FROM THE HOPPER

The old fashioned man who used to get relief from a backache by taking a two-bit bottle of Doan's pills now has a son that spends half his time in a hospital and all his earnings in seeking relief for the same ailment.

If you haven't inspected one of these modern cotton gins in recent years, you owe it to yourself to take time out and make a tour of inspection at one of the modern plants in Parmer County.

Today's modern gin hardly resembles the plants of my cotton picking days. With all this new, gleaming machinery and polished floors, these new gins look more like a food-processing plant than cotton gins of the long ago.

The first cotton gin I can remember was operated by an uncle down in Hill County. Water was obtained from an earthen tank to provide steam for the boiler, which was fired by cord wood. In those days the lint rolled out on the floor and was picked up by a darkey who toted it across the floor and crammed it into the press.

Yes, today's modern cotton gin is a far cry from the gins of my boyhood. Electric motors provide the power these days and everything else inside the building has taken on a new modern appearance. They even have inside toilets and shower baths for the workmen, as compared to a plunge in the tank and a trip to the bushes in olden times.

Speaking about old times, I was reminded of the change that has taken place in farm homes when I visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. Will Matthews, six miles down the state line, last Sunday afternoon.

I never saw the original shack of Mr. and Mrs. Matthews they erected on their homestead more than 40 years ago, but I know today's modern home is a far cry from that modest beginning.

Today they occupy a large, well furnished home that is modern in every detail. Wall-to-wall carpeting covers the living room floor that is furnished with elaborate overstuffed furniture. Butane gas and electricity provide heat and light in addition to operating refrigeration for the home freezer and refrigerator. A two-car garage adjoins the house, and the outbuildings are all lighted. An electrically-driven pump operates a pressure water system to provide the household and livestock with an ample water supply.

In addition to all these modern facilities, a paved state highway runs just in front of their premises. The only thing lacking in the way of modern conveniences is a telephone, and I was informed that the house has already been wired and ready to be tied in to the rural telephone service that will serve them.

Yep, farm life has undergone a wonderful transformation during the past two decades. What is true of the Matthews home is also true of hundreds of farm homes throughout this section of the Southwest. Modern farm homes are the rule rather than the exception in these times. For some reason farmers have reached the conclusion they should enjoy modern conveniences the same as their city cousins and they are to be congratulated.

We here at The Tribune are mighty proud of the many fine compliments we have received on our county fair edition issued last week. It was a most creditable paper and we were also proud of it.

But in order to give credit to whom credit is due, I want to say that Sonny and Jeanne were responsible in a very large measure for the edition. Naturally, the edition would not have been possible without the cooperation of the advertisers, and I also want to acknowledge their wonderful support.

REIGNS OVER FAIR

Florence Dean of Rhea sits atop her throne as she rides down Friona's main street to greet her subjects at the parade in the Parmer County Fair. Other members of the royal house who accmopany her include Mary Tatum, Black; Sue Robertson, Bovina; Clara Gonser, Lariat; and Denise Magness, Friona.

Two New Cotton Gins Ready For Fall Run

Two of the three new cotton gins being erected in Parmer County this year, will be ready for operation when the ginning season opens, The Tribune was advised last weekend when a reporter visited the two new gins at Bovina and Hub, near the center of the county.

A third gin is also under construction at Lazbuddy, but no report as to the progress was available here.

At Bovina, E. L. Morrison, manager of the Morrison & Ely Gin Co., said their new 4-90 all-electric Murray and Hardwicke-Etter plant was "ready to go."

Mr. Fleming, manager of the new Mills & Fleming Gin. Co. plant one mile south of Hub, was awaiting the installation of a large electric transformer by the Southwestern Public Service Co. "Everything is ready to go when we get the juice," he told a reporter.

In addition to the gin plants proper, office and living quarters have been erected at both locations. At Hub, camp houses for transient labor and a cafe building have been provided.

Both Mr. Morrison and Mr. Fleming invited the public to inspect their plants before the rush season gets under way.

The Mills & Fleming plant is a 4-90 Continental job, equipped with two suction pipes to facilitate handling of cotton during rush periods.

To Enlarge Bovina Telephone System

"The additional dial equipment has arrived and we expect to begin work by Oct. 15," G. D. Shelley, district manager of the Southwestern Associated Telephone Co., at Lubbock, told the Tribune in a long distance message on Tuesday.

Shelley had specific reference to the telephone system at Bovina. "That little town has outgrown our facilities, and we are going to install a complete system," Shelley added further.

