Chicago Board of Trade Ordered Suspended by 3 Cabinet Members HOT RACES SHOWN IN FRAGMENTARY GRAY COUNTY VOTES

WOLFE GARY NOW LEADING ON JUDGESHIP

RAYMOND ALLRED HAS SECOND PLACE TO DATE

HENRY IN FIRST PLACE

COUNTING TO REQUIRE NEARLY ALL OF TODAY

Very inconclusive returns left the huge crowd at the NEWS' election "party" uncertain last night when clerks at the polls, tired with not more than a third of the votes counted in some boxes and less than that in others, went home and to bed.

The indications at midnight were: C. E. Cary and Philip Wolfe were leading for county judge.

Sheriff Len Blansett was not quite clear of a majority over C. E. Pipes and Lloyd Purvis.

District Attorney Raymond Allred was running behind his opponent, Louis M. Goodrich of Shamrock, and faced a hard fight.

County Attorney Sherman White seemed to have a clear lead over H. Otto Studer.

For district clerk, the incumbent, Mrs. Louise Miller Dunn, was leading with Frank Hill second.

D. R. Henry was leading Miss Mable Davis for county treasurer by a small margin.

Warren Fox was well ahead of County Surveyor A. H. Doucette.

John Haggard was leading Lewis O. Cox for county commissioner.

Frank Jordan was a little way ahead of Bud Cottrell for constable.

Chairman Silver Faulkner was being returned to office.

Judge Ivy E. Duncan had a top-heavy vote in Gray county, but was given a poor chance to place in the district. He was running behind Puryear in Collingsworth and Wischkaemper in the same county, and behind Hill and Puryear in Wheeler.

The incomplete Gray county vote: For state senator—Shanks 647, Small 1466.

For state representative—Puryear 375, Beene 152, Duncan 1161, Wischkaemper 130, Hill 532.

For associate justice court civil appeals—Martin 834, Pearson 1037.

For district attorney—Allred 1091, Goodrich 1172.

For district clerk—Dunn 1059, Hill 740, Benton 668.

For county attorney—Studer 758, White 1647.

For county judge—Rice 523, Cary 915, Stennis 488, Wolfe 686.

For sheriff—Purvis 205, Blansett 1123, Pipes 961.

For county treasurer—Davis 1115, Henry 1135.

For county surveyor—Fox 1,258, Doucette 893.

For county commissioner No. 2—Walberg 327, Cox 517, Haggard 589.

For constable, precinct 2—Cottrell 432, Hatcher 307, Jordan 491.

For democratic county chairman—Faulkner 991, Webb 397.

For chairman precinct 9—Lippold 151, De Cordova 51.

For chairman precinct 10—Davis 290, Schneider 165.

For commissioner No. 4—Wilson 89, Cubine 45, Newman 101.

ZIEGFELD OF FOLLIES DIES VERY QUICKLY IN HOLLYWOOD BEFORE WIFE REACHES HIM

Bonus Army Is Heading Home —Disappointed

WASHINGTON, July 23 (AP)—On the cushions, on the rods, and on the broad highways, members of the bonus army today were heading home leaving only a fraction of their original strength in the nation's capital.

Frank T. Hines, administrator of veterans affairs, said today that only about 3,500 of the city's unexpected and indignant guests remained for officials to worry about, and kind-hearted Washingtonians to feed.

Hines expressed the opinion that at no time had there been more than 8,000 of the bonus seeking veterans here but police by actual count on parade days set the number at 11,700. Leaders of the army claimed a total of 22,000 at the peak.

Most of the departing guests went on the "push," presenting railroad tickets furnished by the veterans administration. Others scorned to become "softies" and went out the way they came, on top of and underneath box cars.

A third large group rode away in (See BONUS, Page 7)

Greta Garbo Is Leaving U. S. in Strict Incognito

HOLLYWOOD, Cal., July 23 (AP)—Greta Garbo, the film star, is on her way to her native Sweden.

After weeks of rumors that she had departed, associates in Hollywood revealed tonight she left San Bernardino last Thursday night aboard Union Pacific train No. 8, the Los Angeles limited.

She is due to reach Chicago at 9:20 a. m., tomorrow and New York Monday morning. Traveling in strict incognito, she will board a ship for Europe within a few days.

Her reservations having been made for Miss Garbo under the assumed name.

She originally planned to leave San Bernardino last Wednesday night, but changed her mind at the last minute. She was on her way to San Bernardino by motor Thursday when her business manager announced she would depart within the next 48 hours.

Miss Garbo's contract with the Metro-Goldwyn-Maver studios terminated recently, and it has not been announced whether she would return to Hollywood pictures. The trip to her second to Sweden in the seven years she has acted here.

PAMPA RESIDENTS LEAVE FOR SHORT COURSE, CONFERENCE

Pampa and Gray county will be well-represented at Texas A. & M. college at College Station this week.

County Agent and Mrs. Ralph R. Thomas left yesterday by automobile with a group of four club members to attend the annual farmers short course. Miss Ruby M. Adams left last night with a larger group of girls and women.

Mrs. W. H. Davis, Welfare Board manager, left by train to attend the state public welfare conference for welfare workers in small towns, to be held at the college in connection with the short course.

County Superintendent John B. Hessey is to leave this morning to make one of the feature addresses at the state superintendents' convention to be held at College Station. Mr. Hessey will discuss the subject, "Administration of School Finances." His record of putting Gray county schools on a safe financial basis has won state-wide notice, and induced C. N. Shaver, superintendent of public instruction, to extend him an invitation to speak at the conference.

VIOLATION OF GRAIN FUTURES ACT IS CITED

RULING WILL PREVENT CHICAGO MART FROM OPERATING

WOULD LAST 60 DAYS

CLAIM CLEARING HOUSE PRIVILEGES DENIED COOPERATIVES

WASHINGTON, July 23 (AP)—A sharp blow for cooperative marketing was struck today by three of President Hoover's cabinet members in ordering suspension of the Chicago Board of Trade as a contract market for 60 days for violation of the grain futures act.

Acting as a commission under the futures act, Secretary Hyde, attorney General Mitchell and Secretary Lamont found the Board of Trade guilty of violating the law by refusing clearing house privileges to the Farmers' National Grain corporation, the largest cooperative organization under the farm board's sponsorship.

The suspension will become effective August 8.

It was indicated here immediately after the order was handed down that an appeal and application for stay of execution would be filed in the federal district court at Chicago, with the suspension not becoming effective until the highest court has ruled.

The Farmers' National until recently had the use of clearing facilities through ownership of the Uppike Grain company.

Early this year, though, the Uppike company was suspended by the Board of Trade partly upon charges that George S. Milnor and Joshua M. Chilton, vice-presidents of the Farmers' National were Uppike stockholders but in reality owned no stock.

Anticipating this action, the Farmers National itself on April 11 (See VIOLATION, Page 7)

Oklahoma In Throes of Runoff

OKLAHOMA CITY, July 23 (AP)—Candidates in Oklahoma's runoff election are in a tight race today, with the straight-away vote determining the tickets for the November election.

Legislative races, the congressman-at-large contest, and the race for state corporation commissioner man at large, Rogers, an unknown in state politics prior to the first primary, made observers gasp when he led the field of more than two dozen candidates in the first primary.

Supporters of Mrs. Bassett and E. B. Howard, former congressman, the runners-up, charged that Rogers "tricked the voters" by registering under the name of Oklahoma's famous son, Will Rogers of Claremore. But Rogers countered with records purporting to prove that he was christened at birth in Washita county as "Will," and not as "William."

A race being watched closely is that between Will Rogers, Norman school teacher, and Mabel Bassett, charities commissioner, for the democratic nomination for congress.

Noted authorities on welfare work will speak at the welfare conference. Problems existing in towns the size of Pampa will be discussed.

The chamber of commerce and Mr. Thomas are paying expenses of three boys and Betty Parley of Groom to the short course. The chamber of commerce agreed to pay the expenses of one boy by train, and Mr. Thomas said he would take all three boys and the girl in his car and pay expenses out of the $25 chamber of commerce donation and his own pocket.

BARS RADICAL

A 60-year-old veteran of the Washington police department, singlehandedly frustrated an attempted march on the White House by radical members of the capital, Inspector Albert Hadley, left, is shown as he blocked John Pace, radical leader, and turned him back. Pace and his group staged their march while Walter W. Waters, commander of the B. E. F., was in New York seeking food for his men.

MUCH WHEAT WILL BE HELD FOR ADVANCES

Proliferous Growth Of Weeds Hinders Harvest

Weeds, hail and rain during June and the early part of July combined to reduce flourishing prospects to one of the smallest wheat yields produced in many years in the Santa Fe and Rock Island railroad territories of Gray county.

Santa Fe officials reported yesterday that approximately 125 cars have been shipped from railroad stations in Pampa territory. This includes the wheat country from the Roberts county line to the Carson county line along the Santa Fe. Last year, around 700 cars were shipped.

Weeds that grew as swiftly as mushrooms after heavy June rains were more responsible than anything else for many unharvested fields. Over eight inches of rain that fell in June and the first week in July kept combines out of fields. Then hail beat down the wheat.

