Red Cross to Elect Officers

Due to the small attendance at the special called meeting of the Ochiltree County Red Cross Chapter, Wednesday night, it was decided to postpone the annual election of officers until Thursday, Sept. 27, 8:30 p.m.

The officers and faithful few who have worked so faithfully for the boys and girls in service hope that there will, at least, be a representative group present on the 27th to name a new slate of officials.

Judge Dave Shanks, war time chairman of the local chapter, has named the following committee to nominate a slate of officers: Mrs. R. T. Correll, Mrs. F. L. Garrett, Van W. Stewart. Officers to be named are chairman, vice-chairman, secretary-treasurer, and four directors. Additional nominations can be made from the floor on election night.

The election meeting will be held in the county courtroom.

First Baptist Church Received $39,968.01 From Members During Year; All Time Record

Rev. O. C. Curtis, pastor of the First Baptist Church, announced this week that total gifts received for all causes from the membership during the year ending Sept. 1, broke all previous records with an all-time high of $39,968.01 donated. This is an increase of $14,625.25 over donations received last year. The mission collections averaged $22 per capita for the membership and total gifts were $93 per capita. The total building fund is $23,500, which includes bonds valued at $4,700. Mission gifts were $9,5?4.5?.

During the year just closed, the church had 115 additions, 45 being by baptism. Average attendance at Sunday School was 208.

Among improvements purchased is a new Hammond organ, a Spinnett piano and several rugs.

Rev. Curtis stated that it was hoped that construction could be started soon on a new educational building being planned. A three-story tile and brick structure to be erected on the lot back of the church is under consideration. It was estimated that approximately $45,000 would be spent on the project.

Silver Jubilee Is Planned For September 30

Rev. Ward H. N. Gregg, pastor of the Christian Church announced this week that Sunday, Sept. 30, will mark the 25th milepost in the life of the church. In honor of the occasion a Silver Jubilee has been arranged.

The Jubilee will begin with Bible school at ten o'clock (pre-war time) and will continue throughout the day. Morning service will be at 11 a.m. An old-fashioned basket dinner at noon is planned and a fellowship period is set at 2:30 p.m. to afford opportunity for renewing friendships and making new friends. The evening worship will close the Jubilee.

It was suggested that inasmuch as there are those who will wish to help in furnishing the flowers for the services—the flowers to be a memorial to a deceased member or friend of the church—a card should be attached giving information concerning the floral offering.

"Former members, former pastors, friends and members of the church are urged and cordially invited to have a part in all services of the Silver Jubilee," says Rev. Gregg.

Those unable to attend are asked to send a greeting, either by mail or wire, to be read at the afternoon session.

The purpose of the club is to promote and assist in any manner the athletic program of the Perryton public schools. Any person in the Perryton area who believes in such a purpose is eligible for membership.

There was a good attendance at the Monday night meeting. Coaches Floyd Murry and E. D. Kelley, and Capt. Cy LaMaster discussed the Guymon game, the prospects for the season and how the members of the club can aid the boys and their coaches.

The club will meet each Monday night during the football season. Moving pictures of past Ranger games will be shown next Monday night by Carl Ellis.

Dues for membership in the Quarterback Club were set at $1.50 per month. Many of the members have already paid in advance for the entire year, Sept. 1, 1945 to Sept. 1, 1946.

Present membership is 59 and the membership committee consisting of Charley Kent, R. L. Powell and Cecil Dodd is now working for the 100 paid up members.

Officers of the club are: Vance Apple, president; Van W. Stewart, secretary-treasurer; Carl Ellis, Alton Boxwell and Cecil Dodd, directors.

Peace Officer Meet Today

Peace officers are arriving today from throughout the Southwest for their quarterly conference being conducted here this afternoon (Thursday) at Lake Fryer. The group was invited to Perryton and Ochiltree County by Sheriff W. H. Lance, who is host to the more than 200 officers expected to be in attendance by opening time set at 1 p.m.

Sheriff Lance states that plans formulated last week will proceed according to schedule as announced with only one peace officer listed on the previously listed program having indicated his inability to be present. He is D. A. Bryce, agent in charge of the FBI office in Oklahoma City, Okla., who was to have given a pistol marksmanship demonstration. Among others expected on the program are C. Homer P. Garrison, Austin, Ed Gormley, Dallas, and Sheriff M. E. Cantrell, Randall County. These men will discuss various timely subjects as part of the program following the business session.

The conference will close with a barbecue at 5 p.m. served by Earl Glasgow, Perryton restaurant man.

City Park to Be Dedicated

All is in readiness for the dedication of the Ochiltree Memorial Park as a recreational area Friday, Sept. 21, at 5 p.m. under the direction of the Ochiltree County Home Demonstration Club Council. The park is located on the west side of Perryton on the site of the former CCC camp.

The Ranger Band will head a parade to the dedication program scheduled to start at 5:30 p.m. A public address system has been secured to amplify proceedings.

Picnic tables with benches will be presented by Mrs. A. L. Carter, council chairman, with an acceptance response to be given by County Judge Dave Shanks. Roll call of service men and women from Ochiltree county will be followed by a program of readings and band music.

The Home Demonstration Club women will serve punch and cookies from 5 p.m. to 8 p.m.

Auxiliary Will Sponsor Home Talent Play

The American Legion Auxiliary will sponsor a home talent show, "Pep Parade," according to announcement made this week by Mrs. S. L. Brillhart, president, and Mrs. Sibley Jines, secretary. The show will have ten main characters, with a large supporting cast. Watch for the date!

