Commissioners Vote to Put Funds Into Dam

To Supplement Bond Issue If Vote Carries

The Ochiltree county commissioners voted unanimously Tuesday afternoon to put up to $75,000 in county funds into Wolf Creek Dam provided citizens of the county vote a $150,000 bond issue for the same purpose.

A Chamber of Commerce delegation met with the commissioners Tuesday to ask that they consider supplementing a bond issue with county funds, since apparently that was the only way the dam rebuilding could be financed.

Max W. Boyer was spokesman for the Chamber of Commerce group. He commended the commissioners for their work in planning the dam project and for their safeguarding of county funds. Boyer said that he believed it was the opinion of citizens of this county that county money put into the Wolf Creek Dam project would be money well spent and would benefit everyone in the county.

In a discussion before the vote, the commissioners and county judge Howard Slaughter disagreed on the amount of money the county has available for such a purpose.

Judge Slaughter, quoting the county audit, pointed out that the county had on hand on January 1 a total of $170,872.71. Considering the fact that part of this money was collected in October, November and December of last year for expenditures in 1955, the judge said he estimated the county has from $128,000 to $130,000 which could be spent on a project such as the Wolf Creek Dam.

Commissioner Herman Hargrove disagreed, however. He ELEVATOR'S FIRST LOAD—Gene Brothers, left, and H. B. Urban, right, watch D. W. Hart of the Equity test the first load of wheat brought to the Perryton Equity elevator this season. The wheat was Early Triumph, grown by Bob Urban on irrigated land 19 miles south and three miles west of Perryton. The wheat tested 61.5 and had 11.40 moisture. Urban estimated it was making better than 30 bushels per acre. The Urbans plan to harvest about 140 acres of irrigated wheat and about 500 acres of dryland wheat this year.

Scattered Rainfall Hits During Week

More rain visited the Perryton area during the week, with amounts up to 2 inches reported south and southwest of town Tuesday night. The rainfall was heaviest to the east, north-east and southeast of Perryton, while in town the moisture was measured at only .06 inch Monday night and the same amount Sunday night. Rains have been too heavy to suit some farmers with several in the Bolko community reported to have planted grain sorghum crops as many as five times this year.

Percy Edwards Buys Station

Percy Edwards has purchased the Collingsworth Service Station and will operate it as the Percy Edwards Service Station. The station is located on East Brillhart, in the Collingsworth Motor Co. building.

Edwards is an experienced service station operator and will offer complete service in washing, lubrication and tire service. Phillips 66 products will be sold. Edwards has been a resident of Perryton since last summer, when he opened the Pioneer Bowling Lanes. The bowling lanes have been shut down during the summer.

County Wheat Farmers Strong For Continued Crop Controls

Ochiltree county wheat farmers approved continued marketing quotas and acreage allotments in the national wheat referendum held Saturday. County voters went 90 per cent in favor of quotas by voting 336 for and 35 against the question.

At the school election box, the vote was 176 for and 12 against; at the county warehouse it was 97 for and 13 against; at the courthouse it was 63 for and 10 against.

Texas wheat farmers gave marketing quotas an 86 per cent majority.

However, the measure was supported nationally by a 77.6 per cent majority, well over the margin needed to continue rigid acreage and marketing controls.

The affirmative vote by the nation's wheat farmers means that the 1956 wheat crop will be supported at 76 per cent of parity and a farmer who exceeds his acreage allotment will be subject to a marketing penalty.

The next day after the election, Secretary of Agriculture Benson announced a new plan to discourage production of low-grade wheat. The new plan calls for price support "discounts" on poor milling variety wheat suitable primarily for livestock feed. This wheat, which is primarily the "slick head" types, would receive a dock on the loan schedule.

This would be to the advantage of Ochiltree county, which has long maintained a reputation for growing wheat of premium milling varieties.

Benson presented a five point plan designed to cut the wheat surplus, including these "discounts," putting wheat areas under acreage controls which are not at present under controls, exempting wheat growers from quotas on wheat the produce for feed and seed, calling for more durum wheat, getting wheat farmers to shift part of their acreage to hay and pasture.

Sooner Police Aid Child in Hospital Run

Oklahoma highway patrolmen and sheriffs cooperated last Tuesday to aid Troy Bolerjack in making a fast run by automobile from Perryton to Wesley Hospital in Oklahoma City. The mercy run was made to take Stuart Lee, 3½ year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Bolerjack, who was hemorrhaging and was sent from the local hospital to Wesley, where he had received previous treatment.

The child is responding nicely to treatment and the father said Wednesday that they expected to bring him home by the latter part of this week, unless something unforeseen happens.

The trip from Perryton to Oklahoma City was made in about three hours. Sheriff Town of Arnett met Bolerjack six miles west of Arnett and escorted him to Selling, where Jim Holland, state highway patrolman, met him. The patrolmen escorted the Bolerjack car to the Canton Y, where the deputy sheriff of Blaine county took over from there to Watonga, then on to Wesley hospital by another patrolman.

Cancer Quota Is Passed in County

Final report of Mrs. E. D. Kelley, county chairman of the 1955 Cancer Crusade, shows that Ochiltree county went past the set quota of $1,420 this year. Total receipts in Perryton were $1,514.56 and an additional $85 was sent to state headquarters for a total of $1,599.56 contributed in the drive this year.

Business Houses Will Close For July 4

Monday, July 4, is a day set aside for general closing of Perryton business houses by the retail merchants committee of the Chamber of Commerce and most firms in town will be closed that day to observe Independence Day. There is no special observance of the day planned in Perryton, although several Panhandle cities will have fireworks displays and celebrations of various kind.

Plan Student Reunion Meet

All class secretaries for the PHS Ex-Students Reunion are asked to meet tonight, Thursday, at 8 o'clock in the Fellowship Hall of the First Christian church.

Plans will be made for the reunion, scheduled this year for August 20, at the city park. The reunion will begin in the morning, according to present plans, and will not conflict with other entertainment attractions of the North Plains Fair.

Giltner LaMaster is president of the association and Mrs. Vance Apple is secretary.

