Plans All Ready For Opening 6th Annual Jr. Rodeo

This Year's Show To Be Presented In New Facilities At Park

Plans for the sixth annual Ozona Lions Club Junior Rodeo were nearing completion this week with the rodeo scheduled to begin a three-night run next Thursday, running through Saturday, July 11, 12, and 13th.

The election of this year's rodeo queen from among nine candidates is scheduled to occur this week but the announcement of the winner will not be made until the opening night of the rodeo. The nine Ozona girls entered are: Carmen Childress, Diana Coates, Diana Couch, Mary Jane Dunlap, Judy Ingham, Robin Jones, Freida Kay Noelke, Patsy Sessom and Janice Walker.

The AJRA approved show will include ribbon roping, barrel racing, pole bending, bull riding, and calf roping with events for all ages. A trophy to the best all around performer and buckles for the winner in each event are being offered to each contestant and entries are slated to cross July 8.

A new grandstand, new fences, and general improvement of the entire rodeo grounds has been completed since last year.

The new grandstand seating 1500 people has been purchased from the same firm that constructed the football stands, and this year the directors of the Ozona Lions Club will not be worried about too large a load getting on the old wooden grandstand that served Ozona for so long.

A dance is slated to be held on the new concrete slab north of the grandstands all three nights, with the Rocksprings Playboys, the same band as last year, scheduled to furnish the music.

Early entries have been about normal but the usual last-minute rush plus the fact that the Ozona rodeo is the only one scheduled that weekend in this area, may give this year's entry list a boost.

Money made by the Lions Club from the Rodeo goes to support worthwhile civic projects and has served a side project of giving summer business a boost.

This year's rodeo, coming in the midst of a good deal of oil and gas activity, should attract good crowds, particularly in view of the fact that the rodeo committee has been able to present a top flight show each year.

Ranchers Invited To Field Day At Sonora Experiment Station

Ranchmen and others interested are invited to a field day at the ranch experiment station near Sonora Tuesday, July 9, sponsored by the American Society of Range Management.

The field day will get under way at 9 a. m. with a tour of the station pastures.

Dr. C. L. Leinweber, head of the Department of Range and Forestry at A&M College, will address the assembly on the topic, "Plant Reaction to Various Intensities of Use."

"Underground Water and Its Relationship to Plant Cover on Watersheds," will be the subject of a talk by Walter G. Knisel, agricultural engineer with the U. S. Department of Agriculture at Reisel, Texas.

A dutch treat barbecue lunch will be served at noon by the Sutton County 4-H Club Mothers for the benefit of the 4-H Club.

Opening the afternoon session will be a talk by Dr. Walter W. Thames, plant pathologist at A&M College. Round table discussion will follow.

The station management extends a cordially invitation to all Crockett county to attend the field day.

Glenda Friend Is Finalist In Texas Miss Wool Contest

One of Eleven Finalists To Be Judged July 15th

Miss Glenda Friend, daughter of Mrs. Joe Friend of Ozona, has been chosen one of the eleven finalist for the Texas Miss Wool Contest to be held in San Angelo the 15th of July.

Glenda, who will be a sophomore at Texas Tech this fall, said that she entered the contest because she was asked to and thought it would be a lot of fun should she get the opportunity to get into the finals, which she did.

The eleven finalist will make appearances in the Coleman Rodeo parade, have wardrobe fittings, attend a Saturday evening lake-side party and rehearse for the Pageant on the weekend beginning July 12.

The attractive young Ozona miss is an active horsewoman and has been nursing a bad bruise and a slight cut over her eye received in a riding accident last week.

From the eleven finalists, the Texas entry in the National Miss Wool contest will be chosen. Catherine Ann Spence of Austin is the current Miss Wool of Texas and Miss Cherie Slicker of Bakersfield, California, is the current Miss Wool of America.

Glenda is a graduate of Ozona High School and was drum major of the band her senior year.

Ozona Oilers Wrap Up Second Half To Win Championship

Battle With B & B Shows off League's Best Pitchers in Duel

By Ernie Boyd

Ozona Oilers punched across four runs in the seventh inning Monday night to down B&B Grocers 8 to 4 and wrap up the second half of the Ozona Little Legaue championship.

The game was one of the better contests of the season as Fleet Coates, the league's top right hander, and Kirk Boyd, the league's top left hander, each went six frames and wound up in a 4 and 4 tie.

A home run with one man on base by Coates tied the game in the sixth and sent it into overtime with both Boyd and Coates being forced to retire after pitching six innings.

Coates gave up six hits, several of which might have been fielded, walked two and struck out 12 as Ozona Oil collected its four runs while Kirk Boyd surrended five hits, struck out 12 in giving up his four runs. Boyd kept himself in hot water a great deal of the time with wildness as he issued 8 walks.

