SHIPS RUSH TO FOOCHOW'S AID

HUEY TO OBEY ORDER OF THE COURT OF N. O.

Walmsley Men Hope
To Jail Senator
For Breach

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 3. (U.P.)—Huey Long went to Baton Rouge today declaring he intended to obey a court order that he revoke martial law here.

SUMMONS SERVED BEHIND BARRICADE

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 3. (U.P.)—Senator Huey P. Long was served with a court order demanding the immediate demobilization of the national guard which he had Governor O. K. Allen call out Monday on a partial martial law proclamation to seize the New Orleans' registration office.

Service was made on the senator in his suite on the top floor of the Roosevelt hotel by Louis Knop, deputy civil sheriff, who was accompanied by Superintendent of Police George Reyer and Police Captain Joseph Cassard.

The order was obtained in civil district court by Mayor T. Semmes Walmsley, head of the city administration, which is in political war with the state administration, led by Senator Long, over control of certain offices within the city.

The order was prepared at a conference of some thirty lawyers and Judge Nat Bond made it returnable next Tuesday. Edward Rightor, one of the counsel, said that if the order was not obeyed Senator Long would be jailed for contempt.

Deputy Knop said Senator Long took the court order and laid it on the table and did not say whether he would comply with its demands. Knop and Reyer were admitted to the suite after Earl Christenberry, Long's secretary, had poked his head out of the door in response to loud knocks. Before admitting them he bolted the door and the senator was informed. Then the door was unlocked and the two men allowed to enter but admission was denied Captain Cassard. They said the senator received them courteously.

Widow of the Rev. Howard Peters Dies

Mrs. Howard Peters, widow of a former pastor of the First Christian church of Midland, died at 9:30 o'clock Wednesday morning in a hospital at Mineral Wells. A telephone message to this effect was received by O. C. Cartwright, cashier of the Central National bank of San Angelo, and older in the San Angelo church, from Mrs. Walter J. Harris of Mineral Wells, a former resident of this city, and was relayed to Midland.

Funeral services were held at 10 o'clock Thursday morning at a funeral home in Mineral Wells, after which the body was sent to Fayetteville, Ark., for burial beside the grave of Mr. Peters. Surviving is one son, Earl Peters, with whom Mrs. Peters made her home near Mineral Wells.

The Rev. Howard Peters twice was a pastor of the First Christian church at San Angelo, his services extending over a period of about five years. He moved to Midland in 1930 and died here in June 1931, while pastor of the First Christian church.

THE FORECAST

WEST TEXAS: Partly cloudy, probably thundershowers in southeast portion tonight and Saturday.

Vote Club Fears Voting Apathy On August 25

Vote Aug. 25.
Nobody is trying to tell you how to vote but go to the polls in the Aug. 25 runoff.

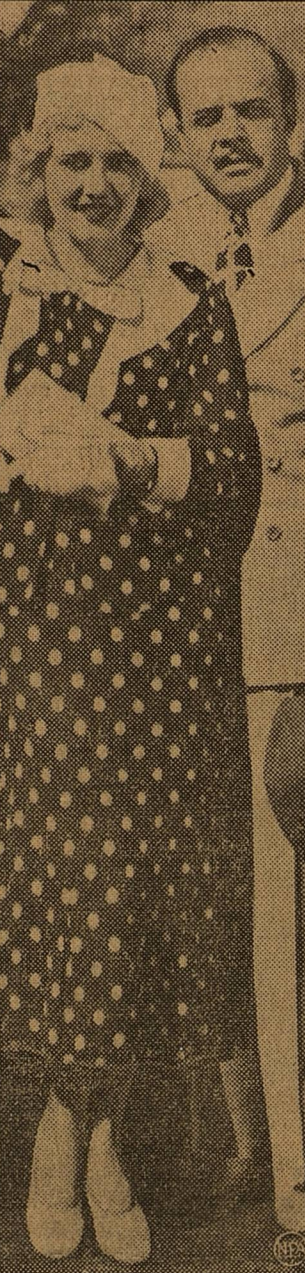

In these cryptic sentences, the Midland "Get out and Vote club" is urging Midland citizens to vote in the runoff.

