

Boys and Buyers Coming for Wool Show and Auction Sale

Fleece and Bag Judging Begins at 10 Today; Host of "Trades Day" Offers For Saturday Shoppers in Stores, Service Stations and Cafes of the "Capital of the Stockman's Paradise"

Fair weather this morning gave promise of pleasant conditions for the 2-day Sutton county event—the first Annual 4-H Club Wool Show for boys of the West Texas range area, the first Auction Sale of fine livestock and first community-wide "Trades Day."

Sixteen goats and two sheep are being barbecued today for the Lions Club supper tonight. Only Lions, county agents, visiting boys and Wool Show officials are to be present for the supper on the courthouse lawn. A short entertainment program will follow.

Boys Here From Gatesville

Honors for being the first 4-H Club boys to arrive and probably for having come the farthest distance likely will go to the Coryell county agent, G. Y. Powell, and two of his 4-H Club boys who came Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Powell accompanied them. The boys will enter five single fleeces in the Show.

Not even a broken arm could prevent Jack from making the 500-mile round trip journey to and from Gatesville with his club leader and friend, Williams. Nabors fell last Friday on a Gatesville street.

Thursday night and early Friday morning members of the pens committee and transportation group were busy getting livestock into Sonora and ready for the Auction Sale at 2 o'clock Saturday when Nelson Johnson, auctioneer, will go into action. W. J. Fields, Jr., Lions Club president, said last night that the sale would be alongside the warehouse, back of the H. V. Stokes Feed Co. Animals are in pens under the warehouse addition just completed.

Much Stock Offered For Sale

"King Tut," Hereford bull given by Joe M. Vander Stucken, has been kept at the stock pens several days. Goats, a steer, sheep and one horse were received yesterday by A. W. Awalt of the pens committee who took care of them in a lot near his home. A red pig, numerous bucks and billies and many other animals will be offered Saturday afternoon.

A number of ranchmen are giving cash rather than livestock but indications are such that it is known that at least 100 head of stock will be offered. The thirteen yearling ewes from the flock of S. S. Bundy, ace breeder in the Roosevelt section, are being

Cal Ory Candidate For Judicial Office

Sutton Citizen Many Years Wants To Be Justice of the Peace

The post of justice of the peace in precinct one is wanted by Cal Ory, Sutton county citizen forty-four years, who this week authorized his announcement for the office.

Mr. Ory, a Kinney county native, came here when he was about fifteen. He had been on the Ira Wheat Ranch in Edwards county before that and after coming to Sonora worked on the Sam McKee Ranch, for the Sonora Mercantile Co. and for J. G. Barton.

In the summer of 1918 he began tick eradication work for Sutton county, under supervision of the Livestock Sanitary Commission. After eleven years of this he began a 5-year period of work for the state highway department. For the last three years he has been employed by the Livestock Sanitary Commission. Lack of funds forced curtailment of the commission's work recently.

All of the ten children reared by Mr. and Mrs. Ory live in Sutton county except Lester who is in the aviation corps at Randolph Field, San Antonio.

brought here this morning.

Nine Sutton Boys' Sheep Sheared

Judging of wool began this morning at ten o'clock with Stanley P. Davis of College Station doing the work. Cash awards will be announced Saturday morning before the wool is sold. More than $150 has been secured from Sonora business people to provide for Wool Show expenses and to add to the "Per-pound bonus" fund which will be given the boys on a pro rata basis at the time their wool is sold. Display tables for the showing of the wool were made Thursday by George D. Chalk and Alvis Johnson, Jr.

Flock demonstrations, carried on for months by Sutton county 4-H Club boys, in preparation for the Wool Show were completed last week and this by the shearing of their sheep and the preparing of the clips for the Show.

The nine boys whose sheep were sheared and the number of animals sheared were:

Eugene Shurley, 10; Jack Shurley, 36; Billy Shurley, 30; Harrell Turney Espy, 23; Mankin Stokes, 24; Robert Allen Simmons, 31; Dock Simmons, 31; Robert Kelley, 26; R. W. Johnson, 25.

Each boy will enter wool (12-months) in the Bags of Wool class (20 fleeces), in the Single Fleeces contest, and in the Best Put-Up Bags of Wool group. The 5-fleece Sutton county entry in the county contest will be chosen from six fleeces owned by Harrell Turney (2), Mankin Stokes (2), Billy Shurley (1), and Robert Kelley (1). Each boy will enter his record book showing methods and costs of handling his sheep.

