BRITAIN ACCEPTANCE OF TERMS HAILED AS ADVANCEMENT

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26—Great Britain's acceptance of terms for a war debts discussion was regarded today as having filled in much of the ground that must be built up before President-elect Roosevelt talks with that nation's representative.

This attitude was taken generally in many quarters despite the British reservation against deciding in advance of a meeting of all nations to be represented there what subjects should be placed on the agenda of the world economic conference.

To Outline Ideas

In the weeks preceding the American meetings in March with Great Britain and other debtor nations which have paid promptly, other exchanges undoubtedly will take place, outlining in more detail the ideas of both Mr. Roosevelt and the prospective foreign visitors.

The incoming chief executive himself had no comment to make at Warm Springs on the British acceptance, but he was represented as having well-developed views on the forthcoming debts discussions and the economic conference and being ready to do his own bargaining.

Sir Ronald Lindsay, the British ambassador, delivered his country's note to the state department. It said that Great Britain is "happy" to accept the opportunity of a debts discussion and added:

"Effect Is Crucial"

"The effect of the debt situation upon a wide range of world economic problems is crucial to every government and in the course of the discussion at Washington on the debt we shall be glad to take the opportunity of exchanging views with Mr. Roosevelt on those other matters in which the two governments are so closely interested.

"It will be recognized that decisions on matters which constitute the subject of the approaching world economic conference and which affect other states cannot be reached before discussions take place at that conference between all the states represented there."

In London this was interpreted as definitely limiting the scope of the Washington talks. It was suggested that Britain does not desire to be drawn too deeply into any general discussion of world economic problems at that time.

The note gave the baby's full name.

Detectives took the child to a hospital.

REPEAL HOPES BOLSTERED

WET ADVOCATES HAVE PROSPECTS OF VOTE IN SENATE SOON

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26—Final passage of the Glass banking bill after days of raging dispute today gave new hope to repeal advocates for a vote in the senate this session.

But there were many complications. Appropriation bills must be taken up and an unemployment relief measure may be brought in soon which the senate would hesitate to lay aside for a prohibition debate.

Nevertheless, Senator Robinson of Arkansas, the Democratic leader held that there was a chance for consideration of the pending repeal resolution before March 4. Meanwhile, other Democrats sought to speed up legislative action on the 3.05 beer and wine bill.

Chairman Smoot of the senate's finance committee announced yesterday that his committee would open hearings Monday on the proposal to modify the Volstead act.

Suspend Proration In Panhandle Area

AUSTIN, Jan. 26 (AP)—The railroad commission has suspended enforcement of its gas proration order for the West Panhandle gas field pending the outcome of litigation attacking the validity of the order.

The commission pointed out that three companies had obtained federal court injunctions restraining the commission from enforcing the order against them and that it would be unfair to enforce the order against the other companies in the field.

RAILWAY BODY OF STATE TO FACE QUIZ

COMMITTEE IS GIVEN POWER TO CONDUCT OIL INVESTIGATION

(By The Associated Press)

AUSTIN, Jan. 26.—The house of the Texas legislature today adopted a resolution authorizing its oil, gas and mining committee to conduct an investigation of the administration by the Texas railroad commission of oil proration and conservation laws in the East Texas field. The vote was 76 to 56.

The house reconsidered and tabled the vote, making the action on approval of the inquiry final.

To Be At Austin

Under the resolution, the investigation will be conducted by the entire oil, gas and mining committee. It will be held in Austin and the committee was given authority to subpoena witnesses and records and require that testimony be given under oath. The powers of a district court were conferred on the committee.

The margin of victory obtained by proponents of the investigation surprised many members. In debate on the resolution, the commission had been strongly defended, opponents of the inquiry asserting the resolution was designed to prejudice the legislature against the commission and build up sentiment in favor of establishment of a new commission to administer oil and gas conservation and proration laws exclusively.

Long Hurls Charges

Representative B. J. Long of Wichita Falls, chairman of the oil committee, charged that the commission had proven itself incompetent to administer proration in the East Texas field.

Representative O. F. Chastain of Eastland referred to the commissioners as "noble gentlemen" and expressed the wish that the remainder of the state's public officials would render the same type of efficient service that had been given by the three commissioners. C. V. Terrell, Lon A. Smith and Ernest O. Thompson. Chastain charged the resolution was part of a plan "to break down the influence of the railroad commission" so that a new commission could be established.

"Long is a fine investigator, but he is poor at applying facts," Chastain said, criticizing Long's charges that the commission was incompetent.

Mysterious Murder Of Woman Is Probed

CORRIGAN, Jan. 26 (AP)—The mysterious slaying of an unidentified woman whose body was discovered in a creek bottom west of Corrigan was under investigation today. She had been stabbed in the heart.

Billion In Loans Made By R.F.C.

DETAILS OF HOW RELIEF BODY PLEDGED FUNDS TO AID BUSINESS TOLD OVER OBJECTIONS

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26 — The house of representatives and the country were told in detail today—despite strenuous objections from Reconstruction corporation members—just how that huge federal relief agency pledged $1,195,000,000 in five months to help business try to get on an even keel.

In compliance with a special resolution adopted by the house, the corporation sent to Speaker Garner a statement showing each loan authorized by the R. F. C. between the date of its creation on Feb. 2, 1932, and July 21, 1932.

Report Made Public

Following the policy he insisted upon last spring, Garner made the report public. Pressure had been exerted to have the report given only to members of congress, on the ground that publication would be harmful to the borrowers.

The report divulged that the much-discussed loan to the Chicago Central Republic Bank & Trust company, with which Charles G. Dawes was associated, amounted to $90,000,000. It was advanced in two installments last June, two days apart, the first amounting to $16,000,000 and the second, $74,000,000.

Another of the large loans went to the San Francisco Bank of America, which was authorized to borrow $64,000,000. A $30,000,000 loan to the Bank of Italy Mortgaging company of the same city was shown to have been authorized while the Prudence company in New York got $20,000,000; the first Central Trust company of Akron, Ohio, $18,000,000; the Union Guardian Trust company of Detroit, $16,150,000, and the Union Trust company of Cleveland, $14,000,000.

A total of $224,147,409 for railroads was authorized but $5,112,856 has not yet been disbursed.

At the end of the year the corporation had assets of $1,725,000,000 and a cash balance of $7,927,000.

Loans authorized in Texas included $25,000 to the First National bank at Lockney.

BANK BILL TO HOUSE NEXT

DEFEAT LOOMS AFTER MEASURE APPROVED BY THE SENATE

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26—Three weeks of bitter fighting were over today—the Glass banking bill was through the senate; the filibuster was ended.

But the triumph probably was one in name only for this session. Every sign pointed to slow death in the house of the measure for which Senator Glass, Virginia Democrat, has fought for two years. A house legislature jam seemed certain to block a vote on it before March 4.

Would Make Changes

In its second successive night session, the senate passed the Glass bill making sweeping changes in the nation's banking laws, by a vote of 54 to 9.

The bill would make more than 25 changes in the national and federal reserve banks designed to curb bank failures assist depositors of closed banks and stop the flow of federal reserve credit to speculative channels.

It would allow branch banking in nine states where state laws now permit this system and require national banks to drop their security affiliates within five years. In addition, it would create an $800,000,000 federal corporation to help reopen closed banks.

ACCEPTS SENTENCE

HAWKINS CASE BEGUN TODAY

ONE JUROR SELECTED THIS MORNING IN PLAINVIEW TRIAL

(By The Associated Press)

PLAINVIEW, Jan. 28—One juror was selected today from a special venire of 100 summoned for the trial of Joe Hawkins on a charge of murder in connection with the death of his father-in-law, S. M. Walker, in Crosby county on Oct. 28, 1929.

Two witnesses who failed to appear today were fined $100 each and writs of attachment were issued. They were Mrs. W. D. Lamar of Crosby county and R. W. Chaney of Waller county.

First Case Reversed

It was the second time Hawkins faced trial in Hale county. When first tried in Crosby county, Hawkins was sentenced to 50 years imprisonment. He appealed and the case was reversed and remanded. Transferred to Floyd county on a change of venue, the jury failed to agree and on a second attempt there, a jury could not be obtained. The case then was transferred to Hale county and the jury failed to agree.

CAPONE ON $10 A MONTH ALLOWANCE WITH NO SPECIAL FAVORS GRANTED

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26—Al Capone, now spending a number of years at Atlanta penitentiary for evading income tax payments on his gangland millions, is on a $10 a month allowance these days.

And instead of $25 footwear, it's the regulation prison shoe for the former Chicago bootleg Czar. Tailor-made suits and silk underwear are out.

Capone is just No. 40886 and is treated like a lot of others under the government's special care.

All this was told to the house to make it clear that Al is not getting special favors.

Representative Oliver (D., Ala.), put in to the record a letter from Warden A. C. Aderhold of Atlanta, which said:

"Capone, during his incarceration in this institution, has had no special favors not granted all other first grade prisoners."

When it comes to visitors, Aderhold said Capone does not even enjoy the customary procedure.

