New Truck Purchased By County

The Commissioner's court bought a new truck for use in Precinct 2 at their regular meeting this morning. The low bid of Wilson Motors for $5,371.70 including trade in was accepted. Also bidding was Snyder Truck and Tractor. That bid less trade in was $3,877.00.

The Commissioners voted to suspend for 30 days the buying of road right-of-way by an independent acquisition agent. At the end of the 30 day period the court will meet again to set a permanent policy on right-of-way purchases. In other action the court bought 50 folding chairs to be used in the civic centers whenever needed.

The Commissioner's court has been invited and will attend the formal opening of a portion of the interstate highway tomorrow in Abilene. Making the trip with the commissioners will be Bill Zimmerman, County Juvenile Officer. The court also received an invitation to the Dunn homecoming next Saturday at the Dunn Community Center.

Leon Ward, ex-deputy sheriff met with the court but no discussion of his request of last week for severance pay was held.

3 Nations Urge Parley

By WILLIAM N. DAVIS UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Valerian A. Zorin called more talks with other U.N. delegates today before calling a Security Council meeting to discuss the threat of civil war in the Congo.

Zorin is president of the council this month. He said the 11-nation group might meet Tuesday or Wednesday, but another delegate dealing with the Congo case said he favored delaying it until next week to enable the U.N. secretary to gather more information.

Ethiopia, Nigeria and Sudan sent Zorin a letter Friday night asking that he convey the council in emergency the situation "caused by the lawless acts of mercenaries" in the Congo's secessionist Katanga Province.

The three African nations did not say what action they wanted the council to take. At its last Congo meeting Feb. 21, the council 13 urged that measures be taken for the immediate withdrawal of all mercenaries from the Congo and 12 called for U.N. measures to prevent civil war, by force if necessary.

The U.N. force seized strong points in Katanga Sept. 11 in an attempt to end the mercenaries. Katanga's Katangans fought it at a station. Last week the central government announced 23 troops had penetrated 55 miles into Katanga in a police action to end the secession. But on Saturday it admitted the Katangans had driven 25 soldiers back.

Katanga's makeshift air force of less than 20 planes, manned by about 20 hired foreign fliers, was a major factor. Despite the council's instructions to prevent civil war, the U.N. office in the Congolese capital of Leopoldville last July made known that the U.N. force would not act to stop the coalition central government from winning back Katanga.

Last Thursday a week even farther in a report to U.N. headquarters, the office-in-charge, Sture Linner of Sweden, said he had warned the Katangans the U.N. force would shoot down their military planes if they kept on bombing central government troops in Kasai Province, staging area for the Katanga invasion.

President Moise Tshombe of Katanga left Geneva Sunday night for the Congo after a week of medical examination. He said his troops are prepared to defend their province against the invaders and do not need white mercenaries.

"We are strong enough without them," Tshombe declared. In Elisabethville, capital of Katanga, army chief of staff Joseph Yav said his force's only casualties in the border fighting were three slightly injured. But Associated Press correspondent Colin Frost, after a flight in a Katanga plane to the frontier region, reported: "Even on its so far limited scale, the border war has been fought with a ferocity now manifest in the Congo."

Frost reported a U.N. estimate of 200 whites in the air force is not accurate; that there are about 20 Belgians, South Africans, the British, French and Canadian pilots, a handful of professional ground crewmen and a volunteer force of Belgian farmers living in Katanga who help with the army.

The second norther to sweep through the area in less than a week failed to produce freezing temperatures, but some sleet fell in Snyder last night.

Sleet mixed with light rains peppered down for a few moments between 4 p.m. and 10:30 p.m. It melted as soon as it fell since the temperature was some four degrees above the freezing mark at the time.

Cold and cloudy weather gripped most of the state this morning, but clouds held the temperature above the freezing mark, except in the Panhandle. Scattered light rain fell shortly before dawn at Houston, Brownsville, McAllen, El Paso and across the state into the Panhandle. The state line that blew into the state late Saturday had spread over the state by Monday morning with thermometer readings in the 40s and 50s across the southern third of the state and in the 30s over most of the remainder of Texas. The range was from 54 at Galveston to 31 at Amarillo.