Leaders in the Aug. 25 vote movement point out that every man who voted in the primary July 28 should vote Aug. 25. He may lose his primary vote, otherwise.

If Midland people want to see some of their candidates elected, they had better vote, vote club officials said.

Big Spring, Odessa, Stanton and other neighboring towns have local contests of great interest which will draw out the voters. Midland has no local runoff. Unless Midland people vote Aug. 25, some of the district candidates they want to see elected, may lose. Lack of interest among Midland voters, could cause the defeat of some of these candidates. "Talk it up, talk it in clubs, on the streets and everywhere so that Midland county will poll its full strength Aug. 25," a statement said.

Song Rings True

Words of a song written by Nacio Herb Brown came true when he married Anita Page, winsome film actress, in Tijuana, Mex. "You Were Meant for Me" was the melody, sung by Miss Page in a recent production. The newlyweds are shown here after their return to Hollywood.

Phantom Killer

Shown in jail in Steubenville, O., David Dasciano, above, is suspected as the phantom killer who slew only when the moon was full and then danced madly from the crime scene. Three steel workers were slain and one wounded by the sniper. Hatred of Germans is seen as the motive, police say, basing this view on a chance remark of Dasciano. All victims were of German descent.

COLTS OUTA TOWN FOR SUNDAY GAME

The Colts play Sunday at McCamey, following which the schedule allows Midland to play three consecutive Sundays at home.

The Kat Klaw Golf league club is scheduled to play Lamesa here, but has learned Lamesa dropped from the loop.

The Sand Belt club has an open date, and will not unseat its clubs until Aug. 12, when it likely will close the season at Big Spring.

AUSTIN, Aug. 3. (U.P.)—Employment gained 13.1 per cent in Texas last month over July of last year, the Texas university bureau of business research reported today. Payrolls for 2,298 reporting firms employing 100,239 persons gained 16.8 per cent.

OLSON ISSUES ULTIMATUM IN DRIVERS STRIKE

18-Day Disturbance

Tonight, Says

MINNEAPOLIS, Aug. 3. (U.P.)—Governor Floyd Olson issued an ultimatum warning forces in the truck drivers strike that he would remove all military permits for operation of trucks unless the strike settlement is reached tonight.

Grinning Skeleton Is Toastmaster at Chicago Club Fete

CHICAGO, Aug. 3. (U.P.)—Nine men and women, members of the Post Mortem club, sat down to a six-course breakfast with the clattering skeleton of the club's founder in the toastmaster's chair.

The guests, their appetites apparently untouchable by the rusty skull that surveyed them from behind a piece of cantaloupe, thought it was great fun.

They chattered about this and that while the toastmaster sat stiffly with jaw agape. Once in a while the conversation was turned his way.

"Isn't that so, Mr. McAdou?" someone asked.

But J. M. McAdou, late of Florida, probably was the most silent toastmaster that ever graced a banquet board. He was wired, but not for sound.

Some day the skeletons of each of the nine men and women will sit in the toastmaster's chair, for they have dedicated their bodies to the science of naprapathy.

As Dr. Oakley Smith, president of the Doctors of Naprapathy, put it: "I'm just wondering if the prettiest young lady in the room won't be the least prepossessing corpse when her time comes."

There was a ripple of laughter. The Post-Mortem breakfast, outdoing the imagination of Edgar Allan Poe, was staged in a loop hotel dining room to inaugurate the 25th annual convention of the naprapaths.

Naprapathy is based on a theory that paralysis often may be traced to ligaments or shrunken ligaments of the spinal column.

Dr. Smith told how seven years ago he treated McAdou for paralysis and told him that there was no cure for the disease in such an advanced stage.

"He told me he had an object d'art which he said would deliver in person one of these days," the doctor said, patting the smooth skull affectionately.

"Yesterday it arrived in a packing case. I instantly recognized my old friend from his spinal curves."

After the breakfast a notary public was called in and the nine men and women signed a scroll bequeathing their bodies to the Post-Mortem club.

AUTO HALTS RUNAWAY

TIFFIN, O. (U.P.)—The automobile, once a "red flag" to horses, was used here to bring a runaway under control. When Fred Hunkin's horses got away, an automobile was driven ahead of them so that they were forced to run against the rear of the car. An occupant seized one of the horse's bits, held on until both quieted.

