Christmas Can Be Special If We Want It To

By Nanalee Nichols

It's hard to say anything new about Christmas. Christmas is too commercialized. Christmas just isn't like it used to be.

These statements are heard all the time. And, there is a grain of truth in each of them. But, basically, Christmas is still the most precious, special season of the entire year.

Sure, it's difficult to say anything new about Christmas. After all, the story is coming up on two thousand years old!

But that story, which even the smallest child usually knows by heart, is still the most beautiful, most perfectly designed story of all time.

The elements of it fall together in perfect sequence, the degree that sent Mary and Joseph to Bethlehem, the inn being full, the shepherds lovely message from an angel, the wise men.

It's difficult to hear it without creating the scene in one's mind. It appeals to young and old alike.

When a story is so perfect, why does anything new need to be said?

Commercialism? Yes, every year we complain that the stores put out Christmas merchandise earlier and earlier, that the "new" wears off too soon.

But it's a rate person who doesn't get a certain amount of pleasure out of strolling the aisles, Christmas Carols on the music system, list in hand. Although it is easy to spend a little too much money, the pleasure of giving is still much greater than the pleasure of receiving.

Watching someone unwrap a gift, and their obvious pleasure, is a wonderful experience.

Christmas isn't like it used to be? That's very, very true.

We aren't like we used to be. As we grow up, our views of the world change. But that doesn't mean Christmas is WORSE. Because something changes doesn't make it wrong. There is no reason our perception of Christmas has to remain the same to keep the season.

Our enjoyment in watching youngsters experiencing Christmas, our pleasure in helping others, particularly if we make Christmas a little better for those less fortunate, or confined.

Christmas gives US every opportunity to be happy, to have a good time, to ponder the true meaning of what is meant to be a religious season.

If we feel depressed, if we feel things aren't as they should be, it shouldn't be blamed on Christmas. It is up to us as individuals to fulfill what the season is truly about.

METHODIST CHANCEL Choir of Bogata will present "Christmas By Candlelight" on Sunday, December 22 at 5:30 p.m. at the Bogata United Methodist Church. The choir, under the direction of Tim Wood, will perform various selections of the Christmas season. Bogata Letters To Santa

Dear Ho Ho,
I have been a good boy. I am six years old. I want a pellet gun and a bow and arrow and an extra surprise. Please remember all my little friends at school and remember my "Bubba"
I will leave you some pie and milk on the bar. Rudolph is hanging on my Christmas tree.
I love you,
Benjamin Glass

Dear Santa,
I would like a four wheel drive, a bicycle, Voltron robot, stereo, a new color T.V. for everyone to watch, ours is broke. A new pair of spurs and cowboy boots. Megatron Transformer, Go-bot, Clothes.
Thank you,
Toliver

Dear Santa,
Please bring me a Cabbage Patch Doll, a large trampoline, My little Pony clock, furniture for my Barbie house and a pair of shoe skates.
I have tried to be good this year. You will find a treat by my fireplace.
Love,
Elizabeth Scott

Dear Santa,
Please give me a sticker book, Hungry Hippo game, clothes, some books, gloves, ear muffs, necklace and I guess that is all.
Love,
Kimberly

Dear Santa,
My name is Jamie Michelle Henry. I am 7 almost 8 years old. I want a teddy bear with a red bow on his neck. And my little pony. And boots that bend down.
Love,
Jamie
P.S. Merry Christmas to you Santa.

Dear Santa,
Please bring me a Go-Bots watch, a big trampoline, a robot to help me clean my room and a Transformer.
I think I have been a pretty good boy this year. Please don't ask my sister. I will leave some rice krispie treats by my fireplace.
Love,
Bryan Scott

Dear Santa,

Why did TNP District Manager Duane Bryson post a list of all medical apparatus dependent patients in his service area?

Getting electric service restored to homes after a power outage is a serious responsibility of Dickinson District Manager Duane Bryson. Notify our office if you or your family are dependent on medical equipment at home.

Medical conditions may necessitate fast restoration of electrical service following disaster. In fact that's why all TNP district managers keep a list of those customers who are apparatus dependent. That's why it's imperative to notify your electric company immediately if you require fast restoration of service. Do not wait until disaster strikes! Notify us NOW if you require such health aids as iron lungs, breathing equipment, or other health related apparatus requiring electrical service (whether such requirement is temporary or permanent).