The elements were unusually unkind to farmers this year. The weed menace was something new. Not often in recent years have weeds actually prevented the harvest of grain. Before the days of the modern combine, the weed was not a problem. It would dry out in the shock and could be threshed out by a combine will not "digest" a sheaf of green weeds. A rank growth of weeds prevented the harvest of hundreds of acres in this community.

However, the 125 cars do not indicate Gray county's wheat production this year. The wheat price was not much better this year than last. Because of the short crop in the southwest farmers believe the price will be better and they are holding their grain in most cases with the approval of their creditors.

NEGROES PLAN ACTION

FORT WORTH, July 23 (AP)—Legal action against election judges who refused negroes permission to vote in the democratic primary here today is planned by the Tarrant county negro voters league, according to a statement issued tonight by G. W. Williams, president and J. W. Sims, secretary of the league.

C. A. Mallory of Heaton transacted business here Saturday.

ACCEPTANCE SPEECH IS EAGERLY AWAITED IN EAST

WASHINGTON, July 23 (AP)—Amidst uncertainties as to how they will go, Herbert Hoover has accumulated a variety of suggestions on how to handle the prohibition question and Franklin D. Roosevelt goes ahead gathering advice on economics.

What will come from it all probably won't be known until the presidential campaign picks up speed next month; but in each case the decision may have a crucial bearing in the weeks from then until the November elections.

That is why the prohibition section of the president's speech ac-

Borah Proposes World-Wide War Debt Conference

WASHINGTON, July 23 (AP)—Senator Borah of Idaho proposed tonight an immediate world conference to consider revision or cancellation of war debts integrally with a program for settling other post-war problems.

Borah, chairman of the powerful senate foreign relations committee, delivered his message by radio, proposing the world conference as a follow-up to the Lausanne reparations agreement which he said was more of a "harbinger of peace and the hope of humanity" than the Versailles peace treaty.

Borah painted the Lausanne agreement as "the most important step taken since the war looking to the restoration of confidence in political and business affairs."

He added that if the policies initiated at Lausanne were carried forward "there will come a time when it will be distinctly to the interest of the people of the United States" to again consider the question of war debts.

Borah warned, however, that revision of the debts should not be predicated on the reparations agreement alone.

He said the debts were just debts and the only reason for urging a reduction or cancellation of them would be "in the interest of the people of the United States."

"I entertain the belief," he said, "that the cancellation of the debts in connection with, and as a part of, a program, including the settlement of other war problems, would have the effect above indicated."

Figures show a total of 4,896 scholars within Gray county, including the 1932-33 term of school with very few exceptions, according to Supt. John B. Hessey, and there will be no terms of less than eight months in length.

Teachers of Laketon school No. 4 are Leta Little, Lyle Maxwell; Back No. 8, Ivy Dea Hinkle, Mary Hinkle; Schaffer No. 10, Kelley Hamblin; Bell No. 11, Thelma Callahan; Huntman No. 12, Lily Mae Taack; Eldridge No. 13, Marlie Browning, Rachel Reams; Keplinger No. 15, Goldie Poole; Farrington No. 16, Florence Jackson; Grandview No. 17, Rex Reeves, Cleo Brown, Ruby Spess; Webb No. 21, Beattie Furnell, Leota Brown; McClelland No. 22, Corrie Lee Newman.

WOMEN, GIRLS CAMPAIGN FOR THEIR FRIENDS

But No Trouble Is Seen In Their Ranks

Politics went womanly, juvenile, and adolescent yesterday. Men were completely out of the picture. Long before the polls opened yesterday a horde of women and children had formed a phalanx at all entrances within 100 feet of the polling places, and from that time on until the polls closed the air was white with candidate's cards.

It was impossible to break thru the wall of vote solicitors without collecting a score of cards. The earth at nightfall was strewn with cards and pamphlets. "Friday" Brandin, who has been used to a men's courthouse all his life fled from the feminine onslaught at noon. Men might have weened their campaigns before election day but women and children assumed control of the city yesterday.

Dozens of high school, college and grade school students were stationed at every corner and crossing, ready to fill one's pockets with cards. The candidates themselves left their cause to the women and children. But among the mass of women near every polling place there was no dissension. No hair-pulling. No dirty digs.

The result of the election was the essence of disappointment to many candidates, but the voters had a big time. For instance, one woman who vowed up and down a city block that she was going to kill her husband's vote for submission discovered after she left the courthouse that she had her resubmission ballot in her hand.

Mrs. E. A. Shackleton said she had enough cards on which to write down her list of Saturday groceries for six months. All card distributors said it was surprising how many people said, "I didn't pay my poll tax" when handed a card.

MOST RURAL SCHOOLS IN THIS COUNTY TO HAVE LONG TERMS

Full terms of nine months of school will be held in a majority of the schools of Gray county during the 1932-33 term of school with very few exceptions, according to Supt. John B. Hessey, and there will be no terms of less than eight months in length.

LARGE GUSHER FLOWING HERE

The Mazda Oil corporation completed one of the biggest wells of the year late last night, according to reports received here early this morning. The well was reported to be flowing at the rate of more than 2,000 barrels a day.

Pay was encountered at 2,985 feet and the well filled a 250-barrel storage tank in less than two hours. Approximately 45,000 cubic feet of gas was encountered at the same time, drillers report.

Gray county's latest producer is in the center of the southeast quarter of section 35, block 3 on the Combs-Worley lease. A flow of 25,000 cubic feet of gas was struck at 2,400 feet.

Julius Livingston, president of the company was here from Tulsa, Okla., when the pay was encountered.

I HEARD--

Nothing but election talk yesterday. Even citizens who were never before known to get the least bit excited were "all het up" over the diggings yesterday. Predictions were thick and fast and rumors faster and thicker.

A local soda seltzer said that his water containers hadn't fallen off a bit despite the depression.

Warren Cretney, just back from a trip to Wyoming telling golf stories instead of fish stories. He refused, however, to tell his score the first time he played on grass greens.

Ben Ferris, also on the trip, likewise was silent on the score matter.

the Weather

Oklahoma—Partly cloudy Sunday and Monday.

East Texas—Partly cloudy in the interior, probably showers near the coast and in the extreme east portion Sunday; Monday partly cloudy. Light to fresh southeast to south winds on the coast.

CARTOONS ON THIS PAGE illustrate points often stressed by The NEWS with regard to the dangerous trend of the government into private business. In the name of relief—which seldom relieves anything except the taxpayer of his depleted roll—rapid strides are being made toward state socialism.

What two decades ago would have been denounced on every hand is being demanded today by well-meaning persons who do not see the danger.

Step by step, Uncle Sam is being led to interfere with private business rather than to make opportunities in it equal to all men. It is easier for politicians to take over a business than to regulate it. The government today is doing thousands of services formerly enjoyed by private citizens. The army of federal employes grows year by year. More than that, the government is subletting to single, huge concerns business which is dearly surrendered by small town folk.

We refer to the business lost to small town printers when the government began to print envelopes at cut-throat figures. The following dispatch from Kansas City is explanatory:

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Manufacturers of envelopes protested governmental competition at the congressional hearing here conducted by Rep. Joseph B. Shannon of Missouri.

The objections were voiced by Harold Smith of Kansas City, president of the Envelope Manufacturing Association of America, Roland R. Bliss of New York, secretary and H. F. Navran of Kansas City.

Rep. Samuel B. Pettigill of Indiana, member of the investigating committee, arrived today and was present as the witnesses continued a large envelope factory operated by the government at Dayton, Ohio, which prints merchants return addresses on stamped envelopes.

"I know of no better tonic our industry could receive," Smith told the committee. "Than to have the government close its big envelope mail order house at Dayton. I sincerely believe my business and all like my own are faced with an unfair and unbearable kind of competition on a scale that would justify the term 'socialism' in the operation of the government envelope factory."

Any organization which receives at least 98 per cent of its capital from the government can be said to represent the government in business. Measured on this plan, governmental activities in competition with private business from which that capital is extracted number many thousands. While some federal departments are urging crop limitation, others are busy teaching high production methods, building dams, and otherwise working in contradiction.

From Dawn To Dusk.

Robert Talley, writer for NEA Service, found that in almost everything he does Mr. John Citizen is helping Uncle Sam to raise the $1,118,500,000 in additional revenue which the new congressional act provides to balance the budget. A huge amount of this sum will be used to finance the government competition to which we referred above. Is that fair? Is it equitable? And how can it be effective in lightening the burden of the common people? How can you reconcile it with states rights?

The lower cartoon at the right shows that the average individual pays taxes 25 times a day in ordinary routine. For example:

He arises and takes his morning bath—with toilet soap, on which there is a tax of 5 per cent.

He brushes his teeth with a dentifrice—on which there is a tax of 5 per cent.

He shaves and powders his face—5 per cent tax on the shaving cream, 10 per cent tax on the talcum powder.

He has coffee and toast with his breakfast—3 per cent tax on the electricity consumed by the electric toaster and electric percolator.

He glances at his watch to see if he is late to work—10 per cent tax on the watch, if it cost more than $3.

He drives to work in his auto—3 per cent sales tax on his auto if it is a new one, 1 cent per gallon tax on his gasoline, 1 cent a quart tax on his lubricating oil, approximately 11 per cent tax on his new tires and 15 per cent tax on his new tubes.