He said the work was scheduled to get under way about Oct. 15 and it would require about two months to complete the job. For many months additional telephones have been in demand by the growing patronage at Bovina, and the people of that city will greet this announcement as very good news.

First Bale Cotton Delivered At Lariat

The first bale of 1952 cotton to be reported to The Tribune this season arrived at Lariat Monday, and was awaiting being ginned late Tuesday afternoon.

The new crop cotton was grown by Loyd Routen of Oklahoma Lane and taken to the Lariat Gin Monday afternoon. L. L. Cooper, ginner, said the bale would likely be ginned on Wednesday or Thursday. "We had some more work to do before we were ready to start," Cooper said as he and his crew were working to put the machinery in running order.

Cooper would not hazard a guess as to how much cotton might be ginned at Lariat this season. "We have the best and biggest crop I have known since coming here in 1947," Cooper declared. Last year 4700 bales were handled at Lariat for a record run there.

Local Pipe Concern Enlarging Product

The Ferguson Pipe Company of this city, manufacturers of concrete irrigation and culvert tile, is enlarging its facilities to produce 18-inch pipe, Roy Ferguson, owner-manager, stated this week.

Up until now, products of the local plant have been confined to the production of 10, 12 and 14-inch concrete pipe, and the 18-inch size is being added to meet the growing demands of the firm.

At present 11 men are employed at the plant, and 12 to 15 are operating as field crews, delivering and laying the pipe for the local concern. "We expect to enlarge our crews as soon as the 18-inch pipe begins to roll," Ferguson added.

The local firm operates over a wide territory, with jobs now in progress at widely separated locations from Tulia to Albuquerque.

Ferguson is expecting a heavy run later in the Fall when the crops are gathered from the fields and farmers begin to make plans for next year's crop. He said he was also considering opening a new pipe manufacturing plant at Hereford to keep pace with his growing business.

Pioneer Homesteader Is Claimed By Death

Mrs. Alice Phillips, 79, widow of the late W. J. (Uncle Billy) Phillips, who homesteaded eight miles south of Texico along the state line many years ago died in a Clovis hospial last Saturday, shortly after being removed there for treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. Phillips lived on their homestead south of this city until 1944, when they leased out their holdings and moved to Seattle, Wash., where they lived until Mr. Phillips' death in 1948. Following the death of her husband, Mrs. Phillips returned to this locality and made her home with a daughter, Mrs. T. F. Martin, southwest of Texico.

The body was sent to Seattle by the Steed Funeral Home of Clovis on Monday for funeral services with burial by the side of her huband.

She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Martin, Route 1, Clovis; Mrs. Grant Taylor, Seattle, Wash.; one sister, Mrs. Homer Chapman, Little Rock Ark.; two brothers, Lewis and Mark Kyle in California.

2 Bad Check Charges Filed, County Court

Charges of issuing worthless checks were filed against two men in county court here this week, one of them being charged with two separate offenses.

J. W. Tapley of Clovis, entered a plea of guilty to issuing one bad check and was given a 30 day jail sentence by County Judge A. D. Smith. Officials said he would be held to await action of the grand jury for issuing a second check amounting to more than $50.

M. C. Roland of Hobbs, is also charged with issuing a worthless check and scheduled for a hearing on Wednesday. At present, he is out on $500 bond.

BACK TO CAMP

Pfc. Willie Joe Carpenter left Friday for Camp Pendleton, Calif. where he is stationed. Pvt. Carpenter has been visiting his wife, the former Glenda Dosher; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lon Carpenter; and his parents-in-law, the Dick Doshers.

Large Crowds Attend Dairy Show and Fair's Anniversary

* * * *

Entries slacked off slightly for the livestock division, the most prominent arm of the Fair, but new gains in other departments provided a fitting performance for the 10th Annual Parmer County Dairy Show & Fair held in Friona last weekend.

Contestants in the livestock division were approximately 120 in number, falling off somewhat from previous Fairs that numbered as high as 180 or 190. No contestants were entered in either Guernsey or Ayrshire breeds, which rather disappointed Fair officials.

However, interest picked up elsewhere. For instance, nearly all authoritative estimates placed the 1952 Fair in the lead so far as attracting fair goers went.

Hundreds, perhaps thousands, filed through showbarns. Others were attracted to a commercial carnival adjacent the grounds. And in spite of conflicting school activities and championship playoffs in Clovis, the crowd at the Chamber of Commerce barbecue Friday night was the largest ever, 2000.

