will escort Larry and his family to the reception. Afterwards, they will be special guests of the Kiwanis Club for lunch in the community building.

"The reception is for all friends, teachers, students, business people, and anyone else who would like to honor an outstanding youth from Wellington High School," said Mayor Coleman. Larry is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Wright. His grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Hardy Wright and Mrs. Goldie Barnett, and the late Cortez Barnett.

Larry has received treatment for leukemia about two years at the University of Texas M.D. Anderson Hospital and Tumor Institute in Houston. Some periods of treatment stretch into a number of weeks, others are shorter. Both drugs conventionally used for leukemia patients and experimental drugs have been used by his doctors.

In the Wellington Schools, Larry has participated in many activities along with his classmates. Last fall, with the permission of his doctors, he played B team football. So great was his enthusiasm, that he played through part of one game with a broken hand, not mentioning the injury until play ended.

Not long after that, he was surprised and delighted by a telephone call from Texas Longhorn Coach Darryl Royal.

Larry and his family attend First Baptist Church.

In issuing the proclamation calling for Larry Wright Day, Mayor Coleman urged all those who can to take their coffee breaks by attending the reception.

6:30 p.m. on the reunion date for visiting until time for the banquet, according to Mrs. David Peters, secretary. Approximately 150 are expected.

Reservations are not necessary, but they will be appreciated, Mrs. Peters said.

A musical program will be presented by Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Rogers. He is music and youth director of First Baptist Church, Wellington.

Special entertainment will be given by Kara Sherrill, small daughter of Mrs. Jean Sherrill of Jal., N.M. Kara, a dainty and winsome little blonde, was one of the top 10 finalists in the International Little Miss contest.

New Educational Program Announced for 18 Schools

A Collingsworth County educator will head the new Eastern Panhandle Co-operative Comprehensive Plan A Educational Program, (EPCO), which will become operational in 18 school systems in the fall of 1973.

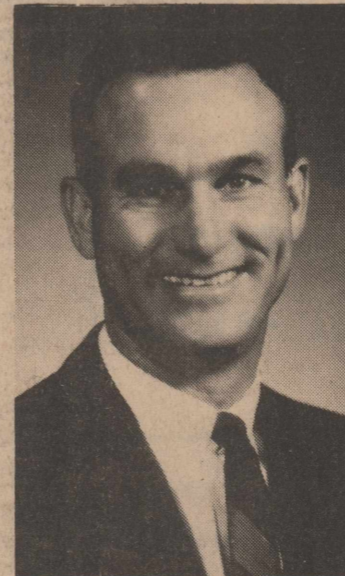

James Stavenhagen, in his third year as superintendent of Quail Schools, has been named supervisor and co-ordinator of the program, which is set up by the Texas Education Agency to work with all types of exceptional children and young people from age three through 21 years.

"We consider this to be a program of comprehensive education to help each student realize his highest potential," said Mr. Stavenhagen.

He has announced three of his staff members.

Louis Graham will be the educational diagnostician and psychologist. He is a former counselor and is a present special education teacher in the Wellington Schools.

Arlin Cordell of Clarendon

has been named assistant supervisor.

Ken Baxter, special education teacher in the Shamrock Schools, who was reared at Dozier, will be the counselor.

Mr. Stavenhagen will begin his duties with the Eastern Panhandle Co-op on July 1, and the plan will be in operation August 15. The headquarters will be in Shamrock, Plan A, as this is popularly known, is set up specifically to help children and young people with learning problems, and it will become mandatory in all Texas Schools by 1976.

"Texas is the pilot state in this type of teaching program, and educators throughout the United States will be looking at us. Moreover, the East Panhandle Co-op will be the largest in the state. Some of the larger schools have had programs similar to this with their own systems for several years, but as a small co-op program working with a number of schools in one unit, it, too, is a pilot plan," explained Mr. Stavenhagen.

Schools which are a part of EPCO are Estelline and Lakeview in Hall County; Clarendon and Hedley in Donley County; Wellington, Samnorwood and Quail in Collingsworth County; Shamrock, Wheeler, Mobeetie, Allison, Briscoe, Lela and Kelton in Wheeler County; Canadian and Higgins in Hemphill County; Miami —See #6, page 2

Kiwanis to Hold Easter Egg Hunt

Wellington Kiwanis Club will hold its traditional Easter Egg Hunt for all children of the county again this year, President Paul Spillman announced. The event will be held Sunday, April 22, at 3:00 p.m. in Ellison Park.

