

Group Formed To Direct Third War Loan Drive

The County War Bond Committee, headed by Dr. E. W. Jones and Paul Starr, met Monday to organize and perfect plans for the Third War Loan Drive, scheduled to open over the nation on September 9.

A highlight of this drive, which will continue until September 30, will be the personal contacting of every resident of the county by some member of the War Bond Committee.

"This is the stiffest quota we have been called on to meet, and every person will have to buy bonds to the very limit of his ability to put the drive over," Dr. Jones said.

Committees to work on the drive will be named for each community and the complete list will be announced next week.

Because the county will be called on to raise such a large amount, and because the drive will need to reach into every home in the county, the setup for this drive will be the most elaborate yet formed for a War Loan Drive here.

"We are counting on the people to stand behind us in this. In fact we already know that they will be behind us, and we know we can count on their loyalty and their patriotism just as they have shown it in every drive that has been conducted here," Dr. Jones declared.

Holton Observes Anniversary Here

Observing two anniversaries in one, Homer Holton of Wellington this week ends one year as agent for the Gulf Oil Corporation in this territory. At the same time, it is his second anniversary at the Gulf Service Station, located at the east end of Eighth Street.

Experienced in this line of work, Mr. Holton was employed at stations here for several years before buying the Gulf Station, and in addition he engaged in that business for 10 years before coming to Wellington.

"I could not have observed either of these anniversaries but for the splendid co-operation and patronage of my friends," Mr. Holton said. "Business has exceeded all expectations. Those of us working here deeply appreciate your patronage and your confidence, and in observing these anniversaries we can do just one thing—pledge the same high type of service in the future that we have given you in the past."

Calvary Revival Now In Progress

Much interest is being shown in the revival services now under way at the Calvary Baptist Church. Elder J. E. Young of Olustee, Oklahoma, is in charge of the preaching, while the song service is being conducted by N. L. McBrayer of Fort Worth.

Elder Young's preaching is described by those who have heard him as "the old-time gospel so forceful that you are sure to get a blessing."

Services begin each evening at 8:45 with a song service that continues for 30 minutes. Preaching begins promptly at 9:15 and the services close at 10:00 o'clock.

The public is cordially invited to attend. The church is located at the corner of 9th and Floydada Streets.

Rev. James Reynolds In Charge Of Quail Revival

Minister James M. Reynolds, former pastor of the Wellington Church of Christ, will conduct the revival services for the Quail Church of Christ. The meeting will begin Thursday night, August 26, and continue for about ten days. There will be both morning and night services. Minister Reynolds is now living in Borger and is pastor of the church there.

A cordial invitation is extended to everyone to attend this revival.

SEAGOING "SIDEWALK"

Here's the latest creation in boats, a semi-submarine made of cement, shown at Richmond, Calif., shipyards. Inventor Hal B. Hayes says the thing can travel submerged, and that big ones can be built to cross the ocean at 75 knots and carry as many passengers as a modern liner.

Rev. Gunstream is district superintendent of the New Mexico district of the church, and is regarded as one of the outstanding ministers of that denomination in the southwest.

Services will be held each evening at 8:30 o'clock. No morning services will be held.

"We cordially invite the people of Wellington to our meeting. Rev. Gunstream is a preacher of outstanding ability, and one you will enjoy and appreciate. In the seriousness of these days, you are welcome to attend our services and find comfort and strength in them," the pastor said.

Dodson Teacher Enters Aircraft Radio Training In Missouri

A former Dodson teacher is one of fifty-nine wartime co-eds unraveling the mysteries of aircraft radio at the College of Engineering at the University of Missouri. This group, which began their study last week, is the second to receive the signal corps aircraft radio course in Columbia.

Of Miss Duggan, the Columbia Missourian published the following item:

"Elois Duggan of Nocona, Texas, is a typical example of the potential engineering aides. Elois has a B. S. degree in education and was teaching home economics at Dodson, Texas, when she decided she would join some branch of the service. However, convinced that the aircraft radio engineering program more nearly suited her needs, she decided to enroll in the course. 'I wanted to get into a new field,' she said. Elois has a brother in the service staff." (Continued on Page Ten)

Fred Capps' Hear From Son In Japanese Prison

A letter from Arthur V. Capps, prisoner of the Japanese at Shanghai, reached his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Capps of Wellington Tuesday, August 24. The letter, in Mr. Capps' handwriting, was dated January 4, 1943.

It read: "Arthur V. Capps 'Shanghai War Prisoner's Camp' 'Barracks 3, Section 7' 'January 4, 1943' 'Dear Mother, Daddy and Family: 'I hope you are well. I am and weigh 160 now. I have received 3 letters from you. If you send any packages send Mentholatum, the cold medicine. We have received several packages each from the International Red Cross. If any of my money is being sent home do whatever you wish with it."

"We now have a better hospital than before. We are being treated very well. I had a very pleasant Christmas and New Year."

"I heard of Nola's and Walden's."

Teresa Clendenen, 14-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Clendenen of Dodson, was killed by lightning Friday evening, August 20, at her home in the southeast edge of town. The girl was struck as she, a sister and brother were pushing a car in an attempt to start it.

Mrs. Clendenen, who was in the car with a smaller child, and the other children were knocked unconscious by the bolt that killed the girl. This occurred during a local thunder storm that included only the southeast portion of the county.

The family had resided in the Arlie community for a number of years and moved to the Hugh Painter place at Dodson only this year.

Teresa was a student in the seventh grade of the Dodson School. She is the first victim of lightning in this county in recent years.

