

ANOTHER NEW BUSINESS FOR OLTON - This brand new car wash is located on Main Street in Olton. Just recently completed, it features modern equipment enabling the customer to completely clean his vehicle. There is detergent for washing, water is softened so that it won't spot and then there's wax for a beautiful shine and a vacuum to complete the inside job.

Car Wash Opens

Ray's Kwik Kar Wash is now in operation at the corner of Main and Ninth Streets.

The two car stalls and a larger stall for trucks are equipped for self-service wash jobs.

Featured in the new wash operation is a simple dial to select cleaning service desired.

Manager, Roy Thurman, explains the options of white wall tire cleaner, wax equipment and vacuums for interior cleaning.

He states that detergent wash for heavier cleaning and final rinse waters are all heated. All water is also treated with softener to eliminate spotting.

Prices posted are "five-minutes on the dial," -- fifty cents. Thurman states some customers working rapidly can both wash with detergent and rinse their car on this minimum payment.

However, if the car is dirtier and requires a longer "wash" period -- fifty cents more purchases a second 5-minute period.

The white wall tire cleaner is applied and washes away dirt and grime without rubbing.

A built-in money changer has been placed near the wash stalls for the convenience of customers.

Paper towels may be had from conveniently located dispenser. A Coke machine is also available.

All equipment is new and modern. Thurman says. "It's all the newest and most convenient equipment. We want to keep it nice and clean, to give the best service possible so that our customers may enjoy the use of our facilities as they wash away that mud and dirt."

Elections Set April 2

Two councilmen and a mayor will be elected Saturday, April 2 and four men have announced their candidacy for these positions.

Kenneth Williams filed for councilman as did encumbents Tom Sluder and Raymond Powers. Mayor K.Y. Givens is seeking re-election to his seat.

In the school election, only two persons have filed for two posts. Burley Faver, incumbent and Joe Harrel.

City Councilmen Meet, Review Paving Progress

Discussion of paving took up the majority of the council's time when they met Tuesday night. After reviewing the paving project, council released a number of blocks on which work was begun the next day.

Police Chief Don Hatley reported to the council the need for a camera to be used in his investigations and stated also that there was a need for a new police car.

Bub Holt spoke to the council on a meeting he and Mayor K.Y. Givens attended in Austin. The Civil Defense conference provided much helpful information, Holt said. The CD unit in Olton is now being reorganized in order to better serve the community. Johnny Belew of Plainview Public Safety Department, will speak at the Monday night fire department meeting on Civil Defense. Holt urged any interested persons to attend.

Reporting on the new property acquired by the City for a new city hall, councilman Joe Hall stated that he had received an estimate on the cost of moving the two buildings. However, the only other work being done at the time was that of a firm conducting a survey to determine cost of air-conditioning the building.

Councilwoman Billie Norfleet and City Secretary Awa Robertson were given the okay to help design the layout for offices in the building.

April and May were declared "Clean Up, Paint Up, Fix Up Months" by council. Residents are especially asked to help get rid of junk cars inside the city. Those cars which do not have a valid license may be towed away during the clean up, in accordance with a city ordinance.

Council adopted a resolution to participate in the high speed teletype network which is funded under South Plains Association of Governments.

At this point, a councilman stated he felt that the council should go into closed session to "discuss personnel". As the reporter and a visitor prepared to leave, another councilman said, "I make a motion we adjourn." The motion was seconded by another councilman. After the reporter and visitor left, the city secretary and city attorney also left with only council members remaining.

An inquiry was made by the reporter the next morning to determine if the council had actually declared a closed session and if so, had they opened the meeting again in order to take any formal action on the personnel discussed.

Minutes did not show the council calling a closed session.

MRS. RAIFORD DANIEL

Bettie Daniel Rites Conducted

Last rites were held at 2:30 p.m. Saturday, March 12 in First United Methodist Church for Mrs. Raiford Daniel Sr., 68, resident of Olton almost 35 years.

Officiating was the Rev. Elton Wyatt, pastor; the Rev. Hugh Daniel of Lockney and the Rev. Wesley Daniel of Littlefield. Interment was in Olton Cemetery under the direction of Parsons Funeral Home.

Mrs. Daniel died Thursday morning in Littlefield Hospital. She had been ill for a number of years.

Born May 19, 1908 in Abilene, she was the former Bettie Bledsoe. She attended Wayland Baptist College and taught school one year before marrying Raiford Roy Daniel Aug. 2, 1928 in Plainview. She taught school in two small rural Hale County schools and in Plainview before stopping teaching to rear her family.

Moving to Olton in 1942 and operating a grocery store with her husband, she returned to teaching and taught 21 years in the Olton school system before retiring in 1970. She completed her degree work at Wayland College and also attended West Texas State University and Texas Tech University.

A Methodist, she taught a young adult Sunday School class many years and was honored by that class in 1975, when its name was changed to the "Bettie B. Daniel Sunday School Class." She was also a member of Olton Study Club.

Survivors include her husband, Raiford Sr.; one son, Raiford Daniel Jr. of Earth; two daughters, Mrs. Javern Snell of Clovis, N.M. and Mrs. Betty Lois Curtis of Olathe, Kans.; 13 grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Park Report Made To Lions

Attendance was below average Tuesday at the regular luncheon meeting of Olton Lions Club. Five local members were official guests of Earth Lions Club that day.

Lion Boss Dale Cary announced the Lions International Convention June 29-July 2 in New Orleans and reported that tentative plans are being talked of combining a number of area clubs in a united caravan.

Lion Don Hatley expressed appreciation to the club for their contribution to buy boxing uniforms for local boxers and stated his belief that two local youngsters would reach the state finals.

A report on the progress of the park was made by Lion Wayne Cole. Two pieces of park equipment was yet to be assembled and set up Tuesday. Lions planned an afternoon of work at the park.

Cole also relayed a suggestion that the Lions give the popular dunking board, an annual carnival attraction, to the Volunteer Firemen so that organization can raise money to apply on the debt of the new fire truck. It was approved.

Officers will be elected at Tuesday's meeting.

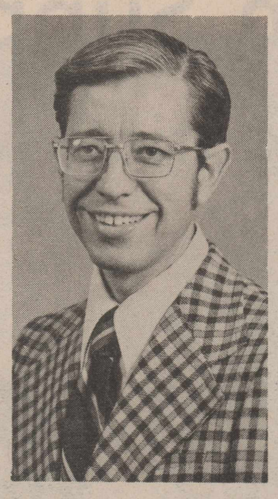

Gospel Meeting Begins Sunday

Ted Stewart, missionary in Brazil for a number of years, will be the speaker at the series of gospel meetings scheduled to begin Sunday, March 13 at the Main Street Church of Christ.

Buses will run each night to pick up those who have no means of transportation.

Services will begin nightly at 7:30. Morning devotionals will be at 7:30 and persons who have to be at work by 8 o'clock will be out in plenty of time, according to Don Jones, minister.