ROAD THREW AUTOS

WELLINGTON, O. (U.P.)—Intense heat on a highway east of here buckled the pavement just as an automobile approached. The machine, driven by Leslie Ainscough, Lansing, Mich., tourist, turned over completely three times. Ainscough and his sister, Lillian, were both injured and their car wrecked.

CUSHING, Okla., Aug. 3. (U.P.)—Two charred bodies, unidentified, were taken from the wreckage of an Santa Fe freight which derailed two miles south of here. The train crew was unhurt and police believed the victims were hoboes.

Twin Scourage of Hunger and Thirst Rides the Southwest Range

Bones of thousands of cattle bleaching on the range in southwest and midwest states offer a ghastly testimonial of the intensity of the drought which has gripped those sections for months. Great herds have been wiped out by hunger and thirst and hundreds of cattle have been shot to relieve their agony. Here is a scene on the range near Erich, Oklahoma, with cattle lying dead on the scorched grass.

REFERENDUM SET FOR AUGUST 19TH

BERLIN, Aug. 3. (U.P.)—German people at the referendum date, Aug. 19th, will be asked to confirm Hitler as the supreme ruler of the nation for life. An affirmative result is the foregone conclusion.

POWERFUL REICHWEHR PLEDGES ALLEGIANCE

BERLIN, Aug. 3. (U.P.)—Adolf Hitler was present at the German army as its leader a few hours after its old leader, President Paul von Hindenburg, died.

General Werner von Blomberg, minister of defense, proclaimed an order that each soldier must pledge absolute loyalty to the death, to Hitler who for the first time came into command of Germany's armed forces.

The text of the oath is: "I swear by God this holy oath: 'That I will give unconditional obedience to the leader of the German government and the German people, Adolf Hitler, as commander in chief of the army, and that as a courageous soldier I am ready at any time to place my life at stake for this oath.'"

After the oath was taken, Blomberg ordered a "Hurrah for Hitler" should be given, and then the band should play Deutschland Uber Alles and the next Horst Wessel anthem.

WORD OF DEATH WAS SENT FIRST TO EX-KAISER

BERLIN, Aug. 3. (U.P.)—One of the first persons in the world to be informed of the death of Paul von Hindenburg was the field marshal's former supreme war lord, Wilhelm II.

General von Dommers, the chief administrator of Hohenzollern provinces, told the Associated Press: "Col. Oskar von Hindenburg telephoned me immediately from Neudeck and requested me to report the field marshal's death to his majesty."

"The emperor was deeply moved. During the last few days he had frequently called from Doorn to inquire of von Hindenburg's condition. He was prepared for the worst, but actually the news nevertheless affected him strongly."

"His majesty requested that the crown prince catch the first train for Neudeck to express the imperial family's condolences. The crown prince, tactfully, will leave the first day to the immediate family but will return to the emperor's residence to pay a personal visit to the emperor on the day of the funeral."

FORMER KAISER SENDS SYMPATHY MESSAGE

DOORN, Switzerland, Aug. 3. (U.P.)—Former Kaiser Wilhelm sent a telegram of sympathy to Col. Oskar von Hindenburg, referring to his father, the late president of Germany as the "immortal" hero of the battle of Tannenberg.

The text of the former kaiser's message: "The Kaiserin and I mourn with moved hearts with you and the whole German people. A life richly blessed by the Lord has found its end. The crown prince will convey our last greetings and homage to the immortal hero of Tannenberg."

"Signed, Wilhelm R. I."

PERSHING PAYS TRIBUTE TO FORMER ENEMY

PARIS, France, Aug. 3.—General John J. Pershing, World-war opponent of Marshal Paul von Hindenburg, paid tribute to him today as "one of the outstanding figures of the World War."

The American general said the late President von Hindenburg "masterly conduct, his campaign on the eastern front, marks him as a great general."

General Pershing said: "His devotion to Germany and her people while police were looking for the victim of a hold-up. Kuhn said he hit the officer when the officer shook him."