Funeral services were conducted Sunday afternoon from the South Baptist Church with Rev. Dan Green of Gould in charge, assisted by Rev. J. E. Perryman, pastor of the Church of the Nazarene in Dodson. Pallbearers were H. H. Risinger, Marvin Wynn, Morgan Painter, Edwin Crowder, Ernest Nipper and Roy Tisdale.

Burial was in the Arlie cemetery with the Kelso Funeral Home of Wellington in charge.

Addie Mae Coates Breaks Shoulder In Fall From Horse

Addie Mae Coates, 13-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Coates of Lillie, is recovering from a broken right shoulder which she received at her home at Lillie Thursday, August 12.

The girl was riding a colt when the animal became frightened and began bucking, throwing her off. A week later the bones which had begun to knit together were broken.

Her condition is now reported by members of her family as being as well as could be expected. She is now able to return to school.

Buildings In Two Communities Are Damaged By Wind

Houses, outbuildings, and crops were damaged in the Samnorwood and Shinnery communities by high wind Friday night, August 20, while lightning started fires in several pastures in the northeast part of the county during a severe electrical storm.

This is the first destruction of this type reported here this year.

In the Samnorwood area, the two-room tenant house on the Harry Jones farm was completely demolished. Mr. Jones' windmill and tower were blown down, and the roof of his house badly damaged.

Several large shade trees at the Barney Walker home were uprooted.

A house at the Henry Bockman farm was demolished.

The coal house, owned by Theo Parker, and located by the railroad track, was demolished and the lumber blown onto the track. Residents of the community reported the night train was held up until the debris could be cleared.

The D. M. Morris home on the H. H. Cook farm just north of Samnorwood was badly damaged and members of the family were forced to move to another house.

Mrs. Morris was badly bruised but not seriously injured when she was blown down as she attempted to reach a storm cellar.

A brooder house and two hen houses at the W. A. Parsons farm were blown down and a barn was unroofed.

Outbuildings on the farm of Mrs. Mary Ross were damaged. Damage was also reported to school property.

Hail and high wind also damaged crops in the path of the storm. Some rain fell in the immediate vicinity of Samnorwood.

In the Shinnery community a barn on the Drury Lacy farm was so badly damaged that it will have to be torn down and rebuilt. This barn was built only last year.

A chicken house at the E. L. Hively farm was overturned.

The only house reported damaged in this community was on the farm of Rev. R. L. Porter of Lela. It was occupied by the Lee Hughey family. The house was pulled away from the concrete porch, then turned to one side. Members of the family were in the house at the time. Considerable repair work will be necessary, Rev. Porter said.

Stove Rationing Effective Tuesday

The rationing of heating and cooking stoves became effective on Tuesday, August 24, Howard R. Gholson, district director of the Office of Price Administration, announced today. Application forms and informational material have been distributed at the 71 local War Price and Rationing board offices, he said.

The district director pointed out that the rationed stoves included all new heating and cooking stoves designed to burn coal, wood, oil or gas for domestic use, with certain exceptions. The exceptions included the sheet-metal, air-tight wood stoves not equipped with grates or cast iron base or lining; gas hot plates, portable ovens, laundry stoves with built-in water jackets or coils, portable gasoline camp cook stoves, and alcohol or charcoal stoves.

Previous rationing of stoves included coal and oil heating stoves rationed last December in 32 eastern states where fuel oil is rationed. Nation-wide stove rationing will tend to equalize such supplies as fuel oil, gas, coal and wood in the various sections, Gholson (Continued on Page Ten)

Ration Board To Issue Canning Sugar Three Days Weekly

The County Rationing Board will take applications for canning sugar three afternoons each week, Monday, Wednesday, and Friday, Miss Merle Hays, chief clerk, said this week.

This arrangement will continue through the remainder of the canning season, she said.

Previously, canning sugar applications had been taken only on Friday.

Lieut. Comm. Joe Bourland Listed Missing In Action

Lieut. Commander Joe H. Bourland of the United States Navy, the son of W. M. Bourland of Quail, has been listed by the War Department as missing in action, his father has been notified. He was commanding officer of a submarine in Pacific waters.

The official notice from the war department stated that the commander's vessel was long overdue and must be presumed to be lost.

After graduating from Clarendon High School, Commander Bourland attended Texas A. and M., and in 1929 he received an appointment to the U. S. Naval Academy at Annapolis. He was Commander of Midshipmen during his senior year, 1932-33, and upon his graduation he ranked near the head of his class.

Commander Bourland was commissioned an Ensign and assigned to duty on the West Coast. Two years later he went with the Asiatic Fleet for duty in the China and Philippine waters. After two years, he was assigned to submarine duty and was later an instructor at the submarine school at New London, Conn.

A native of this county, he was born at Quail January 31, 1911, however he grew up in Clarendon and received his secondary education there.

He was one of five sons of W. M. Bourland to serve in the Armed Forces during this war.

Survivors, in addition to his father, are his wife and two children, David Lawrence, age 3, and Joan, age 1, of New York; and these brothers and sisters, Ralph Bourland of Quail, Lieut. George Bourland, Fred Bourland and Jimmie Bourland of the United States Navy, Jack Bourland, Mrs. Carroll Baldwin and Mrs. D. R. Davis. Another brother, First Lieut. Lacy Bourland of the United States Army Air Forces, died of a heart attack while on duty at Fresno, California, on October 28.

