Lion Hunters Get Very Little Sleep

WOLF ISLAND, Mo., Jan. 19. (AP)—Between the heavy rumblings of a thunder storm and the roaring of two lions, the members of Denver M. Wright's lion hunting party had little sleep last night.

Up to last night the lions had been fairly passive in their cages, but, when the lightning flashed and the thunder crashed across the sandy little island where the party are encamped, they set up a sleep-shattering hubbub.

Meanwhile, Wright was firm in his decision not to release the lions until the willow growths on the island had dried out. He said there was danger of the animals taking cold and dying before he could kill them.

COMMISSION DEMANDS PROOF OF CHARGES AGAINST STATE

BY WILLIAM S. WHITE
Associated Press Staff Writer

TYLER, Jan. 19 (AP)—The Texas railroad commission today resumed its investigation into violations of its proration orders in the East Texas oil field and as the first official act of the hearing appealed to any person having any charge of dereliction of duty to make against any commission employe in the field to present it, either publicly or privately.

No charge was forthcoming.

Statement Issued

Ernest O. Thompson, member of the commission, as soon as the session opened, read a statement saying that the commission, in November, 1932, in a hearing at Henderson, took testimony "in privacy from all parties in the field who desired to report to the commission any irregularity on the part of producers in the field or on the part of commission employes."

He said that as a result of that hearing the commission could find no information about any offense which had not already been acted upon by the commission and the attorney general's department.

No Specific Charge

"There was no specific charge made against any individual member of the commission for dereliction of duty or transgression on the part of our employes."

Again, at the hearing at Tyler Jan. 12, Thompson said, the commission had a private meeting with vigilance and enforcement committees of two associations in the field and found "no one prepared or willing to make specific charges of offense on the part of an employe of the association.

TEXAS SOLONS SETTLE DOWN TO BUSINESS

BILL TO REPEAL THE "MARKET DEMAND" ACT OFFERED

(By The Associated Press)

AUSTIN, Jan. 19.—Ceremonies incident to the inauguration of a new governor over and the message of the new chief executive having been received, the legislature today settled down to the routine business of holding committee hearings and passing laws.

Senator Joe M. Moore of Greenville introduced a bill in the senate today to repeal the "market demand" oil proration law enacted at the fourth special session of the 42nd legislature last November.

Favors Old System

Senator Moore would have the state go back to the physical waste law which was the oil conservation status until the new law was enacted during a session called specifically for that purpose. The present law permits the railroad commission to limit oil production to the market demand. The old law, which Senator Moore would re-enact, was designed to prohibit physical waste only and it forbade the railroad commission from considering market demand in fixing oil production allowables.

Sponsors of the market demand law contended last fall that its enactment was necessary to bolster the price of crude. Moore contended that the law had failed in that purpose, pointing to recent cuts in the East Texas oil price to 52 cents a barrel.

Oil Probe Proposal

A resolution for appointment of a special committee of the house to investigate conditions in the East Texas oil field was introduced today by Representative C. M. Turlington of Tatum. It was re-

NEW THEORY IS OFFERED BY OFFICERS

PROBE OF FT. WORTH MURDER CHANGED AS YOUTH SURRENDERS

(By The Associated Press)

DALLAS, Jan. 19. — Smoot Schmid and W. R. (Red) Wright, sheriffs of Dallas and Tarrant counties, revealed today that they were seeking Charles (Pretty Boy) Floyd, Oklahoma robber, and Clyde Barrow in connection with the slaying of Malcolm Davis, Fort Worth deputy sheriff, at a West Dallas residence the night of Jan. 6.

The new turn in the investigation of Davis' death developed after both had talked to Odell Chambless, 21, who surrendered yesterday at Pampa. He was charged with robbery in connection with the holdup of the Grapevine Home bank on Dec. 29.

New Theory Offered

Sheriff Wright advanced the theory that Barrow, 22, had been taken into the Floyd fold to fill a vacancy caused by the death of Cole Oglesby in Oklahoma several months ago. Belief was expressed that both might have disguised themselves to the extent of dying their hair.

Chambless made a frank admission of his participation in the Grapevine robbery to a newspaper reporter just before the trip to Fort Worth was started.

"I intend to go back with Sheriff Wright and make a full statement," he said. "Then I intend to plead guilty when my trial comes up. I have found that this racket doesn't pay."

AUSTIN, Jan. 19 (AP)—In an audit of the state game, fish and oyster commission submitted by Moore Lynn, auditor, today, it was revealed "material descrepancies" had been uncovered in the accounts of five individuals connected with the department.

The report said recovery had been had on four of these accounts, either from the "individuals, their relatives or bondsmen."

"In the case where recovery was not effected, we have obtained a complete confession, under oath, and it is our opinion that suit should be instituted against the securities," the report stated.

I., Jan. 19 —(AP)— With its foes claiming a majority of the insular legislators were ready to reject the Philippine independence act Manuel Quezon, president of the senate, said he was ready for the lawmakers to assume the responsibility without submitting the measure to a vote of the people.

The act provides it may be accepted or rejected by a convention called specifically for that purpose.

FAR EAST HUB OF PARLEY

HOOVER WILL CONFER WITH ROOSEVELT ON WORLD PROBLEMS

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19. —President-elect Roosevelt comes to the national capital today to see for himself the piled-up heap of vital domestic and international problems facing his administration.

During an overnight stay he will make an attack on them in a round of conferences which include a meeting with the President Hoover at the White House at 11 a. m. tomorrow.

Plan Extra Session

Soon after his arrival at 3:15 p. m. today a stream of Democratic leaders in congress will call at his hotel suite to outline the legislative situation and lay plans for an extra session which probably will be called between April 10 and 17.

Then on Friday morning he will present himself at the executive mansion which he will occupy after March 4 for a second conference with Mr. Hoover since the November elections. The far eastern crisis involving the clash between Japan and China seemed to be the subject of first moment.

The muddled congressional situation will be explained in detail to Mr. Roosevelt by his party chieftains, an explanation which very likely will include a detailed account of the senate filibuster which has widened the breach between conservative and liberal wings of the Democratic party and tied up legislation for more than a week.

Durrell Kendall Is Freed Second Time

LIVINGSTON, Jan. 19 (AP)—So far as the law was concerned, the brutal slaying of a minstrel show owner and a woman trouper in a ragged tent at New Caney remained an unsolved mystery today.

AGREEMENT IS REACHED BY SENATORS

DRASTIC CLOTURE IS REJECTED; DEBATE TO BE LIMITED

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19. —The legislative jam in the senate over the Glass bank bill was broken today when an agreement was reached to limit voluntarily debate after the drastic cloture had been rejected.

Defeat of the attempt to limit debate through the severe cloture rule was lost by the slimmest possible margin, 58 favoring the rule and 30 being opposed, which meant failure because two-thirds was required to win.

One Vote Short

A change of a solitary vote would have clamped on the rule.

The action, coming on a motion by the Democratic leader, Robinson, would have prolonged the eight-day-old filibuster against the measure by a small group led by Senator Long (D., La.) if the voluntary agreement had not been reached.

It had been considered likely, however that a unanimous consent agreement restricting discussion would be sought again.

Three Efforts Fail

This is the senate's most effective method of carrying on business, but three attempts to put it in operation yesterday failed —the last time when Senator Couzens (R., Mich.), charged the Republican "lame duck leadership" was in conspiracy to continue the filibuster. Couzens said he wished to place all on record whether they wanted to continue or break the filibuster by forcing today's vote on cloture.

Long was in favor of the voluntary agreement yesterday, but twice Senators Wheeler (D., Mont.), and Thomas (D., Okla.), blocked it.

SAN ANTONIO, Jan. 19 (AP)—Although two men were held by Sheriff Albert Hausser today in connection with the recent slaying of B. O. Johnson, superintendent of the institution, declared today that he had made a personal examination of the inmate's body after death and that he died from a disease.

Sheriff Hausser claimed, however, that he had statements from the arrested men, both of whom had served as guards at the institution, implicating each other in slaying of the inmate.

SOUTH RENDERS TRIBUTE TO MEMORY OF GENERAL ROBERT E. LEE TODAY

(By The Associated Press)

ATLANTA, Jan. 19. —The South had hallowed memories today for its beloved hero—Gen. Robert Edward Lee, the warrior who hated wars.

This is the birthday of Marse Robert. And the South rendered tribute to his memory.

