A Creek In My Back

As it will appear in the Roanoke Times and the Norfolk (Va.) Virginian-Pilot

By Allan R. Bosworth

They buried Chief Cornplanter on the Seneca Indian Reservation a long time ago, but of late there are signs that old warrior's bones don't lie easy in his grave — and with good and sufficient reason. Before long the waters of the Allegheny River, backed up into a 27-mile-long reservoir by the Kinzua Dam, will cover Chief Cornplanter's resting place, along with nearly 10,000 acres owned by the Seneca nation.

The Great White Father has spoken. With, that is, a forked tongue.

It was Chief Cornplanter who signed a treaty with George Washington, in 1794. That first Great White Father — famous for his inability to tell a lie — put it in writing that the United States would never disturb the Seneca nation. He also promised each Indian a dollar and thirty-five cents and two yards of cloth every year.

In G. Washington's time, of course, flood control measures were largely confined to spitting and to putting the barrel under the rain spout. But in the Fifties of this century, the federal government drew up plans for a series of dams in the Ohio basin, and Kinzua Dam, now being constructed, a few miles west of Warren, Pa., is one of them. The Senecas smoked their pipes in tribal council, and fought this all the way to the U. S. Supreme Court, but lost. An even larger number of pale-faces are being dispossessed, but there are 136 Indian families who will have to move.

That annual dollar thirty-five and the two yards of cloth, they say, do not help very much. The Great White Father has given them no money to aid the resettlement, which will be on 650 reservation acres that will not be inundated. On the other hand, the Senecas point out, the chief of all the palefaces has paid the Pennsylvania Railroad twenty million dollars for right-of-way it will have to give up.

Not that the medicine men of Washington haven't been busy on this. The Bureau of Indian Affairs has been beating tom-toms on Capitol Hill, trying to get an appropriation for the Senecas. And if this succeeds, what do they expect the Noble Red Man to do with the wampum?

They are going to suggest that the Senecas open a motel, run a coin laundry, set up some bowling alleys, cut the grass on a nine-hole golf course, and hire out birchbark canoes for use on the new lake.

At the door on summer evenings Sat the little Hiawatha; Heard the lapping of the waters As the tourists did their laundry,

Saw the wrinkled old Nokomis Set another row of duckpins. Many things Nokomis taught him:

How to caddy for the golfers, How to hold the hand for tipping

When he carried ice to cabins; "Mudway - aushka!" said the laundry;

"Sandtrap!" said the golfers . . . Well, who is little Hiawatha, to fly into the face of Progress? But one thing disturbs me. It is a partial quotation from the Introduction of a handsome volume called "The American Heritage Book of Indians," which says.

"But when the American Indians lost their power, they were placed on reservations, frequently lands which were strange to them and the rest of the nation turned its attention to other matters.

"Out treatment of Indians during that period still affects the national conscience. We have been hampered — by the history of our relationship with the Indians — in our efforts to develop a fair national policy governing present and future treatment of Indians under their special relationship with the Federal government. America has much to learn about the heritage of our American In-

Lions Bow To Big Lake In Finals Of Rankin Tourney

Cox And Montgomery Named To All-Tournament Team

By Ernie Boyd

The Ozona Lions reached the finals of the Rankin Tourney Saturday night before bowing to the tall and talented Big Lake Owls 52 to 42 in the tournament finals.

The Lions won their first and second games of the young season in gaining the finals but were unable to cope with the Owls, who in addition to having a great deal of height advantage also have three of last year's starters returning for action this season.

Robert Cox and Pete Montgomery were named to the all tournament team as the result of their fine play in the meet.

Ozona began play Friday night engaging the McCamey Badgers in a thrilling contest which saw the Lions come from behind in the first quarter and then stand off a spirited Badger rally in the final four minutes of play.

McCamey scored first and led 3 to 1 at the end of two minutes of play before the Lions began to get the range with Robert Cox leading the way. Cox totaled 17 points for the contest and picked up 13 of them in the first half before Pete Montgomery, Brent Moore and Scott Mahon got hot in the second half to give the Lions a 10 point margin with just four minutes remaining.