Stove Dealers Must Register

With the rationing of heating and cook stoves effective August 23, all stove dealers must register with the local war price and rationing board September 1, 2, and 3, Miss Merle Hays, chief clerk, said Monday.

It will be necessary for those who fail to register on those three dates to register through the OPA at Lubbock, Miss Hays said.

Gunner Downs Fighter On Raid Over Germany

EIGHTH AIR FORCES BOMBER STATION, Eng.—When S-Sgt. Will J. Moore pressed the triggers on his twin 50 calibre machine guns in the tail of the Flying Fortress, "Shack Bunny," during a recent bombing assault over Germany, he shouted, "This one is for ma back in Texas."

He connected with a German fighter plane, which crashed towards the earth. It was the 34-year-old gunner's first flight in a bombing attack over Germany. "It was like a bee hive," Sgt. Moore said. "They kept coming in from everywhere—one plane came right at us, and I got in smack in the engine. It started smoking and spiraling towards the ground."

Sgt. Moore's mother, Mrs. Pearl N. Shaw, of Wellington, Texas, had said longingly to him, "Son, I wish I could go and shoot some of those Germans with you." Since she couldn't, the Sergeant is dedicating every other Luftwaffe fighter he gets to "ma." He is the grandson of Dr. J. H. Loving.

The bomber "Shack Bunny" is piloted by Second Lt. Frank B. Walls, 26, of DuBois, Pa. Other crewmen on that trip were Second Lt. Jesse Kirby, 28, Dallas, co-

Forty days of hot dry weather will bring the opening of the cotton harvest season in to full swing several weeks earlier than normal, farmers and ginnermen estimated this week, as reports of open cotton were received from communities in the southeastern, central and northern parts of the county.

The first load of cotton for the 1943 season was ginned in Wellington Monday night, August 23. The cotton was owned by Mrs. J. M. Gilmer of the Fresno community and ginned at the Farmers Co-op Gin.

Since only 344 pounds of lint cotton were ginned out, ginnermen said that this could not be called a full bale and would not receive the usual premium offered for the first bale ginned each season. The load was 1260 pounds of snapped cotton.

Mrs. Gilmer's cotton graded middling 13-16ths, Dick Sweat, manager of the Co-op Gin said, and while it was apparent that it had suffered from dry weather, the quality was better than it was at first expected.

This cotton was ginned approximately 10 days earlier than the first bale last year.

It is expected, however, that the first full bale will be ginned before the end of the week, as several farmers in the county are now pulling.

In spite of this early opening, it is believed that there will be little cotton ginned for several weeks, as most of the growers here prefer to wait until a considerable amount of cotton in the fields is opened.

The 1943 government cotton loan rate for Collingsworth County will be 19.89 cents, based on middling 15-16 cotton, Millard Brown, administrative officer of the local AAA office was notified early this week. Other grade and staple lengths will range accordingly.

This is more than 2 cents above the loan rate for the same grade and staple cotton in 1942, when it was set at 17.75.

As in the past, it is predicted that most of the cotton in this section of the state will be placed in the loan.

Use Of Ration Book III Begins On September 12

Brown ration stamps in War Ration Book III will be used by consumers to purchase rationed meats, fats, oils and rationed dairy products beginning September 12, Howard R. Gholson, District Director, said today. War Book III is a replacement book for I and II.

The brown stamps that become valid on September 12 are the "A" stamps good for 16 points; "B" stamps also good for 16 points become valid September 19. Both expire on October 2. Other brown stamps become valid on successive Sundays but always expire on the Saturday nearest the end of a month, such as C, Sept. 26; D, October 3; E, Oct. 10; and F, Oct. 17. All are good for 16 points and all expire on October 30.

There will be a period when the final set of meat (red) stamps in War Ration Book II and the brown stamps in Book III will both be usable. Red Stamps X, Y and Z all expire October 2. The brown stamps in Book III are similar in size and have the same point value as the red stamps in Book II.

Large Crowds Attend Revival

Revival services now in progress at the Assembly of God in Wellington will continue at least for the next two weeks, Rev. A. A. Daly, pastor, said Tuesday.

The revival began Sunday night, with Rev. and Mrs. R. L. Franks in charge of the preaching and special music.

Much interest is being shown in the meeting, and large crowds are attending, the pastor said.

Special song services are held each night before the preaching hour.

"The public is cordially invited to attend each of these services. We will welcome your presence and your interest," Rev. Daly said.

ARTHUR CAPPS

Letter Arrives From Lt. Noles, Prisoner In Japan

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Winn of Stephenville have received a letter from their son, Lieut. John Roy Noles, a prisoner of the Japanese, the first direct word they have had in eighteen months. Lieut. Noles was stationed in the Philippine Islands at the time of their capture.

Knowing that the many friends of the family here are anxious to hear of Lieut. Noles, Mr. and Mrs. Winn have sent a copy of his letter, which was written February 8, to The Leader.

"This is the first word direct from him since November of 1941. You will note part of his message contradicts the telegram we received from Washington stating that he was wounded, but we feel that he thinks we never knew about it and is assuring us that he is all right," they said.

The letter reads:

Zentsuji War Prison Camp
Feb. 8, 1943, Japan
Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Winn,
Route No. 4
Stephenville, Texas, U. S. A.
Dear Parents and Relatives:

Since my capture on Bataan April 9, 1942, I have been in good condition. During the war I was not wounded. Jack W. Kaster from El Paso and Maxy C. Chennault from Snyder, Texas, were O. K. when I last saw them on the Philippine Islands. I have thought of all of you many times and hope everyone is in the best of health. Be sure and tell Luella that I have thought of her and hope to see her in New Orleans in the near future. I hope that she has been all right and I send her my love. I am looking forward to the day when I will be with all of you again.

