Fire Caused by Oil Cook Stove Destroys Eddie Schmitt Home

Fire, causing a loss of more than $7,000, completely destroyed the farm home and the wash house of Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Schmitt, two miles east of Muenster, at about 12:30 p.m. last Thursday.

Mrs. Schmitt, who was cooking the noon meal and canning tomatoes on a kerosene stove, had all four burners and the oven in use. She stepped into the dining room for a brief time and upon her return to the kitchen found the stove enveloped in flames. Her efforts to smother the blaze were unsuccessful. Mr. Schmitt was some distance from home in the field and when he arrived at the scene the blaze was so far advanced he could offer little assistance in saving household furnishings. In about thirty minutes the place was reduced to smoldering embers.

Helpful neighbors assisted in saving furniture from one bedroom and most of the family's wearing apparel and helped Phillips and Eddie Joe, children of the Schmitts, to escape to safety.

Only fire fighting equipment available were two water trucks belonging to David Trachta and the use of water from them is credited with saving several small buildings on the place. A number of window frames were forcibly removed from the house by fire fighters and were undamaged.

Loss of the property and furniture is partially covered by insurance.

The property belonged to Ed Schmitt and the house was the one built to replace the Ed Schmitt home that burned on the same site 19 years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Schmitt and children are temporarily at home in the home of his parents who are spending the summer at the farm of another son, Leo Schmitt while he and his family are in Washington state. No definite plans for rebuilding have been made.

News Of Sick And Injured

Mr. and Mrs. John Knabe left Friday to spend about two weeks in Glen Rose for their health.

Miss Eleanor Hoenig, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hoenig, had her tonsils removed at the local clinic Monday morning.

Miss Florence Fette, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Fette, underwent a nose operation at M & S hospital in Gainesville Tuesday morning.

Since the middle of last week R.R. Endres is at Glen Rose for his health.

Gus Stelzer spent several days of last week in Marlin for a check-up and general examination.

Gus Knabe, who has almost lost the sight of both eyes due to cataracts, was in Sherman Monday for an eye examination by specialists.

They advised him to wait until September before undergoing an operation. He was accompanied to Sherman by his children Robert Knabe and Mmes. Henry Sicking and Buddy Fette.

Herbert McDaniel returned Sunday from a three-week stay in Glen Rose and is greatly improved in health. He is back at his usual duties in his garage. His wife, accompanied by Mrs. Herman Luttmer and little Anna Grace Herr, drove to Glen Rose for him and enroute home the group stopped at Fort Worth for a visit at the Botanical Gardens and Forest Park.

Burning Trash Blown From Incinerator Starts Grass Fire At Lawrence Moser's

A grass fire ignited by a back yard incinerator at Lawrence Moser's home was brought under control in short order by the fire department about 1 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. A few hundred square feet of tall grass was burned off but no other damage was done.

In explaining the cause of the blaze, Fire Chief Jimmy Lehnertz asked for special care in burning trash, especially in the vicinity of tall dry grass. He cautioned against burning in the wind and recommended extra care in holding down all the trash.

Loose, burning paper blown out of the incinerator started Moser's fire.

Mr. and Mrs. Urban Endres are on a vacation trip to Old Mexico.

Driver of the car in the ditch failed to yield the right-of-way, even to an ambulance. He ran through a plainly visible stop sign, directly into the path of the ambulance, and was knocked across the road. Driver was killed, and a passenger was injured. Emergency vehicles always have the right-of-way—but at other times, too, it pays to be courteous at intersections. Failure to grant right-of-way ranked second as a cause of motor vehicle deaths in 1946. National Conservation Bureau advises: when in doubt, always yield the right-of-way.

Mower Plant Introduces First Product This Week

A red letter day for the Muenster Manufacturing Company is Saturday, August 2, when it will commemorate the introduction of its lawn mowers with a Visitors Day on which the public will have an opportunity to inspect the plant and see how the mower is made.

At that time new mowers will be on display at the factory and will be available at several stores in town. Retail sales will not be made at the factory.

Manger L.H. Baumhardt disclosed Wednesday that 15 to 20 of the machines will be delivered Thursday or Friday to local dealers and 6 were shipped Wednesday to a hardware dealer at Honey Grove. Additional orders for 50 machines are on file.

The mower, known as the "Double M" is a modern streamlined machine with rubber tires, tubular steel push bars and ball bearings to assure easy operation. All parts are standardized and interchangeable from one unit to another. The weight of the complete unit is 40 pounds.

