Will Police Chief Attend Academy?

A special meeting of the City Council of Colorado City has been scheduled Tuesday at 7 p.m. to decide whether Police Chief Fred McWhorter will attend the Federal Bureau of Investigation Academy next month as previously planned.

At the Sept. 12 meeting of the council, it was announced that McWhorter had been accepted to the national academy. All expenses are to be paid by the federal government.

However, the initial understanding was that although McWhorter's expenses would be paid by the federal government, his salary during his absence would be paid by the city.

Although no official vote was taken to decide whether McWhorter could attend, Councilmember Rick Perkin noted that it was a "consensus agreement."

However, the financial picture of the city has changed since the original announcement of McWhorter's acceptance to the academy Sept. 12.

Now the city has to deal with a $75,000 deficit and the possibility of cutting the police force by two members Dec. 31.

Acting City Manager Brenda Tarter explained that funds through the CETA Title VI program which pay the salaries of two police officers will terminate Dec. 31.

But, an emergency extension on the CETA program funds has been applied for by the city and Mrs. Tarter noted that an extension may

Christmas Edition Thursday

The Thursday, Dec. 21, edition of the Colorado City Record will be the annual Christmas edition containing Christmas greetings from local merchants, letters to Santa and holiday plans of area residents.

If you would like to make your holiday plans and visitors known, contact the Record office, 728-3413. Deadline for news and advertising for this special edition is 5 p.m. Tuesday.

There will not be an edition of the Record printed Sunday, Dec. 24, due to the holiday. The Record office will be closed Thursday, Friday, Saturday, Sunday and Monday, Dec. 21-25, so that Record employees may enjoy the holidays with their families.

The regular publication schedule will be resumed with the Thursday, Dec. 28, edition.

After an experience I had last week, it is easy to see why our court system is having so many problems. I was among 125 people summoned to serve on a jury in district court. Only about 50 showed up and after excuses, only 37 were left.

This first panel was told to come back the next day so a second panel could be brought in so there would be enough people to pick a jury from for a murder trial. Apparently, 37 didn't seem like enough.

Basketball generally is not as popular a sport as is football. However, if you've watched our Wolves play this year, you know that it is every bit as exciting as football.

We have an exceptional basketball team and they are fun to watch as they "run and gun" on the fast break.

One of the finest basketball players I've ever seen on the basketball court is the Wolves Ronald Proctor. He seems to work magic when he hits the courts.

Proctor has a knee problem right now but let's hope it gets well soon. He should be a prime candidate for a college scholarship.

Speaking of prime candidates for scholarships, a number of the Banquet Tickets On Sale

Tickets costing $8 per person are now on sale at a number of locations for the annual Colorado City Chamber of Commerce banquet set for Jan. 18 at the Colorado City Civic Center.

Tickets are available at the Chamber of Commerce office, Free's Friendly Shop, City National Bank and any chamber director or officer.

Guest speaker for the banquet will be former Colorado City resident Don Maynard, famed wide receiver for the New York Jets during the Joe Namath years.

A limited number of tickets are available for the banquet.

Wolves gridiron stars have received initial contacts from colleges.

At least three players, Gary Hulme, Jay Feaster and Jim Shoemaker, have been looked at in films by college football coaches.

A number of changes have been made in the Record recently and we would like your comments. The type of print for stories has been changed in the hope that it is now easier to see and read. Although it looks bigger, it actually isn't, it's just a different type of print.

Some thought is being given to dropping the comics in Sunday's editions. If you want to see them stay in the Record, let us know.

Incidentally, the TV schedule and comics that are normally in Sunday's paper will be in Thursday's edition as there will not be an edition for Dec. 24 due to the holiday. Regular publication schedule of the Record will be resumed with the Thursday, Dec. 28, edition.

be granted through May 1.

Presently, there are eight members of the police force, including McWhorter.

If the CETA extension is not granted, the department would be cut back to six persons. And, if McWhorter leaves for 11 weeks to attend the academy, there will only be five members of the force available.

