Probers Want To Hear From Justice Clark

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3. (AP) — A Justice Department attorney testified today that Rep. Boykin (D-Ala) and T. Lamar Caudle took what he considered a "highly improper" interest in his prosecution of an Alabama tax fraud cause.

John Mitchell, the attorney, gave his story as a House subcommittee swung into its second week of sensation-studded hearings on the "outside activtes" which led to dismissal of Caudle last month as an assistant Attorney General.

Chairman King (D-Calif) said he will invite Supreme Court Justice Tom Clark of Dallas and Attorney General J. Howard McGrath to testify. He said they probably will be heard later this week, if they want to testify.

King said Clark would be allowed to "clear the record of his particpation" in trips to Florida with Caudle in the private plane of Troy Whitehead, Charlotte, N. C., businessman who, it developed later, was having tax troubles.

As for McGrath, the subcommittee wants his comment on Caudle's testimony that McGrath approved Caudle's accepting a $5,000 fee from the sale of an airplane. The buyer was an investigator for a New Yorker later convicted of tax fraud.

Mitchell said the case in which Boykin and Caudle took so much interest involved the Gulf Coast Tobacco Company.

Clark acknowledged he took perhaps three trips in Whitehead's plane.

Clark and Caudle asserted they did not know, when they took the trips, that Whitehead was in any tax troubles.

Clark's trips here were while he was attorney general prior to his elevation to the Supreme Court in 1949.

King said McGrath would be asked to comment on Caudle's testimony that McGrath approved acceptance by Caudle of a $5,000 commission on an airplane deal, and also approved a trip Caudle made to Europe in 1950 to help two wine merchants get dollar credits out of Italian banks.

TAX INQUIRY

King indicated that neither Clark or McGrath would be subpoenaed. The subcommitee which is making a general inquiry into irregularities and questionable practices in connection with tax collections.

Caudle's job as assistant attorney general embraced the duty of prosecuting tax frauds.

King voiced indignation at "demands" of Republican committee members that McGrath be called, saying "it was obvious to anyone that Mr. McGrath would be called without the need for such public demands."

Test Prepared For McLaury Well in Kent

Humble Oil & Refining Co. No. 2 W. M. McLaury, Kent prospector, is at total depth of 7,250 feet in lime and conditionng the hole for a drillstem test.

It is reported that the project has apparently missed the pay found in the No. 1 McLaury. It is now below that section and has not had any shows for production. The test is said to be a precautionary measure.

The No. 2 McLaury found the pay section about flat with the top of the zone in the No. 1 McLaury, but the zone was tight and had no oil or gas shows.

Drillsite is in section 14-4-H&GN in the East Polar - Pennsylvanian field.

NO. 1-E WALLACE

Sun Oil Co. has staked location for the No. 1-E Bilby Wallace outside production on the east side of the Clairemont - Lower Pennsylvanian field and will begin operations soon.

Location is one mile south of Clairemont and 760 feet from south and 660 feet from west lines of section 23-97-H&TC. Rotary tools will be used to drill to contract depth of 7,200 feet.

Sun No. 2-D Bilby Wallace, Clairemont field project, is at total depth of 6,777 feet in lime and preparing to run electric log surveys.

BORDEN WILDCATS

Amerada Petroleum Corp. No. 1 Canon, Central - West Borden wildcat, is coming out of the hole with a core. Total depth is 6,378 feet.

Gulf Oil No. 1-A Long, Southeast Borden wildcat, is drilling in lime below 2,850 feet.

In Central - East Scurry County, Olsen No. 1 Feldman is preparing to drill deeper into the Ellenburger. It has had shows for production in recent testing.

According to unoffical reports, operator is now riggng up on the Imperial Production Co. No. 2 Vernon B. Cox, 16 miles north of Snyder. This project is a one-location east offset to the lone producer in the Cox - Canyon reef field, and is in section 699-97-H&TC.

Council Meets Tonight

Members of the city council will discuss the payment of several city bills in their meeting tonight, Mrs. Clara Jones, city secretary, said today. The meeting will begin at 7:30.

Ike Says He Is Flattered By House Poll

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3. (AP)—Gen. Eisenhower says he is "flattered" to learn he is regarded by many House members as presidential timber. But, in a letter to Rep. Cole (R-NY), he gave no indication whether he will be available.

The congressman recently polled House Republicans who gave Senator Taft (R-Ohio) 71 votes and Eisenhower 54 in first choice for the presidential nomination. He sent the results to Eisenhower.

Cole said he could "easily understand Eisenhower's positon," and added:

"His entire effort is toward the effective organization of the North Atlantic Treaty Armies and resistance to further Communistic aggression and I sincerely believe he gives little if any thought to politics and the coming nomination. This is his job and his duty and he is carrying on in an exemplary manner."

IKE'S REPLY

Cole made public today Eisenhower's reply, dated Nov. 23. It read:

"Thank you very much for your recent letter enclosing a copy of the press release announcing the results of your recent poll.

"I would be less than human if I did not feel flattered to know that certain of your colleagues in the House feel that I have the necessary qualifications to fill the highest post in our country.

"I am also appreciative of your warm endorsement of the work we are engaged in here, as well as your sympathetic understanding of my present positon. It was most thoughtful of you to comment on these things in your press release."

Some seeking to get the general into the Republican presidential race have contended he ought to make a statement early next year to help them convince prospective GOP convention delegates he is a Republican and available.

Senator Monroney (D-Okla) said he thinks the general's letter does not commit him either for or against seeking the nomination.

Sen. Taft, (R-Ohio) attending the funeral of Senaor Kenneth Wherry in Nebraska, afterwards may discuss a possible successor to Wherry as Republican floor leader with other GOP senators.

President Working On State Of Union Speech

KEY WEST, Dec. 3. (AP)—President Truman concentrated on staff work today.

With nearly two weeks remaining of his Florida vacation, the President went back to work on the "State of the Union" message he will deliver to Congress in January.

This will embrace new requests for what he calls his "fair Deal" program and request for continued assistance to countries allied with the United States in its resistance to Communist aggression.

The President spent the weekend in conferences with Defense Mobilization Director Charles E. Wilson and Gen. Walter Bedell Smith, head of the Central Intelligence agency.

GREAT DISILLUSIONMENT

Three-year-old Warren Berry, Jr., appears surprised and somewhat crestfallen as Francis Graves removes his Santa Claus beard to eat his noon meal in the Minneapolis, Minn., Volunteers of America Headquarters. The child was cheered up when Graves explained he wasn't the real Santa, just a helper collecting funds for the needy from holiday shoppers.

TRUCK COLLISION FATAL TO DRIVER

Killed instantly at 10 o'clock this morning was Salome Gutierrez, 61, of Coahoma, driver of the 1938 Ford truck shown here, which was struck from the rear by one driven by Damon Lee Evans, 18, of Snyder. The accident occurred on the Colorado River bridge, about four miles south of Ira. Evans was driving a 1948 White truck and semi-trailer for Younger Bros. Construction Co.—(J. Reds Bring Up Surprise Plan On Supervision During Truce

MUNSAN, Korea, Dec. 3. (AP) — Communist truce negotiators proposed today behind-the-lines inspection by neutral observers and a "complete freeze" on troops and arms in Korea, possibly paving the way for agreement on another step toward an armistice.

The move appeared to be a major concession on the part of the Reds. In the past they have refused adamantly to allow observers behind their lines and have insisted on the right to build up their armed strength while an armistice is in force.

The surprise compromise plan immediately drew from Allied envoys more than a score of searching questions.

BIG QUESTION

The big one — an Allied spokesman called it the $64 question — was what neutral nations do the Communists have in mind to police the truce?

The Communists said they would answer 21 questions posed by the U.N. when the negotiators meet in Panmunjom at 11 a.m. Tuesday.

The offer was the Reds' biggest concession, even though they stipulated that any such inspection should be limted to "mutually agreed upon ports of entry."

The Reds sprang their surprise proposal late Monday. At an earlier meeting the two sides appeared deadlocked on the problem of supervising an armistice.

WHO IS NEUTRAL?

The "$64 question" — which nations the Communists consider neutral — might prove a major stumbling block.

Among countries offically neutral in the Korean war are such Russian satellites as Czechoslovakia, Poland and the Balkan nations —not to mention Russia itself.

There are relatively few Western countries which have not participated directly in the war or supported the Allies through votes in the United Nations.

The Communist plan for breaking the deadlock over supervising the armistice provides:

1. Neither side would introduce into Korea "any military forces, weapons and ammunition under any pretext durng an armistice."

2. Both sides agree to ask representatives of nations neutral in the Korean war to form an organization responsible for inspecting such "ports of entry in the rear as mutually agreed upon" and to report to a joint armistice commission.

The United Nations command interpreted ports of entry to mean seaports, airports and rail and highway centers.

21 QUESTIONS

After handing Communist negotiators the list of 21 questions, Vice Adm. C. Turner Joy, chief U.N. delegate, suggested that the entire matter of supervising the armistice be turned over to a two-man subcommittees which would meet Tuesday at 2 p.m.

North Korean Lt. Gen. Nam Il replied that he would answer the questions Tuesday and that subcommittees could be named if the allies accept the proposal.

Joy's questions concerning the proposal to freeze troops and weapons during an armistice included:

Would the proposal prohibit the replacement of soldiers evacuated for illness or injury or sent home on rotation?

Would it bar the replacement of one military unit with another of the same strength?

Would it prevent replacement of ammunition used in training or an exchange of weapons of the same type?

Would it permit unlimted construction of airfields?

And what did the Communists mean specifically by "military forces" and "weapons?"

Air Victories For UN Pilots

SEOUL, Dec. 3. (AP)—American Sabre jets, outnumbered four to one, scored a sweeping victory Sunday in the mounting battle for aerial supremacy over Korea.

The Far East Air Forces reported five Red MIG jets were shot down and three damaged without loss of any Sabres.

The calm along the Korean ground front remained unbroken Monday. The Eighth Army reported no significant action up to noon. There were a few light contacts on the Central and Eastern Fronts.

A low cloud blanket cut down aerial strikes after Sunday's jet victory.

Forth-seven F-86 jets took on 175 MIGs between Sinanju and Pyongyang.

The Republic of Korea (ROK) said Monday its forces are closing in on some 5,000 Communists deep in South Korea. ROK troops are using planes, loudspeakers, propaganda leaflets and mine detectors to locate hidden arms caches. The Reds are all that remain of some 100,000 long ago cut off by U. N. advances northward.

Gen. James A. van Fleet, Eighth Army commander, flew south Monday to observe the ROK units in action.

New Scandals In Tax-Murder

CHICAGO, Dec. 3. (AP)—A scorching scandal touched off by an ex-convict's income tax disclosures remained white hot today following the man's gang-style execution.

Two gunmen blasted Ram Rinella, 49, former Capone henchman under indictment for income tax evasion, as he left his South Side home late Saturday night. They caught him in the glare of a flashlight — as though they were making sure they had the right man—then opened fire.

Rinella's slaying came just 11 days after he talked to a federal grand jury about financing of his ill-fated Loop nightclub, the Copacabana. Treasury Department investigators said Rinella named as one of the investors in the club as Thomas J. Duffy, 66, then a $5,200-a-year police captain.

They said Rinella said Duffy put more than $100,000 into the night spot. Rinlela was indicted Nov. 20 on charges of evading $156,986 in income taxes for 1945 and 1946.

