Border Guard Opens Fire On Officer, Wife

Intimidation Plan Mapped To Force U.S., Britain Out

(By The United Press)

BERLIN, Jan. 12—American and British officials braced themselves today to meet a threatened Russian campaign of intimidation designed to force them to quit Berlin.

The Russians served notice of their intentions Sunday in the official Soviet army newspaper Taegliche Rundschau which said "there is no space in Berlin for the supporters of Germany's partition." A few hours later a Russian border guard fired five bullets through a car carrying an American major and his wife, wounding the major in the finger.

Guard Opened Fire

American authorities said the officer, Air Force Maj. Richard R. Baker, was fired on after he had passed through the Helmstedt checkpoint barrier on the international highway linking Berlin with the British zone.

Baker and his wife were traveling in a small German convertible. The Russian guard permitted them to pass and proceed 75 yards before he opened up with his rifle at the car.

Baker, attached to the judge advocate general's office at Wiesbaden, said he halted immediately when the bullets ripped into the back of his car.

Finger Was Nicked

"It was the first time in 27 years my wife ever obeyed me without asking questions," Baker said. "I told her to get down on the floor quick, and she did."

Baker's finger was nicked, but he was not sure whether it was from flying glass or a bullet. American authorities said the Russian officer on duty at the checkpoint apologized and reprimanded the guard.

"England and the United States have entered the dangerous route of violating the control mechanism (Allied control authority) which will unavoidably lead to a change in the occupation statute of Berlin," the Soviet army paper said in a page one editorial just before the shooting incident.

No Longer Tolerated

"It can no longer be tolerated that Berlin becomes the object of separatism. There is no space in Berlin for the supporters of Germany's partition."

The editorial was written by M. Sobinov, a Russian army officer.

Observers said the Russian cam-

Elsewhere temperatures were at or near seasonal normals, with Brownsville, Tex., reporting the nation's high yesterday at 80 degrees.

Court Orders Oklahoma U. To Admit Negro Girl As Student

(By The United Press)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12 — The Supreme court today in effect directed the traditionally-white University of Oklahoma to admit as a law student a negro girl who previously was denied admission solely because of her race.

The unanimous ruling came with almost unprecedented speed in the case of Ada Lois Sipuel. The justices heard the last arguments in the case only Thursday.

PLANS TO ENROLL

CHICKASHA, Okla., Jan. 12 (U.P.)—The mother of Ada Lois Sipuel said today that the 23-year-old Chickasha negro woman plans to enroll at the University of Oklahoma during the second semester of the present school year in view of today's Supreme court ruling.

Entitled To Education

"The petitioner is entitled to secure legal education afforded by a state institution," the court said in an unsigned opinion.

"To this time, it has been denied her although during the same period many white applicants have been afforded legal education by the state.

"The state must provide it for her in conformity with the equal protection clause of the 14th amendment and provide it as soon as it does for applicants of any other group."

The opinion noted that the university is "the only institution for legal education supported and maintained by the taxpayers of the state."

Given Severe Grilling

At last week's hearing, the justices subjected Oklahoma's two attorneys, defending the state's segregated university system, to one of the severest grillings ever heard from the Supreme court bench.

Miss Sipuel is a graduate of Langston university, the state's negro university. Fully qualified scholastically, she applied and was denied admission to the university law school two years ago because she is a negro.

Oklahoma law makes it a crime for negroes to attend white schools or white persons to attend negro schools. The state attorneys told the court at the hearing, however, that the state board of regents has the authority to direct her admission to the white university.

Delivered By Vinson

The 200-word decision was delivered by Chief Justice Fred M. Vinson.

Vinson said the case was being remanded to the Oklahoma Supreme court "for proceedings not inconsistent with this opinion."

Miss Sipuel had sued for a court order directing the university au-

Ruling Voids 1,750 Arkansas Divorces

LITTLE ROCK, Jan. 12 (AP) — The Arkansas supreme court today invalidated an estimated 1,750 divorces granted here in the past 11 months by holding unconstitutional a 1947 legislative act creating a second division of Pulaski (Little Rock) chancery court.

The Supreme court declared the creation of the court by the legislature not only was unconstitutional but that the actions of the court and the second division chancellor—Mrs. Ruth Hale—who was placed on the bench by the legislative act did not have the (defacto) standing of accomplished fact.

Chancery officials estimated that at least 1,750 petitions have been granted since the law became effective last Feb. 8. Many of them were filed under the 90-day Arkansas divorce law by persons now living outside the state.

John Wilson To Head Welfare Association

John Wilson was elected president of the Lubbock Social Welfare association at a semi-monthly luncheon meeting today in the Hilton Yaqui room. He will succeed Robert J. Allen.

Others elected were: Earl Kerr, vice president; Mrs. Vernice Ford, secretary; Rabbi Julius Kerman, treasurer.

Several projects for the year were submitted for the consideration of the new officers.

Rev. William F. Blakeslee will be program chairman for the Jan. 26 meeting.

TO MAKE RULING

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12 (AP) — The Supreme court today agreed to decide on the constitutionality of the present rent control law.

He Only Hopes To See Peace Attained

"I Don't Care Whether I Am President Of U.S. Again," HST Quoted As Saying

PAWTUCKET, R. I., Jan. 12. (U.P.)—President Truman "doesn't care" whether he is returned to the White House in the November election, according to U. S. Sen. J. Howard McGrath, (D., R. I.), chairman of the Democratic national committee.

McGrath quoted the President as saying:

"I don't care whether I am President of the United States again."