Small craft warnings continued up along the coast from Port Arthur to Brownsville and Tropical storm Inga moved northwest of about five miles per hour. Wind velocities of 30 to 40 knots were reported with gusts up to 48 knots. Inga's highest winds were estimated at about 45 mph near the center with gales extending outward some 85 miles from the center. The Weather Bureau said the storm centered about 110 statute miles east-northeast of Tampico, Mexico, offered an immediate threat to any land area and was expected to diminish Monday night.

Forecast called for cloudy skies over most of Texas with scattered light rain mostly in southern and central areas of the state. The Weather Bureau said temperatures would be a little lower in the eastern half of the state Monday night. Temperatures Monday night were expected to again be in the 30s and 40s. Sunday's maximum temperatures ranged from 30 at Brownsville to 36 at Alpine and Dalhart. Handful reported to the Weather Bureau for the 24-hour period ending at 6 p.m. Sunday included 1.13, Victoria 1.18, Houston 2.06, Brownsville 0.6, Alpine 0.8, Abilene 0.2, Beaumont 1.2, College Station 2.7, Corpus Christi 0.3, Galveston 0.9, San Antonio 0.2 and Lubbock 0.7.

Pro-West Regime In Viet Nam On Skids

BAGNON, South Viet Nam (AP)—South Viet Nam's pro-Western government is slowly losing its war against Communist rebels. The next few weeks may decide whether this trend speeds up or reverses.

Even if U.S. troops are not sent, there are expected to be large new outlays of American aid, which has already totaled more than $2 billion.

Officials here don't always want to be quoted on such dark views, but that is the general picture. There are three major forces involved: The guerrilla enemy directed and reinforced from Communist North Viet Nam, the United States, and the 2-year-old government of President Ngo Dinh Diem.

The Communists, called the Viet Cong, have stepped up the war to a dangerous degree in recent weeks.

Despite a variety of hints in the news and by officials here that Viet Nam would welcome U.S. combat troops, the feeling is still that President Kennedy's fact-finding mission led by Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor considers this is not the time.

Diem's government has taken a series of steps to meet the growing Communist threat. They include proclamation of state of emergency, new revenue-raising taxes, military training for women and a variety of austerity moves such as three meatless days a week, cuts in high official salaries, working government offices on Saturday afternoon, and formation of military units of civil service workers.

Many of these moves are only psychological and much could still be done in the way of austerity in the cities.

The army is considered generally loyal, but many troops have been literally fighting every day for years. They are tired, and their officers have at times been frustrated by the political dealings that center around Diem's palace.

The peasants in the countryside, where the war will be won or lost, are still another matter.

Rayburn Condition Reported Improved

BUSINESS (AP)—A slight improvement was reported today in the condition of House Speaker Sam Rayburn, 79, ill with cancer. A morning hospital bulletin read:

"The speaker continues to be weak, but better than yesterday. Condition still serious." He had a poached egg, bacon and toast for breakfast.

Missing Plane Is Object Of Search

SANTA FE, N.M. (AP)—A National Guard helicopter and two private planes joined the search at dawn today for a missing light plane with five South Texans on board.

The pilot was identified by the Federal Aviation Agency as James Le Stover of Houston. The four passengers were identified as Mr. and Mrs. Wilson R. Bond of Baytown, Texas, and their two daughters, Laurie Lee, 2, and Tracey Lynn, 3. They resided at 607 East Wright Blvd., Baytown.

Stover, a building superintendent for Texcraft Builders of Houston, was flying Bond, a representative of a Baytown plumbing company, in Santa Fe, where Texcraft is building a motel.

The Cessna-182 aircraft was reported downed Sunday night north of the Santa Fe County Municipal Airport about 12 miles southwest of here.

Tower personnel at the airport said Stover asked for landing instructions about 6:30 p.m. The yellow plane circled the field once then made a wrong turn on its approach and disappeared over a hill north of the runway.

State police said the terrain in the area was rugged with a number of deep arroyos.

Ground search parties continued to search through the night although their efforts were hampered by a steady snowfall in the area.

Officials said the plane was on a flight from Houston to Santa Fe.

The search today was centered in the area west of the airport. The FAA reported that all airports in the area were checked after radio contact was lost with the plane.

Visibility was listed as poor when the air search for the missing plane got under way today.

Democrats Solid Choice In One Of Two Major Battles

NEW YORK (AP)—Democrats are rated 261 odds-on choice in one of two major political contests but in the other race Republicans sharply discount a Democratic claim of an upset in the making.

