TWINKLES
There's a great deal of difference, we infer, between dealing out relief to oysters and ducks and that of doing the same for hungry Texans. But the problem of getting men to serve on the state relief board is a lot more complicated than that. It's a job now man would seek.

A senate investigating committee is hearing gangsters tell how the government should be run. But that's no big step from hearing the same thing from Wall Street bankers.

The football depression will be over for us when Carideo's Missouri university Tigers win a game.

Upturn item—Mrs. Gushaway's son at college played one quarter last week, and Mrs. Gushaway's nasal altitude is several degrees higher as she talks to neighbors whose sons are merely literary.

When the batting averages are figured up, Congressman Marvin Jones and his official "protests" in behalf of his constituents will just about lead the political league.

With cold days near, the blanket code will be a success for many if they can find the wherewithal to buy a few blankets of the woolen variety. If the law of averages hasn't been repealed, an oldtime winter is about due.

BREVITORIES
Back from lengthy journeys over the southwest and central states during which he coaxed the elusive contracts from national advertisers by painting vivid pictures of Pampa and this territory and the stable payroll, Gilmore N. Nunn, general manager of The NEWS, reflects optimism based on first-hand information.

"Main street is busy again!" he remarked in answer to questions. "In the smaller communities, 'court days' and Saturdays jam the thoroughfares as the country folks go to town to trade and sell their products. In the cities, suburban shoppers fight their way through traffic loaded with shopping bundles, and reception rooms are crowded with salesmen and solicitors. Everywhere the 'Babbits of Main Street' are milling with the throngs, pausing to hear the street hawk, lining up before the theater box office, buying candy for the wife, purchasing clothing because the style has changed, and last but not least, riding to prosperity in new automobiles. Joiners are looking for new clubs to get in; hotels are selling more outside rooms with baths; promoters have an audience for their schemes; panhandlers are getting more dimes; men are going to work; labor disputes are arising; everybody's laughing. That's recovery!"

A NEW CONFIDENCE
Whether because of NRA, cotton checks, or other causes, the towns and cities of the sections visited are reflecting a new confidence. Mr. Nunn told us, "The Main Street of America," highway 66 gives the traveler a representative cross section of the new America," he added. "I do believe it is worth seeing. Once more the villages give a feeling of peace and security, and the cities radiate enthusiasm and progress. In both, talk of new business, new schemes, building, and the NRA reflect a new outlook.

"In the smaller towns, everybody is talking of the NRA, and generally speaking, the trend is optimistic. This, however, is the case in the cities too, where everybody, somewhat apprehensive, though never condemning, works in prayerful reverence and patriotism, hoping and feeling all the while that the success of the NRA is imminent if proper support and ample time is given the program."

PLAINVIEW HAS BEST TEAM IN CITY'S HISTORY

'WE'RE NOT CONCEDING ANYTHING' IS CHALLENGE

"PLAINVIEW will not be afflicted in the same way against Pampa Saturday afternoon that they were against Amarillo. We really have the best club in the history of Plainview high school and we are not conceding the Harvesters anything," writes Billie McClure, business manager of the Plainview Bulldogs, to W. O. Workman, business manager of the Harvesters.

The Bulldogs will not arrive in Pampa until Saturday morning. It will be the biggest team that has ever represented Plainview and also one of the biggest teams that the Harvesters have played this season. The Plainview line will average 179 pounds to the man, while the backfield will average 156 pounds. This will mean that the Harvesters line will be outweighed 19 pounds to the man and the backfield 11 pounds.

Harvester Band To Perform At College Event

Pampa's high school band will be featured at a Teachers college chapel program at Canyon Saturday morning, when ex-students from all parts of the Panhandle will be assembled on their annual homecoming day.

The program will begin at 11 o'clock, giving the band ample time to return to Pampa for the Harvesters-Plainview football game at 2:30 o'clock. A number of Pampa ex-students of the college will attend the homecoming.

Jaysees To Give Masquerade Ball On Monday Night

The Pampa Junior chamber of commerce will hold a Halloween masquerade dance at the Plaza auditorium Monday night. Dancing will start at 9 o'clock and last until 1 o'clock. Music will be furnished by Joe Norman and his famous orchestra.

More than 250 invitations will be in the mail tonight. Every one is urged to attend in costume. Unmasking will be at 11 o'clock. Many prizes will be given to the best costume and the funniest costume.

The Jaysees will decorate the hall in Halloween fashion and a big time is assured. Bob Fuller, Bob Knox, and Jack Dunn are in charge of arrangements.

L. D. Griffin of Oklahoma City is here on a business trip.

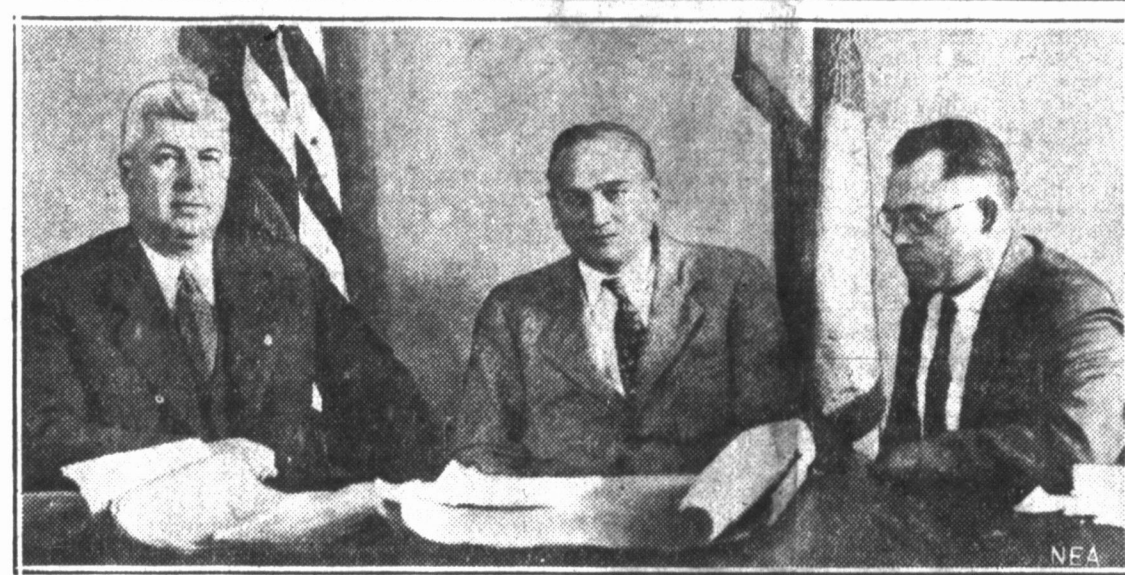

P. A. Little of Lubbock is visiting friends here this week.

Guardsmen's Guns May Back Wheat Embargo

North Dakota's wheat embargo, first major move in a farm strike that is spreading to many states, will be enforced strictly, says Governor William Langer, with the possibility that the National Guard will be called to help uphold the ban. Governor Langer is shown here, center, conferring with Adjutant General Earle Saries, left, and Saries' assistant, H. A. Brocopp, on the advisability of the guard call.

Big Gasoline Plant Started

Smith Brothers and T. J. Coffee of McLean Will Own New Investment in Wheeler.

CONSTRUCTION of a new gasoline plant 12 miles northeast of McLean is doing much to solve the unemployment problem of that community and adding materially to the industrial investment figures for this territory.

The plant will be owned by the Smith Brothers Refining company, which includes Vester Smith, Porter Smith, and T. J. Coffee, all of McLean. It will be located on the George W. Sitter lands just across the county line in Wheeler county. The total investment, it is estimated, will be $250,000 or more. The Smith brothers have devoted most of their time in the past to their cotton gins.

Machinery for the plant, purchased from the Continental Supply company, is being shipped. The site of 30 acres is being cleared of sage brush. During the peak of production, about 60 men will be used. About thirty are employed now in preliminary work. Engineers are on the ground.

The location is in a "hot spot" of oil interest. Several wells are being drilled nearby.

It is understood that contracts have been signed for the full production of the gasoline plant.

President Urges Reply to Letter —Pampans Meant

Local business men are either negligent in answering a communication from their president or they failed to realize the importance of the matter.