Another phase of the 1952 Fair that attracted more interest than ever was the election of a Fair Queen Saturday afternoon.

Finally, and very important indeed, was the exceptional response for contributions to the Fair. A goal of $2000 was surpassed, according to Raymond Euler, secretary-treasurer of the Association.

Breeders' Costs Up

Asked to explain why livestock entries lost ground this year, J. T. Gee, Friona vocational agricultural instructor and assistant general superintendent replied "Well, the increasing high cost of feed is perhaps one of the main factors, although there surely are others."

The parade on Saturday afternoon climaxed the weekend of activity, with floats entered from civic organizations, school classes, and a large division of children's bicycles and pets. Farwell school band won first place over Bovina in marching performance. Friona Woman's club was first in the civic organization division, and Girl scouts were named second.

The Girl Scouts had experienced quite some anxiety over their entry when they were ready to go in the parade and discovered about 15 minutes before starting time, that the trailer on which their display was arranged, had a flat. But all worked out for the girls, when the flat was aired up, and they won second in competition.

In the school class division, Friona seniors were first with the juniors named second. In children's entries, Charles Jones was given first prize of his silver colored children's tractor; Patricia Baxter carried off second prize, pushing a pet duck in a doll cart; Robbie Osborn was third, entering his wagon with engine power; and fourth place went to Frankie Spring who had a bicycle with a colorful crepe paper cab.

Five Queen Contestants

Five communities had queen contestants: Mary Tatum of Black; Sue Robertson of Bovina; Florence Dean of Rhea; Clara Gonser of Lazbuddie and Deniese Magness of Friona. The Rhea contestant presided over her court as Parmer County Queen on a special float.

Officers and directors of the 1952 Fair Association were: Floyd Schlenker, president; Clyde Hays, vice-president; Raymond Euler, secretary-treasurer; Joe Jones, general superintendent; J. T. Gee, assistant general superintendent; and Eugene Boggess, A. L. Hartzog, Walter Kaltwasser, Virgil Teague, Floyd Schlenker, Martin Fulcher and John Getz, directors.

Judges for the various departments included: J. P. Smith of Pantex

Pigs Outproduce Rabbits At Parmer County Fair

Raymond Euler, secretary-treasurer of the Parmer County Fair,, also had charge of the rabbit department both this and last year.

Saturday he announced with justifiable pride that the "wabbit" department had increased from one entry last year to six for the 1952 Fair. Considering the fact that the lone entry last year got eaten up by a dog before show time this fall, it sounded like a pretty good record.

But J. T. Gee, Friona vocational agriculture instructor and also an official of the Fair Association, had Euler beat on every count.

He entered two gilts in the bred gilt class on Thursday, but the next day had to alter their rating. The reason? Both gilts greeted Fair visitors with a litter of piglets Friday morning.

Gee reports that he re-entered the two mamas in the sow-and-litter department. One sow had 10 little porkers, the other seven.

The Friona man denied reports that he had been "expecting."

REVEAL PLANS TO GIVE AWAY SECOND HUDSON

Although details are not as yet worked out, a group of local business firms announced plans early this week to give away another Hudson automobile late this year.

Walter Hardage of the Hardage Hudson Co. said Tuesday that at least eleven local firms will be cooperating in the deal, and the car will be awarded some lucky person late in December or early in January.

Present plans call for a brand new Hudson Wasp to be the grand prize, but that is not definite. Neither was the date of the awarding of the car definitely set, but will be either on Dec. 20 or Jan. 3 of next year.

The complete list of the co-operators is still indefinite, but will be announced in The Tribune next week, as will all other details of the award.

This much has been definitely decided: The car will be given absolutely free with no strings attached except that the lucky person must be present to receive the award.

"There will be absolutely no obligation on the part of anybody to participate in the awarding of the car," Hardage said as he began making plans for the big event.

This will be the second automobile to be given away by local merchants. Last year the merchants of this city conducted a similar event, with Mrs. Earl Moore of Earth driving off the new Hudson Hollywood Coupe. The award was made at the football field and drew thousands of people here from many miles away.

Local sponsors of the forthcoming award are looking forward to another successful event when the second car is given away.

First Friona Cotton By James Burleson

James W. Burleson, farming three miles west and three south of Lazbuddie, brought in the first reported load of cotton to North Plains Gin Company this year at Friona. His load was weighed in at 2050 lbs 2:30 Wednesday afternoon.

Wright Williams, North Plains manager, said the Lazbuddie farmer had a good turn-out, getting 540 pounds of lint from the load. Burleson has 320 acres of irrigated cotton, and estimated his yield at "about one bale per acre."