The outcome, in New York City where the Democrats are given the edge and in New Jersey where they contend they are forging uphill, likely will have a bearing on 1962 and 1964 national races.

The Democrats go into the final day of campaigning with some degree of encouragement from a weekend victory in Texas over the sort of GOP conservatism represented by Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz.

Henry B. Gonzalez, a liberal Democrat who won a special congressional race from Republican John Goode Jr., in San Antonio, Tex., Saturday flew to New York to help Democratic Mayor Robert F. Wagner's bid for reelection. Gonzalez planned appeals to Spanish-speaking voters.

"There was not much indication that Wagner needed Gonzalez' efforts to win over Republican State Atty. J. Lee Kowitz and City Comptroller Lawrence E. Giroux, a Democrat running as an independent.

Gonzalez had said he hoped to campaign also in New Jersey for Democrat Richard J. Hughes in his contest with Republican James P. Mitchell for the governorship. But New Jersey Democratic leaders didn't show much enthusiasm for this idea. Hughes has canceled his remaining campaign appearances in view of the death of his 83-year-old father Sunday.

President Kennedy, former President Harry S. Truman and former President Dwight D. Eisenhower all have had a hand in the New York City and New Jersey contests.

Kennedy gave a long-distance endorsement to Gonzalez and Eisenhower campaigned personally in Texas for Goode.

Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson got into the act with what some regarded as a pitch to help position himself for a possible 1968 bid for the Democratic presidential nomination. He did some on-the-ground campaigning for Goode.

Johnson, who has endeavored in recent months to erase his segregationist voting record as a senator from Texas, pleaded for the election of Gonzalez, San Antonio native, of Mexican-born parents, as proof that "a man can be elected to the U.S. Congress despite his race." Rep. D. S. Mann, D-Calif., a native of India, and Sen. Hiram L. Fong, R-Calif., an Oriental, seemed to have proved that point previously.

Goode, who ran as an ultra-conservative of the Goldwater school, said he was "shocked to hear my vice president inject the racial and national origin issues into a campaign in which they were not originally issues."

Unlike Sen. John G. Tower, first Republican senator elected in Texas since Reconstruction days, Goode suffered from a paucity of Democratic opponents. Goode had only a handful running against him, Tower more than 70.

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviets have issued a veiled warning that further nuclear testing by the United States and its allies will compel the Soviet Union to prolong its program of tests, still numerically behind the West.

President Kennedy's announcement last Thursday that the United States is getting ready for possible resumption of atmospheric tests was the target of a statement issued Sunday by the official Soviet news agency Tass.

"The statement by the United States President does not meet half way the desires of those who are sincerely pressing for an end to the nuclear arms race," Tass said. "By the underground tests of nuclear weapons which are already being staged in the United States, nuclear tests in the atmosphere are to be added as soon as the U.S. government regards this as necessary."

Soviets Issue Veiled Warning On Testing

In the case of continuation of nuclear tests by the United States of America and its allies, all the clear weapons tests. It gives without saying that full responsibility for the continuation of the nuclear arms race and for the holding of nuclear tests will be borne then by the United States government.

The warning was coupled with another call for a general and complete disarmament Friday, long proposed by Premier Khrushchev, and a reiteration that the Soviet Union is ready to ditch all its nuclear weapons if other nations do the same.

The statement said such a treaty should provide for "most strict international control." It did not elaborate. The Soviet Union has been pressing for a general and complete disarmament since 1945.

The U.S. has rejected proposals to establish what the West allies consider would be an adequate inspection system by treaty.

"Tass has been authorized to announce that the leading circles of the Soviet Union reaffirm their readiness to sign even today a treaty on general and complete disarmament, on the basis of such nuclear weapons tests as 'be ended' at all time," the agency said.

Mighty Steers Shoot For No. 1 Position

By JACK CLARY
Associated Press Sports Writer

Texas has won the statistical debate—at least for the present—on Alabama as to who should get the No. 1 spot this week among the nation's college football teams.

The Longhorns, the movingest team in college football with 17 miles in yardage in seven winning games so far, have the overall edge on the Crimson Tide, which has also won seven games and can't enhance its reputation much this week against Richmond of the Southern Conference.