C. H. Walker, general NRA chairman, today said only about 200 replies had been made to the president's letters.

President Roosevelt wishes a reply from every business firm at once. If any business man lost the original letter and the reply form enclosed, he may secure a duplicate from Mr. Walker or the postoffice.

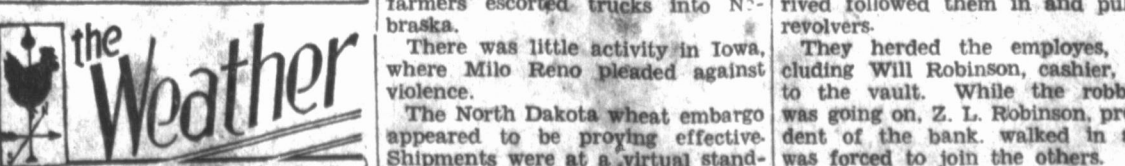

Talk on Farming Heard By Lions

"Taking Chances With the Lord," an interesting and thoughtful discussion of farm life and how curtailment of production is alien to the farmers' wishes was given at the Lions luncheon today by Mrs. Helen Turner.

Mrs. Turner presented one of her expression pupils, little Horace Saunders Jr., in readings.

A debate on proposed recognition of Russia was given by Olin E. Hinkle, and R. B. Fisher. The decision was for the affirmative. The judges were Miss Fannie May, Samuel Stennis, and Joe Gribbon of the high school.

ORDER 90 000 BARREL-SLASH IN PRODUCTION

ORDER WILL GO INTO EFFECT NEXT MONDAY

AUSTIN, Oct. 26 (AP)—A cut of 90,000 barrels per day in the crude oil production from Texas fields was ordered today in a telegram received by Lon A. Smith, chairman of the Texas railroad commission, from Commissioners Ernest O. Thompson and C. V. Terrell.

"It will be necessary to get out a new order effective next Monday putting our state production 90,000 barrels per day, otherwise the federal authorities will act for us, which we must prevent," the telegram to Smith from the other commissioners, who were in Chicago, stated.

The communication said Terrell was leaving Chicago today for Austin and ordered R. D. Parker, chief supervisor of the oil and gas division to prepare data "distributing the cut in proportion to over-production by fields."

The commission issued an order October 17 limiting production from this state to 957,555 barrels daily, 7,446 barrels under the daily allowable apportioned to Texas by Secretary of the Interior Ickes, national oil industry administrator.

Ickes several days ago in communication with regulatory bodies of the several oil producing states warned that production must be within the federal quotas by November 1 or the federal administrator would use the broad powers conferred on him under the petroleum industry code promulgated under the national recovery act, to force reductions in the flow of crude.

The commission's allocation of October 17 was kept open for further orders and the field production can be adjusted without calling another hearing of interested persons, which would require ten days notice.

Terrell and Thompson were in Chicago attending sessions of the American Petroleum Institute. The convention was addressed yesterday by Ickes. He told the oil industry that "cheating and chiselling" would be stopped and that the federal government "means business."

Childress Firm Needs About 50 Gravel Trucks

News of the need for 50 to 75 gravel trucks on a paving project in Childress county was brought here today.

The work is on highway 4, where 12.5 miles of concrete paving will be placed in the next two months. The contract is held by the Arcole Construction company. This firm owns its gravel pit and cleaner and has some trucking apart from the main job.

Anyone interested may call the contractor through the Childress telephone office or apply at the construction site. Two-yard trucks with dump beds are needed. There is a shortage of such trucks in the Childress area.

TEAR GAS DRIVES BANDITS FROM BANK IN HOLDUP BUT WITH $2,000

PALESTINE, Oct. 26 (AP)—The Robinson State bank of Palestine was robbed of $2,000 by four men about 9 a. m. today.

A tear gas gun, fired by one of the bank employees who had been herded into the vault, drove the bandits away before they could get more of the money in the bank tills.

Two of the bandits entered the bank and two remained outside in a maroon sedan (Ford V-8).

Officers obtained the number of the car and left in pursuit. The four bandits evidently had been waiting for the bank to open and when the first employees arrived followed them in and pulled revolvers.

They herded the employees, including Will Robinson, cashier, in to the vault. While the robbery was going on, Z. L. Robinson, president of the bank, walked in and was forced to join the others.

As soon as the steel door clanked shut, one of the employees pulled off the trigger of the tear gas gun and flooded the bank with the

State Seeking $2,000,000 On Land at Borger

AUSTIN, Oct. 26 (AP)—The state, through Attorney General James V. Aldred, today asked the Texas supreme court to review a decision of the third court of civil appeals, reversing and remanding a trial court judgment in which the public school fund recovered $25 acres of oil land and $906,000 in money.

The case was that of the state against the Phillips Petroleum company and others, and involves land in the Borger field of Hutchinson county.

The civil appeals court reversed the trial court's decision in favor of the state and rendered an opinion in favor of the defendants.

Should the state be successful approximately $2,000,000 would revert to the public school fund, representing the principal and interest on the value of the oil produced from the land. Approximately this amount now is impounded awaiting final decision of the supreme court.

Highway No. 41 May Be Usable Within a Year

Prospects are fair for making Oil Field Highway No. 41 a usable road into Oklahoma City within a year, it was reported today by George Briggs, who with Clarence Kennedy attended the road association meeting at Binger, Okla.

First work in Oklahoma will likely be grading and drainage of the road from Borger to Oklahoma City. It is hoped that heavy truck traffic can be diverted from U. S. 66 to this road to relieve congestion. The entire Oklahoma highway commission participated in the discussions. Funds are limited in the Sooner state, however.

Wheeler county spokesman said their county had $50,000 to supplement state funds in improvement of No. 41 from Wheeler to the Oklahoma line. This work will be started when the sector from that state line to Sayre is improved by Oklahoma. Much of the highway in Oklahoma has been graded and is in fair condition. Work on the Gray county portion of highway 152 will be let under contract at Austin soon.

Phillips Loses 900 Barrels Of Oil From Pipe

The Phillips Petroleum company lost 900 barrels of oil yesterday when a ditching machine severed a pipeline in the Morse lease. The line was part of the main system from that pool and the large amount of oil was lost before the flow could be shut off.

The break happened close to a draw and most of the oil was bottled in the draw, saving considerable property damage. Repairing of the line has been completed and the flow started through the line.

Merchants Will Meet Tonight

A meeting of all dry goods merchants and business men of allied lines will be held in the B. C. D. offices tonight under call of H. L. Polley.

The purpose of the meeting will be to discuss the NRA retail code and also proposed closing of the stores on Armistice day. A full attendance is desired at 7:45 p. m.

PRICE OF GOLD IS BOOSTED 18 CENTS BY RFC

ARTICLES FABRICATED FROM GOLD MAY BE EXPORTED

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26 (AP)—President Roosevelt today issued an executive order authorizing purchase of newly mined gold by the reconstruction corporation in accordance with his plan for a managed currency through control of domestic gold prices.

In addition, the order revoked a previous ruling in such manner as to permit the export of manufactured articles fabricated from gold. These exports are to be subject to such regulations as the secretary of the treasury may prescribe.

The new order also revoked that part of the president's order of August 29 providing for sale of newly mined gold under the system which was abandoned yesterday with the inauguration of purchases by the RFC.

The text of the president's order follows:

"Section 1. The executive order of August 29, 1933, relating to the sale and export of gold recovered from natural deposits, is hereby revoked; provided, however, that the secretary of the treasury is authorized to sell in accordance therewith gold received on consignment for sale on or before the date of this executive order.

"Section 2. The United States mints and assay offices are hereby authorized, subject to such regulations as may from time to time be prescribed by the secretary of the treasury, to receive on consignment gold which the mint or assay office to which the gold is delivered is satisfied has been recovered from natural deposits in the United States or other place subject to the jurisdiction thereof.

"Section 3. The reconstruction finance corporation is authorized, subject to such regulations as may from time to time be prescribed by the secretary of the treasury, to acquire gold which has been received on consignment by a United States mint or assay office, and to hold, earmark for foreign account, export, or otherwise dispose of such gold." The administration sought to give increased impetus to its price boosting program by increasing the price it will pay for newly mined gold by eighteen cents an ounce over yesterday, the figure set being $31.54.