He said Mr. Truman told him recently that "if only I see in my day the peace that Franklin Roosevelt fought so hard to achieve and the brotherly love he fought to get, I'll be happy.

"It wouldn't make any difference who is President of the United States then."

McGrath quoted the President last night while addressing a testimonial dinner to Mayor Ambrose P. McCoy of Pawtucket.

CREW ABANDONS STRICKEN SHIP

Transport Ablaze In Atlantic Gale

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, Jan. 12 — The Army transport Joseph V. Connolly, which brought the first war dead back from Europe, caught fire early today and was abandoned by its crew of 45 in winds of gale force about 900 miles east of New York.

The ship was en route to Antwerp with about 5,000 empty caskets.

No Deaths Reported

The Coast Guard said the Liberty ship Morrison B. Waite reached the Connolly's last reported position shortly after 7 a. m. (EST) (6 a. m. CST) and was searching for the Connolly's lifeboats. Almost three hours later the Coast Guard said the Waite had not sighted either the lifeboats or any wreckage.

The New York port of embarkation said earlier no injuries or deaths were reported among the Connolly's crew. The weather bureau said, however, that winds of up to 40 miles an hour were reported in the area and that the area had been hit by showers.

The first call for help from the Connolly was intercepted here at about 4:30 a. m. (EST). (3:30 am CST). The message said the 442-foot, 7,176 ton ship was adrift and out of control as a result of a fire which started in the engine room.

Fire Spreading

The last report from the Connolly said the fire was spreading, but the full extent of damage was not known because the ship's radio went out of commission before it was abandoned, the Coast Guard said.

In addition to the Waite, the Coast Guard said the Army transport General Callan, carrying dependents of service men, the freighter Josephine Lykes and the Coast Guard cutter Tamaron, were en route to the area of the fire.

Airplanes Dispatched

The U. S. S. Lioba and U. S. S. Mercury also were ordered to proceed to assist and Kindley field, Bermuda, was reported sending two B-17 Flying Fortresses and a B-29 Superfortress to the area.

The Connolly, which was built in 1945, brought 6,248 war dead from Europe and Newfoundland to New York last Oct. 26. It sailed from New York for Antwerp Jan. 8.

George Carter Hurt In Auto Accident

One person suffered minor injuries in a collision about 9:55 a. m. today four miles north of Abernathy on U. S. highway 87.

A 1947 car driven by Earl Taylor Horton, 32, of Fort Worth, salesman for the Gates Rubber Co., skidded after the driver applied brakes behind a truck going, the same direction and the Horton car was in collision with a car being driven southward by Oliver Wendel Shadden, 27, of Hale Center, Star route, a farmer, the highway patrol reported. George Carter of 2804 Twenty-eighth in Lubbock, salesman for Becknell Wilkins Hardware Co., was an occupant of the Horton car and was flung from the car when the vehicle turned around after the collision. Carter was taken to his residence in a Rix ambulance.

Clyde Monroe Patterson, E. E. Mulkey Die

Walter Emery, 18, Slightly Hurt In Accident Today

Clyde Monroe Patterson, 23, was killed almost instantly in the crash of a truck and a pick-up truck seven and one-half miles north of Lubbock on the Plainview highway this morning about 10 o'clock.

Walter Emery, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Emery, 5½ miles east of Monroe, was driver of the truck, which was in collision with Patterson's pickup. Emery was thrown clear of the truck, which rolled over him, but he escaped with only minor injuries to an arm and leg.

Returning From Lubbock

Patterson, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Patterson, who reside 2½ miles north of Abernathy, was returning from Lubbock when the crash occurred. Young Emery was traveling south.

Heavy traffic on the highway was delayed until wreckage of the pick-up could be removed. The heavier truck stopped in the bar ditch after overturning.

Had Delivered Milk

The body of Patterson was taken to Sanders Funeral home, where arrangements were to be made this afternoon.

Patterson was a war veteran.

He had been in Lubbock to deliver milk and had stopped and obtained parts for a combine before leaving for home.

Livermore, Inc., died about 9:15 o'clock Sunday morning in Phillips-Dupre hospital in Levelland of injuries suffered when he was crushed between two trucks in an oil field accident five miles northwest of Levelland.

The accident, which occurred about 6:30 o'clock Saturday night, was described as follows: One truck was loaded with a cable tool rig and two other trucks were backing up to unload the first truck. Mulkey was standing behind the loaded truck directing drivers to positions. One of the backing trucks came to a halt in position and Mulkey was motion-

Spur Reports 4 Burglaries

SPUR, Jan. 12 (Special)—Burglars broke and entered four Spur places Saturday night—two of them through skylights—but took only a small amount of loot, Sheriff Charlie Kemmel said.

Two or three other burglaries were attempted unsuccessfully.

A small amount of money was taken from a cash register of Red Front drug, probaby nothing more.

Tools Are Taken

Tools and a small box containing attendance cards were taken from Spur Baptist church.

An attempt was made to knock the knob of Campbell Furniture company, and screws were removed from safe hinges—but the safe was not entered.

A gun was taken from a car in a private garage. It and the tools were found on top of the Campbell building, the sheriff said.

Investigation Made

Sheriff Kemmel, members of his department and Texas Ranger W. E. Renfrow of the Lubbock district ranger office investigated the burglaries.

The drug store and the Campbell Furniture company are in the same block and burglars were believed to have crossed roofs to go from one place to the other.

They took ropes and let themselves down through skylights of those buildings, Sheriff Kemmel said.

