Soviet High Command Stages Major Shuffle

A. Mikoyan Is Replaced

By HENRY S. BRADSHER

MOSCOW (AP) — A major shuffle in the Soviet high command today assigned Alexander N. Shelepin to an influential job at the top level of the Communist party and boosted Nikolai V. Podgorny into the presidency.

Podgorny, 62, who has been No. 2 man in the party as one of its secretaries and a member of the ruling party presidium, replaces Anastas I. Mikoyan, a member of the top Soviet command for 40 years. At 70 Mikoyan said an operation three years ago had made it difficult for him to fulfill the demands of the presidency. This is a largely ceremonial post.

Shelepin, 47, was relieved as deputy premier and head of the committee for party and state control. Communist sources indicated he would take the No. 2 post formerly held by Podgorny. This job is second to Leonid I. Brezhnev, chief of the secretariat, the most powerful unit in the Soviet Union.

There was no change in the two top posts — Brezhnev as first secretary of the party and Alexei N. Kosygin as premier. They suggested the changes, and they were approved by the Supreme Soviet, the parliament.

Both Podgorny and Mikoyan remained members of the 12-man party presidium which makes the policy executed by the party secretariat.

Mikoyan also was elected, following his resignation from the presidency, to a Supreme Soviet role corresponding to one of many parliamentary vice presidents.

Mikoyan, who marked his 70th birthday Nov. 25, was the last of the Old Bolsheviks in the upper reaches of the Soviet party and government. He was a revolutionary in the Caucasus as a young man at the time of the great Russian upheavals toward the end of World War I.

A nimble-witted Armenian with a genius for staying out of trouble, Mikoyan survived Stalin purges and innumerable shake-ups. He came close to the top of the hierarchy but never seemed to aspire for the top post. Evidently he played a significant part last year in the overthrow of Nikita S. Khrushchev.

Mikoyan's retirement had been rumored for some time.

Podgorny, a powerful Ukranian, leaves an influential post in the ruling party presidium and secretariat to step into the chairmanship of the Supreme Soviet or presidency. Podgorny's career has been associated with engineering, largely in agriculture. He worked many years at party duties in the Soviet Ukraine and rose under Khrushchev to eminence in the party leadership.

Gemini Six To Go Early

By HOWARD BENEDICT
AP Aerospace Writer

SPACE CENTER, Houston (AP)—The Gemini 6 launch crew received orders today to prepare for a Sunday morning firing and completion of the first U.S. space rendezvous one day ahead of schedule.

Preparations at Cape Kennedy were 24 hours ahead for the blastoff of a Titan 2 rocket which will propel Gemini 6 in pursuit of astronauts Frank Borman and James Lovell in the Gemini 7 spaceship.

Borman and Lovell will prepare for the space chase today by maneuvering their craft into a circular orbit 185 miles above the earth. This is desired position for the rendezvous.

The two spacecraft will meet in the sky, if there are no hitches, and complete a space first by flying in formation.

Other than a few sneezes by Borman, there were no problems aboard the Gemini 7, which was hurtling along toward a 14-day endurance record.

Gemini 7 entered its 72nd orbit at 7:58 a.m. (EST).

Borman and Lovell, informed of the rapid progress made by the Gemini 6 rocket and spacecraft crews, expressed their pleasure.

"We're going to send another one your way pretty soon," flight controller Eugene Kranz told them Wednesday.

"Great," replied Borman.

The Gemini 7 presently is orbiting in a path ranging from 146 to 196 miles high.

Flight director Christopher C. Kraft Jr. said he preferred going Sunday if possible "because the earlier we go the better chance we have of achieving the rendezvous with Gemini 7. The longer 7 is in the air the better the chance for something to go wrong."

The Gemini 6 astronauts, Navy Capt. Walter M. Schirra Jr. and Air Force Maj. Thomas P. Stafford, are to chase Gemini 7 and try to maneuver within a few feet, perhaps a few inches. Success would be a historic space feat that would shove the United States past a significant milestone on the road to the moon.

The spaceships are to fly in formation at 17,500 miles per hour for about six hours. Gemini 6 is to stay in space only one or two days, depending on when rendezvous is completed. Gemini 7 will return to earth Dec. 18.

Two or three sneezes by Borman before he went to sleep Wednesday night were the only upsetting feature of the otherwise flawless flight.

Goldwater Attacks Cut In Air Power

WASHINGTON (AP) — Former Sen. Barry Goldwater accused Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara today of a "zeal for disarmament" and false economy, and demanded anew that the Pentagon chief resign.

Goldwater's attack was prompted by McNamara's announcement that nearly two thirds of the U.S. bomber force will be phased out over the next five years.

He said the defense secretary's programs "could leave the free world defenseless by 1970."

Ham And Bacon Prices To Climb

CHICAGO (AP) — Housewives will soon be paying higher prices for bacon and ham.

Retailers say that a substantial rise in prices is certain within the next few weeks. The price increase may be the highest, they said, since 1948. Wednesday hog prices hit a peak of $30.75 per 100 pounds at the Chicago market, the highest since the summer of 1948.

The spiraling prices can be explained: Farmers are not producing as many hogs as they used to, and when the supply is tight, prices go up.

Subversive Youth Groups Identified

DALLAS (AP) — C. B. DeLoach, the No. 2 assistant to Federal Bureau of Investigation Director J. Edgar Hoover Wednesday identified three college organizations which he said are being used by Communists "to harness student unrest and enthusiasm for its own selfish advantage."

DeLoach told members of the Rotary Club of Dallas the W. E. B. DuBois Clubs, the May 2 movement, and the Students for a Democratic Society "all tie into a pattern—a pattern reflecting a savage devaluation of the ideals and principles of American democracy and free government."

DeLoach said DuBois club members attended a two-week "national youth leadership school sponsored by the Communist Party at Camp Midvale, N.J. last summer."

"While the DuBois clubs are pro-Moscow, the May 2 movement is violently pro-Red Chinese. his group, for example, has frequently exhibited a film entitled "Heroic Viet Nam 1963" on college campuses, a film reportedly made by the Viet Cong which is bitterly anti American."

The head of the subversive investigation branch of the FBI listed the third group as the Students for a Democratic Society (SDS).

"This is a socialist-oriented youth group, founded in 1962 which currently has about 3,000 members in 90 chapters. A key characteristic is often their dress; beards, long hair, wearing sandals—the beatnik type."

"They pride themselves as being 'anti-establishment' opposing American foreign policy and working for a socialist-type country," DeLoach said.

Pilot Killed As AF Planes Collide

BANGKOK, Thailand (AP)—Two U.S. Air Force planes exploded in Thailand Wednesday and one pilot was killed, a U.S. official said today.

The American pilot died when his Skyraider blew up while landing at Nakhon Phanom, about 375 miles northeast of Bangkok near the Laotian border, the official said.

In the other accident, a U.S. pilot ejected from his Thunderchief jet fighter-bomber when it exploded near Khroat, about 150 miles northeast of Bangkok, the official added.

Officials said both incidents were under investigation. Identities of the pilots were not announced.

Britain Asks Peace Parley

LONDON (AP) — Britain today proposed a 12-nation appeal to quit fighting and negotiate a peace.

The British move was contained in a draft message sent to the Soviet government.

It called upon the Russians to join in signing and circulating the message among the nine countries which attended the 1954 Indochinese peace parley and the Indian, Canadian and Polish governments, which form the Viet Nam Control Commission.

In the message, the British government accused the North Vietnamese of stepping up intervention in South Viet Nam.

The British charged, too, that North Viet Nam also has lately been speeding and increasing the flow of military equipment and men southward to aid the Communist-led Viet Cong forces.