"On account of reports that his friends would probably try to smuggle money and guns to him," he said, "we have not been permitting his interviews to be held with other prisoners, but each interview is held in the presence of an officer and where his movements could be watched and his conversations clearly heard."

TWO MEASURES COMBINED IN NEW PLAN

IDEAS OF ROOSEVELT ARE CARRIED OUT IN PROPOSAL

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—A general relief program, understood by its sponsors to carry out suggestions of President-elect Roosevelt, was agreed upon today by the senate manufactures committee and a report of the measure to the senate was authorized without a record vote.

This latest proposition combines the LaFollette-Costigan and the Cutting bills which had aimed at different angles of the relief problem.

Roosevelt Sympathetic

Senators LaFollette of Wisconsin and Cutting of New Mexico, Republican independents who supported the Democratic presidential ticket, conferred at Warm Springs recently with the president-elect and said they found him "sympathetic."

The new bill authorizes direct grants to the states, with a total fund of $500,000,000 to be available, and increases by a like sum the notes, bonds and similar obligations which the corporation is authorized to issue.

Sets Up Board

It sets up a federal emergency relief board of three members to be appointed by the president, the board to allocate the funds, certifying to the reconstruction corporation, which shall act as a fiscal agent, what payments are to be made.

The combined bill removes the provision of the LaFollette-Costigan bill that the chief of the children's bureau shall be the executive officer of the board and substitutes authority for the board to select its own executive officer.

ROBBERS ESCAPE WITH BANK LOOT

CLEBURNE, Tex., Jan. 26 (AP)—Fleeing afoot into the rough country along the Brazos river, two robbers who looted the First State bank at Covington of $3,800 yesterday succeeded at least temporarily in escapting from pursuing officers.

However, officers took up the trail with hopes of apprehending the fugitives before they could slip out of the brakes. Deputies watched rail lines to prevent them boarding a train.

Eamon De Valera, below, was swept to victory in Ireland, according to incomplete returns from Tuesday's election which returned the Fianna Fail party to power.

DE VALERA IS VICTORIOUS

FIANNA FAIL SWEEPS BACK INTO POWER IN IRISH ELECTION

DUBLIN, Irish Free State, Jan. 26—Incomplete returns indicated today that President Eamon De Valera's party, the Fianna Fail, won a decisive victory in Tuesday's election of a new dail eireann.

Returns from 45 out of 153 districts today gave the De Valera government party and its labor allies a total of 25 seats in the dail against 20 for the combined opposition forces headed by former President Cosgrove.

Assured Of Election

He may be assured of election to the presidency without needing votes of any other parties. The Fianna Fail—the party which has fought for complete independence of Ireland—has never had a clear majority in the dail in the ten-year history of the free state.

The dail elected De Valera president for the first time last March 9 as the result of a Fianna Fail-labor party combine.

The returns today showed the Fianna Fail has won 22 seats to nine for the Comainn Ngaedhael, the party of William T. Cosgrove, the Free State's president since its organization until his defeat last year. Independents were assured of four seats, labor, one, and the new center party, one. This left 116 to be filled.

BRUTAL CRIME STIRS CITY TO ACTION

GIRL IS MISTREATED, AND STRANGLED WITH CLOTHES LINE

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, Jan. 26.—Mothers in Brooklyn's Stuyvesant Heights kept frightened eyes on their babies today for fear a killer with a twisted brain might slay them as he did six-year-old Helen Sterler.

Helen's body was found in a coal bin last night. The clothes line that strangled her was still around her neck. A half eaten piece of candy lay on the floor. Police said a degenerate coaxed her into the tenement house cellar, mistreated and killed her, and then crept away unnoticed.

Hunt For Clues

Only a few hours before, Helen had been seen at play in the crowded street outside. Her mother had given her a penny and she was munching peppermint drops she bought with it. Police, ransacking the neighborhood for clues, were told she entered a variety store a little later and bought for a few pennies a papier mache toy showing "Paris views."

Detectives believed the killer had given her this money then waited outside the store for her. When she failed to return home her father, Louis, an unemployed house painter, told police, and they started searching cellars.

Father Screams

When they called Sterler into the dark place where the body lay, to identify it, he stood silent for several moments, then screamed:

"My baby—she was just a baby. You police—if you don't find the man, I will!"

A muttering crowd gathered outside. At home the child's mother fainted when she heard the news.

Detectives had a theory that it was some one from the immediate neighborhood who committed the act. Such was the case with little Florence McDonnell, 5, who was found slain in a basement not far away on Feb. 3, 1932. Police said a negro, Robert Smalls, 15 years old, confessed the killing.

SWEETWATER, Jan. 26. —(AP)— The circumstantial case brought by the state against L. M. Parks for the alleged drowning of his wife neared completion today after presentation of testimony pertaining to insurance policies he purportedly took out on her life and his relations with another woman.

Witnesses for the state testified that Parks had taken out policies amounting to $18,000 on his wife's life, of which $16,000 was taken out within 30 days of her death at Lake Trammell. W. E. Davis, Sweetwater insurance dealer acting as special counsel for the state, testified that none of the insurance taken out in that 30-day period had been paid.

Hamilton To Face Trial For Murder

DALLAS, Jan. 26. (AP)—With two long prison terms for robbery already facing him, Raymond Hamilton was in jail here today awaiting removal to Hillsboro where he will be tried next Monday for the alleged murder of a filling station operator.

One jury yesterday gave him 30 years for robbing the Cedar Hill State bank of $1,401 last Oct. 8. ## WILL SHELL OF THE TEMPLE ELLIS BUILDING WITHSTAND STRONG WIND?

Somebody besides emloyes of the Avalanche-Journal is worrying about the shell of the Temple Ellis building.

At least a half dozen telephone calls to the newspaper office this morning inquired whether walls of the building were still standing or not.

Today's strong wind, reaching a maximum velocity of 48 miles an hour, was the reason for the apprehension.

A fire alarm also gave additional impetus to fear that the walls had collapsed. Several calls were received after the alarm.

The walls of the building have been standing since August, 1930. Although repeated efforts have been made to seek demolition of the building as required within a short time after a fire under the city's building code, City commission has failed to act on the project, postponing action time after time when it appeared a deal was to be made for construction of a new structure.

Mayor J. J. Clements has declared on numerous occasions that the walls are strong enough to withstand the hardest wind.

Country Children Enjoy Making Their Music Together

Orchestra Of A Consolidated School In Highland County, Ohio.

By GARRY C. MYERS, PH. D.

Country children enjoy making music together as well as do city children.

This group of rural children of a consolidated school of Highland county, Ohio, are led in their orchestra by one of their own members.

What would it have meant to some of us when we attended the country school to have such opportunities of music education? Each child in an orchestra, quite as much as each player on a football team, must do his part with the success of the whole group in mind.

Doubtless the moral values offered by the school band and orchestra are as great as are the moral values offered by the football team; besides, what the children are getting in this orchestra can be useful for their enjoyment and the enjoyment of others a whole lifetime while the football player may not find his experiences on the gridiron quite so lasting. Most fortunate may be those children who, in addition to group musical learning, also join in athletic sports.

More and more those children trained at school in music such as this picture illustrates, are forming in new groups in their Sunday schools and churches, giving pleasure to others. In the best homes of tomorrow often will assemble boys and girls for group enjoyments that are safe and wholesome.

No matter how poor our country may become, nor how limited the school budget, school music has come to stay.

SALVATION ARMY SUPPORT URGED

Support of the Salvation Army by Lubbock citizens was urged in statements issued Wednesday by two members of the advisory board of the local corps, which will launch a home service appeal campaign January 30.

Of the organization, President-Bradford Knapp of Texas Technological college said, "I bespeak for them in their campaign the kindliest of interest on the part of all our Christian people, for they serve modestly and unobtrusively in many ways which never come to advertise them among our people. Their appeal is a most reserving one."

"Funds contributed in Lubbock are used for local relief," said Nell H. Wright, "and every dollar is made to do full duty in relieving distressed humanity. We sincerely hope that the citizens of Lubbock will respond generously to this appeal for funds to carry on the Army's work of soul saving and life saving in our community."

Tax Abatement Is Awarded Gangster

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26 (AP)—An abatement in income taxes of $285,723 for Frank Nitto, generally known in Chcago as Frank Nitti of the Capone gang, has been announced by the bureau of federal revenue.

The money, which has never been paid while the protest was pending, was for the years of 1925, 1926, and 1927. An appeal to the board of tax appeals won the abatement of $244,618 and the reminder was rebated after a new check up by the bureau tself.

Nitti was known as Al Capone's enforcement officer and recently left the penitentiary after being convicted of tax dodging.

Experts To Study Women's Status

Dr. Lillian M. Gilbreth, industrial engineer, Montclair, N. J., and Dr. Iva Lowther Peters, Fishkill, N. Y., research expert, are combining forces in an attempt to discover for the National Federation of Business and Professional Women's clubs, how widespread is discrimination against business and professional women, if any, during the economic crisis.

