Along The Waterfront

Taylor Oak guests have done well as fishermen this past week, according to Mrs. Tom Roper. Clifford Williams, of Lubbock made one catch of about 25 trout running around two pounds each, and brought in a number of other good strings.

Al Smith and Bill Evans have had nice catches of trout and gafftops; Mr. and Mrs. Jim Stansell caught some good trout, despite the fact that Mrs. Stansell hooked herself and had to have a hook removed from her finger last week.

Mrs. Stansell, on another trip, brought in six big sheepshead, up to 5 1/2 pounds. Ted Giese and Joe Slocum caught 6 reds, around five pounds each.

Visiting Joe Rodriguez are friends Joe Galvan and Joe Jimenez, of Smithville. The three of them fished the cut at the Cove this week, and caught 90 redfish from two to three pounds.

Vernon Kleypas, Harold Beasley and Dewey Iles fished in Mesquite Bay over the weekend, and caught 45 trout, reds and other fish.

Out at Rattlesnake Point, Mrs. Faucett says: Mr. and Mrs. Jack Howard of San Antonio, caught 78 trout.

E. E. Olson and Joe Riffe of Houston, caught 51 trout.

Lee Roy and Ed Caro and Frank Munog of Floresville, 180 trout.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hadler of Austin and Mrs. Morris Ham of Robstown, caught 131 trout, drum and reds.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Benson of Corpus Christi, caught 20 trout and 1 large red.

L. E. White and son Larry, of Portland, caught 20 reds, trout and sheepshead.

Jacob Iosek and Dave Brian of Moulton, caught 35 reds, drum, sheepshead and trout.

The Gus Dietz party of Karnes City, caught 21 trout.

George Eckert, Alfred and Charles Halbardier of San Antonio, caught 8 big reds, and 3 big trout and 70 smaller trout and reds.

CARLA MESSED UP PASSES BUT MADE A FEW GOOD ONES

Austin.—When a giant hurricane like Carla moves across the island sands along the Texas coast, it forces water over, through and around these lowlands. This tidal water usually cuts new passes, washes old ones deeper or fills and closes them with sand.

Ernest G. Simmons, coastal supervisor for the Game and Fish Commission at Rockport, reports that many passes from Matagorda Island south were opened by Carla. Most of these are only temporary and will close in time. Where new passes are backed by large bays they may remain open for a longer period because of the normal tide water which will rush in and out of them.

Cedar Bayou remains open and is deeper and straighter than before the blow. Vinson Slough is open to the Gulf but too shallow near the bay side for boat travel. Old North Pass near Aransas Pass was about a mile wide and a foot deep. Now it is closed.

Several passes were opened temporarily in the Mustang Island vicinity including Packery Channel, Corpus Christi Pass and Newport Pass. Packery at last report was still open, but is expected to close soon. Yarbrough Pass is in worse shape now than before Carla.

The causeway from Corpus Christi to Padre Island washed out in several places, leaving some needed circulation passes there. "If these passes could be left in the causeway," said Simmons, "the waters of the upper Laguna Madre would be improved greatly. We sincerely hope arrangements can be worked out to keep these causeway passes open."

The Commissioners Court, at their regular meeting, transacted routine business, authorizing J. R. Millikin, County Auditor, to apply for Federal financial assistance to combat the ravages of Hurricane Carla.

Council Awards Bid On Pickup, Sets Tax Levy

The City Council, at its regular meeting, awarded the bid for a new pickup truck to Atzenhoffer Chevrolet Company of Victoria and then discussed routine problems.

Rockport Fire Chief Dick Fox, present with Emergency Corps President Buddy Keith, told the council that a new pumper of the type needed to take care of community growth would cost between $16,000 and $17,000.

Mayor Herman Johnson thanked Fox and Keith for the information that had accumulated on the matter, and the Council promised to study ways and means for acquisition of the pumper if possible.

The tax levy for the coming year was set at $1.50, with 45 cents going to street maintenance, 20 cents debt service on the street improvement bonds issued when Loop 70 was built through the city, and 85 cents to the city's general fund.

Mayor Johnson then reported upon a study he had made of adapting the present city radio to the new truck and discussed possibilities of a radio set-up for the city.

Much of the time at the meeting was devoted to ways and means to combat discolored water coming from the city mains, and water Supt. Tom Shults was authorized to contact specialists in this matter to see what remedy might be possible.

Mayor Johnson read a letter from the congregation of the First Methodist Church at Haskell, Texas, enclosing a $100 check for relief of hurricane suffering in the Rockport area. The council, deeply grateful, decided that the only thing to do was to return the check with the suggestion that it be sent to some other region worst hit by the hurricane.

Mrs. Dave Segler, acting city secretary, told the council that $1235 in delinquent taxes had been received this month, and said she hoped to have tax notices ready to mail by the first of November.

The Council, at its closing act, authorized Police Chief E. A. Stautzenberger to call upon Don Banning for identification and comparison of finger prints whenever necessary.