Red Cross Opens Nationwide Program To Give Life-Saving Blood Free Of Charge

(By The Associated Press)

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Jan. 12—The American Red Cross today launched a huge nationwide program to supply life-saving blood and many amazing blood products free to all sick and injured citizens.

The program is a direct outgrowth of the wartime mobilization of blood which sent millions of pints of blood and plasma overseas, saving untold lives among war casualties.

It gets underway formally with dedication this afternoon of the first unit here of a network of regional and local blood centers to be operated by the Red Cross in cooperation with physicians and hospitals.

Plans call for eventual establishment of some 140 metropolitan centers, with 250 more secondary centers in small communities, and several hundred mobile units.

It will be three to five years before all communities can be reached, however, said Basil O'Connor, National Red Cross president.

Physicians estimate that donations of 3,700,000 pints of blood, which cannot be made synthetical-

Full Approval Expected For Tax Cut Plan

Quick Action On Bill Is Forecast By Rep. Knutson

(By The United Press)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12 — A House Republican steering committee meeting, which was scheduled to consider the $5,600,000,000 Knutson income tax reduction bill today, was postponed indefinitely because of the illness of Speaker Joseph W. Martin, jr.

Martin is recovering from a mild attack of grippe.

Rep. Harold Knutson, (R., Minn.) predicted that the steering committee would give "full approval" to his bill.

First To Be Considered

Knutson's tax bill is the first major legislation expected to be considered by the House. It would cut individual income taxes from 10 to 30 per cent, extend from the present 12 to all states the privilege of splitting family income between husband and wife for tax purposes, and increase personal tax exemptions from the present $500 to $600.

Knutson, chairman of the tax-originating ways and means committee, was emphatic in his belief that the steering committee would recommend no changes in the principles of his tax bill.

"I expect the steering committee to give full approval to the bill in its present form and to give it a clear track for consideration by the House the last week in January," he told a reporter.

To Ignore Truman Plan

The steering committee is expected to ignore President Truman's plan for tax relief. Mr. Truman proposed that each income taxpayer and each dependent be given a tax credit of $40. The loss of revenue would be made up under Mr. Truman's plan by an increase in corporation taxes.

Martin, in a weekend speech, described the presidential proposal as "political buncombe." He said it "must have been devised to appease the left wingers rather than to benefit the nation."

Snyder To Testify

The ways and means committee is scheduled to meet Friday to hear Secretary of Treasury John W. Snyder's views about the Knutson bill. Present plans are for the committee to approve the bill next week and for it to be taken up on the House floor the week of Jan. 26.

Other matters scheduled to be considered at the steering committee meeting include the Marshall

Boys Held In Theft Of Car

Two 15-year-old boys will be questioned further in connection with their alleged admission that they had stolen an automobile in which they were arrested over the weekend.

Juvenile officials said a third 15-year-old boy was held for investigation of forgery. He lives in Hale county.

Two Are Transferred

Two other juvenile boys were transferred from Lubbock to state institutions. One, 11, will be lodged in a reform school at Gatesville until he can be admitted to a mental institution. The other, 16, will be admitted to an insane institution at Wichita Falls, officials said. The 11-year-old boy admitted taking approximately a half-million dollars worth of non-negotiable checks from the mails here. The boys were transferred by Deps. Sheriff Tom Cannon and Leonard Lott.

County and city officers who arrested the boys in the car said the automobile was registered to C. W. Cole of 2308 Fourteenth, Apartment A. The 1941 light car was recovered in 2300-block Texas Ave.

Hijacking Reported

John Stevens, a negro of 2603 East Ave. B, informed the sheriff's department that another negro came up behind him when he was waiting early Sunday on East Twenty-fifth for a bus, pushed a gun against his back and took $15.75 from him.

Stevens said the gunman fired the weapon once into the air and that he, Stevens, ran. Stevens did not have much description of the bandit, but said he would recognize him upon sight.

Two other robberies were reported.

Bob Braselton told investigators four youths about 18 years old stopped him at Nineteenth and Ave. V about 4:20 a. m. Sunday

History-Making Treasury Surplus Is Seen Provided Taxes Are Not Pared

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12—President Truman sent Congress today a record $39,668,993,000 peacetime budget providing billions for defense and for meeting the "unprecedented challenge" of totalitarianism abroad.

He forecast history-making Treasury surpluses, provided Congress does not cut taxes and lower the government's revenue. His figures:

For the year ending June 30, the government's income will exceed spending by $7,482,610,000 — more than the United States spent in any single year during its first 146 years.

For the next 12 months of the 1949 fiscal year, $4,807,868,000, to make a two-year total of $12,290,479,000.

Mr. Truman told the hostile Republican Congress that 79 per cent of his spending estimates for 1949 "directly reflect costs of war, the effects of war, and our efforts to prevent a future war. He stressed these points:

Budget Must Remain High

1. The plain fact is that our budget must remain high until we have met our international responsibilities and can see the way clear to a peaceful and prosperous world."

2. "The costs of added military strength, if Europe should succumb to totalitarian rule, would far exceed the costs of the program of (European) economic aid now before the Congress."

Even before the President's bulky budget message of more than 20,000 words was read by clerks in the Senate and House, it faced announced Republican efforts to (a) cut taxes, possibly by $5,600,000,000 annually, adn (b) slash spending, including the $6,800,000,000 asked for the first 15 months of the European recovery program sponsored by Secretary of State Marshall.

Rigid Standards Of Operating Economy

Mr. Truman declared that his 1949 budget was written by "rigid standards of operating economy" even though it exceeds by $2,000,000,000 his original request for funds for the current 1948 year.