An informal investigation under their direction has just been launched through 1,300 clubs connected with the federation. Each club will seek information about the operation of legislation unfriendly to women in its own community, and also attempt to discover whether railroads, banks, department stores, factories and similar enterprises, have discriminated against women workers in the matter of pay, hours and advancement.

The enterprise is a project of the research committee of the federation, of which Dr. Gilbreth is chairman and will be carried on by a subcommittee which Dr. Peters heads. Associated with her are Miss Martha Connole, attorney, of East St. Louis, Ill.; Miss Kate Ryan, accountant of Hartford, Conn.; Dr. Grace Hadley Beardsley, professor of art and archaeology at Goucher college, Baltimore, and Dr. Gilbreth.

"We are not starting with the premise that women have been grossly mistreated," Dr. Peters says. "We know that in some communities there is a tendency to victimize women, and that, in the clerical and stenographic occupations there is an inclination to employ men instead of women. What we want to know is, how widespread are these and other tendencies. Then we can determine accurately whether unemployment among women is disproportionate to that which exists among men."

SPYING ON SPORTS

BY COLLIER PARRIS

A definite announcement regarding Lubbock's immediate baseball future awaits two important settlements, (1) a satisfactory agreement concerning a farm connection, and (2) raising, through the dispensing of stock certificates, enough capital to assure a worthy start.

* * *

Local authorities are dickering with several larger clubs in regard to the farm support. Several clubs of good reputation are ready to send a full team and manager here, but the question of financial support has not been answered satisfactorily.

* * *

It is the opinion of the writer that Lubbock wouldn't need much financial help from the outside. If we can get it, so much the better, but before we throw up our hands and holler quits because some club won't give us a ball park and pay the players' salaries. A team doesn't have to be a farm in order to sell its players, and if the proposition of one or two prospective managers is accepted it is safe to say that Lubbock can sell some players at the end of the season. The woods are full of scouts every summer looking for baseball ivory. They've been here when Lubbock didn't have anything but a sandlot club.

* * *

The matter of finances is the most important, of course. It is estimated that $4,000 will be enough to build a park and start the season. Brothers, can you spare four G's?

* * *

The Lubbock basketball card is quite full this week-end. The second annual Lubbock High school invitation tournament gets off at 8 o'clock Friday morning and winds up at that hour Saturday night, with very few empty hours within that time. Twenty-three teams have entered. Starting Friday afternoon, the Lubbock county cage tourney for girls teams occupies the Texas Tech court. This affair also continues through Saturday. It is under the direction of County Athletic Director Dawkins.

* * *

They're having some warm contests in the Southwest conference this season. The Longhorns lead the field at present but close behind are T. C. U. and S. M. U. Baylor and Rice are considered the weakest teams in the race, in spite of the facts that Jimmie Kitts was counted on to turn out a champion at Rice and that Baylor won the title last year. Kitts is having a tough time. Too much should not be expected of him his first year. Coaching high school basketball is somewhat different from coaching college basketball. Kitts earned a national reputation with his Athens High Hornets. He is at Rice for the first time. His material is not all that it could be, which should be considered, but usually is not, when a coach fails to produce a champion.

* * *

There was quite a squabble over the Rice-S. M. U. game played in Dallas the other night which ended in a 34-34 tie, or maybe a 34-33 victory for the Mustangs. Three sports writers said it was a tie, but the Mustang student manager said it was 34-33, and the manager was official scorer. Flem Hall, sports editor of the Fort Worth Star-Telegram, has the following comment regarding the game:

* * *

"The wild uproar in which the S. M. U.-Rice game ended—once more calls attention to a glaring weakness in the Southwest conference scoring system. Monday night three experienced newspaper men and the scorer for the Rice Owls agreed that the game ended in a 34-34 deadlock, but, because the scorebook kept by the S. M. U. student manager had the score 34-33 the Mustangs were awarded the game. As the 'home' book, the S. M. U. record was taken as official.

* * *

"Just why the record as kept by the scorer of the home team should be taken as 'official' is not known. However, it is a general practice and many times the responsibility falls on an undergraduate, usually a youngster who is both excitable and prejudiced.

* * *

"Scoring of a fast basketball game is a mean job and should be in the hands of one who does not become so interested in the game that he forgets to mark down points. That the present system is exceedingly dangerous has been evidenced many times in the past when glaring errors were discovered. It has been suggested that official scorers and timers, adults who are not excitable and who know their onions, be designated in each city. 'Why the scorekeeping and timing should be turned over to youngsters when they are equally as important as the referee himself is something I can't understand,' said Coach Schmidt of T. C. U."

TWO TOURNEYS SLATED FOR LUBBOCK

OTHER MEET WILL BE PLAYED AT SLATON THIS WEEK-END

Between 60 and 70 high school basketball teams will compete in Lubbock county tournaments this week-end.

Two invitation tournaments and one county play-off are scheduled in Lubbock and Slaton. Almost 50 teams are due to participate in the two Lubbock tournaments.

The second annual Lubbock High school invitation tournament which starts tomorrow morning at 8 o'clock, bids to be the most important. It is exclusively for boys teams, and will draw 24 teams of this section.

Big Tourney At Slaton

Slaton High school will be host to about 20 teams in an invitation girls tournament Friday and Saturday. Special entertainment will be provided for visiting teams, the entertainment card including a breakfast for teams surviving Friday's play. The breakfast will be served Saturday morning.

On the Texas Tech court girls again will be the contestants. It is the county tournament for girls teams of Lubbock county. According to County Athletic Director Dawkins, about 25 teams have signified intention to participate. The winner in this county will compete in quadrant play, quadrant winner to participate in the district tournament. The district tournament will not be sponsored by the Texas Interscholastic league.

Three Late Entries

The acceptance of the entries of Slaton, Cotton Center and New Hope yesterday swelled the entry list for the Lubbock invitation to 24 teams. The tournament play begins at 8 o'clock Friday morning when Woodrow and Carlisle take the floor. Other first round games will be played as follows on the Lubbock High gymnasium floor unless specified otherwise:

9 a. m.—Grovesville vs. Wolfforth; 10 a. m.—New Hope vs. McClung; 11 a. m.—Wilson vs. Plainview; 12 noon—Lubbock vs. Center; 2 p. m.—Sudan vs. Cotton Center at junior high school court; 3 p. m.—Ralls vs. New Hope at junior high school court; 4 p. m.—Slaton vs. Crosbyton at junior high school court.

Second round pairings are:

1 p. m.—Monroe vs. Brownfield; 2 p. m.—Shallowater vs. Estacado; 3 p. m.—Abernathy vs. winner Lubbock-Center game; 4 p. m.—Acuff vs. winner of Grovesville-Wolfforth game; 5 p. m. League Four vs. Hale Center; 7 p. m.—winner Sudan-Cotton Center vs. winner Ralls-New Hope; 8 p. m.—winner New Home-McClung vs. winner Woodrow-Carlisle; 9 p. m.—winner Crosbyton-Slaton vs. winner Wilson-Plainview.

NEED COLLEGE BALL STARS

MAJOR LEAGUES HURT BY CURTAILMENT OF SCHOOL SPORTS

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 26 (AP)—Baseball, says Joe Carr, newly appointed promotional director for the National Association of Professional Baseball Leagues, needs the college athletes.

"Get the stars and the crowds will follow," says the man who is trying to find a tonic for the national game.

The prime need just now, he explained, is to stop curtailing of baseball in high schools and colleges. This, more than anything else, is jeopardizing the game, he said.

"Far too many athletes are being graduated from colleges and entering the coaching game who know nothing at all about baseball," Carr said.

"I know that several high schools have abandoned the sport because newly-appointed coaches were former football, track or basketball stars and knew nothing and cared less about baseball. This alone will put off the day when baseball will make a scholastic comeback."

"Without a team to follow, where are the youngsters going to learn baseball?" Carr asked, adding that rabid fans don't get that way after they grow up.

The game, he said, is almost entirely dependent on high school and college boys, not to mention the sandlotters from which Babe Ruth and Lefty Groves often emerge.

Longhorns To Meet Notre Dame In 1934

AUSTIN, Jan. 26 (AP)—The University of Texas athletic council has announced that it had contracted for a football game with Notre Dame at South Bend on Oct. 6, 1934.

The council tried to arange a two-year contract for a home game at each school but Notre Dame did not believe the proposal would be profitable.

The olive growing industry, founded 160 years ago in California, returned $25,000,000 to planters and packers last year.

BRUSHING UP SPORTS

CORNELL UNIVERSITY ATHLETICS PUT ON "CASH-AND-CARRY" BASIS FOR '33

BY ALAN GOULD
Associated Press Sports Editor

NEW YORK, Jan. 26 (AP)—Cornell university's athletics, despite the publicly proclaimed policy of retrenchment in everything except football and basketball for 1933, have been put upon a "cash-and-carry" basis calculated to give the undergraduates as much or more competition than usual, plus a bigger part in the selection of their own opponents.

The rapidity and enthusiasm with which the students themselves have reacted to the economy program has assured the continuation of the Ithacans in eastern intercollegiate competition, including track and field, baseball and rowing, at least to the extent of a regatta with Syracuse.