Blue Sox Go To Hooker July 4

The Perryton Blue Sox will meet the Hooker Cardinals at Hooker in a special game Monday night, July 4. This will not be a league game, although both teams are members of the Texas-Oklahoma league.

The Blue Sox go to Sublette, Kansas Saturday night and to Hooker again on July 9.

Next scheduled home game is with Texhoma on Tuesday, July 12.

Legion Auxiliary Bake Sale Saturday

American Legion Auxiliary will stage a fund-raising bake sale starting at 9 a. m. Saturday at Bryan Food. Members are requested to bring pies, cakes, cookies and other prepared foods for the sale.

Police Report Minor Wrecks

Two "fender bendings" were investigated by city police this week, with no injuries reported. Both accidents occurred on Monday.

A collision at the intersection of Baylor and 6th avenue at 8:30 Monday morning did an estimated $117.50 damage to a 1950 Studebaker owned by Mrs. Sue Ragan and about $40 to a 1950 Chevrolet driven by Nancy Akin.

Police Chief Arlie C. Binion said Mrs. Ragan was going north on Baylor and had slowed nearly to a stop at the intersection when her car was hit by Miss Akin, who was making a right turn on Baylor from the avenue. The collision occurred near the curb on the east side of Baylor.

Another collision took place at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon at the intersection of Main and 4th avenue. Mrs. Grace Russell, driving a 1950 Buick, was crossing Main when her car was hit by R. L. Smoot, Jr., in a 1954 Mercury. No damage estimates have been received, but the damage was small to both automobiles.

FIRST WHEATHEART ENTRY—Miss Nancy Wright, daughter of Mrs. J. D. Wright, is the first entry in the Wheatheart contest this year. She will compete for the "Miss Perryton" title and the contest is scheduled for the week prior to the North Plains Fair. Nancy is a high school freshman, enjoys swimming, basketball and tennis. She is sponsored by the Frances Virginia Shop.

Eat More Than A Cow

Expert Reese Gives Lowdown On Grasshopper Life, Habits

"You can't make any general statements about a grasshopper," said Fred Reese, USDA entomologist, in telling the Perryton Lions Club about the current grasshopper control program at the Tuesday luncheon. "Every time you make a general statement, the grasshopper is liable to make a liar out of you," Reese continued.

Reese has been in Perryton for several weeks, supervising the spraying program for the north-east Panhandle, including Ochiltree, Hansford, Lipscomb, Roberts and Hemphill counties.

Two B-18 bombers, converted for spray plane use, are based in Hansford county and are working every morning spraying a mixture of Aldrin and diesel oil on the range lands covered by the spraying contracts. The planes operate only about three hours a day, Reese said, beginning early in the morning and ending when the temperature reaches 80 degrees.

However, during these three hours, the planes cover about 11,000 acres. Reese pointed out Aldrin gives a positive kill on grasshoppers and lasts about 10 days after application. Once the chemical has dried on the grass and weeds, rains will not wash it away.

Reese says that a concentration of 10-18 grasshoppers per square yard will eat as much grass as one cow. Some pastures in this area have 100 grasshoppers per square yard, indicating that the ranchers are feeding grasshoppers instead of cattle.

There are more than 400 varieties of grasshoppers, and about 23 varieties have been noted in this area. Of these 23 varieties, there are five species which do the big majority of the damage, Reese said.

Legion Beats Guymon, 7-4

The Perryton American Legion baseball team beat Guymon last week, 7-4, in a Panhandle league game.

The game was won in an extra inning, with Sammy Wilbanks pitching his usual brilliant game. He gave up only three hits and three walks in eight innings. The Perryton team collected seven hits and three walks in eight innings.

The Legion team plays a league game with Rolla, Kansas tonight. Game time is 8:15 p. m.

It's rolling off the assembly lines in volume numbers to meet the demand — in the high-powered CENTURY Series, and in the bedrock-priced SPECIAL Series, illustrated here. And each one is all Buick—with record-high V8 power, the level steadiness of all-coil-springing, the extra roominess of a full-size Buick Sedan—and, most certainly, with the instantaneous getaway response and bettered gas mileage of Buick's spectacular new Variable Pitch Dynaflo.* Come in for a look at the brand-new kind of hardtop—the 4-Door Riviera. You'll find it priced at the modest extra cost of a 4-door model over a 2-door model—and a buy too thrilling to pass up.

*Dynaflo Drive is standard on Roadmaster, optional at extra cost on other Series.

Backyard Bird Dogs Win

HAVEN, Conn.—Backyard dog training pays off, says Henry J. Townsend, Jr., says s. s. authority. His trained dogs have won a total number of field titles since 1948. Some of them have been against mighty competition.

One of his good ones is Raynham Tinker, a classy setter, who knows the difference between wild and liberated birds so with an almost impossible wag of his tail.

"I believe I have proved," says Townsend, "that it is possible for a layman to train good bird dogs that amounts to his own."

Raynham's Beau Tinker, a classy setter, is a dog trained in Henry J. Townsend's back yard.

Another backyard Townsend-trained bird dog is this consistent winning pointer called Inkspot.

DUANE BELL, who was taken from Fort Oglethorpe, N. C., when he was a child, signed to a private contract with the Carolina Freight Car Line. He has been in the business since 1948.

He is no professional, but he is a dog trainer for ordinals. What Townsend has done is to put an amateur's mind to something that is needed to put an amateur's dog in the spotlight. That something which has been long and patient with the dog, and patient with the dog's owner, is to get to know and like the dog, he says, "but the dog is that one doesn't like the training of dogs without competition without."

GETS BEAR IN TRADE—Charlie Sherrard, an automobile dealer in Denison, Tex., attempts to get his new bear cub to take its bottle as Bill Fitzgerald of Laredo, Tex., (left), leans against his new car and watches. Sherrard advertised he would even take a live bear in trade on an automobile, and Fitzpatrick had the cub which he caught on a hunting trip after the mother bear was killed. Fitzpatrick has his new car, Sherrard his bear. (P Photo)

Cat Comes Back

REARDAN, Wash. (Sp)—Homer the alley cat who wouldn't take no for an answer is back home and they're going to let him stay.