Aransas County Reaches 92.4% of Bond Quota

Fred Bracht, county chairman for the sale of U. S. Government bonds, said that Aransas County has already sold 92.4% of its quota for 1961, with three months sales yet to be reported.

September sales here were $4,798, Bracht said, bringing the county's cumulative purchases this year to a total of $55,447. Quota for the county is $60,000, Bracht said.

Percentage wise, Bracht said, Aransas County is leading all of those in District Number 7, of which Allen Wood of Corpus Christi is chairman, McMullen County is last.

Brooks County has reached 78.9% of its quota; Live Oak County is next, with 77.7%; Jim Wells County has sold 73.9%; San Patricio County, 79.8%; Nueces County, largest of all, has outstripped the rest with $2,481,394 for the first nine months of the year, although this is only 59.1% of its quota; Kleberg, 53.5%; and Kennedy, 50%.

Five counties in Area 2, to which District 7 belongs, have purchased far more than their quota. Highest of all is Zavala County, with 121.7%; next is Starr County, with 119.3%, followed by Maverick with 118.2%, Karnes, 115%, and Lavaca with 100.3%.

FOOTBALL TEAM JOURNEYS TO MATHIS FRIDAY

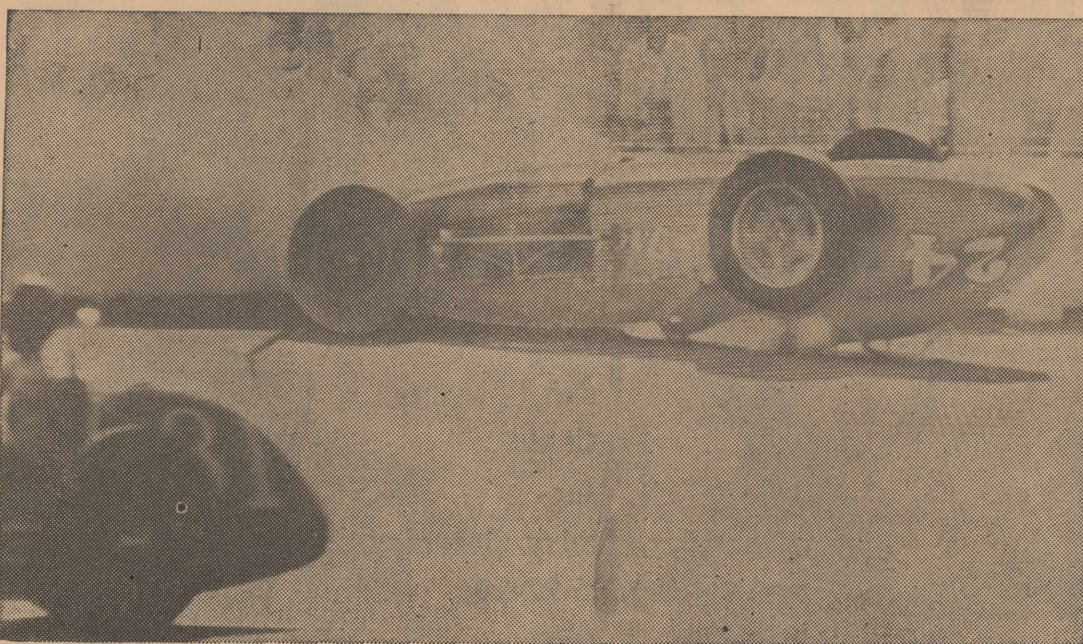

The Aransas County High School Pirates will meet another bunch of Pirates Friday night at Mathis, and both have been sharpening up their cutlasses for the game.

The ACHS team has been working all week to sharpen up their offense and defense for this, the fifth district game of the season.

World Community Day to Be Held Here At St. Peter's

World Community Day will be observed in Rockport on Friday, Nov. 3, at 3:30 p.m., at St. Peter's Episcopal Church. Mrs. W. H. Blevins will lead the discussion on "Freedom to Know."

The emphasis this year is on training women for adult education workers in Brazil, Chile and Peru; also on material aid for mothers and children. Each woman attending is asked to bring either for this or for the following items:

Material to make children's clothing. 5 to 8, or used clothing such as sweaters, coats or school clothes in these ages, and school supplies, such as pencils, erasers, crayons, pads of paper and blunt-point scissors.

A committee composed of each church in the United Church Women's organization will assemble and pack these items for shipment to be distributed in Latin America.

Refreshments and a social hour will follow this meeting and all women and visitors are invited to attend.

Admission will be $1 for adults, 50 cents for children, with proceeds used to help establish and operate a vocational training center for the handicapped.

Local civic clubs will sponsor booths. A group from Del Mar College theater and drama department will do a ballet to a Fred Waring arrangement of Jones' "Ghost Riders in the Sky" and "Whirlwind." Dancers will be Jim Hoskins, Kay Ledbetter, Sharon Bradley and Ronald Talbert.