The Longhorns should replace fallen Michigan State as the No. 1 team in the next Associated Press poll after the Spartans and second-ranked Mississippi get hit by the jinx bug last Saturday. The Spartans (5-1) lost their fourth straight game to Minnesota in Minneapolis, 13-0, while Mississippi (6-1) failed to get by Louisiana State in their big one for the third consecutive year and had its winning streak broken at 21 games, 10-7.

settle things on Nov. 12. The Duke-Navy contest will be this year's Oyster Bowl in Norfolk, Va. Duke suffered a 28-14 loss to Michigan Saturday, while North Carolina surprised Tennessee 20-21.

The Skyline Conference is tied up again after Utah State beat Brigham Young 48-8. Co-leader Wyoming, lost to non-conference Arizona 20-15 and ends its season this week against New Mexico. The Aggies (4-6-1) play Western Michigan and also have one more conference game.

UCLA climbed atop the Big Five with a 20 mark after beating California 35-15 as Southern Cal and Washington played a 0-0 tie.

The Uclians tackle non-league foe Texas Christian this week and USC (1-0-1) meets Stanford.

Princeton, after beating Brown 32-0, is 4-0 in the Ivy League and plays Harvard. They clinched its first Southern Conference title, beating Virginia Military 14-8, and Rutgers, the nation's other major undefeated team, made it 6-0 with a 37-6 victory over Lafayette.

The battle for eastern supremacy remained a race after Syracuse (5-2) rolled over Pitt 30-9 and Maryland beat Penn State 21-7. Navy (5-2) made things even more difficult with a 13-10 upset of Notre Dame.

Baylor-Texas Tilt Is Tops

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Writer

Baylor, which once crumbled Texas' fondest dreams, is next on the list as the mighty Longhorns thunder toward a walkaway Southwest Conference football championship.

It was 1941 when Baylor, loser of four games, rose up to tie Texas and put the skins under a Rose Bowl express. The Longhorns were unbeaten, untied and apparently unwarmed when they ran into the first thorn along the trail. Next they lost to Texas

Christian and that ruined everything.

Texas, winner of seven straight games and pretty well untested thus far, hosts Baylor Saturday. The Golden Bears, who have won three and lost three, showed first indications of righting themselves last week as they trampled Texas Christian 28-14.

Texas, which hasn't been held to lower than a three-touchdown margin, blasted Southern Methodist 27-0 with a last half fury that stunned the 41,000 homecoming crowd at SMU.

Rice smothered Texas Tech 42-7 and Arkansas shipped Texas A&M 15-8 and that meant only three teams were left in the championship running—Texas, with a 4-0 record; Arkansas with 3-1; and Rice with 2-1.

The conference champion is host team in the Cotton Bowl. They're already talk of Texas meeting Alabama or Mississippi in the Jan. 1 gridiron classic.

There also is talk plenty of Texas becoming No. 1 in the nation since the only two teams above Michigan State and Mississippi—took lickings last week. Rice, beaten by Texas 34-7, downed Louisiana State 16-3 and Louisiana State it was that tumbled Mississippi 10-7 Saturday.

Arkansas and Rice clash at Houston Saturday and barring an upset of Texas the loser will fade from the conference race.

Southern Methodist and Texas A&M play at College Station in a conference game having no bearing on the race.

Two conference members will be hooking up in interconference games. Texas Christian meets UCLA at Los Angeles Friday night. Texas Tech plays Boston College at Lubbock Saturday.

The league's interconference rivalry for the season thus far is 10 victories, six losses and one tie.

Philly Socks Chi; Loses Brookshier

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Philadelphia Eagles' win when the big difference in the final results of the National Football League war.

Tom Brookshier, the Eagles' defensive captain, suffered a compound fracture of the right leg in the fourth quarter of Philadelphia's 15-14 verdict over Chicago Sunday.

The 1960 all-pro defensive half-back, generally regarded as one of the league's finest pass defenders, will be out for the season.

"It's a costly blow to us," Philadelphia Coach Nick Skorich said. "One of our rookies will have to grow up in a hurry."

He named Glen Anderson and Ivry Cross as replacements for the veteran from Colorado this week when the Eagles, leading the Eastern Conference with a 7-1 record, play the first of two vital, important matches with pressing New York.

The Giants stayed one game back of the Eagles, winning their sixth against two losses in a 33-0 rout of winless Washington.

