MAJOR PROMOTED

Charles R. Garrett Is Now Lt. Colonel

Promotion of Major Charles R. Garrett to Lt. Colonel was made at Bergstrom Air Force Base in Austin, recently.

Lt. Col. Garrett, youngest son of Mrs. W. H. Garrett, 132 West 9th St., is a civil engineer at Bergstrom, where he has been stationed since March. He returned from duty in Korea after 13 months overseas, earlier this year.

He is the brother of Miss Nellie Garrett and J. C. Garrett, both of Colorado City. In 1934, he completed high school at Colorado High.

Lt. Colonel Garrett first entered training as an Air Force aviation cadet early in 1942, and holds the Distinguished Flying Cross and Air Medal with two oak leaf clusters and three battle stars for his part in World War II. He was a pilot who took part in the Burma, China operation.

Later he served with military air transport, then transferred to Randolph Field, where he was transferred to engineering in 1950. He was sent to England in 1952. In 1953, he became an engineer attached to the Atomic Commission.

In Korea he was awarded the Air Force Commendation for engineering feats performed while attached to Edwards Air Force Base, Roswell, N. M.

Masons Plan Workshop to Be in C-City

Colorado City Masons, along with Masonic Lodges in Snyder, Ira, Dunn, Hermleigh, Lorraine, Roscoe, have a workshop to be held at masonic lodge, Colorado City, at 7:30 p.m. Friday, September 12.

Workshop, a semi-annual affair, will be conducted by L. T. Harris, a rancher from Clyde who is chairman of the Masonic Workshop covering eight nearby counties.

The workshop, held to enable Masons to study common problems of Masonic Lodges and their operations is part of a statewide program held for the quarter-million members of nearly 1,000 Texas Masonic Lodges. It has been authorized by John R. Collard, Jr., of Spearman, Grand Master of Masons in Texas.

Collard urged that all officers and members of the invited Lodges attend. He said that all other Masons are also welcome to attend the Sept. 12 workshop to be held in Colorado City.

Charles Snider is workshop Master of the host Lodge here.

Bill Brown Takes TESCO District Job

Bill Brown of Snyder was named district manager of the Sweetwater district by Texas Electric Service Co. Thursday.

Brown succeeds L. L. Ziegler, of Sweetwater whose death occurred Monday.

The Sweetwater TESCO district is made up of Colorado City, Snyder and Sweetwater.

Brown, the new district manager, has been Texas Electric Service Co. manager in Snyder. He is a Snyder native and has worked for the company since 1947.

W. Webb Slightly Improved

Colorado City relatives of Wayland Webb reported his condition to be slightly improved.

Webb, manager of Guitar Gin here, fell from a ladder August 3 while on a construction job at the local oil mill and has been unconscious since. He underwent brain surgery to relieve a severe compression in Methodist Hospital at Lubbock.

He has now been moved from the hospital's intensive care ward to a private room, his wife's sister said early Saturday, but has not regained consciousness since the accident.

Rev. John Kahl To Preach Sunday

Rev. John Kahl, evangelist Methodist Church youth director this summer, will preach at the morning worship hour at the church Sunday.

Kahl and his wife will leave Colorado City Monday for Dallas where he will enroll for his second year as a Perkins School of Theology student, Southern Methodist University. Mrs. Kahl will teach school in Garland.

Olson Sweat On Board For TCTA

Olson A. Sweet was named to the Texas Classroom Teachers Association, statewide organization.

Sweet, sixth grade teacher here, is former president of the local Classroom Teachers Association and has had 20 years' school teaching experience. He is a member of the teaching staff at Highland School.

He will serve as one of the two representatives to the board for District 4 and succeeds Jack Fuceman, Snyder teacher who became a principal and resigned his directorship. See SWEAT, page 3.

Chartered Bus Has To Have More To Go

Headline in the Colorado City Record, "Chartered Bus Has To Have More To Go," was the first headline in the paper's history.

At least 12 more headlines will have to be made if the bus is to make the trip, Texas said Saturday.

* Rain Totals Vary In Town and County

Friday afternoon rains varied widely in sections of the county with China Grove boasting 1.5 inch, while Colorado City received an official .15 at the weather station.

Hollis Mize, China Grove, reported the 1.5 inch. The rain skipped some sections of the county altogether and dropped just .10 inch on the Romaine Hammond farm at Buford.