Coates' fine pitching performanc Monday followed his most impressive showing of the year last Thursday when he gave up one hit, and struck out 10 of the 12 Mason batters to come to the plate in the Grocers' 13 to 1 four-inning win.

The Motor Co. got its lone hit in the first frame on the first

Work Progresses On Gas Pipeline Construction Job

Fulton Co. Contractors Sets Completion Date For August 15

Construction tempo is being stepped up by crews of the Robert H. Fulton Co. of Lubbock, contractors, on laying of the 35-mile pipeline and gathering system for Northern Natural Gas Co. from the Ozona gas field to the company's Eldorado compressor station.

Crews are presently clearing right-of-way and opening ditches for the system and laying of pipe in the line is now expected to start about July 15.

The contract calls for laying of 35 miles of 12-inch line from the Eldorado station to the field southwest of Ozona and approximately 11 miles of gathering system in the field. The line will connect the Hunt-Baggett field and wells in the constantly expanding production area to the east and west.

The present contract calls for 1.5 miles of 4-inch line, 7 miles of 6-inch line and 2.5 miles of 8-inch line, in addition to the 35 miles of 12 inch in the main line. The gas from the Ozona area, finding its first market, will go into Northern Natural's line at the Schleicher countp pump station and thence northwest through the company's existing line.

The Fulton Company has set up offices in the old Sno White laundry building at 13th street and Avenue A. Jack Riffe is superintendent of operations and Bill Cahoom is office manager on the

One Man Killed, Severel Injured In Two Accidents

Big Spring Man Dies In One-Car Crash North of Ozona

One man was killed and a woman seriously injured in two separate one-car accidents near Ozona Saturday night and Monday morning.

Milton Davis of Big Spring died enroute from the Crockett County Hospital to a San Angelo Hospital following a one-car crash at the Big Lake road intersection three miles north of Ozona on state 163 at 11:05 p. m. Saturday.

The car driven by Davis, with N. L. Taylor and Charles Brooks, both of Big Spring, as passengers crashed through the maze of signs and markers indicating the intersection, fatally injuring Davis.

Taylor and Brooks, after treatment at the Crockett County Hospital, were released.

Monday morning about 5:30 a. m,. a Louisiana car failed to make the curve above Lancaster hill and rolled, sending Miss Jenell Thibiodeaux, 18, of Lake Charles, La., her mother, Mrs. Ozitia Thibiodeaux, and her brother, Arnold Thibiodeaux, to the Crockett County Hospital. A fourth passenger in the car, Lt. Joseph Thibiodeaux, was not injured.

Mrs. Thibiodeaux and son Arnold, 15, were only slightly injured but daughter, Jenell, suffered multiple breaks and lacerations and was considered to be seriously though not critically hurt.

The Thibiodeaux family was enroute to California where Jenell planned to live with her brother and enter college this fall.

Highway Patrolmen Jim Harvey and Joe Brownlee investigated the two accidents.

Little League All Stars Named; Play In Sonora July 22

Champ Oilers Place 6 On Squad, 4 From Mason Motors

By Ernie Boyd

The 1963 Little League All-Star team was announced last Thursday by League Director Walter Black after the team was selected by the team managers.

The champion Ozona Oil team, with a record thus far this season of 15 wins and 2 losses, placed six players on the team to lead in number chosen while second place Mason Motors had four players to make the team.

Moore Oil and B&B Grocers, who are currently tied, each placed two players on the squad that will face Sonora in Sonora in the first round of the playoff on July 22.

The fourteen players chosen along with the two alternates are: from champion Ozona Oil Larry Don Webb, Charles Childress, Kirk Boyd, Donald Huff, David Huff, and Cary Conn. From Mason Motors, Terry Lindsey, Jimmy O'Rear, Danny Maness and Glen Davis. From Moore Oil, second year choice Walter Higginbottom and Joe Bob Stephens and from B&B Grocers the only other member of last year's all-star team, Fleet Coates, and Mike Thompson. The two alternates are Joe (Yogi) Ybarra and Elias Elizondo from B&B and Mason respectively.

The All-Star squad will not have a game in Ozona this year as they play Sonora in Sonora and then, if they win, will meet the winner of the four San Angelo Little League teams in San Angelo.

The team may play a few games with former little leaguers in order to stay sharp for the up coming playoffs.

Taylor Deaton, manager of the winning Ozona Oil, and Gene Williams, manager of Mason Motors, will direct the all-star team.

Candidates For Junior Rodeo Queen

These nine young ladies have been nominated for Queen of the 1963 Ozona Junior Rodeo. The Queen will be crowned the opening night of the three-day event July 11, 12 and 13.