As in the past there will be several age groups so that every child will have an opportunity to find eggs. Each group will hunt in a different section. Several thousand candy eggs will be hidden in the park earlier in the day.

Every child in the county through 11 years of age, along with children who may be visiting here, are invited to the hunt. Members of Kiwanis will be present to handle arrangements.

Cowbelles Beef Van Comes Here Apr. 23

A group of women known as the Top of Texas Cowbelles don't like the idea of beef boycotts. And they don't like for the rancher and feedlot operators to take the blame for what many consumers are calling "high-priced beef."

So, these women have planned a "Beef Van Visit" for Monday, April 23. The beef van will visit Clarendon, Hedley, Memphis, and Wellington.

The beef van will stop for two hours at each town. Residents of each town are asked to visit the van, register for some FREE beef, then stick around for the drawing at the end of the visit. Beef will be given away FREE at each stop. While there, residents will be told that beef is really a bargain and the cowbelles will show why.

The beef van will start out Monday at Clarendon, visiting there from 8:30 to 10:30 a.m. in front of The Clarendon Press. Then, the van will stop in Hedley from 11 to 1 p.m. in front of the Security State Bank.

At 1:30, the van will stop in Memphis for two hours on the square, staying there until —See #3, page 12 scabies nation-wide. Congressman Bob Price made the announcement.

After 17 months of quarantine and inspection with no disclosure of scabies on the latest round of inspection, officials said the Texas counties were ready to be released, plus 8 additional Texas counties were released from quarantine on April 3rd.

There are still 19 Texas counties and 3 Oklahoma counties and 9 New Mexico counties under quarantine for cattle scabies. Other isolated outbreaks have occurred in Kansas, Iowa, Colorado, and Idaho.

Scabies is caused by small white mites which bite the animal. This causes skin irritation that leads to itching and the formation of scabs which in turn leads to further irritation. Cattle scabies does not affect the quality or wholesomeness of the meat but the irritation can cause decreased meat production because the animal will not gain weight as rapidly.

During the business meeting, Mrs. Mayme Somerville was elected secretary-treasurer and Mrs. W.F. Vaughan reporter and Mrs. Beatrice West and Mrs. R.L. Karnes, telephone committee.

It was decided that the Esther Group will hold two bible studies each year and meetings will be twice each month. All were urged to attend the meeting celebrating the United Methodist Women at the district meeting in Pampa April 28.

Refreshments were served to Mrs. S.L. Lindsey, Mrs. Cecil Masten, Mrs. W.E. Brewster, Mrs. Cal Hurst, Mrs. J.B. King, Mrs. Earl Alexander, Mrs. Beatrice West, Mrs. Robert Karnes, Mrs. Somerville, Mrs. Wells, Mrs. Michael and Mrs. Holton.

BRISKET AND SPROUTS
3 lbs. fresh beef brisket
2 tbsps. salad oil
1 large onion, sliced
2 tps. salt
1/4 tsp. pepper
1 1/4 cups water
2 pkgs. frozen Brussels sprouts (10-oz. each)
1 tbsp. flour
In Dutch oven brown beef on all sides in oil. Remove meat and drain off fat. Add onion to pan, cook 1 minute then return the brisket. Add salt, pepper and 1 cup of water. Cover and simmer 3 1/2 hours. Remove meat, add sprouts and cook 5 minutes. Mix flour with 1/4 cup water and stir into pan. Boil 1 minute. Serve sprouts and gravy with brisket.

Fix-It Tip

Electric motors that run hot or slow may be in need of lubrication. Follow manufacturer's instructions. Small appliances generally need frequent oiling. Use the oil sparingly. Usually just a drop of oil is needed at each oiling point each time. Large motors may need oiling once or twice a year. If the motor is in a sealed housing, leave it alone — it is self-lubricating. Heating and rapid wear of motors are caused by dirt. Wipe motors frequently and vacuum out accumulations of dust. Check belts and pulleys (if the motor has them) for excessive wear. Slipping belts may cause inefficient operation of your appliances.

Wellington YH Has Art Study

Wellington Young Homemakers met Tuesday, April 10, for a filmed program, "Art Is . . ." Pat McAlister of the Greenbelt Rural Electric Co-operative, Inc. staff was in charge of the presentation.

All the aspects of art were touched on, including drama, life on the stage, and members were reminded that art runs through everything. It may be found in dancing, in paintings, and even in baking (cookie painting), members were reminded. It is a part of music.