Green Bay, the Western Conference leader at 6-2, was victimized by Johnny Unitas and the Baltimore Colts 45-21, but retained its one-game lead over Chicago on Sunday.

The Bears, looking for a chance to move into tie with the Packers, missed two field goals inside the 20 in the fourth quarter in their two-point loss to the Eagles.

In other games, San Francisco and Detroit remained tied for third in the West, playing a 20-20 tie. Pittsburgh upset Cleveland 17-13. St. Louis used pass interceptions to beat Dallas 31-17 and Los Angeles took Minnesota, also 31-17.

The seven games attracted 353,004 fans for an all-time, one-day total.

The Detroit-San Francisco game changed complexion three times in the last 65 seconds. Tommy Davis kicked a 34-yard field goal with 1:05 left to pull the 49ers into a 17-17 tie. Then Jim Martin, 33 and San Francisco at Los Angeles booted one from the 24, giving Detroit a 20-17 lead. With four seconds left, Davis led it again on a 41-yard effort.

It left each team with a 4-3 record, and coaches Red Hickey of San Francisco and George Will of Detroit both say they still have a shot at the title.

"We have a chance at each of these leagues—Green Bay and Chicago ourselves," Hickey said. Will agreed.

Unitas, showing his oldtime form, passed for four touchdowns as the Colts beat Green Bay. They played on even terms until Lenny Moore got off on a 38-yard touchdown run with a first pass just before the half ended. That gave the Colts a 21-14 lead, and they took it from there.

Clarence Peaks bulled over from the two in the third quarter, giving Philadelphia a 16-14 lead over Chicago. The Bears failed on two field goals in the fourth that would have won it. Roger LeClerc missed from the 17 and Ed Brewer from the 13.

Y. A. Tittle, Del Shofner and Pat Summerall were the standouts in the Giants' rout of Washington. Tittle passed for three touchdowns. Shofner caught three and Summerall ran his consecutive string of points after touchdown to 107.

Veteran Bob Schnelker was the big gun in the Pittsburgh upset of Cleveland that dropped the Browns out of a share of second place in the East.

Schnelker, released by Minnesota two weeks ago, picked up 160 yards on seven receptions and scored the winning touchdown on a 26-yard pass from Rudy Bukich in the last three minutes.

Billy Stacy ran back two pass interceptions for a second-period touchdown that made the difference in the St. Louis victory over Dallas. Los Angeles used a pair of last-quarter touchdowns to break out of a 17-17 tie with Minnesota.

This week's schedule has Green Bay at Chicago in a showdown for the Western lead, Dallas, 4-4, at Pittsburgh, 3-5, Baltimore, 4-4, at Minnesota, 1-7, Detroit at St. Louis, 4-4, Cleveland, 5-3, at Washington, 0-8 and San Francisco at Los Angeles, 2-8.

Oilers, Patriots Facing Showdown

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Writer

The resurgence of Houston under Wally Lemm, and led by the inimitable George Blanda, brings speculation that the American Football League playoff in December will match the same clubs that battled for the first title.

San Diego's Chargers, who were the Los Angeles Chargers then, have won nine straight and have clinched at least a tie for the Western Division championship. They are due to sew it up Sunday when they play hapless Denver.

Houston, which won the 1960 title, is pushing upward in the Eastern Division and is only one game behind Pittsburgh.

The Oilers, paced by Blanda, who is averaging better than three touchdown passes per game and kicking field goals from most any distance, meet Boston at Houston Sunday and can take over the lead by topping the Patriots.

It was after Houston had tied Boston 31-31 that the Oilers began their drive. They have won three straight since then, including a 35-14 rout.

Boston, too, has taken three straight, climaxed by a 28-21 decision over Dallas last Friday.

So the chips definitely will be on the line when the Oilers and Patriots have a K out at Houston next Sunday.

San Diego, which galloped over New York 46-13 Sunday to knock the Titans down to third place in the Eastern Division standings, will take on Denver, which looks like a fairly soft touch.

San Diego can't count too strongly on going through the regular season undefeated. While the Chargers get Denver and Dallas in their next two games, they then run into Houston and wind up against Boston.

The week's week starts Saturday night when Oakland plays at New York. Sunday's schedule has Buffalo at Dallas in addition to the San Diego at Denver and Boston at Houston battles.

