KILLED HER She Wouldn't Pay Him $2

FORT WORTH (AP) — A restaurant check which Michael Foster Vines was left to pay led him into the first of two murders to which he admitted guilt Thursday. He killed the second woman because she wouldn't pay him $2.

Vines, 21, entered guilty pleas that he killed Mrs. Linda Nunziata, 22, on May 6, 1972, and Mrs. Eunetta Franks, also 22, on Feb. 4, 1974.

TWO LIFE TERMS
Criminal District Court Judge Byron Matthews accepted the pleas and assessed Vines two life sentences.

Matthews also revoked a one-year probation sentence assessed Vines in January for possession of a prohibited drug.

In a statement read into the court records, Vines said he killed Mrs. Nunziata after becoming angry because she and another woman had left him to pay a breakfast check. He said he had other reasons, too, but "that was just the straw that broke the camel's back."

Mrs. Nunziata, a waitress, was found in her Arlington apartment brutally beaten and stabbed. A butcher knife was one of the weapons.

TRIED TO STRANGLE HER
In a statement on the Franks death, Vines said he went to her home to sell her some drugs. He said they both took some and then he asked her for the money—he was to have been paid $2—but she replied she didn't have any.

Vines said he tried to strangle her with a cord, but failed and then grabbed a butcher knife and stabbed her until the blade became bent.

During his stay in the county jail, Vines tried once to escape by breaking free from an investigator who had taken him from his cell for questioning.

The investigator said Vines rushed out the back door of the jail but stopped and surrendered after warning shots were fired.

He also has been charged in Quincy, Ill., with the killing of a woman there. Illinois law enforcement officials, however, have indicated they do not plan to prosecute unless Texas authorities release him.

Charge Husband With Kidnaping

SHERMAN, Tex. (AP) — A double search that began with a knife point abduction Wednesday was over early today after a 23-year-old woman was found unharmed and her estranged husband jailed.

Officers said Allen Carraway, 24, was taken to the Grayson County jail this morning after being arrested by Department of Public Safety patrolmen.

His estranged wife, Ruth Carraway, was found unharmed earlier in the day when she awoke beneath a brush pile near U.S. 82, walked to a house, and phoned her family.

She was taken from her job at the Johnson & Johnson Southwest surgical plant here Wednesday by a man who held a knife at her throat and said, "Don't try to stop me or I'll cut her guts out."

Proposed Athletic Budget $113,015

School board members heard another discussion of the workmen's compensation insurance and reviewed the proposed athletic budget for the coming year Thursday night.

Jerry Mancini and Jimmy Parks again presented details on the insurance in a lengthy work session for board members. The board must make a decision on the insurance by July 1.

The proposed athletic budget, although up some from last year, is not an all-time high for an athletic budget here. It showed increases like all other sections of the school budget for the coming year.

The total proposed budget for the coming year in athletics is $113,015 with last year's budgeted at $6,892. The increase amounts to $16,123.

Football is budgeted for the most money but also anticipates the largest receipts. The budget for football calls for $33,838.40; basketball, $10,757.75; baseball, $4,787; volleyball, $7,534.40; golf, $2,099.20; tennis, $3,763; track, $9,932.30; cheerleaders, $1,744.95 and miscellaneous, $35,158.

Total receipts anticipated include $32,540 in football and $2,740 in all others. The local maintenance subsidy will be $74,973, up $11,331 from last year.

Included in miscellaneous is a new school bus estimated to cost $11,008.

Nixon's Talks With Soviets Open June 27

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon's summit talks with Soviet leaders will open June 27, the White House announced today.

The date is several days later than expected — an adjustment caused by Nixon's plans to tour the Middle East during mid-June.

The Moscow talks, expected to last about a week, will be the third in a series of summit meetings between Nixon and Soviet leader Leonid Brezhnev.

The first summit was held at the Kremlin in 1972 and was followed by the second set of talks when Brezhnev visited the United States last year.

Deputy Press Secretary Gerald L. Warren read the one-paragraph joint announcement of the summit date as White House officials continued to turn aside questions about the timing of Nixon's Middle East trip.

Milk Money Tied To Nixon

WASHINGTON (AP) — The staff of the Senate Watergate committee has concluded that contributions to President Nixon's 1972 re-election campaign by dairy cooperatives were apparently directly linked to Nixon's decision to raise milk prices in 1971.

A draft report by the committee's staff written principally by Democratic staff members, also said there appeared to be serious deficiencies in President Nixon's defense of the price increase.

The 360-page draft report, the product of months of behind-the-scenes investigation by the Watergate committee, was circulated today to members of the committee, and a copy of it was obtained by The Associated Press.

The report said the dairy cooperatives "committed at least several million dollars... in an effort to secure the favor of the President and his administration in connection with favorable treatment on key matters of concern to the dairy industry."

The report said the dairy cooperatives continued their contributions to the President's campaign through 1972 "partly to honor the earlier commitment and partly to seek a favorable resolution of a Justice Department antitrust suit filed against the leading dairy co-op early that year."

Israeli-Syrian Troop Separation Pact Inked

GENEVA, Switzerland (AP) — Syria and Israel signed an historic U.S.-negotiated disengagement pact today committing them to end the fighting on the Golan Heights and move toward lasting peace in the Middle East.

A half hour after the signing, the guns that boomed across the bleak and barren front for the past 81 days fell silent, an Israeli military communiqué said.

DUELS FIZZLE

Artillery duels that started in the early morning continued intermittently past the deadline and finally fizzled out altogether, newsmen reported from the front.

A United Nations spokesman said all signatures were completed at 6:45 a.m. EDT after a last-minute delay caused by Syria's apparent reluctance to sign the pact in the presence of newsmen.

The snag had developed about 30 minutes earlier after Israeli representatives had signed the disengagement agreement. The Syrians, expected to follow, sat still and made no move.

CLEARED UP

At that time, Lt. Gen. Ennio Silasvuo of Finland, commander of the United Nations Emergency Force in the Middle East who chaired the meeting, announced a 15-minute recess.

Newsmen were asked to leave the marbled council hall of the Palais des Nations, the Geneva U.N. headquarters.

And shortly thereafter the problem was cleared up, and the agreement negotiated by Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger in a marathon peace mission was signed.

Signing of the pact is expected to end 80 days of fighting on the Heights, start a prisoner exchange and move a permanent exchange a step closer to the troubled area.

On Saturday, Israeli and Syrian military delegations begin five days of talks on the disengagement timetable and on precise demarcation lines for thinning out of forces.

The troop separation agreement says all its provisions are to be implemented by June 25.

Israel and Syria formally endorsed the pact on Thursday, one day after agreement by the negotiating teams was announced in Jerusalem and Washington.

The Syrian endorsement came at a 10-hour session of President Hafez Assad's ruling Baath party and Israeli approval on a 76 to 36 vote in the Knesset, or parliament.

Israeli Premier Golda Meir, 76, who supported the Egyptian and Syrian disengagements, said the Knesset debate was the last session she would attend before Premier-designate Yitzhak Rabin takes over the Israeli government.

The disengagement agreement contains these points:

—A land, sea and air ceasefire that both sides will "scrupulously observe."

—A rearrangement and separation of Israeli and Syrian forces along the 40-mile front. American officials say Israel will evacuate territory it captured in the October war, as well as the city of Quneitra and six or seven villages captured in the 1967 war.

—Return of all wounded prisoners of war, supervised by the International Committee of the Red Cross within 24 hours after the signing. The morning after military working group completes its tasks, all remaining prisoners will be returned. The prisoners involved include 73 Israelis and 408 Syrians, Moroccans and Iraqis.

—Control by each side of its own air space.

—Repatriation within 10 days of the signing of the bodies of prisoners who have died.

The two sides continue to differ over the type of U.N. presence in the buffer zone. The Syrians have spoken of U.N. "observers," while Israel wants a U.N. "force" to actively protect the truce from violations.

Contention Made By 118th Court Overruled By Kirk

BULLETIN

Mrs. Margaret Ray, chief deputy county clerk, late this morning testified that, except for this year, the printer always had sent a separate package of absentee ballots.

This year, 20 packages of ballots were received for voting places. Mrs. Ray said. So Mrs. Chloe Newton, deputy county clerk, allegedly, Mrs. Ray said, opened each package and took ballots from the top for absentee voting.

The ballot found loose in the county clerk's office was ballot number 701, Mrs. Ray said. Box 8 had ballots numbered 701 to 1,325.

This information was the only proof offered that 701 was an absentee ballot.

By JOHN EDWARDS

District Judge Weldon Kirk, Sweetwater, this morning overruled the contention 118th District Court lacked jurisdiction in the election contest because of the date the contest petition was filed.

The trial over the lost and found ballot, which would be Peggy Crittenden and M. Fern Cox for the Democratic nomination for district clerk, continued in the Howard County Courthouse.

William L. Kerr Sr., the Midland attorney representing Mrs. Crittenden, and Gail Jones, who along with Richard M. Steward represents incumbent District Clerk Cox, centered their arguments around legal considerations early this morning.

Noting the lack of appellate level decisions to rely on, Jones presented a letter from the Texas Secretary of State Office enforcing the argument for a later filing deadline.

Kerr presented an old opinion rendered by a state appellate court in San Antonio based on an earlier but he said similar version of the Texas Election Code. The election contest was dismissed in that case.

The Midland attorney pointed to the impossibility of appealing the district court decision to the Court of Civil Appeals in Eastland in time for a runoff of the race in the second Democratic Primary Saturday.

"The only runoff election which is authorized by statute would have been tomorrow," Kerr said.

As interpreted by Kerr, state laws concerning the election contest "are unworkable and impractical," Jones said.

"But, of course, we have to construe the statutes in a practical sense, not in an impractical sense," Jones added.

Kerr saw "no reason" the (See COURT, Pg. 2-A, Col. 1)

'Buy In Big Spring' Push Formally Gets Under Way

A 'Buy in Big Spring' campaign was launched here Tuesday evening by The Big Spring Herald.

The campaign will continue for eight weeks through the advertising and editorial pages of The Herald, with emphasis being centered on the customer, values being offered by local business firms, and the convenience of shopping at home for better services.

The campaign was officially kicked off during a dinner meeting at the Settles Hotel, an event that attracted an estimated 100 persons.

Louis Capone, president of Media Promotions of Austin, spoke to the gathering on "How to Win Customers and Increase Sales."

LOSING MONEY?
He suggested the local merchants might be losing money because of several factors, all customer-related.

"You need to convince the customer that Big Spring is the place to buy. But to do this you must first win the customer," Capone stated.

"We, as a general rule, do business with the people we like, and personality plays a major role in the likes and dislikes of a person," he pointed out.

As a result, he noted, it is impossible, without a pleasing personality to develop successful human relations at any level of social or business interchange.

"The techniques for making the sale can be learned without personality and charm, the ratio of attempted sales to completed sales of products and good ideas remain unsold and fall into oblivion," Capone stressed.

Personality, and the ingredients which make up this, are two very important factors in the selling process.

Among the leading ingredients leading to a good personality are good health, attitude, happiness, self image, personal magnetism, enthusiasm, tolerance, friendliness, sensitivity, patience, tact, consideration, courtesy and posture.

He said that through exercising these good practices customers can be developed and they can be continued as good customers through the constant renewal of these elements.

BACKGROUND
Capone has a background of a quarter of a century in advertising and public relations. He reminded his listeners that the customer was the most important persons in the store.

He listed the ten sins of the sales persons, among them the prospect that the customer does not really want to buy, a lack of enthusiasm, lack of product knowledge, pre-judging the prospective buyer, failure to see the prospect's point of view and failure to close the sale.