"Only the artist can turn the 'not yet' into reality," the group was told in closing.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Stephen Schmidly, Mrs. Marlin Felts, Mrs. Gary Killian and Mrs. Don Welch.

Attending were Mrs. Glenn Thomas, Mrs. Joe Wood, Mrs. Joe Montgomery, Mrs. Dan Hiett, Mrs. Felts, Mrs. Welch, Mrs. Leamon Bawcom, Mrs. Eddie Maxwell, Mrs. Ronald Webb, Mrs. Bill Lindsey, Mrs. Jack Campbell, Mrs. Ronnie Hartman, Mrs. Schmidly, Mrs. Killian, Mrs. Reed Souder, Mrs. Nicky Watts, Mrs. Kenny Brown, Mrs. John Henard, III, Mrs. Dan Langford and Mrs. Bobbie Gronewald, president.

Mrs. D. Phipps Lillie Hostess

Lillie Home Demonstration Club met with Mrs. David Phipps as hostess Thursday, April 12, in the Heritage Room.

Mrs. Haskell Manuel, president, directed the business meeting when Mrs. Lowell Wells was appointed finance chairman to fill an unexpired term.

Mrs. Henry Langford was elected the nominee for Texas Home Demonstration Association chairman in this county and she also was named the Lillie Club's nominee for delegate to the State Convention.

These offices are filled by the county Home Demonstration Club Council, with each club presenting a nominee.

Mrs. Phipps, the hostess, also gave the program on drugs, stressing the use, care and abuse of drugs. She discussed both the commonly used drugs and hard drugs.

The hostess also gave the devotional and Mrs. Dudley Phipps the opening prayer.

Roll call was answered by members naming "a costly mistake I have made by not reading the label," Mrs. Elmer Haralson gave the council report.

Mrs. Ozro Bartlett was in charge of recreation and a new member, Mrs. Jim Lowe, was welcomed.

Others attending were Mrs. Bartlett, Mrs. Wells, Mrs. Henry Langford, Mrs. Bill Langford, Mrs. Bill Hill, Mrs. Charley Hill, Mrs. Haralson, Mrs. Gabe Wright.

Mrs. Manuel, Mrs. Mack Horton, Mrs. Dudley Phipps, Mrs. David Phipps, and Carey Langford.

Consider safety features — such as good fit, color and reflectability — when shopping for clothes, suggests Mrs. Becky Culp, clothing specialist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University.

Three additional possibilities are "The Egg Book" by Margaret Brown, "The Egg Tree" by Katherine Milhous and "An Egg Is for Wishing" by Helen Kay.

"Givers of children's literature should be aware of what is new, available and appealing to children. Librarians, teachers and book store owners usually are most willing to offer guidance," the specialist continued.

"Make reading to children a fun activity — not a 'pill before bedtime' event or forced quiet-time. Read at a leisurely pace the amount the child seeks,

Seniors and Mothers Honored at Annual B&PW Club Spring Roundup

Seniors of the three county schools and their mothers were honored at the annual Wellington Business and Professional Club Round-up Tuesday evening, April 10.

This was held in Bura Handley Community Center at seven in the evening.

The guest speaker, Charles Waugh, minister of First Christian Church, named three most important things seniors should ask themselves: What will I do as a lifetime vocation? Whom will I marry? What will I do with Jesus?

Mrs. Bura Handley was master of ceremonies and Mrs. Jack Lowry, club president, welcomed the seniors, their mothers and sponsors.

The president of each class responded, Joel Ross of Quail, Rosa Oldham of Samnorwood, and Dan Fires of Wellington.

A western theme was carried out.

The Wellington B&PW Chorus, directed by Mrs. Rufus Sweat, provided musical entertainment with "Red River Valley" and "On Top of Old Smokey."

Mrs. Ernest Harwell was in charge of a game in which guests were asked to guess the number of stitches in a pair of Levis.

Mrs. Charles Darter introduced the speaker.

Table and room decorations followed the western theme, using a hitching post, bales of hay, saddle, cactus, and other items.

Those present from Wellington were Mrs. C.T. Shumate, Nancy Shumate, Mrs. Herbert Bearden, Connie Bearden, Mrs. Bill Long, Barry Long, Mrs. Emory Hunter, Steve Hunter.

Fix-It Tip

Likeliest spot for trouble when a doorbell stops working is the pushbutton. Remove it with a screwdriver. Both wires should be connected firmly to the terminal screws behind the button. If one is off you have found the trouble right away.