OVERDOING IT

A trip to Ireland, to the ancestral seat of the Kennedys in Dunganstown, would, we think, have been a fine and happy thing for the President — even restful, perhaps. But we still wonder about this latest Grand Tour.

Lionized as he appeared to be in West Germany, President Kennedy could not possibly have been welcome in Britain in her hour of purple shame and the political upheaval — in which the US change of heart on Skybolt was almost as devastating as the charms of Miss Christine Keeler. President DeGaulle was not on the calling list, tnd the Italian visit seems a bit pushy both politically and ecclesiastically.

But, perhaps brave speeches are better received abroad than at home. It is easier, no doubt, for the President to promise the Germans that US forces will remain in West Berlin than to assure his countrymen that the US Marines will remain in Guantanamo. But it must be confusing to the Germans to remember that The Wall, "an offense against humanity," was built in August '61 while the US forces watched.

In view of the abandonment of the Monroe Doctrine upon the takeover of Cuba by Khruschev, the words of the President of the United States might have sounded a little hollow to some when he said: "We will keep this Free World free until the day comes, as Thomas Jefferson predicted it would, that the disease of liberty, which is catching spreads throughout the world."

MRS. MURPHY'S LAW

Legislative progress on civil rights for negroes is bogged down at this writing by the side issue of the civil responsibility of "Mrs. Murphy" and her more affluent competitors such as, say, Mr. Sheraton or Mr. Hilton.

The sticky portion of the Administration's bill appears to be Title II, the section that deals with public accomodations. Inevitably and almost immediately, discussion has posed the question of controlling the operations of Mrs. Murphy (the name given by Vermont's Senator George Aiken to the small rooming house or corner store proprietor) as well as the giant hotel, restaurant or department store corporations.

Appearing as the first witness for the President's bill, Attorney General Robert F. Kennedy has told the anti-trust subcommittee of the House Judiciary Committee, that: "I don't think Mrs. Murphy is going to be in any trouble." He said that the Administration would be willing to exempt such small operations from obeying the proposed law against discrimination in privately-owned public accomodations.

In saying that "we would be happy to work out some cut-off line," the Attorney General left the impression that such exemptions would be on the dollar volume of business and the figures of $500,000 a year was suggested by New York's Rep. Emanuel Celler.

Thus it could be that the nation is about to enter a new legislative era under a new concept of justice-by-numbers via a law that would almost certainly come to be known as "Mrs. Murphy's Law." Under such a system — once it was generally established, and compliance was for big operators, big employers and big taxpayers only — the sole problem would be to keep small enough to remain, not "outside" the law, but more literally beneath it.

A Creek In My Back

By Allan R. Bosworth

Author of "New Country" and other historical & fictional works

Strong summer, dumb with rapture, bound
With golden calm the woodlands round. — Swinburne.

Lord, what fools these mortals be!
— A Midsummer Night's Dream.

Summer comes suddenly to Debts Mountain, where I live in a Precarious Manor. Before you know what is happening, the summer solstice arrives, and the little creek murmurs a drowsy lullaby in its weed-choked throat. The wild raspberry vines are loaded with berries and chiggers. This year, the wild plums are redder and more flavorful. There has been an excellent crop of turtles, the crows are noisier, and my acher lawn needs mowing again.

But summer is no time to work, anywhere. You only have to read the fillers in the Sunday newspapers to see that most of the world has been seized by a form of midsummer madness:

In Vienna, a Communist party daily recommended the twist to edlerly patients suffering from rheumatism, and doctors in this country found they could cure alcoholics by first frightening them nearly to death and then giving them a dollop of their favorite tipple. This is simply a reverse of Prohibition days when I can remember taking a drink and Then being scared half to death . . . .

In Hornchurch, England, a 50-member drum and trumpet band went out into a field to rehearse when householders complained they were too noisy. They struck up a march, and five pregnant cows dropped dead. "Did you have to play on my place?" the farmer beefed.

Last summer, in London, Derek Gaisford complained about lamb chops again for supper, and asked why he couldn't have sausages for a change. His wife said she'd give him sausages . . and she has, three times a day for eleven months. "My wife sure goes the whole hog!" Derek grunted.

A 30-year-old Dallas man was eating supper when his wife asked whether they should go out the following evening. He said he didn't care. She stuck a knife in his arm. He pulled the blade out. "I'll just keep on eating," he said offhandedly. She emptied a glass of ice tea on his cranium, and he got up. "I'm going out and work on the car," he said, keeping a cool head. "And I'll pour hot cooking oil on your stomach!" she said crisply . . . and did. "I'll knock you down for that," he said flatly. She got up and wrenched a picket from the fence. "Take that!" she said, paling. He knocked her down again because she was so prone to angument, and then they went to a hospital. "Neither of us wants any charges filed." they rasped.

