Wichita County Democratic Committee Adopts Party Pledge

NOMINEE MUST BE SUPPORTED UNDER RULE

Pledge Proposed by State Committee Will Be On Ballot

MOODY IN STATEMENT

Governor Sees Slight Chance of Quieting Joe Bailey

"I am a democrat and pledge myself to support the nominees of my party."

The pledge will be there, constitutionals, harmonies or Al Smith to the contrary.

By unanimous vote the Wichita county democratic executive committee, meeting at the call of E. C. DeMontel, chairman, at Mr. DeMontel's offices Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock, adopted the pledge proposed by the state executive committee.

Harmonious Meeting

All persons participating in the precinct conventions to be held Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the 31 precincts of Wichita county, where delegates to the county convention will be named and where the real battle of the voter will be waged, must pledge themselves to abide by the decision of the democrats of the nation—to vote for the party presidential nominee regardless of whom he may be. Not a dissenting voice was heard among the more than a score of members of the committee present at the meeting. The harmony spirit seemed to have steam rollered the executive committee meeting.

All vacancies in the committee and vacancies in the list of elected precinct chairmen were filled by the executive committee.

Mr. DeMontel, county chairman, was authorized to distribute definite instructions to precinct chairmen as to how the precinct conventions should be conducted. He also was asked to furnish them with blanks in order that they might report to the county chairman the results of the respective conventions.

H. J. Bruce, secretary of the county executive committee, was elected vice chairman.

Meetings Open to All

Each precinct will be allowed one delegate for every 25 votes cast in the last general election for the democratic nominee for governor. These delegates at the county convention will select delegates to represent Wichita county at the state convention in Beaumont.

Fears of the "constitutional democrat" group to exclude the pledge from precinct conventions have availed them nothing in Wichita county.

Wichita county will send up one delegate to the state convention at Beaumont for every 300 votes cast in the county for the democratic nominee for governor of Texas in 1926. There are 31 precincts in Wichita county. Every democratic qualified citizen will have a right to be heard at the precinct convention.

JURY RETURNS 44 TRUE BILLS

Zimmerman Death Held For Next Session

The grand jury for the 30th district court, April term, was discharged at 5:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon by Judge E. G. Thornton after returning 44 true bills during the term. In an all-day session Thursday only one indictment was returned. It was a charge of assault to murder. Officers were ordered to arrest the person charged.

A two-hour investigation of the murder on April 13 of Theodore Zimmerman, Lee street storekeeper, did not yield an indictment, but the case was held over for the consideration of the next grand jury.

Adjourning on April 10, the grand jury reconvened Thursday morning to consider cases not completed at that time. During the term 188 witnesses were examined by the body and indictments on 44 felonies and three misdemeanors were returned.

The work of Sheriff W. G. Bralley was praised by the grand jury in its final report and suggestion was made that suitable quarters be provided the sheriff's department by the county commissioners court for storage of evidence procured in cases of violation of the state prohibition laws.

It was further suggested in the report that a thorough investigation be made of alleged violations of the state female labor law. Time, the report set out, did not permit the grand jury carrying on investigations into the 9-54 law violations, which would be misdemeanors.

RAINS BENEFIT FARM CROPS IN NORTH TEXAS

Precipitation Covers Large Area in Wichita Falls Territory

NO RAIN TO SOUTH

Fall Extends Northwest And North From This City

While beneficial rains were falling in Wichita Falls and northwest Texas, a light hail was reported at Valley View Thursday. The rains started early Thursday morning and up to 5 o'clock Thursday afternoon .94 inches had fallen locally.

The Thursday rain was beneficial to crops generally, according to G. C. McGown, county agricultural agent. More rain probably would be injurious to the planted cotton, he said.

Automobiles in many parts of the city were put out of commission when the driving wind sprayed the wiring under the hoods with water.

Heaviest Here

The heaviest rains were reported from Wichita Falls northward. The rain was about 1½ inches from Altus through Woodward and Forgan. The sky cleared off in the late afternoon in the last named two cities.

More rain fell here than anywhere on the Fort Worth and Denver. West on this line the rain dwindled to about half an inch. This was reported from Claredon. Memphis reported one inch. Rain west of here on the Denver line started Wednesday night, while the local rains started later.

No rain was reported from Seymour, Abilene, Spur and Stamford. About 1¼ inches was reported from Waurika and Mankins, Holliday, Wellington and Byers registered a rainfall of one inch. Pampa reported a half inch. A good rain fell at Henrietta.

The temperature over the entire area varied from 48 to 50 degrees and a northeast wind was blowing.

Grains Helped

The crops in the county have received varied effects from the rain, Mr. McGown said.

Some of the wheat has already been plowed up because of the continued drouth. The corn and small grains, particularly the oats, were greatly benefited. A good season was put in the ground for the unplanted cotton, and most of the cotton in the county has not been planted, he said.

Ocean Conquerors To Attend Rites At Washington For Floyd Bennett

MURRAY BAY, Que., April 26. (UP) — The gallant crew of the Junkers monoplane Bremen, who made the first westward crossing of the north Atlantic ocean, finally reached civilization today, landing at Lake St. Agnes air field at 3:52 p. m. in the Ford-Stout relief plane which brought them out from Greenly Island.

Casting aside all other aspirations including the elaborate welcome which New York City had planned for them, the crew of the transatlantic airplane will fly to Washington Friday to attend the burial of Floyd Bennett. Bennett gave his life in an effort to carry relief to them while they were on Greenly Island.

Immediately after reaching Murray bay this afternoon on the relief plane which brought them out from ice-locked Greenly Island, the German-Irish crew of the Bremen held a conference with Fraulein Herta Junkers. Then they announced they would take off at dawn for Washington.

Welcome Can Wait

The elaborate and expensive welcome which had been planned for them in New York can wait, they decided, until they have paid their respects to Bennett, who arose from a sickbed to fly a relief plane as far as Murray bay to rescue them.

Baron von Huenefeld, Captain Koehl and Major James Fitzmaurice have been deeply touched by the death of Bennett, Fraulein Junkers said after her conference with the transatlantic flyers.

They feel, she said, that nothing is so important to them now as to express their grief and affection for their comrade of the air, the heroic Bennett.

And so—despite New York City's elaborate preparations to welcome them and despite the expressed wishes of Commander Richard E. Byrd (Bennett's friend and chief) that they remain away from the burial at Washington—the Bremen crew will pass by New York about noon tomorrow and land at Washington to attend Bennett's burial.

Baichen is Pilot

Brent Baichen, associate of Bennett and the man who finished the relief flight to Greenly Island and return when Bennett was stricken with pneumonia, will pilot the plane from Murray bay to Washington. His only other passenger besides the two Germans and Fitzmaurice will be Fraulein Junkers.

Baichen brought the Bremen crew here this afternoon, landing at Lake St. Agnes air field at 3:53 p. m., after a non-stop flight from Greenly Island, where the Bremen was left behind to be taken apart and shipped by steamer to New York next summer.

The Ford plane—Bennett's pride—was brought to earth safely at Lake St. Agnes at an hour when Bennett's body was proceeding from Quebec to Montreal for transfer to New York and Washington.

Bennett died Wednesday of pneumonia which seized him after he drove into St. Agnes last week enroute on an errand of aid to the Bremen crew on frozen "L'Ile Verte"—Greenely Island.

Farewell to Bennett

Today Quebec bade him tender farewell, with martial honors and simple funeral services.

While Bennett's body is going by rail to Washington via Montreal and New York, the German-Irish crew will rest here tonight with Baichen and will set out at 6 a. m. Friday and should reach Washington shortly after noon, in time to attend the burial in Arlington National cemetery.

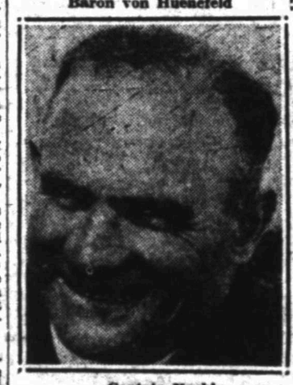

Death Changes Their Plans

Baron von Huenefeld

Major Fitzmaurice

Captain Koehl

The three heroes of the first westward flight across the Atlantic who finally reached civilization yesterday have decided to forego their original plans to fly to New York where an elaborate welcome has been planned for them and instead will go to Washington to attend the services for Floyd Bennett who died from pneumonia contracted while he was on his way to carry aid to the Europeans who were stranded on Greenly island. The fliers reached Murray Bay, Quebec, in the Ford relief plane, having abandoned their Bremen at Greenly.

Senate Vacates Order For Arrest

WASHINGTON, April 26. (AP)—While vacating its order of arrest against Robert W. Stewart, wealthy Chicago oil official, the senate today took steps looking to his further prosecution by certifying to the district attorney of the District of Columbia extracts from his testimony before the Teapot Dome committee for study to determine whether a perjury charge should be lodged against him.

Moreover, it specifically declared its insistence upon the prosecution of the chairman of the board of the Standard Oil company of Indiana on the contempt charge brought against him after his refusal to answer certain questions before the committee when he appeared here on February 2 and 3. That indictment is set for trial on May 21.

With these actions, the senate passed on to the courts all of its differences with Stewart, which began when the oil operator appeared before the committee last February and refused to answer two questions on the ground that he was under subpoena in the criminal conspiracy trial of Harry F. Sinclair and that the questions should be answered in court.

Pair Hit While In Road After Slight Collision

DALLAS, April 26. (AP) — Ike L. Smith, 62, wealthy Collin county farmer, and Jack Rambo, 49, clerk in a dry goods store at McKinney, were released late today on bond on charges of failing to stop and render aid in a fatal accident near here last night.

William Vernon Miller, 27, Wichita Falls bus driver, was killed and Miss Jessie Ragsdale, 16, of Vickery, suffered injuries which caused amputation of her left leg above the knee.

Miller and Miss Ragsdale were struck by an automobile which passed while they were standing in the road after Miss Ragsdale's car and Miller's bus had been in collision, scraping the fenders. Miller's skull was fractured and he died at 3:30 a. m., today without regaining consciousness. Miss Ragsdale was reported very weak from loss of blood at a hospital here tonight.

Smith said today that he was not aware that his car struck anything at the spot at which he was told Miller and Miss Ragsdale were standing. He said that he remembered his car scraping against another machine, but so slightly that he did not dream that anyone could have been injured. His first knowledge of a serious accident came today when he learned that Dallas county officers were seeking him, he said.

Both Smith and Rambo were charged in justice court with failure to stop and render aid and quickly made bond for $3000 in each count.

The body of Miller was sent to Wichita Falls for burial there tomorrow.

Sorority Girl Quizzed in Shooting of Student at Norman

Co-ed Tells Attorney of Her Last Conversation With O-U Youth

NORMAN, Okla., April 26. (UP) A mysterious telephone call to an undertaker following the shooting of Henry Mugler, prominent University of Oklahoma student, here last Monday night, led to the questioning of a sorority girl by the county attorney today.

Girl Related.

The girl, Miss Cleo Kerly of the Kappa Alpha Theta sorority, was quizzed along with several other members of the Theta chapter after the wife of a Norman undertaker told authorities of receiving a phone call from a girl shortly after an ambulance had been sent for Mugler.

Mugler, who was found on the porch of the Phi Kappa Psi fraternity house with a bullet wound under his heart, has insisted he shot himself during despondency caused by worry over his duties as editor of the university yearbook.

Mrs. I. M. Jackson, wife of the undertaker, said shortly after an ambulance call came for Mugler, a girl called, saying "this is the Theta house—has the ambulance gone to the university part of town?"

When Mrs. Jackson told her it had, the girl asked, "Is he badly hurt?" and hung up without giving her name.

Miss Kerly told the county attorney the last conversation she had with Mugler was at noon of the day of the shooting, when she talked to him over the telephone regarding a trip of his to Iowa City, Iowa, in connection with publication of the yearbook.

Two Men Sought.

"He said he would go that afternoon and I told him goodbye and wished him good luck. That is the last time I talked with him," Miss Kerly said.

Meanwhile, officers are also investigating reports that two men were seen carrying Munger's limp form to the porch of the Phi Psi house, ring the door bell and depart.

OLNEY FIELD AVERAGE HIGH

32 Permits to Drill Are Issued by Tilley

Special to The Record News.

OLNEY, Texas, April 26.—Both the shallow and deep sand formations in the Olney district of Archer, Young and Jack counties continue to lure the operators, the average for the past several months having been maintained during the past week when 32 permits to drill were issued by George W. Tilley, deputy supervisor of the oil and gas division of the Texas railroad commission.

While the shallow areas continue to lead in the number of wells drilled, the deep districts are receiving a noticeable amount of play.

The raiders, who on April 12, under General Giron, attacked La Luz y Los Angeles mine, are reported to have intended to join forces with others for an advance against this town. Dorothy Dix, Highest Paid Woman Writer, A Daily Woman's Page Feature

"We Women Miss Fine Joke By Not Seeing Ourselves," Says Dix

"Aren't We Funny," Muses Dorothy Dix, Surveying Feminine Inconsistencies; "We Women Who Can Never See Ourselves as We Are?"

Aren't we women the funny things? And don't we miss an awfully good joke in not being able to see ourselves as we really are?

Nobody has such clear vision as a woman has. No one sees so clearly through other people's ruses as a woman does. But she is blind as a bat to her own weaknesses and peculiarities. Nobody is as hard to fool as a woman, and yet she has perfect confidence that she can befool every one else.

Take the matter of age. A woman can guess within two years of how old any sister woman is, no matter how many times she has had her face lifted, nor how much rouge and lipstick she uses, nor how flapperishly she dresses. Yet she really thinks that nobody takes her for more than 30 long after she is 60. No woman ever has the slightest suspicion that she looks her own age, though she is perfectly aware that all of her friends look theirs, and she sighs as she says how old poor Mary and Susan have grown.

Furthermore, a woman who would go to the stake and be burned rather than tell an untruth about any other subject will lie like Sapphira about her own age. All of us know wome nwho have been 39 years old for at least 20 years and who will never admit to being more than 39 until they perish of senility.

A woman can tell a block away that another woman dyes her hair, but she is firmly convinced that nobody ever suspects her strawberry-jam-colored locks of being anything but a gift from God.

Every fat woman heaves a sigh of relief as she beholds every other stylish stout and breathes a fervent prayer of thanksgiving to Heaven that she isn't that large, no matter if she is in reality 50 pounds heavier.

No fat woman ever admits to herself that she eats anything. She always tells you what a small appetite she has and that she just nibbles on a little chocolate and only uses a mere dash of whipped cream and mayonnaise on her food and scarcely tastes ice cream and rich pastries and cakes.

Every woman wonders why on earth her friends can't realize that they are no longer 16 and haven't schoolgirl complexions when they buy their hats and gowns, and then she goes out and purchases for herself a debutante wardrobe.

No woman ever confessed to having a high temper and a sharp tongue. She is merely of a nervous temperament, and she takes credit to herself for being frank and saying just exactly what she thinks, no matter whom it wounds.

Every woman is bored to tears by other women's accounts of how wonderful and beautiful their children are and what a cute thing little Johnny did and how many millionaires Maud could have married, but they believe that every one is just waiting with bated breath while they monologue by the hour about the charms and perfections of their own children.

No mother ever spoils her children. Other mothers spoil their little brats rotten, but the reason she indulges her children in everything they want to do and never tries to control them is because they are so delicate and so highly sensitive that they can not be made to mind without unduly exciting them.

Other women have dull, ugly, unattractive children, but every mother's geese are all swans. Mary may have carroty hair and muddy skin and a pug nose, but mother says her face is so interesting or that her irregular profile is so piquant. Johnny may be stupid, but mother finds him thoughtful. Bobby may be bone lazy and loaf while mother works to support him, but mother admires him for having an artistic temperament which makes it impossible for him to engage in ordinary, sordid labor, such as other women's sons do.

No woman ever nagged her family. She only performs her sacred duty when she continually reminds her husband and children of their faults, and the reason why she tells them the same thing over a million times is because she is trying to raise them up to the higher life.

It is never the wife's fault when she fails to get along with her husband. The reason they quarrel is because he is so utterly unreasonable that he can not see that she is always right about everything and that she should have her own way and everything she wants. She would be perfectly willing to compromise with him if he would come around to her point of view.

No wife ever failed to understand her husband. It is he who does not understand her and fails to see that she is the one who should be considered and petted and praised for everything she does and who does not realize that she has a soul above a gas range and watching the butcher's bills.

No woman ever leaves her husband and goes off to a summer resort because she wants to be where it will be cool and comfortable and where she will have a good time. She sacrifices herself to go for the sake of the children.

Most women think that all of the other women they know were pretty lucky to get husbands who make them a comfortable living and provide them with pretty clothes and good houses and cars. But nearly every woman feels that she made a terrible sacrifice in marrying and that she could have been a great actress or writer or business woman if she had only gone in for a career.

No woman ever gets old enough to outgrow romance or to cease to desire to be loved, and most of them believe that they are still vamps at 90.

Aren't we funny, we women?

MODISH MITZI — IT'S A SECRET — By Jay V. Jay

Marie's ensemble is a knitted tweed of misty green—at least the coat is knitted although the dress is crepe. Marie's hat is straw and you can see what a nice background it is for her curls. Marie is confiding in Dad because Dad is that sort—she is confiding to him that Mitzi and the Goofer are awfully in love with each other.