Sermon topics will be "The Urgency of Soul Winning" Sunday morning; "The Sin Unto Death", Sunday night and the topic for Monday night is "The Crucified Lord". Tuesday night, Stewart will speak on "In Whose Righeousness Will You Stand?"; Wednesday night, "Converted or Baptized";

TED STEWART

Thursday night, "The Church in God's Eternal Purpose" and Friday night, "The Day Jesus Comes Again."

A special invitation will be extended to everyone in the city Saturday by the young people of the church as they "knock doors" to give messages of love.

Deadline Nears For Vehicle Registrations

Have you picked up your 1977 motor vehicle registration sticker yet?

If not, be prepared to push the panic button.

That's exactly what members of the Tax Assessor-Collectors Association of Texas are about to do.

R.W. Townsley, director of the Motor Vehicle Division of the State Department of Highways and Public Transportation, said today that county tax officials "literally were ready to crawl the walls" when the organization's board of directors met in Corpus Christi recently.

"Very few motorists have registered their vehicles -- just like last year," Townsley said. "Tax offices are staffed to handle the anticipated rush to get stickers early, and they've simply got nothing to do."

Despite the easily handled stickers, which were initiated in 1976, and computer-prepared registration applications -- which eliminate most of the delay formerly involved in typing registrations -- motorists simply aren't remembering last year's frustrating last minute lines.

"Tax collectors are waiting for the 'big crunch'," Townsley said. "Motorists will have no one but themselves to blame if they wait until the deadline April 1 to get their registrations. Every county in the state is running way behind schedule."

Many motorists could have registered by mail, but mail registrations ended Feb. 28.

Meantime, those motorists who don't want to take time off from work to wait in line for as much as several hours had better take a few minutes to register their vehicles today.

It would be rough to be one of some 10 million motorists trying to register their vehicles in the last few days of the month.

United Way Officers Named

Meeting recently in a Dutch luncheon at Circle K Restaurant, the board of directors of the Olton Area United Way elected three persons to fill posts made vacant when three members moved from the community.

Johnny Jennings was elected to fill the term of Billy Davis which will expire in 1978. Two members whose terms end in 1979, Don Loafman and Lupe Saldivar, were replaced by Russell Strain and Roy Salas.

Officers for 1976 were re-elected. Melvin Rape is president; Dale Cary, vice president; Mrs. Don Muller, treasurer and Wendell Potts, secretary.

Mmes. Owen Norfleet and O.J. Neeley were directors re-elected to the executive board.

Committees will be named at the next UW meeting.

First Baptist Church Slates Special Services

Good News Texas, and its "Living Proof" campaign, moves into West Texas Mar. 20 with the beginning of evangelistic services to be held in First Baptist Church.

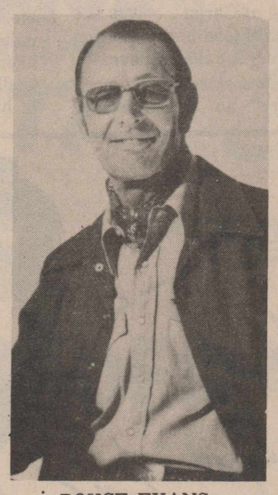

Services held twice daily, Sunday through Friday, Mar. 20-25, will be part of the state wide effort to present gospel messages across the state.

Guest speaker in the Olton church will be Boyce Evans, evangelist of Lubbock. Leading the music in the Olton version of Good News Texas, will be Larry Rice, also of Lubbock, according to announcement made this week by the Rev. John Lewis, pastor.

Boyce Evans is an evangelist with 12 years experience in that field, and with 16 years pastoring Southern Baptist Churches.

In his younger life Evans was a rodeo cowboy. He helped organize the National Intercollegiate Rodeo Assn. and performed as a member of that association for three years. He continues to be active in western life. His crusades include some of the cowboy camp meetings of the Southwest. Many of the illustrations and some of his messages are drawn from the cowboy life.

Evans was an officer in the US Air Force. He is an instrument rated pilot and flies his own twin engine airplane. A well known speaker for men's groups, he has spoken to several state Brotherhood conventions. At one time he produced a weekly television program.

BOYCE EVANS

LARRY RICE

Larry Rice and his wife, Sharon are making a repeat visit in the church as a duet team, having been a part of the Lay Witness Mission held here in 1972.

Their ministry in word and song has been used extensively throughout West Texas. Rice is a graduate of University of Texas at Arlington, and he attended Bob Jones University in Greenville, S.C. He is a deacon in First Baptist Church, where he also teaches an adult Sunday School class. He has served as music director for several churches in the past.

Sharon also attended UT at Arlington and Bob Jones University. They are parents of two sons. They have recently returned from a trip to the Holy Land.

"Good News" services are scheduled for 11 a.m. and 7 p.m. Sunday. Monday through Friday they are slated for 10 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. daily. A cordial invitation is extended by members of First Baptist Church to all persons in the area to attend any or all of these services.

Secret Meetings?

How do you know what our governing bodies are doing?

By talking with school board members and also by talking with city council members and up on a higher level, maybe getting in touch with Austin or Washington?

True. But not everyone can do this or will do this. So, on the local level, we at the newspaper try to sit in on the school and city meetings to report the things that are being done or being considered to be done.

We have been doing this nearly 10 years and felt like we had gained the respect of both governing bodies. There has never been a time when we were asked to leave the room of either of these meetings until recently.

According to the "Open Meetings" law, anyone is allowed to attend these meetings and there are only four reasons for calling a closed (secret) session, these being:

1. Deliberations during a meeting to consider the appointment, employment or dismissal of a public officer or employee or to hear complaints or charges brought against such officer or employee, unless such officer or employee requests a public hearing.
2. Deliberations pertaining to the acquisition of additional real property.
3. Deliberations on matters affecting security.
4. Any investigative committee of the legislature.

Tuesday night's council meeting was ended with a suggesting that they meet in a closed session "to discuss personnel". However, following that suggestion, a motion was made to adjourn and was also seconded.

We, along with a visitor, left the meeting. The next morning we learned that the city attorney and the city secretary also left the meeting. However, the council remained and held a discussion, but according to an inquiry made by our newspaper, the meeting was not a legally closed session...and was not for the purpose of "discussing personnel".

Indeed, the council meeting for Tuesday night had been adjourned.

Freedom of the press is a precious thing. Such things as this is the beginning of giving up that freedom. The public has a right to know what the city council, school boards, legislators in Austin and Washington are doing...with our money and also in making decisions that affect our every day lives...and we need to keep "SECRET" meetings to a minimum, we feel.

We feel like the "SECRET" meeting of the council was a violation of YOUR RIGHT TO KNOW.

Power For Today

By Rex Boyles

A man had a dream. He dreamed of a mountain that would wear the faces of four great men, all presidents of the United States of America. He envisioned a mountain as a monument, bearing the features of George Washington, Teddy Roosevelt, Thomas Jefferson and Abraham Lincoln.