Sam Thompson, Plainview community, measured 1.2 inch at his stock farm. Swan Taylor, eight 2, received 8 inch.

The sun was shining brightly during the first part of the showers here in town. A brief electrical display followed as heavy clouds closed in.

Mitchell Chapter Elects

Bob Reily, local insurance man who is active in civic affairs, was elected president of the Mitchell County chapter of the American Cancer Society in the annual election meeting of the chapter.

Meeting was held Thursday evening in the conference room at City National Bank. Reily succeeds Martin Weaver, president of the chapter during the past year.

Mrs. Alfred Hackfield of Lorraine and Mrs. Hoyt Roberts of Westbrook were named vice-presidents.

Elected secretary of the organization was Mrs. Mary Post, Mitchell County treasurer. Mrs. Edwin Carlock was chosen new treasurer for the chapter, to succeed Mrs. Jesse L. Jones, treasurer of the organization of several years.

Members of the Mitchell County chapter elected the new president, Reily, as delegate to the Cancer Society State Convention to be held in San Antonio, Nov. 18 and 19.

Delegates to the District Convention in Stanton, Sept. 24, will be Reily, Weaver, Mrs. Roberts, Mrs. J. P. Nunn and Mrs. Hackfield. Alternates named were Mrs. Bob Looney, Mrs. Post, Mrs. A. G. Anderson, Mrs. Wm Hines and Trevlyn Kelly.

Directors for a two-year term, 1964-66, were also elected at the annual election session. Directors chosen were Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Carlock, Trevlyn Kelley, Mrs. George M. Mone, Reily, Mrs. Post, Mrs. H. H. Simons, Mrs. Roberts, Mrs. Anderson, Mrs. T. P. Fowler, Manuel Rivera, Alfred Bell, Mrs. Nunn, Mrs. Hackfield, Mrs. Glen Coon and Mrs. Doyle Hester.

Date for the next meeting of the chapter was set by the president for Thursday, Sept. 17.

Bowlers Invited To Monday Meet

All men interested in bowling in the Classic League, at 3:30 each Monday night, are invited to a meeting Monday night, Aug. 31, at the Villa Bowl.

Teams in the Classic League expect to be ready to start bowling Monday, Sept. 14. Men interested are urged to attend the meeting for organization tomorrow night.

Colorado Coaching Staff for Season

Wolf Football Squad Shaping Up

These four Wolves are among the 65 players working out twice each day as football season comes closer. Left to right they are Sammy Moser, guard, John Hines, tackle, Kicky Houston, left end, and David Wain, fullback. First game of the 24 season will be Friday night when Colorado High meets Phillips High School in a game to be played at Phillips. First home game will be played here Sept. 11 against Ector High from Odessa. First conference game on the District 2-AA calendar for the Wolves on Oct. 2 in Haskell.

BOB CROSBY AWARD

Linda Rogers Wins Top Rodeo Honor

Fourteen-year old Linda Rogers is the new recipient of the Bob Crosby Award and the title that accompanies it, World's Typical Junior Cowgirl.

The daughter of Mrs. Corley Rogers and the late Mr. Rogers, Linda was presented the coveted award at the conclusion of the American Junior Rodeo Association finals in Odessa last Saturday.

It enables Linda to soon become the owner of a $250 saddle, specially made entirely to her specifications.

On the same day, her 16-year old sister, Maxine, won the title of Reserve World Champion (among girls from 16 to 19) in optional roping, a rodeo category that includes rib and breakaway roping. Her win added another silver and gold belt buckle to the girl's already bulging collection.

The Bob Crosby Award which Linda won is unusual among rodeo laurels in that its main qualification is not rodeo ability, but moral character. The winner does not apply or compete for the award, but is selected by an anonymous committee which fully "screens" each young person under consideration.

One boy and one girl are chosen by the Crosby committee from the American Jr. Rodeo Association each year. Linda's male counterpart is

A Girl's Best Friend

Maxine Rogers, left, and her sister Linda, right, know the value of a good horse like Linda's Sugar. Both girls are expert horse women and old hands at rodeo competition. Last week, they won top honors at the Odessa finals of the American Junior Rodeo Association.

Roy Burk of Waggoner, Okla., whom rodeo fans will recognize as the son of Dee Burk, famous calf-roper.

Rodeo success is nothing new to the Rogers girls. Their father started them riding at a tender age — when Maxine was six and Linda eight. Their skill has continued to develop, as evidenced by an abundance of trophies, medals, buckles and saddles which represent their rodeo winnings.

