Pirates Beat Flour Bluff

Rockport-Fulton's Pirates managed a 13-0 win over Flour Bluff last week to give the Pirates their second win of the 1974 campaign.

Rockport's offense rolled up over 250 yards total offense, but turned the ball over seven times on fumbles and once on an interception. The Pirates scored on their first possession, putting together a 77-yard drive with halfback Johnny Washburn covering the last 16 yards for the TD. David Brooks added the point after and the Pirates led 7-0, a lead which held up until the fourth period.

Defense was the name of the game for the Pirates, giving the Hornets only 60 yards total offense for the entire game. Joe Harrington was the leading tackler for the Pirates with a total of 13, but he was aided by various others with some big tackles.

One of the new faces on the Pirate defense was Denzell Bardwell, who had been a running back until last week, and Friday night he sacked the Hornet quarterback for a minus 32 yards on three of his tackles. Gene Carter, David Brooks, Ray Gause and Steve Radke all had ten or more tackles to join in.

The clinching score came for the Pirates on a 65-yard pass and run play from quarterback Scott Gillis to tight end David Mundine. Mundine had four catches for the night and a total of 109 yards.

A contract was awarded to Heldenfels Brothers of Corpus Christi. Low bid was $2,191,335.85.

County To Microfilm Its Records

County records dating back to 1871 will be put on microfilm under bids to be sought by Aransas County.

The commissioners court Oct. 31 agreed to seek bids for the project after County Clerk Ruby Hart spoke of the necessity of making a permanent film record of the several hundred volumes in her office for security purposes.

Cost has been estimated at around $10,000.

According to Mrs. Hart the project would involve the microfilming of 33 hand written volumes with 21,121 handwritten pages; 135 typed volumes; 169 photostat volumes, and 217 xeroxed volumes.

In addition, there are 350 plats to be filmed, the county clerk reported.

The court took no action on a request by Margaret, Bailey Hall that the county survey her property in return for donation of easements involved in a county road south of the ship yard.

County Judge John D. Wendell said he was informed that the county was using part of her property for the road.

He said the road was a public one by prescriptive use. Wendell said he did not favor the idea of the county surveying the property.

"I can think of other situations just like that," he said.

In other matters the court authorized a contract with M.A. Cage of Corpus Christi to continue a tax appraisal service contract at an estimated cost of $9,000 a year, and took under study three bids on a metal building for the road and bridge department.

The court declined to accept a road in Unit 5 of Key Allegro after Commissioner Raymond Owens reported some washout along one stretch.

On Owens' motion, acceptance of the road was delayed until "ample protection" was made for portions of the road along Aransas County Bay.

From 1968 to the present, Peacock has worked with the rural development and resettlement in Bolivia. Prior to that, he served in the field of education, first as a high school teacher in Montero, and from 1963-64, as the director of a primary school in Trinidad. Returning to Montero in 1966, he became director of a high school there.

Patricia Peacock currently works in social services in the Methodist administered hospital in Montero. Prior to that post, she was the social visitor for the high school. From 1966-1970, she was professor of religion and English in the high school, and from 1963-64, she taught in the Trinidad primary school. She served as professor of Christian Education in the Methodist Seminary in Montero from 1961-62.

COUNTY OFFICIALS, WORKERS MAY GET 15 PERCENT PAY INCREASE

A 15 per cent pay hike for almost all elected officials and employees will be considered by the Aransas County commissioners court, probably at the regular meeting Nov. 11.

Public notice of salary increases for elected officials will be necessary. County Judge John D. Wendell said.

Commissioners in a workshop session Oct. 31 agreed that the 7 per cent wage hikes included in the 1975 budget were insufficient for both competitive and cost of living reasons.

Wendell also proposed that the monthly automobile allowance for members of the court be raised from $75 to $150 to cover sharply rising costs in operating a car.

To keep the record straight "and keep everything out in the open I want everyone to know that in addition to my salary (as county judge) I get $100 a month for the juvenile board and $100 a month as ex-officio county school superintendent," Wendell announced.

Two elected officials, who presently draw lower salaries than other countywide office holders, would get 22 per cent pay raises under proposals discussed by the Court.

District Clerk Mrs. Tony Harden and County Treasurer Mrs. Etoile Harrist Eller still would draw less than the county judge, county attorney, sheriff, tax assessor-collector and county clerk, under the 22 per cent increases tentatively proposed for them in 1975.

The two office holders now make $8,558 and would jump up to $10,441 with a 22 per cent hike.

Other countywide officials now make $10,500 and 15 per cent pay hikes would take them up to $12,075.

Mrs. Harden appeared before the court two weeks ago to ask that her salary be raised to the level of other countywide office holders. She cited an increased work load to support her request.

Wendell said the higher than originally proposed salary hikes would add another $28,000 to the 1975 budget. The figure reflects actual wage increases as well as the additional expense in social security and retirement benefits.

In discussions at their Oct. 18 meeting, commissioners said they were losing experienced employees to other political subdivisions and private industry because of low county wages.

Halloween at Paws and Taws Is a Success

The Halloween Night sponsored last Thursday at Paws and Taws Building on Fulton Beach Road by the Fulton Lions Club was a success beyond all expectations with some 3,000 children and youth of the county-wide area taking part. This was double of last year's first such event, according to Mrs. Dan Shelton, co-director with her husband.

"We had the help of adults, Explorer Scouts and Girl Scouts, and the normally adequate building just was not big enough," commented Mrs. Shelton. "We had to close the doors for a time to let those inside get around to the various games and enjoy the entertainment before others could be let in. It was a hectic night of fun and spook. We were fortunate and happy about the financial support offered to prepare for such an occasion."

When asked about plans for the next year, Mrs. Shelton was of the opinion that it is too big an affair for only the Fulton Lions Club to operate and felt that a more inclusive organization or special group of organizations would have to take the responsibility for future county-wide Halloween observances. She felt that bigger facilities were an imperative.