Two-Drop Machine Given

Shearing began Friday under the direction of H. C. Atchison, county agent. A 2-drop machine given by the Chicago Flexible Shaft Co. through the efforts of H. M. Phillips, editor, Southwestern Sheep and Goat Raiser Magazine, was used. The company furnished the machine through its agent, Findlater Hardware Co., San Angelo, and Mr. Phillips donated a 2-wheel trailer for transporting it.

The sound truck, offered by Gulf Oil Corporation through Wyllie Ratliff of Eldorado, bulk agent in this section, is expected here early tomorrow.

Dance Saturday Night

Concluding event of the 2-day affair, sponsored by the Lions Club, will be the Saturday night dance at the Scout Hall.

Conrad Galvin and his orchestra of San Antonio, with Rosalie, entertainer, has been secured by Jodie Trainer of the entertainment committee. The dance will begin at 9:30. A feature number, during the intermission, will be a special dance by Peggy Gilmore and Mary Gwendolyn Wyatt. Their dance, difficult and unusual, attracted much favorable attention when presented several weeks ago on the stage of the high school auditorium.

The general committee in charge of the Wool Show is made up of (Continued on Page 8)

AAA Payments in Sutton $45,888.86

Payment For 1937 Work in County Virtually Complete

With the exception of one check for about $2,200 Sutton county ranch operators who complied with the range conservation program practices authorized last year have been paid for the work they did.

Ten checks, totaling $8,147.83 were received at the county agent's office Wednesday.

Upon receipt of the $2,200 check the total which the Agricultural Adjustment Administration paid Sutton county people for 1937 work will be approximately $45,888.86. The amount applied for as a result of the work done was only $43,000.

H. C. Atchison, county agent, said yesterday that the rate of payment for 1937 work would be about six per cent more than the actual amount of applications sent in with compliance reports.

The ten who received checks this week were Auther Simmons, J. V. Alley, C. T. Jones, E. E. Steen, Dave Locklin, Thompson Bros. and Logan, R. A. Halbert, E. C. Ahrens, J. T. Eubank and T. W. Sandherr.

Sutton Ranchman 42 Years--Joe N. Ross, Buried This Week

Man Who Specialized in Raising of Goats Died Tuesday in South Texas Town

One of the most enthusiastic champions of the Angora goat and its product, silky mohair, in Texas was buried Wednesday afternoon after services conducted at the Methodist Church by the Rev. L. U. Spellman, presiding elder, who lives in San Angelo.

Joe N. Ross, Sutton county goatman who believed in the Angora so thoroughly that he scorned sheep and owned only goats and cattle, died in Pearsall Tuesday afternoon as a result of complications following a serious illness of pneumonia at his home in Sutton county several months ago.

Goatman Since Early Days

Of Irish stock, a Missourian by birth, Joe N. Ross, seventy-three years old last January, was one of the first men to run goats in Sutton county. He went to the Llano section with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Ross, who were homesteaders in Arkansas. The elder Rosses ranched in the forks of the Llano and Colorado and died on the old Clint Brazelle Ranch in that section.

As a young man Mr. Ross worked for Jim Phillips, a Llano business man. His brother, Volney, recalled this week that "Joe" did livery stable work in Llano for a time before he decided to cast his lot in the Nueces canyon section where he bought a half interest in a T-Cross brand with Will Brown, his brother-in-law. When he prospered he bought Brown's share. Ten 2-year-old heifers, horse and saddle were given his brother, Volney, when he came from Llano to the Edwards-Kinney-Uvalde territory in 1886.

Raised Sheep Only Twice

In April, 1896, Mr. Ross came to Sutton county with his stock and bought the Al Haley Ranch, from Sam Palmer. Most of it was railroad and school land. The ranch now, operated by Mr. Ross and his son, Joe Brown, is a 16½-section one, twenty-one miles southeast of here.

In early Sutton county days Mr. Ross was associated with his wife's uncle, Johnnie T. Brown, in the raising of fine goats. Through the years, a son recalled this week, he owned sheep only twice. He was unfortunate with them and decided that he would run only goats and cattle, a resolve that he maintained well.

New Home Built Last Year

Business dealings with his good friend, U. S. Grant, Oregon goat breeder, were frequent with Mr. Ross. Early last year he was greatly interested in his son's purchase of the last of Mr. Grant's breeding stock as he (Mr. Grant) retired from the business. Unusual pride was taken last year by Mr. Ross in his building on the ranch of a handsome rock house. When it was completed he invited a host of friends to a party.

