Cabinet Split On Nazi Plan

Morgenthau Proposal For Breakup Of Nation Halts Long-Range Machinery

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23.—President Roosevelt's cabinet committee on German peace policy has split wide open, it was learned today, over a plan sponsored by Treasury Secretary Morgenthau for completely destroying Germany as a modern industrial state and converting it into an agricultural country of small farms.

Morgenthau's plan, drawn up after his recent return from European battlefronts and England, is reported to have had the general approval of the President since before his Quebec conference with Prime Minister Churchill. It has failed to win support, however, from Secretary of State Hull and is violently opposed by War Secretary Stimson.

Hull, Stimson and Morgenthau form the cabinet committee.

Stalls Other Plans

For the first time the dispute over the Morgenthau plan has so snarled up Treasury, War and State department work on detailed arrangements for postwar control of Germany that three-power planning by this country, Britain and Russia on long-range German policy also has virtually stalled. This planning, carried on through the European Advisory commission, has been proceeding along lines other than those advocated by Morgenthau, so far as American leaders were concerned.

Mr. Roosevelt presented the Morgenthau plan to Prime Minister Churchill at Quebec. Morgenthau and British Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden were present. Stimson and Hull were not.

Morgenthau came away from the conference with the impression that Churchill found his proposals acceptable, especially since Eden is reported to have held somewhat similar views.

Stalin's Plans Unknown

What Premier Stalin plans with respect to Germany apparently still is not known here. Morgenthau based his plan on three assumptions with respect to Russia: (a) Russia wants East Prussia and most of Silesia to go to Poland to offset Poland's loss of eastern territory to the Soviet Union; (b) Russia wants German labor battalions put to work on the Soviet Union reconstruction; (c) With her own huge needs for manpower, Russia is not interested in prolonged military occupation of Germany and would be willing to have Britain, the United States and other Allied countries do the job.

Secretary Hull is known to be determined that whatever plan is decided on finally here must be agreeable to Russia. He feels that it is essential to have British-American-Soviet cooperation in immediate post-war Europe as a basis for long-range cooperation in a world security organization.

Morgenthau's plan is understood

FDR Lashes Out At GOP 'Piracy'

By HOWARD W. FLIEGER
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23—President Roosevelt opened his fourth term campaign tonight with a hard hitting speech accusing the Republican opposition of attempting to claim credit for the New Deal, and termed it imitation of "the most obvious common or garden variety of fraud."

Speaking before the AFL Teamsters union, the President said the "whole purpose of Republican oratory these days . . . is to persuade the American people that the Democratic party was responsible for the 1929 crash and depression, and that the Republican party was responsible for all social progress under the New Deal."

Can't Talk Both Ways

"There is one thing I am too old for," the President declared, "I cannot talk out of both sides of mouth at the same time."

Mr. Roosevelt made a point by point reply to almost every criticism leveled against his administration by his Republican opponent, Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York.

He declared the government welcomes "all sincere supporters of the cause of effective world collaboration," adding that "millions of Republicans are with us."

"And they too will resent this campaign talk by those who first woke up to the facts of international life a few short months ago," when they began to study the polls of public opinion," the President said.

Age Annoys People

Mr. Roosevelt, speaking before the same union which heard him open his third term campaign on September 11, 1940, greeted the teamsters by saying:

"I am actually four years older—which seems to annoy some people. In fact, millions of us are more than 11 years older than when we started in to clear up the mess that was dumped in our laps in 1933."

From that he launched into an attack upon the epublican campaign, although he did not mention Governor Dewey by name.

He termed a "callous and brazen falsehood" an assertion that the administration plans "to keep men in the Army when the war is over, because there might be no jobs for them in civil life."

"Why," Mr. Roosevelt continued, "the very day that this fantastic charge was first made, a formal plan for the method of speedy discharge of the Army had already been announced by the War department—a plan based upon the wishes of the soldiers themselves."

Mr. Roosevelt said Republican leaders have carried the attacks against his administration even down to "include my little dog Fala. Unlike the members of my family he resents this."

The President said as soon as Fala heard that "Republican fiction writers" had made public a story that the dog was left behind in the Aleutians during the President's Pacific tour and had to be rescued by a destroyer at a cost of $20,000,000 "his scotch soul was furious. He has not been the same dog since. . . . I think I have a right to object to libelous statements about my dog."

U. S. Plane Crashes Against Alaska Peak

SEATTLE, Sept. 23. (AP)—The Air Transport command headquarters here today announced receipt of a dispatch from the Army's Alaska department headquarters describing the crash of an ATC plane on one of the lesser peaks of Mt. McKinley, highest mountain in North America, and the likelihood that all 16 passengers and three crew members perished. Names were withheld.

The dispatch said a party was organizing at Fairbanks for an arduous hike to the wreck scene, at 9,000 feet altitude and "over some of the most rugged" terrain in Alaska.

The plane, missing since Monday, was sighted Thursday by occupants of another ATC plane. Army authorities estimated the ground party would have to travel 70 miles.

Purchase Plan Set On Cotton

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23 (AP)—War Food Administrator Marvin Jones announced tonight the WFA will purchase from farmers at parity prices all cotton of the 1944 crop for which a loan schedule has been announced and which may be placed in acceptable storage.

The program will start as soon as arrangements can be made and extend through next June 30, with the Commodity Credit corporation handling actual purchases.

At the same time Jones announced the WFA will buy from producers at parity prices less carrying charges to the end of the storage year all unredeemed 1944 crop wheat which is under loan May 1, 1945. The wheat also will be bought through the CCC.

Jones said the CCC purchase prices for wheat in storage in terminal and sub-terminal elevators, will "be advanced from time to time" during the season.

WFA said its cotton sales policy, announced on August 26, will be modified to permit the CCC to sell cotton at not less than parity.

Antis, Ruled Out By Court, Form New Party For Fight

(By The Associated Press)

AUSTIN, Sept. 23.—A new party which will file its own slate of presidential electors was organized here today by a group of Texas anti-Roosevelt Democrats in a closed convention.

A spokesman for the meeting released a formal statement saying the convention was called to form a party "since the name Democratic has been stolen from us by those new members of the party who believe in state socialism."

The belligerent anti-fourth termers announced their plan of action a few hours after the state Supreme court unanimously ruled that Roosevelt-pledged electors nominated by the September state Democratic convention, and not the electors chosen at the May convention, should be certified for printing on the Nov. 7 ballot as the Democratic electors.

Usurpation Charged

The new party's statement said it believed that a large majority of Texas people "resent and condemn the usurping of the Democratic party name by communists, big-city machine politicians, Bronx negro politicians and the CIO Political Action committee, . . ."

The May electors were instructed by that convention not to vote for the national nominees if the national convention failed to fulfill certain conditions. These conditions is rejected.

The anti-Roosevelt forces under chairmanship of Edgar Townes of Houston, with C. C. Renfro of Dallas acting as secretary, met immediately after the court's decision was announced.

J. Hart Willis of Dallas, a spokesman for the meeting, said that it had not been decided under what party name the anti-Roosevelt electors would be filed with Secretary of State Sidney Latham. Monday is the last day for such filing.

Names Not Decided

Willis said it had not been decided what names would be filed. The effect of today's Supreme court decision was to expunge from the Democratic column the names of presidential electors who have said they would not vote for Roosevelt and Truman.

The court simultaneously closed its doors to further litigation in the matter which has kept the party in a tourmoil for months, and which could be an important factor in determining the outcome of the national election.

Willis said the convention here today was called by a caucus which met earlier in the day, and that a party organization was completed this afternoon. The press was not invited to attend either session.

Formal Statement

Willis released a formal statement which said:

"Believing that a large majority of the Texas people resent and condemn the usurping of the Democratic party name by Communists, bi-city machine politicians, Bronx negro politicians and the CIO Political Action committee, headed by the foreign-born Sidney Hillman, a group of the leaders in the Texas movement for the restoration of the two-thirds rule, states rights and the right of the Democratic party to determine the qualifications for its own membership, met in caucus Saturday morning.

"Realizing that if the decision of the Supreme court failed to follow what has been the established party practice of sixty years in Texas, wherein the May convention chose the presidential electors, it was decided to call a convention of delegates from every district in Texas for the purpose of

Peleliu Cleanup Indicated Near

By DEAN SCHEDLER
Associated Press War Editor

Hard fighting Marines on Pepeliu island knifed through the stubborn Japanese defenders for a gain of a thousand yards northward and are now in possession of three-fourths of the island, Adm. Chester W. Nimitz announced in a communique Saturday.

The comunique said that at sundown on Friday, total enemy troops known to have been killed on Peleliu were 7,020, and on nearby Anguar, Yanks of the 81st (Wildcat) division accounted for 950 Nipponese.

Advancing toward the northern end of Peleliu, the Navy said Marines were miving "slowly but steadily."

Seven Barges Sunk

Supporting the ground forces, carrier-based planes carried out a raid on Yap, northwest of the Palaus, against what was termed "few worthwhile targets." There was no explanation of this phrase.

Alert patrol vessels sighted seven Japanese barges Friday in the narrow channel between Peleliu and Ngesuebus islands, sinking one barge and forcing the others onto Peleliu beaches where they were destroyed in air attacks.

The Japanese-controlled Philippine republic, startled into preinvasion fears by the lashing carrier raids, declared war on the United States and Great Britain, Tokyo radio reported. Puppet President Jose P. Laurel has been empowered by Japan to conscript Filipinos to fight for Japan.

Fighting Hard On Paper

Presumably referring to Nippon's elusive fleet, Tokyo boasted that an American invasion of the islands would give the Japanese a chance "with one strategic blow to bring complete destruction to the enemy." In the Pacific island battles to date, members of the imperial Army have been doing all the fighting with little or no aid from the fleet.

A radio broadcast from Berlin, recorded by CBS, said a third American air attack against Manila took place Friday afternoon, adding that "no details are yet available." There has been no Allied confirmation to this claim.

Southwest Pacific

Thirten Japanese areas in the Southwest Pacific were hit in air strikes from the Philippines to Bougainville, Gen. Douglas MacArthur's communique announced. At Davao, in the southern Philippines, three small ships and five barges and coastal ships were sunk.

A communique from Southeast Asia headquarter ssaid the British 14th Army has driven to a point seven miles above the important Japanese base of Tiddim last spring.

Liberators of Maj. Gen. Claire L. Chennault's air force sank an 8,000-ton Japanese troop ship in the Formosa straits, while other units bombed Hankow, starting fires visible for 40 miles.

Cab Driver Is Sought After Hitting 4 Men

NEW YORK, Sept. 23 (AP)—An enraged taxicab driver, seeking revenge after a barroom argument, deliberately ran down four men early today, injuring one critically, police said.

Police said the driver waited in his cab and trailed the men until they crossed a street. Then, travelling at great speed, he struck the quartet squarely and raced on, leaving his victims unconscious.

An alarm was issued for the driver.

At Least 41 To Be Out In House

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23 (AP)—At least 41 incumbent members of the House of Representatives won't be back in their seats when the 79th Congress convenes next January, a compilation by the House clerk showed today.

There undoubtedly will be more after the November elections, but that many already are in the "lame duck" category either through defeats in primary elections, decisions not to seek election or nominations for other officers.

Thirteen incumbents have been defeated in primaries, 17 are not seeking reelection, one is a candidate for governor, another lost in a gubernatorial campaign, four unsuccessfully sought Senate seats and six are nominees for the Senate.

Those defeated for reelection are Starnes (D-Ala), Newsome (D-Ala), Costello (D-Calif), Douglas (R-NY), Gilchrist (R-Iowa), Lamberton (R-Kas), Ward (D-Md), Kennedy (D-NY), Mruk (R-NY), Furlong (D-Pa.), Patton (D-Tex), Kleberg (D-Tex), and Sullivan (D-Nev).

Prominent among the incumbents not seeking reelection is Martin Dies (D-Tex), chairman of the committee investigating un-American activities. Stiff CIO opposition had arisen before he pulled out of the race.

The six House members nominated for the Senate are Fulbright D-Ark), Wene (D-NJ), Magnuson (D-Wash), Myers (D-Pa), McMurray (D-Wis), and Southoff (Prog-Wis).

The four who lost out in their quest for senatorial nominations are Stearns (R-NH), Burdick (R-ND), Disney (D-Okla) and Morrison (D-NC). Burdick is seeking return to the House as an independent.

Two house members sought their state governorships. One of them, Green (D-Fla), was defeated.

Soviet Seals Off Nazis In Estonia By The Thousands

By W. W. HERCHER
Associated Press Staff Writer

LONDON, Sunday, Sept. 24. — Russian troops racing across Estonia reached the west coast yesterday, capturing the port of Parnu on the Gulf of Riga and sealing off thousands of Germans in a week-end offensive which is estimated to have cost the enemy eight divisions, or 80,000 men.

The Red Army aided by an Estonion corps captured Parnu in another two-miles-an-hour advance from Paide, 50 miles to the Northeast, and its fall cut the land escape routes for thousands of a bewildered foe caught between Parnu and Tallinn, captured Estonian capital 72 miles to the north.

Nazi Escape Ships Sunk

At Sea, Red Naval planes pursued some German ships which escaped from Tallinn with troops aboard. During Friday the Soviet airmen sank 11 of these evacuation vessels, and apparently thousands of Germans perished in the Gulf of Finland.

The fall of Riga, Latvian capital 97 miles south of Parnu, appeared imminent as four powerful Soviet armies pressed the speedy cleanup of Estonia and Latvia in sensational gains. Some Russian units were fighting in Riga's outer southern defenses, and Red Artillery was laying down barrages on Nazi positions in the strategic city.

Greater Blows Ahead

The Soviet victories in Estonia and Latvia were regarded merely as the forerunner of great attacks on East Prussia, in Poland and on Hungary. They shortened the front by more than 120 miles, gave the Red fleet new bases and the air force fields from which the Russians can control two-thirds of the Baltic Sea.

Moscow dispatches also said that an entry into pre-war Hungary was imminent, and an unconfirmed French radio broadcast said the Red Army already had crossed the Hungarian border and was "advancing in the direction of Budapest," Magyar capital.

The fall of Parnu represented another 50-mile leap by Marshal Leonid A. Govorov's Leningrad Army forces in 24 hours.

Enveloping Thousands

Govorov's troops were engaged in a race to envelop scores of thousands of beaten Germans routed amid the lakes and forests of Estonia and who are fleeing toward the imperiled Riga corridor. East of Riga, General Yeremenko's troops advancing as much as 12 miles from previously reported positions captured Mengele, 48 miles east of the Latvian capital, and Koknese, 53 miles southeast of Riga.

In the advance on Parnu other localities seized in a radiating drive launched from Paide, taken Friday, were Lelle, 19 miles west of Paide and 11 miles from Rapla junction on the lines to Tallinn and the west coast port of Virtsu; Viljandi, 38 miles east of Parnu and 35 miles south of Paide, and Vana-Vandra, 25 miles northeast of Parnu.

36,389 Germans Are Captured At Brest

BREST, France, Sept. 20 (Delayed) (AP)—Maj. Gen. Troy Middleton, commander of the Eighth corps of the U. S. Ninth army, announced today that 36,389 Nazis were captured at Brest, the second largest prisoner bag of the war.

Beaming with satisfaction Middleton said three German divisions—the 266th infantry; 343rd infantry and second paratroop — had been "entirely erased from the troops' list of the German army" in 26 days of the bitterest fighting, climaxed by the fall of Brest and its harbor last Monday.

This was accomplished by the Eighth corps and three infantry divisions, the second, Eighth and 29th, which took over the campaign after the Sixth Armored division bottled up approximately 40,000 Germans on the Brittany peninsula.

Center Of Gothic Line Is Smashed

By NOLAND NORGAARD
Associated Press Staff Writer

ROME, Sept. 23. — American forces have smashed through the center of the German Gothic line and are looking down on the Po valley of northern Italy, it was disclosed tonight, while the British Eighth Army on the east coast, fighting out onto the Po plains, pushed the Nazis out of strategic road and rail positions.

Sid Feder, Associated Press correspondent with the Fifth Army, said the exact location of the new American positions could not be disclosed, but that, "it seems safe to say the smash which carried Fifth Army troops over some of the tallest peaks in Italy to where the broad Lombardy plain—at the gateway of which lies Bologna—is unfolded before them, tore the heart out of the Gothic line at a point where it was probably the deepest."

Heavy Artillery Barrage

Previous reports had put the Americans 28 miles south of Bologna at the southern threshold of strategic Futa pass.

The American advance was rammed home with one of the heaviest artillery concentrations of war, with some German prisoners reporting the shellfire had cut some of their battalions to as few as 60 men.

The Brazilian Expeditionary force on the western seaward flank was well on the way to capturing its first big objective, hammering on 20 miles northwest of Pisa to within 23 miles of the Italian port of La Spezia.

Lt. Gen. Sir Oliver Leese's Eighth Army routed the last enemy troops south of the Marecchio river, which flows through the fallen eastern Gothic line anchor of Rimini and was swiftly deepening the bridgehead across the stream which puts it out on the Po plain.

Prisoners Increasing

As they fought out on to the ancient Via Aemilia, a highway which runs along the southern edge of the Po valley 79 miles northwest to Bologna, British and Canadian troops were rounding up an increasing number of prisoners.

Other Eighth Army forces were fighting straight north toward Ravenna, 34 miles beyond Rimini, driving before them concentrations of enemy troops who were raked yesterday by the fire of the British destroyer Loyal.

Piedmont Strike To Slow Nazis Reported

ROME, Sept. 23 (AP)—The clandestine pro-Allied radio in northern Italy—Radio Milano Liberta—reported today that a general strike had broken out in Piedmont intended to hamper the German retreat toward the Brenner pass.

The broadcast said the Nazis had been moving out supplies and troops several days.

There was no immediate Allied confirmation of this report.

British Smash To River; Aid Flown To Rescue Troops

By ERNEST AGNEW

SUPREME HEADQUARTERS AEF, Sept. 23—British Second Army patrols tonight forged a tenuous link with units of the "lost division" of airborne troops in the Arnhem sector in Holland, and thousands of British and American glider troops, with large amounts of supplies, were flown in despite strong opposition, to reinforce Lt. Gen. Miles C. Dempsey's hard-slugging rescue troops.

A late front dispatch said the situation in the Arnhem sector remained serious, even as the Second Army, after a bloody six-mile relief march, hurled shells across the river into enemy lines ringing the valiant sky troops just a quarter of a mile away from the hard-won British position on the north bank of the Rhine.

Fighting Continues Bitter

The British advance was punched out through enemy strength, and extremely heavy fighting continued in the whole sector tonight.

