

Mustangs Pound The Pads In Two-A-Day Workouts.

1,265 Students Expected For School Here Aug. 29

66 Gridders Out As Drills Begin

Sixty-six in '66. That's the number of football hopefuls who reported to head coach Don Beck Monday morning for the Olton Mustangs' gridiron season.

Beck said he was highly pleased with the boys' outlook after the first three days of two-a-day practice sessions. "They've got a great attitude right now," said Beck, "and they look pretty good for only a few days' practice."

"Of course, we've got a long way to go," added Beck. "Everything's new to them... new offense, new defense, new coaches."

Beck will go with the T-formation, with split ends and set backs occasionally.

While learning new offensive plays, the 66 youngsters are learning new names for the positions, too. They're called "power ends, power tackles," etc., and "downfield guards, downfield tackles," etc. depending on how they line up.

The Mustangs start the 1966 season with 11 lettermen back, but none of the 11 was a full-time starter last year.

The Backs who earned numbers last year are Dale DeBerry, Charles McClain, Bobby Turner, Albert Key and Bennie Akin.

Lettermen linemen returning are Doel Cordero, Jim Schreier, Eddie Hooper, guards; Joe Fincher and Steve Burleson, tackles; and Jim Smith, end.

First scrimmage for the varsity is scheduled Monday night at 8 at Springlake.

Approximately 1265 students are expected to begin classes here Monday Aug. 29.

"It is most important that all students attend classes on this first day of school!" Superintendent Ray Schultz stressed this week.

He added that this includes transients as well as permanent residents.

Reports from the three Olton schools indicated 650 students expected at H. P. Webb Elementary, 315 at Olton Junior High School and 300 at Olton High School.

Bohner School will not be open this year.

Registration times have now been set for all students with high school students to pick up schedules Thursday Aug. 25.

Seniors will pick up their schedules at 8:30 a. m., juniors at 9 a. m., sophomores at 9:30 a. m. and freshmen at 10 a. m.

Pictures of all high school students will be made after they have picked up schedules and textbooks, according to Principal Joe Turner.

Turner said that freshmen boys are asked to wear dark sport shirts and freshmen girls are asked to wear white blouses or dresses.

Sophomore boys should wear white shirts and ties and the girls should wear white blouses.

Junior boys are asked to wear white shirts and ties and girls should wear black blouses or dresses.

Senior boys should wear white shirts, dark coats and ties and the girls should wear dresses.

All seniors are asked to bring a $10 deposit.

Carl McClure, Olton Junior High principal, has set registration for junior high school students Thursday Aug. 25 from 9 a. m. to 12 noon and from 1 to 4 p. m.

Junior high students new to the Olton district are especially urged to register during this time and to bring one of their parents with them.

At H. P. Webb Elementary, first graders will get an early start on school days with classes set from 9 a. m. to 11 a. m. both Thursday Aug. 25 and Friday Aug. 26.

Fred Gordon, principal, also said registration for students in grades two through five, who did not attend Olton schools last year, will be held from 9 a. m. to 3 p. m. Aug. 25 and Aug. 26.

For students enrolled in the elementary school last year, Gordon said there will be no registration.

In previous years, all students have registered prior to the opening of school.

This year, however, Gordon said elementary students enrolled in Olton last year have already been assigned to rooms and their names will be posted on the door of the room to which they are assigned.

These students will not need to report to school until the opening of classes at 8:30 a. m. Monday Aug. 29.

Faculty meeting of elementary teachers is set Monday Aug. 22 at 9 a. m. Elementary teachers will work next week in preparation for the opening of school.

All classes will be dismissed at 3:50 p. m. Monday Aug. 29 with the exception of first and second graders, who will be dismissed at 2:45 p. m.

'Chit Chat' Back In Paper

Never fear . . . "Chit Chat" is here!

Enterprise school reporters, Sandee Gregory and Jane Ann Duncan, resume their Olton High School column in this week's issue.

The column may be found in the special school section inside the paper.

The school section offers special bargains and items for school and fall.

Most Olton merchants are participating and readers are urged to look over the items offered.

THIS TIME AT HOME

Grocer PeeWee Marshall Is Target Of Theft Again

There are bars on the two small windows.

There are bars on the door. "And when you close that door, it's just like a jail in here," Mrs. A. B. Goldsmith said this week at Pee Wee Marshall's Market Place, where she is employed.

Bars aside, however, Marshall seems to be a favorite target for theft.

The Market Place has been hit "so many times I can't remember", according to Mrs. Goldsmith, and the latest loss was reported at Marshall's home here.

Marshall said he took the money from a week's income home with him Sunday night after the store closed. It was gone Monday morning.

Mrs. Goldsmith exhibited a box similar to the one the money was placed in Sunday night—a small, metal cash box, locked.

She said Marshall put the box on a sewing machine in the bedroom where he slept Sunday night.

"You might say I was just dead to the world," Marshall noted.

Mrs. Goldsmith explained that her uncle, Marshall, worked long hours at the small grocery store.

She added that prints of bare feet had been found in the other bedroom in Marshall's home and speculated that some one might have been waiting in the bedroom when Marshall arrived home.