There were thousands of Lee exercises. School boys made speches and girls read poems. Platforms were decorated with the nation's flags, and, of course, there were flags with stars and bars. The anecdotes of his life were recounted. On a day at Gettysburg, Lee had sent Pickett charging into the mouths of union musketry and cannon and Pickett's army had been cut to pieces. The stars of the confederacy was setting behind a horizon of blue. Lee who had sent his men into a hundred charges and watched them cut their way to victory was in retreat. A Yankee—badly wounded—lay in his path.

The soldier says he shouted "hurray for the Union" as Lee came near.

The general dismounted and approached the wounded enemy. "I thought he meant to kill me," the soldier reported later. "But he looked at me with a sad expression and grasped my hand."

"My son," said Marse Robert to the wounded man, "I hope you will soon be well."

THREE HUNDRED AND EIGHTY CHINESE SOLDIERS FREEZE TO DEATH AT POSTS

(By The Associated Press)

SHANGHAI, Jan. 19. —Three hundred eighty Chinese soldiers were reported today found frozen to death after being besieged for two weeks by Japanese troops on a southeastern Manchurian mountain top.

The report of the tragedy, carried in Chinese newspapers, turned attention to the Sino-Japanese controversy back to the original theater of war. Activities were renewed in that area, along the Manchurian coast south of Mukden, a month ago.

The reports said Japanese scouts found the dead Chinese soldiers still clasping their rifles at their posts on the top of Mount Takushan, near the coast between Takushan City and Siuyen, 125 miles south of Mukden.

The Chinese were hard-pressed by Japanese troops and made a final stand on the mountain, repulsing several attacks by the Japanese, the reports said. When the cold weather set in a few weeks ago, there was a lull in the fighting. The Japanese ceased their attacks and waited.

When the bodies were found, the reports said, they were clad in lightweight summer uniforms.

So economical—TRY IT in tub, washer, dishpan

YOU'LL say its economical, too, when you see how long one big box of Rinso lasts. That's because you only have to use a little Rinso to get a lot of the thickest, liveliest suds you ever saw... in any kind of water.

Rinso is equally good in tub or washer. Dirt loosens and floats right off in its creamy, cleansing suds. You don't have to scrub or boil the wash. Born in a depression year... and priced accordingly... a 75¢ value for only 35¢

TODAY the makers of Vicks Vapo-Rub present a new antiseptic . . Vicks Voratone Antiseptic. No extravagant claims are made for it. It is simply the best oral antiseptic Vicks Chemists could produce. And they were aided by the scientific experts of our 16 allied organizations . . . in America, in England, and in Germany.

They examined the whole field of oral antiseptics. Some they found were too weak... a few were far too strong for regular use in the mouth... most were very good... but all were much too expensive . . . especially for 1933.

Effective . . . and Safe

So they produced a balanced antiseptic... mild enough to be used daily without risk to delicate membranes ...strong enough to do everything an oral antiseptic can and should do. You can use it in your customary way.

And Vicks Antiseptic has this additional unique advantage... Born in a depression year, it is priced accordingly. Large 10-oz. bottle... a usual 75¢ value... only 35¢.

5 Million Trial Bottles

Of course, the only real proof of its economy—and its quality—is an actual trial in your own home. To furnish this proof, we have produced five million trial bottles, which we are supplying to druggists everywhere below the cost of manufacture. Each bottle contains 2½ ounces—a usual 25¢ value. The price, while they last, is only 10¢.

TALK ON NEXT RACE BEGUN

HOOVER CONTINUES TO REMAIN IN LEAD IN 1936 CAMPAIGN

BY BYRON PRICE
Associated Press Staff Writer

It is never too early for the politicians to begin talking about the next presidential election, and just now there is a surprising amount of speculation over award of the Republican nomination in 1936.

Strangely enough, few of the party leaders have anyone to suggest. The tone is one of lament that so many of the strong men of yesteryear either have fallen from prestige or are passing beyond the eligible age, with no comparable group of successors in sight.

It really is a remarkable situation for a party which but recently boasted so rich a coterie of outstanding Americans.

Within the memories of even the younger voters the vast majority of the concededly "great" of the land were Republicans—using the term "great" in its ordinary sense to denote those who have shown by experience the highest qualities of leadership.

Where are they now?

Little Chance For Hoover

President Hoover, of course, remains a conspicuous figure, but the present discussions do not include him prominently among those who will aspire to lead in 1936.

Certainly it would be contrary to all of the accepted traditions if a President who was so badly beaten for reelection should again be chosen the party nominee.

Unquestionably some of his friends are whispering to him of the next campaign; are telling him conditions of 1932 were so extraordinary that any Republican would have lost, so that his defeat really doesn't count.

Building Against Hoover

The trouble with that is that probably the two most powerful single subdivisions in the party are turning their eyes away. The insurgents do it openly, most of them having already refused to support him the last time. The Old Guard retains its prerogative of being more coy and adroit, but many of its leaders are slyly building their fences against a continuation of Hooverism.

What Mr. Hoover himself thinks about it neither the public nor the politicians need expect to know for many months to come.

Who Remains?

Supposing the traditions rule, and Mr. Hoover is out, who remains among all of the Republicans, of all factions, upon whom the present generation has looked as possible presidential material?

It has been a large company. In 1916, Charles E. Hughes. In 1920, Frank O. Lowden, Hiram Johnson, Leonard Wood and Warren G. Harding. In 1924 Robert M. LaFollette and Calvin Coolidge. In 1928, Lowden and Hoover.

Between times, Charles G. Dawes, Dwight Morrow, William E. Borah, George W. Norris. Counting Hoover, here are an even dozen names to conjure with.

Death has taken Harding, Wood, Morrow and LaFollette. Hughes in the robes of the chief justice, is lost to politics forever. And in 1936 Lowden will be 75 years old; Johnson 70; Coolidge 64, Dawes 71, Borah 71; Norris 75; Hoover himself 62.

Who among them will be in the running in a country which has formed a habit of choosing its presidents from among men in their early 50's?

A Scramble Looms

What of the younger generation? Some thirty men have sat in the cabinets of Harding, Coolidge and Hoover, yet what one among them all is likely to be talked of for President four years hence? Or what Republican senator? Or what Republican governor?

Of course someone will be. If anything is certain in politics, it is that the next four years will see a gigantic scramble among men now comparatively unknown to grasp the falling torch of Republican leadership.

Boy Spends Night In Barber Shop

An 8-year-old newsboy, Loren Bolin, Tuesday night slept in a barber shop in the 1200-block of Broadway, having been locked in while he was asleep. At 11 o'clock Tuesday night, the boy's father stopped hunting for him, deciding the lad was passing the night with a friend.

"I woke up and couldn't get out, unless I broke a window," said Loren, who weighs 54 pounds and is a third grade student. "And you wouldn't break a window, would you?"

He went back to sleep, to be released at about 7 o'clock when the shop opened. He went to his home at 1708 Avenue E, and "I didn't get a spanking, either."

Storm center of several lawsuits, the evangelist settled two of the biggest court actions pending against her and aggregating $544,500 damages, by agreeing to fulfill a contract in motion pictures as held by J. Mother Gives Life To Save Her Child

ANCHORAGE, Alaska, Jan. 19.—(AP)—An account of an Indian mother who gave her life to save a four-year old son, by huddling over him in the snow with the temperature 20 below zero, was brought here today from the Bristol bay region.

Within a mile of Nushagak, an aviator flying from there said, the mother's frozen body was found, but the son lying beneath her still was alive. Brought to a Dillingham hospital attendants said the boy's hands and feet might have to be amputated.

A baby strapped on the mother's back, however, also was frozen to death.

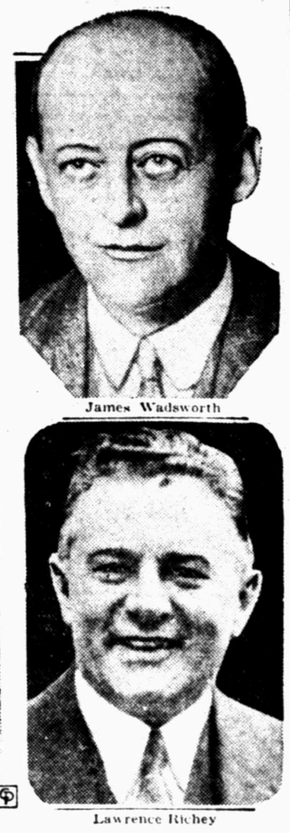

The woman's name was not learned.

