CHARGE GIRL OF CAR THEFT

Mary Cuban, Accomplice Of Jack Sullivan, Outlaw, Placed In Tahoka Jail

Miss Mary Cuban, companion of the notorious outlaw, Jack Sullivan, is in jail here under an indictment charging her as one of the principals in the theft of the W. O. Henderson car. Pete Vail is now serving a two-year term in the penitentiary for the same offense, having pleaded guilty to the charge at the last term of the district court here.

Miss Cuban was brought to Tahoka and lodged in jail Wednesday evening by Sheriff B. L. Parker, the accused having been arrested at Vernon Tuesday, just after she had visited a hospital there in company with Sullivan. Sullivan is also under indictment here for theft of oil and tires from the Burleson Grain Company. More serious charges are pending against him in other places, however. He is under indictment for the robbery of the Olton Bank last summer and was wounded later in a shooting match with officers at Moutainair, New Mexico. He was captured and placed in the Lubbock jail but escaped a little more than a month ago. An injury to the wounded arm made it necessary for him to visit a hospital and it was while he was leaving the hospital in Vernon Tuesday that he and Miss Cuban were surrounded by officers and captured. Each had a pistol on the person at the time, Mr. Parker says, but had little opportunity to use them.

Mr. Parker was accompanied to Vernon Tuesday night by deputy sheriff Bob Miller of Lamb county and they brought Sullivan to Plainview, where he was incarcerated in jail. His case is set for trial in Olton today for the robbery of the bank there.

Miss Cuban will probably be tried here on the car theft case at the next term of district court.

Mrs. Terry Raises Living At Home

Mrs. E. B. Terry, who resides in the New Lynn community, has furnished the News with a report of her canning operations during the past year, which reveals a wonderful record. We pass it on to our readers. The report follows.

As a 4-H demonstrator, from my garden I have canned 1985 No. 2 cans and have helped 18 others to can. I have in my cellar now 56 different kinds of things to eat.

I don't know hardly how I managed to get this all up, for I had no help—only I gave one lady two bushels of corn to help me two days. My pantry cost me, you might say, nothing, for I picked up scrap lumber around the place and picked up the nails also and used lime to whitewash with. It cost me $14.25 for cans, lids, sugar and salt and to buy my fruit. As I traded pigs and things from my place to get those things with, I valued what I sold at $14.25. I would not take $500 for my pantry and do without it, for there is where my family will live this year. I have $3.50 of empty cans on hand now to fill with meats, and have seven hogs to kill, 100 hens and five milk cows, for this winter, and plenty of corn for bread. By all this, we intend to live at home. I have 500 pounds of dried beans and peas for winter use and I have my 1933 garden seed stored away for spring planting—29 kinds, I think.

If each farmer would try to plant more to eat and feed his stock on and leave off so much cotton, they would see better times. We for one will try this plan and see how we will come out. Our cows and hens must feed us this winter and spring and keep the children in school too.

I will say this: I think each and every woman should belong to the 4-H club, for we all pay taxes, and why not try to get all the good we can, when it's here for us? I have been a member now five years and have missed only one meeting. I don't drive a car but I manage to get to all the meetings. I love my club work and I try to keep up with what they do. I think we club women should do more to get the girls to get in the work while they are young and learn all those things while they are at home with mother.

Forrest Closes Lumber Yard

The Forrest Lumber Company is discontinuing its yard here and its stock of lumber is being taken over by the Higginbotham-Bartlett Company and the Cicero Smith Lumber Company.

This still leaves three lumber yards in Tahoka, however, the two above mentioned and the J. C. Woolbridge Lumber Company.

The Forrest Lumber Company was the last one to establish a yard here, opening up some six or seven years ago. During prosperous and normal times it enjoyed a good business.

G. A. Brasfield, the local manager, will remain in Tahoka. We understand, but beyond that we have no information as to his plans.

Former Tahoka Lady Is Dead

Mrs. J. L. Stinson of Lubbock, daughter of Mrs. M. I. Ray of this city, died in a Lubbock hospital Friday night of pneumonia which developed from an attack of influenza. Funeral services were conducted from the First Methodist Church of Lubbock at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Stinson's mother and also Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ray of this city were attending her at the time of her death.

Attending the funeral from Tahoka were Mr. and Mrs. Shorty Brown, the latter being Mrs. Ray's granddaughter and a niece of deceased, and Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Thomas. Mrs. Stinson resided at Tahoka prior to her marriage and had many friends here among the pioneers of this section, who greatly deplore her untimely death.

Cemetery Is In Excellent Shape

Uncle Will Brown, sexton at the cemetery, requests that all persons visiting the cemetery be careful to close the gates when they leave. He says that a few times recently the gates have been left open, and on one occasion some time ago a horse got into the cemetery and did some damage.

Mr. Brown has been keeping the cemetery in most excellent condition on very small pay and his services should be appreciated by everybody. He expects to be away for a month or more now and hopes to find the cemetery in good condition upon his return.

Red Cross Lacks Fifty Of Quota

We need 50 more members to get our quota, so can you not help Mr. Lockwood to put Lynn county over the top?