The former police captain, Thomas J. Duffy, 66, spent an hour and 15 minutes with authorites during which he denied any knowledge of the slaying. Tight-lipped, he said he learned of the ambush Sunday morning and came to the state's attorney's office because "Homicide is one thing, and income tax is another thing." Thus he warded off questions about reports that he had invested from $100,000 to $205,000 in the half-million dollar Copacabana, which folded after six months operation in 1946.

Duffy retired in 1948.

Authorities said he denied knowing Rinella was an ex-convict with Capone connections. Rinella was imprisoned in a federal penitentiary for peddling alcohol during prohibiton days.

Police theorized Rinella was silenced for fear he would make further disclosures about investors in his night spot.

Fight Breaks Out In Church

FORT WORTH, Dec. 3. (AP)—Dozens of churchgoers were carted off to the police station Sunday when a riot over ouster of the pastor broke out in front of the Ross Avenue Baptist Church.

Several church members swapped blows.

Not content, the churchgoers broke into heated argument at the police station, Lt. Wilford Matlock said. He threatened to place all in jail.

Matters quieted and all were released. Officers said that technically none of the Baptists had been under arrest.

Six policemen were required to stop the riot.

The trouble began when church members voted to oust the Rev. W. W. Baker, Baptist congregations, under church practice, elect and oust ministers by congregational vote.

When the Rev. Baker arrived, the Rev. L. T. Adams Sr. and several other persons refused to allow him to enter the church. This starfed the fight.

The Rev. Adams is a retired pastor of the church.

Sgt. Thomas A. Hollis reported that Rev. Baker returned to the church during the day, picked up his belongings and a week's salary.

He said he had planned to preach his sermon Sunday morning, then resign.

The church, which has a White congregation, is not affiliated with the Baptist General Convention to which most Baptist churches belong.

Tass Reports Missing Plane And Crew Being Held Within Hungary

BUDAPEST, Dec. 3. (AP)—The Hungarian government confirmed today that a U. S. Air Force plane, missing since Nov. 19 with four crewmen aboard, is in Hungary.

A Tass report broadcast by Moscow earlier said the plane had been forced down in Papa, in Western Hungary, by Soviet fighter planes. The four crewmen had been turned over to Hungarian authorities.

The Soviet News Agency asserted the American C-47 — on a flight from Germany to Belgrade — had been dispatched to carry spies and saboteurs from Yugoslavia into Russia and her east European allies.

Confirmation that the plane was in Hungary was given the U. S. legation here by the Hungarian Foreign Ministry, a legation spokesman said.

NO STEPS TAKEN

The Foreign Ministry has taken no steps, the American spokesman said.

The legation asked the Hungarian government about the plane on Nov. 20, but the latter then replied it had no information.

It was the second incident within a month involving a U. S. plane and the Soviets. The Russians have charged that an American bomber early in November violated Siberia's Eastern Coast and was driven off by fire from Red fighters. The U. S., in a complaint to the United Nations, said that plane was a meteorological craft and was fired on without warning, apparently over international waters.

U. S. DENIAL

A U. S. Air Force spokesman in Frankfurt, Germany, denied the plane's flight was part of any such spying plan. It was, he said, "a routine flight for carrying supplies for the embassy at Belgrade."

Tass gave this account of the downing of the C-47 in the Balkans:

The plane "violated the Romanian state frontier near Recita and then, after flying over the territory of Romania, violated Hungarian territory near Gyula and tried to fly over Hungarian territory."

Soviet air force fighters, "stationed in Hungary on the strength of Article 22 of the (Hungarian) Peace Treaty," forced the plane down.

(The Air Force in Washington has listed the crewmen as Capt. John J. Swift, Glen Falls, N. Y.; Capt. Dave H. Henderson, Shawnee, Okla.; Sgt. James A. Elam, Kingsland, Ark.; and Sgt. Jess A. Duff, Spokane).

SPY CHARGE

A study of the route of the flight and the presence of a skilled crew shows that in this case we have a deliberate violation of the Romanian and Hungarian frontiers for a definite purpose."

This purpose, Tass claimed, was to pick up spies and saboteurs in Yugoslavia and drop them on territory of Russia and her allies.

This, the account said, was borne out by the presence aboard the plane of operational military maps of "the most important areas of the U.S.S.R., including the Ukrainian Soviet Socialist Republic and the Volga area, as well as maps of Czechoslovakia, Romania and Hungary."

As further evidence the Tass report said:

A portable radio on board the plane was "set in soft packing and with a device for dropping it down with a parachute and designed for use not on board the plane but in field conditions."

Six parachutes aboard the plane were, "as shown by their place and number, not meant to be used by members of the crew but for some other purposes."

Several packs found aboard contained "twenty warm blankets ready to be dropped down from the plane."

Tass continued that it was "completely obvious the above named objects were not necessary to a plane carrying out a normal flight. Their presence becomes understandable if the plane was carrying out a flight with criminal intent, for purposes of dropping spies and diversionists of the American intelligence service and for supplying them."

The Soviet report scouted U. S. speculation the pilot had lost his way, saying the plane had "navigation equipment in good working order, means of communication and apparatus which would allow the pilot to handle the plane in complex weather conditions as well as at night."

CREW SEEMS SAFE

Apparently the four crewmen landed safely. At one point the account quoted them as saying their visit to Yugoslavia was included in the route assigned to them.

Man Is Killed In Collision Of Two Trucks

Salome Gutierrez, 61, a resident of Coahoma, was killed instantly about 10 o'clock this morning in a two - truck collision on a bridge across the Colorado River about 14 miles south of Snyder.

The death is the eleventh traffic fatality in Scurry County this year.

The accident occurred on state highway No. 350, between Snyder and Big Spring.

The driver of the other truck, Damon Lee Evans, 18 Snyder, an employe of the Younger Brothers Construction Co., was uninjured. Alton Jackson, 23, Snyder also an employe of the firm, and a passenger in the truck with Evans, escaped injury. Jose Alvarez, 62, Big Spring, passenger in the truck with Gutierrez, was not injured.

Both vehicles were traveling north toward Snyder at the time of the accident. Gutierrez was driving the 1938 Ford truck which was struck from the rear by the 1948 White truck and semi-trailer driven by Evans. Bill Zimmerman, highway patrolman who investigated the accident, said both trucks were apparently on the east side of the highway in their proper lanes.

The Ford Truck came to rest upside down about 136 feet north of the scene of the collision, while the heavier truck stopped about 250 feet north of the Ford. A bulldozer which Evans' truck carried was slung off the trailer, and both it and the trailer stopped in a nearby field.

Gutierrez was pinned under the wreckage of his truck.

Four daughters of Gutierrez who were working in a field a few yards from the scene said they heard the crash but did not witness the accident.

Lt. Gen. Nam Il, chief of the North Korean peace conference delegation at Panmunjom, Korea, dons his overcoat with a flourish after a meeting with U. N. delegates. He wears the flashy boots for protection against the Korean winter.

Court Hears Complainant In Barratry Case

Testimony began in the case of John K. Ford, Snyder lawyer being tried on a charge of barratry, before a six-man jury in county court here.

Herbert L. Kenney, 31 years old, who signed a complaint against Ford before Bob Davie, district attorney, was the only witness brought before the court this morning.

Kenney testified that Ford tapped on a window of the Snyder Hospital - Clinic where Kenney was a patient sometime between Sept. 12 and 16. Kenney further said he signed a contract handed in through the window by Ford before he knew that Ford was an attorney. He said at the time he signed it, he was under influence of medicines.

Kenney said that his mother went to Ford later and borrowed $20 in cash, and obtained a radio for Kenney to use while at the hospital.

He said he did not see Ford again until about three weeks ago. Kenney, who testified that he could not read, said he dictated a letter written by Dr. W. R. Newton to Ford stating that Ford would no longer handle his case against an insurance company and the Yucca Construction Co. for compensation for injuries he said he received while he was working for the construction firm.

Davie is prosecuting attorney.

Doss Hardin of Fort Worth is one of Ford's attorneys in the case. Other defense attorneys are Hardy Moore of Paris and Sterling Williams of Snyder.

The court recessed at 12:20 today until 1:30.

Proclaim New Head Of State

DAMASCUS, Dec. 3. (AP) — Col. Adib Shishekly, Syria's "strong man," proclaimed Col. Fawzi Slo today as "head of state, premier and minister of defense," with both "legislative and executive powers."

Shishekly, who had declared himself Sunday supreme ruler of Syria, made known the proclamation in miltary orders.

He said Silo, former defense minister, would head Syria's sixth cabinet in seven months and would remain until "the restoration of normal parliamentary life."

Shishekly took over after the resignation of aged President Hachem Bey Attassi. Shishekly, Syria's Army Chief of Staff, dissolved Parliament and hinted new elections would be held.

The new government head, the power behind the politeal scene for two years, apparently hopes new elections will remove the Populist Party — largest in the present Parliament — from its leading positon.

Crisis-ridden Syria's latest coup came Thursday when the Shishekly, 44, and the Army arrested the newly-appointed Populist premier, Marouf Dawalib, and his cabinet before they had a chance to take the oath.

Front Line Policy Explained By Order

TOKYO, Dec. 2. (AP) — (Passed by Censor) — A source considered extremely reliable told this correspondent that this order was read to a battalion in the U. S. First Corps on Nov. 28, 1951, and was signed by Maj. Gen. John W. O'Daniel, Corps Commander:

"Preamble — It will be impressed on all troops that hostilities will continue until a cease-fire agreement is reached. During the remainder of armistice negotiations, every effort will be made to avoid casualties and to demonstrate our willingness to honor a cease fire.

"The policy will be:

1. Avoid all casualties.

2. Demonstrate willingness to honor a cease fire.

3. Maintain present defensive positions.

4. Reconnaissance patrols only will be sent out.

5. Avoid engaging the enemy unless he threatens our positions by fire or movement.

6. No offensive operatives, including raids.

7. Artillery and mortar fire will be limited to counter-battery only.

8. Defensive fire will be only against enemy attacks including concentrations of enemy troops threatening our positions or against fire in support of a counterattack.

9. No exposure of our own troops on features that would draw enemy fire."

This correspondent has reason to believe these same orders were handed down to all front line troops in Korea.

The above presumed orders were followed by new directives issued Nov. 29. This correspondent was informed the following is a paraphrase of the new directive issued to the same battalion:

To avoid misunderstandings, the policy will be:

1. Method — Present forward defense localities will be maintained. Offensive and defensive action as necessary to maintain them will be continued.

2. Patrolling — Patrolling will be confined to aggressive reconnaissance patrols.

3. Artillery — Enemy fire will be retaliated in the ratio of five to one. Harassing and counter-battery fire will be on known gun positions and enemy locations. Enemy in the open will be engaged but suspected enemy movements will not be engaged.

4. Our own positions will continue to be improved.

5. All normal precautions will still apply.

Prosperity and Lack of GOP Program Called Demo Argument

BY GEORGE GALLUP

PRINCETON, N.J., Dec. 3 — The high degree of prosperity under the Democrats and the lack of any constructive Republican program for the nation constitute the two "strongest arguments" the Democratic party can use against the Republicans in the 1952 campaign, in the view of Democratic county chairmen polled in a special survey by the Institute.

As one county leader in Michigan puts it, "You have only to count the number of cars, number of radios, number of TV sets, number of people who own their homes and number of people who eat three meals a day for your answer."

The survey was conducted by means of a secret ballot sent to more than 2,900 Democratic party county chairmen whose names were furnished by offical Democratic sources. Replies have been received up to the present time from 1,440 or approximatly half.