If both wires are properly connected, hold the screwdriver so that it touches both terminals at the same time. If you can hear the bell ring, the trouble is with the pushbutton. A new button should be installed. They are inexpensive.

If the trouble is not at that end, then you will have to check the electrical source. Ordinary house current is too strong for a doorbell so the high voltage is reduced to a smaller one by means of a transformer. We will discuss the transformer next week.

All bears except the polar bear have very poor eyesight. They depend on their ears and nose for defense against intruders.

Dodson Civic Club Tours Hay Camp Ranch Complex, Visits Ranch House

The Dodson Civic Club met Thursday, April 12, at the Hay Camp Ranch home of Mrs. A.B. Dean. Mrs. Truett Holland assisted with the hostess duties.

Mrs. Dean first led the 7-car caravan on a guided tour of the ranch grounds, which when completed will form the Hay Camp Ranch Recreation complex. They visited the sites of the 9-hole golf course, swimming pools, tennis courts and other recreational activities.

Returning to the house, the group was taken on a tour of the ranch home, built in 1894. Many members used the word "fabulous" to describe the rooms, as they were shown the original pegged-in hardwood floors, the furnishings that so completely complement the house, and the view of the surrounding area from the many-windowed rooms.

Refreshments were served from a lace-covered table. The guest speaker, Curtis Watts, representative of the Amarillo District Social Security Office, Amarillo, was introduced by Mrs. Murray Dodson, a member of the club.

Discussing "Privileges of the Senior Citizen," Mr. Watts explained that Social Security, which had its beginning January 1, 1937, has grown until it affects every citizen 62 years of age and over in the United States. Social Security amendments effective in 1972 include to wives, husbands, mothers, widows, children, and in some cases grandchildren, of the person covered by Social Security.

Mr. Watts said Social Security will soon be a uniform, universal program with privileges affecting all individuals alike. New information on Medicare and Medicaid programs.

He completed his speech by showing a color film, "Crafts of Olden Days," taken in Silver Dollar City in the Ozarks of Missouri. This included scenes of wool spinning, rope making, a horse powered sorghum mill, steel tired wagons, blacksmith's shop, pottery and glass blowing, a quilting bee, wool dyeing with natural herbs,

Embroidery and Lace Soften Feminine Fashions for Spring

Embroidery and lace promise to soften spring fashions — for women and men.

"Fashions going dressy will rely on embroidery, very much a part of the spring scene, Marilyn Brown maintained.

The consumer education-clothing specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University, said several reasons account for its revival.

"Increased popularity of at-home clothes for lounging and entertaining caused a demand for special trims to add elegance and dressy appearances. Embroideries and lace answered this need.

another reason. "People are always on the lookout for something different. Embroidery is just that — exciting and colorful, with dimension and surface appeal." Miss Brown noted that "big embroidery comebacks" include eyelets, lace, embroidered emblems and appliques. "Embroidery will appear on checks, plaids, solids and patterned fabrics. Colors will be clean, clear and crisp. "Sportswear, including men's sports shirts, and women's dressier garments will feature it," she added.

Questions People Ask About the Catholic Church

Q. What do you think of Women's Lib?

A. Frankly, I don't really know what they want. I like a man to be a man, and a woman to be a woman, and to be able to tell them apart by their dress, appearance and behaviour. If the day ever comes when there is no more difference, we shall have entered a very dark age. As my ancestors, the French, say, "Vive le difference"!

Q. Does the fact that Catholics and Protestants number the 10 Commandments differently confuse people?

A. Unfortunately, yes. But I don't think that's important. The important thing is that we keep them, no matter how we choose to number them. If we worry about their numeration, we've missed the whole point.

Squirrels Have Peer Problems

SILSBEE - Squirrels, like men, struggle for dominance among their associates.

In a recent field study, small groups of squirrels were confined in pens for long periods. "Conspicuous in each pen," said wildlife biologist Bill Wright, "was the rigorous peck-order relationship maintained by each group."

"Extreme contesting for leadership followed initial penning but once this hierarchy became established, it was the way of life in the pen. The dominant squirrel and his favorite associates rigidly controlled use of food, perches and nest boxes.

While the peck-order process seems extremely cruel, it is nature's way of selecting the best mentally and physically equipped individuals to survive. Poorly equipped individuals are eliminated to prevent their genes from weakening the population.

ored associates rigidly controlled use of food, perches and nest boxes.

"In some pens, individual squirrels were so completely rejected that they apparently died from the resulting frustrations. Autopsy of these revealed severe emaciation from lack of food and organ malfunction."