Deliveries of the first units this week mark the end of long, disappointing delays at the factory. Starting from scratch when materials were scarce, it was forced to wait for practically every item that goes into the mower. Original orders were placed before the building was completed on January 20 and first samples of the castings were received on March 20. The first model was assembled and demonstrated 15 days later.

As parts came in slowly they were machined and made ready for assembly. Monday of this week the first shipment of the only missing items, the reel spiders, arrived. As soon as they were machined 75 mowers were ready for assembly. When the balance of the shipment, due to arrive this week, is machined, the factory can complete assembly of its first 500 units. The anticipated output at this time is 20 to 25 units per day.

While assembly of the first 500 mowers is under way machining on the next 500 is also in progress. Some materials such as cutter bar and reel blade steel are on hand for 1500 more machines and orders for 500 sets of castings are on file.

Besides the delay in waiting for material, the first group of mowers entailed other difficulties. Special jigs had to be built to speed operation and insure uniformity. All that is now under control and the result is not only faster processing but also perfect fits in assembly.

After Saturday's open house the plant will settle down to serious work, Baumhardt said. To avoid interruptions he will discontinue admitting visitors and showing them around. People who are interested are urged to make their visits Saturday when Baumhardt will be on hand to explain all the processes.

Mrs. Tom Parkinson of Houston is here this week to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J.B. Cason, and will be accompanied home by her two children who have been visiting their grandparents since June 22, Messrs. and Mmes. J.B. and Joe Cason and the Parkinson children met Mrs. Parkinson at Whitesboro Sunday morning when she arrived.

J.W. Fleitman recently bought the Walterscheid farm east of the city, near Myra.

THREE MORE STUDENTS ADDED TO GI CLASS; ENROLLMENT NOW 22

The addition of three more students to the Muenster veterans' agriculture class brings the present membership of that group to 22, only three short of the maximum enrollment allowed under provisions of the GI Bill of Rights. In spite of a slow response when the group was organized the growth of both membership and interest has been very gratifying, according to Instructor Hugh Barnhart. The new members are Roy Ramsey, Anton Fleitman and Lawrence Martin.

Class activity this week includes attendance at the fruit experiment farm field day at Montague Tuesday and at a soil conservation film Thursday night in the Gainesville High School. The class will join the Gainesville group for the movie.

Highway Department Ready for Survey on Road and Street Job

A report that the State Highway Department is ready for a detailed survey on Muenster's proposed farm to market road may be an indication that the city is nearing the end of its long wait for a better main street. The project, which has been approved by the highway department, will extend from the highway intersection to a point 5.5 miles north of town. Main Street is included in the project under provisions of Highway Department regulations which permit construction and maintenance through small towns.

In connection with the project Mayor J.M. Weinzaepfel received a letter this week from the Wichita Falls office of the highway department recommending certain improvements to prepare for the paving job.

For one thing, a full width pavement from curb to curb can be constructed — if the curbs are there. Unless that requirement is met the department will build only the regular width road.

Most of Main already qualifies for the full width pavement, Weinzaepfel said. The only exceptions are about 900 feet of curb at both sides of North Main and about 300 feet of curb between Third and Fifth Streets. The latter location also requires a new and larger culvert for adequate drainage.

The proposed method of rebuilding the Main pavement is to scarify the present surface, add more base and then a double coat of surface material.

The road out of town is to consist of a 70 foot right of way with a 24 foot crown, 17 foot base and 16 foot surface.

Highway department engineers also advise that the South Muenster road also qualifies for a paving appropriation. Traffic tests indicate that it has a daily average of 370 vehicles near Muenster and 160 vehicles near Freemound.

RODEO CHANGES DATE TO SUNDAY NIGHTS; NEXT SHOW AUGUST 10

For the rest of the summer the Muenster Rodeo will be held on Sunday nights instead of Saturdays. The next show is scheduled for Sunday, August 10. Dick Cain and Babe Felker, owners, announced the change this week as a convenience to people whose normal Saturday activities run late into the day.

The management also announced that future shows will begin at 8 p.m. instead of 8:30.

As a result of its popularity last Saturday the Junior and Pee Wee calf riding contests will be added as regular events, Cain stated. The Pee Wee class consists of little fellows riding small calves and the Junior class consists of older boys riding larger calves.