They have not only proved their horsemanship in local and area rodeos, but in the big A.J.R.A. competitions as well, where world titles are conferred.

When Maxine was 10, she was named All-Around World's Champion Cowgirl in the sub-teen division. Linda won a world title when she became Reserve World's Champion in optional racing in her age division. The girls have been members of AJRA since 1956. Membership in the association includes not only the United States, but also Canada and Mexico, so competition in its rodeos comes from a very wide area.

Youth Rally Next Week

Mitchell-Scurry Association of Baptist Churches will conduct a youth rally on Saturday, Sept. 5, at Oak Street Baptist Church.

The rally will start at 7:30 p.m. and be followed by a fellowship period. Entertainment will be furnished by a group from a nearby college. Rev. Alex Campbell, pastor of the Dunn Baptist Church and Association Youth Director, urges interested young people to attend.

Attend TWU Program

Mrs. and Mrs. Ford, Merritt, were among the guests at commencement exercises at Texas Women's University in Denton, Thursday night.

Daughter of City Manager and Mrs. Merritt, Miss Mary Ann Merritt, was among the graduates of TWU to receive a degree.

Fisherman's Hint: Try Soap for Bait

There's an old fisherman's phrase somewhere that says soap is good for catching catfish.

Well, it's true.

Young Ricky Caudill of 1300 Sycamore St. in the Spring hunted in Lake Colorado City this week on a trotline at Lake Colorado City. He had a bar of F&B soap.

Mrs. Mattie Lee Pickett, owner of Mattie's Cafeteria on the west side of the lake, reported Ricky's catch to the Record and said it really did happen on the lake shore north of her home.

Mrs. Pickett also reported that the carp fishing is good and some bass are being caught. Fishermen are having excellent luck with chum cut and blue cat.

She didn't mention what kind of bait she was using.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Cunningham of Winter, weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Troy Lundquist.

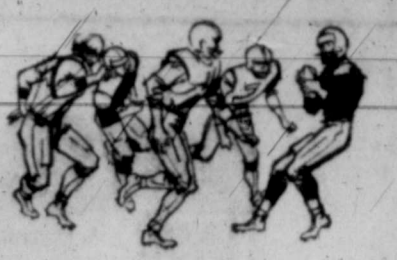

Mr. and Mrs. E. Mader of Logan, Oklahoma, were weekend guests of their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Royce Moore.

You Can Earn More $$'s From Your Cotton!

GINNING IS ONLY THE BEGINNING...

WRAPPING:

is an integral part of your Cotton Dollar . . . using the highest grade wrap for the money insures protection for your cotton thereby guaranteeing highest price to be bale.

TRANSPORTATION:

By using to the fullest, all facilities available, from Producers Co-op Gin to Rolling Plains Co-op Compress to the Buyer enables us to save each cotton producer on the cost . . .

STORING:

Compress Facilities at Rolling Plains Co-op Compress are the most modern and efficient in the Southwest . . . Your cotton is handled and weighed by your own employees . . . and real cotton merchants will pay more for it than for cotton on yards or in scattered compresses.

COMPRESSING:

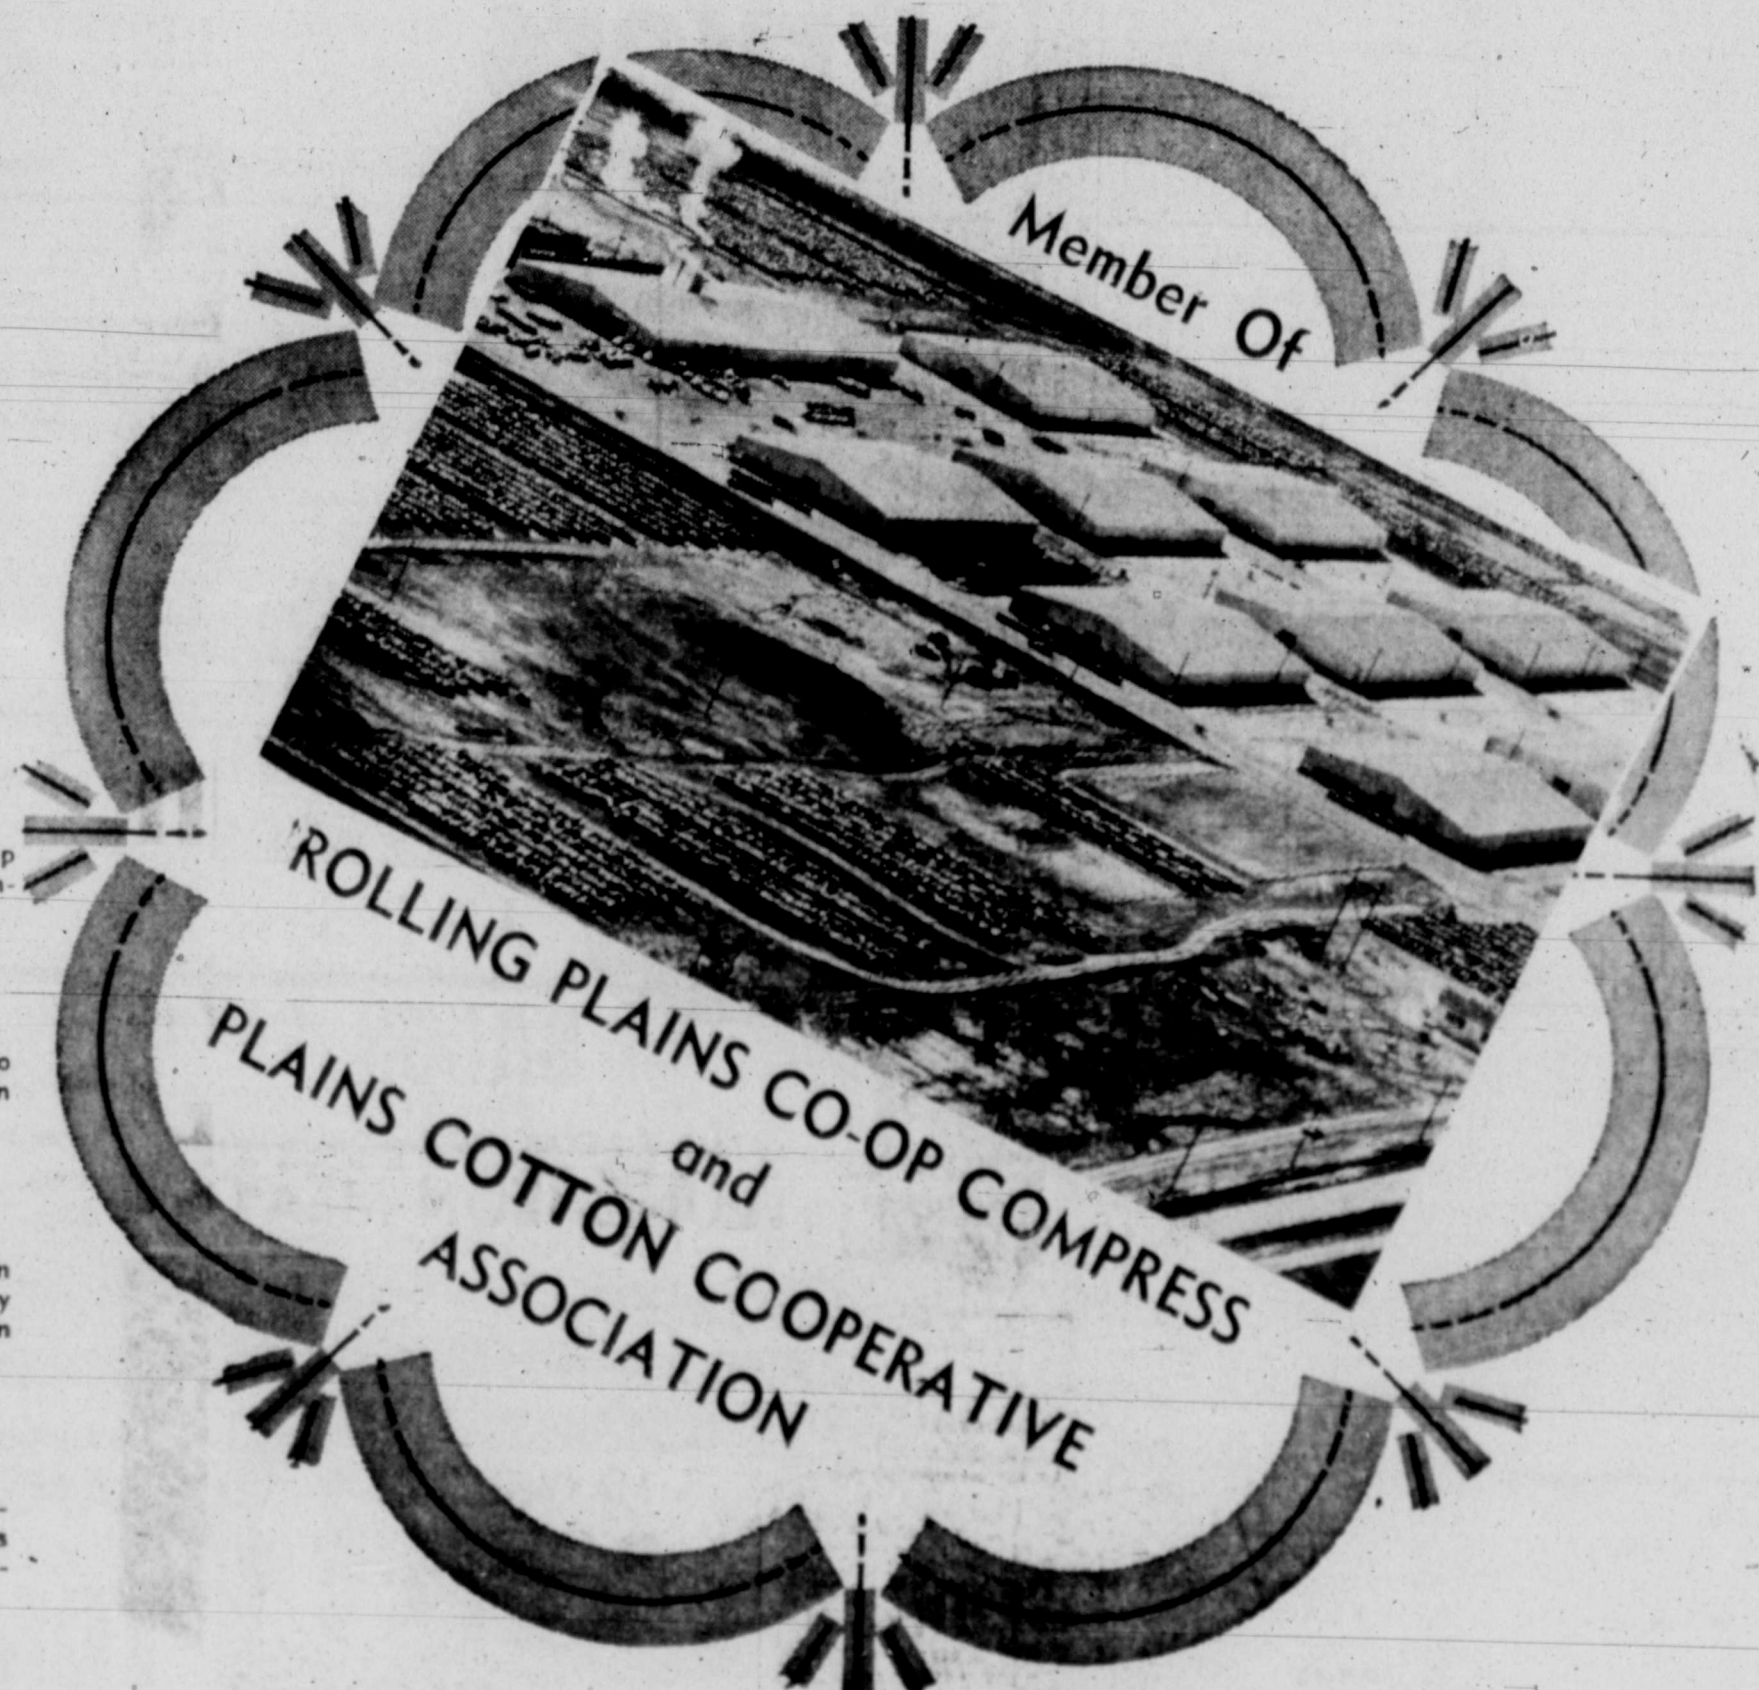

By using the most modern and efficient plant and equipment and skilled employees, you can be sure of fast economical handling . . . your employees handle all the cotton, from weighing, sampling, storing, compressing, merchandising, selling, shipping . . . and save you money at each step . . .

MARKETING:

The Plains Cotton Cooperative Association is now a world-wide marketing association available to the world cotton market shipping your cotton direct through your piers at the PORT OF HOUSTON . . .