'Goblins' Visit Nursing Home

Thirteen little "goblins" invaded the Aransas Pass Nursing Home and Convalescent Center on October 30. The Aransas County Young Homemakers took their children to treat not trick the folks there.

Members arrived with Halloween cookies and a little something for everyone. Mrs. Kucera's first grade class in Aransas Pass decorated and sent pumpkin door decorations.

Mrs. Myers, director of the home, greeted the "spooks" with a smile and a camera. She led them to the den where they sang two Halloween songs to the group and visited with many of the people that reside there.

Members that attended the function were Pat Barker, Marilyn Bennett, Glenda Blankenship, Johnnie Callum, Carole Crawford, Cathy Huffmeyer, Betty Kucera, Janet Lewis and Carol Winkler.

The little goblins were disguised as witches, skeletons, devils, bunnies, monsters, tigers, ballerinas and other creatures.

They were Beth Barker, Roger and Andrew Bennett, Randy and Mark Blankenship, Kevin Callum, Jennifer and Russell Crawford, Angela and Deuce Huffmeyer, Brett Lewis, Norm Spears and Karen and Valerie Winkler.

After the trip to the Nursing Home, president Carol Winkler hosted a party for the little ones at her home where other treats were served. The evening was fun for all.

Tourist Ass'n Plans Event

A combination dedication and fund raising barbecue dance is scheduled for November 23 at the newly redecorated and renovated Civic Center at Aransas County airport, according to Jim Fowler, president of the Rockport-Fulton Tourist Association which is sponsoring the project.

The new center, which will replace the Paws and Taws Building in Fulton as headquarters and meeting place for the tourist association, is a one-story brick building located at the radar center of the airport.

Profits from the barbecue, which is open to the public, will be used to pay for materials used in rehabilitating the airport building. Between 75 and 100 volunteers from the tourist association and the American Association of Retired Persons have been working on the center building for the past several weeks, with the project nearing completion.

Following the barbecue from 4 to 8 p.m. there will be a dance from 9 p.m. to 1:30 a.m. featuring Barbara Clawson and the Nashville Beats.

The Civic Center will be used for meeting of various community organizations, including the tourist association, AARP, ladies auxiliaries of county volunteer fire departments and other groups. It is planned to have a secretary on duty at the center during business hours, and possibly a resident caretaker.

The tourist association is seeking donation of a piano for the new center, as well as cash contributions toward the cost of redecorating the building.

Contributors are asked to contact President Fowler at the Central Power and Light Co. office or Lois Gurley at Security Real Estate. Mrs. Gurley is chairman of the Special Projects committee responsible for rehabilitating the new center building. Joan Miller is chairman of the association's Public Relations committee, and Z.H. Glass, president of AARP, has been directing efforts of volunteer workers from his organization who have been active in the new center project.

Pauline Traylor, Hollis Davenport, Grover Traylor, Corky Agler, Audrey Owens and Gertrude Smith.

The other evening I decided to spend part of the time listening to pretty radio music and then switch to TV and watch some of my favorite programs.

But, you know, as the evening wore on I almost became ill—and I certainly was concerned about my general state of health—as I listened to and watched the commercials praising the wide variety of products designed to ease your pains, solve most of your organic problems, make you smell good and even put you to sleep.

There were physical conditions I hadn't even thought of, that according to the very sincere announcers, needed attention.

One guy kept talking about "gasid" indigestion and when I belched a little, I thought maybe I better run out and get some of that stuff.

But I'm glad I didn't because there was much more to come.

One smiling lady announcer was shown rubbing an ointment on her husband's shoulders to "relieve his arthritis," and at that point I seemed to feel a twinge in my right shoulder.

Next, a dignified-looking announcer exclaimed the virtues of Preparation H, and although I felt no need to buy any of this, I thought to myself I better keep that product in mind if I ever need it.

Then came the parade of testimonials about the various items you should buy if you have a headache. The aspirin sounded pretty convincing, until the Bufferin and Excedrin people explained the powers of their products, and at that point I was just plain confused.

I had just taken off my shoes to get comfortable and rub one foot against the other when an announcer pointing his finger at me started shouting about the magical results that come from using a spray-on powder for itchy feet.

"Got a nagging backache?" the next announcer asked. "Take so-and-so pills and you'll wake up tomorrow morning feeling great." And then came the "expert" TV spokesmen for deodorants to make you smell good all day, the remedies for scalp problems, the numerous concoctions to get rid of stomach disorders and constipation, and finally the mouth wash specialists who offered liquids to gargle to make sure that all your close friends would remain that way.

By the time the evening was over, I had pretty well forgotten who killed who in the detective program but I sure knew what to get when I had an unlimited number of personal needs.

OUTDOORS 'n things

by

Now that the hunting seasons are upon us many hunters will start turning up with banded birds. Many have already killed banded doves and, with the waterfowl seasons right around the corner, it is quite possible that a good many bands will turn up from that source.

One unfortunate thing about hunters killing banded birds is that many of these hunters don't have enough curiosity about the source of the band, or they don't realize how important the recovery of each band can be to the people who are trying to furnish him with better hunting. Because of this he never reports the recovery of the band - he just carries it around in his pocket for a few days, shows it to a few friends, and finally loses it or throws it away. If he would report the recovery of the band he would receive a card telling him when and where the bird was banded, and he might really be surprised at what a world traveler he has bagged.

Most duck hunters, for instance, know that the pintail, one of the most popular ducks along our Gulf coast, sometimes goes on down into Mexican waters to spend the winter, but not many know that he sometimes wanders much farther afield. One good example is a male pintail that was banded on the Tule Lake National Wildlife Refuge in Northern California in September 1961 was shot in Japan in January 1968. A female pintail banded on the Monte Vista National Wildlife Refuge in September 1967 was shot in Siberia in May 1968 - just eight months later. Russia has a central source for banding records just as we do and they're very cooperative in exchanging banding information with us and other countries of the world.

One hunter in Columbia, South America, found that a duck he killed had been banded in North Dakota. A government employee with our weather service on a Pacific island found that a bird he killed had been in Northern California, over 4600 miles away, just three months before. An Englishman killed a pintail that just 21 days earlier had been banded in Labrador, 2200 miles away across the Atlantic.