Winners last week were as follows:

Pee Wee riding: Johnnie Townsend, Eddie Fette, Jimmy Biffle. Steer riding: John Ferris, Sonny Lavender, Clifford Boydston. Bronc riding: John Ferris and Bill Henley first and second, with Bill Biffle and Sonny Lavender tied for third.

Tie-down roping: Elmer Carter, George Tyler, Pete Cooke.

Ribbon roping: Mack Fuller, Hub Crawford, Pete Cooke.

FMA Plant Produces Over Million Pounds Cheese In 6 Months

Producing more than a million pounds of cheese the Muenster cheese factory topped all its previous records during the first six months of this year. That figure was announced by Plant Manager Rudy Hellman at a semi-annual meeting of the Farmers Marketing Association in the parish hall Thursday night, July 24. The exact volume of the period is 1,040,686 pounds.

Local milk production, however, did not set a new record. The increase resulted from large receipts of surplus milk, sometimes amounting to more than 40,000 pounds daily, from dairies in Wichita Falls, Decatur and Duncan, Okla. Regular receipts from those cities began in February and continued into June.

The local peak of milk production, reached the latter part of May, was 59,000 pounds. Now the average is about 46,000 pounds daily.

Hellman's report also included figures on rejections of unsatisfactory milk and an admonition that milk inspections are becoming more rigid. He urged special care in cleaning and sterilizing utensils, keeping out dust particles, and chilling milk properly. The plant's standard is just as rigid as that of the Pure Foods Inspectors, he stated, and careless patrons have little chance of getting by with inferior milk deliveries.

A featured visitor at the meeting was E.R. Eudaly, director of the livestock division of Universal Mills and former instructor of animal husbandry at Texas A & M College. He spoke on proper feeding of dairy cattle, emphasizing the importance of balanced rations including plenty of good roughage in the form of grass or hay.

Hugh Barnhart, local veterans' vocational agriculture instructor, also spoke briefly inviting members to visit the agriculture class whenever they wish. Dairy husbandry is one of the principal subjects in the agriculture course.

Muenster Loses Game And Series Lead To Chicks; Wins Over Nocona Ford And Era

Losing a game that was practically in the bag Monday night, Muenster fell back one game in its current series with the Bezner Chicks. The present standing is 4 to 3.

The upset came in the final inning with two men out. A walk and a hit put two on base and the next Chick slapped a hard grounder over second. Muenster's center fielder, coming in for the play, missed and the batter circled the bases with the winning run before the ball was returned.

On the whole the game had the usual characteristics which make the series a favorite with local fans. Though trailing most of the time the Chicks were crowding all the way and left no doubt that it was anybody's game.

Muenster's three runs in the second and two in the third left them one ahead of the Chicks' four in the third. A big inning added 7 more in the fifth but the visitors retaliated with 8 in their half to tie the count at 12. Muenster's 3 in the sixth and the Chicks' 4 in the seventh completed the 16 to 15 score.

Buck Knabe's two homers and a triple set the game's hitting record. Saunders for the visitors also got a homer.

The local boys fared better against Era and Nocona Ford. Thursday night Era started strong with 4 in the first and 1 in the 3rd but that was the end. Muenster score 2, 1 and 2 in the first three and finally won with 2 in the last frame.

Against Nocona Muenster took an early start and added steadily until it had 9 at the close of the sixth. Meanwhile Nocona went scoreless until the seventh and netted 4 on the final rally.

AL SCHAD IMPROVED AFTER HEART ATTACK

Al Schad is recovering satisfactorily at his home after spending Sunday afternoon to Tuesday morning in M & S Hospital in Gainesville following a light home shortly after his noon Sunday.

On duty at the FMA ice house Sunday morning he was apparently in A-1 condition until he suddenly dropped unconscious at his home after finishing his noon meal. He has never been afflicted with a heart ailment before.

MIRACLES OF THE COMMONPLACE

By Dr. Alfred P. Haake

(Editor's note: Alfred P. Haake, Ph.D., Mayor of Park Ridge, Illinois, is a noted Economist, Business Consultant, Lecturer and Author.)

The world is full of wonders that seem unimportant, and yet, without them there could be no life on this earth of ours.

Thus, the earth revolves once every twenty-four hours, and turns at the rate of about 1,000 miles an hour. If it turned at the rate of only 100 miles an hour our days and nights would be ten times as long as they now are. As a result we would have ten times as much sunlight every day and everything would burn up; the nights would be ten times as long and everything would freeze to death before daylight brought the warm sun again. By making the earth turn at 1,000 miles an hour instead of only 100 miles an hour, God made it possible to have life on earth.

