Mason new hospital administrator

By RAY MAYO

The Mitchell County Hospital board of directors Monday night named Ray Mason administrator of Root Memorial Hospital.

Mason, who was named interim administrator when former administrator Ray Dillard resigned Aug. 16, was former assistant administrator.

The board also named hospital comptroller Richard Murphy as assistant administrator and comptroller.

Mason had served as assistant administrator for four years and Murphy has been employed at the hospital for five years, the last three years as comptroller.

Mason and Murphy will continue to draw their present salaries—$35,000 for Mason and $32,000 for Murphy.

"I appreciate their (the board's) confidence in me and Mr. Murphy and we'll continue to do the best we can," said Mason following the meeting. Murphy was out of town on a business trip.

Monday's action followed an executive session of the board. After reconvening in open session, Jack Perkins made the motion to appoint Mason as administrator and Murphy as assistant administrator-comptroller at their present salaries. Perkins' motion also provides for an efficiency team to be hired within the next four to six months to study the hospital's operation and to make recommendations.

Perkins' motion was seconded by Jane McCarley and was approved unanimously. Glenn Hemphill was not present at the meeting.

In other business Monday, board chairman Bobby Lemons appointed Perkins, McCarley and Preston Morris to a committee to make a survey of build-

TREY SMITH, left, was crowned Miss Festival during the Homecoming Festival Saturday. One of the runners-up in the beauty contest for men only was Dr. Walter Bingham, right, who entered as Miss Belt Line. Smith was entered as Miss Got Rocks and captured the audience's, as well as the judges' hearts.

CISD trustees approve tax roll

The Colorado Independent School District board of trustees Monday approved the 1984 tax roll.

Business manager Geneva Findley explained that the total assessed value for 1984 is $306,152,788, about $6 million more than had been previously budgeted. The additional assessed value will bring in about $48,000 in additional taxes, Mrs. Findley explained, bringing the total amount of taxes to $2,479,549.80.

In other business, the board approved the appointment of Albert E. Sheldon as high school counselor.

Sheldon has bachelor and master degrees from Angelo State University with majors in English and counseling and minor in history. He has four years of counseling experience with the Loraine ISD.

The board also accepted the resignation of Dorothy Martin, an aide at Colorado Middle School, because of health reasons.

In other business, the board: —approved an agreement with the West Central Texas Education Cooperative;

—nominated CISD board president Mac Morris as alternate to represent schools on the executive committee of the West Central Texas Council of Governments;

—approved the hardship transfer of Larry Don Hefflin from the Westbrook ISD and;

—amended school board policies concerning transportation cost for extra curricular activities; attendance, absences and excuse requirements; and ages of attendance.

The board also heard a report from Dr. Walter Bingham concerning the "student profile essential elements mastery sheet" that CISD teachers will use in documenting the mastery of essential elements.

Mason resigns from city council

By RAY MAYO

Colorado City city councilman Ray Mason submitted his letter of resignation Tuesday night, explaining that his new duties as hospital administrator will not allow him enough time to adequately serve as councilman.

The council accepted Mason's resignation with regret, with Mayor Elmer Martin stating that "you have done a good job and will be missed."

Mason, who at one time was city manager, had been a councilman for three years and five months.

In other business Tuesday, the council conducted a public hearing on a request from L. L. Walraven to place a mobile home on Houston Street, north of the swimming pool. A resident who lives within 300 feet of Walraven's property objected to the mobile home, and city attorney Pete McKinney told the council that if only one property owner objected, then the council could not grant a variance in the zoning ordinance. "If you have one opposition to a change in the ordinance, the council is bound by the original zoning restrictions," said McKinney.

Walraven was told he would have 15 days in which to remove

Arts, crafts festival set

About 65 exhibitors have reserved booth space at the 12th Annual Railhead Arts and Crafts Roundup scheduled this weekend.

Kay Fite and Jane Findley are co-chairpersons of the Chamber of Commerce sponsored event.

According to Mrs. Fite, all types of booths will be featured at the two-day event as well as a number of food booths.

The arts and crafts fair will be held at the Mitchell County ag barn west of town and will be open from 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. on Saturday and from 1-6 p.m. on Sunday.

Exhibitors will be coming from Big Spring, Lovington, N.M., Azle, Haskell, Odessa, Abilene, Roscoe, San Angelo, Brownwood, Colorado City and a number of other Texas towns.