However, if the CETA extension is approved, the police department should be able to operate without McWhorter for 11 weeks, the chief noted.

If McWhorter leaves, Assistant Chief Jerry Cowin will take over. McWhorter has been working with Cowin, preparing him to assume the head duties during his absence.

And, McWhorter said he had discussed the matter with the force and was certain that they could handle the department under Cowin's leadership during his absence.

But what should happen if an emergency arose that demanded McWhorter's attention?

"In an emergency, I know McWhorter would leave the academy to come back," said Perkin.

McWhorter said that during his stay at the academy, he could be contacted by telephone if something unusual arose.

The academy—located in Quantico, Va.—will last from Jan. 5 to March 23.

Perkin, however, noted that in the more than

Lighting Contest Thursday

A Christmas house lighting contest will be sponsored by the Colorado City Chamber of Commerce Thursday.

Deadline for entry in the contest is Wednesday at 5 p.m. and interested persons should contact or the Chamber office.

A prize of $50 will be awarded to the first place winner, second place will receive $25 and third place will receive $15.

Judging of the contest will take place Thursday night.

two years that McWhorter has been chief of the Colorado City department, he has not taken a vacation.

"We probably owe him that much time in vacation—he works six days a week and does double duty," said Perkin.

Although Perkin said he would rather McWhorter did not have to take the 11 weeks all at once, that was a matter which cannot be helped.

"He's been working hard getting the police department in shape with the systems and files," said Perkin.

If the council should decide in Tuesday's special session to permit McWhorter to attend the academy, what benefit would such schooling be to the city?

McWhorter explained that at the academy the students are instructed in behavioral sciences, planning and budgets, leadership problem solving, legal problems for police administration and several other areas which would be of benefit to a police department of any size.

Mayor Pro Tem Jody Neff said that he supported McWhorter attending the academy.

Donations Accepted For Baskets

Donations of food and money for the Ministerial Alliance Christmas Basket Program will be accepted until Sunday, according to Rev. Glen Roenfeldt, chairman of the basket program.

Rev. Roenfeldt noted that donations should be made at churches which are members of the Ministerial Alliance.

Money donated to the project will be used to purchase meat and staples for the baskets, which will be given to Mitchell County families in need, said Rev. Roenfeldt.

Rev. Roenfeldt noted that other groups sponsoring Christmas baskets should contact the Ministerial Alliance.

Persons interested in preparing the Christmas baskets should meet at the Housing Authority Building Friday morning to prepare the baskets, Rev. Roenfeldt said.

"The money for his salary has already been budgeted," said Mrs. Neff, adding that since the council previously said he could attend, it would be "unethical to back out on it now."

Jury Indicts Lydia

The Mitchell County Grand Jury, meeting in session Thursday morning, returned indictments against two Colorado City men.

Leroy R. Lydia Jr., 21, was indicted as a result of an incident with Cletus Caswell, 19, also of Colorado City at the corner of Principal and Boyd Streets around 12:30 a.m., Dec. 1.

According to the indictment, Lydia, "did knowingly and intentionally cause serious bodily injury to Cletus Caswell by cutting him with a sharp edged instrument on the face and right hand."

Lydia remains in Mitchell County Jail on $10,000 bond.

Caswell was treated at Root Memorial Hospital and released.

Charles Hook Buchanan was also indicted Thursday for driving while intoxicated, subsequent offense.

District Judge Weldon Kirk stated Friday that no definite date has been set for the trial of Aubrey Gene Williams, 37, of Snyder. Kirk said the trial will be sometime in February but nothing is definite yet.

Williams is charged with the July 17 stabbing death of his ex-wife, Girlie Ann Williams.

Banquet Honors District Champs

Colorado City Wolf Linebacker and Running Back Johnny Garcia, No. 21, received the Hustling Wolf Award Saturday night at the annual football banquet.

The award was presented by Wolves Coach Mike Farda. The annual football banquet paid tribute to the District 6-AA Champion Wolves varsity and junior varsity and all Colorado City football teams.