To the south, U. S. Third Army armor churned forward through a sea of mud in a six-mile push, capturing Buriville, six miles north of Baccarat and about 30 miles east of Nancy. The remainder of the Third Army front was stalled by rain and strong Nazi resistance.

British tanks and infantry and the American sky-troops who fought through stand-and-die resistance apparently sent their patrols across the river at the Arnhem bridge. A link-up in force would signalize a great Allied victory on the Ruhr valley route to Berlin.

Supply Line Intact

Their long, thin line of supply was once more intact, for 30 miles south of this critical front British forces rushed up and chased away SS (Elite Guard) troopers and 200 tanks who had slashed across the highway at the Dutch village of Veghel.

Supreme headquarters, which had described the Arnhem positions as "critical" only Friday, breathed more easily and from the commander of the British division in Arnhem came word that after six days of isolation "morale is high—we will hold out."

Rain and thick clouds again hampered air support and reinforcement, but rocket-firing Typhoons in great strength helped smash the Germans loose from their strangling hold on the life line at Veghel.

27 Nazis Downed In Glider Area

LONDON, Sept. 23 (AP)—At least 27 German planes were destroyed in a series of dogfights over Holland today as a great armada of American and British glider-towing transports delivered thousands of fresh troops and supplies to help efforts to relieve the "lost division" in the Arnhem area.

The transports flew through blinding flak to accomplish their mission.

The daring trip was carried out in the late afternoon with the aid of a sudden break in the weather. The German radio later warned that night bombers, which had been held back for several days by weather, were over the Reich again.

Calais Battered Again

A sizeable fleet of RAF Mitchell and Boston bombers based in France joined in the battle for bomb-scarred Calais by striking at two strong points almost at the water's edge in that city. The returning crews said their bombs straddled positions to which the Germans were clinging hopelessly with their backs to the sea.

The Mediterranean-based forces, which have been hitting Hungary and Yugoslavia daily, struck in medium strength at industrial targets in Sudetenland, Rome announced, and also hit railway yards in southern Austria and seven bridges in northeastern Italy.

It was announced also that Mitchell bombers had found the Italian cruiser Taranto at the port of La Spezia and left her burning fiercely from three attacks.

General Ike Declines To Sign French Honorary Register Ahead Of DeGaulle

PARIS, Sept. 21 (Delayed)—Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower declined to sign the honorary register at the Arc De Triumphe—because he thought the name of Gen. Charles de Gaulle should head the post-liberation list.

De Gaulle visited the Unknown Soldier's grave and the Eternal Light Aug. 27 but at that time the book still was in its four-year hiding place.

It was brought out for the Sept. 8 ceremony when Eisenhower presented a plaque to the city. Today the committee of the "Keepers of the Undying Flame" started the book on its way to de Gaulle and then will send it to Eisenhower.

In all the years of the occupation the gas-fed flame was kept burning. During the liberation of the city a one-legged guard of the Arc de Triomphe slept by it to prevent vandalism by Germans.

Hitler never officially visited the site as popularly supposed, but many other German officials did.

On June 14, 1940, when the Germans entered Paris a general alighted in the Place de la Concorde, walked up the Champs Elysees, knelt before the grave and made the sign of a cross, said Leon Moussou, vice president of the committee.

"Then he turned and asked me if he wanted the Germans to keep the flame alive," Moussou said. "I told him it was a shame for the German flag to be raised over the grave of France's unknown's. The general ordered the flag down."

The committee's nightly prewar ceremony of turning the flame up high, to the saluate of beating drums, was suspended during the occupation but will be resumed next month.

During the liberation, Moussou himself attended the flame every day despite fierce fighting close by. In 1940 he had wanted to blow up the grave and the flame system rather than have the Germans molest it, but other members of the committee dissuaded him.

The Germans used to goosestep by the grave every day in the changing of the guard and other military ceremonies and paid their respect by saluting the grave. But they ordered civilians to keep away at those periods.

"We are willing to honor your dead, but not French civilians," Moussou quoted the Germans as saying, nor would they allow the French to place the Tricolor upon the grave as was done before the war.

Land And Credit For GIs Urged By FDR

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23 (AP)—President Roosevelt, estimating a million servicemen will want to go to farming after the war, ordered government studies today of ways to assure that servicemen get productive land and any needed credit and training.

Mr. Roosevelt in a letter to Secretary of Agriculture Claude R. Wickard and to Brig. Gen. Frank T. Hines, veterans administrator, told the two administrators to take full advantage of the G. I. Bill of Rights in rehabilitating farm-minded servicemen.

World Association Suggested By FDR

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23 (AP) — President Roosevelt declared today a civilized world can exist "only through association for peace and the common good."

A proclamation naming Oct. 12 as Columbus day said the world is being drawn "into an ever-narrowing circle of geographic relationship."

We now are engaged, he said, in a "great task of achieving world peace by victory and of maintaining that peace by association with others."

In another proclamation, declaring Oct. 11 as General Pulaski Memorial day in honor of the Polish nobleman killed in the American Revolutionary war, Mr. Roosevelt paid tribute to the people of Poland for their fight against the Nazis.

Wasson Extensions Staked; Gulf Acquires Leases On 40,000 Acres

STAKING of one-half mile extension explorations for the Wasson "Deep" pool in northwest Gaines, and for the Bennett north extension to the Wasson regular 5,300-foot pay pool, in central Yoakum county, were the new developments of most importance listed in the oil activity report for the North Permian Basin during last week.

Other features were the reports that Gulf Oil Corporation centered on the Lamb-Hockley, and Coachran-Bailey, county lines; that Lou Stogner, Fort Worth had leased a block of about 2,500 acres in southwest Bailey county, and that Hut Oil company ha dtaken about 9,000 acres in north-central and west-central Yoakum county.

All On 10-Year Basis

All of the lease trades were on 10-year commercial basis. No definite announcements of the bonuses paid were revealed. It is understood that practically all the deals called for 50 cents per acre annual rentals. No immediate drilling obligations are involved on any of the tracts, according to reliable reports.

Approximately one-half mile southwest of the nearest producer from the lower Permian zones, Amon Carter, Fort Worth, and Phillips Petroleum company No. 5-A Wasson, 880 feet from the north and east lines of section 53, block AX psl survey, in northwest Gaines, is to drill to 7,800 feet, starting soon, and try for a dual completion from the anticipated pay sections at 6,200 feet, and at 7,200 feet.

New Wasson Extension

Plymouth Oil company No. 1 C. H. Smith, 330 feet from the south and west lines of the southwest quarter of section 567, block D, John H. Gibson survey, an exploration to hunt for pay in the San Andres lime above 5,400 feet, in cenetral Yoakum county, is a little more than one-half of a mile north of the closest producing well in the Wasson field. It is to start drilling with rotary at once.

Magnolia Petroleum company No. 1 Johnston, section 88, block C, D&W survey, east-central Lubbock county prospector to 8,000 feet, had made hole under 4,515 feet, and was going ahead in lime.

Shutdown For Repairs

Seaboard Oil Company of Delaware No. 1 Cravens, section 16, block D, L&SV survey, in north Lubbock county, reached 3,650 feet in anhydrite, and was shutdown for repairs.

Rodgers Brothers No. 1 Belding, Crosby county's only development project, had progressed to 1,855 feet, and at last report was shutdown again.

Blackwell Oil & Gas company No. 1 House, Northwest Kent county development, in section 4, block B, psl survey, was still bottomed at 5,890 feet, in lime, and was trying to get casing, which had parted, back in shape to allow drilling ahead. This test is proposed to drill to around 7,500 feet.

Rumor Is Discounted

Woodley Petroleum company No. 1 Bird, section 66, block 7, Thompson survey, in central-south Lamb county, was digging below 4,918 feet, in lime. Top of San Angelo, middle Permian, was marked at 4,510 feet, on an elevation of 3,666 feet.

The operator reports a rumor that shows of oil had been encountered several days ago, when an oil scum was discovered on the pits developed when a tank truck used to haul drilling fluid to the test, unloaded its cargo, which consisted of about ten barrels of crude oil which the driver had failed to pump out of the tank, prior to loading up with the fluid.

The Texas company No. 1 Tunnell, section 451, block L, EL survey, in southeast Lynn county, was boring ahead in lime past 6,500 feet.

Phillips Petroleum company No. 1-A Bartley, section 1372, block 1, EL survey, in central-tast Lynn, was digging below 6,184 feet, in lime.

Dawson Test Abandoned

Seaboard No. 1 Weaver, league 2, Taylor county school land survey, in central-west Dawson county, has been abandoned and plugged on a total depth of 5,113 feet, in lime.

Top of the San Andres lime was 4,660 feet, on an elevation of 3,029 feet. According to some correlations that put the mark about 200 feet low to the next nearest control on the horizon. No oil, gas or water was found in the section, which might have been productive.

Richmond Drilling company No. 1 Nelson, section 34, block M. EL survey, in northwest Dawson, was bottomed at 4,750 feet, in lime, with 5½-inch casing cemented there.

Further development will be delayed until a National cable tool unit can be rigged up to drill the cement plug and drill ahead, to the scheduled destination of 5,500 feet, unless commercial production is found at a shallower depth.

To Spud Cochran Test

Honolulu Oil corporation No. 1 R. M. Hudson, section 9, block P, psl survey, about three miles southwest side of the Slaughter field, in southeast Cochran county, was rigging up a rotary, and is due to spud in a few days.

Honolulu No. 1 Hertel, northeast Yoakum county wildcat in section 264, block D, Gibson survey, about six miles north and a little east of Tahoka, has been plugged and abandoned at 5,392 feet, in lime.

The test had a considerable amount of sulphur water in the lime when it was abandoned.

Skelly Oil company No. 1 Hodges, section 446, block D, Gibson survey, in central-west Yoakum, had progressed below 6,340 feet in lime.

Progress In Other Tests

Woodley no. 1 Googins, section 249, block D, Gibson survey, in northwest Yoakum, was making hole below 4,500 feet, in lime. Top of the anhydrite was at 2,360 feet, on an elevation of 3,733 feet.

Honolulu No. 1 McLane, section 324, block D, Gibson survey, and one and two-thirds of a mile southeast of the same operator's dry hole on the Hertel, had bored past 4,908 feet, in lime.

Humble Oil & Refining company No. 1 Doss, section 9, block A-24, psl survey, in south-central Gaines county, bottomed out 9,049 feet, in lime, and then plugged-back to 7,250 feet.

To Test Section

At that level it is preparing to test a section which had some slight oil shows in drilling samples. That formation is the Clear Fork zone of the lower Permian. Some oil indications were found above that section, and they may also be tested.

Shell Oil company, Inc., No. 1 Sparks, section 3, block A-13, psl survey, southwest Gaines deep wildcat, had penetrated to 9,352 feet, in lime and chert, and was drilling ahead.

Amerada Petroleum corporation No. 1 Jones, section 59, block AX, psl survey, in northwest Gaines, which is being drilled to look for production in the Clear Fork section of the Permian, had reached 7,310 feet, and was going ahead in lime.

Magnolia and Atlantic Refining company No. 2-491 Havemeyer & Jenny, section 491, block G, CCSD &RGNG survey, outpost to the proven area in the Russell pool, in northwest Gaines, was digging under 6,270 feet in lime.

Shell No. 1-B Jones, section 460, block G, CCSD&RGNG survey, and another region, had made hole below 4,818 feet, in lime.

Texaco No. 1 Johnson, section 41, block 42, TP survey, T-4-N, wildcat to 7,500 feet, in southwest Borden county, was drilling ahead under 2,250 feet, in anhydrite.

Oil Shows In Samples

At around 1,760 feet slight oil shows were found in drilling samples. Three attempts to get a drillstem test to determine the value of those shows, failed when the packed slipper slipped. However, a Schlumberger survey was taken, and that checked revealed that the indications were of no quantity.

A one mile southwest extension to the southwest side of the Fullerton field, in northwest Andrews county, was indicated last week, when British American Oil Producing company No. 1 McCrea, in section 1, block A-48, psl survey, flowed better than 35 barrels of oil per hour, during a test of several hours, from the upper section at 6,865-6,979 feet, after treating with 4,000 gallons, and 2,000 gallons of acid. Total depth of the well is at 7,043 feet. The lower zone has not been acidized, or tested fully yet.

The following acreage was included in the lease deals in Yoakum county which have recently been reported from Hunt Oil company:

Sections 190, 191, 214, 155, east half of 194, east half of 189, east half of the east half of 156, south half of 540, west half of 345, west half of 360, northeast quarter of 514, all of 544, south half of the south half of 477, south half of 511, north half and the southwest quarter of 479, and the north half og 639, all in block D, John H. Gibson survey.

The average airframe weight of airplanes produced now is twice as great as a year ago.

Referendum Of WTCC Oct. 4

The 1944 referendum convention of Lubbock district of West Texas Chamber of Commerce will be held here Oct. 4, it has been announced by President M. C. Ulmer of Midland.

The WTCC in 1942 pioneered for the nation a referendum-by-mail plan, abandoning for the war's duration its large assembly type conventions. This year's procedure provides as usual for local meetings in the 148 affiliated towns. Additionally, during the first two weeks of October, the officers and district directors, led by Ulmer, will conduct eight district meetings for directors, chamber of commerce secretaries and town groups.

Referendum Has 9 Planks

This year's referendum ballot will contain nine planks dealing with regional and national questions. Looking first at the territory, the WTCC supports the agricultural worker by seeking his inclusion in postwar social security benefits and by advocating reduction of lower brackets on federal income taxes. In the reconversion program, priority will be sought for farmers and ranchers in sale of federal housing surpluses and maintenance of West Texas army camps in postwar hospitalization and defense plans is urged.

On the chamber's long battle for freight rate parity, a proposal will be made to take Texas' case direct to the U. S. Supreme court, by a suit filed in the name of the state, in event the Interstate Commerce commission does not grant full parity for all sections in the national rate investigation now awaiting decision after hearings.

Would Advertise Texas

Also proposed is a legislative program for tight fiscal control in state, county and city budgetary practices; for legislative redistricting based on the 1940 census; for changing the formula of passing out school apportionment funds from a mere census basis to actual attendance; and for promotion of a $2,000,000 two-year state-financed and directed campaign for nationally advertising Texas' resources, business opportunities and potentialities.

Another plank authorizes a campaign before Congress calling for a federal budget not exceeding $20,000,000,000; abolition of excess profits and capital stock taxes; deduction of corporate dividends in determining net income for taxation; and income and surtax rates not exceeding 15 per cent in the lowest bracket and 60 per cent in the highest.

Lubbock Man Member Of Fighter Group With 450 Air Victories

AN EIGHTH AIR FORCE FIGHTER STATION, England—Corporal Spurgeon A. Blackburn of Lubbock, Texas, is a member of an Eighth Fighter Command P-51 Mustang group which recently passed the 450-mark in victories over Nazis planes, becoming the third American fighter group in the European Theater of Operations to make such a record.

Cpl. Blackburn is a clerk in the service group stationed here and his work contributed to the group's high record of combat efficiency. As a part of the organization which enables the fighter pilots to devote all their time and energy to the pursuit and destruction of the Luftwafe, he is helping to keep American fighter planes in combat against the enemy over corner of occupied Europe.

This fighter group, commanded by Colonel William J. Cummings, jr., of Lawrence, Kan., established a record for American units in this theater when it destroyed 44 enemy planes on the ground and seven in the air in one mission. And in four low-level attacks, the group destroyed 118 German planes on the ground, an average of more than 29 per mission.

Cpl. Blackburn, who formerly resided at 1905 Thirteenth, Lubbock, was employed as a salesman by the "Solv-It" Sales Company in Dallas, Texas, prior to his enlistment in January, 1942.

Two Who Bowled Over Mail Boxes Sentenced

DALLAS, Sept. 23 (U.P.) — Two Rockwall county brothers agreed today that their game of knocking down mail boxes was not so funny now that they were sobered up.

The brothers went on a drinking spree and drove their truck down a road near Garland, swinging from side to side to knock down rural mail boxes.

Federal Judge T. Whitfield Davidson sentenced Curtis Eugene Yates, 30, who admitted he was the driver, to six months in the Texarkana Federal prison, and Thomas Edward Yates, 26, to 30 days in jail.

THE POMONA "LITTLE CHIEF"

Fills a need unmet by any other pump!

HERE'S A PUMP THAT IS IDEAL for many industrial and farm applications. The Pomona "Little Chief" meets the demand for a pump between the small domestic water systems and the large deep well units. It provides ample water for a hydropneumatic water system . . . and at the same time a large volume of additional water directly from the pump at ground surface for many other applications!

It incorporates the same heavy-duty construction features that have made Pomona Deep Well Pumps famous for more than 40 years. It is compact, noiseless, vibrationless. It requires practically no attention, produces greater capacity from smaller wells and is readily adjustable to varying requirements.

If you are considering the installation of any type water system—whether for commercial, industrial, farm or domestic purposes—investigate the extra advantages, the extra capacity and adaptability of the "Little Chief." See us for full details!

Strict Government Being Set Up As Allies Push On Into Germany

By BRUCE MUNN
United Press War Writer

LONDON, Sept. 23. — Allied military government detachments, acting under powers of Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower as supreme authority in occupied Germany, are sweeping aside Nazi laws and organizations and clamping a tight control over civilian activities, a headquarters announcement disclosed today.

German laws granting special privileges to the Nazi party and its members and discriminatory racial edicts have been dissolved in the occupied areas.

Allies Demand Firearms

German civilians have been ordered to surrender all firearms and wireless transmitting equipment. Travel within the country or across borders is permitted only at the discretion of the military authorities.

Law No. 1 promulgated by the military government authorities abrogated the German laws which gave the Nazis special rights, placed the party above the law and denied citizenship to those not of German blood.

The Hitler youth law requiring membership in that organization and laws protecting the Nazi flag, symbols and uniforms were abolished.

The military government will take control of all Nazi party funds, property, records and equipment from Nazi administrative officers who were ordered, under penalty of death, to remain at their posts until the exchange is effected.

Suspend Courts

Law No. 2 suspended temporarily regular civil, criminal and administrative courts. It proposed to reopen the courts, after they have been purged of Nazi influences, as soon as conditions permit. Another law abolished the German mark as legal tender.

Control of the Reich's postal service, telephones, telegraph and radio establishments was provided and censorship was established for all civilian communications.

Various ordinances provide the death penalty for any German who acts as a spy for the enemy, who aids Nazis in any way, who engages in looting or pillaging, who is guilty of sabotage or theft of Allied war material or who misleads Allied forces.

Another order establishes English as the official language in all official matters relating to the military government.

Rationing Of Bicycles Is Abandoned By OPA; Supply Is Too Short

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23 (AP) — The Office of Price Administration, which rations things because they are scarce, today abandoned bicycle rationing for the same reason.

