MOTHER TORTURED ENOUGH

Joe Jang, 42, above, eldest of four sons and family spokesman in San Francisco, has decided to end the suffering of their 67-year-old mother under arrest in Red China, by refusing to pay $1600 demanded for her life. "The Communists will not spare her no matter what we pay. Mother has been tortured enough, we want her to die now." He holds correspondence received from China and a picture of himself with his mother, made prior to her return to China in 1947.

Truce Inspection Is To Be Insisted Upon

MUNSAN, Korea, Nov. 30. (AP) — Allied truce negotiators refused today even to discuss the withdrawal of troops from Korea until an armistice is signed.

They made it clear the U.N. will not modify its demand for joint inspection teams behind the battle lines and an ironclad ban on strengthening front line troops.

"We are going to insist upon those principles," Vice Adm. C. Turner Joy, chief U.N. negotiator, told the Reds. "We are not going to agree to immediate withdrawal of U.N. forces from Korea. Is that clear? The sooner it is clear, the sooner we will begin to make profitable use of the time of this conference."

REDS STOCK REPLY

Replying North Korean Lt. Gen. Nam Il repeatedly called the Allied proposals "unreasonable and impractical."

He said inspection teams would be "brazen interference with the internal affairs of the other side."

Joy replied sharply:

"Only the side objecting to such joint observation can have any ulterior motive."

Nam Il charged the Allies "no buildup" proposal was an attempt to prevent the economic rehabilitation of Korea.

SPOT 9,200 TRUCKS

Even as Red negotiators fought to block Allied efforts to limit the strength of both armies, U.N. planes spotted a record 9,200 trucks rushing men and equipment toward the Communists' lines.

Brig. Gen. William P. Nuckols said there was no mention at Friday's session of the comparative quiet which has settled over the battlefield.

The U.N. communique described the session in terms frequently used during the long deadlock over fixing the cease-fire line:

"No progress."

Both sides have presented their plans for supervising and enforcing the armistice — item three on the agenda.

They are similar except for the U.N. demand for guarantees to prevent a Red buildup.

TALK OF SWIFT PEACE

The Red proposal made no mention of inspection teams nor did it set up a barrier to increasing forces during an armistice.

Joy said the U.N. command agrees in general with the Communist principles, but they were not broad enough.

Communist correspondents began talking Friday of a "speedy armistice." The Red newsmen have no official standing, but their views frequently are a tip on official communist thinking.

They suggested a "simple" solution to the problem of supervising the armistice would be a supervisory commission to police only the buffer zone area.

The Communist radio described as "threadbare" Allied arguments that some method of preventing a military buildup must be devised.

Jet Pilots Claim Great Victory Over Red MIGs

LOCKED UP BUCKS

These two big buck deer, their horns locked in a grim battle to the death, were found in a wooded area south of Warrenton, Mo. The deer at right was dead, apparently from exhaustion and starvation. The victor was freed by sawing off most of its horns, and was reported recoverng at a nearby farm. Conservation Agent Marshall Long estimated that the bucks weighed about 300 pounds each and said they were the biggest he has seen in Missouri.

10 Downed In Single Battle At Yalu River

SEOUL, Nov. 30. (AP) — In the greatest air victory of the Korean war, American jet pilots were credited today with shooting down ten Communist planes, damaging four and probably destroying another.

Nine destroyed planes were bombers, the first to venture en masse across the Yalu River into Mig Alley.

The Fifth Air Force said no Allied planes were lost.

Thirty-one American Sabre jets pounded on the flight of 30 Red bombers and their escort of 16 Mig-15 jets. The Sabres streaked through the lumbering bombers, swooped up and cut the escorting flight of Red jets in half, then raced down onto the bombers.

FALL TOWARD YALU

The Sabres did it all in one long deadly curve that sent nine bombers and one Mig tumbling down toward the mouth of the Yalu River.

Three other bombers were damaged. All were Russian type. The Red formation had just crossed the Yalu boundary from Manchuria, apparently on a training flight.

The 30 minutes battle was the fourth air fight of the day and the biggest of the Korean war. Earlier fights accounted for the probable and the fourth damaged Red.

The four day air battle total mounted to 18 to 19 Red jet planes destroyed and 13 damaged, against one U. S. plane shot down and three damaged.

HIGHWAYS CLOGGED

The battle climaxed a week of increasing Red jet flights into North Korea and an astounding jump in Communist highway traffic to the front lines.

Long convoys of Red trucks were spotted Thursday night racing toward the quiet forward lines with their lights blazing.

Planes counted at least 9,200. Far East Air Forces reported. The figure is nearly double the previous high of 5,150, and it may be incomplete.

No one guessed at how many more Red trucks might have passed on the roads without being spotted. Two thousand trucks are spotted on an average heavy night.

The Reds' phenomenal rush to build up supplies and presumably troops came as the ground fronts went through their third day of "twilight war" and Red truce negotiators again balked at guaranteeing against an increase in their forces during an armistice.

Pilots reported they destroyed 300 Red trucks.

TROOPS QUIET

Air and naval forces stepped up attacks.

Ground action remained quiet.

An Eighth Army communique reported the only ground action up to noon involved small attacks by three enemy platoons on the Central Front.

The communique reported "no significant action" on the Western or Eastern Fronts.

Elsewhere along the bitterly cold 145-mile front quiet was broken by artillery fire and defensive patrols instructed to keep out of trouble.

ALL JUST ALIKE

FORT WORTH, Nov. 30. (AP) — Sen. Taft (R-Ohio), usually considered far to the right of political center, was called "pro-Socialist" here Thursday night by a congressman.

Rep. Wingate Lucas, Democrat from Fort Worth, made the utterance in a talk before a "Pro America" meeting.

Lucas said he also considered President Truman "pro-Socialist."

Lucas said he hoped the American people would not be choosing between Truman and faced with the alternative of Taft for President.

Sen. Johnson Raps Military For 3rd Time

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30. (AP) — Senator Johnson (D-Tex), in his running dispute with military and mobilization officials, has accused acting Secretary of Defense William C. Foster, of "double talk" and "misleading" the public.

It was the third bitter criticism this month by Johnson speaking for the Senate Armed Services Subcommittee on Military Preparedness, which he heads.

The first was directed as Maj. Gen. George H. Olmsted, director of the Mutual Defense Assistance Program, for saying arms shipments for Europe were up to schedule.

TWO SETS OF ESTIMATES

Johnson said Olmsted had used one set of estimates on arms deliveries when talking to Congress and a revised and lower scheduled for the public.

The second criticism was a 10,000-word report saying there is a dangerous lag in production of military items. It urged a bigger cutback in production of civilian goods and a new "procurement czar" to assure the military of first claim on scarce materials and production.

The third was Johnson's criticism by letter and statement of Foster, recently appointed deputy Secretary of Defense. Foster had been trying to settle the dispute between Johnson and Olmsted.

Taft Challenge Put To Stassen

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30 (AP) — Senator Taft (R-Ohio) challenged today former Gov. Harold E. Stassen's control of the Minnesota delegation to the 1952 GOP presidential nominating convention.

Taft authorized Roy E. Dunn, Minnesota National Committeeman, to conduct his campaign for delegates in Minnesota.

The Ohioan thus reversed the political field on Stassen, who challenged Taft's control of the Ohio delegation in 1948 and won nine of the 53 delegates assigned to that state in that year. Gov. Thomas E. Dewey won the 1948 nomination, defeating Taft and Stassen.

The decision by Taft to seek Minnesota delegates was regarded as his reply to Stassen's proposal that the Ohioan join him in a draft-Eisenhower movement. Taft gave every indication he would have none of such a coalition.

Stassen is president of the University of Pennsylvania.

Tax Probers Recess To Check Into 'Fix' Of Tax Fraud Suit

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30. (AP) — House tax investigators unexpectedly recessed their hearings today until Monday to allow more time to examine Justice Department files — including any that may throw light on rumors of an attempted "fix" in a New York tax fraud case.

The recess was ordered as a House Ways and Means Subcommittee was scheduled to resume its inquiry into the activities of T. Lamar Caudle, ousted assistant Attorney General and former chief tax prosecutor.

Chairman King (D-Calif) had scored failing memories of Justice Department officials testifying in the New York case. King called Attorney General McGrath's attention to what he said was "apparently irregular activity on the part of the Department of Justice."

His assertion came after testimony that Caudle received $5,000 as a commission on the sale of an airplane to a private investigator working for the two New Yorkers.

Committee Counsel Adrian W. Dewind said he understood there were a number of "anonymous letters" in the files of the Justice Department alleging that a tax case against Samuel Aarons and Jacob Freidus of New York "was to be fixed."

The committee has been questioning Caudle all week on his activities as head of the department tax division. Caudle was fired two weeks ago by President Truman for "outside activities" deemed incompatible with his office.

At the center of the Aarons-Freidus testimony was a letter sent to U. S. Attorney Irving Saypol of New York a few days before Aarons and Freidus went to trial in October, 1950.

The letter, signed by Turner L. Smith, then Caudle's top aide, said that if a medical report on Aarons' health had been presented to the Justice Department, the report would have caused the Justice Department to refuse to prosecute Aarons.

A memorandum from a Bureau of Internal Revenue agent said the letter was dispatched after Caudle and Charles Oliphant, chief counsel of the internal revenue bureau, agreed that Aarons "should not be prosecuted" because of the medical findings.

Neither Caudle nor Oliphant could remember their reported agreement or the letter. The agent, Richard C. Schwartz, has not yet testified.

King said he was calling to Attorney General McGrath's attention that "here is an important case with apparently irregular activity on the part of the Justice Department."

Freidus and Aarons were convicted and sentenced to prison terms. Aarons was fined $30,000 and given two years. Freidus was sentenced to four years.

