Local School Board Approves Raises

Work scheduled for Olton school board was very light as they met in regular session Monday night.

Discussion of the feasibility of securing an irrigation well for the purpose of watering playgrounds, amendments to the budget, school insurance and the minimum wage law were the topics under consideration of the board.

The idea of drilling an irrigation well for the purpose of watering the playground, practice field, football field and band field was presented to the board by Supt. Ray Schultz, who said he felt that this might help the city during the summer months when the load on the city water was so heavy.

"However," Schultz was quick to point out, "This is something that would have to be worked out between the city and school in such a way that it would benefit both."

He went on to say that he would meet with the city council and present the idea to them if the board wanted him to do so.

After some discussion as to costs, maintenance and water laws, the board agreed that Schultz should meet with the council and get the city's views as to how the water problem should be handled.

An amendment to the budget was made in several departments, those of salaries, bus drivers, and bonds. A total of $2400 was added to salaries, which is the cost of the summer work program being conducted this year. The federal government will re-imburse $1800 of this money to the school.

A sum of $425 was added to the bus drivers costs due to extra activities in which the school participated and bus drivers were needed.

An error in auditing last year showed a $2,000 deficit in the bonds and this figure was added to the budget simply to correct the audit.

Two plans of student insurance were discussed by the board as to possible use by the school for the next year.

Although the company with which the school has been securing its insurance for students has been satisfactory, they are not offering the same coverage this year. The board discussed the possibility of changing to another company which would give the same coverage as last year although it would cost students more, particularly those participating in athletics.

The board agreed on securing the policy which gave the best coverage and authorized Supt. Schultz to look into the matter more thoroughly.

Schultz then brought up the matter of the hike in the minimum wage which will become effective in February. He asked the board if it might not be satisfactory to consider the raise for employees of the lunchroom and custodians who fall under the minimum wage law at the present time instead of waiting until February.

The board agreed to raise the pay now to $1.30 per hour, which is the minimum wage that would be compulsory in February.

A $25 raise was given to Margie Slatten, lunchroom supervisor and Lloyd Blackwell, bus mechanic and driver.

A letter from the city council stating their gratitude to the board for permitting Blackwell to serve as police chief in the past few weeks was read by president of the board, Winston Bley.

He then read a letter of resignation by Sandra Meadows, girls coach, who has accepted a position in the Duncanville schools.

Following the acceptance of Miss Meadows' resignation, a possible replacement was discussed by the board but no decisions were made. They requested that a woman be acquired for the position if possible.

The business meeting was adjourned and board members were shown through some of the high school rooms which are getting repairs on desks and other needed items, as a part of the summer work program.

City Councilmen Discuss Water Shortage Problem

A very light agenda was in store for the city council when they met in regular business meeting Tuesday night.

Superintendent of schools, Ray Schultz appeared before the board to ask their consideration of a proposed irrigation well to be drilled on the school grounds.

Schultz told the council that the board had discussed the feasibility of having the school drill its own irrigation well for the purpose of watering the playgrounds, practice field, football field and band field.

After discussing it with the board, Schultz was asked to appear before the council and get their opinion as to whether it could be worked out satisfactorily between the city and school.

Schultz said that before any further plans were to be made, that the city and school would have to work out some sort of agreement that would be beneficial to both.

He added that if this would hurt the city, he would not be interested in doing it but that he felt it would help the city to better serve its other customers during the summer months when the city is faced with water shortages.

Councilmen agreed that something had to be done about the water shortage during the summer months and that this might be the answer, but asked for time to study the problem thoroughly before making a decision. They stated that they would like to meet with the school board if further plans were made.

Louis Hair then appeared before the council, asking them to deed a portion of the Olton Recreation Center land back to the Meltons so that a loan might be secured for the purpose of buying a home.

Hair said that it was necessary only until the loan was repaid and at that time the land would revert back to the ORC.

The ORC board voted at its last meeting to purchase the Charlie Jones home and move it to the recreation center to be used as a home for the golf pro.

A loan of $7000 would be necessary for the purchase and moving of the house.

City Judge Robert Dennis asked council's permission to hold court in the council room and requested that an American flag be displayed in the room. Request was granted.

Court is held each morning Monday through Friday from 8 to 9 o'clock and Saturday from 8 to 12 noon.

In final action, Harold Lloyd, assistant to the city water superintendent, reported to the council that Olton residents were very cooperative during the water shortage last week when they were asked to cut down on watering their lawns and commended them for their action.