CHIEF OPPOSES ALLIANCE

NORWALK, O. (U.P.)—Daniel Willard, Baltimore and Ohio railroad president, in a letter to Huron county commissioners, said he opposed proposed shifting of passenger business of his system west of Pittsburgh to the Pennsylvania Lines, through government action.

GOT FIRST CORN-HOG CHECKS

SANDUSKY, O. (U.P.)—B. E. Culler, of Grotton township, was the first person in the United States to cash a corn-hog check, though the second to receive one. E. D. Graves, chairman of the Erie County Corn-Hog administration, was first. Culler's check was for $85.

Down a long, dusty trail across this file of gaunt cattle, the western Oklahoma plains searching for water and grazing, both of which had disappeared from their home pastures during the drought. This melancholy scene was repeated many times over through the western plains area until partial relief came in the form of heavy rains in some sections. It was "the last roundup" for thousands of head of western cattle.

COTTON ACREAGE CHECKS RECEIVED

Cotton acreage reduction checks began arriving Thursday, when 137 farmers received $9,490.80.

Fifty-nine checks totaling $3,493.57 were received today, making for a total of $12,984.37 for the two days.

Farmers may get their checks by calling for them at the county agent's office in the court house.

TABBY NURSED RAT

CLEVELAND. (U.P.)—Jack Peltz, proprietor of an independent grocery, has a cat with three kittens, who was a perfectly good rat until recently. Then Lady, the fox terrier next door, caught a rat. But Peltz's cat wouldn't let her kill it. Instead, she licked its wounds, let the rodent join the kittens at dinner time.

"LITTLE MAN, WHAT NOW?"

CLEVELAND. (U.P.)—For a one-punch knockout of a six-foot, 185-pound policeman, Edward Kuhn, 26, five feet, five inches, drew a 30-day workhouse sentence. It happened in a beer garden while police were looking for the victim of a hold-up. Kuhn said he hit the officer when the officer shook him.

Absentee Voting to Begin August 13th

AUSTIN, Aug. 3. (U.P.)—Although absentee voting in the Texas democratic primary will start, under the law, Sunday, the state democratic executive committee will not meet until Aug. 13 to make up the final ballot.

"That is just one of those practical difficulties that we can not get around," said Elbert Hooper, first assistant attorney general. Those who make application for absentee votes will have to wait until after Aug. 13.

Necessity for waiting until Aug. 13 to cast absentee ballots obtains throughout the state, said Mrs. Susie G. Noble, Midland county clerk.

"The ballot cannot be made up until election returns from the 254 counties have been certified," she said, "and local returns cannot be certified until Saturday."

Storm and Hail Batter Airliner; Passengers Safe

BROOKVILLE, Pa., Aug. 3. (U.P.)—Passengers and the pilot of the American Airlines airplane en route from Buffalo to Cleveland today told of a battle with huge hailstones in a gale three miles above the earth.

The airliner, driven from its course, was forced down last night. The pilot, Eddie Dyer, said it was hammered and dented by the stones, tossed upside down by the wind and bounced up 14,000 feet one minute and down toward the earth the next.

Only the ship's durability saved the 10 passengers, who credited Dyer with skillful piloting.

A hull in the storm allowed the ship to land safely.

400 STOCKYARD WORKERS STRIKE

CHICAGO, Aug. 3. (U.P.)—Four hundred commission house employees struck at the union stockyards bringing to a crisis the walkout which halted activities of the world's largest livestock market for 11 days.

NEW PARTIES NEEDED

As the congressional campaign begins to warm up, the need for some sort of realignment of parties becomes more and more evident.

Consider, for instance, the recent statements of Senators Hastings of Delaware and Nye of North Dakota—both Republicans.

Senator Hastings attacks the Roosevelt program as "revolutionary" and says that "it must be evident by this time that it is dangerous."

Senator Nye, simultaneously, assails President Roosevelt because he is "not liberal enough" and denounces the NRA for fostering monopoly.

The party, thus, contains two wings—one ultra-conservative, the other ultra-liberal.

The same thing, of course, is true of the Democrats, to just as great extent. What we need to make our politics realistic is a new alignment that will group liberals in one party and conservatives in the other.