The county leaders were asked: "What, in your opinion, is the strongest argument the Democrats could use in your county in 1952 against the Republicans?"

Here are the six principal arguments listed by the Democratic county chairmen.

Prosperity, high standard of living, full employment, high wages, etc. 313

Lack of constructive Republican program, can only criticize, against all social legislation, "horse and buggy party," etc. 309

Foreign policy, avoiding World War III, preparedness, etc 163

Farm program, farm prices, etc. 161

Domestic policy, Fair Deal, progress, record of the last 20 years, social security, etc. 138

The "Hoover Depression"....125

Views of South's Chairmen

In the South, where there is a good deal of anti - Truman sentiment within the Democratic party, the 618 particpating county chairmen agreed on the nation's prosperity as the top agrument of the Democrats.

But a great many say that the present strategy for the Democrats would be to change their own ways.

Here are the principal arguments offered by Southern county leaders:

Prosperity, high standard of living, full employment, high wages, etc. 119

Criticism of Truman, Democratic polices, etc 110

The "Hoover Depression" 77

Lack of constructive Republican program, can only criticise, against all social legislation, etc. 61

Farm program, farm prices, etc. 46

Foreign policy, avoiding World War III, preparedness, etc 42

Views of G.O.P. Chairmen

A poll among Republican county chairmen was also conducted recently by the Institute.

These G. O. P. County leaders listed corruption in the Truman adminstration, extravagance and high taxes as the strongest agruments the Republicans can use against the Democrats in 1952.

Achievement vs. 'Do Nothing'

Many of the Democratic county leaders in today's poll spelled out their ideas in detail. For example, a Democratic chairman in a Nebraska farm county says the best argument agains the G.O.P. is:

"A record of achievement against a record of 'do nothing' — 40 cent beef versus 2 cent beef; $2.25 wheat versus 25 cent wheat; crops versus dust storms."

Others listed such points as the following:

"The ones that didn't starve to death under the Republicans are well - fixed now, enjoying the benefits brought about by the Democrats!" (Kansas)

"In 20 years the Republicans have never had a program. First it was blind opposition, then 'me too-ism.' Recently the bottom of the barrel was reached in 'McCarthyism'." (Iowa)

"The Republicans have absolutely no plans or program and lack a liberal leader. I believe in being conservative, but Taft would ruin the Mid-West." (South Dakota)

"A reference to Hoover is generally sufficient to remind voters that they don't want to vote Republican." (Tennessee)

"In my county we only need one word: 'Republican'." (Mississippi).

"The Democratic agricultural program saved the farmer—and it will keep him prospering." (North Dakota)

One Democratic chairman in Kansas, explaining the overwhelming odds he faces in trying to get his county to go Democratic, wrote: "This is one of four counties of the 105 counties in Kansas that gave Hoover a majority in 1932, and it hasn't changed much since. Nothing I can think of will rock this Republican hotbed. It is an agricultural county and benefits no end from the Democratic national administration—but no gratitude in votes!"

Chinese Claim Island Battle

TOKYO, Dec. 3. (AP)—The Communists said tonight Red troops had recaptured three Allied-held islands about 100 miles north of Parallel 38 off Korea's West Coast.

A communique broadcast by the Pyongyang Radio said more than 500 Allied soldiers were killed.

The islands are Taewha, Sowha and Yoi. The three are in the Yellow Sea midway between the 39th and 40th parallels, some 40 miles southeast of the mouth of the Yalu River. The largest, Taewha, is no more than two miles in diameter. The others appear to be less than one mile across.

There was no allied comment.

The Allies offered Sunday to swap all islands it holds off North Korea in exchange for Communist concessions, on a program for supervising an armistice.

Pyongyang said the three islands were occupied by South Koreans and American troops. It said huge quantities of war material, including three vessels, were captured.

Farm Labor In Texas Is Cited

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3. (AP)—Austin Anson of Harlingen, Tex., says "It doesn't do any good to plant to the limit possible if you can't get the hired hands needed to harvest the crops."

The manager of the Texas Fruit and Vegetable Shippers and Growers Association made the statement as he departed for home during the week end after conferences with Labor Department officials.

He referred to a request by Agriculture Secretary Brannan for increased farm yields next year.

"We'd like to know how we're going to increase production unless there is assurance of sufficient help," Anson said.

He urged changes in the Mexican labor agreemem. Joined by Rep. Bentsen (D-Tex), he submitted the proposed amendments to Undersecretary of Labor Michael J. Galvin.

A major change proposed would permit local employment service authorities to approve Mexican labor contracts. The contracts now must be approved in Washington.

"I think this could be done by action of our own government officials alone without the necessity of submitting that particular change to the Mexican government for its approval," Anson said.

The Harlingen man said Rio Grande Valley farmers could increase production substantially if they were assured of a steady and reliable harvest labor supply.

Man Injured in Car Accident West of City

Earl Nay Pinkston, about 40, of Abilene, suffered slight injuries in an automobile accident early yesterday morning on a rural road near the Lamesa highway about six miles west of Snyder. He was discharged from the Snyder Hospital yesterday morning.

Bill Zimmerman, highway patrolman who investigated the accident, said no charges will be filed.

Caperton May Undergo Surgery Later in Week

Ford Caperton, 907 Twenty-seventh Street, is reported to be in satisfactory condition today in a Lubbock hospital where he was taken following an automobile accident near Southland Thursday. He sustained fractures of his left ankle, right leg, and one rib, and is expected to undergo surgery later this week.

GOOD BEGINNING

WACO, Dec. 3. (AP)—Waco's shiny new accident investigation car has dealt with its first accident — its own.

On its first official trip Sunday night, the vehicle swerved to miss a taxicab and plowed into retired Fire Chief Jim Meers' car.

The police vehicle had $200 worth of crumpled fenders, grill work and headlight.

Patrolmen Joe Rodriguez and Sam Abay tore the seals off the new first aid kit and treated themselves. Neither was badly hurt.

PARIS, Dec. 3. (AP) — The Big Four got down to the brass tacks of their rival East-West disarmament proposals today at the second meeting in their series of secret talks on how to end the world's arms race.

U. S. Delegate Philp C. Jessup, Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Vishinsky, British Minister Selwyn Lloyd and French Delegate Jules Moch opened the talks Saturday at a cordial, one-hour procedural meeting which swiftly agreed on an agenda.

United Nations General Assembly President Luis Padilla Nervo of Mexico is chairman of the group, set up as a sub-committee of the Assembly Political Committee. It was proposed by an Asian-Arab group in the hope that the secret negotiations — away from the publicity of the assembly microphones —would reconcile the rival plans which so far have inspired chiefly acriminious public debate.

The Political Committee has directed the five-man sub-committee to report back by Dec. 10.

The full committee began debate today on a 11-power resolution which would authorize the U.N. to call on armies of such regional defense groups as the North Atlantic Treaty Organization to help put down aggression.

Russia in the past has insisted that UN collective security measures were part of an aggressive American program directed against the Kremlin.

Six Drown In Boat Mishap

SAN DIEGO, Calif., Dec. 3. (AP)—Waves and currents tossed a Sunday pleasure boat over like a cork in its home port entrance here and took the lives of six of 11 persons known aboard.

Lifeguards said they understood a twelfth unidentified man was missing.

The 40-foot "Dot," a converted former Navy landing craft, was hit by heavy ground swells as it swerved in the surge of an outgoing tide in the narrow mission bay entrance channel.

City lifeguards pulled nine from the water — four dead and five alive.

The dead included Mrs. Dorothy Cutright, 34, only woman in the party and the only one wearing a life preserver when the boat capsized.

Her husband, Ancel W. Cutright 44, San Diego carpenter and owner of the boat he had named for her, was rescued along with his spitz-bulldog, Buster.

The others whose bodies were recovered were Elihu H. Estridge, 35, of Miramar Naval Air Station near here; Frank E. Swensrud, 45, and Chester A. R. Snyder, about 40, civilian employes of Miramar.

Missing and presumed dead were: Anthony Estridge, 7 and Nicholas T. Stevens.

Amos Stagg Is Honored

CHICAGO, Dec. 3. (AP)—Amos Alonzo Stagg, 89, advisory coach of unbeaten Susquehanna University, received a citation Sunday as "the grand old man of sports" at Northwestern University's centennial celebration.

Cooler Over Most Of State

(By The Associated Press)

A cool front, pushing through Northwest Texas, caused thundershowers or threats of thundershowers over large areas of Texas early today.

The thundershowers occurred far ahead of the cool front and came from warm, moist air which has blanketed much of the state.

Behind the front, skies were clearing, the Weather Bureau reported.

Forecasts called for slightly cooler weather Tuesday.

Temperatures Sunday were unusually high. Laredo had 85 degrees, Presidio 84, Cotulla, Wichita Falls, Mineral Wells and Brownsville 82, Childress 81 and Corpus Christi, Abilene, Houston and Fort Worth 80.

High winds lashed the Pacific coast for the third straight day — but elsewhere in the country there was some mighty unseasonable December weather.

Elsewhere, particularly in the Midwest, Sunday was one of the mildest December days on record. Some Midwest cities had Sunday temperatures as much as 27 degrees above normal. The mild weather extended from the Great Lakes Region and Upper Mississippi Valley southward to the Gulf States.

Some late Sunday readings included Chicago 53, Detroit 45, St. Louis 54, New York 43, Miami 73, Los Angeles 45, Minneapolis 49.

Major George A. Davis, Jr., of Lubbock, Texas, stands in the cockpit of his Sabre jet fighter at an air force base in Korea. He became the nation's fifth jet ace pilot when he was credited with shooting down three TU-2 bombers and a MIG jet fighter in a big air battle just south of the Yalu river. The four planes in one day brought Davis' total to six, one more than the required number to become an ace. A total of nine enemy bombers and one Red jet were shot down in the engagement.

Mrs. John Courrege (right), a tuberculosis patient at Winfield, Ill. hospital, gets her first look, by means of a photograph, at her five-month-old twins whom she has never actually seen. Nurses Ruth McCormick (left) and Katherine Gould watch as Mrs. Courrege points to Beverly Lee. The other twin is Barbara Ann. Both babies are being cared for temporarily by St. Vincent's Orphanage, Chicago. The twins were taken from the mother immediately after they were born last July.

Violent Deaths To 10 in State

(By The Associated Press)

Week-end violence took at least 10 lives in Texas.

Eight deaths were caused by traffic. A train fatally injured one person and another was shot to death.

Donald Liggett, 15, of Shallowater, was killed Sunday in a two-car collision near Whitharral.

Hillary Hodges, 68, of Dallas was killed Saturday by a truck as he pushed a bicycle along a street.

A Negro boy of 12, Joe Perkins Jr., was killed by a freight train when he stepped onto the tracks at Itasca.

Two pedestrians were killed within an hour at Fort Worth Sunday night. Mrs. Bell Lee, 68, was hit by a car when she stepped off a safety zone. Donald B. Weatherford, 26, died after being hit by a car.

William M. Groves, 34, an oil well driller, was shot to death in Houston late Friday. His widow, Mrs. Joyce Groves, 30, was questioned. Justice D. F. Thompson ruled justifiable homicide.

Capt. Clyde A. Bray, 28, Pampa, was killed Saturday in the collision of his car and a truck about 10 miles north of Stratford.

Mrs. J. B. Reeves Sr., Marshall, died Saturday after an auto-truck collision. Her husband, 63, was hurt seriously.