She told Aunt Sophia too; and saying that Aunt Sophia is surprised puts it mildly. Aunt Sophia looks adequate to the occasion—in an ensemble of white and rust tweed with a dress banded in the wool—but all she can find to say is: "Well, there's no reason why they can't be married." Marie sometimes thinks Aunt Sophia is cruel!

"But something it keeping them apart," Marie is telling Polly, "perhaps something in their pasts." Polly doesn't even try to answer. Somehow, she can't think of anything appropriate to say. Polly's suit has a wool frock with a long cape to match and the bands of trimming are silk. The buckled collar is new and especially modish.

"What's this nonsense the child has been saying?" asks Aunt Sophia, and once more Marie feels she has no soul. She has a nice hat, though, with just the hint of a brim. Polly's hat is straw with swooping wing on each side and a wide brim, but turned completely back. It's hardly a conference, Marie thinks, there's too much static.

DALHART CLUB MEETING ENDS

Snyder Selected for 1929 Convention City

DALHART, Texas, April 26.—Two hundred sixty-seven registered delegates and visitors, including regular delegates of Dalhart, from thirty-seven different towns, joined in making the three days' program of the Seventh District Texas Federated Women's clubs at Dalhart a success. The third day's program was known as "County Federation Day." Most of the morning was taken up with committee reports and reports from different clubs. Of the 202 clubs in the seventh district 165 had registered delegates present.

Snyder was selected as the hostess city of the seventh district for 1929. A bid for the 1930 convention was presented by Pampa delegates, who distributed copies of their local newspaper and a folder invitation from the city administration. The weather man lent cooperation in helping the Dalhart people entertain the seventh district federation by giving ideal weather with the exception of a slight norther Thursday morning.

During the forenoon session a short memorial service was rendered with Mrs. J. T. Whitmore, Snyder, presiding. Miss Margaret Doorley, Dalhart, sang "Crossing the Bar." The prize, an enlarged picture of "The Spirit of '76" offered by Mrs. W. H. Britt, Lamesa, to the club doing the most outstanding work in citizenship training was presented by Mrs. W. R. Potter, state president, to the women's culture club of Post, Texas.

One feature of the forenoon program was a short animated picture slide story by Mrs. G. J. Nunn, Amarillo, who showed numerous pictures of historical buildings of the state of Texas.

Mrs. Phebe K. Warner, Claude, widely-known club woman of Texas, appeared before the student body of the Dalhart high school and delivered a short talk on the valuable use of time.

Mrs. F. T. Collins, district president, talked to the pupils on the "Noble Pleasure of Praise." At 11 o'clock Mrs. Warner delivered a wonderful address on "The Nation's Bread Basket." She prefaced her remarks by giving many tributes of praise to Mrs. Sherman, national president, for the wonderful work she has done within the past four years. Mrs. Sherman has done more to cause women's clubs to make surveys of the American homes than any other individual.

Mrs. Warner prophesied that at the present rate of leaving the rural districts that there will be no country people left within fifteen years if something isn't done to change rural conditions.

For 1929 Mrs. Warner says that the greatest work of federated clubs is to study the needs of farm women and how these needs may be met. Her answer to the great problem of rural neglect today is the formation of a county club federation. It is the desire of Mrs. Warner that county federation idea be a reality in every one of the fifty counties now represented in the seventh district.

The silver cup offered to the club which made the highest score in social work was won by the Dalhart Choral club in the contest held late Wednesday afternoon.

The noon day luncheon served by the Presbyterian ladies was known as "the county federation luncheon" and was presided over by Mrs. Warner, who announced to the visitors present that Dallam was the first county in the state of Texas to get a county library. She in turn introduced Mrs. Kate Inman Thompson, the first librarian, and Mrs. Iris Albright, the present librarian, both of whom made short talks.

Local Company Wins Verdict

Wichita School Supply Given $14,000 Award

The Wichita School Supply company, defendant in a suit in which the Stafford Manufacturing company sought damages of more than $25,000 for alleged non-payment of invoices, was awarded judgment for approximately $14,000 against the Stafford company by a jury in the 89th district court Thursday.

The Stafford company filed suit against the local company, and W. G. Smith, official of the Wichita School Supply company and P. H. Brown, former official, alleging the Wichita School Supply company was indebted to the Stafford company for merchandise invoiced but not paid.

In a cross suit the Wichita School company admitted portions of the claims, but set forth that the total amounts owed the Wichita School Supply company by the Stafford company exceeded the Stafford claim by approximately $15,000. The Wichita School Supply company then asked judgment for this balance, the award being made for a sum approximating $14,000 in the court verdict in favor of the Wichita School Supply company.

Jouette M. Bonner, one of the attorneys for the plaintiff, said an appeal would be taken in the case. Smoot and Smoot represented the Wichita School Supply company.

The girl whose menstrual periods ever cause a broken, simply hasn't heard about Midol. Menstruation is natural. But the pain is not!

Midol will end menstrual pains in five to seven minutes.

This merciful discovery of the specialists is not a narcotic. It does nothing to hinder or hasten the process of menstruation. But it does end the painful part; if you anticipate your time the expected pain will not appear at all. Tiny tablets, in convenient little aluminum case, fifty cents at any drug store. Dr. Switzer Tells of Customs Among Women of South America

The women of South America are eager to learn American ways of doing things in order that they may get away from their conventions and superstitions, according to Dr. Rebecca Switzer of the College of Industrial Arts at Denton, who addressed members of the literature department of the Woman's Forum Thursday afternoon on "Women of men of their nation, who regard women as unfit subjects for higher education. The Spanish intolerance in that direction has been increased by the Moorish sentiment that permeates some South American countries.

To be seen in the streets unchaperoned was once considered the mark of an undesirable character, but matters have changed now that women are branching forth into industrial lines, for they cannot be chaperoned to and from work with any degree of success.

The men of that country are chivalrous to women of their own family but disregard any such protective obligation concerning women of other families. This sentiment is on the wane, Dr. Switzer believes, due to the novel sight of women engaged in gainful pursuits.

Education among the women of South America had its beginning among the middle classes and is still largely confined to those women who have the strength to combat public opinion and who have not been made unduly dependent by the restraints of aristocracy, it was stated.

The love of color and ornamentation is an outstanding trait of the South American women, and they persist in color and beauty even to sacrificing sanitation, comfort and common sense.

Tuberculosis is the plague of that country and instruction in sanitation to combat that disease is as yet incipient, the speaker said. The rate in infant mortality is also South America."

The women of the country are beginning to see the futility of their secluded lives and eternal chaperonage and are eager to be taught means of making their own living and following interesting pursuits. While education for the women of South America is practically recent, preparatory schools for girls are being erected in even the more backward countries. Educational conditions among the women of the nation are different in the various countries, but are found to be the most favorable in Argentina, Brazil and Chile, which countries are also most advanced in matters of business and politics.

The meeting was presided over by Mrs. James C. Berney, chairman. Mrs. Berney expressed appreciation of the co-operation of the members of the department during her year of service was brought to a close at the Thursday afternoon meeting.

Mrs. Wayne Somerville, new chairman, was introduced by Mrs. Berney as was Mrs. J. W. Cantwell, vice chairman.

Ramblin'

with

Marie Theresa

"AFTER reading Harper's Bazar for May, I have decided to cut my hair again," one of Marie Theresa's friends remarked the other day.

And a peep into the fashion magazine would tempt a person to again use the shears, if she is at all susceptible to what style centers are saying about the mode of abbreviated hair.

"Short hair is not merely a new fashion, it marks the beginning of a new era. Though, so far not universally adopted, short hair has come to stay. The long haired, not the short haired woman, will henceforth be classed as exceptional," says Baron de Meyer, style expert de luxe, in the May edition mentioned above.

When asked for the probable trend the short hair style would take, the baron was right there with an expert opinion.

"Why, the evolution is already in full swing. The exaggerated shingle at the back of the head is already over. So is the curved in effect at the nape of the neck. Occasionally, it is filled in with short curls. Curls on the neck, however, demand uncovered ears and hair tightly pulled back from the temples as well as large earrings. This style will be considered smart, but trying to most women."

So, you see, you may still wear your hair short, but not too short, unless you have slight regard for what is just right in the fashion world.

MAYBE the baron is a bit extreme for the general run of us, but he seems to strike the note that all the fashion forecast has indicated—that short hair has not been a fad, that is it is sensible style and has come to stay in the feminine world just as it has in the masculine.

Can you imagine men, after all these years of convenience in the mode of hair dress, going back to the days of powdered wigs or well curled shoulder length hair? Not much, and neither will women ever go back en masse to the style that calls for a great deal of inconvenience and the maximum amount of care.

Neither will they very easily relinquish the ease and freedom with which they remove their hats, and assume a well groomed appearance by merely running a comb through their short locks, miles away from a mirror.

PAGING Emily Post, who says that no lady will be seen carrying a package on the street. The women of South America have it all over Emily, according to Dr. Rebecca Switzer who lectured on "Women of South America" at the Woman's Forum Thursday afternoon. For pandemonium broke loose in Buenos Aires recently, when due to crowded conditions, a meal was served cafeteria style by the Y. W. C. A. of that city.

Some of the ladies of the city refused flatly to partake of the meal, while a few who live in the Y. W. slipped around the back steps and carried their trays up to their rooms and ate the meal there without losing an ounce of self respect, let it be hoped, occasioned by carrying anything in public.

ANOTHER one on the women of the southern half of this continent is this: A little girl brought up in one of the conventional families of the city of Buenos Aires, refused to attend a movie until the bright hair ribbon she wore was exchanged for a black one. This mourning was South American respects paid to a grand-uncle who had died some two years previous.

DOCTOR SWITZER was impressed by the fact that the women of that country take up the study of law, medicine and engineering in preference to occupations classed among feminine pursuits, according to the standards of the United States. This is somewhat at variance with the custom of women in the states, who have thus far left those fields practically unexplored, though they have had a free rein for many more years than have their Latin sisters to the south.

A new wrinkle in meeting prospective customers. Each member of the Woman's Forum who will call at the establishment of the Shepherd Cleaners, will be given 10 cents for the forum. With 1,200 members in the Woman's Forum, that should swell the treasury a bit.

Executive Housewife

Mrs. Alfred E. Smith, above, "doesn't have time to mix in politics." She's too busy taking care of the children and making the executive mansion a "real home."

MRS. SMITH 'HOME MAKER'

Girl Reporter Visits Al Smiths

By BONITA WITT
Staff Writer for Central Press and The Record News

ALBANY, N. Y., April 26.—Just folks!

That's the impression a visitor gains after passing part of a day at the executive mansion with Mrs. Alfred E. Smith, wife of the governor, and her family.

True, the house is the official residence of the governor of New York, but it's more than that—it's a home. And before many minutes one gathers that it is Mrs. Smith who has transformed the big house, with its large rooms, into a home for the governor and their children.

Children Chief Interest

Mrs. Smith doesn't have much time to take an active part in politics. "I'm kept busy," she says, "looking after my children."

There isn't a great deal of entertaining at the mansion, since the Smiths prefer informal gatherings of friends to state dinners. Mrs. Smith endeavors to put guests at ease and to give them a "good time." Should the Smiths be called to the White House one feels state functions would take on a less solemn tone.

Although Mrs. Smith is the "first lady" of New York, she hasn't forgotten her friends on Oliver street, on New York's east side, many of whom come to visit her even today. Her daughter, Catherine, who is to be married in June, has chosen for her maid of honor one of her Oliver street playmates. Often when Mrs. Smith goes to New York she brings several of the old friends back to Albany with her for a week-end.

Goes to Races, Too

All trips to New York are made by auto. Mrs. Smith delights in automobile riding and attending the races at Saratoga. Speaking of horses, they are just about the only animals that can't be found at the mansion. The family is proud of its zoo. First of all, there are the four monkeys, Java, Empey, Pat (because she looks Irish) and Joey. Almost every evening the governor can be seen standing outside the wire screen of their cage, watching the antics of the animals.

Then there's Buff (so named be-

Easy HOUSEKEEPING

By Mrs. Meg MacGregor, Director of Household Science

Keeping the kitchen sink respectable

There's an easier way to achieve a reputation as an immaculate housekeeper than by hours of scrubbing.

Some task that used to be, but not now! My drainboard is wood and I have learned to keep it white without scrubbing. I can take off all the discoloration and stains of a busy day in no time. I mix a solution of Clorox and with a rag wipe off the drainboard—quickly, easily. "No elbow grease"—no effort at all!—But a white and "sweet" board.

The dish rag too

Dish rags are horrid things at best. But kept white with Clorox they will be as fresh as a handkerchief. Just soak your dish rags in the same solution you make to wash your drainboard. They will be white and really clean—for Clorox disinfects and deodorizes as well as bleaches.

To clean tile

Speaking of drainboards, Mrs. H. B. D. of St. Louis has asked me whether she can use Clorox on her tiled drainboard. By all means. Follow the directions on the Clorox label—all spots and stains will disappear.

Those discouraging drainpipes

If there is anything more disheartening than a sluggish kitchen drainpipe I have yet to see it! Pour boiling water down the drainpipe, follow with a cupful of Clorox, and in a few minutes more water. The pipes will be as clear as a bell. You've not only cleared them of "muck" but you've cleared them of all germs and odors, too. This applies to bathroom bowls as well.

A truly respectable sink

Pot Shots at Politics

by Col. Hugh Nugent Fitzgerald

FUN FOR TEXAS GOP

National Committeeman Rene B. Creager is reminded that the Hoover Republicans have the Colorado state convention sewed up. They had counted noses. They had all the big political bulls in one pasture. Then a resolution was offered instructing the eight delegates-at-large to the Kansas City convention to cast their votes for Herbert Hoover of California. What happened was gall and wormwood to the Hoover leader. Tabled was the resolution. A majority of the delegates would not stand for instructions. They prefer to go to Kansas City free and unhampered. Boss Creager says that the Hooverites have Texas sewed up. Col. Charles C. Littleton of Fort Worth and Cong. Harry M. Wurzbach are confident that the Republicans who believe in an uninstructed delegation will make a clean sweep of the May precinct conventions. Gooseneck William M. McDonald, negro banker and leader, has advised the black Republicans of Texas to go in great numbers to the May precinct convention and overwhelm Creager and his lieutenants. Really the Democrats are not having all the sport way down here in Texas. There are about 10 Democrats or so-called Democrats to one Republican in Texas, and this is one of the reasons why the mole workers and the borers from within are ever in evidence.

SLATES

Col. Thomas H. Ball, having represented Texas in part at every national Democratic convention from 1892 to 1924, except in 1916, is a candidate for delegate-at-large to the Democratic national convention in Houston. Colonel Ball will be on the Love slate. Former Attorney General T. W. Gregory of Houston is a candidate for delegate-at-large. His name will not be found on the Love slate.

DINNER STORIES

NEEDED, ONE BOOK!

The movie director was stumped. The room had enough pennants, and there were signs of assorted sizes, with a few pictures of actresses. He saw the football picture and campus posters that he had ordered the props to put up. Yes, there was the clock that had stopped, and the room had been decorated by throwing the things into their places. But still..."Jim, you went to college," he said, turning to an assistant. "Just what is the matter with it?" "Well, sometimes, we studied—" "Hey, Bill—bring a book."

Not Afraid of Bond Issues

EARLY in the year the taxpayers of Dallas voted $23,000,000 in bonds, authorized in the Ulrickson plan election. Now the citizens of Dallas and of Dallas county have put over two bond issues totaling $14,000,000.

Money talks; money builds; money extends the boundary lines of a city; money extends the trade territory of a city; money builds highways in the rich trading territory; money makes a city beautiful; money makes a city attractive to home seekers and investors.

That's the way men of vision and men of pluck built Dallas.

Speaking of the Veto Axe

PRESIDENT COOLIDGE, in his address before the convention of the Daughters of the American Revolution remarked: "We shall constantly remember that society cannot take any short cut. It cannot escape from itself. It cannot shift, it cannot dodge, it cannot avoid meeting its own responsibilities. Any scheme to evade, however specious it may appear, will prove to be only a delusion." This must have been a hint to congressional lawmakers that farm relief and flood relief proposals are going to get it where the chicken got the axe.

Millions From the Skies

RAIN-SOAKED wheat fields throughout northwest Texas and southwest Oklahoma Thursday afternoon seemed like an answer to prayer to the farmers of this section.

Even statisticians with the sharpest of pencils would probably underestimate the value in dollars and cents of the literally heavensent downpour.

One of the finest stands of wheat in years has been reported for this great territory. But lately the crop has been daily in more and more need of moisture.

Thursday's general and generous rainfall spells P-r-o-s-p-e-r-i-t-y to both farmer and city dweller throughout the section of the southwest of which Wichita Falls is the hub.

She Wanted a $10,000,000 Baby

SEBASTIAN S. KRESGE, a king of the chain store world and the largest contributor to the Anti-Saloon league fund, is forever having trouble with his matrimonial partners. His latest is that the wife who is now suing him for divorce told him "that if he would give her $10,000,000 she would bear a child for him, but if not, there would be no child."

Sebastian refused to put up the $10,000,000. Mrs. Sebastian kept her word. Now they are in the divorce court.

He had children by his first wife. She divorced him. Now the gordian knot will be cut for a second time and Sebastian will be free to take unto himself a third wife or travel alone.