The following members from the Dixie community joined: A. F. Pitts, Jackson West, Boyd Rice, M. M. Shearer, R. D. Spruiell, A. L. White, J. O. King, Mrs. J. O. King, E. R. Tunnell, J. W. Kirkpatrick, Howard Hearne, H. L. Thurston, Tommie King, J. Floyd Jordan, Fred L. Faris, E. J. Maner.

Other communities have not reported; that is, some of them.

Fire Sunday At Mrs. J. H. Holloway's

The fire department was called out Sunday night to extinguish a fire at the home of Mrs. J. H. Holloway and daughter, Mrs. Clyne Thomas. The flames were extinguished before much damage was done.

CHILDREN INVITED TO SEE OLD SANTA CLAUS

The News is requested to announce that all the children in town and near by are invited to meet old Santa Claus at the Baptist Church next Saturday night. He will have a little present for every one of them.

not wait till they go to house-keeping and then not know what it is to cook and do so many things. I say let's all put our shoulders to the wheel and make a go.

MRS. E. B. TERRY.

Merry Christmas!

Not in the sense of custom, but with a genuine appreciation of our pleasant association during the past year we extend to you our best wishes for an old-fashioned Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year

Carpenter Makes Defense Of Tech

The News has received a lengthy communication from Hon. Lewis T. Carpenter of Dallas defending the Texas Technological College against the assaults of those who would reduce it to a mere liberal arts college. He presents a very able argument for the maintenance and even the enlargement of the Tech, and we would be very glad to publish the same were it not so lengthy.

Mr. Carpenter was a member of the Thirty-eighth Legislature that enacted the law creating the Texas Technological College and was one of the authors of the bill. Mr. Carpenter thinks that the Tech occupies a distinct place in the field of education in this state, that it is properly located, and that the people of Texas and particularly the people of West Texas are entitled to the educational opportunities that it affords. He argues that it would be poor economy and bad policy to cripple this already great institution, which he hopes will soon take rank with the Boston Tech and the Georgia Tech.

He is also opposed to the abolishment or crippling of the State Teachers Colleges, as proposed by the "Efficiency" committee.

LEASES BEAUTY PARLOR

Miss Jamie Bairrington has leased the Thomas Beauty Parlor in the Hub Barber Shop and is now in charge, operating under the name Jamie's Beauty Parlor. Miss Bairrington has had considerable experience in the work in Lubbock, Plainview, and other cities.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Coldewey, who live out near Meadow, were here Wednesday on their way to Roscoe to visit their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Coldewey. They were accompanied by the former's brother, Harry, who has been visiting them a few days.

Anson Coughran and family of Rising Star are here visiting Mrs. Coughran's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. N. McDaniel, and other relatives.

Our Business Men Greet You!

Our business men have been hard hit this year. Like the farmer most of them have been struggling to break even, due to the depression. Consequently they have not been advertising much in recent months.

But nearly all of them are using this paper this week as a medium through which to send Christmas greetings to their friends and customers—the people of Lynn county.

Aren't these greetings swell? Aren't the pages on which they appear attractive? We hope that you, dear people, will read every one of these little heart messages to you. We believe that they express the real sentiments and emotions of our business men. Certainly every one of them wishes for your happiness during this Christmas season and for a greater portion of prosperity for you during the coming year.

You and they have suffered together the past two years, folks, and you and they will gradually find the way back to prosperity—or at least back to normalcy—by cooperation, by mutual helpfulness, by team work.

We trust that the spirit of good will that is expressed in these Christmas greetings may dominate the whole business life and activity of our little city and our county throughout the coming year, and at the close of the year may we all be better friends, better neighbors, and better citizens than we have ever been.

Read these pages of greetings, folks.

School Still On Accredited List

Tahoka high school has again been placed on the list of schools of merit entitling it to membership in the Southern Association of Secondary Schools and Colleges, according to word received Monday by Supt. J. B. Pace.

Notification of retention of the local school in the Southern Association group came from A. M. Blackman, chairman of the Texas committee of the Association, former supervisor of the State Department of Education, Austin.

Young Woman Is Found Insane

A fine young woman, Miss Faye Ingram, residing a few miles west of town was adjudged to be of unsound mind at a court hearing here Saturday night, and she will be conveyed to one of the state institutions for treatment within a few days. The evidence showed that her condition was due to excessive study and mental strain.

Miss Ingram was formerly a student in the Tahoka High School and afterwards graduated at the Texas Tech. She had taught two or three years in Yoakum county and at Pride in the southwest corner of this county. Recently she had been taking a correspondence course and it is said that she had been devoting herself most assiduously to study.

Many friends hope that her condition may yield to treatment and that she may soon be restored to her former mental alertness.

Postoffice Open On Christmas Eve

Postmaster D. A. Parkhurst states that he and his clerks will donate one and one-half hours each on December 24, Saturday, thus keeping the general delivery windows open till 7:30 P. M.

This service is given so that no one need fail to get his Christmas package on Christmas eve. He also urges all to mail early and often so that your friends may not be disappointed by not receiving presents at the proper time.

The money order window will close as usual at 6:00 P. M. The postoffice will be closed all day on both December 25 and 26.