Capone was introduced by W. S. (Dub) Pearson, publisher of The Herald.

Local firms and businesses participating in the eight-week program include Prager's, Nancy Hanks, Gibbs and Weeks, Carter Furniture, Wright's Pharmacy, Stanley Hardware, Elmo Wasson, Blum's Jewelers, Zacks, Big Spring Hardware, Hemphill's, Wells, Montgomery Ward, J&K Show Store, Big Spring Savings Association, T.G. & Y. Stores, First Federal Savings and Loan, Good Housekeeping Shop, Gibson's Discount, Professional Pharmacy, Western Auto, Western Mattress, Zale's Jewelers, Security State Bank, Smallwood's Western Wear, First National Bank, Big Spring Western Wear and Jimmy's.

Check The Changes, You May Not Vote Same Place

For the Democratic Primary runoffs Saturday, many of the voting boxes have been combined.

Voters from several voting precincts will be casting ballots at the same places.

Lee Porter, Howard County Democratic Chairman, listed the voting places like this:

In commissioner precinct one, all registered voters in boxes One, Eight, 12, 13 and 17 will vote at the North Side Fire Station.

Because there is a runoff between incumbent Bill Bennett and Ike Rupard for the office of county commission in precinct two, there will be boxes at Coahoma, Forsan and Sand Springs while all city voters in boxes Two, 15 and 18 will vote at Washington Place School.

In commissioner precinct three, the 18th and Main Street Fire Station will be a polling place for registered voters in boxes Three, 16 and 19.

In commissioner precinct four, registered voters in boxes Four, Six, Seven, 11, 20 and 22 will cast their ballots at the Fourth and Nolan Streets Fire Station.

Voting hours will be from 7 a.m., until 7 p.m.

HAIR TURNED OVER TO FBI

Key To Honeymoon Death?

EWING TOWNSHIP, N.J. (AP) — A possible key to the mystery death of Mrs. Patricia Altonowski Giesick, involving a weird combination of events in Texas, Louisiana and New Jersey, was in the hands of the FBI in Washington today.

The body of Mrs. Giesick was removed from its grave here Thursday just long enough to obtain a sample of her hair. Then the body was buried again.

The hair was turned over to the FBI for comparison with hair found on one of two automobiles her husband rented in New Orleans during the honeymoon there.

HIT-AND-RUN
Mrs. Giesick was killed by a hit-and-run driver in a lonely part of New Orleans while on her honeymoon with the Texas man. Mercer County Prosecutor Wilbur Mathias said the body hair sample was given to a New Orleans detective, John Dillman.

The hair, Mathias said, will be compared with that on a car rented under a false name by Mrs. Giesick's husband, Claudius James Giesick Jr., 26. She was his fourth wife.

Giesick reported his bride playfully ran across a road and was struck by a car without lights.

The first lead came when he found that Giesick had rented two cars when the couple came to New Orleans for their honeymoon. They had been driving one the night of Mrs. Giesick's death; the hair was found on the bumper of the second.

Dillman then traced Giesick to Dallas, where he found him living with his third wife, Katherine, from whom he allegedly had not been divorced.

BAD CHECKS
Giesick was arrested on bigamy charges. He also was accused of passing bad checks.

Dillman also found that a few days before the woman's death, Giesick had taken out two insurance policies on her life, one for $200,000 and the other for $100,000.

FALSE NAME
In New Orleans, Asst. Dist. Atty. Ralph Whalen said an Orleans Parish grand jury will resume hearing the results of Dillman's investigation next Thursday after the FBI analysis of the hair samples is completed.

New Orleans police confirmed Thursday that a self-dedicated minister in Texas, Samuel C. Corey, 40, of Dallas also was in New Orleans on the weekend of the hit-and-run death.

Corey, who has told police he married the Giesicks last January, was freed on $3,500 bail after surrendering to Dallas authorities last Wednesday in connection with a morals charge. The former massage parlor operator was accused of promoting prostitution.

FALSE NAME
New Orleans police said Giesick gave Corey "on or before the day" Mrs. Giesick was killed, one of the two cars the bridegroom had rented under the false name.

Officers said Corey admitted being in New Orleans at that time, but claimed he was on business and did not visit the couple.

Drug Raids In Houston

HOUSTON (AP) — City police narcotics officers, following several months of undercover work, started a series of raids today on suspected dope peddlers.

Capt. B. G. Bond said 24 persons were arrested in early morning raids and the arrests were continuing. Of those arrested, he said, 13 had been named in sealed grand jury indictments alleging the sale of heroin or cocaine or both.

The others arrested today probably would be charged with possession of drugs, he said.

Unstoppable Image Intact

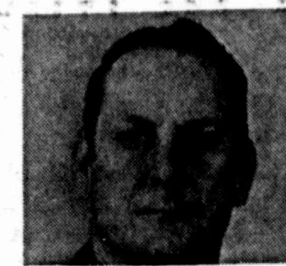

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP) — Flamboyant businessman Glenn W. Turner's unstoppable image remains intact. A jury beset with discord has given the Orlando promoter and seven of his associates a mistrial.

But the federal government kept its brakes on the 8th-grade dropout who convinced thousands to invest in his cosmetics and motivational businesses.

When the nine-month trial on mail fraud and conspiracy charges floundered on a hung jury Thursday, U.S. District Judge Gerald B. Tjoflat announced that a new trial would begin here on Aug. 5.

Re-Elect BILL BENNETT

County Commissioner Precinct 2

I'm depending on you for re-election. Help me use the experience I gained during my first term in office.

IT'S NOT TRUE!

Read The Facts

To The Voters Of The 63rd. Legislative District:

I appeal to the intelligent voters of this district to use logic in voting on June 1st.

I was SHOCKED and APPALLED at the HOSTILE and SLANDEROUS political advertisement paid for by JOE R. LEMLEY of San Angelo, Texas, who lives OUTSIDE of this district, claiming to be Chairman of a POLITICAL COMMITTEE that IS NOT on file with the Secretary of State in Austin and is therefore a VIOLATION OF THE TEXAS ELECTION CODE.

The statements he made are completely FALSE AND RIDICULOUSLY ABSURD. The tax records of Borden County are a matter of public record and are on file in the Tax Office.

I stand on my honor and integrity as County Judge that the taxes have been LOWERED since I have been in office and not raised as Mr. Lemley would have you to believe. Ranch land in Borden County is taxed at a rate of just under four cents (.04) per acre. These facts are recorded for you to inspect, and I INVITE you to do so if you have any doubts or questions concerning the tax structure in Borden County.

I have run my race consistently on my own integrity, experience and sincerity, and I will continue to do so, and, I am shocked that some who oppose my candidacy would sanction such hostile and slanderous language. I have no use for mud-slinging, nor do I feel that our government has use for it. I want to serve you, the 63rd Legislative District. I have lived in this district most of my life and I have strong family ties here, naturally, I am concerned about the people of West Texas and their problems. Again, I ask you to VOTE for MATURITY and EXPERIENCE in government. The seriousness of this office and the man who fills it is not to be taken lightly. It calls for dignity, truth and honor. I believe I am a candidate who represents these qualities. I strongly urge ALL DEMOCRATS to make yourself known — VOTE JUNE 1st for election contest petition could not have been filed before the deadline he felt the statutes required.

"Had the recount changed anything perhaps these arguments might be more apt," Kerr said of statements Jones made in court.

As Kerr remarked, "Mrs. Crittenden won by the tremendous landslide total of one," according to the canvass by the Democratic Executive Committee.

Cox petitioned for a recount, but the recount only added six votes to the total for each candidate, leaving the margin of victory for Mrs. Crittenden unchanged. Later, Mrs. Margaret Ray, chief deputy county clerk, found a loose ballot in the county clerk's office.

After Judge Kirk overruled Kerr's argument to lack of court jurisdiction due to the date the petition was filed, Kerr presented other arguments presented in the defendant's answer.

"The (plaintiff's) filing does not say whose ballot that was, that was found, or who had it for two weeks," Kerr said. "It wasn't present in the ballot box, and we don't think we should have to present proof about something we don't know a darn thing about."

Following a short break, Mrs. Ray began testifying. Ten exhibits, including all the paraphernalia for a absentee balloting, were accepted by the court. Mrs. Ray gave a detailed explanation of absentee voting procedures and the 300 applications for absentee ballots were presented.

From this stack of applications, Mrs. Ray extracted the ballot she found among them. Mrs. Ray said she had been looking through applications for "federal postcard" applications for military personnel.

The county clerk's office must send ballots for the second Democratic Primary to all military men and women who used these application forms to vote absentee in the first Democratic Primary.

Judge Kirk was presiding for Judge Ralph W. Caton who disqualified himself from hearing the case.

Henley's Dad Is Innocent Of Assault

HOUSTON (AP) — Elmer Wayne Henley Sr., father of one of the defendants in Houston's mass murder case, has been acquitted of a charge of assault to murder.

State District Court Judge Joseph M. Guarino found Henley, a construction worker, innocent Thursday of a charge that he attempted to kill A.A. Palmer, 64, Henley's former father-in-law.

Palmer, 64, a preacher, testified that Henley fired at least three shots at him last May in northwest Houston. Henley denied the accusation.

The verdict came after two days of testimony in the non-jury trial.

Henley, 35, told newsmen a divorce from his second wife, Emma, Palmer's daughter, became final two weeks ago.

Henley is the father of Elmer Wayne Henley Jr., 18, who has been indicted on murder charges in the deaths of six of the 27 victims in the sex-torture murder case uncovered here last August.

The younger Henley is in jail at San Antonio awaiting trial.

Model Airplane Contest To Be Held In Midland

The West Texas Regional Model Airplane Championship contest will be held at Simon Field, Hogan Park, Midland, starting at 10 a.m., Saturday and Sunday, June 8-9. Competition will continue until 5 p.m., each day.

Forty-two engraved trophies will be awarded at the close of the two-day event.

The championships are for U-Control planes only. The planes are powered by two cycle, methanol alcohol fueled engines and controlled by 50 foot to 60 foot steel cables. Engine displacement is from .15 cubic inch to .40 cubic inch, which turn from 15,000 to 26,000 rpm with a rated horsepower of 1.2 for a six ounce engine.

All flyers are invited to the competition. First, second and third place will be awarded in the 14 events. Events scheduled are two classes of combat in two age brackets. Combat is flown by two pilots in the same circle with eight feet crepe paper streamers attached to their planes. The object is to cut the streamer from the opponents plane with the propeller. Cutting all of the streamer results in a "kill" and ends the match. This event is one of the most exciting are expected to compete, and will fly the AMA stunt pattern. Flying scale models will also be judged and flown on Saturday. These models have many hours of research and building skill in their construction. Military models are the most frequently built by scale modelers.

Balloon Burst will be flown both days. Three balloons are placed from one-and-a-half-to-eight feet above ground suspended by poles. The model plane controlled from 60 feet away is used to burst the balloons. The shortest elapsed time wins the event. Tommy Morgan, ex-Midlander and former National Stunt Champion, is thought to hold the Texas Balloon Burst record at 7.2 seconds.

This contest is sponsored by the Midland Flying Chaparrals Model Club. There is no admission charge and spectators are welcome.

Three From Here Attain Degrees

COLLEGE STATION — Three students from the Big Spring area received degrees at Texas A & M University's spring commencement exercises.

A total of 1,961 degrees were awarded, including 1,626 undergraduate, 263 master's and 72 doctorates.

Big Spring area students receiving undergraduate degrees were Ronny W. Crowover, veterinary medicine, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Crowover, 1816 Benton; Kelly J. Gaskins, animal science, son of Joe Gaskins, Star Rt., Knott; and Robert T. Winn, veterinary medicine, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Winn, Coahoma.