I would appreciate a box from you containing food in the most concentrated form, for the smaller and lighter the box containing the most will be easier to send. You may contact the local Red Cross to receive instructions on how to send it. I would like to have some sweetened chocolate in solid and liquid form, honey, peanut butter, cheese, such as American and Roquefort, milk, butter, jam (strawberry) cigarettes and any type of candy. Soluble coffee or cocoa and sugar would also be highly appreciated. A highly spiced canned meat would be good. Any article you send should be in cans.

I hope you are having no trouble on the farm and that the fruit crop was good. Be sure to have a fat steer and hog ready to butcher when I arrive on U. S. soil again. I love all of you very much and will be thinking of you till I can greet you again.

With my love,

John.

Melvin Breeden Buys Registered Jersey Cow

A registered Jersey cow has been purchased by Melvin Breeden of Quail, from John E. McDaniels of Decatur, Texas. The name of the animal is Sybil Masterman Miss 1289871.

The whereabouts of all registered Jerseys is known and carefully watched over by The American Jersey Cattle Club, with offices in New York City. This important job is made possible through registrations and transfers made by Jersey Breeders everywhere. Tattoo identification, somewhat similar to fingerprinting, keeps individuals of this dairy breed always known.

Jerseys make up 42 percent of all dairy cows in the United States. Because they produce the world's richest milk, and because there are more Jerseys than any other breed in America, their role in National Defense is an important one. Increased production of Jersey milk guarantees the protective food needs of here and abroad.

Ginners Hear Of Problems, Outlook

The 1943 Cotton Loan program, standards set up by the government in the preparation of cotton, and a safety program for gin employees was outlined for gin managers and visitors at the annual school of instruction of the Chickasha Cotton Oil Company gins here Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of last week.

G. A. Ream, manager of the gins in this territory, was in charge of local arrangements.

In outlining the loan program, O. P. Crawford, head of the cotton department, stated that the loan on cotton will be on a basis of 19.89 cents for middling 15-16ths, net weight. This rate applies to cotton put in the loan at Wellington, Childress and Shamrock.

Mr. Crawford predicted that the most of the cotton in this territory would be placed in the loan.

S. B. Douglas, head classer for the company, who spoke Tuesday, described government standards set up, the preparations of cotton, and the factors to be taken into consideration.

Final speaker was L. C. Hutson, president of the company, who spoke Wednesday evening. Mr. Hutson outlined the safety program the company has inaugurated to safeguard its employees. This will include first aid training and physical examinations from time to time. With the now existing labor shortage, such a program is more necessary than at any time in the past, it was pointed out.

Mr. Ream reported that attendance at the school was good, with a number of visitors taking part.

A part of each day was given over to instruction and actual work in cotton grading and classing.

Sixty-five University of Texas staff members now in the armed forces have been granted an extension of their leaves of absence for 1943-44, and 32 other staff members have received extended leaves to continue other special war assignments.

No Workdays Off (till that After-War Car Trip)

Women must work so that we all may win...and have the boys coming home all the sooner. Not long after that, you may wager, plenty of re-united American families will be reviving the great American sport of taking a trip in the car.

What car?

Not even the last pre-war models could be duplicated instantly, and the auto industry will outdo those—all of which will take time. You'll find it hard to wait. But how easily you can give your present much-needed car a great opportunity to outlive the Axis.

First...now...shield your engine from acid. This unavoidable product of combustion was formerly rather safely expelled in regular driving, at normal speed and heat. But your semi-occasional, slow, short drives nowadays barely heat the engine. Chemists know that this invites strongest acid attacks, yet engines OIL-PLATED by Conoco Nth motor oil have proved able to resist remarkably, and you can see why.

In patented Conoco Nth motor oil, a synthetic of apparently "magnet-like" energy joins lubricant closely to inner engine surfaces, as if to stay—like any familiar plating. In not all draining down to the crankcase, even at a standstill, the OIL-PLATING "walls off" the inner surfaces from the hungry acid. And so you'll have a good car that much longer...by OIL-PLATING...with Conoco Nth...at Your Mileage Merchant's Conoco station. Continental Oil Company

Carey Dysart, Jr., Paralysis Victim

Carey Dysart, Jr., 17-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Carey Dysart of Mobeetie, died of infantile paralysis in an Amarillo hospital Saturday night, August 14. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Carey Dysart, pioneer settlers of Collingsworth County, and a nephew of Mrs. Jennie Holcomb, Mrs. J. W. Loter, Mrs. Walter Culp, and Mrs. Clarence Kesler.

In addition to these relatives, he has a number of cousins in this county.

He was stricken with infantile paralysis on August 4. He was taken to Amarillo on the following Tuesday and placed in an iron lung.

Although the young man had never lived here he had visited here many times and attended the Old Settlers Reunion each year with his parents. His father's family was one of the earliest to settle in the county, having come here in 1889. His mother's family also came here many years ago.

Funeral services were conducted Sunday, August 15, from the Baptist Church in Mobeetie with Rev. Ted Ewing, pastor, in charge, assisted by Rev. J. C. McKenzie of Amarillo.

Carey Dysart, Jr., was born October 6, 1925, at Mobeetie and had spent his entire life there. He graduated from high school at that town this spring.