Marshall lives alone. Mrs. Goldsmith said that the best she could figure, approximately $700 had been in the cash box. She also said that they had planned to deposit the money in the bank Monday morning.

"It just isn't a bit funny when you get hit every few weeks," Marshall said.

The last time the store reported a theft was only a month ago, July 6.

Marshall said that one of his problems was in not knowing how much money to keep on hand.

"Some days I need more than others," he explained, saying that he had to pay salesmen who called on him.

When asked if he had considered keeping the cash in the bank and writing checks for out-going payments, Marshall said he was considering it, but added:

"Well, that costs you too... a nickel a check, you know."

Merchant Nails Forgery Suspect

When it comes to dollars and cents, it's the sixth sense that counts.

And Walter Struve has it. "You get a certain feeling about these things" Struve explained as he told of his refusal to cash a $100 check he said was presented at Walter's Department Store Monday.

Struve is owner and operator of Walter's.

According to Struve, the check was given to him by a customer, a Negro man whom he later identified.

The check was signed with the name of T & T Farms, owned by Travis Bundick.

"There were several reasons I hesitated to cash it," Struve said.

"First of all, this man bought it too fast. Then he gave me his social security card without me asking for it."

Struve said he then asked the man to cash the check at the bank but the man replied that someone was waiting for him and he was in a hurry.

This didn't do anything to ease Struve's mind and he pointed out that it "wouldn't take but a minute" to go down the street to the bank.

Struve said the man then left, supposedly to go to the bank.

But the alert Olton merchant didn't leave it there.

"I looked out on the street and he was just gone . . . so I checked," Struve continued.

According to Struve, Bundick said he had not signed such a check so Police Chief Emmett Burrows was called.

"I picked up a Negro man out on the highway," Burrows said, adding that Struve has identified him as the man who had presented the check.

Burrows said there were two other Negro men with the man he arrested and they were supposed to follow him to the police station. They did not.

The man Burrows arrested was identified as Billy Mack Evans of Dallas. Two other negro men, arrested in Amarillo, were identified as Henry Allen Jr. of Olton and Faydesta Morris of Amarillo.

All three men were in Littlefield jail Wednesday charged with attempting to pass a forged instrument. Bond was set at $1,000 each.

But the story doesn't end here.

Immediately after Struve's encounter, the good Samaritan looked after his neighbors, going to the local merchants and warning each.

"I don't know," Struve said slowly, "when you've been in business as long as I have, it's just a feeling about things . . ."

Exchange Student 'Likes It' Here

By Sue Cannon

"I liked it right away, of course. When I read the biographical material on my foster family, I knew I'd enjoy living with them,—and I was not wrong."

This was the comment Emma E. Porio, Olton's foreign exchange student made when asked how she liked living in Texas.

Emma, who is living with the Merrill Briganee family, will attend Olton High School this fall. She has completed

10 years of study in the University of Visayas, Cebu City, Philippines. This is equivalent to our high school in the States. Cebu City is one of the larger cities in the Philippines.

Commenting on the cities, Emma said she didn't care for the large cities, and she did not live in Cebu City, rather she lives on a plantation near a small town and just goes into Cebu City to go to school. She stated that the University

3 Encephalitis Cases Here

Three cases of encephalitis have been reported in Olton, with two of the cases described as "mild".

Brent Hamby, 3-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Houston Hamby, and Rusty Brown, 2-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Brown, were reported to have mild cases of the disease.

A Latin American woman from Hale County has been released from Community Hospital here, where she was reported to have been under treatment for the disease.

No other known or suspected cases have been reported in the Olton area.

A news report from Lubbock early in the summer predicted the strong possibility of a heavy outbreak of the disease on the South Plains due to the presence of a large number of mosquitoes of the type that commonly carried encephalitis.

Well Done

It all started eight years ago. And this week, the big hurdle was jumped. Olton now has 100 per cent co-operation from property owners along Highway 70 on right-of-way deeds for the proposed widening of the highway.

A lot of work by a lot of people has gone into the project since its birth eight years ago. We would especially commend Olton city councilmen for their continued pushing of this issue, Mayor Bill Thomas for the giving of his time on many occasions (his efforts secured the final agreement) and the Olton Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture for its constant work and help.

Of course, we don't have the widened highway, yet, and we may not have it for several years.

This is not the point. Olton has now shown that is READY AND WILLING for the highway to be widened when the need arises.