A third accusation in the British message said North Vietnamese forces, "on a constantly expanding scale, are violating the neutrality and territorial integrity of Laos."

Britain and the Soviet Union were cochairmen of the 1954 conference in Geneva and the British message was sent to the Russians as a counter proposal to a parallel Moscow move aimed against the United States.

Soviet assent seemed improbable.

Small groups of Russians are flooding the U.S. Embassy in Moscow with resolutions protesting the war in Viet Nam. An embassy spokesman said more than 100 resolutions have been presented since last Friday. Others still were showing up.

The Russians three days ago had formulated a message which they wanted the British to sign and circulate among the Geneva nations. In it, the Russians called for international condemnation of American action in what Moscow described as "the bandit war."

Wheat To India Speeded

By FRANK CORMIER

JOHNSON CITY, Tex. (AP)—President Johnson ordered a speedup today in shipment of 4½-million tons of wheat to India "to help meet the immediate food crisis" there.

He also authorized a $50-million loan for Indian purchases of fertilizer.

Johnson decided upon the aid measures after conferences with Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman, who was an overnight guest at the LBJ Ranch 15 miles west of here.

The decisions were announced at White House press headquarters in Austin by press secretary Bill D. Moyers.

Moyers said the $50-million loan for purchases of fertilizer for India's spring rice crop would be matched by the Indian government and $100-million worth of fertilizer would be bought.

Oilmen Request Imports Freeze

By BOB M. GASSAWAY
Associated Press Writer

CORPUS CHRISTI, Tex. (AP) — In a surprise move, the Interstate Oil Compact Commission has passed a resolution asking the federal government to freeze foreign oil imports at their present level of more than 2 million barrels daily.

The move is a sharp departure from past resolutions by the 33-state compact.

The group petitioned the government twice last year and again last June to reduce imports of petroleum into this country.

Jim C. Langdon, a Texas railroad commissioner and chairman of the compact's legal committee, proposed the unexpected change Wednesday when the concluding business session of the petroleum conservation study group was presented a resolution passed in three previous meetings calling for import cutbacks.

Imports now account for 20 per cent of the nation's petroleum usage.

Langdon said he made the freeze proposal "in view of the world condition right now," adding that the annual 3.5 to 4 per cent increase in consumption in the United States would provide the industry with the challenge it needs and "test our capacity to produce."

Another resolution approved opposes a Texas firm's request for federal government permission to construct pipe lines between Texas and Mexico to bring crude into this country from Mexico.

The resolution said the compact is concerned that the pipe line would open a way for the movement of foreign crude into the domestic market without being subject to imports quotas and would endanger the conservation of natural resources and national security.

A third resolution urged the Federal Power Commission to refrain from authorizing further imports of natural gas until the FPC established what the resolution termed proper guidelines and standards. It is aimed at a proposal to increase Canadian natural gas imports by 440 million cubic feet a day.

Another measure said the FPC's "landmark decision" in the Permian Basin area rate proceeding" has brought about additional confusion and distress in the natural gas producing industry. It also renewed a request for Congress to eliminate the Federal Power Commission's authority to control wellhead prices of natural gas and return this responsibility to the states.

King Sized Battle In Rice Paddies

By TOM REEDY

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — A search-and-destroy mission by South Vietnamese troops in the coastal rice paddies of central Viet Nam exploded into a swirling, king-sized battle with a hard-core Viet Cong regiment today.

Heavy casualties on both sides bloodied the lowlands as U.S. artillery and jets joined the savage fight to dislodge the strong Communist force from positions halfway between the two big U.S. Marine beachheads in South Viet Nam.

All reports indicated the hit-run Viet Cong had turned the fight into a prestige battle for ground they have zealously defended for years.

A U.S. Army spokesman said of the Communists:

"They are in fact fighting for their homes. These are real hard core."

The action developed 15 miles north of the seaside town of Tam Ky, in the same area where the Viet Cong nearly annihilated a crack government ranger battalion Wednesday. Two U.S. advisers were killed and four others are missing, a spokesman said.

Although the battleground lies halfway between the Marine bases at Chu Lai 15 miles southeast of Saigon, and Da Nang, 30 miles farther north, U.S. ground forces so far were kept out of the fighting.

The skies cleared, and U.S. aerial might was turned loose again on Viet Cong targets. American airmen dropped 206 tons of bombs, including 3,000-pounders, on the Communist North and flew 397 sorties against suspected Viet Cong hideouts in the South.

Dear Abby...

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: You have certainly caused me a lot of trouble. Ever since Debbie, my 15-year-old daughter read in your column that YOU personally had your ears pierced so you wouldn't lose your earrings, she has been after me to let her have her ears pierced. You should realize, Abby, that a lot of young people read your column and hold you up as an example, and for you to put stuff like that in your column which is contrary to a mother's way of thinking, only stirs up trouble. In the future, please be a little more thoughtful.

DISAPPOINTED IN YOU

DEAR DISAPPOINTED: Unfair! I never have had my ears pierced, nor do I intend to. Your daughter did not read that in MY column. Besides, if there's anything I DON'T need, it's two more holes in my head.

• • •

DEAR ABBY: I am 15 but am very mature for my age. I am going with a real cool guy. He is 23, but I told my parents he was only 18 because if they knew how old he was they'd never let me go out with him. I am not ashamed of this guy, and there isn't anything wrong with him. Don't tell me to talk it over with my parents because they're not the kind you can talk to. What should I do?

MATURE AT 15

DEAR "MATURE": There's something wrong with YOU, if you can't see what is wrong with HIM. He is old enough to know WHY the parents of a 15-year-old girl do not want her going with a 23-year-old man. And if he were as "cool" as you think he is, he wouldn't be helping you deceive your parents. I say either tell your parents the truth or quit seeing him.

• • •

DEAR ABBY: After three years of an impossible marriage, Margaret and I were finally divorced. She remarried soon after. That lasted one year, and she divorced Number Two. Soon as the law allowed she got herself married to Number Three. As you can probably guess, Margaret is now in the process of divorcing Number Three. In the meantime, I have remarried, and what gripes me is that Margaret has now gone back to using my name! My present wife is MRS. JOHN DOE, and I am not a bigamist. Can my first wife do this? I mean legally? Why doesn't she use one of her other ex-husband's names? Or even take her maiden name back as long as she's not married? How dare she?

NO BIGAMIST

DEAR NO: If you and your first wife have children who bear your name, perhaps that's the reason she prefers to retain it. Or she could be motivated by mischief or meanness. However, a divorcee is properly MRS. SMITH (her maiden name) DOE. She never uses her former husband's Christian name. She dares because she has the nerve. Whether she "may"—legally, is a good question for your lawyer.

• • •

DEAR ABBY: I liked your answer to HEARTSICK MOTHER, who discovered through some letters she shouldn't have read that her 22-year-old daughter was having pre-marital relations with her boy friend. She said, "She has repeatedly condemned girls who have had to get married, but her sin is worse because we are Catholics and do not believe in birth control, which she apparently has been practicing."

Abby, I wish you would clarify that one sentence to your readers. Catholics ARE allowed to practice birth control, but not by artificial methods. It requires sacrifice on the part of both partners, but isn't that what love is based on?

Super Fast Jet May Be Doomed

By FRED S. HOFFMAN

WASHINGTON (AP) — A Pentagon decision to thin out U.S. air defenses may have doomed any Air Force hopes for a brand-new, super fast interceptor jet.

A leading candidate for the role of "improved manned interceptor" has been the 2,000-mile-an-hour YF12A, unveiled to the world by President Johnson with great fanfare in February 1964.