Surviving are his parents; two sisters, Mrs. A. B. McPherson of Shawnee, Okla., and Mrs. Alwyn Savage of Wheeler; and three brothers, Elwyn, who is somewhere in the South Pacific with the U. S. Navy; Norman, of Fort Worth; and David, of Wichita, Kansas.

Attending the funeral from here were Mrs. Holcomb, Mr. and Mrs. Loter, Mr. and Mrs. Culp and Mr. and Mrs. Kesler.

DID ACTICS

—By Deskins Wells

The season for rains, opened August 22 and this is August 26. The season for crop saving rains will end about September 15. Since the men with gadgets have failed and the men with almanacs have failed even to the extent that you have to buy a drink if you mention some names, it is time for me to look in the files of The Wellington Leader and see how the rains came in other years. Since I have looked, I predict it will rain soon. September 15 is the latest day. There may be floods.

Mrs. Fred Capps is now churning 72 lbs. of butter a week by hand. She gets this from 8 cows. When the pastures were green she did better with 7 cows. In those times she used the electric machine that her son Arthur, who is now a prisoner of the Japs, gave her just before he left the United States. Recently the motor burned out and she cannot buy a new one. Therefore this undaunted woman is churning 72 pounds of butter a week in an old fashioned churn. My hat is off to Mrs. Capps. If the Japs think that they will ever whip such people, they might as well think again.

In recent weeks letters to their home people have been received from Capt. John Coleman, Lt. John Roy Noles and Arthur Capps. For long months no letters were allowed to come from Japan. It should not have taken that long. Do you suppose that the Japs know that they are on the short end now?

"TOT 'N' SHOP"

You put baby in front and groceries in back, according to the San Francisco Furniture Mart's "Market Week" show. Barbara Wilson smiles approval of the handy "Tot 'n' Shop."

Bob Keller has a definite opinion on whether or not peanuts tear down the soil more than sudan. He says he knows of two farms where you can tell the difference. On the strips where peanuts were planted last year, the maize crop this year is good in spite of the dry weather. On the strips where sudan was planted, the crop is poor, and he says that you can tell it to the row. I have not been out there, but I have maintained that sudan and cane sorghum were not soil building crops.

If the pronouncement of Gen. Hershey as announced over the radio Thursday morning goes into effect literally, there may be some 10 business firms change hands or close up soon in our town. Some of these young men would rather enter the Armed Forces than struggle with the red tape and the ever increasing regulations here at home. Others are willing to go when it comes their time. What they would like to have is some degree of certainty. They would like to know whether they are going to go or not go. If they are going, they would like to have a little time in which to wind up their business. This off again on again business is disrupting constructive work.

Nebraska farmers are cutting down cottonwood fence posts from their shelterbelts and selling them for 35c each. The trees have grown to such an extent that this does not affect the shelterbelt at all. I informed Kinney Godfrey of this fact and he became red in the face just as Bert Weaver will. They think no good can come from shelterbelts. They have made up their minds, but that does not mean that they are right on shelterbelts.

September 9 is the time when every person will be called upon to do their duty. At that time the Third War Bond Drive will start. Our country needs the money. That should be a sufficient reason for going over the top on our quota. We might remember that these bonds are just as sound as the money with which we will buy them. We will not be asked to give anything. We will be asked to make an investment. It is saving for a different day and it is one that some of us may need much more than we can now visualize.

Up in Greensburg, Pennsylvania, they have hired a woman football coach and the school officials predict the biggest football turnout in history. Is she going to coach or play in shorts?

The fans are saying that the Skyrockets will have a good football team this fall. While a lot of the line will be new, they showed up well last spring. Three of the veteran backfield men are back.

With them will be Marion Baumgardner who was out last fall with a broken ankle. He will be the heaviest and the fastest man in the backfield, and should make a strong running mate for the more experienced Covey, Kendrick and Melton. Then there will be the twelfth man, Coach Al Duncan. The penny pinching, lot-sueing school board was most lucky when they went over to Turkey and found as able a coach as Al Duncan.

The Amarillo Globe-News published an editorial recently titled "The Black Truth about the Black Market in Meat" that bids fair to become a national sensation. It is in line with the thinking you read in this column two years ago on feed and cottonseed and the one you read two weeks ago on hogs. The News spent their own money in publishing the editorial as a full page ad in The Fort Worth Star-Telegram, The Dallas Morning News, Editor and Publisher, and perhaps other publications of which I do not know. Heartily congratulations to them. In case you have not seen it, the full editorial will run on the editorial page of The Leader next week.

LETTERS From the PEOPLE

Houston, Texas
August 15, 1943

Wellington Leader,

Dear Deck:

How is Wellington tonight? Hope you have gotten rain by now. They say prospects look good for a crop there this year.

How is Orval Couch and the REA getting along?

I am sending you a Brown Victory Dispatch, a shipyard paper that is printed weekly. This is where I work as an Electrician Leaderman. We are building destroyers and escort vessels now. We built 32 landing barges before we started building D. E. boats. As you may see in the paper, we built four of the barges that helped make the Sicily invasion.

There are two more people working here that lived in Wellington, Ernest Elliott and Irwin Gilbreth (the Duke of Wellington). Elliott is a shipwright foreman and Gilbreth is a pipe fitter. There are about 20,000 people employed at the Brown's Shipyard.

Will close for this time.

Respectfully,
Reuel Estes.

... WHICH will Johnny be?

Without question, no red-blooded, freedom-loving American father or mother would want Johnny to be like that misguided, regimented Nazi lad. America's sons have a priceless heritage of Freedom that no fuhrer-trained, goose-stepping Nazi youth can understand or enjoy.