When you kill a banded bird it's not even necessary to send in the band, if you have some reason for keeping it. Of course it's really better to send in the band, then there can be no mistake in the band number. It is enough, however, just to report the date killed, the closest town to the spot where you killed the bird, the species if you can identify the bird, and above all, the exact number on the band. Send this information to the address on the band, or, if you want to, report the band to any office of the Parks and Wildlife Department and they will send the information directly to the Laboratory in Laurel, Maryland where the banding information is stored in computers. In a few weeks you will receive a card telling you all they know about the bird and a certificate of appreciation for sending in the information. Don't just throw the band in a drawer and forget it. Do your part in the never ending search for information that is so essential to the management of our waterfowl resources.

Evening TOPS Holds Meeting

Rockport TOPS Club #493 met on Tuesday evening, October 29 in the Wagley Building with weigh-in from 6:00 to 6:40 p.m. followed by the business meeting and discussions from 7-8 p.m.

The month of October found the girls greatly enthused over the results reached by their effort to "Take Off Pounds Sensibly" as over thirty pounds were lost by the TOPS.

The queen of the month was Judy Von Huevel and the runner-up, Beulah Dedmon. Judy Von Huevel also won the monthly award for having consistently lost weight each week in October.

Other losers receiving award badges were Faye Cowdrey, Nina Cowdry, Beulah Dedmon, Bruce Golibart, Betty Jean Ward and Bumpsie Bosarge.

The "P" in TOPS stand for "pounds" so if your pounds are bothering you, join the Tuesday evening group. If you want to keep your identity secret and never have your name published the club is happy to cooperate.

This is an organization to help in every possible way to make you a healthier, happier person. Visitors are welcome, so join the fun.

Dist. Garden Clubs to Meet

"Ladies On the Go-Have a Picnic in San Antonio" is the theme chosen for the fall meeting of District 7 Garden Clubs. The meeting will be November 7-8 in the San Antonio Garden Center at 3310 North New Braunfels Avenue. Several Rockport-Fulton area ladies plan to attend.

The schedule of events is registration, board meeting and board dinner taking place on the 7th. On the agenda for the 8th will be reports from the district director, Mrs. D.L.W. Carter of Corpus Christi and the various district chairwomen.

Mrs. R.D. Radford, recently of Florida and now of San Antonio, is the guest arranger for the afternoon program. She is a new instructor for Texas and teaches in both Spanish and English.

Her arrangements may be "exotic" from the other half of the world and again as "homey" as your backyard. She has given lecture demonstrations and held workshops in South America, the Caribbean Islands and the Southeastern states of the USA.

CHAMBER CORNER

There's more than football games to tempt Texan and visitor alike out into the crisp, autumn air. Many of our fishermen are rigged or rigging! Fishing is great in Rockport as evidenced by the daily influx of visitors. These seasoned fishermen with their own special gear and the novices who arrive empty-handed carry home an estimated 65 million pounds of edible fish from the Texas Gulf Coast each year. In general there are three types of fishing in the Rockport area:

- (1) Shallow water - trout, redfish and drum are plentiful.
- (2) Deep water - in the open waters of the Gulf of Mexico are found Spanish mackerel, sailfish, marlin, king and many other game fish.

(3) Fresh water - at stocked fresh water lakes: bass, catfish and crappie.

Before you begin - In Texas, fresh or salt water sports fishermen are required to have a fishing license ($4.25) unless:

- (1) You are under 17 or over 65 years of age.
- (2) You fish in your own property.
- (3) You fish in your home county with throw line, pole and line, or with no reel.

These licenses are available at almost all businesses that handle any fishing equipment.

Fresh Water Fishing - Rockport has stocked fresh water lakes which are located on private property - some located in trailer parks.

Bay Fishing - Excellent for trout, redfish, flounder, drum; fish from piers, skiffs, outboards, jetties. Party and charter boats leaving Rockport, Fulton and Lamar daily.

Waders paradise - Rockport waters varying from a few inches to three to four feet can be waded for miles. Most of the bottom is hard; and water is usually clear.

Deep sea fishing - Charter boats are available from Rockport, Fulton and Lamar for fishing in the Gulf of Mexico.

Marlin and sailfish - Of course, the big season for marlin and sailfish is in June, July, August and September, when sailfish and marlin are in the Gulf. But, because of the mild climate, fishermen are aboard nearly every day of the year.

How to fish - Depends on where you fish and best way to learn how to fish for where you are is to ask at the nearest bait stand or tackle shop. These folks keep track of what is biting, what bait to use and where, contact them for up-to-date information.

Fishing boats - Check Rockport telephone directory in the yellow pages or call Chamber of Commerce, 729-6445.

Seasons - No closed season in public waters of State of Texas. Restrictions are in force on certain wildlife management area waters and others may be closed to fishing if safety, scientific research or other programs make it necessary.

Size and bag limits - Size and bag limits where applicable are most lenient. Check with local game and fish wardens before fishing...if in doubt, or obtain a fishing laws digest from license deputies of Texas Parks and Wildlife Department. Size limit on redfish - must be over 14 inches (fines for possession of undersized fish can be heavy.)

Things to remember - (1) Always be sure you have required license or permit before you fish or hunt.

(2) Obey the laws pertaining to outdoor recreation. They are designed for your protection and safety.

(3) Be prepared for abrupt weather changes. Have rain gear and sufficient warm clothing.

(4) Consider a good first aid kit a high priority item on your equipment list.