Wright pointed out that this social relationship would be a factor in controlling out-in-the-wild squirrel population levels irrespective of habitat conditions.

While the peck-order process seems extremely cruel, it is nature's way of selecting the best mentally and physically equipped individuals to survive. Poorly equipped individuals are eliminated to prevent their genes from weakening the population.

We May Make Our Voice Heard on the Texas Constitution

A 37-member body is now working to revise one of the most lengthy and amendment-packed documents in the nation - the Texas Constitution.

Wales Madden, Amarillo lawyer who is the Panhandle's member on this committee, in speaking to area newspapermen Saturday, April 14, pointed out that the people at the grassroots can have a part in this writing, too.

The first of 18 proposed public hearings across the state will be held in Amarillo Wednesday, April 25. Anyone who has a proposal to offer or a viewpoint to give, is entitled to be heard by this committee. This is the one point where the private individual may speak out, he may let these 37 men know what he wants them to do in revising the present constitution or writing a new one.

The committee will have to do this work by November when the document is due to be presented to the legislature. After that, it will be up to the people of Texas to accept or reject it at the polls.

Other Editors Say . . .

Can Texas Turn Back?

Discouraging word is often heard from Washington, but seldom have Texans had a gloomier report than the news trickling out on getting outside water to meet our needs. All of the details won't emerge until complete reports are issued in July.

But a very brief summary includes these points: The Mississippi River Commission and Bureau of Reclamation have found that "although there may be Mississippi River water available for diversion during some months of the year, the cost of diverting water to the High Plains is excessive."

In addition, "environmental impacts of the Gulf area and along the diversion route could be significantly adverse."

Even worse, "In the absence of supplemental water supplies, the High Plains area will likely return to the type and extent of agricultural production existing in 1944, with crops and agricultural practices being limited to those that can withstand the annual precipitation rates of about 20 inches."

This is stunningly bad news for all of Texas and the nation, not just for the High Plains of this state and New Mexico. It raises many other questions, including:

Can Texans turn back to conditions of 1944? If so, can the nation afford the loss of the essential food and fiber and economic gains the High Plains area has made in three decades?

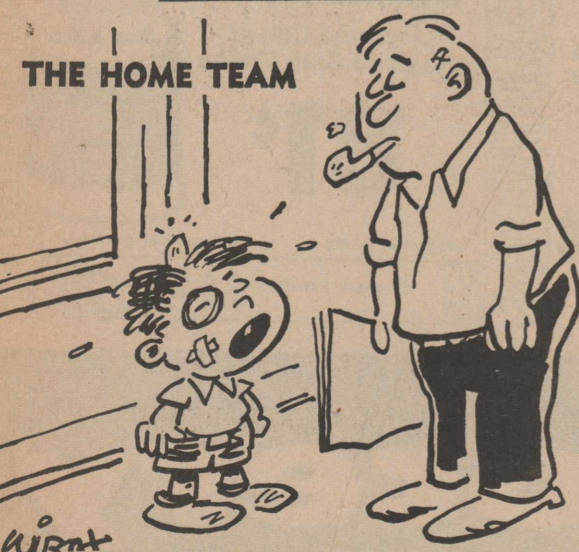

What will be the cost of the alternatives to bringing in admittedly expensive water from out of Texas?

There are other puzzling aspects which will be discussed later on this page in feature articles. They concern Dallas or Daingerfield as well as Lubbock and Lamesa.

The best that can be said now is that Texans should roll up their sleeves and work as well as fight for survival. We must have adequate water, equitably distributed where it best serves the people of this state and nation.

It will not serve anyone's best interests to let West Texas dry up, or to move West Texans to water as some dreamers have suggested. More than economics or ecology is involved. We are dealing with people, rooted to the land they love and skilled in dealing with its potentials and problems. We can't turn back.

"No it wasn't hockey—I was discussing women's lib with the little girl next door!"

AUSTIN, Tex. — The first of major reform bills before the 63rd Legislature — strengthening of "open meetings" requirements — has reached the desk of Gov. Dolph Briscoe.

The House quickly accepted Senate amendments, sending the measure (HB 3) on to the Governor.

Meanwhile, the Senate passed a version of the "shield bill" to protect newsmen's sources of information from forced disclosure — except on State Supreme Court order. The Senate revision providing that citizens may bring mandamus action to reveal sources doomed the bill (HB 10) to conference committee delay.