In Daruvar, Yugoslavia, a 68-year-old retired railroad man ordered a coffin, put on a black suit, and invited friends and kinfolk to his funeral rehearsal. He climbed into the coffin and had his picture taken. "How do I look?" he asked stiffly.

In Cavour, Italy, Margherita Cauda, 28, won the title of Miss Fat Italy at a 21-course dinner, with her 465 pounds. "I hope to do even better next year," she said heavily.

A 29-year-old donkey in the Tokyo zoo was fitted with a $2000 set of gold-filled false teeth, and a German police dog at a U. S. Air Force base in England is having a similar set made of paladium and platinum. "Now we can eat when we choose," they gritted.

This gives you an idea of what summer does to people. But there were two sane notes, this last week. In Somerset, Kentucky, a four year old boy announced that he wants to be a preacher, because "it would be more fun to stand up and yell in church than to sit still and listen." And the Illinois House of Representatives passed a bill allowing daily recitation in Illinois schoos of four lines from the Star Spangled Banner — including the line that says, "And this be our motto: 'In God is our trust.' " The sponsor of the bill said, "I defy the Supreme Court to say we can't teach this prayer in our schools."

That Illinois legislator, and that Kentucky boy, will go far.

THE ESCAPE ROUTE

More and more taxpaying enterprises are expressing themselves through advertising and direct statements by their executives on questions which involve our future independence.

A recent advertisement of the Hyster Company of Portland, Oregon, is an example. It does not make a salles talk for its product but comments on conditions which affect the future of every private job, private activity, and representative government. It says in part:

"A former Supreme Court Chief Justice, Salmon P. Chase, has provided the best short description the foundation of American government: 'The Constitution, in all its provisions looks to an indestructible Union composed of indestructible States' . . . . .

"The federal government has gradually pre-empted the authority of the State in every walk of life . . . The result . . . is more and more dependence on 'benefits' from a benevolent government.

"In 1932, 2,296,000 people received a monthly check from the federal government. Today, 40 million people are receiving monthly checks from government.

"We owe more money than all the rest of the world combined, yet our budget increases in fantastic proportions — not for defense but for the insatiable demands of the welfare state.

"Only Congress can save us . . . men who will force a return to the simple economic truths and moral standards that made us great."

Up in Arkansas at that great fishing lake called Bull Shoals there is an unusual man.

Formerly he was a Chicago executive. Then one day he decided he wanted to become a perpetual fisherman. So Sam Welch moved to the Ozarks and began fishing.

While he was on fishing trips his wife got lonesome. So she took a school job.

It wasn't long until neighbors began to talk. They characterized Sam Welch as a fishing bum whose wife had to make the living.

To save his reputation he had to do something. So he organized the fishing camps around Bull Shoals and became their publicity man. His job now is to check the fishing catches and send the data (via a weekly bulletin) to newspaper and radio-TV stations.

Naturally this information needs verifying. So several times a week he samples the water himself. A bit of laboratory work, you know.

When a man likes to fish so well, and is so good at it, he also becomes a philosopher. For instance in one of his recent bulletins Sam said:

"Legends are usually associated with events of an historical nature, going back over considerable passage of time. The Bull Shoals impoundment has been in existence only since 1952, but already rumors of legendary bass of Bull Shoals Lake often become a topic of discussion when big bass men get together.

"Obviously, every bass that breaks a line and goes its way with a minimum or maximum display of strength doesn't fall into the category of super-lunkers.

"For these occurances are commonplace from one end of the impoundment to the other. What then, is the distinguishing characteristic that puts one bass far ahead of others . . . that separates the chaff from the wheat, or the men from the boys as far as brute strength and fishing ability are concerned?

"It is the lunker that defies capture, not one but otfen. And one that is fought by experienced veterans who specialize in big bass fishing.

"There are lots of men, and some women, in this category on Bull Shoals Lake. Naturally, quite a few of them are guides, but others of equal competence have emerged over the years and have built reputations that land them in the weekly box score with considerable regularity.

"Undoubtedly every reporting area of the Lake Association has one or more of these legendary bass in its lunker habitats. I don't have sufficient information about all of them, however, so will have to confine these paragraphs to a couple that I have heard about most frequently. Tey are indeed something special.

"One of these super-lunkers has been a resident of a pocket along a rocky bluff bank near a point on the main channel. He has been hooked on jigs, spinner-lures and live bait. But to no avail as far as landing was concerned.

"One angler — estimates him at 15 pounds or better. But it is seldom indeed that this largemouth is ever seen. He takes to the branches of submerged trees and racks up another lure on the many limbs . . . At last accounts he was still indulging in his favorite hobby — collecting mementos.