Paul Ray Semrad, 21, Clarendon, was killed Saturday in the head-on collision of two cars north of Stratford. Semrad withdrew from Texas Tech Friday to enter the Navy.

Pat Washburn, 16, a football player at Glen Rose High School was killed Saturday night in the collision of a Santa Fe freight train and an auto.

Chinese Court Sentence Nuns

HONG KONG, Dec. 3. (AP) — Two Canadian nuns were sent to prison for five years and three others were ordered expelled from China after a clamourous, broadcast trial Sunday in Canton.

The nuns helped run the Sacred Heart Orphanage in Canton. At the close of the trial before 6,000 shouting Chinese, the shouts of the spectators could be heard plainly here by radio listeners.

The nuns for years ran the orphanage and receivng center for abandoned children and unwanted girls.

Most of the youngsters were starving and ill when brought to the sisters. Many were dying. The nuns saved hundreds, but thousands died and the Communists charged the sisters with one count of murder for each death.

The nuns were arrested March 19, paraded through the streets of Canton and kept in jail until their public "trial."

The nuns apparently were given no opportunity to defend themselves.

Three Ways Found By Business To Fight Coming Inflation

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK, Dec. 3. (AP)—Inflation is still Public Enemy No. 1 to many people — and not all of them are in the government, by any means.

Some business executives are worried enough about what might happen to the value of the dollar next year to be studying today how to fight inflation on its own ground.

Inflation is a fancy word for what most citizens know: The dollar doesn't buy as much as it used to. Since 1939 the purchasing power of the dollar has shrunk by 47 per cent.

DOLLARS LEAVE FAST

True, many citizens are lucky enough to have more dollars than they used to — and that also is part and parcel of inflation. The dollars seem to disappear down the rat hole people know as the high cost of living.

The jump in prices, so marked after the Korean war started, has slowed down to a walk in recent months. As a result of the present lull in trade, many businessmen are worried about possible deflation. They say that price cuts are more likely these days than price advances.

But against this, others in business warn of two things: Inflation is tied closely to popular psychology; and government spending will hit its peak next year, pouring billions into the business stream at the same time its cutting back production of civilan goods.

HOW REVERSE TREND?

Businessmen are asking: How can we reverse the inflation tide and lower the cost of livng without running the risk of a serious slump, such as can get out of hand as easily as can inflation?

One answer has been prepared by a businessman for the top management of his own company. B. B. Warren, treasurer of General Foods Corp., points out there are three ways to control inflation.

First is by absorption. Warren says you can do the trick by increasing production and the supply of goods and services.

Second is by impounding. You try pay-as-you-go taxation, encourage of force saving, curb installment and housing credits, and raise interest rates to discourage loans and credit expansion.

Third is by channelling or containment. You use direct controls over prices and wages. If the levee breaks, the flood is worse than ever, however. And when price and wage controls crack, inflation can get out of hand.

BOYS DO FAMILY SHOPPING

These boys know their families prefer Mead's Fine bread, so they select it when they go grocery shopping with their mothers. They are: Ricky Barnes, left, two-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Barnes and Billy Wayne Streetly, five-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. V. L. Streetly. Both live in the Humble Camp 20 miles north of Snyder on the Clairemont road. They were photographed in the D&H Super Market Saturday afternoon.—(Staff photograph.)

Mead's Bake To Suit West Texans' Taste

All holiday seasons are times when special emphasis is placed on eating. Yours can be more enjoyable if you select Mead's Fine Bread to serve with all meals.

The makers of Mead's bread have put much research and skill into making their bread the best that can be served.

Mead's bread is baked in bakeries that are spotlessly clean by bakers who rigidly follow the formulas so that each loaf is identical to all others baked there.

Mead's is baked especially for West Texas. It is Fresh-Aire to retain its tender freshness longer than ordinary breads.

Another thing that makes Mead's bread a first choice is that it is delivered to the grocers the day it is baked for sale that day.

Because Mead's bakeries are located in West Texas, the bread does not have to travel hundreds of miles for days of time before it is put on the grocer's shelves. Bakeries in Abilene, Lubbock, and Amarillo serve this area—all within easy daily delivery distance.

Chandler Back Again As Baseball Czar

COLUMBUS, O., Dec. 3. (AP)—A. B. (Happy) Chandler came back to baseball Sunday.

He accepted the presidency of the International Baseball Congress, a new organization planning to sponsor an annual non-professional world championship tournament.

Ray Dumont, president of the National Baseball Congress, said organization of the IBC was completed Saturday.

Chandler will direct the first international tournament in October, 1953. Japan, Canada, Venezuela, Mexico, Puerto Rico, Cuba, the Dominican Republic and the United States will be invited.

Super Constellation To Service This Month

BURBANK, Calif., Dec. 3. (AP)—The four-engine, 88-passenger Super Constellation will go into service on Eastern Air Lines later this month, says Lockheed Aircraft Corp.

The company said Sunday that its new plane had been approved as a commercial air liner by the CAA.

EAL has ordered 30 of the planes. Thirty-eight more will be built for other airlines. Several have been ordered by the Air Force and Navy.

Increase Profits Of Clothing Manufacturers

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3. (AP)—In an effort to maintain an ample supply of low-priced clothing, the government is preparing to give makers a slightly higher profit.

Morris Chandross, chief of the Office of Price Stabilization apparel branch, said orders to encourage manufacturers to continue making lower-priced clothing will be issued in March.

New Speedway Record

WEST PALM BEACH, Dec. 3. (AP)—Jim Bryan of Phoenix, Ariz., set a national speedway record of 11:59.34 over the half mile Palm Beach Speedway track Sunday to win the 30-lap feature race sanctioned by the AAA.

SETS EXAMPLE

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Dec. 3. (AP)—The son of Gov. Gordon Persons was fined $14 for speeding and Alabama's chief executive says he's glad it happened.

"This ought to show that I mean business on speeding violations," Persons commented after Gordon, Jr., was picked up.

The fine will come out of his son's allowance. The governor recently set speed limits on all highways to reduce Alabama's traffic toll.

Millionth DP Family Leaves

MIDLAND, Dec. 3. (AP)—The millionth displaced person, welcomed to the United States with ceremonies in several cities, has left Midland and headed for the West Coast.

Alexander Ranezay and his family had a misunderstanding about the kind of work they were to do here, but apparently left Sunday without ill feeling of any of the people involved.

The Czech family was sponsored by William Y. Penn, Midland geologist. Displaced persons must have a job awaiting them to be allowed to enter the U. S. Penn arranged for Ranezay to do gardening and his wife housework.

Soon after their arrival, it appeared Ranezay did not want to garden, his wife's health would not permit her to do housework and daughter, Lydia, 21, wanted to study dress designing.

A representative of a refugee aid group helped arrive at a solution. The family will be met in Los Angeles by the Rev. Mathias Lani of the Catholic resettlement organizations.

Easy Flight From Fort Worth To Morocco

FORT WORTH, Dec. 3. (AP)—A flight of six B-36 bombers landed Sunday at an American air force base in North Africa after a non-stop flight from Fort Worth's Carswell Air Force Base, Eighth Air Force Headquarters said.

The bombers took off Saturday on a training mission.

It was the first flight of the huge bombers to the Mediterranean Area. They landed in Sidi Slimane, French Morocco.

The trip of about 5,000 miles was easy. The planes often fly non-stop for 10,000 miles or more.

Children's Bureau Chief Says Black Market in Babies Grows

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3. (AP)—The black market in babies is thriving and will continue to grow unless citizens insist on good adoption laws and practices, says Dr. Martha M. Eliot, chief of the U. S. Children's Bureau.

"As long as responsible citizens patronize the black market," Dr. Eliot says, "or ask doctors, lawyers, ministers or others to intercede for them in getting babies from unmarried mothers and as long as our adoption laws and practices are inadequate this traffic will continue."

Dr. Eliot was stirred by indictments returned recently by grand juries in Essex County, Mass., Baltimore, Md., and New York City. She said the New York black market had extended to points all along the Eastern seaboard and that participants in the baby-selling ring have been charging from $750 to $2,500 per baby.

Some instances reported to the bureau concern the adoption of babies known to be syphilitic or to have other inherited ailments. One woman was found to have placed her baby for adoption three different times. The mother always showed up to regain custody of the child and sold it again. One time she sold the infant right outside the courtroom door.

In addition to the black market, which involves the sale of babies for profit, there's the gray market, which is causing child welfare officials equal concern. The gray market, according to Dr. Eliot, involves well-meaning citizens such as doctors, lawyers, and ministers, who "do not hesitate to make lifetime decisions for mothers and children and adoptive parents, which essentially are not based on medical, social or legal findings."

Dr. Eliot urges that full legal protection be given parents, child and adopting parents in the transfer of parental rights and that no transfer be valid and binding without judicial sanction. She says all children should be placed through agencies licensed by the state, and operating under adequate supervision.

"Community responsibility for effective service must be strengthened through the co-operation of doctors, lawyers, ministers, nurses and members of other groups serving parents," she said. "Independent placings can be eliminated only when there is public understanding of the value of agency services."

Five Years Of Red Tape Cut, Adopted Daughter Arrives

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 3. (AP)—An Italian orphan is with her adopted "mama" today, but it took six years of constant effort to get her here.

Helen McClure, a singer, first saw Elena Erbez in Italy in 1945. She was entertaining troops and while in Rome visited an orphanage. Miss McClure and Elena fell in love at first sight.

The singer was determined to adopt the child. Failing to cut red tape, she and her husband, Singer Robert Priester, persuaded Rep. Poulson (R-Calif) to introduce a bill to admit Elena to the United States. It was signed by President Truman May 15.

Elena arrived from Rome Sunday.

Australians Put Down Americans In Tennis

MELBOURNE, Dec. 4. (AP)—Australians Adrian Quist and Geoff Brown whipped Dick Savitt of Orange, N. J. and Vic Seixas of Philadelphia, 7-5, 8-6, 6-2, today in a smashing doubles upset.

This was the highlight of the Victorian tennis championships, which also saw two other Aussie tandems and the American team of Tony Trabert of Cincinnati and Ted Schroeder of La Crescenta, Calif., move up.

Schroeder and Trabert — who probably will represent the United States in Davis Cup play — made quick work of Ken Rosewall and Lewis Head, 6-3, 6-3, 6-3.

Sedgman and Candy combined to oust the American duo of Frank Shields of New York and Hamilton Richardson of Baton Rouge, La.,

Mattress Co. Sells Towels Other Linens

Dunnam Bros. Mattress Factory has purchased thousands of Cannon and Haynes towels for a sale now in progress.

Big bath size towels are being sold three for $1 and smaller face towels are going at four for a $1.

B. W. Dunnam, owner, said the towels will be sold at these prices as long as they last.

"They are real bargains for home use, or make bargain Christmas gifts," he said.

The factory which custom makes mattresses in all sizes and according to anybody's specifications, also has a number of other low priced sale items. Sheets, pillow cases, and mattress covers are included in the reduced price merchandise.

"A gift of comfort will be remembered all year," Dunnam says.

The firm is located one block north of the square on Avenue S.

Census Shows Money Distribution In Nation

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3. (AP)—Almost half of the nation's income goes to a fifth of the population.

The bottom fifth of the population gets only three per cent of the income.

This was reported by the Census Bureau over the weekend, on the basis of questions put to families and "unrelated individuals" — those not forming part of families. Replies were gathered in the 1950 census.

The bureau said that money income was divided up this way among successive fifths of the population: 47 per cent, 24 per cent, 17 per cent, 9 per cent, 3 per cent.