Bill Clayton Attending Meet In Detroit

State Representative Bill Clayton of Springlake is in Detroit this week attending the Second Annual National Conference of State and Federal Water Officials.

The water conference being held Tuesday through Thursday (July 9-11), will include reports and workshops on interstate water problems, state programs and problems, municipal problems and flood control.

Canadian Visits Olton

A Canadian who has been attending Wayland Baptist College for the first summer session says "Texas Plains are beautiful" but adds that he still prefers his home near the Great Lakes in Ayr, Ontario.

Houseguest of Evangelist and Mrs. Raymon Carson and their son Billy, Brian Shantz, is a senior student at Graceland College at Lamoni, Iowa. The personable youth has been taking courses in the history of the Old Testament and American History. He is a physical education major with a minor in history.

Shantz plans to teach in Canada after his graduation from Graceland College. Starting salary in his country for teachers with a Bachelor of Arts degree is $7500.

Students become eligible to teach in elementary grades with only one year's training from a teacher's college. Elementary teachers receive $5000 per annum at the beginning of their career.

Canadian students who do not plan to attend college, spend four years in high school with a choice of commercial or technological courses.

Students who choose to further their education at college spend an additional year in high school. Fifth year high school students study nine subjects.

In his fifth year of high school, Shantz studied English, literature, English composition, French literature, French composition, history, botany, zoology, trigonometry and analytical geometry.

During his five years of high school work, the Canadian youth studied five years of French, two years of Latin and two years of German.

Soccer and hockey are popular sports in Canada.

Tobacco is grown near Ayr, Ontario. Tobacco growers irrigate with sprinkler systems. Wheat, oats, barley and corn are grown without irrigation.

Ayr is also an industrial center. Cars manufactured there are more expensive than those made in the United States.

Canada has only had a national anthem for two years. It is titled "O Canada".

There is no draft law in Canada and volunteers for military service enlist for a period of five years. Many volunteers remain in the service for a military career.

Canada has three major political parties - the Liberal Party, Conservative Party and New Democratic Party.

The candidate is elected that receives the most "ridings" - determined by the population of the area.

Shantz plans to return to Graceland College with the fall semester.

Babe Ruth All Stars Remain Contenders

Babe Ruth All Stars emerged victorious Monday in District Tournament play in Pampa.

The home team whipped Muleshoe 8 to 2.

In the top of the second inning, Muleshoe collected two hits, singles by Bucky Taylor and Terry Gunter, but failed to get a man past second base.

Tony Barton led off the bottom of the second for Olton with a base on balls. Donnie Wheat singled and Kent Parish was hit by a pitch to load the bases. Danny Harris reached first base and Barton scored the first run of the game when all hands were safe on a fielder's choice.

A base on balls issued to Steve Sanderson, pitcher, drove in another run. The third run of the inning crossed the plate when the Muleshoe pitcher uncorked a wild pitch.

Muleshoe threatened to tie the game in the top of the third when Mike Riley and Jerry Putnam drew consecutive walks and a stand-up triple by Lee Clodfelter emptied the bases.

In the Olton half of the third, Barton slammed a triple and scored on a single by Mark Gaitner.

Olton only allowed one other Muleshoe hit, a triple by Gunter in the fourth.

In the fifth, Charles Pinkerton was safe on an error and Mike Parsons followed with a perfectly laid bunt for a single. Barton picked up his second hit to load the bases and a triple by Gaitner cleaned the bases. Wheat singled to score Gaitner.

In the sixth, Hoyt Glasscock rapped a stand-up triple but was unable to score.

Winning pitcher was Steve Sanderson who allowed four hits, struck out nine and walked four. Barton had a perfect night, two for two. Gaitner and Wheat went two for three.

Olton's All Stars suffered an overwhelming defeat from the bats of Dumas's All Stars in Tuesday's tournament play.

Dumas clobbered the home team 19 to 1.

Few fans were on hand to root for the home team when they faced Canyon Wednesday night in a do-or-die situation for both teams.

Olton's All Stars got a taste of victory in the first inning when they scored two runs and victorious they were as they outlasted Canyon, 10 to 6.