Meanwhile the Cornell University Athletic association, with $35,000 in the bank, occupies a position of solvency somewhat unique these days and proposes to keep out of the red. This reserve is enough to finance the program through the end of the academic year, closing June 30. By cleaning the slate and making commitments on the "cash-and-carry" basis, it will not be necessary to borrow from the banks in anticipation of football revenues next fall.

The Cornell athletic plant now is valued at a half million dollars, on which there is an outstanding mortgage for only $105,000, with all interest paid up to date.

From the competitive angle, here's the way the new economy system is working out to the advantage of the athletes. The Cornell-Syracuse freshman basketball game, scheduled in Syracuse, was cancelled along with other intercollegiate competition for the yearlings—on short notice. Graduate Manager "Cy" Thurston of Syracuse called Graduate Manager "Rym" Derry of Cornell, offering to pay the expenses of the "frosh" team if it would make the trip.

The players agreed, made the trip to Syracuse in autos, were fed by their hosts, won the game and turned in an expense account of $12. Two years ago, when college athletics still were enjoying relative prosperity, it cost $98 to send the "frosh" quintet to Syracuse to take a beating.

BOZEMAN AND MUSTACHE STILL IN TOURNEY

CHICAGO, Jan. 26 (AP)—If Jay Bozeman, the billiard artist from Vallejo, Calif., doesn't lose another match soon, he's likely to wake up some morning with his prize mustache stolen.

When Bozeman arrived in Chicago for the start of the world's three-cushion billiard championship drive 10 days ago, his rivals noticed a mustache of the shoe string variety adorning his upper lip.

"As long as I have this mustache, I'm going to be in the running for that title and the dough that goes with it," Bozeman replied to their quips. "This mustache is going to bring me luck."

The mustache was still there today and so was Bozeman. He led the field in the race for the title with a mark of four victories against one setback. He was certain to have at least a share in the lead after today, too, as he was idle while his closest rival, Welker Cochran of Hollywood, faced the dangerous Clarence Jackson of Detroit in the big match tonight. Cochran's record was three victories and one defeat.

Bozeman soared into the undisputed lead yesterday as he defeated Tiff Denton, Kansas City veteran, 50 to 29 in 37 innings and Cochran was turned back, 50 to 35 in 48 innings by Frank Scoville of Buffalo.

Augie Kieckhefer's chances to retain his crown faded last night as he suffered his second reverse in five matches, falling before Otto Reiselt of Philadelphia, 50 to 46 in 62 innings.

Alexandre Dumas, called Dumas Pere (father) was the greatest French romantic novelist and the most universally read story-teller of the world. He was born July 24, 1802.

MOST OF COMFORTS AND LUXURIES FOR HARVARD ATHLETES ARE ELIMINATED

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Jan. 26 (AP)—Most of the comforts and luxuries that made Harvard athletes one of the most pampered groups in intercollegiate sport were wiped out by Athletic Director William J. Bingham while he was overcoming a $316,000 football shrinkage and balancing his 1932-33 sports budget.

To do this Bingham had to chop $210,000 off the cost of running the Harvard sports program, which has been reduced from $886,000 to $676,000.

Here are some of his economy measures:

Such frills as private cars and diners, pullmans, taxi-service, porters and police escorts have been eliminated from Harvard traveling and from now on all Crimson sports teams, even the varsity football squad, will ride in day coaches.

To save $11,000 on equipment, Bingham has ruled out new shells and oars for the varsity crew, new tackling or blocking dummies for the football teams, new vaulting poles, javelins and weights for the track team and new uniforms for the baseball and hockey teams.

The football equipment budget has been shaved so low the varsity squad will be theoretically restricted to three-quarters of a new jersey per player. Most minor teams will be forced to supply their own uniforms and equipment.

In round sums, Bingham chopped $25,000 off the H. A. A. payroll by a general salary cut, lopped $21,000 off travel costs and saved $62,000 in guarantees.

LUBBOCK TEAM WILL GO TO AMARILLO

THANKSGIVING CLASH SITE CHANGED BY SCHOOL HEADS

It developed yesterday at a conference between members of the athletic councils of Texas Tech college and Lubbock High school that Lubbock and Amarillo would play their Thanksgiving Day football game at Amarillo in 1933.

The annual holiday game between Lubbock and Amarillo was scheduled last week to be played in Lubbock, but a conflict with the Texas Tech schedule made a conference here necessary.

An agreement was made between the two councils whereby the two local schools would alternate home Thanksgiving dates after this year. The two councils are also to cooperate in arranging grid schedules so that no week-end will have two games here and holiday dates can be played at home every other year.

Tech is scheduled to meet the Kansas Aggies here on Thanksgiving of this year. Although Lubbock played at Amarillo the past season, it was satisfactorily agreed that the Westerners again go to Amarillo this year in order that the Matadors might play the colorful Kansas State team.

Members of the two councils present at the meeting which was held in the office of Dr. Bradford Knapp were: Tech—W. L. Stangel, Dr. W. A. Jackson, E. L. Dohoney, C. W. Ratliff, Pete Cawthon and Dutchy Smith; High school—Supt. M. H. Duncan, Principal R. W. Matthews, Carroll Thompson and Weldon Chapman.

CHANGE IN FORWARD PASS RULES IS FAVORED BY COLLEGE GRID COACHES

NEW YORK, Jan. 26 (AP)—Whether or not the football rules committee decides to make any changes this year, the coaches have a few very definite ideas what ought to be done and are preparing to sift the suggestions at a meeting of their "committee of twenty" early in February and to present them to the rules body when it gathers.

The two principal ideas, as gathered by Lou Little, chairman of the committee the coaches formed at their December meetings, are that something ought to be done about the forward pass and that the ball ought to be brought in from the edge of the field without loss of a down, before it is carried over the sideline.

Fear that the forward pass was getting out of hand and too many passes were being tossed indiscriminately was reflected in the report of the 1932 rules committee. The coaches offer three possible changes to discourage too much passing. They are:

1. That the penalty for two successive incomplete passes be increased from five to fifteen yards, offered by Little.

2. That forward passes be permitted from any point behind the scrimmage line, replacing the present restriction that the ball must be thrown from a point at least five yards behind the line, made by Dick Handley of Northwestern.

3. That a forward pass caught by the defense after it has touched an ineligible receiver be ruled an intercepted pass, instead of an incomplete pass as is the case today.

Six-Day Bicycle Race Nearing End

CLEVELAND, Jan. 26 (AP)—The big push that means money was on today as the nine two-man teams still in Cleveland's first six-day bicycle race went into their final 18 hours.

The youthful Jules Audy, Canadian who formed a new partnership with Jack Sheehan of the Irish team when his partner, William (Torchy) Sheehan, was forced out with injuries came back into the running in one of the most spectacular series of jams of the meet. With Sheehan's sensational riding to aid him, Audy picked up four laps to move into third place, a single lap behind the leading team of Reggie McNamara and Norman Hill.

JOE MOORE UNDER GIANTS CONTRACT

NEW YORK, Jan. 26 (AP)—While activity in the baseball contract market remains slow as the clubs and the holdout brigade remain firm on their bid and asked prices, the New York Giants continue to provide news. The signing of Joe Moore, left fielder from Texas, was announced by the Giant management and with it went the news that Bill Terry now has enough players under contract to put a full team on the field.

Another bit of news from the Giant offices and a welcome one to the boys who occupy the bleachers at the Polo grounds, was that Travis Jackson has been formally reinstated by Commissioner Landis and is ready to make a bid for his old place at shortstop. Jackson, who suffered from bad knees, is exercising regularly at his Arkansas home to strengthen the joints.

REVENGE PLOT IS HINTED

PARDONED SLAYER IS WOUNDED BY THREE MASKED MEN

SANTA ROSA, N. M., Jan. 26. (AP)—Officers hinted at a revenge plot today as they investigated the attempted assassination by three masked gunmen of Orin B. "Boss" Jackson, pardoned in 1926 after he was convicted of murder for the slaying of Royal W. Lackey, Quay county rancher.

Frank Faircloth, assistant district attorney said the motive for the attempted killing might be found in the old murder case.

No Money Taken

Robbery apparently was not the motive, for the gunmen opened fire on Jackson in a pool hall he operates here and fled without touching the cash register or making any demand for money. Neither did they molest Joe Ballard, Jackson's partner, nor several persons in the pool hall when the shooting occurred early yesterday.

Hospital attendants at Amarillo, where Jackson was taken, said he is in a critical condition. He has three wounds, each of the bullets fired by the three gunmen finding its mark.

Jackson was sentenced to 99 years in 1922 on a second degree murder charge for the slaying of Lackey. He was pardoned the day before Governor A. T. Hannett left office in 1926. The supreme court upheld the conviction in 1925.

Threats Investigated

Testimony at the trial indicated Lackey and Jackson quarreled over a woman. Jackson was alleged to have shot Lackey when they met near Rana, N. M. Officials are investigating reports that threats were made to kill Jackson after he was pardoned.

Jackson told Sheriff F. L. Sanchez he knew of no reason for the attack and said he did not recognize his assailants.