A spark plug fails on his way down and he stops at a garage for a new one—2 per cent tax on auto accessories and parts.

Arriving at his office, he sends a telegram—5 per cent tax on telegrams.

He makes a long distance telephone call—10 cent tax on messages costing between 50 cents and $1; 15 cents on tolls between $1 and $2; 20 cents on tolls of $2 or more.

He lights a cigar—tax of 2 cents per 1000 on matches of wood, 1/2 cent per 1000 on the paper kind.

He writes a check—2 cents tax on each bank check.

He mails the check—3 cents letter postage now, an increase or "postal tax" of 1 cent.

He goes to his bank and opens his safety deposit box to remove a bond which he wants to sell—10 per cent tax on rental of safety deposit boxes.

He goes to the office of a broker—who pays 5 per cent tax on his leased wire.

He sells the bonds—4 cents per $100 on bond and stock transfers.

With his lunch, he has a fruit sundae—6 cents per gallon tax on soda fountain sirups.

In the afternoon he plays golf—10 per cent tax on golf balls, golf clubs and other sporting goods, plus 10 per cent on dues as member of golf club if dues exceed $25 a year.

At the clubhouse he buys a bar of candy or a pack of chewing gum—2 per cent tax on candy and chewing gum.

A friend takes a picture of him in golf togs—10 per cent tax on cameras.

He returns home for a cold dinner from his mechanical refrigerator—5 per cent sales tax on the mechanical refrigerator, 3 per cent tax on the electricity it consumes.

With his meal, he has a bottle of near beer or a glass of home-made wine—3 cents a pound tax on malt sirup, 20 cents a gallon tax on grape concentrate.

If he doesn't like beer or wine, maybe he likes mineral or table water with his meals—2 cents a gallon tax on mineral waters or table waters costing over 12 1/2 cents per gallon.

He turns on his radio or combination radio-phonograph for a little music with his dinner—5 per cent sales tax on the set, 5 per cent tax on phonograph records.

He decides to go to a movie—10 per cent tax on theater tickets costing more than 40 cents. (Even if the theater manager gives him a pass, he must pay the tax to Uncle Sam.)

Leaves movie and goes to night club—when he gets his check for refreshments, service, etc., 20 per cent of this amount is arbitrarily considered an "admission" charge and taxed at 1 1/2 cents on each 10 cents or fraction thereof (where said "admission" charge figures more than 50 cents).

After all these taxes, Mr. Taxpayer can go home and go to bed. The bed, at least, is tax free—but he will still pay 3 per cent on the electric light he uses while undressing.

The NEWS cannot refrain from remarking that all history fails to reveal taxation so thorough, so annoying, in instances so absurd, as that which has developed in recent administrations. The price of liberty may become so dear, the liberty so scant, that democracy will exist only in name. Patriotic citizens must note where we are drifting. We have mentioned merely a few of the unmistakable signs.

ABOUT NEW YORK

By WILLIAM GAINES.

NEW YORK—Leeches are still sold across the counter in a pharmacy at No. 6 Bowery—said to be oldest drug store in America.

At any rate, the sign that greets you on the front door is:

Oldest Drug Store In America, Welcome!

The establishment has been in one family since 1805. So if you know of one older, let us know.

Suspended over the entrance are the old-time gilded mortar and pestle. In the windows you will see those quaint jars of colored fluid—blue, green, red and yellow.

Come to think about it, this is one of the most unusual drug stores I have seen on Manhattan island. It is devoted almost entirely to the dispensation of medicines and sickroom supplies.

Unique Drug Store.

The only thing about it I could find that associates it with the uptown drug stores—modern drug stores everywhere, in fact—was a modest window sign for cameras. In the north window were several cameras that looked as if they may have been there for a long time.

I didn't see any cigaret lighters, automobile accessories, toy soldiers or bathing suits on display anywhere about the place. Now, isn't that a novel drug store?

Tucked away under the shadows of an elevated railway station, one might pass it dozens of times without being aware of it at all. I never saw it until I went seeking it out, yet I have been by there more times than I can count. It is a small shop—a shrinking violet sort. But it has about it a very considerable dignity.

To get back to the leeches: They are 35 cents each now, and some folks in up-and-coming New York still use them in treating black eyes or other cases where blood-letting is deemed advisable.

Personality Puffs.

Phil Baker buys a new accordion every season, and the kind he uses costs plenty of dough. He gives his old ones to his friends.

Jesse Crawford, the celebrated theater organist from Woodland, Cal., is a self-taught musician.

Al Woods once scouted a show in Long Branch, N. J., which he thought might make good in New York. He offered to buy half-interest from the producer, but got a "no." Business looked good then.

A couple of weeks or so later, Woods bumped into the show again. It didn't look so good. There was a new feminine lead in the cast. The box office was dull. But Woods renewed his offer—and it was grabbed up. "I'll buy in on one condition," said Woods. "You get that first girl back again." She had been let out because she was considered inadequate.

There was nothing else for the producer to do. Woods' coin was needed.

The play, "Tarnish," opened in New York and was a hit. Largely because of the girl Woods recalled to the cast. Her name's Ann Harding.

William H. Eagan, station master at Pennsylvania terminal, is said to have shaken the hands of more arriving celebrities than any other man in New York.

The real meaning of that collateral phrase in the new relief bill is that the only ones who can borrow money from the government are the ones who don't need it.

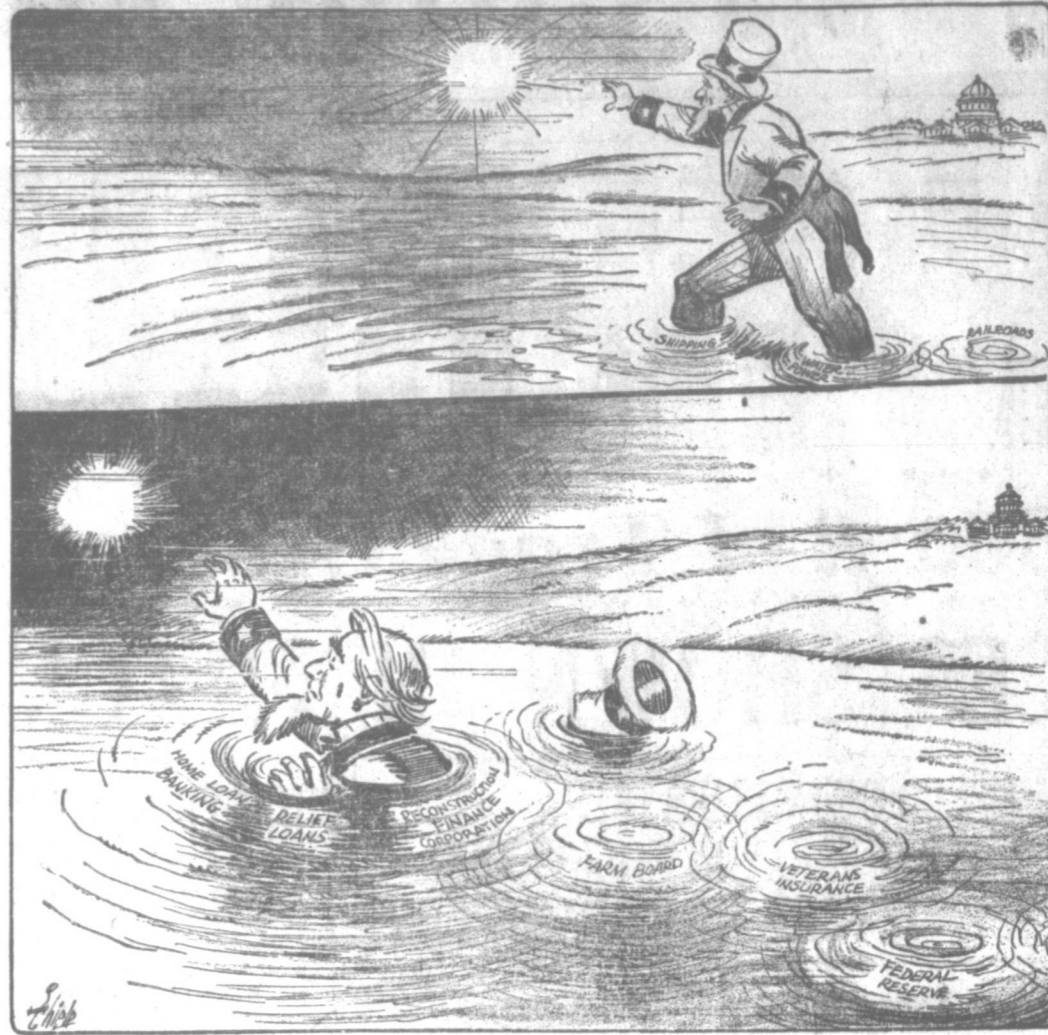

The names of the Russian towns where new factories are being built provide citizens of Pawhuska, Osawatomie and Tuscaloosa with plenty of laughs.

They're always changing things at the wrong time. Just as our stomachs were getting accustomed to digesting cheesecloth on lunch ham, the packers start wrapping it in cellophane.