About half of the exhibitors will be participating for the first time at the local show, said Mrs. Fite. An award will be given for the best booth, and booth holders will be treated to supper on Friday and breakfast on Saturday.

Some of the types of booths to be at the roundup include hand-quilted pillows, wall hangings, gem stones, wood work, hand-painted china, handpainted dolls and doll clothes and accessories, children's furniture, stained glass, clocks, needlework, ceramics, silk flowers, folk art, hand-braided items, afghans, paintings, carved letters, exotic skins, stuffed toys, soft sculptured dolls, stencils and china painting.

"We would like for everybody to come out and participate," said Mrs. Fite. "We think everyone will have a good time."

There is no admission and parking is free.

KIDS OF ALL AGES were almost curb-to-curb Saturday during the annual Kids' Day Parade sponsored by the Kiwanis Club. Parade participants were treated to a watermelon feast following the parade and earlier Saturday they attended a movie.

County questions seal coat work

Mitchell County commissioners Monday agreed to withhold part of the money owed to Price Construction of Big Spring because the contractor installed sub-standard seal coating in a portion of the work done in Bill Preston's precinct.

Preston said part of the seal coating was under specifications and he was not sure how the seal coating would hold up during the winter and spring months.

Preston told the commissioners that he had contacted the Attorney General's office about the situation and was informed that the matter was a contract dispute between the county and the contractor and it would be up to the county to decide what action to take.

Preston explained that the county could pay a portion or all of the bill or none at all. The commissioners voted to pay half of the $4,680 amount and wait until after June 1 of next year to see how the portions of the roads in question hold up over the winter and spring months. The remainder of the amount will be negotiated with the contractor after June 1, County Judge Bill Carter explained.

In other business, the commissioners amended the sheriff department's budget to move $6,064.79 from the salary budget to the legal fees budget in order to pay for legal expenses incurred during a recent trial.

The court also discussed the possible sale of county property on 17th Street, east of the Mitchell County Cemetery. Carter explained that he had been approached by a possible buyer wanting to purchase the small, triangle piece of property. Car-

Loraine ISD agrees to policy change

The Loraine Independent School District board of trustees Monday agreed to have the school board's policies localized with the Texas Association of School Boards.

The board also approved a contract with the West Central Texas Education Cooperative for special education services.

Roy Bailey was hired as bus supervisor and maintenance to replace Bill Epperson who resigned the position.

The board approved the state property tax board report and was told by Supt. Glenn Sanders of the upcoming accreditation monitoring visit by the Texas Education Agency.

Sanders explained that schools receive routine accreditation visits every five years and that the visit will take place Oct. 24 this year. He also noted that starting this year, accreditation visits will take place every three years.

ings in town that can be used for clinics in the event more doctors are recruited to Colorado City.

Mason reported that Dr. Rodney Cladwell, who is completing his residency in Amarillo, staffed the emergency room of the hospital over a 48-hour period this past weekend. Mason said Caldwell saw 14 patients. "It worked out quite well," said Mason. "He (Caldwell) was very complimentary of our facility."

The hospital board, at a previous meeting, agreed to hire physicians from Amarillo who are completing their residency to work in the hospital emergency room every other weekend in order to relieve Drs. Joe Terry and Thomas Aguillon.

Mason also reported that the hospital has hired another registered nurse. The new nurse will start Oct. 17 and will be coming from Snyder. The Canadian R.N. is to begin work Oct. 30 and Mason said he has one more prospect at this time.

Mason said the medical staff has requested that Dr. Sherman Merritt, who is assisting in surgery, be hired fulltime as radiologist as well as to continue to assist in surgery. The hospital currently uses an outside firm which comes in four days a week for its radiology needs. Mason told the board that Merritt has good letters of recommendation and would be moving to Colorado City. Merritt was formerly a radiologist at Root Memorial, said Mason.

the mobile home from the property.

The council approved the 1984 tax roll with city secretary Rita Espinoza explaining the values total $61,137,188 and the amount of taxes levied are $356,491.43.

In her report, Brenda Tarter, city manager, told the council that Brian Bassham, fire chief, had requested that the city negotiate with the school district for the purchase of an additional lot for a proposed fire station. The city has purchased two lots on 11th Street for $500 each plus legal fees from the school district. The two lots measure 140x100 feet and Bassham said that one more lot is needed so that there will be enough room to drive around the building. The council authorized the city manager to negotiate the purchase of the additional lot.