No Excuse For Voter Apathy

Considerably less than 50 per cent of those holding voting certificates in Howard County bothered to go to the polls in the First Primaries earlier this month.

Second Primaries have a way of turning people off. All signs point to the fact that there will be no stampede of the electorate toward the polls in tomorrow's election, although party representatives in two important races are still to be determined.

Voter apathy is something that perplexes students of government and causes candidates to tear their hair in frustration.

If the 10,000 plus in Howard County who ignored the First Primaries don't think their votes are important, they should reason how much impact they could have had in just one of the races if two of them, if they were so amind, had waded their opinions and voted as one. The district clerk's race was that close.

One defeated candidate expressed the belief that he would have been returned to office had many of the people who said they supported him in spirit but not with a pencil in a voting booth, had decided to go to the trouble of showing up at the polls.

Those still in contention for positions on the ballot in the general election in November have continued to work hard. The people assigned to supervise the elections and count the ballots are prepared to work just as hard and as long as the electorate wants them to.

Voter apathy hasn't yet led to voter disenfranchisement anywhere in America, but it conceivably could. All who have the privilege of casting a ballot should take the trouble to do so. If they don't they really have no right to question the decision of those candidates elected to office.

Soviets Blame Israel

The Soviet Union's official reaction to the massacre of Israeli children at Maalot, Israel, was just what could have been anticipated. Its spokesmen blamed Israel for the whole incident and condemned Premier Golda Meir for not meeting the demands of the terrorists who also were killed.

"The perfidious actions of the Israeli military have led to a tragedy," Tass, the official Red news agency reported.

It's nothing but wishful thinking on the part of the Western World to expect a decent reaction from the Kremlin on any issue involving Israel.

They have backed the anti-Israel nations on every issue in the past.

To further display the nation's complete antipathy toward Israel, Soviet police and security forces arrested 26 Moscow Jews who protested the massacre near the Lebanese Embassy in Moscow.

Such attitudes on the part of the Kremlin can only make it more difficult to control terrorists. The Soviet Union's hard attitude also tends to complicate and delay talks with the United States on arms control and expansion of the current detente.

Reflecting On Reunion

Around The Rim

John Edwards

After a sometimes interesting weekend in Dallas, I have caught a severe case of the summer slumps.

IT ALL started Friday afternoon after I finished "dumpling in" Tarzan photos and a story on the movie page, threw my clothes in the car, rolled down the windows and zoomed east across empty West Texas.

At Fort Worth, I stopped at a married friend's house. All my friends are married, just about.

The friend, an advertising copy writer, had started painting in oils and taking photos of his two baby daughters. His mother-in-law related how a leading clothing store sold a dress left for alterations and had to pay the New York manufacturer to make one single dress to avoid a lawsuit. On to Dallas.

Saturday afternoon, I woke up at home.

Friend number two's wife said come to their house anytime that night. They were going to photograph a wedding at a church, but somebody would be at the house all the time.

TAKING THE 26-cent tollway, I arrived at Bill the furniture man's house at 10:30 p.m. There was somebody named Gibson, who was going to teach school in a one-room school in Wyoming. Gibson's date was six-feet tall and talking about entertaining business executives.

Overly-friendly Chris, formerly of New York City, taught occupational therapy and was leaving soon to study for a third degree in British Columbia, Canada.

Bill looked bored. And his wife, Cathy, smiled like she was enjoying the conversation, which Chris was dominating.

A lonely Scot tried to rape her, Chris said, but she diverted his attention by asking for a cigarette.

He went for one, came back and gave it to her. Yes, she stayed, because she really did want a cigarette, and they discussed his problem.

GARY, A Marine lieutenant just relieved of duties at Guantanamo Bay, Cuba, appeared at the door. I hadn't seen him since high school.

The former tank commander said he had been considered an outstanding officer.

But he commented once about Custer being the last example of divided command, and neither of two quarrelling senior officers appreciated the observation.

A bad report destroyed his future in the Marines. He was given a new assignment in North Carolina and stopped in Dallas to see family and friends.

Gary wondered out loud why he had come to the party, for lack of a better word, and went home.

Bill said he wanted to drive my new car, apparently relieved at finding an excuse to leave.

Back at the house, Gibson started talking about bow hunting and thought I was uncouth to hunt birds with a 12 gauge.

I left the gathering in a discussion over minorities about 3 a.m.

Tuesday morning in Big Spring, I woke up about the same time. I've felt lazy ever since.

My Answer

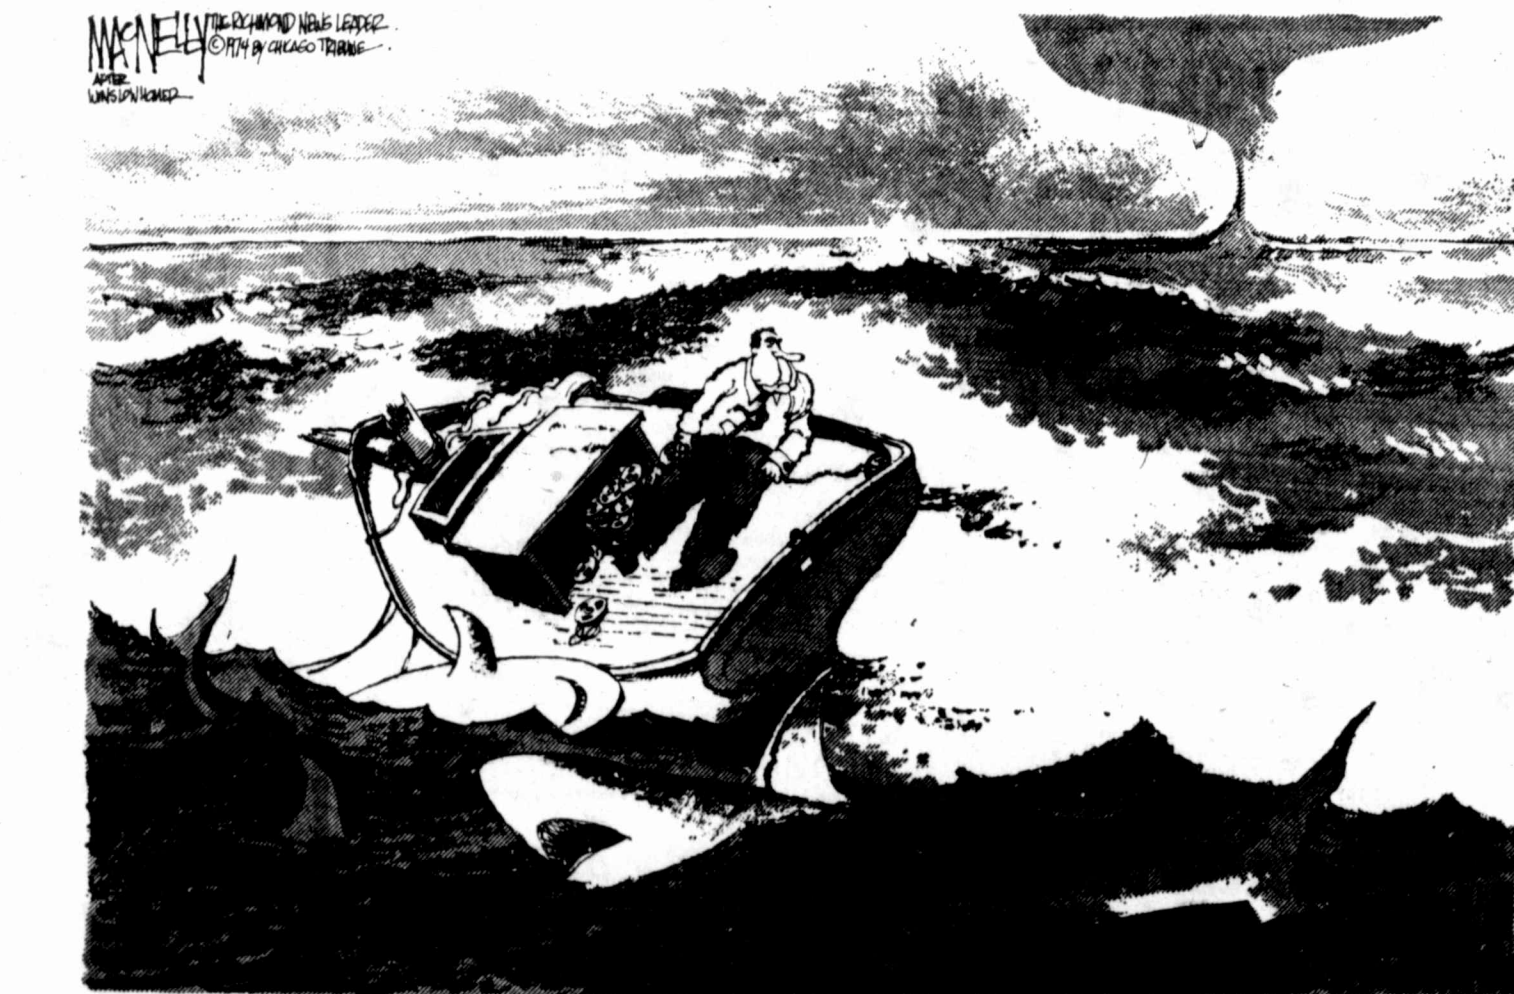

BILLY GRAHAM

Recently, I became a Christian. Now, out of my awakened conscience, a question has arisen. Three and a half years ago, when I was 24, I fell in love with a young man, with whom I had a physical relationship for nearly two years. We never married, although I thought we would. The question is — did that relationship between unmarried people cause me now to forfeit the right to marry? N.L.F.

I want you to read two Bible statements. The first is 1 Corinthians 5:1-8, and then 2 Corinthians 2:4-8. It's the story of an incident involving a sexual sin, in which Paul first denounces it, and later pleads for the understanding and love which would bring forgiveness and restoration.

Except for the specific sin of blasphemy against the Holy Spirit, there seems to be no sin for which forgiveness is not available. Your question goes beyond that, however, to the damage sin does and the lingering penalties it imposes — quite apart from the matter of soul salvation.

For you to refrain from marriage now, however, would seem to be an unnecessary atonement for your past sin. God has forgiven that — and has forgotten that. To forego marriage would not secure greater forgiveness nor lessen the seriousness of your mistake. Make a fresh start in your new life of faith.

I would pray for God's wisdom and direction in every facet of life. If marriage is in God's plan, you will know it, and can proceed accordingly.

Who Can Afford To Dream?

John Cunneff

NEW YORK (AP) — What seems to be missing from the lives of many Americans is the dream—the vision that tomorrow could only be better, the soul-deep conviction that they would participate in the future.

Like a kite flying out ahead, the dream tugged the dreamer into a new material reality: a new house, more money, education, a second car, a color TV set.

All through the 1960s families found that it paid to dream because there was an excellent chance of turning dreams into reality. America was always on the verge of something exciting.

The credit suppliers realized that money was needed to translate the dream, and so they made the down payment smaller, the terms easier. Buy now, pay later.

The stock market was like an elevator, lifting many people to new financial achievements. Everyone was playing the game. The number of shareholders doubled to 31 million.

Companies were formed just to provide a vehicle for investor money. New issues sometimes doubled their offering price in hours, the belief being their future was unlimited.

Some companies became conglomerates, assembling into one unit a medley of existing companies that was supposed to produce a new composition called synergism, in which the whole exceeded the sum of the parts.

Now, it seems, if the dream is still out there at all, the string is broken.

The various consumer surveys show conclusively that millions of Americans simply do not believe in the immediate future. They feel inflation is robbing them. Aren't the big increases in the essentials—food, housing, medicine?