Several prototypes have been built, but the YF12A has not been ordered into production.

Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara told Congress early this year it would cost about $4 billion to produce a force of YF12A-type interceptors and operate them for five years.

In view of the budget-boosting pressures of the Viet Nam war and the claimed easing of the Russian bomber threat, any such investment now would appear unlikely.

The once-feared peril that the Russians might mount many hundreds of long-range bombers capable of hitting the United States never did develop.

McNamara has said that Russia could with difficulty, "place over this country on two-way missions slightly more than 100 heavy bombers."

With the same difficulty, McNamara said, the Russians might be able to get 150 medium bombers over only the northwestern corner of the United States and Canada.

McNamara has decided to disband 17 squadrons of jet fighter interceptors — F100, F102 and some F104.

This still will leave 20 Air Force interceptor squadrons in operation to defend the United States, if need be. For the most part, these squadrons are equipped with F106 jets.

Many of the F102s due to leave the regular Air Force over the next few years will be given to the Air National Guard to modernize its 21 air defense squadrons now equipped with Korean War vintage planes.

As part of the slimming down of th air defenses, 18 batteries of Nike Hercules antiaircraft missiles will be removed. These 18 batteries currently are protecting bases of the Strategic Air Command.

Some of these bomber bases are being closed as the U.S. force of 680 long-range jet bombers is to be reduced by about two-thirds over the next five fiscal years.

Defense officials said that under present conditions "SAC bases are not considered profitable targets for bomber attacks."

Even after these 18 batteries are dismantled, there will still remain more than 110 Nike Hercules batteries arrayed to protect some two dozen metropolitan areas and industrial complexes.

2 Types Of Checks Issued By Midwest

Midwest Electric Cooperative, Inc., of Roby has issued two series of capital credit refund checks (green and white) to its members.

Officials of the cooperative said the green checks are for capital credit refunds for members receiving service in 1948-49-50. The white checks are refunds for 1959. A large number of Midwest members will receive both types of checks and cooperative officials have urged that they be cashed promptly.

US Steel Plans Mill Near Baytown

PITTSBURGH, Pa. (AP) — Construction will begin in 1967 on a U. S. Steel Corp. plant east of Baytown, Tex., in Chambers and Harris counties.

The company said in its announcement Wednesday the plant will be its first steel producing mill in the Southwest although the firm has other facilities in the area.

The mill will contain electric furnaces, a 160-inch plate mill and auxiliary facilities that the company said will enable it to turn out plates that are tailor-made to customer specifications.

President Leslie B. Worthington said U.S. Steel announced its plans at this time to end speculation in the Baytown area about recent land option purchases.

"We have participated in the Texas and Southwest plate market through our Chicago and Birmingham plants, but will be better able to service our customers through the new mill," Worthington said.

"In addition," he said, "this will provide an initial base for serving our large and expanding steel markets in the Southwest. This is a rapidly growing industrial area and becoming an active member of the industrial community we feel U.S. Steel can contribute substantially to its further growth and development."

Two Pleas Heard In County Court

Two men appeared in County Court this morning on charges of driving while intoxicated.

James E. McLaughlin, who was arrested Nov. 8 by City Police, appeared in court to change his plea to guilty. He was handed a six-month jail term and a $50 fine plus court costs. However, County Judge Sterling Taylor, under the new misdemeanor probation law, probated the jail term portion of the sentence for one year.

McLaughlin originally had entered a plea of innocent and was released on a $250 personal recognizance bond following his arrest.

Claude W. Cox was arrested by Sheriff's authorities Thursday on a DWI charge, and he entered a plea of innocent in County Court. Bond was set at $500.

Police Patrol Car In Mishap

The State Highway Patrol investigated an accident at Avenue N and Thirtieth Street about 10 o'clock this morning.

State officers investigated the mishap because one of the cars involved was a police patrol car. Operator of the patrol car, a 1966 Model Plymouth, was Patrolman Phil Schroeder. Damage to the vehicle was estimated at about $200.

Damage to the other vehicle, a pickup truck of the Lone Star Gas Company, was estimated at $40. Driver of the truck was Wayne Jones. The accident occurred while the police car was going east on Thirtieth and the truck was traveling north on Avenue N.

Screwworm Still Costly In Mexico

WASHINGTON (AP) — A United States-Mexican joint research project will probe ways to control a costly livestock parasite, the screwworm fly.

The pest has been eradicated from the United States except in Arizona and California but initial tests indicate the screwworm is widespread in Mexico.

Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman said Wednesday the study should be finished by next fall.

The flies have been eradicated by raising billions of the flies, sexually sterilizing them and releasing them to mate with native flies. Since no offspring are produced, the insect's ability to multiply and spread is destroyed.

Since 1962 a protective buffer zone has been erected along the U.S.-Mexican border to prevent the pest's migration into this country.

Freeman said the study will determine whether the barrier should be narrowed in length while moving it south across Mexico. He said this would require eradicating screwworms from regions of Mexico north of any newly established area in which sterile flies are released.

Wash the tips from your decorating set as soon as you have used them so the frosting mixture won't clog them.

Freeman At Quanah Meet

QUANAH—Sec. of Agriculture Orville Freeman told a large group Wednesday that negotiations have been opened by a survey team to enter Mexico and find a location for "the permanent screwworm barrier."

Freeman said he was surprised to find so many lay people at a mesquite eradication demonstration near here and regretted that he could not announce that a similar eradication procedure was near for mesquites.

Eight states and 87 Texas counties were represented at the demonstration. There were three from Borden County and six from Scurry County, including the Fluvanna Young Farmers Chapter reporter.

They observed nine mechanical methods of brush removal as well as aerial spraying from both fixed wing planes and helicopters in demonstrations.

¾ teaspoon baking powder
2 tablespoons light molasses
1 teaspoon conamon
¼ teaspoon nutmeg
¼ teaspoon allspice
1 cup whole almonds
1 cup raisins
1 cup whole red candied cherries or 1 package (8 ounces)
Hard Sauce (below)

Heat oven to 325 degrees. Grease and flour a loaf pan 9x5x3 inches. In large bowl blend date filling from date bar mix with hot water. Add crumbly mix, eggs, flour, baking powder, molasses and spices; blend well. Fold in nuts, raisins and cherries thoroughly. Pour into prepared pan. Bake about 1 hour and 20 minutes, or until wooden pick inserted in center comes out clean. Cool thoroughly. Wrap and refrigerate. Before serving, frost with Hard Sauce; decorate with candied cherries and almonds, if desired. Chill until Hard Sauce is set.

More Formality Forecast

A decorating show should leave one with ideas and impressions, or it doesn't count for much. The ideas should be good if tastes are to mature. At a recent decoration and design show in New York there were quite a few fairout innovations, some that would prove too costly for the average pocketbook, and some that looked like everybdy had run out of ideas.

But some trends could be spotted and the ideas that were around could be put to good use.

Use of velvet fabric and a number of paneled rooms seems to indicate more formality in the 1966 home. Even an outdoor terrace was furnished with Chippendale chairs, comfortable sofas and handsome end tables. The luxury setting by Paul Krauss was made possible by a canopy of a laminated waterproof sheeting reinforced with rayon. Comfortable sofas covered in gay fabrics, and glass topped tables, completed the scheme. A number of settings offered "the library look."

A sleep capsule was enclosed in a wall of vinyl tile in a "domotorio" by Darin Pierce, a draped - renaissance - style bed was used in a paneled room by Tom Lee, a canopied draped bed with a shirred crown over a single Empire bed was seen in another setting.

Some small spaces made every inch count. A paneled kitchen, living - dining section by Armstrong included a recreation room with waist reducer, exercise bicycle, bongo board and ping pong table, all in a small area.