Square dance demonstrations will be given by Dr. Roger Knapp's Monday Nighters. Don Pierce, local recording artist, will sing several songs.

WOMAN'S CLUB TO HOLD BAKE SALE, GAMES PARTY

Members of the Woman's Club under the leadership of Mrs. R. C. Naper, will hold a bake sale and games party Saturday night, Nov. 4, at the club building. Proceeds will be used toward repairing the Hurricane Carl damage to the clubhouse.

A free-will offering will be taken at the door as an admission fee, and the festivities will begin at 7:30 p.m.

HARMON SETS CASING AT 9,503

Amerada Petroleum Corp. and Jake Hamon No. 1 State Tract 191, proposed 13,000-foot Aransas County wildcat 1/2-mile east of Rockport in Aransas Bay, was drilling below 10,380 feet with 14.6 pound mud. The project has 7 1/2-inch casing at 9,503 feet.

Mrs. O. J. Derrick underwent surgery at Spohn Hospital last week. She is recovering nicely.

Gulf Shrimp Industry Troubles Are Reported

New Orleans.—Frank P. Briggs, assistant secretary of the Department of the Interior, said Thursday the shrimp industry—with catches down 60 per cent in Gulf waters—is in trouble and needs help.

Briggs said the federal and state governments were giving serious thought to the problem.

In an address to the 12th annual meeting of the Gulf States Fisheries Commission, he noted that the federal government had allotted $175,000 for a Gulf states shrimp research program.

"The shrimp industry is the most valuable fishery in the United States," he said. "The demand is high but the shrimp industry is in trouble."

He urged the industry to explore deeper waters of the gulf for a new shrimp supply supply. He also called for improvements in processing of menhaden.

Briggs said the weak link in the oyster industry is assurance of a sufficient supply.

Youth Council Names Chaperones For Dances

The Aransas County Youth Association has voted to use a new method of securing chaperones for the Junior and Senior High School Dances at the Youth Building during the school year, according to a letter prepared by President N. F. Jackson, and mailed to parents in this community.

This plan, he said, has been most successful in other communities, because it eliminates any one couple having to serve too many times during the year.

A sheet listing the dates of the dances and the chaperones will be mailed to everyone, he said, and if there is any change concerning a dance, because of school activities, the scheduled chaperones will be notified.

"Please understand," he said, "that on the date your name appears, we depend upon you either to be present or to find a suitable alternate, and this means that at least one father must be present. Should you fail to do this, the dance will be cancelled."

Jackson said that a file will be kept of those parents serving, and that names of parents whose children attend the dances that do not appear on this year's schedule will be used on next year's program.

VFW INSTALLS NEW MEMBERS

At the regular meeting of Stewart-Wendell Post 3904, Veterans of Foreign Wars, two new members—Lauriano Falcon and Louis Solis, were installed by Chester Johnson, Judge Advocate General. Both are overseas veterans.

Details of the Nov. 11, Armistice Day flag display were discussed, and Dr. Leonard Goldman was appointed flag captain.

There will be a district VFW meeting in Odem, Monday night, Nov. 6. Local members will meet at 6:30 p.m. at the VFW Hall and leave in a body.

The next regular meeting of the local post will be held Tuesday, night, Nov. 7, and all members are urged to attend.

HALLOWEEN DANCE AT BEACHCOMBERS CLUB

The Beachcombers Club will hold a Halloween dance for members and their guests at the club Saturday night, Oct. 28. It will be a masquerade, with a prize for the best costume.

The Dave Rourke Trio will furnish the music. The club is located at the Big Tree.

San Pat, Aransas HD Women Ready Achievement Event

The annual Achievement Day program for Home Demonstration club women of San Patricio and Aransas Counties will be Wednesday at the Women's Building at the county fair grounds in Sinton.

Highlights of the program are expected to be a style show presented by members of the various clubs, and reports about the recent statewide HD meeting in San Angelo.

Educational booths will be entered by the various HD Clubs, and there will be exhibits of handwork and canning. Prizes will be awarded to the top three garments entered in the style show and for the three booths judged the most outstanding.

Theme for the Achievement Day program will be "Women in the News."

Mrs. Owen Dragoon of Sinton, the District 12 vice president for the Texas Home Demonstration Association, will be commentator for the style show.

Mrs. J. L. Rankin will serve as exhibit chairman for the booth displays.

Judges for the garments and booths will be Mrs. A. J. Bremer, Mrs. R. C. Eakin and Mrs. Roger Gerdes, all 4-H Club adult leaders from Sinton.

A covered dish lunch will be served at noon to members and guests.

The style show will be at 1 o'clock, and reports of the THDA convention will follow it. Presenting the reports will be Mrs. Martin Wheeler of the Copano Bay 4-H Club, Mrs. M. D. Mickey of Ingleside and Mrs. J. L. Rankin of the Sinton Eads HD Club, all delegates to the state meeting.

Rat Control Campaign Scheduled

A rat control campaign will get underway in Aransas and San Patricio counties Oct. 30 through Nov. 8, according to Dan Pawlik, county agent.

