Look To The East

By AARON EDGAR

We're going to whip this inflation!

This seems to be the battle cry of those in Washington who are seeking means of applying the whip!

The fact that inflation is getting out of hand is not a figment of anyone's imagination. Just look around and see!

Farmers have gotten what was considered a good price for their farm products last year. Wheat, cotton, corn and other products brought better prices than a year earlier.

Yet, most any farmer one desires to talk to will quickly assert that farmers have a big battle to keep out of the red in their operations. Prices are good, we aver, but prices paid by farmers for what they have to purchase offsets that of farm products.

But it's not just farmers. Cattlemen are faced with the same situation. The job of preparing cattle for the market is an expensive one, and when the balance sheets are totaled, there's not much left in the profit column, if any.

Those who feed out cattle and prepare them for the consumer are having no picnic, either. We've read and heard via the news media that some of them are closing down, or cutting back, because of high costs of operation, increasing interest rates and decreasing profit margins.

On some automobiles, we've seen a window sticker that reads: "Crime doesn't pay. Neither does farming!" One large auto manufacturer had to have outside help a few months ago in order to prevent bankruptcy.

Withholding of shipments of grain and other products to those countries that are "not in accord" to our way of thinking, or doing business, is also having local repercussions. Large grain growing firms that experiment in increasing production and ship their products abroad are having to cut down on employees.

A shutdown, slow down, business failure, bankruptcy, etc., have their effects on labor. How are those being let out going to make it without a salaried job?

Increased interest rates are whacking away at the laborers' bank rolls. It seems that home building, expanding of industry, etc., will soon be slowed to a halt, because of the high price of money.

Gasoline is at the highest price per gallon any of us have ever experienced; yet, Gov. Clements and President Carter want to increase gasoline taxes by 5 to 10 cents per gallon, thus upping prices to consumers.

A local mechanic told us recently that naphtha, the gas used in auto shops for cleaning purposes, was $1.45 per gallon. Maybe the cost is higher by now.

The cost of getting our newspaper printed has been upped periodically. This is not done to aggravate the newspaperman, but to keep the printing plants in operation.

Study Club Creates Bright Day For Ambulance, Cemetery Funds

Even though last Thursday dawned in Munday with our usual wind and sand, it became a bright and beautiful morning for Munday Ambulance Fund and Johnson Memorial Cemetery Fund. M. L. Wiggins and Bobby Hutchinson were called to the First National Bank on that day, and once there, a group of lovely ladies presented the men each with a check in the amount of $1,106.13 for these funds. These ladies were members of the long active Munday Study Club and they were beaming with satisfaction to be able to contribute their treasury, $2,212.26 to such worthy causes. The club discontinued meeting approximately five years ago.

Attending the presentation were Mrs. Chester Bowden, last president of the club; Mrs. J. S. Shannon, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. Fred Broach Sr., first vice-president; Mrs. R. D. Atkinson, Mrs. Ira Bowden, Mrs. A. L. Smith, and Mrs. Helen Smith McClure, members. Mrs. Broach was the only charter member present.

The Munday Study Club was the only civic club in Munday for a good many years, having been organized in 1920 and federated in 1921. Their goal was to establish a library and self-improvement (civic improvements for the town). They accomplished their goals and inspiring other clubs to "take over", they discontinued their meetings. At this time, they sold their club house, at 347 N. 3rd., to the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints. They have held their treasury until the present time, awaiting "the time when they sensed a real need". With the Munday Ambulance Volunteers needing to raise funds for a new ambulance and Johnson Memorial Cemetery Association being formed, they made their decision.

In 1934, the dream of a public library was realized, by the Club. The members purchased their meeting place and operated the library on a voluntary basis, with each member taking her turn, until it was moved later to a "town location". During the years the club has purchased books and people had donated books until they had enough to "call it a library". They were delighted when it was taken over as a City-County function. This is the way the club worked - they completed a project and as they could they would encourage other civic organizations the project. Another example is the landscaping of the area near the swimming pool. The Munday Study Club did the original project and the Munday Garden Club has continued it.

Other accomplishments for the Study Club, through the years, include purchasing new curtains for the stage in the elementary gym/auditorium, a new piano for the school (the first), a nursing scholarship annually to a student, organizing Munday's first PTA, and planting shrubs on the City Hall lawn.