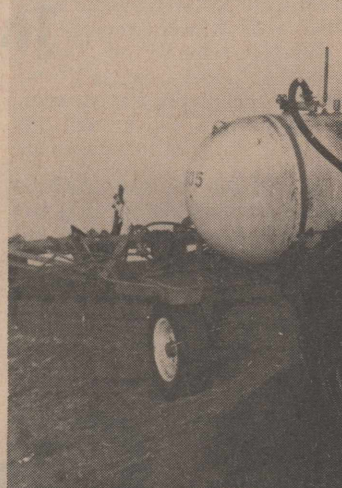

Steve Sanderson of the Earth Nickel's Gin team picked up his second win of the tournament after surviving a shaky start.

The score after one inning found both teams even with two and two. Olton regained the lead in the second, four to two.

Once more, in the third inning, Canyon balanced the scales.

Olton's decisive - and big - inning came in the fourth or

Dear Editor

Explanation Given

Dear Editor:

Your readers may be wondering about the background of the statement by Bill Clayton in last week's Enterprise relating to a debate.

The Muleshoe Chamber of Commerce contacted both Mr. Clayton and me offering us the opportunity to discuss the issues that concern the people of this area before the crowd at their 50 Year Anniversary and 4th of July Celebration.

This was an honor to both of us, and an opportunity for the people of the area to hear our views. I accepted this offer, and through an honest misunderstanding, a story was carried that the debate had been set.

It was my hope that Mr. Clayton would be able to attend, as the voters have a right to know our stands on taxation, daylight savings time, education, and other state issues. However there was no effort made by anyone to pressure Mr. Clayton into accepting such a debate.

Upon learning of the mistaken story, I sent my expression of regret that it happened, which was printed in the Lamb County Leader. But as Mr. Clayton sent his press release to all news media, including a dozen or so which were in no way involved, and whose readers and listeners knew nothing of the original story, perhaps this letter will help in clarification.

It is my intention to try to make my campaign an asset to all the people of this district, with emphasis on ideas which might help our towns to grow and our people to prosper, so I hope that no further questions of honesty or motivation will arise in the discussion of issues which are proper and necessary if we are going to begin to find answers to the many problems which now beset our Country.

Sincerely,
Frank Ford

City's Friendliness Praised

Dear Editor:

I would like to take this opportunity to thank all of the citizens of the city of Olton for the warm welcome we have received.

Some of you we knew already, some we have not met but are looking forward to meeting each and every one of you individually.

The friendly atmosphere of the town makes us feel at home already even though we have just begun to become a part of the community. I would like to ask for the help and co-operation of each and every citizen in making our town a place we can be proud of. One way we can help is to improve our driving manner and being more courteous to our fellow citizens. Making sure we obey all traffic signs in our city, these signs were placed there to make our streets safer and protect our children. By doing this we can look back at the end of the year and see where we have saved money, trouble and time by preventing accidents that otherwise might have happened and can be proud of our record of a lower than average accident rate.

I would like to invite each and every one to come by the station and visit with us.

Anytime this department or myself can be of any assistance to you our day number is 285-2612 or at night 285-2526.

Respectfully Yours,
Henry M. Ogletree

Dear Turnrow Tunkel

O. C. McBRIDE

I see where a travel expert advises people inexperienced in air travel to use care in choosing a wardrobe, since planes move quickly from one climate to another.

Packing for an airline flight is a problem these days. In addition to taking along clothing suitable for his destination, a passenger has to consider what they're wearing in Havana, because they're a pretty good chance he'll be spending a few days there.

What did you think of the recent defeat of mini-bottle legislation in Texas?

I'm surprised that drys opposed it. Complete prohibition didn't stop drinkers, but no one has ever tried weaning them.

Weed control with chemicals seems to be successful. Do you think all hand labor in fields will be eliminated?

Probably, and if farmers can't borrow a little cotton-chopping money at the bank during the summer, it will also eliminate many a fishing trip.

Senator McCarthy said recently that if he wasn't nominated by the Democrats, he might support Nelson Rockefeller in preference to Hubert Humphrey. Do you think his statement will help Rockefeller?

No, but it's probably the best thing that has happened to Hubert since the invention of throat lozenges.

Don't you think the answer to our crime problem is prompt and certain punishment?

Yes. I think they had the right idea in the days of the Old West.

Just temporarily. In a few years those kids would be old enough to start paying taxes.

If a person knows he is going to spend Monday morning hanging from a 20-foot tree at the end of a 10-foot rope, it discourages him from going around killing people on Saturday night.