Homer showed up at the Lewis McKay house here six months ago. The family already had a couple of cats but they let him stay for awhile. Last month, though, they gave him to a Garfield, Wash. couple.

Then Homer came back. He apparently walked the 60 miles from Garfield. The McKays say they will keep him now.

Mrs. H. I. Hudson of Amarillo visited her son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hudson, Jimmy and Johnny, Wednesday. Chevrolet's special hill-flatteners!

162 H.P. V8
180 H.P. V8

See that fine fat mountain yonder? You can iron it out, flat as a flounder... and easy as whistling!

Just point one of Chevrolet's special hill-flatteners at it (either the 162-h.p. "Turbo-Fire V8" or the 180-h.p. "Super Turbo-Fire")... and pull the trigger! Barr-r-r-r-o-o-o-O-OOM! Mister, you got you a flat mountain!

... At least it feels flat. For here are engines that sing as sweetly as a dynamo... built to pour out a torrent of pure, vibrationless power. Big-bore V8's with the shortest stroke in the industry.

So most of the time they loaf. Even at the speed limit they just dream along, purring out a fraction of their strength.

An engineer can understand why they are so hyper-efficient. But you don't have to be an engineer to know that these are the sweetest running V8's you ever piloted. Just come in and try one out!

some fields in Lipscomb county where there are big infestations of grasshoppers and right across the fence where the grass was sprayed last year there are hardly any grasshoppers. This county did get an influx of the large migratory grasshoppers last fall, however, which are a different problem, Reese said. These grasshoppers came from the beds in Missouri and Kansas. They are large, and can ride the thermal air currents high into the air. In fact, grasshoppers have been found as high as 10,000 feet into the air. They can travel hundreds of miles this way, and when they tire out and slow down their wing motion, they come to the ground. Ochiltree county was literally "rained" with grasshoppers in this method in November, Reese said. It remains to be seen how thick the population will be this year. Grasshoppers have been building up in this area for the past five years, Reese said. With the advent of wet weather, the grasshoppers "blossom like a rose," and the result is the serious problem found here right now. Grasshopper females lay 10-15 eggs per pod and lay about 5 pods per summer, Reese said. Once laid, grasshopper eggs are quite hard to destroy. Experiments have shown that eggs can be frozen as long as 12 years and they hatch out readily. To destroy the eggs by heat requires the ground to be heated to 200 degrees for a depth of one inch under the ground, and this is nearly impossible to do, Reese said. The best way to kill grasshoppers is with the new chemicals, spread on their food when the grasshoppers are young and eating ravenously, Reese said. "There is no way to destroy grasshoppers completely," Reese pointed out. "God put grasshoppers on this earth for a purpose and it is impossible to kill them out. But we can control them, and thus adapt our land and grass for our use. The task is made easier with the use of these new chemicals, and the results are guaranteed. But it is a constant fight to see who will win, Mr. Grasshopper or Mr. Rancher."

DANBURY, Conn. (AP) — The Danbury News-Times said editorially that there may be something to the idea of year-around schools. Seventh grader Carole Gallo, who disagreed, quietly went into action, and with some friends circulated a questionnaire among fellow pupils, teachers and parents. In a long letter to the editor, Carole said that 37 of 46 parents interviewed opposed year-around school, 8 of 13 teachers interviewed opposed it and all 123 pupils interviewed were against it. U. Sniffles got lost while Bobby and his parents were vacationing. Bobby's mother wrote a pleading letter to Saute St. Marie Evening News, enclosing a picture of Sniffles. Many people saw Sniffles, but none could catch him. He ate with an antiaircraft battalion or with the workmen at the coal docks. The Lawsons made a 350 mile trip, but Sniffles chose that week end to be absent. They came a few weeks later to find Sniffles living in an abandoned house. He fled when the grown-ups walked in. Then Bobby tried it alone. Sniffles got the scent and bounded into Bobby's arms. The first U. S. patent law was passed in 1790.

said that the county had a balance of $143,000 in the bank on June 1, including $70,000 on time deposit. Hargrove said it would take $90,000 to operate the county to the end of the year and this would leave only $53,000 available for any other purpose. Considering the tax collections to be made this fall, however, the commissioners agreed that they could see their way clear to put in $75,000 but they could not see putting in $100,000. All four had voted last week against putting in $100,000 for the dam project. Commissioner Ivan Day told the C. of C. group that he wanted them to understand that the county, while it had accumulated a "surplus" each year since about 1950, would not do so in the future since the commissioners had lowered the tax rate by 30 cents this year. This means around $27,000 less income each year and this fact should be considered in any future planning, Day said. Commissioner George Yates said that while the commissioners had been accused of "dragging their feet" on the Wolf Creek Dam project, quite the opposite was true. All of the commissioners have worked long and hard on this project and are determined to do everything they can to see its completion, Yates said. All of the commissioners have worked long and hard on this project and are determined to do everything they can to see its completion, Yates said. Following this meeting, county attorney Jack M. Allen said he has written several bonding companies to meet with the court on July 11, the next regular meeting date. These companies will be asked to present their best deal for financing a bond issue and if agreement can be reached with one of these companies, the next step will be to call a bond issue to see if the people of the county will approve $150,000 in bonds to rebuild the dam. New Lengths for Pearls

That's the way smart girls are wearing it this year—the longer the better. For 1955, this rule will apply not only to necklaces but also to earrings, which may dangle to the shoulder for after-5 wear. Both necklaces and earrings come in all kinds of fake jewels, gay, dramatic and not nearly as expensive as they look. The 60-inch necklace of pearls (simulated, of course) has been a top favorite for the last year, and will continue among the winners in 1955, according to advance reports. The long necklaces may be worn straight, as shown, or in many other ways—tied in a knot, looped around and around the throat, worn inatinee length—in two loops, making the necklace just half as long, and so on. Some women like to wear half a dozen of the long strands of beads in different colors, mixing up fake pearls, emeralds, rubies and rhinestones.

Texas Reports 397 Deaths by Drowning in '54

AUSTIN — There were 397 drownings in Texas last year according to figures released by the Texas State Department of Health. Over half of these deaths were among those under 25 years of age. Drownings dropped sharply after age 45, but occurred in each age bracket up to 90 years.