Bank Deposits Hit New High; Business Good

Bank deposits in the two Perryton banks are still soaring, according to latest figures released this week. An increase of more than two million dollars was shown over corresponding deposits listed at the same time last year, with a grand total of $8,307,672.11. Deposits as of Sept. 19, 1944, were $6,202,091. On deposit in the First National Bank at the close of business Sept. 15 was $6,057,672.11. Officials at the Perryton National Bank set their deposits at $2,250,000.

It is interesting to note that this all-time high in deposits for Ochiltree county was not brought about by the proximity of war plants or any other government financed agencies and reflects what can be assumed as a derivative from increased agricultural production in the county combined with good prices for what has been produced.

During the dark days of the nationwide depression a dozen or so years ago, combined bank deposits for the two banks totaled less than $300,000, accompanied by an acute shortage of currency. Script was issued during this period in an attempt to inject new life into business.

Burial Rites For Mrs. Frank Keith Friday

Funeral services for Mrs. Frank Keith, pioneer woman of the Texas and Oklahoma Panhandle, were held laste Friday afternoon at the First Christian Church with Rev. Ward H. N. Gregg officiating. Interment was in the Ochiltree cemetery with Boxwell Bros. Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

Vocal selections at the service were by a mixed quartet composed of Mrs. Carl Ellis, Mrs. Debs Riley, H. G. Malone and Rufus Bolerjack, accompanied by Mrs. A. K. Wilson.

Alice Luella Putman was born January 14, 1872 at Springdale, Ark. to Bennett and Martha Ann Burkhalter Putman. When just a small child, she moved with her parents to Kansas. They were living in Pratt County, Kansas when her parents died, the father passing on Mar. 31, 1888; the mother Mar. 28, 1889.

An older brother, Horace E. G. Putman, became both father and mother to Alice and her twin sister, Effie, bringing them to Beaver County, Oklahoma, then known as No Man's Land.

It was here that she met the young man, then a cow puncher, that was later to become her husband, Alice Luella Putman and Frank Keith were married at Beaver, Oklahoma on November 22, 1893.

The young cowboy had, by this time, accumulated a small herd of cattle and they started a small ranch on the Beaver River, in what is now Texas County. Two children were born to this union of pioneers: Jessie Keith and Kramer H. Keith.

Just as the young couple were getting established in the cattle business, the bitter, cold, driving blizzard of 1903 hit their herds, and they, with many other cattle people of the Southwest, saw their cattle decimated.

They then left the Oklahoma Panhandle, moving to Topeka, Kansas, where they lived for a number of years, then to Great Bend, Kansas for a short time, before returning to their Beaver River Ranch in 1916. Here they resided until 1924, when they moved to Perryton.

A year or two after moving to this city, they established the Perryton Cleaners, operating same until 1932 when they disposed of the business to the present owners, and moved to a ranch near Canjilon, New Mexico. Here they resided until Mr. Keith's death Feb. 5, 1940. Their son Kramer, died May 20, 1931.

Marine Corps Seek Enlistments 17-25

Men 17 to 25 are eligible to enlist in the U. S. Marine Corps—even though registered for induction. Applicants must have completed at least eight grades of school, be in sound physical condition, and in the case of 17 year olds, obtain written parents' consent.

This means that men under the jurisdiction of the Selective Service Act now have their freedom of choosing to enlist with the Marine Corps at any time prior to being actually inducted into the armed forces.

Upon being accepted for enlistment, the applicant's draft board is notified that he is serving with the marines by the marine recruiting office.

Provision is also made to accept men between the ages of 26 and 32 if they have had previous active military service in the Marine Corps, Navy, Coast Guard or Army. This service will apply to longevity pay and total length of service credit. These men must enlist before one year has elapsed since their separation from the service.

In the case of discharged marines—regular, reserve or inductee—if these men apply for re-enlistment and are accepted within 90 days of their separation, they will be reappointed to the temporary rank held at the time of their separation and the balance of the 90 day period will be allowed as re-enlistment furlough.

Write to or call personally at the Marine Recruiting Station, 905 Mills Building, El Paso or Marine Recruiting Station, Post Office Building, Lubbock, Texas, for full particulars.

Rangers Win Grid Opener

In the first game of the season, the Perryton Rangers crowded out the Guymon gridsters on the enemy's field Friday evening, Sept. 14, reaping a score of 13-0. Many Perryton fans were present to witness the team's opening tilt and to lend volume to the heartening yells of the pep squad led by red and white uniformed pep leaders.

The Guymon pep squad turned out full force during the half in support of the sagging Guymon team valiantly attempting to overcome a determined Ranger line.

The first quarter was marked by fumbles on both sides with the teams apparently feeling out the opposition.

In the second quarter both sides came out, throwing caution to the winds, with a determined air that aroused fans to the height of expectation. Linemen of the Rangers broke Guymon's defense to enable Bill Jones to tote the ball over enemy lines for the first score. The attempt for the extra point failed.

In the third quarter, the Guymon defense was broken again, and Bill Jones repeated the second quarter's performance by laying in another score. The extra point was chalked up following a beautifully placed kick between the goal.

The last quarter kept Perryton fans on edge as Guymon let loose an offensive in an effort to offset previous losses. Many passes highlighted the play and marked the tactical pace put into effect by both sides. Guymon threatened to score several times, but failed to make the grade against the unrelenting Ranger eleven.

Coach Floyd Murry stated that almost all of his men saw action in Friday's game and demonstrated that this year's team will have a strong foundation to rely upon later in the season when the going gets tough.

Employment . . . But at Honest Work

All of us want the security and peace of mind that come from earning a little more than we need, so that we can provide our loved ones, save for a rainy day and plan for retirement when our work days are done.

All of us want the sort of fair shake we can get from our own talents, our own capacities . . . confident that there is monopoly anywhere in our economy excepte those regulated by government in the public interest.