"There are not enough bicycles on hand or scheduled for production to make rationing worth the trouble," Administrator Chester Bowles said.

The order means that any bicycles now in stock may be sold without ration certificates or priority.

Epidemic Of "Gadders Itch" Makes Traveling Nightmare

By GEM BOB CALLEY
Avalanche-Journal Staff Writer

An epidemic of "gadders itch" continues to sweep the far West Texas region—and nobody seems to be able to do much about it.

The itch is characterized by an insatiable urge to get going pronto—and keep going.

To put it baldly, non-essential batting around on buses and trains already stuffed with more essential travelers seems to have become a growing obsession.

Persons lugging baggage crowd and jostle each other in bus and rail depots and make their frazzled nerves jump. Soldiers, hoping to get seats to their home or station destination, often have to stand aside and watch the mad descent of the irresponsibles. They don't always mask their disgust.

Buses, Trains Buck Problem

Yet under adverse conditions, railroads and bus companies are doing what more considerate members of the public call a magnificent job. They're straining themselves to the last notch to meet public demand. Both are breaking all records in carrying passengers, in addition to handling excess freight and mails.

Short on power, cars, equipment, coaches, box cars, and engines, railroads are serving, months after they thought they might break under the strain. One railroad executive said that ancient equipment, old-style pullmans and retired engines from the back show had been called back into major service.

"We're getting a few new engines now," he said, "but we are under such pressure it will take more equipment than we can possibly get—and added manpower—if this dreadful run continues."

Railroads and busses are using all the equipment they can get and "running it down" fast. New equipment is practically "out" for the duration, and the problem is making what they have last.

Wave Of Laborers Expected

"Cutting down on speed and excess baggage has eased somewhat the pressure and wear on tires," a bus driver said.

Since Sept. 1, bus traffic has decreased because youngsters are in school and more mothers are home with children, a bus company reported. However, traffic is expected to increase greatly next month because of the movement of farm labor migrants. War Food administration has informed transportation companies that migrants are traveling in larger numbers than at any time since 1941. A bus company official said there had been a slight increase of travelers each month over last year, and war workers are on their way home from the West coast.

Bus traffic indicates more persons are heading toward the west coast than the east. Almost 75 per cent of the riders buy one-way tickets, with the highest per cent of travelers moving to Fort Worth, Dallas, Albuquerque, Amarillo, El Paso, San Antonio, and Oklahoma City. A large per cent of travelers make short runs to nearby towns, as was the case before the war, transportation records show. Each time a bus leaves the station it has a "capacity" load. The average load is considered 35 persons.

Gadders Itch Brings Deafness

General rule of war-time traveling seems to be "first come, first seated," and "standing-room only" doesn't seem to discourage many. In some metropolitan stations, servicemen are given preference by being allowed to enter trains first, yet after they are there they often give up their seats to women. Coaches are jam-packed—not just on weekends. When travel normally is supposed to be "light," travelers are observed sitting on bags and standing in aisles and vestibules.

One person, just returned from the east, summed up her train journey home as "a three-day-standing nightmare. I foraged for food, fought for a seat, and gasped for fresh air." She said even though the car was air-conditioned, equipment could not cope with "all the body heat, and the air in the coaches, packed with sweating bodies, became unspeakably foul." Fretful youngsters lay limp on their mothers. Soldiers, exhausted from long standing, flung themselves on the floor of washrooms and vestibules, sleeping two-deep, too weary to care. The woman tried to get to the diner for breakfast. She stood in line two hours, then was told the food supply had been exhausted.

Gadders itch also is characterized by deafness.

Appeals to stay home and avoid needless travel have fallen on deaf ears.

Nothing short of rationed travel probably could curtain the problem, and even then—who knows?

Dewey Must Apologize Or Lose, Smith Says

ST. Louis. Mo., Sept. 23. (U.P.)—Gerald L. K. Smith, national director of the America First party, said last night that if Gov. Thomas E. Dewey does not apologize for his "smear campaign" against America-Firsters and Rep. Hamilton Fish, the Democrats would win the election.

Smith told a rally of 500 followers that there are 100,000 America Firsters in Missouri. He advocated that there are 100,000 America Firsters in Missouri. He advocated that they vote Republican because "we aren't on the ballot in this state and an administration change may improve Congress." He declared his presidential campaign merely was a "dress rehearsal" for victory in 1946.

Eisenhower, Slightly Hurt, Says Nazi Fight Militarily Useless

By JOHN E. LEE
Representing the Combined American Press
(Distributed by United Press)

GEN. DWIGHT D. EISENHOWER'S ADVANCED COMMAND POST, Somewhere in France, Sept. 23.—Smiling, confident Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower said today that Germany's military situation is hopeless.

The length of the European war depends, he continued, on two main factors: First, how long the Germans can stand the terrific pounding they are taking from the west, south and east, and, secondly, how long the Gestapo remains in control of the Reich.

Slightly Injured Knee

The general, who has been troubled by a stiff right knee for the last few weeks, received a few correspondents at his command post informally and discussed the war, mostly off the record. He beban by expressing surprise at recent reports that he had been unwell and indicated that, except for his knee, he was in excellent shape.

It may be revealed now that his knee was injured early this month when he was returning to headquarters in France from a trip aboard a light liaison plane piloted by one of his personal pilots.

Arriving at an airstrip near headquarters, the pilot found the weather unsuitable for landing, so he put down at a nearby beach under difficult, cloudy conditions. Although he made an excellent landing, he was unable to prevent the plane from running close to the surf.

Dragged Plane Back

When the plane landed, General Eisenhower and the pilot dragged the craft away from the water. While doing so, Eisenhower accidentally twisted his knee, which has bothered him ever since. Despite the mishap, however, he has made later aerial trips, including some within the days immediately following the incident.

In reply to the questions, Eisenhower said the advance in Europe is moving slowly at present and refused to commit himself on whether the war in this theater will end this year. There is no doubt in his mind, however, as to how the war will end.

Militarily Useless

He explained in detail that Germany's final defeat depends in great measure on how long it can stand up under the hammering. From a professional military viewpoint, he said, the Germans now have no hope of mounting any really effective counter - blow. Therefore, militarily, it is useness for them to continue fighting, he said:

Continued resistance, he added, also is detrimental to the Reich, since it means additional destruction, with the final result still negative from the Germans' standpoint.

However, Eisenhower pointed out, the Gestapo still holds the reins in the Reich and its agents have nothing to gain by surrendering.

American farmers are expected to use half a million tons more of fertilizer this year than last.

He said any rations issued for planes by local boards between now and Nov. 1 would be good only to that date. Ration allotments already issued will expire Nov. 1.

Two changes in officer duty assignments were announced Saturday at South Plains Army Air field. Lieut. Ray Cagni of Pittsburgh, has assumed duties as assistant special service officer. He has been in charge of the athletic department at the field in recent weeks. Capt. Virgil D. Sullivan of Houston, succeeds Lt. Cagni as post athletic officer, it was announced.

Spare Time In Army Is Turned Into Profit By Local Man At LAAF

Spare time in the Army can be turned to profit, according to Cpl. Everett C. Melton of LAAF. As a result of his study through the U. S. Armed Forces Institute, Cpl. Melton has completed a course in general science and has been awarded a certificate of proficiency by his commanding officer.

Cpl. Melton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry L. Melton, 720 Hub Homes Lubbock, is a dental technician in charge of the dental department at LAAF. By devoting a few hours off-duty time each week to USAFI, which offers 64 correspondence courses in high school, college and vocational subjects for members of the military service, Cpl. Melton has received high school credit for his correspondence course. At the present time he's taking a course in inorganic chemistry, having recognized a good thing which many other men at LAAF have found provides them with the opportunity to better themselves while serving their country.

USAFI is an official War Department school which operates history's most ambitious educational project. Sixty per cent of the enrollments are from men serving overseas. Hundreds of courses are offered through the extension departments of well-known American colleges cooperating with the Institute. Many of these courses carry full academic credit with the students' former school, making it possible for him to pick up again if he returns to school after the war is over.

LAAF Shows Power In 27-13 Victory Over Red Raiders

Dixon, Castles Lead Fliers Over Tech With Schlinkman Shining For Losers

The Lubbock Army Air Field Flyers got the jump on Texas Tech's youthful Red Raiders, and stayed ahead to blast out a 27 to 13 win in the season's opener for both teams Saturday night at the Tech Stadium.

The expected duel between Buster Dixon, LAAF's speedy fullback, and Watler Schlinkman, the Red Raider speedster, developed as expected, and they carried the honors well.

But there were a number of unheralded back that put up a real display of running ability, and ripped off some nice gains during the ball game.

Raiders Also Shine

The Red Raider backfield stars turned up with a number of real gallops, with Arthur Shahan, Cecil Norris, Constin Bufkin, Hoot Gibson and Billy Whitehead all showed up well in the ball carrying department.

The line play for both teams was ragged in spots, but it turned out some good performers with Jack Dillon, the Tech wingman, proving a constant thorn to the LAAF attack, while "Big Mac" McWhorter was the top man for the army eleven.

Dixon found a lot of help from Castles in the LAAF backfield, and the newcomer to the army lineup bids fair to take the place of Rogers Smith in teaming with Dixon in forming a supercharged running attack as was boasted by LAAF last season.

Tech Meets Aggies Next

The Red Raiders move into San Antonio next week to play the Texas Aggies in the first college game of the season, and against the first of four Southwest Conference foes. The next home game will be the following week with Oklahoma A. & M. on Oct. 7.

Fire Works Start Early

The fireworks started early with LAAF getting control of the ball for first time with McWhorter recovering a fumble by Schlinkman on the Tech 44. Dixon picked up a yard, and James smashed down to the Tech 39. On the next play, Dixon broke through the line and roared 39 yards to pay dirt, then kicked the extra point for a 7 to 0 lead.

The Red Raiders bounded back as Hoot Gibson scooped up the kickoff on his own five and fell in behind some nice blocking to return to the Tech 44 before he was pulled down.

Norris smashed across the midfield stripe, and bulled his way to the Army 42. On the next play, Schlinkman streaked into the clear, and galloped across the goal line for a touchdown, but the try for extra point failed, and Tech trailed 7-6.

LAAF Sprints Again

The tempo then slowed down somewhat, and there was no more scoring during the remainder of the first half.

The exchange of touchdowns was repeated early in the third quarter, with LAAF again scoring first.

On an exchange of punts, Dixon took a kick on his own 48 and carried it back to the Tech 39. The Red Raiders line held the Army to four yards in three tries, then Dixon kicked out of bounds on the Tech's 3-yard line. Hardy attempted to kick back, but the ball was partly blocked, and went out of bounds on the Tech 15. Castles smashed down to the six, Dixon picked up another, then a penalty pushed Tech back to the one yard line, and Dixon plunged over. Dixon again kicked the extra point for a 14 to 6 lead.

Tech Cuts Lead

LAAF picked to Texas Tech, and Shahan scooped up the ball on his own 4 yard line and fell in behind some nice blocking to bring the ball out to the Tech 40. Shahan broke away from another 15 yard gallop, but the play was called back and Tech penalized five yards. Norris gained back the five lost on the penalty on the next play.

James intercepted a Tech pass on the next play, plucking the ball out of the air on his own 40, and romping to the Tech 18, but again the play was called back, and Tech retained the ball.

Schlinkman went into action again, picking up seven yards, then 12 in two straight tries, and moved to the LAAF 41 yard line. Schlinkman then smashed through to the LAAF 35.

Shahan then returned to action, and cut sharply over his own right tackles, reversed his field and ran 35 yards for a touchdown. Birdwell kicked the extra point to cut the LAAF lead to 14 to 13.

LAAF Comes Back

LAAF started right back on another scoring drive that was extended over into the fourth quarter before reaching pay dirt. Starting with the kickoff on the LAAF 20, the soldiers marched 80 yard for another touchdown, and began to pull away from the collegians.

A steady moving ground attack, aided by penalties moved the LAAF eleven to the Tech 12 at the end of the quarter.

Dixon, in three stabs, made it a first down on the three, and Castles knifed through the line for the touchdown. Dixon again kicked the extra point for a 21 to 13 lead.

McWhorter again pounced on a Texas Tech fumble on the Tech 43 to set up the final touchdown. Castles smashed to the 36. Dixon picked up three, then Castles romped to the 21. Three plays put them on the Tech 17, and Dixon took to the air.

Homer Wilson made a sensational catch of Dixon's pass, getting it in his finger tips as he was tackled on the one. Dixon smashed over on the next play. The try for point was blocked.

The Red Raiders played the rest of the ball game in the LAAF end of the field, but were never able to puncture the goal line defense of the Flyers.

A doorless pre-fabricated portable garage has been developed which permits entrance and exit of automobiles by tilting one end of the garage with weights and pulleys.

Emerson, Gullett and Andrews also shared honors as the outstanding Olton players.

Big Week-End Of Football Is Scheduled For Area

The football season swings into high gear over the South Plains this week with at least 16 games on the grid menu for fans whetting their appetities on the first big week-end of tussles just past.

Headlining the inter-district frays of course will be the Lubbock High School visit at Big Spring and Vernon High School's invasion of Butler Field for a game with Amarillo's powerful Sandies.

Both the Westerners and Sandies are very much in the spotlight and face tough competition this week against rapidly improving inter-district foes who could toss a couple of upsets in the schoolboy picture themselves. Other Class AA headliners finds Oklahoma City Central playing at Pampa, which lost an 18 to 12 decision to Midland Friday night, Canadian at Borger, Seminole at Brownfield and Electra at Plainview.

Over in District 5-A two conference games highlight play with Littlefield tangling with Morton in the latter's back yard and Sudan invading Muleshoe. Also on tap in the 5-A circuit is Levelland's invasion of Tahoka and Olton's visit with Lockney. Levelland, defending champion of District 5-A, eked out a close 3 to 0 decision over Floydada Friday night.

Also holding interest of fans in other scattered parts of the area will be the Plains at Denver City contest and Spur at Seymour tussle. Spur is defending champion in District 4-A, Seymour playing in 11-A.

Lubbock's Cowhands take on another nearby foe over the coming week end when they journey to Meadow. Abernathy plays at Ropes. Petersburg will be the underdog in a game at Floydada with the Whirlwind and Lamesa and Odessa will tangle in a District 3-AA conference tussle which should be one of the topnotch games in that sector.

TCU Cops Victory Over Kansas, 7-0

(By The Associated Press)

KANSAS CITY, Sept. 23—Joe Kucera's seven yard touchdown plunge midway in the fourth quarter brought Texas Christian University's Horned Frogs a hard earned 7-0 victory here tonight over the Kansas Jayhawkers in their intersectional clash before 12,000 spectators.

A 23-yard pass, from Kucera to Merle Gibson two plays before had carried the Texans into scoring territory.

TCU Takes To Air

A T.C.U. punt which Dwight Sutherland, Jayhawker back allowed to roll dead on the Kansas 1-foot line set the stage for the scoring thrust. O. J. Endcott's kick from behind the goal line carried to the K. U. 45 and Kucera returned to the 35 before he rifled the pass to Gibson.

Throughout the first half and into the third period the teams battled up and down the field with the Horned Frogs throwing forward passes throughout.

Kansas too, went into the air in their attempt to overhaul the Horned Frogs. Their 17 aerial attempts resulted in only 3 completions, however, with a net gain of 29 yards while Dutch Meyers' boys made good a dozen of their 22 for 141 yards.

On the ground, the Jayhawkers made a better showing but failed whenever the goal line loomed. Kansas gained a net of 103 yards by rushing to 122 for the Horned Frogs.

Texas Aggies Take It Easy In Chalking Up 39 to 0 Decision Over Bryan AAF Squad

COLLEGE STATION, Sept. 23.—Texas A. & M. breezed to a 39-0 victory over Bryan Army Air field here today featuring spectacular runs, long passes and an airtight defense.

The Fliers could gain only 16 yards all afternoon and registered just two first downs.

80-Yard Run Tops

An eighty yard run by Bobby Goff of Kenedy was the longest run of the game, but the most spectacular touchdown play the Aggies uncorked was a 55-yard pass and touchdown run by Jimmie Cashion of College Station to Norton Higgins of Nacogdoches, with Bob Butchofsky of Ysleta and Paul Yates of Fort Worth clearing Higgins' path with a pair of the prettiest blocks seen on Klye field since the stellar Jim Sterling was throwing them around in '39, 40, and $41.

The Aggies spent just half of the first quarter feeling out their opponents and then started to work. Bobby Goff of Kenedy and Paul Yates of Fort Worth alternated through the line and Yates plunged over the first Aggie marker of the season. Arthur Abraham of El Paso kicked point.

The Aggies gained 147 pards rushing to 3 and made five first downs, Cashion threw four passes, completing three for a gain of 59 yards while the Fliers threw five and completed one for two yards, and one was intercepted.

Arkansas Upsets Missouri, 7 To 6, On Wet Field; Blocked Punt Brings Razorback Win

(By The Associated Press)

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 23.—A perfect placement kick for a point after touchdown gave the University of Arkansas a 7 to 6 victory over the favored University of Missouri Tigers today on the sodden gridiron of Walsh stadium.

Held on the defense through most of the game, the Razorbacks' score came on a blocked punt, by Melvin McGaha late in the third quarter. Henry Ford fell on the slippery pigskin in the end zone for a touchdown and Jim Young kicked the extra point.

Missouri, forced to use a running attack when the weather broke up aerial maneuvers, came back midway in the final period with a sustained 66-yard drive and acting Captain Paul Collins plunged over from the three. Don Litzinger, kicking specialist, was rushed into the game, but his try angled just outside the crossbars.

Time ran out before the Tigers could again move into scoring territory.

The game, witnessed by 8,500 spectators, was the first of the season for both elevens.

SPAAF Bears Down For TCU Tussle

The South Plains Army Air field Winged Commandos went through a long offensive scrimmage Saturday for the first time and hope to have a scoring ball club for the Texas Christian University game next Saturday in Fort Worth.

With the Horned Frog opener only six days off, the SPAAF coaches, Ray Cagni and Ray Truitt, put the entire squad through its paces and the inexperienced backfield showed up well, reeling off long gains and handling the ball well for this time of the season.

Romeo, Eager Shine

"Tony" Romeo, back, broke through the second string line repeatedly while Joe Eager, triple threater, really "carried the mail," flashing through broken fields time after time without a tackler putting a hand on him.

The other backs also looked good and relieved the coaches considerably as the entire staff has been worried about the ball carriers.

Line Is Improved

The heavy, more experienced line also showed up fair with down field blocking being better than at any time so far with Ray Truitt at guard, R. C. Bostowick and W. W. Fowler at end paving the way for the ball handlers throughout the session.