At a recent bankers' meeting, the general opinion was that the future of the United States is still rosy. What a whale of a difference a few millions make.

One unusual thing about hot weather is that we never seem to mind until the health department starts giving out advice about how to keep cool.

Much Wheat In Carson Is Stored

PANHANDLE, July 23.—Wheat harvest in Carson county is expected to end this week with an estimate of 70,000 to 75,000 bushels of wheat stored at present in local elevators. All elevators here are loaded to capacity. Santa Fe railway reports show 192 cars of wheat have been shipped from Panhandle and nearby switches.

Shipments probably will be approximately a quarter of a million bushels from this territory, and storage in elevators about half this amount. Lack of rainfall locally has speeded harvest in the last week.

Notification ceremonies—even for a vice presidential candidate—in the past have been colorful. When Curtis, for example, was informed by Senator Fess back in 1928 that the republican party had selected him as Mr. Hoover's running mate, his home town of Topeka, Kas., made it a memorable affair.

Indians Joined In With war whoops, the Indian braves of the Pottawatomies were on hand to execute their weird dances in his honor. From every lamp post and across every principal street hung flags, bunting, party insignia and pictures of Curtis.

For days Topeka planned for the great event. But Garner wants none of that. He doesn't like that sort of stuff.

So the speaker will be formally notified of his selection as the running mate of Roosevelt in a unique way. Senator Barkley will merely write him a letter, put a three-cent stamp on it, and send it probably to Uvalde, Tex. Garner's acceptance speech will be made similarly. He will answer Barkley's letter, giving a copy of it to the press.

The whole transaction will cost just six cents. Then Garner is going fishing. As he puts it, he is going to close the gate at his ranch in Uvalde so that nobody can get in to follow him around.

Capital Speculates Washington, particularly the social element of the capital, wonders just what Mr. and Mrs. Garner will do with the vice presidency if too.

German Flier Is Safe in Iceland

REYKJAVIK, Iceland, July 23. (AP)—The German intercontinental flier, Captain Wolfgang von Gronau, reached here today from Seydisfjodur, Iceland, with 1900 miles of his projected 5,100-mile flight from Germany to Canada behind him.

Captain von Gronau and two companions took off in a seaplane from List, Island of Yyll, Germany, Friday and landed at Seydisfjodur. He proceeded here today, and announced he would take off for Iqviut, Labrador, probably next Tuesday.

The German flier, who twice before has negotiated northern route to America, announced he would fly from Iqviut to Montreal and end the present venture in the Canadian city.

Plans are under way to erect a hopper in which to dump street sweepings so that a truck will be able to drive under the hopper and drop the dirt into the truck. The location has not been chosen.

Bond Is Made In Liquor Seizure G. C. Dunlap, charged in connection with the seizure of 35 gallons of whiskey, Friday morning, at an old building in southeast Pampa, was released on a $750 bond by W. E. Baxter, justice of the peace, yesterday.

Two other men arrested by Police Chief J. I. Downs with Dunlap were released, but no charges were filed against them. All three were held in the city jail until Thursday when Chief Downs released them to the custody of Sheriff Lon L. Blansett.

The men were sleeping near the four kegs of whiskey when Chief Downs and "Cowboy" Mumford made the raid about 3:30 o'clock Friday morning.

UNEMPLOYED HELPED LUBBOCK, July 24.—About 80 men have been given jobs through the efforts of the newly organized unemployed council here within the last few days. The council is receiving calls daily for laborers, both men and women. Milk for use by the council is being furnished by local dairymen, and the Texas Utilities company is furnishing all needed ice.

TO HAVE 5-DAY WEEK LUBBOCK, July 23.—Employees numbering six or eight of the Lubbock exchange of the Southwestern Bell Telephone company will go on the five-day week plan soon, according to A. G. Thomas, district manager. Mr. Thomas states that most of the 70 or so employees were already working five or five and a half days a week. This move was made so that it would not be necessary to discharge any employees or reduce their wages.

Highway 117 Work Will Start Soon PANHANDLE, July 23.—Contract on Highway 117 from Panhandle to the Armstrong county line will be let at the August meeting of the state highway commission, according to official notice received here. The contract will call for 10.8 miles of grading and drainage structures and a caliche base. Bids must be received in Austin before 9 a. m. August 3.

The commissioners court will meet Monday morning to decide whether or not it will be advisable to bid in the contract. The court will probably send one member to Austin for the letting to consult with engineers on problems that may come up about this road. Although the local chamber of commerce had asked for a concrete road, officers of this organization stated that they were satisfied for the state highway commission to do what it deemed best.

City's Golfers Will Play Next At Wellington

Local golfers will go to Wellington this morning to play the first Wellington club starting at 1 o'clock this afternoon. Cars will leave Fatherree Drug No. 4 at 8 o'clock. There will be plenty of room for players who will not have other means of transportation.

Dr. H. H. Hicks, chairman of the tournament committee of the Country club, is anxious to have at least 30 players make the trip. It will be the first time this year that the Pampa team in the Cap Rock league has played the Wellington course. Wellington lost over the country club course here earlier in the season.

All remaining games in the league will be played over the Country club course here.

Borah Refuses To Apologize To Tennessean

WASHINGTON, July 23. (AP)—Senator Borah of Idaho, under fiery demands for apology from Representative E. H. Crump of Memphis for having made public charges that the Tennessean's "political machine" was distributing Red Cross flour in exchange for votes, maintained today there was justification for the accusations.

His stand was taken in the face of a telegraphed report to the Red Cross from one of its own national workers that there was no foundation in the charge and that the only breakdown in distribution of the relief flour was unconnected

Mound Duel Is Won By Dallas In 3 to 2 Tilt

DALLAS, July 23. (AP)—George Murray turned in his seventeenth victory of the season tonight when Dallas beat San Antonio 3 to 2. He had a close battle with Herbie Sanders of the Indians.

With Beaumont idle on account of rain the victory placed Dallas three and a half games ahead of the league.

Each team scored all its runs in one inning. Sanders brought about his own downfall in the second inning with a two-base over-throw that gave Catcher McMullen a hit and allowed two runners to score.

Score by innings: R H E Dallas . . . 000 200 000—2 6 1 San Antonio . . . 030 000 003—3 7 1 Sanders and Mealey; Murray and McMullen.

SCALING THE HEIGHTS

Equipoise Finally Conquered on Turf

ARLINGTON PARK Race Track, CHICAGO, July 23. (AP)—They finally conquered Equipoise, 1932 handicap champion of the American turf, today.

In as thrilling, heart-breaking finish as any race crowd ever witnessed, Plucky Play, the surprise horse of the turf, broke the winning streak of Cornelius Vanderbilt Whitney's great 4-year-old, defeating him by a neck in the Arlington handicap, a race that was worth $27,500.

Plucky Play ran the mile and a quarter, leading from start to finish, in 2:02 1-5. Pittsburgher was third, Tred Avon, fourth, White Clover 11, fifth, and Stepenficht last.

Plucky Play closing at 10 to 1 in the mutual betting, paid $26.04 to win, $9.48 to place and $5.22 to show. Equipoise paid the surprising price of $3.18 to place and $2.78 to show. The show price on Pittsburgher was $4.42.

Hoover With His Friends on Rapidan

LURAY, Va., July 23. (AP)—Surrounded by a few personal friends, President Hoover settled down tonight at his Rapidan camp in the Virginia mountains for a week-end of rest.

Aides reported "no work" to be the president's slogan in contrast to his recent busy days. Although several major appointments must yet be made, he has cleared his desk of tasks placed there by congress.

Before Mr. Hoover left Washington in late afternoon, those close to him said he had disposed of every bill passed by congress except one, and that was not of national importance.

He now is looking forward to his acceptance address August 11. Mrs. Hoover awaited her husband's arrival at the camp. She has rested there nearly two weeks.

Panther Tangle Straightened Out

FORT WORTH, July 23. (AP)—The Fort Worth baseball club's financial and other difficulties were apparently settled here today with the definite announcement that the team would play out the Texas league schedule and that the franchise would be retained by local interests.

San Land, majority stockholder, issued a statement to the effect that the only change in the administration of the team was the election of Clarence Kraft as president and board member to succeed Ted Robinson, resigned.

Kraft will have full management of the team as president with Roy Meehan as business manager and Dick McCabe as field manager. It was understood that some changes in the personnel of the team are contemplated for the near future.

The decision to retain the franchise here came after a meeting of the league owners Friday afternoon at which legal and other difficulties attending the operation of the team by the league arose.

CRASH INJURES THREE

SAN ANTONIO, July 23. (AP)—Three men were injured when an airplane crashed into the top of a telephone pole and fell to the ground a wreck here early this evening.

Norman McLeod was pilot of the plane and suffered minor injuries. Others injured were T. H. Haynie and Worth Harmon, both of Lampasas.

Seven of the eight clubs in the Texas league put into effect at least one salary reduction during the first half of the split 1932 season.

Juniors' Ball Club To Play Borger Today

Pampa's newly organized junior baseball team will journey to Borger this afternoon to meet the powerful Alamo juniors at the new ball park in that city.

C. O. Busby, manager of the local club, will take Lard, Heiskell, Saltzman, McFarlin, Merton, Acklam, Adair, Ragdale, Price and probably one or two other boys.