In other action Sunday, Oakland defeated Buffalo 31-10 in a battle 7 between the last-place teams in each division.

Gonzalez Off To Work For Party

By JOE BENHAM
SAN ANTONIO (AP) — Henry Gonzalez, this city's first new congressman in 23 years, went to the aid of the party today, the same Democratic Party that came to his aid last week.

Gonzalez flew to New York Sunday night to join in campaigning for reelection of Mayor Robert Wagner.

Meanwhile, his Saturday election over Republican John Goode Jr. and three other Democrats kicked up a fuss over its significance. Gonzalez said former President Eisenhower's visit here in Goode's behalf backfired to become Democratic advantage.

Gonzalez called his victory "a vote of confidence in the New Frontier program and above all in the Democratic Party." He will succeed Democrat Paul Kilday, who resigned as a member of the House after 23 years to become a judge of the U.S. Court of Military Appeals.

During a stop in Dallas Sunday night en route to New York, Gonzalez said: "Up to that time (Eisenhower's appearance) the National Democratic headquarters hadn't realized what I know and had said all the time—the Republicans were trying to make this election a national issue."

"After the Republicans brought in their 50-megaton bomb, people started getting agitated. Frankly, I was scared. But mostly started coming in that I never dreamed we would get for the campaign."

Democratic National Chairman John M. Bailey called the vote a "clear-cut test of strength between the President's supporters and his foes."

"The Democratic victory is also a rebuke to those who sought to inject racial issues into the campaign and a hopeful harbinger that religious and racial prejudice is on the wane in American politics," Bailey said.

Goode said the Democrats, particularly Vice President Lyndon Johnson, were the only ones who raised the race issue.

"I was a little bit shocked to hear my vice president inject the racial and national origin issue into a campaign in which they were not originally issues," he said.

Johnson, who endorsed Gonzalez and then flew here for three days of campaigning, had urged voters to prove "that a man can be elected to the U.S. Congress in spite of his race" by electing Gonzalez.

State Republican Chairman Tad Smith said the election, in which Gonzalez received 52,855 votes to 42,553 for Goode and about 1,500 for the other Democrats, "indicates that never again will they be able to take any race in Texas for granted."

THE PERSONAL TOUCH is the most important part of any beauty service says Mrs. Pinkie McMahon. Here she applies a professional touch to a hair style at Pinkie's Beauty Shop. Late appointments are a feature of Pinkie's.

Pinkie's Beauty Shop Offers Personalized Care Of Hair

"Professional care is best for hair" is the slogan adopted by Mrs. Pinkie McMahon when she opened her beauty shop at 419 Twentieth Street. And it remains true for whatever beauty service is required.

According to Mrs. McMahon beauty is a very personal thing.

Every customer is an individual with an individual problem, and as such deserves a personalized approach. Mrs. McMahon enjoys working on "problem hair" as the challenge and reward are both so great. Naturally curly hair is another area in which she excels. According to Mrs. McMahon naturally curly hair demands experience and training both, from the beauty operator.

A relaxed and informal atmosphere is always to be found at Pinkie's Beauty Shop. She specializes in late appointments and has found that this policy has been well received by the people of Snyder. And not just Snyder alone. Traveling people have been referred to Mrs. McMahon by motel operators who know of her late hour policy. She has helped several tourists including some from as far away as South Dakota. She finds that school teachers and working girls are especially grateful for her late appointments.

Several Snyder men also take advantage of the beauty services offered by Pinkie's. But don't worry boys, your secret is safe with Pinkie.

Mrs. McMahon is a graduate of Jessie's Beauty College. She was reared in Snyder, and invites all her friends, old and new, to come by and visit her at her new shop.

Right now Pinkie's is offering a special on permanents. The $15 permanent is priced at just $10. And as a gift suggestion, Pinkie suggests that a gift certificate for beauty services is always appreciated. A complete line of beauty aids are available too, rinses, bleaches, spray nets, etc. The phone number is HI 3-5538, and is listed under G. T. McMahon.

The final word from Mrs. McMahon is: "Professional care is best for hair."

Cuban Children Sent To Russia

AUSTIN (AP) — A Southern Baptist missionary said today homeless children are being taken out of Baptist orphanages in Cuba and sent to Russia for training. "This is the worst thing they have done," Mrs. T. E. Lee, general field worker for the Southern Baptist Home Mission Board, told the more than 1,500 Baptists gathered for the Woman's Missionary Union convention.