Man's Father Born When Nation Young

Is there any man living in Lynn county whose father was born before George Washington became President of the United States? We guess not.

But W. S. Anglin reports that while attending the Grand Lodge at Waco recently he met a gentleman whose father was born in 1785, four years before Washington became President. O. E. Fuller of Lone Star Lodge No. 403 of Denison, Texas, now 77 years of age, was born in 1855. His father, Fuller says, was 69 years of age when the son was born, having discovered America soon after the close of the Revolutionary War and before the Constitution of the United States was adopted.

Upon learning these facts Mr. Anglin disclosed them to the secretary of the Grand Lodge, whereupon Mr. Fuller was called to the platform and given a glad hand because of this unusual record. He had already been accorded honors by the Lodge because of the fact that he had been a member continuously for 48 years.

Church Of Christ Services Sunday

Elder R. P. Drennon will fill the pulpit at the Church of Christ here next Lord's Day.

A Christmas message will be given in the morning. The theme for the evening will be "Doing All God Commands."

JOHNSON JAILS TWO

John Johnson, deputy sheriff at O'Donnell, brought a couple of prisoners up to the county capital Wednesday afternoon charged with minor offenses and placed them in jail.

BAD WEATHER IS CONTINUED

Slow Rain Falling Today After Two Weeks Of Freezing Weather; Temperature Rises

After two weeks of continuously and unusually cold weather, the temperature gradually rose back to "normalcy" Tuesday and Wednesday, and on Thursday morning, for the first time in almost three weeks, the mercury stood above the freezing point, but—it was raining!

Not quite all the snow that fell last week had melted when the rain began to fall. The ground, however, was already very soft as a result of the snow and this rain will doubtless wet the soil deep.

Colleges Defended, Christmas Program At Warner Sr. Club

In spite of the snowy weather the Phebe K. Warner Club met with Mrs. R. W. Fenton Jr. December 16 for a Christmas program and to enjoy the Christmas tree.

Quite a number of business matters were dispensed with and some important committees named. The canned food was to be given the Red Cross, for the needy. Another important matter which was brought up, was in regard to a letter from Mrs. J. A. Hill, President of the Seventh District of Women's Federated Clubs, in regard to the movement in the Legislature against our West Texas schools of higher education. The Phebe K. Warner Club as a body wishes to let the public know that it protests against the changing of our colleges. As individuals, its members intend to voice their sentiments as to keeping our schools as they are—if we can not add to them.

The program was opened by a musical number. Roll call was answered with Bible verse, followed by a prayer by Mrs. J. B. Stokes. Mrs. E. E. Callaway, in her charming and dignified manner, read "Dream Story, or Christmas Angels" by Henry Van Dyke. The program closed with a record, "Silent Night, Holy Night."

After adjournment, as the dignified members were looking at the beautiful and loaded Christmas tree (which has become a tradition of the Phebe K. Warner Club), presently there was a knock at the front door; and, lo and behold! in walked Old Santa Claus and Miss Christmas Cheer. Looking at our president with a question in our eyes, we saw her not, but there sat little Pearl Brown in the chair at the table and by her side sat shy little Christine Scott. Looking around, the room seemed filled with little girls, who, at first seemed strangers. But they soon got acquainted, and as Santa read out the names on the packages, Miss Christmas Cheer delivered them to eager-eyed girls. Such delighted exclamations you never heard, as they opened up the gaily tied bundles of all sizes and shapes imaginable.

After all the gifts were off the tree and had been displayed for all to see, little Georgia Mae Hill, with the assistance of Ethel McCauley, served her guests with delicious fruit cake, coffee, and candied pecans.

Those present to enjoy this happy occasion were: Imogene Galloway, Pearl Brown, Mattie Gertrude Clark, Mamie Richardson, Eunice Evans, Stella Stone, Birdie Walters, Viola Hearne, Ethel McCauley, Velma Jameson, Lady Dobbins, Bonna Alcorn, Iva Cowan, Christine Scott, Pauline Ramsey, Lenore Miechie, and the hostess, Georgia Mae Hill. All these little girls regretted very much that their other members could not be present. Those who were absent are: Minnie Chambers, Annie Moore, Leta Carmack, Lucy Evans, and the little girl who grew up to be Mrs. W. O. Henderson.

In forgetting the every-day cares of their busy lives for one short hour, these women could go home to assume the problems before them, with lighter hearts and minds. And as they were entering their cars preparatory to leaving, they saw one member who refused to so easily resume the grown-up air, and who also was it but Lady Dobbins out wading the snow in her goliathes, but we imagine it was so cold that ere she reached her home she had become Mrs. again.

HOW THE BEER BILL MAY AF- FECT LYNN COUNTY

The powerful Ways and Means Committee of the Lower House has reported favorably a beer bill permitting the sale of 3.2 per cent beer and providing for a tax of $5.00 per barrel of 31 gallons, and the Committee estimates that this tax will produce an annual revenue of 300 million dollars. They figure the annual consumption of beer will be 60 million barrels.