ADMINISTRATIVE:

The Board of Directors of the PRODUCERS CO-OP GIN, ROLLING PLAINS CO-OP COMPRESS, PLAIN COTTON COOPERATIVE ASSOCIATION, is made up of Farmers who are interested in the increased prosperity of the cotton farmer. These men keep a vigil on the cotton market from the time you plan your crop until it is delivered to the buyer and make every effort to save YOU money on every operation. . .

Between the 1942-3 and 1963-4 Cotton Seasons, The Producers Co-op Gin of Colorado City has paid to its members a total of $201,773.15! This money represents 60% of the net profits from operation for the period. In addition to the cash dividends paid to you, the Co-op Gin has increased its assets by 300%! There is a definite savings direct to YOU when you GIN, STORE, and SELL through YOUR PRODUCERS CO-OP GIN! As an added convenience, all cotton seed from your Producer's Co-op Gin is shipped to the PLAINS CO-OP OIL MILL, HAMLIN DIVISION. The CO-OP OIL MILL furnishes the livestock raiser with cake, meal and hulls for hi-protein feed!

THESE ARE JUST A FEW OF THE MANY WAYS YOU SAVE WHEN YOU GIN THROUGH PRODUCER'S CO-OP GIN.

The Best In Service and Equipment

We are proud to announce the completion of the installation of our new HARDWICK-ETTER Regal Gin. The Regal, joining the three smaller H-E 100 saw model gins give Producer's Co-op Gin an output of ten bales-per-hour. The individual cleaners behind each gin stand insure the cleanest cotton possible guaranteeing the highest market price for your cotton.

Orinea Fay Feaster Weds Don Ellis Petty

Double ring vows solemnized the marriage Saturday night Orinea Fay Feaster and Don Ellis Petty.

Mr. and Mrs. Orin Feaster, 1030 E. 10th, are the parents of the bride and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Petty, 1442 Dallas.

Rev. Fred Brewton performed the ceremony in the sanctuary of the First Presbyterian Church, before an altar banked with ferns and Potted plants. In which candelabra and arrangements of white stock were set.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length, ivory brocade satin gown, which she designed and fashioned herself. It featured a rounded neckline, belled sleeves, and a slightly belled skirt extending into a modified train.

Her veil of ivory tulle was gathered to a cluster of ivory nylon tulle leaves and seed pearls by a white velvet bow. Ivory tulle mitts covered her arms to the sleeves. She carried a bouquet of gardenias atop her Rainbow Bible, which was covered with the satin gown fabric.

Organ selections were played by Mrs. Glenn R. Robinson. Mrs. Harold Loveday, the bride's cousin, sang "A Wedding Prayer" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Myrna Rea Feaster served as her sister's maid of honor. She wore street-length dress of peach cotton satin, similar in design to the bride's. It featured a short jacket, belled sleeves and street-length skirt. Her short peach tulle veil was held by a gardenia cluster headpiece and she carried a bouquet of gardenias.

Bridesmaid Marilyn Doelp of Big Spring and Shannan Petty, sister of the groom, were attended identically to the maid of honor.

Candlelighters were Steve Shawn and Nancy Burns of Odessa. Cheryl Ann Miller served the wedding party as flower girl.

Conard Dean Miller of Big Spring served his nephew as best man. He was assisted by roomsmen Phillip Fries and Phillip Dye, the groom's cousin from Breckenridge.

Ushers were Royce Feaster, brother of the bride, and John Miller.

A reception honored the wedding party in Fellowship Hall of the church. Joining the bridal couple and their parents in the receiving line were Mrs. Cecil Miller, grandmother of the groom; Mrs. H.D. Wolfe, grandmother of the bride; and Misses Feaster, Petty, and Doelp.

The registration table was covered in white linen and decorated with beehibbened rice bags in a crystal holder. Bride's table, appointed in silver and crystal, featured a traditional 3-tiered cake. A banana nut cake, white candelabra, and arrangement of gardenias were focal points of the groom's table.

Member of the houseparty were Misses: Marilyn Russell, Marilyn Godwin, Jeanie Polk, La.

Gundrum, Carolyn Cooper, Misses: Royce Feaster, Eddie Schoolcraft, Billy Sifson and Bobby Nobles.

For a honeymoon trip to Colorado, the bride wore a maroon and black checked suit, deep-crowned maroon cloche and black accessories.