Window shades provided lots of tricks. There was an entire window wall in pull-down and bottom - up shades fitted into a floor - to - ceiling framrwork hat made the ceiling look higher. Tom Woods used shades in a shell for a studio retreat designed for Bigelow. Shades were used for a seasonal change of wall. Plaid laminated shades were hung within a framework of vertical black lacquer strips along one wall. When shades were completely pulled up the solid color wall could be seen. Toile shades matched curtains in one bedroom. In another bedroom, giant yellow daisies on translucent shades were the motif. There were brown and black striped shades. Interior designer Al Herbert bordered shades in a game room with black to match the leather texture in contemporary pedestal chairs.

Velvet was popular in this show. Gold, brown, green, rust and brilliant sapphire were used on dining room chair seats. Champagne colored velvet wing chairs were trimmed with rust velvet and bright red velvet was on several Spanish - style oak chairs. Yale Burge covered walls of a room furnished in antique reproductions in Scalamandre's terra cotta velvet with matching draperies. Bristol blue velvet draperies were used against a background of charcoal and white paper in another setting.

Black alligator was on the seat of an antique Chippendale chair in an Oriental setting that was framed by a brilliant screen with vivid motif.

The importance of bright fabric with neutral backgrounds was emphasized in a dinette where a bright orange, yellow, purple and green floral fabric was used on chair seats and sofa unholstery, against pine panelled walls.

Gold damask is still a favored fabric for traditional wing chairs.

Cholr schemes noted in rooms included combinations of black, white, blue; navy, royal, garnet, and bronze; brown and black, charcoal and white upholstery on yellow wicker, walls of beige and white ticking combined with wood panelling. One green and blue splashy floral wallpaper was color - coordinated to a bed cover in a flame-stitch design.

One adult retreat established a color scheme with a leaded glass ceiling of brilliant colors. There were a number of auxiliary rooms designed for the use of parents. The idea was that they were to escape from teen - age bedlam.

If you like dried apricots sweetened, add the sugar about five minutes before the apricots have finished cooking.

Commander Reminisces

MISSIONS WITH LeMAY. By Gen. Curtis E. LeMay, With MacKinley Kantor.

Old hard - nosed, blood-and-guts LeMay says his farewell, like a warrior knight of an ancient round table, in this autobiography.

He is a pragmatist in the world of combat; believing firmly in the idea that a professional soldier's duty is to follow orders, and get to the target firstest with the mostest — and bestest.

LeMay is best known in these latter years as the acknowledged genius of the Strategic Air Command, who whipped that force into a world protectorate, and then as a Chief of Staff who fought to establish the principle that manned aircraft systems must be a part of our missile age. He had to buck higher echelons on that score, as did his successor Gen. Thomas Power. That is a hashed-over story of policy.

As an account of a fighter's life, this is a prodigious, inspiring chronicle of a selfmade commander. A man of decision.

Some of the most interesting chapters of this book are concerned with LeMay's growling, driving, tactical innovations for bombing accuracy in Europe in World War II, and his cogent understanding of strategic air action in the Pacific. He is sarcastic about a Navy which he considered effete, impatient with red tape, eager to throw tough aviators into decisive action.

LeMay's story is detailed, often too discursive and garrulous. But it exhibits a personality fired with the eagerness of action. All through his narrative there shines an earnest dedication to simple, aggressively patriotic service to his country.

Sliced drained canned water chestnuts make a delightful contribution to buttered green peas or snap beans. The water chestnuts may also be added when the vegetables are served cream-style.

CRIED ALICE'S QUEEN.

The King, the Queen and the executioner were present. Alice and the prisoners, too, of course, but these were all. No jury, no public, no publicity.

No newspaper reporters.

In Alice's Wonderland even applause was "immediately suppressed by the officers of the court."

Not so in America.

In all criminal prosecutions the accused shall enjoy the right of a public trial, says Article the Sixth of the Bill of Rights of the Constitution of the United States.

So people may know, newspapers must report these trials.

This is not freedom of the press. This is responsibility of the press.

Newspapers have no extraordinary rights.

People do.

Men have the right to a public trial and the right to know what happens in courtrooms. These are rights written into the Constitution and affirmed by the Supreme Court in 1809 when Mr. Justice Bayley wrote, "It is one of the essential qualities of a court of justice that its proceedings should be public."

If people are to know the truth the newspaper must report the news.

Russia Mounts New War Of Propaganda

WASHINGTON (AP) — Russia appears to be mounting a major propaganda offensive against the United States on the charge that this country is becoming a militaristic power, increasingly resorting to strong-arm methods to achieve its aims in the world.

This accusation was threaded through the interview which Premier Alexei N. Kosygin gave the New York Times earlier this week. The charge also was used by the Soviet finance minister Tuesday to explain an increase in Russia's military budget.

If, as expected, the charge is now picked up and developed by the Moscow press and radio, a new period of rising East-West tensions and worsening U.S.-Soviet relations may be at hand.

The Soviets, in the view of authorities here, probably have several objectives in mind — to encourage opposition to President Johnson's Viet Nam war policy inside the United States, to put the United States on the defensive before the rest of the world in its own continuing quest for support in the fight against communism in Southeast Asia, to create concern among this country's allies and in neutral nations about the course of American foreign policy, and particularly to block U.S. and German efforts to form a multinational nuclear force in NATO.

In his interview Kosygin accused the United States of "whipping up military psychosis" in the world, of inflaming tensions in Europe and of "trying to seek its ends by military means" everywhere.

At the same time, U. S. officials noted, he defended support of what the Russians and other Communist countries call "wars of national liberation" which he said is what is going on in South Viet Nam and which he specifically predicted will break out in Rhodesia.

U. S. officials said Kosygin has thus taken the familiar position of Soviet Communist leaders of denying any justice in the defense of countries against Communist conquest while seeking to put all morality on the side of conflicts which Communists support.

Washington authorities said they found no evidence of new policy thinking in Kosygin's statements. They expect, for example, that the Soviet government will continue to maintain contacts with U.S. officials and diplomats and keep open the lines for quick discussion in future crises.

They believe the Soviets would still prefer to see a peaceful end to the Vietnamese conflict and do not intend to become much more deeply involved in their support of North Viet Nam.

There is no dispute here with the Soviet assessment that U.S.-Soviet relations are frozen for the time being and will continue at least in that condition without hope of improvement so long as the Vietnamese war goes on. How much worse they may get, it is believed, will depend on how vigorously the Soviets press political and propaganda attacks on the United States.

Waste Is Problem On Gemini

By RONALD THOMPSON

SPACE CENTER, Houston, Tex. (AP)—Gemini 7 astronauts Frank Borman and James A. Lovell Jr. face a housekeeping problem that would make any good housewife throw up her hands in disgust.

Home for two weeks is a cramped spacecraft with a living area for two men no larger than the front seat of a foreign car. Anything loose floats aimlessly and weightless.

To make matters worse, Borman, an Air Force lieutenant colonel, and Lovell, a Navy commander, are not allowed to dispose of anything in space.

Housekeeping is a daily chore for the space twins. This means stuffing away trash or storing cameras and other experiment equipment used during a busy day circling the globe.

And from what they have told ground controllers, they seem to be running a pretty tight ship.

"It's amazing how the spacecraft seems to be getting bigger and bigger," command pilot Borman said. "Either we're losing weight or we're getting used to it."

The astronauts harbor no doubt they can master the stowage problem by using every nook and cranny in the craft. Several times before the flight they surveyed the cabin inch by inch, converting unused space into storage bins, drawers and pouches.