Others receiving awards during the program before a large crowd included:

—Tony Trulove, No. 12, who received the Colorado City Record "E" award for effort, presented by Record Publisher Mac McKinnon.

—Mike Womack, No. 50, was named Wolverine Beau, an honor presented by Wolverine President Melinda Lowrance.

—A. M. Holman was named the No. 1 fan, an honor presented by Farda.

—Martin Molina, No.

NOON LIONS of Colorado City have purchased five litter baskets for the downtown area to help keep the city clean. Pictured with one of the baskets is John Mikow who was in charge of the project for the Lions. The baskets are located on two corners at 2nd & Elm, on two corners at 2nd & Walnut and in front of the Post Office.

FmHA Offers Farm Loans

Producers needing emergency loans as a result of drought may apply at the Farmers Home Administration.

According to David Marion, FmHA county supervisor, emergency loans for farmers, ranchers or aquaculture operators are now available.

To be eligible for an emergency loan, the producer must be unable to obtain private financing, Marion stressed.

"Our loan is only to help the producer get back on his feet," Marion said, adding that all loans are required to be refinanced with private loans when the farmer's financial condition permits a return to private credit.

Other eligibility requirements are that the producer may be organized as an individual operation, partnership or corporate organization. He may establish eligibility in more than one operation provided he maintains separate entities.

The producer must have had an established operation in 1978.

Mr. and Mrs. Pete McDonald of Colorado City, and their 5-year-old son Billy were killed and their 3-year-old daughter, Kelley was critically injured when their single engine plane crashed near Texarkana Friday night.

The family left Colorado City about 6 p.m. Friday and the crash apparently occurred about 9:30 p.m. east of Texarkana. Kelley McDonald was taken to a Louisiana hospital.

The family was en route to Memphis, Tenn. to spend holiday time with Mrs. McDonald's sister.

Marion noted that the emergency loans apply only to Mitchell County. "The FmHA emergency loans do not apply to anyone's operation outside Mitchell County unless that other county is also designated," Marion said.

Also to be eligible for an emergency loan, the producer must have suffered a production loss caused by the drought conditions in 1978.

"Anyone with hail loss, we don't count," said Marion.

A qualifying production loss is a reduction in pounds produced which is less than 80 per cent of normal as a direct result of the drought.

Also to be eligible, the producer must show intention to continue operations and must possess the legal capacity to make a loan.

Applications for assistance in Mitchell County will be accepted by FmHA until Sept. 10, 1979, for physical losses and until Dec. 14, 1979, for production losses.

FmHA loans covering actual physical and production losses may be used to replace installations, equipment or buildings (including homes) lost through the drought disaster.

Funds may be used to buy feed, seed, fertilizer, livestock or to meet interest and depreciation payments on current real estate and chattel debts, said Marion.

Other loans, beyond actual losses, can be made for annual operating expenses or to make major adjustments in a farming, ranching or aquaculture operation.

"Funds can be used for essential operating and modest living expenses," Marion said.

Loans covering actual losses are made at an interest rate of three per cent and are scheduled for repayment as rapidly as feasible, consistent with the applicant's reasonable ability to pay.

The interest rate for short term loans for farm operating purposes is 8½ per cent, Marion noted.

Long term loans are being made at an interest rate of 8½ per cent secured by real estate.

To be eligible for an emergency loan, an applicant must have suffered losses from the drought and be unable to get credit from other sources.

Regarding the inability to obtain loans from other sources, Marion noted that this is not really a problem in Mitchell County.

"We've got a bunch of good bankers in this county," Marion said. "They stay with the people. We had a short price last year and a short crop this year and in some cases, the banker may not be able to go with the lender."

Marion said that presently, FmHA is financing less than five per cent of the farm operating loans in the county. "That tells us one thing—Mitchell County is a good county," Marion stressed.

Originally, Marion said that he expected about 10 per cent of the producers to apply for the emergency loans.