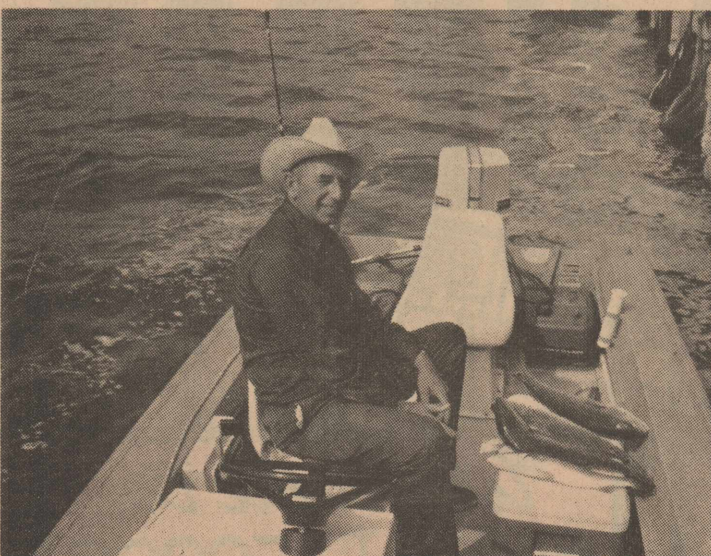

(5) Respect the rights and property of others.

(6) Leave recreational area cleaner than it was when you found it.

National Magazine Publishes Story on Local Fishing Guide

Wayne Lindsay, local sports fishing guide and motel owner, rests in his new fishing boat at Palm Harbor marina before leaving for nearby Redfish Bay. Lindsay is featured in the current issue of the magazine, Outdoor Life. The magazine article includes a picture of Lindsay aboard the scooter type boat he formerly used.

Eighteen players competed in the Scotch foursome golf tournament at Live Oak Country Club Sunday.

Members of the winning team were Bill Auten, J.G. Richards, Rose Smith and Rose McCoy. Their combined score was seven under par.

On the team finishing second were Tom Mastropole, Karl Smith, Norma Hagy, Linda Mastropole and Garvin Mitchell. They shot four under par.

Wayne Lindsay, Rockport sports fishing guide and owner of the Rod and Reel Motel on Market Street, is featured in the November issue of Outdoor Life, a nationally distributed magazine.

The story, written by Erwin A. Bauer, one of the magazine's editors, recommends a number of places for sportmen to spend a winter vacation. The title is "Give Yourself an Outdoor Christmas Vacation."

Winter fishing in the Rockport area is featured in the first part of the story, and Lindsay's skill as a guide receives a lot of favorable attention from the writer. Accompanying Bauer to Rockport and participating in pursuit of redfish under the guidance of Lindsay was Bauer's wife Peggy who also is an Outdoor Life editor.

Bauer writes of his excitement and that of his wife when Lindsay first locates reds and hooks a 4 1/2-pounder. Bauer finally gets his tackle in order and hooks a red "as long as my arm," but the fish proved too much for him. About the same time wife Peggy got a hit on her first cast and brought the fish to boat.

After landing several king-size reds at the first location they moved on to several other spots where they picked up more reds and a number of speckled trout. The three of them fished from Lindsay's scooter type boat, which Bauer pointed out, was ideal for getting about in the shallow bays. Since then Lindsay has replaced the scooter with a more comfortable flat bottom aluminum boat which will accommodate as many as four fishermen with plenty of room to move about. Usually he fishes out of Palm Harbor with Redfish Bay his favorite "hunting" ground - or water.

In the article Bauer marveled at the weather contrast between his home in Jackson Hole, Wyoming, where the snow was two feet deep when they left for Rockport. Here they fished in lukewarm salt water bays with the temperature 58 degrees in the early morning to 70 degrees by mid-afternoon. Climax of the day was a fish fry in Lindsay's motel.

Bauer wrote that it was an exciting and productive way to spend the Christmas holidays when most fishermen were sitting indoors and dreaming of spring.

A.A.R.P. Group Hears Talk

Joe Hugenberg, president of the Chamber of Commerce, was introduced by Paul Riddle, program chairman, as speaker when Rockport Chapter #1536, American Association of Retired Persons, met at V.F.W. Hall October 23 for the semi-monthly meeting.

He entertained the group with informative talk, interspersed with humorous stories. He mentioned the many activities sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce, an organization manned by successful business men in the community.

Among these have been the "Plant a Tree" beautification program, restoration of the large crab at Rockport Basin, distribution of advertising material on tourism and Red Carpet events for visiting groups and conventions. He solicited cooperation of A.A.R.P. members in their projects.

A covered dish luncheon was enjoyed, followed by games of bridge and pinochle.

The next meeting will be November 13 at V.F.W. Hall, beginning at 9:30 a.m. Speaker will be Curtis Goodman, vice president of Live Oak State Bank. Election of officers will be held.

THANKS TO ALL

We would like to give thanks to all our friends and neighbors for all the kind words, flowers and food during our loss of our son, Reginaldo Buenaño. May God bless you.

8th Graders Lose 21-6

Rockport-Fulton's 8th grade Bucs fought Flour Bluff to a 0-0 halftime score before giving up an opening 2nd half kickoff return for a touchdown.

Trailing 6-0 the Bucs took the ball and marched back to tie the score 6-6 on John Solis's 43-yard run.

The Bucs scored the points after touchdown only to have it called back because of a penalty. Their 2nd attempt fell short. Following a fumble by the Buc offense Flour Bluff marched the ball in for their 2nd score and went ahead 14-6. The Hornets scored again late in the 4th quarter to win the game 21-6.

John Solis, the Buc fullback, had his best game of the season with 115 yards on 17 carries. Joe Brooks carried 6 times for 21 yards. The Buc offense moved the ball against a much larger Hornet defense, but penalties and fumbles stopped several drives.

The Buc defense played a very fine game, holding the Hornets on several 4th down and short yardage situations. Joe Brooks and Steve Naylor did outstanding jobs at their linebacker positions. Dwayne Harrison, Louis Solis and Hector Torres were in on many tackles. Arthur Perez and Tony Smyrson combined for over 20 tackles between them.

Today Rockport plays the District leading, undefeated Gregory-Portland Wildcats. This will be the Bucs last ball game of the year and they are hoping for an upset. The 7th grade game begins at 5:30 and the 8th grade follows.