A second bill (HB 8) backed by House Speaker Price Daniel Jr. — to require detailed reporting of contributions and spending in speakership races — also landed on the Governor's desk. The senate passed it with only minor amendment, and the House concurred.

Sponsors of the new open meetings law term it a marked improvement over the present statute, although it would still permit closed executive sessions of governing agencies for these purposes:

Discussions of personnel matters including evaluation, consultation with attorneys on pending or contemplated litigation or settlement offers, talks about real estate purchase, exchange, lease or sale, negotiated contracts for gifts or donations, and school board strategy plans for consultation with employees. Social functions could be kept private as taken and no formal agenda items are deliberated, long as no official action is taken and no formal agenda items are deliberated.

Fines up to $500 and jail terms up to six months are provided for known violations.

The House approved Daniel's final reform bill (HB 4), voting 140-3 to set up a State Ethics Commission to supervise tough new campaign finance reporting.

INSURANCE CUT BILL OFFERED — State Insurance Board Chairman Joe Christie has recommended legislation which he said may reduce auto insurance rates.

The bill would permit some competition in ratemaking though not wide open competition.

Texas is the only state which retains the system of fixed rates set on a yearly basis by the state regulatory agency.

Two House members, Reps. Don Cavness of Austin and Ben Bynum of Amarillo, are pushing a straight-out competitive rating bill (HB 64).

Christie, a former senator, informally has requested the Legislature to hold off on the rating proposals until the Board has a chance to offer its own recommendations.

COURTS SPEAK — The Court of Criminal Appeals reversed an El Paso murder conviction of a housewife who shot her husband because the trial judge did not instruct the jury to consider self defense.

Texas Public Employees Association is testing in federal court the Internal Revenue Service's right to levy income taxes on the mandatory contributions made by active state employees to their retirement system. The suit seeks to recover about $15 million in taxes paid since 1968.

The State Supreme Court affirmed lower court rulings upholding a retired Dallas school teacher's $10,000 bequest to National Cancer Foundation Inc. of New York.

House-passed lobby control bill constitutional, but said some provisions are not.

For example, said the Attorney General, a section that attempts to force registration of those who make expenditures to solicit other persons by advertising to communicate with legislators goes too far. Lobbyists opposing the bill before the Senate Jurisprudence Committee said it abridges rights of citizens to communicate with their legislators.

In other opinions, Hill held:
* Federal and other police agencies cannot be told about arrests of juveniles which have been removed from official records.

* Andrews County commissioners are without authority to lease part of a county hospital for private medical offices.

CROSSROADS REPORT

Dear Editor:

Ruckusation about the price of beef probably won't have much effect, but any price-pinching it does cause will be passed on down to the cattle raisers.

Unlike city businessmen and union labor, the cowman doesn't get to set the price on his product; he has to take whatever the buyers offer when he sells his animals.

It is too bad the butcher class doesn't have to put out their meats and take whatever their customers offer for it. And too bad that government doesn't have to get along on whatever us taxpayers feel like putting in the pot.

Co-op Members See Cotton Automation

Farmers Co-op Society Stockholders received dividend checks amounting to more than $85,000 and elected a slate of directors in their annual meeting Saturday, April 14.

Two new members were named, Jerol Morris and Dan Langford, who succeed Fred Cox and J.I. Morgan.

Re-elected to the board of directors were Carl Wischkaemper, Louis Allred, Carthel Lewis,

R.L. Mabery and Dan Henard, Jr.

During the directors meeting which was held later, all officers were re-elected for the coming year, including Mr. Wischkaemper, president; Mr. Allred, vice-president; Mr. Lewis, secretary-treasurer; W.E. Marchant, assistant secretary; and Jack Kopp, assistant treasurer.

Of unusual interest to the Co-op stockholders was a film presented by the Plains Cotton Co-op, showing new and improved methods of handling cotton in the field and at the gin.

Compacting harvested cotton in the field was shown and explained, as well as other field storage methods.

New methods of handling cotton at the gin include bulk ginning, in which trailers are elevated and the cotton dumped into an elevated pit. From there, it goes into the gin. This eliminates the use of suction. It also permits the blending of cotton at the gin rather than at the mill.

All of these, the Collingsworth cotton growers were told, are part of the growing use of automation in harvesting and ginning their cotton. All can be added to already existing gin plants. Some are experimental, others are in use in California and are beginning to be used on the South Plains.

Compacting cotton in the field was used by Wellington area farmer, Pat Bouchelle, during harvesting of crop just ended.

"Texas" Opens for 8th Season June 21

CANYON, (Special) — "Now you know how it was."