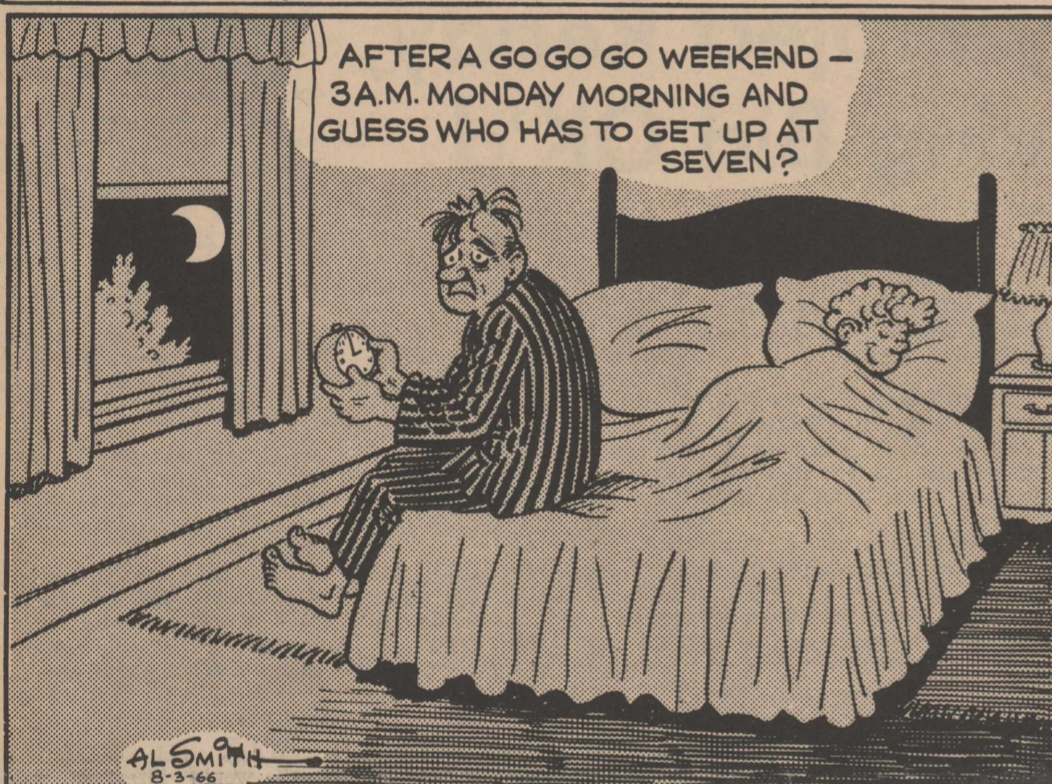

When the Highway Department decides Highway 70 has enough traffic to warrant the widening, those right-of-way deeds are going to be there.

Without a doubt, this will greatly lessen the chance of a by-pass—an economic blow to any town.

This was a work that needed doing. It was well done—not exactly rare in Olton.

"Maw, you wanted to have a picnic under shade trees on the bank of a creek... wal, here we are!"

Think Your Food Bill's High? Try Feeding 1,100 Youngsters

Grocery bill getting you down?

How would you like to have a grocery list with an item like 6,000 pounds of butter and say 68,000 quarts of milk?

Consider having 1,100 guests for lunch along with the prospect of fixing 184,000 meals during the next nine months.

Not too many of us face such problems but it's old hat to Margie Slatten, school cafeteria supervisor.

Mrs. Slatten said this week that all is ready for the first onslaught of students Aug. 29, first day of regular classes and first day of the lunchroom will be in operation this school year.

Not surprising is the fact that prices will be up somewhat.

Lunch tickets for students in grades one through five have been raised from 30 to 35 cents or $1.75 for five-day ticket and $7. for the 20-day ticket.

Student lunches for junior high and high school students are up from 35 cents to 40. Five-day tickets sell for $2 and the 20-day version for $8.

Teachers and other personnel will be charged 40 cents per meal and visitors will pay 50 cents.

Students are asked to purchase lunch tickets Aug. 25 and 26 when they register.

Those who wish drafts to be drawn on their account are asked to sign a bank draft authority.

Typical lunchroom menus will include chicken, creamed potatoes, fruit cups, hot rolls and butter, chocolate cake and milk.

Technically, each meal served contains a two ounce serving of cooked or canned meat, fish, poultry, beef, pork or other protein rich food such as cheese, dry peas or beans or peanut butter; at least three-fourths cup serving of raw or cooked vegetables or both; one or more slices of bread or hot rolls or cornbread which is made of enriched flour and meal; two tablespoons of butter, either cooked with the food or served with the bread and one-half pint of whole milk.

In addition to these required foods, Olton also serves a dessert of fruit, cobbler, cake, doughnut, ice cream, cookies, or a candy bar.

White milk is served each day and, on Thursdays, students have a choice of either white or chocolate milk.

Students in grades one through five will be served lunch, starting at 11:15 a. m. They also have a milk break around 2 p. m. with a choice of white or chocolate milk. Milk tickets for 20 days will sell for 60 cents.

Plains Creamery of Amarillo was awarded the school milk contract on a bid of six cents per half pint of white milk and 6.40 cents per half pint of chocolate milk.

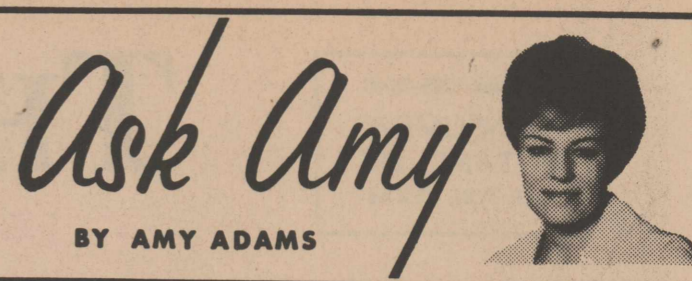

Other foods for the lunchroom are purchased wholesale from various companies in the area.