Farwell Host To Vega Longhorns Friday

The Farwell Steers, who were bulldogged by Springlake 32-0 last week, will attempt to get a winning notch in their horns Friday night as they play host to the Vega Longhorns.

On paper at least, the visitors will have a substantial advantage for the moment the beginning whistle blows. Man for man, the Longhorns average 170-plus. "That's a lot of beef, you know," whistled Coach Shelby Jobes who is assisting Supt. Jack Williams with the Steers.

"Whereas we average about 150 as a team, they will be much heavier than we in the line as well as backfield."

Both teams are likely to play a determined game, because both have lost in the season openers. Vega was thumped 32-6 by Friona last weekend. There the comparison ends, because neither Farwell nor Vega has had a mutual opponent.

Heavy scrimmage sessions were conducted here all this week in preparation for the game Friday night. "We did fairly well on defense last week," says Jobes, "but we definitely will need a lot of work on offense. In playing these heavier teams, it may be necessary for us to work in some more passing."

Teddy Magness, regular left end, will be out of the lineup Friday night. He is sick in bed with a cold. Either James Roberts or Junior Poteet will be used in his place, according to Jobes.

Phillip Cassidy, a former backfield man, may become a line regular. "He looked pretty good on defense in practice, breaking up a lot of plays," explained Jobes. "I imagine we'll start out with him at left guard."

Except Magness, all members of the Farwell club appear to be in top condition. Jobes and Williams made allowances for "a few bruises," however.

Game time is 8 p.m.

Two More Blocks Paving Going In

The E. & E. Contracting Company began work on two additional blocks of paving in Farwell over the past weekend to bring the total of thirty-four blocks since the program got under way during the summer.

Another block on First Street, extending from the Kemp Lumber Co. to the Loyde Brewer residence property is being given a 30-foot slab of black-topping, and one block along Ave. B. between First and Second Streets is also being graded and surfaced.

Grading and caliche surfacing of the one block strip on Ave. B. was all that was in prospect early this week, but there still remained the probability that it would also be black-topped.

Paving of this two-block project has always been considered a "must" in order to give proper drainage to that area of the town, but the program has been complicated by various obstacles.

In addition to the new blocks of paving, quite a number of property owners are having their driveways paved, the latest being Mrs. Harry Jesko and B. N. Graham.

Hurshel Harding left Sunday to return to Baylor Law School in Waco, where he is a last year student. Harding will possibly take his bar examination within the next year, family members report.

"Just been an old clodhopper lumberman all my life, some years good and some bad," quipped E. M. Roop, manager of the Houston Lumber Co., when interviewed by a Tribune reporter this week. He explained further that he had been associated with various lumber companies since he was 16 years of age.

Mr. and Mrs. Roop moved to this area back in March of 1943, and have resided here since that time.

The local man was born in Everest, Kansas. When he was 16, however, he left home to make his fortune, and was employed in a lumber yard in Havensville, Kansas for a year, then went to a lumber company in Concordia, Kansas as bookkeeper for a year. Next, he ran a yard at Cheraw, Colo. for about six months.

Lanham, Nebraska was the next home of Mr. Roop and proved to be one of the memorable places for him, for it was there that he met his wife. "I ran out of a place to board, so I got married," he laughs. He explains that he met the future Mrs. Roop at a party. "I asked to take her home," he says, "but she went home with her brother and sister because she came to the party with them."

But the local man didn't wait too long before he went calling on the young lady and on February 22, 1909, they were married. Asked about his courting days, he states, "there weren't very many places to go then, we went to parties most of the time or to barn dances." "I couldn't dance, so I was in bad shape," he adds.

After their marriage, the Roops remained in Lanham for three years, where he managed the lumber yard. They then moved to Oklahoma and remained there from about 1914 to 1935. "We were in different places," states the local man, "but I was working for the same company, about 21 years all told."

After leaving Oklahoma, the family moved to Ford, Kansas where they stayed for three years, going from there to Rush Springs, Okla. for a period of five years. It was at this time that the Roops moved to this area.

Mrs. Roop was born in Lanham, where she had lived on her father's farm until her marriage. Asked if his father was also a farmer, Roop stated, "No, he was retired." Further explanation revealed that his father had been an army man, putting in lots of time "for Uncle Sam." The local man has one surviving sister, who lives in Odgen, Utah.

Mr. Roop's hobby in his early years was handling horses—breaking and training them. "But now, I'm more interested in fishing," he says, "even though I can't seem to catch any fish.