"Lunker No. 2 is certainly as powerful, if not more so. He resides about midway along a steep ledgy bank in the immediate vicinity of a deep drop-off.

"When I contacted him he zipped off the line (totally unmindful of the hard-set drag on the reel) until he reached his sanctuary . . . a sunken tree of better than average size.

"This bass is a master at breaking off lures, and he has the strength to reach his citadel no matter how far away he may be at the time he feels the hook.

"Unless he dies of old age he will continue to raise the hackle of those who know his whereabouts every time they make a cast in his domain.

"The largest bass ever taken from the impoundement was a 13 lb. 4 oz. largemouth caught by Marvin Bushong in April, 1961. According to the scale reading, this lunker was going into its ninth year of life, indicating it had been around a full eight years, or thereabouts. Which meant that it took on weight at approximately 1¾ pounds annually. Another 11-9 bass . . . bloomed into obesity at the rate of almost 2 pounds per year. The impoundement is almost 11 years old. So there should be some largemouth bass weighing 17 pounds or more . . . in that lake, and still others larger that were river bass of seven pounds or better when the reservoir was created. . .

"So little wonder there's talk of legendary bass in Bull Shoals. It seems to be fully justified.

"Every time I approach a spot where I have come out second in battle with lunkers too big to handle I make the cast almost in fear of the possible outcome. That's what you call respect for what is waiting at the end of the line."

Sam makes it sound tempting, doesn't he?

THE BOOK AND THE FLAG

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Behind the open Book, we see the Star Spangled Banner of the United States and the cross-borne flag of Christianity.

Does this seem like a strange combination to you—the flag of a nation beside the flag of a religion?

Not at all! Look into the Bible and see these great truths: MAN IS THE CHILD OF A LOVING GOD; WE ARE MADE IN GOD'S IMAGE. Here is explained the DIGNITY OF THE INDIVIDUAL.

Now we begin to realize how close is the relation between democracy and the Church.

Our national flag, our church flag would not be here today were it not for the open Book.

Come learn of this Book. Come worship and study in the church of your choice this Sunday.

The News Reel

A re-run of "The Ozona Story" as gleaned from the files of The Ozona Stockman

From The Stockman, July 5, 1934

With an unusually large number of buyers on hand and bidding brisk throughout, the annual Rambouillet sheep sale in connection with the annual rodeo, show and sale has been pronounced one of the most successful. More than 600 head of fine animals from some of the largest flocks in America had been sold for better than average prices the first two days and another hundred set to be sold.

Hereafter when the girls want to dance with Constable Tom Smith it will be with his hat on.

Tuesday night when the constable was shaking a mean boot on the concrete dance platform at the fair grounds, he parked his Stetson on the bleacher seats. When the dance was over, or his part of it, his hat was gone and he's still sleuthing trying to locate it.

"If the constable does any more dancing it is going to be with his hat on," he declared.

Miss Judith Black, Robert Childress Wed In Methodist Church Ceremony Saturday

In a beautiful setting Saturday night at the Ozona Methodist Church, Miss Judith Carol Black, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Black, Jr., became the bride of James Robert Childress, son of Mr. and Mrs. James R. Childress.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. William R. Fleming, pastor.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a dress of white silk peau. The fitted bodice featured a large Bertha collar of lace embroidered with seed pearls and crystal beads. The bell-shaped skirt extended into a double chapel-length train attached at the waist. She wore a shoulder-length veil of white illusion.

The bride carried a lace handkerchiel which belonged to her maternal grandmother. The bridal bouquet was composed of white gardenias, stephanotis and lilies of the valley.

Nuptial music was presented by Mrs. J. S. Pierce, IV, soloist ,accompanied by Mrs. L. B. Cox, III, organist. Candle lighters were Miss Vicki Lynn Montgomery and Miss Bonnie Carson, cousin of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Bill Black attended her sister-in-law as matron of honor. Miss Janet North was maid of honor with bridesmaids Miss Kathleen Ade of Huntington, Ind., Miss Carmen Childress, sister of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Herschel Upton of San Angelo.

Johnny Jones was best man with Bill Black, brother of the bride, B. B. Ingham, III, Frank Childress cousin of the bridegroom, and Ronnie Bumpus of Lampasas as groomsmen. Guests were ushered by Steve Elkins of Barnhart and Preston Dowdy of Pleasanton.

Mrs. Childress is a graduate of Ozona High School and attended Stephens College in Columbia, Mo., and Southwest Texas State College at San Marcos. At Stephens she was pledge secretary of Eta Epsilon Gamma sorority.