Since 1930, the year of organization, Mr. Ross had been a vice-president of Sonora Wool and Mohair Co., aiding in the direction of that firm's huge volume of business. He was the first president of the Sonora National Farm Loan Association, organized in 1933, and (Continued on page 8)

Twenty Sonora Men Entitled To First Aid Certificates

Highway Department Employees and Others Complete Red Cross Official Course

"Let's load him in my car and rush him to town..."

Such language, followed by foolhardy action that is often damaging to the one injured, likely will not be used by at least twenty Sonora men who have completed the standard First Aid course of the American Red Cross.

Certification of the twenty men's names to the national organization was done this week by Dr. Joel Shelton, instructor in charge during the twelve weeks. Assistants instructors were W. R. Wells and H. L. Hart of the Immigration Border Patrol, H. F. Gilley, John Eaton and F. T. Jones.

Using an authorized textbook the men, most of whom are employees of the state highway department here, learned rudiments of aid to the injured or ill person "before the doctor gets there." Bandaging, splinting, artificial respiration methods, stopping of bleeding and proper methods of transporting injured persons were learned. Common accidents in the home or in anyone's employment were considered as well as those happening to those traveling.

Last week the men were given a written examination made up of ten questions. Following that they demonstrated the knowledge they have gained in the course. Those who will be certified as entitled to official certificates of the American Red Cross, are:

H. L. Taylor, section foreman, state highway department; Marion Adams, S. E. Adams, H. C. Atchison, A. W. Awalt, Jr., George Bennett, Alton Coburn, Jack Drennan, W. A. Ezell, Hubert Fields, H. P. Largent, Emit Lewellen, H. A. McKee, J. M. Merriman, Jimmie Perry, George Potter, L. E. Quisenberry, R. E. Taylor, C. W. West, Robert W. Jacobs.

All are highway department employees except Atchison, Bennett, Coburn, Perry, R. E. Taylor, Jacobs.

Men of the highway department, stationed in Sonora for sectional work in Sutton, Crockett and Schleicher counties, were hosts Wednesday evening at a barbecue supper honoring the First Aid course instructors and a few others who have helped in the offering of the work.

Barbecue, salad, son-of-a-gun, pickles, peppers, iced tea and homemade cake comprised the menu at the supper, held at the Simmons roadside park on the Ozona highway.

Mrs. Pfister Buys Henry Wyatt House

Improvements Completed Recently On Nine Tourist Cabins

The frame residence of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wyatt, next to the 3-in-1 Tourist Camp, owned by Mrs. Beulah Pfister, has been bought by Mrs. Pfister, giving her 180-foot frontage on the San Antonio highway.

The 5-room house has been leased by Mrs. Pfister to Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Gilley who will live in it during the next school year.

Mrs. Pfister said this week that she would make a number of improvements to the property. Recently she has added shower and running water facilities to each of the tourist cabins she operates. Sealing work with ply-wood has also been done.

Rostein Pfister, son of Mrs. Pfister, is associated with his mother in the operation of the tourist camp business which she has had nine years.

COLD DRINK FOR MEN AT SUNDAY MORNING CLASS

Summer weather will bring a change at the Men's Bible Class at La Vista Theater Sunday morning as it brings changes in methods of living for people everywhere.

Cold punch and cookies will be served instead of the coffee and cakes which the men have been enjoying each Sunday morning after the class lesson taught by the Rev. R. C. Brinkley. The pastor asked this week that many attend Sunday who have been unavoidably prevented from doing so for several Sundays.

Sunday morning at the Baptist Church the Reverend Mr. Brinkley will speak on "The World's Nightmare and How to Cure It." The subject of the evening message will be "God's Revival in a Dreaming World."

STORES READY FOR 'TRADES DAY' WITH MANY SPECIAL OFFERS

It will be a gala day in Sonora stores and service establishments tomorrow (June 11) when "Trades Day" is observed with special values of many types offered people who buy then.

goods and services.

Many of the firms will offer special values other than those described in the advertising in today's paper.

The thrifty shopper will check carefully today's paper, make a list of the items in which he or she is interested and shop tomorrow (Saturday) in the stores for those particular items and for others which Sonora merchants will have for them.

Judge of 4-H Wool Today

He's only thirty-five years old but Stanley P. Davis has a background that equips him well for the difficult job of judging the wool 4-H Club boys have entered in the Wool Show here.

Mr. Davis, in charge of the Wool and Mohair Scouring Plant of the Texas Experiment Station, College Station, is a Maine native but was reared in the woolen mill district of Massachusetts.