But back to the milk and the cocoanut; he refused to produce the coin.

Given a Clean Bill of Health

HARRY F. SINCLAIR is a lucky individual. He was given a clean bill of health by a jury of 12. By their verdict the 12 said that he did not conspire with Albert B. Fall to wrest or steal from the government the naval oil leases. By their verdict the 12 said that the $250,000 in liberty bonds that he handed to Albert B. Fall was not a bribe, but a payment in part for a big interest in one of the Fall ranches in New Mexico.

Of course, the supreme court of the United States stripped Sinclair of the Teapot Dome concession. This court of last resort composed of nine distinguished jurists declared that the leases reeked with fraud or fraudulent practices and the decision did not leave Sinclair a leg to stand on.

Martin W. Littleton defended Sinclair.. He is one of the great criminal lawyers of America. Thirty-five years ago he worked as section hand on the Texas and Pacific railroad, near the town of Weatherford in Parker county, to earn money to buy books. By the light of a kerosene lamp he pored over the books. He saturated his youthful mind with knowledge. In time he drifted from Weatherford to Dallas.

Col. W. L. Crawford at the time was the foremost criminal lawyer of the south. He became interested in young Littleton. He gave him desk room. He became advisor of the boy who had his start as a section laborer. He advised Littleton later to go to New York. Littleton accepted the advice of this giant of the law, whose reputation was almost national.

Littleton defended Harry K. Thaw. He convinced the jury that Thaw was insane. Then his fortune was made. Now those on the inside in the city of Washington say that the fee of the barrister who saved Sinclair from conviction will be around the $500,000 mark.

Truth is stranger than fiction. If there is a doubter, let him study the life of Martin W. Littleton, who earned his first dollar as a section worker in Parker county, Texas.

NOT THE SLEEP, BUT THE ADVERTISING

If reports be true, many other frogs have hibernated for years in rock or clay, and have been released by accident to continue their journey through life. They have not become famous because of the unusual feat. But Rip was advertised before he was liberated from his dark hole and bets were made whether he would appear alive or as a handful of dust. He came out alive, and, because he had been advertised, he had become famous. To the human eye he looks so much like his thousands of cousins eating red ants in West Texas right now that it might be hard to identify him should he get loose and stray into a horned frog community. But so long as he can be kept segregated and it is known positively that he is the horned frog of the long sleep, Rip should continue to be famous and attract an admiring audience.

A TIP FOR WICHITA FALLS

The stranger in Childress usually asks about the water supply for the city, and the water condition for years hence. When told that the city has solved the problem for the next ten years that stranger generally smiles in a way to cast doubt upon the claims made. But when the subject is gone into he realized the assertions made are more nearly true than he believed. Childress is indeed fortunate in solving the water problem in the manner she has. Not only is the supply at this time ample, but it will be for eight or ten years, and the conditions are such the supply can be multiplied many times over without it being necessary to erect new pumping plants or to spend large sums of money.

Health and Diet Advice

By DR. FRANK McCOY

Author of "The Fast Way to Health"

Questions in regard to health and diet will be answered by Dr. McCoy, who can be addressed in care of this paper.

KEEP ABDOMINAL MUSCLES DEVELOPED

If man walked on all fours, the abdominal organs would hang in their natural position from the sides. Just because he has learned to walk erect, these organs easily sag down and lie on each other in the lower abdominal cavity. The stomach and intestines lie upon the lower organs of the pelvis, pushing them out of position down to the very basin of the pelvis. The consequence is that many faulty positions of these organs are developed.

One of the commonest troubles from prolapsus of the abdominal organs is that caused by kinks in the colon. These may occur in the large colon or in the small intestine, and are due either to a prolapsus of these organs, or to adhesions which pull some part of the intestine out of its normal position. Adhesions are composed of connective tissue which grows from the irritated covering of one organ to another irritation on an adjacent organ.

Obstipation is often the cause of constipation, and means obstruction of the intestines. Without prolapsus or inflammation of these organs, such obstipation could not exist, but the fact that it does exist shows that prolapsus is very common.

Weakening of the abdominal muscles can be cited as the principal cause of any gastro-enteroptosis. (That sounds terrible, doesn't it?) That large word simply means prolapsus of the stomach and intestines.

Few people keep their abdominal muscles well enough developed so that their abdomens are flat, but allow a bay window to develop, with a sagging belly which distorts their whole anatomical structure. This protrusion of the abdomen is unlovely to the sight, but more than that, it is positively dangerous to health, as it indicates an unhealthy condition of all of the organs of the abdomen. As this bay window protrudes and sags down, it is evidence of the gradual weakening of the muscular tone of the entire alimentary canal. Constipation and costiveness must result from this sagging.

There is no way you can restore these organs to their normal tone and bring them back to their proper position except by taking vigorous exercise for the abdonimal muscles. These exercises, taken while lying on the back, called the "setting up" exercises, are the best for this purpose, and you can develop these muscles equally as well as the prize fighter or wrestler.

Do not make the mistake of thinking that athletes are born with any better opportunity for developing their muscles than you have. If you will develop the washboard muscles of the abdomen of the prize fighter, you can rest assured that you will not suffer from any kind of prolapsus.

Do not waste your time taking exercises while standing, as these exercises have no appreciable effect upon the abdominal muscles. Take all of your exercises while lying on your back on the floor. Practice the exercise slowly at first, and gradually increase until you can do them vigorously for at least 15 minutes a day.

The flatter your abdomen becomes, the greater your degree of strength and health, with a decrease in weight, and an added buoyancy to your walk.

(I will be glad to send you a special article describing these exercises, with an illustrated chart which will make them plain to you. Just send a large, self-addressed, stamped envelope.)

Questions and Answers

Question—Ethel D. asks: "Could you tell me a remedy for my fingers. They get extremely cold, then start swelling, first in the joints and then work up to the fingertips. The soreness starts by small lumps forming under the skin, then becoming real red. By touching anything cold my fingers get blue and numb. Would like to find a cure, as I have to work for a living."

Answer—Probably you are having some kind of functional heart trouble. Your physician should be able to tell you whether my guess is correct. Send for special articles on heart derangements and poor circulation.

Question—Mrs. R. W. writes: "Please tell me if you consider rhubarb a good food."

Answer—If rhubarb could be made palatable without the addition of so much sugar in its preparation, my answer would be "yes," but as it does require this excessive amount of sugar, I never recommend it.

Question—J. K. H. writes: "Four years ago I was operated on for frontal sinus trouble. All went well till this past month, since when the incision in my nose and part of my eyebrow has been breaking open about every week, with a discharge of pus and bloody serum. What causes this, and how can it be stopped?"

Answer—Operations for sinus and antrum trouble are usually disappointing, as one operation follows the other in an attempt to get rid of the pus condition which can be cured only through cleaning up the blood stream. A 10-day fast should clear up your trouble, and if you will then live on a suitable diet it should not return. I have written a special article called "A Good Cleansing Diet," which tells you exactly how to take a short fast followed by a cleansing diet. Send a large, self-addressed envelope with your request for this article.

The Day Book of a New Yorker

By BURTON RASCOE

NEW YORK, April 26. — Variegated notes of a reporter covering the biggest beat in the world:

An Irish Catholic cook prepares the kosher food drug store supplies bicarbonate of soda in a glass of water, without charge.

Dr. A. A. Brill, noted psychoanalyst, is a boxing fan.

The author Henry Ford knows best is Hamlin Garland. The friendship arose out of the automaker's interest in colonial and post-colonial customs, to which Garland has given considerable attention in his novels.

Marye Berne, former prima donna of German opera companies and of civic opera companies in the U. S., now is in the chorus of a Broadway musical comedy.

The hobby of a prominent Wall street operator is cigar making. He imports tobacco suited to his taste, rolls his own, ages the finished product for several moths in special containers. They are long, of medium width, and of light brown color.

Irvin S. Cobb, the humorist is an authority on red-Indian lore and a collector of aborginal relics.

"Crashing the gate" is a popular New York sport, and the urge to get into smart, exclusive social affairs is as great as to see athletic events free. Hosts and hostesses at balls or parties at which several hundred guests are expected, are put to considerable trouble to devise ways and means of keeping out the uninvited.

The fact that members of the "400," who now largely inhabit apartments rather than mansions, do most of their entertaining in hotels, has made it easier for the gate-crasher. One gentleman in evening dress looks like another to hotel help, or footmen hired from an agency for one evening. And invited guests have a way of taking advantage of a host or hostess by bringing along uninvited friends to help drink the liquor. A hostess who sends out 200 invitations and arranges for food and refreshments for a like number, frequently finds her hired ballroom crowded with 350, and her refreshments inadequate. Of course, on such occasions it is the gate-crashers who eat and drink the most, leaving the invited guests hungry and dry.

Park avenue hostesses aren't the only ones who suffer. Whenever Harlem society arranges a grand ball, efforts are made to keep the time and place a secret, so that the black dancers will not be crowded off the floor by white visitors. And at social affairs of a Tammany district organization, a rubber stamp of a tiger's head is affixed to the hands of all invited guests. Any man or woman found in the hall without a stamped hand is promptly and unceremoniously thrown out.

At Coney Island, the home of the "hot dog," dogs are not permitted on the boardwalk promenade!

THE STORY THUS FAR

Vance's theory is that two unknown persons were in the "Canary's apartment on that fatal evening: one locked in a clothes closet, the other the man who strangled Margaret Odell. The murder is the most baffling one Vance ever has encountered. In no way can they account for the presence of anyone in the girl's apartment. The door to the alley was bolted on the inside and the man who had gone out with Margaret Odell the night before had been the only one to be seen with her, and circumstances completely eliminated him.

CHAPTER XII

Heath sought consolation in a new line of thought.

"Anyway," he submitted, "we know that the fancy fellow with the patent-leather pumps who called here last night at half past nine was probably Odell's lover, and was grafting on her."

"And in just what recondite way does that obvious fact help to roll the clouds away?" asked Vance. "Nearly every modern Delilah has an avaricious amoroso. It would be rather singular if there wasn't such a chap in the offing, what?"

"That's all right, too," returned Heath. "But I'll tell you something, Mr. Vance, that maybe you don't know. The men that these girls lose their heads over are generally crooks of some kind—professional criminals, you understand. That's why, knowing that this job was the mark of a professional, it don't leave me cold, as you might say, to learn that this fellow who was threatening Odell an grafting on her was the same one who was prowling around here last night. . . . And I'll say this, too; the description of him sounds a whole lot like the kind of high-class burglars that hang out at these swell all-night cafes."

"You're convinced, then," asked Vance mildly, "that this job, as you call it, was done by a professional criminal?"

Heath was almost contemptuous in his reply. "Didn't the guy wear gloves, and use a jimmy? It was a yeggman's job, all right."

(Tuesday, Sept. 11, 11:45 a. m.)

Markham went to the window and stood, his hands behind him, looking down into the little paved rear yard. After several minutes he turned slowly.

"The situation, as I see it," he said, "boils down to this: The Odell girl has an engagement for dinner and the theater with a man of some distinction. He calls for her a little after seven, and they go out together. At 11 o'clock they return. He goes with her into her apartment and remains half an hour.

"He leaves at half past eleven and asks the phone operator to call him a taxi. While he is waiting the girl screams and calls for help, and, in response to his inquiries she tells him nothing is wrong and bids him go away. The taxi arrives, and he departs in it. Ten minutes later someone telephones her, and a man answers from her apartment. This morning she is found murdered, and the apartment ransacked."

He took a long draw on his cigar.

"Now, it is obvious that when she and her escort returned last night, there was another man in this place somewhere; and it is also obvious that the girl was alive after her escort departed. Therefore we must conclude that the man who was already in the apartment was the person who murdered her.

"This conclusion is further corroborated by Doctor Doremus' report that the crime occurred between eleven and twelve. But since her escort did not leave till half past eleven, and spoke with her after that time, we can put the actual hour of the murder as between half past eleven and midnight. . . . These are the inferable facts from the evidence thus far adduced."

"There's not much getting away from 'em," agreed Heath.

"At any rate, they're interestin'," murmured Vance.

Markham, walking up and down earnestly, continued:

"The features of the situation revolving round these inferable facts are as follows: There was no one hiding in the apartment at seven o'clock—the hour the maid went home. Therefore, the murderer entered the apartment later.

"First, then, let us consider the side door. At six o'clock—an hour before the maid's departure—the janitor bolted it on the inside, and both operators disavow emphatically that they went near it. Moreover, you, Sergeant, found it bolted this morning. Hence, we may assume that the door was bolted on the inside all night, and that nobody could have entered that way. Consequently, we are driven to the inevitable alternative that the murderer entered by the front door.

"Now let us consider this other mean of entry. The phone operator who was on duty until ten o'clock last night asserts positively that the only person who entered the front door and passed down the main hall to this apartment was a man who rang the bell and, getting no answer, immediately walked out again. The other operator, who was on duty from ten o'clock until this morning, asserts with equal positiveness that no one entered the front door and passed the switchboard coming to this apartment.

"Add to all this the fact that every window on this floor is barred, and that no one from upstairs can descend into the main hall without coming face to face with the operator, and we are, for the moment, confronted with an impasse."

Heath scratched his head and laughed mirthlessly.

"It don't make sense, does it, sir?"

"What about the next apartment?" asked Vance, "the one with the door facing the rear passageway—No. 2, I think?"

Heath turned to him patronizingly. "I looked into that the first thing this morning. Apartment No. 2 is occupied by a single woman: and I woke her up at eight o'clock and searched the place. Nothing there. Anyway, you have to walk past the switchboard to reach her apartment the same as you do to reach this one; and nobody called on her or left her apartment last night.

"What's more Jessup, who's a shrewd, sound lad, told me this woman is a quiet, ladylike sort, and that she and Odell didn't even know each other."

"You're so thorough, Sergeant!" murmured Vance.

"Of course," put in Markham, "it would have been possible for someone from the other apartment to have slipped in here behind the operator's back between 7 and 11, and then to have slipped back after the murder. But as Sergeant Heath's search this morning failed to uncover anyone, we can eliminate the possibility of our man having operated from that quarter."

"I dare say you're right," Vance indifferently admitted. "But it strikes me, Markham old dear, that your own affectin' recapitulation of the situation jolly well eliminates the possibility of your man's having operated from any quarter.

And yet he came in, garroted the unfortunate damsel, and departed—eh, what? . . . It's a charmin' little problem. I wouldn't have missed it for worlds."

"It's uncanny," pronounced Markham gloomily.

"It's positively spiritualistic," amended Vance. "It has the caressin' odor of a seance. Really, y' know, I'm beginning to suspect that some medium was hovering in the vicinage last night doing some rather tip-top materializations. . . . I say Markham, could you get an indictment against an ectoplasmic emanation?"

"It wasn't no spook that made those finger-prints," growled Heath, with surly truculence.

Markham halted his nervous pacing and regarded Vance irritably!

"Damnit! This is rank nonsense. The man got in some way, and he got out, too. There's something wrong somewhere. Either the maid is mistaken about someone being here when she left, or else one of those phone operators went to sleep and won't admit it."

"Or else one of 'em's lying," supplemented Heath.

Vance shook his head. "The maid, I'd say, is eminently trustworthy. And if there was any doubt about anyone's having come in the front door unnoticed, the lads on the switchboard would, in the present circumstances, be only too eager to admit it . . . No, Markham, you'll simply have to approach this affair from the astral plane, so to speak."

Markham grunted his distaste of Vance's jocularity.

"That line of investigation I leave to you with your metaphysical theories and esoteric hypotheses."

"But, consider," protested Vance banteringly. "You've proved conclusively—or, rather, you've demonstrated legally—that no one could have entered or departed from this apartment last night; and, as you've often told me, a court of law must decide all matters, not in accord with the known or suspected facts, but according to the evidence; and the evidence in this case would prove a sound alibi for every corporeal being extant.

"And yet, it's not exactly tenable, d' ye see, that the lady strangled herself. If only it had been poison, what an exquisite and satisfyin' suicide case you'd have! . . . Most inconsiderate of her homicidal visitor not to have used arsenic instead of his hands!"

"Well, he strangled her," pronounced Heath. "Furthermore, I'll lay my money on the fellow who called her last night at half past nine and couldn't get in. He's the bird I want to talk to."

"Indeed?" Vance produced another cigaret. "I shouldn't say, to judge from our description of him, that his conversation would prove particularly fascinatin'."

"You've demonstrated that no one could have entered or departed from this apartment last night. And yet it's not exactly tenable, d'ye see, that the lady strangled herself."

CASHIER HELD ON CHARGE MAKING FALSE RECORDS

HARRISONVILLE, Mo., April 26. (AP)—M. N. Stark, cashier of the defunct bank of Westline, Mo., was arrested in Westline today by Otis C. Martin, sheriff of Cass county, on information issued by T. N. Haynes, prosecuting attorney. Stark is charged with falsifying the bank records. Stark was taken before James A. Prater, justice of the peace here, and his appearance bond was set at $2,500, which Stark arranged.

Texas Mother Was Right

Within a few months there will be no more feverish, bilious, headachy, constipated, pale and puny children! That prophecy would surely come true if every mother could see for herself how quickly, easily, and harmlessly the bowels of babies and children are cleansed, regulated, given tone and strength by a product which has proved its merit and reliability to do what is claimed for it to millions of mothers in over fifty years of steadily increasing use.