The council also approved the 1985 Mitchell County Appraisal

District budget. The total budget is $227,032, an increase of $57,502 over last year, explained Martin. The city's cost will be $12,548, an increase of $3,137. Martin said the main item in the overall increase in the budget is to pay for property reappraisal.

In other action, the council:

- authorized the city manager and city attorney to amend the contract for the Fisher Park lease and to advertise for bids;
- awarded the bid of Juan Del Real for purchase of a 1977 Chevrolet pickup for $148.50, a 1975 Ford pickup for $149.50 and an air compressor for $25.25. He was the only bidder;
- approved an ordinance to update the retirement system effective Jan. 1, 1985, and;
- approved an ordinance requested by Northside Baptist Church to close a 20x80 foot stretch of Austin Street right-of-way so the church can have clear title to its property.

STUDENT COUNCIL officers at Colorado Middle School this year are Oria Gonzalez, John Cantu and Darla Gregory.

- awarded a bid to IBM of Midland for an IBM III typewriter for the county auditor's office in the amount of $798;
- approved the Baumann subdivision plat as presented by attorney Pete McKinney;
- voted to contribute $250 as requested by the Texas Association of Counties for legal fees pertaining to a civil suit filed against the Jail Standard's Commission of Texas, and;
- approved the Mitchell County Appraisal District's 1985 budget.

County receives check

Mitchell County has received a check for $17,205.90 from State Treasurer Ann Richards for road construction and maintenance.

The check was part of $7.3 million sent to Texas' 254 counties. The treasurer each year disburses money appropriated by the Legislature for the Lateral Road Program. The grants may be used by counties for the purchase of right-of-way and for construction and maintenance of lateral roads, farm-to-market roads or state highways.

The money is allocated to each county under a formula based on the county's area, rural population and lateral road mileage, Richards said.

Local citizens enjoy World's Fair

A group from this area left Colorado City at 7 a.m. Saturday, Sept. 29 with the Basic Club, destination the World's Fair '84 in New Orleans.

They arrived in Fort Worth Hulen Mall for lunch where Mark Cook joined them.

Saturday they visited Canton, largest Flea Market in Texas, then on to Tyler Rose Garden, and spent the night at the Holiday Inn.

Sunday morning they attended First Baptist Church in Monroe, La. After lunch a birthday cake was served, honoring Chester Hart on his birthday.

Some of the beautiful gardens and homes toured on their way to New Orleans included National Military Park, Vicksburg, Ms., McRoven Home and the Balfour House. Traveling on to Natchez they toured Antelium Homes and followed with a shopping trip.

The group arrived at International Hotel in New Orleans Monday night. Tuesday and Wednesday were busy days enjoying the World Fair pavilions and rides, such as streetcars, boats, sky lift, etc.

Thursday was back in Texas with a visit at Nottoway Plantation, then a picnic at the park. They arrived in Nacogdoches, Texas to spend the night.

In Corsicana on Friday, they visited Pioneer Village, restored buildings and different shops of the early 1800's.

Arriving back in Fort Worth, Mrs. Mark Cook and Tracey entertained the group with visiting and serving cookies and drinks.

While in New Orleans, Ruth

Blair's son and wife, Richard and Barbara who live near by visited with them.

Everyone arrived back in Colorado City Friday night after a wonderful trip.

Those going from Loraine were Ruth Blair, Bernice Hallmark and Price Hall.

MADD representatives speak to Loraine T.E.H.A. Club

The Baumann and North Loraine T.E.H.A. Clubs met in the home of Mrs. C. A. Matejowsky Wednesday, Oct. 3 at 2 p.m. for a joint meeting. Mrs. Pauline Griffin of Baumann Club was co-hostess with Mrs. Matejowsky.

Mrs. Beth Dennis and Leslie Perkins brought the program on MADD. Mrs. Dennis gave her reason for becoming involved in the MADD program and so did Mrs. Perkins. Donations were given at the meeting.

The alarming statistics that were given should cause concern for all citizens. It was stated that drunk drivers cause more deaths, injuries and destruction than murders, thieves and rapists. One out of two Americans will be the victim of an alcohol related crash.

Education, and stricter enforcement of the present laws will help the present situation some, but MADD is in favor of stricter laws to help curb some of the drinking problems. The TEHA organization stands firmly behind such programs as this.