One of the highlights of the club that reached out into the area was the securing of Fort Worth Boys Club Choir to entertain in the Elementary school auditorium in the fall of 1959. Nine neighboring schools were represented in the audience. It was remembered that this was the first time the auditorium had been filled to capacity. The ladies commented that it was quite a program! This choir presented programs in large towns when on tour but for a town the size of Munday to have the pleasure of hosting them was some feat. Helen Smith McClure was instrumental in this undertaking.

To accomplish their goals, the Munday Study Club had to have funds. Attempting to only name a few: they had tasting parties, style shows, home talent shows (held in the auditorium over the City Hall) and served the Chamber of Commerce luncheons. Each member donated her part of the meal so all the proceeds were "pure profit", being formed to take over

They had a number of different activities, and one member said, "At each one, we raised a little money".

All was not labor, however; the meetings were most interesting to the members. They had book reviews, school children presenting programs, out of town speakers and experienced many more enjoyments.

In receiving the donations, Mr. Wiggins and Mr. Hutchinson both expressed their appreciation to the ladies, on behalf of each of the organizations and assured them it would be put to good use.

The citizens of Munday, having any knowledge of the Munday Study Club know they were a working "bunch of ladies". They went out just like they went in - helping others!

City Redeems Revenue Bonds

The City Council of the City of Munday has called in for final payment $18,000. of Water and Sewer Revenue Bonds prior to maturity. Maturity date on the final $9,000 would have been February 15, 1982.

This will result in the outstanding indebtedness of the City of Munday being reduced by an additional $18,000 for the 1979-80 fiscal year.

The call in was possible by using funds from Reserve Funds in the Mercantile National Bank at Dallas, which has built up each year by required deposits since 1952. Water and Sewer funds will benefit since this revenue bond issue will no longer require monthly deposits.

Weather Slows Attendance At Rodeo; Contestants Do Well

Old man weather has a way of playing tricks on us from time to time. This was the case in particular in regard to the junior rodeo held in the Lake Creek Arena in Munday last Friday night and Saturday. Dropping temperature and a bone-chilling wind put a damper on attendance, causing many would-be rodeo-goers to remain inside.

The parade, scheduled for 11 a.m. Saturday to add impetus to attendance for the afternoon performance, was cancelled because of the "uncomfortable" weather. The weather did not dampen enthusiasm among the contestants, however. Steve Kiser, president of Lake Creek Arena Association, commented: "For sure, the weather didn't cooperate with us, but the people who braved the cold did see a splendid rodeo performance. We were really pleased with the showing made by all contestants."

Students from Texas on the College of Engineering honor roll include: Bruce Tillman (Till) Burnett of Munday.

Farm And Ranch News

By JIM MAZURKIEWICZ

"Look, look at me!" Who hasn't heard young children use these words many times. Children will use this phrase over and over again in gaining attention from other children and adults nearby.

It is as natural as breathing for children to seek, even to demand to be noticed. Yet few of us are aware of or will admit to the continued use of phrases or actions calling attention to ourselves throughout our lives.

The need to be noticed, to be recognized, to be praised is strong in all people. Each of us have to know that we are worthy of notice among our peers.

The 4-H organization has always recognized this need and therefore recognizes all 4-H participants in meaningful ways. 4-H members, from 9 to 19, find a place where they can feel good about themselves and know that others care about them. From a kind word of encouragement to a college scholarship, 4-Hers earn and receive recognition for their efforts and accomplishments.

4-H volunteers also find a place where recognition is provided for their caring and giving. Caring shown by the volunteer in the interest he or she takes in young people is rewarded by the smiles and admiration of children with whom they work. Giving of the volunteer's time and energy in teaching young people and in helping them to grow and develop is rewarded in the knowledge that he or she had a part to play in molding a happy and productive adult who was once a 4-H member.

Rewards, recognition, notice - these are all found in 4-H.

To learn more about how you can become a part of the 4-H program, contact the county Extension office.

"A full day's work" has a special meaning to farmers and ranchers. The weather, the season and the situation dictate their working hours. Sometimes it means starting work before dawn and not quitting until long after dark.

Today, however, thanks to the member-owned electric cooperatives, Texas farmers and ranchers get more done in less time with less wasted effort than ever before because of electrical energy. That's efficient use of time and that's the secret of making a profit.

Your member-owned electric cooperative provides the power you need to get the job done quickly and efficiently. That's one of the reasons it doesn't take 24 hours to do a full day's work anymore.