The team has secured Magnolia park for a home diamond and practice field. An effort is being made to schedule the first home game of the season for next Sunday.

The boys work out every afternoon at 5 o'clock and any young player desiring a chance to make the team may be on hand for practice.

The youngsters went to White Deer last Sunday and held a combined team of seniors from White Deer, Pampa and Skellytown 1 to 0 in a nine inning pitchers' duel.

Acklam was the hero of the game. He will be in the box in Borger this afternoon. McFarlin will be behind the bat.

SUSPECTS ARRESTED

TYLER, July 23. (AP)—Three heavily armed men were arrested near Arp today as suspects in the $5,000 robbery of the Farmers and Merchants' State bank at Ladonia yesterday. Texas rangers and deputy sheriffs found the men in a cabin near Arp.

The men had a quantity of firearms. Officers said employees of the Ladonia bank would come here and attempt to identify the prisoners.

TEXANS DEFEATED

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., July 23. (AP)—Los Angeles players won the three major championships of the northwestern tennis tournament at Deep Haven, today.

Lester Stofen took the singles honors, disposing of 16-year-old Gene Mako. Los Angeles, 6-4, 8-6, 6-4.

Stofen and Mako paired to capture the doubles title, downing Karl Kamrath and Sterling Williams, Austin, Tex., 4-6, 6-1, 6-3, 3-6.

Twenty letter men will return for the 1932 football squad at Southwestern Oklahoma Teachers college.

America and France In Finals for Cup

PARIS, France, July 23. (AP)—Needling but a single victory in two singles matches tomorrow, the United States was accepted tonight as the challenger of France for the historic Davis cup in the big Roland Garros stadium here next week-end.

A brilliant young pair of Americans, Wilmer Allison and John Van Ryn, brought the prediction within a step of certainty today by overwhelming the Germany doubles team of Daniel Prenn and Gottfried Von Cramm 6-3, 6-4, 6-1 to give the United States a lead of two matches to one in the American and European inter-zone final.

Within the ranks of the Davis cup defender, France, Jean Borotra, who insists that he is too old for such things, will be drafted for one of the singles roles while the great Henri Cochet will carry the other, leaving Jean Borotra to team with his old partner, Jacques Brugnon, in the doubles.

The youngsters went to White Deer last Sunday and held a combined team of seniors from White Deer, Pampa and Skellytown 1 to 0 in a nine inning pitchers' duel.

Red Deer Will Cut Caddy Fees

Caddy fees at the Red Deer golf course will drop to 50 cents for 18 holes and 30 cents for nine holes, Mark Heath, owner and manager, said yesterday. Caddy fees at many other Panhandle courses have been reduced during the last few weeks.

Many caddies need the money to support families and with lowered prices, more of them should be given work," Mr. Heath said.

Mr. Heath recently reduced his green fees to 25 cents after 5:30 p. m. on week days. Up to that time, green fees will be 35 cents. Many local golfers are playing summer links now, the owner reported.

Most Golfers Are Bluffed by Traps

THIS PRACTICE WOULDN'T HURT YOU, JOE. I STEER CLEAR OF TRAPS. ALL DE TIME, BECKER DURING DE GAME.

By JOHNNY FARRELL (As Told To Arlie McGovern) Golf has many mental hazards, but none is more annoying to the average golfer than the sight of his ball landing in a sand trap. And yet, getting out of a trap need not be the difficult matter that many players make it.

If you consider the "explosion" shot as just one more part of the game, you can overcome your fear of it quite readily. Practice this shot just as thoroughly as you do your drive. Take a number of balls into the sand—place them at every possible angle—bury them—step on them—and practice getting them out with your niblick until you have mastered this stroke.

The bunkers and sand traps make golf the fascinating, interesting, game it is, and no matter how good or bad his game may be, I doubt if any golfer has ever enjoyed playing on an easy, simple, course.

Game Is Stormy. PITTSBURGH, July 23. (AP)—Pittsburgh's battling Pirates took one of the season's stormiest ball games from the Chicago Cubs today, 11 to 8, to increase their first place lead to four and one half games.

Bickerings between rival players and between players and umpires dragged the wild struggle through two hours and 28 minutes.

The Cubs used five pitchers in a desperate effort to silence the Pirates bats; Pittsburgh called upon four moundsmen to clinch the victory.

Giants Take Two. BOSTON, July 23. (AP)—The New York Giants took sixth place in the National League today by defeating the Braves in both ends of a double header. They went 14 innings in the first game to capture a 3-2 decision then settled the second, 9 to 0, in eight frames, stopping because of darkness.

A crowd of 23,000 celebrating "Bob Brown day" saw the young hurler pitch eight innings of shut-out ball and then weaken in the ninth and allow New York to tie the score. Ben Cantwell was the loser. Sam Gibson held the Braves to four hits for an easy second victory.

"Gather Up Fragments and Be Well-Dressed" Is Woman's Suggestion

HOW TO MAKE LITTLE MONEY COUNT IS TOLD

CLUB MEMBER OF GRAY COUNTY DESCRIBES HER EXPERIENCE

By MRS. C. A. TIGNOR, Priscilla Club Member

When I was appointed wardrobe demonstrator for Priscilla club last August I gladly accepted, as I thought I would be helped by the work and could help others.

I have long realized that to dress well a person must either spend much time and thought on her clothes or much money. Even when spending a great deal of money, the thought must be given for one will not be well dressed and much of that spent is to pay for other people's time and thought in making the garments.

Taking into consideration the price we farmers receive for our products, I resolved to see how small I could make my clothing bill for the year, and to obey the command of Christ when he said, "Gather up the fragments that remain that nothing be lost."

No Made-Over Look

It is like solving an interesting puzzle to plan how to bring an obsolete garment up to date with the smallest amount of labor and expense. For instance I used a long lace side jabot on a dress about 7 years old to make an interesting looking collar without cutting the jabot. We do not want our clothes to have a made-over look.

My winter coat, tan with handsome fur collar and sleeve trimming looked new, but a little short.

I increased its length 1 inch by letting down the turned up part and facing with a piece of broadcloth the same shade. After three years wear the coat shows hardly any wear except the lining under right arm. Next year I will put shield shape pieces of matching crepe satin lining under the arms.

I have made several materials most of them bought some years ago. There were four yards of golden brown and four yards of brown and light tan print silk crepe, the brown of the two pieces harmonizing. From this I had a brown jacket suit and wear the jacket with other dresses. I had Indian head and gingham for several dresses and aprons, and 5 yards of white pique and a scrap of embroidery. From this I made two summer dresses.

When spring came I didn't have a hat that would do to wear without making over. First I made over a red hat so I could wear it. Then I pressed out the brim of a cream braid hat which was out of shape. I had a pretty white rayon braid weave bought summer of 1930 that seemed hopelessly dated, crumpled up in front and back and down on the sides. With a hot iron and wet pressing cloth, I transformed it into a hat nobody would believe was the same. My expense on it was 15 cents for ribbon.

That Magic Wand

Another hat of eggshell rayon in-ven like weave was too small and very much out of shape. With a hot iron and wet pressing cloth I changed it to an entirely different shape. Before making over these hats one of my friends said it would take a magic wand to transform them into anything wearable.

I also made improvements in my closet. It was built when the house was built and is 3 1/2 feet, an 18 ft. high. The door is seven feet high, same as the other doors in the house. The closet was ceiling instead of plastered so it would be easy to put up shelves on hooks. I canvassed and papered it with cream and silver paper to make it lighter. I put in an electric light. I have a built-in chest in each end for bed clothes. In one end I have shelves from the chest to the ceiling and shelves high up at the other end. I generally get without shelves from the clothes hanger rod down to the chest, so I could have more space for the rod and space to put up hooks. There are always some things I don't want to put on a hanger, such as an umbrella and sleeping clothes.

Papered Oatmeal Boxes

I made some hat stands by papering oatmeal boxes. I have shoe and hat pockets on the inside of the door, and a little white embroidered laundry bag for silk things that I want to wash out by hand. I have a shelf for shoes. I made all these improvements by using materials I had on hand.

The only dress I purchased this year was my contest dress. I chose a frosty pink cotton ratine, trimmed in white and light blue of the same material. I chose pink because I think it suits me better, and the light generally fades green or orange worse. This contest dress and my contest dress were the first ones that I have made in 12 years.

Spent Only $19.28

My clothing expenses for the year to date, including $3.25 for cream and powder are $19.28. Of course last year I spent $6.97 for one ready-made dress and dress materials.

I had a good supply of clothing but I know by my records that my average clothing expense for a number of years had not been over $50. I paid $50 for my coat three years ago, but I expect to wear it at least a year longer. I would rather

HATS TURN UP THEIR BRIMS FOR FALL

The hats smart women will wear this fall are of the turban variety. Many of them are made of velvet and they're trimmed and small bows to accent the new "forward on the forehead" movement. It is a perk new model. Open-work turbans are among the new hats Paris is offering. The one in center is of ruby red velvet with an open-work top to reveal the coiffure. The bicorne at right is fashioned of American beauty velvet and has a bow of velvet over the forehead. All three hats are designed by Agnes.