Public Interest High In 1952

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3. (AP)—Each year brings its own sensations so no one can predict what lies ahead. From what we know about it already 1952 ought to be an interesting year.

That cuts two ways, overseas and here at home, with practically everybody better able to understand what goes on here than in foreign affairs with high level planning and secret information.

Overseas there'll be Korea, of course. War or peace there next year? That's too tough. No one is even guessing. And then there are the Russians. They never stop being a problem. They won't in 1952.

War with them? People here don't seem to think so. Some kind of peace with them? That seems too much to hope for. What then? The answer brings us right back home.

"We'll still have the defense program. It'll make things tighter and scarcer next year. Automobiles, for instance, will be scarcer.

But if it was just doing without more things, there wouldn't be much of a problem. The problem is: What price defense program?

Just around the first of the year we could have a steel strike although that seems unlikely. If one should be called, the President is sure to act to avert it since it would cripple defense production.

Next year is an election year are the voters are likely to disfavor anyone hiking taxes again.

Scandals in the government seem certain to get a lot of space in the papers in 1952, and to become one of the main items in the presidential campaign.

All in all, 1952 won't be a poor year for keeping up the public interest.

Irish Ire Raised By Bequest Bernard Shaw's Wife Left

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK, Dec. 3. (AP)—Why did Mrs. George Bernard Shaw leave $263,000 to teach the Irish people "the social graces?"

If a London court now considering the bequest does rule it is valid, how should the Irish spend the money? Do they, as Mrs. Shaw intimated, need lessons in "self control, elocution, deportment, the arts of personal contact, and social intercourse?"

These questions have stirred up a number of the Ould Sod's native sons here.

James McGurrin, president of the American Irish Historical Society, suggested that Mrs. Shaw made the bequest because her playwright husband had been painfully shy and awkward in public. But as for the Irish as a race, well, says McGurrin:

"Although Mrs. Shaw was herself born in County Cork, I'm afraid that her knowledge of her native land was either very defective or her use or it disingenuous.

"During her own early years in London the most brilliant talkers at the English dinner table were Irish — Oscar Wilde, Justin McCarthy and T. P. O'Connor.

"Curiously enough, Shaw himself was an outstanding exception. According to Mrs. William Morris, wife of the poet, he was the only awkward and reticent Irishman she had ever met."

And then McGurrin delivered this verbal shillelagh:

'My own suggestion about the bequest is that it be used in England to promote a sounder knowledge of Irish history, life and character. For anyone who knows Ireland is well aware that in the arts of deportment, courtesy and natural eloquence the Irish people need neither advice nor instruction."

A reporter who entered an Irishman's bar and brought up the subject was first made to show his credentials to remove any suspicion he was a British spy.

He subsequently noted down these observations by the patrons:

"The whole thing must be a fraud. Now, who ever heard of an English judge handing down a decision that would give $263,000 to Ireland?"

"Self control, is it? I'd like to see anybody try to teach me self control."

Oh, pshaw, Mrs. Shaw. It's hopeless. The Irish like themselves as they are — Shy though they seem to the rest of the world.

Bombings In Miami Becoming Serious

MIAMI, Dec. 3. (AP)—Authorities moved swiftly today to halt a wave of dynamite blasts that have rocked Miami in recent months.

A Jewish center and the Carver Village Negro housing units were among targets of three explosions Sunday morning. No one was injured but 44 memorial windows were shattered at the Miami Hebrew School and Congregation where damage was estimated at $400.

Assistant Police Chief J. A. Youell promised protesting rabbis that increased police protection would be provided.

Mayor Chelsie J. Senerchia cut short his vacation to return to Miami.

The FBI was asked to investigate.

NCAA Will Be Under Fire For Tough Decisions In January

NEW YORK, Dec. 3. (AP)—The College football season quietly folded today — except for the bowl games but problems lingered on.

Roughing ... TV ... subsidization ... spring practice, these problem will occupy top administrators and coaches through the winter.

There doesn't seem much doubt that there will be many a modification in the high-pressure tactics employed by the colleges. Many presidents and coaches have expressed themselves strongly on recruiting — a word that used to bring shudders to all.

The past season there were at least five incidents that arose as a result of accusations of roughing. The most serious led to Drake's withdrawal of the Missouri Valley Conference because of a broken jaw suffered by Johnny Bright, at that time the nation's leading ground gainer. Drake officials claimed he was roughed deliberately by Oklahoma A&M.

Even in the Ivy League, tempers got out of control in the Princeton-Dartmouth game with no fewer than a dozen combatents helped off the field. Princeton's ace All-America Back Dick Kazmaier suffered a concussion and a fractured nose.

Baylor and SMU newspapers got in a discussion over rough tactics, there was an undercurrent of dissatisfaction over the Nebraska-Minnesota game in which Nebraska Tackle Jerry Minick suffered a concussion. Marquette Coach Lisle Blackbourn said his school would not play Tulsa after 1952 because of such "flagrantly illegal" tactics.

It seems apparent the rules committee will have to take some action for roughing. Possibly a stricter interpretation of the rules would do the trick.

In television, the embattled NCAA only Saturday reiterated its stand on video, defendng its actions on the experimemal program of limited telecasts, and claimed once again that it never has been told by the department of justice that the move was illegal.

What will happen in television next year is problematical. The NCAA is expected to decide in January.

Subsidization, spring practice, scholarships and sundry other problems need solving, too.

When the returns are in Tuesday, the top team in the country for the year will be decided. Tennessee, leading The Associated Press poll for several weeks, had rough going Saturday — probably the result of a natural letdown after beating Kentucky — but defeated Vanderbilt, 35-27.

Isbell Leading Ground Gainer

DALLAS, Dec. 3. (AP)—Every time Larry Isbell, Baylor's great quarterback, handled the ball it meant 5.8 yards in the Southwest Conference football campaign just closed. Larry handled that pigskin a lot.

He engineered 266 passing and running plays and made 1,5 6 yards. He was the total offense leader by a wide margin.

Isbell rolled up most of his yardage passing. He gained only 126 yards carrying the ball but he pitched 214 passes and completed 105 for 1430 yards and to touchdowns.

Isbell also led in passing, beating out Fred Benners of SMU by 124 yards. Benners tried 204 passes and completed 110 for 1306 yards.

Benners was second in total offense with 1306 yards on 240 plays. The busiest man was Ray McKown of TCU, who showed 242 plays and 1248 yards for third place.

Glenn Lippman was the ball-carrying champion with 801 yards on 118 tries. Gib Dawson of Texas was second with 671 yards on 94 carries and Teddy Riggs of Rice was third with 639 on 114.

Jerry Norton of SMU led the punters. He averaged 41.8 yards on 32 kicks. Isbell was second with 38.3 on 61.

Bill Howton of Rice led the pass-receivers, catching 33 throws for 747 yards and seven touchdowns. Stan Williams of Baylor was second with 37 for 698 yards and six touchdowns.

Texas A&M led in team offense, averaging 347 yards per game, with Baylor second with 343.9 and Texas third with 296.2 In Defense, Baylor was tops, giving up 226.6 yards per game. Arkansas was second with 241.8 and Texas was third with 250.1.

Texas had the best rushing offense — 235 yards per game — and SMU the best passing, with 173.4 per contest.

Army Team In 5 Years: Blaik

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 3. (AP)—"It will be five years before Army again will be able to offer the Navy a real argument on the football field."

That statement came today from Earl Blaik, who watched his cadets take a history-making 42-7 lacing from the Middies Saturday.

Blaik, with what promised to be one of his best teams completely shattered by the cribbing scandal, figures it'll take that long to mold a top eleven. As the situation stands, Blaik does not have many athletes of the caliber he desires at West Point.

The veteran coach again declined to say whether he'll be around to complete the five-year plan or even start it.

"I haven't given much thought to my personal future," said Blaik. "My only concern has been to turn out the best football team possible with the material on hand."

There have been reports the retired Army colonel would leave the Point this year.

Paid Players Not To Compete For Olympics

CHICAGO, Dec. 3. (AP)—Collegiate athletes "paid" for their talents will not be eligible for the 1952 olympic games at Helsinki.

That is the warning Avery Brundage, head of the United States Olympic Committee who last weekend asserted that collegians who get "so-called scholarships, payments or anything of value to play football or other sports," will forfeit Olympic competition.

2 Weeks Left For Pro Games

NEW YORK, Dec. 3. (AP) — With two weeks to go, it seems like a good bet that the Cleveland Browns and Los Angeles Rams again will meet for the National Football League championship.

Both took long strides toward that goal Sunday with impressive, one-sided victories.

The Browns moved to within one game of clinching the American Conference title by smashing the Chicago Cardinals, 49 to 28, behind Otto Graham's brilliant pass work.

Los Angeles took over the top spot in the National Conference with a 42-17 victory over the Chicago Bears.

This victory, coupled with Detroit's loss to San Francisco, dropped the Lions from first place and all but ended the Bears' hopes for the conference crown.

San Francisco upset Detroit, 20 to 10.

Los Angeles (7-3-0) and Detroit (6-3-1) collide Sunday on the West Coast in the game that could decide the conference title.

The dogged New York Giants retained their slim hopes in the American Conference by blanking Pittsburgh, 14 to 0. Cleveland (9-1-0) can end this race by defeating Pittsburgh Sunday. The Giants have a 7-2-1 record, their only losses coming to the Browns.

The New York Yanks won their first game, shading Green Bay, 31 to 28. Philadelphia outlasted Washington, 35 to 21.

Cage Season Is Rolling Along

DALLAS, Dec. 3. (AP) — Southwest Conference basketball teams range far and wide this week. The team that's rated No. 1 in this area, tackles Manhattan in New York Thursday.

Five games were played by three conference members last week and two teams took lickings.

TCU wasn't extended. The Frogs blasted Abilene Christian 80-58.

Arkansas beat Central College of Missouri 52-42 but was licked soundly by the Phillips Oilers 74-39.

Rice lost a narrow one to Stephen F. Austin 51-50, but took a 59-57 decision from Sam Houston State, also of the Lone Star Conference.

All members of the league will be in action this week.

Texas A&M opens tonight against North Texas State at College Station, Baylor journeys to Lawrence, Kans., to meet Kansas, Rice engages LSU at Houston, Texas plays Oklahoma at Norman and TCU takes on Abilene Christian at Fort Worth.

Baylor will be at Wichita, Kans., Tuesday playing Wichita. Wednesday SMU tackles Oklahoma at Dallas.

Friday Arkansas and Mississippi clash at Little Rock, Texas and North Texas State play at Austin and SMU engages Tulsa at Tulsa.

Saturday Texas A&M and Houston tangle at College Station, Baylor plays R.E.A. of Artesia, N. M., at Waco, SMU takes on St. Louis at St. Louis, Texas and North Texas State play again at Austin, TCU plays Canisius at Buffalo, N. Y., Arkansas and Mississippi clash at Memphis and Rice and Tulane play at New Orleans.

Cross Fingers Over Scandals

NEW YORK, Dec. 3. (AP)—College basketball, staggered by a sordid series of "dumps" and "fixes," wareily approaches a new season with fingers crossed, outlook uncertain, hoping for the best.