Next month Americans are being asked to LEND our Government FIFTEEN BILLION DOLLARS. This is the greatest single financial undertaking in the history of any country on earth. People of the Gulf South, as in all America, will have to dig deep into their pockets to put over this Third War Loan Drive. But, we WILL do it, for no sacrifice or effort we must make is too great to make sure that the youth of America shall never be the mere pawn of a tyrant dictator.

200 Present For War-Time Reunion Of Old Settlers

Approximately 200 pioneer residents and their families were present for the annual Old Settlers Reunion Thursday, August 19, Dave Thomas, who was in charge of arrangements, reported.

While this is less than half the number which attended in former years, Mr. Thomas said that those in charge of the event were well pleased, and that those attending enjoyed the day thoroughly.

"Under the present war conditions, we were really surprised at the attendance," Mr. Thomas added.

Coming from the farthest distance was Dan Kutch of Glendale, Calif. Mr. Kutch has attended the reunion here each year for many years. Other out of county visitors included members of the Beck family from Mobeetie, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Laycock and Mr. and Mrs. Wood Baxter of Shamrock, Mrs. Bill Boston of Perryton, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Bairfield of Clarendon, and a number of others.

Music and dancing, traditional with the reunion, entertained the visitors.

The only speech of the day was made by Elmore Dodson of Dodson. Mr. Dodson spoke briefly and humorously.

"We are mighty glad we went ahead and held the reunion. Some of us were a little afraid to start it, but we found it more than repaid us for all our work," Mr. Thomas said.

Machinery School Planned At Quail

Application has been made for a Farm Machinery course to be held at the Quail High School in connection with the Vocational Agriculture Department, J. B. Patteson, vocational agriculture teacher, said Tuesday. "The purpose of this course will be to help the farmers of the community repair their farm machinery, and at the same time teach the larger boys, enrolled in Agriculture, the mechanics trade. This course is planned to start September 6th. It will be held in the annex of the Vocational Agriculture building. We have received several new pieces of machinery recently. Some of them are an electric drill press, a blacksmith forge and an anvil," Mr. Patteson explained.

"We also have made application to begin a canning school about Sept. 1." "We want the women of this community and any who might be interested, to feel welcome to come and can their vegetables and other foods. It is to be held in the School Lunch Room of Quail High School with Mrs. Lela Maxwell in charge," he said.

To Our Many Tire Customers--A Word of Caution!
LET'S LOOK THE TIRE PROBLEM SQUARELY IN THE FACE--

Here Are The Facts:

The first all-synthetic passenger car tires to be built on a production basis are only just now coming off the lines in limited quantities.

No satisfactory all-synthetic truck tire and no satisfactory all-synthetic tubes of any kind have been built as yet by anyone.

TAKE EXTRA CARE OF YOUR PRESENT TIRES:

Drive slowly—not over thirty-five miles an hour (very important now in hot weather).

Remember, your present tires may look good from the outside . . . but they're old nevertheless. Old rubber just can't take the punishment that new rubber can.

See that air pressure is checked once a week.

Don't scrape your tires against the curb.

Don't make jack-rabbit starts or quick stops. Take curves and corners slowly.

Have your tire dealer check your tires regularly for cuts and abrasions, and repair them before they go too far.

GET YOUR PRESENT TIRES RECAPPED BEFORE THEY GET TOO SMOOTH OR YOU'LL BE VERY SORRY.

Naturally we regret that we cannot fill all requests for tires that come our way. BUT AT PRESENT WE DO HAVE A LIMITED STOCK OF GRADE 1 AND GRADE 3 TIRES.

"This country is too broad, too far-flung, too varied in its production to have the work done by directives from Washington."

This statement, sounding good to Pan-handle ears, comes from Texas' own Marvin Jones, War Food Administrator.

But how strange it must have sounded to the bureaucratic minded of the capital, whose efforts have been to bring the far branches of the creeks and the prairie dog towns of the plains under their scrutiny.

Judge Jones' statement follows that line of thinking that is predominant in the district which he served so long in Congress, and which he came to know so well. That his opinion is the opinion of his former constituents cannot be a co-incidence.

He said further, "We can only assist; we must rely largely upon the State, county and community organizations of real people who have built America and are in a position to save America and her institutions, all of which are at stake in the conflict with which we are now faced."

He then urged that the people join in voluntary teamwork to produce the food we need.

People of this section have grown a little tired of hearing every theory of what the nation needs, but they will all agree that it does need more men of Marvin Jones thinking in high places, and more men with the courage and the willingness to speak out where they can be heard.

War or no war, the Fighting French are determined to go on fighting. That's how they got where they are and they're how they got where they are.

Resistance in Sicily indicates masterful strategy on the part of the Italian high command. Some of the generals managed to surrender without losing a man.

Argentina says the fact that the Axis cause seems lost is no reason for a change in neutrality policy. Okay, Argentina, but what're you gonna do with all that beef later on?

How does Reichmarshal Goering get that way, promising revenge for the bombings of Hamburg? Must be a slip of the tongue, because he's the one who said it couldn't be done.