Will Hoover Seek Renomination?

Charles D. Hilles

James Wadsworth

Lawrence Richey

President Hoover is reported as displaying an interest in reorganization of the Republican party sufficient to convince G. O. P. senators that he desires to be renominated in 1936. White House sources have intimated that Lawrence Richey, one of the secretaries to the president, be given the task of party reorganization, which would put the Hoover forces in control. Old Guard and Progressive Republicans alike are said to object strenuously to this. Charles D. Hilles, New York's Republican national committeeman, is said to be desirous of taking charge of the party's destinies. And Representative-elect James W. Wadsworth, former New York senator and a wet, is leading a movement in Washington to wrest control of the national committee from President Hoover.

Farm, Home Event Is Discussed Here

H. L. Gantz, general chairman, and members of his committee Wednesday in the office of County Agent O. G. Tumlinson discussed plans for a fourth annual Farm and Home conference at Texas Technological college February 27 and 28.

The two-day session will be divided into four meetings, with different subjects for each. The topics will be soils and their improvement, production, farm organization and organizations, and marketing. Mr. Gantz, also chairman of the program committee, will meet with that group Friday night.

CABBIES TAKE THE AIR

LONDON—It wouldn't be such a shock to London cab drivers if airplanes were to take the place of automobiles. Three Boys Given Lecture By Pitts

County Judge E. L. Pitts, Wednesday afternoon, lectured three 14-year-old boys, accused of cursing on downtown streets, and advised them to "mend your ways." John Croft, police motorcycle patrolman arrested the boys, who were said to have "cussed out" a cafe operator on Thirteenth street.

Two of the lads reported their fathers dead; the other's father was living, but unemployed. After the lecture, the boys were released. Two previously had been arrested, once for theft.

Judging Fame

When John Masefield, the English poet, landed in New York not long ago the newspapers recalled how in his youth he had worked in a waterfront saloon there; and this prompted F. P. A., the columnist, to remark that "ten times as many of us know that John Masefield once worked in a saloon as are able to quote two lines from one of his poems."

In this sardonic remark there is a good deal of truth; and it applies not only to Masefield but to all manner of people who enjoy prominent positions.

Fame, nowadays, is apt to be a peculiar thing. It thrusts the name of a man before thousands of people who aren't in the least interested in what the man does, and as a result it is apt to make some of his least important traits his best known attributes.

We know all about Masefield's saloon job, but, as the columnist remarks, we can't quote his poetry.

We know exactly what Einstein looks like, we know that he likes to play the violin and we know that he is a devout pacifist; but not one of us in a hundred could give an intelligent description of the work that has made him famous.

We know that Dr. R. A. Millikan is a scientist who believes in God, but if our lives depended on it we couldn't say what his cosmic ray theory is all about, or what its implications are.

We know that Trotzky has been expelled from Russia and can't go back, but we haven't the foggiest notion of the doctrinal differences between him and the ruling clique which caused his expulsion.

We know that Ramsay MacDonald stayed in office as prime minister of England after his own party was snowed under at the polls, but we don't pretend to know how he managed it, or what the act signified about British politics.

Most of us, in short, skate around the fringes of important affairs without ever understanding just what is happening. We hear the echoes of great events and see the shadows of great men, but that is all. We lack the breadth and depth to study the truths that lie back of fame.

An Appreciation of Science

Hope Fades For Balancing Budget As Income And Sales Tax Proposals Encounter Trouble In Lame Duck Session

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19 — Budget balancing, temporarily, seems to be just a form of monkey business.

Those of us who predicted that this session of Congress would come nowhere near balancing the budget may have hoped to be disappointed when Mr. Roosevelt called his impressive New York conference with Democratic congressional leaders. But the prediction stands more emphatically than before.

Dutcher

And the reaction to the conference and results has been one of the sourest you ever heard of. This reaction seems to be shared even by most of the conferees, and it appears that Roosevelt himself doesn't feel any too happy about it.

It appears that Roosevelt hadn't any revenue-economy program to put up to the leaders, as they expected, and that the leaders hadn't any program to put up to him, as he doubtless expected. So they just talked. And issued a statement, part of which obviously didn't mean anything, and the rest of whose meaning is a matter of dispute. For prospect of action we wait, as usual, for the special session of the next Congress.

The declaration in New York for an income tax boost which would also lower exemptions so as to take in a couple of millions of persons in the small-income class was accompanied by differing estimates of the return and was followed by so much disagreement in individual statements that no one can be quite sure whether the Democrats really meant it or were only fooling.

Adding a couple of million small-salaried folks to the tax list is at least as politically dangerous as a sales tax and the Democratic leaders are a group of smart politicians, from Roosevelt down the line.

It was the one thing no one really seemed to have thought of before, and that may be the reason the Democrats suddenly grabbed it and pushed it forward, but no one can be found who will take credit for promoting the idea.

There may be a good theoretical argument for spreading the income tax base, but that certainly wasn't motivating the House leaders and senators.

Everyone has had a chance to get sore, at the proposal. The small-salaried people and the progressives are sore because it hits at a class already hard hit by income reductions and other depression misfortunes. And sore, too, are the conservatives who want some action on a sales tax and the proposed large cut in veterans' expenditures—two highly important measures which are said not to have been mentioned.

One recalls, also rather sourly that the House leaders recently went into a huddle among themselves and then announced that they were seriously considering a sales tax. Everyone supposed they had consulted Roosevelt about it, but Roosevelt promptly let it be known that he was "horrified," and that was the end of that.

Added to the other surprising aspects of the budget balancing whirligig among the Democrats is the fact that everyone admits the impossibility of passing the income tax boost at this session even if the leaders seriously tried to put it over. Naturally, that begets speculation as to whether they didn't have some hidden motive—such as propaganda for the sales tax, the beer tax or the Democrats.

Meanwhile, no major taxes ar economies have been agreed upon, and it is doubtful whether any intelligent, well-considered program of taxation and economy can be worked out at a special session before the beginning of the next fiscal year in July.

As for the part of the statement that didn't mean anything—the budget balancers once more grossly underestimated the deficit for purposes of statement-making. They placed it at $492,000,000, ignoring the expected failure to collect $300,000,000 in debts and the $500,000,000 for sinking fund requirements. Only a few days previously in the House, Chairman Joe Byrns of the Appropriations committee and one of the conferees, had set the deficit at $1,600,000,000.

Army engineers on a flood control project have changed the course of the Mississippi. It's probably a forlorn hope, but maybe, before the next war, they'll devise a means of keeping the slumgullion from inundating the jam in a mess kit.

(Time Is Central Standard)

NEW YORK, Jan. 19. —(AP)—An idea new for radio has come from B. A. Rolfe, chieftain of the baton for son long in the WEAF-NBC tri-weekly dance house.

It is a musical comedy written especially for the microphone, to stretch over 39 broadcasts of 30 minutes each. Besides the musical theme there would be a plot of the melodramatic serial type. The entire score has been written and two of the episodes have been completely rehearsed awaiting the time it is to go on the air.

Rolfe calls his production "Tracked Around the World," and for its presentation a cast of 60 is required, including the orchestra.

Try These Tonight:

WEAF-NBC: 7— Rudy Vallee's hour; 9—Jack Pearl; 10:30 —Jack Denny's orchestra; 11:30 —Hollywood on the Air.

WABC-CBS: 7 — Jack Benny; 8:30—Colonel Stoopnagle and Budd; 9—Light opera, "The Prince of Pilsen"; 10—Barlow symphony.

FLASHES OF LIFE

As Brought Over Associated Press Wires Today

Stops Too Late.

SEATTLE—Two men were working on a moving street car. Quietly they took out the electric bulbs from the rear end, unscrewed the brass fixtures and doorknobs and then began removing handgrips from the seats. "Hey," a puzzled passenger yelled to the conductor, "they are taking your trolley to pieces." The operator stopped the car by the nearest policeman, but the two culprits escaped.

Toothsome Fare!

CHICAGO—Flashing a dazzling smile—he had two gold teeth—Jeter Hourhoulis hailed a taxi-cab, and went places to the clicking tune of $1.65.

When Jack Kastrow, the cab driver, demanded the fare, Peter didn't have it.