Mahatma Gandhi is going on another fast soon, since the newspapers have been neglecting him for so long.

The Town Quack

(Reserves the right to "quack" about everything with taking a stand on anything.)

of your life, I want to impress upon you the fact that honesty is the best policy.

"Yes, father, I understand," answered the dutiful son.

"But," proceeded the gray-haired financier, "I also want you to study up on the law. It will astonish you to find how many strange things you can do in a business way and still be honest."

According to Ralph Bucy, according to the Rev. Borum, a negro chauffeur, driving a Cadillac, stopped at a local filling station and asked for "some of that German Proceeds oil."

Being told they didn't keep that kind, the negro said, "Isn't this a Concho station?"

They say that over in Kansas it has gotten so dry that many of the farmers have had to quit playing golf and go to hauling water.

There has been a lot of argument as to whether the correct spelling is "drought" or "drouth." I believe in using the shorter form and the dictionary says either is correct. All I know for sure is that either is bad enough.

A Scotch boy, who had outgrown his top automobile, wanted to give it to a neighbor child, but his father persuaded him to save it for his second childhood.

A woman over in another state made her fortune in oil. Her husband, who carried $50,000 life insurance, started a fire with kerosene.

One Scotchman was charged $25 by a doctor who amputated the Scotchman's arm and the Scotchman always held that the doctor should have removed both arms for the same price.

They say that Texas university has a course in sleeping, in which students are taught the correct methods of sleep. Many students, it is said, take this course and sleep an hour every afternoon. They are allowed time out for it.

A geologist fresh out of school and with a lot of school ideas, secured a job with an oil company. He had rich, and important connections and he was made head of the employing department.

Among the first who applied for work was an oil driller who had worked in most every field in Oklahoma and Texas. The geologist proceeded to question him as to his fitness.

"What would you do," he asked, "if you got down to 1500 feet and struck salt water?"

"I'd run a string of casing," the old driller replied.

"What if you drilled another 100 feet and struck another flow of salt water?"

"I'd run another string of casing."

"What if you drilled another 100 feet and encountered still another vein of salt water?"

"I'd run still another string of casing."

"But supposing you went still another 100 feet and found still another gush of salt water?"

"I'd run still another string of casing."

"But where would you get all this casing?"

"From the same place you're getting all this salt water," the driller replied.

"My son," said the trust magnate who owned a whole string of big corporations, "on this, the threshold

CONFUSION ENDED ON BRAN

New Ruling Makes Labels Accurate

To protect the buying public, the United States Food and Drug Administration has advised that every package of cereal labeled "Bran" state on the label exactly what it contains.

Before this ruling, even part-bran products were sometimes mistakenly referred to as "Bran." It was not easy for the purchaser to distinguish between a cereal that was entirely bran, or all bran with flavoring, and another that was mostly wheat.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is labeled "ALL-BRAN Deliciously Flavored with Malt, Sugar and Salt," a statement which describes the product fairly and honestly.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN has won millions of friends because it corrects most types of common constipation safely and pleasantly. It furnishes generous "bulk"—needed to promote normal elimination.

However, ALL-BRAN is not a "cure-all." Certain types of intestinal disorders should be treated only on a physician's advice.

When you buy a bran cereal, for the relief of constipation, read the wording on the package. The facts are there! Make sure by asking for Kellogg's ALL-BRAN. It furnishes "bulk" in a form for satisfactory results.

HIS CAR WAS A "HONEY"
CANTON, O. (UP)—P. E. Ray parked his roadster while he shopped. Returning in five minutes, he found 5,000 determined hitch-hikers, ready to go along. They presented stinging arguments against interference with their plans. The marauders were a swarm of bees, which had decided to light on the car. A storekeeper pluckily lured them into a cheesecake.

"STONE MAN" IS DEAD

23'S HIS JINX

ADA, Ohio, (U.P.)—Hardin county's "stone man," known to physicians throughout the nation, is dead. The man, Henry F. Hammer, 73, a farmer, succumbed after 25 years' illness. In 1909, he fell a twinge in his left leg. Then in the right. Later, his limbs gradually became ossified.