Water becomes lighter when it freezes. That is why ice floats on top of the river or lake and the bottom never freezes solid. In spring-time the ice melts quickly on top.

CANARY JOINS LAB STAFF

HARMARVILLE, PA. — This canary has a new job—guarding the lives of research workers. Gulf laboratory employs three of the songsters at their pilot plant for producing gasoline from natural gas and coal. By exhibiting signs of distress, the canary signals—almost at once—the leakage of deadly carbon monoxide used in the process. While scientific devices also are used, workers here still rely heavily on the canary's vigilance, easily-noticed reaction, and his uncanny ability to distinguish poisonous gas from the other fumes given off in the history-making coal-gasoline development.

But, suppose ice were heavier than water. It would sink to the bottom, and before the winter was over the lake or river would be frozen solid. During the summer only the top would melt and the great mass of ice below would never be reached by the sun's warmth. So, the simple fact that water becomes lighter when it freezes lets life go on in river, lake and ocean.

There are marvels just as miraculous in the life of man. For example, if every man stopped trading with each other, every man would have to make everything he needs for himself, and civilization would sink back thousands of years.

The fact that men exchange goods and services with each other makes it possible to have division and specialization of labor, tools and machines that multiply by more than fifty times the ability of man to produce goods. That is why America has the highest standard of living in the world.

But the miracle that makes it possible is the simple fact that both parties to an exchange profit by the transaction. If ever the profit is all on one side men will stop exchanging, and civilization will move back over the centuries that separate us from the primitive savage.

Both the buyer and the seller make a profit on the same transaction, because each gives up less than he gets in exchange for it. What makes our attitude worth more or less is our attitude toward it. Thus, a glass of water is a glass of water, and a hamburger sandwich is a hamburger sandwich. But if I am thirsty and you are not the glass of water is worth more to me than it is to you. If you are hungry and I am not, the identical hamburger sandwich is worth more to you than it is to me.

So, if I give you a hamburger sandwich in exchange for a glass of water from you, each of us is giving up less than he gets, and we both make a profit from the transaction.

That is why one of the worst things that could happen to the world would be to make us all alike. Because we are different and have different ideas of what is good and bad, or what is worth more and what is worth less, we can trade goods and services with each other and all of us profit by doing so. That is why the profit motive is indispensable to civilization.

We're Lucky After All; Soviet Bureaucracy Has Over 1,700,000 Bookkeepers

Washington — Some bureaucrats here are rolling their eyes in Russia's direction — one might almost say admiringly.

A recent dispatch from the Kremlin says it takes 1,700,000 bookkeepers to check the accounts of the Soviet economic bureaucracy. That's a new mark for red-tape artists to shoot at — since we have only 2,000,000 government employees of all categories. But 1,700,000 bookkeepers, with stenographers, clerks, postmen and leaf-rakers in proportion — a payroll for true bureaucrats to dream about!

DOUBLE CHECK!

"It is obvious that a wage policy that would attempt to keep wages up with the soaring price of food is not sound. Food prices must come down. Further, a wage policy that made price reductions impossible would militate against the workers' own interests by devaluing worker's insurance policies, fixed social security benefits and fixed pensions for their older members."

Summer Complaint Can Be Prevented If Special Precautions Are Observed

Austin, Texas. — This is the season when dysentery, diarrhea and "summer complaint" are most prevalent throughout the State; and Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, has issued a warning to parents of young children regarding the prevention of these diseases.

"The chief causes of these intestinal diseases are impure milk, water and food; allowing a child to become overheated; using too much sugar and cream in the diet; and under- or over-feeding," Dr. Cox said. "All foods should be fresh and clean, and left-overs should be properly refrigerated to prevent spoilage." Dr. Cox said definitely that when a feeding formula for infants is used, it should be prescribed by a physician and then prepared with extreme care, especially in regard to cleanliness and refrigeration. Babies should be fed at regular intervals and on a definite schedule. Their stomach and bowels can become easily upset if they are fed haphazardly whenever they happen to be fretful or restless.

The State Health Officer declared that with dysentery, as with many other diseases, the fly is an agent of transmission, and every home should be well screened and free of flies.