The Gemini 7 astronauts decided to make greater use of the footwells and an enlarged area behind the seats. Bags were added to these areas to hold dry waste.

Engineers also created a hole with a flap cover in the spacecraft floor that leads to an equipment area. The crew shoves waste through the hole into a bag.

LIGHTEST MEXICO

BY JOHN ABNEY

MEXICO CITY—In 1564 a gentleman from Seville wrote home from New Spain (here) and told his folks that Mexico was a sort of cross roads for the world.

He said, "This most recent discovery, carried out aboard locally built galleons . . may indeed be a momentous event. At least so for the Mexicans, since they now believe their country is situated in the very center of the world, a fact that makes them not a little proud."

The recent discovery referred to was the new route from the Philippines to Mexico. Spain had it coming and going with galleons sliding across the world's two largest oceans. And Mexico the point right in he middle.

There are men of letters who believe the excitement started long before the Spaniards arrived.

The latest theories have the Vikings visiting this hemisphere centuries before Mr. Chris Columbus officially discovered it. And some of the historians consider the old Mexican god Quetzalcoatl was a Viking.

He was blond with blue eyes and a blond beard and he came in a strange canoe from the east, the legend says. After teaching the locals many new things and getting promoted to a diety he sailed away to the east, the legend says.

Quetzalcoatl undoubtedly was a Viking, historians say. This is bad for the Board of Indigenous Dieties but good for the cross roads theory.

And long before the Spaniards came wading in, the Mayas were carrying on commerce with points up and down the coast. They used huge canoes and tied colored feathers to tree tops along the coast, for navigational aids.

This was commerce the hard way, paddling loads of gold, jade, fish and cloth to the Central American cousins. The Mayas never got around to discovering the sail so they could take things easy.

Hernan Cortes got a gold medal "first" for some original thinking during the conquest days. He staged the world's first (and possibly only) high altitude naval engagement.

After the Aztecs booted him off their island up here in the lake, Mr. Cortes went over the mountains with his men and built 13 brigs. Dismantled them to bring them back to the lake. Then reassembled the whole navy.

The ships won the war for him. Fought 7,500 feet above sea level and 300 miles from the nearest ocean.

Mexico still is a cross road. Every day jets moan in from Europe, the Orient, points in North and South America and straight across from Australia.

Gulf and Pacific ports are full of ships with foreign flags and bulging warehouses. No new routes to discover but the old ones have picked up a heavy traffic.

Quetzalcoatl and Cortes would be astonished to see the changes since they set up operations here.

Cotton Group Slates Meet

HILLSBORO, Tex. (AP) — A special meeting here Friday of the American Cotton Congress will be attended by industry leaders from all over the South, Burris C. Jackson said.

Jackson, Hillsboro cotton merchant and chairman of the cotton group, called the meeting the most important for the organization in years.

John A. Schnittker, undersecretary of agriculture and president of the Commodity Credit Corporation, and Joseph A. Moss, head of the department's cotton policy staff will be speakers.

Both Schnittker and Moss, along with Rep. W. R. Poage, D-Tex., of Waco, will explain the new cotton program to the cotton men. Poage was a leader in the new cotton legislation.

The Hillsboro man called the new program "an entirely new concept of law . . . vastly different from that which prevailed over the last 25 years."

Big Spring Favored In 11th Canyon Reef

What could be one of the most exciting basketball tournaments ever to be held here will be unreeled in the Tiger Gym Friday and Saturday as seven top teams in the area converge on Snyder for the Eleventh Annual Canyon Reef Basketball Tournament.

Teams entered in the tourney are Big Spring, Seminole, Phillips, Breckenridge, Kermit, Brownfield, the Abilene junior varsity and Snyder. Brownwood originally was entered in the tourney, but pulled out due to the fact that the Lions still have title hopes for their gridiron team.

Big Spring will rate a slight favorite. The Steers sport a 5-4 season record and have one of the tallest roundballers in the state in 6-9 center Paul Thomas. The Blackhawks of Phillips also have a "two-story" player in 6-8 center Mike Kimmins.

Both tall lads figured prominently in games held Tuesday. Kimmins paced Phillips to a 72-49 triumph over Tulia with 19 points. Thomas duplicated the point production in a 52-51 loss at Seminole on the same night.

With several returning lettermen, Brownfield potentially is one of the better teams in the area. Seminole always is tough. The Indians usually get into the state playoffs and this year probably will be no exception.

Snyder, the host team is rated about equal to Kermit and Breckenridge on the strength of the home court advantage, although the Tigers will be the least experienced quintet in the competition.

The tourney gets underway at 1:30 p.m. Friday with Big Spring taking on ambitious Brownfield. Phillips will test Kermit in a 3 p.m. clash Friday while Seminole and the Abilene junior varsity collide at 4:30 p.m. on the same night. The host Tigers round out the first round activity with a 6:30 p.m. tussle with Breckenridge.

Losers in the Big Spring — Brownfield and Phillips—Kermit clashes also will take the court at 8 p.m. in the Friday finale.

The Big Spring—Brownfield and Phillips—Kermit contests comprise the upper bracket. The Seminole—Abilene and Breckenridge—Snyder games are in the lower bracket. Upper bracket winners meet at 10 a.m. Saturday, and lower bracket winners meet at 11:30 a.m. Saturday.

The championship game is set for 7:30 p.m. Saturday, following a 6 p.m. battle for third place. A lower bracket Consolation clash is scheduled for 3 p.m. Saturday, and the Consolation finals will be unveiled at 4:30 p.m. Saturday.

In earlier games, Snyder decisioned Brownfield but lost to Seminole in a tournament there last weekend. The Indians' Kenny Roberts tapped in a layup shot at the buzzer to lead Seminole in its earlier 52-51 verdict over Big Spring.

Some Steer fans say the shot came too late and Big Spring should have been awarded the victory. They'd like nothing better than to get a chance on a neutral court to prove which team is more talented. That chance could materialize in the finals clash.

All things considered, the Canyon Reef Tournament should be as exciting as any seen here. Area sports fans were urged to attend the tournament and support the Tigers in their bid to win their own tournament.

He Protests Too Much?

NORMAN, Okla. (AP) — Tennessee Coach Doug Dickey said in Knoxville Wednesday night he was satisfied with his present job but reports persisted here that he still is one of the top prospects for the vacant head football coaching job at Oklahoma.

An Oklahoma backer, who declined use of his name, said Dickey was interested in the OU job but was in a tight spot with his recruiting chores and the upcoming Bluebonnet Bowl game with Tulsa.

The OU supporter said Dickey had talked with school officials at least three times Wednesday and indicated more interest in the job than he did Tuesday.

A special University of Oklahoma committee met Thursday to screen possible candidates for the job left open Monday by Gomer Jones who quit suddenly after two seasons. He was an aide to Bud Wilkinson 17 years and succeeded Wilkinson.

Others besides Dickey reported to be on the list of potential coaches were Darrell Royal, head coach at Texas; Jim MacKenzie of Arkansas and Chuck Curtis of Southern Methodist, both assistants.

Dr. George L. Cross, university president, disclosed that Colorado Coach Eddie Crowder, Washington Coach Jim Owens and Washington State Coach Bert Clark also were on the list.

Jones had two years remaining on his contract as coach and athletic director. He did not resign as athletic director.

MacKenzie, the Arkansas assistant, said in Tulsa he was interested in the Sooner job.

"Certainly I'd be interested," he said. "I haven't been contacted by anyone but I'm flattered to be among those mentioned."

The Razorback defensive coach was in Tulsa on a recruiting trip.