The reason we all want the same things lies within the make-up of our free democratic system. All of us are workers, consumers and employers every day; all these different people at different times.

It takes all of us to keep the system running well. When any part of our economic system stops or takes a nose-dive . . . regardless of reason . . . all of us take it on the chin.

Strife . . . conflict between management and labor, be it in factories, retail or service businesses, or on the farm . . . is no exception.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Smith, Coachello, Calif., and her son, Lt. Ewing Robinson, stationed at Salina, Kan., left last Friday after a visit in the home of her sister, Mrs. Geo. T. Leatherman. The Robinsons formerly lived at Gray, Okla. Other visitors in the Leatherman home last week were Mr. and Mrs. Leatherman's cousin, Jim Moore and Mrs. Moore, and their daughter Mabel, of Eldon, Mo. On Tuesday of last week the Moores were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. LeMaster.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Carver, Canadian, were week end guests of her mother, Mrs. J. M. Grigsby, and her sister, Mrs. J. C. May.

Veterans' SERVICE BUREAU

EDITOR'S NOTE: This newspaper, through special arrangement with the Washington Bureau of Western Newspaper Union at 1616 Eye Street, N. W., Washington, D. C., is able to bring readers this weekly column on problems of the veteran and serviceman and his family. Questions may be addressed to the above Bureau and they will be answered in a subsequent column. No replies can be made direct by mail, but only in the column which will appear in this newspaper regularly.

Disability Rate Change

Because of the much greater percentage of survival from gunshot wounds of the brain, chest and abdomen in this war than in World War I and because of new disabilities incident to service in the tropics, the Veterans administration has adopted a new rating schedule in determining the degree of disability suffered by veterans of this war.

The schedule, which has been in preparation for two years, replaces and liberalizes many provisions of one prepared in 1933 and lists, for example, 176 separate disabilities of bones, joints and muscles with numerous gradations within each, as compared to 126 listings in the previous schedule.

Special attention has been given in the new service-connected disability ratings to scars resulting from explosions, oil burns and the residuals from frozen or immersion foot. A number of tropical diseases have been listed as cause for disability with special ratings adapted for each, although only malaria and filariasis have been encountered among discharged veterans.

Changes in the medical concept of the relationship of specific diseases to other conditions and to their service connection are also reflected in the new schedule. This has resulted in the inclusion of many new disabilities, some of which are rated as high as 100 per cent on a temporary basis where they are not expected to produce more than a 10 per cent permanent disability. All changes are designed to facilitate more accurate and more equitable ratings for the various types of disabilities.

In using the new rating schedule, however, the basic policy of the Veterans administration remains unchanged and the veteran is allowed the benefit of the doubt as between the higher of two ratings, in determining whether or not a disability is service-connected.

Questions and Answers

Q. How does the death rate of wounded soldiers in the present war compare with that of the First World war?

A. According to the war department announcement June 1, the death rate of our wounded soldiers in this war is 8 per cent. The death rate of wounded soldiers, who lived long enough to reach surgery in the First World war was 24 per cent.

Q. Would transfer to a different outfit overseas account for the demotion of a corporal to a private?

A. The war department says that a soldier could be demoted, without prejudice, to the grade of private if he was transferred into an organization where there was no vacancy in his grade.

Q. Is a former member of the Seabees, who participated in the action at Vella Lavella entitled to a star?

A. One star has been authorized to be worn on the Asiatic - Pacific area service ribbon for participation in one or more of the following actions: Vella Gulf action, August 6 and 7, 1943; Vella Lavella occupation, August 15-October 16, 1943, and action off Vella Lavella October 6-7, 1943.

Q. How soon after filing application for a pension can the widow of a war veteran expect payment?

A. There would be no way of telling the exact time which would elapse, but the pension would be retroactive from the date of application.

Q. Would you advise dropping government insurance policy?

A. Most service officers believe it advisable not to drop government insurance, especially if you have a service disability and likely will not be able to pass a physical examination for private insurance. A majority of veterans are converting their government insurance into 20-payment or other form of private life insurance. At least, the veteran should permit his insurance to run its present term until he has a chance to analyze his ability to keep up an insurance schedule of payments. We suggest that you consult your local draft board, veterans administration or your private insurance company.

Q. Can a veteran of either this war or the First World war enter a hospital in another state to take advantage of a better climate, or must he remain in the hospital within the state in which he lives?

A. According to the Veterans administration, it is possible in some cases to be transferred to a hospital outside his state. His transportation would not be paid for unless the physician in charge ordered such a transfer. You should refer the matter to the regional office of the Veterans administration which rated you and is handling your case.

Other relatives of Mrs. Leatherman were: her cousin, Mrs. Taylor Bowen, and Mr. Bowen, Tonkawa, Okla.; Mrs. D. A. (Josephine) Mitchell, and daughter Marilyn Jo of Pawhuska, Okla.; her sister, Mrs. Joe Duncan, and Mr. Duncan, of Wetumka, Okla., Flumer Luttman, Mrs. Elva Huffman, Mrs. Neva Adamson, Mr. and Mrs. W. Everybody likes company when lunchtime rolls around. It's always a sociable spot in the busy day—a chance to talk, to laugh, be friendly and refreshed. And the big red cooler is the place to meet for it. At the words Have a Coke things pick up and good-fellowship begins.

You naturally hear Coca-Cola called by its friendly abbreviation "Coke". Both mean the quality product of The Coca-Cola Company.

to better than average amounts of straw and stubble on top of the ground. Erosion hazards will be confined to individual fields here and there where straw has been worked too deeply into the soil or where it was deficient to start. Many fields too dry to sow have abundant trash cover for protection through the 1946 blow season and the summer period as well if fallow is desired."