"Here," he said, removing the two teeth. "Take these for your pay. They're worth more than $1.65."

Kastrow couldn't use the teeth, so Hourhoulis was charged with beating a taxi bill.

Bury The Past

ESCANABA, Mich.—Two fishermen buried the past as they dropped their lines through a hole in the ice of Bay De Noc. One was Circuit Judge Frank A. Bell. The other was a man whom the judge had sentenced to six months imprisonment a year ago. The judge knocked at the door of the other man's shanty, was reminded of the sentence, and accepted a hospitable welcome.

Dark Doings

BELOIT, Wis.—There is, Beloit officials decided today, a definite relation between electric lights and crime waves.

As an economy move, the council ordered street lights turned off at 11 p. m., in outlying residential districts. Dousing the lights was expected to save $3,200 annually. The first night burglars broke into 20 homes and garages. The residents complained so much that the council ordered the lights turned back on.

Dowager Queen Marie of Rumania is reported writing a novel barring the romantic affairs of her son, King Carol. It looks like Carol's about to be dealt a royal flush.

England and America sometimes are closer to each other by 63 feet because of the moon's influence. And a bottle of it sometimes will make old enemies get down and cry together.

GROUP NOT TO FIGHT PORTS

INTERIOR BODY AIMS AT PROTECTION OF INLAND CITIES

(By The Associated Press)

DALLAS, Jan. 19.—C. P. Neville of Greenville, president of the Interior Protective and Development association, issued a statement yesterday in which he declared that the purpose of the organization is not to fight Texas ports but to protect the economic interests of the interior.

Nevill was in Dallas attending meetings of the executive and finance committees of the association. These were the first meetings of the committees since the organization was completed at a directors' meeting last week in Fort Worth.

"There has been a misunderstanding about our intent," Neville said. "It is not to fight the ports. We are proud of our Texas ports and we need them. But we believe there is economic justification for our interests in the interior and we want to protect them. We are definitely opposed to anything artificial removing them, their taxes and their payrolls."

LEGISLATURE

ferred to the committee on oil, gas and mining without house action.

In speaking for the resolution, Turlington stated a belief existed in East Texas that some of "the employes of the Texas railroad commission have their hands behind their backs and have become the Al Capones of the oil industry."

Turlington stated that the commission now was engaged in "investigating itself" at hearings being held in Tyler but that members of an East Texas land owners association knew "that the commission was not going to find itself guilty."

Representative Bob Long of Wichita Falls introduced a bill in the house to provide for the unitization of oil producing pools and for cooperative development of oil areas by interested persons.

Would Allow Betting

A bill to legalize race horse betting in Texas through use of the pari mutuel system of wagering was introduced in the house by Representative J. C. Duvall of Fort Worth.

The house passed a bill today designed to expedite the procedure of electing a successor in congress to John N. Garner of the 15th district, who will become vice president March 4. Under the bill as amended by the house, the first Democratic primary may be held late next month.

The last two of three cases of delinquent boys, brought to light by police arrests, was disposed of by Judge E. L. Pitts in county court this morning. A 17-year-old boy, a former inmate of the state training school, pleaded guilty of theft from a Lubbock residence and was fined $1 and sentenced to a day in jail.

A 16-year-old boy was sentenced in juvenile court to a year in the reformatory and paroled to his father upon good behavior. Another youth, whose age had not been determined, was freed Wednesday on posting of $300 appearance bond.

All three youths were arrested in the burglary Tuesday afternoon of the A. McGeehee home at 1715 Twenty-third street.

DAILY MARKETS

Cotton Market

NEW ORLEANS REPORT

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 19 (AP)—Cotton opened steady today. Liverpool came in about as due and there was some trade buying and price fixing at the start. This caused opening trades to show gains of 2 to 4 points and the active position, May, advanced an additional point after the start to 6.24. Trading was very narrow however and during the first hour fluctuations were limited to a few points. Near the end of the first hour prices were steady and unchanged to one point under the highs.

The market continued a very narrow affair all morning. There was moderate trade buying and some price-fixing and also a little covering by ring shorts. The trend was slowly upward, March trailing as high as 6.16, May at 6.28 and July at 6.41, or 7 to 8 points above yesterday's close.

Around noon the market eased one to two points from the highs on a little profit-taking.

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, Jan. 19 (AP)—Cotton opened steady, 1 to 6 points advance on higher Liverpool cables and trade buying. Jan. 6.07; March 6.12; May 6.25; July 6.38; Oct. 6.58; Dec. 6.70.

Houses with Liverpool, continental and Japanese connections were buyers at the opening. Offerings were light and the more active months worked about 7 to 9 points net higher during the early trading, March advancing to 6.16 and July to 6.41. Southern selling increased slightly on the bulge and the market was a point or two off from the best at the end of the first half hour.

The market held steady later in the morning. Offerings were light and a moderate trade demand, together with some covering or local buying promoted by a better tone in the stock market, sent March contracts up to 6.18. The general list showed net gains of 9 to 11 points by midday.

Grain Market

CHICAGO REPORT

CHICAGO, Jan. 19 (AP)—Upturns in Chicago grain values early today followed wheat quotations showing considerable more strength than expected. Another bullish factor was that official reports indicated no important moisture relief for drought areas of domestic winter wheat territory.

Opening 1-4 to 5-8 higher, wheat continued upgrade. Corn started at 1-8 to 3-8 advance and subsequently held near the initial range.

Stock Market

WALL STREET REPORT

NEW YORK, Jan. 19 (AP)—The stock market derived some encouragement from wheat today.

Prices were steady at the start, and developed moderate strength after the opening of the Chicago wheat market. Several stocks were carried up 1 to 2 points, but trading remained extremely sluggish.

American Tobacco B advanced more than 2, and issues getting up about 1 to 1 1-2 included American Telephone, American Can, Allied Chemical, Du Pont, Eastman, Corn Products, Goodyear, Liggett and Myers B, New York Central, Union Pacific, Case, and U. S. Steel common and preferred. Recent soft spots such as National Dairy and some of the chain store issues, were steady. Lambert, however, developed special heaviness, losing more than a point.

Production of natural gasoline in 1931, says the bureau of mines, totaled 1,831,918,000 gallons valued at $63,732,000, a decline of 17 and 42 per cent, respectively, from 1930.

"HOME-MADE" LION HUNT IS DELAYED DUE TO RAINY AND CHILLY WEATHER

(By The Associated Press)

WOLF ISLAND, Mo., Jan. 19 —Afraid his two lions will catch cold if they are liberated in the rainy and chilly weather, Denver M. Wright, St. Louis manufacturer, and his hunting party marked time yesterday as they waited for better weather in which to track down and kill the animals.

Wright has resolved to take no chances with the lions as he is bent on bringing his second "home-made" lion hunt to a successful conclusion.

"They might catch cold and die," he said, as he decided not to release the animals on the sandy little island on which the hunt will be staged. "We'll wait for things to dry out again."

So the score of members of the safari sat around the camp talking and idling the time away as they watched the yellow waters of the Father of Rivers rippling by.

Their camp, consisting of somewhat leaky tents and other outdoor paraphernalia, is enclosed in barbed wire, which is designed to protect the men when the lions are loosed on the island. Wright has planned to allow the animals several days of liberty to make them more difficult to track down.

The rain has caused discomfort to the men but as one of them said:

"It rains in Africa too, don't it? It's all in the game."

BURGLAR GETS LIFE TERM

ARTHUR McCANN HELD GUILTY ON HABITUAL CRIMINAL COUNT

(By The Associated Press)

ABILENE, Jan. 19.—Convicted on a burglary indictment drawn under the habitual criminal act, Arthur McCann yesterday drew a sentence of life imprisonment in 42nd district court here. Records immediately available showed this was the first conviction of the kind in this county.

Evidence presented by J. R. Black, district attorney, showed McCann had been convicted three times previously on burglary charges. One was in Jones county in January, 1926, one in Lubbock county in June, 1929, and one in Travis county in April, 1931.

He was on parole from the Travis county conviction when indicted here for burglary of the J. A. Elliott home last December.

McCann conducted his own defense, and received the jury's verdict calmly.

Bullet In His Brain

For nearly three weeks 79-year-old Irvin Weygandt of Ashland, O., has lived with a bullet in his brain. The farmer shot himself with a rifle three times. The first two bullets grazed his skull but the third reached the brain. Since then he has been conscious most of the time. Amazed physicians hold no hope for the elderly man's recovery, however.