Bank Spent Sum Unnecessarily, Pecora Claims

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26 (AP)—Senate investigators today characterized as "graft conditions" a report from the files of the Chase National bank that $18,000,000 had been spent "unnecessarily" on the Cuban capital building, construction of which was partially financed by loans from the bank.

After reading the report from Chase files telling of the expenditures, Ferdinand Pecora, counsel for the stock market committee, asked Shepard Morgan, Chase vice president, if "these graft conditions" had been known five months previously when the bank sold $40,000,000 in Cuban bonds to the public.

"I have no idea," Morgan replied, "but only 35 per cent of the public works expenditures were financed from the obligations advanced by us."

The reference to money wastage was in a letter from James Bruce, Chase official in Havana, to the central bank July 17, 1930.

It referred to Carlos Miguel de Cespedes, secretary of public works, as "dangerous to the welfare of the country."

Physicians Return From Convention

Dr. W. Purviance, Dr. R. M. Bellamy, and Dr. C. D. Hunter returned last night from Plainview, where they attended the Panhandle Medical association convention. The meeting was one of the best the local men have ever attended, they report.

Dr. Purviance is president of the Gray-Wheeler Medical society and Dr. Bellamy is secretary. The Panhandle organization is one of the most active in the state.

Dunn and Bradstreet's report for the week ending September 23 showed 259 business failures, compared with 529 for the corresponding period in 1932.

Pretty Boy Is Held in Jail And Then Fined $10

City police officers arrested "Pretty Boy" Floyd last night on an indictment charge. He paid a $10 fine upon a plea of guilty this morning and after receiving the $10 he had in his possession when arrested, thanked Chief John V. Andrews and left the station.

The man was not the real "Pretty Boy" but he insisted that his name was "Pretty Boy" Floyd and insisted that he be booked under that name. Rather than have an argument, the arresting officer wrote the name in the "charge" book and the man applied went to his cell for the night. This morning he said the name could stand.

A daughter was born yesterday to Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Maxey of Alton, at Worley hospital.

L. E. Barber of Amarillo visited in Pampa today.

Outrageous Fortune

—By PATRICIA WENTWORTH

SYNOPSIS: Jim Randal determines to remain in hiding at his boyhood home, Hale Place, in an effort to regain his memory of the last six weeks, and untangle the situation in which he finds himself. He may, for all he can prove, be both the thief who took the Van Berg emeralds and the husband of a woman he detests, Nests Raddell. Moreover, from what Caroline Leigh tells him, clues found by the police at the Van Berg house seem to bear out Nests's story.

Chapter 33 THE LETTER

CAROLINE interrupted Jim with a frightened, "Stay here?"

"Why not? You said Mrs. Ledger only came once a week. If she was here yesterday, that gives me five clear days. If I can't remember things by then, I shall send for Robert and put myself in his hands." He stepped in the middle of the floor. "And now you must go."

Caroline got up.

"Have you got enough blankets? Are they aired?"

He laughed—a real laugh this time.

"Who do think's been airing my bedclothes for the last seven years?"

"I don't know," said Caroline. "And you needn't laugh—it's nice of me to want you to have dry blankets. Don't you think so?"

She came up close and stood on tiptoe, putting up her face.

"Good-night—darling ungrateful Jim!"

He said, "I'm not ungrateful."

In the middle of the short sentence his voice changed. He would have stepped back, but she held him with a hand on either arm.

"Perhaps you'll be grateful when you see what a nice supper I've brought you. I bought the things in town. Good-night!"

She kissed him as if it were seven years ago, and she a child and he her all but brother. But all of a sudden her heart beat quick and hard. When she had kissed Jim last her heart had not beaten like this. She stepped back, too confused and troubled by her own feelings to be aware of his. She wanted to be out of the room and out of the house.

She went to the door and opened it. The dark passage lay before her. She stepped into it with her thoughts still in great confusion. Why should it make her feel like this to touch Jim's cheek with her lips? She had always kissed him. What was there to make this kiss any different from all the other kisses?

His rigid silence escaped her. She was scarcely aware that he had taken up the candle and was following. They walked along the corridor and down the stair without a spoken word. Words unspoken clamored in them both.

He walked with her down the dark drive and through the sleeping village. At the cottage gate he broke the long silence.

"You mustn't come again."

"I must," Caroline said.

"No, you mustn't."

"I shall come tomorrow," said Caroline, and was gone before he could answer.

The first mail in the morning brought a proposal in due form from Robert Arbutnot. Patsy Ann glowed and blushed all over it as if it had been the most ardent of love-letters. She read it aloud in snatches, with agitation and enthusiastic comments. It concluded:

I have, for some time, been considering the question of matrimony. I hope you know me well enough to be sure that I should give such a subject the most serious consideration before taking what I regard as an irrevocable step. From the tenor of your conversation yesterday I gather that you would not consider a distant degree of relationship such as exists between yourself and me as an insuperable bar to marriage. May I therefore ask whether you could entertain the idea of accepting me as your husband?

Patsy broke off and dabbed her eyes.

"He makes it sound so solemn—doesn't he? I think it's a wonderful letter. Don't you?"

Patsy dabbed her eyes again. "I don't know how to answer it. I can't write a beautiful letter like that."

"I shouldn't try," said Caroline. "That's Robert's sort of letter. You write your own sort, and perhaps he'll sit down at the other end and wonder how you did it."

"Do you think so? Do you think I could just say that he's made me very happy—would that do?"

"Beautifully," said Caroline. As she said it, the telephone bell began to ring. A scarlet Patsy caught up the receiver.

"Caroline—if it's him—what shall I say?"

Then as Caroline, laughing and shaking her head, was about to run out of the room, there was a change in voice and manner. A puzzled look came over Patsy's face; her color receded, and her voice took on a tone of disappointment.

"Oh... Yes, she's here. Who shall I say?"

"Oh... Very well, I'll call her."

She turned from the instrument, which was fastened to the wall at the foot of the stair.

"Caroline—someone wants you. She won't give any name."

Caroline took the receiver with some impatience. It was so stupid of people not to give their names. If you were cut off, you never knew who had been calling you. She simply hated that.

There came to her along the wire an almost inaudible voice.

"Is that Caroline Leigh?"

"Who is speaking?"

"Is that Caroline Leigh?"

"Yes. Who is speaking?"

"Will you come and see me? I want to see you very badly."

"But who are you? I didn't hear."

"I didn't say. I want to see you—about—Jim." There was a faint desperate catch in the voice before the name came out.

It took Caroline a moment to get her own voice steady.

"Are you—no, you're not—Nests."

"Who is Nests? No, never mind. I'm Susie. You know now, don't you? Will you come and see me?"

Two Fugitives Assessed Long Terms In Prison

PARIS, Oct. 26 (AP)—Long prison terms have been given Elbert Johnson and Dallas Hunter, two of 12 desperate convicts who escaped from the Angola, La., penitentiary, for a series of store robberies at Deport, Texas, October 8.

Johnson, known under the alias "Charley Frazier," pleaded guilty to robbery with firearms yesterday and was given 25 years. Previously he had been assessed ten years on each of two burglary charges.

Hunter was given an aggregate sentence of 26 years—ten on the robbery charge and eight each in the burglary cases.

Approximately $600 worth of merchandise was stolen in the Deport raid by a group of robbers who overpowered the night watchman.

Johnson was captured in Red River county October 13, after a three-day chase. Officers caught Hunter asleep in the woods southwest of Clarksville the following day.

Entire Lung Is Removed; Patient Now Recovered

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 26 (AP)—A report on the successful removal of an entire lung from a patient by Dr. Everts A. Graham was made public today by Dr. Morris Fishbein, editor of the Journal of the American Medical Association.

In an article appearing in the current Journal, Dr. Graham and Dr. J. J. Singer, both of the Washington university school of medicine here, state: "It is apparently the first time in which the whole lung has been deliberately removed at one stage."

Carney's anticipated removal of the lung. The operation was performed last April 5, but no previous reports of it had been made public. The patient, a Pittsburgh physician, is reported fully recovered.

Dr. Singer had charge of the diagnostic end of the case.