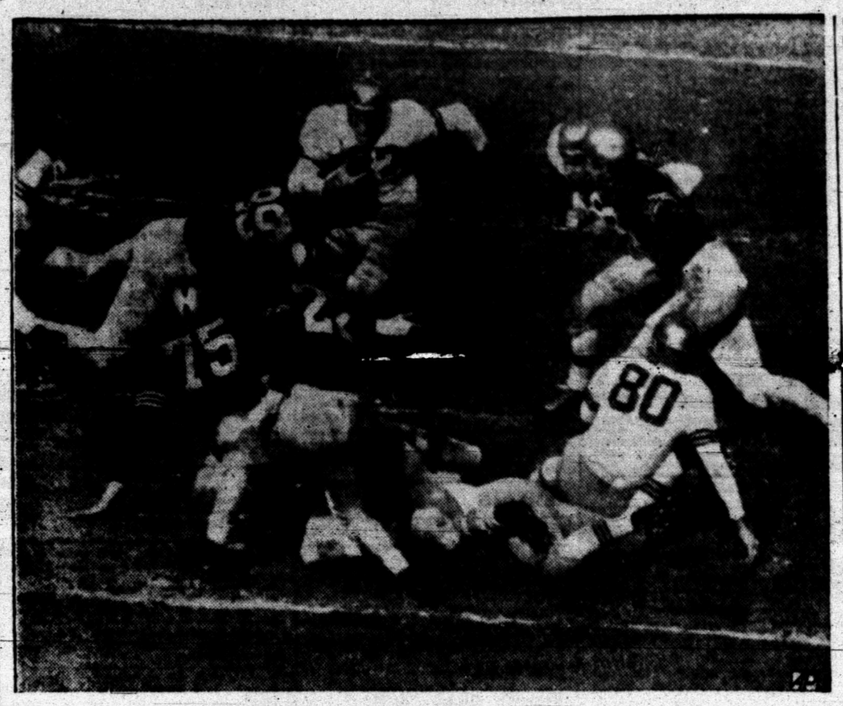

This is the year when the cage game goes strictly on the defensive. Nobody realizes that more than the coaches and players. It is up to them to help the deflated sport make a worthwhile comeback, to wipe out all suspicion and doubt, to restore the confidence of the disillusioned fans. It is up to them to make the 1951-52 cage season the most honest and cleanest of them all. The entire nation sits on the jury bench, waiting to judge.

The voluntary withdrawal from big time basketball of CCNY and the dropping of the sport by Long Island University, two scandal-rocked schools, eliminates two perennial powerful quintets from consideration. That leaves St. John's of Brooklyn, Seton Hall of South Orange, N. J. Villanova and LaSalle of Philadelphia to uphold the east's court prestige.

These four are rated the strongest units in the east with Holy Cross, Duquesne, New York University, Columbia, St. Bonaventure and Connecticut rated a couple of shades behind. Those who may surprise include Pennsylvania, Fordham, Georgetown, Boston College, Niagara and Colgate.

Bob Quinn In Hospital

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., Dec. 3. (AP)—Bob Quinn, 81, curator of baseball's Hall of Fame at Cooperstown, N. Y., and former owner of the Boston Braves, has been confined to St. Anthony's hospital for four days.

RIGHT DOWN THE MIDDLE

Vic Vine (27), Navy back, goes through center in second period of game with Army at Philadelphia for a gain of more than a yard as Ronald Lincoln (89), Army end, dives for his ankles. In Vines path are Army's John Krause (75) and Donald Fuqua (22) with Navy end Herb Tiede (80) at the right. Navy won 42-7.

Minor Leagues Meet To Solve Important Points They Face

By JOE REICHLER

COLUMBUS, O., Dec. 3. (AP)—Five big major league questions remained to be answered and five important minor league problems waited to be solved as the minor leagues opened their convention today.

The questions:

Will Eddie Stanky manage the St. Louis Cardinals?

Will Joe DiMaggio retire?

Will Ted Williams be traded?

Will the New York Yankees get Ned Garver?

Will Brooklyn get Ewell Blackwell or any of the other star pitchers of Cincinnati?

MINOR LEAGUE PROBLEMS

Problems confronting minor league baseball are: Open classification for the higher minors; radio and television inroads on minor league attendance; high school rule; abolition of 24-hour recall of players sent to lower classification and trimming of big league roster from 25 to 23 players; placing an eighth club in the International League.

The cold war between Owners Fred Saigh of the Cardinals and Horace Stoneham of the New York Giants continues as the canny Redbirds boss declares he had three other candidates besides the Giants' scrappy second baseman.

"While Stanky remains my No. 1 choice, I have three other men, all highly capable, under consideration," Saigh declared. "I have talked with all three."

KEEPS PITCHERS

The Giants have asked for Outfielder Chuck Diering and Southpaw Max Lanier. Saigh refuses to part with any pitchers. He has offered a second string infielder along with Diering for Stanky.

One of the three possibles for manager is Terry Moore, popular coach of the Cardinals and a leading candidate last year when Marty Marion got the job. Pee Wee Reese, reported to be another, squashed that rumor. The Brooklyn shortstop said:

"I am not interested in managing the Cardinals or any other club right now. I hope to manage a club after my playing days are ended."

Lou Boudreau has just about decided to take Ted Williams off the market. The new manager of the Boston Red Sox is not satisfied with any offers for his star slugger.

Buzzy Bavasi, vice-president of the Dodgers, said he was still hopeful of landing Blackwell, Howie Fox or Herman Wehmeier of the Reds. He also was seeking Righthander Bob Rush of the Chicago Cubs.

HIGH SCHOOL RULE

Minor league president George M. Trautman said he was in favor of the open classification, keeping the high school rule and the abolition of the 24-hour recall.

Trautman said he believed the current 24-hour recall rule was bad for baseball.

"Bringing up kids from the minors after they have endeared themselves to the hearts of the fans in a particular city is dangerous," Trautman declared.

Babe Taking Most Money

MIAMI, Dec. 3. (AP)—Mrs. Babe Dirikson Zaharias is the money winner and still champion among women golf pros. She surrendered some of her titles on the PGA circuit in 1951.

Patty Berg captured the Weathervane championship and dethroned Mrs. Zaharias as Western Open champion. Betsy Rawls of Austin won the Open Championship with a 293 at Atlanta.

Among highlights of the 1951 women's PGA circuit, as set forth today by Director Fred Corcoran:

Leading money winners — Mrs. Zaharias, $15,087, Miss Berg won $13,237.50.

Most tournaments won — Mrs. Zaharias (8); Miss Berg (5).

World's scoring record (72 holes) —Mrs. Zaharias, 288 at Tampa.

All-time record (18 holes) finalled — Mrs. Zaharias, 66 at Dallas.

Biggest upset — Weathervane team (Mrs. Zaharias, Miss Berg, Betty Jameson, Betsy Rawls, Peggy Kirk and Betty Bush) defeating team of British amateurs, which included four members of British Walker Cup team, 6-0, at Wentworth, Eng.

All Quiet In SW Conference

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
(Associated Press Sports Writer)

DALLAS, Dec. 3. (AP)—The raucous Southwest Conference footall campaign is ended and all through the league not a creature is stirring except a couple of business managers trying to furnish twice as many bowl tickets as they're going to have.

TCU, which won the championship Saturday by beating SMU 13-2, became host team in the Cotton Bowl. Next week, the football squad returns to work.

Baylor, second in the conference but boasting the season's best record — eight victories, one loss and one tie — also will be quite quiet this week. That will go on next week, too. Then George Sauer brings his boys back to the practice field. Baylor will play Georgia Tech in the Orange Bowl at Miami.

Baylor closed with a smashing 34-14 victory over Rice. What the Bears did, if there was a scout from Georgia Tech in the stands, should make the Southeastern Conference team worry over what to expect Jan. 1.

A little cooperative scouting has given TCU, which plays Kentucky, and Baylor the lowdown on their opponents. Jim Crow, veteran Baylor scout, looked over both Kentucky and Georgia Tech and has now handed his reports to Sauer and Dutch Meyer of TCU.

TCU is a veteran of bowl warfare. The Frogs have already been in six post season classics — twice in the Sugar Bowl, twice in the Cotton Bowl, once in the Orange Bowl and once in the defunct Delta Bowl. TCU played in the first Cotton Bowl game in 1937, beating Marquette 16-6. It always has been felt that TCU should have been in the Rose Bowl in 1938 when it had its greatest team. But the Pasadena folk passed up the Frogs.

Baylor will be playing in its first major bowl game. The Bears were in the Dixie Bowl in 1949, beating Wake Forest.

Big Ten Meeting Set

CHICAGO, Dec. 3. (AP)—The Big Ten will hold its annual winter meetings Thursday through Sunday tackling television policies, waiver of the freshman rule and financial aid to athletes.

Schoolboys To Find Finalists This Week End

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
(Associated Press Sports Writer)

Finalists will be determined this week in the upper echelons of Texas schoolboy football. It looks like this:

Class AAAA — Lubbock and Baytown.

AAA — Breckenridge and Temple.

The lower divisions — Classes ... Will be establishing semifinalists. Here's how it appears:

AA — Anson, Arlington, Lavega and Donna.

A — Wink, Newcastle, Giddings and Industrial (Vanderbilt).

Lubbock and Ray of Corpus Christi are the last undefeated, untied teams in AAAA.

Lubbock and Arlington Heights (Fort Worth) get together at Lubbock. Ray and Baytown clash at Corpus Christi, both Saturday afternoon.

Lubbock, on the basis of the season's record, is a clear favorite over Arlington Heights, which lost to Abilene.

The other game though looks very close. Ray lost some face last week in being able to barely nose out thrice-beaten Waco 21-20. Baytown was removing undefeated, untied Lamar of Houston on penetrations in a 7-7 tie. During the season Ray and Baytown both played Beaumont and each won with comparative ease.

In AAA, Breckenridge plays undefeated, untied Grand Prairie at Breckenridge Saturday. Temple and Brownsville clash at Brownsville Friday night. The Breckenridge-Grand Prairie game looks tough and Grand Prairie could beat Breck without causing much surprise. Brownsville's lone loss this season was to Lamar, 40-13. Temple was barely nosed out by Baytown, which tied Lamar.

Anson and Lavega are the only undefeated, untied teams left in AA. Anson plays Childress at Wichita Falls Friday afternoon. Lavega engages Huntsville at Huntsville Friday night. Arlington plays Pleasant Grove at Dallas and Donna clashes with Lamar of Rosenberg at McAllen, both Friday night.

Class A Features two games matching unbeaten, untied teams—Abernathy vs Wink at Lubbock Friday and Newcastle vs Hawkins at Denton. Giddings, the other undefeated, untied team, takes on Cedar Bayou there Friday. Industrial plays at Pearsall Friday.

Sandlot Hall Of Fame Gets First Nominees

COLUMBUS, O., Dec. 3. (AP)—Nine players who reached stardom in the major leagues were nominated today by the National Baseball Congress for the first berths in the sandlot hall of fame.

The nominees include Leroy (Satchel) Paige, John Pesky, Freddie Hutchinson, "Boo" Ferris, Lou Kretlow, Grady Hatton of Texas, Eddie Waitkus, Monty Basgall and Rex Barney.

Baylor Boasts Most Victories

(By The Associated Press)

The Texas College football campaign is ended with Baylor boasting the best record.

The Bruins had eight wins, one loss and one tie although they did not win the Southwest Conference championship. Their lone loss was to TCU, the winner.

East Texas State, champion of the Lone Star conference, had the second best record, winning nine while losing two.

Champions were:

Southwest Conference — TCU.

Border — Texas Tech.

Lone Star — East Texas State.

Gulf Coast — North Texas State.

Texas Conference — Abilene Christian, Howard Payne and Texas A&I tied.