The Roops have seven children, three girls and four boys. Evelyn Nantz is a county home demonstration agent in Okmulgee, Okla.; Delbert is a bookkeeper on a ranch in California; and Irene Waser lives on a farm in Washington, Kansas. E. M. Jr. owns a grocery store at Ford, Kansas, and Calvin J. is a farmer in Washington, Kansas.

Ruby Van Amburg is married to a farmer and resides in Washington. The youngest, Jim Bob, has recently completed his degree at Texas Tech in Lubbock and visiting in the home of his parents now.

IN WASHINGTON

Capt. and Mrs. Carthon Phillips are now stationed in Washington, D. C., family members report. They were formerly living in Newfoundland. He is the son of Mrs. Kate Phillips of this city.

"Cheers For Chubby" Planned At Theatre

"Cheers for Chubby," a colorful, animated short on how and why overweight people should lose weight, will be shown at the Border Theatre on Sunday-Monday, September 21-22 according to Scotty Levins, manager. The film has been recommended by the Texas Medical Association.

The physicians of Texas for a long time have advocated that people who are overweight should reduce. They have pointed out that obesity is not only unfashionable but unhealthy. Excess weight is frequently associated with such serious illnesses as heart disease, diabetes and arthritis.

The doctors of this State have also warned, however, that the safe and sane way to permanent weight reduction is proper dieting under medical supervision. "Cheers for Chubby" gives the public sound information about the danger of overweight, and shows proper methods of reducing. Movie-goers will enjoy this entertaining film, and at the same time they will receive valuable nformation from it.

"Cheers for Chubby," which will be shown as a public service at the Border Theatre, is cosponsored by the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, the Public Health Service of the Federal Security Agency, the American Medical Association, and the Texas Medical Association.

Lubbock Fair Boosters To Visit Here Sept. 25

LUBBOCK—Residents of Farwell will get their share of more than a million and a half bucks Sept. 25 when a bus load of Lubbock's leading businessmen visit here from 12:35 until 12:50 p.m. to publicize the Panhandle South Plains Fair which will be held Sept. 29 through Oct. 4.

Of course all the money is phoney, but it is still a valuable reminder of many free shows which can be seen daily at the Fair.

While in town, the boosters will distribute free Fair tickets, souvenirs and copies of the annual Fair newspaper to all school students. Stops will be made in the main business section of town and at the school.

The Harmaniacs, a trio from Reese Air Force Base, will be on hand to provide musical entertainment during the visit here.

Leroy Hawkins Aboard US Detroyer Dortch

Leroy Hawkins, seaman, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Hawkins of Route 1, Muleshoe, Texas and husband of Mrs. Leroy Hawkins of 30 Poplas St., Newport, R. I., is aboard the destroyer USS Dortch, one of more than 150 warships representing the eight nations taking part in the NATO naval exercise "Main Brace" beginning Sept. 13 .

The exercise is taking place in the waters off northern Europe and is providing training in fast carrier task force, anti-submarine, convoy and amphibious operations. For the purpose of the exercise, it is assumed that the NATO naval forces are cooperating with NATO land forces in defense of Western Europe against an attack on Europe's northern flank by theoretical "enemy" forces.

"Main Brace" is the first exercise involving the forces of the two North Atlantic Treaty Organization Supeme Allied Commanders, Admiral Lynde D. McCormick, USN, Supreme Allied Commander, Atlantic, and General Matthew B. Ridgway, USA, Supreme Allied Commander, Europe.

The "carbuncle," mentioned in the Old Testament, was a precious stone probably resembling the ruby.

Farwell Band Accepts Invitation To Fair

Mr. Delbert Dalby, President of the Tri-State Fair Association, was notified today that the Farwell High School Band will participate in the gigantic parade to be held in Amarillo Monday Sept. 22.

Highlight of the parade which starts at 10:30 a.m. in downtown Amarillo, will be the "Battle of the Bands" where more than 35 invited high school bands from Texas, Oklahoma and New Mexico, including the Farwell band, will compete for cash prizes totaling $750.00.

Only high school bands will compete for these prizes and will be judged by the Band Judging Committee, headed by Mason King. Prizes and the amount to winning bands: best dressed band $200; Best marching band $200; Best playing band, $200; Band traveling the greatest distance $100; and the most popular girl baton twirler will receive $50.

The Amarillo bands, as hosts to the many guest bands in the Tri-State area, will not compete in the "Battle of the Bands" for the prize money offered in this event.