Now, suppose this bill is enacted
into law, as now seems probable, suppose that all the states in the Union revise their dry laws, where necessary, to permit the sale of this beverage, and suppose that its sale is permitted here in Lynn county.

On these assumptions, let us figure what 3.2 per cent beer will cost Lynn county and just how much additional revenue the people of the county will pay into Uncle Sam's treasury, provided we get and consume our share of the beer.

A barrel of beer contains 31 gallons. Sixty million barrels is 1,860, 000,000 gallons. There are approximately 124,000,000 people in the United States. This would mean 15 gallons of beer per annum for every man, woman, and child in the United States.

Now suppose that the people of Lynn county—including preachers,
deacons, stewards, Sunday School teachers, bankers, bakers, washer women, babies and all—were each consuming 15 gallons of beer annually.
Whew! That's temperance for your whiskers, isn't it. These beer are designed to promote temperance,
you know, they tell us. These beer bills are designed to promote temperance, you know, they tell us. But let's go on with the figures.

There are about 12,000 people in Lynn county, according to the last United States census. At 15 gallons each, the total annual consumption of beer in this county would be 180, 000 gallons or 5,806 barrels.

We do not know what the retail price of beer will be, but estimating it at only 50 cents per gallon it would cost the people of Lynn county $90,000 annually. Instead of being used to pay the dry goods merchant,

the grocer, the butcher, the baker,
the gasoline station, this money and most of it would find its way instead to be used to pay the bartender to the coffers of the big brewer in St. Louis or Milwaukee.

How much additional taxes would the people of Lynn county be paying Uncle Sam for the privilege of drinking 3.2 per cent beer?

Well, a tax of $5.00 per barrel on 5,806 barrels would be $29,000. That sum would be included in the $90,000
mentioned above, of course. But say, folks, had you thought about what this means in the matter of taxation? Twenty-nine thousand dollars would send a thousand Lynn county children to school for at least seven months. The state apportionment of school funds is about $16.00 per pupil, and it will require more than 1,800 pupils to draw that much money from the state school fund
the coming year.

Say, folks, isn't this beer bill a consummate fraud, any way? Doesn't it merely increase the amount of tax for the masses to pay in order to reduce the amount for the classes to pay? This tax will rest lightly upon the family of the rich but it will be a heavy burden upon the family of the day laborer who happens to be a beer addict. Besides, it will foster the habit of beer drinking among the people and finally make regular beer guzzlers and drunkards of many of our children.

If you want such a bill to pass,
folks, write your Congressman or your Senator today. No, that probably will not be necessary—just sit idle and say nothing, and our Congressmen and our Senators will probably do the rest; for the brewers, who want to make money out of it, and the big business interests,
who want to have their own taxes reduced, will look after that little matter for us.

If you don't want this bill to pass,
you'd better write 'em.

Thousands of teachers in Texas, especially those in the rural and small town schools, attend College in the summer time either working toward a degree or to better equip themselves for the profession of teaching. There were more than 12, 500 such teachers who attended summer schools in the seven Teachers Colleges of Texas in 1932. If these Teachers Colleges should be abolished, as is now proposed, we wonder where these teachers would go for their training? If the movement now on foot succeeds and the purpose of those who are sponsoring it should be realized, most of them would be compelled to go to the University of Texas if they attend summer school at all. Quite a good many of them would attend the denominational schools probably, but the denominational schools are already kept busy hustling for funds to take care of the students they already have.
The fact of the business is that the Teachers Colleges are filling a place in Texas that the other schools can not fill, and they are doing it more cheaply than the other colleges. It costs the State less per pupil to educate a student in the Teachers College than it does to give him the same amount of education in the University of Texas.

It is highly important that the strictest economy be practiced by the State during the next two years.
There is much waste that can be eliminated. There is a lot of unnecessary expense connected with almost every department of the state government. That there has been much "graft" practiced by many county and local officials in the matter of fees collected from the state is clearly shown by the report of an investigating committee recently published.
It is probably true that there is some unnecessary expense entailed by most of the educational institutions of the state. All this should be cut out. And it may be necessary for the State to be parsimonious the next year or two in its appropriations for higher education. If so, we believe that the burden should fall on all these institutions—not on some of them for the benefit of others. The Texas Tech, for instance, is entitled to as much consideration as the A.
& M. College. The Teachers Colleges are entitled to as much consideration
as the University of Texas.

May be the approaching legislature will redistrict Texas into Congressional districts so as to give West Texas fair representation at Washington, and then may be it won't. We'd bet a dime—that's about all the ready cash we have—against a two-cent postage stamp that has already done valiant service, that they refuse us a State Representative redistricting bill that will give us any thing like what is coming to us. Every little old jerk-water county over in East Texas wants to continue to be a Representative district all by itself, even if a half dozen more populous counties in West Texas must be thrown together in one district. We have never sought to array one section of Texas against another, for we are proud of the whole state, but if those East Texas politicians refuse to give us a square deal this time we are in favor of West Texas banding together and swatting every one of the bunch that tries to hog us out of our dues.

There will be plenty for those "Efficiency" boys to do in the next legislature without disrupting and destroying all the state colleges in West Texas.