Four Greenville Prisoners Escape

GREENVILLE, Oct. 26 (AP)—Four prisoners, held on felonies, escaped from the county jail at 1 o'clock this morning. A fifth member of the group was recaptured.

Frank Donovan, Bill Ross, Ralph King, Jack Stewart, and Denver Fitzgerald, confined in the cell block on the fourth floor, pried the cover from a smoke stack running to the basement. With a rope made of blankets, the prisoners slid down to the basement where Floyd Dudding, night watchman, was slugged and tied.

Fitzgerald was injured falling from the smoke stack.

Dudding quickly recovered from the effects of a blow, released himself and captured Fitzgerald.

Jay Taylor of Amarillo spent the day in Pampa.

AMARILLO, Oct. 26 (AP)—Mrs. Charlie Kyser, at the age of 36, has four grandchildren.

Mrs. Kyser first became a grandmother in January, 1928, when she was 30 years old. She now has three married daughters, all of whom have children. They married at the ages of 13, 14 and 17.

Mrs. Pearl Bostick was dismissed yesterday from Pampa hospital, after a minor operation.

She stood for a moment, listening in a strained position, the light of the grey rainy morning falling cold upon her pallor. She had the type of looks which needs the sun. Her hair was so pale as to be almost silver, her eyes a forget-me-not blue, her skin as white as privet, with no more than a faint rose to tinge the cheeks, and deepen to the color of pink hawthorn in the lips.

She stood there listening, and heard the handle tried again. In an instant she had stepped out of her slippers and, picking them up, crossed the floor and gone through the communicating door, moving without a sound. The bedroom blinds were down, and the curtains drawn. The only light came from the sitting room.

Susie Van Berg slipped into the turned-down bed and, leaning over the edge, set her slippers down beneath it. Then, pulling the clothes about her, she reached out her hand and rang the bell.

Susie Van Berg spoke again, a little louder, a little more insistently.

"Are you there? Will you come?"

"Yes," said Caroline, and had the feeling, like Robert, that she was taking an irrevocable step.

"How will you come?" said Susie Van Berg. "It would send the car—but then the servants would talk—"

"They'd do that anyhow," said Caroline with the ghost of a laugh. "But you needn't bother—I've got my own little car. When shall I come?"

The voice said, "At once."

Caroline's thoughts moved rapidly. She said:

"Not if you don't want to make talk. It would be better if I came in the afternoon—anyone can come in the afternoon."

"What time?" The voice fluttered.

"Between five and six," said Caroline. "Will that do?"

The voice said "Yes." The click of the receiver put a full stop to the word.

Susie Van Berg turned from the hands at the pale blue satin wrap she was wearing. She had locked both doors before she rang up Caroline Leigh—the bedroom door, and the door of the big dressing-room which she had turned into a sitting-room for herself.

The communicating door stood open between the two rooms. The telephone was in the sitting-room. She had hung up the receiver because she had heard someone try the handle of the bedroom door.

THIS CURIOUS WORLD

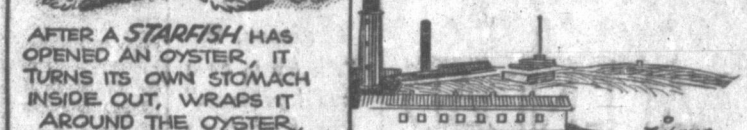

FRUIT GROWERS OF THE U.S. FOR YEARS PROTECTED THEIR ORCHARDS FROM FROST WITHOUT KNOWING HOW THEY DID IT.

THEY USED POTS OF BURNING OIL TO HEAT THEIR ORCHARDS, ONLY TO FIND OUT SEVERAL YEARS LATER THAT IT WAS THE SMOKE, AND NOT THE HEAT, THAT SAVED THEIR FRUIT. THE SMOKE ACTED AS A BLANKET AND PREVENTED RADIATION OF THE GROUND HEAT.

AFTER A STARFISH HAS OPENED AN OYSTER, IT TURNS ITS OWN STOMACH INSIDE OUT, WRAPS IT AROUND THE OYSTER, AND DIGESTS THE PREY.

THE SURFACE OF THE MEDITERRANEAN SEA IS LOWER THAN THAT OF THE ATLANTIC OCEAN. ITS EVAPORATION IS MUCH GREATER THAN ITS RAINFALL.

FRUIT GROWERS thought that the smoke of their burning oil-pots was only a necessary evil, and they were quite enthusiastic over the invention of a new smokeless heater. Much to their sorrow, the new heater failed to do its work and their fruit crop was ruined. It took a meteorologist to discover the reason.

Rent To Be Paid In Beef Cattle

AMARILLO, Oct. 26 (AP)—Amarillo's community kitchens which feed stew to the city's needy during the winter months will receive $500 worth of beef cattle this winter in exchange for grazing privileges on land which belongs to the local water department.

The city owns 1,600 acres of good grass in Randall county, but cash offers to lease the land have been rejected because the city is not a taxpayer in the county. S. B. Orton, county judge at Canyon, gave the commission permission to lease the grass provided proceeds from the transaction went to charity.

"We will take the usual lease price in the form of beef cattle," said Mayor Ross Rogers, "then contribute the beefes to the soup kitchens."

PASTORS TALK FINANCES

DTNISON, Oct. 26 (AP)—The urgent need of revision in the plan of financial control for various churches was pointed out to the North Texas conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, by Dr. T. D. Ellis of Louisville, Ky. The endorsement of financial control to the pastor and board of stewards of the various Methodist churches was advocated as the best medium of financial stability.

F. J. Travis was admitted to Worley hospital today for medical attention.

"I always figured that I needed new tires in the spring."

"Maybe I did, after nursing old tires through the winter."

"But here's the joke on me."

"Hot weather makes tires wear faster. Using your brakes on hot, dry roads is just like putting tires against a whirling grindstone, and that's tough on even the best of rubber."

"So, when winter rolls around, the cream of the keen sharp grip is already off my tires."

"But roads are cool in fall and winter. And in the worst driving months of the year, the roads are wet and sloppy most of the time."

"And it just dawned on me that wet sloppy driving is easy on stout new tires. The water protects the tires from friction—and everyone knows, rubber wears longer when it's wet."

"What really started me thinking was the low prices of Goodyear Tires today. I wanted to buy them anyhow, while these prices last. I don't know how high they'll go by spring."

"But the big fact is—I can forget about tire troubles on cold sloppy days—I've got the sharp new grip of Goodyears between my brakes and the road—and my tires will still be in swell shape next spring."

Mrs. Roosevelt Has No Present For Spoiled Boy

ITHAN, Pa., Oct. 26 (AP)—Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt doesn't believe children should be spoiled—even the president's grandson.

America's first lady stopped off on her way to New York yesterday to visit with her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Elizabeth Donner Roosevelt, former wife of Elliott Roosevelt, and their 11-month-old son "Billy."

The president's wife drove her own roadster. She was some three hours late for luncheon because she lost her way on side roads in Philadelphia's suburbs and when she left her car she forgot a large package which had all the appearance of a gift for Billy.

Asked if she had brought him a present, Mrs. Roosevelt said: "No, I certainly did not. I don't believe in giving presents to babies who already have everything they want."

YOUNG "GRANDMA"

AMARILLO, Oct. 26 (AP)—Mrs. Charlie Kyser, at the age of 36, has four grandchildren.

Mrs. Kyser first became a grandmother in January, 1928, when she was 30 years old. She now has three married daughters, all of whom have children. They married at the ages of 13, 14 and 17.

Mrs. Pearl Bostick was dismissed yesterday from Pampa hospital, after a minor operation.

She stood for a moment, listening in a strained position, the light of the grey rainy morning falling cold upon her pallor. She had the type of looks which needs the sun. Her hair was so pale as to be almost silver, her eyes a forget-me-not blue, her skin as white as privet, with no more than a faint rose to tinge the cheeks, and deepen to the color of pink hawthorn in the lips.

She stood there listening, and heard the handle tried again. In an instant she had stepped out of her slippers and, picking them up, crossed the floor and gone through the communicating door, moving without a sound. The bedroom blinds were down, and the curtains drawn. The only light came from the sitting room.