Man Overboard Is Dangerous Situation

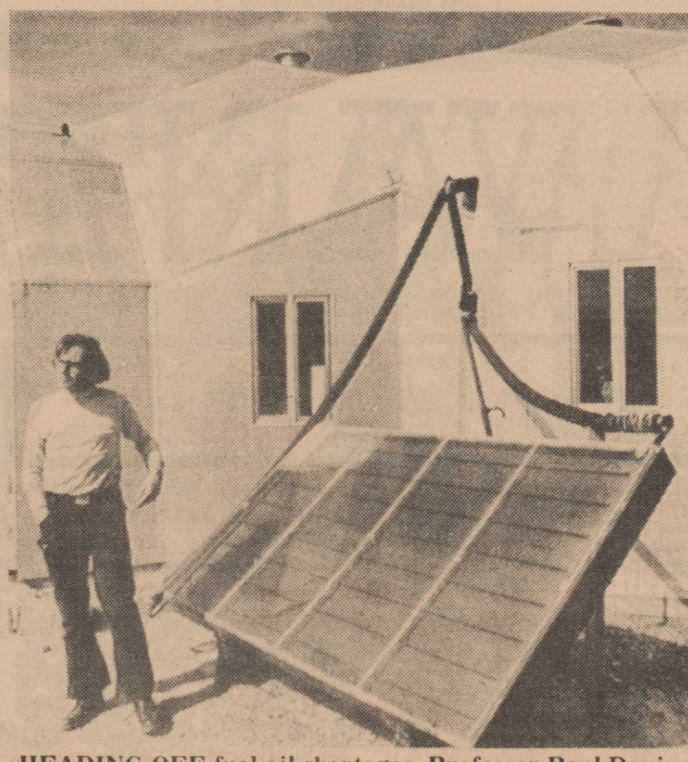

Austin—Man Overboard! Next to capsizing, falling overboard is the greatest cause of fatal boating accidents, according to the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department's water safety experts.

The experts say it's not surprising that so many persons fall overboard since passengers and operators sometimes can't adjust to the slippery footing in boats. Boaters also sit on outside decks of gunwales of the boat and they stand up without holding on when the boat is moving, ignoring the old U.S. Coast Guard rule of "one hand for the boat, and one for yourself."

High speed tight turns and horseplay also take their toll. If someone falls overboard, there are two courses of action, say safety officials. The easiest is self-rescue which means that whoever is in the boat must make sure the person in the water has something to hang onto. A Personal Flotation Device such as a boat cushion is best, but there should be no delay while someone looks for one, since an empty gas tank, a styrofoam icebox, or an oar all float and will help the victim stay afloat until something better is found.

The boat should be stopped dead in the water so the victim can swim toward the boat and board. If the victim is hurt or unconscious or can't swim to the boat, then someone will have to go after him. This presents some hazards to the rescuer, but they can be minimized if the rescuer puts on a PFD and maintains a line between the boat and himself to keep the boat from drifting away. Rescuing from the water should be a last resort since it is possible most of the time to maneuver the victim close to the boat and help him aboard. If this is done, the engine should be shut off entirely once you are close to the victim because even with the propeller can still spin fast enough to cause injury.

WARM SPRINGS, GA. — A legacy from President Franklin D. Roosevelt has been taken over by the State of Georgia. Roosevelt's affliction, polio, having been virtually eliminated, the foundation now rehabilitates persons with spinal cord injuries, arthritis, birth defects, stroke and brain damage and amputees.

HEADING OFF fuel oil shortages, Professor Paul Davis of the University of New Mexico designed this structure to be totally heated by solar energy. Behind Davis is a solar water heater which heats water stored within the walls of the house then circulates it throughout the building.

Public Aid Sought In Fish-eating Bird Survey

Austin—The long hours of scrambling around pungent rookeries of egrets, herons and other fish-eating birds this summer by Texas Parks and Wildlife Department non-game biologists is starting to pay off.

During the spring and summer, the biologists banded 15,334 nestling fish-eating birds in six Texas locations. The young birds have started leaving the rookeries and sighting reports are coming from across Texas.

According to biologist Carl Fentress of Austin, a Louisiana heron banded in Lavaca Bay in Calhoun County was sighted over the Devil's River in Val Verde County. Several herons and a cattle egret banded on the coast have moved as far north and west as Austin. One cattle egret has been found dead in Alpine.

"Nestling birds were marked in the rookeries with leg bands and a small colored flag to indicate where they were banded," said Fentress. "Birds from the north inland received blaze orange leg flags; south inland birds, magenta; east inland birds, chrome; upper coast, light green; middle coast, dark red; lower coast, light blue."

"The sightings which have been reported to us so far are only the beginning. We encourage the public to contact either our project leader John Smith in Austin or one of the field biologists of the department when they spot one of these birds." Fentress said that the purpose of the banding program was to learn what happens to young birds when they move out of nesting areas.

Park Permit A Bargain

Austin — Recreational bargains — or bargains of any kind, for that matter — are hard to come by these days.

But for $12 a year a family can enter more than 46 state parks which charge entrance fees with the annual entrance permit offered by the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department.

The annual permit is valid for one year from the date of purchase, much like a vehicle inspection sticker.

A sticker displayed on the windshield will admit a vehicle and all occupants to any state park where entrance fees are charged, regardless of the number of visits made each day.

The only state parks where the annual permit is not honored are Copano Bay Causeway, Port Lavaca Causeway, Eisenhower Birthplace, San Jose Mission, Longhorn Cavern and the Varner-Hogg Plantation.

There are another 27 parks in Texas which have no entrance fees.

And if $12 is still too much, the TP&WD has a $5 restricted annual permit which is good for entrance into a designated park. A $12 group permit is also available for youth groups of youngsters 17 years of age and under.

JV Crush Flour Bluff

Rockport-Fulton's JV went on a scoring spree last week to take a 44-6 victory over Flour Bluff.

Rockport's two quarterbacks, Dickie Ballou and Jeff Dietz, either scored all TD's or threw the ball for the scores, but much of the credit for the team's offensive success should go to Ray Guerrero who carried for 130 yards, and lost one TD on a Pirate penalty.