Assisting in the lunchroom operation this year will be Mimes, W. C. Dennis, Frank Farrar, W. W. Frazier, J. W. Huggins, Pauline Jones, J. D. Lively, Ruby Ozment, Weldon Priest, W. C. Smith, Rex Sherry O. L. Sheller, Lloyd Sweat, and Mr. J. D. Lively.

Acting as part-time assistants will be Mmes. Tamer Grimes, Dennis Stephens, James Gallagher and Roy Long.

Members of these groups are asked to attend a meeting in the lunchroom Wednesday Aug. 24 from 7:30 to 10:30 a. m.

Menus for Olton school lunchroom will be published each week in The Enterprise.

Ask Amy

BY AMY ADAMS

SHE'S UP-IN-THE-HAIR!

Dear Amy:
I have been dating a man whom I know wears a toupee. This I don't mind because if he's happy in his thoughts that he looks younger, that's okay by me. But I'm curious — when he gets a haircut, does he take the toupee off?

Up-in-the-Hair

Dear Up:
Of course. Use your noggin! ... to reach the "Before", you have to remove the "After!"

Dear Amy:
Recently I was looking through the telephone directory for the telephone number of an acquaintance. Not knowing his exact address, only the general area, I came across what I THOUGHT was his number. I dialed and when I asked for my friend by name, a woman's voice replied that her husband had been dead for 20 years. At a loss for words, I apologized for disturbing her and hung up. It was then that the coincidence of names and general area struck me. But I can't understand why this widow would still keep her phone listed under her deceased husband's name. Do you?

Dear Joe:
The many reasons why a widow has her phone listed under her deceased husband's name are too numerous to mention. However, the major reason is because of fear from anonymous callers. The telephone company has no objection to listings of this nature so long as the bill is paid when rendered.

If the widow in question prefers this listing for the above reason, she shouldn't have revealed the fact that she was a widow to a perfect stranger.

Dear Amy:
My husband and I cannot have any children. This is very heart-breaking and sad for us because even before we were married, we had always talked about having a large family. You see, we love children, especially my husband, who's crazy about the youngsters of our friends and relatives.

We have seen two doctors. They say it's Jim... and nothing can be done about it. We also have been to two adoption agencies. The application that must be filled out is a very searching financial statement — and, Amy, we have only been married two years. We have neither a home, capital assets, etc., only a very small savings and checking account.

The only thing we really do have is a very large heart full of love and a sincere will to give and share this love with a child. We've just started on the "road of life" together, but Jim is 27 and I am 25, so we are hardly a young, immature married couple.

I often feel deeply depressed and that instead of wanting to become closer and closer to my husband, I want to push him further and further away. Not because I don't deeply love him or blame him in any way, but because he's so fond of children and there is no way under the sun I could give him his heart's desire.

It hurts me to say this, but I think I already know the answer.

J.D.

Dear J.D.:
I don't know what you have in mind but if you are discouraged because of a financial statement, you are wrong and I won't buy it. Your finances won't make any difference if you seek help through legitimate agencies, such as: your County Welfare Department, Family Counseling Service, religious agencies (through your clergyman), The Child Welfare League of America, Inc. (44 E. 23rd St., N. Y. 10, N. Y.), and Pearl Buck's Welcome House (Route 202, Doylestown, Pa.).

I doubt that you will have any problem with these contacts. Now smile, have heart and good luck!

Dear Amy:
I love a boy whom my sister does. I want to know how to win him from my sister?

Not wanted

Dear Not:
It's not cricket to try to compete with your sister. There's enough boys to go around. Land one on your own!

"(c) The Texas Legislature is authorized to enact appropriate laws to provide for a System of Retirement, Disability and Death Benefits for all the officers and employees of a county or other political subdivision of the state, or a political subdivision of a county; providing that when the Texas Legislature has passed the necessary enabling legislation pursuant to the Constitutional authorization, then the governing body of the county, or other political subdivision of the state, or political subdivision of a county shall make the determination as to whether a particular county or other political subdivision of the state, or subdivision of the county participates in this System; providing further that such System shall be operated at the expense of the county or other political subdivision of the state or political subdivision of the county electing to participate therein and the officers and employees covered by the System; and providing that the Legislature of the State of Texas shall never make an appropriation to pay the cost of this Retirement, Disability and Death Compensation System.

Wake Up... We're Here!

Last Thursday afternoon, Mrs. Stella Cowart was awakened from her afternoon nap by a host of her children and grandchildren.

They came bearing scrapers, paint brushes and ladders, with the objective of the afternoon, painting the house.

Soon they were as busy as a swarm of bees, from the oldest to the youngest, some scraping, some sanding succo. Then the painting began.

There were a couple of "paint fights" between the youngsters, but every thing turned out well.