He found his mountain in the Black Hills of South Dakota. It had been aged and weathered by centuries of wind and rain. Nature's abuse had left it deeply scarred and stained.

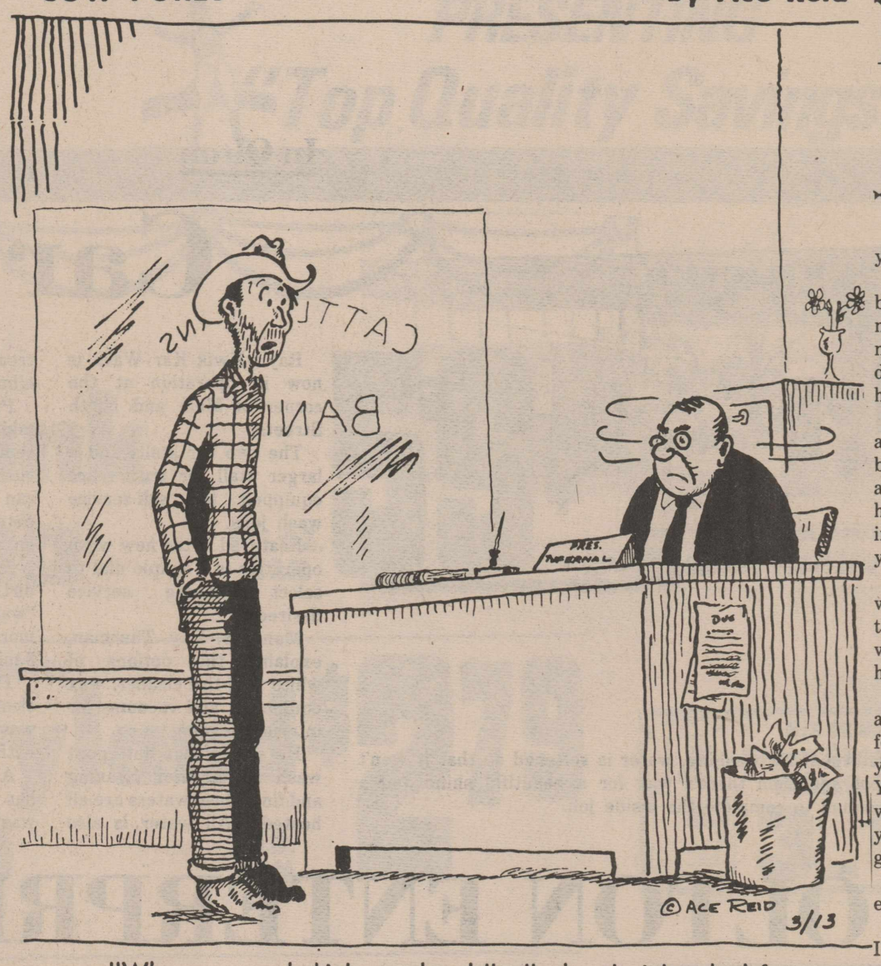

The work which makes dreams come true began . . . the planning . . . the clearing . . . the blasting. The mountain began to yield itself to the power. There were months of shovelling, chiselling and blasting. With each day the blasts of the dynamite reshaped the face of that mountain, until one day on the summit there was sketched indelibly in granite the four giant faces of history.

A man's soul is much like that mountain. It is weathered and stained, not by wind or rain but by passion and greed. Sin's abuse has left it deeply scarred, marked for eternity . . . UNLESS there is a power, a dynamite blast, to transform it. In Romans 1:16, the Lord says of the gospel of Christ . . "it is the power of God unto salvation to everyone that believes" . . The Lord selected the word "power" to describe the gospel of Christ. That word "power", literally translated means "dynamite". The gospel is the "dynamite" of God to blast away the scars and crust of sin and to imprint a new life, the life of Jesus, on the believer's heart.

As the mountain yielded to the power of the blasts to receive the new face, so must the soul yield to the power of gospel to receive the new life. The Lord said it this way in Romans 6:3-6, "that all we who were baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized unto his death? We were buried therefore with Him through baptism into death: that like as Christ was raised from the dead through the glory of the Father, so we also might walk in newness of life. For if we have become united with him in the likeness of his death, we shall be also in the likeness of his resurrection. Knowing this that our old man was crucified with him, that the body of sin might be done away, that so we should no longer be in bondage to sin . . ."

With the power of dynamite a man transformed a weathered and scarred rock into the images of four presidents. With the power of the gospel, God transformed a weathered and scarred soul into the image of Jesus. That is "power for today" . . . Rex

FROM WHITHARRAL

Mrs. Oleta Lott of Whitharral spent Tuesday night and Wednesday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Gabehart.

SUNDAY GUESTS

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Taylor of Pleasant Valley were Sunday afternoon callers of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Boone.

VISIT COUSIN

Mr. and Mrs. H.L. Moses stayed from Wednesday until Friday with her cousin Artie Brundidge of Crosbyton.

ATTEND RITES

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cowart attended funeral services for L.L. (Red) Dayton, 67, of Plainview Monday morning in Plainview Lemons Funeral Chapel. Burial was in Parklawn Memorial Gardens of Plainview. Dayton died Saturday in his home.

FROM FRIONA

Recent guests of Mrs. J.O. Bledsoe were Mr. and Mrs. Andy Powell and their daughter, Mrs. Marlene Hall, all of Friona.

OKLAHOMA VISIT

Mr. and Mrs. V.J. Trusty were in Granite, Okla. during the weekend with her uncle and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Jewel Lyon.

AGED BEEF

Beef is aged to develop additional tenderness and characteristic flavor. Aging requires special conditions. Aged beef means that the beef is held at temperatures 34-38 degrees F. for three to six weeks or held for two days at about 70 degrees F. Ultraviolet light is used to reduce bacterial growth in the second method, explains Mrs. Mary Sweeten, foods and nutrition specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

FRIDAY GUESTS

Friday overnight guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Boone were their daughter and her son, Mrs. Woody Jackson and Andy of Farmersville.

RESTORED FOOD

Reconstitute means to restore concentrated food. Frozen orange juice is one good example -- add water and you have the whole product. Dry milk works the same way -- reconstitute, following the package directions, Mrs. Gwendolyne Clyatt, consumer marketing information specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System, says.

Everything But The Kitchen Sink

BY MOZELLE TROTTER

Want to eat and grow younger?

Every where you look -- books and magazines and newspapers proclaim some new diet. We're in the most diet conscious era perhaps in history.

Well, one of the newest is a "no aging diet" and you can buy a New York doctor-author's book that tells you how you can diet your way into looking - and feeling - years younger.

I'll buy that. (Reckon it would also turn my hair back to brown? As long as I'm wishing, ~~F~~druther be black haired.)

Seems as though sardines are a "fountain of youth" food. Eat them and you'll get younger looking and feeling. You'll get more vim, your wrinkles will fade away and you'll get all sorts of other good health benefits.

Ugh! Sardines! I'd as soon eat my guppie!