Dr. Henry A. Holle, Commissioner of Health, stated that most of these deaths could have been prevented if sensible precautions had been taken. This is the season of the year when many of us like to take to the water for a cool swim, for week-end boating or fishing trips. These are all healthful forms of recreation, if you follow common sense rules, don't get cocky about your ability in the water and don't take chances.

The safest place to swim is the municipal pool where a life guard is on duty. The water is treated to kill disease germs and is kept fresh by a continuous change of water. Also there is no danger of wading into unexpected deep holes such as there is in ponds, lakes and rivers.

If you go boating and do not know how to swim always take along a life preserver. See that each child is so equipped. Be careful not to overload the boat. Changing seats or standing up in a small boat is dangerous business. If you should capsize, stay with the boat.

Watch children carefully while they play around small pools or even buckets of water. Small children often drown in stock tanks, fish pools, ditches and drainage canals. They even drown in bath tubs, because thoughtless mothers leave them there to play without supervision. Consciously practice safety precautions and soon avoiding accident hazards will become second nature to you. Swimming, boating and fishing are healthful exercise if you do them safely.

This also means that men's leather gloves can be washed in the future—a great boon to the housewife who frets when she sees the males in her family wearing their best gloves for such chores as changing a tire or tinkering with the car.

GLOVE WASHDAY . . . New leather gloves in high colors now can be tossed in with the family wash and come out good as new.

New Leather Gloves Take To Suds

Leather gloves in all colors, which can be tossed into the washing machine, are the big news of the year in giveland.

The gloves come in nine colors and a number of styles, and will be available in stores throughout the country as soon as the manufacturers can turn them out in sufficient quantity—probably in mid-summer.

Although washable leather gloves have been on the market for years, they usually required great care in washing—and gloves in colors such as red, navy and the pastels usually had to be dry-cleaned.

Now, after years of research, tanners have developed a process which makes leather in high colors as washable as dungarees. After being put through the washing machine with a regular washday detergent, they come out as soft and bright as new, requiring no special care.

Amarillo Experiments Show Bindweed Can Be Controlled

COLLEGE STATION — Bindweed can be controlled on large acreages of cropland through competitive cropping, intensive cultivation and the use of 2,4-D. These practices are recommended as a result of experiments conducted in the Texas Panhandle since 1949 by A. F. Weise, agronomist for the Amarillo Experiment Station, and H. E. Rea, agronomist for the Main Station at College Station.

Wheat was the best competitive crop used. Sorghum was not easily established during the summer when the weeds were growing vigorously.

A fallow-wheat system, using intensive cultivation during the fallow periods, eliminated 92 percent of the weeds in three years.

The 2,4-D was applied in the fall before the wheat was planted or in the spring when the wheat was fully tilled.

Patches of bindweed up to half an acre in size were eradicated with applications of soil sterilants, such as sodium chlorate, Concentrated Borasol, Atlacide, Polychlorate and Karmex W at rates of 5.16, 7.12 and three-eighths pounds, respectively, per square rod. One application of a soil sterilant seldom completely eliminated bindweed; retreatments usually were necessary for complete eradication. Complete results of these studies are given in the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station's bulletin 802 Copies are available from the Agricultural Information Office, College Station, Texas.

Supersonic Rain

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—An aircraft company makes artificial rain in a pipe and shoots cannon shells through it. The purpose is to find out what the rain does to the shells—not vice versa—and is a project for the U. S. air force.

The study is to determine the amount of rain erosion, or damage, to objects traveling through it at supersonic speeds up to 2,000 miles an hour. The 20 mm. cannon are fired through a 300-foot pipe, into which water is sprayed through holes. The shells exploded 1,500 feet beyond the pipe's top and parachutes float the test specimens down to the researchers.

Active Home Lawns Don't Just Time and Effort Required

STATION — Attracting lawns don't just happen; the results of continuous care and effort.

If the lawn is seeded, use high quality seed of a single grass, not a lawn mixture. Spread seed evenly. Sodding, laying grass in solid strips, is expensive and time consuming but gives the desired grass cover quickly. If you sprig, the grass runners should be packed firmly into the soil.

Sprinkle lightly and frequently until the new grasses become established. As they take a foothold, water less often and increase the amount.

Mowing at a height of one and one-half to two inches will encourage spreading and will control invading weeds.

And, don't overlook fertilizers in the establishment of your new lawn. A soil test will determine which plant nutrients and in what quantities are needed. County agents can furnish complete information on sampling the soil, the specialist adds.

Mrs. Lansman turned to her husband and said: "Darling, do you have a loose $50 bill?" Lansman paid.

The Dam Question

The Herald commends the Ochiltree county commissioners who have voted to put $75,000 of county funds into the Wolf Creek Dam project, provided the people of the county approve a $150,000 bond issue for the same purpose.
This leaves it up to the people of the county to approve or disapprove, by their vote on the bonds, the action of the commissioners in spending this $75,000.
Certainly this is a democratic way of doing business with public funds and it now rests with the people of the country whether or not to vote the necessary bonds.
The commissioners court is to be commended for the fact the county has any money at all to put into such a project. During the past five or six years, the county has kept its spending below its income, resulting in this accumulation of county funds.
We think that the Wolf Creek Dam project would be an ideal place to put this money, because rebuilding this recreation site will benefit as many residents of Ochiltree county as anything we know.
Considerable time and effort has been spent in regaining title to the park land, in preparing engineers plans and cost estimates, in securing the necessary water permits. Careful planning has been made and we feel sure that the citizens of this county will get their money's worth out of this project.
Much work remains to be done before the Wolf Creek Dam and the lake is again a reality. But the day will come when the famed recreation site of the North Plains is rebuilt even better than before.
This, of course, depends upon the success of the bond issue. If the bond issue fails the matter is dropped. If the issue carries, then the commissioners court can go ahead with the details of securing bids and arranging for the financing.