Mrs. Cowart stated that she "has the whitest house in this part of town, and the most wonderful children and grandchildren in the world."

Those taking part in the project were families of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Hipp, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Long and Mr. and Mrs. James Cowart. Another daughter and her family, Mr. and Mrs. Afton Price and Connie, recently returned to their home in Richmond, Calif. While here Afton acted as handiman and "fixed up" everything on the place that needed repairing.

Said Mrs. Cowart, "They all did a good job, all 18 of them."

The 346 boys now at Cal Farley's Boys Ranch will put on their 22nd annual Labor Day rodeo, Sunday, Sept. 4 and Monday, Sept. 5.

Nearly 100 Ranchers will ride for awards and honors. The Brahmas and horses used in the bull-riding and bareback-bronc events are professional rodeo stock. A special event will be the "stick-horse" race for the four to six-year-olds.

Ranchers who do not ride will be working as ushers, in the parking area, at concession stands, or helping around the chutes. All of the boys will have a part in the rodeo.

The climax of the rodeo will be the naming of the junior and senior All-Round Cowboys, two of the highest honors that can be earned by the boys.

Performances will take place at 2 p. m. in the Ranch arena. Tickets for either performance are available in advance from the Boys Ranch office, Box 1890, Amarillo. Reserved box seats are $2.50, general admission is $1.50, and childrens and servicemens tickets are 75¢. All proceeds will be used for future expansion of the Ranch.

RACING EVENT--From the cockpit of his 1000 horse power double A fueler, "The Texan Two", Eddie Hill flashes a winners smile after just completing the quarter mile in 7.6 seconds at 205 miles per hour. His big fueler is primed and ready to take on all comers in the Texas Pre-National Fuel & Funny Car Match Racing Event to be held this Sunday, Aug. 21, at Amarillo Dragway, Amarillo.

Exchange Student

She says the rainfall here is something she can't quite "believe" -- in the Philippines where she was reared, rainfall averages between 130 and 140 inches per year. It is hot here most all year round.

She commented that she had never seen snow and hoped she would get to see some this winter, while in Texas.

When asked if she specified that she preferred Texas, rather than some other state, she answered, "My sister lives in Chicago, where she is studying to be a nurse and she said she thought it would be easier for me to adjust to the Texas weather, rather than in Chicago, where it gets so cold."

She was then asked if her sister had ever been to Texas, to which the answer was "No".

She had talked to several of the young girls with whom she will be in classes the next year and she said that she found all the people of Olton "very friendly, courteous and very nice."

Asked about the dress of the young people here and the dress of the young people in the Philippines, she covered her mouth with both hands and glanced at Mrs. Brigrance out of the corner of her eye.

Mrs. Brigrance encouraged her to speak up, and she said that the girls and boys dress much more conservative in the Philippines.

"You would seldom see girls in shorts in Manila and very, very few wear Bikini bathing suits."

As for the dating customs, "girls are generally around 17 years of age before they start dating and then it is usually with a group, rather than just a couple pairing off and going somewhere alone."

"Beatlemania? -- well, it has died down quite a lot since the Beatles were in the Philippines. You see, they were invited to a dinner by the First Lady, and they were in their hotel asleep, so they did not care to come to the dinner."

This insulted the entire country and they are not so popular any more. Most of the boys and girls with the long hair had it cut after this.

"No football, but we do have basketball."

This was in answer to the question of sports in her school back in the Philippines. She is very anxious to see her first football game.

Emma will be here for a year, having arrived in Amarillo, Sunday July 31, where she was met by the Brigrance family. When asked what her thoughts were when she was getting off the bus at Amarillo, she commented:

"I was excited, jittery and didn't know what to do, but Mother (Mrs. Brigrance) hugged me and then I knew I was going to be all right."

Test Plots At David Nelson Farm

Milo, Miss Grain Sorghum To Feature DeKalb Field Day

A question to area farmers only.

If you had your choice, would you rather —

See a pretty field of almost 2,000 grain sorghum hybrids grown under almost perfect conditions?

Or meet a pretty girl of almost perfect proportions who recently was named Miss Grain Sorghum of the Nation?

You'll have an opportunity to do both Aug. 30, when DeKalb plays host for a field day at the David Nelson farm.

If those two features aren't enough to hold your interest, here's another: DeKalb is putting on a free barbecue at noon that day.

The field day is, of course, designed to show off DeKalb's program of research, and the efforts the company puts forth before hitting the market with its hybrid sorghums.

Guided tours will be held at 9:30 a. m. and 1:30 p. m., with the barbecue sandwiched in between.

Linda Morris, 19-year-old coed from Ulysses, Kans., will be on hand to greet visitors. The new Miss Grain Sorghum of the Nation is a chestnut-haired beauty (35-24-35 1/2) from the University of Kansas.

Main Speaker at the event will be R. F. Holland, the company's research director from DeKalb, Ill.

Site of the field day is 10 miles north and two east of Olton, and four miles south and two east of Hart.

It was located there, on the Nelson farm, because the area has similar soil, water, altitude and growing conditions as the three leading grain sorghum producing counties in the country—Castro, Parmer and Hale.