By DIANA MERWIN (Associated Press Fashion Editor)

PARIS (AP)—A new hat has leaped into the spotlight already turned on fall fashion predictions.

It is trimmed in front and often turned up as well, in marked contrast to the summer "turned down front." Its colors are gay, its fabrics rich and intricately worked by hand.

Its line is distinctly 1932 with airplane bows and wings perched above foreheads to achieve its modern silhouette. Low, crush crown and turned up brims are often seen.

Velvet is the favorite fabric for the new fall hats already being worn by a number of smart Parisians. In a thick dull blue and a new uncrushable "astrakhan" effect having a crinkled surface, it is worn for both formal and semi-formal occasions.

For street hats a soft pliable broadcloth which can be snipped, pieced and worked to fit the head, threatens to replace the blocked felts seen on smart heads last winter.

Colors are important. Agnes has launched a new American beauty velvet which she calls ruby. Mado sponsors a combination of Verinthe red (dress of wine) and Ophelia rose (soft dull rose) and others are showing chocolate browns, leaf green, geranium reds and a new dark beige.

Stylists predict that colored hats will be smart this fall. A new smart bicorne is designed of brilliant crepe velvet with a flat box applied over the forehead above the right eye. Another fashionable model has a three-inch turned-up brim of Corinthe red and a crush crown of Ophelia rose with the two colors combined in an airplane bow perched on the front brim.

Visiting Woman To Whistle Today

Mrs. Roy West of Los Vegas, Nev., will whistle a medley of hymns at the First Christian church this morning, and Mrs. Ramon Wilson, pianist, will play "To Spring" (Grieg). Mrs. West is visiting in Pampa as the guest of her mother, Mrs. C. E. Hutchins. She is accompanied here by her little daughter, Patricia.

Several of the group will go to Galveston July 30 for one day.

Regarding the course of Extension Service Farm News says: "In agriculture's 20th hour, the 23rd Texas A. & M. college short course for farm and ranch people offers rural Texas a stimulating program for the exchange of ideas useful in the reconstruction days ahead. A good general program for morning hours is arranged, sectional meetings are planned on livestock management, truck and orchard crops, field crops and farm engineering, and poultry husbandry; and for home makers, boys and girls, beekeepers, rural school superintendents, agricultural writers, bacteriologists, a special conference for farmers is scheduled, a public welfare conference for rural and small town workers is to be conducted; the usual judging contests will be staged; and night entertainments on the "help yourself" style are to be held in the Aggie stadium. In general, mornings will be given over to general programs, afternoons to sectional meetings, and nights to entertainment."

The home-makers' program has been announced as follows: Monday: Morning, general program; afternoon, "Better beds and bedding."

Tuesday: Morning, general program; afternoon, business meeting, and "Need for parental education."

Wednesday: Morning, "Standards regulating sales of food in Texas." "Grading fruits and vegetables for markets." Afternoon, "Need for parental education," wardrobe demonstration.

Thursday: Morning, general program; Afternoon Business meeting, and "Transplanting native shrubs."

Friday: Morning, 4-H pantry demonstration, and "Better foundation parlments"; afternoon, yard demonstrators' reports, and President's Tea.

Girls will be divided into five groups each to be given the same program by turns throughout the week. Every morning from 8 to 9 the girls will hold a joint session with 4-H club boys. The subjects on the girls' program: organization of girls at dormitories; "Books we will enjoy"; "Road to daintiness"; "Transplanting native shrubs"; of them will provide food for thought.

Swimming Pool Needed

Mrs. Jack Mason, who served as a very efficient reporter for the Aro Arri club during the last year, was interviewed on the subject, and there was no hesitation in making her decision.

"A municipal swimming pool," she declared, "if not the greatest need in Pampa is at least one of the greatest."

The Mason family owns a private swimming pool 33x25x10 feet in size and it is because of the requests to use the pool that Mrs. Mason is aware of the great demand for a municipal natatorium.

Many Request Use

"Mothers in all parts of the city offer to pay for swimming privileges for their children," said Mrs. Mason. "Others offer to pay a part of the water bill. Scarcely a day goes by but that I get such offers, but because our pool has no graduation in depth, I find it necessary for the safety of inexperienced swimmers, to refuse the proposition."

"The desire of local people to swim is shown by the large numbers which go to Miami and LeFors for swims. If there are enough swimmers here to keep a pool from being a losing proposition—and it seems there are—why not have one in Pampa?"

In keeping with the policy of her club to work for the beautification of Pampa, Mrs. Mason added: "Shade trees would add much to the desirability of a pool. There are a number of suitable spots here for a swimming place, one of the best being the city park."

J. B. Crouse of Skellytown was in the city Friday afternoon.

Gray County In Production Hike

Gray county's daily oil output increased more than 1,000 barrels last week to send the Panhandle production 902 barrels over the allowable posted July 1. Hutchinson and Wheeler counties also showed slight increases.

There were no new completions during the week, but four new locations were made and one test plugged and abandoned.

The Kewanee Oil company made three locations on their Morse-Adams lease in central eastern Gray county. The company is building a rig in the southeast corner of the southwest quarter of the northwest quarter of section 3, block 26, H. & G. N. survey. Another location was made in the southwest corner of the northeast quarter of the northwest quarter of the same location. The third location was in the southeast corner of the northwest quarter of the same section.

Dr. Brunow Again Heads Republicans

Dr. V. E. von Brunow was unanimously re-elected republican county chairman at the republican primary convention held at republican headquarters in the Brunow building yesterday.

Other officers elected were Sam Thomas, precinct chairman; Crockett Archer and D. E. Cecil, delegates to the county convention to be held next Saturday. Dr. Brunow was elected alternate. Delegates to the state convention at Dallas, August 9 will be elected at that time.

Democrats Plan To Concentrate On G. O. P. States

By ROBERT ST. JOHN Associated Press Staff Writer NEW YORK, July 23. (AP)—Democracy will concentrate many of its big guns this fall on certain "hopelessly republican" states in an attempt to wrest them from the Hoover-Curtis forces.

Frequently in democratic campaigns of the past, the electoral votes of such states have been conceded to the enemy, and all the campaign fire has been directed toward states which held more promise of victory.

But James A. Farley, national chairman, made it clear today that such strategy will not be followed this time.

States like Pennsylvania, Ohio, Vermont, Michigan and New Hampshire, which rarely go democratic, will receive just as much attention as any others, he said.

"All reports we have had from around the country are encouraging and we are confident of the outcome. I am predicting Governor Roosevelt's election by the greatest majority ever given a democratic nominee in a two-party fight.

"But nevertheless we are going to make an aggressive campaign in every state in the union. Regardless of the fact that some states have been hopelessly republican in the past, we are not considering any state lost yet and will do battle in each of them."

Farley will go to Washington Monday night to consult with cabinet and democratic leaders over the detailed campaign plans he has drawn up.

Upon his return, he will send invitations to organization leaders in every state in the country to come to New York as soon as headquarters are formally opened on August 1 to go over these plans.

Roosevelt himself was continuing a series of conferences which is giving him a clear insight into a variety of the country's outstanding problems.

The Faithful Cheat BY RUBY M. AYRES

SYNOPSIS: "Would you marry John Anderson if he were free?" Sondra asked her, not knowing that Flora had secretly married Mark Merriman before he sailed for the Congo. Sondra is fond of Anderson, who has held almost the attitude of a guardian toward her for many years. But her love for Mark was strong enough to break down her prejudice against him because of his poverty, she realizes. Flora would tell Sondra she could not live with her, if she knew Sondra were married. And so Sondra adds a secret to the burden of her divorce separation from Mark. She has been brought up to expect luxury and makes a wealthy marriage, by her father. Now she wonders whether she will change in her feeling for Mark before he comes back again. She also wonders whether Anderson suspects she has a secret.

Sondra arranged her hair, but her hands shook, and her face was burning. She felt as if someone had insulted her—and yet Flora had only spoken the truth, when she said that Mark would disapprove of her friendship with John Anderson—if he knew.

If he knew—what? There was nothing to know except that he sometimes gave her presents—handsome presents. Why shouldn't he? He was a wealthy man, and if he chose to give some of his money to a girl who had nothing, it was nobody else's business. He had been almost her guardian ever since she was a little girl. People were so hateful; she had read Flora's thoughts in her eyes—and surely it was a little incongruous, Flora to condemn her, no matter what she thought.

There was very little difference in them if it came to that, for Flora had only married for money, without a spark of affection for Ben Lomax. Still, it was from her husband that Flora took money, while she... Sondra took up the yellow envelope and opened it.

"Bless you always—don't forget me. Al my love, Mark." The filmy paper fluttered to the floor, and Sondra covered her face with her hands.

"I'm not worth loving, Mark—"

"DON'T FORGET ME"

"WHY wouldn't I marry John?" Sondra laughed, wondering what Flora would say if she spoke the truth and said: "Because I am married already."

"Because I don't care for him—in that way," she said instead.

"In what way?" Flora demanded irritably. "Any way is good enough in order to secure a rich husband, isn't it? I thought it was anyway." She sighed. "Life's such a muddle."

"Why?" Sondra wished she would go; she was longing to open that

"It's a good thing you didn't happen to care for Mark," Flora said.

wire and reads its content; she knew well enough that it must be from Mark.