Susie Van Berg slipped into the turned-down bed and, leaning over the edge, set her slippers down beneath it. Then, pulling the clothes about her, she reached out her hand and rang the bell.

Susie Van Berg spoke again, a little louder, a little more insistently.

"Are you there? Will you come?"

"Yes," said Caroline, and had the feeling, like Robert, that she was taking an irrevocable step.

"How will you come?" said Susie Van Berg. "It would send the car—but then the servants would talk—"

"They'd do that anyhow," said Caroline with the ghost of a laugh. "But you needn't bother—I've got my own little car. When shall I come?"

Yep! Paul Dean Is a Chip Off The Old Block

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 26. (P)—Baseball fans who love nothing better than eccentricities in their heroes were ready today to acclaim Paul Dean as "Dizzy the Younger."

Ever since it became known that Paul would join the Cardinal pitching staff in the spring, the fans have wondered whether he carried any of the eccentricities of his brother, Jerome Herman. They suspected they had the answer, in part at least, today.

The Cardinal office disclosed Paul recently departed for Oklahoma without the formality of checking out of his hotel here.

The Globe-Democrat says Dizzy, who recently threatened to hold out for a $15,000 salary, has signed a 1934 contract. Sam Breadon, Cardinal president, refused to discuss the matter.

It charged "Billy the Kid" alias William Cornelius, alias William Smith with "stealing four horses." The indictment is drawn in ink on a ruled 8 1/2 x 11 letterhead of J. E. Loomis, sheriff and tax collector, Sherman county and dated July 26, 1888. Coldwater was then county seat. W. G. Minor, foreman of the grand jury, signed the indictment.

Postal Chief To Rule On Liquor Advertisements

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26. (P)—The justice department ruled today that the admissibility of newspapers carrying liquor advertisements to the mails was a subject for the consideration of the postmaster general, and that it could not institute proceedings unless requested to do so by the post office department.

Attorney General Cummings held the Reed amendment barring such advertising from the mails to be still in effect, and said it would continue in effect after repeal.

"The amendment provides that the postmaster general is authorized and directed to make public from time to time in suitable bulletins or public notices the names of states in which it is unlawful to advertise or solicit orders for such liquors," the department said.

FIFTH AVENUE FASHIONS

By ELLEN WORTH

Introducing: The Sheath Silhouette

Superb fit in oxford gray woolen with a touch of white satin—that's all. But what a dramatic effect it creates! The secret of this smooth unbelted sheath lies in the long vertical seams which mold it at the waistline and release fullness low in the skirt. Modified "wings," caught in the seams, widen the shoulders and suggest a fashionably high, full bustline.

You can see at a glance how simple it is to cut and fit. And the only finishing touches it needs are the tailored satin collar and bow. In this season of elegance in fashion, a "luxury" dress like this which can be made so easily and inexpensively is a boon to the home dressmaker.

Size 16 requires 2 1/4 yards 54-inch material. 3 1/2 yard 39-inch contrasting. Width about 1 1/2 yard. Our Fall Fashion Book contains many other smart styles for every occasion; also directions for a crocheted sweater and sports gloves.

FIRST WINTRY BLAST COVERS MOST OF U S

ICY WATERS TAKE 14
LIVES IN CANADA AND NEW YORK

By The Associated Press.
THE North American continent was marked today by the effects of a wintery blast that left behind it a trail of death.

Shipping was seriously handicapped by a howling autumn gale, accompanied by rain and fog that lashed the North Atlantic coast yesterday and last night, while seven lumbermen were swept to their doom by the swollen waters of the Big Salmon river, fourteen miles from St. Martins in St. John county, New Brunswick. They were caught on a sandbar while driving for lumber for a paper company.

The cold belt extended from Canada down into Dixie over the eastern half of the United States. New York state was hard hit. From six to twelve inches of snow clogged highways and paralyzed communication in the Adirondacks. Three deer hunters for whom fears were felt, were found by searchers. One of them was suffering from exposure.

Heavy damage was reported by the American Telephone and Telegraph company in Vermont, where the first severe snow storm of the season played havoc with communication lines.

There were snow flurries in Chicago and Cleveland, while to the north a record breaking snow covered Duluth, Minn.

Down south the residents got out their overcoats and shivers, and expected to be cold again today.
Atlanta, Ga., reported a temperature of 44 yesterday, the coldest day there since last April 22.

The icy waters of the Susquehanna river near Afton, N. Y., claimed the lives of seven persons, a man, his wife, their three children and two 14-year-old girls. They were drowned when their automobile rolled down an embankment into the river.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE— WITHOUT CALOMEL

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

If you feel sour and snaky and the world looks pink, don't swallow a lot of salts, mineral water, oil, laxative candy or chewing gum, and expect them to make you suddenly sweet and buoyant and full of energy.

For they can't do it. They only move the bowels and a mere movement doesn't get at the cause. The reason for your down-and-out feeling is your liver. It should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily.

If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays to the bowels.
Gas builds up your stomach. You have a thick, bad taste and your breath is foul.
Your skin often breaks out in pimples. Your head aches and you feel down and out. Your whole system is poisoned.

It takes those good, old CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS to get these two pounds of bile flowing. They make you feel "up and up." They contain wonderful, harmless, gentle vegetable extracts, amazing when it comes to making the bile flow freely.

But don't ask for liver pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. Look for the name "M. A.
Carter's Little Liver Pills" on the red label. Request a substitute. 25¢ at drug stores.

Violence Flares as Thousands of Illinois Miners Mass

Ten thousand miners, members of the Progressive Union, massed in the Springfield, Ill., baseball park, as shown here, to protest alleged fraction of the NRA in placing the Illinois coal code in effect. One man was slain and further violence was feared. Three militia companies were held ready to halt riots involving the marchers and the rival United Mine Workers.

ABANDONED COTTON ACREAGE MAY GO RENT-FREE TO 1934 TENANTS

By SAM BLEDSOE
Associated Press Staff Writer
WASHINGTON, Oct. 26 (AP)—A part of the 15,000,000 acres of cotton land the government expects to rent next year will be available for the use—probably free—of tenants who may be dispossessed by the program.

The cotton plan calls for the reduction of land planted to the staple from the past average of 40,000,000 to about 25,000,000 acres for 1934.
The prospect that thousands of families might be forced from the land as a result has been one of the chief concerns of the farm administration.

An intensive study of the situation has been made within the administration and the contract that will be offered the growers is being drawn.

The government intends to write into it just as much protection for the renter and sharecropper as the law allows. It will stipulate the division of benefit payments between the landlord and tenant.

These payments include a rental, ranging from $3 to $11 per acre for land taken out of production, and a guarantee of parity price for a part of the crop.

However, growers who do not contract to cut acreage will receive neither the rental payments, nor the parity guarantee.

The farm administration takes the position it will have control over the land on which it will pay rent and if the need arises this will be turned over to tenants for whom no place remains.

Officials say they expect little trouble in southern sections where negroes are tenants and where cotton has been grown for generations.
In some sections, however, particularly in Oklahoma and Texas, where land has been put to cotton in recent years, there are reports of many cases where landlords live far away from the soil. Already agitation for the protection of tenants has begun in those areas.

Where Mob of 2000 Seized Negro

Overpowering a detail of 25 state police, a frenzied mob of nearly 2000 men, women and children battered its way into the county prison at Princess Anne, Md., dragged out George Armwood, 44-year-old negro accused of attacking an aged white woman, and lynched him in front of a judge's home. This picture shows the battering ram used by the crowd to break into the prisoner's cell.

TRUSTEES MAKING FINAL FIGHT FOR LIFE OF METHODIST SCHOOL

GTORGETOWN, Oct. 26 (AP)— Trustees of Southwestern university today were on record as believing the 93-year-old Methodist school had justified its continuance and as appealing to the five trustees in Texas of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, to "take such steps as may be necessary to keep this central institution operating in an increasingly successful way."

A special session yesterday the trustees expressed "regret that the educational commission saw fit to publish that the endowment of Southwestern university had been hypothecated for loans at the banks.
Such a statement is not true to the facts. The endowment of Southwestern university is intact, amounting at the present time to something better than $356,000."