Pawlik said that Aransas and San Patricio county 4-H boys will cooperate with the County Building Program committee, the Extension Service, and the Fish and Wildlife Service in an effort to bring these destructive rodents under control.

During the campaign, Fumarin, one of the newer and safer poisons to use, and bait recommended for use where there is plenty of food for rats and mice, can be purchased at Ray's Service Station in Rockport, and at a number of stations in Sinton, Edroy, Mathis, Odem, and Taft.

Pawlik said that, in order to keep down reinfestation and to insure satisfactory control, that more bait be secured than most people think is necessary. He recommends four to six pounds for garages, eight to twelve pounds for a residence, garage, and one or more barns; twenty to twenty-five pounds for cotton gins and outbuildings; and heavy use of pivarin and bait around grain storages.

A nominal charge will be made for the bait.

SHERIFF SHIVERS AT COURTHOUSE AFTER LONG ILLNESS

Sheriff A. C. Shivers has appeared at the courthouse a couple of times this week, after his long illness. He is recuperating nicely, and claims that he is an authority on anything that has been appearing on television between the hours of six a.m. and 10 p.m. every day.

Area Development Committee Appointed

Nine Men and Women of Community Chosen To Serve As Advisory Group for Aransas County Commissioners Court on Planning

Aransas County Judge John D. Wendell has appointed an area development committee of seven men and two women to deal with problems arising out of the tremendous growth of this county and of the region, and to act as an advisory board on the planning of essential public works.

Those who have been chosen for the committee are Emory M. Spencer, James H. Sorenson, Jr., Thomas D. Picton, Mayor Herman Johnson, Weldon Cabaniss, L. E. Casterline, Floyd Rouquette, Mrs. Everal West, and Mrs. Roberts Johnson.

At an organizational meeting Tuesday evening, the organization elected James H. Sorenson, Jr., chairman of the committee. Vice chairman is T. D. Picton, and Weldon Cabaniss is secretary of the group, which has set its first meeting for Thursday night, Nov. 2, at 7:30 p.m., in the courthouse.

Terms of the committee are concurrent with Judge Wendell's term of office. In forming the committee, Judge Wendell said that essential public works, in addition to waterway improvements which are already underway, are construction of adequate drainage works, provision of firm water supplies for immediate and long range needs, and planning for collection, treatment and disposition of sewage and like wastes.

The purpose of the board, as outlined in the letter sent to each of the committee members, is to serve as an advisory committee to the Aransas County Commissioners Court, and the board will be responsible for suggesting different public works projects for consideration and to advise the commissioners on finance methods.

The scope of their assignment as outlined, is broad. They will investigate and report on community needs for public works and suggest other collateral improvements and projects in the public interest.

As the planning and development board broadens its functions, it is intended that suitable subcommittees will be appointed to direct their interest to individual projects. For example, there has already been appointed a Water Committee, whose function under the county planning and development board will be directed to the water needs and development of suitable improvements.

The first seven members of the board were appointed by Judge Wendell, and at the organizational meeting, Mrs. West and Mrs. Johnson were chosen by the board to fill out the membership of nine.

Rockport Ought To Be Ninth Port In Texas

If the tonnage report issued from time to time by the Corps of Engineers, U. S. Army were correct, Rockport would be the ninth largest port in Texas, instead of being credited with a miserly 4423 tons of cargo.

But, instead of crediting the million tons or more of bauxite handled over Aransas County Navigation docks each year to Rockport, the Corps persists in crediting it to Corpus Christi, raising their dry tonnage report.

All this came about, of course, because the giant docks near Harbor Island, over which the Aluminum Company of America unloads south American and West Indian ore, although belonging to the local Navigation District, are in territory that Corpus Christi likes to claim as its own, to boost its dry cargo tonnage.

The ore is unloaded from Alcoa ships at the Harbor Island docks, built on land that belongs to Aransas County Navigation District No. 1, and the wharfage charges are paid to the Navigation District here, rather than to the Port of Corpus Christi.

From the Harbor Island docks, the bauxite is trans-shipped to Intracoastal Canal barges and moved north to Point Comfort where it is unloaded at the giant aluminum plant, and used to boost Port Lavaca tonnage, being used by that port as well as that of the Port of Corpus Christi.