"It's such a muddle," Flora said again rather pathetically. "Nothing ever seems quite right—no body ever has what they really want."

"I should have thought that you had everything," Sondra said in a hard voice. "Or if you haven't—you're rich enough to get it."

"There are some things you can't get—just with money," Flora answered, then she laughed, as if to dispel her seriousness. "Well, hurry up for goodness sake."

"I shan't be a moment." But Flora did not go. "Did you see Mark Merriman off this morning?" she asked.

"Yes." "I don't suppose he'll ever come back," Flora said bluntly.

"Why not?" "Oh I don't know... men who go abroad for years never seem to—or if they do they don't stay, they can't settle down again. I suppose he was in love with you, wasn't he?"

"What makes you think that?" "Well, I've got eyes, and I'm not exactly an imbecile," Flora said tartly. "It's a good thing you didn't happen to care for him."

"Why?" "Why? ... good lord what a question! Because there are a thousand reasons why you're unsuited to each other of course. He'll never be rich enough for you, for one—and he's not your sort for another."

Sondra said faintly: "It would be interesting to know what kind of man you imagine is 'my sort' as you call it."

"Anderson, or someone like him," Flora answered promptly. "Mark's too narrow minded for you—too conventional—too goody-goody."

"I never noticed it." "Because you didn't know him well enough. What do you imagine he would think of your friendship with John, for instance,—if he knew about it?"

"He does know." "Does he know?" Flora echoed in amazement. Then she shrugged her shoulders. "Well—hurry up." She went out of the door behind her.

Rebellion Seethes In South America

BUENOS AIRES, July 23 (AP)—While Brazil continued in the throes of a civil war with neither side apparently gaining advantage, Paraguay and Bolivia continued today to fight the battle of the chaco with statements.

Revolutionary representatives of the state of Sao Paulo, Brazil, announced here tonight the Paulists continued to hold all major sectors along the battle lines.

Federal sources in Rio de Janeiro had a different story, although it was conceded a lack of enthusiasm in several nominally loyal states was hampering a decisive offensive against the Paulists, who rebelled two weeks ago and demanded immediate return to constitutional government.

Official statements came today from both La Paz, Bolivia, and Asuncion, Paraguay, in the 50-year-old dispute over the Chaco territory between these countries.

From Asuncion came the charge Bolivia was trying to deceive public opinion in claiming Fort Mariscal had been captured. The Paraguayan said they had recaptured Fort Antonio Lopez and offered to prove the two forts were 90 miles apart with Bolivian maps.

La Paz dispatches said messages from all parts of Bolivia pledging unconditional support to the government "even in the extreme case of war with Paraguay" continued to pour into the president's palace.

PHOTOGRAPHING A snowflake requires a steady hand and nerve, for the crystal must be handled with the utmost care to prevent its being broken, and speed is required because a flake evaporates within a few seconds time. Expert photographers of snow crystals have learned to detect a flake's general characteristics at a glance, and do not waste film on those that show no unusual possibilities of design. The greatest variety of shapes fall at the end of a snowstorm.

Trial of Police Set for Aug. 15

NEW YORK, July 23 (AP)—Trial of 13 Nassau county policemen indicted on charges growing out of the third degree torture death of Hyman Stark was set today for August 15.

The policemen, no wire on bail, will be arraigned Monday. Five of its defendants, it was learned, are charged with first degree manslaughter. Preliminary charges of second degree murder against four of them were discarded by the grand jury.

Of the others seven are accused of second degree assault and one of being an accessory to first degree manslaughter. Stark's body was ordered exhumed on Monday for a closer study. An autopsy, performed before the body was buried, showed death was caused by a crushed larynx.

Stark died a week ago today after being questioned about an assault upon Mrs. Valerie Hizeniski, mother of a Nassau county detective. The detective, Joseph Hizeniski, was among the policemen indicted for assault.

Mrs. Fay Bowman of LeFors visited briefly here yesterday.

Mrs. W. W. Boyd of Dumas visited in Pampa during the week-end.

CORN HELPS GRAINS

CHICAGO, July 23 (AP)—Corn prices tended upward today, and bolstered other grains.

Reports from Illinois, Missouri, Kansas and Nebraska showed 1932 corn crop deterioration exceeded the average of the last ten years. Prospects were for a return of higher temperatures over the corn belt, and only scattered showers were reported.

After advancing almost a cent a bushel, corn closed unsettled at the same as yesterday's finish to 5-8 higher, wheat 18 off to 1-8 up, oats unchanged to 1-8 lower, and provisions varying from 2 cents decline to a rise of 15 cents.

Wheat market upturns were handicapped by concentrated selling from sources that sometimes represent government-sponsored agencies. A sustaining influence, however, was belief expressed that the Ottawa trade conference would not much alter economic relations between Great Britain and countries outside of her own dominions. Oats established a new low price record unequalled since 1896.

Closing indemnities: Wheat—July 46 7-8, offers: Sep. 47 7-8 to 48, 49 to 49 1-8, Dec. 51 to 51 1-8, 52 1-8 to 1-4. Corn—Sep. 32 1-4 to 3-8, 33 1-2; Dec. 5-8, 33 3-4.

COTTON LOWER

NEW ORLEANS, July 23 (AP)—Cotton became fairly active today and prices moved downward, the main depressing influences being the long distance forecast for fair and hot weather for the coming week and a renewal of selling of October by co-operative agencies. The close was steady at net declines of 11 points.

Activity in the July position was due to final liquidation as that option expires Monday. October dropped to 5.85 and Dec. to 5.80, the lows for the day and 16 points below the previous close. Both active months rallied 5 points at the end on covering and both closed at net declines for the day of 11 points.

Port receipts 9,266, for season 10,020,001, last season 8,992,994. Exports 26,485, for season 8,501,955, last season 6,653,997. Port stock 3,456,803, last year 2,834,931. Combined shipboard stock at New Orleans, Galveston and Houston 71,409, last year 46,101. Spot sales at southern markets 1,707, last year 945.

STRANGER IN TOWN REMARKS ON ELECTION, FIGHT, DUCKS

By FELIX PHILLIPS.

Jim Wheeler, watchmaker at the Father's Drug No. 4, went to the polls yesterday morning, presented his fishing license, and wanted to vote. Jim says he's getting as absent-minded as the fellow at the breakfast table who poured syrup on his head and scratched his pan-cakes.

Lots of good democrats are nervous about Garner. They are afraid he's going to say the wrong thing, or just talk too much. Secretly they are hoping that he will stay on that fishing trip till the first of December.

Many of those who saw the pictures of the Sharkey-Schmelzing fight say that Schmelzing carried the fight to Sharkey throughout, and landed more blows than Sharkey most every round. They also state that Sharkey's footwork resembled that of a badly mired cow. One of our local wits, (or nitwits) says that maybe it wasn't a real frame-up, that maybe it was just a picture frame. It looks like those who paid twenty-five bucks for a ringside seat would have been justified in asking for a $24.75 rebate.

They say several young men in the Atlanta prison who expect to get out pretty soon have asked Capone's advice about what racket to get into when they are released. In the old west, murderers learned the under review and prices ruled weak to unevenly lower. Most classes of cattle were tendered an uneven decline of 25-75. Even highly finished native grade feeds came in for a setback of 25 or more. Current quotations on the in-between grades of steers and yearlings are 1.00 or more lower than the high spot early last week. There was an increased movement of grass cattle out of Kansas, Oklahoma and Texas, while a few shipments from the northwest put in their appearance. Aggregate receipts of cattle at eleven markets totaled around 175,500 as compared with 173,068 last week and 173,874 the corresponding period a year ago.

Chicago had a late hog top of 5.00. Total offerings for the week approximating 310,000 were 46,000 short of last week and 29,000 less than a year ago.

Fat lambs and yearlings are steady at 40 lower for the week with most points showing losses of around 25. Slaughter ewes were little changed. The supply of sheep numbered around 233,300, against 279,944 last week and 263,995, a year ago.

STOCK CLOSE STEADY
NEW YORK, July 23 (AP)—Profit-taking made little impression on the stock market today. There was some selling in the first hour, but

JEAN HARLOW LEAVES HEART-BROKEN MEN

Jean Harlow, of the famed platinum-blond tresses, offers a surprise to filmgoers in her latest screen role, as the heroine of "Red Headed Woman," opening today at the LaNora, the most popular picture in the city.

In order to play the title-role in Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's filmization of the sensational Katharine Brush best seller, Miss Harlow was required to change her hair to a flaming red, a change which is reported to make quite a difference in her appearance and personality.

Vivid Character Study
"Red Headed Woman" presents a vivid character study of a woman who stops at nothing to gain her unscrupulous ends. Starting out as a stenographer, her only weapons a generous supply of sex-appeal and an overwhelming ambition for wealth and social prestige, she ends up with her hands on a title and its accompanying millions. In her wake, however, she leaves a trail of broken hearts, disrupted homes and disillusioned men.

The story is said to give Miss Harlow the greatest acting opportunity of her career. That the film version also has its share of humor is guaranteed by the fact that the novel was adapted to the screen by Anita Loos, author of that side-splitting satire, "Gentleman Prefer Blondes," and was directed by Jack Conway, responsible for many William Haines comedy hits, as well as the Barrymore mystery satire, "Arrows Lullaby."