OLD FARMER JOHN OR THE CHRISTMAS SPIRIT

(By the News Staff Poet)

The old man's shoes were shabby.
There was slush between his toes.
As down to the town he hobbled—
For so the story goes—
With only a five-dollar "william"
A-stickin' in his his clo'es.

And into the store he hobbled
To buy the needed shoes;
He halted a moment later
Some dresses to peruse!
"The price? Three dollars fifty,
For either one you choose."

A little red tricycle
Just then he did espy—
A vision; wife and kiddie!
A tear was in his eye—
"How much? A dollar fifty,"
Came back the terse reply.

Anon he straggled out the store
And up the muddy street;
The slush was still between his toes,
The old shoes on his feet,
But in his soul such music!
He whistled, soft and sweet.

Though his feet were cold and weary,
His heart was strangely warm,
As he trudged along with a bundle
Tucked underneath each arm.
Back to the humble cabin
On the little worn-out farm.

Back to the wife and kiddie!
There was joy in that home that night.
For 'round the room in circles
A tricycle sped its flight,
And a glad child's merry laughter
Rang out in pure delight.

And—
"This dress is just too wonderful,"
The wife could only say,
"Twas just the gift I needed,
For tomorrow's Christmas day!"
And three poor souls were happy
That night as they knelt to pray—
The angels in Heaven rejoiced, methinks,
As the three knelt down to pray.

Mrs. L. S. Kuykendall is leaving today for Pomona, California, to spend a few months visiting her daughter, Mrs. Lonnie Taylor.

CHRISTMAS, 1932— NEW YEAR, 1933!

To Our Friends:

With the returning of the Christmas and New Year Season, when renewed emphasis is given to friendships both old and new, let me have the pleasure of sending you, through the columns of our splendid paper,
the friendly and time-honored wish:
"A Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year." May you and all yours be given the highest satisfaction of this Good Will Season, and may such satisfaction abide with you and be multiplied unto you, through all the unfolding year.

At this season, when both golden-winged Memory and swift-becoming Hope speak to us, may we summons ourselves so to number our days that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom, and may we bring the Gold of homage, the Frankincense of love,
the Myrrh of sacrifice, with unreserved dedication, to all the duties and relations of life, ever remembering that the most valuable gift is not the one that costs the most money, but the one that embodies the most good will and the greatest fidelity.

As we look both backward and forward, may we be worthily grateful for the priceless blessings of home; for the dear memories of vanished faces whose smiles and love abide even with us; for the constant inspiration of understanding friends;
for the lofty privilege of work; for the noble heritage that comes to us from the past; for every token of growing compassion toward the idle suffering, everywhere and anywhere;
and for every creative influence and agency for better cooperation in the matchless work of uplifting all mankind, both for today and tomorrow.

Let us not ask for tasks equal to our strength, but for strength equal to our tasks, that we may know the daily miracle of doing the impossible. Let us know that God's plan for us is not to lessen our duties, but to increase our strength. May we realize that no life is complete without suffering; no culture is mature without severe discipline; and no love is worthy of Him, unless vocal in self-giving for the sake of others.

Whatever our difficulties and discouragements, may we go bravely on, remembering that life's highest progress has always been made when circumstances have been most baffling, and when strength has been put to the severest tests. May we realize that now, the strong ought to bear the burden of the weak.

If we have been called upon to travel some lonely road in the dark;
if we feel the dull ache of some hurt of yesterday, or must walk in

Rev. H. D. Heath of Yoakum county was here the first of the week visiting his son, Judge L. C. Heath, and selling some mules. Mr. Heath has been farming on an extensive scale over in Yoakum county but of course realized very little from his farm this year.

Build Up Health and Pains Go Away

WOMEN who suffer from weakness often have many aches and pains which a stronger state of health would prevent.

Women in this condition should take Cardui, a purely vegetable tonic that has been in use for over 50 years.

Take Cardui to improve the general tone of the system in cases of rundown health and "tired nerves."
Women have found, in such cases,
that Cardui helps them to overcome pains and make the monthly periods easier.

CARDUI is safe and wholesome
for women of all ages. Try it!
Sold at the drug store.

FLU

Flu is dangerous. Protect yourself and your loved ones from it! Keep out of crowded places where possible. Avoid drafts or wet feet. Keep your vitality up to the highest possible level. Take care of even the slightest cold. If you suspect Flu, call your doctor without delay. You can get everything there that is needed to help you ward off the Flu;
to help you and your doctor check it. Antiseptic mouth washes and gargles, nasal sprays and inhalants. Asperin. Milk of Magnesia. Laxatives, hot water bottles, etc. Prescriptions accurately compounded from fresh, active drugs.

Methodists Will Have Christmas Tree

Rev. H. C. Smith brought splendid sermons to his M. E. congregations last Sunday, and those who were not able to be present missed two really helpful services. At the morning hour his theme was "God's Memory"—a beautiful treatise on the Lord's remembrance of "the afflictions of His people." The night message was most inspirational, bringing the story of Paul and Silas who lightened their griefs by singing in their darkest hour—as we all can do.