CEMETERY ASS'N HOLDS QUARTERLY MEETING

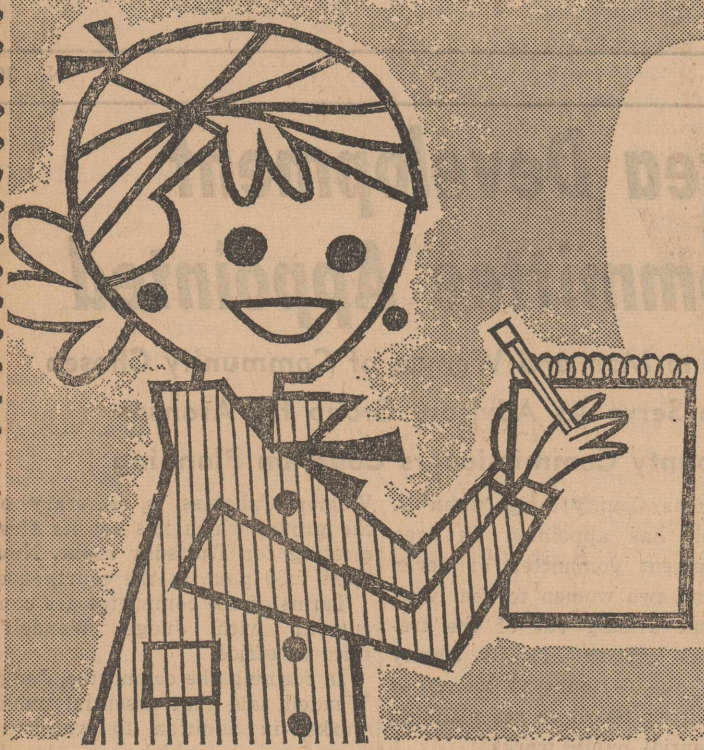

The quarterly meeting of the Rockport Cemetery Association was held Monday afternoon at the home of Misses Vivian and Velma Picton, with Mrs. W. B. Allen, presiding.

Mrs. C. R. Gibson was welcomed as a new member. The grounds chairman reported a thorough cleaning of the entire cemetery, including trimming the palms.

A nominating committee was named which included Mrs. S. F. Jackson, Mrs. Carolyn C. Hooper and Mrs. Mabel Bryant, to report at the annual meeting in January.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Thomas returned last week from a visit to friends and relatives in Oklahoma City, and western Oklahoma.

J. D. Hesseltine was mid-week speaker at the Church of Christ last week.

800 DISABLED AREA
WORKERS RECEIVE BENEFITS

A recent survey shows that only one out of four people know that social security benefits are paid if a worker becomes disabled, according to George A. Miles, Field
Representative of the Corpus Christi Social Security office.

Social Security benefits can be paid to a disabled worker at any age and to certain members of his family. In general, the requirements are that the worker must have worked under social security in at least five of the last ten years before he became disabled, and he must have a disability that will prevent him from doing any kind of work. In addition, there is a waiting period of six months from the month the disability began before payments can begin.

At the present time, about 800 disabled workers in the Corpus Christi area are receiving monthly disability insurance benefits, Miles said. Benefits are also being paid to about 850 dependents of these disabled workers.

With nine out of ten workers
now covered by Social Security, almost everyone is directly or indirectly affected by the program.
Miles urged workers and their families to keep advised as to their rights under the law.

More information about the disability provisions can be obtained from The Social Security Office,
530 South Water Street, Corpus Christi, Texas.

QUAIL SEASONS EARLY IN MANY TEXAS COUNTIES

Austin.—Quail hunters in Texas will get a break, with an early season in a number of additional counties this year for Nov. 1 opening, according to Al Springs, wildlife coordinator of the Game and Fish Commission.

The Commission has approved Nov. 1 to Dec. 31 season all of the counties of the trans-Pecos area, except Culberson, El Paso, and Hudspeth counties. The season on those counties will be Nov. 1 to Dec. 15 inclusive. The bag limit will be 12 per day or 24 in possession. Crockett County, which is in the Edwards Plateau regulatory area, is included in the trans-Pecos area for quail, with the Nov. 1 opening date. The possession limit in Crockett, however, is 36. In South-Central Texas, Dimmitt, Zavala, Frio, and Webb counties have been added to the Nov. 1 opening date. The season will close there on Jan. 16. McMullen and LaSalle counties are open Nov. 1 to Dec. 15, under a special law. The bag limit in that area will be 12 per day and 36 in possession.

In the Possum Kingdom area, which also will include Brown, Nolan, and Taylor counties, the season will be Nov. 24 to Jan. 20 inclusive, with a 15 per day, 45 possession limit. In the counties in the Southeast Texas regulatory area, the open season will be Nov. 15 to Jan. 16 inclusive, with the exception of Orange and Jefferson counties, where the season will be Dec. 1 to Jan. 16 inclusive. In Burleson and Colorado counties, the season will be Dec. 1 to Jan. 16 inclusive. Both these areas will have an open season Dec. 1 to Jan. 16.

According to reports from wardens and biologists, the quail crop is in excellent condition in most of the Texas counties. The quail crop is in excellent condition in most of the Texas counties. The quail season is set by general law, except in approximately 125 counties which are under regulatory authority. In these counties, the season and bag limits are set on the basis of the crop of birds and the potential food supply.

Carolyn Washington Is Homecoming Queen For Second Year.

Miss Carolyn Washington was chosen Aransas County High School Homecoming Queen for the second successive year on Friday night in pre-game ceremonies and was crowned by Jimmy Jackson, president of the student council and quarterback on the Pirate team, before the football game, which ACHS lost to the Woodsboro Eagles in a game where Woodsboro didn't need their second touchdown to win.