They asked the five annual Methodist conferences to authorize a thanksgiving campaign to ask each member of the denomination in Texas to contribute 93 cents to the institution to meet "the most pressing current obligations," consisting of "an item of some $35,000 due to our teaching staff."

W. E. Crispin of Beaumont was elected to fill the vacancy in the chairmanship of the board caused by the death of W. L. Dean. S. W.
Scott of San Antonio was elected vice president.

Authorization also was given for Blinn junior college at Brenham to be turned over to other hands and after certain current obligations were paid from revenue of the endowment, for the endowment and other remaining assets amounting to $90,000 to be placed in the endowment fund of Southwestern university, as the Blinn endowment fund.

Hartzell Fraud Trial Begins In Sioux City, Iowa

SIoux CITY, Iowa, Oct. 26 (AP)— Alvin Sylvester, assistant United States district attorney of the southern district of New York, was selected to take the stand today as a government witness in the Drake estate promotion trial.

the story of the arrest and interrogation in New York of Oscar M.
Hartzell, deported from England for his part in promoting the English sea captain's estate and on trial here on thirteen counts of using the mails to defraud.

Sylvester has already identified documents and letters pertaining to the plan of soliciting donations for establishing claim to the estate. His testimony followed the same line as that of John Sparks, Sioux City postal inspector, who took Hartzell into custody as the liner which carried him from England docked in New York.

Judge George Scott ordered the jury to be segregated for the remainder of the trial.

A five-year suspended sentence was given Raymond Davis by the jury which convicted him of murder with malice aforethought for the death of H. T. Ryan, 71, inmate of the Wichita Falls state hospital.

Testimony of state witnesses tended to show Ryan had died of internal injuries caused by his being kicked and beaten, and that Davis, 22-year-old attendant at the hospital, had both kicked and beaten him the night of August 15 and early the morning of August 16.
Ryan died the morning of Aug. 16.

Future of M. E. Schools To Be Decided Friday

DENISON, Oct. 26 (AP)—The annual North Texas Methodist conference entered its second day with the hope of completing election of delegates to the quadrennial general conference at Jackson, Miss., next year.

Five clerical and five lay delegates were chosen from groups of eight from each classification yesterday. The former list included:
D. S. A. Barnes of Sherman, the Rev. George C. French of Dallas,
the Rev. H. G. Ryan of McKinney, Dr. Humphrey Lee of Dallas and the Rev. R. G. Mood of Decatur.

Lay delegates chosen were Wallace Hughton and Mrs. C. M. Simp-

All five Texas conferences must concur in school recommendations before action may be taken.

Recognition Of Russia Opposed By Jap Visitor

MONTREAL, Oct. 26 (AP)—The spread of communism in the Far East, Toshio Shiratori fears, would be accelerated by American recognition of Soviet Russia.

That is why such recognition would be "a serious matter to Japan," said Shiratori, here en route to his new post as Japanese ambassador to Sweden.

"Unless Japan or the western nations interfere," the communists undoubtedly will gain control of China, he asserted.

"Of course," the ambassador went on, "it is their own business. But if the United States advances money to Soviet Russia it will help consolidate propaganda work in the Far East."

As for war with Russia, he said there was "no reason why we should want it. All we want Russia to do is to stop propaganda throughout the Far East."

Navy's Alma Mater Song Is Recognized

ANNAPOLIS, Md., Oct. 26 (AP)— The "Navy Blue and Gold" has been given official recognition as the alma mater song of the United States naval academy by its superintendent, Rear Admiral Thomas G. Hart.
Admiral Hart in an order approved the practice of midshipmen and other academy personnel standing uncovered with the cap or hat over the left chest when the song is played or sung.

Another naval academy song,
"Anchors Aweigh," remains as the school's battle song. Its stirring strains differ materially from the alma mater song.

Do jangled nerves make you say things you'll regret?

How many times in the course of a week do you snap at someone? If you check very carefully you will probably find that it happens more times than you realize.
For one of the dangers of jangled nerves is that the victim so seldom knows about his own condition. It not only hurts others—but himself as well.

The more alert you are, the more high-strung and alive, the greater danger there is of jangled nerves.

Get your full amount of sleep every

KNOCKOUT EXPECTED IN MAIN EVENT OF SPARKLING FIGHT CARD TONIGHT

TWO NEGROES WILL BATTLE EIGHT ROUNDS

ARMSTRONG HAS BEEN IN 100 FIGHTS IN NATION

MAIN EVENT, 10 rounds
Jay Ward, 114, Borge vs Charlie Ady, 116, Collinsville, Ill.
SEMI-FINAL, 8 rounds
Bobby Armstrong, 127, Jamaica vs Taylor Roberts, 128, Wichita, Kan.
SPECIAL, 6 rounds
Dick Hedgpeth, 156, Perryton vs Babe Ruth, 156, Amarillo.
PRELIMINARY, 6 rounds
Eddie Zilitis, 124, Collinsville, Ill. vs Skeet Ford, 135, Amarillo.

Promoter B. W. Kelly has arranged one of the best fight cards ever to be offered in this section for his opening of boxing in Pampa under the new state law tonight. He has secured some of the best fighters in the southwest for the approval of fight fans.

The fight card will open at 8:15 o'clock tonight at the Pampa auditorium. General admission will be 40 cents, with ringside seats 75 cents, the official state prices. The fights will be under supervision of R. C. Sturgeon, commissioner for the state in this city. Dr. R. A. Webb will examine each fighter before he enters the ring to see that he is physically able to give his best. Licensed referees will be in the ring for every match.

The main event between Charlie Ady of Collinsville, Ill. and Jay Ward of Borge should be one of the outstanding bouts of the year. The two bantamweights are among the topnotchers in their class and both are noted for their "leather stinging" ability and the fact that they can take punishment. Fans are looking for a knockout in the main event.

The 8-round semi-final will bring two negroes to Pampa. Both have long strings of victories over some of the best junior lightweights in the country. Bobby Armstrong is from Jamaica, West Indies, and although only 24 years old, has had 100 professional fights from coast to coast. Taylor Roberts of Enid is one of Angus Snyder's pet fighters. He has won decisions over some of the best boys in the nation.

A six-round special bout will bring Dick Hedgpeth of Perryton and Babe Ruth of Amarillo together at 156 pounds. They are the rugged type of boxer that stands toe to toe and slugs until one or other drops. Eddie Zilitis of Collinsville, sparring partner of Charlie Ady, will tangle with Skeet Ford of Amarillo in the opening encounter which will also go six rounds. All fights on the card are scheduled as three minute rounds.

A safety zone device being studied by Salt Lake City's engineers has a sliding buttress which moves slowly under the impact of an automobile, but brings the car to a stop.

Two Promising Substitutes

Two Harvesters who are always ready to be sent into a game if the regulars are injured or unable to play are "Chubby" 6' 6", fullback, and Herbert Reynolds, end. Stewart is a LeFors boy and brother of the well-known Heber Stewart of football, track, and field fame. Stewart is a freshman this year and will have three more years of football. He can also play an end position. Reynolds takes his place at either end of the line. He is a good pass receiver and is a fighter.

GORILLAS WILL PLAY CANADIAN ON TOMORROW

L'FORS IS DEFEATED BY WILDCATS LAST FRIDAY

The Canadian Wildcats, one of the scrappiest teams in Class B football this year, will come to Pampa Friday afternoon for a game with the Gorillas. The game will be called at 4 o'clock and no admission will be charged.

Coach Harry Kelley has been putting his Gorillas through stiff workouts this week. He believes they will click against the Wildcats and not let him down like they did against the Amarillo Yarnigans last week. The Gorillas scrimmaged the Harvesters Tuesday afternoon and their defensive work was brilliant. The offense was weak but Coach Kelley worked on it yesterday afternoon and was going to give it another polishing this afternoon.

Two or three changes have been made in the Gorilla lineup. Earl Rice will be in with a bad leg injury, while Gaston Harbour will not be at his best because of a trick knee. Stephenson, being groomed for an end position, looked good in scrimmage yesterday. Tom Rose is showing marked improvement, his ankle giving him less trouble than during the last few weeks.

Canadian defeated LeFors 14 to 0 last Friday in a conference game. The Wildcats are hoped to win sectional honors this season. The team is made up of veterans who have showed wonderful team work so far this year.