The buying power of the production worker's paycheck is down 5.6 per cent in a year.

Education? Five thousand dollars for room-board-tuition at a prestige school? It's still a pretty dream, but who can afford it?

Forget buying that home for the time being. If you can get a mortgage at all, you probably can't afford the house. Save up for the down payment, and you need twice as much as a few years before.

Besides, there are a lot of bills to be paid, and it seems to be getting harder to pay them.

By-Pass No Sure Answer

Dr. G. C. Thosteson

Dear Dr. Thosteson: You wrote about surgery being an expensive way to lose weight. I had this surgery (the doctor called it a bypass) two years ago.

I have been ill for the two years since. I have colon spasms several times a week. I am seldom out of pain and have either diarrhea or constipation every day. Some days I have both.

My doctor told me I could eat anything I wanted in any quantity and still lose weight. So I did, and I gained 40 pounds the first year.

The second year I joined Weight Watchers and have lost 30 pounds. The cost has been $2,500. I have lost all hope of ever feeling well again. — S.D.

I've had more and more inquiries about this type of surgery lately — it is a matter of bypassing, or short-circuiting part of the intestine so that food can pass on through with fewer calories being absorbed from it.

It sounds, superficially, like an ideal situation for a hearty eater. Eat and still get thin! Most of the gimmick diets are, in one way or another, based on giving that same impression, that you can lose weight by being a glutton.

The fact is that this bypass surgery is a last resort when all else has failed. In some proportion of cases it is turning out successfully, and I have been chided by such patients for not urging it more enthusiastically. In some other cases it has failed. And in some there has been only temporary benefit or little real change.

I present today's letter as the other side of the coin — evidence that emphasizes some of the unexpected complications that can occur in some cases.

Contrary to what was formerly believed, a routine duodenal bypass is NOT necessary and, in fact, is not even wise.

The best rule is to use a duodenal bypass only when your doctor tells you to for some medicinal purpose — and in that case, he will tell you what to use, whether an acid or alkaline or medicated solution.

The natural fluids of the vagina are perfectly adequate to keep it clean so long as it is healthy. A douche is necessary only when something is wrong with it.

As for a douche before a pelvic examination — very definitely not. You doctor wants to examine you in your normal state, not with various fluids and cells rinsed away.

What about constipation? Many can be relieved of it, both mentally and physically, by reading the booklet, "The Way To Stop Constipation." For a copy write to Dr. Thosteson in care of the Big Spring Herald, enclosing a long self-addressed (use zip code), stamped envelope, and 25 cents in coin to cover printing and handling.

Dear Dr. Thosteson: Please discuss when and how often a woman should douche and with what. Is vinegar good to use and if so, what type, white or apple cider? At what age should douching begin? Should a woman douche before having a pelvic exam? — Mrs. S.H.

Historical Coincidence

Marquis Childs

WASHINGTON — By the kind of historical coincidence defying the fiction writer, on the 20th anniversary of what was perhaps the most momentous Supreme Court decision of this century the issue supposedly resolved is again a fierce storm center.

The decision in Brown vs. Board of Education overthrew the long-standing doctrine of "separate but equal" in school facilities, thereby opening the way to integration of blacks and whites in the nation's public schools.

BUSING IS the issue today with President Nixon defying the Congress. He is threatening to veto an education bill because of an amendment allowing broader scope to school busing than he considers right.

The decision in Brown vs. Board of Education was written by Chief Justice Earl Warren in 1954. Having served on the court only one year after his appointment by President Eisenhower, he succeeded in bringing a unanimous court behind the far-reaching decision.

Into that decision went Warren's deep conviction of the inequity perpetuated since reconstruction following the Civil War by "separate but equal." Closely involved in the politics of his native California and of the nation, Warren knew that "separate but equal" was a farce.

The chief justice was to see the high hopes of the historic decision frustrated in part at least by his fellow Californian, Richard Nixon. Eisenhower had taken a dim view of that decision and his vice president, if anything to the right of Eisenhower on domestic policy, had stood out against the sweeping changes Brown vs. Board of Education signified.

The integration decision stands as a monument to Warren's integrity and to his leadership of a court that was sometimes divided.

Through the turbulent '50s and '60s, he showed exceptional courage. The wrath of reactionaries and conservatives descended on him. His name was anathema in the South where billboards calling for his impeachment flourished.

THE CAREERS of the two Californians, one President of the United States, the other chief justice, have been curiously intertwined. At a critical point, Warren felt the sting of Nixon's political trickery.

As governor of his state and head of the California delegation, Warren in 1952 was on his way to Chicago with 70 delegate votes presumably at his disposal. If the two front runners, Ike and Sen. Robert A. Taft, failed to make it then Warren was a possible choice. He had been his party's vice presidential candidate in 1948 with Thomas E. Dewey at the head of the ticket.

Nixon, then a senator and a possible running mate with Ike, flew out to Denver to board the train carrying the California delegation. He lobbied delegates to break away from the favorite son candidacy of Warren and make an early showing for Eisenhower. This would give them real clout with the certain winner and with the incoming Republican administration.

Not long in discovering this attempt to take away his delegation, Warren declined to discuss it. Powerful Republican leaders hell bent to pick a national hero as a winning candidate rode roughshod over Taft. Any chance that Warren, a seasoned administrator and politician in what was soon to be the largest state in the union, might have had was quickly lost sight of.

In government service from his earliest years in the law, Warren has always lived within a government salary. Since his retirement five years ago, he has continued to live with the same quiet modesty.

A War Of Nerves

Robert Novak

WASHINGTON—Sovietologists here now suspect that the overt appearance of crated MIG-23s on a Soviet wharf in the Black Sea may be a signal for the U.S. to watch its step in delicate Mideast negotiations.

SPOTTED ROUTINELY by high-flying American cameras two weeks ago, the crated MIG-23s — perhaps the world's most sophisticated combat aircraft — could be destined for the Syrian port of Latakia. What makes that prospect so alarming is that Moscow has never cleared the MIG-23 for use outside the Soviet Union itself, with one apparent exception: East Germany, where the supersonic MIG-23 has been flown from Soviet bases by Soviet pilots.

When first spotted by U.S. satellites, officials here feared the half-dozen aircraft would be packed on a freighter, with Syria the likely destination. Now they are not so sure. With Secretary of State Henry Kissinger's negotiations for a Syrian-Israeli settlement nearing a climax, the Kremlin may be using the crated aircraft to convey this warning to the U.S.: give Moscow equal credit with the U.S. for the settlement, or there won't be any settlement.

In that case, the Syrian-Israeli mini-war could have quickly blown up into a major war, with the Soviet-manned MIG-23s thrown into battle as a dangerous element of escalation.

MILLS VS. TAX CUT

With the Treasury breathing sighs of relief, Rep. Wilbur D. Mills of Arkansas is now taking the position that this is no time for a personal income tax cut.

Democratic leaders in Congress are pushing an election-year tax reduction for wage-earners, and Senate passage is nearly certain. With heavy Democratic support in the House, chances of final approval may depend on Mills — Mr. Taxman on Capitol Hill as chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee.

Letters To Editor

Dear Sir:

It looks as if the old art of political sabotage has reared its ugly head on the local scene — this time in an open letter-type ad regarding the State Representative race this Saturday. It makes one wonder how many really good men have been ruined, politically and otherwise, by this type of hit-and-run political rugging in the name of good government, no less.

We sell ourselves short when we allow such smoke screens to cloud what our common sense tells us are the real issues in this election. We are electing a man to represent us in the State Legislature for the next two years. We need a man who is aware of the diversity of interests in this area — teachers, farmers, students, businessmen, truck drivers, professionals, housewives, maintenance, oil men, union, non-union.

To truly represent the rural people, that man would need to know something of the problems of farm subsidies, trapping, beef feeding and shipping, water supplies. In urban areas, the problems are somewhat different, calling for a familiarity with small businesses, the salaried man, city and school problems, housing, regional and inter-related governmental problems involving all communities.

Glenn Toombs is such a man. His experience as a director in the Permian Basin Regional Planning Commission has broadened him in such a way that makes him especially qualified as a representative from the diversified 63rd district. His awareness of the complexity of the area has caused him even now to see the need for keeping close to the people; for asking for and accepting advice from his fellow citizens who know their fields better than he.

His plan to maintain an office in three of the six counties in the district

(as provided by state law) is a sound one, reflecting his commitment to serve the interests of all the people.

Our fathers put strong emphasis on education, believing that each of us has the potential to make as intelligent a decision as those who make and enforce our law. We cannot afford to leave elections to those who supposedly know more than we do.

We, the voters, have a significant contribution we can make to the political arena that will discourage unethical practices. And that is a maintained attitude whereby we regret attempts to manipulate our votes by slick maneuvers which do not clarify issues in a straightforward way, but only stroke our fears of the unknown and at the same time obliterate good men from the political scene.

Sincerely,
Mrs. B. R. WARD

Dear EDITOR:

I am the lead guitarist for the band that played at the Bar-C Corral Saturday night. After seeing your article in Monday's (May 27) paper on page 14, we went to the police station to examine the "police activity report" on which you based the part of the article that concerns us.

We believe that publishing that part of the article was irresponsible journalism because (a) the person who telephoned the police station chose to remain anonymous, (b) police found no fight when they arrived, and (c) the article made no mention of either (a) or (b). We do not feel that we, the Bar-C, or our patrons deserve such adverse publicity when your report was based on so little factual information.

Thank You,
HERBERT J. WARD

Agnew Has Paid His Back Taxes, Newspaper Avers

BALTIMORE, Md. (AP) — Spiro T. Agnew has paid his back taxes to the Internal Revenue Service, a Baltimore newspaper said today.

The Baltimore Sun, quoting sources familiar with the case, said Agnew has complied fully with IRS demands, including payment of penalties and interest. The newspaper said it could not be determined how much Agnew paid.

The IRS has refused to comment since Agnew's resignation as vice president and plea of no contest to a tax evasion charge last Oct. 10.

The tax evasion case against Agnew related only to 1967. The Justice Department accused him of making $55,599 in 1967 and of owing $19,967.47 in taxes, while his return showed $26,099 in income and $6,416 in taxes owed.

The charge to which Agnew pleaded called for back payments of $25,200, including $13,551 in unpaid taxes for 1967 plus a 50 per cent penalty and a 6 per cent interest charge, the newspaper said.

Coahoma Couple On ABC Program

Marine Sgt. and Mrs. Kenneth Furlong of Coahoma will be on the Newlywed Game 1 p.m. June 10 on ABC.

Furlong, 21, and his wife, 19, live in Santa Anna, Calif. where he is based at El Toro. They won second place in the show, receiving a sewing machine and other household items. The couple were married last Jan. 12, and they were eligible for the taping of the show in mid-May.

Kenneth's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Furlong of Coahoma, and his wife's are Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Welch, also of Coahoma.

Kenneth's mother said her son wore his dress blues and his wife a "nice dress" on the show.

"It should be real colorful," she said Thursday.

WEATHER FORECAST — Rain or showers are forecast today for the southern Plains, Southeast and East. Warmer weather is forecast for Atlantic Coast states and the Southwest but most of the nation will have cooler weather.

What Does MIKE EZZELL CANDIDATE FOR STATE REPRESENTATIVE

HAVE TO SAY ABOUT
OUR PUBLIC SCHOOL
PROBLEMS?

"The last Legislature failed to take care of the problems of education as brought out by the Rodriguez decision of the Supreme Court. Texas is going to have to deal with that unfinished task this next session."

Mike Ezzell for State Representative in the June 1 Democratic primary.