When Mal Crews, the Eagle full-back smashed over for their first touchdown in the early part of the fourth quarter, making it six to six, Woodsboro had won the ball game unless Aransas County could score another touchdown themselves.

This may sound like double-talk, but it isn't.

District 31A rules read that when the score is tied, the team having the most penetrations is the winner. If both score and penetrations are tied, then the game goes to the team with the most first downs. And there can be no tie games.

So, with Crews' touchdown, Woodsboro was the winner, unless the Pirates could make another touchdown. The Eagles had three penetrations beyond the twenty-yard line to one of the Pirates, and 17 first downs to 7, so when the Pirates got the ball with 1 minute and fifteen seconds to play, there was only one thing to do, and Coach Dave Segler did it. He went for broke. He checked with the officials to be sure that Woodsboro was ahead on penetrations and downs, then told the Pirate quarterback to try to break loose on the fourth down instead of punting.

The fact that Woodsboro got the ball on downs and racked up another touchdown with 30 seconds to play had no effect on the outcome of the football game. It was just lagniappe that they didn't need.

The first quarter was slow, with the teams slugging out in the middle of the field with little advantage for either side.

In the second quarter, however, the Pirates took over after Paul Ramsey intercepted an Eagle pass, and started a drive on the Eagle 46. Most of the gains were on the ground, with Williams, Galindo and Ramsey lugging the ball.

However, a pass from Ramsey to Galindo ate up 16 yards, to the Eagle 25, and a tally came from Jimmy Jackson sneaked over from the one yard line for the first score. The point after was missed.

The half was over shortly thereafter, with the ball in the Pirates' hands after an interception by Andy Everett.

The second half was a different story, because the Eagles started to click, with Oefinger and Crews smashing through the Pirate line, and Bell turning in long slashing runs that ate up the yardage.

However, neither team scored, although only a timely interception by Galindo on the ACHS wto-yard line kept the Eagles away from pay dirt.

Early in the fourth quarter, after a sustained drive, Mal Crews smashed through for the Eagles' first score. The second touchdown for the Eagles came just thirty seconds before the end of the game, and that made it 12-6 in favor of the Woodsboro team.

Local People Attend Alice P-TA Workshop

Tom Dannelly, of the Aransas County Schools, and Mrs. Floyd Smith, a district officer of the Parent-Teacher Association, were among the more than 150 P-TA leaders and safety committee chairmen who attended the Fall Workshop of the 21st District of the Texas Congress of Parents and Teachers in Alice Monday.

Host for the all-day event was the Alice P-TA City Council, with Robbie Robinson, president.

All sessions were conducted at the Immanuel American Lutheran Church, workshop headquarters.

Mrs. J. W. Eakin of Sinton, district president, presided.

The Rev. A. H. Bohls, pastor of the Immanuel Lutheran Church, gave the invocation and Robbie Robinson, host president, gave the welcome.

Principal speaker for the program, "Signals for Safety," was John U. Parker of Houston, chief safety engineer for Humble Oil Company who spoke on "Cheaper by the Dozen." Since statistics show the safest place you can be is at work, Mr. Parker used industry's safety program as a basis for stressing how their knowledge could be used as a pattern for safety measures in home and community.

Workshops in the afternoon concluded the program, Mrs. J. R. Endicott, Jr., of Corpus Christi led the workshop on "Safety in the Home," assisted by Tom Dannelly of Rockport.

Directing the workshop "Safety in the School" was George Schauer of Corpus Christi, assisted by Mrs. Jean Harris of Agua Dulce. Sgt.

Shrimp Landings
Continue to Drop
On Texas Coast

Preliminary totals on Texas shrimp landings show the third consecutive month of decreasing production, as compared to the same periods in 1960, according to C. E. Nickerson, of the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service, stationer for this area.

In the Coastal Bend, which includes Aransas Pass, Rockport, Fulton and Corpus Christi, landings during September were 1,258,200 pounds of tails; at Port Isabel, boats brought in 1,132,000; the Brownsville catch was 1,050,600; Freeport and Matagorda landed a combined total of 450,100 pounds; and the Galveston-Sabine area produced only 324,600 pounds during the month.

Nickerson said that landings off 51% this year. Only 4,216,300 pounds were landed on the entire Texas coast, compared to 8,680,000 pounds in September, 1960, and to the 5,528,300 pounds landed in August, 1961.

Nickerson said Hurricane Carla was one of the factors affecting production. The storm hit during a time when the industry was already suffering from the poorest production in years and made the situation much worse.

Vessel loss, Nickerson said, was not heavy except at Freeport and in the Matagorda area, where fifteen to twenty shrimpers were reported heavily damaged or lost. All facilities were knocked out in Port O'Connor, Seadrift, Palacios, Kemah and Seabrook.