As mothers find out from using it how children respond to the gentle influence of California Fig Syrup by growing stronger, sturdier and more active daily they simply have to tell other mothers about it. That's one of the reasons for its overwhelming sales of over four million bottles a year.

A Texas mother, Mrs. J. Owen, 624 Thompson St., San Antonio, says: "Before my daughter, Lillian, was a year old, she began having constipation. Mother got me to give her California Fig Syrup and in a few days she was all right and looked fine again. This pleased me so much that I have used Fig Syrup ever since for all her colds or little upset spells. It always stops her trouble quick, strengthens her, makes her eat."

Always ask for California Fig Syrup by the full name and see that the carton bears the word "California." Then you'll get the genuine.—Ad

FRANK ERNEST NICHOLSON

FORD STERLING

By FORD STERLING

Ford Sterling is not a nickle-plated flivver—he's a movie comedian. If it is really true that some of the moving picture stars get in on their looks, Ford must have gotten in when nobody was looking.

Not that it matters a great deal, but he was born in La Crosse, Wis., forty-five years ago. He ran away with the old John Robinson's Circus before he had finished the third reader. It wasn't long until the circus featured him as "Keno—the boy clown."

Finally he entered musical comedy and then vaudeville. Mack Sennett saw him strutting his stuff in a Los Onglaze vaudeville house and offered him a contract which Ford accepted before Sennett could have changed his mind, even if he had wanted to.

During the last ten years Ford Sterling has acted in comedies, directed comedies, produced comedies under his own name and now plays comedy roles in feature length pictures.

He has brown hair and blue eyes, Can tell the most surprising stories about things that happen in Hollywood after 10 P. M. Among other things he can do is to show you a baseball that Babe Ruth didn't autograph. Is not married, but is hopeful. Likes the following joke:

"Mrs. Litnitzky, although somewhat pale, smiled contentedly as she entered her lawyer's office. When she had taken the chair beside his desk he had indicated, she announced:

"Well, Mr. Moses, I have had anudder accident already. Yesterday afternoon I slipped on the street car step and got hurt. The doctor thinks I ought to get damages.'

"Why, Mrs. Litnitzky!' exclaimed the lawyer, 'Isn't this the third accident you've had within the month?'

" 'Yiss,' she said proudly. 'Ain't I lucky!' "

That Sydney has men with more remarkable physique than can be found in any other city of its size in the world, was the statement of Sir Robert Horne, of England, on a recent visit to the Australian city.

A movement is under way in England to abolish the act of 1625, still in force, which prohibits cricket matches on Sunday between teams of different parishes, but permits those of elevens of the same parish.

REDHEADS IN SPOTLIGHT

Eddie Dale and Company In Good Act

By The Record News Critic

Babe Egan and her Hollywood Redheads have the headline spot on the Majestic bill this week in an act that opens with a nine-piece red head orchestra playing portions of Paul Whiteman's "Rhapsodie in Blue."

These sorrel top damsels have a lot of good music in them and their orchestra is above the average. It is filled with good jazz music and has some excellent soloists.

Eddie Dale and company have a show all their own in nine modernistic spasms. The only poor part of it is the name. "Bits of Skits," which sounds little and dimunitive. The name can be panned quite readily for it doesn't fit the act. The act is a wow. Eddie Dale has a knockout company which gives something so far out of the usual run that it seems as though it might readily be expanded into a whole show. Including some singing, some dancing, a number of short stunts (a la musical comedy) a four pieced chorus and an awful lot of fast moving comedy, the act gives the show the right to have a double headline billing. Mildred Gilbert is an odd specimen who starts out hard boiled and winds up as a go getter. Murray Bernard and Ernie Holder have some good foil comedy and dancing.

Herman Hyde and Sally Burrill don't sing and talk quite loud enough in their act to be heard well past the middle of the house, but that doesn't hurt as the words don't count. Rather eccentric and ultra modern in thought, this act is pure foolishness, and that's why the folks like it. Alexander and Peggy have a blackface and white face act with comedy and song. Larry Stoutenburgh gives a billiard exhibition. The Majestic theater orchestra in "Lovely Little Silhouette," an overture, and Blanche Sweet in "Singed," on the screen, complete the program.

Girl Reporter Tells of Smiths

cause he hails from Buffalo, N. Y.), a beautiful white collie, and Fuzz, a hound who rubs noses with Li, a Pomeranian. An elk and a deer, so tame that they follow visitors about to have their noses rubbed, often frolic with the dogs. There used to be a bear, but alas! he ate too many green pears which fell into his pen and died. Two racoons, a macaw and some pheasants complete the out-of-doors menagerie. Indoors there are two cats and three parrots. One of the gifted birds sings out, "Hello, Al," if properly coaxed by Whitehead, the steward.

How'll All Pets Get In

Mrs. Smith wonders just how she'll get these pets to the White House if her husband is elected president.

When she isn't occupied with the cares of the mansion, Mrs. Smith likes to do embroidery work, and many samples of her handiwork grace the rooms. There is a petit point bell rope, exquisitely done, several chair seats of petit point, and at present she is making a fire screen.

Whenever the governor is making an address Mrs. Smith can be found in the audience. There's no one she'd rather talk of than the governor. She recalls how he used to recite beautifully back in the old days, when he took part in the church and neighborhood entertainments. Walter, their youngest son, takes after his father in this respect, and Mrs. Smith says she can see her husband over again in this lad when he mounts the school platform to speak.

Married 28 Years

Married in 1900, the governor still pays his wife the little courtesies of their courtship days. If he is out of town he calls her long distance. When he was a young assemblyman, each evening he called Oliver street, and when I spent an afternoon at the mansion recently, he called her from Asheville, N. C., where he has been vacationing. Mrs. Smith's eyes shone as she remarked: "He'll call me every day until he returns. He never forgets."

Evening is the happiest time at the Smith home, for it's then that the governor is home. Often a movie projection machine is gotten out for a private picture show. It's usually a comedy, for the governor wants relaxation. All the servants attend the performances.

The greatest enjoyment of the Smiths is their grandchildren, of whom there are three—Arthur and Walter, sons of the eldest Smith son, Arthur, and the daughter of Emily Smith Warner. Mrs. Warner's daughter comes to visit her grandparents each Sunday, and Walter and Arthur live at the mansion. In Albany a story is told how the governor once kept a meeting he was to address waiting for several hours. When finally found, he was coatless, and rumpled, seated on the floor of the mansion, romping with the children, who adore their "Oompah," as little Arthur calls him. He had forgotten the meeting.

Indignation filled the beggar. He needed none of that kind of charity, he explained. He was asking the Salvation Army for nothing. Police were notified.

Delinquent Taxes Roll in As City Attorney Prepares Suits

"It pays to advertise," says Thelbut Martin, city attorney.

In the 24-hour period ending at 5 o'clock Thursday afternoon it fairly rained with 1926 and prior years' delinquent tax payments. Mr. Martin declared Thursday evening.

"The papers carried the stories of the order and preparation of the delinquent tax suits against city property, and people started paying up. One man came in just a little while ago and paid $75.

"Of the 50 suits presented to the council for consideration Monday night, several have been paid. On 40 of these I will file suit Friday morning.

"Foreclosure tax lien suits is what they are styled, and they mean just that. When those taxes are not paid the property becomes subject to suit and then sale for the taxes regardless of whether it is a homestead. Some of these suits are for taxes as far back as 1922, and there is little reason why taxes that old cannot be paid if they ever are going to be paid.

"My office is getting ready a great many more suits to present to the city council Monday night. At that time we will have at least 50 more. There are hundreds of people in Wichita Falls who have not paid their taxes, and their fellow citizens have had to bear the burden."

Ancient City of Quebec Pays Tribute To Floyd Bennett in Brief Service

Full Military Honors Accorded Flier In Old Canadian City As Body Leaves for New York

QUEBEC, April 26. (UP)—This ancient city, to which has come of late the excitement of a modern conquest of the air, sent Floyd Bennett home to his country this afternoon with reverence, honor and military ceremony.

The ancient capital, whose physicians had fought to save the gallant flyer's life and whose citizens honored him in death, paid its farewell tribute to Bennett today.

After brief ceremonies in the little funeral chapel of Jeffrey Hale hospital, a solemn cortege such as the sorrowing Quebec populace never had looked upon before, wound through two miles of the old city's picturesque streets to the railroad station. There, the flag-draped casket was placed aboard a train for Montreal, accompanied only by Mrs. Bennett and Commander Richard E. Byrd, the dead airman's beloved chief.

Military Honors

Full military honors were accorded the man who had given his life on a mission to aid his comrades in aerial conquest. And while the brief, touching services were recited by Archbishop Scott, and while the cortege was escorting the casket to the station, the trans-Atlantic flyers, whom Bennett had flown to aid, were winging their way southwestward from Greenly Island, too late to participate.

The little chapel in which the ceremonies were held had room for scarcely thirty people. But outside waited the men, women and children of Quebec to whom the dead flyer had become more than a name.

Bennett had become a symbol of sacrifice to these Canadians who stood reverently along the route of the funeral march, many with tears in their eyes.

Flags Lowered

Flags, those of the United States and Irish Free State as well as of the Dominion, fluttered at half mast, just as they had since word came from the hospital Wednesday morning, that Bennett had succumbed to pneumonia. Many a doorway and window along the route displayed mourning crepe, and shop-keepers put up their shutters in honor of the passing of a hero of the air.

The royal twenty-second regiment turned out a company of infantry to escort the casket to the train. Pallbearers were warrant officers, men of corresponding rank to that occupied by Bennett.

"The last post" was sounded by a bugler as the casket was placed aboard the train for its journey to Arlington cemetery where Bennett is to lie beside the body of Admiral Robert Peary. A last volley was fired and then the train sped westward.

Rotary Club Names Six New Directors at Luncheon Thursday

Six directors of the Wichita Falls Rotary club were elected at the weekly meeting and luncheon at the Kemp hotel Thursday noon. They were Dr. O. T. Kimbrough, A. E. Kelly, J. H. Allison, Harry Hines, H. R. Hanks and Al Moline.

"Wichita Falls' Best and Biggest Asset" was the subject of a talk by Harry E. Dodge of Fall River, Mass., a Y. M. C. A. secretary for 36 years, who declared that Wichita Falls or any other city's greatest asset is its boys and girls. The generation born in 1908-09-10 is just as clean and sensible as any other, Mr. Dodge said, and is not going to the "bow wows" as some of the elders believe. Three reasons were given by the speaker for the defense of the modern youth, that his own sons and daughters are as normal as any other boys and girls, that in his extensive experience as a Y. M. C. A. secretary he has learned to know and understand numbers of boys and girls, and that in the past several years, in his tours of the continent has talked to school principals, teachers and superintendents and to thousands of boys and girls themselves.

CONNALLY RAPS PARTY BOLTER

Listener Takes Issue in Childress Speech

Special to The Record News.

CHILDRESS, Texas, April 26.—Declaration of his unswerving allegiance to the Democratic party in its efforts to rescue the nation from "Republican corruptionists" brought Congressman Tom Connally into his first tilt with a member of his audience here today. He had repeated the statement he made in his opening speech at Belton and has repeatedly made since:

"I am a Democrat and I shall support the nominee of the Democratic national convention at Houston whoever he may be."

When he had concluded that statement an elderly man with a patriarchal voice exclaimed, "That's all right if they don't choose Al Smith," and because Connally did not hear him, repeated the statement.

"I have no desire to engage in any controversy with anyone regarding his views on party allegiance," the congressman retorted. "Nor would I challenge any man's right to take whatever action he may please as to voting in the Democratic party primaries, but I do declare that the Democratic party is the one hope of the nation in this hour when Republican corruption and an orgy of graft and bribery has brought high officers in Washington to the lowest state in the nation's history and I shall give loyal support to my party. It has always been my uniform practice to support the nominee of my party."

In other particulars the candidate spoke as he has during the past two days stressing farm relief plans, scoring Earl B. Mayfield severely for his "pretenses" in office and charging that he was elected to the senate by the practice of deception on the people of Texas.

Demos Adopt Party Pledge

Bailey, Gov. Dan Moody, here tonight on an avowedly political mission with Lynch Davidson, chairman of the Democrats of Texas, said:

"I do not know, but I do know Senator Bailey is not going to get any argument out of me on the subject of the pledge or Democratic party loyalty. I am as strong a Democrat as he is, and as strong for standing by the party's nominees. I am not for Reed, a wet candidate, and he is. I am for national prohibition as it is written in the constitution of the United States and he is not for it."

Governor Moody and Davidson arrived here late Thursday on what they frankly said was a political mission. They will hold a series of conferences with Dallas county Democratic leaders, including M. M. Crane, Cullen F. Thomas, R. G. Storey and others, Governor Moody announced.

Neither disclosed the exact nature of the conferences, although Governor Moody gove out an interview on the program agreed upon for the precinct conventions of May 5 by Chairman Davidson and Chairman V. A. Collins of the constitutional Democrats at Austin Tuesday.

"I believe the program declaring for a dry platform plank for the national convention and a dry candidate who is in favor of it and will support it will be adopted by a majority of Democrats in the precinct conventions," Governor Moody said. "That is the program I have advocated since national politics became active in Texas this year and the program I am still advocating. To date I have seen nothing in the nature of an organization opposing this program assume any alarming proportions in the state.

"There is no reason why all the men and women who are ready for a dry platform plank and a dry candidate should not get behind this program and put it over in Texas. The voters of Texas are overwhelmingly in favor of it, and I believe it will be adopted."

BEAUMONT TODAY OPENS INVASION OF NORTHERN TEXAS CLUBS

EXPORTERS TO PLAY 2 GAMES

Buffs Follow Cellar Club; Steers-Spuds Rained Out

By LARRY DAILEY
Record News Sports Editor

Clubs in the southern half of the Texas league start their first swing today around the northern end of the loop. The lowly Beaumont Exporters will pastime first out at the lot, the Galloway-Robertson athletes being here today and tomorrow.

The Spudders should do no worse than hold their own with Houston and Fort Worth. While the Williamsmen are engaging the Exporters the Buffs are tangling with the Cats at Fort Worth. Verily, we should hold our own; mayhap gain.

That, however, is nothing to wager the family jewels and cellar on. That old saw about "you never can tell" still holds good in this uncertain game of baseball. Too, the Exporters recently have played much improved ball over their game of first days of the season.

Champions Idle.

First postponement of a Spudder home game was necessitated yesterday when a heavy rain caused the Spudders and Dallas Steers to be idle. The second and final game of the series to have been played yesterday probably will be staged on the Steers' next trip here, which will be a three-day stand, opening June 15, the last home games of the first half of the split schedule.

The Buffaloes follow the Exporters here for jamborees Sunday, Monday and Tuesday and the w. k. fur will fly. Houston is regarded as the foremost menace to the Spudders' hopes of repeating and Carl will have his tossers primed to resist the invasion of the St. Louis Cardinal farmers.

Waco and San Antonio, with series of three games each will complete this stay at home of the Spudders.

The champions have played excellent baseball to date. True, their hitting has not been as timely or frequent as to be desired. But in trouncing the Steers Wednesday with the aid of 12 hits they gave evidence of emerging from their stick slump. The fielding on occasions has been erratic. But be it noted that the home athletes usually have arisen to the occasion, at bat and afield. Else they wouldn't be up there at the top.

Pitching Is Superb

Superb pitching has really been the greatest factor in the Spuds' success to date. Payne has won all his four starts. Kiefer has been next to George in effectiveness. Steengrafe has pitched creditable ball, and the Californian will grow better with warm weather. Estill also has done well. Cvengros has not worked sufficiently, inclement weather not being to the liking of the veteran. He will be a winning pitcher, however, when he gets in his stride. No doubt on that score.

Herb Cobb has done all his chucking in the bull pen but the gentleman from Pine Top, N. C., doubtless will see much service when hot days and double headers prevail. Roland Roberts, the rookie right-hander, has recently recovered from a severe attack of flu. He will have his chance to show later on, though only in cases of necessity as the six veterans will carry the hill burden.

George Stanton has stilled all doubt that he will deliver. The rookie has acceptably filled the place at first base, defensively and offensively.

Benton Sets Pace.

Rabbit Benton is setting the pace for his comrades. The shortstop is playing brilliant baseball. Wally Swenson has started hitting, most of his blows coming in the clinch. Pete Turgeon was ill several days with a heavy cold but is feeling better now and soon will attain his form that made him the best second baseman in the league.

Joe Cobb and Pete Lapan are reliable catchers. The outfielders haven't started hitting at their normal pace, but they will deliver. The menacing maces of Jenkins, Fitzgerald and Lamb will cause many a pitcher to wish he were away from there.

Mike Cvengros may get the assignment today in his first start of the campaign.

Notified that George Payne had been suspended until Monday, Skipper Williams yesterday indicated that Herb Cobb may make his first appearance today on the hill for the season. And there is the possibility that Mike Cvengros will make his first start.

Hallas to Wrestle Gipsy Smith Here

Gipsy Smith, who hails from England and like all those grapplers who invade these shores is unbeaten (so he says) will be Billy Hallas' next foe. The Gypsy is to meet the Greek Monday night in Alec Ross' annual mat shindig.

Mr. Ross is staging another mixed wrestling-boxing card. Country Boy Owens, that colorful kid with a k. o. punch, who has won three victories in his only professional bouts, will meet Lem Lewis in the ring windup.