SOLON OFFERS UTILITY BILL

MEASURE WOULD GIVE CITIES RIGHT TO LIMIT RATES

(By The Associated Press)

AUSTIN, Jan. 19.—A public utilities regulation bill, to abolish the state division of child welfare and the state highway patrol and to reduce materially the Texas ranger force were introduced yesterday in the Texas legislature.

The number of bills introduced in the house passed the 100 mark with the session only eight days old. It was likely the total number of bills introduced in the four-months session would reach or exceed 1,000 in the house alone.

Provisions Of Bill

Regulation of public utilities would be vested in the governing boards of cities and counties under a bill sponsored by Representative W. E. Pope of Corpus Christi. The cities and counties would be vested with authority to regulate the rates charged by gas, power, telephone and telegraph and sewage disposal utilities.

The valuation of the utilities, on which the rates would be based, would be the value of the property on which the utility paid taxes. The law would allow the utility a return of six per cent on its assessed tax valuation.

City and county governing officials would be prohibited from owning stock in utility companies and the utilities would be barred from owning stock in newspapers. The operations of the utilities also would be limited to the purposes specified in their charters.

Marriage Of Negro Doctor And White Woman Is Annulled

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 19 (AP)—Helen Lee Worthing, former New York stage beauty who quit her career to marry Dr. Eugene C. Nelson, wealthy negro physician, yesterday overrode the arguments of her attorney in superior court to assist her husband obtain an annulment of their marriage.

Pale and wan, Miss Worthing rushed to the side of C. A. Gingery, her attorney, as he argued against granting the annulment, and said she had confidence in Dr. Nelson and believed his action was for the best.

At this point the court summarily granted the annulment and ordered set aside the interlocutory decree of divorce granted the woman several months ago. She had been awarded $300 a month alimony for a four-year period.

LUBBOCK BASEBALL COMMITTEES ARE TO MEET HERE TONIGHT

SPYING ON SPORTS

BY COLLIER PARRIS

"Who will cultivate the Lubbock baseball farm?" is the question being fired at this department these days.

It has not been definitely decided just which of the large minor league clubs will support Lubbock as a farm, once things get going in the West Texas-New Mexico league. The Associated Press said the other night that San Francisco would. The A. P. might have been right. It usually is. However, no definite conclusion has been made. Suffice it to say that a good club, one with financial power and big league importance, will farm the Lubbock club.

TWO OTHERS CONSIDERED

Lubbock is seeking the best farm connection possible. President John Dalrymple is dickering with at least two other sources. One of them is the Los Angeles club of the Pacific Coast league. Communications have been received to the effect that Los Angeles is ready to send a complete outfit here, manager and all, also a considerable sum of cash with which to pay salaries. The Houston club of the Texas league, which is operated by the St. Louis Cardinals, has been suggested as a "mother club," and it is possible that further negotiations will be made with Houston. President Alvin Gardner of the Texas league said he was confident that farm connections could be made in his organization.

We ought to know something definite within a few days. Meanwhile, let us keep pushing baseball, talking baseball and instill public interest and confidence. Lubbock has been somewhat soured on baseball, due to the long absence of good baseball and to the actions of tin-horn promoters who have tried to gig the local following for all it was worth. As Gardner stated here Sunday, this is no promotional scheme, but a rock-bottom proposition, sanctioned and supported by the National Association of Organized Baseball leagues.

INTRODUCING McKEEVER

The Morning Avalanche has a new correspondent. Meet Ed McKeever, first string halfback on the varsity football team and an enterprising young journalist. Ed, some folks will tell you that you're going wrong by entering the ranks of professional writers, particular sports writers, but you stay in and pitch. McKeever will keep Avalanche fans informed as to the goings on out on the Texas Tech athletic field. Just now a hot intramural football season is under way. Nearly 200 lads reported for uniforms the other day. Four clubs have been organized, with varsity letter men acting as coaches and managers. Milton Moffett, quarterback, is intramural football director.

Intramural sports are fine for any school, and Tech has already profited to the extent of several crack halfbacks and linemen, not to mention boxers, wrestlers, etc. Several varsity players you have applauded "came up" from the intramural ranks. The prospects are fine again. Of course Tech's coaches are behind the move. Pete Cawthon, Del Morgan and Dutchy Smith get the big hand. But we'll let McKeever tell about the intramural football, or part of it. He will also "cover" intramural and minor sports such as boxing, wrestling, etc.

A siege of intramural fever hit the high school. Three teams have been organized, representing the three classes, senior, junior and sophomore. They will play a schedule of games as an introduction to spring training.

* * *

A basketball game which promises considerable excitement is tabulated for tomorrow night at the Lubbock High school gymnasium. Coach Odus Mitchell is bringing his Pampa High school Harvesters over for a one-night stand. According to previous scoring, the teams should be fairly well balanced. Both defeated Amarillo by the same margin. Pampa is seeking a district championship, and reports are that the Harvesters are well on the way. The game will start at 7:30 o'clock Friday evenng.

ANNUAL WARFARE

The executive committee of District 1 of the Texas Interscholastic league meets at Plainview's Hilton hotel tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock. Prof. M. H. Duncan of Lubbock High school, chairman of the committee, has invited us to go along and be an innocent bystander at the exchange of verbal shots between school officials and coaches. The matter of schedules for the 1933 football game will come up. Also there undoubtedly will be proposals in regard to eligibility rules, et cetera. It was a rather interesting meeting last year and should be again this year.

There is going to be a big conflict in regard to the Thanksgiving Day football game here. Announcement yesterday that the Kansas Aggies had signed contracts to meet the Texas Tech Matadors here on Thanksgiving may cause the annual Lubbock-Amarillo high school classic to be played on another date or at Amarillo. It is Amarillo's year to come here for the Thanksgiving game, and Tech's year to play Simmons at Abilene. But the Simmons date has been changed to November 11. It's Tech's field, so the high school must look around. There is going to be a further hitch in the Lubbock-Amarillo plans tomorrow at the district meeting. Pampa has been seeking the Thanksgiving date with Amarillo for a couple of seasons, and Pampa folks are going to put up a battle before giving up the 1933 Turkey Day date with the Sandies.

REPORTS WILL BE MADE AT MEETING

FOUR GROUPS CHOSEN BY DALRYMPLE WILL TELL OF ACTIVITY

Chairmen and members of four committees appointed Monday night by John Dalrymple, president of the Lubbock Baseball club, are to meet tonight at 7:15 o'clock and make reports on the last few days' work.

The meeting will be held in Room 212, Hotel Lubbock. It is necessary that a large attendance of committeemen be present. Additional steps toward the definite announcement of organized baseball here are expected to be made tonight.

Plan To Incorporate

President Dalrymple appointed a committee to arrange for incorporation of the Lubbock Baseball club with Homer Grant as chairman, H. H. Shell and Ray Hinchey as members. A report is expected from the committee tonight.

Sylvan Sanders, P. W. Cawthon, J. J. Clements and G. E. Damewood were named on a committee to investigate a park site, and have plans drawn up for the construction of a grandstand. Mr. Sanders was named chairman of this committee.

A transportation committee composed of W. C. Pryor and George Roach is to report on investigations of various possible methods of transporting the ball club.

Another Body Named

One of the most important committees named Monday night was the "ways and means" committee, composed of Alex McDonald, chairman, A. B. Davis, Judge Raley, Ed Hambright, Charles A. Guy, W. O. Daniels, B. Sherrod, B. T. Hambright, R. C. Smith, W. P. Faulkner, George Kuykendall, Harry Morris, Vaughn Wilson, Hurley Carpenter, George Simmons, Lee Jones, A. D. Chase, R. E. Stroup, Jay Harston, Dr. V. V. Clark and E. A. Tusha.

Further consideration of offers made by Pacific Coast and Texas league teams to support Lubbock as a farm will come up before the general committee meeting tonight, President Dalrymple said.

GEORGE EARNSHAW WILL QUIT A'S DUE TO SALARY SLASH

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 19. —(AP)—The Examiner said last night George Earnshaw, ace pitcher of the Philadelphia Athletics, has written a letter to a Los Angeles friend saying he is about to quit the team because of a 75 per cent salary cut for 1933.

Earnshaw wrote he had just received notice of the slice from Connie Mack, manager.