Mr. and Mrs. Petty are both graduates of Colorado High School and students at Texas Tech, where he is a senior and she is a junior. The bride is majoring in home economics education and is a member of Alpha Lambda Delta, freshmen women's honorary, and Knapp Hall Advisory Council. She is publicity chairman of the Tech chapter of American Home Economics Association and past upper-classman legislator in Knapp Hall.

Her husband has a range management major, was president of Carpenter Hall and is a member of Saddle Tramps, men's spirit organization.

This fall the couple will reside at Lubbock Mobil Lodge.

Pvt. Beaty Assigned to Germany

Army Pvt. Maylon G. Beaty, Laraine, has been assigned to the 24th Infantry Division near Augsburg, Germany.

He is a radio operator in the division's Administration's Company. Before arriving overseas, he completed basic training at Fort Polk, La., and was stationed at Fort Gordon, Ga.

Beaty, 22, graduated in 1960 from Laraine High School and attended McMurry College in Abilene and Howard County Junior College in Big Spring.

Prior to entering the Army in January, 1964, he was employed by the Commercial Bank and Trust Company in Midland.

Flores With 1st Division At Ft. Hood

Army Pvt. Raymond Flores, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Flores, was assigned last Thursday to the 1st Armored Division at Fort Hood, Texas.

Flores, a rifleman in Company C, 1st Battalion of the division's 6th Infantry, entered the Army in March and completed basic training at Fort Polk, La.

Truman Nix Guest Speaker At W'brook

Coach Truman of Colorado City was guest speaker when the Baptist Brotherhood met at the Don Henderson home Thursday evening.

Coach Nix spoke on "What Is Life Without a Purpose?" During a business meeting Charles Ranne was elected president for the new year.

Norman McMahon is outgoing president. Serving with Ranne will be Jimmie Henderson, vice-president and Coach Sam Scroggins, secretary-treasurer.

In addition to Nix, Coach Caddo Matthews of Colorado City was guest. A barbecue supper was served to 24 members and guests.

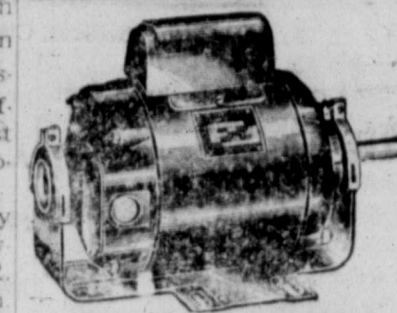

Mrs. Price Hendrix was in charge of the program when the Woman's Society of Christian Service met Monday afternoon at the Methodist Church. Topic for the program was "Christian Home".

Present were Misses: Leroy Gressett, Hendrix, C.W. Newton, John W. Hawkins, L.R. Messimer and C.T. Jackson.

Mrs. Frank Oglesby will have charge of next Monday's program taken from "Methodist Woman".

Mrs. Pete Ellis, a former resident now living in Andrews, visited Mrs. Frank Oglesby Monday.

Carolyn Bryant accompanied by Bickoria to Carlsbad. New Mr. and Mrs. Jessie Campbell Mexico where they visited the and Timmy and Janie Smith Caverns last Friday.

CONVERSATION CORNER

ONE of the things that makes this jolly little globe keep going 'round is the wide difference in likes and dislikes among us.

In the first place, the various preferences of people make for a better distribution of jobs.

If all girls and women wanted to teach school and all men had to work in the bank to be happy, just who would work in stores or fix your carburetor?

Happiest people are those who like to do whatever it is they do to make a living. Half of the end-of-day fatigue is due to boredom — not overwork, say medical men who ought to know.

BOREDOM is really the number one killer of the human spirit.

Every try making a list of things that bore you to the desperation point? If that list is too long you're the "I bore easily" type and may need new glasses or arch supports.

But everybody is entitled to a reasonably short list. Such a list is nice to go by when you need to come up smiling.

ALL a life long our own list of boring situations would be including, first of all, shelling peas. It's a matter of diminishing returns. You can take a tub full of peas in shell, spoil a good day, just to wind up with what used to be called a "mess of peas."

Next would come ironing. Every single time we've ever attacked a real ironing have wound up afflicted with self-pity because ironing leaves time for remembering every mean thing anybody ever did from the day you were three. Pressing is flat depressing.

ALSO on the list (which seems to be coming along nicely) would have to be replacing snaps that come loose on clothing. Late night movies which cut in now and then on the TV commercials.