The Pirates scored in the first period on a 20-yard pass from Ballou to Ronnie Ormand. Ballou came right back and hit Albert Mendiola for the two points.

The 8-0 score held up until the half, and on the kickoff to open the second half Ballou took the ball on his own 30 and returned it to the Flour Bluff 23-yard line. Guerrero carried to the one-yard line where Ballou went over on a keeper. Ballou added the 2 points to put the Pirates up 16-0.

The Pirates captured a fumble on Flour Bluff's next play and Guerrero again carried the ball 16 yards to the one, and Ballou plunged in again. Ballou added the two points.

After a short punt Jeff Dietz found Ormand behind the secondary and hit him for 22 yards to the one. Dietz went over from the one.

Flour Bluff put together a long drive and scored in the fourth period, but the Pirates came right back to score on a pass to Ormand good for 3 yards. Ballou hit Steve Flanagan for the two extra points.

The scoring ended with Ballou keeping the ball late in the game and going in from 14 yards out on the last play of the game.

The defense was led by Jerry Hutson, Mark Hoffman, Dietz and Eugene Garcia, all who led the team with more than ten tackles.

Providing some fine blocking for the Pirate runners were Ormand, Hutson, Hoffman, Jeff Little, Roland Solis, George Miller and Joe Rojas.

Pirate Frosh Win 14-6

Rockport-Fulton's Pirate Freshmen squad captured their sixth win of the season with a 14-6 triumph over Flour Bluff.

The freshmen, after losing player after player in the last few weeks, put together a new offense and pounded out two early scores and then held on with tough defense.

Bobby Lewis carried the scoring load as he scored on runs of 20 and 42 yards, and gained 141 yards. The offense was also spurred on by a new backfield man, Chris Barrow, who was moved to fullback from end, and gained 83 yards himself.

The Pirates used clutch blocking in spots from ends Clay Pitman and Jeff Janecek; tackles Newlin Parker and Bruce Barre; guards Sammy Solis and Reggie Morgan; and center Dolph Hiller.

The defensive team made the big plays when they had to and yet had no real standout.

PUBLIC NOTICES

THE STATE OF TEXAS

To: Lois Soaries and Wilbur M. Dimry, Jr., Defendants, Greeting:

You are hereby commanded to appear before the Honorable 156th Judicial District Court of Aransas County at the Court House thereof, in Rockport, Texas, at or before 10 o'clock a.m. of the first Monday next after the expiration of forty-two days from the date of the issuance of this citation, same being the 16th day of December A.D. 1974, then and there to answer Plaintiff's first amended Petition filed in said Court on the 21st day of October A.D. 1974, in this cause, numbered 5023 on the docket of said court and styled Wm. Seipel, Plaintiff vs Lois Soaries and Wilbur M. Dimry, Jr., Defendants.

A brief statement of the nature of this suit is as follows, to wit:

PLAINTIFF'S FIRST AMENDED ORIGINAL PETITION
No. 5023

WM. SEIPEL VS. LOIS SOARIES AND WILBUR M. DIMRY, JR. IN THE DISTRICT COURT, ARANSAS COUNTY, TEXAS.

TO THE HONORABLE JUDGE OF SAID COURT:

Now comes Wm. Seipel, a resident of Bexar County, Texas, hereinafter styled Plaintiff, and files this First Amended Original Petition, complaining of Lois Soaries and Wilbur M. Dimry, Jr., if living, whose residences and whereabouts are unknown to Plaintiff, and if either or both of them be deceased, then the legal representatives of each of said named Defendants and the heirs of each of said named Defendants, all of whom are unknown to Plaintiff herein, and for cause of action would show the Court as follows:

1. That heretofore on or about September 1964, Plaintiff was and still is the owner in fee simple title of the following described property, to-wit:

Lots 73 to 80, inclusive, in Block 3, Rockport Gardens Subdivision No. 2, Aransas County, Texas, according to map or plat of said subdivision of record in Volume 1, page 39, of the Plat Records of Aransas County, Texas, and was in peaceful and quiet enjoyment of possession and title thereto.

2. That thereafter on September 15, 1964, the Defendants unlawfully entered upon and dispossessed Plaintiff of such premises and withheld from Plaintiff the possession thereof.

3. And for further plea Plaintiff says that he and those whose title he has and holds have had and held peaceful, continuous and adverse possession of the lands and tenements claimed in Plaintiff's petition, cultivating, using and enjoying the same for more than ten (10) consecutive years after Defendants' alleged cause of action, if any has accrued, and before commencement of this suit, during which period he has had said lands and tenements enclosed; wherefore, he states that he has good and perfect title to said lands under and by virtue of the ten (10) year Statute of Limitation of the State of Texas, and this he is ready to verify.

4. Defendants have occupied and used such premises under such unlawful possession since on or about September 15, 1964, and have damaged Plaintiff by virtue of such unlawful possession in the sum of Five Hundred Fifty and No/100 ($550.00) Dollars, in which amount by virtue of such wrongs, the Defendants are justly indebted to Plaintiff, but although repeated demands for the payment thereof have been made of Defendants by Plaintiff, Defendants have failed and refused and still fail and refuse to pay the same to Plaintiff's damage in the sum of $550.00.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays that the Defendants be cited to appear and answer herein and that on final hearing, the Plaintiff have judgment for the title and possession of the above described premises, for his damages, for his cost of suit and for such other and further relief as he may be entitled to, general or special, in law or in equity.

s/Wm. Seipel, Attorney for Plaintiff, 531 Gunter Building, San Antonio, Texas 78205.

as is more fully shown by Plaintiff's Petition on file in this suit.

The officer executing this process shall promptly execute the same according to law, and make due return as the law directs.

Issued and given under my hand and the Seal of said Court, at office in Rockport, Texas this 29th day of October A.D. 1974.

Attest:
s/Agnes A. Harden, Clerk, District Court, Aransas County, Texas. c36

Freezing prepared foods

College Station--Home-frozen main dishes are a boon to the busy homemaker, one nutritionist said this week.