Munday Man Has Interesting Hobby Of Making Wind Chimes

MR. G. W. [HAWK] HAWKINS is shown holding two wind chimes which he enjoys making as his hobby. To date he has finished over 1600 chimes. He commented, as we asked him for a photo with the chimes, "These things are not exactly light".

In February of 1977, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. (Hawk) Hawkins were visiting friends in Brownwood. The friends had a set of wind chimes that kinda "took their eye" and they inquired about them. The friend, explaining that the gift shop where he purchased them was closed, insisted they take his and he could easily get another set.

The chimes "gave off" an exceptionally melodious tone, and the Hawkins couple enjoyed them. The idea then came to Mr. Hawkins to make them and give them as gifts. He had retired from his farming activities; and, having been a busy person all his life, was always hunting something to do.

He found the tubing necessary and bought enough for ten sets. It takes ten feet of metal tubing, cut in varied lengths, for one set. Tones are produced when these tubes are struck by a hardwood cube. The cube is attached by wire to a square of masonite which acts as a wind vane. The slightest breeze activates the improvised clapper and a "brisk wind" really sets the chimes ringing.

Mr. Hawkins made the first ten sets in no time, and the first set went as a gift to Helen Withers, a former Munday resident. Several more were given as gifts, and he placed one at Munday Leisure Lodge for the residents to enjoy. Of course, a number of out-of-town people saw the one at Leisure Lodge, and his first "order" (or plea) to please make her one came from a Wichita Falls lady. She was a collector of chimes and "had to add a set like this" to her collection. Later the Wichita Falls paper published an article and picture of the lady and her collection. She was holding the chimes Mr. Hawkins had made. The article gave credit to him and told how his chimes were constructed.

Mr. Hawkins considers this strictly a hobby and there is very little profit in his undertaking, but he doesn't mind. What he intended as an idea for "gifts" to friends and relatives has, quite frankly, turned into filling orders locally, by long-distance telephone, and by mail. He doesn't mind this either because he is enjoying meeting the different people who want chimes. Washington and Oregon are the only two states he isn't sure his chimes are in. He hasn't sent any to these two states, but he can't be sure that someone else hasn't.

So he continues to make chimes in the garage area of his farm home. He and his wife have lived on the same farm for 32 years; and he likes it in the country. Their home is located several miles east of Munday. His wife traveled to Hawaii in January of this year. When asked if he accompanied her, he just smiled and said, "No, I don't even go into town unless I have to."

Ralph and Oscar Cypert, both in the automotive repair business in Munday, save muffler boxes for Mr. Hawkins and he packages the chimes in these for mailing. He has packed as many as twelve in a muffler container and sent them by bus to their destination. When asked if this is a little more trouble than he bargained for, he said, "Not really; it pleases me that people seem to want these chimes." He has carried 48 to Wichita Falls, at one time. Falls, at one time.

The first eighteen months, after he made the first chimes, he completed 600. Last year alone, he made over 700. To date, he has finished well over 1,600 total and is still at it. He and his wife have given over 50 as gifts. He especially enjoys giving them to someone who wants them and he feels may not be able to buy them.

Mrs. Hawkins doesn't mind taking orders for him; and, occasionally, she delivers chimes to someone in Munday who has ordered a set. In speaking with her a few minutes about her husband's unusual pastime, we drew the conclusion that "she kinda enjoys his hobby too."

Mr. and Mrs. Hawkins have one daughter, Mrs. Bob (Jan) Hunter of Lubbock, and two grandchildren, Stephanie, nine, and Eric, six. Needless to say, Stephanie and Eric received chimes from the "first batch" that Hawk completed.

AN OPEN LETTER TO THE VOTERS OF KNOX COUNTY TEXAS

I am writing this letter out of deep love and concern for my beloved America. America has been a land of the free and a land of opportunity. Two thirds of the Third World would sell their souls for the privilege of American citizenship. Yet, we natural born citizens who are abreast of current events can sense that all is not right - something is wrong.

We have entered a year for national elections. This is a year in which major changes can be made or we can continue the downward path to chaos. The ultimate end will be a welfare State and we will find ourselves absolute dependents upon a federal head. I, for one believe the fate of these United States hinges upon the outcome of this election and what we do in regard to that outcome.