The Badgers called time and began a press which seemed to rattle the Lions, though the home team did not lose the ball or fail to move it as a result of the McCamey action. The Badgers were able to cut the Ozona margin considerably before the final gun which found the Lions leading 49 to 44.

Penn Baggett, the Lions outstanding tackle, was named to both the offensive and defensive platoons while Pete Montgomery and Robert Cox were both named to the offensive squad.

Two additional Lions were named to the honorable mention list. They were Brent Moore, a tackle, and Joel Huff, a defensive half back. The honorable mention selections this year took the place of a second team which was not named this season.

Eight players from over the district were named both on the offensive units; they were, Penn Baggett of Ozona, Bill Shields of Big Lake, Jerry Aly of Big Lake, Jerry McDonald of Rankin, John McGregor of Eldorado, Mike Holmes of Big Lake, Lyn Meador of Eldorado and Dennie Jurecak of Eldorado.

Pete Montgomery in being named to the offensive backfield set several new records for Ozona ball carriers in the last 15 years. (no records prior to that). He carried the ball 210 times for a new mark and gained 1,367 yards for a new total gain mark, breaking the mark set by Bobby Sutton, his senior year.

Type II Sabin Polio Vaccine To Be Given Sunday

Everyone Urged To Take Second Dose From 1 to 5 p. m.

Next Sunday, December 16, will be the second Sabin Oral Polio Vaccine immunization day in Ozona from 1 to 5 p. m.

Type II vaccine will be given in the same locations as the Type I doses were given in early November. Doctors and nurses will be on hand at the North Elementary School and at the South Elementary School where immunization against the Type II polio, the second most dreaded form of the crippling disease, will be given.

Like the Type I vaccine, the Type II is a tasteless and odorless liquid given orally on a sugar cube for all except small babies, who take it direct from a medicine dropper.

Everyone who took the Type I vaccine and filled out a registration form can take the Type II vaccine without filling out another form. The ones used in the first dosage are good for all the additional doses.

A. O. Fields, coordinator of the local program, has issued a request for the service of as many as possible of the volunteer helpers who assisted with the first immunization program to be on hand to help in the Sunday afternoon immunization.

Everyone is urged to take the Type II vaccine whether or not they took the Type I. It makes no difference in what order the doses are taken, doctors emphasized, but a period of about a month or six weeks should elapse between the times the vaccines are taken.

"We want everybody who took the type I vaccine and everyone else who can to take the Type II vaccine Sunday," Fields said. It makes no difference whether you received the first dose the first Sunday or the make-up Sunday a week later, doctors here said.

Administration of the Sabin vaccine is being given free to all. However, each person who can is asked to donate 25 cents a dose to help defray cost of the immunization program.

Persons of all ages should take the Sabin vaccine, doctors say. Even though an older person may feel he is safe from contracting the disease, which seems to attack children and young people for the most part, they might be carriers.

The Sabin vaccine sets up an intestinal block against the polio germ and thus nullifies the potential spread of the disease by an unsuspecting carrier.

Construction Work Under Way On Hiway 33 South of Big Lake

The Texas Highway Department has announced a new construction project in Reagan County on R. M. Highway 33 from Big Lake South a distance of 8.0 miles. Proposed work consists of grading, drainage structures and resurfacing. The Texas Highway Department and the contractor, M. E. Ruby & Acme Bridge Co., Inc. of San Marcos, Texas, stated that construction began December 3, 1962, and will be completed by May 1963.

H. L. Bailey, Suprv. Resident Engineer, in charge of construction on the project, stated that traffic will be routed through the work for the entire project. Adequate barricade and warning signs will be prominently displayed, but motorists should use extreme caution while passing through the area as it will be heavily traveled by large construction equipment.

Motorists are further cautioned that only temporary unpaved detours are provided on this project and speeds should be reduced accordingly as many points cannot be negotiated at the usual rate of speed. Cooperation of the public is requested in obeying all traffic signals and warning signs.