Refreshments were served by the hostesses to Baumann members: Mmes. Gertrude Sims, Gladys Payne, Vada Preston, Lynn Compton, Inez Webb, Clara Butler and Pauline Smiley and North Loraine members: Effie Wheeler, Eva Wells, Ruth Holman, Rosie Hamrick and Ovada Templeton.

On October 18, the TEHA Clubs in Mitchell County will meet for a pot luck luncheon at the Medallion Room, and hear the report from delegates who attended the annual TEHA State Meeting in San Angelo in September.

Study Club meets

Mrs. Willie Taylor was hostess for the October 2nd meeting of the Loraine Antheneum Study Club.

The business meeting was called to order by the President, Dorothy Johnson. Minutes were read and approved by Mrs. Floyd Coffee. The Pledge of Allegiance of the American and Texas flags were given.

Iris Preston was leader for the day and announced the topic of the day's study was India. She asked each one to answer the roll call with a "Show and tell" on India.

The program was given by Billie Ruth Tartt and Estha Coffee, an interesting subject on "A Nation to the Front," by Mrs. Tartt. Mrs. Coffee gave an interesting article on "Mrs. Gandhi, Takes a Hand."

Refreshments were served to Mmes. Cecil Martin, Augusta Matejowsky, Julia Green, Billie Ruth Tartt, Hazel Pratt, Dorothy Johnson, Agnes Haney, Hazel Coldewey, Iris Preston, Estha Coffee by the hostess.

Rainey's enjoy guests

Guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Rainey of Loraine this past week were Mrs. Rainey's cousins, Mr. and Mrs. John Mercer, and Mr. and Mrs. Alva Roland of Stratford, Okla.; her sister, Mr. and Mrs. Gourley of Odessa; her brother, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Mercer of Colorado City; and friends Mr. and Mrs. Robert Green of Dunn and Wilma Fay Madden of Odessa. Mr. Rainey's daughter, Mrs. Richard Reed and her husband, were also guests.

During the visit, they celebrated birthdays of Stella Rainey, John Mercer and J. R. Gourley.

Methodist Women meet

The United Methodist Women met at the church Wednesday, Oct. 3 at 9:30 a.m. for a time of devotion and business.

The song "Mary-Magdalene" was sung by the group, after which Mrs. Syble Walker brought information on Lydia, and her place of service in the early Christian movement. Following her talk, she conducted a quiz on women of the Bible.

During the business session, plans were made for the upcoming supper on Oct. 8th when a team comes in to conduct a workshop concerning churches with small membership.

Also some of the additional giving voted for was to the MADD program in Mitchell County, to the TANE program, and to the National Federation of Decency. Unless Christians take a stand against the evils of alcohol and immoral practices in our land they cannot expect it to lessen.

The Book of Ephesians is being studied by the group under the leadership of their pastor, Reta Richards. The study will resume Oct. 10th.

Officers elected for 1985 are as follows: President, Mrs. Raymond Wheeler; Vice-President, Mrs. Syble Walker; Secretary, Mrs. Elda Bryant; Mission Treasurer, Mrs. Lula Bond; Local Treasurer, Mrs. Ruth Blair; Study Leader, Mrs. Lola Faye Bennett; Pianist, Mrs. Ovada Templeton and Song Leader, Mrs. Syble Walker.

County employees speak to B&PW Club

The Program committee of Loraine Business and Professional Women's Club arranged for several Mitchell County officials to appear before the group to explain their work and responsibilities. Also the President of MADD (Mothers Against Drunk Driving) was guest speaker.

Beth Dennis told of the Mitchell County MADD organization. It was organized four years ago, anyone can join. She stated DWI accidents cost the country 24 million dollars each year. Sixty-five percent of DWI accidents happen in rural areas. To enforce DWI laws, she said "cases must be more severely prosecuted and stiffer fines given."

Ann Hallmark, county treasurer stated all county bills are presented and paid through her office. Road work and courthouse expenses are also managed at this office.

Joan Merket made some informative remarks concerning her office, especially about fines, funds for people who have been harmed, court costs, legal weights for trucks and truancy of school children.

Faye Lee represented the Tax Assessor-Collector's office. She gave the following statistics concerning property and auto taxes. Auto sales tax: $248,000; county keeps five percent auto, trucks and pick-ups, stickers sold 3,156.