He came to the Station in 1928 from Lawrence Mass., where for four years he was with the Wool Worsted Mills, largest worsted mill in the world. There he had charge of sorting, grading, scouring, carding and combing wools from all over the world. He has also had experience in the Lowell Textile Mills under the tutelage of Prof. Edgar Barker, a nationally known authority on textiles.

Albany.—Inspectors of the New York state department of education found many a chuckle in regents examination answer papers, according to Dr. Warren W. Knox, director of the division of examinations and testing.

In checking the papers, inspectors found the following answers:

"Jefferson found a little verse in the Constitution whereby he could annex Louisiana."

"Before 1860 the negro was cotton's closest friend."

"Cuba is Key West from Florida."

"The chief executive of the United States is the electric chair."

"To find the log of two-thirds, subtract the log of three from the log of two and find the monologue of the difference."

"The people, if allowed to choose the President directly, would perhaps nominate him because of his likeness to animals or some uncanny thing which might some time get a bad President, or then, on the other hand, a good President."

"A monitor is one who speaks in a monotone."

"Election is the taking of a vote to see whether the people want the nominee to hold the office or his opponent."

"Rousseau introduced the gelatine which was used to cut off the heads of many thousands of people."

"The American taxpayer is already overburdened with debts."

"At the primaries, numerous nominees are boiled down until one is selected."

Robot Solves Problems
in Higher Mathematics

Philadelphia.—A calculator that can lick its weight in trigonometry equations has joined the University of Pennsylvania's family of "mechanical mathematicians."

The newcomer, weighing only 30 pounds, made its debut at the university's engineering and fine arts exhibition.

Professor Irven Travis, who designed the calculator as well as the university's two other "robot thinkers"—a "differential calculator" and a "root extractor"—is putting the baby to work on man-sized jobs.

The machine consists of a set of interchangeable gears, angle projectors, steel tapes and scales, together with a link mechanism similar to a pantograph. The pantograph arrangement produces a motion proportional to the sine of a given angle.

This motion is added to a similar motion of a sine of another angle and the gears permit the necessary adjustment of the ratio of the angles. The unknown quantity, which is one of the angles, is recorded on a protractor.

The new device is capable of solving a trigonometric equation in one-thirtieth of the time usually required, Professor Travis said.

SENSIBLE PRACTICES FOR AUTOMOBILE OPERATORS

With vacation time approaching for thousands of Texans, state police recently issued rules for highway travelers to follow in order to lower summer traffic casualties.

In outlining the rules, officials of the safety department warned that many vacation itineraries demand hurried trips which often end in disaster. The rules are:

1. Get plenty of sleep and travel only reasonable distances each day.
2. Check your car for mechanical defects and use tires that are in good condition.
3. Never park on highways where your car will interfere with traffic movements.
4. Drive slowly enough that your car is always under control, as speed increases the severity of accidents. Pass other vehicles only when there is plenty of clearance and, when not passing, keep to the right.
5. Keep your driver's license with you.
6. Do not pick up hitchhikers.

SONORA MINISTER HEARS
FAMED LONDON PREACHER

Interesting sessions of Preachers' Evangelistic Conference in Fort Worth five days last week were reported by the Rev. R. C. Brinkley, pastor of the Baptist Church, who returned the latter part of the week.

The slogan of the meeting was: "A Revival in Every Church and Unchurched Community in Texas; Every One Seeking to Win More Than One."

An unusually interesting feature that the Sonora minister enjoyed was the address Wednesday by Dr. J. H. Rushbrooke of London, England. Doctor Rushbrooke is executive secretary of the Baptist World Alliance, international organization of the denomination which meets every five years. The next meeting will be in Atlanta, Ga., next year.

Screwworm Warning Issued By Service

Examination of Animals Often Recommended Procedure

College Station, June 8.—“Prepare for the screwworm in great numbers,” R. R. Reppert, entomologist of the Extension Service of Texas A. and M. College, has warned Texas ranchmen.

The Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine of the U. S. Department of Agriculture has forecast a severe infestation, probably worse than that of 1935, in many parts of the Southwest, especially Texas and Arizona.

The screwworm fly has started earlier than ever before. The infestation in extreme Southwest Texas had been held down by dry weather during the first part of the season, but the weather in other parts of the state has favored the rapid development of the insect.