"If diarrhea or dysentery develops, consult a physician at once," Dr. Cox advised. "This so-called 'summer complaint' can become a very serious menace to your baby's health, if not an actual threat to his life."

HELP BUILD

on AIR FORCE DAY, AUGUST 1ST

No one today questions the fact that the whole future of the United States may rest in the very clouds over your head. And the new, reorganized Air Forces give thousands of eligible young men an opportunity to take an active part in building America's air power ... on the ground as well as in the sky.

You may, for example, enlist in the Air Forces for three years. If you have a specialty which will qualify you, you may also be able to enlist in a grade at higher pay.

If you have had Air Forces experience, you may join the Air Reserve and continue your military aviation training outside of business hours.

Or, you may join the Air National Guard and perhaps become eligible for advanced technical training at special Air National Guard schools.

On Air Force Day, make a point of finding out everything about your Air Forces — especially the new Aviation Career Plan described below. Full details can be obtained at your U. S. Army Recruiting Station.

NOW—THE WORLD'S GREATEST OPPORTUNITY FOR A CAREER IN AVIATION

Today the Army Air Forces offer high school graduates an unprecedented opportunity to get the finest aviation schooling on earth — and select your school or course before you enlist.

The AAF Career Plan is unlike anything ever offered before. It permits selected high school graduates to apply and qualify for AAF specialized courses of their own choice. Simply go to your U. S. Army Recruiting Station, advise the Recruiting Officer the kind of aviation training you want and he will provide you with an application blank and a complete list of available courses.

When you are selected to attend the course of your choice, you enlist in the Army Air Forces for 3, 4 or 5 years. After your basic training period you are guaranteed the education you have selected to make you a specialist in the type of work you want.

Get a list of all the schools and courses open to you under the AAF Aviation Career Plan at your U. S. Army Recruiting Station.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

Jane Cupper's
"Daring" Bathing Suit

The Cuppers showed me some tin-types of their nineteen-ten vacation — picnicking on the beach with beer and pretzels, in bathing suits that made them look like they were dressed in street-wear.

Dee was smothered in a long-sleeved pull-over with knee length shorts, and looking embarrassed — as if he thought Jane's costume of a heavy blouse, two copious skirts, and long black stockings was a little daring.

We laughed a lot at those costumes ... but come to think of it, as Dee says, we'll probably look just as funny twenty years from now, in what we call our "Modern" clothes. Only thing that won't change in the picture is that mellow, wholesome glass of beer.

From where I sit, tolerance that lets us wear sensible, decent clothes — to give us sun and air and freedom — will keep that wholesome glass of beer a part of the American tradition.

EX-GI UNDER 45 IS SUBJECT TO RECALL, NEW BILLS SPECIFY

Washington. — Every ex-GI under 45 years of age could be compelled to sign up again with his Selective Service Board under bills which have been introduced into both houses of Congress.

The object, the Army Times said in a copyrighted story Saturday, "is to have 100,000 men available at reception centers within 30 days in the event the nation must ever mobilize again."

The identical bills were introduced by the heads of the armed services committee, Senator Gurney of South Dakota and Representative Andrews of New York.

The Army Times, unofficial publication for service men, said that, in effect, this is the administration's "only interim alternative to a program of universal military training."

Under the bill selective service would be required to prepare and keep up a card index on all those who served for "any period of time" between Sept. 16, 1940, and March 31, 1947.

Anyone who would be 45 on or before Dec. 31, 1947, would be exempt from the requirement.

Anyone who failed to give the desired information, when requested, would be liable to five years' imprisonment or a $10,000 fine or both.

It was Will Rogers who said, "Everything is funny as long as it is happening to somebody else."

SUNDAY RITE UNITES GENEVIEVE BENGFORT SGT. WALTER HUCTIONS

Simple dignity characterized the wedding ceremony performed Sunday at 7 p.m. to unite Miss Genevieve Bengfort of Lindsay and Master Sergeant Walter Huictions of Shreveport, La., and Münster. The wedding took place in Saint Peter's church at Lindsay in the presence of relatives and friends of the couple.

Rev. Conrad Herda, pastor, read the ring ceremony which united the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Bengfort of Lindsay and the son of Mrs. O.J. Huictions of Münster.

A musical setting for the wedding was provided by Mrs. William Fleitman, organist, who remained at the organ and assisted members of the church choir in singing for sacramental benediction which followed.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an ivory satin gown with long sleeves and a full peplum that extended into a long train. An off-the-shoulder effect was simulated in the moulded bodice that featured a net yoke. The bridal veil was finger-tip length and was held in place with a coronet of seed pearls. The bride carried an arm bouquet of white gladioli.