Texas Democrats Not Convinced

Paul Butler, chairman of the National Democratic Party, didn't convince many Democrats in Texas on his recent tour through the state. Instead of healing a breach and attempting to bring Texas Democrats back into the fold, he made some of the more staunch Democrats madder than ever at the national party.
Instead of getting the "Liberal" and "Conservative" element of the party together, he ignored the "Conservatives," snubbed a dinner invitation from the governor, and made it quite clear that he was here to allow the conservative element to surrender.
No one has surrendered, although it appears that Gov. Shivers is weakening in considering replacing Wright Morrow as a national committeeman.
Butler makes the mistake common to all Northern Democrats in analyzing Texas: straying from the fold. He believes that the mass of Texas Democrats were wooed down the primrose path by Allan Shivers and his supporters, and that most Texas Democrats are merely deluded, waiting to be returned to the Democratic party by proper methods.
Fact of the matter is that Texas Democrats feel that the party deserted them. The Democratic Party has long ago turned over its control to the CIO element whose only cure for economic ills is more and more socialism and higher taxes and more federal handouts and more federal control of business, education, highways, etc.
This is the reason Texans deserted the party in 1952. And until the Democratic Party does some housecleaning on the top levels, Texans will more than likely stay out of it.

Bankers Advise to Advertise

We are pleased to repeat this bit of advice from the American Bankers Magazine, representing the views of bankers who, after all, make a business out of making money and whose views along the money making line are highly respected in all communities.
Says the American Bankers Magazine:
No business man in any town should allow a newspaper published in his town to go without his name and business being mentioned somewhere in its columns. This does not mean that you should have a whole, half or even a quarter page ad in each issue of the paper, but your name and business should be mentioned, even if you do not use more than a two-line space.
A stranger picking up a newspaper should be able to tell what business is represented in a town by looking at the paper. This is the best possible town advertising. The man who does not advertise his business does an injustice to himself and the town.
The man who insists on sharing the business that comes to town, but refuses to advertise his own, is not a valuable addition to any town. The life of a town depends on the live, wide awake and liberal advertising business man.

with HAROLD HUDSON
This department has taken a little bit of kidding from subscribers this week because the Herald last week had a front page story, a page ad, an editorial and part of this column devoted to the winning of the national General Excellence award. We don't mind a bit. After all, the odds are greatly against this newspaper ever winning it again, and now is the time to tell you about it. And there is a picture of a number of Herald awards in this issue, if you want to look for it.

As an example of how winning the NEA General Excellence trophy is regarded, the Herald has received a score of letters from newspapers in all parts of the nation, wanting sample copies, offering congratulations, wanting to exchange newspapers, etc. All this is very gratifying to the Herald staff, of course, and you will be relieved to know that at the present time we plan no increase in the subscription rate or the advertising rates.

A speaker should remember that the mind can absorb only what the seat can endure.

Amon Carter, publisher of the Ft. Worth Star-Telegram, and known for years as "Mr. Fort Worth," has died, and Texas has lost one of her most colorful figures. We shall always remember a wartime story told about a Negro youth from Ft. Worth being questioned at the induction station. The colored boy let it be known that he wasn't ready to go to the Army and a kindly officer was attempting to arouse his patriotism. "Sam, don't you want to fight for your country?" the officer said. "No, sah, not particularly," replied Sam. "Well, you wouldn't like it if the Japs and the Germans were to come over here and take over Fort Worth and kill all your family and make you a slave, would you?" the officer continued.

"No sah, I wouldn't like it, but I ain't worried because I don't expect Mr. Amon Carter ever gon allow nothin' like that to ever happen, no sah," retorted the colored boy.

Congress has just passed a law which says no one is worth less than $1 an hour. It used to be that no one was worth less than 75 cents an hour. This minimum hour wage is undoubtedly one of the big contributing factors to the "do-it-yourself" boom. The minimum wage has, of course, put a floor under the higher wages of skilled workmen and some types of work have been priced out of the market for the ordinary home owner. Thus he has to learn to do it himself.

A salesman in the office the other day let us in on a secret of his youth. He said when he was a kid, they used to tell him that big bubbles meant a short rain, while small bubbles meant a long rain. No bubbles at all meant it had set in for the day. Sure enough, that same day it came a rain, with big drops and big bubbles. The rain lasted about 15 minutes. Wonder if this is an old and accepted way of telling how long a rain will last?

This department came in for some criticism at the meeting of the commissioners court Tuesday afternoon. Commissioner Yates presented our saying in this column last week that the commissioners had been "dragging their feet" on the Wolf Creek Dam proposal. There seemed to be considerable disagreement among the commissioners as to the amount of money the county has available for putting into the project, and our figures as published in the story last week about a previous meeting were questioned. The total fund balance of $172,763.91 was said to be much too high.

With reference to "dragging their feet," we can only say that until the commissioners reached this agreement to put in $75,000, the project has been stymied since the water permit was granted in May. With reference to the $172,763.91, we can only point to the 1954 county audit of accountant F. E. Coan of Amarillo, who says, "The 1954 fund balances increased $50,282.48, with a total of $172,763.91 in cash and time deposits." Maybe this doesn't mean what it says, we don't know. But the official county audit is where we got our figures for the story we had in last week's Herald and we are inclined to stick with them.

We haven't criticized the commissioners for the way they are handling the Wolf Creek project, and we would never criticize the court for exercising utmost caution in spending county funds. Our primary object has been to get the bond election for rebuilding Wolf Creek Dam before the people of this county and let the matter stand on its own merits. We think the commissioners, the county judge and the coun-

Wolf Creek Philosopher No Dirt Farmer In U. S. Senate

(Ed. note: The Wolf Creek Philosopher has an odd bit of information this week, his letter reveals.)

Dear editor:
I was out here on my farm the other afternoon resting under a tree watching the clouds seeing if I could figure out what the weather was gonna do, people have become so used to depending on the U. S. Weather Bureau to tell em what to expect a lot of em have gotten out of the habit of ever looking at the sky, but I always believe in going to the source for my information and while I may not be able to tell you very far in advance what the weather will do, I imagine there are more people who still cut wheat or hay by the looks of the clouds than the weather reports in the paper or over the radio, and they get more results that way, or at any rate you don't find many weather forecasters who are also in the farming business.