Not many games were played last week in winding up the season.

In the Southwest, Texas A&M beat Texas 22-21, TCU downed SMU 13-2 and Baylor downed Rice 34-13.

In the Texas Conference, Texas A&I licked Austin College 41-7 to tie ACC and Howard Payne.

In the Lone Star, East Texas State whipped Sul Ross 47-21 to finish unbeaten in conference play.

North Texas State bowed to Houston 20-14. Houston belongs to the Missouri Valley conference.

Heimerdinger Is High Gainer Again In Small Colleges Of Nation

NEW YORK, Dec. 3. (AP)—Quarterback Bob Heimerdinger of Northern Illinois State won top football ground gaining honors among the small college for the second straight year, according to final NCAA statistics today.

Heimerdinger gained 1,775 yards by passing — also high for the season — and his 103 completions placed him second in passing behind Andy MacDonald of Central Michigan. MacDonald completed 114.

Bob White of New Mexico Western was the year's top ball carrier; Jim Stepoff of Kalamazoo the leading pass receiver and Curtiss Harris of Savannah State the No. 1 punter.

Woman Author Likens Herself To Rhinoceros

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3. (AP) — On the walls of her red frame house in Washington's old Georgetown section Miss Ellen Newbold LaMotte has pictures of rhinoceroses. In her living room she has a parrot called Albert.

The rhinoceros is a favorite animal of Miss LaMotte. She liked the idea of its making its own way through the jungle, something she fancies she herself has done it in her lifetime.

Offhand, you wouldn't notice Albert as you enter the antique-filled living room with its Victorian type plants, its red-velvet chairs, paintings, busts and statue of General Grant. But Albert notices you and chatters at you.

Miss La Motte looks and acts many years younger than her 78. Perhaps it's because she's been so active making her "own way through the jungle of life." Born in November, 1873, at Louisville Ky., she first attended fashionable Miss Rebecca Powell's school in Arlington, Va., then went on to graduate from the training school of Johns Hopkins Hospital in Baltimore in 1902.

In 1905 she joined the staff of the Instructive Visiting Nurse Association of Baltimore, specializing in tuberculosis work, and was superintendent of the tuberculosis division in Baltimore's Health Department until 1913, when she took off for Paris to serve as a nurse with the French Army.

In 1916 she went to the Far East with a friend, got interested in the fight against opium, became an authority on the subject and wrote numerous books about narcotics. She received the Lin Tse Hsu Memorial Medal from the Chinese Nationalist government in 1930 for her work against the drug.

When the depression came along Miss LaMotte came to Washington to "get along as best she could"—which was all right. She bought and fixed up old Georgetown houses; which she could get then "awfully cheap." Her present house dates back to 1860.

"I'm interested in old things," she continued, "I buy things at auctions, the sofa there, with the eagle carved in walnut, came from the old U. S. Senate chamber, I bought three chairs too in the same sale. They date back to Civil War days."

In a little study leading to a charming garden Miss LaMotte showed me Albert's cage. "When I cover him up for the night he says "Good night, Darling'", she confided. "Albert, my friends and the stock market keep me interested."

10 Passenger Train Runs Cut

AUSTIN, Dec. 3. (AP)—Cancellation of ten passenger train schedules—one each way between Houston-Austin, Ennis-Fort Worth, Beaumont-Somerville, McAllen-Brownsville, and Waxahachie-Houston — has been approved by the Texas Railroad Commission.

Commission Chairman Olin Culberson said he agreed to the discontinuances only because he was forced to by previous court decisions saying trains must be allowed to quit running if they are not making a profit.

Trains authorized to quit running were the T. and N. O's Nos. 45 and 46 between Houston and Austin, 85 and 86 between Ennis and Fort Worth, and 305 and 306 between McAllen and Brownsville, Gulf, Colorado and Santa Fe's 205 and 206 between Beaumont and Somerville, and Fort Worth and Denver and Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific's 11 and 12 between Waxahachie and Houston.

Twenty Years Before Atomic Heat Ready To Compete With Coal

NEW YORK, Dec. 3. (AP)—Coal and water power won't have competition from atomic fuel for 20 years, says Nobel Prize Winner Dr. Glenn T. Seaborg.

The University of California chemistry professor, who discovered plutonium, talked before leaving by plane Sunday for Stockholm, where he will receive the Nobel science award Dec. 10.

Seaborg said Atomic Energy is being put to important practical uses as radioactive tracers for measuring movements and activity of various elements.

He said he believed this use "will be of greater importance than atomic power itself."

Hunting Accident Is Fatal To Young Mother

WEST MEMPHIS, Ark., Dec. 3. (AP) A young mother was killed near here Sunday by an accidental blast from a shotgun she had just given her husband as an early Christmas gift.

Mrs. Arnold McFarland, 26, was shot while she, her husband, and two companions were hunting rabbits.

McFarland said he shot his wife after he fired at a rabbit and lowered the gun. He said the gun suddenly fired again. Mrs. McFarland was 15 feet away.

Deputy Sheriff C. M. Rieves said he was told the shotgun apparently fired when McFarland stumbled.

Boy Falls To Death

LARCHMONT, N. Y., Dec. 3. (AP)—The 16-month-old Gilson twins, John Charles and Jo Ann, pushed a chair to their open bedroom window Sunday and climbed up on the sill to play.

Mrs. Ann Gilson dashed into the room and snatched Jo Ann from the sill. Her boy already had tumbled five stories to his death.

MAN DIES FROM WRECK INJURIES

Injuries sustained in this wreck early Sunday morning proved fatal to Harold Eugene Brooks, 25, Southwestern Bell Telephone Co. construction worker temporarily assigned to Snyder. His companion, B. H. Thomas, 20, was also injured in the accident but is reported to be in satisfactory condition in a Big Spring hospital. The accident occurred about 27 miles south of Snyder on the Big Spring highway when the car apparently skidded on damp pavement and turned over twice, Jack Taylor, highway patrolman from Big Spring, said. Brooks home was in Bowie, where funeral services will be held. — (Joe Dave Scott photograph.)

Youth in Jail Break Here Is Caught Again

Dewey Carl Newton, 18, one of three men involved in a jail break here in August, 1950, has been taken into custody by Abilene police and will be returned to the state penitentiary in Huntsville. Newton was sentenced by Scurry and Taylor County juries on 12 counts of burglary and three counts of car theft.

Newton and two other men in custody of the sheriff's department here in August, 1950, overpowered L. E. Haynes, deputy sheriff, while he was taking them from the jail to the courthouse to stand trial. They took Haynes' gun and threatened to shoot him. All three were recaptured within a short time after the break.

Newton, who has already served part of his sentence in Huntsville, was given an emergency parole when his sister died in Midland. He failed to return to the prison at the termination of that period, and, in additon, has admitted eight counts of burglary and theft and four counts of car theft committed since his month and a half away from Huntsville.

Ira Opens Its Season With Two Victories

Ira basketballers began their season Friday night by defeating Colorado City in both boys' and girls' cage games.

The boys A squad outscored the Colorado City B team 23-10 under the leadership of James Maupin, who was high scorer with seven points.

Basketball coach is Eddie Redwine.

The girls beat the Colorado City group 20-15, coming from behind after the half. Velma Smith sacked half the Ira team's points.

Reagan Tests Quit

Two wildcats in South - Central Reagan County have been plugged and abandoned.

Prigge, Bailey & Shatto of Colorado City No. 1 John Carr is dry at total depth of 3,324 feet.

It was in section 11-HE&WT, and nine miles north of the Big Lake field. That made it three miles north of Big Lake.

The same company has abandoned its No. 1 P. H. Coates, 660 feet from north and 3,300 feet from west lines of section 5, J. W. Bills survey, at 585 feet.

Veterans Joint Board Will Talk With Tile Contractors Today

Members of the joint board of American Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars will meet this afternoon at 5 o'clock in the office of M. R. Estes to talk with tile contactors interested in doing the tile work for the two organizations' clubhouse.

George Killam, secretary of the board, said the tile work contract for the building will be let within the next few days.

Estes, who is the engineer representing the two clubs, will meet with electrical contractors to respecify electrical work on the building.

Spring Temperature Reading Here Sunday

Snyder had a high mercury reading of 81 degrees yesterday as similar temperatures were recorded over this area.

The Abilene weather station reported the 80 - degree high there was just one degree below the record for that date, 81 degrees recorded on Dec. 2, 1916.

The overnight low recorded by Mrs. D. P. Strayhorn, offical weather observer here, was 41 degrees, with 46 degrees at 7:30 this morning.

Cowgirl Band Gives Concert Here Tomorrow

The Hardin - Simmons University Cowgirl band will present a program of classical, modern, and novelty band numbers when it appears here at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning in the high school.

Under the direction of Marion B. McClure, the concert will include a cornet solo, cornet trio, accordion solo, vocal solo, and a baton twirling solo.

"Emblem of Unity," a march, will open the program. Other numbers include the andante and march from the "Pathetic Symphony," Tschaikowsky; a cornet solo by Dera Jane Brown, Arp, "Don Carlos"; "Smoke Gets in Your Eyes"; "Pavonne," from the "Don Fatale," from the opera, American Symphonette by Gould; "Three Modernaires," a cornet trio.

Mary Jane Smith of Houston, accordion soloist, will play "Dark Eyes." Doris Crudgington, Breckenridge, winner of the Horace Heidt variety show contest when it appeared in Abilene this fall, will sing. Miss Crudgington also plays the trombone with the band.

3 Home Games Set In 1952 Schedule

Coaches and superintendents of the seven high schools in District 1AAA worked out the 1952 district football schedule and appointed a chairman in a meeting held Saturday morning at Midland.

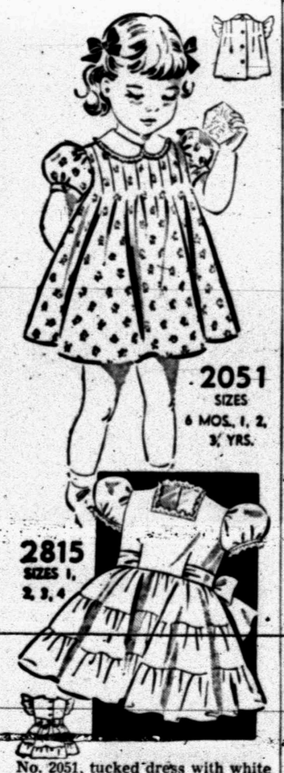

The delegation voted to list all schools in alphabetical order, giving the chairmanship each year in that order. The first is Big Spring, which is to furnish the chairman and secretary for the coming year. Superintendent W. C. Blankenship is the chairman for 1952, and outgoing chairman C. W. Tartar of Sweetwater is vice - chairman.

Coaches voted not to hold district competition in baseball. They also voted to give the home teams in football game the option as to whether the last three November ball games will be played during day or night.

Now The Hard Of Hearing Can Help Themselves To Hearing

Here is sensational news for the Hard of Hearing of Snyder, and surrounding community. Science has overcome a major type of deafness. Now sufferers from middle - ear deafness need no longer wear a hearing aid button in either ear. NO EARBUTTON —NO HEADBAND—NO PRESS RE — NOTHING IN EITHER EAR. Yes, it's absolutely true—sufferers from "middle-ear" deafness need no longer wear a hearing aid button in either ear — thanks to an amazing new scientific discovery made by Acousticon, the world's first and oldest manufacturers of electrical hearing aids.