Also a graduate of OHS and attending STSC, the bridegroom majored in agriculture and was a member of the Wrangler Club. He has completed his Army service and is a ranchman.

After a tour of the Rocky Mountain area, the couple will be at home on a ranch south of Ozona.

Fellowship hall of the Church was the setting for the wedding reception.

Members of the houseparty included Mrs. Beecher Montgomery serving the bride's cake; Mrs. Joe Clayton, bridegroom's cake; Miss Betty Baggett, punch; Mrs. C. O. Walker, bridegroom's table; Miss Glenda Friend, bride's book; Miss Kay McMullan, rice bags, and Mrs. L. B. Cox, III, greeting guests at the door.

Others in the houseparty were Miss Sue Ellen Fuller of Lampasas Miss Peggy Harvick of San Antonio, Mrs. Vic Montgomery, Mrs. Fred Hagelstein, Mrs. Pleas Childress, Mrs. W. T. Stokes, Mrs. Charles Williams, Jr., Miss Sally Baggett, Mrs. Earle Chandler, Mrs. Brock Jones, Mrs. J. S. Pierce, IV, Mrs. Nip Blackstone, II, Mrs. Hilton, North, Mrs. Frank McMullan, Jr., Mrs. Jess Marley, Mrs. Jack Baggett, Mrs. B. B. Ingham, III, Mrs. Joe Friend, Mrs. A. O. Fields, and Mrs. B. B. Ingham, Jr.

The rehearsal dinner was held Friday evening at Ozona Country club. Hosts were Mr. and Mrs. James R. Childress, the bridegroom's parents; Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Childress, uncle and aunt; Mr. and Mrs. Ira C. Carson, his maternal grandparents, and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Childress, his paternal grandparents.

The home of Mrs. L. B. Cox, III was the setting for the bridesmaids luncheon held Saturday. Assisting Mrs. Cox as cohostesses were Mrs. Beecher Montgomery and Mrs. Vic Montgomery.

RANCH RECORDS

Are More Important

Today Than Ever

Government regulations and heavy tax programs are destined to be a part of the American way of doing business for a long time. For that reason, it is more important today that every business keep accurate records of its operations.

The ranch business is no exception. With the stiff federal taxes, you will want to take advantage of every saving item in your expense account and at the same time have clear and convincing records available for inspection by tax agents to prove up any item on your income tax return.

Start now to keep a complete record covering all operations in your business with the Stockman's RANCH RECORD BOOK. Your cancelled checks or your present records can be transcribed to this handy record book, together with your income and inventory records and you can have your entire record in a simplified form contained in one volume.

HIGHLIGHTS AND SIDELIGHTS From State Capitol

Austin, Texas — Creation of many new lakes in Texas has resulted in a money problem for the State Highway Commission.

Commission Chairman Herb Petry Jr., of Carrizo Springs expounded on the situation when a Nacogdoches delegation headed by Carl Monk and County Judge F. L. Harris came to Austin to ask for a farm-to-market road from Nacogdoches to McGee Bend Reservoir, now 59 per cent complete.

Petry said cities and lakes are draining heavily on state road funds.

State Highway Engineer D. C. Greer stated that the farm-to-market road law specifically authorizes use of money for building roads to recreation areas. Petry said some people call these fish-to-market roads.

Padre's Deed — Lawyers have drawn up the deed by which state-owned land in Laguna Madre will be transferred to the United States. This land is to become a part of the Padre Island National Seashore.

But deed can't be signed by the School Land Board until the law authorizing the transfer takes effect on August 23.

Red Register — Attorney General Carr is taking steps to force Texas' only known communist to register. But he has not decided where to bring suit.

A 1951 law requires any communist remaining in Texas as long as five days to register with the Department of Public Safety. No one ever has registered.

Two weeks ago, U. S. Attorney General Robert Kennedy notified the man, a resident of San Antonio to register within 20 days under a Federal registration law, or face prosecution.

Carr picked up the ball and decided to try to make him register under the unused state law, too.

Liquor Fines—People still keep violating the liquor laws.

Liquor Administrator Coke Stevenson Jr. reports that his agents filed 743 cases last month. There were 738 convictions, with 28 jail terms, for violations, Fines came to $46,172 during the month.

The Lubbock district, mainly dry, was as usual the location of the largest number of cases among the 18 enforcement districts.

Insurance Up — Recommndations for higher auto insurance rates have been made to the State Board of Insurance, by insurance companies, and the Board's own staff.

Losses under current rates prompt a general statewide increase averaging 8.6 per cent. But there are variations.

Farmers and ranchers, who have chalked up a good non-accident record, will get substantial cuts. They will range from 20 to 30 per cent, in various parts of the state.