By next June 30, the President said the public debt will be down to $250,900,000,000 compared with a wartime peak of $279,000,000,000. With government income continuing at its current rate, Mr. Truman said the debt would drop to $246,20,000,000 on June 30 1949.

But, the President said, "prudence demands" that the United States plan its finances "in full recognition" of its international responsibilities.

After allowing for veterans benefits, interests on the public debt and tax returns, Mr. Truman said, only 21 percent of the outlay would remain for social welfare and ordinary expenses.

The chief executive said income for the 1948 fiscal year, now half over, sould reach $45,210,000,000, the highest for any year except the $46,467,000,000 received in wartime 1945.

Estimate Of Next Year's Receipts

He estimated next year's receipts at $44,477,000,000.

The new budget is based on the assumption that Congress will accept a variety of projects outlined in Mr. Truman's state of the union message.

It includes a new program of financial aid for state school systems, health insurance, extension of social security to such groups as farmers, domestics and the self-employed, long range housing aid, and expanded flood control.

He ticked off his main spending proposals for next year as follows:

National defense—$11,000,000,000 to maintain the air force, army

Americans Live In Style In Germany

(NOTE TO READERS: This is No. 14 in a series of articles on present-day conditions in Europe and the problems of the American Occupation in Germany. The Avalanche-Journal's Editor recently, returned from a five-week inspection tour, covering the British and American occupations in Germany, in the Free State of Trieste, and our directional work in liberated Austria. On the tour Mr. Guy was one of 14 U. S. editors sent overseas by the Department of the Army).

BY CHAS. A. GUY, EDITOR
The Lubbock Avalanche-Journal

ON MY last day in Germany I drove from Frankfurt to Weisbaden to spend the afternoon and night with a couple well known in Lubbock: Col. and Mrs. Howell M. Estes, jr.

Colonel Estes, one-time commanding officer at Lubbock Army Air Field, now is chief of the Planning section of the Army Air Forces in Germany, headquartered at Weisbaden, the GHQ of the AAF. With Mrs. Estes and their three fine boys, he lives in a house which looks like a Carnegie library and is about as large.

After Howell and Nan had shown me around their residence, commandeered by the Army, from its German owner, I remarked:

"Never did so many get so much for so little," then added, in all honesty, "or deserved it more."

While in the U. S. zone in Germany I was a guest in ten or more homes in which reside our military and civilian people officially connected with the occupation. These included quarters of generals, colonels, a Navy captain and a lieutenant commander, a major a first lieutenant and a State department vice-consul.

Every one of the homes were "scrumptuous," although the higher the rank the "scrumtuouser!"

Trieste Headquarters In Palace

There is not a home in all Texas—perhaps even in the whole United States—which can touch the quarters of Maj. Gen. Bryant Moore, commanding TRUST, which means "Troops of the United States in Trieste."

General Moore and his family live in a relatively few rooms of the world famous Miramare Palace, high on a hill overlooking Trieste and the blue Adriatic—a dream castle built by Maximilian before that unfortunate man left Europe to be emperor of Mexico and to die before a firing squad.

This palace, with 50 rooms or more, not only takes care of General Moore's housing problem and has luxurious space for visiting celebrities. It also serves as our GHQ in Trieste and houses the bachelor officers on General Moore's staff.

Loaded with beautiful paintings, the finest furniture and chandeliers imaginable; replete with beautiful tapestries and everything else under the sun, Miramare could not be duplicated today under any circumstances.

We might come within whooping distance of it at an expenditure in excess of a million dollars, but we couldn't equal it.

MIRAMARE, of course, is abnormal as to size, beauty, setting and everything else. There is no other military installation like it in all Europe—even the British headquarters in the astounding old Krupp family villa, at Essen.

But the residences in which our people live in the various German cities are very nice, indeed, and some of them will top anything we have in Lubbock, including such homes as those of Dr. J. T. Krueger, W. G. McMillan, Arch Underwood and O. W. McLeod.

Better even than the two homes I visited which are occupied by two-star generals was the residence of a Texan who is the Navy's representative on the high command at Frankfurt. Capt. Noble Abrahams, of Houston, is certainly "fixed up" for himself, his China-born wife of American missionary parents, and their two small daughters.

Located in the Koenigstein section of Frankfurt, the Abrahams home was built in 1936 by a director of the I. G. Farben organization and presented to the latter's daughter as a wedding gift.

To reproduce the 18-room house and grounds, including formal gardens, three-car garage with an apartment on top, would cost, in the U. S. today, no less than $400,000.

All Ranks Live Nicely

Former Texas Tech end, 1st. Lt. Jack Wheelis, now in Nurnberg, and Mrs. Wheelis, live with their small son in a lovely eight-room house in a good residential section.

Tastefully furnished, it would cost to construct in Lubbock today something like $20,000, maybe more.

In similar quarters in Munich live Mr. and Mrs. Bill Jones. Bill is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Jones, 1814 Avenue J, and is

160,000 Collectors Join Italy Walkout

ROME, Jan. 12 (U.P.) — Italy's 160,000 state tax collectors walked out on strike today, bringing to 312,000 the number of workers idle in bank, farm and dock disputes.

The tax collectors struck in sympathy with 60,000 bank workers whose 13-day walkout has paralyzed business throughout the country.

A final conference to keep the tax collectors at work failed early today and Labor Minister Aminore Fandani referred the dispute to Premier Alcide De Gasperi.

Representatives of the union and banks agreed last night on wage demands but a final settlement broke down on the issue of split shifts.

Most Italian workers have not been paid for two weeks because of the bank strike.