Haven't ever tasted them, I'll confess, but I KNOW I wouldn't like them. And, since I prepare most of what I eat, I couldn't manage the what-you-don't-know deal.

Seriously, did you see the recent article in the paper about the benefits of sardines? Supposedly it has been tested and found true.

The nutrients in sardines are responsible for all the good things that happen on this so called "no aging" diet.

Apparently they're good remedies for arthritis, emphysema, diabetes, diverticulitis, visual problems and baldness, yet! How's that for covering a wide range of problems?

Of course there are other foods that contain some of those super duper nutrients but they aren't as potent as sardines. As for me, I'll take the alternatives and just look five years younger instead of ten!

Some of the other rich in nucleic acids foods are anchovies (still as soon eat guppies), salmon (there I go), other seafoods, liver, dried peas, lentils, beans, nuts, beets, leafy vegetables, radishes and mushrooms.

Ah, yes, you are supposed to drink lots of water (we should anyway) plus two glasses of skim milk (ugh, again) and fruit juice (yea!)

Now, let's see. What'll I have for my mid-morning break?

Card Of Thanks

We would like to extend our heartfelt thanks to all the many friends for their deed of kindness during the time of our deep sorrow. Words cannot express our appreciation for all of the phone calls, cards, all the acts of kindness shown, the prayers, the good food, the lovely floral offerings, memorial funds, and the beautiful service. May God bless each and everyone of you is our prayer.

Maximum efficiency in appliances is what we're all looking for . . . to save energy, save money.

That's why the CONSERVATIONIST ELECTRIC water heater is worth looking at. It saves 15% of the energy used in a like-sized regular electric water heater and delivers all the dependability of electric water heating. The Conservationist is heavily insulated on all sides so heat is retained inside the water heater . . . used for what you're paying for . . . to heat water.

And, you save on space above the heater because an electric water heater does not need a flue or vent.

Life Is Never Dull

Life is never dull for the person with hobbies and Mrs. David Grayson has numerous hobbies. Right now, however, pastimes take second place because of the arrival of the Graysons' first grandchild, six-weeks-old Matt.

Son of their daughter, Ila, little Matt's home in White Deer is too far away for his grandparents to see him as they'd like.

The Graysons, who came here last summer when David was employed as vocational counselor for Olton schools, also have a son, Douglas, who's presently living at home.

Living in the Raymond Durham home at the southwest corner of the town section, the Graysons have plenty of room for David's horse, a pair of Tou Louse geese, a black miniature pinscher named Destiny and game roosters that Douglas raises.

The Tou Louse geese (whose ancestry goes back to Tou Louse, Fance) are large beautiful fowl and great "watch-dogs." Loudly, they honk at strangers who arrive at the Graysons' home. The Graysons got them when they were very young from a man in Allison. They have become completely tame and follow their masters about, right up to the door of the Grayson home.

Margie loves to cook and shares recipes for a tasty meat roll, an easy-to-fix but delightful dessert and a "different" cake.

Working with ceramics is a favorite pastime of Margie's. She has a number of pretty accessories about her home which she has made.

She also likes to knit and enjoys almost all handcrafts.

Collecting antiques which are family pieces brings special pleasure. She also enjoys learning more about her own and David's family trees. Already, through the work of another member of the family, she has considerable tracing accomplished on one side of her own family.

The Graysons, who moved here from White Deer, are Baptists.

ROMA BEEF ROLL
1½ lb lean ground beef
1 egg
¾ c cracker crumbs
½ finely chopped onion
2 - 8 oz can tomato sauce with cheese
1 t salt
½ t oregano
1/8 t pepper
2 c shredded Mozzarella cheese

Combine beef, egg, cracker crumbs, onion and ⅓ cup tomato sauce and mix well. Shape into a flat rectangle (About 10 x 12 inches) on waxed paper. Sprinkle cheese evenly over meat mixture. Roll up like a jelly roll and press ends of roll to seal.

Place in shallow baking dish and bake 350° for one hour.

Drain off excess fat, pour remaining tomato sauce with cheese and bake an additonal 15 minutes. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

CHOCOLATE ICE BOX CAKE

Melt one 6 oz. pkg. chocolate chips. Cool chocolate and add two well beaten eggs. Add one pint whipping cream. Break up a small angel food cake in chunks. Add one cup pecans. Stir together and freeze.

BLACKBERRY CAKE

Mix all together:
1 c Crisco
2 c sugar
1 c unsweetened blackberry juice
½ c cocoa
1 c nuts
1 t ginger
½ t Allspice
⅔ c buttermilk with 1 t soda in it
3 c flour
1 t vanilla
½ t cinnamon
½ t cloves

Add 3 eggs and just barely beat. Bake at 350° in 3 layers.

Filling:
3 c sugar
½ c butter
1 t vanilla
3 c milk
1 c pecans

Cook 30 minutes or more until it bubbles like fudge stirring often. Beat well and spread on cake. Start cooking icing while mixing cake because it takes a long time to cook.

MRS. DAVID GRAYSON

Women's Group Hears History

Woman's Organization of Olton Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints met Wednesday evening in the home of Miss Barbara Fuller at Plainview.

Leader Mrs. James Welch of Dimmitt directed the business meeting. Mrs. Billy Carson presented the opening chapters of the study "An Introduction to Church History."

Attending were special guests, Mrs. Louise Beavers of Littlefield and Mrs. Josie Daniel of Plainview and members, Mrs. Wilton Graef of Hale Center, Mrs. Jerry Phillips of Dimmitt, Mrs. C.C. Graef of Lazbuddie, Mrs. Raymond Carson and Mrs. Tom Stansell.

SHOE SIZING

U.S. shoe sizing was developed in England during the 14th century. A measurement of one-third inch, the length of an average barley corn, represents the difference in whole numbered shoe sizes, Mrs. Becky Culp, area clothing specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System, says.

WELCOME TO OLTON

MR. & MRS. ELBERT BULLS

Welcome is extended to Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Bulls who recently moved to the Circle Community from Portales, N.M. Parents of Mrs. Bill Langford, the Bulls' family farmed northeast of Olton in 1943 so their move was a return.

Elbert and Oma are also parents of a son, Jim, who lives in Portales.

Oma was born in Texas but reared in Southwestern Oklahoma. Elbert grew up there also. They attend the Church of the Nazarene.

Here's one of those crazy diet plans. Crazy like a fox.

Would you believe it, here's a completely new diet plan that calls for no weekly meetings, no weigh-ins, no criticism from an instructor, no fees or penalties, no forbidden foods, no exercises, no drugs or shots, no hunger pangs, and it lets you eat whatever you like. Best of all, it costs only 38¢ a serving.

Want proof? Ask Rick Mendenall, Sales Manager for Mesilla Valley Lincoln-Mercury. Rick lost 60 pounds using NaturSlim, a pleasant tasting powder that mixes into a weight-saving diet supplement you can enjoy for only 38¢ a serving.