George Parker believes that Sunday's high wind gave each farm operator an excellent opportunity to analyze the condition of his fields and determine whether or not they are in danger of becoming a blow hazard. This is a very opportune time for each farmer to ask himself the question: "Have I farmed my land in such a manner that it is in very little or no danger of blowing or have I farmed it in such a manner that a few more days like Sunday, it will be blowing away?"

For those who have used the drag harrow and disc too freely and have their stubble destroyed and the soil in a loose ashy condition, it is unfortunate but too late to do more than hope and pray. However, there will be more dry years, and a careful study of field conditions at this time may prevent similar mistakes in the future.

Most of the farmers in this area are to be congratulated on the excellent manner in which they have tilled their soil in order to leave the maximum amount of stubble on the surface, which offers excellent protection against such wind storms as we had last Sunday.

Food Sent Overseas Should Be Canned

A variety of recipes for sending foods to your service man overseas were received by Virdie P. Wheeler, county home demonstration agent. Experience last year taught us to can foods if at all possible when sending to service men overseas. It will be more important than ever to seal foods in tin this year, when the bulk of the packages will be going into the Pacific, where the climate and distance of travel will be harder on the packages.

Mrs. Wheeler says when you consider that before they reach their destination packages often have to stand for weeks where they may become infested with insects, oil soaked or water soaked, you will know how important it is to seal in tin any food that is being sent overseas.

The foods that have been sent overseas successfully are canned fried chicken, pickled eggs, red devil's food cake, apple sauce cake, steamed brown bread and other steamed breads, a variety of cookies and candy, and of course, the old favorite, fruit cake.

Contact your home demonstration agent for further information and remember to get your overseas packages in the mail between Sept. 15 and Oct. 15.

Mrs. Keith died suddenly Wednesday morning after an illness of a few minutes duration. She had been in failing health for about a year. On the day before her death, she attended the annual meeting of the "Pioneers of No-Man's Land Society" at Beaver, Okla., spending a day renewing friendships with that group of thinning pioneer men and women who laid the foundation for the rich, agricultural empire of the Southwest.

Close surviving relatives are the daughter, Mrs. Van W. Stewart; a granddaughter, Miss Carmen A. Keith; the twin sister, Mrs. H. C. Eubanks, Canjilon, N. M.; a nephew, Dave Kettell, Canjilon, N. M.; and a sister-in-law, Mrs. Alice Hungate McCarthy.

She had been a member of the Christian Church since early womanhood. She ran the journey of life in 73 years, seven months and 28 days. It is a path marked with deeds of kindness and cheer. Flowers, not thorns; sunshine, not shadow; did she scatter everywhere. With these she was lavish. Truth was the inspiration of her life, and by kindness she exemplified its great worth. Her life full of God-likeness.

Among us all she ranked as a woman of culture, refinement, sympathy, a kind neighbor, devoted mother and a true friend, and withal a woman of heroic mould in bravely meeting the stern requirements and often the disappointments of life.

Pre-Med Courses Are Available at TSC

CANYON — Pre-medical examinations for students — including freshmen—who hope eventually to enter medical schools will be given during the fall semester of West Texas State College in co-operation with the American Medical Association.

Passing in such examinations constitutes one of the medical school entrance requirements. The aptitude tests are given by Dr. C. A. Pierle, head of the chemistry department.

Many students have gone to medical schools from West Texas State in recent years to become physicians, and several are now in training.

West Texas State offers the recommended four years of college work which is the foundation for medical school courses. The pre-med students are so guided by Dr. Pierle that they can change their minds without loss of college credits in their changed major subjects. Offering of pre-med courses is facilitated by a new science building.

Students are urged to turn in their yells and songs to pep leaders Norma Flowers, Barbara Buckley, Bill Stephenson or Jimmie Key. A few yells have already been turned in.

The Perryton high school student body met Monday and Tuesday and elected class presidents for the coming school year, Principal John H. Cox, announced Tuesday. These and other class officers were elected by the respective divisions at special meetings.

Meet the Teachers

A new teacher seen rushing around lately is principal of PHS, John H. Cox. He's been pretty busy but he slowed down long enough for an interview.

JOHN H. COX

His home town is Lubbock; so he's a native Plainsman. He attended high school at Denton. It was probably there that he created a liking for thick steaks, French fries, cream gravy and ice cream. He has several hobbies, including stamp and coin collecting and fishing. His bachelor's degree was received at North Texas State—his master's at Texas Tech. The Dallas News tops his list of reading material and Poe is his leading author. Baseball is his favorite sport, but he likes all sports. He's a member of the Baptist church and of the Masonic lodge.

Though he had rather teach history than anything else, he'll take any subject, just so long as the job's teaching.

Students Held Pep Rally Thursday

Students of Perryton high school held a pep rally last Thursday at 2:15 p.m. to give the Rangers a rousing send-off for their first game, Friday, at Guymon.

The band, under the direction of Bob Jack Low, played as the rally assembled. After the cheer leaders had led several yells and the band had played three numbers, the band director played a clarinet solo. Mr. Low's selection was "The Old Refrain," accompanied by Marjory Hummer at the piano.

Coach Floyd Murry introduced the football squad. Several Rangers predicted the game's outcome and both Coach Murry and Coach Kelley said a few words.

Attending the rally were several ex-students, among them Jerry Carmichael and "Diddy" Records, last year's cheer leaders. At Supt. Anderson's suggestion, they led the students in a yell.

The new cheer leaders, who had been practicing each evening after school, demonstrated clever formations and presented a colorful sight dressed in the school colors, red and white.