Winners will be announced at 2 p.m. Monday at the Tri-State Fair Grounds. Each winner will be asked to perform, at that time.

Mr. Dalby said, "We wish to thank the Farwell Band and Mrs. Erma Jobes for their prompt reply to our invitation. We are confident that they will make a splendid showing in our parade."

State Bar For Loan Law To Get Rid Of Sharks

HOUSTON,—Declaring that loan sharks in Texas in numbers and nuisance are now more in evidence than ever before," the State Bar of Texas has thrown its support behind a proposed small loan law.

The measure, modeled from laws already in effect in almost all other states, provides for licensing and supervising the small loan industry, with both civil and criminal penalties, and for a maximum charge for loans "that will be fair to both borrower and lender."

Action by the State Bar at a recent convention in Houston was based upon a year's study of the problem by a special committee headed by District Judge W. S. Barron of Bryant and Tom Reavley, Lufkin attorney. Hearings were held and attorneys and executives of lending companies were heard.

Other committee members were Joe L. Allbritton, Houston; Robert Dedman, Dallas; John Goode, Jr., San Antonio; John P. Green, Dallas, Louis D. Gayer, San Angelo; E. C. Fritz, Dallas; Robert E. Keeton, Dallas; and Joseph T. Sneed, Austin.

Radio Program Announced for Methodist Home Members; Will Tell Story of Home

The story of the Methodist Home at Waco actually told by the children themselves will go on the air again Sunday, Sept. 21, at 8:15 a.m. over fourteen radio stations.

The Home is dramatizing activities from the lives of its more than four hundred children again this fall on Sunday morning because of an enthusiastic response from radio listeners all over the Southwest last fall.

Some of them wrote that they had contributed to its support many years without ever having been able to visit its campus, and that the radio programs gave them a vivid picture of its life. Students and ex-students have done most of the scriptwriting, and are acting out the incidents.

Music by the Home choir will be a feature of the fifteen-minute broadcasts which are entitled, "These Are Your Children."

Radio stations which will carry the program are as follows: WFAA, Dallas; KPRC, Houston; WOAL, San Antonio; KRIS, Corpus Christi; KRGV, Weslaco; KGNC, Amarillo; KCRS, Midland; KOSA, Odessa; KROD, El Paso; KFYO, Lubbock; KWKC, Abilene; KGLK, San Angelo, KFDM, Beaumont; KTRE, Lufkin.

Wolverines Blank Farwell Steers 32-0

Offensive machinery of the Farwell Steers broke down here Friday night, and resulted in the host team receiving a sound pasting, 32-0, from the Springlake Wolverines.

The Springlake line closed in on nearly all of the Steers' attempts to charge through, and refused to let its ends be outflanked. In addition, several charging Springlake linemen spent some time in the Farwell backfield disrupting plays before they had an opportunity to gain momentum.

After receiving the opening kickoff, the Wolverines drilled 65 yards across the grid into the Steer end zone on five consecutive first downs. It was their most impressive show of straight groundpower of the evening.

Farwell punched back, and got a first-and-ten on the Springlake 30 on a pass interference ruling against the visitors. The drive ended, however, when D. Wheat intercepted a pass on the 5 and raced the ball back to midfield before he was stopped.

The score was 7-0 at the end of the first quarter.

In the second quarter, Dial kicked out for Farwell, and in two plays Springlake had again scored, D. Wheat is doing the running. Davis, Wolverine fullback, made the second conversion attempt successful.

With two minutes until the half, Farwell received an interference penalty on their 11, and Watson carried over for the third TD for Springlake. Halftime score was 20-0.

Springlake went to work early in the third quarter, and Fullback Davis put Farwell in trouble on three consecutive drives to the 2-yard line. From there, Wheat again stepped through for another score. That ended scoring for the third, and Springlake led 26-0 as the game went into the last period.

After a pass set Springlake up on a goal-to-go in the fourth quarter, Clayton, a reserve, made the final touchdown through the line. Final score, 32-0, Springlake.

Whirlwinds Win Over Cowgirls 5-3 Friday

Texico Whirlwind's downed the Rosedale Cowgirls to a score of 5-3 Friday afternoon, on the Texico diamond.

Anita Brown was on the mound for the Whirlwinds, with Glenda Trower and La Rue Northcutt pitching for the opponents.

Melrose Buffaloes Hand Mustangs First Loss

The Bovina Mustangs ushered in the 1952 football season at Melrose Friday night in an unsuccessful attempt to defeat the Buffaloes on their home grounds. Score was 31-12.