Kenneth Adams faces Johnny Owens, Bill Daly meets George Stevens and Tiger Moore battles Sundown Kid in other bouts. Tiger Moore and Sundown are negroes and much hinges on their mill. The victor is to get the job as rubber and janitor at The Gym, a position now occupied by Sundown.

Devol Beats Grandfield In Cotton Belt Tilt, 11-8

GRANDFIELD, Okla., April 26.—Grandfield had tieing runs on bases in the ninth inning but was unable to bring them home and lost yesterday to Devol in a Cotton Belt league game. The score was 11 to 8. Both teams made 12 hits but Devol's blows were at more opportune moments. Score:

Score:		R.	H.	E.
Devol	020 502 020—	11	12	3
Grandfield	020 101 220—	8	12	3

LUTHER NINE WINS

AMES, Iowa, April 26. (UP)—Luther college upset Iowa State college 2 to 1 in a non-conference baseball game here today.

PAYNE SUSPENDED

George Barred 5 Days And Fined $25 For Row With Ump

George Jayne will not pitch for the Spudders until Monday. Notifications of the five-day suspension and fine of $25 for Payne for his run-in Wednesday with Umpire Barr was received yesterday by President J. Alvin Gardner of the Spudders from Boss J. Doak Roberts of the Texas league.

The ban began Wednesday and ends Sunday.

Payne was banished from the field in the sixth inning Wednesday by Barr after protesting the arbiter's decisions in the game with Dallas.

SAN TONE NIPS BUFFS, 5 TO 0

Spudders Gain as Houston Loses 2nd Straight

SAN ANTONIO, April 26. (AP)—Dana Fillingim held the Houston Buff-Cards in submission while the San Antonio Bears took liberties with Kildee Carleton's crossfire delivery to win the second game of the series Thursday, 5 to 0.

In the two games of 21 innings Houston failed to score a run. This, however, was due to the failure of Carleton to touch third base when he came home on Worthington's fly to right, which Tommy Taylor lost in the sun in the fifth inning.

Wichita Falls, idle today, gained half a game on the Buffs. Score:

WACO SCORES 18 RUNS

WACO, April 26. (AP)—Waco's shipment of hits, which have been delayed for some time, arrived today and the Cubs used 20 of them to defeat the Beaumont Exporters by the count of 18 to 4. Art Shires hit two home runs, one in the second and one in the third, the first over the left field wall and the second a mighty clout over the right field wall.

Buss Phillips started but the only time the ball was buzzing was when it was coming toward him or past him. Ace Elliott had the game well in hand for the Cubs all the way. Wayne Windle hit a homer on the first pitch in the first round. Score:

Ritt's Ritticisms

By BILL RITT

Outboard motorboat racing is becoming popular again. Probably because people have discovered that you can make more noise that way than any other.

A pop-pop skiff going full speed can make the battle of the Marne sound like a couple of turtle doves cooing in the sign language.

Many motorboat enthusiasts never watch a race. They stay home and hear it. It's the only spectacle in the world that's tough on the ear drums.

Riding a gas gondola is one way of taking a bath without benefit of tub. The whole business is a sort of motorized swim.

Speed boats were invented for sailors who were in a hurry. Since then pedestrians haven't been the only fish run down by motor vehicles.

Life belts are as necessary in a motorboat race as razors in a barber shop. When a speed skiff decides to do a nose dive there's no time for the pilot to get a transfer to another job.

One for the Book

This one comes from Indianapolis. Now, there's a town—Indianapolis. It is full of good authors, fair politicians and bad jokes. This might be one of the bad jokes, so you read at your own risk.

The joke happened to Chuck Wiggins, the bogey man of the boxing business. Or, rather, Wiggins happened the joke—anyway, here it is:

Chuck like many other pugilists (we won't mention any names) got a yen for society (says the story). Chuck had seen the big bugs of Indianapolis riding horses on Sunday mornings, so he got a nag on which to gallop through the parks in the approved style.

Wiggins took this oat destroyer of his to a table where he knew the best people kept their horses. Over each stall Chuck spied the name of its equine occupant. That hit him as a hot idea.

"Fellow," he said to a stablehand, "be sure and put my nag's name over his stall."

"Okeh," answered the faithful menial, "but what's his name?"

"Crown Prince Ferdandino," retorted the former sparring partner of Gene Tunney."

"How do you spell it?" queried the stableboy.

"Aw," Wiggins answered. "Let's just call him Jack."

Wilmer Allison Quits Studies to Play Tennis

Allison of Fort Worth is a junior this year and would be eligible again next year for conference and national intercollegiate play. He is national intercollegiate singles champion now.

Chicago Cubs Regain Popularity That Was Theirs in Chance's Day

Halcyon Era of "Peerless Leader's" Mighty Machine and Hectic Battles With McGraw's Giants Recalled

By DAMON RUNYON
Copyright, 1928 by Universal Service

NEW YORK, April 26. (US)—It would appear from the reports of the opening game attendance that the Chicago Cubs have about regained all the old-time popularity of the National leaguers on the Boul' Mich'.

William Wrigley, the first ladies' man of the U. S. A., had to expand his baseball premises the past winter to take care of the renewed interest in his pastimers, and it seems that he didn't grab off enough additional territory at that. A lot of clients couldn't squeeze in.

You may attribute this interest mainly to the fact that the Cubs of 1928 seem to be solid pennant contenders. I pick them no worse than second in the National league. The basis of baseball popularity in any city in the land is not the ownership of a club, nor the color of the manager's hair. It is GAMES WON.

But it is good to see the Chicagoese once more properly excited about the Cubs. It may result in a return to the grand old days of the fierce rivalry between the city on the shores of Lake Michigan and our own Manhattan island, when a visit to Chicago with the Giants was a real adventure.

Great Old Days

In those days the citizens of Chicago would heave segments of building material at the Giants, and when the Cubs came to New York the infuriated Manhattan islanders would gladly return the courtesy. Only the islanders used pop bottles instead of building material, in the interests of economy.

I think it was along in 1908, the year of the celebrated play-off game, that the Cubs licked the Giants, including Mathewson, the mighty, by a score of 19 to 0.

On the occasion of the Giants' next visit to Chicago the gentlemanly members of the Chicago Chamber of Commerce unleashed 19 balloons over the baseball yard, one after the other, and finally sent up a balloon carrying an effigy of John J. McGraw. Incidentally, the Cubs won again that very day.

In those parlous times the popular song of the day was "Cheer Up, Mary!" and that evening, wherever Mr. McGraw went, the proletariat seemed to be chanting a parody on the song that went:

"Cheer up, Muggsy,
Don't be crying."

Marvelous Machine

The stormy petrel of the big leagues, and the greatest advertisement the island of Manhattan ever had, McGraw and his Giants, always caused more excitement in Chicago than a mob war does nowadays. Those were the days of Frank Chance and his Cubs, one of the all-time greatest baseball machines.

McGraw will always feel that these Cubs won a pennant from him illegally in 1908, when Fred Merkle failed to touch second on a play that won the game for the Giants.

The National league authorities upheld the protest of the Cubs, and ordered the game played over. The Cubs and the Giants wound up the season in a tie that year, so this game would have been the Giants' margin of pennant victory. In the play-off the Cubs won.

Those were heated times, my hearties. In this era, were the conditions the same, the lad out in Chicago would probably have a lot of pineapples on hand as welcome offerings for our noble boys. A pineapple is a bomb. The term, old in New York, seems to have reached Chicago only recently. I do not know the market quotations out there, but in New York a 60-cent pineapple is sufficient to wreck a building, while a $1.50 pineapple will desolate a township.

Mighty Baseball Men

Those old-time Cubs were mighty baseball men, at that. The great Chance himself played first base, and John J. McGraw thinks that Chance was one of the finest baseball players of all time. Chance is dead. He came back to the big leagues after his Chicago triumphs to manage the Yankees under Frank Farrell's ownership, but had no luck.

He was accounted well fixed when he died. Most of the old-time Cubs have done very well in a business way. Several are reputed rich.

Behind the bat for the Cubs of the Chance regime was the willowy Hebrew, Johnny Kling, who rates in baseball as one of the best. Also he was the first Hebrew to attain any real fame in baseball.

He was an artist there in the shade of the hickory switches, a wonderful thrower, and a marvel at handling a pitcher. Kling conducts a big billiard room in his home town, Kansas City, Mo., and is said to be wealthy.

Squatting Jimmy Archer, who was almost as graceful as Kling, and who succeeded Johnny as the catcher of the Cubs, is a cattle buyer at the Chicago stock yards. Pat Moran and Tom Needham, other catchers for the Chance machine, are dead. Moran won a world's championship with the Cincinnati Reds.

Brown Athletic Director

Of the pitchers, old Mordecai (Three-Fingered) Brown is an athletic director at Decatur, Ill.; Orvie Overall is a banker at Visalia, Cal.; Edward Ruelbach is in the real estate business in New Jersey; Jack Pfiester is a wholesale grocer at Covington, Ky.; Carl Lundgren coaches the University of Illinois, and Chick Frazer is a National league scout.

Jack Taylor is a fireman out of St. Louis, and Bob Wicker is a retired rancher at Bedford, Ind. They were both pitchers. Harry Steinfeldt, the third baseman of the club, is dead, and Heinie Zimmerman, who came after him, is a plumber in the Bronx.

Jimmy Scheckard, the left fielder, is in the automobile business at Columbia, Pa.; Jimmy Slagle is in the junk business in Chicago, and Frank Schulte is with the Standard Oil company at Richmond, Cal. Arthur Hofmann, the famous utility man, is with the Wilson Shirt company in Chicago. Del Howard, utility first baseman, is business manager of the Oakland club of the Pacific Coast league.

Tom Sharkey Says Tunney Supreme

Not a Fighter to Stand Up Against Tunney

AURORA, Ill., April 26. (US)—There isn't another fighter in the ring today that can stand up against Gene Tunney. If you don't believe it, ask Tom Sharkey, former heavyweight contender.

Sharkey arrived in Aurora today from Tia Juana, Mexico. He will work as a guard in the money room at the Aurora races.

"Tunney is a great boy," he said. "He's a real fighter and he's clever."

"In spite of Shakespeare?" someone asked.

"In spite of Shakespeare and everything else," he retorted. "He's game or he would never have come back after taking that sock from Dempsey in the seventh round. I was only six feet away from him when he got it and it was an awful blow.

"What do I think Tunney could have been in the old days? Well, Tunney hasn't had any boys to meet like Jim Corbett, Jeffries and the others. Take James J. Corbett, Jim Jeffries, Peter Maher, Joe Goddard, Gus Ruhlin, Kid McCoy, Bob Fitzsimmons and Joe Choynski. There is what I consider the list of the best fighters of their time.

"Carpentier is through, Firpo was never anything but a big, powerful chap without much besides his strength. Who else is there? Dempsey, when in his prime, would have taken him."

Red Sox Trade Wiltse To Browns For Gerber

BOSTON, April 26. (UP)—Harold Wiltse, Red Sox southpaw pitcher, has been traded to the St. Louis Americans for Walter Gerber, a shortstop, Red Sox officials announced here tonight. The trade was even.

In 1926, Wiltse won eight games for Boston and lost 15; in 1927, he won 10 games and lost 18. Gerber fielded .946 and batted .224 in 142 games.

Inadianapolis Releases Jacobson and Cavet

INDIANAPOLIS, April 26. (UP) Baby Doll Jacobson, for years an outfielder of major league baseball teams, was released outright today by the Indianapolis club of the American association.

Pitcher Pug Cavet, another former major leaguer, also drew his release.

DAILY DOPE

By LARRY DAILEY

GEORGE PAYNE is lost to the Spudders for a few days as a result of his suspension for his little quarrel with Umpire Barr. Luckily, the setting down of George until Monday will not seriously injure the Spudders, although he will lose his pitching turn. No game was played yesterday and Beaumont is here today for two days. However, it might have been worse. It isn't a good thing for a ball player to talk himself out of a game and it is fortunate that Kiefer was able to stop the Steers and win Wednesday after Payne made his abrupt departure and with no pitcher warmed up and ready.

I am not one to criticize umpires for decisions against the home club. Indeed, I dislike a "homer," that name being applied to those arbiters who favor the home team. But I reiterate that Barr apparently was hasty in chasing Payne. Players should not be permitted to indulge in lengthy and frequent arguments with umpires. But they do have the right to question decisions, and if umpires banish a player at the first outburst they are going to detract some from the aggressive spirit of the athletes. Good umpires are scarce, it is admitted. But there are some arbiters who know where to discriminate, who will listen to a player's arguments so long as not profane and justified, but who will not permit the tossers to delay play.

OUR MR. GARDNER called the Texas league's Mr. Roberts on the telephone at Dallas to remonstrate over the rather severe punishment meted out to Payne. But the dignity of the arbiters must be upheld and J. Doak was insistent that Georgie remain out of play until Monday.

KIEFER SHOWED the winning team spirit Wednesday. When it appeared that Cvengros was wild and not sufficiently warmed up, Joe volunteered to go to the rescue. That was real spirit, for he had nothing to win as Payne was credited with the victory, while if the Steers had won the defeat would have been charged to Kiefer. But Joe halted the Dallas men in their tracks with a display of pitching equal to his courage and willingness.

DEMPSE MOORE was beaten. That's too bad. But only part of the game. Dempse went far in winning the Western A. A. U. light heavyweight boxing title and going into the finals of tryouts for the Olympic team. We are proud of his achievements and condole him in his defeat.

INDIFFERENT. That describes the Dallas Steers, as viewed in their first series of one contest here. The Steers won't win the pennant. They probably won't finish in the first division. At least, not without showing improvement over their present play.

THE CATCHING is miedicre; the pitching doubtful. The Steers lack speed afield and on the bases. They apparently have no great attacking force. What then is to give cause for them to hope for higher than fourth of fifth?

OF THE THREE clubs that have appeared here this campaign, Fort Worth looks best, followed by Shreveport.

THREE OR FOUR seasons ago the Cincinnati Reds had a young infielder by the name of Lucas, called Red because of his flaming thatch of hair. One day he went in to pitch, in an unimportant game. Last year the same Lucas ranked as one of the stars of the Reds. Wednesday he turned in one of the most amazing pitching performances ever achieved. For 17 innings he battled the mighty-clouting St. Louis Cardinals, to emerge victor in one of the longest games ever played in the major leagues.

A MENACE to the United States' hopes of winning the Olympic pole vault has been removed. Charley Hoff, the Norwegian, has been declared a professional and ineligible for competition in the Olympics. Hoff forfeited his amateur standing on his tour of the United States in 1926, when he appeared on the stage, which the august heads of amateurism decree violates the spirit of simon pure competition.

Hoff went on the stage following his refusal to compete in a meet at San Francisco promoted by one of the most influential club members of the National A. A. U. Hoff was guilty of professionalism by committing the terrible crime of appearing on the stage. And he was guilty of poor judgment in displeasing the all-powerful A. A. U.

JOE KIRKWOOD TO GOLF TODAY

Due to the unfavorable weather Thursday Joe Kirkwood's trick golf shot exhibition and match with Wichita Falls golfers at Wichita Falls Golf and Country club was postponed until this afternoon.

The famous Australian professional will play an 18-hole match starting at 2:30 this afternoon with Dudley Golding and Tommy Cochran, local amateur stars, and Bill Strachan, the Country club professional.

Dempse Moore May Win Olympic Place

Dempse Moore may be named as an alternate light heavyweight on the United States Olympic boxing team. The Wichita Falls youth was knocked out in the third round of the semi-finals at Boston Wednesday night by Leon Lucas of Philadelphia.

Lucas stopped his adversary in the finals in the first round. Except for the victor Dempse's showing was the most impressive of the light heavies.

REDHEADS IN SPOTLIGHT

Eddie Dale and Company In Good Act

By The Record News Critic

Babe Egan and her Hollywood Redheads have the headline spot on the Majestic bill this week in an act that opens with a nine-piece red head orchestra playing portions of Paul Whiteman's "Rhapsodie in Blue."

These sorrel top damsels have a lot of good music in them and their orchestra is above the average. It is filled with good jazz music and has some excellent soloists.

Eddie Dale and company have a show all their own in nine modernistic spasms. The only poor part of it is the name. "Bits of Skits," which sounds little and dimunitive. The name can be panned quite readily for it doesn't fit the act. The act is a wow. Eddie Dale has a knockout company which gives something so far out of the usual run that it seems as though it might readily be expanded into a whole show. Including some singing, some dancing, a number of short stunts (a la musical comedy) a four pieced chorus and an awful lot of fast moving comedy, the act gives the show the right to have a double headline billing. Mildred Gilbert is an odd specimen who starts out hard boiled and winds up as a go getter. Murray Bernard and Ernie Holder have some good foil comedy and dancing.