Youth Center Plans Discussed at Meet

"Youth must either kick the ball and get the game started or erase the slate for good," Supt. J. A. Anderson stated Monday afternoon at a special meeting concerning the Youth Recreational program. Mr. Anderson presented the "Teen-Town" question to a group of class officers and last year's student council members, who had been called to the auditorium to represent the student body.

The meeting was called to order by Mr. Anderson, who discussed the purpose of the assembly. For the first time, it was made known to the students that the townspeople have donated $3,000 to this project. Mr. Anderson emphasized the fact that parents have done enough; now it is time for the youth to act.

After Mr. Anderson had spoken, L. D. Stinson, chairman of the Youth Recreational Council, took over the meeting. Mrs. Igou, who is to be supervisor of the center, was introduced. Mrs. Charles Kent, secretary of the adult council, was also present. A review of last year's work was read, and the officers voted on and approved a form to be used by students who wish to enjoy the privileges of the center. Fees—$4 a year or $1 a quarter—were discussed along with other probable arrangements.

Each member will be allowed two out-of-town guests a year. Dances will probably be held twice a month, and the center will be open Saturday night and one other night in the week. Only students from 13 through high school age will be allowed membership.

Temporary officers elected were: Nettie Mac Brillhart, president; J. C. Jones, vice president; Clara Revis, secretary; Russell Revis, treasurer; Duane Bell, reporter.

Since the center has not been named, a committee was formed to gather suggestions from the PHS student body. Students are urged to submit suggestions to the name committee, headed by Barbara Pletcher, not later than Friday. A free membership card will be given to the person whose suggestion is chosen.

All boys and girls are asked to gather at the youth center on Main street Saturday morning at 9:30. The boys will dig ditches and the girls will work on interior decoration. If everything goes well, the center may open a week from this Friday.

Student Runs Afoul in School Cafeteria Rush

Being a measly third grader, I looked up to senior high, until one horrible day in September. I got on the bus that morning with high spirits. My morning class went well, with only minor casualties because of spit balls. At noon I had my lunch and decided to take a stroll. I walked slowly down the bus drive between the two north buildings. I heard a bell, but thought nothing of it. Then I heard distant thunder. Since the sky was clear I became suspicious. I glanced toward the south and stopped, horrified. Bearing down on me at an unknown speed was a cloud of dust. Closer and closer it came. Then it happened! I was down. For one fleeting second I saw thousands of feet flying above me. That was all I remember. Later I awoke between white sheets. I was told I was a victim of the "Cafeteria Rush." Poor kid!

But now let us see how a sports reporter might broadcast this infamous event, this demonstration of the heartless nature of cafeteria eaters.

"Hello, America! This is Gill Hern breadcasting from the top of the elementary building at the Perryton Public Schools in the city of Perryton, Texas. The time is 12:25; so I have a few minutes before the event. Today's sports review covers the famed 'Cafeteria Rush.' Standing around me are noted philosophers, policemen, fire squads, wrecking crews and homicide crews. Now it's time. There goes the starting bell. In the distance you can hear the tell-tale thunder. Here they come! Here they are! Key is ahead, challenged by Brillhart, Flowers and Stinson. They just cleared that vicious dirt pile. Watchous is moving up fast. A small boy has fallen in the way! Get up! Get up! Oooooh! What a mess! Key is faltering; Brillhart is gaining. They've just passed the half-way mark. Wait, a new one is coming up fast. Who is he? Why, it's little Key, a freshman! Say, he's learning fast!

"A boy has just fallen. He's up! He's down! He's up! He's down! There goes the second ambulance! It's neck and neck between Brillhart and Watchous. Look, Key is reviving! He's ahead! And Key wins! Brillhart is second and Stinson third. Watchous faltered at the last.

"This was Gill Hern, broadcasting the sport of homicidal maniacs from the roof of the Perryton school building. I'll return you now to Station MESS."

See what I mean, folks?

The carbon black and gasoline industry of Texas dominates that of the entire United States.

El Toro

Frankie and Johnny were lovers And every place that they hovered I hovered too.

Gwen V. emerged from the week-end with "Squeaky" W.'s bracelet and vice versa. Nice work, Gwen.

Betty Jean Q. and Nelda Ruth P. were seen stepping out with not Perryton, but Spearman. What's the matter, boys?

Yum! Yum! Tommie Jo Alexander, that altogether lovable new creature, was seen out the other night with Bill S. Fast work, Bill. Clarence M. must be slipping; but you'd better watch big brother.

Madine M. and ex Dean B. seem to be still clicking. Nice work kids!

Lura Lee G. seems to have wanted to go to Guymon worse than the rest of us. Could it be because of developments last year?

Say, Bill J., I hear you like hiding on the floor boards. Or was it some place more pleasant, Claudine C.?

Some people like the sea,
Some people like ships,
But Nettie Mac B. likes bell bottom trousers.

Mystery! Ruth W. and Nina P. were seen getting into a red pick-up the other night. Your folks have a red pick-up—don't they, Keith B.?

Jim B. D. and Veva Jo M. seem to have an attraction for each other. At least they were seen quite often last week-end. Nice going kids.

Flash! Pat A. is chasing a different boy. What's the matter with Edwin P.?

Loyd S. was having a big time in the show the other day. Well really, Nina!

Ex-senior Bruce B. seems to be a hoarder. What about this, Janet R., Clara R. and Jane P.

Gene S. and Gwen V., Squeaky W. and Pat A., Billy J. and Claudine C. seem to like to play "32." My, my, children!

"Blondy" Ranson seems to like soldiers; at least she gave a couple the old wolf call the other night. Yea, Blondy!

Russell R. is doing all right. He took Beth T. and her mother to the show the other night. Did you have any fun, "Rusty"?