"Frozen combination main dishes can add variety to your menu, offer quick meals for unexpected guests and provide appetizing, nutritious foods on busy days," Frances Reasonover, foods and nutrition specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System, noted.

In spite of the variety of frozen prepared foods on the market, Miss Reasonover pointed out that it is usually more economical to make your own. You can cook enough for several meals when you have time and then serve the family favorites even on busy days, she said.

"You can freeze all of the prepared food in meal-size packages or serve part of the food immediately and freeze the rest."

Turning to specific directions, the specialist said, "Place food to be frozen in the dish in which it is to be cooked, but first line the pan with heat-resistant freezer wrap.

"Press the food to the slope of the container to prevent air pockets. Pull the wrap over the food. Put edges of the wrap together and fold several times so the wrap lies directly on top of the food.

"Fold ends of the freezer wrap and seal with freezer tape. Label with the name of the food, date frozen and last date the food should be used for best eating quality. Freeze it immediately.

"After it has frozen, it may be removed from the container and returned to the freezer. Then when you are ready to use the food, remove the wrap and return to the container in which it is to be cooked. Cook the food without thawing," the specialist said.

She suggested some main dishes that freeze well are baked beans, lasagna, meat loaf and chicken a la king. These dishes may be stored in the freezer for six months at 0 degrees F. and below.

B.J. Crowley's HOROSCOPE

Week of November 10, 1974

SCORPIO--Those born under this sign have a kind heart. Their greatest weakness is in wanting to be the boss, and often demanding that things be done their way. Success for the Scorpion who wants it is almost inevitable.

SCORPIO--Oct. 23 to Nov. 22 -- A good week for fun. Don't concern yourself with money matters. Volunteer work proves extremely rewarding.

SAGITTARIUS--Nov. 23 to Dec. 21--If someone has suffered defeat at your hand, be kind. Demands of others seem extremely great. Do what you can.

CAPRICORN--Dec. 22 to Jan. 19 -- Don't give up on a project you have begun that seems difficult. You can succeed if you give it enough time.

AQUARIUS--Jan. 20 to Feb. 18 -- Your self confidence increases. You feel wanted and useful. Make an effort to make those around you happy.

PISCES--Feb. 19 to March 20 -- Expect an active and productive week. Your health should improve now. If someone proves disloyal, tell them you no longer wish to be associated with them.

ARIES--March 21 to April 20 -- Don't let someone talk you out of a project you want to begin. Much can be accomplished this week if you take time to plan ahead.

TAURUS--April 21 to May 20 -- Keep your spirits up. Ignore gossip and rumors. Keep your activities and plans to yourself during this period.

GEMINI--May 21 to June 20 -- Stop being wasteful. Before you discard any item make certain it is not something you will need to use later. Take a conservative approach.

CANCER--June 21 to July 22 -- If you have been thinking of changing your career, this could be the time to do it. Several opportunities are available.

LEO--July 23 to Aug. 22 -- Relax! You have no reason to be nervous and jumpy. Life should strike an even keel, putting you in a position to achieve some important goals.

VIRGO--Aug. 23 to Sept. 22 -- You must stop taking life so seriously. A good sense of humor can help carry you through a touchy family situation.

LIBRA--Sept. 23 to Oct. 22 -- Let others settle their own disputes. Otherwise, you could end up in the middle of something that doesn't concern you.

Morning TOPS Holds Session

The Morning TOPS Queen of the Week was Polly Driver with a 2 3/4 lb. loss. Runners-up were Shirley Rice and Cindy Lee with 2 1/2 lb. loss. The club loss for the week was 17 lbs.

Queen of the Month was Jerry Oliver with 11 1/2 lb. loss. Runner-up was Shirley Rice with 10 3/4 lb. loss. Total weight loss for the club was 69 1/4 lbs.

Barbara Maley received her 6-months perfect attendance award. Cindy Lee was awarded her 1st 10 lb. loss star, Shirley Rice her second one.

Eva Whipple received a charm for her bracelet for being the K.O.P.S. member who has stayed nearest her goal for the last month.

Happy Drop decorations were given out to those members who had weighed less at the end of the month than they had when they weighed in at the beginning of the month.

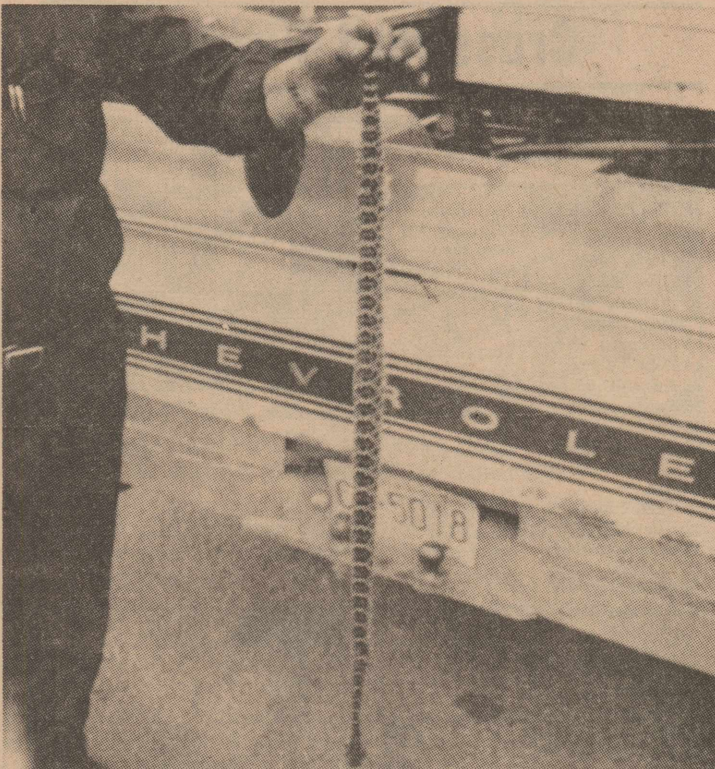

The Blue Team won in the recent weight loss contest, with Cathy Gaskin being high winner on the team.