CLEVELAND, (U.P.)—Arthur Haas has no use for the expression, "23 skidoo," any more. Thieves broke into a warehouse of a downtown automobile agency of which he is president, stole his truck, No. 23, with 23 tires, 23 tubes, 23 wheels and 23 tire covers. The place is 23 rods from central police station.

CHAPTER IV
Nielson was more furious than ever at Drummond's intrusion. Protesting disagreeably, he allowed himself to be forced into his dressing robe and hurried out of the door by Drummond, who insisted that he had in his room evidence that would prove there was something wrong with the distinguished Prince Achmed of Shahi.

"Don't you realize that you're beginning to haunt me like a nightmare?" moaned Nielson. "Oh, Drummond, you young devil, what troubles you are making for me. Of course, you know what we're going to find now, don't you?"

"What, my shrewd friend?"

"Why the girl's home, of course; been kidnapped or some sort like that, and I warn you, Drummond, I shan't swallow it. I swear I shan't."

When Drummond led Nielson into the apartment, Lola was not in the room. Drummond searched frantically for her.

"She's gone! She's been kidnapped!"

"May I go back to bed now?" and Nielson, patiently.

"But I tell you this is serious, Nielson. She was here. I swear it." "Drummond, you found a body—disappeared. And she had a hotel room—and it disappeared. Every thing seems to disappear but you!"

"But, Nielson. As a personal favor—as the favor of one friend to another, I want a couple of your men to go with me to Prince Achmed's house and search it—now!"

Inspector Nielson seized the telephone and called for his headquarters at Scotland Yard. "Hello! Hello! Colonel Nielson speaking. I want two capable men sent immediately to the residence of Prince Achmed in Rodney Square. Their orders will be to keep Captain Hugh Drummond, a man with a mad glint in his eye, out of the premises—and to arrest and lock him up if necessary. That's all!" He slammed

SCRUGGS MAKES CHANCES COUNT AND WINS THRILLER; TRAILS HALF GAME

Scruggs, winner of a thriller last night with Hokus Pokus in the night league, climbed to within a half game of the league-leading Hardwaxmen. The score was 6-5, with the Grocerymen leading most of the way. The break came when a pop fly was hit to the box, the Hokus catcher rushing out to help the pitcher pick up the ball, and two runners slid into the unprotected payoff sack.

Cowden pitched four-hit ball. Johnny Woy for the Hokus club hit three times out of four trips, and Slim Newton blasted one so far into the street the big ex-aviator could have walked all the way. Auto Supply observed its 17th game by administering an 8-2 defeat to Goodyear, which has won three and lost 14 this season.

Achmed had succeeded in bringing Lola out of the drug stupor in which she had lapsed after being forced to kidnaped from Drummond's apartment. Lola was bewildered when she found herself looking at Achmed.

"Where are they? My uncle and aunt?"

"Please don't excite yourself," said Achmed calmly. "Your Uncle is dead. We will discuss that another time."

"And my aunt?"

"Safe—so far."

"What do you mean?"

"Miss Field," said Achmed, leaning forward, "I shan't try to mislead you any longer. It is impossible to exaggerate the delicacy of your present situation—yours and your aunt's. I dare say it will sound fantastic to you, but really your lives depend upon my getting possession of the radiogram which your uncle received on the Bombay Girl. You did what with it?"

"Why, I—Lola stopped panic-stricken."

"Then allow me to guess. You gave it to Captain Drummond."

"No, no, no! Let me go. I'll get it. I give you my word of honor I'll get it."

"No—you needn't bother. We'll get it from him, Singh!" Achmed gives his servant instructions to capture Captain Drummond. The door bell rings and Achmed tells the servant to answer it. "Singh, remember—I am at home to no one."

When Singh returns to the living room, Drummond is with him. "Why, Miss Field! Fancy finding you here!" said Drummond, walking quickly to Lola's side.

"Captain Drummond, no one has go easy!"

Achmed had laid the radiogram down on his desk and was walking around toward Drummond when the latter quickly grabbed a chair and knocked the lamp, which was the only light in the room, from the desk. There is a short scuffle and the lights in the chandelier go on. Drummond is pinned against a wall by two Orientals with knives pointed in his sides. The radiogram has disappeared.