Dr. Bruce Maunder, DeKalb's director of sorghum research, says there are 1,811 different hybrids under test at the location. Some 1,298 of these are being observed for the first time, and 513 others are replicated in eight different yield trials.

"This is the sorghum area of the United States," said Dr.

Maunder, with emphasis on the word, "the".

DeKalb also has put a lot of emphasis on its tests at the Nelson farm. In all the company has 39,000 rows of tests in three states, for a running length of about 200 miles.

About 6,000 of these rows are in the test plots at the Nelson farm. All of the rows were hand-thinned after planting, says Dr. Maunder, in speaking of the care which is shown in the yield tests.

Also under test, besides yield possibilities, are narrow row spacing and new cultural practices.

"Our objective is to evaluate all the hybrids under favorable conditions, in pullman type soil, after five waterings and application of 180 pounds of nitrogen," says Dr. Maunder.

He explained that some of the hybrids under present research have been tested as long as three years. DeKalb tests its products six to eight years before they are put on the market, he explained.

Lamb County Directors For PCG Will Be Named

Current Lamb county directors of Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., have announced that the annual election of PCG directors for the coming year will be held Tuesday, Aug. 23 at 8 p. m. The election meeting is to be in the district courtroom, Littlefield.

Plains cotton Growers is the cotton producer organization which represents producers, ginners and other cotton-related businessmen in a 23-county area of the High Plains.

Present directors from Lamb county are J. D. Smith, who is also president of PCG, and Joe Montgomery, both of Littlefield.

They are emphasizing that directors to PCG are the men who set policy on legislative, research, budgets, and other matters vital to the future of cotton in the area. They said: "The better men we can elect to lead Plains Cotton Growers, the better and more effectively the organization will work in the interest of the cotton industry."

All interested parties in Lamb County are invited to attend and take part in the election.

On the program will be a review of PCG activities during the past year and a look at future plans of the organization. Also, a member of the PCG staff will be on hand to answer any questions concerning PCG.

A Lesson in Economics

* U. S. national average

Parenthood Cost $16,000 To Age 18

What is the price tag on the average 18-year-old youngster in Lamb County?

How much have his parents spent over the years in the process of transforming him from a gurgling infant to a young adult?

Very few parents have any idea of what the cost has been. They have never thought of their children in terms of dollars and cents.

Had they paused along the line, however, to tally up the bill, they would have been staggered. The cost of raising a child to age 18 runs well into five figures. Fortunately, it is spread out over the 18 years and is on a pay-as-you-go basis.

Economic studies into the financial costs of parenthood have been made by the Department of Agriculture, the New York Community Council and others.

They show that there is a great divergence, from family to family, in how much is spent. For the most part, income is the determining factor.

Where net income per family is between $4,000 and $6,000, as is the average in Lamb Co., the outlay per child is approximately $16,000 to age 18.

The biggest part of it is for food. The figures show that a girl consumes about $8,200 worth and that a boy will out-eat her by at least $500 over the period.

This is a cost that is distributed over the 18 years. Some costs, on the other hand, must be handled as they arise.

The initial expenditures, for example, in connection with the birth of the child, medical fees hospital bills and baby equipment call for an outlay of $650 on average.

Afterward, in the course of his 18 years, a boy will use $2,400 worth of clothing and a girl, $2,900 worth. Dental and medical expenditures for the normal child are figured at about $1,000.

Other items listed are the portion of housing and transportation attributable to the child as well as the many incidental expenses, ranging from dolls to baseball bats and from lipsticks to bicycles.

What has been the overall amount spent on the 391 boys and girls in Lamb County who are reaching 18 this year?

Based on the average expenditure per child locally, a grand total of $6,256,000. And that is before any consideration of college costs, for those who are going there.

Back To School Checkups Important To Health Care

It's back to school for millions of American youngsters in a few weeks.

It's starting school for the first time for the kindergarten or first graders, several million of them.

There's no one season of the year that is best for physical checkups. In fact, the health care of your family should be a constant affair throughout the year.

But, if you have been putting off a visit to the family doctor for your small fry, now is a good time to phone for an appointment, with the re-opening of school in the offing.

Your doctor will probably want to check the children's vision and hearing. Small children can, and frequently do, suffer gradual changes in their eyes or loss of hearing without realizing it. Either of these conditions can play havoc with school grades and social adjustment in the classroom. If your child wears glasses, they should be rechecked to make certain his prescription is still suitable.

The small child who can't see the blackboard clearly or can't hear the teacher's questions is frustrated and baffled.

A dental checkup also is important. Many schools now encourage pupils to bring a certificate from a dentist each year showing that examination has been made. Small cavities can be filled before they become major dental problems, and potentially serious dental troubles often can be corrected if discovered early.

Ask your doctor also whether your children are properly immunized against the various contagious diseases that threaten children and adults.

A return to the indoor life of the school room exposes the child to a much greater degree than the outdoor life of the summer months.

Vaccines against smallpox, polio, tetanus (lock-jaw), whooping cough and diphtheria are now routine. New measles vaccines are now on the market. Make certain your family is protected.