The day's worship began with the prelude "Sylvia" by Oley Speaks, after which W. E. Suddarth conducted the devotional service. Judge Cain efficiently taught a combined group of adults in one large class.

On Saturday night the church school will sponsor a program and Christmas tree in the church auditorium, on which occasion everyone is expected to be present and participate.

On Christmas day there will be special music at all services. At the evening hour the Tahoka Music Club will be in charge presenting a Christmas program of worship and entertainment. Carol singing will be enjoyed and the featured musical numbers will be solos by Miss Lucille Slaton of C. I. A. and Clifton Janak of the Amarillo College of Music, who are at home for the holidays. Services at the Baptist church will be dismissed Sunday night and our Baptist friends as well as the general public are invited most cordially to worship with us in this special program.

Show your real Christmas spirit by beginning the day right. Be in the Lord's house on time at 9:45 A. M.—in time for the musical feature.

—Reporter.

R. Bosworth of Central Church was in the News office on business Wednesday and informed us that his cotton this year produced a bale per acre. His crop consisted of 51 acres. If the price had been decent he would have been in clover this Christmas.

Joe Pindexter of New Home was in town Wednesday on a crutch and stated that it was the first time he had been out in four weeks. He has been suffering from blood poison as the result of a sore on one of his feet becoming infected.

Draw

School opened Monday. We are glad to see almost a full attendance in school.

There is still some sickness in the community, but most everyone has recovered.

We are planning to have a short Christmas program next Friday evening in connection with a tree.

Mr. P. C. Williams visited in New Mexico this past week.

Mr. C. J. Richter was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Thorpe the past week end.

There were but few present at the Methodist Church Sunday on account of bad weather. Rev. J. N. Hester preached on "Limiting God's Power." There was no church Sunday night. There will be a Christmas program at the Church Sunday morning, Dec. 25.

MRS. LUCENT SLOAN OF MORGAN IS HONORED

Mrs. Fred Davidson and Mrs. E. T. Miller entertained for Mrs. Lucent Sloan in the Miller home Wednesday night. Mrs. Sloan was formerly Miss Alpha Purdue. Hubert Emery and Claud Gentry sang during the evening. Miss Edna Voight at the piano.

Two little girls, Hazel Miller and Ha Dee Skinner, dressed in costumes to suit the occasion, hauled the gifts to the bride in a little wagon decorated by Mesdames Davidson and Miller. Before the girls presented the gifts they gave a toast first to the bride and then to the groom. Following this Mrs. J. N. Townsend spoke briefly in behalf of Morgan friends, also complimenting Mrs. Sloan's work in school, church and Sunday School.

Hot chocolate and cake were served to all.

Mrs. Sloan is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Abe Purdue, having grown up in Morgan community. The young couple have gone to Grayson county to live.

Mrs. W. M. Harris slipped over to the editor's home Wednesday evening while all the family were out and left several pounds of good old country sausage. It is such kindness as this that puts joy into life.

Mr. and Mrs. Grover Stewart are both suffering from severe attacks of the flu. It is hoped that they will be able to be up within a few days.

MRS. L. C. HANEY HOSTESS TO TAHOKA MUSIC CLUB

The Tahoka Music Club enjoyed a splendid meeting in the home of Mrs. L. C. Haney on Thursday night, with Mrs. W. O. Henderson as co-hostess.

Following the business session the program was devoted to the theme of a Wagerian opera "Die Meistersinger." Mrs. Jim Burleson gave the study chapter on the Master-singers. A brief biography of Hans Sachs of Nuremberg, most famous of all master singers, and the prelude and outline of the opera itself, all told by Mrs. L. L. Hays, prefaced the entire story of the opera narrated by Mrs. A. B. Swan, concluding one of the most interesting programs the club has given.

Christmas decorations and tasty holiday confections served in gift packages with dainty favors added to the evening's pleasure.

Dispensing with the next regular club meeting scheduled for Dec. 22, the Club will present for Rev. Smith a special Christmas program at the Methodist Church on Sunday night, Dec. 25, at 7:15 o'clock. Everyone is cordially invited to attend and assist in this open meeting.

Clyne Thomas is here for the holidays from Sulphur Springs. Clyne went down to Sulphur Springs a few weeks ago to shape things up for his farming operations next year and he says that he already has all his land prepared for planting. Mrs. Thomas, who has been operating a beauty parlor here, will return to Sulphur Springs with him.

Relieves Women's Pains

Here is an example of how Cardui has helped thousands of women: "I was very thin and pale," writes Mrs. F. H. Scott, of Roanoke, Va. "I suffered from weakness and a severe pain in my back. This pain unnerved me, and I did not feel like doing my work. I did not care to go places, and felt worn, tired, day after day.

"My mother had taken Cardui, and on seeing my condition she advised me to try it. I have never regretted doing so. I took three bottles and it built me up. I gained in weight, my color was better and the pain left my back. I am stronger than I had been in some time."

Cardui, the purely vegetable medicine which so many women take and recommend, is sold by local druggists.

LETTERS TO SANTA CLAUS

Dear Santa:

I am 17 months old. I am a good little boy. I want a little red wagon and a barking dog and a ball and some sparklers and lots of nuts and oranges and apples.