The Commandos will go through a hard week of practice before leaving for the opener next Friday by bus, the coaches pointed out, with passing getting its share of attention with Joe Eager doing most of the throwing.

If "Scat" Sullivan, former Rice star, is able to get into shape by Saturday, the SPAAF stock will take a big jump as "Scat" is a fine triple-threater and the best punter on the squad. Sullivan is working out daily with the squad.

Fort Logan Reported Cancelling Schedule

FORT LOGAN, Colo., Sept. 23 (AP)—Fort Logan announced today that it had cancelled all of its football games for this fall.

Maj. Wilmer Hewitt, coach of the team, said the decision to abandon the sport was reached because of a new ruling by the personnel distribution command which prohibits athletic teams from traveling more than 100 miles. He said the team also had been weakened recently by injuries to key players, and the loss of several players by transfer to other posts.

Fort Logan had expected to play a five-game schedule. Games cancelled included one with South Plains Army Air field at Lubbock, Tex.

NO WORD RECEIVED

No confirmation of the reported cancellation of the Fort Logan game with South Plains Army Air field had been received late Saturday night, athletic officials at the field said. The Fort Logan team was scheduled to play the Commandoes at Tech Stadium Nov. 11.

Spectacular Scoring Marks Opening Of Football Play

Owls Run Wild For 57-0 Win

(By The Associated Press)

HOUSTON, Sept. 23—Rice Institute's model T clicked for plenty of mileage tonight to steamroller the Galveston Army Air Field eleven 57-0.

It was the highest score registered by a Rice football team since 1916 when Rice defeated S.M.U. 146-3.

So hopelessly outclassed were the visiting Bombers that about all Coach Jess Neely learned is that the pass defense of his Owls is leaky. Galveston registered four first downs through the air but was unable to make on the ground even against the third string which played the last quarter.

Walmsley Leads Way

The Owls had possession of the ball 12 times. Eight times they drove for touchdowns.

Although he scored only once Walmsley, the Baytown bullet, supplied the crowd of 12,000 their biggest thrills. Once he scooted through a big gap opened by H. J. Nichols and Johnny Cox for 61 yards.

On the same type play he got loose for 29 and a touchdown, side-stepping the last three defenders. He also had a 30 yard punt return. His total yardage was 114 for six tries.

Fiery Bill Scruggs scored two touchdowns and Buck Sheffield, Walter Coffer, Bob Nemir, Davis Parrish, Bob Smith and Frank Allen one a piece.

The latter two tallied on passes from Scruggs and Freddie Bretchtel.

Only Rice casualty was Fred Toan who suffered a broken collarbone.

Great Lakes Defeats Purdue, 27 To 18

GREAT LAKES, Ill., Sept. 23. (AP)—Great Lakes Blue Jackets rallied for two last quarter touchdowns and a 27-18 victory over Purdue's Western conference co-champions before 25,000 sailors today. It was the inaugural for the Boilermakers and their new head coach, Cecil Isbell.

BOSTON, Sept. 23 (AP)—Al Javery won his eighth victory, scattering six Cincinnati hits, today as the Boston Braves took the first of a three-game series with the Reds, 4 to 0.

Six errors were attributed to a high wind that played tricks with the ball. Cincinnati was without Frank McCormick, still nursing a bad hand, and Gerry Walker, laid up with a cold.

DODGERS STOP CUBS

BROOKLYN, N. Y., Sept. 23. (AP) — Ben Chapman snapped the Chicago Cubs' winning streak at six games when he pitched the Brooklyn Dodgers to a 12 to 3 success tonight in the first Saturday arc light game ever played in Ebbets Field.

Chilly weather held the attendance down to 4,726 paid. The Dodgers scored their first three runs off Paul Erickson who lasted three innings and in the fifth they knocked Japhet Lynn off the mound with a seven run attack.

California Runs Over St. Mary's, 31 To 7

BERKELEY, Calif., Sept. 23. (AP) —Before a shirt-sleeved crowd of 40,000, University of California's Bears opened their football season today by walloping the juvenile-powered St. Mary's college Gaels, 31 to 7.

The Bears, unquestionably the stronger team, were not exactly impressive in victory and in contrast the inexperienced Gaels did themselves proud by holding the score as low as it was.

Seven of the starting St. Mary's players were 17 years old and for part of the contest a 16-year-old Filipino, Led Verceles of Pasadena, was in the halfback spot for the losers.

Big Spring's Next Lubbock High In Spotlight

The schoolboy football picture in Texas again shows the Cinderella kids on the loose over the South Plains.

A few weeks ago, the San Angelo Bobcats were rated as the tops in the state and the Odessa Bronchos were voted the most likely team to succeed in knocking off the Bobcats. First Odessa, then San Angelo, fell before the Westerners, and Coach J. Mule Davis finds himself riding in the saddle over the herd of kids that have catapulted themselves into the limelight within two weeks.

Open With Plainview

Whether the Westerners will be able to hold the pace remains to be seen, and all the glamor may be gone before the start of the District 1-AA conference play here Oct. 27 with the pass minded Plainview Bulldogs.

The Westerners take to the road for the next three weeks, and they leave their own back yard as a marked team. The three games before them are in the San Angelo-Odessa district, and they will be facing teams that are anxious to avenge the losses of their "big brothers."

The Big Spring Steers will be the first stop on the road trip, Friday night, and indications are that Coach John Dibrell's lads are cooking up plenty of argument for the Westerners.

Steers Start Slow

The Steers started slowly, losing the first game to Colorado City, but bounded back Friday night to thump the Cisco eleven by a lusty score, and show that they are on the move. The Westerners are expecting no breather in the Steers.

The Steers have a fast improving offensive, and a defense that is led by Leo Rusk, big 190 pound guard, who is rated as one of the greatest guards in the district.

In the Colorado City opener, Rusk stood out. One play in the game showed the speed with which Rusk moves. A Big Spring pass was intercepted in the flat on Colorado City's 25, and Rusk came up off the ground to catch him on the seven.

Big Threat All Way

Hugh Cochran and Pete Cook carry the brunt of the offense for Big Spring, and have been doing a grand job of it. Cochran is tall and lanky, but moves with lots of power, and in one game this season it took 35 yards and four men to drag him off his feet.

Both backs work well off some tricky plays that run off the single wing and T formations, and make the team a threat all the way.

The Westerners follow the Big Spring invasion with a trip to Lamesa the following week, and go to Abilene Oct. 20 before opening the conference race.

Team Looks Good

The Westerner club has looked great in the two games, and the serious lack of reserve strength of top caliber has not been so sorely felt. The team has shown up especially strong in pass defense in which the club has started off the season with a record of more interceptions than opponents have completed against them.

To date George Brewer and Johnny Davis have carried the brunt of the attack with Jim Lowrey giving them lots of aid. A knee injury has greatly slowed down R. W. Moyers on the ball carrying, but the chunky Westerner fullback has been an outstanding performer as a blocker to clear the way for other ball carriers, and has played some sensational defensive ball.

The Lubbock line has its right to lay claim to a large measure of the early season success of the team, and from end to end has been very favorably compared to any line ever produced in Lubbock High school.

The club has played heads up football, and taken advantage of all the breaks that came their way. If they can keep up this brand of ball, and evade the injury jinx that has threatened, but never struck, the club should have one of the best years enjoyed in several seasons.

Illinois Takes Tussle Over Indiana, 26-18

CHAMPAIGN, Ill., Sept. 23. (AP) —The University of Illinois football team opened the 1944 Big Ten campaign by downing a powerful Indiana eleven, 26 to 18, today before 7,000 spectators.

Indiana surged ahead in the first half but with Freshman Paul Patterson running and passing, Illinois overtook the surprising Indiana team in the fourth period.

The Indianans counted all their touchdowns on short plunges not more than three yards from the goal line.

Young, National collegiate sprint champion, put the Illini in the lead on his 15-yard touchdown run after receiving a 21-yard pass from Greenwood in the fourth period.

Westerners Among State's Top Teams After Victory

(By The Associated Press)

Defeats stung the defending champion San Angelo Bobcats and the heralded Denison Yellow Jackets Saturday in the wake of a round of rousing upsets in Texas schoolboy football.

San Angelo, which had won 15 straight games, fell before passminded Lubbock 7-6 Friday night to push the Westerners forward as one of the state's top teams while Denison was nosed out 14-13 by Waxahachie, which had lost the week before to Fort Worth Paschal.

Elsewhere surprises pifed up. Longview's Lobos took a 41-0 plastering from Port Arthur, Austin beat Temple 7-6 and Waco smashed Jeff Davis of Houston 47-7.

Wichita Falls shoved forward as a leading contender with a 32-0 victory over Amon Carter-Riverside of Fort Worth. Tyler continued to look like Marshall's main worry in East Texas by downing Athens 58-0 in a District 11 conference game which Marshall was trimming Nacogdoches 52-7, and down at Corpus Christi Greenville marched into a top spot by outscoring Corpus Christi 21-12.

UCLA Ties Game After Final Gun

By HAROLD CLAASSEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK, Sept. 23. — A touchdown scored after the final gun brought UCLA a 13-13 tie with Southern California and a spectacular performance by Jim Youel gave Great Lakes a 27 to 18 verdict over Purdue today as football strode back onto the nation's sports stage.

Youel, former University of Iowa athlete, pitched a trio of touchdown passes and scored the fourth himself on a 93-yard punt return that halted Purdue's unbeaten string and ruined Cecil Isbel's debute as coach of the Boilermakers.

Trojans Score First

Southern California scored 13 points in the second quarter but the UCLANS waited until the final period. In fact, the final gun popped while Johnny Roesch was in the midst of a 74 yard sprint for the goal with the tying score.

The Californian's speed compared to the swiftness shown by the University of Illinois mercury men. With Claude (Buddy) Young, collegiate dash champion, counting one touchdown and helping to set up another, the Illini mastered Indiana, 26 to 18. Bob Hoernschemeyer made an appearance for the Hoosiers but Don Greenwood intercepted one of his desperation passes for the final Illinois score.

Slugging Marks Iowa Tilt

A slugging melee that sent George Strohmeier, Iowa Seahawk center, to the bench and led directly to a Minnesota score marked the Flyers' third straight victory over the Gophers, this time by a 19 to 13 victory. Strohmeier hit Red Williams, Gopher captain, at the start of the third period and after the penalty was assessed, Williams hiked the remaining 21 yards for a score in a single attempt.

The ancient Statue of Liberty play helped Wake Forest's civilians to a 7 to 0 triumph over North Carolina. Pittsburgh, also manned by civilians, measured West Virginia, 26 to 13.

Arkansas Wins, 7-6

A blocked punt and a conversion by Jim Young gave Arkansas a 7 to 6 decision over Missouri in an inter-conference fray and Duke had no trouble with Richmond, 61 to 7, in a game that came only a day after six Richmond regulars were declared ineligible.

John Duda punched over three touchdowns in the first half as Virginia smothered Hampden-Sydney, 37 to 0, and Gene Hubka travelled 176 yards in 28 tries as Bucknell polished off Muhlenberg 14 to 0.

In other games, Fort Warren defeated Colorado, 7 to 6; Washington trounced Willamette, 71 to 0; California trimmed St. Mary's hopeful freshmen, 31 to 7 and Oklahoma A&M spoiled West Texas State Teachers college's return to the gridiron, 41 to 6.

UCLA Ties Trojans In Sensational Finish

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 23. (AP)—UCLA put on one of the most sensational finishings any football game ever had in Los Angeles' giant Memorial Coliseum today to get a 13-13 tie with the University of Southern CaClifornia.

Sixty thousand persons who endured 100 degree plus heat to watch the powerful Trojans push over touchdowns in the second quarter, could hardly believe what they saw as the fighting Bruins suddenly unleased an irresistible ground attack that carried 49 yards to a touchdown in six plays, they were even more stunned as Johnny Roesch, 160 pound halfback from Beverly Hills, Calif., gathered in a Trojan punt as the timer's gun sounded and dashed 74 yards through the bewildered men of Troy for another one.

That was only part of the drama, however. Quarterback Bob Waterfield of the Bruins went back to boot the placement and thousands rushed from their seats and corwded the sidelines. The ball hit the crossbar and an upright and bounded widely to the left. The players and the officials were lost as the crowd swarmed on the field and it was a full minute before the referee could signal that the ball had gone over the crossbar for the tieing point.

Steers, Southwestern Renew Feud Saturday

AUSTIN, Sept. 23. (AP)—Restored to its oldtime virility by the fortunes of war, the Southwestern-Texas football feud will be renewed here next Saturday. It will be the Longhorn's opening game, while the Pirates will have a couple of settos behind them.

Last year, when the teams met after a 10-year lapse, Southwestern's Marine-endowed outfit ed Texas 14-7—the only defeat incurred by D. X. Bible's Southwest conference champions.

Coach R. M. Medley brings another Marine-and-Navy team this trip, but it is a new cast lacking the big-name players of yesteryear. In one of the wierd twists of wartime football, Texas' co-captains were Southwestern stars last fall—Blocking Back Harold Fischer and Center Jack Sachse. But Southwestern got them from Texas in the first place, and back to Texas they came when they received medical discharges from the Marine corps.

WAKE FOREST WINS

CHAPEL HILL, N. C., Sept. 23. (AP)—The age-old Statue of Liberty play set up a touchdown for Wake Forest college's all-civilian team today, enabling the Beacons to defeat the University of North Carolina, 7-0 before 13,000 fans in Keenan Stadium in the first game of the season for both teams.

Gigantic Task Is Said Ahead For Allies If War Is Won This Year

BY WES GALLAGHER
Associated Press Staff Writer

WITH THE U. S. THIRD ARMY In France, Sept. 23 — More and more it is becoming clear that the Allies have a gigantic task ahead of them if they are to finish the war this year.

The mad flight of the Germans and the sweeping gains of the Allies of the past summer have halted at the German border. There is no hiding the fact that for the last two or three weeks the gains have been small and won at high cost.

Fighting Tenaciously

There is no doubt who is winning the war. The Germans are being beaten in every battle but they are fighting with the tenacious fury of trapped tigers.

What the Russians did the Germans and Hitler's followers now are trying to do to the Allies. Every house and every natural obstacle has been turned into a trap for any harvest of death it may yield.

German soldiers know the war is lost but they have been convinced by Hitler that there is no hope for them in unconditional surrender — that they will be wiped out by the infuriated peoples of Europe anyway and that they might as well go down fighting in the hope of making the cost of victory so high the Allies will be willing to compromise.

Have Psychological Spur

The German ability to wage war has been dreadfully crippled by heavy casualties on this and the eastern front coupled with air blows, but falling back into Germany has given them advantages of easy supply with stocks close at hand, of fighting in friendly country and the psychological spur of fighting for hearth and homes.

These same factors enabled the Russians to hold the Germans in 1941 and 1942 and military men feel it would be stupid to rate the Germans any less courageous under the same circumstances than any other race.

Despite the split between the Nazis and the German military caste, Hitler is being obeyed. German soldiers are fighting and dying rather than give up an inch.

No Armistice Likely

If Hitler were killed and the Nazis thrown from power the position might change overnight but if Hitler stays in power it is even money bet among the men doing the fighting that there never will be an armistice such as ended the last war.

Many of these men and officers feel the Germans will fight until exhausted and until the Army's ability to make war is broken, then the armies will breakup and surrender piecemeal and the Nazis will engage in guerrilla warfare. In this case the Allies may have to fight all the way to Berlin before the war could be considered over.

Schools To Present Radio Broadcasts

First radio program of the 1944-45 Lubbock school Air will be presented over KFYO Oct. 9.

The school is divided into adventures in science, music of the air, library window and story hour. The first two named will be presented each week through May on alternate Wednesdays at 1:45 p.m., the others will alternate on Monday afternoons at the same hour.

Mrs. Reuby S. Rhodes is program chairman of adventures in Science, Mrs. John D. Watson, chairman of the musical program, Mrs. J. L. Teal, chairman of library window, and the story hour will be arranged by various grade teachers.

The science and musical programs are presented for elementary and grade school students, the library window for elementary and junior high school students and the story hour is for primary students only.

Leading off the year's programs will be the Library window Oct. 9 followed by a musical program Oct. 11.

Lubbock School of the Air manual containing the year's program will be available the latter part of the week for 25 cents a copy. Out-of-town orders will be accepted by Mrs. Teal, 1919 Thirty-first.

First Butyl Rubber Is Produced At Baytown

BAYTOWN, Sept. 23 (U.P.) — Texas' first butyl rubber was produced at the finishing mills of Humble oil's butyl plant here on Sept. 9, it was disclosed today.

The new plant, in partial operation since February, is staffed and operated by the Humble Oil and Refining company. It was built for the Defense Plants corporation.

Butyl rubber is developed from a feed stock produced at Humble's two catalytic cracking plants at Baytown. The new rubber is made from isobutylene and isoprene, both petroleum products.

Girl Scouts Learn About Child Care

Child care has been the nucleus of interest for several Girl Scout troops this summer and particularly Troop 28 at K. Carter school who have been working on a child care badge. This week they had a meeting conducted by two senior high school girls. Wanda Jo Martin and Betty Guillot, under the supervision of Mrs. J. C. Bateman, supervisor of Home Economics at the high school.

These girls prepared a unit on food for the runabout child and illustrated an adequate diet for this age child by using wood blocks in the shape of different kinds of food. They are carrying out a similar project at Hub Homes.

Eleven girls from Troop 28 are working on this badge and in addition to food study they have made a bathing tray which will be placed in a needy home through the Junior League Well-baby Clinic.

Troop 16 from Arnett Benson also worked on a similar project and have made a complete layette including a bassinette which will be shown at the open house at the Little House Wednesday evening.

Girls from Troop 2 with Mrs. C. R. Cagle as leader have started working at the Red Cross one day a week rolling bandages. Girls who took part in this activity recently were: Betty and Dorothy Roundtree, Virginia Ann Butler, Betty Louise Formby, Carolyn Bledsoe, Ramonda McMillan, Marily Swanson, Betty Jo Gilliland and Thelma Ruth Cantrell.

The girls will do this each Thursday after school.

Troop 2 had an overnight at the Little House Friday night of this week. The girls spent the evening doing work on their weaving badge.

Those attending were: Virginia Ann Butler, Betty and Dorothy Roundtree, Maxine Boyd, Dixie McGhee, Marilyn Swanson, Romonda McMillan, Carolyn Bledsoe, Thelma Ruth Cantrell, Betty Jo Gilliland and Betty Louise Formby, accompanied by Mrs. C. R. Cagle their leader and Mrs. Otis Hackney, a guest.