President Johnson has recommended that the voting age be lowered to 18. Would this help the Democratic Party?

Press-Tige

BY SUE CANNON

There are definite advantages to being in the newspaper world.

I find this true more and more as time goes by.

Of course, I've loved just working with hometown folks and getting to visit with everyone each week and now another advantage has come my way.

The press were special guests at a premiere showing of "Texas" at Palo Duro Canyon recently and my family and I were among those there to see it.

It had a special meaning this year since one of our "home folks" is a member of the cast. This is a very entertaining event and I urge those of you who have not seen it to be sure and see it this summer.

Our little Leslie Holladay was out there singing and kicking up her heels with the rest of them and of course we all agreed that she was the best.

My children sat through the entire performance and never batted an eye or asked to leave during the time it was being presented.

And that is how I know it was so good! If you knew my kids, you'd understand.

They are just like any other kids I guess, but they always have to go get cokes, candy, pop corn or something during any show we ever went to --- until this one.

Anyway, thanks to being a member of the press, we saw a very good show, and also the governor of Texas was there for a dedication ceremony.

You know, you can get a better look at a celebrity on television than you can when you are in the same place as they are, but it's not near as much fun.

When we were in California, however, we got to talk with Gov. Reagan and the press was privileged to ask him questions about world affairs.

He is a very impressive speaker and speaks with the sincerity of one who really loves his country and wants to serve it to the best of his ability -- what ever capacity he is chosen for.

I am looking forward to hearing him again next Friday when he will be in Amarillo for a fund raising dinner in honor of Congressman Bob Price.

I have been told that I will receive a complimentary press ticket to the dinner and my news editor, Mozelle Trotter, has been keeping the road to the post office hot, trying to beat me to that ticket!

We had a news release the other day and I just knew I had received my ticket and YOU KNOW WHO got the mail! Well, I opened it and no ticket! I threatened her life nearly!

But she finally convinced me that she hadn't opened it. Then coyly remarked that it sure would be funny if she got to go to the dinner and I didn't!

We nearly had to have a referee after that!

I may have to take her key to the post office box away from her until after this is all over with!

Pills Vital To TB Patient

Take pills regularly! Unless he digests the full impact of that phrase, the TB patient is in for trouble. A relapse, perhaps.

Today, thanks to pills, active TB patients become non-infectious within days or weeks. Hospital stays can be shortened. In many cases, hospitalization is not even necessary. But to recover from the disease, patients must continue taking pills every day for two years. Long after they leave the hospital.

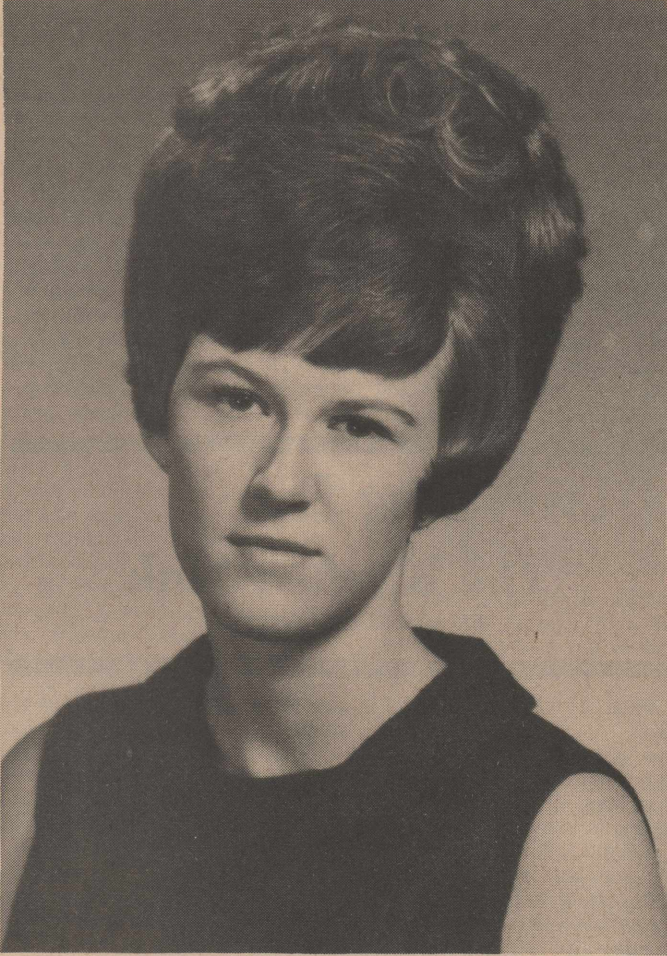

Unfortunately, too many TB patients cling to outmoded attitudes from the pre-pill era. Though pills are part of their daily routine, they sometimes view pill-taking as less important than other items on their list of priorities. It should be the key item.