BABY FRANK ANDERSON.

Dear Santa:

I am 2 years old. I am a good little girl. I want dishes, doll, broom, and sparklers and lots of nuts and grapes and bananas. My name is

BETTY JO HAMILTON.

Dear Santa:

I am 9 years old. I want you to bring me a curly headed doll and dishes and firecrackers and lots of nuts, bananas and apples. Your friend,

LOUISE HAMILTON.

Dear Santa Claus:

I am a little girl six years old. I go to school at Joe Bailey. Santa, please bring me a doll bed, fireworks, apples, oranges and candy. Santa, please don't forget James.

EULA FAYE STRACENER.

Dear Old Santa:

Please bring me a curly-haired sleepy doll and a buggy with a top to it, and anything else you think a little five year old girl might like. I've tried to be good. And, say, don't forget all the other little girls and boys. Love, PATRICIA HILL.

Dear Santa Claus:

I am five years old. I have been a good little girl. I want you to bring me a doll with lots of clothes and a stove and truck, and nuts and fruit. This is all. Love to Santa.

OLARA FAYE NORDYKE.

CARD OF THANKS

We desire to thank the neighbors and friends for their thoughtfulness and kindness shown us in the bereavement which we suffered in the loss of our dear companion and father. May God bless all of you.

Mrs. J. E. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Brown and family, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. May and family, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Ingle and family, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Cummings and family.

Miss Helen Applewhite, a student in the C. I. A. at Denton, is spending the holidays here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Applewhite.

Locals

After spending a day or two at the bank following an attack of the flu last week, W. B. Slaton was compelled to return to his room Tuesday. It is hoped that he may fully recover within a day or two.

G. M. Duckett was in the office paying up and renewing his subscription Wednesday and offered to feed us on spare ribs and turnip greens any time we would stop at his house about dinner time.

J. M. Campbell, 55, of Crosbyton, father of Mrs. Travis Davis of this city, died at his home in Crosbyton Friday evening, Dec. 9. Mr. Campbell was a well known and prominent citizen of that city.

P. M. Williams of Yoakum county was here on business this week. He was one of the pioneers of Lynn county, having located here more than thirty years ago, later moving further west.

Uncle Will Brown left Wednesday morning to spend several weeks in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ben T. Brown in Belton. His wife has been visiting there the past few weeks.

Miss Mareda Hickerson, teacher in the State Teachers College at Natchitoches, Louisiana, is here to spend the holidays with her father, John Hickerson.

Miss Lucille Slaton, who is again attending the C. I. A. at Denton, is at home to spend the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Slaton.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Thomas left Wednesday morning to spend the holidays with relatives at Strawn and Ennis.

Bad Taste in Mouth, Sour Stomach

For quick relief from constipation troubles, such as are mentioned below, get a 25-cent package of Thedford's BLACK-DRAUGHT and begin taking it today.

"I have suffered a great deal from biliousness and constipation," writes Mrs. D. C. Jones, of Waterloo, Ala. "When I get bilious I have a bad taste in my mouth, have sour stomach, my color is bad, and I get dizzy and feel awfully bad. I have headache constantly. When I take Black-Draught it relieves me and I feel like a new person. I don't think there is a better medicine than Black-Draught."

Now you can get Black-Draught in the form of a SYRUP, for CHILDREN.

Rafe Richardson was taken to a Lubbock hospital Tuesday afternoon, where he is reported to be dangerously sick with flu and complications.

Grassland

Miss Carley and Mrs. Peek, two of our teachers, spent the week end in Lubbock.

School will be dismissed Friday, Dec. 23, for the holidays. School work will be resumed January 2nd. Miss Carley plans to spend the holidays at her home in Coolidge. Mr. and Mrs. Myers and children will go to Abernathy and Plainview for Christmas. Mrs. Peek will go to her home in Lubbock.

A Christmas program will be given at the school house on Friday afternoon.

Miss Georgia Mae Langford, who taught at Grassland for the last three years, but who is now teaching at Garlynn, spent the week end with home folks.

Mr. Claude Thomas is driving a new Ford V8 which he purchased a few days ago.

Mr. Carl Jones, who has been attending school at Post, remained at home this week on account of the danger of flu in Post.

Miss Millie Ola Langford, who is attending the National Business College at Abilene, has come home for the holidays.

Mr. Arron Ramsey and Rudford Chapman, who have been quite ill with the flu are both now able to be about.

Mr. J. W. Warrick was transacting business in Post Saturday.

Miss Virginia Inkebarger, who graduated from Grassland school last session, is doing excellent work at Post this year. She is one of the honor students. She is not only doing good scholastic work, but is taking part in several of the extra-curricular activities. Excellent reports are coming to us from all of our graduates who are attending school at Post. Others enrolled are Lura Edwards, Odell Chapman, Sherman Turner, Carl Jones, and T. Ward. We are proud of our school and the work that it is doing. We are glad that after completing ten grades of work here that our students can enter an accredited high school and graduate in one year.

Mr. R. M. Thomas is planning on entering Tech College at the beginning of the winter quarter. R. M. graduated from Post last Spring.