Four visitors were present at the meeting: Elizabeth Reynolds, Mickey Deason, E. Fisher and G. Hubbard.

Frenzied activity and discussion are the keynotes of all meetings for the next few months with all the fund raising projects the club has in mind: concerts, Christmas bazaar, bake and garage sales, to mention just a few.

Notwithstanding the delectable, edible goodies the club sells from time to time, TOPS members have proved repeatedly that their resistance to fat-making foods is really paying off.

The Lieutenant Governor's Report

By BILL HOBBY

Although Texas continues to rank at the top of all states in the location of new industries, we continue to fall behind in average per capita income compared to the nation.

In 1972, Texans had a per capita income which was more than $500 below the national average.

Increasing the income of our people must be one of the most important goals of this state. To achieve this we must create more and better paying jobs, either through the attraction of still more new industry or the expansion of existing industry.

During 1974-75, the State of Texas will spend only 6.5 cents per capita on its industrial development programs. The national average is 25 cents.

A study commissioned by the Texas Industrial Commission has shown that other states have a competitive advantage because of their ability to provide start-up training programs for new or expanding industry. Industry is understandably reluctant to assume the full burden for completely retraining a basically agricultural labor force, such as ours, in the skills required for mass production. Other states are assisting their industries to overcome this problem.

Texas has outstanding occupational-technical training capability in our 44 junior colleges, the four campuses of the Texas State Technical Institute and many of the independent school districts.

The Texas Industrial Commission, in December of 1971, established cooperative agreements through the Texas Education Agency to coordinate the start-up industrial training capabilities of these institutions.

With limited funds and staff, this program has created 4,900 new job opportunities. An economic impact analysis of only eight new industries and three expanded industries shows a total of 3,987 new jobs created and a return on the investment of $612,976 in local and $373,741 in state taxes.

Texas must develop a start-up training program that is truly competitive with other states. We should be able to say to industry, "Come to Texas. While you are building or equipping your plant, we will train the workers so that, when you open your doors, you can start in the black". At the same time, we would be providing steady, good paying jobs for our people.

A proposed training program for Texas has been developed. Under this program, each individual start-up training program would terminate when the plant's staffing needs are met. Because of such short-term, highly specialized training, the cost, per trainee, would be much less than the usual cost of vocational training.

The state's investment would bring a healthy rate of return. Fifteen thousand trainees would produce 15,000 new jobs and a total of $2,070,000 in new state

HEAD BOOKKEEPER AT LIVE OAK—Mrs. Carolyn Calhoun has been the head bookkeeper at Live Oak State Bank since it opened July 31. She has taken special courses sponsored by the American Banking Institute at Del Mar College. Mrs. Calhoun is married, has three sons, and her hobbies are growing all kinds of plants (inside or outside her home), bowling and sewing.

Veterans Population Figures

Latest Veterans Administration veterans population figures show Texas has moved past Illinois into fourth place in national ranking in number of veterans. California, New York and Pennsylvania continue to rank first, second and third, according to A.A. Hunter, Director Regional Office, Houston.

Texas with 1.55 million veterans now exceeds Illinois by 1,000. "Veteran Population," published semi-annually in June and December, reveals California now has 3.27 million veterans, compared to 2.51 million for runnerup New York. Third-ranked Pennsylvania has 1.74 million.

States with the fewest veterans, according to the VA publication, are Alaska, 41,000; Wyoming, 49,000; and Vermont, 62,000.

As fiscal year 1974 ended, there were 29.27 million veterans and the largest group, 13.76 million, came from World War II. The second largest group comprises 7.09 million Vietnam Era veterans (service after Aug. 4, 1964).

Korean Conflict veterans (June 27, 1950 - Jan. 31, 1955) numbering 5.96 million, are the next largest group. About 460,000 of this group served during both the Korean Conflict and the Vietnam era, while another 1.25 million Korean Conflict veterans also served during World War II.

Other groups in order of size include 3.10 million veterans who served between the Korean Conflict and the Vietnam era only; 1.08 million World War I veterans; and 1,000 Spanish-American War veterans, the smallest group.

The VA pamphlet lists the average age for all veterans as 45.5 years with most, 4.90 million, in the 50 to 54 years age group. The next largest group includes 4.20 million veterans 45 to 49 years old, followed by 3.62 million veterans who are an average 25 to 29 years of age.

Spanish-American War veterans are the oldest group, averaging 94.5 years old, contrasting with 48,000 Vietnam-era veterans under 20 years of age.

Never argue with friends over a nonessential.

Why does a doctor flash a light into a patient's eyes? By observing the tiny blood vessels in the eye he can find clues to disease elsewhere in the body.

New synthetic sweetener, aspartame, has been approved by the Food and Drug Administration. Unlike saccharin or cyclamates, it is metabolized as a protein, and even has a few calories -- but it is 180 times sweeter than sugar!

Electric sensor to monitor the heart rate is worn on small "bracelet" recently developed for heart patients. At irregularities, alarm warns patient to rest or take medication.

Some doctors suggest that sun-tanning (carefully, in stages) can reduce blood pressure and blood serum cholesterol levels for days, or even weeks. But ALL recommend caution in the sun.

Two recent research studies -- with more than 600 elementary school-children in Arizona, and with Canadian soldiers on maneuvers in the Arctic -- indicate that individuals given Vitamin C had fewer colds, or shorter ones, than those who did not.

If you're going to take Vitamin C this winter, start now before the sniffle-season. We're ready for you at

Fix-It Tip

Most people think of flagstone when they think of a garden path. Flagstone is expensive. Cut costs by using them as steppingstones instead of making a solid path.

Stones that are placed on top of the ground should be thick and heavy for stability. Better, neater, safer and not requiring as much thickness is a walk that is set into the ground so that the top is flush with ground level.

Dig out enough earth to allow for the thickness of the material plus two inches for a bed of sand. The sand will take care of irregularities in thickness. Make a wood form for the sides of the walk before you pour the sand.