Just another crazy diet plan? "Not on your life," says Rick. One of thousands around the country who knows how effective NaturSlim is at ending your overweight worries, Rick adds. "For 10 years I carried around an extra 60 pounds, now I'm a trim 175 and loving every minute." Look at these dramatic results:

	Before NaturSlim	After NaturSlim
Jacket Size	46	42
Waist Size	39	34
Neck Size	16½"	15"
Shoe Size	10½D	10½B

The clincher? Using NaturSlim, you can eat anything you like. That's right. NaturSlim replaces two meals a day, but for the third you can eat everything the non-dieters in your family eat. Crazy, man.

Jones-Frost Vows Read In Lubbock Ceremony

The Chapel of Broadway Church of Christ, Lubbock, was the setting Saturday, Mar. 5, for the marriage of Miss Arlene Lois Frost of Lubbock and Forrest Dale Jones of Lovington, N.M. Andy Ritchie III directed the double ring vows.

The bride is daughter of Mrs. Ouida Frost of Lubbock, and the late Frosty Frost. She is granddaughter of Mrs. M.R. Cavett of this city, and the late Mr. Cavett. Mr. and Mrs. Elvin Jones of Lovington are parents of the groom.

The chapel was softly lighted by the glow of dozens of pink tapers which, with tropical greenery, formed the background of the altar area. Flanking arch candelabras fitted with white cathedral tapers, and candle trees in a setting of pink and burgundy flowers completed the arrangements and encompassed the Unity candle.

Each of the twelve stained glass windows held a tapered candle nested in carnations, following the chosen colors of pink and burgundy. The bridal aisle was lighted by pink tapers tied with carnations and a shower of baby's breath.

Singers of Broadway Church of Christ presented traditional nuptial selections.

Presented in marriage by Andy T. Ritchie III, the bride wore a Princess Ann wedding gown of petal white organza with enrichments of Lily of the Valley embroidery enhanced with seed pearls re-embroidered by the bride. The gown was designed to feature a high wedding band necklace edged in Lily of the Valley buds. Full Camelot lantern sleeves terminated in deep cuffs edged with lace. The sleeves bore a scattering of lily of the valley spray motifs.

The center panel of the Princess line gown and deep scalloped border of embroidery added enrichment to the total design. The princess skirt swept to a full chapel train.

Her bouffant, three tiered veil of silk illusion fell from a Camelot capulet of lily of the valley blossoms. Each tier of the veiling, edged in flowerlets, the chapel length veil brushed beyond the train of the wedding gown.

She carried a bridal arrangement of roses and baby's breath adorned with one white ribbon which held her father's gold baby ring, providing 'something old.' She wore a silver hair clasp 'borrowed' from her sister, Wanda, and she wore the traditional 'blue' garter.

Miss Wanda Frost served as her sister's maid of honor. Miss Leta Brewer of Anton was bridesmaid. Little Miss Tiffany Jones of Lubbock was flower girl. Ring bearer was little master Dax Jones, also of Lubbock.

Feminine attendants wore pink tafeta formal length gowns overlaid with pink chiffon with accents of burgundy. In their hair they wore Mary De Vour roses and baby's breath. Each carried nosegays of roses tied with streamers of burgundy satin ribbon.

Richard Hare of Lubbock served his brother-in-law as best man. Groomsman was Jack Titus of Dallas. The attendants also seated guests. The bridegroom wore a white tuxedo, other male members of the wedding party wore tuxedoes of burgundy.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Frost chose a carpet length dress of pink chiffon over tafeta. She added a corsage of roses. The mother of the groom wore formal length gown of aqua chiffon over tafeta with a rose corsage.

Guests were registered by Mrs. Debra Cavett of Lubbock, cousin of the bride.

At the reception immediately following the ceremoney the bride's table was laid with a lace cloth over burgundy. The four-tiered wedding cake, frosted in white, was trimmed with pink roses and a replica of the couple's wedding rings.

The groom's table was laid with a cloth of hand crochet, crafted by the bride's grandmother, over burgundy. The chocolate cake was decorated with roses.

Presiding at the tables were Mrs. Sandy Hare, sister of the groom, Miss Sarah Williams, Mrs. Elaine Titus, sister of the groom, Mrs. Joyce Cavett, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Lewan Jones, sister of the groom. Others in the houseparty included Mrs. Sam Chisholm, Kim Price, Renee White and Beth Lowder.

MRS. FORREST DALE JONES

For travel the bride chose a tan street length knit suit with brown accessories. She added her mother's corsage.

The bride is graduate of Monterey High School and holds a BS degree in Secretarial Science from Lubbock Christian College.

Jones, a graduate of Lovington High School, is presently employed with an aerial firm in Lovington, where they will make their home.

Out of town guests at the wedding were registered from Fort Worth, Dallas, Olton, Andrews, Anton, Lovington, N.M., Springfield, Vt. and South Carolina.

Foster Homes Sought

The State Department of Public Welfare is looking for foster homes for low-income aged, blind, or disabled adults whose homes are no longer safe, or who, for one reason or another, have no homes.

"When aged or disabled adults are no longer able to live in their own homes, they are faced with the choice of living with friends or relatives or moving into an institution," according to Carol White, welfare department social service worker at Littlefield. "Unfortunately, the choice is not always there. In the absence of friends or family, many are sent unnecessarily to institutions, such as mental institutions or nursing homes."

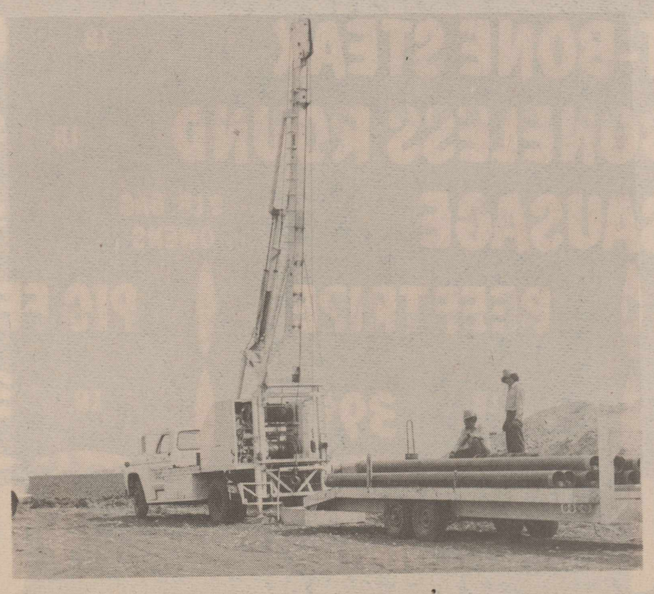

"However, the welfare department is trying to give those individuals another choice with the foster home program," Miss White continued. "This is for ambulatory people who need shelter and some help with activities of daily living.

"We are seeking warm hearted people who have room in their homes for one to three aged or disabled persons who are not related to them. The foster family must be willing to help provide opportunities for social, recreational and religious activities as appropriate, as well as room and board. It is, really, a family-sharing program which would enrich the lives of all concerned."