If your child is planning to participate in vigorous sports on one of the school teams, let your doctor know. He will examine the youngster to make certain there are no health conditions that would interfere with participation. Schools now generally require a doctor's certificate for the student to "go out for the team"

Adults need periodic physical checkups too, even though they may be feeling fine. While scheduling examinations for the children, don't forget the older members of the family.

New Formula For Vital Task

A veteran teacher has drafted a formula by which schools might do a better job of getting and keeping teachers.

Though this teacher's experience has been in another part of the country, his views should be of interest to administrators in our own area. For the problem of getting and keeping good teachers is already with us, and as the great expansion and upgrading of Texas education hits full stride it will become more serious than ever.

The teacher begins by discounting the theory that more money is all that would be needed to attract superior people to the teaching profession.

The reason most such people don't want to be teachers, he says, is that "it is an automatic demotion, socially speaking." In this area, teaching fortunately doesn't seem to suffer from so low a prestige rating. Nevertheless, the veteran suggests some valid-sounding factors other than mere salary raises that could increase teaching's prestige.

First on the list is "success." The term again evokes the idea of more money, a bigger car, a nicer home, etc. But this isn't the veteran teacher's meaning.

He means success at the job of teaching children. And success, he says with much logic, is not possible when pupil loads are too heavy, curricula are not suitable for students, facilities are outdated or inadequate. Several factors he mentioned under the next requisite for prestige could also have bearing on the teacher's success.

This second requisite is "image"—the enjoyment in the eyes of the community, the students and other teachers of at least a semblance of importance.

It may never occur to most people, but, as this teacher points out, members of his profession are allowed few of the prestige symbols of other jobs—an office, a phone, a name on the door. Circumstances might make most of these impossible. But at least arrangements could be made for teachers to have respect, privilege, recognition and a modicum of privacy.

As this teacher readily admits, teachers can do a great deal on their own to boost the prestige of the job. They can do so not only by preparing themselves better and striving constantly to improve and keep abreast of developments in teaching methods and the various fields of study. They can help also by standing up for improved curricula, reasonable class loads and administrative practices that permit effective, uninterrupted classroom instruction.

But this doesn't lessen the responsibility of school administrators and the community as a whole to do their part in giving the teaching profession the prestige it deserves. And this is a responsibility that must be met in this area, if we are to avoid a desperate shortage of highly qualified teachers just as we are on the threshold of an epochal educational advancement.

Our School Philosophy

The school system must discharge a constantly increasing responsibility in fundamental, liberal education, with its efficiency being measured by the benefits of a program which places emphasis upon all of the aspects of that program which are appropriate for the individual student.

The school must continuously improve the individual student in all phases of growth, -- including physical, intellectual, social, moral, spiritual, emotional, and cultural growth, in order for him to become a better citizen and have an understanding of, and adjustment to, our rapidly changing society and economic world.

It must recognize that all students do not have the same interests and aptitudes, and it must strive to develop each student individually, with an opportunity being given all students to take their places in society at each stage of their development. It should provide for each individual student a sense of security, a sense of belonging, and a feeling of real accomplishment. It should create a desire in him to think as an individual and simultaneously lead him away from self-centeredness by developing attitudes, social habits, a true sense of values, and an understanding of human relationships and worthy group membership upon which he can build his emotional stability, and which will help him to achieve satisfactory home, family, and community life. The school should help the student to learn self discipline, to evaluate society, and to try to change what he can of that which is unacceptable to society, and to accept that which he cannot change.

Yes, kids, it's that jolly good time again! Back to the readin', writin', and 'rithmetical Parties, dances, vacations, outdoor sports, visiting cousins, and future students arriving kept the summer atmosphere filled with excitement. But everyone soon realized that school was just around the corner when the various club officers and members began to hold their very first meetings.

The FHA, FTA, and Pep Squad have met the past two weeks to plan and get ready for the '66-'67 school year.

Making signs, learning new yells, preparing skits, and thinking of different ways to raise school spirit has kept the OHS cheerleaders busy all through the summer. At camp new projects were suggested and the girls were given new ideas for the coming football season. One of the projects to boost the football season will be a watermelon feast for the varsity football boys and their coaches. The Pep Squad planned the feast for this Saturday at the tennis courts from 6 p.m. until the guys have had all the watermelon they can hold!

GO!! FIGHT!! WIN!! Has been the Mustang cry for years and this one isn't going to be an exception. The boys have been working all summer lifting weights, running, and various other activities. And now it's time for regular training twice daily!!

Right now, 67 boys are working out but Coach Beck is hoping for 75, 25 on each team. Working toward their goal of a district championship, the football boys have attained an attitude which Coach Beck described as "Great."

Our head football coach is expecting a lot of school spirit and team backing from the student body. There's no better time to start than now so GO! GO! GO! BIG MUSTANGS!!!

Don't miss the varsity scrimmage next Monday night, Aug. 22. It will begin at 8 p.m. at Springlake!

Also the freshmen and B team are scrimmaging Littlefield here the 26th. These will start about 7:30 that night!