"However, due to a change in the money situation—such as President Carter's tight money plan on his inflation program—we expect about 20 per cent to apply," Marion said.

If a producer needs an FmHA loan, Marion said that the procedure to follow would be to establish their own normal yield from records.

"The producer can't know until they finish harvesting and weigh the cotton," said Marion.

Mrs. Mae Dunn, FmHA county office assistant, is the person producers will first talk to regarding the FmHA emergency loans, said Marion.

"Mrs. Dunn will provide the necessary applications, disaster certification, budget and verification forms in a package with instructions," Marion explained.

Until the application is completed, it cannot be processed, stressed Marion.

The incident period involved in the drought is from Jan. 1, 1978 to Sept. 1, 1978 when it began to rain.

The Gospel Of Christmas

Rev. Bob Manning
Pastor
First Baptist Church
Westbrook

Luke 2:14

Men have continually dreamed of a place of beginning again. The Gospel of Christmas is that such a place actually exists. God had begun once before, when He breathed into a man and he became living soul made in His own image. But man sinned, and the image was defaced. If there was to be new hope God must begin again. And this He did.

He began over with Jesus. Because He did, there is for man and his world some wonderful place called the Land of Beginning Again. Specifically, what does it mean for us?

There is a new concept of God. Jesus was not man made in the image of God, but He was God made in the image of man. God was in Christ, and in the coming of Christ, God showed us Himself in one great final act of revelation. Jesus shows us much about God, His likeness, His personality, His fatherhood, and at the center of it all, that God is love.

When Almighty God stepped down the stairs of heaven with a baby in His arms, He wanted to tell the world of His love. Christmas is the love of God.

This is something new. And thus a new concept and a new chance for man. God was in Christ reconciling the world unto Himself. Christmas marks the divine intrusion as God moved to redeem men. Out of man's despair was born a new hope, a new potential. Man has the opportunity of becoming a child of God, and so the harlot came, and went away a pure woman. A big fisherman came, and went away a seeker of men. The corrupt politician came, and he went away a Christ in miniature. Because of Christmas man could look up from his failures, his sin, his despair and know that there is another chance.

For to as many as receive him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God. This is the gospel of Christmas. Christ came to make all things new. Be sure you do not lose the Christ-child in the bargain counters and the tinsel trees and the joyous celebration.

For if you do, you miss the world's best news that there is a Land of Beginning Again.

Beauty Tips by Janie Farda

"Control Your Cold" the so called common cold can be caused by any one of 200 different viruses. To lessen your chances of catching cold here are some basic findings you might adhere to.

One is to avoid overheated places which affect the mucus membranes of the upper respiratory system making them susceptible to infection (a humidifier can be helpful). Second is to avoid stress which alters the body hormonal balance increasing susceptibility to symptoms of swelling of the nose and throat or a pseudo-cold (relax).

Third is smokers have a higher incidence of colds than non-smokers (don't smoke.)

Last of all most colds are not spread airborne or by kissing but by contact with the nose from the hands (wash your hands often).

The common cold seldom lasts for more than a week or two. To insure a quicker recovery, rest. A well rested body can fight infection better. Fluids-hot liquids are beneficial to cold sufferers. Aspirin and vitamin C-aspirin relieves pain and vitamin C can lessen cold symptoms.

Fever is a good indication of secondary complications such as bronchitis, pneumonia, ear aches, or sinus which are more serious than the common cold.

Exercise will increase the circulation of the blood and remove impurities from the body more quickly.

In summary, remember to get exercise, get plenty of rest and drink liquids.

Happy Holidays!!

Study Club Has Meeting

The Athenaeum Study Club met at the home of Mrs. W. A. Taylor, November 31, at 3 p.m. with Mrs. Taylor, president presiding.

The meeting was opened with Pledge to the Flag and reading of the club collect. Each of 10 members answered roll call on assigned subjects.