Other Editors Say

"When The Boys Come Home"

We are reading a lot of predictions as to what is going to happen "when the boys come home." About 99 per cent of these predictions are pure hooey. In the first place, men are not going to be discharged from the army so recklessly as they were in 1918-19, unless a political upheaval in 1944 knocks out all sense of proportions. Those who returned from the first war remember distinctly that they had one thought: Get a job and get to work. Remember how hard it was to get men to talk about their experiences "over there?" It will be just as hard this time to get them to talk, and they will have much more to talk about than the veterans of '17-18. Naturally these men will form an organization. Perhaps they will join the American Legion, but chances are they will form a new organization. Naturally some of them will be politically minded and will cash in on their experiences of this war. But since they are good solid American boys, again we say, most of them will be so anxious to get back on their jobs, get married and have homes of their own, that they are going to forget all of this political thunder regarding which predictions are being made.—Clyde Warwick in The Canyon News.

Probable Session

It seems altogether probable that a called session of the Texas Legislature will be held. Conflicts in the provisions of the recent law passed by our legislature and the federal law seems to call for this. At least, we might better say, conflicts in interpretation of the respective laws by Texas and federal authorities. The federal assistance agency says old people cannot make as much as $250 per year and still stay on the rolls and draw pension checks, as the Texas law would permit them to do. Quick action, in fact quick acquiescence in the federal construction of the law appears to be the only way out to save the "matching" funds for the aged of the state. You don't tell federal agencies. You ask them.—Homer Steen in The Floyd County Hesperian.

Tire Boards Speak

The work of tire rationing boards would be made much easier, a member of the local rationing board said yesterday, if some way could be found to keep the big boys in the tire program out of print. We have a stack of applications for tires that we cannot fill because of lack of quota. Some of them have been on file for weeks. We tell applicants we cannot fill them because we do not have the tires. The next day a column interview with some of the brass collars in the rubber program states that there will be tires for everyone in a week or two. This isn't true and the brass collars know it isn't true, but all the same it makes trouble for the local rationing boards. There is no explanation a local board member can give as to why tires are not available in abundance for weeks after such an interview appears. Someone should tell these fellows in Washington to keep out of print.—T. B. Klepper in The Foard County News.

Navasot Philosopher

(From Madisonville Meteor)

Editor's note: The Navasot Philosopher on his stump farm on the Navasota River has written us the following letter, which is published for what it's worth.

Dear editor:

I seen in a copy of the Houston Post which some feller from Brazos County used to sleep on near the Highway here all last week while waiting for the Brazos County tire board to give him a certificate entitlyn him to hunt for a number 3 tire where the AAA has turned the farmer loose and he can plant all he wants to, and I want you to know I personally hate to see the government take this backward step. It may be years before a man can sit on a bank and fish and shrug off his wife's naggin about loafin with the remark that he is cooperating with the United States government.

Restrictin farmin acreage was the smartest program outside of pensions ever thought up for the common man, and while it don't go far enough, it went in that direction enough to enable a man with foresight to catch on and figure out his restrictions so they conformed with the best bitin seasons. I always restricted corn plantin down to nothin to conform to the catfish season, restricted cotton plantin in perch season, restricted garden in the frog gigin season, and restricted wood cuttin to August when I didn't need no fire and there wasn't no use sweatin for nothin no way.

Some farmers may want to be turned loose to go up one row and down another till their suspenders busts, but I want you to know there is a lot of us who bitterly resents it.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Urges Cut In Travel

Stay off trains and inter-city busses over Labor Day weekend—this is the plea of Joseph B. Eastman, Director of the Office of Defense Transportation. Mr. Eastman, in asking the public to spend Labor Day weekend at home, said that failure to follow this advice might result in travel congestion worse than that experienced over the Fourth of July weekend. Mr. Eastman pointed out that transportation equipment formerly available for holiday travel is now in troop service or used to handle the greatly expanded military and essential civilian traffic.

Jobs Guide Father-Draft

After October 1, when drafting of fathers begins, those in non-deferable activities or occupations, regardless of their order numbers, will be the first fathers called for military service. Those who transfer to essential occupations and thus release single men for military service help to decrease the need for drafting fathers. Generally speaking, after October 1, the occupation of an eligible registrant will determine whether he will be inducted or deferred if his number is called. However, the question of hardship to dependents must be given consideration in each case.

Mail Christmas Gifts Early

Christmas gifts to naval and marine personnel overseas should be sent between September 15 and November 1. This period has been designated by the Navy Department in cooperation with the Post Office Department.

Parcels must not exceed five pounds in weight.

Save All Fats

With millions of pounds of waste kitchen fats still needed to meet war demands, Paul C. Cabot, Director of WPB Salvage Division, recently urged housewives to remember that even if accumulated fats become rancid, they still retain a majority of the valuable glycerine that goes into war production. Some housewives, believing that rancid fats are valueless, have not been turning them in for salvage. This has resulted in the loss of thousands of pounds of glycerine that could have been processed from those fats.

Army Salvages Fats

It is estimated that enough waste fats are salvaged in army camps within the continental U. S. to make 1,500,000 pounds of dynamite each month and still leave a residue of rendered grease from which 5,000,000 pounds of soap stock may be made.

New Gasoline Coupons

Car owners who still hold the old type "B" and "C" gasoline ration coupon books should exchange them for the new mileage ration sheets of coupons between August 23 and September 1, OPA announced recently. Old type "B" and "C" coupons become invalid September 1, and gasoline dealers cannot accept them on and after that date. The old type coupons are identified by the words "Permits Delivery of One Unit of Gasoline." The new type say "Mileage Ration" plus a large "B" or "C."

Address Mail Properly

Because more than 10 per cent of the mail destined for overseas is incorrectly or insufficiently addressed, the War Department has asked that the sender be sure to give the soldiers' rank, name, army serial number, organization and army post office number. Following is a model address—

Pvt. John Doe, ASN 1234567890, Battery B, 227th Field Artillery Battalion APO 29, C/O The Postmaster, New York, N. Y.