The Gorillas have won three games and lost two this season.

WILSON, STAMPS STILL PLAY FOR CORSICANA AT S. M. U.

'It's Corsicana's Ball,' Yells Wilson During Game With Rice.

BY BILL PARKER, Associated Press Sports Writer.

Billy Stamps, who gained All-American honors with Corsicana high school a few seasons ago, is living up to all advance notices. He is an outstanding cog in one of the finest lines Southern Methodist ever boasted. Stamps is a rugged, chunky youngster, tips the scales at 190 and loves to mix it. Stamps and little Robert Wilson, the Ponies' backfield find, figured in an amusing incident in the recent Southern Methodist-Rice game at Houston. Wilson pulled a leg tendon late in the fourth quarter and was taken out by Coach Ray Morrison. A few minutes afterward, the Owls fumbled and there was a pileup of players scrambling for the ball. Those on the bench were straining to see who had the ball. Finally, Stamps made a successful dive. Wilson jumped up and cried "Corsicana's ball." He and Stamps played together at Corsicana. The team is still kidding him for forgetting that, in spite of his mere 150 pounds, he's grown up and playing college ball now.

Wilson is well on his way towards entry among the immortals at the Methodist institution. He is a great ball carrier, a good passer, can quick-kick and is a first class defensive player both on passes and ground plays. His speed and shiftness make him a dangerous safety man. Jerry Mann, one of the great passers ever developed in this section and an all-Southwest choice at Southern Methodist, says Wilson is as great a back as the Mustangs have ever presented.

Amarillo Police Will Have Radios

AMARILLO, Oct. 26. (P)—The Amarillo police department will install radio equipment to keep step with the movement against crime.

Local crime is not alarming, said Police Chief W. R. McDowell, but the department recently has figured in the arrest of some notorious criminals including George McGee, kidnaper of Mary McElroy of Kansas City, and Bob "Big Boy" Brady, one of the life-terminers who recently escaped from the Kansas penitentiary.

"Amarillo is probably the only city of its size in Texas not having radio equipment for scout cars," Mayor Ross Rogers said.

H. H. Durston of Fort Worth spent yesterday renewing acquaintances with Pampa friends. Mr. Durston is with the Fort Worth & Denver railroad company and practically made Pampa his home while the Pampa-Childress branch was under construction.

Wilson, Jack Rabbit Smith, Harry Shuford, Jackie Gore, James Russell, and a flock of other sophomore backfield performers are big reasons why the Mustangs are, this year, boasting the most versatile attack since Ray Morrison has been in charge of athletics at S. M. U. Always a strictly passing team up to now, the Dallas eleven has gone in heavily for a running game. Combined with their overhead shots the ground attack has given the Ponies an offense that is a test for any defense.

WITH THE HARVESTERS

By HARRY E. HOARE

It is certainly nice to sit in the grandstand and know that you have an 11-man team representing the home town on the field. These one man teams are great things but they are anything but reliable. The Harvesters this year furnish a good example of an 11-man team. Childress has a one-man team in "Red" Ratican, and look what happened to Childress last week when Ratican was on the sidelines with injuries. Matador, little class B team, held Childress to a 7-7 tie.

Several Pampa fans are of the opinion that Amarillo has a one-man team in Captain Corbitt. That may be and again it may not, because Mahuron, Cleghorn and Beale are in the Sandie backfield along with Corbitt and they have been doing considerable ball carrying this year. However, Corbitt is the master passer and the nucleus of the Sandie aerial circus, with him out of the game, Amarillo would just about have to stay on the ground.

Statistics don't seem to mean a thing this year. Figures show the Amarillo Sandies 88 points better than the Canyon Collets. Fine. Amarillo beat Plainview high school 60 to 0 and Plainview high defeated Wayland College 45 to 0. West Texas State Teachers won from Wayland 17 to 0. Why, figures show Tulsa U. 7 points better than Notre Dame--and as a Pampa was remarked yesterday, "They may be."

Harvester "exes" are looking good in college football. Troy Stalls and Joe Kahl are valuable to Tulsa U., while Paul Hill was a starter with T. C. U., until injured a few weeks ago. Down at Canyon we have Ralph Poe, H. L. Ledrick "Pete" Martindale, "Dinty" Moore, and Al Duncan. The Tulsa U. and Al Duncan. The Tulsa U. and Al Duncan. The Tulsa U. and Al Duncan.

Six Teams Join Bowling League

Captains of teams that will comprise the City Bowling league will meet at 8 o'clock Friday night in the Schneider hotel when team rosters will be turned in and rules and regulations discussed. Six teams have already entered the league and two more are being formed to round out the largest City league in several years.

Bowlers met in the Schneider hotel last night and discussed the formation of the league. They agreed that the rules governing play in the City league would be the same that is used in the Commercial league. Last season the league was operated on a handicap basis, which was found very unsatisfactory.

Teams will gather each bowling night at 8 o'clock and play will start at 8:15 o'clock. Regardless of whether full teams are ready to bowl, teams with a man short will take 125 pins for the absent man's game. Other rules and regulations will be discussed at the captain's meeting.

Team names have not been definitely selected, but will be available at the Friday night meeting.

ALABAMA AND FORDHAM TOP GRID PROGRAM

YALE-ARMY BATTLE TO BE ONE OF BIGGEST GAMES SATURDAY

By HUGH S. FULLERTON, Jr., Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK, Oct. 26. (AP)—The idea of an eastern football conference, which has been discussed in "funning" sessions for a good many years, lends a little enchantment to a survey of this week's eastern grid program which already is good enough to satisfy most fans within the confines of an imaginary eastern "Big Ten," composed of Army, Navy, Yale, Harvard, Princeton, Dartmouth, Columbia, Cornell, Pennsylvania and Brown, come nearly half of the outstanding games of the section Saturday.

These ten colleges, natural rivals and each playing at least three games against others of the group, offer such major struggles as Yale-Army, Harvard-Dartmouth and Penn-Navy. All three might have an important bearing on the championship if there was a title to decide. In addition, the schedule includes Brown vs. Holy Cross, Columbia vs. Penn State and Princeton's intersectional meeting with Washington and Lee. Cornell has an open date.

The Yale-Army clash already is one of the week's biggest games as both teams are undefeated; the Cadets are rated as possible contenders for national honors after last week's triumph over Illinois; and Yale, which frequently starts slowly, has a habit of showing improvement about this time.

Outside of these ten colleges, the leading games are Fordham vs. Alabama, perhaps the most important of the week's intersectional clashes, Colgate-LaFayette, Carnegie Tech-Washington and Jefferson and Bucknell-Temple.

The midwest, which has demonstrated the possibilities of conference competition for a good many years, has another big battle within its Big Ten to follow last week's Michigan-Ohio State clash. Iowa's Hawkeyes, which look like an outstanding threat to Michigan's title hopes, face the tough young Minnesota team. Minnesota appears to be a strong opponent for any team, especially after last week's triumph over Pittsburgh while Iowa has beaten Northwestern and Wisconsin.

Michigan's aspirations appear undiminished by Saturday's clash with Chicago. Ohio State and Northwestern, both out of the race for the present, may put on a great struggle as both are out to regain some lost prestige. The remaining conference clash is Wisconsin vs. Purdue, the latter tied but unbeaten.

The midwest program also includes some highly interesting intersectional games as Pitt makes an effort to come back from last week's defeat at Notre Dame's expense and Michigan State encounters Syracuse.

Although there are three championship games on the Southwest conference program, one of the most interesting clashes listed sends Texas Christian against Centenary of the S. I. A. A. Centenary belongs to a conference of somewhat lower rank but has the habit of beating the Southwestern teams. Within the conference, the Arkansas-Southern Methodist clash, involving the leading teams, stands far above the rest. But Texas, opening its title campaign, may get right up into the race by beating Rice.

While it may or may not decide the championship, the California-Southern California fray tops the Pacific coast program by a wide margin. Some of the edge was taken off the 18th meeting between these rivals when Washington State played a 6-8 tie with California last week and Oregon State played a scoreless draw with the Trojans. Oregon and Stanford, both unbeaten and united within the conference, face lesser rivals: Stan ord plays Washington and Oregon plays U. C. L. A., which has lost one conference game.