Caudle acknowledged he accepted a $5,000 commission from a man who sold an airplane for $30,000 to Larry Knohl, an investigator for the defendants.

Caudle said Attorney General McGrath approved of the deal, and quoted him as saying, "Lamar, I don't think there would be any objections to your accepting it."

Brinkerhoff Abandons Its Borden Test

Brinkerhoff Drilling Co. has plugged and abandoned its No. 1 Clayton and Johnson, wildcat in Southwest Borden County, on total depth of 8,068 feet in the Pennsylvanian lime reef.

Treated with 1,000 and 5,000 gallons acid on the perforations at 8,048-8,068 feet, the project was swabbed for 20 barrels of salt water with a slight show of oil per hour.

Location was 663.3 feet from south and 658.2 feet from east lines of section 37-32-tn-T&P.

SCURRY SHOWS

R. Olsen Oil Co. No. 1 Feldman, one - location south of the lone producer in the Hermleigh-Ellenburger field of Central - East Scurry County, has indicated that it may make an oil well.

The project is bottomed at 7,320 feet. Top of the Ellenburger was picked by electric logs to be at

First of City's New Stop Signs Will Be Installed Next Week

The first shipment of stop signs recently ordered by the city will be put up next week, W. J. Ramsey, city superintendent, said today.

Thirty of the 100 signs ordered were in the initial delivery.

"The signs will be placed on two-inch steel posts and will be six and one-half feet above the street level so they can be seen above pedestrians and tops of cars," Ramsey said. They will be set in concrete.

Pipe for posts was obtained by cutting lengths from old two-inch water pipe dug up and replaced before new paving was laid on Snyder streets last summer, Ramsey said.

The first shipment of signs will be placed on streets crossing Avenue R, and on streets crossing Twenty - fourth and Twenty-sixth streets, he added.

"We expect the remainder of the signs to arrive in the next few weeks," he said.

Men In ROTC Are Safe From Being Drafted

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30 (AP) — A memorandum which virtually defers from drafting all college students now in Army ROTC units was signed Thursday by Anna Rosenberg, assistant secretary of defense.

The memorandum told the Army it could order local draft boards to defer up to 129,500 men in ROTC units.

Congress last year gave the Secretary of Defense the right to order the deferments and to set deferment quotas for the various services.

Until Thursday's order, the number the Army could order deferred was somewhat lower than the number enrolled in ROTC units. This allowed draft boards to take a number of men who were in the units.

Since these training units are the Army's major source of officers, it requested the defense secretary to change the quotas.

There are 237 colleges with Army ROTC units.

Mrs. Rosenberg's memorandum said 53,000 men could be deferred in the first year basic ROTC class, 39,000 in the second year basic, 19,500 in the first year advanced class and 18,000 in the second year advanced. The four groupings correspond roughly to the four college classes.

The present enrollment in the last three groups is slightly lower than the quotas Mrs. Rosenberg authorized.

To get into an Army ROTC unit a student merely has to sign up when he enters college. Many colleges require some ROTC training.

The last two ROTC class quotas were lowered, but since the enrollment in these classes had not reached the deferment quotas it makes little difference in the training of officers.

Farmers Asked To Hike Yield In 1952

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30. (AP)—The government called upon farmers today to push production next year four per cent above this year's near record yields to meet "the greatest needs we have ever faced."

Announcing planting goals for spring crops, Acting Secretary of Agriculture Clarence J. McCormick urged growers to make special effort to boost production of livestock feed grains so a high level output of meat, milk and eggs might be maintained.

Secretary Brannan is on an official trip to the Near East.

McCormick said farmers will have a tough job because of shortages of fertilizers, machinery and labor.

SUPPORT COTTON, WHEAT

The department said it would be prepared to support producer prices of corn, cotton, wheat, rice, soybeans, wool, milk and butterfat at maximum levels permitted by law. That level is 90 per cent of parity.

No supports were promised for hogs, beef cattle, poultry, eggs and other perishable products. None of these is being supported this year.

Because farmers have just about reached the limit of new cropland, they will have to try to increase the acre yields to meet the higher production goals, McCormick said. If goals are attained, plantings would total about 378 million acres compared with 374.6 million this year. Twice as much farm produce would go to market as the 1935-39 average.

County's Gin Total About 7,000 Bales

About 7,000 bales of cotton have been ginned in Scurry County this fall, with the season more than half over, ginners reported in a survey this week.

Gin operators stated that earlier estimates of 10,000 bales of cotton for the county probably will be reached but not exceeded very far.

"Many of the farmers are finishing the harvest now," D. V. Merritt, manager of the Planter's Gin, three miles east of Snyder, said.

A scarcity of boll pullers has slowed the harvest, and some farmers still have much cotton in the fields, Merritt added.

Individual ginnings in bales are: Snyder Paymaster Gin 745, Snyder Co-Op Gin 270, Snyder Planter's Gin 725, Dunn Planter's Gin 643, China Grove Co-Op 1,126, Inadale Gin 1,132, Hermleigh gin 788, and Fluvanna gin 590.

Total for these gins is 6,019 bales. The Ira gin which was not contacted would probably push the total to near the 7,000 bale mark.

Pusan Arsenal Is Blown Up

PUSAN, Korea, Nov. 30. (AP)—The Korean government arsenal here blew up today in a series of awesome blasts that spread damage across an area four miles wide.

American soldiers in the general area escaped injury. U. S. authorities said six Koreans were killed and at least 50 were injured.

Korean authorities said 48 homes were destroyed; 100 others were badly damaged and 400 more were damaged in some degree. They estimated damage at $20 million.

Workers dug in the ruins for more victims.

Col. Lee Hong Chong, chief of the arsenal, said it was not known whether sabotage or accident touched off the blasts that rocked this southeast port city and sent civilians racing from homes in panic.

A mysterious fire destroyed the U.S. Embassy in Pusan Monday. The North Korean Reds long have boasted they have agents in Pusan.

Lee said the arsenal, on Pusan's outskirts, was closed for the night and only guards were on duty.

The first explosion came at 4 a.m. Ammunition was blown high in the air and exploded in a tremendous fireworks display. Then came a second blast and a series of smaller ones. Giant flames licked the sky.

Debris whistled through the air and, with the tremendous blast, leveled dwellings clustered around the arsenal.

The arsenal manufactured grenades. Large amounts of ammunition also were destroyed there. The building, about a quarter-mile long, was destroyed.

Win Wage Increases

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30. (AP) — A 12-cent hourly wage increase for more than 100,000 employes of the "big four" rubber companies won the approval of the Wage Stabilization Board Thursday night.

New York Times Columnist Says Truman 'Confused, So Attacks Nations Press'

NEW YORK, Nov. 30. (AP) — Arthur Krock, chief Washington correspondent for the New York Times, said today in his column that whenever the Truman administration gets confused about major events, it tries to blame the free press.

Krock raised the point in connection with President Truman's complaints Thursday about press reports of a temporary halt of hostilities in Korea.

Krock wrote:

"Whenever this administration falls into a state of confusion and somewhat of dismay, and when that condition has become a matter of public knowledge and concern, an unusual barrage of official denials of unwelcome news is launched against the free press in a manner to persuade the people that the press is deliberately giving a lying account of the government.

TRUMAN IN PLIGHT

"The Truman administration is in this plight today; its lack of coordination having reaching alarming proportions and its official record showing a growing strain of corruption. Accordingly, its denials have steadily become more short and ugly. In their language there is no recognition of the fact that, if the news reports contained error, it was not the error of the press but of those invested with political responsibility by the administration. Yet the current form of denial has left the implication that reporters rush into print with the flimsiest factual evidence and are willing or careless common carriers of the most transparent fakes, 'planted' by persons with obviously ulterior motives.

"The latest instance was the reception here and in Key West of an Associated Press dispatch that was passed by the military censor Wednesday at Seoul.

GUNS FALL SILENT

"After the negotiators of an armistice in Korea agreed on the ultimate dividing line between the opposing forces, to become effective if an armistice had been signed within thirty days, the guns of our ground forces fell silent. Several officers told the AP reporter, John Randolph, that this was in obedience to an order from high authorities. The military ones are the chiefs of staff at the Pentagon here and General Ridgway in Tokyo. The superior one, since such an order must have political sanction, is the President. Based soundly on the information he was given the reporter sent the following:

"'Orders from the highest sources, possibly from the White House itself, brought the ground fighting to a complete, if temporary, halt Wednesday.'

PUTS LIE ON AP

"At a press conference in Key West, called after the President had conferred with representatives of the chiefs of staff and of the State Department who flew there on order, Mr. Truman's press secretary, Joseph Short, issued this bulletin: 'The statement by The Associated Press is not true. There can be no cease-fire in Korea until an armistice agreement has been reached.'

"But the AP reporter thus stigmatized (and in Mr. Truman's castigation of the press today) did not use the military expression 'cease-fire.' He correctly reported that the firing had ceased, that it might be only temporary and that the order came from the highest sources. If the White House denial had dealt as scrupulously with the facts as the reporter did and shown The AP and its reporter the consideration implicit in the word 'possibly' in his dispatch, the denial would have said:

"'No cease-fire order has been given to the United Nations troops in Korea by anyone in authority and certainly not by the President. There can be no cease-fire order until an armistice has been signed. The lull in the ground action is a local military tactic, for military reasons, and has no other significance or origin.'

"That would have been a fair and true account of the meaning of the headquarters directive to the troops from which the Canadian Press quoted this today: 'During the remainder of the armistice negotiations every effort will be made to avoid casualties and demonstrate our willingness to honor a cease-fire.'"

Krock described other recent examples of the administration's "denial routine." He cited:

"1. Jonathan Daniels, a former White House secretary, who does not break confidences, wrote in a magazine that Mr. Truman said Congress should have had the courage, when it submitted the amendment limiting White House occupancy to two terms, to submit a similar limitation on its own tenure. The White House repudiated this as "distorting" and presenting as serious a playful remark made and accepted in confidence.