First Vice President Billie Schroeder presided at the short business session which followed the social time. Lola Faye Bennett and Bertha Fay Snyder were appointed to work with president Billie Ruth Tartt on plans for National B&PW Week which is October 22-27.

Plans for attending the District VII Conference in San Angelo were also discussed.

Grissom is home on leave

E. N. Larry Grissom came in Monday night for a ten day leave with his wife and children.

He is stationed aboard the U.S.S. Carl Venson and the ship will leave Saturday, Oct. 13 on a nine-month West-Pac and will spend 156 days in the Indian Ocean. They will touch ports in Singapore, Tokyo, Japan, the Philippines, Australia, New Zealand, Hawaii and other places.

Personal

Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Phillips of Odessa were here for the weekend visiting her father Harry Hallmark in the Root Hospital and with Mrs. Hallmark.

Wolves start district play against Coahoma Friday

By TONY FRANCO

The "Big Stick" this week goes to the entire Wolves defense that made such a shambles of Clyde during last week's 34-0 homecoming victory that allowed Colorado City to end the pre-district at 5-0.

"It was physical," said CHS head football coach Tom Ramsey. "It was the first time I thought we had out hit them. They're always physical and big. Our kids just wanted it more. It was evident on movement off the ball both offensively and defensively."

"The goal line stand was the highlight of the game," said Ramsey.

Lineman Freddie Pineda led the Wolves' defense with seven unassisted tackles and with four and three respectively were Don Randle and Ruben Rivera. In the midst of the Wolves swarming, gang tackling defense were Jay Piland and Kevin Norman with 16 assisted tackles. Closely behind were Wylie Stice with eight, Armando Rivera and Joey Ritchey with seven and with six were Pineda, Randle and Gary Marsh, who also had two interceptions to Ronnie Hernandez, one.

The Wolves, who haven't allowed a score in the last six quarters of play, have now set the standard for future Colorado

City teams hoping for a good start.

It's quite definitely an accomplishment to be undefeated after five games while averaging 34 points a game to the oppositions seven.

But you can throw everything out the window because the Wolves now begin 7-AAA play and lurking behind every turn will be one of five teams just waiting to pounce on any Colorado City falter.

It all begins tomorrow at Coahoma.

"Records don't matter when Colorado City and Coahoma play," said coach Ramsey.

"We compare it to Oklahoma and Texas. It doesn't matter if you're 5-0 or 0-5 it's always the same type of ballgame. First of all we have to go to their place and its a rival game so we've got to be ready."

"They are going to play us harder than anybody all year. We've got to be aware of that. Their first five games were just a warm-up for Colorado City."

"They're 2-2-1. Swinney (Coahoma quarterback) is throwing quite a bit so they have that threat of scoring quickly. They're not as big as in the past. They're quicker with more of a wide open offense."

On district 7-AAA, Ramsey said, "It's shaping up like expected. We'll know a lot more after Friday night. Crane was thought to be a force but they haven't been able to score. They're not giving up the points though. Ballinger and Sonora were expected to do well and they have."

Around the district tomorrow night undefeated Ballinger invades Ozona and Crane hosts Sonora in a game a lot of people will have their eye on.

Looking back on the first half of the season Ramsey said, "We're not satisfied. We strive to improve and excel every week."

On the possibility of quarterback Doug Chitsey reaching the 2,000 yard passing plateau in one season—currently at 978 yards:

"It's not out of the question. He could but it depends on people hanging on to his passes and how his pass blocking holds up. We don't worry about individual statistics though, just on wins and losses."

By convincingly dropping Clyde, Colorado City is now tied with Midlothian for tenth place on the Harris rating system's AAA poll. With a power rating of 165 the Wolves are 29 point picks over the 136 ranked Coahoma Bulldogs, whose power rating is also 136.

Like Ramsey said though, none of that matters when the two teams kickoff at 8 p.m., just 30 minutes down the road.

Harris also likes Lee by two over Permian.

Mental errors are costly in Friday's Bulldog loss

By TONY FRANCO

"You don't spot teams 20 points," said Loraine High School head football coach Sandy McSpadden of his team's 26-0 loss at Spur last Friday.

The Bulldogs suffered through mental errors early in the game and Spur quickly turned them into a 20 point first quarter.

Loraine quarterback Joe Espinoza threw interceptions on the Bulldogs first two possessions—giving Spur excellent field position on Loraine's 35 yard line both times.