The three gunmen wore handkerchiefs over their faces as masks and entered the back door of the pool hall as Jackson and Ballard were closing the place at 2 o'clock this morning. Without a word of warning each aimed at Jackson and fired. As their victim slumped to the floor they fled out the back way and escaped in a car parked nearby. Only one volley of shots was fired.

ROTARY ANNS ARE FETED AT DINNER

Wives and sweethearts of Lubbock Rotarians were entertained at an annual ladies' night program Wednesday night in the Lubbock hotel. About 150 persons attended.

Following a four-course dinner, an informal program featured by humorous poetic introduction of club members on a lantern-slide screen was given. A vocal number, "Sweet Adeline", given by the Rotary quartet composed of Dr. Bradford Knapp, John Crisler, Asa May and Guy R. Johnston, was humorously received by those present after which Mr. and Mrs. Harry Blocker, Mrs. R. C. Goodwin and Herbert Brown came from behind the curtain and entertained with vocal selections.

Cryptic remarks spoken in a humorous vein regarding certain features of the program were given by Dr. W. A. Jackson, Chas. A. Guy and Neil Wright.

The program was prepared by a committee composed of: D. K. Bondurant, R. D. Erwin, Roy Furr and Guy McAfee. President Homer D. Grant presided as toastmaster.

DISPUTE STIRRED OVER WHO HAS GUN WITH WHICH "BILLY THE KID" SLAIN

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., Jan. 26 (AP)—A former governor of New Mexico today had entered the controversy over "the gun that killed Billy the Kid" with a statement the weapon now was in possession of the estate of the late Tom Powers, El Paso saloon keeper.

Former Governor George Curry, who was a deputy of Sheriff Pat Garrett, who killed "The Kid" at old Fort Sumner in 1881, said he was certain the revolver with which the outlaw was slain is now in possession of Dr. J. B. Brady, El Paso, administrator of the Powers estate. Sheriff Jesus M. Baca, Santa Fe, has produced a pearl-handled 44.40 revolver which he said was the Garrett weapon.

Weapon Unnotched

Garrett's pistol, Curry declared, was a .44 calibre revolver with a long barrel and an ordinary handle. Curry, he said, saw the gun a week after the killing of Billy the Kid, and it was unnotched.

Sergeant W. T. McReight, pioneer newspaperman, said he believed the gun to be in Brady's possession.

"I saw the gun in Powers' saloon and it was labeled 'the gun that killed Billy the Kid,'" he said.

A short time later Garrett was killed in a quarrel.

Dispute Started

Baca's statement that he had the famous revolver stirred dispute among old-time New Mexicans which has led to filing by Mrs. Pat Garrett, widow of the sheriff, of a petition in probate court at El Paso to have the revolver returned to her by the Powers estate, claiming it was lent to Powers by Garrett for exhibition only.

PRICES REDUCED $130 TO $145

A Roomier more Powerful Six $745 ☆ A Larger more Luxurious Eight $845

NEW! . . . Two motor cars entirely different from anything you ever saw. New radiators—lamps—hoods—windshields. New fenders and wheels. New rear contours. Symmetrical new design from end to end. And with style leadership, these 1933 Oldsmobiles also bring you every other desirable quality—at the lowest prices in ten years.

Larger—Roomier—More Powerful

The new Six is a roomier, more comfortable car . . . the Eight is larger and finer in every respect. Both are extremely brilliant performers. And progressive engineering has still further increased the dependability for which Oldsmobile is famous.

The Six engine is larger and develops 80 h.p. —while the Eight has been increased to 90 h.p. As a result, the new Six will do from 75 to 80, the Eight from 80 to 85—actual stop-watch miles per hour.

Engines Cradled in Rubber

The new Oldsmobile engines are cushioned on a three-point rubber mounting of new scientific design. This mounting is the most successful yet perfected, and overcomes all sensation of effort or vibration from the source of power.

Lower, Sturdier Chassis

In both the new Six and Straight Eight, Oldsmobile has employed a special double-drop X-type frame which greatly strengthens the chassis and provides unusual driving stability. By permitting a substantial reduction in the car's height, the new frame contributes also to the pleasing new body lines.

Thought For Today

For in much wisdom is much grief: and he that increaseth knowledge increaseth sorrow.—Ecclesiastes 1:18.

• • •

The wise man is but a clever infant.—Carlyle.

Changing World

When President-elect Roosevelt remarked, in a recent after-dinner speech in New York, on "the unequal contest between youth and progress," he summed up in a few words a matter that has been bothering parents and educators for a long time.

What Mr. Roosevelt was getting at, of course, was the way in which the attractions and distractions of a rapidly moving world operate to tear young people away from their moorings. It isn't exactly a new spectacle; it has been going on, in this country, for several decades. But it does contain a problem which we have hardly begun to solve, and in it are the sources of a whole multitude of tragedies.

It seems, sometimes, as if the world as a whole had suddenly tripled its pace in the past generation. It has equipped itself with such devices as automobiles, movies, airplanes, radios and the like; and all of these, acting in competition with home and church and school, have held out to youth a lure that is both stimulating and dangerous.

• • •

The youngster coming of age these days faces a different set-up than his father faced. Life beckons him from a thousand angles, just as it always has beckoned to youth; but the world now offers him an almost infinite number of channels into which he can pour his fresh young energy. It tries to pull him away from his old foundations; it makes it pitifully easy for him to cut loose from all the old ties and set out on his own.

All of this causes a great many shipwrecks. And yet, as Mr. Roosevelt remarks, we cannot stop it. It is part of progress, and we can't isolate our young folk against it. The world has changed, and there is no conceivable way in which we can set the clock back.

What we can do is to get a new appreciation of the problem involved; a new sympathy and understanding for the strange compulsions and dark confusions which blind progress is putting upon youth. We can realize that youth nowadays, as seldom before, needs wise and kindly guidance from the older generation; and when youth comes a cropper we can make ourselves admit that it isn't all youth's fault.

There seems to be something of an incongruity at Austin, an incongruity as far as economies are concerned.

We find on one hand a legislature bent upon economies, but not bent so far that it favors slashing its own salaries.

READING recently the very good book 'Rollie Burns', written by Dr. W. C. Holden, of Tech's history department and based upon the interesting recollections of that grand, old pioneer of West Texas, The Plainsman ran across a descriptive passage of more than usual merit. It recounts the first birth and first burial in the history of what is now Garza county.

The incident occurred when Mr. Burns was manager of the Llano ranch in the latter part of 1883 or in 1884 and for obvious reasons names are deleted from this reproduction.

* * *

At any rate, when the ill-fated youngster began to arrive at the rude ranch house the father was called in from the horse lot to aid his wife. The scene took place 80 miles from a doctor and there was no chance to get one on hand.

Quoting from 'Rollie Burns':

"The baby, a girl, was born without medical aid, disenfectants, or anaesthetics to relieve the pain and with only the hard clumsy hands of the father to assist. It died, a few hours after it was born, a sacrifice to frontier privations. The boys all came in and we got things ready for the burial.

"John Hefker, the German wagon cook, was a sort of a carpenter and made the coffin. He had to take some boards off the grain house. The little coffin, a foot wide, a foot deep and two and a half feet long, was rough and we lined the inside with a sheet. We dressed the baby in a little white dress its mother had spent many hours making months before, anxious, intent, wondering. It was a pretty baby . . . and when we placed it in its coffin we had a hard time to keep from breaking down. The boys dug the grave between two cedar bushes northwest of the house. They went to the creek and got six large slabs of stone to make a vault for the coffin in the bottom of the grave. They put one in the bottom for a floor; then roughly hewed four to make the sides and shaped one for the top.

"LATE in the afternoon we had everything ready for the burial. Two cowboys carried the little coffin and the rest of us trailed along behind. The mother could not go. Things had gone badly with her and we didn't know whether she would live, or not. Her husband left her for a few minutes to come along with us.

"An open grave, a tiny coffin and a dozen rough-fisted, hard-working cowpunchers standing around was all we had. We didn't have any singing, praying or speech-making. We did what probably was more effective than that. We just placed the little coffin in the rock vault and paused for a moment. Everything was awfully still and there was moisture in every puncher's eyes. Two or three were sniffing a little bit and big, hot tears were running down the father's cheeks. Then we placed the slab of stone over the coffin and filled the grave. This was the first birth and first burial in Garza county."

Is it any wonder West Texas has stood bravely against all storms with a background like the one described above?

Is it any wonder West Texans love West Texas and are ready and willing to fight for their own land?

The Plainsman doesn't think so.

Do you?

Need For A One-Man Commission

George W. Norris About The Only Modificationist Left; Others Either Favor Prohibition Repeal Or Oppose It

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—What, in these days, could be more old-fashioned than a modificationist—a light wines and beer man?

Not long ago there were millions of them, dissatisfied with prohibition but not caring or daring to urge the now popular naked repeal.

Dutcher

The only one left seems to be George W. Norris, that technically Republican but completely independent senator from Nebraska. Norris has the best of not many reputations here for the old-fashioned honesty and courage that you read about in romantic novels.