I would be classified as a senior citizen. The years lie ahead for which I have long worked and planned to make an enjoyable retirement. I thought I could sit down and enjoy some of the fruits of my labor through traveling, relaxing, and just, living in general, the good life.

Long ago I began to prepare for these years. I thought that I was laying aside ample provisions that would carry me through the autumn years with financial security and freedom from burdens.

Suddenly, as I enter this decade for which I have made plans, I find that my preparations are not adequate. At the present trend of this self-destructing economy, people in my category and age bracket may be in for a rude awakening. Instead of having ample provisions we may find ourselves wards of the State.

After a quarter of a century of a Democratic dominated congress, there are some observations which I have made that have attributed to the sad state of this Union and I will be specific.

Number One - I find that my 1955 dollar will buy about thirty-six cents worth of today's goods. We have the highest peacetime rate of inflation in this nation's history, my savings have eroded to about 1/3 of their original worth.

As a result of this ruinous inflation, along with the other taxes we pay, we are shelling out the highest income tax ever because we have been escalated into a higher bracket. The government reaps the windfall. These taxes go into the treasury swirl through and squandering bureaucrats swig to their gut's content. They vote themselves pay raises and all manner of fringe benefits. They give away foreign aid to countries whose names they can't pronounce nor locate on a map. Back home they promise you free gifts, federal grants, welfare handouts, any federal fund that might garner a vote.

That money just happens to be mine and your hard earned tax payments. The only funds the Feds have is what they take away from you. Without fleecing you they go broke. The U. S. Government is the only known organization that can continue to function year after year in the red and with a financial deficit. They can do this by signing your name to a federal-funded I.O.U.

I, for one, am sick and tired and fed up with big government and irresponsible politicians. Let's send them all home and let them live by the same rules that they are forcing you to live under.

Number Two - Our foreign policy is so weak that the weakest of nations can bully us, push us around, murder our ambassadors, and hold others hostage. All the while, we, under the name of born again Christianity, smile, turn a toothful cheek and say slap it again.

Our military has so deteriorated that our chief weapon against our number one enemy is the withdrawal of a competitive High Jumper and Pole Vaulter. We will show them how tough we are by not letting our kids play with their kids.

I say that it is time to pick up a Theodore Roosevelt stick and restore some confidence in what few world friends that we have left.

Number Three - Our economy has taken the attitude that for big business to make a profit is obscene. Private competition is wrong and the free enterprise system is taboo.

Our younger people were conceived in debt, born in debt, and live in debt. They will die a debtor, having never known the wholesome feeling of financial solvency.

Number Four - I wish to point out the moral condition of this nation. We have ruled God out and abandoned prayer in our schools. The result has been rampant pornography, drug abuse, legalized abortion, humanism, free sex, surfaced homosexuality, and live-together lovers. These things destroy the sanctity of the home, a nation's only solid foundation.

Our blood bought banner has been spat upon, publicly burned, and dishonored by a bunch of "hell no, I won't go" attitude citizens. They, along with aliens flaunt all these things while living under the protective custody of our precious Stars and Stripes - God forbid that we not do something.

Many are the national ills that I have omitted, but my point follows. I am nearing sixty-four years of age and I have seen all of these things come about in twenty-five years of dynastic, democratic controlled congress.

For God and country's sake let us make a change. You have nothing to lose for you have lost the most of it already. We have sown the wind and are reaping the whirlwind. When you are on bottom the only way out is up.

Vote Republican for a change. For the first time in Knox County history a full-fledged, legal Republican primary election will be held for the county on May the third in Munday, Texas. Our thanks goes to Marcus Anderson (district committee man), Cindy McWhorter, and other concerned citizens.

Vote what you know is right if you have to burn a little extra gasoline to reach the location of this primary, and follow your convictions through in the November general election.

Olney Savings Grows In Assets And Offices

Recently, Olney Savings Association, a northwest Texas savings and loan association reached a milestone when its assets surpassed $200,000,000.

On Friday, April 4, another office was added to Olney Savings "family", when ground was broken for another branch office in Graham.

President D. D. McClatchy explained, "Our new branch office building was especially designed for the people in and around the Graham area. The new facility will emphasize individualized service for the entire family and its complete savings and borrowing needs."

President McClatchy stated, "Even with the conservative approach of our management philosophy, Olney Savings' total assets have doubled during each five year period since 1965. This is even more significant when viewed with the situation of the last twelve months, when the United States has been experiencing the lowest percentage of people saving their money in the entire history of our country.