Broke Canine To Go On Restricted Diet

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 12. (AP)—Teddy, a 13-year-old dog, is broke, thanks to the high cost of living.

Teddy, during the first eight years of his life, had all bills paid by the late Mrs. Emma R. Moss, who provided at $1,000 be set aside after her death for Teddy's welfare and comfort. The animal was left in the custody of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver E. Goldsmith.

The Goldsmiths disclosed yesterday that the high cost of liver—one of Teddy's favorite foods—and other items has eaten up the fund.

The Goldsmiths said that Teddy has become almost one of the family and that he will continue to bathe in the family tub with bluing rinse and a perfume spray, followed by the usual nap on a rubber mat atop one of the Goldsmith's beds. But he will sometimes have to forego that diet of chicken liver, raw eggs mixed with milk and peanut butter.

Traffic Fines In Cleburne Boosted

CLEBURNE, Jan. 12. (U.P.)—Inflation has hit municipal court in Cleburne.

Mayor James Degarmo announced today that fines for traffic violators and drunks would be boosted effective Jan. 19. The increases will be more than 50 per cent in some cases.

Reckless driving will cost motorists $15 instead of $10; disturbing the peace $10 instead of $5 and drunkeness $10 instead of 5.

BY DREW PEARSON: Italy's Reddest City Greets The Friendship Train

Many Communists Are Just "Theoretical Reds"

GORIZIA—(By Wireless)—Diary of an American newspaperman in Italy: Florence—Minister of Transport Corbellini says that since Americans helped get a bell for Adano he is getting a bell for Philadelphia. The Liberty Bell, he heard, is cracked. The bell for Philadelphia is now on this train. It's directed to Philadelphia Rotary club, since Corbellini is president of Florence Rotary and it sure is heavy. Our baggage is getting more unweildly day by day.

PEARSON

Florence reception so large railroad uncoupled flatcar from which we speak, so people could get around it. Was worried sick for fear people would be crushed. There were no police. Italians don't think much of police since Mussolini's day but crowd finally formed its own cordon.

There was a big advance debate over whether Mayor Mateo Falsini, who's a Communist, would come to train. He did and made nice speech paying tribute to friendship with American people. Seemed like a nice guy. They tell me a lot of these Italian Communists are only theoretical Communists.

One old fellow jumped up on flatcar, tears streaming down his cheeks, and gave me large kiss. Felt a little foolish. Wished all the others who did so much for Friendship Train back home could be here to see gratitude of these people.

Minister of Transport Corbellini insisted on driving locomotive when train left Florence. He used to be locomotive engineer. However, he got so many Italian newspapermen up in the cab with him I thought he would never get the train started.

Red Mayor Sulks

Bologna—This is the reddest city in Italy; about 90 per cent Communist. Mayor Duzzo didn't come to train, giving as his excuse that last September I quoted an army report to the effect that he was among top Communist leaders who planned revolution in Italy. One thing I didn't write about him but which was in the army's report was that he also was sheltering two Slav agents in his house.

Despite Duzzo's absence, crowd at Bologna railroad station was most enthusiastic. In fact, we had to stop Italians from jumping up on flatcar to make speeches. One priest who did get on the car and harangued the crowd said, "Columbus discovered America and now look what an investment it has returned us!"

John Secondari of Columbia Broadcasting does a terrific job as Friendship Train master of ceremonies. Nicola Giulii also gets across big. He is the Italian-American who rode with us from Los Angeles and now he's paid his own expenses to come all the way to Italy to tell Italian people details of how food was collected.

Milan—Crowd not so big here. Perhaps it was too early in the morning or perhaps because this is another strong Communist center. Milan is the Pittsburgh of Italy, with considerable unemployed.

Later, however, there was big crowd in square outside city hall where we attended reception by Mayor Antonio Greppi a left-wing Socialist. Greppi made a beautiful speech, despite the fact several Communist members of his city council were keeping close eye on him.

Padua—we are now in the country Shakespeare made famous—scene of "The Merchant of Venice" and "Two Gentlemen of Verona." Old walls, narrow arches, streams running down the main streets. Biggest and most enthusiastic crowd so far met us at Padua. Flags flew everywhere. People packed in the square outside station.

THE Milan papers which caught up with us in Padua indicate we got a better reception there than we thought. Many pictures of the parade of trucks carrying Friendship food going through main streets, also several fine editorials.

Dr. Roy Welker, Congregationalist minister who heads up our Friendship Train committee for distribution of the food, is sick. He has to go back to Rome. Monsignor Andrew Landi of Brooklyn is taking his place.

Udine—We are now up a few kilometers from Yugoslav border in country that has been fought over for centuries by Austrians, Slavs and even back to days of Romans. Train has just passed the Piave river, where rusted cars from World war I are still lying in river bed. It was in Battle of the Piave that Italian and American troops fought side by side against the Austrians.

Three bands were at Udine railroad station and tremendous crowd. A little boys' band had been practicing three weeks for train's arrival. The cymbalist was so small and played so long that toward the end he could hardly hold up the cymbals. Girls in costume sang for us on the station platform and later the mayor insisted we come to the city hall, where huge crowd was gathered in square outside. There were more speeches, more music and more singing.

Hospital here was bombed by Americans but everyone hastens to explain that of course it was an accident.

When we left trucks were backed up alongside five boxcars we dropped off at Udine, already unloading food for the hospital and orphanages. Five European cars is small, considering the unemployment caused by moving Yugoslav border but the people seemed grateful not so much for the food but merely that we had come to Udine.