"2. Merlo Pusey, a careful and reputable journalist, wrote in his authorized biography of Charles E. Hughes that the latter had recommended to the President that he appoint Justice Jackson at the time Fred M. Vinson was appointed Chief Justice, and that this report had been certified by Hughes. The President twice denied it, asserting Hughes had agreed with him that Vinson was "the better man."

"3. Rep. King of California, after a phone conversation with Mr. Truman, said he had been promised access to certain secret files. This was promptly denied at Key West.

"4. The President, according to a highly placed witness, told a small group during General Eisenhower's recent visit that he had renewed his 1948 offer to help the general to attain the Presidency and that Eisenhower had demurred by noting strong exceptions to fair deal domestic policy. Mr. Truman has denied this in terms that even imply there was no such witness.

"There is such a thing as protesting too often, as well as too much."

Russia Agrees To Secret Meet With West; UN Talk Suspended

PARIS, Nov. 30. (AP) — The United Nations Political Committee voted unanimously today to suspend debate on rival East-West disarmament plans pending efforts by the Big Four to seek agreement in secret talks.

The discussions among the U. S., Britain, France and Russia are expected to start immediately.

The Committee asked them to report back by Dec. 10.

Russia agreed today to the talks.

Andrei Vishinsky told the UN Assembly's Political Committee of his country's decision to take part in the talks proposed by Pakistan, Iraq and Syria.

Philip C. Jessup of the U. S. said this was a hopeful development. He said the belligerent tone of Vishinsky's acceptance indicated the task would be difficult. Similar views were expressed for France and Britain.

The Western Powers had agreed to the talks in an effort to resolve rival East-West plans for disarming.

Luis Padilla Nervo of Mexico, Assembly President, will preside at the four-power meetings shortly.

VISHINSKY ATTACKS WEST

Vishinsky prefaced his acceptance with an attack on speeches by Jessup and others and a castigation of the Western disarmament plan.

The committee had waited two days for the Kremlin's decision.

"The Soviet delegation is convinced that its amendments (to the Western three-power plan) would facilitate and assure solution of the task before us," Vishinsky said.

The Western Big Three already have denounced these amendments as an attempt to cut the heart out of the plan and twist it into a renewed version of old Russian proposals.

It thus appeared likely the talks would end in deadlock and the whole problem be thrown back to the full committee.

The Political Committee will suspend its disarmament discussion for a week or ten days to await results. The west, recalling previous protracted but fruitless sessions with the Russians, is expected to insist that a limit be placed on this round.

The key to the Western disarmament plan is step-by-step disclosure of weapons—including atomic bombs—under a foolproof international system of verification to make sure all powers are telling the truth.

Soviet amendments would cut out this section and substitute a ban on atomic weapons plus a one-third reduction of conventional arms and armed forces without any "prying by international spies" to check on compliance.

Vishinsky said he agreed to the talks because "the Soviet delegation takes into account the situation characterized by the substantial differences between the position of the Soviet Union on the one hand, and the U. S., the United Kingdom, and France on the other.

The western powers, he asserted, had put forward a disarmament plan which actually would permit them to keep on rearming.

Vishinsky made the assertions:

While the United States and Britain talk about lowering tension, their policies tend to increase it.

The United States tries to hedge around disarmament with technical talk of "Levels of armaments."

The Western powers caused the breakdown of the Deputy Foreign Ministers' meeting last spring.

The West has dragged in references to Korea to "heat the political atmosphere" and confuse the disarmament issue.

The Western Powers have armed forces twice the size of Russia's.

1st Methodist Here Becomes Third Biggest

With the addition of 157 new members during the past six months the First Methodist Church is now third in size among the 30 churches in the Sweetwater district, the Rev. Woodrow W. Adcock, pastor, said.

These figures were included in the report Mr. Adcock presented at the Sweetwater district conference held at the church here Monday. More than 300 delegates and members of the 30 churches in the district attended the meeting.

All churches in the district reported substantial gains in membership, with the district as a whole gaining more than 1,100 new members since June 1, Mr. Adcock said.

The Snyder congregation now has 1,141 members, he said. Only the First Methodist Church in Midland and the First Methodist Church in Big Spring are larger than the Snyder body. The congregation here has received 71 new members since June 1, 1949.

The Rev. Alsie Carleton, pastor of the Big Spring First Methodist Church, presented the conference sermon. Other speakers included representatives of various institutions owned and operated by the Methodist Church. Dr. O. P. Clark, superintendent of the district, presided at the meeting.

Colorado City Layman To Address Men's Group Of Presbyterian Church

Frank Hood, vice president of men's organizations of the El Paso presbytery, will be guest speaker at the Presbyterian Men's meeting here Tuesday night.

Women of the church will serve supper for the group starting at 7:30. The speaker will be introduced by Frank Gilfzel, Colorado City attorney. Hood is also from Colorado City.

The topic of the address for the evening is to be "A Business Men's Biography of Christ."

A brief business meeting is to follow the speech, George Killam, president of the organization, said. Ned Butler is program chairman.

Methodist Groups Have Joint Meeting, Supper

Circles of the Women's Society of Christian Service and the Wesleyan Service Guild held a joint meeting Monday night in fellowship hall. Hostesses for the covered dish supper which preceded the program were Mrs. Pearl Martin, Mrs. Ed Crowder and Mrs. Tom DeShazo.

Mrs. J. O. Littlepage was in charge of the program on economic problems in Latin America. Others taking part in the discussion were Mrs. Floyd Blakely, Mrs. Nancy Caton, Mrs. J. C. Stinson, and Mrs. W. W. Adcock. Mrs. O. J. Weber presented the devotional.

Others present were Mrs. R.D. White, Mrs. I. W. Boren, Mrs. Waldo Montgomery, Mrs. R. M. West, Mrs. Lois Wilsford, and Mrs. R. L. Gray.

Evangelist Speaks At Calvary Baptist

The Rev. Don Moffett, Fort Worth, former foreign missionary and world traveler, spoke twice daily at the Calvary Baptist Church Sunday through Wednesday. The evangelist, now southwest representative for the Association of Baptists for World Evangelism, also told of a trip around the world made for the International Council of Christian Churches.

The Rev. T. Gerald Cates, pastor of the church, is to fill his pulpit Sunday. He plans to speak on "The Place Called Calvary" Sunday morning and "Life, Joy, and Pleasures" Sunday night. He is also to speak on the church's Word of Life Broadcast Sunday morning at 8:30 o'clock.

Officers Are Chosen For Cub Scout Pack

Cub Scout Pack No. 4, recently organized under the sponsorship of the North Ward School, met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Duncan in the Texon Co. camp north of Snyder.

Wallace Kangley was chosen Den Chief, with Jerry Guthrie elected treasurer and Neal Dennis reporter. Mr. and Mrs. Duncan are Den mother and Dad and Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Dennis will assist them.

The Cubs were shown how to construct a rope making machine by Dennis and Duncan.

Den members present were Don Belding, Jerry Guthrie, Wayne Jarvis, Duane Duncan, Bill Hazel, Jimmy Landrum, Wallace Langley and Neal Dennis. Curtis Belding and I. K. Jones were visitors at the meeting.

7,307 feet. The elevation is 2,272 feet to give the prospect a datum of minus 5,035 feet.

A string of seven - inch casing has been set at 7,319 feet with 200 sacks of cement. Operator plans to drill the plug late tomorrow and then core or drill deeper. After 20 to 25 feet of new hole is made a drillstem test will be run.

The section of the Ellenburger between 7,037-7,320 feet has some permeability. The samples have not yet been run to see if they carry any indications of petroleum.

On the top of the Ellenburger, Olsen No. 1 Feldman is 55 feet high to the same marker in the same concern's No. 1 Templeton, one location to the north, the only producer in the field.

The Olsen No. 1 Feldman is 24 feet high to R. W. Baxter and Associates No. 1 Feldman, the opener of the field, three - quarters of a mile to the east. The Baxter No. 1 Feldman was the discovery well of the Hermleigh - Ellenburger field.

It pumped oil in commercial quantities for several months and was abandoned after the petroleum yield dropped below the profitable level.

Location of the Olsen No. 1 Feldman is 660 feet from north and west lines of section 63-3-H&TC.

SCURRY FAILURE

H. S. Moss and Blount Drilling Co. has plugged and abandoned their No. 1-A J. W. Voss, wildcat in South - Central Scurry County, on total depth of 7,403 feet in the Pennsylvanian lime.

The Canyon reef was topped at 6,950 feet on a minus datum point of 4,591 feet.

On a one and one-half hour drillstem test from 6,941 - 7,531 feet, recovery was 120 feet of slightly gas - cut mud.

Location was 660 feet from south and 1,760 feet from east lines of section 173-97-H&TC, and eight miles south of Snyder. That put it two and one-half miles southeast of the one-well Schattell - Canyon reef lime pool.

KENT PROGRESS

Sun Oil Co. No. 2-D Bilby Wallace, Kent County field test, is coring below 6,729 feet in lime and shale. It was cored from 6,699-6,726 feet, recovering 27 feet of interbedded black shale and hard, dense shaly lime with no shows. After reaming the core hold, operator drilled about one foot and began to core again.

Humble Oil & Refining Co. No. 2 W. M. McLaury, East Polar-Pennsylvanian field project, is reaming core hole at 7,220 feet.

Texaco No. 1 Emery Estate, Kent wildcat 20 miles northwest of Clairmont, is drilling below 4,840 feet in lime and shale.

BORDEN REPORTS

Phillips Petroleum Co. No. 1-A Clayton, Southwest Borden prospector, is drilling in lime and shale below 9,809 feet.