One doctor in Denver developed a way to pick up interest in pills. He asked TB patients who were ready for discharge this question: "What is the most important thing you must do in the next two years to make sure you never again have tuberculosis?" To his astonishment most of them said, "rest" or "Wash your hands" or "Eat good food." All good answers but, in comparison with the importance of pill-taking, inconsequential.

Only half in jest, the doctor told the patients they could leave only when they supplied THE correct answer. Word got around fast.

In short order, all TB patients in the hospital shifted their long-range focus to pills. In fact, many of the patients stopped the doctor on the ward to say, "I know the answer—I can I go home?" Have pills, will travel.

To keep the focus on pills, your local TB-RD association has leaflets and information for patients and their families. Why not inquire about them?

Everything But The Kitchen Sink

BY MOZELLE TROTTER

I liked it! The HemisFair, I mean.

One of the very first things we did was to go up the Tower of Americas. Thought we might as well get it over with first - then if it did fall while we were at the top, we wouldn't have wasted a lot of walking.

I was also prepared to get an on-the-spot story of "lady reporter describes collapse of Tower".

Really though, if you forget all that fret of "what if it falls?" - it's quite exciting. People on the ground look like little ants swarming around. The view is wonderful.

One bit of a advice to anyone planning to go to the HemisFair - don't go on a holiday! Our second day at the fair was the Fourth of July and it was about like a giant can of live sardines. We didn't get to see all I wanted to see because of the long waiting lines.

It's really frustrating to wait in line, patient because on aide had counted you and you were in the "in crowd" and then - just as you get to the door - have them shut the doors in your face with a "Sorry, full house."

The U. S. Pavilion is tremendous. The building is beautiful, an asset to San Antonio for a long time, and the film, "Us" was a most remarkable accomplishment in the field of photography.

The Czechoslovakian Pavilion is perhaps the most entertaining (it was the most to me) exhibit at the Fair. It also is a great achievement in the field of fine arts.

They call it "Laterna Magika" - and it is magic. Live actors move in and out of the action on the three screens with amazing degrees of timing.

Most certainly everyone should make the U. S. and Czech pavilions first and second on their lists of things to see! Just in case you've been wondering if you ought to go to the Fair - do plan to go. If you have an extra seat in your car I'm available. Surely I can think up some excuse for going to give to the Husband and Boss Lady.

Out of town guests included Mrs. Ted Boedeker of Lockney, mother of the prospective bridegroom, Mrs. Cecil Boedeker of Lockney, Mrs. Royce Carthel of Plainview, Mrs. Guy Thompson of Plainview, Miss Sonja Thompson of Plainview, Mrs. Joe Thompson of Abernathy and Mrs. Pete Thompson of Abernathy.

Home Demonstration Club Meets At Community Center

The Northwest Home Demonstration Club met at the Edmonson Community Center July 2 with Mrs. Terry Hardy, hostess.

Mrs. Sarah Crader, president, presided. Roll call was answered by telling "When did you come to Hale County and what changes have been made since".

A report of $37.00 made at the concession stand at the White farm sale.

For the program Mrs. W. A. Pinkerton related the "History of Hale County". Hale County was created by an act of the legislature, Aug. 21, 1876. It was organized politically in 1888; the needed 150 signatures on the petition were secured at this time. The first county judge was F. M. Lester. The first courthouse was not built on the town square. A wooden building, 24 ft. by 48 ft. to later be used as a business building was first constructed. In 1908 the present courthouse was erected. The original building was sold to Dr. J. W. Wayland and was converted to be a drug store.

The town of Plainview was started by Maxwell and Lowe who camped under a hackberry grove on the creek and decided the present Plainview would be a good location for a town.

Each member brought an antique and was asked to wear some garment they had worn when they came to Hale County. Mrs. Clyde Witten was born in Hale County so she wore her baby cap. Mrs. W. A. Pinkerton wore a dress her mother wore about 1900. Mrs. Andy Weiber came here as a bride in the early 1940's; she wore her "going away suit", a blue wool and hat.