Miss Ann Huictions, sister of the groom, was the bride's only attendant. She wore a maize taffeta frock with short puffed sleeves and modified bustle and completed her costume with a white open-crown hat and other accessories in white and carried an arm bouquet of yellow carnations and daisies.

Al Bengfort, brother of the bride, was best man.

Following the church rites the couple was honored with a reception in the Lindsay hall and a buffet supper was served to some 50 guests. The bride's table was centered with a three-tier wedding cake and the hall was adorned with seasonal flowers.

M.Sgt. and Mrs. Huictions left on a wedding trip to Colorado and will be back for a brief visit in Münster and Lindsay before going to Shreveport to make their home. He is stationed at Barksdale Field.

Mrs. Huictions is a native of Lindsay, attended school there and for the past few years was employed as a manicurist in Dallas. She resigned several months ago preparatory to her marriage. M.Sgt. Huictions was born and educated in Münster and enlisted in the army in September, 1940. He is a mechanic with the air corps.

NEW PROP REDUCES AIRPLANE NOISE 90%

Industrial achievement through research has produced the first "silent" airplane.

Complaints about noise made by adjoining property owners have closed a number of airports and caused property to devalue.

A plane has been developed with a five-bladed propeller, instead of the usual lesser number of blades which revolves at a slower speed than usual and reduces noise by 90%.

Upper Elm-Red District Farmers Mow Pastures On New Grass Seedings

Cooperators of the Upper Elm-Red Soil Conservation District are mowing their pastures on new grass seedings. J.C. Highfill of the Daugherty Conservation Group, C.C. House and Arnold Friske, of Spring Creek Group, have been mowing their new grass seedings during the past week. All new grass seedings should be mowed to prevent loss of stand due to weed competition, especially during the dry months. Jerry Cox, Custer City Conservation Group, has mowed weeds on a new four acre seeding of Sericea Lespedeza which is to be used as a source of hay.

L.M. Epps, a member of the Melvin Conservation Group; Will Hunter, Daugherty Conservation Group; and Peter Prescher, South Gainesville Conservation Group, have been mowing their old pastures recently.

Jack Latham, a cooper of the Elm-Grove Conservation Group, is constructing terraces on his farm using the "Island Method" construction, with a one-way plow and a small Texas terracer.

IS THAT ALL?

Six week vacations — with pay — were asked by the CIO National Maritime Union in recent demands on ship operators. The union also asked 11 paid holidays and new down pillows for all bunks every six weeks.

up bones, hoofs, offals and other refuse they assist in maintaining better sanitation standards, besides salvaging useful ingredients. After rendering, the cracklings from this source are used in making poultry and hog feeds.

So it's a good deal all around. An unpleasant job, which farmers appreciate having done for free, pays off handsomely for the guys who do the dirty work — the guys who deserve both good business and good equipment.

A glance at the present Greek situation gives considerable weight to the recent warning that we may be in another shooting war within a year. The stage is set for a version of the Spanish civil war and it could easily develop into another major conflict.

Circumstances then and now are similar enough to be alarming. In the Spanish war one side received help from Russia, the other side from Germany and Italy. Foreigners not officially at war with one another fought it out on Spanish soil.

Now a war is breaking out in Greece with Russia and the United States both pledged to help the opposing factions. Russia, pursuing her expansion policy, is investigating the communist guerilla offense whereas United States is determined to help Greece defend her independence.

As in Spain this may resolve itself into a war between two nations not at war. But there is also the possibility that both countries will bring their hostility from behind the screen and actually start blasting at each other.

Glancing back to Spain again, we are inclined to believe that our country's best course is to reach a tactful though unmistakable understanding with Russia. We know now that off-the-record preliminaries do not prevent a major conflict but only reduce the guinea pig country to destitution. Russia might be induced to behave if it somehow got the idea that we intend to carry a few atom bombs to the seat of the trouble — to Moscow — rather than to Greek guerilla installations. A defiant warning would never do because it might force the issue, but a bit of well planted "official information" might permit Joe to back out without losing face.

Times are tense, and our leaders have a delicate job on their hands. However they go about it, we hope they will be able to prevent not only a major war and Greek enslavement but also Greek destruction.