This remark is often heard each evening after "Texas" the awesome spectacle of Panhandle history in drama and dance and song which plays summer evenings in the Palo Duro Canyon near Canyon and Amarillo, Texas.

The eighth season will run from June 21 through August 25 in 1973, nightly except Sundays.

At the end of each show, as the man-made storms have subsided and the fires are tamped down, when the dancers and singers have left the stage in a burst of exuberance and the horsemen have galloped off, when the actors have told their story of trial and triumph as Paul Green wrote it . . . and the last long notes of the bugle have died away, the audience begin to comment.

The grizzled plainsmen say "That's the way it was, like that prairie fire. You would just think you had it out, and it would burst out again somewhere else."

The children say, "It's interesting when you can see what it was like."

The travelers from abroad (from 62 countries in 1972) often remark, "Now we understand you better." "This shows us how and why America grew." "After tonight we can see why you people in the States are as you are."

"Texas" is superb entertainment, fast moving, musically exciting, a keleidoscope of color as the eighty cast members move in dances and action against the great cliff behind the stage.

This is one of Paul Green's great statements of faith in America. It is one of nine windows which he has opened on nine regions of this country, revealing through each one the music and customs and struggles and philosophies of the land he is describing.

"Texas" is the look into the frontier west, the vast land, the dry land, the harsh land where people were thrown on their own resources and where those who stayed had great strength and endurance. They had humor and love of life as well, and in "Texas", their story, the audience feels this.

Above all, the early settlers in the Texas Panhandle were sheltered by a magnificent canyon, a thousand feet deep and a hundred miles long, carved from the flat plains by 250 million years of wind and water. Protected by these walls, the amphitheatre lays on the floor of this great abyss.

The audience watches the mysterious shadows of the cliffs and watches the changes in the coloring of the Canyon walls at twilight.

To visit the Palo Duro Canyon is an awesome experience.

To share the gay and grim lives of the early settlers is a revelation.

An evening at "Texas" is not forgotten.

The Palo Duro Canyon lies half an hour over paved roads from Amarillo, the crossroads of five interstate highways and five airlines.

At the end of the seventh season in 1972, 499,758 people had seen "Texas."

The eighth season will be June 21 through August 25, nightly, except Sundays. There will be a special performance on Sunday, July 1.

For tickets and information please write "Texas", Box 268, Canyon, Texas 79015 or call 806-655-2182.

THE TOP of Texas Cow Belles will be in Wellington next Monday between 4 and 6 o'clock in the afternoon to tell the story that beef is a bargain. They will give away choice cuts of beef to a number of lucky people. All you have to do is register. These are the good gals even if all of them do not wear white hats. Be there and give them a big welcome.

I HAVE no way of knowing what their main reasoning will be outside of the slogan "Beef is a Bargain," but it should be interesting. The price of beef, pork, etc. can't go any higher due to the ceiling and for the present it won't go any lower due to the high cost of corn, maize, alfalfa, and other basic costs. Any lower price would cut down on production which was supposed to supply the demand by 1975. That is doubtful now. Anyway it will be interesting to hear the Cow Belles on the west side of the square next Monday.

CIRCLE Saturday, April 28, on your calendar. That is the day to get your dog or cat vaccinated at the Wellington Veterinary Clinic. Animals that do not have a tag will be destroyed.

WHILE the scientists speculate on the possible coming of a new ice age, we can consider something much more immediate — our own weather. It started last November with rain and fog and it has continued with below normal temperatures and above normal rainfall and snow for five and a half months. Since the latter part of April and May are our main rainy period, we may have the experience of above normal moisture for seven months in a row.

IN MOST years such an occurrence would be considered a benison of the utmost importance. Now the farmers are starting to consider this unusual weather as a mixed blessing, for they are becoming more anxious each week. They want to get their land ready for planting; but the ground is so soggy they can't move their tractors into the fields.

JAMES Sullivan says that Bill Adams says this year is just like 1920. Mr. Adams says that in 1920 it rained — believe I will let you find out from him. It is his story in the first place.

MARY MILES PIGG and Mary Anderson put in many patient hours teaching our son to play the piano and the organ. They probably thought, as I did, that nothing would come of it after he was out of high school. They may be interested in knowing that he is one of the organists at the Dumbarton St. United Methodist Church in Washington. The church is small; but it is one of the oldest in the city. The building, I believe, was erected in something like 1774.