Others brought articles. Mrs. Elmo Snelling presented the evolution of churns including the dash and daisy types. Mrs. Winston Barry showed a round wooden butter mold with an ornate design.

The evolution of the iron was displayed; the sad iron with handle attached and also with the removable handle, also a gasoline iron.

A regular old time kerosene lamp, Rayolamp and Aladdin lamp were brought.

Mrs. Pinkerton's and Mrs. Witten's mothers had attended the Llano Summer Institute for men and women. Mrs. Pinkerton brought two medals received by her mother in 1893 for conduct and good grades. Mrs. Witten's mother received an award in 1894. On one side was engraved "highest award"; on the other side was "Llano Institute - 1894". These medals are solid gold.

Someone found a baby size shoe lost when they were cleaning after the tornado at Edmonson and this was brought.

Other items were displayed. For recreation the group sang old songs and "Texas, Our Texas".

Members present were Mrs. Sarah Crader, W. A. Pinkerton, Winston Barry, Andy Weiber, Wayne Painter, Elmo Snelling, W. B. Thompson, R. O. Moisser, and Clyde Witten.

What do you do with the seedlings of annual flowers that you thin to allow those left the proper spacing? Have you thought of planting these things in front of or between perennials that bloomed earlier in the year?

It now appears that the "official ball" may get rolling again in the House of Representatives on farm legislation during the week of July 15, according to Donald Johnson, Executive Vice President of Plains Cotton Growers, Inc.

The ball came to rest June 27 when Speaker John McCormack (D-Mass) and Majority Leader Carl Albert (D-Okla) agreed not to call H. R. 17126 up for house consideration. Officially it was crowded off the House calendar by other pressing issues.

The bill, reported some time ago by Congressman Bob Poage's House Committee on Agriculture, would extend for one year without changes the Agriculture Act of 1965 with provisions for cotton, wheat, feed grains, wool and dairy products. Poage is Texas' Democratic Representative from Waco.

H. R. 17126 was given a Rule for House debate on June 27. But McCormack, Albert and many other proponents of the bill feared it would be voted down or else passed with crippling amendments if brought up at that time.

The most serious obstacle to the bill's passage is workable form was and still is the threat of a limit being placed on payments to individual farmers. Attempts to impose such a limit have been made repeatedly in the past and are certain to be made again this year when the bill comes up.

And under the circumstances prevailing June 27 some observers felt almost sure that an amendment limiting payments would have passed.

Clouding the atmosphere for the farm measure from the beginning have been those urban congressmen who are strong for a greatly expanded food stamp program. Favorable votes from a substantial number of these city congressmen are necessary if a farm bill is to be passed.

Many of these, led by Leonor K. Sullivan (D-Mo.), have vowed they will work for the defeat of any and all farm legislation until they can see prospects for passage of an acceptable food stamp program. And as of June 27 the House Agriculture Committee had not completed action on a food stamp bill.

"Now the Ag Committee has reported a food stamp bill," Johnson said, "and Congressman Poage is asking the Rules Committee to schedule it for action soon after July 9. So there is new hope for getting a farm bill through."

The bill voted out by the House Ag Committee is not all Congresswoman Sullivan would like. She and her followers have been stumping for an "Open-end" food stamp program with expenditures limited only by their future ability to get funds appropriated. The Ag Committee bill would set expenditures at $245 million, well above Senate and Administration recommendations but less than satisfactory to Mrs. Sullivan.

Even so, Poage's Committee action apparently will get the food stamp issue before Congress, at which time the Congresswoman can offer amendments or perhaps substitute her own bill.

"With these developments," Johnson said, "PCG, the Texas Association of Cotton Producer Organizations (TACPO), our farm congressmen and the U. S. Department of Agriculture are redoubling efforts to create an atmosphere in which we will have a reasonable chance to get an acceptable farm bill through the House in Mid-July."

"Obviously some compromise if not outright vote swapping is going to be necessary of the House is to pass farm legislation this year," Johnson stated, "and there will be a lot of behind-the-scenes work done before the bill comes up again."

The Senate Agriculture Committee has under consideration a bill to extend the current law for four years with "minor" alterations. It would also include, with minor revisions, Title II of the Mondale Bargaining Bill, setting up price bargaining machinery for commodities where no farm program is now in existence.

The Senate Committee has completed hearings and at least one executive session and is expected to vote the measure out soon.