Well, Frankie took Johnny home; so I guess I'd better rest up for next week. 'Bye, kids.

Meet the Seniors

On March 30, 1929, one of the most talented members of the senior class came to make her home with Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Brillhart. Who was she? Nettie Mac, of course! This 5'6" blonde, green-eyed magnet says she loves pecan pie, dancing and "Begin the Beguine." "Mrs. Parkington" is her favorite movie and she thinks Van Johnson and Greer Garson are out of this world. Nettie Mac says her pet peeve is E. R. Bell popping his gum! She loves to read and "Gone With the Wind" is first on her list. Collecting records is her hobby. "Wolf" plans to go to college and major in journalism, but have you noticed that diamond?

Everyone knows him! Everyone likes him! Who? Why Keith Bray, stupid! Keith, who was born May 23, 1929, has brown hair and blue eyes and is 6 feet tall. Mention steak and French fries and you work wonders, 'cause they are his favorite foods. He likes to dance and his favorite song is, "There, I've Said it Again." Spencer Tracy and Ingrid Bergman are his choice in the cinema world, and he thinks "A Guy Named Joe" was a splendid movie. Listen to this: his pet peeve is fickle women. When asked what he plans to do after graduation, Keith sighed dreamily, "I want to be a football coach." He loves it!

YOU CAN'T RECAPTURF Time

TIME slips away faster than we think. All too soon too many yesterdays have passed for us to accomplish all the things we intended one day to do . . . things like buying a home, starting a business of our own . . . or creating a savings program to protect our loved ones should something happen to us!

Mr. D. W. knew that time was slipping away from him, all too fast. And he knew he could never recapture any part of it. He had neither the income nor the time required for the average plan to create the protection he so earnestly wanted his family to have. But he learned how he might accomplish his desire, with limited income and limited time, through Southwestern Life Insurance.

Fortunately, he was insurable. Fortunately, his wife and children will tell you, he invested in a Southwestern Life Insurance policy—a nominal contract on his life for $2,984. But for that fact, his family might have faced some serious readjustment difficulties, for death claimed Mr. D. W. last year, not quite three years after he had entered the agreement with Southwestern Life to pay his loved ones $2,984 should something unforeseen happen to him.

Time slips away faster than we think. Tomorrow, the unforeseen may alter or destroy all your plans. Now, while you may, set your savings program in motion through Southwestern Life Insurance. There is a Southwestern Life plan to fit your needs . . . a plan that you can create immediately on savings you can afford to save out of income. Get an insurance analysis of those needs today. The economy of the plan will please you.

Soldiers' Letters

San Diego, Calif.
Sept. 11, 1945

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Stewart:

Well after so long of time I am getting down to writing. I have really been enjoying the good old Ochiltree County Herald—Thanks a million! I know all the servicemen from Ochiltree Count will take their hats off to you Mr. Stewart and to the entire news staff for your all-out effort in sending the home town news to the four corners of the world.

According to the last week's paper, school is under way again. I was really glad to hear that they were able to obtain a full faculty. It seems like the good pre-war days with Mr. Kelley back in PHS. He has been missed greatly and with his return it should add a great deal to the success of the 1945-46 school year.

Speaking of school beginning, I can't help from bringing up the subject of Football. Here's wishing the new coach and the Rangers all the luck in the world. I know with the student body, faculty and the loyal citizens of Perryton backing the team the Rangers will have a victorious season. Bob Zenor and I got together the other day and talked football. We would really like to be back in Perryton playing although I imagine all we would be good for would be used as dummies. Don't forget those Wildcats from Canadian boys, they have been giving us trouble long enough! Here's hoping I am around to see them crowned as Regional Champs.

We are on a 40-hour week here at the repair base now. We get every Saturday and Sunday off. That really gives us a nice liberty. I guess it will be a good long while before Bob and I get out, as we just have 16 points. They are going to start de-commissioning ships here at the repair base in a few weeks—so maybe they will go to turning us loose pretty fast before long.

Well I better sign "30" for now and start to work. Give my regards to all the good people of Perryton. Again thanking you for the paper, I remain a home town boy. Just "Blackie."

12 September 1945

Dear Mr. Stewart:

It has been quite a little while since I last wrote to you and thanked you for the paper. I really have enjoyed it very much, and now it will again be more interesting to me as school is about to start and there will be the famous old "El Sombrero" to look forward to every week.

Well, the war is won, and I guess that it takes a lot of worry off of a lot of peoples minds. When I heard the news that we had won another victory, I was on an eastern bound bus, on my way home. I got a 21-day leave and as the folks live down in the hills of Arkansas now, I spent my leave there with them and didn't have enough time to come by or through Perryton. I certainly would have liked to have seen all of the old home-town people.

Our work here on this base has sure been cut down since V-J day. I don't believe that we have one-fifth of the work as before. Every order for repairs on ships has just been cancelled, so now I suppose they will salvage and de-commission about three-fourths of the ships in our navy, and sell the junk iron and steel back to Japan, so they can get started on and get ready for another sneaky attack from behind while the people of peaceful United States sit trustingly by arguing about politics, and who will win the next election.

I had a very nice time on my leave down in Arkansas. It was my first trip down there, so I got to see a lot of country which was all new to me. It is very beautiful there. The folks live about 17 miles from the town where the university is located. I looked all over the school, and like it fine, so I guess that I will go there when I am released from the navy and try to get a little bit more "School Housin'." Never in all of my life, have I ever seen as many beautiful women, as are turned loose down there in those hills of Arkansas. Sure is some nice scenery down there.

Well, it is about time for chow, so I will close for this time, and thanks again for the paper.