City drivers will face higher rates for their public liability insurance. Statistics show that where there are more cars there are more accidents.

State is divided into 26 rating territories. Drivers living in safer areas will pay less for their insurance.

Board will announce its decision soon, and new rates will take effect on August 1.

Sales Up — Retail sales in Texas improved a bit in May, after a slump in April.

May sales were 4 per cent above April and 1 per cent above May, 1962.

Rains on the Range — Ranchers got some breaks in some parts of the state, reports the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

Summer range and pasture feed prospects continued on the upgrade in the northwest part of Texas. Prospects also were improved by rains in the central and southeastern parts of the state. There ranchers had been culling herds, and sales had been heavy until the rains came.

Bed-Rock Ruling — Securities Commissioner William M. King issued an order prohibiting further sales of stock in the Roka-Bed Corporation of Lubbock.

Firm was organized to make children's furniture, including a baby bed which would rock baby to sleep when he cries.

Advertising said Roka-Bed had been tested on 5,000 babies. But promoters told investigators no such tests had been made.

Stock was sold to about 200 persons, mainly in the South Plains area.

Mrs. Brent Moore Is Honored At Gift Coffee In Mrs. Baggett's Home

The home of Mrs. J. M. Baggett of Ozona was the scene Saturday morning of a gift coffee honoring Mrs. Brent Moore, the former Miss Janet Mason, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Woody Mason of Ozona.

Assisting hostesses were Mrs. Dick Collier of Big Lake, Mrs. Oscar Kost, Mrs. James Baggett, Mrs. Quebe Alford, Mrs. James Nettleton, Mrs. Bill Baggett, Mrs. Mahlon Robertson, Mrs. Leonard Boyd, Mrs. H. C. Noelke, Jr., Mrs. Charles Applewhite, Mrs. Dick Kirby, Mrs. Edwin L. Elliott, Mrs. John R. Hunnicutt, Mrs. H. M. Phillips, Jr., and Mrs. L. B. T. Sikes.

The bride's colors of blue and green were carried out in the decorations of the rooms and a beautiful arrangement and candelabra featured the decorations on the table.

Greeting guests at the door were Mrs. Leonard Boyd and Mrs. Charles Applewhite.

In the receiving line were: Mrs. Baggett, the honoree, her mother, Mrs. W. W. Mason; her grandmother, Mrs. W. H. Boone from Big Lake; Mrs. Buddy Moore, mother of the bridegroom; Mrs. Audra Moore, his grandmother; Miss Donna Moore, sister of the groom, and Mrs. Scotty Moore, a sister-in-law, of Alpine.

At the bride's book were Miss Beverly Alford and Miss Rebecca Seahorn, while presiding at the table were Mrs. Richard Springstun of Big Lake, aunt of the bride; Mrs. Bill Seahorn, aunt of the groom; Miss Jean Mason, of Dallas, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Kirby Moore, aunt of the groom.

During the coffee hours music was provided by Miss Freida Kay Noelke, Miss Lanna Kay Alford and Miss Vicki Applewhite.

Others in the house party were: Mrs. Fay Drake, aunt of the groom Mrs. N. S. Lock of Dallas, great-aunt of the bride, Mrs. S. A. Coose, Miss Andie Elliott, Miss Jill Applewhite, and Mrs. Carson Kincaid of Ft. Stockton.

About 75 guests called during the coffee hours.

General Insurance Rate Hike In Texas To Cause Slight Increase Here

A general increase in Txas fire and storm insurance rates went into effect Monday but local insurance men assured Ozona policy holders that the rate increases in Ozona would be slight.

A statement from the Insurance Board in Austin early this week indicated that increased losses due to arson type destruction caused by juvenile vandals had more than off set a decrease in losses credited to fraud attempts.

Windstorm rates are also scheduled for a rise due in large part to hurricane Carla, and a marked increase in losses in North Texas and the Panhandle due to tornado, hail, and wind storm.

Increases averaged 7 per cent for the coastal area and 11 per cent for the Central part of the state ranging from El Paso to the Louisiana border. The rate jumped to 16 per cent for North Texas and the Panhandle.

Rates for "homeowners" policies in the seacoast and Central part of the state, which would include Ozona, on the $100.00 deductible form, are substantially the same, the board said, but in North Texas and in the Panhandle the rate will be up about 11 per cent.

Ozona Golfers Play In San Angelo Tourney

Ozonans Joe Clayton and Arthur Kyle lost out in the second flights semi-final round, and Warren Taliaferro and Buddy Schneider won the Consolation round of the sixth flight, over the weekend as a number of Ozona golfers took part in the annual San Angelo Country Club Partnership Tournament.

Pleas Childress and J. B. Hay lost in their opening round in the second flight, and then were ousted, as were John Childress and Byron Williams in the third flight.