A strong cast appears with Miss Harlow, including Chester Morris of "Alibi" and "Miracle Man" fame in the male lead; Lewis Stone, in the role of the father who attempts to "buy off" the red-haired siren; Lela Hyams, as the wife whose domestic happiness falls about her ears; Una Merkel as a wise-cracking beauty-parlor employee; Henry Stephenson, recently seen on the New York stage in "Cynara"; May Robson, who scored as the mother in "Lucky Lynton"; Charles Boyer and Harvey Clark.

The picture has been lavishly produced with scenes ranging from a small American suburban town to New York and a reproduction of the famous Longchamps race-course near Paris.

Mystery Solved In Girl's Death

ROCHESTER, Minn., July 23 (AP)—A midnight bathing party preceded by alcoholic drinks and ended with the deaths of two young women, was described to officers today by two young married men, both farmers.

Arrest of the men, their admissions and reports by chemists that vital organs of two young women found dead in the Zumbro river a few days ago contained only traces of alcohol and no poison apparently, officers said, had eliminated a mystery. The men said their companions died accidentally.

Held without charge in the county jail at Wabasha, were Reuben Kruger, 25, oil state employee, and Jesse Salley, 30, garage mechanic, both of Plainview. One has three children, the other two.

The victims were Louise Prigge, a farm girl, and Francis Polkowski, Rochester waitress, both in their early twenties.

Expressing no opinion as to what charges might be preferred, County Attorney Alfred A. Burkhardt said "we will wait until after the inquest." The inquest will be held Tuesday.

TERRIFIC FIGHT ON LOCAL SCREEN

Bill Boyd and Fred Kohler put a daring realism into their big fight scene in "Carnival Boat" now showing at the Rex Theater.

Oil Well Burning Near Gladewater

GLADEWATER, July 23 (AP)—The Steen drilling company's No. 2 Rodden oil well, seven miles north-east of Gladewater, continued burning today despite efforts to extinguish it.

H. L. Patton, oil fire extinguisher of Overton, was in charge of the crew attempting to halt the fire. Chemical extinguishers having failed, he said he would use water, trying to kill the well at the tubing. The well took fire yesterday after the explosion of gas accumulated in low land a quarter of a mile away. The flames increased gradually today, destroying the well connections.

Burning oil and gas was shooting 300 feet into the air.

Loans of R. F. C. Will Be Delayed

WASHINGTON, July 23 (AP)—The Reconstruction Finance Corporation today notified governors of all the states and territories that loans under emergency relief act would be delayed until necessary procedure and surveys are made.

In a telegram sent to all, George R. Cooke, secretary of the corporation, said the board wants to consider applications as expeditiously as possible but added "the act must be construed and administered in an orderly manner and with due regard for all sections of the country."

Miss Margaret Warren of Phillips Camp was a shopper Friday night. Mrs. J. H. Fish of Borger visited in the city Friday.

Prussians Argue Status in Court

BERLIN, July 23 (AP)—While counsel for the state of Prussia was arguing before the supreme court at Leipzig today that federal dictatorship over his government was illegal, Chancellor Franz von Papen assured representatives of the south German states gathered at Stuttgart that the dictatorship would not interfere with the important Reichstag elections to be held July 31.

The court action at Leipzig, aimed at stopping the federal government's mailed fist in the state of Prussia, will not reach a decision until Monday.

The Prussian argument was that there was no constitutional authority for federal interference in the state's affairs.

Several southern states joined in the Prussian protest. An official communique issued after the Stuttgart meeting said the southern representatives had received with satisfaction assurances from Chancellor Von Papen that the Reich government did not intend to infringe on their rights.

Garner's Stand in Line to Ballot

UVALDE, July 23 (AP)—Speaker and Mrs. John Nance Garner stood in line 30 minutes today to cast their votes in the state democratic primary election.

Due to long residence in his voting precinct, the democratic vice-presidential nominee holds poll tax No. 1. Mrs. Garner holds receipt No. 2.

Participation in the election was Garner's first political activity since coming home last week from Washington on vacation. He spent the rest of the day resting and will not reach a decision until Monday.

Indications tonight were that from now until election day there will be little peace and quiet in Germany. As the campaign drew toward its final week all parties were determined to fight to the last ditch, and the events in Prussia have added fuel to the flames of hatred throughout the nation.

CORN HELPS GRAINS

CHICAGO, July 23 (AP)—Corn prices tended upward today, and bolstered other grains.

Reports from Illinois, Missouri, Kansas and Nebraska showed 1932 corn crop deterioration exceeded the average of the last ten years. Prospects were for a return of higher temperatures over the corn belt, and only scattered showers were reported.

After advancing almost a cent a bushel, corn closed unsettled at the same as yesterday's finish to 5-8 higher, wheat 18 off to 1-8 up, oats unchanged to 1-8 lower, and provisions varying from 2 cents decline to a rise of 15 cents.

Wheat market upturns were handicapped by concentrated selling from sources that sometimes represent government-sponsored agencies. A sustaining influence, however, was belief expressed that the Ottawa trade conference would not much alter economic relations between Great Britain and countries outside her own dominions.

Oats established a new low price record unequalled since 1896.

Closing indemnities: Wheat—July 46 7-8, offers: Sep. 47 7-8 to 48, 49 to 49 1-8, Dec. 51 to 51 1-8, 52 1-8 to 1-4. Corn—Sep. 32 1-4 to 3-8, 33 1-2, Dec. 5-8, 33 3-4.

COTTON LOWER

NEW ORLEANS, July 23 (AP)—Cotton became fairly active today and prices moved downward, the main depressing influence being the long distance forecast for fair and hot weather for the coming week and a renewal of selling of October by co-operative agencies.

The close was steady at net declines of 11 points.

Activity in the July position was due to final liquidation as that option expires Monday. October dropped to 5.65 and Dec. to 5.80, the lows for the day and 16 points below the previous close. Both active months rallied 5 points at the end on covering and both closed at net declines for the day of 11 points.

Port receipts 9,266, for season 10,020,091, last season 8,982,994. Exports 26,455, for season 8,501,955, last season 8,653,997. Port stock 3,456,803, last year 2,834,931. Combined shipboard stock at New Orleans, Galveston and Houston 71,409, last year 46,101. Spot sales at southern markets 1,707, last year 945.

STARS IN MUCH-TALKED MOVIE

Chester Morris and Jean Harlow in "Red Headed Woman," at the LaNora theater.

JEAN HARLOW LEAVES HEART-BROKEN MEN

Jean Harlow, of the famed platinum-blond tresses, offers a surprise to filmgoers in her latest screen role, as the heroine of "Red Headed Woman," opening today at the La Nora theater.

In order to play the title-role in Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's filmization of the sensational Katharine Brush best seller, Miss Harlow was required to change her hair to a flaming red, a change which is reported to make quite a difference in her appearance and personality.

"Red Headed Woman" presents a vivid character study of a woman who stops at nothing to gain her unscrupulous ends. Starting out as a stenographer, with her only weapon a generous supply of sex-appeal and an overwhelming ambition for wealth and social prestige, she ends up with her hands on a title and its accompanying millions. In her wake, however, she leaves a trail of broken hearts, disrupted homes and disillusioned men.

The story is said to give Miss Harlow the greatest acting opportunity of her career. That the film version also has its share of humor is guaranteed by the fact that the novel was adapted to the screen by Arno Loos, author of sex-splitting satire, "Gentleman Prefer Blondes," and was directed by Jack Conway, responsible for many William Haines comedy hits, as well as the Barrymore mystery satire, "Arsene Lupin."

A strong cast appears with Miss Harlow, including Chester Morris of "Alibi" and "Miracle Man" fame in the male lead; Lewis Stone, in the role of the father who attempts to "buy off" the red-haired siren; Lelia Hyams, as the wife whose domestic happiness falls about her ears; Una Merkel as a wise-cracking beauty-parlor employee; Henry Stephenson, recently seen on the New York stage in "Cynara"; May Robson, who scored as the mother in "Letty Lynton"; Charles Boyer and Harvey Clark.

The picture has been lavishly produced with scenes ranging from a small American suburban town to New York and a reproduction of the famous Longchamps racecourse near Paris.

Mystery Solved In Girl's Death

ROCHESTER, Minn., July 23 (AP)—A midnight bathing party preceded by alcoholic drinks and ended with the deaths of two young women, was described to officers today by two young married men, both farmers.

Arrest of the men, their admissions and reports of chemists that vital organs of two young women found dead in the Zumbro river a few days ago contained only traces of alcohol and no poison apparently, officers said, had eliminated a mystery. The men said their companions died accidentally.

Held without charge in the county jail at Wabasha, were Reuben Kruger, 26, oil state employee, and Jesse Salley, 30, garage mechanic, both of Plainview. One has three children, the other two.

The victims were Louise Prigge, farm girl, and Francis Polkowski, Rochester waitress, both in their early twenties.

Expressing no opinion as to what charges might be preferred, County Attorney Alfred A. Burkhardt said "we will wait until after the inquest." The inquest will be held Tuesday.