Herman Hyde and Sally Burrill don't sing and talk quite loud enough in their act to be heard well past the middle of the house, but that doesn't hurt as the words don't count. Rather eccentric and ultra modern in thought, this act is pure foolishness, and that's why the folks like it. Alexander and Peggy have a blackface and white face act with comedy and song. Larry Stoutenburgh gives a billiard exhibition. The Majestic theater orchestra in "Lovely Little Silhouette," an overture, and Blanche Sweet in "Singed," on the screen, complete the program.

cause he hails from Buffalo, N. Y.), a beautiful white collie, and Pal, a hound who rubs noses with Li, a Pomeranian. An elk and a deer, so tame that they follow visitors about to have their noses rubbed, often frolic with the dogs. There used to be a bear, but alas! he ate too many green pears which fell into his pen and died. Two racoons, a macaw and some pheasants complete the out-of-doors menagerie. Indoors there are two cats and three parrots. One of the gifted birds sings out, "Hello, Al," if properly coaxed by Whitehead, the steward.

How'll All Pets Get In

Mrs. Smith wonders just how she'll get these pets to the White House if her husband is elected president.

When she isn't occupied with the cares of the mansion, Mrs. Smith likes to do embroidery work, and many samples of her handiwork grace the rooms. There is a petit point bell rope, exquisitely done, several chair seats of petit point, and at present she is making a fire screen.

Whenever the governor is making an address Mrs. Smith can be found in the audience. There's no one she'd rather talk of than the governor. She recalls how he used to recite beautifully back in the old days, when he took part in the church and neighborhood entertainments. Walter, their youngest son, takes after his father in this respect, and Mrs. Smith says she can see her husband over again in this lad when he mounts the school platform to speak.

Married 28 Years

Married in 1900, the governor still pays his wife the little courtesies of their courtship days. If he is out of town he calls her long distance. When he was a young assemblyman, each evening he called Oliver street, and when I spent an afternoon at the mansion recently, he called her from Asheville, N. C., where he has been vacationing. Mrs. Smith's eyes shone as she remarked: "He'll call me every day until he returns. He never forgets."

Evening is the happiest time at the Smith home, for it's then that the governor is home. Often a movie projection machine is gotten out for a private picture show. It's usually a comedy, for the governor wants relaxation. All the servants attend the performances.

The greatest enjoyment of the Smiths is their grandchildren, of whom there are three—Arthur and Walter, sons of the eldest Smith son, Arthur, and the daughter of Emily Smith Warner. Mrs. Warner's daughter comes to visit her grandparents each Sunday, and Walter and Arthur live at the mansion. In Albany a story is told how the governor once kept a meeting he was to address waiting for several hours. When finally found, he was coatless, and rumpled, seated on the floor of the mansion, romping with the children, who adore their "Oompah," as little Arthur calls him. He had forgotten the meeting.

Delinquent Taxes Roll in As City Attorney Prepares Suits

"It pays to advertise," says Thelbut Martin, city attorney.

In the 24-hour period ending at 5 o'clock Thursday afternoon it fairly rained with 1926 and prior years' delinquent tax payments, Mr. Martin declared Thursday evening.

"The papers carried the stories of the order and preparation of the delinquent tax suits against city property, and people started paying up. One man came in just a little while ago and paid $75.

"Of the 50 suits presented to the council for consideration Monday night, several have been paid. On 40 of these I will file suit Friday morning.

"Foreclosure tax lien suits is what they are styled, and they mean just that. When those taxes are not paid the property becomes subject to suit and then sale for the taxes regardless of whether it is a homestead. Some of these suits are for taxes as far back as 1922, and there is little reason why taxes that old cannot be paid if they ever are going to be paid.

"My office is getting ready a great many more suits to present to the city council Monday night. At that time we will have at least 50 more. There are hundreds of people in Wichita Falls who have not paid their taxes, and their fellow citizens have had to bear the burden."

Ancient City of Quebec Pays Tribute To Floyd Bennett in Brief Service

Full Military Honors Accorded Flier In Old Canadian City As Body Leaves for New York

QUEBEC, April 26. (UP)—This ancient city, to which has come of late the excitement of a modern conquest of the air, sent Floyd Bennett home to his country this afternoon with reverence, honor and military ceremony.

The ancient capital, whose physicians had fought to save the gallant flyer's life and whose citizens honored him in death, paid its farewell tribute to Bennett today.

After brief ceremonies in the little funeral chapel of Jeffrey Hale hospital, a solemn cortege such as the sorrowing Quebec populace never had looked upon before, wound through two miles of the old city's picturesque streets to the railroad station. There, the flag-draped casket was placed aboard a train for Montreal, accompanied only by Mrs. Bennett and Commander Richard E. Byrd, the dead airman's beloved chief.

Military Honors

Full military honors were accorded the man who had given his life on a mission to aid his comrades in aerial conquest. And while the brief, touching services were recited by Archbishop Scott, and while the cortege was escorting the casket to the station, the trans-Atlantic flyers, whom Bennett had flown to aid, were winging their way southwestward from Greenly Island, too late to participate.

The little chapel in which the ceremonies were held had room for scarcely thirty people. But outside waited the men, women and children of Quebec to whom the dead flyer had become more than a name.

Bennett had become a symbol of sacrifice to these Canadians who stood reverently along the route of the funeral march, many with tears in their eyes.

Flags Lowered

Flags, those of the United States and Irish Free State as well as of the Dominion, fluttered at half mast, just as they had since word came from the hospital Wednesday morning, that Bennett had succumbed to pneumonia. Many a doorway and window along the route displayed mourning crepe, and shop-keepers put up their shutters in honor of the passing of a hero of the air.

The royal twenty-second regiment turned out a company of infantry to escort the casket to the train. Pallbearers were warrant officers, men of corresponding rank to that occupied by Bennett.

"The last post" was sounded by a bugler as the casket was placed aboard the train for its journey to Arlington cemetery where Bennett is to lie beside the body of Admiral Robert Peary. A last volley was fired and then the train sped westward.

CONNALLY RAPS PARTY BOLTER

Listener Takes Issue in Childress Speech

Special to The Record News.

CHILDRESS, Texas, April 26.—Declaration of his unswerving allegiance to the Democratic party in its efforts to rescue the nation from "Republican corruptionists" brought Congressman Tom Connally into his first tilt with a member of his audience here today. He had repeated the statement he made in his opening speech at Belton and has repeatedly made since:

"I am a Democrat and I shall support the nominee of the Democratic national convention at Houston whoever he may be."

When he had concluded that statement an elderly man with a patriarchal voice exclaimed, "That's all right if they don't choose Al Smith," and because Connally did not hear him, repeated the statement.

"I have no desire to engage in any controversy with anyone regarding his views on party allegiance," the congressman retorted. "Nor would I challenge any man's right to take whatever action he may please as to voting in the Democratic party primaries, but I do declare that the Democratic party is the one hope of the nation in this hour when Republican corruption and an orgy of graft and bribery has brought high officers in Washington to the lowest state in the nation's history and I shall give loyal support to my party. It has always been my uniform practice to support the nominee of my party."

In other particulars the candidate spoke as he has during the past two days stressing farm relief plans, scoring Earl B. Mayfield severely for his "pretenses" in office and charging that he was elected to the senate by the practice of, deception on the people of Texas.

Demos Adopt Party Pledge

Bailey, Gov. Dan Moody, here tonight on an avowedly political mission with Lynch Davidson, chairman of the Democrats of Texas, said:

"I do not know, but I do know Senator Bailey is not going to get any argument out of me on the subject of the pledge or Democratic party loyalty. I am as strong a Democrat as he is, and as strong for standing by the party's nominees. I am not for Reed, a wet candidate, and he is. I am for national prohibition as it is written in the constitution of the United States and he is not for it."

Governor Moody and Davidson arrived here late Thursday on what they frankly said was a political mission. They will hold a series of conferences with Dallas county Democratic leaders, including M. M. Crane, Cullen F. Thomas, R. G. Storey and others, Governor Moody announced.

Neither disclosed the exact nature of the conferences, although Governor Moody gove out an interview on the program agreed upon for the precinct conventions of May 5 by Chairman Davidson and Chairman V. A. Collins of the constitutional Democrats at Austin Tuesday.

"I believe the program declaring for a dry platform plank for the national convention and a dry candidate who is in favor of it and will support it will be adopted by a majority of Democrats in the precinct conventions," Governor Moody said. "That is the program I have advocated since national politics became active in Texas this year and the program I am still advocating. To date I have seen nothing in the nature of an organization opposing this program assume any alarming proportions in the state.

"There is no reason why all the men and women who are ready for a dry platform plank and a dry candidate should not get behind this program and put it over in Texas. The voters of Texas are overwhelmingly in favor of it, and I believe it will be adopted."

Carl Cowles, secretary of the Burkburnett Chamber of Commerce, gave the address of welcome, which was responded to by M. G. Poteet of Vernon, and Dr. Graham of Wichita Falls.

Rotary Club Names Six New Directors at Luncheon Thursday

Six directors of the Wichita Falls Rotary club were elected at the weekly meeting and luncheon at the Kemp hotel Thursday noon. They were Dr. O. T. Kimbrough, A. E. Kelly, J. H. Allison, Harry Hines, H. R. Hanks and Al Moline.

"Wichita Falls' Best and Biggest Asset" was the subject of a talk by Harry E. Dodge of Fall River, Mass., a Y. M. C. A. secretary for 36 years, who declared that Wichita Falls or any other city's greatest asset is its boys and girls. The generation born in 1908-09-10 is just as clean and sensible as any other, Mr. Dodge said, and is not going to the "bow wows" as some of the elders believe. Three reasons were given by the speaker for the defense of the modern youth, that his own sons and daughters are as normal as any other boys and girls, that in his extensive experience as a Y. M. C. A. secretary he has learned to know and understand numbers of boys and girls, and that in the past several years, in his tours of the continent has tiaked to school principals, teachers and superintendents and to thousands of boys and girls themselves.

BEAUMONT TODAY OPENS INVASION OF NORTHERN TEXAS CLUBS

EXPORTERS TO PLAY 2 GAMES

Buffs Follow Cellar Club; Steers-Spuds Rained Out

By LARRY DAILEY
Record News Sports Editor

Clubs in the southern half of the Texas league start their first swing today around the northern end of the loop. The lowly Beaumont Exporters will pastime first out at the lot, the Galloway-Robertson athletes being here today and tomorrow.

The Spudders should do no worse than hold their own with Houston and Fort Worth. While the Williamsmen are engaging the Exporters the Buffs are tangling with the Cats at Fort Worth. Verily, we should hold our own; mayhap gain.

That, however, is nothing to wager the family jewels and cellar on. That old saw about "you never can tell" still holds good in this uncertain game of baseball. Too, the Exporters recently have played much improved ball over their game of first days of the season.

Champions Idle.

First postponement of a Spudder home game was necessitated yesterday when a heavy rain caused the Spudders and Dallas Steers to be idle. The second and final game of the series to have been played yesterday probably will be staged on the Steers' next trip here, which will be a three-day stand, opening June 15, the last home games of the first half of the split schedule.

The Buffaloes follow the Exporters here for jamborees Sunday, Monday and Tuesday and the w. k. fur will fly. Houston is regarded as the foremost menace to the Spudders' hopes of repeating and Carl will have his tossers primed to resist the invasion of the St. Louis Cardinal farmers.

Waco and San Antonio, with series of three games each will complete this stay at home of the Spudders.

The champions have played excellent baseball to date. True, their hitting has not been as timely or frequent as to be desired. But in trouncing the Steers Wednesday with the aid of 12 hits they gave evidence of emerging from their stick slump. The fielding on occasions has been erratic. But be it noted that the home athletes usually have arisen to the occasion, at bat and afield. Else they wouldn't be up there at the top.

Pitching Is Superb

Superb pitching has really been the greatest factor in the Spuds' success to date. Payne has won all his four starts. Kiefer has been next to George in effectiveness. Steengrafe has pitched creditable ball, and the Californian will grow better with warm weather. Estill also has done well. Cvengros has not worked sufficiently, inclement weather not being to the liking of the veteran. He will be a winning pitcher, however, when he gets in his stride. No doubt on that score.

Herb Cobb has done all his chucking in the bull pen but the gentleman from Pine Top, N. C., doubtless will see much service when hot days and double headers prevail. Roland Roberts, the rookie right-hander, has recently recovered from a severe attack of flu. He will have his chance to show later on, though only in cases of necessity as the six veterans will carry the hill burden.

George Stanton has stilled all doubt that he will deliver. The rookie has acceptably filled the place at first base, defensively and offensively.

Benton Sets Pace.

Rabbit Benton is setting the pace for his comrades. The shortstop is playing brilliant baseball. Wally Swenson has started hitting, most of his blows coming in the clinch. Pete Turgeon was ill several days with a heavy cold but is feeling better now and soon will attain his form that made him the best second baseman in the league.

Joe Cobb and Pete Lapan are reliable catchers. The outfielders haven't started hitting at their normal pace, but they will deliver. The menacing maces of Jenkins, Fitzgerald and Lamb will cause many a pitcher to wish he were away from there.

Mike Cvengros may get the assignment today in his first start of the campaign.

Notified that George Payne had been suspended until Monday, Skipper Williams yesterday indicated that Herb Cobb may make his first appearance today on the hill for the season. And there is the possibility that Mike Cvengros will make his first start.

PAYNE SUSPENDED

George Barred 5 Days And Fined $25 For Row With Ump

George Jayne will not pitch for the Spudders until Monday. Notifications of the five-day suspension and fine of $25 for Payne for his run-in Wednesday with Umpire Barr was received yesterday by President J. Alvin Gardner of the Spudders from Boss J. Doak Roberts of the Texas league.

The ban began Wednesday and ends Sunday.

Payne was banished from the field in the sixth inning Wednesday by Barr after protesting the arbiter's decisions in the game with Dallas.

Spudders Gain as Houston Loses 2nd Straight

SAN ANTONIO, April 26. (AP)—Dana Fillingim held the Houston Buff-Cards in submission while the San Antonio Bears took liberties with Kiddee Carleton's cross-fire delivery to win the second game of the series Thursday, 5 to 0.

In the two games of 21 innings Houston failed to score a run. This, however, was due to the failure of Carleton to touch third base when he came home on Worthington's fly to right, which Tommy Taylor lost in the sun in the fifth inning.

Wichita Falls, idle today, gained half a game on the Buffs. Score:

WACO SCORES 18 RUNS

WACO, April 26. (AP)—Waco's shipment of hits, which have been delayed for some time, arrived today and the Cubs used 20 of them to defeat the Beaumont Exporters by the count of 18 to 4. Art Shires hit two home runs, one in the second and one in the third, the first over the left field wall and the second a mighty clout over the right field wall.

Buss Phillips started but the only time the ball was buzzing was when it was coming toward him or past him. Ace Elliott had the game well in hand for the Cubs all the way. Wayne Windle hit a homer on the first pitch in the first round. Score:

Chicago Cubs Regain Popularity That Was Theirs in Chance's Day

Halcyon Era of "Peerless Leader's" Mighty Machine and Hectic Battles With McGraw's Giants Recalled

By DAMON RUNYON
Copyright, 1928 by Universal Service

NEW YORK, April 26. (US)—It would appear from the reports of the opening game attendance that the Chicago Cubs have about regained all the old-time popularity of the National leaguers on the Boul' Mich'.

William Wrigley, the first ladies' man of the U. S. A., had to expand his baseball premises the past winter to take care of the renewed interest in his pastimers, and it seems that he didn't grab off enough additional territory at that. A lot of clients couldn't squeeze in.

You may attribute this interest mainly to the fact that the Cubs of 1928 seem to be solid pennant contenders. I pick them no worse than second in the National league. The basis of baseball popularity in any city in the land is not the ownership of a club, nor the color of the manager's hair. It is GAMES WON.

But it is good to see the Chicagoese once more properly excited about the Cubs. It may result in a return to the grand old days of the fierce rivalry between the city on the shores of Lake Michigan and our own Manhattan island, when a visit to Chicago with the Giants was a real adventure.

Great Old Days

In those days the citizens of Chicago would heave segments of building material at the Giants, and when the Cubs came to New York the infuriated Manhattan islanders would gladly return the courtesy. Only the islanders used pop bottles instead of building material, in the interests of economy.

I think it was along in 1908, the year of the celebrated play-off game, that the Cubs licked the Giants, including Mathewson, the migthy, by a score of 19 to 0.

On the occasion of the Giants' next visit to Chicago the gentlemanly members of the Chicago Chamber of Commerce unleashed 19 balloons over the baseball yard, one after the other, and finally sent up a balloon carrying an effigy of John J. McGraw. Incidentally, the Cubs won again that very day.

In those parlous times the popular song of the day was "Cheer Up, Mary!" and that evening, wherever Mr. McGraw went, the proletariat seemed to be chanting a parody on the song that went:

"Cheer up, Muggsy,
Don't be crying."

Marvelous Machine

The stormy petrel of the big leagues, and the greatest advertisement the island of Manhattan ever had, McGraw and his Giants, always caused more excitement in Chicago than a mob war does nowadays. Those were the days of Frank Chance and his Cubs, one of the all-time greatest baseball machines.

McGraw will always feel that these Cubs won a pennant from him illegally in 1908, when Fred Merkle failed to touch second on a play that won the game for the Giants.

The National league authorities upheld the protest of the Cubs, and ordered the game played over. The Cubs and the Giants wound up the season in a tie that year, so this game would have been the Giants' margin of pennant victory. In the play-off the Cubs won.

Those were heated times, my hearties. In this era, were the conditions the same, the lad out in Chicago would probably have a lot of pineapples on hand as welcome offerings for our noble boys. A pineapple is a bomb. The term, old in New York, seems to have reached Chicago only recently. I do not know the market quotations out there, but in New York a 60-cent pineapple is sufficient to wreck a building while a $1.50 pineapple will desolate a township.