"It's next to telling me I'm not wanted with the A's this season," the pitcher continued, adding that Mack had declared, he "will take the cut or not play ball."

The letter hinted another ace of last season's Mackmen pitching staff is to be traded or sold before the season opens.

JOHN LAYTON ON IVORY WAR PATH

On the trail of his eleventh title, Layton launched his attack in the 1933 world's three cushion billiard championship tournament yesterday and before he had finished stood out as the most feared competitor.

Opening up with a rapid-fire count of 11, he wound up with a 50 to 8 victory over Frank Scoville of Buffalo, N. Y., in 35 quick innings. It was the most decisive victory of the tournament so far and while Clarence Jackson, Detroit veteran, led the big parade with two straight triumphs Layton stole the show.

Jackson soared into the lead with a far less spectacular decision, defeating Arthur Thurnblad, Chicago, 50 to 44 in 48 innings.

Slightly more than 18 per cent of all farms in Illinois had motor trucks in the 1930 census, whereas in the 1920 census only 2.5 per cent of the farms were thus equipped.

JACK CHEVIGNY OF NOTRE DAME GRID FAME DESERTS PROFESSIONAL LEAGUE AND SIGNS AS ST. EDWARD'S COACH

CHICAGO, Jan. 19. —(AP)—Jack Chevigny of Notre Dame football fame has deserted the big time professionals for the small college field.

On February 1 he will take over the coaching duties of St. Edward's university of Austin, Texas, an institution of 500 students conducted by the members of the community of Holy Cross of Notre Dame. His appointment was announced last night by the Rev. J. Hugh O'Donnell, C.S.C., president of the university.

Chevigny's coaching career has been brief but filled with disappointments. After starring in the backfield on the Notre Dame teams of the late Knute Rockne from 1926 through 1928, he became assistant backfield coach with success. With Rockne's death in 1930, he was named "junior" coach and Heartly "Hunk" Anderson, "senior" coach. The combination didn't work to his satisfaction and he resigned after the 1931 campaign and Anderson was made head coach. Last season, Chevigny was made head coach of the Chicago Cardinals of the National Professional Football league but injuries beset his team throughout the campaign and a poor record was made.

"I am sorry to lose Chevigny for I have the highest regard for his coaching ability," said Dr. David Jones, owner of the Cardinals. "I understand he has been offered a full time position with a salary which our club cannot afford to meet in our three months' season."

Chevigny will replace Al Sarafiny at St. Edwards.

FIGHTS LAST NIGHT

MIAMI, Fla.—Texas Kid, Newark, N. J., outpointed Baby Manuel, Tampa, Fla., (10). Jimmy Leto, Tampa, knocked out Billy Beck, Chicago, (5).

FLORIDA RACING SEASON OPENED

MIAMI, Fla., Jan. 19. —(AP)—The horses that run for money and glory returned to south Florida today with an inaugural handicap opening 45 days of racing at the Hialeah park track of the Miami Jockey club. There were even races on the program.

The inaugural was over the six furlong route and was worth $2,500 added to the winner. Mr. Sponge, veteran sprinter from the stables of Joseph E. Widener, stood out as the favorite, although he was assigned top impost of 126 pounds. Jockey Buddy Hanford was mounted.

Curacao, representing the Greentree stables of Mrs. Payne Whitney, and ridden by S. Coucci, was well liked in the overnight predictions, as well as Lerranga representing the Anall stables of Allen Ryan, with Jockey Charley Kurtsinger up.

PAMPA CAGERS HERE FRIDAY

BASKETBALL CONTEST TO BE HIGHLIGHT OF THE SEASON

The Lubbock High school Westerners, who meet the Pampa High school Harvesters here tomorrow night in what promises to be a high light of the local season, had little trouble with a team of older, more experienced ex-Westerners and college players last night. The youngsters in the black and gold had things pretty well to themselves.

The final score was 51 to 23. The fine goal shooting of Joe Lewis and Curly Wilkinson and the good passing and defensive work of Robert Stone, Robert Hale and Possum Blackwell was too much for the older lads, who trailed, 34 to 11, at the half.

The ex-Westerner team, managed by Ernest Dowell, is one of Lubbock's independent basketball clubs. Jesse Holmes, former Lubbock High school basketeer, was the main cog in the Dowell machine last night. Lefty Sollis, college varsity halfback, was effective with his fast passing and southpaw goal shooting. A member of the ex-Westerner lineup was Cecil (Doc) Merrell, sensational halfback on Lubbock's district championship football team of 1931.

The Pampa Harvesters, boasting a record of 13 victories in fifteen games, will come here tomorrow, and meet the Westerners at 7:30 o'clock on the Lubbock High gymnasium floor.

Odus Mitchell is coaching the Pampa basketball team, which is said to be one of the best ever turned out at Pampa and one that is after the district championship in that sector.

DAZZLING ARRAY OF TRACK AND FIELD STARS LINED UP FOR EASTERN MEETS; CHAMPIONS INVITED TO PARTICIPATE

NEW YORK, Jan. 19 (AP)—A dazzling array of track and field talent today was lined up by the Amateur Athletic union for the coming big eastern indoor meets in an effort to keep the wolf away from the door.

Faced with an economic situation which finds most other sports organizations drastically curtailing activities, track officials hope to attract the cash customers with as ambitious a program as they have attempted in many years.

Champions Invited

No less than six olympic champions—two of them from Europe—several national champions and outstanding competitors from every section of the United States have been invited by Daniel J. Ferris, A. A. U. secretary-treasurer, to make the eastern swing, starting with the Millrose games in Madison Square Garden Feb. 4 and running through the nationals Feb. 25 and the K. of C. games early in March. Most of those invited have either accepted or indications are they will, Ferris said.

Luigi Beccali, olympic 1,500 meter winner of Italy, and Jan Kusocinski, Poland, 10,000 meter titleholder, are the star foreign entries. Big Leo Sexton, shotputter, little Bill Carr, 400-meter winner and world record holder, Bill Miller, pole vault champion, and Jim Bausch, all-around champion, head the list of homebred aces.

In addition, Ralph Metcalfe, national sprint king, Emmett Toppino, the little southern flier who tied the 60-yard dash mark nearly every time he ran the distance last fall, Frank Wykoff, holder of the world 100-yard record, Glenn Cunningham, who ran the fastest mile in collegiate track history last summer, and Gene Venzke, holder of the world indoor mile record of 4:10, will spice most of the big features.

Kangaroos Beaten By McMurry Indians

ABILENE, Jan. 19 (AP)—Austin college's Kangaroos all but gave the Texas conference basketball race a major upset last night. With four minutes left to play, the Kangaroos held a lead of five points, but the cagers of McMurry college rallied in the nick of time to win, 39 to 34. It was the sixth straight conference defeat for Austin.

In a complete reversal of the form they had shown against other Abilene teams, the Kangaroos controlled the game from the middle of the first half until the second was almost over. Connelly's jumping at center, and the improvement in the play of Forwards Grinnell and Brooksy Smith were important factors.

When it looked as if the Indians' cause was a lost one, Jim McKenzie opened a rally with a long field goal. Francis Smith duplicated, and Amon Johnson came in from guard for a basket at close range to put the Indians ahead. McMurry scored four more points while Austin was being stopped.

Brooksy Smith of Austin led the scoring with eleven points. Connelly of Austin, and Francis Smith and Curry of McMurry each tabbed ten. The Kangaroos lost three of their starting players on personal fouls.

AMATEURS ARE SURVEYED

DAWSON SAYS NO ONE OF GREAT PROMISE ON GOLF HORIZON

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 19. —(AP)—Johnny Dawson, perhaps the best amateur golfer in the United States, has surveyed the golf horizon with a critical eye and failed to see a single young amateur of outstanding promise.

The Chicago player has just finished three open tournaments in California and Mexico in which he was low amateur in each.

"Is there an outstanding young golfer in sight?" he was asked. "One with possibilities of approaching Bob Jones' performances as an amateur?"

"Not one," was the reply. "A year ago I would have said Gus Moreland of Dallas, but Gus has not come along as I thought he would.

"There are, of course, plenty of good young amateur golfers but I have not seen a great one. The reason? Well, some who might go a long way in the amateur game become pros before they play much as amateurs. Others won't practice, and many are not temperamentally fitted for the game."

Efficiency....