HENRY will participate in the evening services on Good Friday. As a result of the Church, he has met a third group of people apart from his old college friends and his business associates on PBS. The Church is the best and always the safest way of meeting people in a strange city.

THIS Easter we did not have one Easter spell, we had five.

The quality of Collingsworth grown peanuts is high — possibly the highest in the entire state, including that of peanuts grown in east and central Texas, Mr. Reeves emphasized.

Presently, peanuts grown here are free of most diseases, however leaf spot, one of the major ailments affecting peanuts, is moving farther west and north, it was pointed out.

Quail School Board Accepts Resignations

The Quail School Board accepted the resignation of its superintendent and two teachers in a meeting Tuesday, April 10.

James Stavenhagen, now rounding out his third year as superintendent, resigned to accept the position of Supervisor and Co-ordinator of the Comprehensive Plan A Educational Program. This is a new field in Texas education, and Mr. Stavenhagen will head an 18-school pilot program in the eastern Panhandle.

David Knox, science instructor, resigned to continue work toward his master's degree at West Texas State University. He plans to continue graduate work at the University of Texas. Mr. Knox is completing his second year at Quail.

His wife, Rita, a registered nurse, will work on the optometry floor at High Plains Hospital, Amarillo, while he is in WTSU.

Mrs. Lynn Jenkins, who taught kindergarten, first and second grades at Quail this year, resigned to head the new kindergarten department in the Wellington Schools.

None of these positions has been filled, and the Quail School Board is taking applications for them.

Also on Tuesday night, the board rehired Mrs. Ray Alston as head cook and to be in charge of the school cafeteria. Mrs. Beverly Branum will assist her.

Members also voted to put a new roof on the home economics cottage.

"I have certainly enjoyed my tenure at Quail," said Mr. Stavenhagen. "I know some of the times were trying, and I do appreciate the people working with me. I think the school board has worked conscientiously to help improve the plant, the faculty and the quality of education. They have been most co-operative

LV Nurses Set Bake Sale Sat.

The Licenses Vocational Nurses Association, Division 83, will hold an Easter Bake Sale Saturday, April 24, in Parsons Drug, according to an announcement by Mrs. Emma Tate, a Wellington member.

This will begin at 10:00 a.m. and continue until 3:00 p.m. and all types of baked goods, such as pies, cakes, cookies, and other items will be offered.

These will be especially welcome to the homemaker at Easter time, and are being baked with this holiday in mind, said Mrs. Tate.

"We believe this will be a real service to the homemaker who will have her house filled with Easter guests, as well as those smaller families who want some special baked item on that day," she continued.

Texans Get Better Meat

A livestock and meat marketing specialist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service believes that meat processing plants in the state are doing the best job in history in supplying customers with top quality meat.

Changes effected by the Texas Meat Inspection Law of 1969 have resulted in the remodeling of some processing plants and new plants being built.

Also, many have gone out of business, leaving communities without a slaughtering facility. Thus there is a potential in such communities for new plants, and the Extension Service can provide informational assistance.

"I will have many fond memories of Quail. The school and community were very nice to me in a very trying period of my life."

in all our educational endeavors.

Some Wild Plants Are Dangerous

AUSTIN — Poison ivy is not the only plant to be avoided when springtime picnics and camping trips are underway.

The well-known poison ivy, poison oak and poison sumac are joined by a fourth plant which may be even more dangerous because of its deceptive appearance.

It's the common domestic oleander, a long-limbed plant with multi-colored blossoms.

The limbs look to be ideal for skewering wieners over the campfire. This Asian native, however, contains a type of toxin which can be dangerous.

The toxin, if swallowed in sufficient amounts, can cause abdominal pain, vomiting, diarrhea, heart stimulation and vessel constriction. It has even caused death in some cases, officials said.

The department advises campers to be familiar with the poisons shrubs or be prepared to take their own skewers from home instead of taking chances with nature.

A 10-year-old registered Holstein Friesian in Hopkins County has set a state record by producing 35,332 pounds of milk and 1,105 pounds of butterfat in one year. Her name is "Blossom" and her owner is Bill Jack Allen of Brinker. The average milk production per dairy cow in Texas is 12,529 pounds.

"Jeremiah Johnson"

"I predict that when this Saga opens soon in London it will bring back to people, and not just Americans, a feeling long lost sight of in the contemporary blood-bath westerns; a feeling of space, love, generosity, and courage in the face of adversity. It has an even more important effect in its timeliness. Jeremiah Johnson reminds Americans of their past in a way that suggests the country may still have a future."