Mighty Baseball Men

Those old-time Cubs were mighty baseball men, at that. The great Chance himself played first base, and John J. McGraw thinks that Chance was one of the finest baseball players of all time. Chance is dead. He came back to the big leagues after his Chicago triumphs to manage the Yankees under Frank Farrell's ownership, but had no luck.

He was accounted well fixed when he died. Most of the old-time Cubs have done very well in a business way. Several are reputed rich.

Behind the bat for the Cubs of the Chance regime was the willowy Hebrew, Johnny Kling, who rates in baseball as one of the best. Also he was the first Hebrew to attain any real fame in baseball.

He was an artist there in the shade of the hickory switches, a wonderful thrower, and a marvel at handling a pitcher. Kling conducts a big billiard room in his home town, Kansas City, Mo., and is said to be wealthy.

Squatting Jimmy Archer, who was almost as graceful as Kling, and who succeeded Johnny as the catcher of the Cubs, is a cattle buyer at the Chicago stock yards. Pat Moran and Tom Needham, other catchers for the Chance machine, are dead. Moran won a world's championship with the Cincinnati Reds.

Brown Athletic Director

Of the pitchers, old Mordecai (Three-Fingered) Brown is an athletic director at Decatur, Ill.; Orvie Overall is a banker at Visalia, Cal.; Edward Ruelbach is in the real estate business in New Jersey; Jack Pfiester is a wholesale grocer at Covington, Ky.; Carl Lundgren coaches the University of Illinois, and Chick Frazer is a National league scout.

Jack Taylor is a fireman out of St. Louis, and Bob Wicker is a retired rancher at Bedford, Ind. They were both pitchers. Harry Steinfeldt, the third baseman of the club, is dead, and Heinie Zimmerman, who came after him, is a plumber in the Bronx.

Jimmy Scheckard, the left fielder, is in the automobile business at Columbia, Pa.; Jimmy Slagle is in the junk business in Chicago, and Frank Schulte is with the Standard Oil company at Richmond, Cal. Arthur Hofmann, the famous utility man, is with the Wilson Shirt company in Chicago. Del Howard, utility first baseman, is business manager of the Oakland club of the Pacific Coast league.

DAILY DOPE

By LARRY DAILEY

GEORGE PAYNE is lost to the Spudders for a few days as a result of his suspension for his little quarrel with Umpire Barr. Luckily, the setting down of George until Monday will not seriously injure the Spudders, although he will lose his pitching turn. No game was played yesterday and Beaumont is here today for two days. However, it might have been worse. It isn't a good thing for a ball player to talk himself out of a game and it is fortunate that Kiefer was able to stop the Steers and win Wednesday after Payne made his abrupt departure and with no pitcher warmed up and ready.

I am not one to criticize umpires for decisions against the home club. Indeed, I dislike a "homer," that name being applied to those arbiters who favor the home team. But I reiterate that Barr apparently was hasty in chasing Payne. Players should not be permitted to indulge in lengthy and frequent arguments with umpires. But they do have the right to question decisions, and if umpires banish a player at the first outburst they are going to detract some from the aggressive spirit of the athletes. Good umpires are scarce, it is admitted. But there are some arbiters who know where to discriminate, who will listen to a player's arguments so long as not profane and justified, but who will not permit the tossers to delay play.

OUR MR. GARDNER called the Texas league's Mr. Roberts on the telephone at Dallas to remonstrate over the rather severe punishment meted out to Payne. But the dignity of the arbiters must be upheld and J. Doak was insistent that Georgie remain out of play until Monday.

KIEFER SHOWED the winning team spirit Wednesday. When it appeared that Cvengros was wild and not sufficiently warmed up, Joe volunteered to go to the rescue. That was real spirit, for he had nothing to win as Payne was credited with the victory, while if the Steers had won the defeat would have been charged to Kiefer. But Joe halted the Dallas men in their tracks with a display of pitching equal to his courage and willingness.

DEMPSE MOORE was beaten. That's too bad. But only part of the game. Dempse went far in winning the Western A. A. U. light heavyweight boxing title and going into the finals of tryouts for the Olympic team. We are proud of his achievements and condole him in his defeat.

INDIFFERENT. That describes the Dallas Steers, as viewed in their first series of one contest here. The Steers won't win the pennant. They probably won't finish in the first division. At least, not without showing improvement over their present play.

THE CATCHING is miedicre; the pitching doubtful. The Steers lack speed afield and on the bases. They apparently have no great attacking force. What then is to give cause for them to hope for higher than fourth of fifth?

OF THE THREE clubs that have appeared here this campaign, Fort Worth looks best, followed by Shreveport.

THREE OR FOUR seasons ago the Cincinnati Reds had a young infielder by the name of Lucas, called Red because of his flaming thatch of hair. One day he went in to pitch, in an unimportant game. Last year the same Lucas ranked as one of the stars of the Reds. Wednesday he turned in one of the most amazing pitching performances ever achieved. For 17 innings he battled the mighty-clouting St. Louis Cardinals, to emerge victor in one of the longest games ever played in the major leagues.

A MENACE to the United States' hopes of winning the Olympic pole vault has been removed. Charley Hoff, the Norwegian, has been declared a professional and ineligible for competition in the Olympics. Hoff forfeited his amateur standing on his tour of the United States in 1926, when he appeared on the stage, which the august heads of amateurism decree violates the spirit of simon pure competition.

Hoff went on the stage following his refusal to compete in a meet at San Francisco promoted by one of the most influential club members of the National A. A. U. Hoff was guilty of professionalism by committing the terrible crime of appearing on the stage. And he was guilty of poor judgment in displeasing the all-powerful A. A. U.

Dempse Moore May Win Olympic Place

Dempse Moore may be named as an alternate light heavyweight on the United States Olympic boxing team. The Wichita Falls youth was knocked out in the third round of the semi-finals at Boston Wednesday night by Leon Lucas of Philadelphia.

Lucas stopped his adversary in the finals in the first round. Except for the victor Dempse's showing was the most impressive of the light heavies.

HOPPE INCREASES LEAD IN 3-CUSHION BILLIARDS

CHICAGO, April 26. (AP)—Boosted by a high run of 11 points, in the second inning, Willie Hoppe increased his lead in his 600-point three-cushion billiard match with Johnny Layton, the national champion, by winning the sixth block, 50 to 42, in 42 innings tonight.

Ritt's Ritticisms

By BILL RITT

Outboard motorboat racing is becoming popular again. Probably because people have discovered that you can make more noise that way than any other.

A pop-pop skiff going full speed can make the battle of the Marne sound like a couple of turtle doves cooing in the sign language.

Many motorboat enthusiasts never watch a race. They stay home and hear it. It's the only spectacle in the world that's tough on the ear drums.

Riding a gas gondola is one way of taking a bath without benefit of tub. The whole business is a sort of motorized swim.

Speed boats were invented for sailors who were in a hurry. Since then pedestrians haven't been the only fish run down by motor vehicles.

Life belts are as necessary in a motorboat race as razors in a barber shop. When a speed skiff decides to do a nose dive there's no time for the pilot to get a transfer to another job.

Hallas to Wrestle Gipsy Smith Here

Gipsy Smith, who hails from England and like all those grapplers who invade these shores is unbeaten (so he says) will be Billy Hallas' next foe. The Gypsy is to meet the Greek Monday night in Alec Ross' annual mat shindig.

Mr. Ross is staging another mixed wrestling-boxing card. Country Boy Owens, that colorful kid with a k. o. punch, who has won three victories in his only professional bouts, will meet Lem Lewis in the ring windup.

Kenneth Adams faces Johnny Owens, Bill Daly meets George Stevens and Tiger Moore battles Sundown Kid in other bouts. Tiger Moore and Sundown are negroes and much hinges on their mill. The victor is to get the job as rubber and janitor at The Gym, a position now occupied by Sundown.

Devol Beats Grandfield In Cotton Belt Tilt, 11-8

GRANDFIELD, Okla., April 26.—Grandfield had tieing runs on bases in the ninth inning but was unable to bring them home and lost yesterday to Devol in a Cotton Belt league game. The score was 11 to 8. Both teams made 12 hits but Devol's blows were at more opportune moments. Score:

HELEN IN PARIS

Miss Wills Talks About Styles, Tennis And Suzanne Lenglen

PARIS, April 26. (UP)—Helen Wills arrived here today and talked about styles, tennis and Suzanne Lenglen. A crowd of 50 admirers greeted Miss Wills, her mother, and Penelope Anderson, her doubles partner, on their arrival at Saint Lazare station.

Miss Wills told the United Press she didn't know whether she would see Suzanne Lenglen, but that she would liked to have played her again if Suzanne hadn't turned professional.

One for the Book

This one comes from Indianapolis. Now, there's a town—Indianapolis. It is full of good authors, fair politicians and bad jokes. This might be one of the bad jokes, so you read at your own risk.

The joke happened to Chuck Wiggins, the bogey man of the boxing business. Or, rather, Wiggins happened the joke—anyway, here it is:

Chuck like many other pugilists (we won't mention any names) got a yen for society (says the story). Chuck had seen the big bugs of Indianapolis riding horses on Sunday mornings, so he got a nag on which to gallop through the parks in the approved style.

Wiggins took this oat destroyer of his to a table where he knew the best people kept their horses. Over each stall Chuck spied the name of its equine occupant. That hit him as a hot idea.

"Fellow," he said to a stablehand, "be sure and put my nag's name over his stall."

"Okeh," answered the faithful menial, "but what's his name?"

"Crown Prince Ferdandino," retorted the former sparring partner of Gene Tunney."

"How do you spell it?" queried the stableboy.

"Aw," Wiggins answered. "Let's just call him Jack."

Wilmer Allison Quits Studies to Play Tennis

AUSTIN, Texas, April 26. (AP)—Wilmer Allison, member of the American Davis tennis cup team, has withdrawn from the University of Texas for the remainder of this year to devote his time to tennis.

Allison of Fort Worth is a junior this year and would be eligible again next year for conference and national intercollegiate play. He is national intercollegiate singles champion now.

Tom Sharkey Says Tunney Supreme

Not a Fighter to Stand Up Against Tunney

AURORA, Ill., April 26. (US)—There isn't another fighter in the ring today that can stand up against Gene Tunney. If you don't believe it, ask Tom Sharkey, former heavyweight contender.

Sharkey arrived in Aurora today from Tia Juana, Mexico. He will work as a guard in the money room at the Aurora races.

"Tunney is a great boy," he said. "He's a real fighter and he's clever."

"In spite of Shakespeare?" someone asked.

"In spite of Shakespeare and everything else," he retorted. "He's game or he would never have come back after taking that sock from Dempsey in the seventh round. I was only six feet away from him when he got it and it was an awful blow.

"What do I think Tunney could have been in the old days? Well, Tunney hasn't had any boys to meet like Jim Corbett, Jeffries and the others. Take James J. Corbett, Jim Jeffries, Peter Maher, Joe Goddard, Gus Ruhlin, Kid McCoy, Bob Fitzsimmons and Joe Choynski. There is what I consider the list of the best fighters of their time.

"Carpentier is through. Firpo was never anything but a big, powerful chap without much besides his strength. Who else is there? Dempsey, when in his prime, would have taken him."

Red Sox Trade Wiltse To Browns For Gerber

BOSTON, April 26. (UP)—Harold Wiltse, Red Sox southpaw pitcher, has been traded to the St. Louis Americans for Walter Gerber, a shortstop. Red Sox officials announced here tonight. The trade was even.

In 1926, Wiltse won eight games for Boston and lost 15; in 1927, he won 10 games and lost 18. Gerber fielded .946 and batted .224 in 142 games.

NEW YORK COTTON

NEW YORK, April 26. (AP)—Apprehensions of further unfavorable weather in the south increased activity in the cotton market today, sending prices into new high ground for the movement, with gains of $1.40 to $1.75 a bale. Offerings increased at the higher prices and after selling up to 21.05, July reacted to 20.82, closing at 20.85, compared with 20.54, at the close yesterday. The general market closed steady, at net advances of 28 to 34 points.

The market opened firm at an advance of 22 to 31 points on prospects for rain in eastern and central sections of the belt, and relatively firm Liverpool cables. Realizing caused a little irregularity after the start, but offerings were absorbed on slight setbacks, the market showing every indication of a broadening demand and a more bullish sentiment over the coming crop prospects.

May sold up to 21.26 and October to 20.82 during midday, net advances of 46 to 53 points and recoveries of from 386 to 420 points from the low levels touched on the mid-winter decline.

Realizing became heavy at these prices, while demand seemed to taper off somewhat during the afternoon, and prices eased back to 21.05 for May and 20.61 for October, or about 20 points from the early high levels. There may have been some selling for a reaction as well as profit-taking, owing to the failure of later private advices to show as much rain as some traders had anticipated, but the precipitation reported in Oklahoma was considered excessive. There was also bullish comment on private reports of rains in northeast Texas, and talk of a norther in West Texas.

Closing prices showed reactions of 17 to 19 points from the best. About 15 May notices were reported but evidently without effect on the market. Private cables reported buying and trade calling in Liverpool and improved demand for cotton cloths from India.

Exports today 13,816, making 6,374,636 so far this season. Port receipts 9650. U. S. port stock 1,503,519.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON

NEW ORLEANS, April 26. (AP)—The cotton market presented a seething scene of activity today with prices climbing approximately $3 a bale for the day before a reactionary movement set in to pare down the profit by almost one third.

Continued reports of rain, the official forecast for precipitations over the entire belt within the next 24 hours and adverse crop news were responsible for the bulge that started with the opening gong. May bounded to 21.03 in the scramble but reacted to 20.84 and closed at 20.89 for a net gain of 45 points on the day's trading. The general market closed steady at net gains of 33 to 45 points.

Better cables than due held the upward movement. The opening showed net gains of 19 to 21 points and continued until May sold at 20.67, July at 20.50 and October 20.17, up 23 to 26 points from the previous close. These prices attracted some profit taking and prices soon eased off 1 to 9 points.

Demand from the trade and speculative interests checked the downward trend before it was hardly underway. Their action was prompted by the impaired crop prospects, late start of the crops and free covering by shorts. Prices firmed up and the upward trend was resumed, new highs being made for the movement with May trading at 21.03; July 20.75 and October 20.45, 51 to 59 points over the previous close.

During the afternoon hours the market eased off on the theory of traders that a decline from the good prices was due. New York in particular sold and the market sold down 19 to 20 points from the highs. A steadier feeling developed at the close, May selling at 20.89; July 20.59 and October 20.27.

Grain

By THOMAS TEMPLE HOYNE
Universal Service.

CHICAGO, April 26.—After opening higher and showing strength during the fore-part of the session, wheat and corn lost heart today and sagged away to a lower finishe. Rye and oats closed irregularly.

At the end wheat was off ¼ to ¾; corn was down 1 to 1¼; oats were off ⅛ to ¾ higher; rye was 1 lower to ⅛ higher.

The news on wheat was as bullish as ever, but some big interests were on the profit-taking side of the market. Tom Howell was credited with selling out a lot of his high-priced wheat. To him chiefly pit traders attributed the selling every time the market got up around the top.

At the close wheat did not look so strong as it has of late. Tomorrow the market may have a further decline, especially if it starts out strong. Such a break, however, does not necessarily mean that the general trend of prices has certainly turned from the upgrade to the down-grade.

Corn, acting uncertainly for the last twp days, did not look to many good judges like as strong a market as it has been. The country taking advantage of the high prices is loosening up and offering corn to arrive.

In the cash market wheat was 1 to 2 up; corn was unchanged to ⅛ up; oats were unchanged to ⅛ up; rye was firm; barley was firm. No. 2 red winter wheat sold at $2.15 at St. Louis.

Oils Active and Higher in 4,000,000 Share Session, Bullish Weather Boosts Cotton

BY BROADEN WALL
Universal Service Financial Expert

NEW YORK, April 26.—Railroads moved into new high record territory featuring another 4,000,000-share session on the stock exchange today, in which industrials showed more life. The rail shares affected by the eastern magnates' agreement quieted after further bulge early in the day, but others were taken forward in highly aggressive manner. Union Pacific, and Southern were among those to enjoy more prominence. Central met profit taking, but was absorbed in good manner as it eased off. Oils were more active and higher also, with the exception of Atlantic Refining, which met with considerable liquidation.

Sinclair, and Richfield registered new highs for the move before meeting sufficient offerings to halt their advance. Radio climbed higher, as did General Motors and others in the automobile group, but their advance lacked the vitality of last week.

There was little worry about the reserve bank meeting scheduled for after the close. Cotton and other commodities continued the advance, influenced by bullish weather developments. Sterling dipped a little while other currencies held fairly firm in quiet trading.

Quieting of the Delaware & Hudson, Wabash and others was due to uncertainty whether the official announcement of agreement between eastern magnates would be announced. During the afternoon decision was reached, however, and Mr. Loree officially told of the sale of Delaware & Hudson's holdings of the Lehigh Valley and the Wabash. It was reported that $63,000,000 was involved in the transaction. Not alone does it point to special distribution to the stockholders of that road, but indicates harmony in the ranks of eastern railroad officials so that the Central and Pennsylvania interests can go ahead with their merger plans. Very little else was talked of in the speculative community during the session and as further whispers of the negotiations leaked out it was revealed that Loree had negotiated one of the best deals in railroad history.