Reduces waste and costs little, but productive EFFICIENCY requires modern equipment. Machine age produces efficiency... Every modern means of handling quantities of merchandise economically is embodied in this store.

The profit from a single individual sale would not go very far in paying for the cost or even the upkeep of such a building—BUT—

Each item sold is analyzed and bought for the individual sale, even to the lowest-priced item in the store.

Each purchase may not mean much of an investment to the customer, but to us it may represent thousands of dollars in sales, and our prestige or goodwill may be jeopardized by just such a single item.

SERVING THE PUBLIC....

KRESS stores are built and will continue to be built by our customers — the public. There's no borrowed money used—no bonds—no mortgages—no stock sold for the purpose of expansion.

The company has been built up on the sound principle of serving well—volume produced by offering good values with limited profits and these limited profits put back in the business for further service, a very small percentage being paid the stockholder owners of the business.

This company has been successful and will continue so only so long as we serve the public well in all the details of service.

CONFIDENCE...

This building is only made possible by supreme CONFIDENCE...

CONFIDENCE that the merchandise offered for sale is right in value...

CONFIDENCE that our customers will continue to appreciate this fact...

CONFIDENCE that we have the ability to offer values in merchandise that will secure more friends and retain those of many years' standing.

CONFIDENCE that the merchandise we sell will average a saving or an improvement over that bought elsewhere.

CONFIDENCE in the community.

PLAIN FACTS...

It would be unwise to construct a building of such a character and—

1. Offer values inferior to those that could be bought elsewhere.
2. Price our merchandise higher than our competitors.
3. Sell merchandise that does not give satisfaction in every way.
4. Keep the customer's money for a single sale that does not satisfy her, and thus lose many future sales.
5. To give inferior or unsatisfactory service.

THE FOUNDATION

The foundations of every building built by this Company have to be solid, and every principle of our operation has to be on this same basis. Any weakness in any foundation weakens the entire structure. The foundation of our supplying satisfactory merchandise in every sale requires attention to every detail. In buying no detail can be too small, and in selling it is our purpose and intention to insure every satisfaction to the customer.

"WATCH KRESS WINDOWS"

SELLING PRICES....

It is realized that there are many items in our stores that can be purchased elsewhere at the same price at which we sell them—

BUT----

there are many more items in our stores that are developed by us and will stand the most careful competitive shopping and analyzing by the observant and economically inclined customer.

Our business is built on a definite, fixed selling price basis and our merchandise is built to meet that policy, therefore, the elimination of the "catch penny" prices such as 19c, 29c, 39c, etc.

PROFITS....

It is seldom that a merchant can sell all items at the same rate of profit. Some items naturally must show more or less profit than others due to greater transportation costs, losses in handling, higher selling costs, etc.—

—BUT—

It is thoroughly realized that our only hope to make a satisfactory ultimate profit is to sell merchandise that will insure our customers entire satisfaction, prevent disappointment when making comparisons with values offered elsewhere.

The profits on a single sale are exceedingly small (for our type of store must sell large quantities of many items with small profits to pay the fixed overhead cost of selling)—

—THEREFORE—

It would gain but little to sacrifice prestige by not giving everything possible to insure satisfaction to the customers in each individual item, as our small profit on a single item is very little compared with a dissatisfied customer who will not return to purchase their normal portion of every day needs.

For the protection of our customers we maintain throughout the year separate from our buying organization, a department for checking values offered in our stores in all sections of the country.

ITALIAN PACT RENOUNCED

ITALY DISSATISFIED BECAUSE OF LIGHT SOVIET TRADE

ROME, Jan. 19. (AP)—Dissatisfied because Italian purchases in Russia have been exceeding Russian purchases in Italy, the Italian government will renounce the 1924 commercial treaty with the Soviet within the next three weeks.

This treaty is the only document in which Italy formally recognizes the Soviet government, but diplomatic relations will continue as at present. The government has not divulged whether the document of denunciation will contain a provision to that effect or whether a new instrument will be issued for the purpose.

Fail To Agree

For two weeks a Soviet trade delegation has been conferring with Italian experts, but they failed to reach an agreement.

The balance of trade was two-to-one against Italy in 1931 and five-to-four Sept. 1, 1932. The Italians also were dissatisfied with an agreement by which Russia paid with credit for Italian goods and Italy paid with cash for its Soviet purchases.

The existing treaty expires Aug. Either government must give notice six months in advance before terminating it.

One of the requests made by the Soviet trade delegation was for a longer period of credit than the 52 months allowed. The Italians wanted shorter credit.

VANITIES TICKETS ARE GOING FAST

AMARILLO, Jan. 19. (Special)—With a ninth edition of Earl Carroll's Vanities billed for presentation Saturday afternoon and night at the Municipal auditorium here, orders for tickets are pouring in, promoters report. The Vanities will open the 1933 theatrical season in Amarillo.

With a company of 100 members traveling by a special train of ten cars, the Vanities is expected to be the most elaborate musical revue ever brought to Amarillo. It will be a guaranteed show, says Wilbur C. Hawk, who booked the Vanities for the benefit of the Tri-State Fair. The same stars that appeared in the show on Broadway last season will perform on the Auditorium stage, and the production will not be curtailed in any particular. There will be 55 separate scenes, with a force of 30 stage hands necessary to keep the scenery moving.

In his principal comedians Mr. Carroll has the material for royal good humor and he makes excellent use of Al Trahan, who has just returned to this country from a tour of the European capitals and his command performance for King George in London. He has also engaged Mitchell and Durant in various comedy sketches which give full scope to the hilarious and ridiculous antics of this pair of gorous acrobatic comedians. The featured dancer is Lucile Page, who is an outstanding sensation. The principal scenic features are "The Prehistoric Curtain" over three hundred feet in length and a magnificient staging of Ravel's Bolero. The song hits include "Have A Heart," and "It's Great to be in Love," which were popular on Broadway last season, and "My Darling," "Masquerade" and "I Guess I'll Have to Change My Plans," now current and popular in New York.

All kinds of dancing from the Negro buck and wing to the most exquisite modern ballet alternate with the fast and picturesque ensemble dances.

The entire production was staged by and is under the personal direction of Earl Carroll.

Lubbock Utilities Plant Sets Record

Lubbock is the largest of 83 cities in 16 states which depend solely on municipally operated utilities rights to pay operating expenses, according to the January number of Public Works, a magazine published in New York City, Fire Chief J. E. Twitty said. Lubbock's tax assessment, the fire chief pointed out, is used in paying interest on bonded indebtedness and for retiring bonds.

Lubbock is only Texas town in the classification, Public Works reported. Thirty-five Oklahoma towns are in the group.

No, indeed, they're not a couple of adagio dancers, and we're surprised that you didn't recognize the one and only Babe Ruth, New York Yankees' star slugger, right off the bat. The fence-buster believes that if one keeps fit during the closed season, spring training holds no terrors.

THE CAPITOL WHIRLIGIG

INTERESTING NEWS, COMMENT FROM AUSTIN

BY R. W. BARRY

AUSTIN, Jan. 19 (AP)—Some interesting statistics have been compiled by the Texas federation of anti-prohibition clubs for the information of Texas legislators, who soon will be called upon to declare themselves as to whether Texas' constitution should be amended to permit regulated sale of wines and beers.

It is set out that the prohibition referendum on July 23 last revealed 405,309 Texans in favor of submitting a proposition to repeal or modify the Eighteenth amendment and 177,618 opposed to that test, a majority of 227,691 for a vote on the issue.

Submission Favored

Information is submitted to show that 17 of the 18 congressional districts voted for submission; that 27 of the 31 senatorial districts favored it, three opposed it and one did not vote; that 133 representative districts favored it, seven opposed it and 30 did not vote, and that 185 counties favored it, 12 voted against it and 57 did not participate in the referendum.

The congressional district listed as voting against submission is the fourth, represented at Washington by Sam Rayburn of Bonham. The state senatorial districts voting against submission were the ninth, represented by Senator Cecil Murphy of Gainesville; the twelfth, represented by Senator Will H. Martin of Hillsboro, and the twenty-second represented by Senator Grad Woodruff of Decatur. A referendum vote was not held in the eleventh district, represented by Senator George Purl of Dallas.