The Department, too, is known to favor an extension for more than one year and there is a distinct possibility that an amendment will be offered in the House making H. R. 17126 a four year bill.

Older Veterans May Qualify For Pensions

Needy veterans with wartime service who are 65 years of age or older may qualify for a Veterans Administration disability pension without proving a specific disability, Jack Coker, manager of the VA Regional Office in Waco, said today.

For VA pension purposes, wartime veterans are considered by law to be totally and permanently disabled at age 65.

This makes such veterans eligible for pensions at the rates authorized for other needy veterans who are totally and permanently disabled from causes unrelated to military service.

Currently, a veteran without dependents must have an annual income of less than $1,800 to be eligible for a pension, Coker said. The limit for veterans with dependents is $3,000.

However, under a law signed recently by President Johnson, beginning January 1, 1969, all income limits are to be increased $200 a year and most payments will be increased under a scale computed by $100 income increments.

Today, veterans without dependents receive monthly pensions ranging from $104 a month (for incomes not over $600 annually) to $79 a month (for incomes over $600 and not over $1,200 annually) to $45 a month (for income ranging from over $1,200 to $1,800).

For veterans with more than two dependents pensions range from $119 a month (for an annual income not over $1,000) to $84 a month (for incomes over $1,000 and not over $2,000) and $50 a month (for incomes of more than $2,000 and not over $3,000).

Under a law signed by President Johnson last summer, the Vietnam era (after August 4, 1964) is considered wartime service for non-service-connected disability pension purposes.

Veterans interested in more information should contact their nearest VA office.

Open Letter From Bill Clayton

Dear Friend:

The special Session of the 60th Legislature was concluded about 1:00 p. m., July 3rd, and it was a hectic thirty days. Liquor-by-the-drink (Mini-bottle) took much of our time. The House passed the bill, over my opposition, by a 3 or 4 vote majority. By working with Senator Doc Blanchard, Senator Jack Hightower and Senator Grady Hazlewood we furnished enough material and information to help them defeat the bill in the Senate. The "Mini-bottle bill" would have been a shame and disgrace to the citizens of Texas. Also defeated was a bill by Representative Jack Ogg of Houston, to allow sale and consumption of alcoholic beverages until 2:00 a. m. Instead of the present curfew of 12:15 a. m. There was also a liquor reform bill introduced, but it failed to pass. I hope something can be done in this area at the next regular session.

The appropriation bill which was passed by both houses of the legislature will adequately finance all State agencies and departments for the next fiscal year, plus increases in college faculty salaries, and a provision to expand vocational training. There were appropriations for swine and vegetable research in the High Plains Area, to be done by Texas Tech. Money was also appropriated for the building of the Veterinary Diagnostic Laboratory that was created last session.

We passed a tax bill, to cover the additional expenses of State Government for the next year, that will add a one-cent increase to the sales tax, and a seventy-five cents, per thousand dollars, increase in the corporation franchise tax.

Although there were some things in both the appropriation and tax bills that I didn't like, it was apparent towards the end of the session that these two bills were all that we would be able to pass.

I'll be at home for a few days, and then I will be going to Detroit, Michigan, to represent the State of Texas at a water conference.

If I can be of any help to you please call on me.

Sincerely,
Bill Clayton

Sick To Death

(EDITOR'S NOTE: The following address was delivered at the Oak Cliff Lions Club at a regular noon meeting on Wednesday, June 12, 1968 by the outgoing president, David R. Braden. The Oak Cliff Lions Club, with its 435 members, is the second largest Lions Club in the United States.)

Last week as we met to have our Installation Party - a man assumed a station in a kitchen corridor in L.A. - Later that evening he shot and killed a United States Senator - Robert Kennedy - a candidate for the Presidency of this nation!

The next day, as I contemplated this tragic and horrible event, it occurred to me that while spending a pleasant and amusing evening, I had done little then (or in this year for that matter) that you could wrap some serious thought around - I have left that to the guest speakers at this rostrum.

Blackie Sherrod, of the Dallas Times Herald, pointed out in his column of Monday evening that it is time for all those who have a podium to use it; be it a service club, or a sign on the back of a city bus. For two more weeks - this is my soap box, and today I shall use it in a serious vein!

Let me be remembered only as a clown, I would like to remind you today of the motto of Lions International: "Liberty - Intelligence - Our Nations Safety". It is in that regard that I make this statement. I make it that someone might speak for the COMMON MAN of this nation - Who leads a common life, Earns a common salary, Has a common ambition, A common dream, and pays common taxes.