Cost of the care is shared by the individual and the welfare department. Payment to the foster family is $220 per person per month.

Carol White asked persons interested in learning more about providing this service to contact her at 311 West 4th St. or to call at 385-4416 Littlefield.

Tribute To A Sandstorm

Persons who lived through the dust bowl days can re-live the "black dusters" that came with the advent of plowed land. The following is re-printed from a Thursday, Mar. 7, 1935 copy of The Castro County News and gives an account of a storm which will be remembered by some local residents.

The yellowed, brittle pages of a paper addressed to the late M.F. Sanders, father of W.T. and Dean Sanders of Hart and Mrs. Furche Riley of Springlake, carries the story with a bold headline proclaiming "Freak of Nature Leaves County In Dark Sunday."

Sub titles read: Wheat Damaged Quite A Bit Here" and "Sustained Dust and Sandstorms Said To Be Worst In County's History."

"Old mother nature dug deep into her stock of unpleasant weather conditions and unloosened her wrath in the sustained fury of this country's worst dust and sandstorms Sunday and Monday. The sometime amiable old lady went even so far as to include one of her freaks of nature Sunday afternoon when she turned the day into absolute pitch darkness.

"Even the oldest residents of this section fail to remember when such an occurence was noted before the Sunday episode. The dust clouds had been rolling over the county in thickening masses since the middle of Sunday morning in what was thought to be just another "duster." Suddenly about 3:30 o'clock an almost suffocating and completely impenetrable cloak of dust enveloped the entire Panhandle and thrust the country into pitch darkness for a period of some ten minutes before the eerie streaks of a storm swept dawn finally began to break through the seeping dust. Homes and businesses of the city were forced to use the electric lights during this period which stranded motorists on the highways as their lights failed to pierce the thick dustwave.

"Although no fatalities were reported, considerable damage was suffered in this section by homes and businesses from the dust while the farmers noted losses in crops by the devastating fury of the cutting sand both Sunday and Monday.

"Monday proved to be the worst day of the latest series presenting an almost suffocating dust and sand wave riding a bristling westerly wind from early morning until late at night."

A TRIBUTE TO OUR SANDSTORMS

The following is also taken from the Mar. 7, 1935 Castro County News which credits the writing to "Jno. L. McCarty of The Dalhart Texas (sic)'.

"Hail to our sandstorms!

"The beauty that was Greece, the glory that was Rome, the undying honor that was due those immortal heroes of the Alamo, and the sleeping lovliness (sic) of an English hillside in autumn are as nothing compared with the genuine Panhandle duststorm. Those names and scenes that conjure up some of the most magnificent thoughts of the ages fade into oblivion when compared with our superb and matchless sandstorms. We pay tribute to this awe-inspiring storm, which in its sinuous path across the Mirage-infested plains makes the native shieks of the Sahara fall to their knees in admiration and utter solemn praise to Allah.

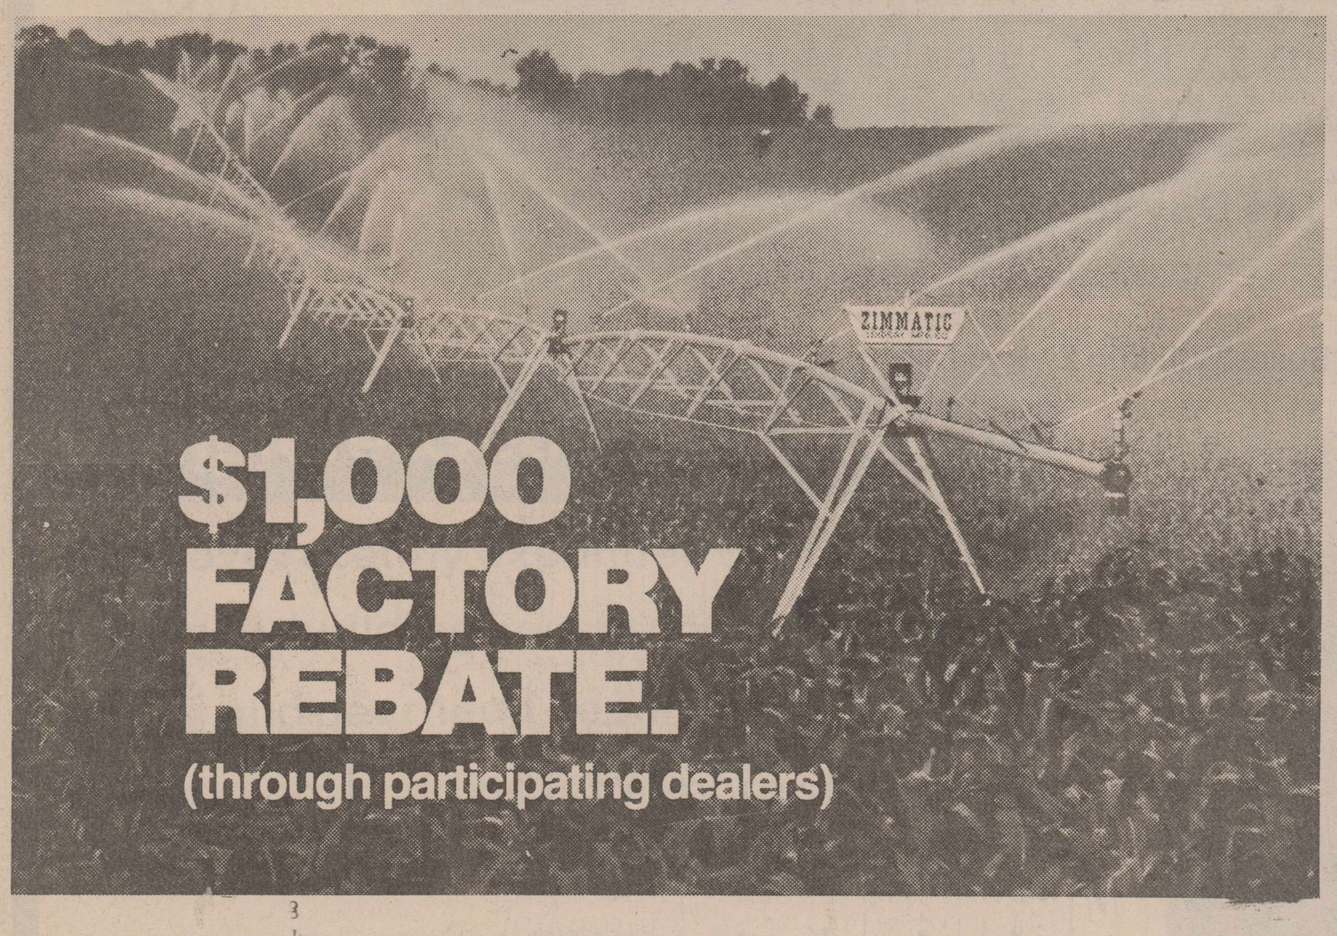

"Yesterday as the sun, a gallant sorrel steed, was wining its way into the roseate tints of the golden west, one of these magnificent spectacles of nature bounded up Dalhart out of the Northwest. It was inspiring, as the giant gray sand clouds surged and boiled forward across the plains, leaving the more slowly advancing purple wall of dust behind. As the sun shone on the sand swirling and racing over the prairies, it glistened like the armors of knights of old who in phalanxes valiantly charged the enemy.