Amerada No. 1 Canon, Borden wildcat five miles northeast of the Spraberry multipay field in Central - East Dawson, is drilling in lime below 5,035 feet.

Sana, Shay & Barker No. 1 Mrs. Myrtle McKnight is still installing the pump. The indicated new producer is 14 miles northeast of Gail in section 367-97-H&TC.

Supper for Primary Department Workers

Primary department Sunday school workers of the First Baptist Church and their families will hold a supper at 7 o'clock Thursday night at the church. Plans are being made for about 60 persons to attend, Mrs. J. W. W. Patterson, superintendent of the department, said.

Prayer for Missions

A week of prayer for foreign missions will be observed by all circles of the First Baptist Church starting Monday. Services are scheduled for 3:30 each afternoon except Wednesday in the church.

Veterans Ask Separate Bids On Club Work

Contracts will be let separately on various phases of construction of the new veterans' clubhouse, it was decided last night at a meeting of the joint board of the American Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars.

George Killam, secretary of the board, said today that the organizations had previously planned to let one general contract for construction of the building, but bids for the one contract are far more than the clubs can afford to spend.

A. R. Foster, engineer representing the clubs, will meet Monday night with several electrical contractors to re - specify electrical work.

Killam said the electrical, plumbing, and tile and concrete contracts will be let within the next few days. Other contracts to be let later will be roofing, outside painting, heating and ventilating, and general carpentry.

Two Die in Highway Accident Involving Snyder Truck Driver

BIG SPRING, Nov. 30 — Leon Glover, 29, and Mrs. Lettie Ann Bien, 36, both of Big Spring, were killed instantly early yesterday morning in a highway collision 12 miles west of here on U. S. Highway 80.

Glover's car was involved in a collision with a tank truck driven by John Tinkle of Snyder. Tinkle was not injured.

Funeral services for Mrs. Bien are to be held in Aspermont tomorrow morning. She is survived by her husband, six children, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Greer of Aspermont, a brother and a sister.

Glover's body was taken to Elgin, where funeral services were scheduled to be held today. His survivors include his wife, a daughter, and his parents.

Cuthbert Student In Cast for McMurry Play

Loval Sparks, McMurry College student from Cuthbert, has been named as a member of the cast for the College Theater's forthcoming stage production, "Medea", slated Dec. 12 and 13.

The play, a Greek tragedy, written about 2,500 years ago, includes a cast of about 30.

Two Thefts Last Night In Hermleigh Being Investigated by Sheriff

Two thefts occurred in Hermleigh last night, resulting in property damage exceeding $200, but otherwise little loss was reported, according to Leonard J. White, deputy sheriff.

White said the school building, which has been robbed numerous times, was entered, and a safe in the administration office was damaged but not opened. The safe knob had been knocked off. About $200 damaged was done to five doors of the school building, he said, and three bottles of milk had been drunk in the cafeteria.

A window had been opened at the Cozy Cafe where from $30 to $40 in silver was reported taken from a coin operated phonograph. About 15 packages of cigarettes were also missing, he said. The cafe was robbed once previously.

The times of the thefts were not definitely determined. White said J. T. Murphy, Hermleigh police officer, reported them to him about 7 o'clock this morning.

Woman Charges Man's Blows Injured Her

Emma Lee Bates, 30-year-old Negro woman, reported to officers last night that she was struck on the head and otherwise injured by a 42-year-old Negro man.

Lloyd Merritt, sheriff, said the woman suffered severe lacerations on her face, a possible skill fracture, and that one ear was almost severed. The sheriff quoted her as saying the man bit her on the ear during an argument, then hit her with something and fled.

Southern Colleges Must Take Step In Military Education For Negroes

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30. (AP)—The Federal Office of Education is studying what to do about providing military instruction at Negro land grant colleges in the South.

The question arose after a ruling by the agency's legal department that present law requires military instruction at these schools if they are to receive federal funds.

The agency now is making a state by state survey to determine what can be done.

Dr. John Dale Russell, assistant commissioner for higher education, said the Southern States have several courses open to them. They could establish their own courses of military training at the Negro colleges; build the schools up to meet the Army standards for ROTC units; or open the White land grant colleges to Negroes.

London had subway trains as early as 1853.

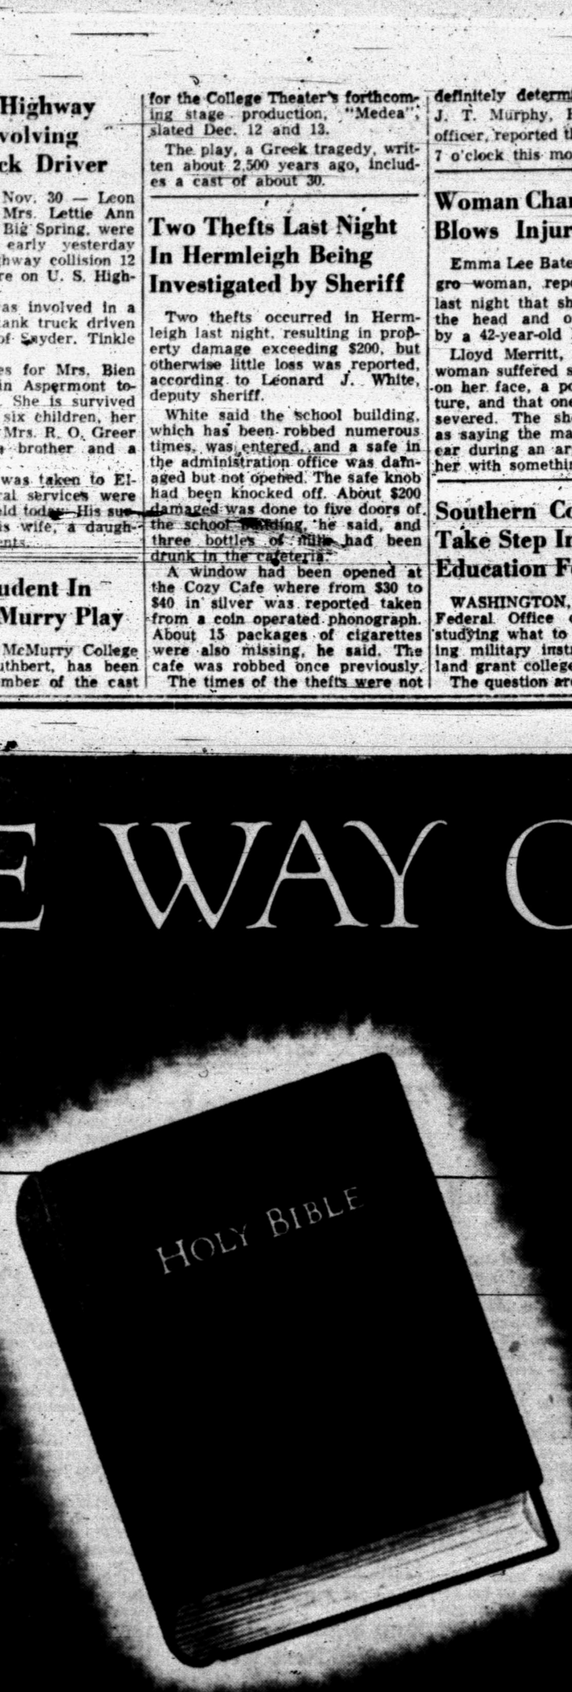
THE WAY OUT OF THE DARK



There is a way out of the deep darkness that engulfs the world; it is the way of the Bible, the way of light.

The sweet Singer of Israel found this way and exclaimed, "Thy word is a lamp unto my feet and a light unto my path." The prophet Isaiah knew of it when he told the Israelites, "The Lord shall be unto thee an everlasting light, and thy God thy glory."

The Bible has been God's Pillar of Fire to lead men and nations out of darkness into light. The chaotic blackness of the Augustan Age was shattered by the Light which came out of Israel in fulfillment of the Scriptures. In this light new faith and hope were born.

The darkness of the Middle Ages disappeared in the brightness of the Renaissance and the Reformation when the leaders of men searched the Scriptures and found the Light of God. Every great revival of spiritual religion has cleared the mists from human eyes and lighted man's way to peace.

The darkness that envelops the world today will roll away on the wings of the morning when men and nations turn back to the Bible and back to God.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

TALK OF THE TOWN

By SUE HOLMES

Christmas will be in the air tonight at the Tiger Football Stadium when the Snyder Kiwanis football game is played. Proceeds from ticket sales will go toward making Christmas a happier holiday for underprivileged children here, and club members have put out plenty of work.

Last year's benefit game came on one of West Texas' weather freak days, but ticket holders this year expect to fare better.

Speaking of Christmas, evergreen trees just begging for decoration have already begun to appear here. They look fresh as only evergreens can now, but come gift - opening day the showering of the needles might tax the housekeepers patience.

And it's only a step from Christmas trees to home decorations for the holiday season. We're hoping homeowners and tenants alike will take a big interest in house decorations this year. The Junior Chamber of Commerce is offering prizes as an added incentive, and the number of new homes here should bring an almost equally great number of decoration ideas.

The decorations needn't be so expensive or even elaborate. Winners in last year's contest, for example include a trailer house which had been decorated with lavish, infinite care, and a house in town where homemade raindeer drew Santa's sleigh. Contest rules specify only that the decorations or display be in plan view from the nearest thoroughfare, and the more the merrier.

American Legion Auxiliary members have volunteered their services to help out at the veterans hospital in Big Spring, with the first group to go next Wednesday afternoon. Another member, Mrs. ARCHIE DAVIS, will work there Saturday afternoon and Sunday. The hospital, like other hospitals, is short on staff, MRS. E. P. KETNER, president of the Auxiliary, said, and such aid is right in line with the purposes of the Auxiliary.