There was heavy damage to plants and fish houses at Port Lavaca, and in Freeport several shrimp houses were destroyed. Port Isabel, Brownsville, Corpus Christi, Aransas Pass and Rockport were unharmed although the last two have minor water and wind damage.

Nickerson said loss of fishing time varied from a week to a month or more, where vessels had to wait for repairs or to be refloated from inland, where they had been carried by the storm.

Following the hurricane, he said, there was a short but heavy run of brown shrimp off the Port Isabel area. From this came the only good yields of the entire month and fishermen that got into these shrimp early made out very well, aided by exceptionally good prices for their catches. This run brought vessels from all over the Gulf into the area, and consequently trawling became hazardous because of the boat concentration.

Also, the statistician said, trawling bottoms from Pass Cavallo to Galveston were severely damaged by the storm, developing large mud lumps and holes, as well as being scattered with debris. This caused considerable loss of gear and time needed to repair torn nets.

Vessels were fishing out as far as fifty fathoms, Nickerson said, further than any fleet concentration has previously worked.

By the end of September, white shrimp had begun to show on the upper Texas coast. Due to disturbances, most fishing has been in the daytime with little production from night drags.

Prices for heads-off, 15/20 count shrimp at ex-vessel levels ranged from 77c to 87c a pound, with a five cent break for each count bracket less.

The Fish and Wildlife man said that finfishing had been curtailed approximately 80%, and that trot lines and stacked nets were lost to the storm. There was a large increase in the red snapper fishery, however, with record catches being docked.

Galveston and Sabine landed 16,100 pounds (live weight) of blue crabs, an increase over the same month last year, as well as over both periods. Aransas Pass showed a very heavy decrease for both periods, with only 34,800 pounds being produced this September, Nickerson said. Prices ranged from 4c to 7c a pound, live weight.

A large proportion of the crab pots were lost or destroyed during the storm, with resulting curtailment of fishing until they could be replaced.

Oyster production on public reefs had not started when the hurricane struck, but scattered reports indicate that the reefs were not damaged as heavily as at first believed. The Texas Health Department closed all grounds to oystering until a pollution check could be made. All bays will be open to dredging for the coming season, except Corpus Christi Bay, and prospects look good for fair production.

There was a sharp increase in employment after the hurricane, for cleaning up and rebuilding. Also the heavy run off Port Isabel brought many heads-on shrimp to the docks, with consequent increase in shored-side heading.

Nickerson said most areas hard hit by the storm had started rebuilding almost immediately, with temporary docks and unloading platforms set up within a week in some of the harder hit areas.

"In spite of the distressed condition caused by low production and the storm," he said, "The fishermen, in general, philosophically accept disaster from a storm as part of the price of taking their living from the sea, and they are all looking forward to a better season next year. Their morale is not nearly as low as one would expect."

AN EDITORIAL

Who has books or money for books that they want to give to the County Library, situated in the Aransas County Courthouse?

This institution, starting from scratch several years ago has become an accepted part of the community, used by so many people that its circulation per card is far above that of libraries in surrounding towns.

But, because of the United Fund's demise, it has been short of funds for the purchase of new books this year, and only the fact that a number of memorial gifts have been made has made it possible to do this at all.

And, to be of use to the community, a library has to have books. Its just that simple.

So, if you have money that you can give, make the check payable to the Aransas County Library, and send it to County Treasurer Mrs. Eller, or give it to the librarian, Mrs. C. C. Atchley, who is at the library Monday, Wednesday and Friday from 1 until 4:30 in the afternoon.

If you don't have money, and do have books, take them by the library at any time, and, if it's not open, stack them in front of the library door in the courthouse. They'll be taken care of, whether hard-bound or paper-backed.

And the library can use paper-backed books just as well as it can hard bound, although of course it prefers the latter. The paper-backed ones are placed in a big rack and are for exchange. But a lot of people that have been reading them haven't brought in any exchange and a great many of those that are in the library are so old and dilapidated from much use that they'll soon have to be thrown away.

The library can use any book in good repair. If it has duplicates on its shelves, it'll pass the rest along to other libraries. If there aren't duplicates already in the library, the book or books will be placed on the shelves.

It is particularly anxious to acquire more books on Texas, even very old ones, and anyone having these is urged to bring them in, if they no longer want them.

The library has become a community asset. It is sought by hundreds of tourists who use it free of charge; the children of the town inhabit it in swarms, seeking books that they can read; the older people, while not as plentiful as the children, still check out thousands of books a year.

But it needs more books and more money to serve the greater and greater numbers that come to it every year. The United Fund, that used to contribute $50 a month is no longer in existence; county funds are limited; assistance from various civic clubs in town, while welcome has been sparse. And of course Carla made it rough on everyone, including the library.

Hence this appeal for funds and books. If you have either and want to help, give. The checks can be deducted from your income tax, as long as they don't amount to more than 10% of your income.

CARD OF THANKS

Seldom has one been in the position of being so grateful for all the thoughtful expressions of love and kindness. Some day, maybe I will see each of you but for the present, please accept this note of sincere appreciation.