Dewey Gets Everything But Food In Roaring Reception

BY FREDERICK C. OTHMAN
United Press Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD, Sept. 23—Gov. Thomas E. Dewey headed East today for more political speeches and a square meal, after one of the hungriest interludes ever spent by a presidential candidate.

He got one spoonful of soup at luncheon yesterday and two bites of chicken before the handshakers overwhelmed him; then Ginger Rogers invited him to tea at the Ambassador hotel. She had sandwiches and cookies and cream puffs and you think Dewey got a single bite?

Not on your life. Miss R. took the poor guy by the arm and kept him shaking hands with other movie beauties like Ruth Hussey, Frances Dee, Binnie Barnes, Barbara Stanwyck, Virginia Bruce, Ilona Massey, Constance Moore, Ann Sothern and Claire Trevor. The ladies had Napoleon slices on their laps, and cups of tea with cream and sugar, but all they gave Dewey was smiles. So all right.

Coliseum Roaring Full

He rushed out of the tea party to change his shirt for his big speech last night before 90,000 Southern Californians in the Los Angeles coliseum. In this vast stadium there was not one hot dog for him to eat. Nothing to drink, either, except a pitcher of ice water, sparkling under a million watts of spotlights supplied by Cecil B. DeMille.

The sight before him was enough to make him forget his appetite; seldom in recent history of the country have so many people assembled in one spot to hear a political address. The vast bowl was jammed with citizens who presumably were Republicans and who received, in addition to Dewey's speech, such a show as even DeMille never produced before.

He had everything except one of his onyx bath tubs. There were Indian jugglers on the football field before the speech making, a parade of elephants, a rodeo starring Bull Montana and Bill Elliott, a 40-piece brass band led by a sweater girl, and some wild west pistol work. The latter was enough to make any presidential candidate goggle.

Leo Carrillo galloped in on a white horse. He pressed a switch on the horse's collar and it lit up in electric lights. Honest. Then the horse in the blazing collar galloped across the greensward while its rider blazed away with both six shooters. Behind him raced two assistants on horses with unlit collars, but waving American flags.

By now the movie stars were making speeches into DeMille's microphone. Adolph Menjou, Edward Arnold, George Brent, Eddie Bracken, Victor Moore and most of the ladies at the tea party had their brief say in Dewey's favor. Miss Hussey was in the midst of a word when the sirens screamed outside. DeMille barked into his telephone and 50 spotlights picked up the pale gray touring car in which the unfed candidate and his wife arrived.

The Deweys drove twice around the stadium, then they alighted, plodded up as many steps as DeMille ever had in a movie, and received two large bunches of roses from the Misses Hussey and Dee. Only you can't eat roses.

And So, Hungry, To Bed

Dewey made his speech—and he and his missus stood and smiled while the crowd chanted "we want Dewey." The chanting went on for about five minutes and the Deweys whisked out of the coliseum a whisper ahead of a traffic jam the police characterized as horrible. At least that's what one sweating cop told this reporter.

The Deweys went to the Biltmore hotel for a 10 p. m. dinner, and they got no chance to eat it, account of more handshakers.

They went to bed hungry. This morning: more well-wishers, but no chance for food. There'd better be a beef-steak aboard their special train. There better had.

SPAAF Nursery To Be At Ward In Hospital

A nursery is to be maintained at South Plains Army Air field station hospital, ward 1, between 1 and 5 o'clock this afternoon under sponsorship of the Woman's club and open to all military personnel.

A number of instructions has been released concerning the nursery. Mothers who wish their children to take naps should furnish crib sheets; if children are to be fed, the food is to be furnished with name of child and time of feeding placed on container; all children are to have been properly innoculated and none with colds or other illnesses will be accepted.

Charges are 20 cents per hour for one child and 25 cents for more than one child in a family, a minimum fee of fifty cents being set. Two practical nurses will be on duty.

It is planned to keep the nursery open on second and fourth Wednesday afternoons between 12:30 and 5:00 o'clock.

"Demos For Dewey" Club Is Organized

OKLAHOMA CITY, Sept. 23 (U.P.) — Oklahoma Democrats who oppose the policies of the Roosevelt administration were invited to join a "Democrats for Dewey" organization headed by Frank Buttram, wealthy Oklahoma City oil man and civic leader.

Buttram, who made an unsuccessful race for governor on the Democratic ticket in 1930, said the organization would be statewide in its scope, but emphasized it would confine its activities to election of the Republican presidential ticket of Gov. Thomas E. Dewey and Gov. John W. Bricker.

Texas Antis, Ruled Out By Court, Organize New Party, Plan Fight

forming a party, since the name Democratic has been stolen from us by those new members of the party who believe in state socialism."

To Certify Electors

"Since the Supreme court has by its decision nullified the action of the May convention, the convention was held in Austin on Saturday afternoon and party organization completed.

"It is the purpose of the party to certify persons for presidential electors and give the voters of Texas an opprounity to register their votes in the November election for electors who will stand for the true Jeffersonian principles of Democracy and for restoration of constitutional government, freedom of the press, and freedom of private enterprise.

"The fight has just started and will be waged unceasingly upon the high planes of principles until victory is ours in November."

Asked who participated in the convention, Willis said there were representatives from every congressional district in the state, including many leaders of the anti-fourth term faction.

Supreme Court Opinion

The Supreme court opinion by Chief Justice James P. Alexander held that withdrawal of the original nominees who would not support the national convention's ticket, and substitution of those who would by the September convention, "was clearly a matter within the inherent power of the party."

"The efficiency of the cause for the withdrawal of the nominations is not a matter for this court to determine," he wrote. "That was a matter that rested entirely with the party. The party has thus spoken its will, and in the absence of a valid law to the contrary, it is entitled to have that will carried into execution."

The pro-Roosevelt September convention nullified the resolutions of the May session. These resolutions left the electors free to vote for some other Democrat if the national convention failed to adopt a white supremacy plank in its platform, if it seated a rival delegation, and if it failed to restore the two-thirds rule. On all these counts, the national session said "no" to Texas, and 15 electors then said they would not support Roosevelt and Truman.

New Slate Nominated

The Roosevelt faction, dominating the September convention, nominated a new slate of electors, throwing out the 15.

Latham decided to certify the May electors, and the leaders of the September convention asked the Supreme court to compel him to certify its 23. This list included the names of the several of the May electors who had said they would support Roosevelt and Truman.

Whether or not anti-Roosevelt forces, which controlled the May session, would continue their fight remained in doubt. Leaders of the faction said they had not determined what they would do.

Harry Seay of Dallas, chairman of the new state executive committee which brought the Supreme court action, said that he hoped the decision would "end the internal strife in the party."

"This is a great victory," he said. "It ends all questions as to where the electoral vote will go."

Rehearing Right Denied

The court, in announcing its decision, ruled that because Sept. 25 is the last day for Latham to certify nominees, it would deny the losing side a right to file a motion for rehearing.

In Washington, Secretary of Commerce Jesse Jones, a Texan, applauded the decision.

"It has always been my understanding that courts endeavor to interpret the intention of the contracting parties," he said in a statement. "In the Texas situation, the overwhelming evidence was that a majority of the Democrats of Texas wanted the right to vote the straight Democratic ticket, including the nominees for president and vice-president. The decision of the Texas Supreme court gives them that right, a right that should never have been in doubt."

Russian Advances

linn, Soviet minesweepers went into action, clearing a path for the Red Baltic fleet emerging from an uneasy three-year sleep in its Kronstadt lair near Leningrad. The capitulation of Finland and the reconquest of the north Estonian coast opened up the gulf to the fleet.

Russian sappers also went to work on the graveyard of German ships sunk in Tallinn harbor. Berlin declared it would be a matter of weeks before the Russians could use the port.

The liberation of Estonia appeared to be only a quick mop-up job now that German resistance has collapsed in the north and the enemy is running to the few little west coast ports for evacuation by ship, or turning southward toward Riga, harried by Soviet fighter planes.

Cross Into Warsaw

A Polish communique from the Warsaw underground said Russian troops crossing the Vistula river from captured Praga had reached the Warsaw side and that "heavy fighting is going on in sectors of the western bank where Soviet units are landing."

Polish guerrillas are attacking the Germans from the rear, the bulletin said.

In Romania the Russian and Romanian troops under Marshal Rodion Y. Malinovsky attacked toward Cluj and Targu-Mures, important communication cities, on a 55-mile front curving eastward on the Transyvanian capital to Targu-Mures, and then northwestward to Reghin, a German broadcast said.

Use of liquid-filled tires on tractors and other farm equipment is growing since farmers find that they ride smoother and last longer.

Cabinet Divided

by those who have followed its development from the first to provide:

1. Removal from Germany to devastated countries of whatever industrial machinery those countries want; destruction of the rest of Germany's industry.

2. Permanent closing of whatever mines remain in the territory of the postwar German state.

3. Cession of the Saar and western German industrial areas to France as well as cession to Poland and eastern German areas which Russia might want handled that way.

4. Dissolution of large German landholdings into small farms which would enable the 40 to 50 million people remaining in Germany to exist largely on an agricultural basis.

Would Be No Assistance

5. Refusal by other countries to extend any assistance, economic or otherwise, to the people of Germany so that they would have to make their own way as best they could out of the wreckage of their war on Europe.

6. Prolonged control of Germany by an Allied or United Nations military commission.

7. No outright reparations — since a German agricultural state with little or no commerce could not be able to pay them—although distribution of German machinery might be considered as reparations in some respects.

The principal criticisms which have been leveled against this plan by War and State department planners is that it will not work because Germany occupies a key position in European economy due to her industrial capacity to produce needed goods and because of the markets she affords other European countries.

Previous Proposals

Until Morgenthau dropped his proposals in the hopper and won presidential support for them it had been tentatively planned that Germany would be permitted to function as an industrial state after surrender but under Allied military and economic controls that would deny her any opportunity to become a great war-making state.

Postwar Germany is defined as the German state which will come into existence sometime after the armistice. The first period of German occupation already is beginning with the advance of Allied armies onto German soil. It was with this period in mind that General Dwight D. Eisenhower as Allied supreme commander yesterday announced the directives for control of Germany by Allied combat commanders.

Eisenhower's Role

It now is expected here that Eisenhower will serve as American military chief in the Reich until the second period of occupation sets in after the war but whether that period will be one of three-way occupation under a three-power commission as originally planned or whether it will follow the Morgenthau plan more closely evidently now remains to be determined.

Morgenthau always has been regarded by his associates as an advocate of ruthless handling of Germany after the war. His interest in detailed planning, however, is reported to stem from his trip to England and France a month and a half ago.

of the Rhine, which winds along the southern suburbs of Arnhem, the British and Americans made a union with hard-pressed Polish reinforcements who had landed two days earlier to take some of the pressure off the Tommies in Arnhem.

The Germans were summoning every tank and trooper from northern Holland to throw into the battle for Arnhem.

Fate of Whole Front

(A Berlin broadcast said the fighting "will determine the fate of the whole western front," and one commentator said the British now held only the suburb of Oosterbeke. The city itself was pictured as a "smouldering ghost town.")

A press dispatch from the First Army positions inside the Siegfried line—southeast of the battle for Holland — declared the Germans were feverishly digging in on the east bank of the Rhine indicating the high command foresees the collapse of fortifications to the west.

Standing at bay on their home soil, the German troops gave no indication of flight even though they finally were routed from Stolberg, the city six miles east of the Siegfried line's fortified outpost of Aachen.

Former C. O. At SPAAF Awarded Air Medal

Col. Norman B. Olsen Cited For Heroism Over Europe

Col. Norman B. Olsen, former commanding officer of South Plains Army Air field, has been awarded the Air Medal of the U. S. Army Air Forces for meritorious service in the offensive against Germany, it was learned here yesterday.

Colonel Olsen left Lubbock late last February after serving here for 21 months. He first came to Lubbock as director of training at SPAAF under the then post commander, Col. James W. Andrew and succeeded Colonel Andrew in a matter of weeks when the latter was ordered to Washington as director of individual training.

A member of the Lubbock Rotary club, Colonel Olsen was well known here to the civilian population. His wife and 13-year old son, Martin, are living in New Braunfels.

Citation Is Quoted

Colonel Olsen, now serving as chief of staff of a bombardment group, was cited as follows:

"For meritorious achievement for participation in heavy bombardment missions in the air offensive against the enemy Continent Europe. The courage, coolness and skill displayed by this officer upon these occasions reflect great credit upon himself and the armed forces of the United States."

L. D. Casey, Lubbock real estate man, returned Saturday from San Antonio where he attended an annual directors meeting Friday of the Texas Real Estate association.

Casey said that much optimism was expressed at the meeting in regard to the postwar period. The directors voted to hold the state convention of the association next May in San Antonio.

He announced that R. W. Patton of San Antonio, president, and W. C. (Cy) Perkins of Dallas, secretary of the association, have planned a trip throughout the state and will be in Lubbock for a noon meeting, Oct. 4 of the Lubbock Real Estate board in Hilton hotel. Problems pertaining to the local board as well as the state association will be discussed. J. H. Brock is president of the local board.

Gasoline Stocks At Pre-War Level

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23 (AP)—Gasoline stocks are now at virtually pre-war levels but only about half the supply can be spared for civilians, Deputy Petroleum Administrator Ralph K. Davis said here today.

In 1941 before the war and heavy military demands, approximately 90 per cent of storage stocks went to motorists and other civilian users, he said.

Davies estimated gasoline stocks in the United States Sept. 2 at 79,921,000 barrels, compared with 80,377,000 barrels on corresponding date in 1941. He said that 52 per cent of present stocks were civilian grade gasoline. The rest is earmarked for military and industrial requirements.

A similar relationship applies to refinery production of gasoline, Davies reported.

Crude oil stocks, according to Davies' report, now are at the lowest point since 1922 and "only slightly above the 225,000,000-barrel level . . . determined to be the minimum required for uninterrupted refinery operation."

PAW said that total stocks of civilian grade gasoline at refineries and terminals were 41,530,000 barrels Sept. 2, a decline of 1,541,000 barrels during the previous four-week period.

J. D. Wood Rites Set Here This Afternoon

Funeral services for J. D. Wood, 82, of Sherwood, Tex., early settler in Lubbock county, will be conducted at 2 o'clock this afternoon in the Brodaway Church of Christ.

Wood, who moved from this county about 20 years ago, died Friday night at his home in Sherwood, where he had been living about three years.

Elder Liff Sanders is to officiate, with P. F. Brown assisting.

Wood is survived by his wife; two grandchildren, Marie and Frances Carr, and a brother, George Wood, who lives in Oklahoma.

Wood's nephews will serve as pallbearers. They are Henry Wilson, Roscoe Wilson, Oscar Meredith, L. D. McHinley, Lloyd Nelson and Lowar Nelson.

TO END FEED BAN

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23. (AP)—The War Food administration informed Rep. Hope (R-Kas.) today it was removing restrictions on the sale and shipment of portein feed from Texas, Oklahoma and New Mexico into Kansas. Hope said the restriction would be lifted as soon as the order could be printed in the Federal Register, probably early next week.

Prices Of Southwest Farm Products Are Irregular Past Week

DALLAS, Sept. 23. (U.P.) (WFA)—Markets for Southwest farm products were very irregular during the past week, according to the War Food administration.

Cash wheat advanced four cents at Texas common rate points. No. 1 hard, with ordinary protein content, closed at $1.64 a bushel, bulk, in carlots. Sorghums were weak, but regained part of last week's sharp decline and closed at $1.82 per cwt. Demand for sorghums is good, but movement is limited by a shortage of box cars. Corn continues to bring the ceiling.

Nearly all Southwest cattle markets had a weak to lower trend on calves, which comprised a large proportion of the liberal receipts. As the week closed, medium grade claves were bringing $9.50 to $19.50 per cwt. In Fort Worth and $10 to $11.50 in Houston. Common and medium grades brought $7.50 to $11.50 in San Antonio, while good to choice kinds sold from $10 to $11 in Wichita. In Oklahoma City, calves sold from $12 down. Late in the week, cows also turned downward at several points, but closed at steady to slightly lower prices.

Hogs continued their active steady trend, with most markets still reporting ceiling prices on the bulk of offerings. Top butchers closed the week in Fort Worth at $14.55, Oklahoma City and Wichita $14.45 per cwt. San Antonio still had a rather slow demand, but prices held steady at last week's downtown, and the top was $14. Stocker pigs moved upward at both Fort Worth and Oklahoma City as a result of scarce offerings.

Sheep and lamb markets were irregular, but springers generally were weak while ewes held steady to unevenly higher. Heavy marketward movement of light weight feeder lambs has caused supplies to accumulate at some midwestern markets with a very poor outlet from buyers who are awaiting more definite developments in the feed and pasture situation. The wool market continued very slow.

Egg and poultry markets were steady to firm under a fairly good demand. Improvement in the quality of egg receipts brought increased returns to the farmer. Current receipts ranged from 32 to 35 cents a dozen at the principal southwestern markets, with purchases made mostly on a loss-out basis. Heavy hens brought 20 to 22 cents a pound. Dealers in Dallas and Fort Worth paid 32 to 32½ cents a pound for No. 1 turkeys.

Most fruits and vegetables brought steady prices at southwest consuming centers as the week closed. Denver continued to report a weak trend on several commodities from nearby producing areas. Increased cabbage offerings at Fort Worth also had an unsettled tone. Onions declined early in the week, but closed about steady after the War Food administration's purchase program went into effect Sept. 21.

Cotton lost 75 cents to one dollar a bale at Southwest markets. New York December futures closed the week at 21.40 cents.

Funeral services will be conducted at 3:30 o'clock Monday afternoon in the First Baptist church in Slaton, with Rev. W. F. Ferguson, pastor, officiating.

Cranfill is survived by his wife, Annie V. Cranfill; three sons, Windell G., with the U. S. Navy, Orville L., Lorenzo, Boyd M., Wilson; four daughters, Mrs. L. K. Hart, Slaton, Mrs. M. S. Alden and a Mrs. Brown, both of Odessa, Mrs. W. Moore, San Antonio, and 12 grandchildren.

New Deal Critic To Stay With Democrats

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23 (AP)—Senator Bailey (D-NC), a frequent critic of New Deal measures and bitter opponent of the CIO Political Action committee, disclosed today his intention to "stay in the Democratic party."

At the same time, the veteran lawmaker declared he would "do what I can to keep Hillman and his crowd out" of the party. Sidney Hillman is director of the CIO group.

NLRB Rules For Oil Company Against CIO

FORT WORTH, Sept. 23 (AP)—National Labor Relations board has ruled in favor of the Stanolind Oil and Gas company in a case involving employes in the North Cowden and Wink areas of West Texas.