The senator's viewpoint on prohibition legislation is not only of interest to millions of American liberals but also to wets and drys. For he is chairman of the Senate Judiciary committee which reported out the modified repeal resolution and the beer bill. He helped frame them both, but he voted against the first and for the second.

"So the prohibitionists are with me and against me and the wets are against me and with me," says Norris, who probably is the only man in Congress who wouldn't worry about a thing like that.

• • •

He was dry until last summer, but defied the Anti-Saloon League by deserting his party to support Candidate Al Smith in 1928 and again by campaigning for Roosevelt, the repealist, in 1932.

"I concluded prohibition was a failure and getting worse all the time," Norris explains. "But I don't want to give up the amendment and go back to the saloon until we have another experiment.

"The wets claimed for years that beer and wine would reduce drunkenness. There's some hope, though I fear not much, that they were right. The only way to achieve such a resolution is to modify the Volstead Act."

• • •

The wets can thank Norris for suggesting the formation of the Senate beer bill with a view to preventing the supreme court from killing it on grounds of unconstitutionality. The idea seemed one of the brightest ideas produced here in a long time. He is now sure the court can't harm beer within the alcoholic limit prescribed by Congress.

"The constitution prohibits the sale of liquor," he says, "but unless some law is passed by Congress the prohibition is unenforceable by the federal government. Congress need not take all the jurisdiction which the constitution confers upon it, but can prohibit beverages containing more than a certain amount of alcohol without saying anything about those which contain less. If we had a constitutional amendment prohibiting the theft of livestock and passed a law merely covering cows, the federal government couldn't prosecute pig-stealers.

"You can't arrest a man under a statute which doesn't exist for an offense for which no penalty is provided."

• • •

Norris helped obtain the provision in the repeal resolution for ratification by state legislatures simply because there's a depression and 48 special ratification conventions would cost millions of dollars.

"Ratification by conventions would be most logical because delegates would be elected on no other issue and would have nothing else to do," he says. "The perfect way would be to have the amendment submitted at a regular election, which would mean a direct popular vote at almost no expense.

"But I didn't think we would be justified in saddling the great expense of conventions on the people now."

Finds A Way

PITTSBURGH—Science, like love, "will find a way."

The following yarn is going the rounds of the Carnegie Tech campus:

An enterprising engineering student, who spends his idle hours tinkering with a short wave radio set, received a calculus problem which was too difficult.

Exasperated, he finally appealed for help over the air waves.

The solution promptly came back, dictated by a student at the University of Texas, away down in Austin.

Not Satisfied

MADISON, Wis.—The sign in the barber shop read:

"Satisfaction guaranteed or your money back."

The other night a burglar broke into the shop, helped himself to a small amount of money, and then left, but not until he had taken time to write the owner of the place a note. It read:

"You gave me a bad haircut. It's O. K."

He's A Winner

DELAVAN, Wis. — Kenneth Boardman, scoring ace of the Delavan High school basketball team, lost the opportunity to play in the last game but he is a hero just the same.

His mother, who was seriously ill, needed a blood transfusion so he gave his blood. Physicians decided he was too weak to play basketball. The coach told the team and they beat Lake Geneva 19 to 14.

PAIN DEADENED CHEST COLDS LOOSENED WITHOUT DRUGS

Get quick relief from neuralgia pain, sciatica pain, neuritis pain, rheumatic pain, lame back, stiff neck, headache, strains and chest colds by rubbing plenty of Baume Bengué (pronounced Ben-Gay) on the spot. It doesn't blister or stain. Rub it in till it sinks down and soothes the pain or breaks up the chest cold. Take no drugs, for any drug that is powerful enough to "deaden" pain or loosen a chest cold may not be good for you.

But beware of imitations. Ask your druggist for Baume Bengué by name (called "Ben-Gay" in English). There are many analgesic baumes, mostly cheap imitations of Ben-Gay made out of synthetic drugs. That is why they are cheap. That is also why they are ineffective. Insist on Ben-Gay and you will get real results.

$40,000,000 Sought In New Insull Suit

CHICAGO Jan. 26 (AP)—To the maze of litigation involving the enterprises of Samuel Insull had been added today a $40,000,000 suit against the entire directorate of Insull Utilities Investment, Inc., half-billion dollar holding company.

Suit was fled in federal court by Attorney Lewis Jacobson, counsel for petitioning creditors in the bankruptcy action against the investment concern, now in receivership. Entitled "St. John's church vs. Samuel Insull," the action was filed in behalf of approximately 20,000 holders of the trust's debentures. St. John's church was located in Michigan, the suit set forth.

When things were booming a few years ago, we heard a lot about the "nouveau riche." It seems a bit more difficult to popularize the new poor.

One-half the workers of the world are engaged in agriculture.

Apply Unguentine, Quick! It soothes the pain—prevents infection and ugly scars. Ask your druggist for the red-and-yellow tube, 50c.

GREEN PLEADS FOR CHANGES

LABOR LEADER WOULD ALTER THE ECONOMIC STRUCTURE OF U. S.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26. —(AP) — Far-reaching changes in the nation's economic structure were urged by William Green, president of the American Federation of Labor with an added warning that labor will fight to obtain them with every legitimate means at its command.

Outlining his program in an article written for the Nation's Business, organ of the National Chamber of Commerce, Green listed eight objectives:

Federal licenses for corporations doing an interstate business with specific requirements as to accounting.

National economic planning, aiming at the raising of standards of living and not at price fixing and limitation of output.

A protective service (governmental) for investors.

Recognition of the equities of workers in the industries in which they work.

Constructive governmental control of credit to finance production.

A federal agency to college and collate data as to man-hours of work available and as to wage earners' income to provide standards for determining economic balance.

Higher wages.

Organization of workers into more and stronger unions.

CHANGES IN AIR LINES OUTLINED

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26 (AP)— Changes in existing air mail routes which the postoffice department expects to make in the near future were outlined to members of a house committee Wednesday by Postmaster General Brown.

Some of those serving on the postoffice committee wanted the extensions and discontinuances withheld until the committee issues its report of an inquiry it has made into the airmail situation, but objections were withdrawn after Brown said the realignment would add no additional costs.

Committee members said among the proposed extensions are:

Los Angeles to San Francisco; Columbus to Chicago; Boston to Albany; Buffalo to Detroit; Muskegon, Michigan, to Milwaukee, Toledo to Columbus.

The discontinuances were reported as: Phoenix to San Diego; Chicago to Indianapolis; Big Spring, Texas, to San Antonio and dropping of one of the two lines plying between Kansas City and St. Louis.

Hatchery Men Are To Meet Here Today

Hatchery men of this region will meet at 4 o'clock this afternoon in the Lubbock hotel. F. J. Glass, president of the Texas Baby Chick association, of Gainesville, is expected to be the principal speaker.

Hatchery men to the number of 30 or 40 or more are expected from 10 counties outside Lubbock. Several state officers have planned to be here for the meeting.

J. R. Newman, of the Economy mills, will act as temperary chairman, at the request of President Glass. A group organization may be formed here for this area.

Italy Considering Bartering Points

ROME, Jan. 26 (AP)— Bartering points by which Italy may obtain from Washington a reduction of her war debts to the United States were considered here today. This activity is being pursued in the belief President-elect Roosevelt desires trade concessions for the United States as a premise to debt revision.

The foreign office issued a statement that nothing had been decided regarding a lump sum offer of settlement to the United States and flatly denied reports that a settlement of $100,000,000 was contemplated.

Assailant Hunted For Hammer Attack

LUFKIN, Jan. 25. (AP)—Posses, deputy sheriffs and Hardy Purvis, state ranger, continued today their search through Angelina county for Charlie Outlaw, charged in four cases with assault with intent to murder in connection with a hammer attack on the family of F. L. Call at their farm home north of Lufkin Tuesday.

Outlaw thirty years ago served a term in federal prison for abstracting contents of letters while postmaster at Lay, Angelina county.

LAUNDRYMEN ELECT

HOUSTON, Jan. 26 (AP)—A banquet and dance at a local hotel last night brought to a close the three-day Texas Laundry Owners' association convention in Houston. New officers and the next convention city had been selected earlier in the day.

Succeeding Carl McKinney of Bose Creek, David T. P. Nelson of Texarkana, was elected president of the association. Roy Dorse of Dallas and Arthur Fittger of Houston were elected vice presidents. Dallas was chosen as the next convention city.

SHE PREFERS SNAKES TO DOLLS

They told us that little Helene Schuback, of Long Beach, Cal., would rather play with snakes than dolls. What's more, here's the picture to prove it. Helene, who is but two years old, is shown with her pal, Rex, a highly-trained police dog, and a few of her pet snakes. She is a daughter of Tex Schuback who collects the reptiles.

DAILY MARKETS

Cotton Market

NEW ORLEANS REPORT

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 26. —(AP)— Cotton steady although cables were slightly lower than due. There was some trade buying at the start and first trades showed gains of 2 to 3 points, with March at 6.16, July at 6.41, and October at 6.60. Later, prices eased off one to two points from the opening on a little hedge selling but at the end of the first hour the market was practically back at the opening figures.