Union Pacific soared above 200. Not alone does it benefit from large holdings of New York Central, but it also has a big block of Baltimore & Ohio stocks which will be of value now that the bankers can go ahead with preparation of consolidation plans. There was talk of a new stock offering by New York Central, but those usually familiar with the affairs of the roads were not expecting any such development in the near future. Wabash slid off a fraction for the session, but was well taken as there i sa substantial minority group in the company desirous of adding to its holdings whenever possible. Unless satisfied with the treatment received from the new controlling interests the minority promise some lively times.

Curb

Leading Issues on New York Market

NEW YORK, April 26. (AP)—Bullish buying continued to lift prices on the curb market today with gains ranging from 5 to 28 points. Some profit-taking set in around noon, but recessions were limited.

Safeway Stores led the market, soaring 28 points to a new peak at 550. Shattuck Denn again reached new high territory at 20⅝. Railroad shares reflected the strength of rails on the "big board," Alabama Great Southern preferred jumping 11 points to a new top and the common moving to its year's high at 179. Pittsburgh & Lake Erie rose about 11 points to a new high at 169⅝.

Bancitaly advanced to within 2 points of the year's high and Columbia Graphophone, Libby Owens, New Jersey Zinc, Silica Gel and others recorded substantial gains.

A feature was the strength of the artificial silk shares, British Celanese climbing to a new top at 28⅝ on heavy buying. Tubise and Celanese gained about 4 points each.

Profit-taking cut down the gains of the utilities after Cities Service, Massachusetts Gas and a few others had reached new peaks.

Oils generally were strong. Chesbrough, Darby, Gulf, Humble and Richfield Warrants establishing new high prices. Some pipe lines also advanced.

ORDINANCE NO. 965.—An ordinance for the licensing and regulation of "Driverless Automobiles," hired or leased to the public for use upon or over the streets or thoroughfares of the city of Wichita Falls. Be it ordained by the Board of Aldermen of the City of Wichita Falls: Section 1. The term "Driverless Automobiles," as used throughout this ordinance, shall be held to mean and include all automobiles, motorcycles and vehicles mechanically propelled in the City of Wichita Falls which are hired or leased or offered for hire or lease to the public without drivers furnished by the hirer or lessor, and to be used upon or over the streets or thoroughfares of the City of Wichita Falls. Section 2. The use of the streets or thoroughfares of the City of Wichita Falls by any person whomsoever for the purpose of operating or causing to be operated thereon any driverless automobile or automobiles, as defined in this ordinance, is hereby declared to be a public franchise or privilege in the nature of a franchise, and a business, occupation and public utility, the exercise of which is conditioned upon and subject to the grant, authorization, license and regulation by ordinance of the Board of Aldermen of the City of Wichita Falls; and no person shall make such use of the streets or highways of said City of Wichita Falls, or exercise thereon any such franchise or privilege, or operate or cause to be operated any such driverless automobile on said streets or highways, unless the operation of such vehicle shall have been first authorized by the grant of such franchise or privilege, and a written license issued under the authority of this ordinance, and unless such person shall thereafter comply with all regulations of such matters, now or hereafter lawfully established and in effect by ordinance of this city. Section 3. From and after the taking effect of this ordinance it shall be unlawful for any person, association of persons, or corporation to engage in the business, in the City of Wichita Falls, of hiring or leasing or of offering to hire or lease any "Driverless Automobile" to the public without complying with the terms of this ordinance. Section 4. It shall be unlawful from and after the taking effect of this ordinance for any person, association of persons or corporation to engage in the business in the City of Wichita Falls of hiring or leasing or of offering for hire or lease any "Driverless Automobile" unless a written license be secured and bond of assurance for the proper conduct of such business by such hirer or lessor be first given as herein provided. Section 5. Every "Driverless Automobile," when not employed, shall remain in the garage or stand designated therefor in the application for license, and such stand or garage shall not be changed unless and until such change has been duly made on the records of the city clerk, showing the changed stand or garage where such "Driverless Automobile" shall thereafter remain and be found when not employed. Section 6. Every person, association of persons or corporation who may hereafter require a license to engage in the business of hiring or leasing or of offering to hire or lease "Driverless Automobiles" to the public shall file with the city clerk a written application, signed by such applicant and stating: (a) The name and place of residence, sex, age, customary calling or occupation of the applicant, and the character and value of his assets, and what portion, if any, of such assets are exempt from forced sale, the liabilities of such applicant and how, if at all, such liabilities are secured and whether any other person owns any title or interest in the automobile for which such license is required. (b) The name, usual trade description, equipment, rated horse power and factory number of such automobile, and, as nearly as practicable, the year in which said automobile was manufactured or first used. (c) The rated seating capacity of such automobile. (d) The stand or garage at which the automobile will remain while not in actual service. (e) The kind of written assurance which said applicant desires to furnish the city. (f) If the applicant be a corporation, the name and place of residence of the officers of such corporation, the amount of its capital stock, and the amount therefor fully paid up, the character and value of its assets, its liabilities and the security thereof, and such corporation shall file with its said application a duly certified copy of its charter and by-laws, and if it be a foreign corporation a duly certified copy of its permit to do business in Texas. The city clerk shall present such application to the mayor, who may grant or, for good cause, refuse the same. Section 7. Before any such license shall issue, the applicant shall pay the license fee required and furnish to the City of Wichita Falls for each "Driverless Automobile" to be licensed a good and sufficient assurance in writing that such business shall be operated with due care for the public safety. Such assurance shall consist of a good and sufficient bond or policy of insurance to be approved by the mayor, conditioned that the holder of such license shall well and truly pay to the mayor of said city or his successors in office, for the benefit of every person injured, or owner of property damaged through the negligence of such licensee or his agents or employees in failing to keep and maintain said cars offered to the public for hire in proper and safe condition for operation upon the streets of the city, or through the negligence of said licensee, his agents or employees, in hiring or leasing said cars to be operated on or over the streets of the city by a person or persons incompetent or unqualified to safely and properly operate same upon said streets, or will well and truly pay, directly to any such person or persons injured in person or property any amount or amounts of money that may be awarded by final judgment of any court of competent jurisdiction against such licensee on account of any such injury, not exceeding for bodily injury to any one person the sum of twenty-five hundred ($2500.00) dollars, or the sum of ten thousand ($10,000.00) dollars, for all persons injured in any one accident or occasion, and not exceeding the sum of one thousand ($1000.00) dollars for direct and material damages to property resulting from any one accident or occasion. The said bond or policy shall provide that each such cause of action shall survive in case of death of the injured person for the benefit of the beneficiaries of such person, and that such bond or policy shall be subject to successive recoveries during the time that such bond or policy shall continue in effect. The said bond or policy may be executed by sureties or insurers consisting of any solvent surety or insurance company, authorized to transact business in the State of Texas, or such bond may be executed by two or more personal sureties, but in such event the obligors on such bond shall attach to their bond their statement in writing, acknowledged for registration, to the effect that they own in fee simple real estate, describing it, situated in a specified county or counties of the State of Texas, which is free from incumbrance and subject to no claim of exemption, and of an actual market value, to be stated therein, of more than double the amount of such bond, and such bond for the full amount thereof shall in said statement recite to be and shall be a lien for the benefit of the beneficiaries in said bond on such real estate, and shall be recorded in the office of the county clerk of each county in which such real estate is situated. Said lien shall be released by the mayor upon five days application as hereinafter provided, subject to any liability accruing prior to said release. PROVIDED, HOWEVER, any such person, association or corporation may give one bond limiting the liability of the sureties to $50,000.00, in lieu of the bond above described, but otherwise conditioned the same, covering and applying to all such liability on account of any number of vehicles not exceeding 10, or one such bond for $100,000.00 covering any number of vehicles. PROVIDED, HOWEVER, that in the event the mayor shall at any time and for any reason deem that any assurance given by any licensee is insufficient for the protection of the public, he may require new or additional assurance and the licensee or persons owning or operating any such automobile shall within three days after receiving written notice of such requirement provide the required new or additional assurance; and PROVIDED, FURTHER, that in the absence of special agreement, any surety or insurer may by written demand require of the mayor that a new assurance for any such automobile be furnished by the licensee within five days, and the mayor shall thereupon give written notice by personal delivery or by mail to any such licensee and the approval of such new assurance, or the expiration of the five-day period above provided for, shall discharge such first sureties or insurers from any liability which shall accrue after the time of approval of such new assurance or the expiration of the said period; and PROVIDED, FURTHER, that in the event any bond or policy be so cancelled upon the request of the sureties or insurers because of the default of the licensee in the payment of the premium, if any, specified and provided for in such bond or policy, such cancellation shall, at the option of the mayor, be sufficient cause for the revocation and termination of the license held by such licensee; and PROVIDED, FURTHER, that neither said city nor any officer thereof shall be held liable for the pecuniary responsibility or solvency of any such surety or insurer or in any manner become liable for any sum on account of any such claim or any act or commission relating to any such automobile, but persons having cause of action secured thereby shall be authorized to sue directly on such assurance without impleading the city; and all persons known to any surety or insurer to have been injured or damaged in the same accident and claiming damage therefor shall be made parties without priority of claim on payment in any suit had or instituted on account of such matter. Section 8. Every person, association of persons or corporation complying with this ordinance, whose application shall have been approved by the mayor, shall be entitled to a license or metal tag, authorizing such person to hire or lease and offer to hire or lease the automobile described in such application, bond and license therefor as a "Driverless Automobile" for hire, subject to the terms and provisions of this ordinance, and such license shall not be transferrable. The metal tag furnished to such licensee shall be of distinctive shape and shall show thereon the words "Driverless Auto for Hire," together with the year for which the same is issued, the date of expiration and the number of the license. Said metal tag, though delivered to the licensee, shall remain the property of the city and shall be carried by the licensee attached to the front of the radiator of the automobile for which same was issued, in a conspicuous place, so long as the license and bond or policy of insurance covering such automobile is in effect and no longer; and no portion of such tag shall be covered or hidden in any manner; PROVIDED, HOWEVER, that if for any reason such license or bond or policy of insurance is cancelled or becomes ineffective, then such metal tag shall be returned to the city clerk on the date such license or bond or policy of insurance ceases to be operative. Such "Driverless Automobiles" shall be at all reasonable times subject to inspection by the police or traffic officers of the city, and the refusal of the licensee to permit such inspection shall constitute a violation of this ordinance. Section 9. No person, association of persons or corporation shall engage in the business of hiring or leasing or offering for hire or lease any "Driverless Automobile" to the public, to be used on any street in the City of Wichita Falls otherwise than in conformity with the following rules: 1st. Such "Driverless Automobile" shall have conspicuously posted therein a copy of the current license therefor. 2nd. No such "Driverless Automobile" shall be hired or leased to be operated by any person not competent to drive and control the same with ordinary care and skill, nor for operation by any person unacquainted with the use and proper handling of the particular automobile so hired or leased, nor shall same be operated on the streets by any such incompetent person. 3rd. It shall be the duty of the licensee prior to hiring or leasing a car for use upon the streets to use due care to investigate and determine the qualifications and proficiency of the person who is to operate same, and the car shall not, without the knowledge and consent of the licensee, be driven by a different person than the one so investigated and approved by the licensee. 4th. No such "Driverless Automobile" shall be hired or leased or offered for hire or lease, to any person to be used for any illegitimate or immoral purpose. 5th. No such "Driverless Automobile" shall be hired or leased, or offered for hire or lease to any person under 21 years of age, to be operated upon the streets of the City of Wichita Falls by him, nor shall same be so operated. 6th. A written record shall be kept and preserved by this license under this ordinance, subject to inspection by the mayor of the city, or any police officer of the city, showing: (1) The date and hour of each hiring or leasing. (2) The license number of the automobile or vehicle so hired or leased. (3) The name and place of residence of the person engaging or leasing such automobile or vehicle. (4) The name and address of the person driving the same. (5) The date and hour of the return thereof. Section 10. It shall be unlawful for any person or persons to use or drive any driverless automobile or automobiles upon any street or thoroughfare or public place within the corporate limits of the City of Wichita Falls, unless the person, firm or corporation or association of persons, from which such automobile or automobiles have been hired or leased have procured license and given bond as required by this ordinance, for the operation of such "Driverless Automobile," and shall have in all things fully complied with all of the provisions of this ordinance. Section 11. All such licenses shall be issued subject to revocation for cause, and whenever any licensee shall wilfully or persistently and negligently violate or permit to be violated by any other person any of the provisions of this ordinance, or the traffic ordinances of this city, the judge of the corporation court of said city shall be authorized to order said licensee, after three days' written notice, to appear before him and show cause why such license should not be revoked; and said judge shall at the time fixed by such notice investigate and hear evidence concerning such violations, and if it shall appear that such violation or violations have occurred, shall have power to declare such license revoked and terminated, and after such revocation the licensee shall not again under said revoked license be authorized or permitted to engage in the business of hiring or leasing or of offering for hire or lease any "Driverless Automobile" to be used on the streets of the City of Wichita Falls for a period of 12 months. Section 12. This ordinance hereby repeals all ordinances and parts of ordinances in conflict or inconsistent herewith, in so far as applicable to "Driverless Automobiles" as defined herein. Section 13. Any person violating or failing or refusing to comply with any provision of this ordinance shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not less than five ($5.00) dollars nor more than one hundred ($100.00) dollars; and each day during which such violation, failure or refusal shall continue shall constitute a separate and distinct offense. Section 14. Should any part or section here of be held for any reason invalid, such holding shall not affect the remainder of this ordinance, which shall remain in full force and effect. PASSED AND APPROVED, this the 26th day of March, A. D., 1928. R. E. Shepherd, mayor. Attest: W. E. McBroom, city clerk.

Chest Directors To Study Family Relief

The condition of the finances of the family relief fund of the community chest will be discussed at the first meeting of he new directorate at 10 o'clock Friday morning in the City National bank.

At the time of the community chest drive, $10,000 was allotted to this work. However, unemployment and other conditions have brought about such heavy demands for food, shelter and clothing by the destitute, that the allotment is almost exhausted and the year has not well started, it was pointed out Thursday.

In addition to the report of the Family Relief association, of which Mrs. Effice McHam is secretary, the work of the Y. W. C. A. will be reviewed by Miss Erma Schnelle. President R. E. Shepherd will preside.

This town is going to be red-head crazy. Red heads in the movies, and red heads in vaudeville, and probably one red headed theater manager named Hans Smith at the Majestic if the crowds don't enjoy the fun.

Saturday the "It" girl is back in town. Everyone knows that the "It" girl is no other than that most modern flapperette, Clara Bow. Her new show is "Red Hair" and it is written by Elinor Glyn who wrote "It," and also the immortal (?) "Three Weeks." That's just a part of the film red head celebration. Part of the film is in "technicolor," says Manager Smith. Asked for explanations of "technicolor," he said it meant that the fans actually can see Flapper Claras hair red as it was worn for this particular picture. The picture is Paramount's latest flapper effort and has been acclaimed in the east as a knockout.

Before going on with the tale about red hair, there is a word concerning Wichita Falls gleaned from the current issue of the Billboard, amusement magazine, concerning Burt Southern's Vanities which is billed to return to the Mission here soon. At present the company is at Pantages theater in Dallas and is enjoying good patronage. With the company are Burt Southern, Eunice Southern, Margaret Evans, Bob Evans, Jack Taylor, and Pat Williams Taylor, the magazine says. The Vanities girls are Mary Redman, Ruby Vaughn, Freda Stanton, the Frances sisters, Ruth Hayden, Joyce Culbertson and Eunice Southern. The Vanities orchestra is shown as including Lillian Culbertson, piano; Rachel Parker, violin; Johnnie Donchalk, banjo; Pat Williams, trumpet, and Jack Taylor, drums and xylophone.

More of the red head amusement is on right now at the Majestic where Babe Egan and the Hollywood Redheads are headlining the vaudeville program. Friday is the last day to see this program.

School - College Notes

"The race of mankind would perish, did they cease to aid each other."—Scott.

"What Price Success?" was the theme of an address by Harry E. Dodge, national Y. M. C. A. worker of Fall River, Massachusetts, before the Junior college-high school assembly Thursday morning.

He spoke along the lines of personal honesty in life, saying that one can not get along without it and that one's greatest asset in life is not money or even education, but character.

Citing numerous examples of athletes such as Babe Ruth, Charlie Paddock, Ty Cobb, Tris Speaker, and Helen Wills, Mr. Dodge admonished his hearers to live the clean life in thought and action. He said, "Think dirty and you will talk and live dirty, and you can't get away with it."

As his closing idea, Mr. Dodge emphasized religion as the cornerstone of life and the most essential item of all. Mr. Dodge, who is one of the best known national leaders in boys' work and inspirational speaking, was introduced by J. H. Allison.

Rail Traffic Delayed When Car Jumps Track

Passenger and freight traffic over the Katy railway, between Wichita Falls and Dallas, was delayed about two and one-half hours Thursday morning when an east bound freight jumped the track between Nocona and Bonita.

The accident occurred shortly after midnight. A tank car on the rear of the freight jumped the track and ploughed down the ties for several hundred feet until it came to a bridge. The ties of the bridge, unable to bear the weight, crashed through. All traffic was held up until temporary repairs could be made.