THE STARS

HOLLYWOOD, Nov. 30. (AP)—Ethel Barrymore was preparing for her debut into television. The place was a small rehearsal hall around the corner from a funeral parlor.

But the woman from America's greatest acting family didn't mind the surroundings. She seemed to be enjoying herself, much more so than I have ever seen her do on a movie stage. She was teamed with James Durante.

"It's a 'catastastrope,'" Miss Barrymore exclaimed.

"Ethel, ya got the woid wrong," Durante corrected. "It's 'catastastroke."

The incongruous pair went through several hilarious routines which they will do on Durante's TV show Saturday evening. He gave Miss Barrymore a dramatic lesson, illustrating how she should register certain emotions. Then she sat down to the piano to play "Who Will Be With You When I'm Far Away?" While he sang the raucuous song.

"She ain't bad at the pianner," Jimmy confided. "But she don't bang it th way I do. But then—who can? Even Iturbi is inferior."

ASK MILDRED

Send your questions to Mildred Sparks, County Home Demonstration Agent, Courthouse or to the Daily News.

Please give me a recipe for date loaf. Mrs. L.

Date Loaf
3 cups sugar
1 cup milk
1 cup nuts
¼ lb or 1 cup dates

Cook sugar, milk and dates until it forms a soft ball when dropped in cold water. Remove from heat, add nuts. Beat until very stiff and roll in damp cloth. Chill thoroughly and slice.

* * *

I cooked my fruit cake in the pressure pan in cans and I am not too pleased with the results. I followed the recipe closely. Should I store this cake in the same way as the baked fruit cake? Mrs. H.

Yes, store your cake by wrapping in a waxed paper. Some cakes need moisture and that moisture should be added before storing the cake. Steamed cakes are a little different in appearance to oven baked cakes, but if your recipe was a good one then I don't think you need worry about the taste; it will be delicious.

Here are two helpful ideas that I thought the readers might like.

A delicious whipped cream substitute can be made by adding a sliced banana to the white of an egg. Beat with an egg beater until mixture is stiff. The banana will completely dissolve. Alabama Polytechnic Institute.

A sheet of waxed paper fastened with toothpicks to the breast of a chicken while roasting will prevent it from becoming burned or dry. Michigan State College.

At one time in your colum you printed how to remove the lettering on flour bags. Would you repeat it please? Mrs. J. L.

According to U. S. Department of Agriculture Bulletin 1474—Stain Removal, to remove printing from flour bags and other bags, soak in kerosene for several hours. Then wash thoroughly in soap and hot water and spread on the grass in the sun to dry.

GALLUP POLL

South's Democratic County Chairmen Oppose Truman Race

BY GEORGE GALLUP

PRINCETON, N.J., Nov. 29—Outside the South, Democratic party county chairmen name President Truman as their number one choice for the 1952 Democratic nomination. But in the South it's a dramatically different story.

The revolt against Truman there has reached such proportions that county chairmen of his own party vote decisively against the President as the party's nominee. Instead they name Sen. Harry F. Byrd of Virginia, followed closely by Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower.

These facts were revealed when the Institute sounded the views of Democratic county chairmen throughout the country by means of a secret ballot. The ballots were sent to more than 2,900 county leaders whose names were furnished by official Democratic sources.

Results reported here are based upon returns received to date from half of this group.

Each county leader was asked to select his choice from a list of 10 men who have been mentioned from time to time as possible Democratic presidential nominees. The question read:

"Which ONE of these men do you personally prefer as Democratic candidate for President in 1952?"

Here is the overall vote throughout the nation:

NATIONAL

Truman	533
Eisenhower	290
Sen. Douglas	98
Vinson	97
Barkley	66
Kefauver	47
Farley	40
Justice Douglas	27
Roosevelt, F. D., Jr.	13
Others	59

The above totals to more than 1,440, the number of Democratic county chairmen participating in the poll, because some chairmen named more than one candidate.

Here is the vote of 618 Southern county chairmen who participated in the poll:

SOUTH ONLY

Byrd	164
Eisenhower	153
Truman	112
Barkley	45
Vinson	41
Kefauver	32
Sen. Douglas	23
Farley	12
Justice Douglas	7
Roosevelt, F.D. Jr.	3
Others	41

This table totals to more than 618 because some Southern chairmen gave more than once choice.

Whether Southern delegates to the Democratic nominating convention could effectively block Mr. Truman's nomination remains to be seen.

Tweny - eight per cent of the total number of delegates to the Democratic convention come from the 13 Southern states. In 1948 Mr. Truman was nominated easily despite Southern opposition.

WILL TRUMAN RUN?

The Democratic county chairmen are overwhelmingly of the opinion that Mr. Truman will seek, and obtain, the 1952 nomination. The Southern party leaders, even though they are opposed to him, think he will be the candidate.

Each county chairman was asked:

"Do you think Truman will be the Democratic candidate in 1952?"

Here is the national vote:

Yes	922
Anti-Truman	9
No opinion	47
	1,440

In the South the vote is: Yes 391, No 200, Aanti - Truman 6, and No opinion 21.

What if Truman does NOT run? Who would his supporters then turn to?

Each county chairman was asked to name his second choice, and here is the vote of those who picked Truman as their initial choice:

Fred M. Vinson, chief justice of the Supreme Court, gets the nod of 117 of the Truman men, followed by Vice - President Barkley, 92; General Eisenhower, 80, and Senator Douglas, 60. Remaining second place votes were distributed over the other names in the list.

Justice Vinson is widely reputed to be Mr. Truman's own choice for 1952 if he himself decides not to run. The Chief Justice and his wife spent Thanksgiving with the Trumans in Florida, but it was denied that they talked 1952 politics.

GENERAL 'IKE'S' POSITION

General Eisenhower's name was included in the poll list because there are many Democratic partisans who hope he may still be available for the Democratic nomination.

If the General rules out this possibility by definitely entering the race for the Republican nomination, what man would Democratic county chairmen who now like Eisenhower turn to?

Their second choices in today's survey are: President Truman, 61; Senator Byrd, 61, and Senator Douglas, 36, with the remainder distributed over the other names in the list.

SECTIONAL CHOICE

By geographical regions, President Truman gets greatest support from Democratic county chairmen in the New England and Mid-Atlantic States.

Here is the sectional vote outside the South in terms of the top three choices:

New England & Mid-Atlantic (Me., N.H., Vt., Mass., R. I., Conn., N.Y., N.J., Del., Penna, Md., W. Va.)

1. Truman	78
2. Eisenhower	19
3. Byrd	8

MIDDLE WEST (Ohio, Ind., Ill., Mich., Wis., Id., Neb., Kan., Minn., N.D., S.D., Mo.)

1. Truman	274
2. Eisenhower	82
3. Sen. Douglas	52

FAR WEST (Mont., Idaho, Colo., Utah., N. Mex., Nev., Ariz., Wyo., Cal., Ore., Wash.)

1. Truman	64
2. Eisenhower	35
3. Sen. Douglas	16

Earlier in the present series of reports, the Institute showed the candidate preferences of Republican party county chairmen, who were polled in the same manner as the Democratic chairmen.

Sen. Robert A. Taft won in a walk among the G.O.P. county leaders, with General Eisenhower a poor second and Harold E. Stassen third.

Price Check On Services Due

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30. (AP)—The government ordered today a nationwide check to see whether there is compliance with price regulations by such services as laundries, cleaning and repair shops, parking lots, golf courses and juke box operators.

Price Enforcement Director Edward P. Morgan said Office of Price Stabilization (OPS) agents will check particularly to see whether prices have been posted as required and whether any firms have raised prices unlawfully.

The regulation has been in effect since May 16 and Morgan said "ignorance of its existence no longer is an excuse for any violations."

"The service trades represent about 12 per cent of the average consumer's budget and cannot be overlooked," he said. "Every effort has been made throughout the country to publicize the regulation. Vigorous enforcement now will be undertaken to bring about greater compliance."

Morgan said the Justice Department has approved plans to allow U. S. attorneys in local areas to seek court orders to force compliance without waiting for approval from Washington.

Among establishments coming under the regulation are linen supply and diaper services, shoe repair and hat cleaning shops, cleaning and dyeing plants, radio and television service and repair shops, auto repair shops, bowling alleys and billiard and pool parlors, and auto storage firms.

Beauty and barber shops are exempt from price control.

Hollywood Pair Deny Everything In Divorce

SANTA MONICA, Calif., Nov. 30. (AP) — Actress Janis Carter denies she ever joined with Film Executive Noah Dietrich in boudoir misconduct.

Miss Carter, 30, is co-respondent in a suit filed by Dietrich's wife, Carol, who accused him and the actress of 10 "acts of infidelity."

Miss Carter filed her answer Thursday. She denied everything and demanded that she be paid for defending herself against the charges. Dietrich, chairman of RKO Studios, also has denied the allegations.

Other Woman, Accordian Figure Into Divorce

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 30. (AP) — After a wife has sued for divorce, it's none of her business whether her husband occupies a motel room with another woman.

That is the basis on which Dr. Silas Medford Wesley, resigned University of Southern California psychology professor, will demand that Superior Court reject Mrs. Wesley's story about how she surprised him and a pretty divorcee last March 23.

The wife, Gladys, 27, testified Thursday that the professor's accordion also was her rival.

"He'd come home nights, and instead of coming to me," she complained, "he'd go to his accordion and play it, ignoring me. That thing became my rival. I was intensely jealous of it."

Wesley bases his own demand for freedom on the claim that his wife failed to change from her religion to his, a condition of their marriage.

Average Quail Shooting Predicted For Texas

AUSTIN, Nov. 30. (AP) — Average quail shooting was predicted today for the season opening Saturday.

Prospects in the Panhandle are tops but in many other areas the drouth has cut the supply of birds, the Game and Fish Commission said.

The Commission recently upped the daily bag limit from 10 to 20 birds in the Panhandle.