The annual Baptist General Convention of Texas begins its meeting Tuesday with about 6,000 messengers expected from most Baptist churches of the state.

Mrs. Lee told the women's meeting that Baptist missions work in Cuba is prospering despite the atheistic influence of communism. She said Cuba's sending orphans to Russia for training is the "worst thing" done to Baptist missionary efforts.

Mrs. Lee said a simultaneous revival in 266 Baptist churches and missions resulted in more than 3,200 professions of faith in Christ in Cuba.

She is one of six missionaries still working in Cuba. Raul Castro told the wife of the superintendent of missionaries that Southern Baptist missions work in Cuba would not be molested unless the missionaries joined the revolution," Mrs. Lee said.

The Cuban government recently returned the property which they had taken earlier from southern Baptists. She did not specify what property had been earlier confiscated by the Castro regime from the Baptists.

Raul is a brother of Cuban dictator Fidel Castro, and Cuban defense minister. Mrs. Lee urged the Baptists to be more diligent in telling others about Christ. She said more than 30 million people in the United States, Cuba and the Canal Zone who have never had a personal experience (salvation) with Christ.

A last minute change in the program of the W.M.U. convention shifted principal speaker Winston Crawley, secretary of Southern Baptist Missions work in the Orient, from a Monday morning speaking spot to a Monday evening address.

Twelve Southern Baptist missionaries are slated on the W.M.U. convention program, with other principal addresses by Dr. Giles Fort and Dr. Wana Fort of Southern Rhodesia, and Dr. Thurman Dabbs of New Mexico, all Southern Baptist, medical missionaries.

Gulf Crews Are Off Jobs

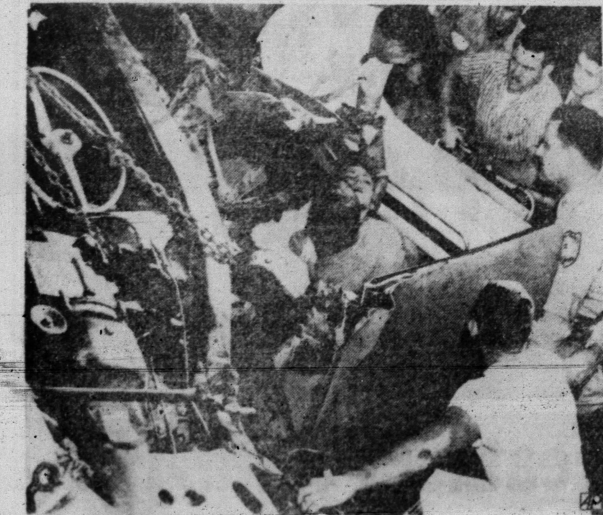

PORT ARTHUR (AP) — More than 2,000 other workers refused to go to their jobs at the big Gulf Oil Corp. refinery here at midnight when striking machinists posted pickets.

Company officials said they had reached no decision on the plant's operations. They closed it Oct. 22 when the 180 machinists of Local 885 struck.

The plant employs more than 4,000, about 2,500 of them members of the Oil, Chemical and Atomic Workers Union.

The OCAW refused to cross picket lines Oct. 22 and forced the plant to close, but went back to work a week later when the machinists withdrew pickets for negotiations.

Unionists say the dispute involves job security. The OCAW has worked the past week without a contract. They have failed to reach agreement on a new pact because of the same issue.

PINNED IN—Officers and rescue workers attempt to free Jackie Nelson, a 17-year old high school student from wreckage of his auto after it plunged off of an expressway embankment, in Jacksonville, Fla., seriously injuring her. Junior Editors' Quiz on BIBLE

QUESTION: When Noah, after the deluge, sighted land was there a name for this land?

ANSWER: In the eighth chapter of Genesis, in the fourth verse, we read, "and the ark rested in the seventh month, on the seventeenth day of the month upon the mountains of Ararat." In the fifth verse we also find, "In the tenth month, on the first day of the month, were the tops of the mountains seen."

FOR YOU TO DO: Have fun coloring this picture. It's of course a fanciful one for no one knows just how big the ark was or what it looked like or how all the animals could have been crowded inside it.