Gorizia — Word of Friendship Train now has gone far ahead of us. Every little station today has been crowded with people waving flags. Four times in the hour's run between Udine and Gorizia we had to make unscheduled stops at small stations. We had no food for them but they didn't seem interested in that—merely in the fact that Americans had taken the trouble to come all this way to see them.

At Gorizia the station was so jammed we couldn't move. Outside were another 10,000 people. They had been waiting a long time but were most orderly. The station was so packed we moved out into the square, pulled a table out of the station and used it as speakers' platform. The mayor of Trieste had come over to welcome us as well as the Cardinal of Gorizia. They all spoke, including the mayor of Gorizia. Fortunately, the table was strong.

All week I have been speaking in English, which was then translated. All week I had also been trying to get up my nerve to speak in Italian. At Gorizia I got up my nerve. Judging by the results I should have done it sooner.

It was my last speech in Italy. Regretfully, I am now heading for Paris, Washington and back to work.

Safety Official To Address Legion Post

American Legion officials were anticipating a large crowd at the post's meeting tonight when Bob N. Massengale, member of the Texas Ranger service and chief clerk of the Texas Department of Public Safety, is scheduled to make an address on Communism.

The meeting, which starts at 8 o'clock, is open to the public, and Legion officials urged wide attendance. A business session of the Legion, starting at 7 o'clock, is to precede the open session.

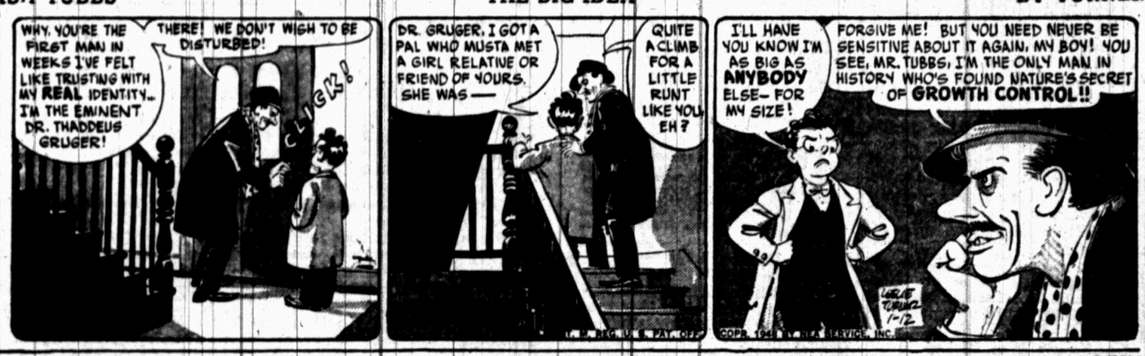

Massengale, from Austin, chief clerk of the department of public safety since 1936 except for time spent with the foreign intelligence service (G2) of the army during the war, is to speak on "Communism in Relation to War," and "Communist Front Organizations," according to H. J. McCabe, Legion commander.

At least eight persons met violent deaths in Texas over the weekend, two in traffic accidents, two by fire, one in an airplane crash, one by drowning, one in an explosion and one from unknown causes.

A man and a woman, as yet unidentified, died when flames swept a three-room house Sunday on the outskirts of Kilgore.

Joseph D. Partin of St. Augustine drowned at Galveston Sunday.

Homero Guerrero, 19, Falfurrias, was killed and three others injured Sunday when the automobile in which they were riding left the road and crashed into a fencepost near Falfurrias.

Hit And Run Victim

The body of Mrs. Roberta Flisrand, 33, of Houston, was found on the shoulder of a highway on the outskirts of Houston Sunday and deputy sheriffs said she apparently was the victim of a hit and run driver.

William J. Nelson, 43, was found dead in his rooming house Sunday night at Galveston. Justice of the Peace James L. McKenna ordered an inquest.

and robbed him of $3. He could give no further description of them, but did describe the type of car he said they were driving.

Hit With Bottle

Santos Talamo of Brownfield, told police several Mexicans approached him, gave him a drink of whisky, then took his billfold containing $25 and papers. They then hit him on the head with a bottle, he charged.

A 1937 gray Ford coupe, license BB 9157, was reported stolen from M. Branch of 616 Ave. D.

N. A. Shuffield of 2423 Fourteenth said 20 boxes of cigars valued at $48 were stolen from his parked automobile. Two blue fender skirts were reported stolen from the car of Mrs. R. L. Jones of Barstow, Calif., parked in a Lubbock residential addition.

To Face Trial

The sheriff's department said Lil Crawford, 33, Lubbock man charged here by indictment with car theft, was surrendered on a bench warrant to Nolan county officials Sunday for trial in Sweetwater of an indictment charging a similar offense.

The sheriff's department arrested Raymond Bowers Rowland, 26, a Lubbock negro, for the McKinney sheriff's office. Dep. Sheriff Ed Blakeman of McKinney said by telephone the negro was wanted there on two grand jury indictments charging theft.

thorities to admit her. Presumably this order must now be issued.

Under earlier Supreme court decisions, the state cannot satisfy constitutional requirements by granting Miss Sipuel an out-of-state scholarship for legal training. It can do so by providing equal, but separate, facilities. But the court held today that Oklahoma must provide legal training for Miss Sipuel as soon as it does for other applicants thus it apparently must admit her to the university.

Attorneys for Oklahoma conceded at last week's hearing that it would take "a minimum of two months" to open a negro law school at Langston.

Justice Robert H. Jackson observed that even then "that wouldn't be much of a law school, would it?"