As ever, Bob

Dear Mr. Stewart:

I suppose you think that I have forgot you and your staff that does such a swell job of getting the Ochiltree Herald to the boys and girls in the service from Perryton. No I haven't, just can't seem to get started to writing. I have had plenty of time, as we have three shifts of cooks, we work one day and off two. The days off I wander around here Czech, to see what I can see that would interest anyone. I haven't seen anything over here that I care for Although the country is very beautiful and has lots of historical things to see, there isn't but one thing that I care about seeing and that is the good old USA and home.

The 8th Armored Div., that is the division I am in now, has been ordered to sail for the states in October but I am being transferred to the 83rd Inf. Div., same place in Austria. All men with 45 to 65 points was transferred out and men with 65 or more points stayed with the 8th. I only have 55 points, so out I go. I think I will be back to the states by the first of next year, hope so any way.

Van, I am sending you a paper that is printed by men of the 49th A.I. Bn., and also a congratulation to the officers and men of the 8th Armored Div. from Maj. Gen. John M. Devine, commander of the 8th Armored Div.

Van, since I have been over here I haven't run across any of the boys from Perryton, although I hope to when I move from here. Alvin B. Holmes is about 125 miles from me but due to transportation I haven't had the chance to see him.

Van, I will close for now, hoping this finds you and the gang in the best of health. Here's hoping to see you in a few months.

As ever a friend,

Our Defenders Speak!

The Herald asks that men and women from this community serving in the armed forces write letters to this department for publication. Letters to relatives that would be of interest to the public will be published under this heading.

Neustadt-Aisch
16 August 1945

Dear Van and Jessie:

I got the August 2nd edition of the Herald today, so you can see that the service is picking up. I have been poring over it since I got it this morning and as usual, it seems to take me back to the old scenery almost as if I had made a visit. Funny thing about these issues of the Herald—I can't bring myself to throw any of them away. I've still got papers which were printed back in January and February. On numerous occasions I have been right stern with myself and decided that I would chuck them away, for after all, I have read them at least a dozen times. However, as sure as I try to do it, I find myself reading them again, starting with the first column and proceeding on to the back, then going over again to see if I've missed anything. After that, I gently put it back on the table where I had it, and repeat the process with the next one. Never do I throw the Herald in the waste basket.

Today is a full holiday in honor of the end of the war. We were notified yesterday afternoon about it, and I called in my right hand man, T/Sgt. Grahek to notify everybody, including civilian help. A few minutes later I heard him shouting over the office phone, "Tell all those lousy, no-account Krauts that on account of we whipped their Japanese cousins, they can have a holiday tomorrow!" The civilian interpreter to whom this gentle announcement was directed had a bit of trouble with the definition of the word "lousy," but Grahek managed to get across a number of suitable synonyms, couched in slightly less genteel language. I deny having ever heard any of our American soldiers being anything other than firm, yet just, and displaying anything other than dignified, soldierly demeanor. Indeed I do!

I got your copy of "Get Hep" and have perused it with a good bit of interest. I intend to arm myself with it when I get home, and use it as a handy pocket reference with which to defend myself against the charges that I may be an old fuddy-duddy, years behind the times. Of course, by the time I get home this book may be utterly out of date, and if I after a quick reference to my pocket guide, sing out, "Hi, gate, how's the fence?" I might be received with nothing less than a flock of raised eyebrows and alarmed whispers behind the protection of the backs of several hands. Be that as it may, I stand prepared.

By the way, I sent you a small, insignificant package which should arrive sometime after this letter. Now, I'm not going to tell you what is in it, but I do hope that after you open it, you do not take offense at my choice. It is really a juvenile amusement, but after having seen a number of fully grown and outwardly solid officers and men having a great deal of fun with it, I figured you might like it. If you don't, kindly grasp it firmly by one thumb and forefinger and drop it quietly into the nearest waste basket and we won't mention it again.

It is about time for me to assume the horizontal position and get in some sack time, ere I entirely waste this holiday. Thanks again for everything. Yours, Harold.

Sept. 2, 1945

Dear Van and All:

I haven't written you folks for quite a while so pernaps I'd better assure you that nothing has happened to me out of the ordinary but finding time to keep up my correspondence is a rather difficult problem. We've been in Camp Farragut since last Tuesday and I like it a lot better over here. In Camp Decatur (detention camp) they shot us full of dope and watched us like babies for fear we might become afflicted with various and assorted diseases but here we manage to get a few liberties.

I'm going into San Diego at 1100 this morning and doubt if I'll be able to find my way back much before 0100 in the morning. On Monday the other yoeman gets liberty and I have to take a bed check at 0100 Tuesday morning and report to regimental, so I expect to feel like the dickens for a few days afterwards.

I've pretty well gotten the kinks out of myself now and feel like a new man. We get plenty of calisthentics and exercise, but from now on out we'll have a good many hours of class work and keeping awake in class is going to be a problem also.

I was interviewed by a classification specialist day before yesterday and he recommended me for printer storekeeper or mail clerk. He also said he would put me down for yoeman also, but I declined the offer (too much pencil pushing in this job to suit me. I'm here for a test cure). At any rate naval schools are closed to all but regular navy men so at the end of boot training I'll go aboard ship and strike for seaman first class rating while aboard. Although it's difficult to tell how soon we will be separated from the navy under demobilization, it looks like I can expect to be in for at least six months longer and no doubt I'll ship out shortly after returning from leave. I asked for a battleship or aircraft carrier. How near I'll get to what I want is beyond me.

At any rate I am really enjoying navy life. Naturally I want to go home to my family and my job as quickly as possible and it won't take me long to do both as soon as they hand me my discharge papers. But until they do I'll take what they give me and like it. I've been too busy to miss my family as much as I should, I reckon. Karen starts to school Sept. 3 and I'd sure like to be there to see her off. Mary tells me Susan is still quite a problem child and with Nancy getting sassier than ever I know she has a full time job on her hands.