The bidding:

2 ♣ Pass 2 NT Pass
6 ♣ Pass Pass Pass

Opening lead: King of ♠
A difference of a two or three per cent might not seem like much when you are deciding between two lines of play. However, when those few points mean the difference between making and going down in a slam, the swing is substantial.

South's bidding might have displayed a certain lack of finesse, but there cannot be any question of its efficacy. Once North made a negative response to his forcing two-bid, South scorned science in favor of bidding what he thought he could make. He was a trifle unlucky to find his partner with the wrong minor-suit jack.

West led the king of spades and, in response to his partner's encouraging signal of the seven, continued with the ace. Declarer ruffed and, since it seemed the contract hinged on a 3-3 diamond split, he proceeded to draw trumps. In an effort to tempt the opponents into an error, he led out all his trumps. However, West clung to his four diamonds, and when the ace-king-queen failed to extract all the opponents' cards in the suit, declarer conceded a diamond trick for down one.

Declarer could have improved his chances slightly. The diamond suit was more likely to break 4-2 than 3-3, so declarer can test the suit while giving himself the added shot that the defender who is short in diamonds has no more than one trump. Correct technique is for declarer to draw only one round of trumps before playing the three high diamonds. This would have paid handsomely here, for East has only two diamonds, but since his only trump has been drawn, he cannot ruff. Now declarer can ruff his fourth diamond with dummy's remaining trump and make his slam.

What if East ruffed the third round of diamonds? In that case, declarer could never have made his contract, for he always had to lose a diamond trick in addition to the spade. At worst, this line would result in going down an extra trick, but that is a small enough price to pay for the chance to make a slam.

Jack Ruby Suffered From Mental Illness?

WASHINGTON (AP) — A Chicago psychiatrist says Jack Ruby was suffering from a severe mental illness in 1966 before his new trial for the murder of Lee Harvey Oswald was ordered.

This report by the psychiatrist, Dr. Werner Tuteur, was published for the first time in the current issue of "MH," a mental health association magazine.

Tuteur said he interviewed Ruby four times in July 1965 at the Dallas County jail. Based on these interviews, he said Ruby would not have been mentally competent to undergo another trial.

Ruby died of lung cancer a month before his second trial was scheduled to begin. He had been convicted in 1964 and sentenced to death.

Tuteur suggested by implication that Ruby may not have been mentally competent at the time of the first trial.

Ruby was described as suffering severely from "paranoid schizophrenia" when Tuteur interviewed him. Tuteur pointed out that Ruby probably had been suffering from the disease for four to 15 years prior to July 1965.

Tuteur is an associate clinical professor of legal psychiatry at Loyola University.

In announcing publication of the article, the National Association for Mental Health said:

"Ruby, accused of shooting Lee Harvey Oswald on Nov. 24, 1963, was scheduled for a new trial in Wichita Falls, Tex. In preparation for this trial, Ruby's new lawyers requested that Dr. Tuteur examine their client to determine his mental condition and competency."

At one point in his report, Tuteur says Ruby "could not distinguish between friend and foe. An indication of this was his extreme hostile attitude toward his lawyers, who he felt would harm him."

WE URGE YOU

To Go Vote Saturday, June 1st

Open Letter To Our Friends

1. We feel the only way we can have good government is to have two acceptable candidates running in November in the General Election.
2. Glenn (High Taxes) Toombs has been our County Judge for almost 4 years. During that time, he has raised our taxes every time he got the chance during his entire term in office.
3. A group of Borden County citizens averted a law suit between Borden County and the oil operators operating within the County by agreeing to reevaluate all property within the County except oil and gas properties. This amounted to about 50 per cent increase. We further agreed to stop increasing the oil companies taxes, which Judge Toombs instrumented each year he had been in office.
4. Glenn (High Tax) Toombs is running on a platform which not only affects the landowners and homeowners, but also apartment dwellers and everyone who owns any property at all.
5. Glenn Toombs wants to come into your home and have a disinterested appraiser appraise your dishes, your furniture, your car, etc. . . . and then tax them on the full market value.
6. Accountants have estimated that this would quadruple the taxes throughout the 63rd Legislative District, whether you own any real property or not.
7. Glenn Toombs did not carry one precinct in Borden County, including the precinct where he was raised and of course, was solidly defeated throughout the County.
8. Glenn (High Tax) Toombs did not carry Scurry or Howard Counties where he ran not on his own merits but on the good reputation of his parents.
9. We feel that a man who cannot carry his home County and his home precinct, among the people who know him best, does not warrant the vote or support of the other people throughout the district.
10. Regardless of the pretty words of Glenn (High Tax) Toombs, the above facts are actually what he believes.
11. We urge you all to get out and vote on Saturday, June 1st, so that you may select between two good candidates in the November general election.

'Impatient' Watson Nabs Kemper Lead

CHARLOTTE, N.C. (AP) — Tom Watson is an impatient young man. "I've been in position to win three, maybe four times this year," he said. "I haven't won yet. I'm getting impatient. I want to win."

Watson, an articulate 24-year-old in his third season on the pro golf tour, made the observation Thursday after his course-record matching 65, seven under par. It gave him the first-round lead in the $250,000 Kemper Open.

Australian veteran Bruce Crampton was one shot back at 66 in this "designated tournament," one of three events on the schedule this season in which all of the game's leading players are required to compete. "I had a chance to win last week in Memphis," said Watson, who has collected $626,000 this season but still lacks his first tour title. "I had a chance to win in Dallas. I had a chance to win in Los Angeles. And I was in pretty good shape in San Diego."

"My trouble is that I've been inconsistent."

"I just haven't finished as fast as I'd like to this year. I've had some good starts then let it get away."

"But I'm sure it will come."

Watson didn't miss a green, didn't make a bogey and, strangely enough, didn't make a birdie on any of the par five holes as he left the game's great players well behind.

Bert Yancey and Bob Menne each birdied the last three holes for 67s and a share of third. Hubert Green, a two-time winner this year and runner-up in last week's Memphis Open, was in a large group at 68.

At 69 were Billy Casper, Ben Crenshaw and Lanny Wadkins, who had a wildly erratic round that included eight birdies, three bogeys and a double bogey.

Arnold Palmer, Jack Nicklaus, Masters champion Gary Player, Sam Snead, Lee Trevino and Lee Elder were in the group at 70. Johnny Miller, the reigning U.S. Open king and the sensation of the tour this season with five victories, was at 71.

Tom Watson, Bruce Crampton, Bob Menne, Bert Yancey, Lanny Wadkins, Roy Floyd, Hubert Green, Ed Sneed, John Jacobs, Larry Wirtz, Randy Evers, Don Bies, Miller Barber, Mac McLendon, Ben Crenshaw, Bob Wynn, Jerry Heard, Mike Morley, Chuck Courtney, Billy Casper, J.C. OFF TO NATIONALS — The Howard College tennis team, second place finishers in the Region V tournament, will compete in the NJCAA national tournament next week in Ocala, Fla. From left, they are Rey Villarreal, Jay Box, Terry Wood and Bill Alcocer III. Will Roan is the HC coach.

LITTLE LEAGUE Rockets Trim Starfighters, 4-2

The Rockets remained on top in the Big Spring International League Thursday with a 4-2 triumph over the Starfighters.

Chris Smith, the Rockets' winning pitcher, drilled a two-run double in the third inning to lead the Rocket blitz. Rudy Jimenez collected two singles for the rockets, while Mark Yarbrough had a double as the team lifted its record to 8-1.

Ron Hovda got the save for the Rockets, and he and Smith combined for 12 strikeouts and a three-hitter.

For the Starfighters, Scott Goodfellow smacked a pair of hits and Wayne Coffey took the defeat. The Starfighters now stand 6-4.

In other local action, the Devils claimed their first National League victory after 11 defeats by sinking the Rebels 17-12 and the Cabots rolled to a 12-1 triumph over the Hawks to escape the American League cellar.

Mike Madry was the winning pitcher and he also stroked five hits in leading the Devils triumph. Madry had a home run, two doubles and two singles, while Kenneth Owens contributed a single and two doubles. Ray Montgomery managed a pair of doubles and Stanley Nichols and Ray Montgomery had two singles each. Owens hurled in relief.

Weldon Nichols almost matched Madry's effort, smacking a home run, two doubles and a single in the losing effort. Robbie Reeves chipped in a double in the Rebels' 10-hit attack. The team is now 8-4. Wes Hart was the losing pitcher.

Richard Moncus' two-run single sparked a third inning uprising as the Cabots rolled by the Hawks. Moncus had a pair of hits in the victory, along with winning pitcher Billy Lipscombe, and Mark Vassar clubbed a triple as the team raised its mark to 3-8.

For the Hawks, who fell to 2-9, Mike Robinson took the loss.

SWC Cinder Coaches Irked

HOUSTON (AP) — Two championships in Austin next week. "It's merely a question of recruiting under the same rules."

"I want to make it clear I'm not saying any school hasn't recruited legally. All of the schools that have declared Division One (University Division) are welcome to compete."

"I think what some coaches are saying is just make sure you recruited under the same guidelines."

Price said a question has arisen whether the new University Division schools recruited their athletes under the more stringent University Division eligibility standards.

"I get out and work my tail off and find a lot of kids I can't recruit because they don't have the grades," Price said. "Now some of these same kids could get in at another school and come back and compete against us when their school moves to Division One."

Track Program Begins Monday

A recreation track program for youngsters seven years of age through high school eligibility will be held here this summer, sponsored jointly by the City of Big Spring and the Big Spring Independent School District.

Track Coach Glenn Petty, director of the program, said the group would have its first session Monday at 6 p.m. at Memorial Stadium. Open to boys and girls, the program is free and is expected to last until mid-July.

Petty said entries would be paid to several meets and transportation would also be provided. Currently, meets are scheduled in Snyder, Seminole, Andrews, Kermit and Odessa.

Practice sessions will be Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday at 6 p.m., and Petty said that youngsters should bring their own workout equipment—shoes, shorts, etc. He said that a T-shirt would be provided for the participants prior to the first meet.

Petty emphasized that the workout sessions were not compulsory, and that boys and girls involved in summer baseball and other activities need not attend each practice in order to compete in the meets on weekends.

"This is going to be a fun-type deal," Petty said. "We want the kids to come out when they can and have a good time."

Dierker, Relievers Sparkle For Astros

MONTREAL (AP) — An almost flawless long mound stint by Larry Dierker and clutch short pitching performances by relievers Jerry Johnson and Fred Scherman gave the Houston Astros a 4-3 victory over the Montreal Expos Thursday night in 10 innings.

Dierker scattered seven hits over eight innings while Johnson and Scherman combined to stymie the Expos on two hits in the final two innings.

The Houston starter made one mistake—a fastball which Willie Davis belted over the right field fence for a three-run homer in the eighth to erase a 3-0 Astros' lead.

The two relievers made none—with Johnson delivering a clutch pitch in the bottom of the ninth—and the Astros had a three-game sweep of the series.

The visitors jumped on Montreal starter Mike Torrez for two runs in the first when Tor-rez sandwiched walks to Greg Gross and Cesar Cedeno around a base hit by Roger Metzger to load the bases.

Torrez then fired two strikes past Bob Watson before hitting him with his third pitch and Gross came home. Metzger later crossed the plate on an infield out.

Dierker allowed only four hits and struck out seven through the first seven innings.

The Astros added an insurance run in the seventh on Cliff Johnson's sacrifice fly, but Dierker came undone in the bottom of the eighth.

With one out, pinch-hitter Boots Day singled and moved to second when Bob Gallagher bobbled the ball for an error. Ron Hunt then walked and Mike Jorgensen popped out before Davis crashed a 1-0 pitch out of the park for his first home run as an Expo.