"People stood gaping in wonder and astonishment as the great bulging cloud rolled onward and swelled upward toward the heavens. The sun scarce three feet above the horizon, was wallowing in a sickly pool of green and yellow clouds, mixed with the purple tints of the advancing storm. It was soon swallowed up by a great tidal wave, a huge screen of dust that pulled the folds of night's fearful curtains about a small world at the very mercy of nature.

"Then for hours the dust of many states fell like a heavy snow upon the town, one soft, ebony chalk sheet after another every crevice and settled into every tiny crack. No home or store was free from its feathery vapor. Like the fog of London, it penetrated into everything. The Panhandle sandstorm, never given its due and fitting recognition in song or literature or by silver tongued orators, was complete master of everything. It was majestic in its dignity and strength. It was beautiful in its approach. Its technique of completely mastering the situation left nothing to the imagination. No man, fowl or beast could escape its influence, or avoid feeling its inherent and potent power. Even the fist in the Rita Blanca lake felt the weight of impending suffocation and rose to the surface to churn the silt it deposited on that wonderful body of water.

"Let us pay a tribute to our sandstorms. Since we have them, let us recognize their true worth, their real beauty and the dramatic power they exert as a force of nature. Let us proclaim with clarion bugle blasts heard round the world that we have here in the Panhandle spectacle of nature that rolls more majestic than the mighty Niagara that sweeps onward with a power far greater than the Father of Waters and for its awful splendor, its terrible manifestation of the dark mood of nature, raped and wronged by man exceeds anything short of the mighty oceans or the barren icy wastes of the polar regions.

"Let us praise Nature and the powerful God that rules nature. Let us in stentorian tones boast of our terrific and mighty sandstorms and of a people, a city and a country that can meet the test of courage they afford and still smile. Let us humbly and in shame admit our part in the repacity our land has suffered at our hands, but vow, with the raging winds of the prairie, that we will with God's help carpet our lands once again with grass and vegetation and with our heads unbowed, our spirit undaunted, view the majestic splendor and beauty of one of the great spectacles of nature gone ramart - a Panhandle sandstorm - and smile even though we may be choking and our throats and nostrils so laden with dust that we cannot give voice to our feelings. Let us realize that the force and the God capable of such gigantic and destructive demonstrations of nature can be just as calm before the storm or the bright day which follows."

If your land is rough and rolling, order a Zimmatic 410, the hillclimber. The less expensive Zimmatic 307 will meet your needs if your land is level . . . it was the first successful long-span center pivot.

Whichever Zimmatic you choose, remember that the only thing being cut is your cost. You still get all of Zimmatic's idea-leading features. Like the Uni-Knuckle® and flex feature to ease stress on the line. Patented heavy-duty gearboxes, electric control panel with pivot and tower read-out meters and an external collector ring for dependable operation. Hot-dip galvanizing that adds years to the life of the system.

Under this program you can order a Zimmatic already adapted for the new Zimmatic Corner Pivot™ . . . to be installed now or ordered and installed at a later date. The Zimmatic Corner Pivot allows you to irrigate 150 acres on a quarter-section and is available for immediate shipment in limited quantities.

This is a limited offer so act now and have a Zimmatic for this year. Save $1,000 . . . and maybe your crop. Come in and see us for further details on Lindsay's factory rebate program.

STILL WORTH SMILING - Jeremy Walker, kindergartner atOlton schools, still finds reasons for smiling despite the results of a recent, painful accident. Son of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar walker, young Jeremy fell on the "monkey bars" at school and knocked out the baby teeth on either side of his two front teeth. Unable to locate the front teeth on the ground beneath the playground equipment, his parents were astounded when the dentist reported the two teeth were pushed completely into the upper gums. Young Jeremy is wearing a brace which, hopefully, will save the two permanent teeth.

Wilson-Morris Lectures To Be Held In Lubbock

The public is invited at no charge to attend any of the five Willson-Morris Lectures that will be held at Lubbock Christian College Mar. 14 and 15.

Noted evangelist-lecturer-traveler Landon B. Saunders of Abilene will deliver the addresses at 10 a.m., 3 p.m. and 9:15 p.m. March 14 and 10 a.m. and noon March 15. His respective topics will be "The Call," "The Message," "The Response," "The Life" and "The Demand."

Saunders last appeared at LCC as a main speaker during the 20th Annual Bible Lectureship last fall. Separate from the annual lectureship, the Willson-Morris lectures are given twice annually on the campus. This series is funded by an endowment from the late Dr. J.M. Willson and his wife, Dr. Mavis Terry Willson, of Floydada, in honor of Don H. Morris, former president of Abilene Christian University.

Saunders was honored last month when he received an award of excellence from the Abilene Christian University Communications Department for his work in Christian mass media. In addition to his numerous lecture appearances, Saunders produces the radio show "Heartbeat" and is editor of a monthly publication entitled "Beyond Heartbeat."

Last year Saunders addressed the Conference of African Missionaries in Nairboi, Kenya. He has also been the featured speaker for the past three years at National Youth Outreach campaigns.

A native of West Virginia, Saunders graduated from Harding College, Searcy, Ark. and took advanced studies at the Harding Graduate School, Memphis, Tenn.

Rheumatoid Arthritis Affects Children

"At least a quarter of million children, from eight weeks of age to late adolescence, suffer from a form of Rheumatoid arthritis," reports Bruce R. Bartholomew, M.D., Medical Committee, West Texas Chapter of The Arthritis Foundation.

These children are afflicted with a form of the disease called juvenile rheumatoid arthritis, a painful, inflammatory disease that attacks one or more joints in a child's body. While primarily a joint disease, JRA can cause serious damage to the heart, kidney, liver and eyes in some cases.

Less than 25 years ago, the medical picture was bleak for children afflicted with arthritis: one third died; one-third became severely crippled; and the other third were in constant pain. Today, thanks to new treatment advances, childhood arthritis can be controlled and 70 percent of its victims overcome the disease.

"Unfortunately, there are only 30 physicians in the U.S. who are fully trained both in arthritis and in pediatrics," Dr. Bartholomew pointed out. Your support of the West Texas Chapter of The Arthritis Foundation will help train more specialists to treat children who are afflicted with arthritis.

IN ARLINGTON

Mr. and Mrs. A.B. Jeffrey were recent guests of their son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Wiman and Kim of Arlington. Mr. and Mrs. Jeffrey went to Arlington and back to Olton in Wiman's plane. They also visited with Mr. and Mrs. C.J. Doris and granddaughter, April Ruth, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. Carl Roberts.