Yours,
Grace Hanway

Under this declaration, the Small Business Administration has been authorized to make emergency loans to small businesses affected by adverse weather conditions in this county, according to W. E. Woodman, manager of the San Antonio office of the SBA.

The authority to accept applications under the Excessive Rainfall Disaster Loan Program will expire Dec. 31, 1962. Applications should be submitted to the San Antonio Office of the Small Business Administration, Kallison Building, 434 South Main Avenue San Antonio 4, Texas.

Comptroller's Men Explain Sales Tax

Two representatives of the State Comptroller's office met with local citizens at the Chamber of Commerce building Tuesday afternoon to explain the intricacies of the State's new sales tax which apparently depend largely upon the interpretations given by Robert S. Calvert, state comptroller.

They were Alfred Roming, district supervisor, and B. R. Pope, both of Corpus Christi, with offices in the Smith Building at 425 Schatzel.

Roming and Pope discussed taxable items, who is required to have permits, how taxes must be reported, and similar questions addressed to them by the twenty or thirty people present.

Every person selling, leasing or renting property for consumption in this state must have a permit. Each separate store must have a permit.

Taxes imposed by the act are due and payable in the comptroller's Austin office quarterly, on or before the last day of the month following each quarterly period.

Persons required to collect the tax must keep an accurate record of gross sales, taxable sales, and every seller, retailer or person shall keep such records available for the comptroller's auditors or field representatives for a period of not less than three years.

Exempted from taxes imposed by this Act include but not limited to:

A. Items taxed under existing statutes. This includes (1) Production of Natural gas, (2) Occupation tax on oil produced, (3) Occupation tax on sulphur produced, (4) Motor vehicles, trailers, and semitrailers sales, (5) Sale of cigarettes, cigars, and tobacco products, (6) Sale of motor fuel, (7) Sale of alcoholic beverage unless the beverage is served with a meal, (8) Sale or use of water, (9) Telephone and telegraph service.

C. Meals and food products served by public or private schools to students and teachers of elementary and secondary schools during the regular school day.

D. Any tangible property sold to the United States, state of Texas, any political division, religious or eleemosynary organizations.

E. Written contracts and bids executed prior to the effective date of the law as set out in the law.

F. Sale of food and food products for human consumption. Food products shall not include medicines, tonics, vitamins, and medicinal preparations in any form, mineral bottled water, carbonated and noncarbonated packaged soft drinks, and diluted juices when sold in liquid, frozen and dry-mix forms, ice, candy.

G. Sale of prescription drugs, medicines and prosthetic devices. H. Animal life that ordinarily constitute food for human consumption; feed, seed and plants of which the products ordinarily constitute food for human consumption; fertilizer to be applied to land the product of which are to be used as food for human consumption; farm machinery or equipment exclusively used on farms or ranches in the production of food for human consumption.

I. Outer wearing apparel costing less than ten dollars ($10.00).

J. Sale or use of any tangible personal property which will become an ingredient or component part of or consumed in a manufactured product of tangible personal property produced for ultimate sale; does not include machinery or equipment having a useful life, when new, of six (6) months or to replacement of parts and accessories for such machinery or equipment. Also, sales of wrapping, packing and packaging supplies and material to any person for use in wrapping, packing or packaging any tangible personal property for the purpose of furthering the sale of the products; nonreturnable containers when sold without the contents to person who places contents in the container and sell the contents together with the container.

For forms and answers to questions regarding the Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax, you may contact personnel in the comptroller's district office, located at 202 Smith Building, 425 Schatzel Street, P. O. Box 1661, Corpus Christi, Texas.

The tea table was covered with a white lace cloth over a green satin flounce. The centerpiece was a large square pink candle burning behind a miniature bride, surrounded with small pink flowers, standing on a round mirror, framed by a white ruffle.

A crystal bowl of green punch was on one end of the table and white cake squares topped with pink roses, were on crystal plates at the other end.

First Whooping Crane Of Season Returns

The winter season's first whooping crane has arrived at the Texas Gulf Coast bird sanctuary, the U. S. Fish and Wildlife service announced Monday.

The lone whooper was seen Sunday, manager Huyson J. Johnson of the Aransas National Wildlife Refuge, said.

On Sept. 18 officials of the Canadian Wildlife Service reported that 25 whoopers were counted during a helicopter flight in the Sass River area of Canada's northwest territories.

In Ottawa, the Northern Affairs Department said four young whooping cranes are believed flying southward toward the Texas wintering grounds.

Latest checks indicated all the young and their parents have begun the 2,600 mile flight from Wood Buffalo National Park on the Alberta-Northwest Territories border.

Eleven adults and three young were sighted Aug. 25 and another youngster was spotted subsequently. Thirty-six of the nearly extinct birds came north in the spring.

If all 40 got back safely to Aransas, the known world population of the whoopers named after their far-carrying bugling cry—would be 47. This includes six in captivity and a young one hatched at the New Orleans Zoo this year.