When Dierker allowed a lead-off single to Ron Fairly in the ninth, manager Preston Gomez went to the bullpen for Johnson.

Speedy Larry Lintz came in to pinch run for Fairly and was bunted to second by Bob Bailey. One out later, Bob Stinson was walked intentionally and then pinch-hitter Hal Breeden walked to load the bases. Johnson then got Hunt to fly out to Cedeno.

Lions Nab 2 Victories

The Lions rolled to a pair of Coahoma Little League victories this week, smacking the Bankers 8-6 on Tuesday and topping Harding Well Service 13-11 Wednesday.

Reagan Brooks and Phillip Ritchey slapped triples for the Lions in the win over the Bankers, and Brooks was the winning pitcher. For the Bankers, Eddie Williams had a pair of hits, including a triple, and losing pitcher Mike Roberts also contributed a three-bagger.

Against Harding, Ritchey had a triple and three singles while Brooks, Mike Hale, Kenny Fulgham and Cliff Snell all stroked a pair of safeties as the team lifted its record to 2-0. Tommy Vaughn hurled the win, with 14-hit backing.

Harding suffered its second setback despite 15 hits, three by Jimmy Fortenberry and two from Randy Elmore, Douglas Fortenberry and Brett Sterling. Gregg Harrington, James Denver and Jerry Reever added doubles, and Dever was the losing pitcher.

Giants' Bonham A Shaky Winner

CHICAGO (AP) — Sometimes it can be murder being a starter, but Bill Bonham has no plans to ask for a reprieve and a parole back to Chicago's bullpen.

Bonham, getting a chance as a starter for the Cubs in his second full major league season, calmed down after a shaky start Thursday and, despite being pecked apart by 11 San Francisco hits, committing a balk and unleashing a wild pitch, came away with a 5-3 victory over the Giants.

He got it because he also recorded seven strikeouts, several when he needed them most, and because Jerry Morales gave him the hit he needed most, a tie-breaking two-run double in the eighth inning.

In Thursday's only other National League game, Houston beat Montreal 4-3 in 10 innings. The American League had the day off. For Bonham, a big right-hander with a 4-8 record and a 4.40 earned-run average, it was his third complete game of the year. In 57 1-3 innings this season he's been tagged for 59 hits—but he's also come up with 53 strikeouts.

Bonham was touched for two runs in San Francisco's four-hit first in which he also committed the balk and issued one of his three walks. In seven of the next eight innings, the Giants' leadoff batter reached first base against him.

"My fast ball was hopping in the beginning, but I was pitching out of jams until midway in the game when I went to my changeup and I was getting it over," Bonham said.

Contrary to Bonham, San Francisco's Elias Sosa enjoys coming out of the bullpen—or did until Thursday.

The Big Spring Central Labor Council urges all eligible voters to exercise their right to vote on June 1, 1974.

It has been brought to my attention that some voters are in doubt as to their qualifications and eligibility to vote in the upcoming primary election that will be held Saturday, June 1, 1974.

This is understandable because of previous methods of qualifying to vote such as paying your poll tax or registering each year. Now if you were qualified to vote in 1972 you are eligible to vote on June 1st. Currently, each time you vote you renew your right to vote for another three (3) years.

If you have lost or misplaced your registration certificate, you are still eligible to vote. The clerks at the polling places will assist you if you have lost your registration certificate.

If you are in doubt as to where you vote, call the County Clerk's office and give them your resident address. They will advise you of the location of your voting box.

I urge each voter to contact other voters in their immediate working and living areas and encourage each one to express their opinion by voting on June 1, 1974.

Please vote and attend the Precinct Convention. Help Democracy work on election day.

AT&T-Sex Agreement

WASHINGTON (AP) — The American Telephone & Telegraph Co. Thursday signed a $30 million sex discrimination agreement providing back pay and wage adjustments for several thousand Bell System management employees.

The pact with the Departments of Labor and Justice and the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission is the latest in a series of job discrimination suits brought by the government and the second in 16 months against AT&T.

It provides that AT&T—the nation's largest employer—pay a total of $7 million in back pay to some 7,000 management employees who the government claimed were discriminated against under the Equal Pay Act of 1963.

Another $23 million per year will go into wage adjustments aimed at equalizing pay rates for men and women employees in the company's first two management levels.

A similar agreement was reached Jan. 1973 between the government and AT&T for non-management employees.

Bail Bond Investigation Dips Into Other Counties

DALLAS (AP) — A can of worms opened by a court of inquiry into bail bond practices has spilled into three counties—Dallas, Rockwall and Hunt—and the Tarrant County sheriff says the practice was tried this week in his jurisdiction.

Hunt County Sheriff Wayne Green admitted on the stand Thursday he had certified on several occasions about 500 blank bonds for use in Dallas County.

POOR JUDGMENT
Green said bondsman Martin Tuenbow came to his Greenville office asking him to certify 30 acres of land owned by Tuenbow. Green said the affidavit he signed set the land's value at $180,000. About 100-150 blanks were signed on four occasions, he said.

Under question by Special Prosecutor Whitley Sessions, Green said he had no way of knowing how much those bonds would be for.

On cross examination by his own lawyer, Green admitted he exercised "poor judgment" but also said it was the responsibility of Dallas County Sheriff

BLANK BONDS — Hunt County Sheriff Wayne Green admitted at a court of inquiry in Dallas that he certified about 500 blank bonds for a bail bondsman to use in Dallas County. The court is probing into local bail bond operations.

Clarence Jones to approve the bonds and make sure their amount did not exceed the amount of collateral backing them up.

Testimony has revealed the bonds certified by Green were used to float $1 million in bonds in Dallas County. Green denied under questioning by Sessions he had been paid to certify the bonds.

PAY OFF

Tuenbow is an associate of Bobby Woods, who testified before Judge Dee Brown Walker Wednesday and Thursday. Woods was prohibited from making bonds in 1973 after he ran up forfeitures which now exceed $300,000, according to an auditor's report.

Woods signed over $7,000 in certificates of deposit Thursday to the Dallas County sheriff's office to help pay off his forfeitures.

Green said the deed shown him by Tuenbow revealed the 30 acres were purchased from John Coil, a Dallas lawyer, and the Methodist Religious and Education Foundation, which Sessions noted Wednesday was "neither religious nor Methodist."

Woods had testified he had gotten the bond blanks from Green but Green said he had dealt only with Tuenbow. Green did admit he had only known Tuenbow a week before he certified the bonds.

Woods was recalled to the stand Thursday, the third day of the inquiry, to clear up a transaction between him and Rockwall County Sheriff W.J. Price.

'BUILD UP' FUND

Woods said he paid Price $20,000 for a piece of land, reiterating earlier testimony that he would pay for the property with 1.5 per cent of Dallas County bond premiums plus a "build up" fund of one per cent of the bonds to cover forfeitures.

Price told the court of inquiry the land sold for "about $50,000" and that the buildup fund was to cover defaults on land payment, not bond forfeitures.

In a related development, Tarrant County Sheriff Lon Evans said Thursday in Fort Worth a Dallas bail bondsman tried to get him to accept a blank bond certified by the Delta County sheriff's office in Cooper.

It appears that Dallas bondsmen are still attempting to use blank bonds which have been certified by sheriffs in other counties," Evans said.

COURTESY

"A runner for a Dallas bondsman arrived at our office a few days ago. He carried a bond form on which the sheriff of Delta County had certified that there was sufficient property to back up the bond. But the amount of the bond had not been filled in."

Evans said he refused to accept the bond under these circumstances. "I don't want to sound critical of the Delta County sheriff's office," Evans added. "I think

Mr. Ben Oglesby,
The Bronte Enterprise,
Bronte, Texas 76833,

Dear Mr. Oglesby,

The political advertisement published in your May 24, 1974 issue of the Bronte Enterprise paid for by Joe R. Lemley, Chairman, Committee For Good Government, prompted me to write this letter.

The advertisement stated that during his administration as County Judge of Borden County, Judge Glenn Toombs caused taxes to be increased approximately 50%.

I own between 12,000 to 13,000 acres of farm and ranch land in Borden County. Since Judge Toombs took office January 1, 1970, my taxes have not increased 50%. In fact, my 1971 taxes assessed by the State of Texas and Borden County decreased 3.05% from 1970. My 1972 State and County taxes increased 7.71% over 1970. And my 1973 State and County taxes decreased 0.69% from 1970. Do these facts indicate that Judge Toombs increased taxes 50%?

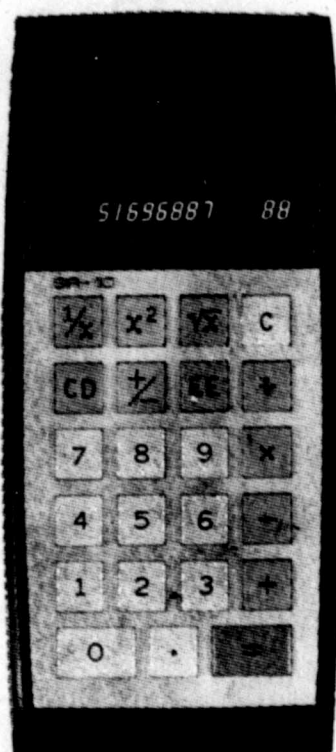

I have known Glenn Toombs since his childhood. I believe him to be an honest, forthright individual. In my opinion, his integrity is beyond question.

Glenn Toombs will represent all the people of our legislative district and our district will be proud of Glenn Toombs.

Sincerely yours

Bill To Create Big Thicket Preserve Advanced In Senate

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate has approved a bill creating a national preserve in Texas' Big Thicket region, moving to protect approximately 100,000 acres of unique vegetation and wildlife from development.

The bill, approved by voice vote Thursday, includes approximately 15,000 acres more than a House version passed in December. The Big Thicket National Preserve, as designated by the Senate, would encompass the Big Sandy-Village Creek Unit in Hardin County.

The Senate bill deletes a section that would give the secretary of the interior certain rights to seize property for the park.

HOMESITES

Sen. Lloyd Bentsen, D-Tex., praised the provision in the Senate bill protecting landowners and homesites.

Sen. Alan Bible, D-Nev., chairman of the parks and recreation subcommittee, said he didn't see any problem in protecting year-round homesites.

Bible predicted that differences between the House and Senate versions could be resolved without any great problems and said he hoped to send the bill to the White House for President Nixon's signature "very, very soon."

LOST FOREVER

Each version costs $63,813,000.

Sen. John Tower, R-Texas, said efforts have been made for 30 years to protect the Big Thicket area in East Texas.

The Senate first approved a Big Thicket plan in 1970. With the House action last December and current Senate approval, the matter has come its closest to final passage.

ecological systems, which is an integral part of the Big Thicket, would be deleted if acreage in this area was not included," he said.

He noted that the area contained a collection of vegetation not found elsewhere.

Bus Romance In Seattle

SEATTLE (AP) — Kathleen Koza says the Metro bus driver on Coach 514 was running late and seemed a bit surly and unpleasant the first time they met.

But a short time later she was riding William Block's routes "just for fun" on her days off.

Wednesday the two were married on Coach 514. The bus romance began a little more than a year ago. The bride, 22, recalled that Block, 38, first told her he loved her last June after a date at a race track. She won all the races. He lost them all.

Though he transferred from her route three weeks after they met, Miss Koza's ride-along policy kept them in touch.

When the bride, wearing a garden hat and a dotted Swiss and eyelet lace wedding dress, stepped down the bus aisle Wednesday, the groom was clinging nervously to a seat handrail.

Daily Oklahoman Publisher Dies

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla. (AP) — Edward King Gaylord, who bought his first newspaper as a teen-age college student before the turn of the century and parlayed it into a communications conglomerate, is dead at 101.