Mrs. A. L. Shepherd visited school last Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Thomas were in Lubbock Saturday.

New Home

The hunters are numerous during this snowy weather. Everyone has been feasting on birds the last few days.

Mrs. R. L. Littlepage of Midway visited Mrs. Henry Heck Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Newman and family of Lakeview visited Mrs. Newman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Willhoit, Saturday and Sunday.

The Sunday School is planning a program and Christmas tree for Saturday night at the church.

Mrs. Virgie Jones was able to return home Sunday after spending several days in the hospital. She is clear of pneumonia and improving fast.

Mr. H. A. Harrison, science teacher and principal, has just completed an extension course in chemistry at Tech College.

School attendance is much improved this week.

The school will dismiss Friday for the holidays. After one week vacation, school will begin again Jan. 2.

A play is being given at the school building this Friday night. The play, entitled "Wild Ginger," is being given under the auspices of the Senior Class.

Rev. James Rayburn, pastor of the Presbyterian Church at Slaton, and Bro. Robertson, missionary for the Presbyterians on the Plains, visited Morgan school last Wednesday and spoke during chapel. Bro. Robertson gave a Sunday school calendar to each family represented in school.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Elliott of Wellington spent one night last week here with Mrs. Elliott's mother, Mrs. F. L. Kelley.

How Doctors Treat Colds and Coughs

To break up a cold overnight and relieve the congestion that makes you cough, thousands of physicians are now recommending Calotabs, the new, powerful, calomel compound tablets that give you the effects of calomel and salts without the unpleasant effects of either.

One or two Calotabs at bedtime with a glass of sweet milk or water. Next morning your cold has vanished, your system is thoroughly purified and you are feeling fine with a hearty appetite for breakfast. Eat what you wish, no danger.

Calotabs are sold in 10c and 35c packages at drug stores.

New Lynn

Health conditions here have improved considerably in the past week, or since our last report. Flu victims are able to be up again. Thus far, only five pneumonia cases have been known of in our community. Douglas Weldon and Faye Jones, who has for some time been in a serious condition, are improving rapidly, a report revealed the first of the week. The other victims being Mrs. C. A. Cashion and P. M. Montgomery are on the improving list also. We are in hopes our community will be back in its normal health soon.

Rev. Hamilton Wright of Southland, pastor of the Methodist church, failed to fill his appointment here Sunday due to unfavorable weather conditions.

A. Y. Pemberton made a business trip to Fort Worth and other points in Texas last week. He returned home Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Randall and family left here Sunday for Bennington, Oklahoma, where they are expected to spend the holidays with friends and relatives. It was not learned when they would return.

Rev. W. P. Russell will fill his regular appointment at the Baptist church Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. Everyone is cordially invited to attend the service.

Rev. James A. Gray of Grassland, pastor of the Nazarene Church, will fill his regular appointment Sunday. He preaches every second and fourth Sunday. You are invited to attend each service.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Miller and daughter Carolyn visited in Lubbock last week.

On Friday of last week Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Coffee were sleigh riding, as it was the custom here for a few days, when the sled drawn by an automobile was upset. The ride resulted in a fractured right knee for Mr. Coffee and Mrs. Coffee is suffering severe bruises about the body. Their condition is not thought to be serious.

Despite the muddy, rough roads, cotton is being trucked from here to shipping points this week. A report from the gin stated they had ginned 2,513 bales this season, the largest report since the gin has been here.

Remember singing here Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Come and let's really celebrate Christmas.

A merry Christmas and a happy New Year.—Reporter.

CARD OF THANKS

To all those who rendered assistance and comfort both by word and deed in the passing of our beloved companion, mother, and grandmother. We take this method to thank you for your kind ministrations in the hour of our bereavement, and assure you that words cannot express our appreciation of your thoughtful kindness; and as her life was a living testimonial to the goodness and mercy of her Savior and God, so may her passing be a benediction to each and every one of you, is the prayer of us all.

Respectfully signed: John B. King, Henry C. King and family, Harvey King and family, Oscar King and family, Mrs. E. J. McDaniel and family, Mr. and Mrs. Neal Williams.

BLACK-DRAUGHT MADE FROM BEST LAXATIVE PLANTS

Sunshine, Rain and Soil produce the foods you eat at every meal—that rebuild your body as you work, play, live.

Sunshine, Rain and Soil also produce plants that clear up trouble in the digestive system of your body. From the best of such medicinal plants is Black-Draught made. The right plants are selected, finely ground, and packaged for your convenient use, — a natural remedy for sluggish, slow-acting, clogged bowels.

Count on refreshing relief from constipation troubles when you take Theodor's Black-Draught.

For Children, get the new, pleasant tasting SYRUP of Theodor's Black-Draught. In 25c and 50c bottles.

Merry Christmas

CHRISTMAS is the jolly season, the holly season—the green and red and snowy season—when hearths are glowing, hearts are flowing with merry, merry cheer. It's a time of joyous greeting—happiness and friendly meeting—the ending and beginning of a year.

With our most elated manner—in our gay and happy way—We wish you a Happy New Year—and a Merry Christmas Day.