"We have done a lot of growing in the last 50 years and we've got a lot more to do. We are confident and optimistic about the future."

Olney Savings' home office is located in Olney, with branch offices in Seymour, Jacksboro, Bridgeport, Nocona, Weatherford and Azle. Electra (Electra Savings), and Eastland (Eastland Savings) are divisions of Olney Savings. The new office in Graham will soon be followed by one in Archer City.

Four Boys Play Golf At District

Four boys traveled to Quanah, accompanied by Coach Steve Rodgers, for the District Golf meet, Monday, April 14. John Mints, Chris Moore, Lenny Welch and Randy Waggoner made up the golf team this year.

The students have had very little time to devote to golfing since one of the boys works after school and another one is in track, too. These boys have to do their practice on their own time.

Chris Moore was a medalist this year in their golf team, and given a little more practice time they could have made a better showing.

Coach Rodgers stated, that the boys had very little opportunity for competition this year and he was not disappointed in the standing, considering the time the boys were able to spend with their golf.

Dinita Dickerson of Dallas spent her spring break from school with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Doris Dickerson. Dinita is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Dickerson.

Munday Mogul Netters Qualify For Regional

The Munday Mogul tennis doubles team of Montie McAfee and Randy Routon won the District 7-A boys championship last Wednesday at the Quanah courts.

Omar Choucair brought home a 4th place finish in the singles division while Melissa Zeissel captured the bronze medal in the varsity girls singles.

The meet started last Tuesday with each zone holding their respective playoffs. District 7-A is divided into two zones with Munday, Haskell, Knox City, and Aspermont making the south, while the north is comprised of Quanah, Paducah and Crowell. The top two finishers in each zone met Wednesday in semi-finals matches and the two finalists in each varsity division qualified for the regional meet to be held in Odessa next weekend.

In zone matches Tuesday, McAfee and Routon defeated two teams from Aspermont and another from Haskell to advance to Wednesday's semi-finals. There, they downed Gabriel and Mark Jalamo, brothers from Quanah, 6-2, 6-1, to advance to the finals in which they won over Dewey Harris and Michael Hennig of Aspermont 6-4, 6-0.

Choucair won matches over Knox City and Haskell opponents and was second going into the medal round Wednesday. In the semi's, he met Dan Klepper from Crowell and was defeated 6-1, 6-0.

Melissa Zeissel, a freshman, was matched against defending Region 1-A doubles champion, Jody Graves, of Crowell, in the semi-finals and lost 6-1, 6-1, but went on to defeat Kay Howell, of Knox City, for 3rd place.

Coach Bill Dennis will escort McAfee and Routon to Odessa to the Region 1-A meet with Omar Choucair serving as an alternate to the doubles team.

The 'Book' Report

CLEAR UP 'FOG' BETWEEN SLIDING DOOR PANES

Do-it-yourselfers can remedy "fog" between the two panes of double-glazed sliding glass doors. Usually, dead air space between the two panes of glass serves to insulate the glass area and the home against heat loss and heat gain. However, prefabricated double-glazed door is two panes of glass separated by a hollow aluminum mullion.

Usually the mullion is filled with a desiccant, such as silica-gel granules so air between the panes is continuously dried.

Causes of the Problem

Problems with condensation generally occur after long-time use of the unit. Breaking of the seal causes the desiccant to become waterlogged and condensation forms between the panes of glass.

Do-it-yourselfers can correct the problem for the cost of a tube of sealant and about two hours of actual labor.

Repair Procedures

Solving the problem involves taking the unit apart, drying out the silica granules and putting the unit back together with new sealant.

Disassemble Unit

Follow these steps: remove screen and then the sliding section of the door by turning screws to relieve tension on rollers. Pry the door up and, with a helper, lift the heavy panel out. Place on a flat surface resting the unit on the metal edges rather than the glass. Remove metal edging from the sides, top and bottom by tapping gently with a mallet and wood block. Carefully remove the rubber or vinyl gasket and save for reuse. To cut through the old sealant, run a razor-type knife around the perimeter between the top glass and the mullion. Then, lift off the top glass.

Dry Out Desiccant

Cut loose the mullion containing the desiccant, remove end caps, and pour silica into a baking dish. Avoid contact with the silica gel. To drive off moisture and to restore moisture-absorbing properties, heat the granules in a 400 degree F. oven for at least three hours.