Four special departmental assistants were assigned to work with U. S. Attorney Drake Watson of the eastern Missouri district in the investigation. They are Acting Assistant Attorney General John Ford Baecher of the anti-trust division, George B. Haddock, Walter B. Murphy and John R. Niesley.

Daily Markets

Stock Market

STOCKS ARE UNSETTLED

NEW YORK, Jan. 12 (UP) — Stocks were unsettled this afternoon although aircraft issues held part of their gains on expectation that recommended air force expenditures will be carried out.

Wall Street looked on President Truman's budget recommendations as inflationary but in most quarters it was conceded Congress would "tear it apart", as one commentator put it.

Aircrafts shares at their best levels had gains ranging to more than 3 points in Douglas but subsequent profit-taking scaled advances. Douglas late in the day was up a point net, while Beech, Lockheed, Boeing, Glenn Martin and Grumman were only fractionally higher.

Oils were lower as the close approached although Standard Oil of Ohio held a gain of more than a point. Amerada Corp., Gulf, Pacific Western and Skelley were down 1 to more than 2 points.

In steels losses ranged to 4¼ in Wheeling, Youngstown and U. S. Steel were down more than a point each. Motors were fractionally lower. Santa Fe, Southern Railway and Nickel Plate preferred lost more than a point each. Follansbee Steel was 1⅝ at its high but lost a major part of the gain on profit-taking. American Can, American Car & Foundry and J. I. Case all were down a point.

Cotton Market

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, Jan. 12 (AP) — Cotton futures turned irregular in slow dealings today. Mill buying and short covering accounted for early gains, but the market subsequently eased on scattered profit taking and hedging.

The President's budget message recommending a lower farm price support attracted attention but most traders felt that a lower government loan rate would be offset by a possible inclusion on farm labor a cost of parity which would boost the parity figure.

Store Executive Is Men's Club Speaker

Drawing a parellel between modern times and the barbarism and brutalities of various past ages, B. Watkins, department store executive and incoming president of the American Business club, told the Methodist Men's club luncheon today that "viewers with alarm" have been present in every age in history, always with about the same results they obtain today.

Each generation, he said, has always charged the succeeding generation with falling into disrepute and "going to the dogs," but he believes that evaluation of conditions from a proper distance brings hope to the world today, and that "we must have a long time faith in the worthiness of that for which we work, allying ourselves always on the side of decency and tight."

Watkins was introduced by Ruel Martin, program chairman. Clarence Whiteside presided, and called for a vote on whether the club should meet next week due to presence in the city of Harold E. Stassen, presidential candidate, who is to speak at a joint meeting of Jaycees and the Lions club. The club voted to hold the regular meeting. Invocation was by W. G. McMillan.

Dean Cromwell Olympic Coach

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 12 (AP) — In his 39th and final year as a developer of great athletes, Southern California's Dean Cromwell has been appointed head coach of the 1948 U. S. Olympic track and field team.

"The culmination of a coach's dream" — meaning his own — was the way the smiling, spare 68-year-old Trojan coach put it.

This, Cromwell disclosed, is his last season as an active mentor. University of Southern California rules demand automatic retirement at age 67, but he was given a one-year extension with the hope that he would snag the Olympic appointment.

Assistants Revealed

Cromwell's assistant coaches include representatives from every section in the country. Those named were Emil Von Elling of New York university, Tom Jones of Wisconsin, and Emmett Brunson of Rice institute.

The committee, meeting in New York yesterday, also selected Ward H. Haylett of Kansas State as Olympic decathlon coach and named Alfred R. Masters, Stanford, as head manager of the U. S. track and field squad.

The committee also selected Fred Travalena, New York Metropolitan AAU official, as decathlon and walking squad manager, and named Edward S. Parsons, Northeastern university and Lloyd Olds, Michigan normal, as assitants to Masters.

and navy at "current strength" and to give a $400,000,000,000 start to a proposed $2,000,000,00 a year universal military training. This is 28 per cent of the total and $297,00,000 above this year.

For International Affairs

International affairs — $7,000,000,000, including $4,000,000,000 for the Marshall plan. This is 18 per cent of the total, up $1,500,00,000.

Veterans programs—$6,100,000,000, 15 percent of the total down $530,000,000.

Interest on the public debt—$5,250,000,000, 13.2 per cent of the total, up $50,000,000.

Social welfare, health and security—$2,000,000,000, 5 per cent of the total, up $70,000,000. This would include increased aid to dependent children and the blind and initial administrative costs of the proposed health insurance program. The medical-care benefits would be self-financing.

Tax refunds—$1,990,000,000, five per cent of the total, down $59,000,000.

Millions For Resources

Natural resources—$1,600,000,000, 4.1 per cent of the total, up $447,000,000. Atomic energy development would get $660,000,000, a $204,000,000 boost; flood control $449,000,000, a $135,000,000 increase, and reclamation $268,000,000 up 85,000,000.

Transportation and communication — $1,600,000,000, or 4.1 per cent of the total, up $83,000,000. Biggest items: $478,000,000 for highways, a $72,000,000 increase; $321,000,000 to cover a deficit in postal operations; $211,000,000 for airports, air navigation aids and research, $37,000,000 increase; $222,000,000 to the maritime commission for ship construction, a $126,000,000 decrease; $171,000,000 for rivers and harbors, $40,000,000 increase.

General government — $1,200,000,000, 2.9 per cent of the total, down $316,000,000 largely because surplus war properties selling is nearing completion.

Agriculture — $906,600,000, 2.3 per cent of the total, up $300,000,000.