The Mustangs began fumbling on the second play of the game. Then a fumble on the 20 of the Parmer Countians was recovered by Melrose, and the Buffaloes scored a quick touchdown. Lawrence Weidner of Melrose ran over three touchdowns for his team and passed to Combs for another score. The Barron of Melrose passed to Combs for the fifth touchdown.

Only one conversion was made during the entire game, on a pass from Barron to Combs.

Leon Ware ran six yards for the first Bovina touchdown, and Donald Ray Barron pushed across three yards for the second counter for the Mustangs.

Score by quarters was: 12-0; 18-6; 24-6; and 31-12 with Melrose leading the entire game.

Bovina will play again out of town this weekend, the game being with Gruver Greyhounds.

Friona Chiefs Top Vega In First Game

Friona Chiefs began the season with an easy victory over Vega Friday night on the opponent's field, topping the Vega eleven 32-6.

The Chiefs took the kick-off in the first quarter and continued a drive up the field to the 20-yard line, where Darrell Robbins took the pigskin over the line on an end run. The extra point failed and score stood at 6-0.

Vega took the kick-off, but held the ball only three downs, then Robbins was again in the lime light when he took the punt and ran back down the field for the second score of the evening, leaving the count at 12-0 at the end of the first quarter. Moving into the second, Friona kicked to Vega but held their opponents on downs. Taking over, another drive down the field netted the Chiefs the third touchdown of the evening by Virgil Phipps, who scored on an off-tackle play from the 20-yard line. David Patterson kicked the extra point. Robbins made his third score of the evening after the Chiefs again held Vega on downs, and the Friona man made an end sweep. Halftime count was 25-0.

Vega kicked off to Friona, then after two series of downs, the Chiefs punted to Vega's 15-yard-line. There was still no break for the host team, however ,and they were forced to punt. The ball shuffled back and forth, then at the end of the third, Vega pushed across for a touchdown from the two-yard line, on a quarterback sneak. Try for the point failed.

The pigskin went from side to side in the fourth, then Robbins scored again in the final minutes, on an end sweep. Patterson kicked the extra point, ending the game with a score of 32-6.

Band Receives Uniforms of Kelly Green Whipcord

"The Texico band members received their uniforms this week," says George Hill, band director.

Hill further states, "The suits are made of kelly green whipcord of 100 per cent wool, and the material is the best quality available." The jacket has West Point collar and the full suit is trimmed in white braid.

The jacket also features a reversible style lapel which is of winter-white whipcord. THhe music emblem, the lyre, decorates the sleeve, with Texico written in green against the white making a sleeve patch. Featured again is the music emblem design on the nickel silver buttons which add to the coat. The added feature of the inside of the coat is a large music folio pocket.

Hill says, "The most appealing thing about the uniform is that it can be worn in two different styles: The formal dress; the all green effect when buttoned; and the all marching appearance."

The shako (hat) is strictly West Point, and is made up of the same material as the uniforms. The added feature to this is again the nickeled silver lyre on the front with an attractive four inch white pom pom plume on top. Another feature of the shako is a white plastic chin strap.

"This all adds to the appearance, making Texico one of the best dressed bands which will appear soon in the Tri-State Fair Parade in Amarillo, and the Homecoming celebration at ENMU in Portales," a spokesman says.

RANDOM THOUGHTS
By Jo Magerus

Some of the faces around the halls look pretty gloomy these days. I wish that everyone would try this for just one day and see if it would help: Keep your face cheerful and greet every single person you meet with a smile.

In our classwork we should remember that no matter how small or important what we are doing may seem, if we do it well, it may sson become the step that will lead us to better things.

Isn't it odd that everybody will say "I know I don't snore?" How do they know, did they stay awake to see???

Here's a definition for people who consider themselves "high society." High society is the upper crust made up of crumbs and held together by dough.

Some little things that pelase: (1) people who greet with a smile—and listen to your troubles instead of telling you about theirs. (2) A person who look you straight in the eye and tells the truth every time!

Did you ever wonder how kissing began? Scientists tell us that kissing is just so much chemistry. Here's how they explain: Seems that it all has to do with a craving for salt. Cavemen found that salt helped to cool them off in the summer heat. They found too, that by licking their neighbor's cheeks they could get salt. Also found that it was a lot more fun if the neighbors were of the opposite sex. Soon everybody forgot about salt.

See 'ya in two weeks.

The shrew is the smallest existing mammal.