On the Bulldog's third possession, a holding penalty stalled the drive then Spur got another score on Loraine's bad punt snap.

"They're as good a team as we've faced," said McSpadden. "Coach Dale Keeling (of Spur) has done an outstanding job. They took it down our throats the first half."

"After two straight victories, obviously we didn't play to our expectations," said McSpadden. "There are always bright spots, even on losses. Right now we're just trying to get ready for Roby."

"Charles McPeters did a superb job of offensive blocking and defensive play. We're happy to see this. No doubt—it was an outstanding game. Ector Castro, currently our second string defensive end, is real quick and doing a good job."

The Bulldogs totalled 171 yards rushing and had two scoring opportunities taken away by penalties. An 80 yard kickoff return by Tony Morris was called back on a "questionable" call.

After five games, Morris is averaging just over 100 yards per game with six touchdowns while Aundra Rose has 467 yards on 40 carries and five scores. Espinoza has carried 37 times for 236 yards.

"Roby's our first district game and the kids realize they've got to rise to the occasion of what the ballgame means," said McSpadden.

"Roby is 1-4. They're quick and come off the ball real well. They have the edge on us fundamentally but we have the edge in heart. It'll be decided by who wants it the most."

"We received minor injuries to A. Rose and Ricky Bailey. Freddie Benitez didn't play but will be back this Friday."

"We're not going to be hit any harder than we did against Spur. We're going to be ready. I understand its kind of a grudge match. I'd like to be 1-0."

Tourney nets girls 2nd place title

By TONY FRANCO

With the first district match against Crane less than a week away the Colorado City Wolves volleyball team warmed up by taking second place at an Irion County tournament held last Saturday.

"We played well the first game but not the second," said CHS head girls coach Mark Merrell on the team's 15-12, 15-11 championship loss to Miles.

"We need to learn to come back. After losing the first one we need to come back and win one. Serves killed us. In crucial situations we just cannot serve well. Sometimes we just free-ball. We had a lead but I think we got a little too conservative."

Prior to the loss to Miles, the Wolves received a bye then defeated Water Valley 15-11, 17-15.

"The girls served well (against Water Valley). Denise Jackson played extremely well both spiking and blocking. She dominated the front. She had a much better game than against Miles."

Against Water Valley, the Wolves got "excellent hustling from Traci Blackwell, Jody Huff, Jody Mann, Rebecca Erwin and Sherry Fite," noted assistant coach Linda Mathis.

Blackwell led in scoring against Water Valley with 13 service points. Erwin with six and Jackson with four followed her.

Also scoring were Sherri Morris and Mann with three and Fite, Huff and Yvonne Lujan with one service point.

Blackwell, who also had five saves, made 58 sets against Water Valley and leading in the spiking were Fite with 14, Jackson with nine, Erwin and Huff with eight and Morris with seven. As a team, the Wolves served good on 35 of 47 serves and included an ace by Jackson.

Though his team lost to Miles, coach Merrell is "glad to play Miles. We need to play that caliber of team," said Merrell. "Fite had a good match serving against Miles. She's getting better every week."

Against Miles, Colorado City got seven service points from Jackson, six from Morris and Fite, two from Blackwell and one each from Mann and Huff.

The Wolves will be competing at an Aspermont tournament this weekend. Said Coach Merrell—"If we can do well this weekend we should do good against Crane."

Letter to the Editor

To the editor:

As a former Colorado City person, former hospital employee and the hospital's first director of medical records, I have been following the sad turn of events as related in the C-City RECORD.

The last story I have read was about the resignation of the four doctors from the staff of Root Memorial Hospital and Dr. Noonan's comments about his views on incomplete medical records. His statements are wrong.

First of all, medical records are not a bunch of forms that a doctor simply signs off on. He has the final responsibility for the content of that record. You record events as they occur. The patient pays for this service and doctors are bound by Medio-Legal ethics to communicate with their peers or other professional staff members. He also has a responsibility to know what the Medicare laws are and that on October 1, 1983—the Medicare laws changed. The law now reads that before a claim can be filed to Medicare, that a physician must attest to "that after study, what the principle diagnosis was that required hospitalization."