Schoolboy Semifinal Games Begin Friday

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Writer

Finalists in the massive Texas schoolboy football race will be determined this week in all four divisions and it looks like Texarkana and San Antonio Lee will be the survivors in the blue ribbon class—AAAA.

Texarkana, No. 1 in the state for a dozen weeks and undefeated and untied under the apt direction of quarterback Joe Norwood, meets the dark horse of the race—Odessa Permian—at Fort Worth Saturday afternoon.

Permian was able to defeat the team that beat it in regular season—Lubbock Monterey—last week, indicating a great improvement down the line.

Brazosport of Freeport, another dark horse category and able to survive the district race although losing a game, clashes with wild scoring San Antonio Lee in the other AAAA semifinal. It appears to be a tossup with the running of Pat Sheenan of Lee most likely to turn the tide.

Mighty Brownwood, which shot down the big favorite, Dumas, last week, puts its undefeated, untied record on the line against once-beaten Weatherford in the headliner of Class AAA. Brownwood features defense while Weatherford has rolled up the points—387 in 11 games.

Bridge City challenges the 1964 state runnerup, San Marcos, in the other Class AAA semifinal. San Marcos, unbeaten, untied and with a defense that has allowed only 13 points in 12 games, will be heavily favored to reach the finals against Brownwood. San Marcos has averaged 36 points per game.

Iowa Park, the unbeaten, untied favorite of Class AA, rolls against Plano, a one time loser. Iowa Park will be playing without ace fullback John Huff but still will be favored to win.

Unbeaten, untied Edna plays once-tied Needville in the other AA semifinal and will be expected to win, although Needville has been the big surprise of the division.

Three Rivers, the favorite, and Wills Point clash in the Class A headliner. Both are undefeated and untied and each has scored over 400 points—Wills Point 450 and Three Rivers 415. The teams meet at Temple Friday night.

White Deer, with a perfect record, meets two-time loser Keller in the other Class A game, with the boys from the Panhandle heavily favored.

With 13 correct predictions out of 16 last week they look like this Friday and Saturday:

Class AAAA—Odessa Permian vs. Texarkana at Fort Worth Saturday 2:30 p.m.—Texarkana; Freeport Brazosport vs. San Antonio Lee at Austin Saturday 2 p.m.—San Atonio Lee.

Class AAA—Brownwood vs. Weatherford at Brownwood Saturday, 2 p.m.—Brownwood; Bridge City vs. San Marcos at Houston Saturday 7:30 p.m.—San Marcos.

Class AA—Iowa Park vs. Plano at Wichita Falls Saturday 8 p.m.—Iowa Park; Needville vs. Edna at Spring Branch Friday 8 p.m.—Edna.

Class A—White Deer vs. Keller at Snyder Saturday 7:30 p.m.—White Deer; Wills Point vs. Three Rivers at Temple Friday 8 p.m.—Three Rivers.

Duke, Michigan Fall From Cage Heights

By TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer

South Carolina to beat Duke and Wichita to beat Michigan?

"You must be kidding," probably would have been the general reaction to such predictions before the opening of the college basketball season a week ago.

Yet South Carolina, unranked then, whipped the then third-ranked Blue Devils 73-71 last Monday and unranked Wichita stunned the second-ranked Wolverines Wednesday night 100-94.

South Carolina gained 10th-ranking after the victory over Duke.

Th eWheatshockers from the Missouri Valley Conference, playing at home, overcame the Big Ten champions by assigning three men to guard All-America Cazzie Russell. Still Russell got 21 points and kept Michigan in contention.

John Clawson finished high for the Wolverines with 28 points. Jamie Thompson also paced the Shockers with 28.

The eighth-ranked Providence Friars, the only other team in the AP Top Ten to see action, defeated Assumption, Mass., 88-79 behind Jimmy Walker's 27 points.

Veteran Coach Paul (Tony) Hinkle came within one point of chalking up victory No. 500 in his 37 years at Butler. His Bulldogs lost to Ohio State 75-74 after holding a six-point lead with six minutes left.

Adolph Rupp, the winningest coach among active mentors, upped his career triumphs to 723 as his Kentucky Wildcast whipped Illinois at Champaign 86-68. Thad Jaracz threw in 32 points to lead the Wildcats.

Bobby Lloyd of Rutgers scored 51 points, the highest single-game production so far this season, in leading the Scarlet to a 79-78 victory over Delaware. Appropriately he sank the winning basket with eight seconds left.

Syracuse, behind Dave Bing's 30 points, whipped Cornell 87-81, Iowa defeated Creighton 103-77, Seton Hall edged LaSalle 93-92, Florida downed Florida State 75-62 and DePaul beat Louisville 87-62 in other games. Tommy Meyer, son of the DePaul coach, sparked the Blue Demons with 25 points.

North Carolina set a school record by routing Richmond 127-76 behind Bob Lewis' 43 points. Steve Thomas canned 29 points to lead Xavier of Ohio over Canisius 94-73. West Virginia crushed Virginia Military 93-75.

Yale downed Fordham 68-63 and Columbia's seven-foot Dave Newmark set a record for Grace Hall in Bethlehem, Pa., with 38 points as the Lions drubbed Lehigh 102-59.

Dennis Kloke's 22 points led Washington State over Montana 92-62, Eastern New Mexico edged West Texas 74-72 and St. Louis crushed Pepperdine 101-71.

Trinity Edges Owls, 81-80

By The Associated Press

Trinity University edged ahead of the Rice Owls, 81-80, last night after overcoming a 17-point deficit in a San Antonio game.

It was the fourth straight loss for the Owls and the first win in five years over a Southwest Conference team for the Trinity Tigers.

No other Southwest Conference team played Wednesday night and the only match involving a conference team tonight is between Texas A&M and Houston at College Station.

Rice led 44-32 at halftime and early in the second period held a 50-33 advantage before being seriously challenged by the Tigers.

Trinity pushed in four successive field goals in a 90-second period to pull Trinity into a 65-65 tie with 8:30 left.

Baylor and Southern Methodist will face intersectional foes Friday. Baylor plays Nevada Southern at Las Vegas and SMU travels to Baton Rouge against Louisiana State.

Saturday it's Baylor vs. California at Berkeley; Rice against the Phillips Oilers at Bartlesville, Okla.; SMU opposing Tulane at New Orleans, TCU facing Oklahoma City at Oklahoma City, and Texas Tech hosting New Mexico in Lubbock.

It Sounds Simple, Emile

NEW YORK (AP) — Welterweight champion Emile Griffith has a simple plan to beat challenger Manny Gonzalez in their 15-round title fight at Madison Square Garden Friday night.

"I'm going to keep after him and make him fight," the 26-year-old champion said today. "He likes to stick and move. He doesn't make any kind of a fight. If he makes any kind of fight, he'll fall.

"This time I'm going to make sure of winning. I can't take any chances."

Griffith was referring to his split-decision defeat in a non-title 10-rounder with Gonzalez in Houston, Tex., last Jan. 26.

Despite the upset and Manny's 13-fight victory streak, Broadway bookies have made Griffith a 14-5 choice to square accounts with the 26-year-old onetime cotton-picker from Odessa, Tex. Gonzalez has a 37-16-2 record and is undefeated as a welterweight. Griffith's record is 47-7.

Nobis Still Keeps Quiet

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

The bidding for Texas linebacker Tommy Nobis has now gone into orbit.

The price hasn't gone up but the news has — astronauts Frank Borman and James Lovell Jr. being read the latest developments on the battle between the National and American football leagues for Nobis' services as they zoomed around the world Wednesday in their Gemini 7 capsule.

Borman, whose sons, Frederick, 14, and Edwin, 12, are ball boys for the AFL's Houston Oilers, was informed as the capsule flew over Houston during its 59th orbit that Nobis might sign with the Oilers.