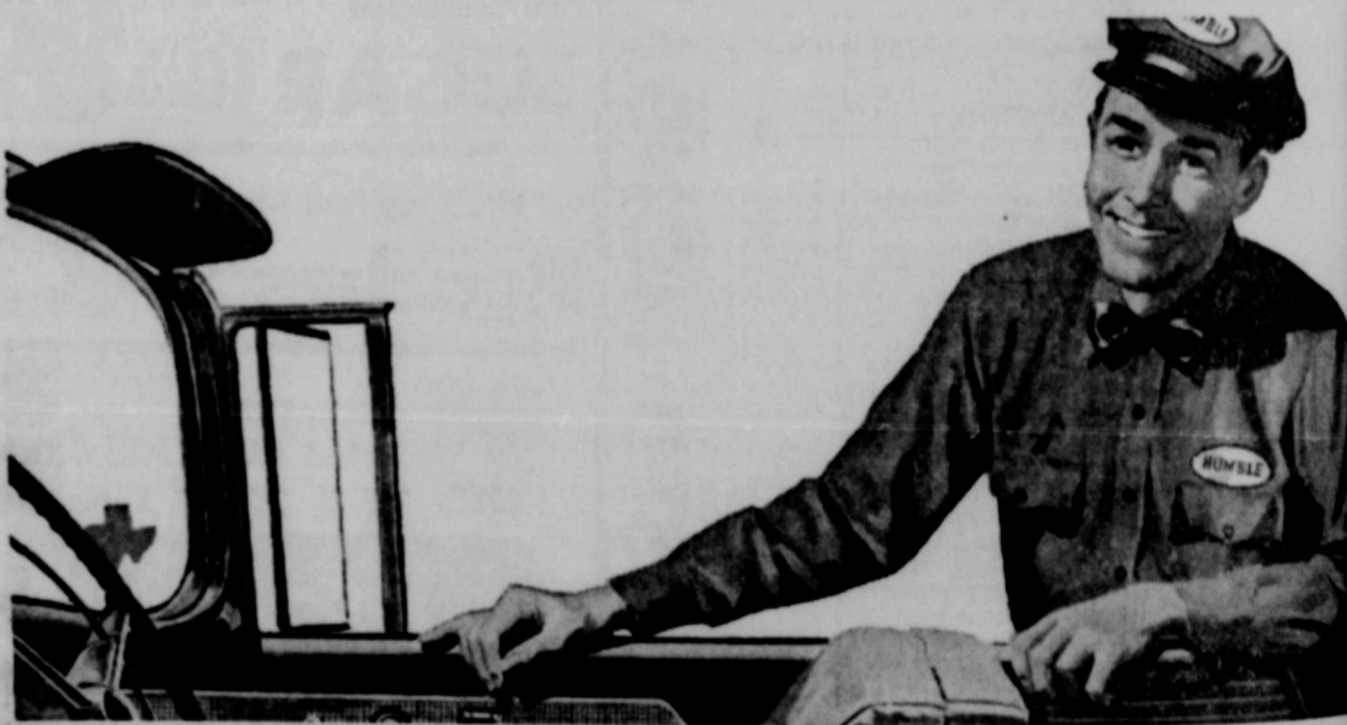

Anyway, it took me all afternoon to make up my mind what I figured the weather was gonna do, and by that time it was too late to do any work anyway, and I pulled a newspaper out of my pocket which I'd been saving to put on the tractor seat in case I did any work and had to go to the house for a drink of water while the sun was shining, and the first thing I ran into was an article that reported there isn't a single dirt farmer in the U. S. Senate.

The writer of the article was astonished at this, but it doesn't

Highway Patrol Seeks Young Men For Appointments

AUSTIN—Homer Garrison, Jr., Director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, announced today that the Texas Highway Patrol will accept applications between now and July 25th from young Texans for appointment to the Texas Highway Patrol.

Garrison said that examinations for appointment to the Patrol recruit training school will be given at various points in the state early in August. Some 100 vacancies, due to the action of the Texas Legislature in increasing the Texas Highway Patrol personnel, will be filled from the roster of those qualified.

The Public Safety Director invites all young men who are interested in a career of law enforcement to make application as early as possible. He pointed out that they must be between 21 and 35 years of age, inclusive, have a high school education, be at least 5 feet 8 inches in height and weight not less than two nor more than three and one-half pounds per inch of height.

Garrison emphasized, too, that applicants must have been citizens of Texas for at least a year and they must be of good moral character and in perfect physical condition and able to withstand a rigid character investigation.

Garrison further emphasized that these applicants, if accepted for this Service, will receive vacation time, sick leave, if necessary, and will be covered by the State Retirement Act and the Federal Social Security Act.

Application forms, Garrison said, may be obtained from all Texas Highway Patrol District Offices or by writing directly to W. J. Elliott, Chief, Texas Highway Patrol, at Austin.

RINGGOLD, Ga. (AP)—Norman Allen, a firecracker distributor offers a rope to hang those crop pests—the blackbirds. The law prohibits killing them. Allen devised a firecracker bird rope from an idea originated by the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service and county agents. It consists of a five-foot length of 5/16-inch cotton plow line, with specially made firecrackers fused into it one inch apart.

The farmer hangs the rope from a pole and lights the bottom end. Each firecracker falls to the ground before exploding. One rope will protect a four to five acre area all day, Allen says giving off blasts at regular intervals. Several days of the firecracker rope action, he adds, will keep the area clear of blackbirds permanently.

AUSTIN, Tex.—Selection of a successor to Wright Morrow, Democratic National Committeeman from Texas, is imminent. Because he voted for Eisenhower for President in 1952, Morrow was barred from serving on the Democratic National Committee.

But, Gov. Allan Shivers doubts that anyone can be found to fill the prescription laid down by Democratic National Chairman Paul Butler.

It must be someone, Butler told Shivers in his now famous Washington "kitchen conference," who never bolted the party. It must be someone who worked for Adlai Stevenson's election. And it must be someone who can be approved by Shivers, House Speaker Sam Rayburn, and Senator Lyndon Johnson.

Possibility of replacing Morrow became a by-product of activity by top-level Democratic and Republican figures in the preliminary skirmish toward Texas' role as a battlefield in the 1956 presidential contest.