If you have been in the record keeping business any length of time, you hear many times over doctors using the excuse that its "Medical Records" fault the charts are incomplete. A medical record person can't compose the content of the record—History and Physicals, Consults, Progress Notes, Operative Reports, Discharge Summaries—they are strictly a physician's responsibility. Time is valuable to all of us—not just doctors. Resigning from the staff of the hospital because the DO doctors felt they had to show solidarity with one of their own getting suspended was wrong. If the doctor didn't complete his records and put the hospital in financial jeopardy then he deserved to be suspended. This is a common practice. Most hospitals automatically suspend doctors for incomplete records that go beyond a reasonable time limit.

Believe me, if a doctor does not do his records, Medicare will come down harder on that hospital than if there are "rats" in the basement. The new medicare laws are tough. The government will no longer pay for unnecessary hospitalizations and if it is not documented then they consider it not done.

All doctors who have had the good fortune to have their practice in Colorado City have had the chance to make a very good income from the people they serve—so why do they choose to harm these very people?

I can only speak from a point of view I know about. I don't know these four doctors except Dr. Thomas from when I lived in C-City. I live in his old home town of Granbury. This is a DO town and our doctors give this town fits with their demands to our hospital as recorded in the local paper here. I work in a town that is MD doctors and they and their hospital administration often have differences and it too goes through the local paper. The point being that compromise is necessary to resolve differences.

I would make the following suggestion to those four doctors. Show a sense of maturity and reapply for staff privileges at the hospital to show the people of Colorado City that you have their best interest at heart, that if things aren't right then work with the board to change things, to make an honest assessment about the need for a new hospital with the bottom line being improved care or services and not solely for your own financial gain, that with the title of doctor be it DO or MD learn to accept the difference in the approach to medicine and set about earning the respect that a Doctor title should confer.

Colorado City is too important a place in the lives of the people who love it to let an open wound be left unattended.

And I would ask you as doctors to practice a little healing and put personal interests aside. All of you are young—start building something positive instead of the destroying and tearing down. Bitter feelings will stand in the way of dreams of progress.

That old town learned to love and care about this left handed, Yankee, Catholic, democrat "outsider" because it was respect learned and earned on both sides.

The difference between learning to serve and self serving is the reward that someday your children will thank you for having been raised in Colorado City. Think about it.

Sincerely,
Trudy Bodine

COLORADO MIDDLE SCHOOL students who have entered drawings in a special Texas Sesquicentennial children's art exhibition include Jerry Alvarez, Mike Lara, Alan Howell, Chris Rosas, Sam Garcia and Mark Ledesma. With them is art teacher Tom Kelly.

Middle School art students enter work

Six Colorado Middle School art students have entered competition to have their drawings selected to be exhibited in a special Texas sesquicentennial children's art exhibition called "Hands Across Texas," according to Tom Kelly, middle school art teacher.

The "Hands Across Texas" showcase is to be an exhibition highlighting Texas county history. One piece of art from each county will be exhibited.

Middle school students have entered are Sammy Garcia, Mark Ledesma, Jenny Alvarez, Allan Howell, Chris Rosas and Mike Lara. Each of these students entered a drawing that depicts Mitchell County history. Subjects include Indian warriors, early farmers and Chief Lone Wolf. Each county winner will receive a special certificate of merit and will be invited to the sesquicentennial exhibit opening in May of 1985 in Bastrop.

The "Hands Across Texas" showcase is sponsored by the Texas Cultural Alliance.

Bible Class meets

The Lydia Bible Class of Oak Street Baptist Church met Friday afternoon in the Fellowship Hall to elect class officers for the new year.

Eunice Hamilton, president, presided and the opening prayer was led by Nita Mahan. The devotional was given by Ruth Geiger, entitled "After the A-Valance."

Nomination of officers included Eunice Hamilton, president; Lucy Breden, vice president; Jewel Horn, secretary-treasurer; Ethel Richburg, assistant secretary-treasurer; Edna Fowler, social chairperson; benevolent chairperson and reporter, Ruth Geiger; and group captain, Pansy Northcutt.

Irene Walraven, Ione Watson and Bessie House spoke to the class about the spiritual awakening occurring in the church.

Refreshments were served to Opal Gartman, Cleo Bratcher, Pansy Northcutt, Ethel Richburg, Bessie Morris, Edna Fowler, Irene Walraven, Ruth Geiger, Ione Watkins, Bessie House, Lucy Breden, Nita Mahan, and Eunice Hamilton. Nita Mahan is class teacher. The closing prayer was led by Lucy Breden.