"Oh good," said Borman, "I thought he was going to Atlanta. I hope he comes here."

Nobis, meanwhile, was on a handball court in Austin, Tex., whether he would join the Oilers or the Atlanta Falcons, who made him their No. 1 choice in the National Football League draft.

Brian Eyes Clay's Crown

LONDON (AP) — Brian London, former British heavyweight champion, said Wednesday he is close to signing for a world title fight with champion Cassius Clay.

"Negotiations are going very, very favorably," he said, "but no contract has been signed at the moment.

"The people who are running Clay have had the matter submitted to them. They are all in favor of the fight. We hope for a favorable result in about 10 days' time."

London, 31, would be making his second campaign for the world title. He fought Floyd Patterson, then champion, in Indianapolis in May 1959 and was knocked out in the 11th round.

He held the British title from June 1958 to January 1959, when he lost it to Henry Cooper.

The Travis Blue basketball team will tangle with the Lamar Grey team and the Travis White team tests the Lamar Red team in important 7th grade basketball contests, scheduled for 4:30 p.m. and 5:30 p.m. respectively on the Lamar court today.

Canadien Is Top Scorer

By The Associated Press

Bobby Rousseau, Montreal's spunky right wing, is back on top of the National Hockey League scoring race and he can thank New York's journeyman goaltender Dan Simmons for putting him there.

Rousseau scored two goals in the Canadiens' 8-5 romp over Boston Wednesday night and moved back in front of the scoring race when Simmons shut out Chicago's scoring guns. The Hawks won all the marbles back in 1938, and only last year were Rangers earned a 2-2 tie with the Black Hawks.

White Deer Has Powerful Offense, Stout Defense

WHITE DEER—What type of offense does White Deer have?

"We have a good one," laughed Coach Golie Huffman. The good-natured mentor will guide the Bucks hopes in the Class A state semi finals football playoffs against Keller. The tilt has been set for 7:30 p.m. Saturday in neutral Tiger Stadium. The winner will advance to the finals and the following week.

White Deer is no stranger to Texas football playoffs. The crown again this season features are end Monty Hawk, tackle Charlie Smith, center Jon Williams, fullback Vernon Martin and wingback Randy Elliott in its 43-27 loss to the state ranked crew in the quarterfinals.

Coach Huffman has been guiding the fortunes of the Panhandle area team since 1959 after stints at Friona, Springlake, Wheeler and Plains. He and his Bucks will arrive in Snyder Saturday morning. The team plans to remain in town overnight following the game. With six starters from the district titlist 16-0 in 1964, the White Deer gridders must be given serious consideration as contenders for the Class A

In addition, Coach Huffman has switched guard Gary Smith to halfback to put more zip in an attack generally considered to be one of the most potent ever to come out of the far north country. The bucks employ the winged-T offense and go to a 5-4-2 defensive alignment.

Martarf, a bruising fullback, leads an offense that has sacked up 443 points in 13 outings. The Bucks also are defense minded, having allowed only 63 points and 32 of the total was produced by highly regarded Coahoma in its 43-27 loss to the state ranked crew in the quarterfinals.

The Bucks shut out seven opponents this season: Gruver (twice), Boys Ranch, Sanford—Fritch, McLean, Wellington and Canadian. The only team, other than Coahoma, to score more than one touchdown against them was Clarendon, and White Deer won that one easily, 40-14.

White Deer has the credentials. Whether they are good enough to get by Keller here Saturday only time can tell.

Says She'll Get Well? -- Better Believe Her

By ROBERT HOLTON

NEW YORK (AP) — When Stephanie Smith announced recently that she would be well enough to go home for Christmas, no one at the Hospital of the Rockefeller University doubted her word.

They've learned that what Stephanie wants, she usually gets.

Since 1958, the pretty, 22-year-old blonde has had her mind set on one thing — to live. And she's done just that despite a rare blood disease that has carried her to the brink of death at least 10 times.

"I guess I'm just too stubborn to die," she says. "When my case was first diagnosed as fatal, I was just a 15-year-old kid and I was terrified.

"But soon the shock wore off and I said to myself: 'Stephanie, you're not going to die no matter what they say.'

"And here I am."

During those seven years, Miss Smith has been in and out of hospitals 26 times.

"Six times I was given the last rites of the Catholic Church," she recalled. "And at least a dozen other times I was put on the critical list."

Stephanie said she never once believed she would die, though she found her doctors, relatives and friends thought differently.

"There I would lie with people crying all around me and doctors and nurses tiptoeing around with long faces," she said.

"I hated that. I figured it was my life and if they wanted to cry and have long faces, let them do it on their own time."

Miss Smith currently is recovering from the effects of an emergency operation to correct an infection brought about by her condition.

She describes her ailment as "a case of being allergic to myself, a case where parts of my blood destroy the wrong things."

Medically, her illness is known as lupus erythematosus, a disease once viewed as progressively fatal. However, a spokesman at the hospital, which has done research in this field, said it is now regarded as chronic, but controllable with medication.

In the hospital, Miss Smith became interested in painting and her work won the attention of Miss Sylvania Golden of the League in Aid of Crippled Children.

Through the organization, she enrolled in the Arts Student League and recently was given a Ford Foundation grant to continue her studies.

She credits much of her determination to live to her mother—a registered nurse.

"My mother has gone through a lot," she said. "Two years ago my brother was killed when there was an explosion in our apartment building. He was 18.

"I know it's schmaltzy to say this—but, any courage and determination I have, I owe to my mother and I'm going to be home with her and Dad for the Christmas' holidays, you can count on that."

Cargo Plane Feared Down

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—A cargo plane carrying a Port Arthur, Tex., man as co-pilot probably has crashed on a flight from Panama City to Iquitos, Peru, the plane's owner says.

Dave Brown, head of Atlantic Aircraft Corp., said Wednesday the U.S. Air Force in Panama began a search a week ago but has found no trace of the C47.

Co-pilot Gerald Holmes Sr. of Port Arthur and pilot Albert Robinson of Miami were the only persons aboard. They worked for an import-export firm in Panama which leased the plane from Atlantic Aircraft and took off from Panama City Nov. 23.

"I feel sure it has crashed," Brown said. "But we won't know for sure until they find it —and that may not be soon because it's the rainy season down there and the clouds make searching difficult."

Adding a bay leaf to canned tomato sauce that is being heated often improves flavor.

Peace Prospects Are Poor For US, Viet Communists

By JAMES MARLOW
AP News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — How do chances for peace in Viet Nam look? No good now. The peace conditions laid down by the two sides are opposites. So any settlement will require one side to back down, which means defeat.

The gap between the United States and Communist North Viet Nam was made clear again this week by President Johnson and Secretary of State Dean Rusk.

There has been speculation U.S. forces in South Viet Nam would be boosted from 165,700 to 300,000. Johnson has been criticized for the war by some groups demanding peace. Did the criticism shake him?

He showed it hadn't made a dent by saying Monday this country will supply whatever men are needed "to help the people of South Viet Nam resist aggression." This is what he has always said.

On Tuesday Rusk, in an interview for educational television stations, said this country will support South Viet Nam until North Viet Nam leaves it alone.

By itself this statement might seem rubbery and vague. Actually it echoed what Johnson had said many months ago, thus showing a policy unchanged and unflinching while war increased in fury.

Last April 7 Johnson laid down the conditions for a settlement while saying this country was ready at any time for "unconditional discussion" about a settlement.

But before Johnson finished that talk he had clearly emphasized the vast difference between putting no conditions on discussing peace and putting tremendous conditions on any settlement the discussions led to.