It was also decided to have a booth at both the Curry County and State Fair. The booth will be an educational one dealing with contouring for soil conservation.

Boys who wil lattend the State Fair at Albuquerque are: Marvin Pendergrass, Bobby Don Goldsmith, Bobby Pendergrass, Johnny Peterson, Wayne Habler, J. B. Taylor, James King, Carlton Kyle, Jimmy Don Moss, Jerry oJhnson, Allen Lockhart, Bobby Spears, Melvin Bakkerud, W. E. Harvey, Billy Sparks, and Rodney Powell.

WILL WE BE REPRESENTED?

Again it is almost time for the Curry County Fair. The County Fair Association is sponsoring the contest to select the "Curry County Fair Queen," to represent Curry County in the State Fair in Albuquerque, September 27—October 4.

Fifty dollars will be awarded to the girl who has the best personality and shows the best horsemanship. The girl must go to the State Fair and represent Curry County in order to receive this prize.

Last year Texico was represented in this contest by Marsha Peterson Reid. Will we be represented again this year?

Miss Ellen Wells, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Guinn of Clovis, became the bride of J. R. Ellison, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Ellison of Bovina, at the First Baptist Church in Clovis recently. Vows were exchaned before a setting of white chrysanthemums and gladioli, interspersed with greenery, flanked by candelabra tapers and centered with a white kneeling bench.

Rev. Jamie Tidenberg of Bovina read the double-ring service.

Preceding the ceremony, Billy Derrick sang "At Dawning." Then Mr. Derrick, Jerry Jones and Jimmy Ware rendered "Blue Moon." Mrs. John Wilson played "Clair de Lune," "Evening Star" and "In My Garden" as guests assembled.

Misses Judy Bells and Sandy Bell, lighted candles before the entrance of the bride. They wore green organdy dresses over white taffeta, and carried arrangements of white mums.

For her wedding, the bride chose a gown of white slipper satin nylon lace with off shoulder sleeves coming at a point over the hands. Her hat was of white satin covered with lace and seed pearls. An elbow length veil fell from the hat. Her only jewelry was a strand of pearls which were presented her on her graduation from Junior High School. The pearls and originally belonged to her mother.

"For something new", the bride chose her wedding ensemble; "something borrowed" was a white Bible from her school roommate; and she wore a blue garter. The pearls represented "something old." The Bible which she carried, was covered with satin, and topped with a crescent arrangement of white roses with angel leaves and white velvet streamers.

Mrs. Jenean Grissom, cousin of the bridegroom, was matron-of-honor, and was attired in orchid over white taffeta. Miss Mary Sue Whitney of Roswell, was bridesmaid and dressed identical to the matron-of-honor. Both carried orchid tulle heart-shaped arrangements of white feathered mums with orchid velvet streamers. Their hats were orchid tulle with white feathered mums.

Groomsman was Jack Mann of Marshall, roommate of the groom at New Mexico Military Institute. At the close of the ceremony, Mr. Derrick sang "The Lord's Prayer." Ushers were Jerry Jones, Jimmy Ware, Jimmy Marsh, and Fred Hoffner, brother of the bridegroom.

A reception was held immediately following the ceremony in the church parlor. The table was covered with a white organdy cloth with appliqued Chantilly medallions. The five-tiered wedding cake was topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom. The bride and bridemaid's bouquets served as centerpieces. Serving guests were: Miss Carolyn Shores, Miss Sue Hoffner, sister of the groom; Miss Sue Barnett, Miss Jo Curtis, Mrs. Loyd Otten, Mrs. Robert Reid, Mrs. Elmer Burchett, Mrs. Glenn Bell and Mrs. M. E. Bell. Reception music was presented by Mrs. John Wilson and Miss Barbara Meyer.

Mrs. Guinn, mother of the bride, wore a cream rayon faille dress with blue beige accessories and a corsage of blue feathered carnations. Mrs. Ellison, the groom's mother, chose a black ensemble, with pink accessories and pink feathered carnations.

For going away, Mrs. Ellison changed to a brown tweed rayon faille suit with gold and beige accessories. Her corsage was of white roses.

The couple honeymooned in Ruidoso and Cloudcroft, and plan to return to New Mexico A & M college in Las Cruces, where both are animal husbandry majors.

Mrs. Ellison was graduated from Clovis High School, attending A & M last year. She is a member of Chi Omega; was football sweetheart; princess at the Military ball; and spring carnival queen. She is also majorette for the college band and member of several organizations. Mr. Ellison attended New Mexico Military Institute the past two years.