Then, there is the matter of any and all bridge games... puzzles of any kind, size or complexion... dresses you can't get into or out of unless your husband's home to manipulate that zipper in the back... recipes that call for strange-sounding spices... and sitting under a hair dryer.

Most things that irk are small, tiresome chores. And then there are the people bors.

PEOPLE? People, too. How about people who're always talking away when you've something very clever to say? People who recite their own silly ailments when you're just dying to talk about your fascinating operation?

How about people who snap at you when you jump out of bed to answer the wrong number they have dialed at 7 a.m. or 11 p.m.?

To tell the truth, there's not anybody anywhere, who doesn't bore somebody, sometime or other! Even the pleasantest company can be a bore if your feet hurt and you'd rather be home with a good book.

PRIZE bore in all the land, so far as we're concerned, is any person — man or woman — who starts sentences with "I don't believe a word of this but you know I heard..."

Ever notice how most of the tall tales get spread by those non-believers?

Second prize, for the runner-up, goes to people who bother to listen to the non-believers.

Third prize is a tie. It should be equally divided between the "dirty cracklers" who cover rudeness with that this-is-a-joke approach... and all the plain dirty jokers.

SEEN LATELYS, to return to pleasant people, was our Walter Grubbs, formerly of Washington D. C. and now of Abilene... Ethel Dawson and her sister Thelma Fahrkamp (Mrs. Emil) of Ft. Worth, Thelma was saying she and her husband plan a trip to Europe, soon.

Saw the postmaster, Arlene Morris, on a little office visit... The nice Wilson Hrbaceks... Frances Kiker (Mrs. Doyle).

BEST sidelight to come out of the Wolf Band salesmen for Record subscriptions was told by John Harper.

Harper was in John Drummond's appliance store trying to sell some radio advertisement. In came a pretty little lass selling Record subscriptions. She gave John Drummond such a pep talk he subscribed to the paper then and there.

Thing that tickled Harper so much was that the girl was Susan Kirschbaum, granddaughter of Drummond's ace competitors Ida and Maurice Kirschbaum... and that she made her sale of the Record right in front of the paper's ad competitor, the local radio station man!

"That," he said, "was real salesmanship!"

GWEN WISTRAND was telling about a thrill she encountered while watching the panel show called Pass Word. Marty Hooper, former 7th grade teacher of English at Junior High, in '60 and '61, was one of the contestants on the show, a recent Thursday night.

Hooper now lives in New York City where he is director of music for Manhattan Church of Christ. He first came here as song leader and youth director for 5th & Elm St. Church of Christ, now 22nd & Austin St., and stayed to teach school a year, by the way.

NOT SINCE 1960 has there been such excitement rampant in the house on Chestnut St. as there was Thursday night during the last session of the National Democratic Convention!

"A Thousand Days" was for weeping. Especially, oh most especially, when Caroline and John Jr. were shown kissing the tall young man who was their father, President John F. Kennedy. It still seems incredible that such a magnificent man should be lost to this Nation, and to his loving family, because of an assassin's bullet.

His death was a tragedy, both private and public, for which there are no words quite sad enough to speak our grief.

HAVE SEEN, in our time, sad faces. It has been our lot to visit bereaved parents stunned by cablegrams during World War II. There was a day when we had to watch a mother see her six-year-old son pulled from Lone Wolf Creek — too late. And there was our own Mother's face when her only son, Charles Clark Jr., was killed in a senseless car crash.

But in all the world there never was a face more sad than that of Robert Kennedy, Thursday night, after he watched "A Thousand Days."

ADLAI STEVENSON'S tribute to Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt could never be matched by any orator of this generation. Didn't you love Eric Severeld's comment? You know, when he said "America does not elect a poet as President?" Stevenson's symphony of phrases is what people mean when they refer to "poetic prose."

Hubert Humphrey, next vice-president of these United States, is in the magnificent class, himself. He sounded both witty and wise. A rare combination.

Then there was Lyndon B. Johnson... Texas stamped all over his rugged features... kindness, intelligence, integrity, greatness.

We love you, Mr. President!

EVEN SO, biggest thrill of the whole televised program came when the cameras picked up — and clung to — the face of one Charles C. Thompson of Colorado City, Texas!

It made you aware of the thing that makes America truly great. There sat our banker-lawyer-rancher waving his flag one night, looking solemn the next.

Voices like his and all the other voices from the people who make up what newsmen call "the grass-roots" will re-elect LBJ!