These were the conditions Johnson laid down before there could be a settlement, and the promises he made:

This country has pledged itself to help South Viet Nam and it will, for "to dishonor the pledge would be an unforgivable wrong."

The South Vietnamese must be left free by the North Vietnamese to run themselves, with their own independent government;

The United States "will not be defeated, will not grow tired, will not withdraw either openly or under the cloak of a meaningless agreement. We must be prepared for a long continued conflict;

If the United States abandoned South Viet Nam it would shake the confidence of other nations in this country and in the end lead to unrest, instability and "even wider war."

But the Vietnamese Communists, a few days before Johnson made his talk, stated their own conditions, which Johnson hasn't accepted, just as they have not accepted his.

One condition was that, for there to be a settlement, the United States must withdraw its forces from Viet Nam. This was a little vague on exactly when the withdrawal had to be made.

But there was nothing vague about another condition: while the South Vietnamese must settle their own internal affairs, they must do it according to a program laid down by the Communists.

For the United States to agree to that would be to admit defeat. For the Communists not to insist upon it would be to admit defeat.

Junior Editors Quiz on LAKES

QUESTION: Why does lake water look blue far out and brown close up?

• • •

ANSWER: Lake water, of course, is actually colorless, as anyone knows who has scooped up some in his hand. But Mildred and Stephan are both right about the colors they see in the drawing. Mildred is looking across the lake. The water she sees is far away. The tiny molecules in an open water surface pull together, creating surface tension, a kind of skin which acts in somewhat the way a mirror does. Bright rays of light, coming from the side, bounce off this water surface. It is these bright rays, reflected from the blue sky, which Mildred sees. But Stephan is looking straight down through the water. In his position, he cannot see the bright sideways rays. He would see those rays coming down from the sky overhead, except that the water surface is not a strong enough mirror to bounce back to his eye the rays coming directly down. He does see a very little bit of this sky reflection, but what he mostly sees is the brown, muddy bottom of the lake, which is of course much darker than the sky. Deeper water looks the way we have described it only when calm. When wind blows, ripples and waves destroy the mirror effect and make it look darker.

• • •

FOR YOU TO DO: Take a walk to a lake or pond to study these effects. Even a mud puddle will show them. Such a puddle will look light far away and become brownt and darker as you approach it.

Opera Star Is Rarest Of Birds

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — An opera star is a rare bird.

America, for example, has more whooping cranes than it has top-ranking mezzo-sopranos.

The Metropolitan Opera, with billions of the world's voices to choose from, lists only 19 mezzo-sopranos on its golden roster of 110 soloists.

One of them is Rosalind Elias, who comes from Lowell, Mass., and is a darling of music critics everywhere. She is young, sultry, dark-eyed, lovely — and enthusiastic.

As the only opera star of Lebanese descent in this country, she also is perhaps the only one who can speak Arabic — and sing in five other languages. Rosalind is fond of Middle Eastern cooking and can whip up a dish of stuffed grape leaves as easily as she can belt out the title role of "Carmen."

She likes being a mezzo.

"Mezzos get along with each other better than other sopranos," she said. "We're a kind of a clique. Mezzos are more stable and sure of themselves, perhaps because the competitive field is smaller."

Rosalind started singing at 15. After an audition, the Met signed her up as a spear-carrying Valkyrie—she sneezed onstage during her debut — then quickly promoted her to stardom.

Now she has 35 roles, appears on television, and shuttles by air between the Met and European opera halls. In the last month she has made two trips to sing in Monte Carlo, where she also met Princess Grace and Prince Rainier.

Rosalind says this about her work:

"An opera star is not an ordinary person. She's not just the girl next door.

"It takes an odd type of person — a kind of kookie, a person who needs an awful lot of love and approval because she is always having to prove herself.

"An opera star has to go before a large audience and win them with just two little vocal cords. But it's not all just singing today. You have to have talent, some kind of looks, and a lot of luck — they are the biggest three."

"One of my goals is to be a legitimate actress on Broadway — and I will. As a child I wanted to look like Hedy Lamarr and be able to act like Bette Davis," she said.

"I thought it would be easy to go from opera into the theater. It hasn't turned out that way. Most people still don't realize that opera stars today must be good actors, too. They think of them only as voices."

Ogden Phipps' Buckpasser, crack 2-year-old colt, was meant to be a champion thoroughbred. He is the son of Tom Fool and his dam, Busanda, defeated males in the 1951 Suburban Handicap.

Some Questions Are Hard To Answer

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — Sen. Paul J. Fanin, R- Ariz., gave two high school students a ride in his car and, according to Fanin, one of them said,

"Aren't you former Gov. Fanin?"

When Arizona's junior U.S. senator nodded, the youngster asked:

"Whatever happened to you?"

Santa and the Zabbazara Bus

BY LUCRECE BEALE

Synopsis: Mr. D is driving his bus to the made - up land of Zabbazara. On the way he picks up a donkey, a crocodile, a little lost boy and a Voodoo man.

CHAPTER FOUR
THE VOODOO MAN'S PRESENT

Mr. D was sorry he had picked up the Voodoo man. It wasn't that he didn't want to go to Santa Land. What he didn't like was the way the Voodoo man's eyes glittered when he said he had business in Santa Land. What kind of business? Mr. D wanted to know.

"I have a present for Santa Claus," said the Voodoo man. "A very nice surprise."

This made Mr. D feel better. He turned the bus off the main road as the Voodoo man directed and headed for the mountains in the north. The old bus rocked and swayed on the bumpy roads as they went higher and higher among the mountain peaks.

It grew colder and colder. The snow was coming down so fast and thick Mr. D could hardly see the road. It didn't matter, because the Voodoo man could see everything — even in the dark — and he knew exactly where to go.

Mr. D did as he was told. He said to himself that, after all, the Voodoo man must be good to think of taking a present to Santa Claus, when everyone else went to Santa to get presents.

"You have the real Christmas spirit," he said to the Voodoo man.

"Oh, I like to give presents," said the Voodoo man, "I give presents all the time."

"I wish you would give me a present," spoke up the donkey. "I wish you would give me some sense."

"And give me beauty," said the crocodile.

"And me a home" piped up the little lost boy.

"Pshaw" scoffed the Voodoo man. "Those are sissy presents. My presents are different."

"Tell us" begged the little boy. "What kind of presents do you give?"

The Voodoo man bent down and opened his black bag. The crocodile and the donkey and the little boy leaned over his back. Mr. D nearly ran the bus off the road trying to peer around over his shoulder. What they saw nearly caused their eyes to pop out of their heads. The bag was filled with snakes and scorpions and centipedes.

"Shut it up" cried the little boy. "They're climbing out."

The Voodoo man grinned and shut the bag.

"Is - is that what you're taking to Santa Claus?" stammered Mr. D.

"If you look into the mirror you will turn to stone!"

"Oh, no. I'm taking Santa a very pretty present."

"C-can we see it?"

"You can see one side of it." The Voodoo man reached under his cloak and pulled out a mirror. The glass was covered with paper but the back of it shone with sparkling jewels.

"Oh, it is pretty" said the crocodile with relief. "Why can't we look in the glass?"

"Because if you look in the glass you will turn to stone."

Mr. D jumped so hard the bus stalled. He leaped from his seat and faced the Voodoo man.

"You're taking THAT to Santa Claus?"

The Voodoo man stood up, too. He wrapped his cloak around him and said, "I'm casting a spell over the whole of Santa Land."

"I — I won't take you," shouted Mr. D. "I won't go any further."

"You won't need to. We're already there."

The Voodoo man waved his hand. The bus door opened and he stepped out into the dark.