Quail season is open from Dec. 1 through Jan. 16. Shooting hours are from half an hour before sunrise to one half hour after sunset. The general bag limit is 12 birds a day or 36 in possession.

THE ADVENTURES OF PATSY

Truman Tells Newsmen How To Do Their Job, Draws Retort

KEY WEST, Nov. 30. (AP)—President Truman warns that Red negotiations for a cease fire in Korea may be a Communist trap.

"We cannot," the President said, "allow our men to be caught off-balance by the enemy in case we can not reach a satisfactory armistice."

Mr. Truman told reporters Thursday in blunt terms that the fighting will continue in Korea as long as there is a possibility that United Nations forces might be caught off-balance.

PRESSURE INCENTIVE

"The continued pressure of our forces on the enemy constitutes the strongest incentive for the latter to agree to a just armistice," he said. "Any premature slackening of our effort would cost us more casualties in the long run than need be lost."

Mr. Truman said there has been no cease-fire in Korea and "can be none until an armistice has been signed."

Until United Nations terms are met, he added, there can be no assurance of the future safety of UN forces, "including those who are prisoners of the enemy."

Mr. Truman supplemented his formal statement with an off-the-cuff lecture on what he called fake cease fire and armistices stories.

FALSE ARMISTICE

He said he was marching in France on Oct. 27, 1918, with his battery when he came upon a French newspaper with headlines proclaiming the signing of an armistice. Just as he read the headline, he said, a shell burst 100 yards from him.

That story, he said, was put out by Roy Howard, then writing for the United Press, and it was a fake.

He went on to say that an Associated Press story out of Seoul Wednesday, saying that on orders from the highest source, possibly the White House, ground fighting had been brought to a complete, if temporary halt, was on a parallel with it.

Mr. Truman said he understood the AP story came out because of intense competition for news.

AP ANSWERS HIM.

A spokesman for the Associated Press in New York said:

"There is no foundation for suggesting that pressure was involved in an Associated Press news dispatch from Seoul Wednesday speculating on the battle zone indications that orders causing a lull in the Korean ground fighting came from the 'highest sources, possibly from the White House.'"

"It was a fact that the ground shooting was halted as a result of orders or directives given to the UN fighting forces.

"The AP dispatch in question was part of a frontline repertorial effort to explain the effect as well as the possible origin of orders which are still surrounded by mystery. The Associated Press did not report a 'cease-fire' order had been issued. It has fully reported the facts, so far as they have been obtainable and observable, including all authoritative statements which have (1) denied any 'cease-fire' order has been issued, but (2) not disputed the fact that a lull developed in frontline ground fighting."

STICK TO TRUTH

The President said newspapermen must be careful in these very dangerous times to stick to the truth.

The welfare of the United States the United Nations and the world is more important than any competitive situation that may exist among newshounds, he declared.

The President also:

Said he has no facts to justify any action against Charles Oliphant, chief counsel for the Internal Revenue Bureau, whose name has been drawn into a House subcommittee inquiry into tax scandals.

Declared federal employes not only have immunity if they want to bring those guilty of malfeasance to justice, but that any one who fails to report a wrong-doing is a party to the crime.

Confusion In Korean War

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30. (AP)—The Korean war has become one of the most mixed up situations in recent times.

A week ago the United Nations and Communists agree on an armistice line where they'd stop shooting.

This was the first agreement after five months of haggling. But it was only one of four major points the two sides must agree on before there could be an armistice.

Reporters on the Korean front reported a halt in the fighting by both the UN and Chinese troops. The surprised uproar resulted in general denials by the White House and the Army that there had been any cease-fire order.

Gen. James A. van Fleet, commander of the 8th Army, said maybe some of his troops had misunderstood instructions.

President Truman said something important in order to understand the mixed - up problem of Korea:

"The continued pressure of our forces on the enemy constitutes the strongest incentive for the latter to agree to a just armistice. Any premature slackening of our effort would cost us more casualties in the long run than need be lost."

It seems the fighting will continue, in some form, anyway. There'll probably have to be, judging by the Air Force report of a big Communist attempt at a build-up behind their present line, the present armistice line.

It's certain the Air Force will be busy checking behind the enemy lines—and fighting enemy planes sent up to stop them—to see what the enemy is doing.

The sorest item in the whole business arises around one of those three still unsettled points: Inspection after an armistice.

We want the Communists to let us check behind their lines to be sure they're not using the armistice to build up their forces and suddenly start a smashing drive that would end the armistice.

Without such agreement, it seems impossible there could be an armistice, for otherwise the UN troops would have to stay on guard at their armistice-line station every minute in case of a surprise attack.

Waitress Shot to Death

AUSTIN, Nov. 30. (AP)—Mrs. Isabel Mae Brown, 23, tavern waitress was shot to death and two men were wounded Thursday night.

Detective Bill Sterling said a 33-year-old man walked in a side door of the tavern and fired six times. He fled but was arrested about an hour later in front of his home.

Charlton Taylor, bartender, and John Sparkman, university student, were wounded.

Monastic Life on Collective Farms In Israel Is Described

By STEWART ALSOP

TEL AVIV — "You can say that again, brother."

This remark, in a strong Mid-Western accent, comes strangely to the ears on a chilly windswept northern mountaintop in this ancient land. The remark is made by a wiry, wry, blond boy from Minnesota, in answer to a question—isn't it a tough job to cultivate this mountain soil, which seems to consist more of rocks than of soil? The Minnesotan is the accountant of a Kibbutz, or agricultural settlement, founded a couple of years ago by ninety - odd American Zionists.

On the very top of the mountain is what remains of an Arab village, now a mere rubble and jumble of yellow stones, piled higgledy-piggledy on top of each other. Just below these ruins are the sleeping quarters of the Kibbutz, long green wooden shacks, like the huts in the cheapest sort of American summer resort. The shacks are divided off into cubicles, on a simple door - window, door - window pattern. To each of these tiny, unheated cubicles a couple is assigned. These cubicles are the only private retreat of the Kibbutz members. Their children are cared for collectively, and all eat together in a communal dining hall.

* * *

For two years now, the members of this collective have been living an incredibly hard life on this naked mountaintop, somehow wresting a bare subsistence from the dry, rocky soil, slowly building permanent living quarters with their own hands, living without privacy, without money, without even clothes of their own. There is something grim yet genuinely moving in this dedicated monastic living, so utterly outside the experience of most Americans.

Yet to the American newly - arrived here, there is something grimly moving, too, about the mouldering ruins of the Arab village. For these ruins must surely serve as a constant reminder that the land now cultivated by the Kibbutz members gave a living, not long ago, to men of a different race. What happened, the Minnesota boy is asked, to the village and the Arabs who lived in it?

The Arabs, he says, ran away during the Arab — Israeli War. As for the village, it was dynamited after the Arabs ran away. This was the policy of the government, he says wryly—to "dissuade" the Arabs from returning. What does he think of this matter of the taking over of Arab land? Does it ever worry him and the other members of the Kibbutz?

This question, the boy from Minnesota answers simply, used to trouble them all, deeply, both as Americans and as Marxists (for this, like the majority of the agricultural collectives, is a left-wing Kibbutz). They would ask each other the question, and never find a really satisfactory answer. But that was only at the beginning. Now, hardly anybody thinks about it any more.

* * *

This incident serves to illustrate both the strength and the weakness of the new Israeli state. On the one hand, there is the fierce idealism which has led this likeable Middle-Westerner, like hundreds of thousands of his fellow Jews from all over the world, to sacrifice everything in order to build a new life and a new nation on this inhospitable soil. This reporter has never in his travels seen anything more impressive than what is being done in this tiny state — land being reclaimed from the desert; work and food and housing found somehow for the great flood of immigrants; everywhere drive and energy and hope.

Yet there is weakness too. It lies in the simple fact that almost 900,000 Arabs (according to the latest United Nations' head count) once lived in the houses and owned the shops and worked the land now lived in and owned and worked by hundreds of thousands of Israelis. It is with a sense of shock that one sees dozens of dynamited and dead Arab villages in the north, in the area assigned to the Arabs (because they had a great majority of the population) in the original United Nations' partition plan. It is with a sense of shock also that one visits such a city as Jaffa, a noisy, bustling, Arab city when this reporter was here four years ago, and sees virtually every Arab house and every Arab shop now occupied by the Israelis.

It is true that the Arabs started the war, and that they would have driven every last Jew into the sea if they had been able to. It is true that most of the Arabs ran away. The terrible need of the Jews for a land of their own is true. But it is also true that the founding of this nation involved taking over the property and livelihood of hundreds of thousands of people. No doubt there was no other way. Yet a nation so founded is by the very nature of things condemned to live for a very long time as an island in a sea of hate and fear.

* * *

This hate and fear, according to those who know this area best, is no simple matter of the mouthings of an occasional demagogue or fanatic. It is a deep and long-lasting emotion. This is by no means to say that the United States should abandon support of this state. Indeed, for all sorts of reasons, it is in the plain American interest that the extraordinary experiment here should not fail. Even so, the passionate Arab reaction to the establishment of this state should be accepted for what it is — one of the central political factors in this whole threatened, vital area. And the Arab reaction is as understandable in its way as the desperate need and the terrible memories which drove the Jews into establishing, for the first time in 2,000 years, a state of their own.

Study Rate Increase

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 30. (AP)—A proposal for an increase in freight rates on rough rice shipped from South Texas to Southern Louisiana rice milling points was under study today by the Southwestern Freight Bureau.

The increase was proposed by Texas Rice Millers and opposed by Louisiana millers.

Ten Indicted In Dope Case

WICHITA FALLS, Nov. 30. (AP)—A grand jury, shocked at revelations of marijuana sales in Wichita Falls schools had this advice for parents today:

Keep your children at home. Find entertainment and recreation for them there. Chaperone their gatherings.