Research Fund Up

Education and research—$387,000,000, or one per cent of the total, up $310,000,000. This includes $290,000,000 for a new program of federal grants to states and $5,000,000 for a proposed new "national science foundation."

Finance, commerce and industry —$190,000,000 or 0.5 per cent of the total, down $182,000,000. The total was artificially high this year because $210,000,000 in profits from war damage insurance was turned over to the treasury as an "expenditure." The 54-hole tournament was played over three different courses here on successive days. Mangrum chalked up ten under par for the three rounds, and a total of 205. He shot the par 72 Cypress Point course in 70; the par 71 Monterey peninsula layout in 67 and the famed par 72 Pebble Beach test in 68.

The rest of the field didn't even come close, four strokes separating fourth place Locke and the next in line. Jimmy Demaret of Ojai, Calif., top money getter in 1947, trailed with a weak 217, a $225 effort. U. S. Open Champion Lew Worsham of Oakmont, Pa., failed to turn in a final card.

Americans In Germany Living In Style

U. S. vice-consul in that one-time Nazi stronghold.

The Estes residence in Frankfurt, a beautiful, two-story affair, would be worth at least $200,000 on the local real estate market. It was chosen by the colonel because it is more like an American residence than most German homes.

Two-star Air Forces Gen. Bob Walsh, in Berlin, has a similar layout, with formal drawingroom, grand hall and spacious grounds.

IN STUTTGART, Dr. Charles C. Winning, our top civilian official, has a magnificent estate bordering our Military government headquarters. Once inhabited by one of the minor Hapsburgs, it is almost a palace, with the spacious grounds and interior trappings called for in such an establishment.

To give you an idea of its size, Doctor and Mrs. Winning had a luncheon for our group with about 40 persons present. They had room and sufficient help to have had 60 guests had they so desired.

I could go on for columns telling of the super-duper living arrangements of our people in Occupied Germany, liberated Austria and in Trieste. It is sufficient to say, however, that in 99 per cent of the cases—if not a flat 100 per cent—they are living much better overseas than they would be at home.

Our People Pay For What They Get

There are those, of course, who will decry the fact that our people are living so well. Some prompted by envy, the others by a queer, martyr complex, will scream against what they like to call "ostentation."

For my part, I do not feel that way at all.

In the first place, any American forced to live overseas in nasty weather, and constantly depressed by the rubble of bombed-out cities, should have everything good he and his can get.

In the second place, our people are paying for their quarters. The fact that a colonel's $120 per month computation of quarters can get him a mansion and at the same time give a needed income to the German owner of the property looks all to the good to me.

Frankly, I think Americans are chumps to pay for the use of essential properties in Germany, Austria, or Trieste. I think we should take them and use them and charge the cost to the future governments of those places so that the guilty war-mongers, themselves, would have to pay the freight.

A GREAT deal of misinformation has been scattered around the U. S. about the number of servants our military and civilian representatives have in Europe—and about who pays for them:

Here are the facts:

It is true that Americans overseas today have more servants than they have ever had before or likely ever will have again.

It is true that in the more expensive, commandeered homes the Army pays two maintenance people, who are Germans, to keep the places in good conditions so rightful owners may have no complaint when their property eventually is returned to them. These maintenance employes, one a man, the other a woman, also do gardening and maid work, respectively. A gardener is a necessity in Germany, because people must raise their own vegetables—or go without.

It is true that the larger establishments have three or more servants in addition to the maintenance employes, but they are paid for by the householder and not by the taxpayer. In Europe, larger staffs of servants are needed, because each is a specialist. A cook does nothing but cook; a housekeeper keeps house and a laundress does laundry.

With expert domestic help available for a few marks per month, plus food and quarters, our people naturally are employing such help. And the Germans in American service are more than satisfied. Any German would give his or her right arm to work for the Americans, because that means both extra food and comfort.

(TOMORROW: The British are in Germany, too. In tomorrow's article, Mr. Guy will describe the ruins of the Krupp plant in Essen, where the old "Big Bertha," of World War I fame, sits dejectedly in the midst of broken concrete and twisted steel.)

Four Quintets Are Standouts

By WILBUR MARTIN
Associated Press Staff Writer

A sizzling Southwest conference basketball race was brewing today and the four cooks mixing the ingredients are Texas, Arkansas, Baylor and Southern Methodist university.

Six games this week will more or less determine the chief chef.

Texas Vs. T.C.U.

Top series of the week pits the Southern Methodist Mustangs Arkansas' towering Razorbacks Friday and Saturday at Fayetteville, Ark.

Defending champion Texas plays Texas Christian and Texas A. and M., both cellar quints.

Baylor meets A. and M. and Rice.

The Razorbacks started a comeback in the conference chase with a twin win over Texas A. and M. last week, 58-51, 57-46.

Texas opened defense of its crown by thumping Rice, 59-44, while Southern Methodist split a pair of games, winning 62-58 over Texas Christian and losing to Baylor, 43-42, in the final second of play.

Rice also dropped an intersectional tilt, to Louisiana State, 43-40.

Opening week results made it clear any one of these four teams were capable of winning the championship. Arkansas home court meeting with both Southern Methodist and Texas is about the only advantage held by either of the quartet.

Kok Leads Scoring

Big George Kok and teammate Al Williams give the Razorbacks a one-two punch in individual scoring. Kok has 247 points in season play, while Williams has 168.

Most exciting game in the conference to date was Baylor's one-point win over the Mustangs at Dallas. Most of the game's action was concentrated into the last five minutes of play, with a field goal by James Owens turning the trick for Baylor. The lead in this hectic game changed hands 16 times.