The best way to protect livestock from screwworms is to examine animals frequently so that wounds may be treated before they are seriously infested. Many ranchmen report that they have found it advisable to hold wounded or infested animals in small hospital traps, located on a high, open part of the range where flies are less abundant.

Reppert endorses the Bureau's recommendation for killing the maggots. The procedure is to treat the infested wound with 90 per cent commercial benzol. The wound is then plugged with clean cotton saturated with benzol. Reinfestation is prevented by lightly covering the area around the wound with dehydrated pine-tar oil of 1.065 specific gravity.

The advantage of the benzol over most patented medicines lies in its low cost and in the fact that it does not cause shock to animal tissue. It does not deteriorate with age but is highly inflammable and will evaporate readily. It is this last property which makes it valuable in screwworm control, for the maggots are killed not by the liquid but by the fumes.

Reppert also emphasized that the common pine-tar oil will often burn the animal while the dehydrated form will not.

300 BUCKS KILLED BUT DEER REMAIN NUMEROUS

College Station, June 8.—Wild life in Colorado county is increasing annually, a recent survey made by the state game warden, T. T. Waddell of Eagle Lake, in cooperation with the Texas Cooperative Wildlife Research Unit at Texas A. and M. College shows.

Although more than 300 legal bucks were taken in the county last season, Warden Waddell counted 35 deer in 75 minutes. On another occasion, he counted 20 deer in one morning near the Vance Duncan ranch.

Hail To the Ranchmen of Tomorrow

An advertiser in today's NEWS expresses it this way—"salutes the 4-H Club Boys of the West Texas Range Area as the ranchmen of tomorrow....."

Truly, taken as a whole, almost all of the boys who are members today of West Texas 4-H Clubs will be in the ranching industry
"on their own" in a matter of five to ten years. Many of them are in high school with a matter of only a few years between them and the operation of a ranch of their own.

The training of those boys is a worth while proposition that will bear fruit in full measure. The

OIL HELPS KANSAS FORGET DROUTH ERA

Weather and Pests Menace Removed From Farmers.

Topeka, Kan.—Kansas farmers, plagued for years by drouth, dust storms and grasshoppers, are rehabilitating themselves with money derived from another product of the soil—one that grasshoppers can't eat and that doesn't need moisture.
The new money-maker is oil.

There have been oil wells in Kansas for years, but only recently has production reached the proportions to rank oil as one of the state's largest industries.

Illustrating its growth is a report of the state corporation commission showing that on March 1 there were 18,195 producing wells in Kansas, with an estimated potential production of more than 3,000,000 barrels daily. These figures compare with only a few wells having an estimated potential of 275,000 barrels a day four years ago.

Production Is Regulated.
"Without question the oil industry has developed into one of the state's most important businesses," said Homer Hoch, member of the corporation commission which has regulatory powers over production.

Heaviest recent production has been in western and southwestern Kansas, the sections hardest hit during the drouth years. Farmers, almost overnight, have obtained enough money to pay debts that had been hanging over them for years.

The value of oil produced in the state last year was estimated at $80,000,000. With the wells being brought in almost daily and new fields being tested, production this year is expected to be much higher.

Produce in Many Counties.
The first fields were opened in Russell and Rice counties. Today production has been found in Ellsworth, Barton, Rush, Ellis, Rooks, Trego, Ness, Scott, Clark, Edwards,
Pawnee, Pratt, Barber, Kingman and Reno counties.

Hundreds of farm families in the oil sections, who once depended on the vagaries of weather for production of crops that would earn them money, now receive royalty checks each month. Almost $400,000 was paid out in 1937 to farmers for leases and royalties.

Hoch said much oil still remains to be discovered and production from known fields probably will be increased. Thirteen wells in the state, with an estimated total potential of 56,540 barrels daily, are restricted to an output of 627 barrels for each well a day. More than 13,000 wells, with an estimated potential production of 15 barrels each day, are situated in southeastern Kansas.

WATER CARNIVAL PLANS COMPLETE AT FT. STOCKTON

Shown below is the handsome new bathhouse just completed at Fort Stockton as a Pecos county project. It's located on the north side of Comanche pool, and the photo below was snapped from the opposite side of the pool, to the east. Inset at left gives a clearer view of the new 172-foot structure with pavilion above on level with the new spring driveway. The new building will greet Water Carnival visitors June 17, 18 and 19, when the annual event will serve as a formal dedication of the bathhouse.