There were a few buying orders in the market for January, 1934, but no sales were made in the early trading.

The market ruled quiet all morning and prices fluctuated narrowly within a range of 2 to 3 points. There was a little trade buying and also some hedge-selling reported to be against Red Cross cotton. March eased off to 6.14, July to 6.40 and October to 6.57, down 2 to 3 points from the earlier highs, and unchanged to one point up compared with yesterday's close.

Near noon the market was a shade steadier and one to three points above the lows.

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, Jan. 26. (AP)—Cotton opened steady, unchanged to 4 higher on steady Liverpool cables and trade buying. March 6.17; May 6.29; July 6.41; Oct. 6.62; Dec. 6.75.

March sold to 6.31 and October to 6.63 on the initial demand making net advances of about 2 to 5 points on active months, but the advance seemed to meet southern selling, accompanied by rumors of slightly freer spot offerings from the interior of Texas. The selling however, was in comparatively small volume with the market holding quiet and steady at the end of the first half hour.

March sold up to 6.20 later in the morning or about 5 points net higher but the bulges met further southern selling and fluctuations became irregular. At midday May was selling around 6.30 with the general market quiet at net advances of 2 to 4 points.

Stock Market

WALL STREET REPORT

NEW YORK, Jan. 26 (AP)—Rails again provided rather dim highlights in another apathetic session of the stock market today.

Pennsylvania's ordering of a dividend yesterday and Delaware and Hudson's announcement of a substantial purchase of New York Central evidently generated a little fresh interest. Tobaccos were adversely influenced by American Tobacco's discontinuance of its extra dividend.

Gains of major fractions to a point appeared in New York Central, Union Pacific, Chesapeake and Ohio, and Santa Fe. Delaware and Hudson recovered, after an early dip of 1-2. Other issues up 1-2 to 1 point included American Can, American Telephone, Eastman, Montgomery Ward, and National Biscuit. U. S. Steel common and preferred and General Motors were about steady. American Tobacco B lost more than 2 points, and Reynolds and Liggett and Myers issues eased a little.

Grain Market

CHICAGO REPORT

CHICAGO, Jan. 26 (AP)—New upturns in grain values early today followed reports that drouth effects were rapidly extending in domestic winter wheat territory. Liverpool advices said a better demand for wheat had developed.

Opening unchanged to 3-8 higher, wheat afterward held near the initial limits. Corn started at a shade decline to 1-8 advance and subsequently altered little.

Man Arrested And Auto Confiscated

HOBBS, N. M., Jan. 26. (Special)—A man was captured and a Chrysler four-door sedan, filled with loot, was confiscated in Hobbs' main street about 8:30 o'clock last night.

Three other occupants of the automobile abandoned the machine, and escaped on foot. Officers are checking on the automobile which carried license number 57,918. The man held refused to give any information regarding himself or his companions. Officers are checking to determine where the loot was taken.

Officers said they found ten boxes of cigars, a case of cigarets, a sack filled with new shoes, a number of new shirts, and other articles.

Sky Birds in the South

Although they are much more at home in the air, Captain Jimmy Haislip, of St. Louis, holder of the transcontinental flying record, and his wife, who holds the women's speed record of 255 miles an hour, seem perfectly happy as they enjoy the sun at Miami Beach, Fla. Mrs. Haislip was the sensation of the Cleveland air meet last Summer at the same time that her husband shattered the cross-country mark.

REALISTIC DRAMA OF HUNTING FOR TREASURE IS ENACTED IN ARKANSAS

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Jan. 26 (AP)—A realistic drama of treasure hunting with all the elements of fiction's thrillers—a recluse, robbers, torture, death, and secret maps—has been enacted in the north Arkansas hills and the American Red Cross is $6,000 richer.

R. F. Leigh, an aged farmer, played the role of hermit in the real-life drama. He was tortured by bandits in a vain attempt to find the hiding place of his savings and they finally left his body hanging to a rafter in his home near the town of Vanburen.

Youths Confess

Authorities have cast Jesse Hardester, 17, and Arrin Moody, 22, in the roles of robbers and a confession has been written, in which the youths told of killing the old man. They couldn't make him tell his secrets, they related, and they got nothing but a few dollars and an old watch.

A while before he was killed Leigh drew maps of his treasure caches, sealed them in an envelope and left them with a neighbor, Elton Reeves. Another sealed message was given Reeves, instructing him to forward the maps to the Red Cross in Washington after the recluse's death.

Leigh's body was found December 29 and Reeves obeyed instructions, including fulfillment of requests that he and another neighbor, Ben Russell, stand guard at the Leigh home until Red Cross representatives came to claim the money.

Still On Guard

L. M. Mitchell, St. Louis, assistant manager of the mid-western area of the Red Cross, came to the farm yesterday in company with Sheriff J. W. Hatchett and found Reeves and Russell doing sentinel duty at the three-room house Leigh had occupied 20 years.

Digging at the designated spot, the searchers unearthed the boxes full of large and small bills.

They found the cache just as he had written.

Isaac Roosevelt, great-great-grandfather of Franklin D. Roosevelt, president-elect of the United States, was a sugar refiner, and built the first refinery that existed in American before the Revolution.

Nine Communists Slain In Germany

BERLIN, Jan. 26, (AP)—Communists and police pointed accusing fingers at each other today in the aftermath of the bloodiest clash in Saxony's recent history —a battle in which nine communists died and eleven were wounded.

Fifteen hundred people gathered last night in a forbidden meeting in Dresden. A speaker began "abushing" Adolf Hitler's Nazis, the police report said, whereupon the police crashed into the crowd in a flying wedge. The audience, the report said, started hurling beer mugs and chairs at the officers and some one in a gallery fired a shot. Then the police opened fire.

Former Stage Star Claimed By Death

SEATTLE, Jan. 26 (AP) — Edith Ransome, former stage star who attained prominence in the play "White Cargo," died today at a Seattle hospital from what physicians said was an over-dose of sleeping powders. She was 28 years old.

Found unconscious in an apartment Tuesday night, physicians worked for more than 24 hours in an effort to save her life, but she failed to regain consciousness. Police said notes found in her apartment indicated she had planned to take her own life.

League Asks Peru To End Hostilities

GENEVA, Jan. 26 (AP)—The League of Nations council authorized a message to the Peruvian government today declaring it was Peru's duty not to hinder Colombian authorities in the exercise of "full sovereignty and jurisdiction in the territory recognized by treaty to belong to Colombia."

The message asked Lima authorities to direct Peruvian military commanders to this effect and to take no action beyond the defense of Peruvian territory. The council sent another message to Colombia informing that government of the above action.

Paul-Boncour Wins In Budget Battle

PARIS, Jan. 26 (AP)—The Paul-Boncour government won its first skirmish in the budgetary battle today, the chamber voted 368 against 205 in rejecting a proposal to return the finance commission's report.

Premier Paul-Boncour, sensing danger during an intermission, offered to compromise if new taxes were kept in proportion to economies.

Oil Man Takes Own Life At Big Spring

BIG SPRING, Jan. 26. —(AP)—A justice of the peace returned a verdict of suicide today in the death of Nathan W. Garringer, about 40, an oil lease employe in the Howard county field, who was found on a bed in his home by a fellow employe. A fire poker apparently had been used to push the trigger of a shotgun which was placed with the muzzle against the man's head.

Picks Way to Fame

In an obscure Vienese cafe, J. J. Vincent, an American, was attracted by the strumming melodies played on the guitar by Louise Walker (above). He convinced her she had musical talent and under his sponsorship she has risen rapidly towards fame, giving concerts in Berlin, London, Copenhagen, Hamburg and other European cities.

Future Bright For Hoover's Teacher

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26 (AP)—The future looked brighter today for the woman who gave Herbert Hoover early schooling in the little town of West Branch, Ia.

The president, by executive order, has given a job to the son of Mrs. Molly Brown Carran of that town. Beginning next week, Charles Carran will receive from the government $2,070 a year for carrying the United States mail through the Iowa rural districts nearby.

BOMB DISCOVERED

THE IDEAL BANDIT

TACOMA, Wash.—From the victim's point of view, George Lagerquist, store proprietor, was held up by an ideal bandit. Just after Lagerquist had closed his store at 11 o'clock one night a youth knocked at the door and, when admitted, asked what time it was, and then drew a gun. When Lagerquist turned to the cash register to give up the money, as commanded, the nervous bandit turned and fled from the store.

UNLUCKY SLIP

CINCINNATI, O. — Michael L. Hirsh had to stand helplessly by and see an engine demolish his automobile recently. Hirsh had tried to turn around on a road next to the tracks when his car slipped and mired in the mud with the front wheels over the tracks. The six other occupants of the car got out and tried to move the car but to no avail. Hirsh and his companions stood back as an engine approached and smashed the car to bits.

EMBRYO FOUND NEAR CITY

INVESTIGATION INTO FINDING OF BODY IS CLOSED AFFAIR

An investigation which resulted from uncovering of a human embryo, about three months old, Wednesday in a shallow hole a mile north and east of Lubbock county courthouse, was closed, the county attorney's office indicated this morning.