In June, 1944, the Oil Workers International union (CIO) filed a petition for investigation and certification of bargaining representatives with the NLRB, in which it alleged that the employes of the Stanolind in the producing department of North Cowden and Wink areas each constituted an appropriate unit for purposes of collective bargaining. It further alleged it represented a majority of the employes in each of those areas.

Stanolind took the position that the areas did not constitute appropriate units and a hearing was held before a trial examiner of the NLRB in Odessa, Aug. 7-8.

Saturday, it was learned that NLRB found and held that the bargaining units sought to be established by the union are inappropriate and that no question has arisen concerning the representation if the employes of the Stanolind within the meaning of the National Labor Relations act, and ordered that the petition of the union be dismissed.

Iowa Seahawks Defeat Minnesota, 19 To 13

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Sept. 23. (AP)—Minnasota's weakness on pass defense when the Iowa Seahawks had their backs to the wall in the final minutes of the fourth period gave the Iowans a 19 to 13 decision in the Gophers' opening game of the season before 31,687 fans today.

Minnesota was outplayed defensively by a considerable margin in the first two periods but came back in the last half to play the Seahawks on even terms until the visitors took to the air.

After a scoreless first period, the Seahawks drove deep into Minnesota territory three times and late in the period, Ray Swanke, Iowa substitute ran 35 yards unmolested after intercepting a lateral pass to score.

HOUSTON, Sept. 23. (U.P.) — Crude oil production in the United States this week remained near the record high level of the previous week with a daily average of 4,729,485 barrels, principal decline being in the state of California, the Oil Weekly reported today.

California dropped to 865,750 barrels daily from 875,000 the week before, and Illinois showed a decline of an even 10,000 barrels daily. Small increases in Oklahoma, Mississippi and Wyoming offset the decreases.

Ripley's Drawing Is Reminder To Medlock

Nostalgic memories of France in 1919 were recalled by World War I veteran C. W. Medlock, manager of Rigney-Ferguson Co., when he saw Ripley's Believe It or Not drawing in Friday's morning Avalanch. The drawing showed the Inhabited Bridge, Rue du-Pont, constructed 500 years ago near Brest.

Medlock photographed the bridge, which has houses built on either side of it and a public road that runs down the center, when he was stationed at Camp Pontanazea, near Brest in 1919. With films obtained from England, Medlock photographed many other interesting scenes while in France and obtained numerous souvenirs Qpartered in Napoleon barracks, he used one of the corner rooms, with a blanket thrown over the window, as a photographic darkroom.

With the 421st Motor Transport group, Medlock helped supply the advancing army with trucks and served in France, Germany, Scotland, England, and Belgium one year two weeks.

Decisive Military Disaster Close At Hand On Four Allied Fronts

By KIRKE L. SIMPSON
Associated Press War Analyst

The elements of decisive military disaster were present for Nazi Germany on four fronts this week-end.

SIMPSON

Given good weather to bring the full weight of Russia and Allied supremacy into sustained play and simultaneous collapse of enemy defensive dikes east, west and south might come at any moment.

It would send a flood tide of United Nations forces pouring across the Rhine and the Vistula and up through Italian, Balkan and Hungarian gateway in converging stabs at the heart of Nazidom.

At the very moment the battle of the Rhine reached its crisis at Arnhem in east central Holland there came word of Nazi defeats in the east and the south.

Russian-Polish columns were reported across the Vistula at last and in Warsaw itself, insuring the fall of the critical central anchorage of the German eastern line. Other Red forces were moving into the Hungarian plain from the Transylvanian alps, within striking distance of the Budapest hub of Nazi southeastern communications.

Gothic Line Crumbling

In Italy the collapse of the Gothic front has begun with Allied capture of Rimini, its Adriatic bolt position. A blitzkrieg invasion of the Po Valley was imminent, to bring Allied liberation of all Italy and a swift Allied junction with the Russians in the Balkan peninsula in sight a Nazi flight from Crete, the islands of the Aegean and the Peleponnesus if not all Greece, Albania and southern Yugoslavia was credibly reported.

The potentials of a Russian-Allied trap that could turn the Balkan peninsula into a prison camp or death scene for cut-off German forces were too clearly apparent to be ignored by Berlin. That had already happened in Estonia, the Baltic states, and in western Holland. It was on the verge of happening to Nazi-lost legions in Finland and northern Norway.

Nazis Hopelessly Trapped

The whole vast sweep of western industrial Germany was close under Allied guns as well as air attack from the Rhine delta to the Vosges. The last German abandoned garrisons in Brittany and Belgium were being blasted into submission. A Russian steamroller in the Baltic states was grinding Nazi resistance to powder. In western Holland another 100,000 or so Nazis were no less hopelessly trapped.

To cap all these actual and potential military disasters for the foe there came from the Allied advanced posts on German soil in the west toward the week end press intimations of slumping civilian morale within the Reich itself.

West Texas irrigation farmers are requested to attend an organization meeting of a farm association, purpose of which is to eliminate theft in rural districts, at 3 p. m. Saturday in the courthouse district courtroom. Organizers of the association, Owen McWhorter, G. P. Kuykendall, and K. L. Riggs, announced that no fee will be charged to join the association.

Any farmer in Lubbock county desiring to purchase and can show need for one of several trucks recently released by the Army can receive a certificate authorizing purchase by applying at the Lubbock county Agricultural Adjustment administration office, W. Y. Wells, secretary of the county Agricultural Conservation association, said Saturday.

Three Lubbock girls, Doris Chaney, LaNell Barrett and Sally Mueller, returned Saturday morning from Dallas, where they were sworn into the WAVES, it was announced by Gladys Tippett, WAVE recruiter. They will leave Oct. 19 for Hunter college where they will begin training as apprentice seamen.

Dr. and Mrs. Charles M. Hawes are visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Sawes, 2318 Nineteenth. Dr. Hawes recently was graduated from Kirksville College of Osteopathy and Surgery where he was a member of Psi Sigma Alpha, national osteopathic fraternity, and selected as the most valuable senior. After a short stay, the couple will go to Dallas where he is to intern at the Sparks Hospital and clinic. Mrs. Hawes is the former Jayne Glaze of Lubbock.

Date Late, So She Turns Investigator

CORPUS CHRISTI, Sept. 23. (AP)—An excited woman telephoned the newspaper office.

"Do you have any information about a wreck on Santa Fe street?" she asked.

"No," said the reporter, "can you tell us anything about it?"

"Oh, I don't know," the woman said. "My date is late and I was afraid he had a wreck on the way over here."

The Woman's Angle

By Margaret Turner

SOMEONE says a poll is a place where you stand in line to decide who will spend your money.

Said the pretty young thing, as she prepared to christen the ship, "How hard do I have to hit it to knock it into the water?"

WRAP 'EM WELL—When you prepare Christmas boxes for the men overseas, remember wrapping is important. So many packages, done up in shoe boxes and other weak containers caused disappointment to many servicemen at Yuletide last year . . . A strong box—plenty of string—his name and address plainly marked on both outside and inside wrapping will better insure your serviceman of getting his Christmas gift.

SCATTERINGS

THE most beautiful bit we read last week was the commissioning prayer offered by Lubbock's Charles Fike, chaplain on the USS Oconto, on the occasion of the commissioning of that proud new ship which is named for a county in Northeastern Wisconsin on Green Bay . . . Mrs. A. F. McDonald received a beautiful floral tribute from the daughters of the late Marion Zellner Monday on the day dormitories were named at Abilene Christian college in memory of the late Messrs. McDonald and Zellner . . . By the way, wonder when Tech women's dormitories are to be named?

Children in the 2500-blocks on Twenty-fourth and Twenty-fifth streets have been playing with a red and black ball bearing scudder car that seems to have no owner. It is red and black and works with pedals and those little four and five-year-olds have been getting quite a thrill out of it . . . However, if the owner would like to pick it up, he may call by the Clem Boveries, 2515 Twenty-fourth, who will be glad for him to have it . . . The motion picture that won most of the Academy awards last season, "The Song of Bernadette," will be shown at the Midway theater, beginning Oct. 8. It is a road show engagement.

JUDGING by the remarks of our Navy friends who have been stationed at San Diego, that new movie, "San Diego I Love You" is a misnomer . . . Speaking of sailors, Ezell Wallace, who will be 21 in October and who has returned to the West Coast to report to his ship after a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Claude M. Wallace, 2118 Twenty-second, is one of the best looking boys we have ever seen. He is an only son . . . Only those who have kin and dear friends imprisoned by the Japanese can understand with what eagerness one can greet the daily papers that tell of the air raids over Manila . . . Had you ever noticed if you have a dip in the sidewalk just in front of the porch, the paper carrier always misses it in dry weather but invariably hits it after a rain?

WE don't know how other night workers greet the day, but West Texas hospital nurses on the graveyard shift pass our house soon after dawn and almost always they are laughing and in high spirits . . . Eight o'clock workers, who are arising in the dark to cook breakfasts, are already dreading our third winter under war time, which coupled with our town being almost on the edge of mountain time, makes it pretty bad for those who don't relish going to work in the dark. . . . Governor Dewey certainly has a beautiful use and pronunciation of either and neither . . . We don't like war correspondent Merrill Mueller's choice of the word "deteriorated" in describing the state of General Eisenhower's health. You may have missed the wire story. It seems that Mueller paid a visit to advanced headquarters and said that while General Ike is tip top again, for a while his health had so "deteriorated," he was literally instructed not to leave camp . . . Mr. W. defines that word as "to degenerate as idle houses deteriorate" or "impairment as in quality, character, value, due to wear and tear."

One of the prettiest young women we know denied it when we remarked the other day she is pretty. "I'm not naturally pretty," she insisted. "You should see me early in the morning before I put on my makeup. Even my husband says I am ugly." . . . We wish someone would tell women to apply eyebrow pencils to the hairs of the brows, never to the skin beneath. It seems to us the purpose of an eyebrow pencil is to take up where Nature left off, not to be applied where she never was! . . . That tantalizing song, "I Danced With a Dolly With a Hole in Her Stocking," is a steal from an "oldy" but we cannot identify it. Page Sigmund Spaeth! . . . That movie star Alan Ladd has had more publicity on being drafted in the Army and getting a medical discharge and then being drafted again than all the other service stars combined.

WHEN Mrs. H. R. Taylor, 2120 Twenty-third, was down town Thursday she lost the pilot's wings that were pinned on her husband, Capt. Taylor, when he was commissioned. He, now overseas, gave them to her as a keepsake. She had them pinned in her purse and thinks perhaps she dropped them in the five and dime store or on the way from the hospital . . . Because they have a sentimental value, she hopes if someone picked them up, he will call her at 7088. Lt. Mark Miles, who recently completed his missions as a pilot in the European theater, was in Lubbock last week, sporting a moustache with a distinct Italian design. He and his wife, the former Annabel Woods, have gone

Lecture, Installation Tea And Reception Given For Church, Study Groups

WEEK end events in society have included a lecture sponsored by the City Federation, a traditional installation tea for First Baptist Gleaners class and a reception honoring Mrs. Lillian Barnard.

Stressing the vital necessity for the education of a people of a democracy and the effect an enlightened nation can have on influencing the post war peace, Major David L. Schurger, intelligence officer at South Plains Army Air field, discussed the history of nations as it affects the future course of events, as the main speaker at the City Federation of Women's Club session Friday night.

Mrs. A. W. Young, president, introduced the speaker and also Mrs. Jerry Dye, who presented musical selections.

Tracing the rise and fall of empires of the world, past and present, their fight for survival in war and in peace, Major Schurger emphasized that the various conditions such as geographic location, climate, availability of raw materials, the nature of the people and the great leaders in their history to a great extent shaped the destiny of nations of the world.

Major Schurger outlined the basic formulas which have been proven through history and those governing life itself as they apply to the growth and decline and fall of all nations.

Phases Of Development

"There are three phases of development common to all nations in the past," he said. "Those three phases being the fight for survival and consolidation of the nation's gains; expansion and conquest, through war and through peace, both economic and industrial; and the retaining of the nation's possessions." He then showed how various factors such as location, climate and raw materials could help shape the path which a nation must follow.

In comparing the United States with other world powers in history, Major Schurger emphasized that this nation is blessed by a wealth of all the necessary qualifications to retain its place as a just and respected world leader among the family of nations, that its geographic location, raw materials, climate, nature of its people and its leaders were all conducive to a permanent place among the nation's of history.

"However," he stressed, "with all our material advantages it still is a vital necessity to educate ourselves for democracy."

"To free a nation from error is to enlighten the individual, and only to the degree that the individual will be receptive of truth can a nation be free from that vanity which ends with national ruin'," Major Schurger then quoted Homer Lea, one of the world's foremost military strategists and a man who through his writings has helped shape the path for many of today's leading nations.

Mrs. Young announced an executive meeting of the federation will be Friday at 9:30 a. m. in the Lubbock hotel.

Hello People:

The Decorators Studio, 1302 Ave. N, had some new pieces of furniture that took my eye this visit. There are two arm chairs in Mahogany finish upholstered in fine fabric, Chartruese background with satin stripes in pink and watermelon red. They are nail head trimmed. Also, there is a lovely dark wood oval breakfast table and a square pedestal table that is just right for the more formal home.

One of the most impressive figures that I have seen is one of St. Francis. In front of this saintly figure is a large bowl which when filled with flowers or ivy makes a handsome large decorative piece for a good sized table.

The girls insisted that I take time to sit in one of the new Mexican made lounge chairs. No they are not upholstered but they are very comfortable. After my usual rush on Friday they had a difficult time getting me to leave this easy chair and go about my work. They are slate blue color with woven seats and for that mountain cabin or the informal rooms they are ideal.

They had received a shipment of beautiful antiques among which was a glass egg box in bright green with beaded floral design in colors. Other pieces were large cups and saucers which make nice vases for flowers and the saucers would be ideal ash trays. There are mustache cups for those of you who are collectors of these.

I'd suggest that you begin your Christmas shopping early, now, if you want to have the best selection. No fooling.

Yours,
Grandpa Nosey

From Lou To Louella

DEAR LOUELLA: Arthur Shahan of Graham, newly elected prexy of the Sophomore class at Tech, is causing quite the comment among co-eds. They call him "Romeo" . . . Gene Hardey of Hugoton, Kans., Freshman president, is taking no backseat in popularity, but we understand he doesn't go in for girls. Maybe some of those cute Tech co-eds can persuade him to change his mind . . . Who will be the lucky one to go with Bill Kennedy is also an important subject on the campus, he is our choice for "personality of the week" . . . Excitement in the Girl's dorms reached a climax when rushees returned from signing their club preferences Thursday afternoon following a busy Rush Week. Every club seems to have the cutest bunch . . . Approximately 350 or more freshmen and upper classmen were having one 'big time' early in the week when they gathered for a pep rally between the Girl's dorms after 10:30 p. m. . . . The official pep rally at the stadium Thursday night gave a fine indication of high student spirit. 'Fish' boys formed a "gay and mad" snake chain down College Avenue and through the Co-op, really 'whooping' it up.

Here And There

Virginia Pitts is back from San Francisco, Calif., after visiting with Pat Newman, who is in the Navy. By the way, she has a 'sparkler' on her third finger left hand . . . Helen "Pete" Coleman is going steady with F/O Dick Madsen of SPAAF. Some people have all the luck . . . Jerry Massie seems to have the blues since the departure last week-end of F/O Lockey Ellis, who graduated at SPAAF . . . Lucille Melton is also just back from visiting her boyfriend, only Lt. Robert Perry, of Detroit, Mich., decided to come back with her and spend a few days. He graduated from LAAF in May and almost everyone knows Lucille has an engagement ring . . . Wonder if it is very serious between Mary Mixon and Hugh Monroe? She has his Wrangler pin . . . Hallie Crum and Earl Christy, steady couple of all times, have a Model A they call "Drooper" and it is quite the thing to get a ride in it. By the way, Hallie has a beautiful engagement ring.

HAT'S off to Charlene "Chuck" Fisher, elected queen of the Naval Training Station in Shuemaker, Calif. A friend turned her picture in and recently she was notified of the honor. She is another of those "personality — plus" people . . . Oleeta "Candy" Cummings and two unidentified officers were seen on the Avenue this week . . . Tech girls and boys who would like to make gifts for the wounded veterans at McCloskey General Hospital, Temple, take their purchases, small or large, to the postoffice at Hemphill-Well's. SPAAF Women's club will collect, wrap and mail them. Some of these boys might be former Techsans and it would mean a great deal if they knew we were helping to make their Christmas brighter.

Love,
Lou.

Betty Savage, WAC captain serving in Australia, writes about a girl who had been in the Army over a year and promoted to Pfc., who was so excited she said, "Gee, only 20 more grades and I'll be a full general!" . . . We wish Mrs. Myrtle Dunn Short would direct a male chorus in General Patton's inspiring song, "God of Battles."

FUTILE CHASE — Mrs. Nancy Green, juvenile officer, would like to see the man standing near the Hilton hotel Friday afternoon, who watched her running as fast as she could, to know she was chasing two young girls who had gotten away from her as they went through a revolving door in the Lubbock National Bank building. She believes if they had joined in the chase, the young girls, who were to have been sent to a reform institution, would have been caught.

"And while on that subject," Mrs. Green said, "I'd like for the one man who understood the situation at a glance and tried to help me catch the girls to know I appreciate his efforts and wish he would telephone me at the police station so I may thank him. I was so excited I have forgotten his name."

TRY THIS AMAZING BARCEL RECIPE TO TAKE OFF UGLY FAT

Right in Your Own Home, You Can Lose Pounds of Excess Weight Without Starvation Diet or Strenuous Exercise

It's simple. It's amazing, how quickly one may lose pounds of bulky, unsightly fat right in your own home. Make this recipe yourself. It's easy — no trouble at all and costs little. It contains nothing harmful. Just go to your druggist and ask for four ounces of liquid Barcel Concentrate. Pour this into a bottle and add enough grapefruit juice to fill bottle. Then take two tablespoonsful twice a day. That's all there is to it.

If the very first bottle doesn't show you the simple, easy way to lose bulky fat and help regain slender, more graceful curves; if reducible pounds and inches of excess fat don't just seem to disappear almost like magic from neck, chin, arms, bust, abdomen, hips, calves and ankles, just return the empty bottle for your money back. Follow the easy way endorsed by many who have tried this plan and help bring back alluring curves and graceful slenderness. Note how quickly bloat disappears —how much better you feel. More alive, youthful appearing and active.

Perhaps you are overweight due to over indulgence in food or the wrong kind of food. With the Barcel home recipe method, you do not have to starve yourself or go hungry. Just follow the simple instructions given on the label and you should get satisfactory results quickly. The very first pint you make up should show results.