Oil Men's Leader Says 'Bright Spot' Due to Petroleum

Tax Burden, W. R. Boyd, Jr., Says
An Increasingly Large
Cause For Alarm

Port Arthur, June 9.—Business is good in Texas, with retail sales at virtually the same level as last year, chiefly because annual expenditures of the petroleum industry amount to about $500 for every family in the state, W. R. Boyd, Jr., executive vice-president of the American Petroleum Institute, asserted today at the annual convention of the Texas Press Association.

W. R. Boyd, Jr., Executive Vice-President, American Petroleum Institute, New York.

Mr. Boyd is a native of Texas, and although he spends much of his time at the Institute's headquarters in New York, his legal residence is at Teague, in Freestone county. His first job was as a printer's devil on the Fairfield Recorder at $5 per month.

At nineteen he was admitted to the bar, and served briefly as secretary to a Texas member of Congress. At 21 he was elected mayor of Teague. In 1920, soon after the formation of the American Petroleum Institute, he joined that organization as assistant general secretary and counsel. In 1931 he was made executive vice-president.

"Texas currently is one bright spot on all business maps," said

Mr. Boyd.

"The reason is oil. This industry has maintained its operations during the depression years; has paid its workers virtually at the same high rates. Last year this one industry distributed more than $725,000,000 in Texas. This sum may be compared with $717,000,000 spent in Texas by the federal government during the period March 4, 1933 to January 1, 1938—an average of only $151,000,000 a year.

"Last year alone the petroleum industry paid Texas farmers more than $100,000,000 on royalties, bonuses and leases. That sum was equivalent to more than 20 per cent of the entire cash income of Texas farmers from their total sales of livestock and crops."

But the dark spot in the petroleum picture is the growing burden of taxation, said Mr. Boyd, pointing out that "last year the total tax contributions of the industry in Texas approximated $155,000,000. State and local taxing jurisdictions received $112,000,000; the balance went to Washington. This tax bill falls only slightly below the industry's pay roll."

Winters Frozen Out Sunday Afternoon in Two Games Here

Sonora Lions Idle Sunday But Take On Rowena There Sunday Afternoon, June 19

Sonora found the Winters baseball players not so difficult in second game Sunday but had to exert themselves a bit in the first encounter to win it by a score of 2 to 1. The second was credited to Sonora by a 14 to 0 score.

Lefty White was on the mound in the first game with Barber receiving while Bud Smith did the pitching task in the second with McLeod behind the bat.

In the first game Sonora scored first, in the second inning, when Buster, first baseman, got on the base paths with a single. Tomberlin advanced him and A. A. Smith, Sonora shortstop, got a single that scored Buster. Tomberlin was out at third.

Winters evened thing the next inning when Coley secured a 2-base hit to score Scott who had drawn a walk to first.

It was anybody's game until the seventh when Buster romped home with the winning run after a clean hit by Barber with the bases loaded with Sonora players. None of the others were able to cross the plate.

The Sonora Lions are idle Sunday, as far as league play is concerned, but will be in action again Sunday, June 19, when they go to Rowena for two games. Talpa plays at Brady Sunday, June 12, and Rowena and Winters clash on the latter's diamond.

Condensed, inning-by-inning results of the Games Sunday were:

FIRST GAME

Winters	001	000	000—1 6 3
Sonora	010	000	10x—2 5 2

SECOND GAME

Sonora	222	026	0—14 13 2
Winters	000	000	0—0 7 4

Brady took the starch out of Rowena players Sunday afternoon when they won both games of a double header by scores of 9 to 1 and 13 to 2. Play was in Brady.

First Use of "Hoodlum" Found in San Francisco

San Francisco.—Local philologists believe San Francisco has enriched the English language with the addition of the word "hoodlum."

It was used by the police in connection with a gang of bullies headed by Billy Hood. Police identified them as "hoodlums," because of their leader's name.

This was in the late 1860s. The gang was described as wearing "spring bottom trousers," a type narrowing just above the ankles and wide at the bottom, after early Spanish styles. Coats were double-breasted and the men wore broad-brimmed black hats.

Hood was killed by some ruffian, according to philologists.

Cake, Intact 17 Years, May Be Kept Eight More

New London, Conn.—Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Packer are believers in the adage that "you can't eat your cake and have it."

To prove it they displayed a wedding cake 17 years old. After their marriage in this city November 14, 1920, they moved to Waterbury for a year. They took the cake with them. When they returned, they brought it back and placed it in a bureau drawer, where it remained for 16 consecutive years.

There it will stay until their twenty-fifth anniversary. If it is then in a good state of preservation, it will be kept longer.