Gaylord, dean of the nation's newspaper publishers, died at home late Thursday after putting in his usual day at the office.

At his death he was president of The Oklahoma Publishing Co. and editor and publisher of The Daily Oklahoman and Oklahoma City Times. His holdings include television and radio stations in seven cities.

A family spokesman said death appeared to be from a heart attack.

POWERFUL MAN

Gaylord, whose newspapers won national recognition, headed Oklahoma Publishing for 70 years.

Considered by some the most powerful man in Oklahoma, Gaylord was in the forefront of virtually every civic promotion, in Oklahoma City and the state, since 1903. He promoted statehood for Oklahoma, made or broke politicians, brought in industry and federal grants, fought gamblers and prostitutes and blasted deficit spending by government.

Although small of stature, Gaylord was a man of definite, conservative opinions. And his desire to be remembered for his newspapers was never far from his thoughts.

He was born on a farm near Muscotah, Kan., March 5, 1873, he moved with his family to Denver, Colo., in 1879.

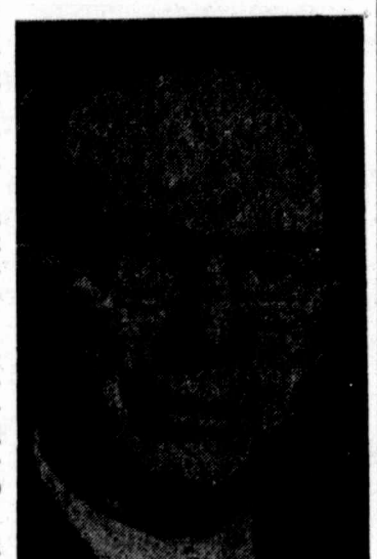

Ten years later when he was 16, Gaylord entered Colorado College at Colorado Springs.

He had $17 in his pocket, but worked his way through school. In his junior year, he borrowed $6,000 and joined his brother, Lewis, in buying controlling interest in the Colorado Springs Telegraph.

SHERIFF'S AUCTION
The brothers later sold the paper and invested in a newspaper at St. Joseph, Mo.

In 1902, Gaylord moved to the Oklahoma Territory and purchased the Daily Oklahoman. In 1916 he purchased the Oklahoma City Times at a sheriff's auction.

At the time of his death, his holdings included the state's largest trucking express service, television stations in Tampa, Fla., Dallas-Ft. Worth, and Houston, Tex., Tacoma Wash., Milwaukee Wis., and Oklahoma City and radio stations in

Number Of Rigs Show Increase

Rotary rigs making holes in Texas for the week ending May 27 totaled 504, compared to 499 for the previous week.

A year ago, only 374 rotary rigs were probing the earth for oil within the state.

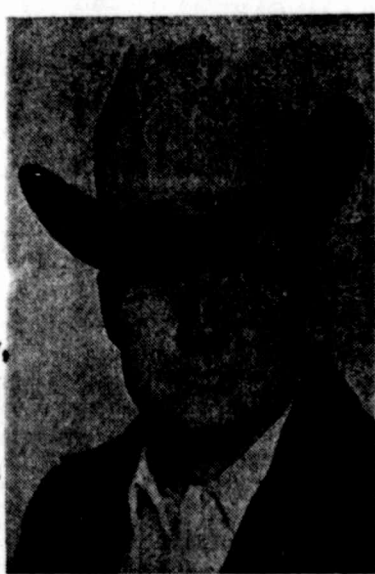

Throughout the United States, 1,426 rigs had been sunk as of May 27, compared 1,407 the previous week.

Vacation Bible School Season Expected To Reach Peak Here During Week

By MARJ CARPENTER

This is the season for Vacation Bible Schools and there are going to be some wonderful ones here, including one cooperative effort.

Big Spring's outstanding Cooperative Vacation Church School Day Camp will get underway Monday, June 3, in the north end of Comanche Trail Park.

Cooperated by six churches — Wesley Methodist, St. Paul Presbyterian, First Christian, Trinity Lutheran, First Church of God, and St. Mary's Episcopal — this cooperative venture will offer sound Christian teaching in an atmosphere of fun and adventure.

Children ages five through grade six will have outdoor learning experiences in the park Monday through Friday from 9 a.m. until 1 p.m. In addition to the regular cooperative curriculum, resources, the children will find special experiences in a geology field trip, dramatization group, a community project, and a cook out.

On Friday the campers will have a swimming party in the city pool. Children are to wear shoes and socks and they will need a sack lunch each day. Nursery children ages three and four will be housed at First Christian Church from 9 until 11 a.m. each day. The children will go outdoors to Birdwell Park and have special visits from a fire truck and a police car.

This is the second year for this cooperative Day Camp in Big Spring. Last year's experience was a tremendous success and this year is expected to be even better. All children in the community are invited to participate and may register in the park Monday morning at 9 a.m. Parents must personally bring their children to register in order to sign the permission releases for the special activities.

ST. PAUL LUTHERAN'S Vacation Bible School will be held at St. Paul's — 810 Scurry on June 3-June 11 from 9-11 a.m. The school will be open to all age groups with a large staff of teachers. Staff members include:

Pastor Carroll Kohl, Craig Fisher (superintendent), Mrs. Ruth Budke, Mrs. Ruth Vineyard, Mrs. Sandy Mahan, Mrs. Dot Dromsky, Mrs. Helen Crandall, Mrs. Sue Grimm, Mrs. Sandra Jones, Mrs. Ruby Hadley, Mrs. Ruth Primel, Mrs. Pauline Nelson, Mrs. Evelyn Pachall, and Mrs. Janette Bentley.

One unique thing about the school is that it will offer classes for the whole family — adults through nursery school. Also classes will be held at a time in which the whole family can attend. The major theme of the school this year features "God's People Today." Registration will be held the opening meeting at 6 p.m. on Monday, June 3. The school is open to all. For more information call any one of the following numbers: 267-7163, 263-2764, 267-7461 Ext. 78.

WETBROOK — Vacation Bible Schools will begin at the First Baptist Church June 3 through 7 from 8:30 a.m. to 11:30 a.m.

A parade was planned for 10 a.m. today and pre-registration will begin at 9 a.m. Saturday, June 1, followed by a picnic. The Rev. Gene Farley, pastor will serve as principal. Superintendents of the department include Mrs. Floyd Rice, pre-schoolers; Mrs. Gerald Rollins, primary; and Mrs. Gene Farley, juniors. All children age four through sixth grade are invited. A nursery will be provided for babies of workers. Family night will be Friday night, June 7.

GRACE BAPTIST CHURCH, 2000 FM 700 West, announces its annual daily Vacation Bible Schools to be held June 3-7 from 9:01-11:20 each day. The church buses will provide transportation for all wishing to attend. Classes are planned for all children ages two and up. The special theme for the schools is God's Strange Preachers, organizations, and delayed gifts. Registration Day is Saturday, June 1 from 2-4 p.m. with the church buses furnishing transportation for this also. The public is invited to attend.

"What does Divine Victory mean to you?" asked W. F. Malenfant, a special representative for the Watchtower Bible and Tract Society of New York, before 1,230 persons in attendance at the main event of the two day circuit assembly of Jehovah's Witnesses Sunday afternoon in VACATION CHURCH SCHOOL — Day Camping is hikes through open fields, Bible study under the trees, gooey marshmallows roasted on an open fire, a swimming party, songs and games, cooking out, doing something for others, making new friends and enjoying old pals. Day camp is all of this and more. This is one of many Vacation Church Schools offered this week.

Midland. Some 39 Witnesses were baptized Sunday morning.

At the conclusion of the assembly Witnesses expressed appreciation to the people of Midland for their hospitality. Leonardo Martinez, presiding minister of the local Spanish congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses said that regular meetings at the Kingdom Hall will resume this week.

WACO — The Rev. Thomas A. Strother, pastor of the First United Methodist Church in Pecos, has been appointed assistant administrator for development of the denomination's largest children's home located here. Bishop Albie H. Carleton, Albuquerque, N.M., resident bishop of the Northwest Texas, New Mexico Area, and Dr. Kennard B. Copeland, administrator of The Methodist Home, issued a joint statement announcing the appointment would become effective June 1. Rev. Strother was pastor of Wesley United Methodist in Big Spring from 1967-69.

The Methodist Home board of directors created the new position in recent restructuring in order to meet the growing needs of the children's home that serves Texas and New Mexico. "We want the nearly one million United Methodists in this two-state area to be kept informed of the work of the home and be given an opportunity to contribute to its support through private gifts, gifts through churches, clubs, organizations, and delayed gifts through wills and legacies," said Dr. Copeland.

DAILY VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL at Trinity Baptist Church will be held June 3-7. Teachers and workers will be using the theme, "God's Hall of Fame" with scriptures from the Bible, they will teach the children about God's Heroes of Faith.

Also to be stressed is how the children can become candidates for "God's Hall of Fame." Workbooks and Handicraft will be used and the need for missionaries will be stressed.

Monday morning, the children will assemble out front of the auditorium at 8:30 a.m., march in and then go to classes to register. Tuesday through Friday they will go directly to departments from 9-11:30 a.m. Refreshments will be served each day, and busses will be running. Those needing the bus service may call 7-6344 or 7-6055. Ages are from toddlers through teens. Awards will be presented in departments and departmental picnics will close the school.

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN Bible School will start the following week with a picnic set Saturday, June 8, and classes to begin on Monday, June 10 at 9 a.m. and dismissed at 11:30 a.m. This will be a week of Bible study, games, crafts and fun ending with a family night supper, Sunday, June 16.

Presbyterians tonight at 7:30 p.m. will have a family-wide ice cream supper honoring the seniors. At 9:15 p.m. tonight they have a softball game at Comanche Park.

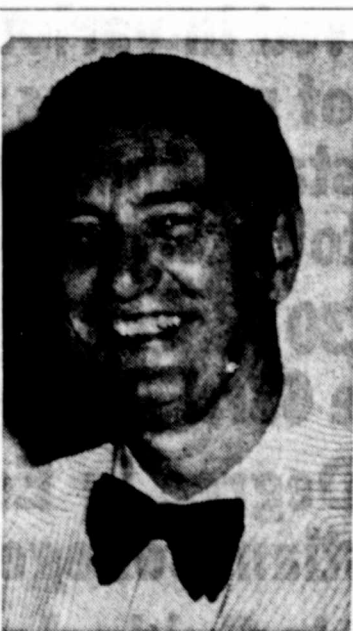

THE 14TH AND MAIN STREET CHURCH OF CHRIST will hold Bible School beginning Monday, June 3 at 9 a.m. and continue through Friday from 9-11:05 a.m. with a closing program at 7:30 p.m. Friday. Director is Walter Stroup. Awards will be given to all who bring visitors on Monday, to the three students bringing the most visitors during the week and for perfect attendance. The school is for nursery age through teen-age. Teen-age teacher is Jerry Yarbrough. Sarah West is in charge of the kitchen and refreshments.

Under the theme, "Christ for the World," workers include the following: Zirah Bedner, nursery coordinator with Jan Walker, Charlene McEachern and Kay Morehead. For 3-5, Margie Sorrells is coordinator. Teaching the 3s will be Carol Yarbrough and Florence Rhoton; for 4s, Jean Pierson and Karen Bell; and 5s, Ann Chambers and Dana McCrary. Jackie Stroup will coordinate 3-5th grades with teachers for first graders, Darlene Crumpler and Gay Humphrey; second grade, Lou Ann Baker and Debbie McMillan and third grade, Lois Cave and Sandy McDonald.