All that talking about having a foreign exchange student has finally come true!!!

Our first one, Emma Porio, will attend school at O. H. S. this year. Seventeen-year-old Emma from the Philippines will be classified as a senior. She is staying with the Merrill Brigrance family and is very anxious to meet everyone!!

The band program has gotten off with a big bang this year!! Already, the freshmen and new members have started practing. And beginning Monday, the whole band will be out on the field. Besides marching, the brand new uniforms will be issued next week.

Yes, everyone is getting the get-up-and-go every student needs throughout the school year. Don't forget kids! Band rehearsal begins at 7:30 every night!!

We want to remind all F. H. A.'ers of the picnic next Tuesday afternoon. We will meet at the homemaking cottage at 3 p.m. Bring a sack lunch and we'll have a barrel of fun. All freshmen and new students that are interested in joining the club are invited to attend!!

WHO'S WHO

Donna Smith: Did you ever escape from your fellow cricket?

Teresa Thomas: Are you enjoying your summer vacation?

Dale De Berry: We heard you lost your best friend last week? Have you replaced your dog yet?!

Carol Hicks: Since when have you quit eating breakfast?

David Norfleet: How do you tell your left foot from your right?!

Leslie Norfleet: We hope you enjoy your family trip this summer!!

JOKES

Steve Spain: "I fell over 20 feet last night!"

Donnie Fancher: "Were you hurt?"

Steve: "No, I was just trying to get to my seat in a movie."

Kim Parker: "Dad, may I have the car tonight?"

Dad: "No. What do you have two feet for?"

Kim: "The right foot is for the gas pedal. The left foot is for the brake!"

Karen Hipp: You know something? Summer vacation's a bore. All we do is sit around feeling hot. I can't wait for school to start.

Jerri Cross: What are you, crazy?

Karen: Well, at least in school we've got something to look forward to.

Jerri: What, I'd like to know?

Karen: Summer vacation!!

"How about coming to the gym and lifting weights? Joe Fincher asked Albert Key.

"I'd love to," said Albert, "but I promised Robbie I'd go to the show with her."

"Aw, come on, Albert, forget your girl. Are you a man or a mouse?"

"I'm a man," Albert asserted. "Robbie is afraid of mice."

We are proving that man can live in outer space and at the bottom of the sea. Meanwhile, in the area between, it's getting tougher and tougher!

HISTORY LESSON

When Charles A. Beard, the famous historian, was asked if he could summarize the lessons of history in a single volume, he said he could do it in four sentences:

1. Whom the gods would destroy, they first make mad with power.
2. The mills of the gods grind slowly, but they grind exceedingly small.
3. The bee fertilizes the flower it robs.
4. When it is dark enough, you can see the stars.

Drivers Reminded Of School Bus Law

The Texas Highway Patrol investigated 12 accidents on rural highways in Lamb County during the month of July, according to Sergeant Thurman Keffer, Highway Patrol supervisor of this area.

These crashes resulted in 20 persons injured and an estimated property damage of $6510.00.

The rural traffic accident summary for this county during the first seven months of 1966 shows a total of 52 accidents resulting in two persons killed, 26 persons injured, and an estimated property damage of $31,510.00.

"School days" are almost here again. The familiar yellow school buses will soon be back on the highways. The Sergeant reminds all motorists of the State Law regulating traffic in regard to school buses.

"The drivers of a vehicle upon a highway outside the limits of any incorporated city or town upon meeting or overtaking from either direction any school bus which has stopped on the highway for the purpose of receiving or discharging school children shall stop the vehicle immediately before passing the school bus, but may then proceed past such school bus at a speed which is prudent, not exceeding 10 miles per hour, and with due caution for the safety of such children."

Education Gets 61 Percent Of Public Spending Here

How does the cost of education in Lamb County compare with that in other parts of the country?

What proportion of local spending is for school construction and maintenance, for teacher salaries and for other school costs?

As in the case in every community in the nation, from the largest to the smallest, local officials are struggling with the problem of how to provide enough educational facilities to take care of the ever-rising tide of young people

A Federal study of expenditures for education, covering every section of the United States, shows that such costs, in general, are more than twice those of any other single function of government.

In Lamb County, approximately 61.5 percent of all public spending is for education. In some communities the proportion is somewhat less than that and, in others, much more.

The average nationally is 44.1 percent. In the State of Texas it is 51.3 percent.

The study of local expenditures, made every five years, is based on data compiled by the Census Bureau for its current Census of Governments. The previous one was in 1957.

The report shows that total spending in Lamb County for all public purposes amounted in the year to $163.03 per local resident. Some $100.22 of this was for education.

The per capita cost of education in other counties across the country averaged $96.58 and, in those of comparable size, $89.61 per capita.

Enrollments in the nation's schools have been growing by leaps and bounds in recent year. Not only has there been this sharp rise in school population but there has also been an increase in the number of years of schooling per person.

More youngsters are staying to complete their high school training. Compared with 1950, when only 34 percent of the adult population went through high school, 42 percent are doing so now.