Notes From The County Agent's Office

By Pete W. Jacoby

Reports received on the Southwest Screwworm Eradication Program say that the barrier of sterile flies along the international border shall be in full operation, weather permitting, by February 15, 1963. The outer half of the barrier will receive 600 flies per square mile per week, and the inner half, 400 sterile flies per square mile. The estimated size of the barrier is 100,000 square miles. It is estimated that about 50 million flies per week will be needed within the barrier until July 1, 1963.

It is projected that fly releases will continue within the present drop area but that weather will force intermittent cessation of treatment in the northern half. The present drop area lying outside the barrier totals approximately 50,000 square miles. Rates of flies dropped this winter will vary with weather conditions and intensity of screwworm activity.

Throughout the remainder of the fiscal year, increasing attention will be given to individual outbreaks of screwworms within the overwintering area and as the number of reported screwworm cases become fewer and fewer, more and more intensified efforts will be made to rapidly snuff each one out as it is reported.

The revised budget provides for altering production and release facilities so that under emergency circumstances, 100 million sterile flies per week may be produced and released if sufficient funds are available.

Did you know that 2.6 million young people reached the age of 18 in 1962, ready to enter the labor force or go on to college. The number reaching 18 in 1965, only three years from now is expected to be 3.8 million, a rise of nearly 50%.

More U. S. youth are going to school than ever before. Still, approximately 35% do not complete high school.

Annually 1,960,000 of the most able high school graduates, half of those in the top one-fourth of their classes, do not go to college.

Some 15,000 new jobs for college graduates are created in various agricultural fields every year, but our land-grant colleges graduate only 8,500 students to fill these openings.

A 1961 nation-wide survey conducted by the Bureau of Census for the USDA showed that 6 out of 10 persons who were hired to work on U. S. farms in 1960 had completed no more than 8 grades of school, and about 1 in 7 had completed high school.

The survey showed that male household heads who had completed at least 1 year of high school earned almost twice as much per day at farm work as those who had completed only 4 years of grammar school.

All-District —

Ozona finished the district race in third place behind winner Big Lake and second place holder Eldorado.

Bill Shields of Big Lake was also named as a third tackle.

The defensive squad included tackles, Shields and Ellis Loden of Eldorado; guards, Baggett, Ronnie Thorn of Rankin and Jurecek; linebackers, Jerry Aly and Jerry McDonald Freddy Dry, Iraan, John Robbins, Sanderson, Susano Munoz, Sanderson and John McGregor and halfbacks Meador and Holmes.

Mrs. Ralph Simon was reported improved in a San Angelo Hospital where she was taken for emergency treatment following surgery here Tuesday.

Lions Bow —

The win Friday night sent the Lions into the semi-finals against an improved host Rankin, Saturday afternoon, at 2 and the Lions responded with their best effort thus far as Leroy Cooper, Scott Mahon, Pete Montgomery and Robert Cox all had good afternoons, the Lions winning easily 43 to 27.

Ozona defense looked very good in the Rankin contest but in that game the Lions were facing a team of about its own size.

In the tournament finals, the Lions found themselves unable to cope with Howard, Adams, and Wilborn of whom appeared to top 32" or more and in addition played rather poorly most of the contest.

Big Lake sent in reserves, leaving but two regulars in the game after stacking up an 18 point lead but the Lions seemed to find themselves and the regulars had to return with 3 minutes and 37 seconds to go as the lead had fallen to 9. The Lions seemed to have found themselves and the balance of the game was about even with a late free shot extending the Big Lake lead to the final 32 to 42 margin.

Robert Cox and Leroy Cooper were the Lions top point makers with 23 and 10 each while big Roy Adams, who played almost all of the game, scored 16 for the Owls.

The Lions were still without the services of Rodney Stewart, who turned an ankle several weeks ago, and has as yet not taken part in any action.

The Lions will see action only once this week as they travel to MCMey tonight to meet the Badgers.

Next week the Lions will conclude their pre-Christmas play by entertaining the Del Rio Wildcats here Tuesday night and traveling to Sonora Thursday night.

being awarded Star Greenhand award and Keith Mitchell, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. K. Mitchell, named Star Chapter member.