Limit the amount of money given your children.

Limit the use of the family automobile.

Know where your children are and "not just think you know where they are."

TEN INDICTED

With that advice, the jury indicted 10 persons Thursday on 21 counts for marijuana sales in Wichita Falls schools.

Eight are adults. The other two are high school pupils.

In all, 15 persons have been arrested. The other five are expected to be indicted elsewhere.

Dist. Atty. Alan Haley estimates 25 high school pupils were involved in possession or sale of the drug. Another seven to 10 junior high school pupils, 13 to 14 years old, may have been touched by the ring. The investigation is continuing.

The grand jury also advised hiring of an officer for the schools "to police the school properties. . . . vested with authority to investigate cases of delinquency and absenteeism among school children and . . . maintain close watch over public places where students congregate."

AUTHORITIES APPROVE

Authorities nodded approval. The school board will meet shortly to take action.

The juvenile pupils should be turned over to juvenile authorities, the grand jury said. It urged that pupils implicated be "rehabilitated and supervised so they may not become more addicted to the use of this deadly drug."

The marijuana ring was uncovered recently by a young FBI agent who enrolled in the high school. Within two weeks he had purchased about $20,000 worth of the weed with marked money. Authorities refused to identify him.

Bond of $10,000 was set on each count in the indictment except in the case of the pupils, whose bond was set at $5,000 on each of the two counts.

Louisiana To Go Into High Gear On Pelicans Early Next Spring

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 30. (AP)—Louisiana still plans to send some white pelicans to London's St. James park.

Peter and Paul, the last two pelicans in the park died last month and since that time Louisiana and Texas have been in hot competition to provide pelicans for the park.

Texas recently delivered four pelicans, beating Louisiana to the punch.

The Louisiana Department of Wildlife and Fisheries said Thursday it plans to wait until March and trap several pairs of white pelicans at the mouth of the Mississippi.

The department said that is about the only time of the year to distinguish between male and female pelicans.

Churchill Won't Be Able to See Galveston

GALVESTON, Nov. 30. (AP)—Prime Minister Winston Churchill will miss Galveston during his January trip to the United States, his staff has informed Mayor Herbert Y. Cartwright, Jr.

An invitation was extended through James Carter, news editor of the Galveston News, who took four pelicans to England to replenish the pelican stock in St. James Park.

P. G. Oates of Churchill's staff wrote that "the prime minister has asked me to thank you for the invitation. He is very sorry, however, that as his time in the United States will be fully occupied, he is unable to accept."

The letter thanked the mayor for the pelicans.

Another 'Freeze' Put On Joining Air Force

SAN ANTONIO, Nov. 30. (AP)—Similar to an order which went into effect late last year a "freeze" has been placed on the number of new Air Force recruits who can be sent to Lackland Air Force Base each day.

Maj. J. E. Buffin, head of the San Antonio Army and Air Force Recruiting and Induction Station at the arsenal, said a quota of only a small limited number has been set.

The "freeze" was apparently put into effect to prevent over-loading of Lackland as was done last year following a big upsurge in recruits.

No Bill For Woman Who Shot Husband

FORT WORTH, Nov. 30. (AP)—Mrs. Marjorie Johnston, who shot to death her husband, Robert Zenas Johnston, 41, was not billed on a charge of murder by the grand jury Thursday.

An insanity affidavit against the 34-year-old woman was filed immediately in County Judge Gus Brown's court by Assistant District Attorney Gordon Whitman. Johnston was killed Tuesday.

Dill pickle sauce tastes delicious with fried fish fillets. To prepare it mix a teaspoon of lemon juice with a teaspoon of prepared mustard and blend it in to a half cup of mayonnaise; stir in a couple of teaspoons finely chopped dill pickle.

Government Man Quits High Post In Ft. Worth

FORT WORTH, Nov. 30. (AP)—The resignation of Key C. Smith, assistant district director of the Federal Housing Administration in Fort Worth, was announced Thursday by E. T. Stearns, district director.

O. A. Gassaway was named successor.

Smith is moving to Odessa to engage in a building program of residential properties.

Hung Jury In Sanity Hearing Of Rapist

FORT WORTH, Nov. 30. (AP)—The jury in the Billie George McCune sanity trial tried again today to break a 7-5 deadlock.

Judge Dave McGee sent the jurors home late Thursday with instructions to report today to attempt to reach a verdict.

McCune, 23, received the death penalty for the rape of a housewife. He now is pleading insanity.

Snyder Man Advanced In Rank in A&M Corps

Rex Millhollon, a senior at Texas A&M College, has been appointed a lieutenant in the college cadet corps and platoon leader in B transportation corps. A graduate of Snyder High School, he is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Millhollen.

AnnualHerefordAuction

WICHITA FALLS, Nov. 30. (AP)—The Texas - Oklahoma Hereford Breeders held its annual auction here today.

On sale were 41 bulls and 25 females selected from the Hereford Heaven area of Oklahoma and from North Texas.

In the days of ancient Rome, a prison was used only as the place for holding, not for punishing criminals.

HERMLEIGH TO BI-DISTRICT PLAY

Here's the group of youths from Hermleigh High School who ended their regular football season as District 5B champions with a 5-1 record. Standing on the extreme left is Coach J. Williams, who will be with the team tonight in Sanderson, where the Hermleigh Cardinals are playing Sanderson for the bi-district title Blanket and Melvin are also playing for a Class B district crown, and winners of the two games will meet next week for the regional play-off. (Art Studio photograph.)

Hermleigh Goes To Bi-district Game

District 5B Champion Hermleigh is on its way to Sanderson today, where the Cardinal eleven will meet the Sanderson squad the District 6B titlist in a bi-district play-off at 7:30 tonight.

Coach J. Williams of Hermleigh has laid all other sports aside until he can get his team as far up as it can go.

And since Williams has had his squad at hard work daily on both offense and defense, he is confident his squadmen can rip off another win for the bi-district crown.

The offenstve team is built around Quarterback Floyd Hacker and End Jimmy Cooper, whose pass attack has proven hard to stop in previous games before they picked up about half the team's season scoring. Halfback Dicky Wall is the leader of gain on the ground.

Anchoring the defensive line are Guard Jimmy Mason and Wallace Rinehart, who received much recognition for holding up opponents' gain throughout the season.

Sanderson won its title without suffering a defeat in district play, while Hermleigh ended its district season with a loss to Hobbs. But in season games, Sanderson lost to Alpine, Marfa, Bracketville, and Del Rio. They tied Fort Stockton 12-12.

In non - district play, the Cardinals lost to Seagraves and Abernathy, and they won over Rule.

Sanderson has scored 198 points to opponents' 172 in ten games—26 points difference, while Hermleigh has scored 125 points to 10 opponents' 93—32 points difference.

The winner of the game will meet the winning team of the Blanket - Melvin game for regional championship.

Schoolboys Go Into Playoffs

(By The Associated Press)

Two top classes in Texas high school football begin their elimination rounds today. Classes AA and A bring their classifications to the semi-final round.

Hawkins got an early jump in Class A Thursday by defeating Farmersville, 27-13, to go into the quarter-finals.

In AAAA, two games are scheduled this afternoon and two Saturday afternoon. In AAA, three game are on Friday night and one Saturday afternoon.

Lubbock, Ray of Corpus Christi and Lamar of Houston have undefeated records in AAAA and are favorites. Grand Prairie, Temple and Brownsville are favored in AAA.

Midland Negro Team Subs For San Angelo in Tonight's Game

Because of the possibility that Lubbock's Dunbar Panthers might be ruled ineligible for the championship they won in the District 1-AA Negro football race, San Angelo's Blackshear High School Leopards may again be in the running for district honors.

That is the problem which faced H. W. Cargile, president of the Snyder Kiwanis Club, yesterday afternoon when S. C. Clay, high school principal of Blackshear, and Allie Thomas, football coach, came to Snyder to tell Cargile they could not bring their team here for tonight's benefit game with the Lawton, Okla., Lions.

After hurried phone calls and two hours of worry, Cargile finally lined up the Carver Hornets of Midland to come over and play Lawton at the scheduled 8 o'clock game time.

Cargile said E. L. Jordon, school superintendent of the Carver school told him the team will not be here in time for this afternoon's parade which will begin at 3:30 o'clock.

The Kiwanis president said the representatives from Blackshear explained that since the Lubbock team may be ruled out of district title eligibility, the San Angelo and Abilene Negro teams will possibly be in line for district titles. According to Thomas, the team cannot play a non-schedule game until their district championship race is completed.

A protest against the Lubbock team was filed by Abilene one week after Lubbock defeated Abilene 19-0. The claim, which was filed with the Negro Interscholastic League in Prairie View, Tex., charged that Lubbock Senior Early Overstreet, second string fullback, is over age.

EVEN MATCH

Cargile said the Midland school has a very good team, adding that he believes Carver and Douglass will be closely enough matched to provide a very good game. Both teams have won a great portion of their games this season.

Special setions at the Tiger Stadium are being provided on each side of the field for Snyder Negro residents.

Frank Fisher, head of ticket sales, said the club is expecting a sell - out crowd, adding that close to 2,500 tickets have already been sold. Admission for adults is $1, and children will be admitted for 50 cents. Fisher said four ticket windows will be open tonight at the football field to sell to those who did not have a chance to buy tickets earlier.

All members of the Kiwanis Club, all drug stores, and both banks are offering the tickets for sale today. Profit from the game will go into the Kiwanis Christmas fund for underpriviledged children.

Officials for the game are from the Abilene Officials Association. They are Bob Stone, referee; J. E. McCaleb, umpire; Leroy Crews, head linesman; and Bon Parsons, field judge.