LOSE UGLY FAT WITH BARCEL

Why not slim down your figure without a lot of fuss and bother? Try the Barcel way. Wear your streamlined frocks and slacks gracefully. Remember, if the very first bottle of Barcel doesn't show you the sensible way to lose weight, your money will be refunded.

Church Census To Be Taken

Beginning at 2 o'clock this afternoon, 750 team workers from Lubbock churches will take a religious census of the city's residential sections. The census is being sponsored by 29 Lubbock churches.

The city has been zoned for the census. Drive plans were made and captains of census teams named at a meeting of church leaders Friday morning in First Baptist church.

Today, after a brief instructional meeting in each of the churches, the census will begin. It is hoped that most calls will be made today and reports and tabulations complete by Oct. 2.

Each resident of Lubbock who does not expect to remain at home this afternoon is requested to attach to his mailbox a slip of paper bearing the name of the head of the family, and the family's church affiliation.

This is the fifth such biennial census to be taken. No figures are available on the outcome of previous counts.

Purpose of the census, it was said, is to bring up to date church membership lists and ascertain so far as possible church affiliations of newcomers to the city.

Captains and the church district they will serve are: James Trigg, Sanders Sunday school; Rev. J. D. Riddle, First Baptist church; Dr. J. M. Lewis, First Presbyterian; Miss Inez Hill, First Methodist; Miss Ruth Towne, First Christian; Mrs. W. E. Hamilton, Asbury Methodist; Rev. A. F. Laing, Nazarene; Rev. Jeff D. It's fun for you... BUT WORK for your eyes!

Eyes are now being used at least 20% more in the home than they were a year ago . . . based on a recent survey of over 3,000 people in 914 families. Because of this, remember that lots of things which are fun for you, are work for your eyes. There's extra need to watch your light and guard eyesight!

"Yes siree, it'll whistle tomorrow!" Many a man now gets a big kick out of being the repair man around home. But you'll spend less time at it and see better if you avoid glare by having the right size bulb in your fixture.

"This piano's going to be a honey, sis" . . . and so is that new doll dress. But close work like this means greater risk of eyestrain. See that the lamp they work by is close enough and has at least a 100-watt bulb in it.

It's a game now for Mom . . . but how she works at it, trying to make everything, including Dad's socks, last longer! If she'd only move the lamp back close to her elbow, she'd find mending less tiring, and less strain for her eyes.

HOW TO GET MORE OUT OF LIGHT!

1. Keep bulbs and reflectors clean . . . dust and dirt waste more light than you think.
2. Replace dark shades or shades turned yellow; get more light.
3. Arrange lamps and furniture so each lamp can serve two or more people if necessary.
4. When you buy a lamp bulb, buy carefully; be sure it's the right size to protect eyes.

Airman Rubs Only His Eyes After Remarkably Long Fall

By RICHARD C. BERGHOLZ
Associated Press Staff Writer

WITH AMERICAN TROOPS ON MOROTAI ISLAND, Moluccas, Sept. 19. (Delayed) — Pvt. Joe Aiello plummeted 3,000 feet when his parachute failed to open, and yet escaped without a single broken bone.

His first words when he regained consciousness were:

"The d——n Air corps! I should have stayed in the medics."

Tree tops broke the fall of the youth from the Bronx, N. Y. Medics theorized that the fact he was unconscious when he hit the trees and relaxed when he landed probably saved his life.

He was ordered to bail out from a Liberator that developed engine trouble while on a mission to the Philippines. Aiello said he lost consciousness just before he hit the trees.

No Angels In Tree

When he came to, Aiello said, "I was scared to open my eyes for fear I might see angels."

When First Lt. M. E. Petty of Odessa, Tex., ordered the crew to bail out over Morotai, Aiello asked Staff Sgt. Judd Wommack of Texarkana, Tex., to push him out.

"My guide chute opened okay but the main shrouds fouled on my Mae West," the tail gunner said. "I struggled frantically to straighten out the shrouds but they had been whipped into a tight twist. I tried to get out my knife to cut the shrouds but I was falling too fast and never made it.

"I often wondered what a man thinks about when falling through space without an open chute. I know now.

All Chute Safely

"All I had time to think about was how in hell I could get those shrouds untangled."

Medics said Aiello suffered minor bruises, sprains and contusion.

Pilot Petty crashlanded safely in the sea. He, Wommack, and Co-Pilot Second Lt. H. V. Petty of Oklahoma City (no relation to the pilot) were picked up by a PT boat. Other members of the crew parachuted safely.

Suicidal Mania Seen In Japs' Last Days

TEMPLE, Sept. 23 (AP) — The Japs, in their last furious counter-attack on Saipan, were maniacs and fought like crazy men, according to Pvt. James B. Lockett of Waco, 27th division infantryman, hospitalized at McCloskey General hospital today.

He came in a convoy of wounded from Letterman General hospital at San Francisco. He was wounded July 7.

"The Japs, when they saw it was useless to continue, committed hari-kari," said Lockett. "After it was over we counted 4,100 dead Japs.

Telling how Jap soldiers would fall on long knives or use grenades to kill themselves, the Texan said, "I saw one about 40 yards away take a grenade, hit it on his helmet to prepare it for exploding, and then hold it to his heart. At the same time he let out a blood-curdling scream which was interrupted by the explosion."

There'll Be Plenty Of Meat This Winter

NEW YORK, Sept. 23. (AP) — There will be enough meat to go around this winter — but not enough that housewives can afford to be choosy about kinds or cuts, food experts said.

Nearly all the choice grade meats are ear-marked for the armed forces, a War food administration spokesman said, and civilians will have to get along with utility quality.

Hollywood On The Loose...

Irene Dunne Looking For Another Role In A Filmusical

By ERSKINE JOHNSON
NEA Staff Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD, Sept. 23.—Exclusively Yours: After a series of heavy dramas, Irene Dunne is in the market for a filmusical after she completes "Together Again" at Columbia. It's a G. I. request. During a hospital tour all the boys asked, "When are you going to do something like 'Show Boat' again?" . . . Eleanor Powell is confiding to intimates that she probably will retire from the screen after the birth of her baby. She's the wife of Sgt. Glenn Ford. . . . Twentieth Century-Fox will immediately star Richard Greene in a movie when he returns to Hollywood this fall. He won a medical discharge from the British army after three and a half years service. . . . Louis Hayward and Ida Lupino deny those reconciliation rumors. There will be no immediate divorce, though, because of their religious beliefs.

Title of the first will be "The Cisco Kid Returns."

Since hearing Harry James' version of "Hora Staccato" in "Bathing Beauty," Groucho Marx refers to the maestro as the "William Saroyan of music."

POKER POLKA

ANOTHER new dance for the screen—the poker polka. A chorus line will introduce it in the the Jane Powell film, "High Among the Stars." . . . Charles Boyer will do a New York play if his agent can find one he likes. So far he hasn't liked any of them.

Johnny Weissmuller, who recently moved into a new home, has no telephone. Here's what happened when the studio phoned him the other day to discuss his new film, "Tarzan and The Amazons." The studio called his agent, who called the golf club. The golf club sent a boy on a bicycle out to find Johnny. Johnny sent the boy back. The golf club called the agent. The agent called the studio and said, "Johnny can't come to the telephone. He's playing golf."

CLINCH OPENING

FILM audiences, accustomed to fadeout clinches, may get a shock when they see "Brewster's Millions." Opening scene shows Dennis O'Keefe and Helen Walker in a lingering kiss. To save wear and tear on the ushers, theater managers probably will have to flash a notice on the screen, "Please remain seated—the rest of the picture will follow immediately."

And it's Paul Henreid's story about two privates in Egypt who lived for months on dehydrated beef, dehydrated milk, dehydrated butter and dehydrated vegetables. Visiting the Cairo museum, they saw their first mummy. "This is going too far," observed one. "Now they're dehydrating women."

'Bernadette' To Be Shown Here

Through special arrangement with 20th Century-Fox, the road show version of "The Song Of Bernadette" will be shown at the Midway for an extended engagement starting Sunday, Oct. 8, Joe H. Bryant, manager, announced Saturday.

Great and universally beloved as was Franz Werfel's story of "Bernadette" between book covers, the film is infinitely greater and more compelling as a motion picture. In the title role of the Maid of Lourdes, Jennifer Jones makes the most auspicious debut in Hollywood history for which she received the academy award.

Matching Jennifer's performance are featured members of the cast: William Eythe, Charles Bickford, Vincent Price, Lee J. Cobb and Gladys Cooper.

Ann Rutherford Is Fugitive From Andy Hardy Film Roles

HOLLYWOOD, Sept. 23. (NEA)—Ann Rutherford would like to murder somebody. Or break up some nice husband's happy home. Or cheat somebody out of their life's saving. She wants to be bad the worst way. On the screen, of course.

Ann Rutherford

It's not too good being good in Hollywood. "I was so good it just about wrecked my career," she said.

For seven years Ann Rutherford was Mickey Rooney's sweetheart, Polly Benedict, in the Andy Hardy pictures. She played the role so long she lost her identity. She WAS Polly Benedict—to the movie fans and to studio executives.

Talked Baby Talk

Off the lot, people would stop her on the street and say, "Oh, I know you. You're that nice little girl, Polly Benedict — Mickey Rooney's sweetheart."

"I had grown up. I was married. And they talked BABY TALK to me. I'd go to the studio wearing a new dress and an executive would pat me on the cheek and say, 'What's oo all dressed up for, baby doll?'

"I almost got a part in another picture—not a Hardy film. The girl in the picture was supposed to have twins. The front office heard about it. They started tearing their hair. 'Polly Benedict,' they screamed, 'can't have twins.' I didn't get the part.

Five "Chaperons"

"I went to New York for a vacation when I was 18. The studio assigned five people to supervise everything I did. I wanted to go to the Stork Club and have fun. They dragged me back to the hotel by 10 o'clock every night. They told me, 'Polly Benedict can't be seen in night clubs.'"

Ann tried to get roles in other pictures. Occasionally she did. But most of the time the studio ruled. "Polly Benedict can't play that part."

Finally Got Mad

"I finally got mad," Ann said. "I asked them, 'Who am I—Ann Rutherford or Polly Benedict?' They said I was Polly Benedict to the fans. So I told them to break my contract. I wasn't Polly Benedict. I was grown up. I was married. I was Ann Rutherford and I didn't want to spend the rest of my life being Polly Benedict. They decided maybe I was right. I got my release."

Ann even tried to have herself killed off, she said, like Laraine Day in the Dr. Kildare pictures.

Ann Rutherford is now playing the role of a chorus girl who becomes a taxi driver in an RKO picture, "Two O'clock Courage." She has dialog such as: "Sure I'm a taxi driver. It keeps me out in the fresh air and there's a pane of glass between me and the drunks."

"It's starter," Ann said. "It's something like I want to play. But I really want to be bad — real bad."

Been In 58 Films

She'd like to play Joan Crawford's daughter in the film version of James Cain's novel, "Mildred Pierce." The daughter who steals her mother's boy friend and then murders him.

Ann has appeared in 58 pictures. She started out as a hoss opera queen. Metro signed her and she was slated for a glamor girl build-up. Then the Andy Hardy pictures came along and she became Polly Benedict—on and off the screen.

She saw the last Andy Hardy picture before Rooney checked into the Army. Bonita Granville played Mickey's sweetheart.

"It was the biggest thrill I'd had in years," Ann said, "Watching Mickey make love to someone else—and me in the audience."

We Can All Be 'Good Neighbors'; Vinson Seen As Likely War Demobilizer

A Plea For Fair Play

We Owe A Debt To Latin Workers

THERE is—or there should be—more to the "Good Neighbor policy" as it applies to the U. S. and Mexico than high-flown words and frequent felicitations between our own leaders and those of the republic to the south.

It is not enough that President Roosevelt and President Manuel Avila Comacho exchange occasional greetings, nor that their governments officially work together closely. It is not enough that Gov. Coke R. Stevenson maintains personal friendship with governors below the Rio Grande, or that Secretary Hull and his Mexican counterpart—the greatest of all our friends South of the border—Esequiel Padilla, are on the best of terms. The rank-and-file of citizens of both the U. S. and Mexico have a stake in good neighborliness, too.

This is something that we West Texas rank-and-filers should always remember. But especially should we be cognizant of our responsibility at this particular time of the year. The cotton harvesting season annually brings to the South Plains thousands of Spanish-speaking workers and the attitude we maintain toward them has a direct bearing upon hemispheric solidarity, especially as it applies to the United States of America and the United States of Mexico.

Just as South Plains cotton growers could not have harvested their crops in recent seasons without the aid of Spanish-speaking pickers, neither could much of the nation's food harvest have been accomplished without them. Although most of our cotton pickers were born North of the border, or are naturalized citizens, there are engaged in U. S. crop harvests of all kinds right now a total of 60,000 Mexican nationals, actually "loaned" to us by Mexico's relaxing its laws governing emmigration. These 60,000 Spanish-speaking workers aptly have been described as "soldiers of the soil," so closely are they connected with our over-all war effort.

We pay these people for their work, to be sure. We pay them more than they could make if they chose to stay home. Yet our payment in money does not discharge our entire obligation—our moral obligation, if you please—to them. In addition to their hire, we owe them a fair deal, courteous treatment—all the justice human dignity requires.

By and large, the cotton picker of Mexican descent is a hardworking, honest individual. True, a few among the thousands temporarily engaged here each fall do run afoul of the law. But, from a percentage standpoint, their number of lawbreakers is low. All the average Spanish-speaking worker asks is an opportunity to work for his pay and to decent treatment from those with whom he comes into contact. This he certainly is deserving of.

In urging fair, decent treatment of soldiers in this itinerant army, let us point out, too, that thousands of boys named Juan Gomez, Tomas Hernandez, Emilio Herrera and the like are marching, sailing and flying along side of the John Smiths, the Tom Joneses and the Dick Browns in U. S. armed services. Scores of them lie today in graves on Bataan and Corregidor, in Italy and in France, alongside graves of their Anglo-speaking comrades-in-arms.

We urge the breaking down of no social barriers, either real or imaginary, in this regard.

We urge only common decency and fair play.

Maury Is Doing All Right!

ALTHOUGH we frequently disagreed in principle with Maury Maverick, of San Antonio, when that rotund and noisy gentleman was a member of the Texas delegation in the National House of Representatives, we are not blinded to a very definite Maverick talent—that of making himself seen and heard, the latter in most picturesque language.

But Mr. Maverick, now chairman of the Smaller War Plants corporation with headquarters in Washington, apparently is blind to his own talent. He needs, he says, a "combination man"—a man who can write the various speeches Mr. Maverick is forever being called upon to make, and who can also publicize Mr. Maverick and the Smaller War Plants corporation.

If Mr. Maverick will pardon us, we'd like to say that he has no more need for a ghost-writer, or a publicist, than he has for a third leg. In the first place, the San Antonian has few peers in writing and delivering humanized speeches, and even fewer in attracting public attention.

Maybe he's no great shakes as a statesman. In describing as "goobledegook" the double-talk of federal directives he's proven himself a poor bureaucrat.

But as a "lay-'em-in-the-aisle" rough-and-tumble orator and as a picturesque character, he does all right.

In fact, in both categories, he's a lulu!

OUR PLEDGE

WE pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States, and to the Republic for which it stands; One Nation, indivisible, with Liberty and Justice for all.

Gallup Poll Shows FDR Gaining In 27 States, Dewey In 14

President Continues To Hold Electoral Vote Lead

By GEORGE GALLUP
American Institute of Public Opinion

PRINCETON, N. J., Sept. 23.—With election day six weeks from this Tuesday, Franklin D. Roosevelt continues to hold a slight advantage over Thomas E. Dewey in terms of civilian popular votes, a new 48-state survey by the Institute indicates.

The President has gained in 27 states since August, while Dewey has gained in 14. This leaves the political situation as follows:

GALLUP

Roosevelt leads Dewey in 28 states having a total of 284 electoral votes. (It takes 266 to win).

Governor Dewey is leading in 17 states with a total of 208 electoral votes.

The remaining three states, with 39 electoral votes, are found "on the line," with Dewey and Roosevelt each polling 50 per cent of the vote.

In the Institute's August 23 report, Roosevelt had 286 electoral votes, Dewey 245.

Balloting in the present national survey, the second made by the Institute since the nominating conventions, was for the most part completed when Governor Dewey started his campaign tour to the West. The figures are therefore a reflection of the period of comparative inactivity before the Republican campaign launched into full swing.

Nor do the figures reflect President Roosevelt's first "political" speech of the campaign delivered Saturday night.

Dewey's Losses

IN August Governor Dewey was leading in 20 states, as compared to 17 in today's survey. The change came about because New Jersey and Missouri, where Dewey had a slight lead in August, have dropped to the 50-50 line, while Oregon switched from Republican to Democratic.

In terms of popular vote percentage, however, the shifts within these states have been small, and it is entirely possible that vigorous campaigning by the Republican candidate will regain the lead for him in those states.

A fact to be borne in mind in studying the following state-by-state results is that all scientific polls are subject to a normal error of three to four percentage points. Therefore no state has been listed as "safe" today for any candidate unless he is found leading by 54 per cent or more.

Looking At Life - - - - - By Erich Brandeis

MRS. BYRDIE B. HYLAND of Boston, a WAC private, astonished all her superior officers when she reported back to her station in Atlantic City three days before her furlough expired.

She explained that her son, Corp. Robert Hyland, also on furlough in Boston, had given her such a whirl of shows and night clubs that she had to come back to rest up before returning to duty.

The reason this particular news item attracted my attention is that my wife's niece, Pauline, who is also a WAC private, is going to come up from Georgia on her first furlough since she joined the women's auxiliary.

For days now my wife has been worrying how to entertain Pauline.

We have just moved out into the country, about 70 miles from New York, and Pauline, being only 22 years old, will want to see all the life in the metropolis and not "be stuck away in the sticks," as the wife calls it.

So we'll have to take the kid to New York and we'll all have to stay in a hotel and visit the Twenty-One and the Morocco, and we'll have to take her to see "Oklahoma," and "One Touch of Venus," and "Arsenic and Old Lace," and, maybe we'll have to show her the Statue of Liberty (she has never been in New York. She's from California), and the Metropolitan Museum and up on the Empire State Tower.

Fortunately, I have a very good bachelor friend, John Donald, so that we can make it a foursome, and he'll dance with her and pay her the compliments that every young girl likes and play Sir Walter Raleigh if it's necessary.

THEN, when it's all over, Pauline will go back dead-tired and we will be dead-tired (and about a couple of hundred dollars out of pocket), and Deuce, the dog, will be glad to see us back, and we'll all be glad it's over.