The Star Greenhand award was presented to Moe by Douglas Moore who recited young Barbee's FFA record on which the award is based.

Moe has served on first place teams in a number of contests including leadership, wool grading and judging, range classification and judging, plant identification, livestock judging and grading and mohair judging and grading.

He served on a number of chapter projects and was selected by the chapter to serve as official delegate to the district, area and state conventions. He entered his records for competition among other first year students and was selected Star District Greenhand, Star Area II Greenhand and runner-up in the state for Star Greenhand of Texas. Last summer he attended range camp at Junction and was chosen by the faculty as one of the five outstanding boys at the camp.

Keith Mitchell's Star Chapter member award was presented by Nelson Hogg of Lamesa, Area II president. Hogg noted Keith's FFA projects which he is carrying out and pointed to the outstanding record he has made in FFA work.

Young Mitchell has been on a number of judging teams that placed high in contests in San Angelo, at Sul Ross, Texas Tech. in Big Spring, Eldorado, Sonora and local contests. These contests included radio broadcasting, parliamentary teams, range classification, range judging, plant identification, grading and judging wool and mohair, and last year was on the first place team in grading cattle at Texas Tech.

In public speaking the past two years, Keith has won first place in district, and 3rd and 2nd in area contests. He also attended range camp at Junction and was selected as one of the outstanding campers. He is now serving as District President of the Concho district.

The FFA program of work was outlined by three speakers, Douglas Moore, substituting for Rick Hagelstein, talking on the agriculture program, Carey Pitts on projects of FFA and Moe Barbee on contest work.

A very impressive talk on Agriculture, the Great Adventure, was given by David Childress as the closing feature of the program.

Ozona Woman's Club Members to Pack Box For Corsicana State Orphans Home at Dec. 18 Meet

The annual "labor of love" in packing a box of gifts for children at the Corsicana State Home for orphans will be a feature of the December meeting of the Ozona Woman's Club, to be held Tuesday, Dec. 18, in the home of Mrs. Eldred Roach.

Assisting hostesses will be Mrs. Joe Pierce, Jr., Mrs. R. H. Knox and Mr. L. B. Cox, Jr. Leader will be Mr. Roy Thompson, the program to feature the Christmas Story by Mrs. Sherman Taylor. The invocation will be by Mrs. J. A. Fussell and music will be provided by Mrs. V. I. Pierce.

The Corsicana State Home was founded in 1887 and has been in continuous operation since that time. Fifty-four children were received into the home the first year. During the entire time of operation, approximately 6,150 children have been cared for, both physically and educationally. P. L. Shotwell, superintendent of the Home, recently wrote a member of the local club.

At present, the Home operates as a faculty of the Texas Youth Council, an organization which has been in existence about six years. The Home operates on funds appropriated by the Texas Legislature. Children from 3 to 16 years who have been declared dependent and neglected are eligible for admission.

Although budgeted for 290 children, the Home presently has 312 students ranging in age from 3 to 20. There are 112 who are ages 3 through 12 years.

"Please express our thanks to all the Club members for gifts sent us in the past," Supt. Shotwell wrote Mrs. L. B. Cox, Jr., in response to her request for information about the Home. "Since several of our children will not be able to visit anyone over the holidays, it means a great deal for them to receive gifts from clubs such as yours."

Sending a box of gifts for the orphans home children at Christmas time has been a project of the Ozona Woman's Club for many years.

CHEVROLET...on the road every day!

ITS RELIABILITY COMES FROM ITS QUALITY

A nutshell description of Chevrolet trucks could be "Trucks That Work". It's not exactly earthshaking but it says a mouthful. It's what Chevrolet trucks are best known for—their reliability. Ready to work, day after day, whenever you are.

You can't build trucks that perform like this if you don't put quality into engine, chassis and body. Chevrolet does: double-wall construction, insulated cab, select-wood body floor, chain-supported tailgate, ladder-type frame, the careful attention to upholstery and finish. It's this kind of quality that makes any Chevrolet truck—from pickup to heavyweight tandem—worth more on the average at trade-in!