Another pair of Ozona teams that went out with two defeats were Gene Williams and Jack Allison, and Charles Garlitz and Charles Williams. Gene and Jack were playing in the fifth flight while Garlitz and Williams, were engaged in play in the sixth flight, along with a third team composed of Clayton Webster and Bill Carson. The last team was ousted by Taliaferro and Schneider in the flight's first round of consolation.

Don Addington, formerly a golfer at SMU, and John Gandy who played at Oklahoma State, won the tourney with an easy 5 and 4 verdict Sunday afternoon.

pitch and after that could not connect with the young right hander's quick slants.

In the biggest upset of the season, the lowly Moore Oil team upset the mighty Ozona Oilers 11 to 10 last Thursday. Joe Bob Stephen's home run with one aboard and the fine play of Walter Higginbottom both on the mound and at shortstop where where he has been chosen all star were key factors in Moore's winning effort.

In the final game of the week, Mason Motors outlasted Moore Oil 12 to 9 Monday night. The setback dropped B&B and Moore into a deadlock for last place with the two teams meeting in the season final next Monday night to determine the winner of third place in the second half.

Due to the Fourth of July the Thursday night games will not take place until next Monday night. the double header ending the season for regular play.

Master of Ceremonies for the night was Armando Reina who welcomed guests from the Sonora West Side Club, and the Club's sweetheart, Margarita Lara, and her guests, Rosie Castro, and Maria Valadez.

A Past President's pin was presented to outgoing president, Johnny Ramirez, who in turn presented the awards for the past year for outstanding service to the Club. Outgoing Secretary, Jesus Castro, was presented with a pen set, and Lion Antonio Mendez, who was voted the outstanding Lion by his fellow members, was presented a plaque.

A dance with Rudy Garza and his band, held at the Santa Rosa Hall, followed the banquet and installation service.

The contractor has set August 15 as target date for completion of the project. The final load of pipe for the line and gathering system is due to arrive by rail in Eldorado this week. The pipe is being trucked from the rail cars to location along the route of the line.

Crockett county and the immediate area is not new to Fulton Company activities. A few years ago the company had the contract for construction of the pipeline which crosses the northern edge of Crockett county and prior to that laid lines south of Sonora.

Safety Officials Urge 'Safety First' In July 4th Holiday Driving

Austin, Texas — The Texas Safety Association today issued an urgent bulletin appealing to all Texans to put safety "first" in celebrating the Fourth of July holiday.

"Each year many lives are lost on holidays simply because people put away their safety rules for a day." J. O. Musick, TSA General Manager, said.

"But, the fact is — there just isn't a holiday on accidents."

The safety director cited that last year there were 5,655 accidental deaths in Texas. Of this number, 2,421 were motor vehicle fatalities.

The Association has joined the Texas Department of Public Safety, the Texas Highway Department and other groups in coordinating publicity for Independence Day safety promotions.

TSA is stressing caution and courtesy in traffic and urging Texans to practice safety at home, in public places and at work.

The traffic situation in Texas is now at a critical point with over 1,027 persons killed during the first six months of this year, or between January 1 and last Friday, June 22. This is a nine percent increase over the same period last year and safety officials report that unless the current trend is stopped, 1963 will become the deadliest year in Texas history for traffic fatalities.

Musick also reported an increase in non-transport fatalities. The 1962 figures show an increase of 277 deaths over the previous year.

In closing, he called on all Texans to "brush up" on all safety rules and "practice" safety — "whether you're on-the-road or in your own back yard."

NO PUTOUTS, NO ASSISTS——

1st Baseman Norm Cash Of Detroit Figures In Rare Baseball Oddity

Norman Cash, Detroit Tiger first baseman, from Eldorado, recently figured in a real baseball oddity, an event that has occurred but three times in Big League history prior to last Thursday.

In Detroit's losing effort in a game with the Minnesota Twins, the Detroit first baseman played the entire game and was not credited with an assist, a putout nor an error.

In the nine-inning game, the entire Detroit team had but one assist, an oddity itself, even though several times a team has played an entire game without even one assist.

The only first baseman in modern times to go through a game without an assist or putout were Rip Collins of the Chicago Cubs in 1937 and John Clancy of the Chicago White Sox in 1930. Records show the event occurred once before in 1900.

Cash resides in Eldorado during the off season and has been a frequent visitor in Ozona during the past several years.

For the benefit of the reader who may not be familiar with baseball scoring, an assist is credited to a ballplayer when he "assists" another fielder in putting out an opponent. A putout is scored to the player actually making the putout of the opposing player. Of course, as most baseball fans know, the first baseman ordinarily gets more putuots than any other one player on the team.