I speak to you as the forum of common men everywhere - and as a representative.

All America has been told this past week - over and over again - that we are a sick society.

Gentlemen, I propose to you that I AM sick - maybe you are sick too.

I AM SICK TO DEATH OF BEING TOLD I AM SICK: By Government officials who will not enforce law . . . By politicians who dance to the tune of minority groups . . . By those in the pulpit and on the college lecture platform who use their office to project the socialistic creed of radicals . . .

I AM SICK TO DEATH OF BEING TOLD I AM SICK: . . . By idealistic aggressive news reporters and evaluators (of whatever media), who have the audacity to tell me I should believe whatever they believe - knowing I have no vehicle to publically voice my disagreement.

I AM SICK OF BEING TOLD I AM SICK: . . . By foppish entertainers draped in Nehru Jackets, feminine necklaces, and a cloak of pseudo intellectualism.

I am sick of cynical attitudes toward patriotism and our American institutions . . .

I am sick of sacrificing the cream of American manhood in political wars we are not fighting to win . . .

I am sick of the decline in integrity and personal honor in this nation . . .

I am sick of the permissive attitude, laxity, and tolerance to pressure groups and the criminal element that is bringing this nation to its knees in lawlessness . . .

I am sick of seeing law enforcement agencies and the laws of this nation emasculated by a supreme court and administrators who make their personal creeds the law of the land . . .

I am sick of not being able to take my family to a movie because it is loaded with extraneous offensive matter whose only purpose is to shock . . .

I am sick of seeing the same phrases in the popular literature of the day that I see scrawled on the walls of public toilets . . .

I am sick of so called educators and leaders too weak kneed themselves to understand the value of discipline in the character of a man . . .

I am sick of a congress which legislates out of emotionalism rather than reason, thereby taking away the rights of all . . .

I am sick of being told I am sick with violence because of assassinations by mentally deranged men, fed on a steady diet of violence and perversion by the nations periodicals, press, television and movies - all condoned - even aided - by courts which permit license in the name of freedom . . .

I am sick of riots, or marches, and those who force themselves and their ideologies down my throat without qualification . . .

I am sick of those who say I owe them everything, because of the sins of my forefathers, when I have looked down both ends of a machine gun barrel to defend them and their right to be here . . .

Take note gentlemen in high places - you will not see me in the streets with a placard or a gun - you will hear the thunder of the common man at the polling place - casting a vote for . . .

LIBERTY - INTELLIGENCE - OUR NATIONS SAFETY . . .

David R. Braden

LAMB COUNTY ASCS

Farms that are participating in the current cotton and feed grain programs should make certification of acreages in this office as soon as the condition of your crops will permit.

Producers who made application for measuring service are not to certify until the measuring is complete. All other producers should carefully measure and NOT GUESS.

An error in excess of more than the larger of 2.0 acres or 5% of the cotton allotment or Feed Grain base, not to exceed 15.0 acres, or a deficiency in diverted, will result in loss of ALL program payment on ALL commodities on the farm affected.

Some producers last year did not have enough diverted acres for both cotton and feed grain when spot checks were made, therefore one commodity was affected for payment. This year THAT WILL NOT BE THE RESULT, there will be a loss of both payments. IT IS MORE IMPORTANT TO HAVE ENOUGH DIVERTED ACRES THAN IT IS TO HAVE ALL YOUR PERMITTED PLANTED.

Errors found by spot checks after August 15th within the allowable tolerance stated above, will require a reduction in payment equal to three times the diverted acre payment for that commodity. So do not make a guessing error. BE SURE YOU HAVE ENOUGH ELIGIBLE DIVERTED ACRES.

Final Payments:

Data sheets are submitted to the Processing Center on daily basis now for final payments. If your acreages are correct, CERTIFY so that we may submit your farm data to the Processing Center.

Soybeans:

Soybeans on diverted acres must be plowed under by September 30th. Other acreage of soybeans will not be eligible for diverted acres unless designated in the county office at the time of certification or until August 15th.

1968 Price Support Loan Rates:
Wheat - No. 1 - $1.26 per bu.
Grain Sorghum - No. 2 or better $1.63 per cwt. (4¢ cwt higher than 1967.)
Soybeans - $2.50 per bu.