RETURN HOME

Mr. and Mrs. T.W. Hackler returned recently from Port Isabel where they stayed four weeks. They found fishing rather unsuccessful with the exception of one day. At Harlingen they were guests of friends, Mr. and Mrs. Talmadge Franklin and Dwayne. Enroute home they visited in Plainview with a daughter and granddaughter, Mrs. Flake Price and Cathy.

IRRIGATE YOUR WIDE OPEN SPACES WITH OUR 360 THRIFTY-RAIN™ PIVOTAL SPRINKLER SYSTEM.

If you have relatively level land, and you've been putting off buying an electric-drive pivotal system because of price, we've got just what you've been waiting for. The new Gifford-Hill 360 Thrifty-Rain.™

Finally, there's an electric-drive system that's within the budget reach of farmers who would ordinarily buy either hydraulic or water-drive systems. The 360 Thrifty-Rain™ is a "long span" version of our classic 360. The basic difference being the distance between towers (164 ft. on the Thrifty-Rain,™ 124 ft. on the standard 360).

The 360 Thrifty-Rain™ 164 ft.

The standard 360 124 ft.

By using longer spans, we reduced the number of towers necessary to cover the same acreage. That means less cost to manufacture. And less cost to you!

The 360 Thrifty-Rain™ is also equipped with heavy duty drive systems. Both the original 360 and the 360 Thrifty-Rain™ feature a unique computer-designed sprinkler head spacing and nozzling concept that provides uniform water distribution and reduced pumping costs. Both systems use heavy-walled 6⅝" O.D. pipe for extra strength.

Consequently, the 360 Thrifty-Rain™ is structurally stronger than other "long span" systems on the market today. It operates efficiently even under high wind conditions, and can handle up to 10% grades.

Standard 360 spans are interchangeable with 360 Thrifty-Rain™ spans. That means you can use standard spans to allow flexibility of tower location and accommodate special terrain problems.

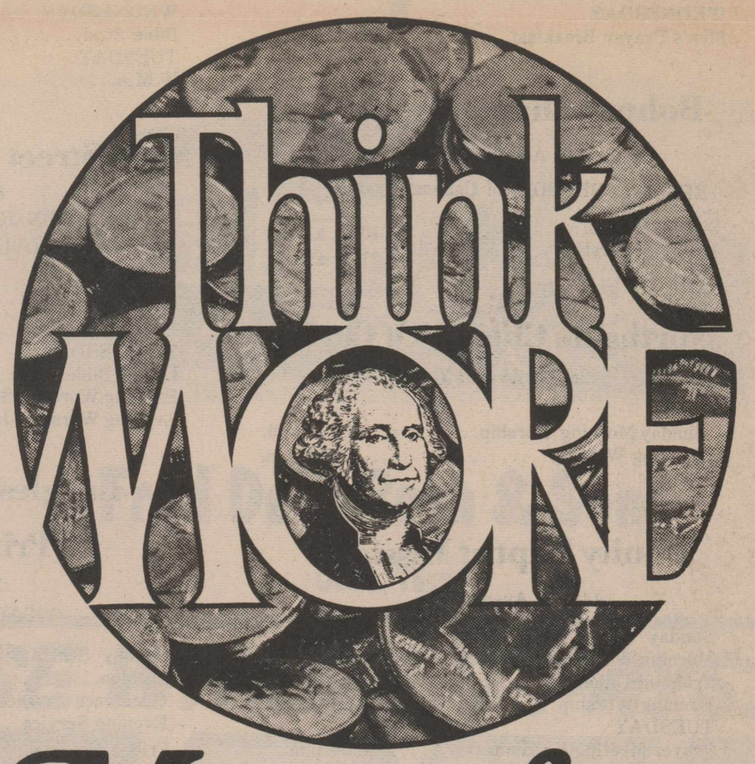

So if you've got wide open spaces to irrigate, and you don't want to pay for capabilities you don't need, get a Gifford-Hill 360 Thrifty-Rain.™ And save yourself some money to boot.

50 Ways To Decorate With GEOMETRIKS

A new modular system for designing any room in your home. Geometriks solves the many decorating prob-problems that face today's mobility-minded homemaker.

How To Create A Room With GEOMETRIKS

The basic pieces pictured here, that are used for the building, are called case pieces. They come in 2 sizes, 36" wide or 18" wide by 18" deep and 27" high. Now that you know the dimensions, decide how high and how wide you want your unit to be and you'll know how many pieces [and which size] you'll need. Also, by working with ¼" scale graph paper you can lay out your room before hand. As as example, let's assume you want to cover an area 6 feet wide by about 5 feet high. Two 36" wide pieces will give you the width [72" or 6 feet] and two mroe on top will give you the height [27" x2=54" or 4 feet 6 inches]. The other pieces included with Geometriks as shown here are, two headboards for use in bedroom combinations and a single verticle mirror.

TODAY'S LOGIC

By James W. Phelps

WHAT'S IT WORTH?

A thousand cubic feet of natural gas sells for 29½¢, 94¢, $1.44, $2.00 or $1.38.

The 29½¢ price is for gas discovered before 1973.

The 94¢ price is for gas discovered in 1973 or 1974.

The $1.44 price is for gas discovered after 1974.

The $2.00 price is approximately the average price for gas sold in the state in which it was discovered regardless of when it was discovered.

The $1.38 price is what the consumer pays in Denver, Colorado.

All these prices are controlled by the government except the intrastate price of approximately $2.00.

One cubic foot of natural gas is the same as any other cubic foot of natural gas.

And it is morally wrong to force one company (and its stockholders) to sell its gas for a small fraction of the price other companies can charge.

Is it any wonder there's a shortage of natural gas?

It's the same story with oil.

There's one price for "new" oil, another price for "old" oil and still another price for Arab oil.

Who gets the most?

The Arabs, of course.

Our government wouldn't permit American oil companies and their American stockholders to charge as much as the Arabs.

The Americans would make too much money. The American government would collect more taxes. More Americans would be employed finding and developing more oil fields.

We might even become energy independent.

Our balance of trade deficit might turn into a surplus.

All these "terrible" things might happen if the government would give free enterprise a chance.

Anytime anyone tries to tell you that free enterprise isn't working anymore, tell them it's because it isn't free anymore.

It's being strangled by government rules, regulations and red tape.

Most people don't realize or care how wrong it is to take away the freedoms of big companies. And they don't realize there's a connection between this loss of freedom and the shortages that follow.

But how do you think they would like it for the government to tell them they couldn't sell their home for more than $10,000 even though similar houses were selling for $40,000?

Is there really any moral difference between controlling the price of natural gas and controlling the price of one's home?

Do unto others as you would have them do unto you.

If we have our political representatives take away from someone else (even oil or gas companies) the freedom of determining the price of his property, the day may come when they'll also take away our freedom to determine the price of our property.