Mrs. Woodrow Pratt discussed "Life Behind The Veil" in a section of central India of which little is known. She told of the strange customs and religious beliefs that accounts for the seclusion in which the women live. Sixty three per cent of the people are Hindu, the remainder are Muslims. These women live in utter seclusion. They always appear in public completely veiled.

Mrs. Taylor brought the second program part "Life and Time of Leonardo de Vinci," the man beyond his times she told of his brilliance not only as a painter but as an engineer, a man of medicine (doctor) an inventor. She discussed his drawings of perpetual motion, flying machines and his profound knowledge of human anatomy.

His paintings of course, are well known, but many lesser known facts of this many-faceted man were brought out in Mrs. Taylor's discussion.

Refreshments were served to Mes. Percy Bond, Doyle Hester, R. H. Bennett, Floyd Coffee, Raymond Wheeler, Bruce Johnson, Woodrow Pratt, Lily Bennett and Harold Martin.

What is an independent insurance agent?

He is an independent businessman. He is licensed by his state and must demonstrate a high degree of knowledge and training to enter the business. His is a service business and he earns his living on a commission basis. He is probably a member of the National Association of Insurance Agents, a professional organization whose members adhere to a code of ethics as a standard of business conduct.

An independent agent usually represents several property and liability insurance companies. This gives him the market flexibility to place your coverage with the company that best suits your special needs.

The "exclusive" agent or the "direct-writer" agent is employed by a single company and represents that company only.

We wish you candy canes & mistletoe,
Gay sleighbells - and a ho! ho! ho!
We wish you holly wreathes & gleaming lights
And choirs of carolling of silent night.
We wish a Christmas white - or a Christmas green
Since the magic of Christmas is felt - not seen.
We wish you the wonder of one star's light
And our hope it will keep your new year bright.
We wish you words like happy and healthy,
And the spiritual calm that makes all men wealthy.
We wish a Christmas that sings of cheer,
And all you seek, want and pray for,
in the coming new year.

The meeting was adjourned and the closing ritual recited.

Rosanne Jameson and Rita Latimer presented the evening's cultural program. Individual pieces of paper bearing the name of a fellow member as well as a blank sheet of paper were passed out to each member. Mrs. Jameson and Mrs. Latimer requested written responses to the following:

List the one thing that irritates you the most about people in general; list a favorable characteristic about the member's name listed on the sheet of paper; list the characteristic you most admire about yourself. *TALK, from page 1

Of the second panel, less than half of those summoned showed up. The first panel was told to come in 30 minutes after the second panel reported but court had still not started when the first panel came back.

It wasn't until the third day of the jury selection that court started on time. I don't know who's fault this was but I understand that most courts operate this way. As far as I am concerned, there is no excuse for this.

The defendants and potential jurors deserve more consideration than they receive in court. Most of those summoned for the jury panels in this particular case were very busy people but they didn't try to make excuses to get out of jury duty. Consider that a number of farmers were there and we are in the height of the cotton stripping season.

On the third day, when court did start on time, after the roll was called, a 30 minute recess was declared. That 30 minute recess lasted about an hour and 20 minutes.

Then the court process started with what seemed like a bunch of useless, boring rhetoric, as the actual jury selection was about to get underway. Then an 10 minute recess was declared, a 10 minute recess that lasted some 30 minutes after which a mistrial was declared and the jury panels went away somewhat disgruntled.

There just doesn't seem to be any excuse or any purpose served by all the delays in trial procedures. It is no wonder people don't want to show up for jury duty.

One state law that I question regarding juries is an automatic excuse from jury service for people over 65. Those over 65 can serve if they want but they can be excused for no other reason than being over 65.

It seems a pity to waste this talent of our society. The people over 65 have experienced life and are more qualified to make judgements in court than most people. Plus, many of those over 65 have more time than those who are younger and don't have other things on their minds.

Of course, anyone who is ill or who couldn't sit for extended periods of time shouldn't be asked to serve. With the extended life span of this modern age, 65 is no longer old age. If there is an automatic exemption for age, it should possibly be moved up to 70 or thereabouts.