Clean Surfaces

Clean old sealant from glass and mullion by using a razor scraper and a solvent-saturated cloth. Clean and polish the glass. Then, pour the dried desiccant granules back into the mullion and reassemble.

Reassemble Unit

Place a thin bead of clear silicone sealant around inside edge of the bottom sheet of glass, and position the mullion onto the sealant. Press down lightly. Run another bead of sealant on the top side of the mullion and lower the top sheet of glass onto it.

To reset the vinyl gasket, run a medium bead of clear sealant around the edges of the slides and top of the glass. Positioning the gasket so the splice is at the top, press the gasket into the still-wet sealant.

Finally, replace metal edges of the door and set it back into the frame.

Troy and Margaret Moore and Joe and Latreace Lane have returned from a three week's fishing trip to Lake Nocona. They dressed over 200 pounds of fish during this excursion and had a delightful time. Margaret and Latreace traveled back to Munday to assist with the Bloodmobile on March 31.

While enjoying their fishing, they also entertained company. Visiting were: Mrs. Bill (Dean) Hudson; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hudson, Deana and Robbie; and the Jerry Johnsons and friends, Henry and Patty, all of Lewisville; Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Wenzel and Wanda and Mr. and Mrs. Don Gatch, Chris and Stephanie, all of Fort Worth; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pruitt, Brenda and Andy, Wichita Falls; Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Lany and Chrystal of Henrietta; Also Mark Pruitt and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Allen and children, Nocona; Mr. and Mrs. Dale Stoddard, of Lake Kickapoo; Mr. and Mrs. Skip Lane, Stuart and Mandi, Hurst; Kevin Lane, Mineral Wells; and Mr. and Mrs. Mike Lane and Michael, of Wichita Falls.

Margaret's family visited on Easter weekend and the others came at different times. Troy and Joe didn't let all that company interfere with their fishing at all.

Church of Christ Hosts Country Supper For Seniors

An old fashion "Country Supper" was hosted by members of the Church of Christ on Thursday, April 10, to honor the 1980 Munday High School seniors.

The fellowship hall of the church building was the "bar or hayloft" that housed the celebration. Decorations included farm animals on the walls and a "welcome seniors" sign. The tables were covered with red checked cloths. Kerosene lamps and lanterns were on the tables. Bales of hay were plentiful to help carry out the theme.

The menu included fried chicken, brisket, roast, ham, beans, salads and a choice of apricot, cherry or peach cobbler.

Cathy Cartwright, James Steward, Steven Smith, Teresa Cypert, and Dent Offutt presented a HeeHaw puppet program to the seniors for entertainment.

VERA KILLIAN NOT THE PAPER LADY

Vera Killian is recovering from major surgery, performed in Knox County Hospital last week. She will not be throwing the Wichita Falls newspaper or Dallas Morning News, as so many of us have been accustomed to her doing.

ing as God's people. I Peter 1:3-9; 2:4:1-3. Beginning with this season and going through the month of May we will be studying writings of Christian encouragement.

Four lessons will be based on the books of 1st and 2nd Peter and 1 John, and the last three will deal with the book of Revelation.

From various references within these writings we can see that the early christians were facing religious and political persecution and the in roads of Pagan Philosophies.

Although more blamed christians for burning Rome in A.D. 62 and persecute them in the capitol city, no official persecution seems to have spread across the empire, was aware of problems that christians were facing through much of Asia Minor.

Let us get our Bible and read our lesson and then to let us learn to read the scripture daily also night so we can know what Jesus said.

We should no something in our New Testament also we should no in the begin about God creating Heavens and Earth, when he placed Eve and Adam in the garden, the Lord's Prayer, and too, the The Commandments, a portion of the Song of David, and other men of God.

Mrs. Adams, a long time resident in Munday and her son, Alvin Adams, purchased a home here and her granddaughter also with her kin. They also visit Kims Godmother, M. Johnson also Mr. Adams baby girl and son. They lost their mother two years or better.

And don't fail you that's been born again and get a prayer through to God do remember our good Dr. R. L. Newsom.

Parents do give your children something to do and keep them out of the streets. Learn them their prayers night and morning.

I must thank Mr. Wilson for coming in to see me how I do and our good minister Hodge from Haskell. He's got a mission there and a wonderful mother with him.