State representative districts that voted against submission were the thirty-eighth, represented by C. C. Cannon of Honey Grove; forty-first, represented by E. B. Barrett of Leonard; forty-eighth, by W. C. Schults of Decatur; fifty-sixth, by Gaston Palmer of Normangee; ninety-eighth, by Vernon Lemens of Rainbow; ninety-ninth, by R. B. Anderson of Godley; and one hundred ad sixteeth, by R. M. Wagstaff of Abilene.

Commissions For Officials Signed On Black Friday

County Clerk Ed Allen yesterday afternoon delivered to all the elected officials a commission, signed by the governor and countersigned by Mrs. Jane Y. McCallum, secretary of state. All bore the same date.

Every official also paid one dollar for the commission. This is not to come out of their office fees or expenses, but by personal payment.

Governor Ross Shaw Sterling signed the commissions of Lubbock county's new officials Friday, January 13, thus providing them an alibi before they had so much as a finger or a toe in hot water.

GRAIN GIVEN ORPHANS

TAHOKA, Jan. 19. Heath was chairman of the committee making arrangements for the First church. Each church sent one carload. The Santa Fe railway agreed to haul the cars without charge.

SLIM COULD DO IT AGAIN IF PLEA GRANTED

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Jan. 19. (AP)—Texas Slim Robinson, Mobile county negro, can milk 16 cows in an hour and 12 minutes if Governor B. M. Miller and the state pardon board will commute his death sentence to life imprisonment and give him a little time to practice.

Slim and his slow drawl won the hearts of the governor and members of the pardon board as he told his side of the murder of another negro that will send him to the electric chair February 3 unless the governor intervenes.

And when he mentioned that he had been a milkman all his life, Gov. Miller's thoughts flashed back to his boyhood days on the farm.

"Can you milk with both hands, Slim?" the chief executive asked.

"Yes, suh," grinned Slim, "why, once I milked 16 cows in an hour and 12 minutes. I might can't do it again right now but I will as soon as I get a little practice."

And as Slim left the governor's office to return to Kilby prison, and await the board's decision Governor Miller smiled and murmured, "I'll bet he can do it, too."

Eva Tanguay—Now She Cares

Eva Tanguay, tousled-haired firebrand of the stage 25 years ago, who had the country echoing her song, "I Don't Care," is fighting her way back to health after a nervous collapse. Somewhat lame and able to see only with difficulty, she is shown right above, at Hot Springs, Ark., with her nurse on her first venture outdoors in weeks.

Paroles Given To Convicted Slayers

AUSTIN, Jan. 19. —(AP)—Thomas Hernandez and Raymond West, convicted in Laredo in connection with the slaying of Harry Williams, newspaper reporter, were given general paroles during the last few days of Governor R. S. Sterling's administration, records of the office revealed today.

Hernandez had been sentenced to fifteen years' imprisonment and West to 99 years. They had served about three years each.

Williams' body was recovered from the Rio Grande after he had been missing for several days.

How Doctors Treat Colds and Coughs

To break up a cold overnight and relieve the congestion that makes you cough, thousands of physicians are now recommending Calotabs, the nauseless calomel compound tablets that give you the effects of calomel and salts without the unpleasant effects of either.

One or two Calotabs at bedtime with a glass of sweet milk or water. Next morning your cold has vanished, your system is thoroughly purified and you are feeling fine with a hearty appetite for breakfast. Eat what you wish,—no danger.

PAIN DEADENED CHEST COLDS LOOSENED WITHOUT DRUGS

Get quick relief from neuralgia pain, sciatica pain, neuritis pain, rheumatic pain, lame back, stiff neck, headache, strains and chest colds by rubbing plenty of Baume Bengué (pronounced Ben-Gay) on the spot. It doesn't blister or stain. Rub it in till it sinks down and soothes the pain or breaks up the chest cold. Take no drugs, for any drug that is powerful enough to "deaden" pain or loosen a chest cold may not be good for you.

But beware of imitations. Ask your druggist for Baume Bengué by name (called "Ben-Gay" in English). There are many analgesic baumes, mostly cheap imitations of Ben-Gay made out of synthetic drugs. That is why they are cheap. That is also why they are ineffective. Insist on Ben-Gay and you will get real results.

THOUSANDS OF NEEDY PERSONS SHARE FRUITS OF CALIFORNIA BARTER PLAN

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 19. (AP)—A hungry private in the army of unemployed found a way to keep on eating last March, and 160,000 needy persons in Los Angeles county today are sharing the fruits of his idea.

This jobless man—his name long since forgotten—found his family and himself facing want. The hunt for a wage-paying job seemed futile. So he went direct to the source of food supply.

Paid With Food

He went to a farmer and offered to work without a money wage. He would take his pay in vegetables. At the end of his first day's work he took home a sack of foodstuffs so large that he shared his surplus with a needy neighbor.

Unwittingly he had pioneered in the development of a barter system for Los Angeles county. Today the county has 83 organized cooperative units, listing the names of 40,000 heads of families.

In similar fashion other barter exchanges have sprung up throughout the west, as in other sections of the country. Utah has an independent organization in which 10,000 persons participate, with branches in Idaho, Arizona and California. A similar organization has become a factor in northern California, with a branch or two in the Pacific Northwest and several units in southern California. Other organizations using the barter principle in some degree dot the coast and mountain states.

Largest In West

The barter exchange system of Los Angeles county, with its 83 units, is the largest in the west. Its units conduct a constant search for work which their members can do in exchange for clothing or foodstuffs.

Packing houses, farms, bakeries, and the fishing waterfront are the principal sources of employment.

OIL PROBE

Tyler," Thompson continued, "I personally asked that any person present who knew of any dereliction of duty, negligence or blindness on the part of our employes should speak up and inform the commission about it. I told the large crowd there in the court house that we welcomed and invited full and complete information about our employes and urged each one present to report to us any conduct that was not in keeping with their duty to the state. No one offered any information whatsoever.

Rumors Are Cited

"There are still some rumors, whispers, rumblings, and gossip in the field to the effect that some of our employes are not doing their duty and I again appeal to every one in this room and every one in the state of Texas who knows anything about this matter to make this information available to the commission, coming to the stand if you will, but if there should be any hesitancy on the part of any one to publicly take the stand, then, in order to make it easy for such reports to come to the commission we appeal to you to write it out in longhand, on the typewriter, or any way so we can have the information. You need not even sign the latter if the information be such that we can check up and find out for certain with the lead given us.

Hits At Gossip

"It is the firm determination of the railroad commission to stamp out this sort of gossip, if such it be, and if these rumors are true then we are determined to find the real information, which we appeal to you to help us do.

"The commission is anxious to reach all wrong doers, if there be those in our employ, but on the other hand, we do not feel it is fair that good men be placed under this stigma any longer."

Heavy State Tax Is Urged In Oklahoma

OKLAHOMA CITY, Jan. 19 (AP)—Sponsored by Governor Murray, a bill levying a heavy tax on cigars, cigarettes, cosmetics, bottled and certain soda fountain drinks and malt, was introduced in the Oklahoma house yesterday by Dr. J. T. Gray, Payne county.

Dr. Gray said the measure, if made law, would raise between $3,000,000 and $5,000,000 a year.

Stamps would be sold to dealers by the tax commission and placed on retail articles.

A tax of 4 1-2 cents a package would be placed on cigarettes; 20 per cent of the retail value on cigars; 10 per cent on cosmetics; 20 per cent on all bottled drinks and 50 per cent on syrups and soda fountain drinks in which syrups are used.

Medical examiners of the commerce department's aeronautics branch had conducted 164,967 physical examinations of fliers and prospective airmen up to September 1, 1932.

Stalin Blamed For Suicide Of Woman

BERLIN, Jan. 19 (AP)—Leon Trotzky, exiled Russian leader, considers the suicide Jan. 10, of his daughter, Mme. Zinaida Wolkow, to be the result of a "senseless act of revenge" on the part of Joseph V. Stalin.

By depriving the entire Trotzky family of Russian citizenship, Trotzky says in a letter sent to the central committee of the communist party from his place of exile on the Turkish island of Prinkipo, Stalin shattered the health of the daughter, for he made it impossible for her to join her husband.

Two Days Only---Friday and Saturday

THE REASON: In order to make room for new Spring merchandise, it is necessary to clear our store of the present stock. We do not, as a matter of policy, carry merchandise from one season to the next. Therefore, on Friday and Saturday we will offer our stock conveniently arranged at one-half of the regular retail price.