An investigation was instituted when W. C. Wright, who lives near the City park at the northeast edge of Lubbock, reported that David Feazell had found the body of a baby. Deputy Sheriff Baxter Honey, J. C. Keller, state highway officer, County Attorney Vaughn E. Wilson, Justice of the Peace J. S. Connell, Dr. W. L. Baugh and others, went to the scene, a short distance east of the park.

The embryo, apparently buried Tuesday or early Wednesday, had been "incapable of life," the doctor said. It had been wrapped in a torn white shirt, dropped into the hole, and covered with weeds and dirt. The "burial" was near the road at the edge of a small ravine. Wright said that he had directed burning of weeds along the ravine yesterday, and that after the fire had destroyed tall weeds about the place Feazell saw the freshly turned dirt and found the embryo.

THE CAPITOL WHIRLIGIG

INTERESTING NEWS, COMMENT FROM AUSTIN

BY R. W. BARRY

AUSTIN, Jan. 26 (AP)—Conditions around the state capitol precipitated by the clamor of jobless for work were unprecedented for nearly a week after Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson took the oath as governor.

Secretaries to the woman executive handled the surging, urging crowd as best they could. They never were out of humor, although the tension under which they worked could not have been more nerve-wracking.

Refused To Budge

Men and women crowded into the reception rooms as closely as they could jam. They would not move. They refused to be discouraged. They stayed on and on during business hours, and then returned next day.

Finally, ragged by the ceaseless flow of persons through the executive office, each wanting some job, former Governor James E. Ferguson, husband of the governor, told them in plain language they were trying to take advantage of the change in administrations to force themselves into places of employment that really did not exist.

Some Not Familiar

It called for courage in one who had sought votes so recently to tell job seekers that there was little hope left to them. Many of them had been friends to the Fergusons, worked for their success at the polls. Faces of others were not so familiar to Mr. Ferguson because he stated "we never saw some of you during the campaign."

Mr. Ferguson's words were effective, because soon after he spoke the waiting crowd had dispersed.

Mrs. Ferguson was not present when her husband decided to deal firmly with the situation. She had been plainly worn by the tedious activities incident to assuming a big job as head of a big state and by listening to pleadings of unemployed who sought favors at her hands. Every applicant told how loyal he had been through the campaign.

Upward of 800 uses are recorded for the various parts of the palmyra palm, which is considered the most useful plant in the world.

APPLICANTS FOR WORK REGISTERED

SLATON, Jan. 26.—(Special) — A local welfare committee has begun registration of jobless men who will be employed in projects financed with Reconstruction Finance corporation funds. The registration, in the chamber of commerce, is being supervised by A. J. Payne, chamber secretary.

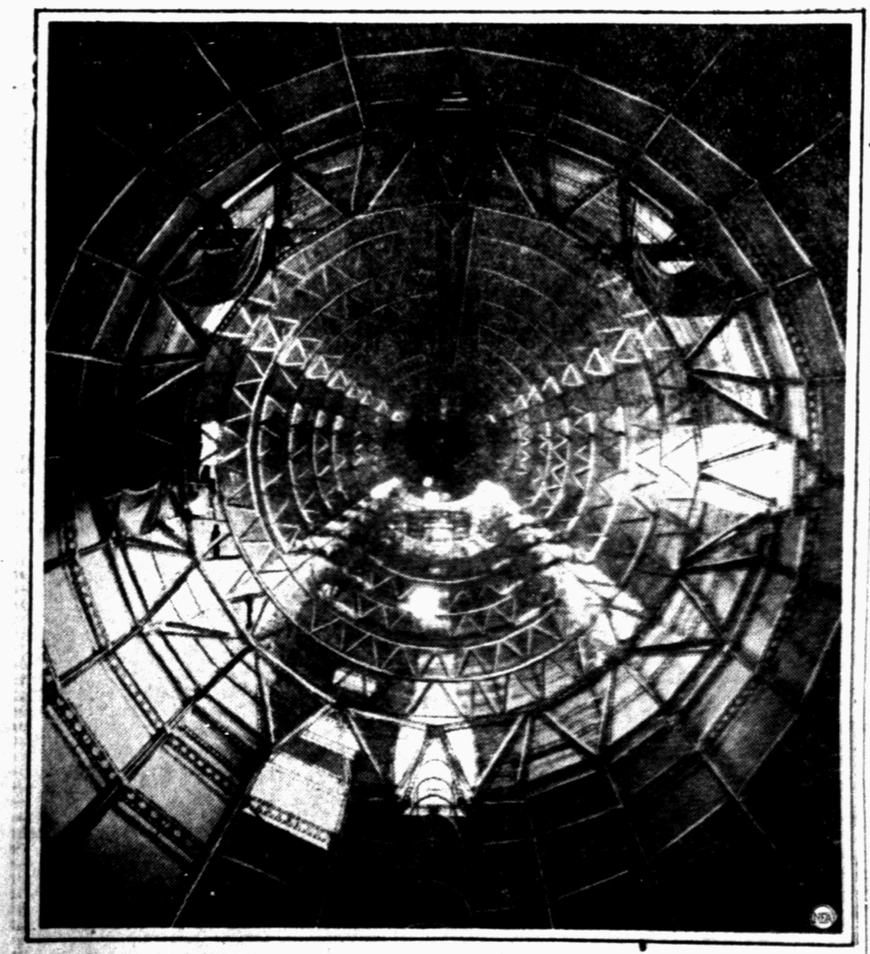

A sifting committee has been named by the committee to check all applications for work. This group will pass on all names before one can be employed and paid with R. F. C. funds.

Slaton received $800 for January and February. The alleys are to be cleaned and other work done and new caliche spread from the city paving to the sanitarium, about four blocks.

There were 150 men registered for the first work last December. So far about 80 men have registered.

Routes for prospectors' trails from harbors into mineralized sections of Baranof Island, Alaska, are being located by the government forest service.

A Vast Kaleidoscope—The Macon

A kaleidoscope of bright metal—that's the interior of the navy's new airship, the Macon, now nearing completion at Akron, O. An idea of the dirigible's vast size may be had by noting the two workmen at the left. The dark spot in the center is an uninflated gas bag.

LUBBOCK PAVING JOB WILL BE LET

The state highway commission has announced it will let contract February 8 and 9 for 3.1 miles of grading and drainage structures on state highway No. 7 from Slaton to Lynn county.

Highway and bridge construction projects for the entire state advertised for the February session are estimated to cost $1,850,000, the Associated Press reported.

Dickens Baptists Plan On Gathering

SPUR, Jan. 26. (Special)—Dickens county Baptists will attend a Fifth Sunday meeting at Friendship Baptist church near here Friday, Saturday and Sunday, Rev. H. T. Harris, pastor, has announced.

The meeting opens Friday night at 7 o'clock with a song service led by Mr. Rudd, followed by a devotional led by Bob Allen. J. V. Bilberry will preach the sermon.

Speakers on Saturday's program include: Rev. R. E. Tooke, devotional; Rev. A. P. Stokes, Rev. Harvey Draper, Rev. J. C. Scott of Crosbyton, Rev. F. G. Rodgers, Rev. Victor Crabtree. Johnnie Baxter will lead the afternoon devotional and L. G. Crabtree the evening devotional.

Sunday morning Rev. F. G. Rodgers will preach the sermon at 11 o'clock.

BARTERS FOR SHOES

WINDFALL, Ind.—Money may be hard to find, but it is still possible to exchange goods. The other day George T. Summers, local farmer, recalled pioneer days by bartering for a pair of shoes. He traded a shoe merchant 100 bushels of corn for them.

WELFARE WORKER SAYS CHILD'S RIGHT TO FEELING OF SECURITY ESSENTIAL

"A child's right to a feeling of security, and to an opportunity to develop are essential to normal development," Mrs. Walter McNabb Miller, a member of the White House conference on child welfare, said here Wednesday night. Conditions in which many children live are "pretty tragic," she commented.

Miss Grace Buzzelle, a state supervisor of nurses of the state health department, acompanied Mrs. Miller here from Austin. Mrs. Miller had several engagements here today.

Obligation Of Adult

Of the two essentials, Mrs. Miller said:

"These things now are denied many children. It is the obligation of the adult to join in the move in this state to see that Texas children have these vital needs."

Mrs. Miller, also a staff representative of the American Child Health association, will attend a Texas Child Health conference at Austin February 9-11, as a representative of the conference at the White House several months ago.

"Object of this Texas conference, which is the 28th state conference since the White House meeting, is to urge organization of a children's council in every county," Mrs. Miller pointed out. "Such councils, with representatives from all organizations, will seek adult education for the welfare of children."

Conference At Austin

The conference at Austin will consider the "health, mental and physical, the education and training of all children, and the care of the child handicapped mentally, physically, or socially," according to Mrs. Miller.

The children's charter of 19 points, an outgrowth of the Washington conference of more than 6,000 persons, "begins with a demand for the spiritual and moral training of children to enable them to stand firm in the social stress," Mrs. Miller said.