Say, what became of Luella? Suppose Esther, Jack, Frank and the rest of you are getting along about as well as you did before I left. Really hope you're getting along better with me out of the way. How about Bat, is he back in harness yet? I really get a kick out of getting the Herald and believe me, when it arrives even the commodore would have to wait on me while I read it.

I'm still taking care of the company's business and since I am expected to keep up on all classes, pass all reviews and exams, etc., it keeps me hustling to get the job done. So far, however, I've gotten by in good shape. Working in the office is interesting work because you are in a position to know what is going on and get the facts instead of scuttlebutt, however the company runs you ragged asking silly questions and wasting your time. Every once in a while I get so grouchy I run them out of the office. The men are settling down now, however, and we really have a good company. We won a drill pennant while in Decatur and our softball team won the regimental softball tournament and we'll get our group picture in the next issue of the "Hoist." We lost 12 men to "Company D," the nut company. These were neurotics, cranks, gripers, etc., and the company improved a heck of a lot after getting rid of them. We have a swell company commander and platoon commanders, tough on the men and strict, but it all tends to make a crack company and the men really like them.

Guess I'd better stop with this and get ready to go out on liberty. Good luck to all you guys and I hope everything is running smoothly for you. Yours, Ed.

Dear Lora and All:

Well, we are part way home, left Okinawa Aug. 31, and arrived this morning at Guam. I don't know how long we will be here, but not long I hope. There were not so many killed aboard in the recent action as we were all at the show in the mess hall and that part of the ship was not hit. Twenty-one were killed, and 83 injured, three or four seriously, who were taken back to the states by plane.

So much for that. I sure hope you are all well and everything is OK. I guess Bob has already started to school. I didn't receive any mail today as there wasn't very much—maybe tomorrow will be my day to get mail.

There is not much to write about so I will close for this time, all my love to all of you.

To The General Public

As the war is now over, the writer has asked to be relived of any further Red Cross duties. As War Fund Chairman and General Chairman for almost four years, I have attempted to render the best service that I could.

There has been much work, but an opportunity and a duty to serve at a time when a person could not well say NO, as most every one had more to do than they could get done. Feeling that I have rendered my share of such service, I have asked that new officers be elected to assume duties by Sept. 21.

At the time this is written it is not known who will succeed to the major duties of the Red Cross, but I urge you to be considerate of those having such responsibilities. Remember that they serve without pay; that they have to neglect their own business in order to serve you and that most any of those chosen are likely to have some problems similar to your own—boys in the service.

The request and requirements of the people having business with the Red Cross have, as a rule, been considerate and pleasant, but as in all places where a person deals with the general public, some few have been unreasonable, inconsistant and inconsiderate, forgetting that many others had as bad or worse circumstances to reckon with as they had, yet demanding and expecting more than what was just and fair.

With almost no exceptions, the service men themselves, have been most considerate and agreeable and for which we thank them.

Thanks to the people of Ochiltree County for their whole-hearted support. You have shown your willingness to do your part by over-subscribing every War Fund quota.

I have been glad to render such services as I could and am just as glad to let some other person do it from now on. As Bench Beecham says: "It taint all fun."

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

Joseph's Power: Unfailing Faith in God's Providence

The International Sunday School Lesson for Sept. 23
Scripture: Genesis, Chapter 45

• • •

THIS is a lesson gathering up and reinforcing all that we have found in the story of Joseph, and the lessons concerning life and character stressed in the amazing drama of this man. Joseph's life began in the dreamy homelife and favoritism of his father; it turned quickly through the episodes of threatened death, slavery, elevation to prosperity and power, temptation and the hateful vengeance of an evil woman, imprisonment and apparent oblivion—then release and honor.

From every standpoint it is a marvelous story. But the greatest marvel, persistent through it all, is the unfailing integrity, the moral strength, the true sense of values, and the spiritual vision of Joseph himself.

It is a great lesson, too, in the nature, meaning, and effect of a man's faith in God; for underlying all that Joseph was and did was his unfailing faith in God's providence. His conviction, later to be strongly emphasized in the faith and experiences of the Apostle Paul, was that God's providence is worked out in ways that are not always clear to man.

It does require immense faith, and a rich quality of faith, to believe that. It is easy for most of us to have faith when days are sunny and paths are easy; but when clouds come, and the way is hard, it is not easy to see how God's will can be achieved through our misfortune and suffering. Joseph had experiences that would have overwhelmed the faith, hope, and courage of even the stoutest of men.

Perhaps the deepest of all testings was on the very eve of his greatest triumph. In prison he had interpreted the butler's dream, and assured him of his prospective restoration to Pharaoh's favor. The butler had gone to the palace, protesting his gratefulness and his intention to remember Joseph; but in his new-found preferment he had conveniently forgotten all about his former prison-mate, and Joseph had languished two full further years in prison. What bitter years those might have been, so seemingly full of frustration, and at the end of all hope! But Joseph never lost heart or faith

"Matter" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, September 23.

The Golden Text is: "I have declared, and have saved, and I have shewed, when there was no strange god among you: therefore ye are my witnesses saith the Lord, that I am God" (Isaiah 43:12).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "And Jesus knowing their thoughts said, Wherefore think ye evil in your hearts? For whether is easier, to say, Thy sins be forgiven thee; or to say, Arise, and walk?" (Matthew 9:4, 5).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Consciousness constructs a better body when faith in matter has been conquered. Correct material belief by spiritual understanding, and Spirit will form you anew" (page 425).