Chairman Butler spent six days in Texas, mostly under the guiding hand of the "Democratic Advisory Council," a group of liberal-loyalists appointed to take over Morrow's duties.

Butler declined an invitation by Governor Shivers to visit the executive mansion; Shivers did not accept Butler's invitation to come to some of his meetings.

Republican National Committeeman Jack Porter followed Butler promptly with a state workers' rally in Austin. He announced he was extending "not only an invitation, but a challenge" to the conservative Democrats who carried Texas for Eisenhower, to join up formally with the Republicans.

Porter predicted that President Eisenhower will be renominated will carry Texas, Florida, Virginia and Tennessee again — and win in 1956.

"The Conservative Democrats," he said, "were invited by Butler to quit their party. They know they will have no more say in selecting a nominee next year than in 1952 or 1948."

Porter believes the Democratic party split is permanent.

Veterans Forum

Q. Could I get a GI loan to pay off household expenses such as grocery bills, doctor bills and furniture bills?

A. No. Under the law, GI loans may not be used for such purposes.

Q. I am a totally and permanently disabled World War II veteran. For that reason, VA has waived premium payments on my GI term insurance policy. Would I be permitted to convert my term policy to a permanent plan, even though the premiums are under waiver for disability?

A. Yes. You may convert your term policy to any permanent plan except endowment. You could choose between Ordinary Life, 20-Payment Life or 30-Payment Life.

Q. I am receiving disability compensation payments from VA. My disability has recently worsened. Would a statement to that effect, by my own physician, qualify me for higher VA payments?

A. The statement alone would not suffice. It would have to be followed by an official VA examination, and reconsideration of your case.

Q. I am a World War I veteran drawing a disability pension. In figuring my annual income, would I have to include the rental value of the small house that I own and live in?

A. No. Under the conditions you cite, the rental value of your home would not be considered as income, for VA pension purposes.

Problem Parents?

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (AP)—Putting the blame on parents for all the trouble children get into has its serious drawbacks, says University of Michigan psychiatrist Dr. Ralph D. Rabinovitch.

Parents, he says, are becoming afraid to ask for help for problem children because of shame and the fear they themselves may be punished for the child's offense.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCH
Colgate and 7th Avenue

The following is the 15th in a series of messages by ministers of this trade area. This week's message was prepared by The Christian Science Committee on Publications for Texas. Services at the Christian Science Church begin at 11 a. m. Sunday and the public is cordially invited.

"THOU SHALT LOVE THE LORD THY GOD . . ."

That matter is a misconception of God's creation will be brought out at Christian Science services Sunday. The theme of the Lesson-Sermon entitled "God" will be brought out in Bible verses such as the following from Deuteronomy (6:5): "Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy might."

Among the passages to be read from "Science and Health with Key to Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy is the following (p. 140): "Not materially but spiritually we know Him as divine Mind, as Life, Truth, and Love. We shall obey and adore in proportion as we apprehend the divine nature and love Him understandingly, worshipping no more over the corporeality, but rejoicing in the attestation of our God."

The Golden Text is from Psalms (77:13): "The way, O God, is in the sanctuary, who is so great a God as our God?"

Campbell-Ewald Co. Tells How to Make Advertising An Investment

Advertisers look to the Texas newspapers to tell their story, E. A. Schirmer, senior vice-president, Campbell-Ewald Company, Detroit, told members of the Texas Press Association meeting in Galveston at its seventy-sixth annual meeting.

Schirmer, who spoke on the "High Cost of Silence," paid tribute to the press association on the celebration of its diamond jubilee and said "we in the advertising business look to your newspapers to tell the story for our clients in this large, important and fast-growing market. Newspapers are a particularly important medium in a territory, such as this, covering hundreds of thousands of square miles."

Campbell-Ewald Co. is one of the oldest and largest advertising companies in the country, having been founded forty-four years ago.

"There are still, today, too many people occupying management positions in all kinds of business who do not realize that their incomes, to a large degree depend on advertising. They are too quick to censor the high cost of advertising,—but fail to analyze the long-range effect of product silence," Schirmer told the newspaper representatives. "Many people at the management level forget that the production problem in any business is only over when the goods are in the hands of the ultimate consumer. It may be said generally that top management is not aware of advertising or how it should be used, and what it can do."

Enthusiastic Recruit

RICHMOND, Va. (AP)—The Air Force will have a hard time finding a more enthusiastic recruit than Norman Sutherland, 18, a Scot.

Sutherland has wanted to join the U. S. Air Force since he was 10. When he reached 16 he wrote the mayor of Richmond, then Dr. E. E. Haddock, about it. He was advised of the requirements and the necessity for a sponsor. Parents prevailed on him to wait until he was 18. He did and he still wanted to join. He wrote Mayor Thomas P. Bryan. Bryan turned the letter over to Maj. William E. Morgan of the recruiting service. Maj. Morgan became sponsor.

Sutherland said he held two jobs and worked 85 hours a week to get the money for his passage from Scotland.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh. If You Can't Lick 'em—Join 'em. Just back from visiting with my daughter's family—and playing Grandpop to two of the cutest kids you ever saw. While there I picked up a couple of new ideas on child raising: If your child's learning to use a pen, provide an old fountain pen—filled with bluing. Looks and writes like ink, but won't stain clothes or furniture. Maybe you have a boy, like my grandson, who thinks he's too old for a bib—but isn't. A big cowboy bandana works just as well, and looks he-man to boot.

From where I sit, getting along with children is like getting along with grownups—it requires an effort to see things from the other person's point of view. At any age, there's no accounting for tastes. Take my neighbor who keeps a parakeet and drinks hot coffee in the summertime. That seems strange to me... a man who's partial to hound dogs and a cooling glass of beer. But I'd be "childish" to say it was wrong.

Best Buy Food, Says IHD Agent

will give you more food for the dollar than any other food. According to Extension food specialists, "If you buy your milk, your food dollar is stretched even further."

by using evaporated and non-fat dry milk in cooking," says Lou Ella Patterson, local Extension Agent.