Australian Wins First Match in Tennis Tilt

MELBOURNE, Nov. 30. (AP)—Mervyn Rose, Australia's southpaw star, scored an easy 6-3, 6-0, 6-4 victory today over Frank Shields of the United States in their first round match in the victorian tennis championships.

Ted chroeder and Tony Trabert, America's Davis Cup doubles pair, had little trouble eliminating Peter Molloy and Jim Matthews of Melbourne, 6-4, 6-4, 6-3.

Anyone's Title Come Saturday

(By The Associated Press)

TCU seeks to nail down its first Southwest Conference championship in seven years Saturday in a game with bitter rival SMU at Fort Worth.

At Houston, Rice and Baylor will match touchdowns, each hoping for a TCU loss.

TCU leads the race with a 4-1 record. Baylor is second with 3-1-1 and Rice is third with 3-2.

Texas had a chance to end up in a tie for the title until Thursday. The Longhorns took a 22-21 defeat from Texas A&M and faded from the picture.

TCU can win it with a victory and psosibly with a tie against SMU.

Baylor could tie TCU for first place if TCU were tied by SMU while Baylor was beating Rice.

A victory for Rice and loss for TCU would end in a tie between Rice and TCU.

A loss by TCU and victory for Baylor would give the championship to Baylor.

Basketball Debut In Abilene Tonight

Coach Ernest Kinney rounded out his pre - season basketball practice with a late session last night in preparation for the season's opener in Abilene tonight with the Abilene Eagle five.

Both Kinney's A squad and Hal Battle's B team are to play the first game with the Abilene triple-A teams. They will have a travelling squad of about 20 boys.

DEFENSIVE PLAYERS

Keeping up strenuous workouts on defensive ball, Kinney will have two boys who have shown progress both this season and last as defensive players. They are Bobby Shipley, guard, and Ned Underwood, forward. Both are one-year lettermen.

On the offensive play, Kinney will depend on Guard John Gary and Forward Bill Hanks, who are also lettermen.

On the B team, Battle has both defense and offense built around Regen White, center, the only boy on his squad over six feet in height.

Play starts in the Abilene High School gym with the B team game at 6:30, followed by the A game at 8 o'clock.

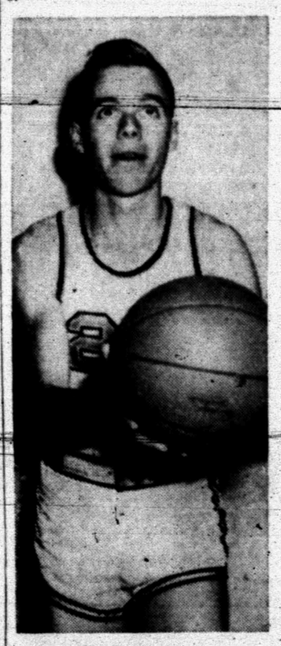
Reserves — Miles Davis, 135, 5-8; Royce Pierce, 140, 5-8; Perry Helvery, 135, 5-6; Paul Hailey, 160, 6.



One of Coach Ernest Kinney's outstanding offensive and defensive cagers going into the game against Abilene tonight is John Gary, a letterman who was a leading scorer during the last season. The A and B teams are playing their first game in the Abilene High School gym. (Staff photograph).

OPEN SEASON

By DALE WALTON

Coach Speedy Moffett, M. E. Stanfield, school superintendant; and A. T. Nicholas, director of the school business services, will go to Midland tomorrow for a morning meeting of representatives from District 1-AAA schools.

Schools other than Snyder and Midland to be represented at the meet will be Sweetwater, Lamesa, Big Spring, Vernon, and Plainview.

The meeting was called this week by C. W. Tarter, Sweetwater superintendant and temporary chairman of the district.

The schools will elect a district chairman, formulate policies to be followed by the athletic clubs in 1952, and set up the district football schedule for next year.

Tomorrow afternoon all the representatives will see the bi-district play - off between Midland and Breckenridge in the Midland stadium.

* * *

Moffett says there's little hope that Midland will be boosted to Class AAAA. The school is not large enough to be forced into the higher classification, but it can apply for the change.

According to what the coach has heard, the Midland team does not wish to play the larger schools next year but favors staying in AAA competition. There's a rough squad for the Tigers to play.

* * *

The frosh and junior high basketball teams finished their beginning game with Fluvanna on the right foot. Both Coaches Blue Lowry and Horace Bostick believe they have crackerjack teams, offensively and defensively. Their next game comes up Dec. 10 in Ira.

* * *

Even though they are playing teams from a much larger school, the high school A and B teams are going to Abilene tonight to try to win their game with the Eagle squads. There's no doubt in our mind that they'll take it, or at least come close to it.

* * *

A full dollar's worth of entertainment is close at hand tonight in the all - Negro Kiwanis benefit game between Douglass of Lawton and Carver of Midland.

Sports fans can't go wrong by going out to the Tiger Stadium to see the grid tilt.

Seats may go fast, so it might be a good idea to get out to the field early. Enough tickets have already been sold to make up about two - thirds of a full house.

Hermleigh To Wait Outcome Of Playoffs

Coach J. Williams of Hermleigh said today he will not begin boys' basketball practice in the school until the football team finishes its playoffs.

If the team loses tonight's game, it will be eliminated from any further playoff and basketball can start next week, Williams said. But if the team wins, it will go on to regional play next week, and basketball practice will be postponed another few days.

Orville Paty, girls' coach, has already begun his practice sessions with about 20 high school girls.

Paty said the Hermleigh basketball district is much different from that in football. Several more schools are included, and the district is divided into two halves. At the end of the season, the top teams in each half will play for championship.

Each half of the district is playing on a double round robin schedule, with district play beginning Jan. 4 and lasting through Feb. 5. Included in the Hermleigh district are Ira and Fluvanna.

DISTRICT SCHEDULE

Jan. 4 — Hermleigh vs. Ira at Ira
Jan. 8 — Hermleigh vs. Westbrook at Hermleigh
Jan. 11 — Hermleigh vs. Loraine at Loraine
Jan. 15 — Hermleigh vs. Hobbs at Hermleigh.
Jan. 18 — Hermleigh vs. Fluvanna at Hermleigh
Jan. 22 — Hermleigh vs. Ira at Hermleigh
Jan. 25 — Hermleigh vs. Westbrook at Westbrook
Jan. 29 — Hermleigh vs. Loraine at Hermleigh
Feb. 1 — Hermleigh vs Hobbs at Hobbs
Feb. 5 — Hermleigh vs. Fluvanna at Hermleigh

Snyder Cagers Top Fluvanna In Two Games

The high school freshman and junior high school basketball teams started their season with a bang yesterday afternoon when both defeated the Fluvanna teams in the Snyder High School gym.

Led by the scoring of Center Jackie Alford, netter of 12 points, the freshman squad rolled over the Fluvanna High School team 25-15 under the coaching of Blue Lowry.

37-16 VICTORY

Coach Horace Bostick's junior high cagers took their game by a much wider margin, winning over Fluvanna 37-16. Leading scorer was Henry Maxwell, who racked up seven field goals for 14 points.

Officials for the freshman game were Bobby Shipley and John Gary, while Bill Hanks and Ned Underwood officiated the junior high match. All are members of the high school basketball squad.

Milk Bowl Contestant Is Chosen Thursday

BRYAN, Nov. 30. (AP) — Thorndale was chosen Thursday to play in the Milk Bowl football game at Marlin Dec. 8.

E. C. Weafer, executive secretary of the Milk Bowl, a post-season affair for 100-pound youngsters, said Thorndale will play Sequoyah Indian School of Tallequah, Okla. The Indian team was selected several weeks ago.

Branch Rickey After Students

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 30. (AP)—Branch Rickey, a man with a record for accomplishment in baseball, is going to the minor league meeting with a determination to get the high school rule changed.

Rickey, trying to rebuild the Pittsburgh Pirates into a pennant winning ball club, says a manager should be able to sign a high school youth to a contract.

The rule forbids a manager from even talking business with a high school student. Rickey says the law is being violated—and often.

He thinks a proposed amendment that would permit baseball's front office to talk with a high school boy, but forbids a contract, is equally ridiculous.

Rickey, who braved criticism when he signed the first Negro to play in the major leagues, and organized the farm club system, says "I'm sticking my neck out. I believe I will be criticized more than ever before."

TEXAS BRANDS

By JOHN M. HENDRIX

A Horseshoe T Cross was one of the brands of D. H. Snyder, prominent in annals of the Texas cattle industry for trail driving and ownership of the Renderbrook ranch in Mitchell County. This brand appeared on thousands of cattle on the free range north and south of Abilene in the early '80s.

The brand is one of quite a few brands belonging to the Snyders and used by them at various times on West Texas ranges.

Another Polio Death Is Reported In Odessa

ODESSA, Nov. 30. (AP)—Odessa, in the midst of a polio scare, will keep its schools open although 2,300 stayed away from classes Thursday.

The school board voted not to close the schools. Theatres and churches have been asked to discourage attendance by children under 16.

The city counted four new polio cases and another death—making nine deaths and 46 cases this year. Forty two cases have occurred since Oct. 1.

Odessa has 9,800 students.

Two iron lungs to supplement the two already in use here were dispatched from Houston.

The National Polio Foundation sent a Houston doctor and a nurse to Odessa to help.

PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Noble returned home yesterday from Dallas after attending the funeral of Mr. Noble's brother, R. B. Noble of Dallas.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Davis of the Clairemont Road had as their guests over the week end Mrs. Davis's brother, Floyd Evans of Amarillo, and another brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Evans of Panhandle, Tex.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Wasson, 2508 Avenue W, have visiting them this week Mrs. Wasson's sister, Mrs. L. R. Mills of Casper, Wyo.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Wilson, 705 Sixteenth Street, had as their guest last week their daughter and her family, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Powell and son, Johnnie, of Odessa.