A FREE HEARING AID CLINIC will be held Wednesday Dec. 5, Manhattan Hotel, 10 a.m. to 5 p.m., by A. C. Bourland, (Acousticon-Public Education Department Hearing Specialist). If you suffer from "middle - ear" deafness, or if you don't know what kind of deafness you have you are invited to try this sensational new discovery without cost or obligation. Absolutely Free!

Think of it-if you now wear a hearing aid with an earbutton it is possible for you to take the button out of your ear forever, say goodbye for life to earbuttons and headbands. If you have been too embarrassed to wear a hearing aid button in your ear, you may now hear again with thrilling clarity and comfort — with absolutely nothing in your ear! All this is made possible by the development of a tiny receiver disc which is almost completely hidden on the skin behind the ear.

Absolutely Free Tryout! So come in to this clinic. This may be the answer you have waited for—a thrilling, exciting, blessed new way to hear, science's astounding victory over "middle-ear" deafness! Prove—Right now that perhaps you can hear again with nothing in your ear!— also see the new small one piece acousticon for $69.50.

Bill Ford, left, has no manpower difficulties in his job as manager of a local market. That's because his three assistants are all women. The three "butcherettes" shown above, left to right, Mrs. C. D. Askew, Mrs. R. R. Routson, and Mrs. Joe L. Halpain. The women don't actually butcher the beef and pork; but they know the cuts as well as any meat man.—(Lee Watson photograph.)

TALK OF THE TOWN

By SUE HOLMES

One morning not long ago a young housewife, obviously a novice cook, walked back to the market at Furr Food Store, looked at the fresh meat on display and politely asked of the attendant: "I'd like one chicken boned and ground, please."

The voice that explained patiently to her that a chicken must be cooked before it is cut up and ground belonged to a woman, one of three "butcherettes" working at the market.

The three don't actually saw the meat — market manager BILL FORD takes care of that — but weighing the meat, tagging the cuts with their proper names and wrapping them in neat cellophane packages is entirely in the hands of Mrs. JOE L. HALPAIN, 2307 Avenue I; Mrs. C. D. ASKEW, 1211 Twenty - fifth Street, and Mrs. R. R. ROUTSON, 1412 Thirtieth Street.

Rudolph the red - nosed reindeer has nothing on the butcherettes who laughlingly admit their noses stay a bright pink because of the super - cooled market room, a necessary part of their somewhat unusual occupation.

Working with meat as they do, the three women say they can tell how tender a cut of meat is just by looking at it. And their husbands profit by their knowledge of good meat, too. All except attractive, black - eyed Bonnie Halpain's husband, who is serving with the Navy in Okinawa.

* * *

Actually the nearest the butcherettes come to butchering is slicing lunch meat and cheese, but all three think they could wield a mean cleaver and saw if the occasion demanded. The weight of the beef quarters in the storage room prevents the women from heaving them on the chopping block and chunking off chops, roasts and steaks.

Blond Margie Askew, who has been working in the market six months, likes the job which is her first. Juanita Routson has been working in the market over a year, having come here from Hobbs, N. M., and she recalls an incident similar to the chicken episode. Her customer asked for a pound of ground liver. She explained that the recipe surely meant for the liver to be cooked, then ground.

Ford teases the women that working in the market is equivalent to two years in college. And who will argue that knowing how to choose good meat these days isn't equal to several courses in foods and nutrition—and economics, besides?

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. SMITH of the Smith Motel recently received word that their son, William Smith is one of 25 students at New Mexico A&M College who has been named to "Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities."

Although William has not lived in Snyder, he calls it home base since his parents moved here recently. He's a senior, an agriculture major, president of the Ag Club, a member of Alpha Zeta (national honorary agriculture society) and a member of the Block and Bridle Club. He and his wife have two children.

THE STARS

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD, Dec. 3. (AP)—The husbands of America will soon be getting competition in their own homes. The Continental is going nation-wide.

The Continental is a smooth-talking, accented wolf who has made love to thousands of Southern California women — via television. His popularity has spread and he will soon romance a greater audience, broadcasting a network show from New York.

Renzo Cesana is the Continental, a shrewd man with a good sense of humor. He is not overly handsome, admitting he sometimes resembles Danny Kaye. He has a charming manner and a warm voice accented by his native Italy. These factors may bring him a fortune as an atomic age Casanova.

What does he do on TV?

"I am the epitome of the bachelor wolf," he explained. "Mine is the only TV show with one camera. The camera personifies the woman in the audience and I speak directly to her. The beginning of the show has her entering my apartment. I help her off with her coat and offer her a cigarette. Then I open some champagne — it is really ginger ale, because it pops better.

"What really matters is the conversation that we have. It is not only about love; it could be about religion or any other matter."

He offers such wisdom as:

"How to get a man — Promise him paradise with your eyes, then make him go through Hell to get it."

"Those wonderful girdles do so much with so [illegible]."

"How to hold a [illegible] arms. How to hold a woman [illegible] her up in her room."

What is the procedure for dyeing heavy woolen garments? Can it be done successfully? J. C.

All extra heavy or loosely woven woolens require two to three times as much coloring. There is no need to rip the garment apart unless alterations are necessary. In dyeing woolens, avoid extremes in temperature. The material should be wet in lukewarm water and the dye bath should be the same temperature (lukewarm) when entering the goods. Gradually bring to just under the boiling point—simmer. Keep the water at this temperature throughout the dyeing process.

Wash in lukewarm soapy water and rinse in clear, lukewarm water. Goods should be pressed before thoroughly dry. This will save hard pressing. Faded woolens will not take the dye evenly, particularly sun - scorched material. These should be dyed black.

My piano's keys are slightly dingy, what would you suggest for cleaning them? A. T.

Jane Wagner, Home Service Director with the Gas Appliance Manufacturers Association, says to wipe the keys with cloth dipped in oil of camphor. Leave on a few minutes before wiping off with a clean cloth.

* * *

Do you know whether or not it is true that bees cannot sting a person while he holds his breath? I have heard this all my life. Mrs. R. K.

According to the United States Bureau of Entomology, there is no foundation in fact of this question. The stinger of the bee enters the skin through the pores, and these tiny openings may be slightly affected by breathing, but the difference made when a person holds his breath is too slight to interfere with the operation of the bee's stinger. If bees do not sting a person while he holds his fist it is not because they cannot sting under such conditions, but because the person is then likely to be more quiet. Bees seem to be able to detect the slightest sign of fear in a human being and are stimulated to sting by any quick, nervous movement.

Applications Taken For Part Time Work In Christmas Rush

H. D. Moreland, postmaster, said about 15 applications have been received at the post office for part-time positions during the holiday rush.

The postmaster said none has begun work yet, but he will start using the part - time employes sometime next week. He said he expected this week's business to be light, with the flow of Christmas packages and letters beginning about two weeks before Christmas.

Applications are being received from citizens 18 years of age and older who can read and write. Moreland said he prefers those who know the streets well enough to be able to deliver mail quickly.

The part - time employes will begin work one at a time as they are needed, Moreland said, and the post office probably will not need more than 10 during the season.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Weathers, 2801 Avenue M, visited Friday with Mr. and Mrs. Bill Gale of Colorado City.

Note Big Drop In Bad Checks Passed Here

In the last six months there has been a reduction of about 75 per cent in the number of worthless check cases reported, Keith L. Merrick, county attorney, said last week.

The decrease he believes, is due partly to the new "hot check law" recently passed by the legislature and partly to more stable settlement of the city. "There aren't as many drifters here as there were a few months ago," the attorney said, "and the people are better acquainted with each other."

The new law provides better prosecution of swindlers, Merrick said. But since it will always be impossible to apprehend every person who writes a worthless check and bring him to justice, persons in business should be as cautious as ever in accepting checks. A person receivng a "hot check" should notify the writer of the check immediately when payment is refused by a bank. Then after 10 days, if the check has not been redeemed or funds deposited to cover it, the person with the check should request prosecution of the writer.

Copies of a letter explaining the new law and what should be done when a worthless check is discovered are being sent to most of the merchants in town, Merrick said.

Search On For Woman Missing In Alabama

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Dec. 3. (AP)—Searchers with floodlights hunted through the night for a grandmother with failing memory lost on dangerous Double Oak mountain.

Short, sharp cliffs, boulders hidden in thick brush and rattlesnakes added to hazards of the quest for Mrs. Ann Bragg, 76. She disappeared at 10 a.m. Sunday while walking between two homes a quarter-mile apart.

Sheriff A. E. Norwood said Mrs. Bragg "blanked out" at times.

Man Injured Saturday In Oilfield Accident

Lester Roy Henning, 34, of Snyder, suffered a back injury about 9 o'clock Saturday night when he was struck by tongs on a drilling rig 10 miles west of here.

Henning, employed by the Hondo Drilling Co., was taken by a Bolger - Barnes ambulance to the Snyder Hospital where his condition this morning was reported satisfactory.

Odessa Cleans Up City Today

ODESSA, Dec. 3. (AP)—Women ran most Odessa business houses today as their men toiled to rid the city of refuse which might be causing polio.

For the first time, the polio situation officially has been termed an epidemic.

The list of victims mounted to 59 with five new cases.

Nine deaths have resulted. Most cases have been reported in recent weeks. Last year the city and Ector County had 27 cases. The previous record was 29.

The Phillips Petroleum Co. plant will close Tuesday, releasing several hundred for the clean-up drive.

The city has been divided into zones. Police patrol cars in each zone will coordinate cleanup work via radio.

A dump ground has been laid out north of Odessa. All trash will be burned and the ashes buried.

Knowledge Of Atomic Weapons Has Increased Greatly In Last Year

LAS VEGAS, Nev., Dec. 3. (AP)—This country's knowledge of atomic weapons has almost doubled in the past year, says Dr. Alvin C. Graves. So has its stockpile.

Graves, scientific director of Atomic Energy Commission tests, said in an interview:

"Our knowledge of atomic weapons has been increased in the past year at a much greater rate than in any similar period. Our advance almost equals all previous development since the first nucear detonation at Alamagordo in 1945."

He indicated the stockpile of A-weapons has increased in about the same proportion.

Graves, who directed the recent series of atomic blasts at the AEC proving ground near here, said "It is reasonable to assume that we have more weapons similar to the ones tested here. We wouldn't be shooting off the only models we have."

Misunderstanding Over Bag Limit Of Quail In West Texas Areas

LUBBOCK, Dec. 3. (AP)—L. J. Dugger, head of the Game and Fish Commission in West Texas, said Sunday night a misunderstanding of the quail limit in the Panhandle and South Plains was causing the commission considerable trouble.

It was erroneously understood that Panhandle hunters, under a special commission ruling, may kill 20 quail a day. The bag limit per day is 12 birds.

"That applies all over West Texas," Dugger said.

"The possession limit in the Panhandle is 24. The possession limit in the South Plains is 36 birds," he said.

Dugger said wardens are finding numerous hunters trying to bag their possession limit of 36 birds in one day. The bag limit is 12 birds per day, and only over a three-day period can the hunter have 36 birds in his possession.

TAKES HIS TIME

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 3. (AP) Ever hear of a hold-up man escaping leisurely in a bus?

Neither had the San Francisco cops until Sunday night.

This odd character walked into a delicatessen, and held up Eva Cerelli:

He demanded and got a loaf of bread, two cans of beer and a pound of coffee.

Almost as an afterthought, the thug asked:

"Have you any money?"

Mrs. Cerelli said "no" and the man took off.

Last she saw of him he was boarding a bus at the corner. Police haven't captured him.