It's difficult to have a balanced diet without including milk. Research shows, too, that regardless of age, we all need the food milk offers.

Studies show that women especially are not drinking the milk they need each day—neither are their teen-age daughters. This may be due to the fact that many people think milk is fattening. It isn't. A glass of whole milk has fewer calories than a serving of many other foods. There are only about 165 calories in a glass (eight ounces) of whole milk, and each ounce is packed with food value. A serving of lean beef has about 300 calories. Two buttered biscuits have about 350 calories and a slice of apple pie contains about 375 calories.

Drink skim milk, if you're trying to lose a few pounds—it has approximately half the calories of whole milk, but you will still be getting the important minerals, vitamins and protein. When energy lags—in mid-morning or afternoon—try a cold glass of milk for a "lift that lasts."

LESLIE CARON LOOKS skeptical, but Fred Astaire appears most persuasive in this penthouse preview to the "Something's Gotta Give" number in the new CinemaScope musical, "Daddy Long Legs" that opens at the Ellis Theatre Tuesday, July 5.

'Daddy Long Legs' Has Fred Astaire

Fred Astaire, the ageless hooper, appears to have found the fountain of youth in the manner in which he dances in "Daddy Long Legs," coming to the Ellis Theatre on Tuesday-Thursday. Leslie Caron is co-starred. Oldtimers may think they know "Daddy Long Legs." The new version does retain the memorable story line of a middle-aged benefactor who "adopts" a lonely little orphan girl, but only with the provision she never knows his identity. Thus, there can be no misunderstanding his motives. But when the patrician man like Astaire, and the girl like Leslie Caron, you can look for developments.

As cast dividends, look to Terry Moore and Thelma Ritter, who come through with delightful performances. Pert Terry, as Leslie's college room-mate and Astaire's niece, is full of pep, and caustic Thelma Ritter is the always redoubtable wise-cracking secretary to Astaire. Fred Clark does an able comedy bit as As-

David Crockett, King of the Wild Frontier, Here Friday

Biggest event of the season for the small fry is the arrival on Friday and Saturday at the Ellis Theatre of "Davy Crockett, King of the Wild Frontier," the Walt Disney show which has swept the country like nothing since chain letters.

Disney recreates the lusty legend of one of America's foremost pioneers — Davy Crockett, the buckskin backwoodsman from Tennessee who fought his way from the Great Smoky Mountains to the flaming Alamo. Traditional heroes come alive once more as Davy battles alongside such immortals as Andy Jackson, Jim Travis and Jim Bowie.

There's endless excitement from the time Davy "grins-down" a bear to the moment he takes his place on the ramparts of the Alamo. There are the Indian Wars and the hand-to-hand tomahawk duel with Redstick, Chief of the rampaging Creek tribes. There is Davy in Congress, all decked out in deerskin, winning over the support of political giants with his homespun humor and earthy logic. There is the attack by Santa Anna's armies against the tiny Texan garrison and, of course, there's the "Ballad of Davy Crockett," the song that has literally hurled all competition in its climb to the top of the Hit Parade.

Handling the title role is a tall, lean newcomer name of Fess Parker who hails from Fort Worth, Texas. He is the young man who holds the enviable record of being the only adult ever signed to a long term acting contract by Walt Disney. His ingratiating manner and quiet delivery mark him as a natural for the role—and for a long time to come the names Fess Parker and Davy Crockett will signify the same man to the millions who will see this picture.

Sweet Wine Loses Out

PARIS, France (AP)—Champagne manufacturers say people don't seem to like sweet champagne any more. The more sugar syrup you add to champagne the easier it is to cover the natural acidity of the wine. Really dry champagne has to be better than the sweeter stuff.

Why the change in taste has come is not clear. Experts say it is true of all wines.

Before World War I, there was a market for champagne with as much as 15 per cent sugar syrup. Now it's rare for the French to export anything sweeter than 10 per cent.

The British and Americans have always preferred their champagne as dry as possible. Tastes differ widely and inexplicably with geography. In Venezuela, Scandinavia and Finland they like it comparatively sweet. The Germans like it somewhat drier. South Africans drier still. The French themselves are taking theirs drier and drier.

Power, O'Hara Star in Story Of West Point

A motion picture that lives up to the reputation of award-winning John Ford, is "The Long Gray Line," starring Tyrone Power and Maureen O'Hara, which comes to the Ellis Theatre on Sunday and Monday.

Principal figure of the story is a sergeant at West Point who devoted his lifetime to shaping into men the cadets who have marched over the Academy to shape our times.

Starred with Power and Miss O'Hara are Robert Francis, Donald Crisp, Ward Bond, Betsy Palmer and Phil Carey.

"The Long Gray Line" is based on "Sergeant Marty Maher's Book 'Bringing Up the Brass,'" in which he describes his experiences as athletic trainer, friend and second father to 10,000 or so cadets. Under Ford's direction, "The Long Gray Line" reportedly is a magnificent story of a West Point which at first bewildered, then befriended and finally honored a pugnacious young immigrant whose life became centered on the Academy and on the Corps of Cadets.

Early Day WT Students Will Gather July 9

CANYON (Special)—Pioneers of West Texas education will recall "old times," when the early ex-students of West Texas State College gather here July 9 for their first reunion in many years. Coming back to the campus will be students who attended this region's first college, from the year of its inception, 1910 until 1915.

About 500 early alumni are expected for the day's program, according to Milton (Buff) Morris, executive secretary of the WT Ex-Students Association. Morris will be master of ceremonies for events which open with registration and a coffee hour at 9 a. m. Affairs are set in the college's new Student Union Building.

Mrs. S. B. Whittenburg (Frances Grimes, '37) of Amarillo, vice-president of the association, and Dr. James P. Cornette, WT president, will welcome exes at 10 a. m. Introduction of exes and guests will be made by Dr. E. L. Henderson, Greenville, N. C., and Dr. J. A. Hill, president emeritus who was head of the history department during the early years, will speak.

An hour of "early time reminiscing" will be spent before a buffet luncheon at noon. Guided tours of the campus, ending at the Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum, will be started at 1:30 p. m., and the Student Union will remain open for visiting in the afternoon.