Coordinating the 4-6th grades will be Louise Conley. Teaching 4th grade will be Pat Anderson, Darlene Archer and Darlene English. The 5th grade teachers are Ann Pierce and Bobbie Wooten with 6th grade girl instructors, Joyce Pitt and Marilyn Hale and sixth grade boys, Pat Moore and Valynia Kelly.

THE SACRED ORDER for Confirmation and the Sacrament of Holy Communion will be celebrated at the RECEPTION—Chaplain Lee Butler, who recently earned his doctor of theology degree, will be honored, along with his wife, at a reception at 8 p.m. Sunday night in the First Baptist Church following the evening service.

New Pianist

The North Birdwell United Methodist Church has acquired the services of a recent and gifted graduate of the applied piano department of the Hardin-Simmons University. Miss Debbie Dunlap, of Big Spring, will be playing a special number each Sunday during the worship services.

Debbie studied piano under Professor Thurman L. Morrison and is a former student of Mrs. Ann Gibson Houser here in Big Spring. Debbie is planning on remaining here in Big Spring to teach piano. This Sunday she will be playing a piano solo, a prelude from Chopin, during the regular worship hour.

Russians Stop In Lubbock

Four Soviet agricultural experts visited grain sorghum and livestock production facilities in West Texas May 24-28 as part of an American farm industry tour.

Hosts to the group during their West Texas stay were the Texas Grain Sorghum Producers Board and Grain Sorghum Producers Association.

The Soviet visitors were hosted by GSPA-TGSPB as part of a continuing market development program. Russia recently has purchased considerable amounts of U.S. grain.

Darwin Stote, president of the U.S. Feed Grains Council, John DeCoursey, foreign marketing specialist of the dairy and poultry division, Foreign Agriculture Service, and Laurie Lay interpreter, all of Washington, D.C., accompanied the Soviets to West Texas.

Executive Director Elbert Harry and staff members of GSPA-TGSPB guided the visitors on their tour of cow-calf operations, commercial feedlots, feed processing firms, packing plants and swine production facilities.

Members of the Soviet team were: G. P. Rudenko, deputy director of the agricultural section, USSR State Planning Committee, and leader of the group.

A. S. Negru-Vode, deputy academician, secretary of the economics and agricultural production organization section, V. I. Lenin All Union Academy of Agricultural Sciences.

R. R. Kosyvin, deputy chief of the main economic administration, Ministry of Agriculture.

V. E. Nazarenko, deputy director of the All Union Academy of Agricultural Sciences.

Rudenko, leader of the group, told directors and staff members of GSPA-TGSPB at a dinner honoring the Soviets Monday evening that the Russian minister of agriculture had told members of the team before their departure from Moscow that the purpose of their trip was to develop ways of cooperating with Americans.

In their U.S. tour the Soviets visited Washington, D.C., Charlotte, N.C., Atlanta, Ga., St. Louis, Mo., Lubbock, Tex., Hartford, Conn., Philadelphia, Pa., and New York, N.Y.

TT Registration To Open Monday

LUBBOCK - Registration for the first term of the summer session at Texas Tech University is scheduled to begin at 1 p.m. Monday and continue through 6 p.m. Tuesday. Registration will be conducted in the Lubbock Municipal Coliseum.

Classes for the first term will begin Wednesday morning. Enrollment for the first term of the 1973 summer session totaled 8,333 and officials estimate this summer's first term figure will be about the same.

The first term ends July 13, the second one begins July 15 and ends Aug. 24.

Defendant Told Him: 'I Got A Policeman'

HOUSTON (AP) - A witness in the trial of a youth accused of slaying a Corpus Christi policeman has testified the defendant told him of shooting an officer.

Alex Robinson of Corpus Christi testified Thursday during the murder trial of Richard Ridolph, 19, charged in the 1971 slaying of Corpus Christi Patrolman John W. Sartin, 22.

Robinson quoted Ridolph as saying, "I got a policeman."

Sartin was shot as he walked from the rear of the Corpus Christi police station to go on patrol.

The defense claims Ridolph was only shooting at the police station and did not mean to hit the patrolman.

Robinson said he saw Ridolph standing near a fence about 140 yards from the police station with an "object" in his hands. He testified he heard a short fired and that both he and Ridolph ran back to the defendant's home.

Robinson said Ridolph had the "object" in his hands but he said he could not see if the object was a rifle. Robinson testified Ridolph later told of shooting an officer.

Leonard James, another witness, testified Ridolph came to his home and asked if James would keep a rifle for him.

James said an officer came the next day and asked if James would keep a rifle for him.

Ridolph was tried once in Corpus Christi and his 50-year sentence was overturned by the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals. The case was moved here on a change of venue.

Neuces County Dist. Atty. William Mobley, who is here trying the case, introduced into evidence Thursday a statement Ridolph made to police following his arrest.

The statement was introduced over the objections of Doug Tinker of Corpus Christi, Ridolph's lawyer.

Two police officers were somewhat startled Thursday when they encountered on routine patrol a small car with the plants hanging out the window.

The driver explained his plight and they quickly solved his problem-confiscating the plants and jailing him in lieu of $5,000 bond on a felony charge of possession of marijuana.

There will also be a puppy sweepstakes in three classes - three to six months, six-nine months and nine-12 months old. Judges for confirmation will be Mr. and Mrs. Jack Krahn of Lubbock. Obedience judge will be Caroline Handl of Lubbock.

LUBBOCK - Pollution, its causes and some of its cures are graphically portrayed in "Our Only World," an exhibit of 113 full-color, dye-transfer photographs which opens Saturday at the Museum of Texas Tech University.

The work of 47 of the country's finest photographers is represented in the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) and circulated nationally by the Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition Service.

In presenting some of the environmental problems facing America - the need for clean air, clean water, solid waste management, insecticide and radiation control and noise abatement - the exhibit points out the efforts now being made, both by individuals and organizations, toward slowing down and reversing the rate of damage.

The exhibit will remain on view through June 30. Visiting hours are from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Tuesday through Saturday of each week and from 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. Sunday. The Museum is closed Monday.

Polled Hereford Day Is Nearing

Area cattlemen planning to attend the Polled Hereford Day - U.S.A. at Storm Ranch, Dripping Spring, June 6 should make their overnight reservations with Wood Creek Lodge, Wimberly, Texas 78676.

The lodge is located about 15 miles from Storm Ranch, and Polled Hereford Day attendees should probably get their reservations as soon as practicable.

The event will be one of a series of regional summer activities across the U.S. that are designed to keep cattlemen informed about the latest developments in the beef cattle industry. Registration at 8 a.m. will be followed by a session on estimating the breeding value of beef cattle, a concept emphasized at the 1973 American Cattlemen's Conference.

Prominent program participants will include U.S. Congressman Jake Pickle, Austin, and George C. Palmer II, American Polled Hereford Association chairman of the board, Charlottesville, Va.

Another feature of the day will be an open forum titled, "The Breeder Speaks." Moderated by Orville K. Sweet, APHA president, Kansas City, Mo., the panel will consist of Jim Gill, Coleman; James Grote, Llano; John Trenfield, Foltz; Jack Walling, Tyler; and Harry Dulick, APHA district director, Morgan. Other activities include a ranch tour, lunch and awards program.

Obedient Mother Puts Him In Cell

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) - A young man, ordered by his mother to dispose of the marijuana plants growing about the house, was trying to decide what to do with them when he got help.

He also got arrested.

Two police officers were somewhat startled Thursday when they encountered on routine patrol a small car with the plants hanging out the window.

The driver explained his plight and they quickly solved his problem-confiscating the plants and jailing him in lieu of $5,000 bond on a felony charge of possession of marijuana.

4-H Camp Set June 25-26

The annual 4-H camp in the St. Lawrence Hall has been set for June 25-26. The Glasscock club has invited both Midland and Crockett Counties to attend. Registration will begin at 9:00 a.m. with a $5 fee. Everyone should bring their own lunch.

A Craft Workshop will be held both days so that the girls will learn needle work such as crocheting, creweel and needle point. Decca Podding will also be demonstrated.

The General meeting will be held after supper is served. During the meeting every girl will announce her name and county. Songs will be sung and skits will be acted out. Afterwards a tournament of games will be played and prizes will be given.

Homemade ice cream and cookies will be served before the lights are turned off.

Both breakfast and dinner will be served the next day. Everyone will help clean up before delegates depart at 2 p.m.

Forsan Exes Are Named To Roll

SAN ANGELO — Nancy Carolyn Berry, Arita Maye Everts Calley, Brenda Kay White, all of Forsan, who are students at Angelo State University in San Angelo, are listed on the Dean's Honor Roll for the spring semester at the University.

Ms. Berry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Luke Hagood of Junction, is a 1959 graduate of Junction High School. She is a 1974 spring graduate with a bachelor of arts degree at ASU. She is listed on the 3.50 to 4.00 honor roll.

Ms. Calley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Everts of Route 3, Snyder, Texas, is a 1949 graduate of Ira High School. She is a senior elementary education major at ASU and is listed on the 3.50 to 4.00 honor roll.

Ms. White, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Noel D. Morgan of 1011 Main Street, is a 1960 graduate of Big Spring High School. She is a senior elementary education major at ASU and is listed on the 3.50 to 4.00 honor roll.

AT BSSH Awards Dinner Scheduled At 7

The seventh annual Awards Dinner will be conducted in the Alford Building auditorium of the Big Spring State Hospital, starting at 7 o'clock this evening.

Bob Murphey of Nacodoches, a well known humorist and an attorney, will be the chief speaker.

Length of Service awards, five Commendation Awards, Friends of the Hospital awards and Psychiatric Air of the Year awards will be present during the program.

On of the nominees for the Psychiatric Aide of the Year award is Mrs. Charles Green, a native of Big Spring who completed her high school education at Big Spring Lakeview High in 1958.

She attended beauty college, qualifying for her Cosmetology license.

Mrs. Green always "wanted to be a nurse" and with this in mind accepted employment as an attendant in Nursing Service at BSSH in 1971.

In accepting the position, Mrs. Green said she "knew I would like this work better than Cosmetology."

Mrs. Green's interests revolve around her family, which includes five children. She participates in PTA programs, plays softball and likes to sing. The Greens are members of the Church of Christ.

Mrs. Green works as a part of a treatment team and often must fill in for absent personnel.

Mrs. Charles Green's name was submitted by Big Spring State Hospital as their candidate in the Texas Association for Mental Health Psychiatric Aide Awards of the year 1974.

'Law License Not Needed

AUSTIN — Delegate Charles Fennell of Holliday said this week that momentum is growing daily at the Constitutional Convention for "the good sense approach of keeping county judges answerable to the people."

"The county judge must be elected by the people and should not be required to have a law license," Fennell, himself an attorney, said of the Convention's repeated refusal to accept a proposed Judicial Article which would have required judges to be lawyers.

Fennell is a member of the Convention Judiciary Committee which has fought the battle of the county judges for five months.

"The county judges and I were too often in the minority on the committee but now we are winning," Fennell said. "I can now predict that when this is all over we will have a revision with unbreakable safeguards for the county judges' job."

"Many able men of various backgrounds serve with distinction as our county judges without law licenses, and when you have a good thing you should keep it," Fennell said.

Fennell said also that he is continuing his fight against the so-called "bifurcated court plan" which would kill the Court of Criminal Appeals and merge its functions with the Supreme Court.

Recover Bodies Of 18 Miners

SEOUL, South Korea (AP) — Searchers have recovered the bodies of 18 coal miners trapped Tuesday when the walls of a pit caved in at Kohan, 110 miles east of Seoul, police said today.

Seven bodies were recovered Wednesday and 11 this morning, they said.