Another Strike Voted in Cuba By Communists

HAVANA, Oct. 22 (AP)—While disorders in the capital and the interior increased, the government of President Grau San Martin faces a new labor threat today.

The potent and communistic national labor confederation voted a general strike, but it did not decide on either its date or what would be its duration.

Five hundred delegates from many unions affiliated with the confederation assembled secretly last night to vote the strike. Their assembly was a defiance of Police Director Franco, by whose orders raiders had arrested 400 workers and strike pickets in the last two days.

The strike vote was in protest against the government closing of labor headquarters. The arrests of workmen, the increased cost of living, and the "red massacre" of September 28.

GRAU REGIME PREPARED TO QUIT OFFICE

ATTEMPT IS MADE ON LIFE OF VETERAN LEADER

HAVANA, Oct. 26 (AP)—An attempt was made early today on the life of Carlos Mendieta, veteran nationalist leader, when his home was bombed.

Mrs. Mendieta narrowly escaped injury when the balcony on which she had been standing but a few minutes earlier was ripped away by the explosion.

Mendieta said he had "no idea" who was responsible for the attempt on his life.

The explosion which occurred about 1:30 a. m., shattered windows of his bedroom and tore away the front of his home, but Mendieta, Mrs. Mendieta, and their daughter escaped injury.

The bombing followed hours of wild disorders in some parts of the city. During the last two days police have arrested 400 persons in an effort to stem the trouble.

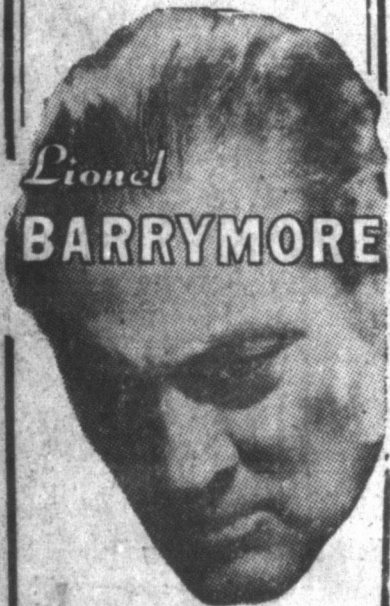

Most of those arrested were communists.

Outside the capital, the situation also was acute—especially in Matanzas province and at the Alto Cedro sugar mill in Oriente province where the American manager, C. M. Jervis, was held prisoner by workers who were reported to have set up a Soviet regime.

Bakers, butchers, and truck drivers carried on in their strikes. Police planned to post guards at all butcher shops after it was reported disorders were planned there.

President Grau's cabinet went to the palace prepared to resign, but the president deferred definite action on the resignations pending further study of the situation.

MURRAY DEFIES INJUNCTION AND SEIZES UNION SOLDIERS HOME

OKLAHOMA CITY, Oct. 26 (AP)—By executive order Gov. William H. Murray today seized the union soldiers' home here in defiance of a district court injunction prohibiting interference with the institution, closed since the governor refused to approve a $28,000 appropriation for its operation.

Trustees of the home, who own control of the property in a court fight with Gov. Murray last summer, conferred immediately with attorneys to plan counter action.

The governor issued his executive order and called out Adit. Gen. Charles P. Barrett of the national guard to enforce it after Mrs. G. B. McGinley, former matron at the home, refused to give P. B. Bostic, superintendent of University hospital, the keys to the building.

When Bostic returned with the order, accompanied by General Barrett, Mrs. McGinley relinquished the keys.

The governor plans to convert the home building into an annex of University hospital, a state institution.

More than 100 residents of the soldiers' home moved out when Murray forced the closing of the institution.

Mrs. McGinley said she submitted to the demand of General Barrett with the understanding that eight wards of the home, now living in a hospital building on the home grounds, would not be molested.

The eight-five widows of civil war veterans, two Spanish-American war veterans and the wife of one of them—have been in the hospital building since the main building was closed.

George Abe Davis, chairman of the board of trustees, said the board had notified Mrs. McGinley not to surrender the keys "without a fight."

Hugh Jones, member of the state board of affairs, said the eight remaining inmates of the home "will not be interfered with."

Stocks Subside And Wheat Dips; Gold Is Watched

NEW YORK, Oct. 26 (AP)—The speculative flurry in the stock and commodity markets subsided today. Wall street was still expecting substantially higher prices for gold, eventually, but the price for newly mined metal announced by the RFC today, at $31.54 was only 18 cents above yesterday's price, which was so small that speculators decided to move cautiously.

It was noted with much interest that the dollar failed to decline in the foreign exchange markets to a level of depreciation indicated by the RFC gold price, causing some uncertainty in financial quarters as to how much the RFC prices may affect the exchange value of the dollar.

Today's RFC price indicated a gold depreciation of the dollar of approximately 34.5 per cent. The French franc, after advancing a trifle, however, settled back to last night's final level at 5.86 cents which indicated a dollar depreciation of only 3.31 per cent. The pound sterling likewise ruled about unchanged.

Prices in speculative markets were for the most part narrowly changed. Wheat dipped about 1/4 cent a bushel at Chicago before steadying. December corn rallied a little, in response to the government's an-

McAdoo States Recognition Of Russia Is Wise

NEW YORK, Oct. 26 (AP)—Saying that he saw no loafers in Moscow, United States Senator William Gibbs McAdoo, of California, returned from a short tour of Europe today and called the move of President Roosevelt to resume trade relations with Russia "very wise" indeed.

In an interview given while the steamship Conte di Savoia made its way from the quarantine to its dock, the senator said "there was never any reason why recognition of Russia should have been withheld."

"In the first place," he said, "it simply means the establishment of diplomatic relations which are so necessary to intercourse to be carried on. It means the re-establishment of consular offices which are essential machinery for international trade."

"As Russia is a large field for reciprocal trade, it is just the kind of trade we ought to have."

"France, England, and Italy" all have recognized Russia. It must be borne in mind that recognition does not mean approval of a form of government or of Russia's domestic institutions or of Russia's domestic affairs."

TRIAL OF FIVE AMERICANS AT PALMA STARTS

Charged With Attack Upon Civil Guard; Consul Present

PALMA, Mallorca, Oct. 26 (AP)—The trial of five Americans charged with assault upon a civil guard was started today, with Claude Dawson, American consul general at Barcelona, Spain, in attendance.

The defendants are Mr. and Mrs. Clinton B. Lockwood, of West Springfield, Mass.; Rutherford Fullerton, of Columbus, Ohio; Roderick F. Ead, of New York, and Edmund W. Blodgett, of Stamford, Conn.

The hearing was in the form of a court martial in the infantry barracks. The court room was crowded with members of the British and the American colony.

Hearing of evidence was to follow the preliminaries, including the reading of the charges, which were based on an alleged attack on the guard during a disturbance in a local hotel.

Five American citizens, visiting Palma, the capital of the beautiful Mediterranean island of Mallorca, became engaged in a dispute with a Spanish civil guard last June 4.

When the altercation was ended, one of the American's spectacles was broken, an American woman had been struck with the flat of the guard's saber, the guard had been scratched, and all five Americans were in jail.

The Americans were Mr. and Mrs. Clinton B. Lockwood of New York and West Springfield, Mass.; Rutherford Fullerton, Columbus, O.; Roderick F. Ead, New York, and Edmund W. Blodgett, Stamford, Conn. Lockwood, Mead, and Blodgett are artists.

The charge against them, under Spanish law, was serious, for civil guards in Spain are members of the military and the charge was a military offense, rather than civil.

As a result, the Americans were held six weeks in prison, most of that time incommunicado, while the American embassy in Madrid worked to effect their release. They finally were given their freedom to await trial on bail.

Liquor Taken By City Officers As Arrests Are Made

Two men were turned over to the county by city officers this morning. One of the men was arrested late last night with nine pints of red liquor and a half gallon of corn liquor in his possession, city officers who made the arrest said. He had not been charged in justice court this morning.

The other man arrested by city officers yesterday afternoon was booked for assault and battery in city court, but that charge comes under county jurisdiction, and Chief Andrews turned the man over to county officers.

One other arrest was made by city officers last night.