Jeffrey Kaczynski of New Britain, Conn., wins $10 for this question. Mail yours in a post card to Junior Editors in care of this newspaper.

Soviets Now Must Revise Thinking

By JAMES MARLOW

Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Russian people must now go through a revision and revolution in their thinking after Stalin's exhortation and his body hauled from the shrine beside Lenin.

The result should be creation of a new skepticism about the absolute rightness of their Communist leadership and a softening of the party's rigid control over their minds.

But it does not follow this will mean a softening in Soviet foreign policy or any lessening of Premier Khrushchev's demands on Berlin. It should be remembered the Russians are intensely nationalistic, and have been.

So, no matter what their doubts about the wisdom of their leadership at home, they can be expected to rally around the flag when their government, Communist or otherwise, deals with foreign nations.

By propaganda, edited repression and reprisals, practically all Russians alive and able to read and write when Stalin died in 1953 had been conditioned into acceptance, muted or ecstatic, of his wisdom, rightness, goodness, and Communist sanctity.

New Khrushchev and others in the leadership have revealed Stalin as a pathological monster who—by his excesses, misuse of power and self-idealization—was in effect an enemy of the people and a betrayer of the revolution.

From these belated disclosures the Russian people can draw one conclusion: They'd been lied to. They had been bamboozled by Stalin and since his death—until now—by Khrushchev and others who withheld the truth from them.

They cannot avoid feeling like fools when they remember how by the millions since 1953 they stood in long lines to see the body of this man who had become as much their "little father" as any czar.

This will compel them to a more questioning and critical evaluation of the actions and pronouncements of their leadership. It demonstrates how propaganda can delude them. To this extent the revelations about Stalin are a liberating force. The leadership had to realize this before it permitted the denunciations.

Ironically Stalin himself had set loose the most liberalizing force of all with the broad educational system created in his lifetime. No doubt he felt strict party control could keep it in hand.

But controlling the millions of illiterate peasants he and Lenin inherited when they made their revolution stick is not the same as brainwashing an educated people, although Stalin did pretty well at it.

Russia. There is no reason to think it wouldn't continue. But when nationalism gets involved—as it will in Russia's relations with other countries—emotionalism begins to affect the judgment of intellectuals and peasants alike.

For this reason it would be foolish thinking to believe a weakening of party control at home means a softening of Russian policy abroad, particularly when it involves Russia's enemy, Germany.

If anyone doubts the force of nationalism, he can look closer than Russia. In this country there are political disagreements over domestic policies but intellectuals and non-intellectuals alike "close ranks" against any outside force, like Russia, when they think America's vital interests are at stake.

Khrushchev no doubt had many reasons for disenchanting Russians about Stalin.

Some obvious ones come to mind: to silence the Communist party members who criticized him for not being more like Stalin at a time when he felt he needed new methods; to rebuke the Stalinists Red Chinese who now must criticize the entire Russian Communist party, not just Khrushchev; perhaps to give the masses of the 220 million Russian people a greater sense of participation in the decisions of the Russian Communist party which numbers only 9.7 million members.

Khrushchev at this time had good reason for wanting all this. He has no doubt had many reasons for disenchanting Russians about Stalin. Some obvious ones come to mind: to silence the Communist party members who criticized him for not being more like Stalin at a time when he felt he needed new methods; to rebuke the Stalinists Red Chinese who now must criticize the entire Russian Communist party, not just Khrushchev; perhaps to give the masses of the 220 million Russian people a greater sense of participation in the decisions of the Russian Communist party which numbers only 9.7 million members.

As times go on Russia, in the process of building up a well-fed, prosperous and contented society, will become more conservative. It seems to be moving on that road now. But communism is still in its experimental, formative stage. It will be years before it can be considered truly conservative. But in time it may prove to be the most conservative force in history.

Masked Men Rob Dallas Market

DALLAS (AP)—Trigger-happy masked men held up an Arcadia Park supermarket Sunday night, terrorizing clerks, shoppers and children with gunfire and escaped with a sackful of cash.

The bizarre holdup left cashier Mrs. Tessie Case, 44, and sackboy O. C. Wilkerson, 18, thankful they had escaped death. One hand fired a pistol just inches from Mrs. Case. His pal pulled the trigger of his pistol aimed at Wilkerson's head but the weapon clicked harmlessly.