But what are you going to do? Pauline looks forward to the visit and so do the guests that come to visit you.

Only I think we should all try to make our guests tell us what they really like to do and not make them do what we think they ought to.

It can be done if you'll just be perfectly natural and put them at ease.

Then a better time will be had by everybody and your visitors won't, like Private Byrdie Hyland, have to rest from their rest.

Even house guests can be fun if you'll just treat them like human beings.

Record Is Outstanding

(Washington Merry-Go-Round)

By DREW PEARSON
Special Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23. — Congress is now placing the emasculated demobilization bill on President Roosevelt's desk, following which FDR will be faced with the job of choosing a demobilizer to succeed hard-working, loyal uncomplaining, unselfish Jimmy Byrnes, who stepped down from the security of a lifetime job to serve his country as director of War Mobilization.

White House insiders and Capitol Hill observers predict that Roosevelt will once more turn to rugged, efficient Economic Stabilizer Fred Vinson. Vinson is credited by those on the inside with one of the outstanding and unsung jobs of World War II—keeping our domestic economy in balance, despite terrific pressures against wage and price ceilings. For virtually 16 months—ever since Vinson gave up his lifetime post on the U. S. Court of Appeals to become Economic stabilizer — prices and wages have remained almost stable.

PEARSON

Vinson's friends have feared that, because of his relentless war against pressure groups, the two-fisted stabilizer might have accumulated too many powerful enemies. He fought unceasingly against higher farm prices, against labor's drive to break wage ceilings, against the oil companies' effort to increase their profits, and against the inadequate tax bill vetoed by Roosevelt.

But strangely enough, Vinson's courage and forthrightness seem to have won him respect and support even from those whom he has fought.

Farm groups, for example, were outraged when Vinson placed ceilings on hogs, cattle, corn and dairy products — a fight which drove Chester Davis out of his job as Food administrator. On the other hand, farm leaders know that Vinson's firmness has probably saved American agriculture from a repetition of the disastrous postwar panic which occurred 25 years ago.

HAS SUPPORTED JUST CLAIMS

THEY also remember that Vinson has demanded that the government keep faith with farmers whenever agriculture presented a just claim. When rising feed costs threatened to squeeze out dairy farmers, Vinson originated the government's subsidy program, which has averted a milk famine. When big packer representatives in control of the meat section of OPA proposed to cut the government's support price for cattle, Vinson brusquely vetoed the move.

Vinson has also fought labor. He felt, for instance, that it was unfair to increase hourly wage rates at a time when labor's weekly earnings, due to upgrading and overtime, were far in excess of living costs. But he also feels, as do labor leaders, that those earnings must not be allowed to slump when labor returns to the 40-hour week on V-Day. Labor knows, too, that Vinson, favors wage increases in the brackets below 60 or 70 cents per hour, where higher living costs have pinched hardest.

The hard-hitting stabilizer has other strong support, especially on Capitol Hill.

Chief opposition comes from Bernie Baruch, whose vanity was piqued when Vinson failed to enthuse over his superficial reconversion report. Baruch has enlisted White House intimate Sam Rosenman behind his candidate for demobilizer, smooth-talking Chester Bowles, who has actually written the President a letter asking for the job. Baruch also tried to line up Harry Hopkins for Bowles, but Hopkins refused to meddle.

It will be important to watch which side wins this significant tug of war.

DOLLAR-A-YEAR MEN

THE full effect hasn't yet percolated down from the top but, before he left for China, Donald Nelson signed a new set of rules governing the appointment of—and the continued employment of—WPB dollar-a-year men. It has been felt first in the textile, clothing and leather divisions but gradually is beginning to result in changes elsewhere in the agency.

Dollar-a-year appointments for the war emergency period were okayed by the White House four years ago, the appointments to be made at the discretion of the agency chiefs without regard to existing law. Criticism of the early dollar-a-year appointment gradually resulted in a tightening of the policy, but Nelson never really put his foot down until last month.

Major dynamite in the order is Nelson's pronouncement that "No person may be employed on a dollar-a-year basis who would be required by his position on the War Production board to make decisions directly affecting his own company or its competitors." The same section bans dollar-a-year employment of all lawyers, all trade association officials, members of WPB industry advisory committees, or any individuals convicted of anti-trust violations.

Dozens of dollar-a-year men within WPB are daily called upon to formulate policy affecting their own industries, and consequently their own competitors. At the same time, Nelson's order does not reach the even more serious problem of salaried employes in a position to make decisions affecting the companies from which they came to the government — or to which they will go when they leave Washington.

A new wrinkle in the order is Nelson's demand that all dollar-a-year men doing administrative or executive work be at their desks or elsewhere "on official service" a minimum of five days a week. This strikes especially at those men whose habit it is to spend Friday-to-Monday week-ends in New York, Chicago or elsewhere.

Finally, says Nelson, "The appointment of any dollar-a-year man shall be terminated if he is unable to comply with these attendance standards.

SEGREGATION OF NEGRO VETERANS

NEGRO leaders met in secret session last Friday with Maj. Gen. Thomas A. Terry, Second Corps area commander, to complain against the Army's announced policy of segregation at the new redistribution centers for returning overseas veterans. The decision of Lt. Gen. Brehon Somervell, chief of the Army Service Forces, to assign negro veterans to Harlem's Hotel Theresa and Chicago's Hotel Pershing has negroes hopping mad.

The Army is taking over the following hotels for white veterans: 35 in Miami Beach, 4 in Hot Springs, 4 in Asheville, N. C., 3 in Santa Barbara, Calif., and 2 at Lake Placid, N. Y. Each man returned from overseas has 21 days complete furlough when he arrives here, is then shipped to one of these centers for "reorientation."

Negroes are mad because colored troops will not be able to enjoy any of the resort hotels; also because the taking over the Hotels Theresa and Pershing will deprive negro civilians of normal hotel accomodations for colored people in New York and Chicago.

Entirely aside from segregation, the negro protest raise sthe question of why the Army must spend millions to lease hotels when it has camps available which are easily convertible into comfortable rest centers.

NOTE — White veterans returning from overseas have also been complaining about the centers reserved for them. They seem to feel that they are being discriminated against because the negroes are in New York and Chicago while they are in smaller resort cities. "We saw plenty of country over there," they complain. "What we'd like now is to see the lights of New York for a little while before we get shipped out again."

"What do you do with your money, anyway?"—Headline of an insurance ad. Say, you mind your own business. Nobody but a creditor can talk to us like that and get away with it.

"I Got A Country" Is Emotional War Story

Gilbert W. Gabriel's Adroit Pen Turns Out Good Yarn

IT TAKES a mighty adroit pen to portray war characters in a novel in such a way as to present something new and interesting. But Gilbert W. Gabriel, in his "I Got a Country" (Doubleday, Doran), has done a swell job of portraying three different personalities in a story built around a corporal and two lieutenants in Uncle Sam's Army.

First figure is the corporal, Frank Hansen. The kid is an introvert; on the other hand, Lieutenant Geisser is an extrovert, while Lieutenant Orm is a swell guy, just in between the two.

You feel sorry for the slight Hansen, who uncomplainingly bears his burden of the war in frigid Alaska. You feel disgusted at the self-centered antics of Lieutenant Geisser, who uses superior airs to get himself a promotion to a captaincy. You thrill at the antics of Lieutenant Orm, a devil-may-care pilot whose chief faults are his courage, women, and his father's check book.

It's a mighty fine novel Gabriel has built around these three, with some other pretty swell minor characters to embellish the plot—Sirius, with whom the meek Hansen falls in love; Major McGuire, a swashbuckling Irish soldier of fortune who befriends Hansen, and Martha Wainwright, Red Cross gal over whom Lee Orm is dippy.

The author covers a broad range of human emotions in this novel—love, hate, drunkenness, psuedo-elegance, misery, war, and the emptyness and fullness of the human heart. In addition, he describes in minute detail the life of our men who cleared the frozen wastes of the Aleutians of the yellow Jap horde. You'll like it.

LOVE GAME AND SET

RICHMOND BARRETTS "The Truant" (Dutton) is a story of change and tennis. Here is what happens to Jonathan Coit when a wealthy dilettante finds he has a great talent for the game and abruptly transports him from his life of seclusion into the smart-set Newport Casino and Forest Hills tennis world. Coit, despite his sense of danger, is irrevocably drawn to the presiding queen of the tennis kingdom, Middy Fleet, wife of the amateur champion. His bent is not toward the fast, hard-drinking life Middy enjoys, and he knows that her domineering nature soon makes captive the soul of any man she loves. But, a star in his own right, he necessarily travels in close companionship with the Fleets on a goodwill tour through Japan.

The story of the young, hermit-like Coit is well done, a psychological study which is absorbing. The tale of the famous tennis star, battling for his soul as well as his title, is less convincing and somewhat stereotyped. But the latter part of the book is rescued by descriptions of tennis matches which will make many a sports-writer envious. In them, rather than in the love story, Richmond Barrett has a real claim on his readers.

WESTERN COLOR

YOU'LL remember Rainbow Ripley and his range detective work from his escapades with Seng Mei-lang, the beautiful Chinese girl on whom he had a crush. Also you'll remember his partner, Grumpy Gibbs, the short feller with whom he paired in solving so many range mysteries.

So you'll get a belt out of reading Bliss Lomax's latest offering on the adventures of this pair—"Horsethief Creek" (Doubleday, Doran).

Plot is based on the double murder of Glenna Gordon's father and their Chinese cook. And it takes the caliber of the Ripley-Gibbs team to find out that a rival rancher, linked up with a Chinese leader, was the guilty party. Gold enters the picture, as does Seng Mei-lang again.

ASYLUM MYSTERY

WHEN an author, writing a mystery story, keeps his chief character in an insane asylum for three-quarters of the book, you have something. That's what Virginia Perdue does in "Alarm and Excursion" (Crime Club).

Nick Matheny finds himself in the booby-hatch wondering what happened to him following an explosion outside his plant in which he was developing a new aviation gasoline. It takes you quite a while following the slow recovery of his memory to piece the story together and find that an untrue wife was at the bottom of it—she and a doting, no-good father. Finale of the book isn't what you'd think it would be, especially with such a considerate nurse as Miss Chapin.

Answer to Previous Puzzle

Bug Bill:
$40,000,000

Disease-carrying insects — mosquitoes, fleas, lice, ticks — have killed or disabled more American fighting men than many a hard-fought battle.

But today, men in the tropical theaters especially are better protected against these killers than ever before — thanks to amazing new discoveries like DDT.

Spray DDT on a screen—and a fly that walks on that screen three months later dies.

Or take "Aerosol"—a new way of releasing pyrethrum in a gas. One small drop of pyrethrum, when released by means of an aerosol, will kill every "skeeter" in a room 12 x 12 x 7 in one minute!

Now the DDT and aerosols are some of the thousand and one things—in addition to the obvious items like guns, tanks, planes, and ships—that are needed to fight the world's biggest and toughest war, and which make this war so terrifically expensive.

They're going to spend part of your War Bond money this year for DDT—and other insect killers—some $40,000,000.

That money will save American lives and help shorten the war. It would be a darn good investment even if we never got a cent of it back. But we will get it back—and get more money with it.

Under those circumstances, War Bonds have a mighty strong claim on every dollar you don't have to spend for actual necessities.

Maybe you could find enough of those dollars to buy an extra Bond—today.

Elaborate Road Aid To Allies

PARIS, Sept. 23 (AP)—One secret of the race through France of the U. S. First and Third armies—described as having 'out-blitzkrieged the blitzkrieg'—was disclosed today as an elaborate 24-hour system of the Army's red ball express highway.

Details of this one-way highway, which is a round trip from supply dumps to forward areas and four times the length of the Burma road, was given at a press conference by the high-ranking officers who make it work.

They include Maj. Gen. Frank L. Ross, El Paso, Tex., chief of transportation.

Results Are Amazing

The system was inaugurated Aug. 24 In the first 26 days of operation it delivered more than 200,000 tons of supplies, of which 60 to 80 per cent was food and gasoline. Recently 10,000 troops were moved to the front in a single night.

Convoys are synchronized so as to move evenly spaced. The trucks are two and a half tons with a ton trailer, and they speed along roads controlled by military police. Trucks and highways alike are marked with the red ball. Other traffic is prohibited on the road.

The "brains" of the super highway centers in Paris. Each midnight supply experts study the army commanders' requisitions and send the information by air courier to communication zone base sections. By telephone the latter advises depots in the area of the needs.

Network Is Elaborate

Midway is a bivouac area. The driver goes from there to a dump where supplies are loaded. As he passes the bivouac another driver takes over, goes forward and returns to the bivouac.

Along the routes army ordnance has mobile repair units. A force of several thousand engineers work a 24-hour schedule keeping the road in repair.

AUSTIN MAN KILLED

TAYLOR, Sept. 23 (U.P.) — R. J. Hruska, 40, former Granger, Tex., merchant now representing an Austin wholesaler, died here yesterday after being injured when a truck overturned on U. S. highway 79 west of Taylor. Irvin Evans, driver of the truck in which Hruska was riding, was also injured.

HOUSTON MAN BURIED

AUSTIN, Sept. 23 (U.P.)—Funeral services were held this afternoon at the Haynie Chapel cemetery for M. A. Blocker of Houston who died yesterday at a local hospital from injuries received a week ago in an automobile accident near Bastrop.

GOERING'S GALS—Caption on this German photo, received through neutral source, says it shows members of a Goering-created women's anti-aircraft auxiliary corps helping direct fire at Allied bombers.

Ceremonial France Land Of Hand-Pumping, Exclamation

BY HAL BOYLE
Associated Press Staff Writer

PARIS, Sept. 18 (Delayed) — France is a land of ceremony: You find a ritual for everything from opening a bottle of champagne to paying a bill—and most of these rituals begin or end with a shaking of hands.

French people shake hands when they meet you and they shake hands when they leave you. And if the conversation lags at any time they probably will pump it up by grabbing your hand for another shake and start saying "bon! bon!" over and over again.

As a matter of fact, most conversations in French seem to consist of a rapid series of interchanged exclamations of "out, out!" "alors, alors!" and "non, non!" which could be translated roughly as "yes, yes!" "well, well!" and "no, no!"

This obviously leads nobody anywhere and as a result French conversation to the great mass of American soldiery in Paris seems rather pointless. "Nobody gets to first base in that language," is the general verdict.

Watch Out For Handshakes!

The Parisian handshake has none of the vibrating qualities of the Anglo-Saxon handshake, which resembles two men trying to calm down an excited malted milk machine. In France it's more like an old-fashioned game of Indian hand-wrestling.

When you meet a friend you grab his hand at about chin level, grip hard and then give one long, violent dwownward jerk, letting go quickly when your hand is perpendicular to his left shin.

Then you both try to regain your balance.

A Frenchman with a broken arm would be absolutely tongue-tied because no conversation in this country starts without a handshake and a polite "comment allez-vous?" (Go you?)

Waiters in French restaurants are pained to hysteria by thristy soldiers who open champagne by twisting out corks or pulling them with corkscrews.

Pulling Corks A Fine Art

That is too easy. The garcons prefer the gentle ceremony by which they manipulate the cork from the bottle gradually with the fingertips until the imprisoned bubble gas blows the loosened stopper free with a violent popping sound. If the cork doesn't hit the ceiling you're a bush-leaguer.

But above and beyond all other ceremonies in French restaurants is the ceremony of "putting the bite on the customer."

When you call for the bill—or, as the French say, "l'addition, s'il vous plait"—you throw the whole place into an uproar. It is as if nobody in France had ever paid a bill before.

The waiter gets out a pad and scribbles furiously. He calls over the head waiter and the restaurant owner and a spare hatcheck girl or two. They look at his figures, stare at you, the waiter erases half of the figures and starts all over again, gesticulating like a traffic cop at an American Legion convention.

As a last resort they call the chef out of the kitchen. He looks over the tabulation, okays it, gives you a contemptuous glance and returns to his pots and pans.

Bill Forgets Nothing

When the waiter finally places the bill on your plate he lays it there reverently and softly, as if he were giving you a free etching by Rembrandt.

When you turn it over you find he wants maybe 50 to 200 francs for the meal, 150 francs for the bottle of wine, 5 francs toward his old age pension, 10 francs for the government, 15 francs to repair his watch, 8 more to pay his union dues, 9 toward a college education for his baby daughter, 20 to buy a lottery ticket and 12 per cent of the total bill to cover anything he may have overlooked. That is called the "service charge" and in America it's known as "the tip."

You fork over $5 to $10 for a plate of chow you could get without trimmings for four bits at Sloppy Joe's back home. After paying the bill you usually have just enough left to buy a taxi ride to the nearest poorhouse—but it's been a great ceremony.

World War I Pilot At Controls Again

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark., Sept. 23. (AP) — A pilot in World War I is taking a refresher course in piloting after 25 years of not touching the controls.

W. W. Higgins, boys club director, explained that he wants to fly with his son, now back in the United States after 55 combat missions.

The son is Capt. Hurley Higgins, a veteran of the Italian campaign.

Automobile registrations in the first four months of 1944 are only slightly less than for the same period in 1943. This slight decrease contrasts with much greater declines in the same periods in 1942 and 1943.

Numbness In Extremeties

Case History No. 1616; May; Age 69; who had numbness in extremities, especially in the right arm where he stated, "My right arm goes to sleep quite a bit and I am worried about it." He had severe pain in his right arm, said that it was difficult for him to move about without causing excruciating pain. One of my many satisfied patients referred him to this Clinic. After the cause of his trouble was located and corrected during a regular course of chiropractic service he later stated, "I wouldn't take a million dollars for what chiropractic has done for me." This case is now under special service and comes in for a check-up occasionally to be sure that the primary cause of his troubles does NOT return.

Ear Trouble

Case History No. 1330; Lady; Age 36; Swelling of neck and ears; Ears would turn red and discharge pus. Was hard of hearing and had severe nervousness. This lady had been in a bad condition since 1934; and, having tried almost everything she knew of without relief. One of her relatives who is a patient of this clinic referred here. After the examination the cause of her abnormal condition was located. After a long course of chiropractic service the cause was finally corrected. Her restoration of health was slow but it was sure. All symptoms have disappeared and she feels that her life has been saved from a lifetime of suffering and misery and an early death.

Chiropractic Principles

To be in a normal healthy condition chiropractic contends that the nerves of the body must function normally and be supplied with mental energy. This mental energy is that force, generated in the brain, goes down the spinal cord and branches out to all organs, parts, and tissue cells of the body to control the welfare of the body. If there is any interference between the brain and body thru the nervous system the body cannot and will not function as it should function. Many authorities agree that this is the cause of dis-ease in the body. The chiropractor locates this cause of dis-ease and removes it.