The War Department also asked that families and friends of soldiers send clippings instead of periodicals whenever possible to save cargo space.

Farmers Will Need Help

Harvesting America's wartime food and fiber crops will require the employment of at least 750,000 more persons on farms by October 1. The farm labor force on August 1, was approximately 11 million. Throughout the country, business men, girl scouts, boy scouts, townspeople, women, and high school students have been helping farmers. To insure that there will be no important crop losses because of labor shortage, farmers will need the help of many thousands of U. S. Crop Corps volunteers. The Crop Corps is established now in most agricultural counties and civilian groups in most large cities have the machinery for enlisting volunteers. Recruitment of workers is handled locally by the agricultural extension workers and the U. S. Employment Service. Volunteers are paid established wages.

Growing So Fast

Little girls have a way of growing so fast that they often have dresses that are very good, and very pretty—but too small. In times like these, such dresses should not be discarded. Why not open them at the seams, and insert bands of crochet to make them bigger? The tops may be cut down, too, and the result will be an attractive pinafore style.

They demand plenty of freedom, so they may kick to their hearts' content—developing sturdy muscles all the while. They know it is easier for Mother, too, not to have so many different items to keep clean. So they are all for this shirt and pantie set made of soft, fine wool.

Sergeant and Mrs. Clarence Joe Payne of Tanker Field, Oklahoma City, Okla., visited his sisters and their families, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Tollett and sons Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Stephens and children last week. Sergeant Payne has been stationed at Tanker Field since he entered the Air Forces in April. At the time he entered the armed services he was employed in defense work in California, but he formerly lived in the Marella community. He is better known here as Joe Payne.

A note from Bloomington, California, told that Pfc. F. E. Moore of this county, stationed at Camp Idus, near Needles, Calif., spent a three-day furlough from August 12 through 14, with the Delvin Cooper family of that place. The Coopers are former residents. Accompanying Pfc. Moore was a buddy, R. Z. Moore.

Technical Sergeant L. A. Gilmore has added a stripe to his sleeve every month for the last three months, his father-in-law, J. W. Martin, reported last week. Gilmore is stationed at Alliance, Neb., as a glider mechanic. He told relatives here recently that he liked gliders better all the time.

J. W. Martin has reported that his son, J. W. Martin, Jr., is now with the Army in England. He wrote his parents recently that he hoped to be home in a year.

Another son, Sgt. Roy Martin, is stationed at the War Prisoners Camp at Mexia.

Mr. Curry has been with the civil service in San Antonio doing aircraft radio work and will continue this type of work in the Air Signal Corps. He has just completed a special course in Philadelphia. After his induction at Fort Sill he will be sent to New Orleans.

Mrs. Donald Curry will remain here.

Robert Lewis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Lewis, volunteered for service in the United States Navy and entered service at Lubbock August 5. From Lubbock Lewis was sent to San Diego, California, for three weeks of basic training. He writes his parents that he is really busy learning the ways of the Navy. Robert graduated from Wellington High School in 1942 and has had one year and one summer of college training at Texas Tech, Lubbock.

Tech. Sgt. and Mrs. Alex Rodriguez of Childress spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Winfred Payne. Mrs. Rodriguez is the former Miss Ruth Gholson.

Pfc. Harley (Billy) Hatch of Fort Knox, Ky., arrived last Thursday night to spend a 12-day furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Hatch, and brother, Tim. Billy entered the Army February 19. He was sent to Fort Knox, along with several other boys from Collingsworth County, and there was placed in the Tank Corps. The last three months have been spent at El Paso, where he has been taking a surgical technician course. Having successfully completed this course, he was sent back to Fort Knox, to await further orders.

Billy graduated from Wellington High School in 1941 and attended Texas Tech last year. He says that he is mighty glad to be home.

Cadet Conrad Melton left Saturday after spending the past ten days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Melton, and sister, Miss Claudine Melton. Conrad has just finished his primary training for the Naval Air Forces at Edmond, Okla. He reported to Dallas and from there was sent to Del Monte, Calif., where he will receive his pre-flight training.

INVEST IN AMERICA!

REDDY KILOWATT
Buy War Bonds and Stamps!

TRAINING, EXPERIENCE, POWER... these will put him in Hitler's backyard!

Without training and experience, you'd hardly expect American paratroopers to drop in on Hitler. Without the proper weapons and equipment, you'd hardly expect them to survive such a visit.

So when the BIG day arrives, we'll all feel that we had a hand in their triumph—fighters, farmers, war bond buyers, industry... all who are helping them get the training and experience they need.

It is the training and experience of the men and women in this organization which has enabled us to help prepare our soldiers for the trip to Berlin. West Texas' ample supply of electric power didn't just happen.

No Aladdin simply pulled it out of a hat. No bureaucrat said "Let there be power!"

Electric power is basic and essential in abundance in America's wartime plants because trained and experienced business men and women are back of it, making it their business to see that Uncle Sam has plenty of power wherever and whenever needed.

This they've succeeded in doing. Electric power is driving the machines that make planes, guns, ships, tanks, and bullets... lighting the plants that work around the clock.

They've succeeded without rationing your usage. Or increasing the cost.

You still merely flick a switch. And the average West Texas home today gets twice—or three times—as much electric service for about the same money as 10 or 15 years ago!

Meet Your Farm Goals

Dear Deck:

Just thought I would drop you a few lines telling how much I enjoyed my mother and sister visiting me, and the nice part was I accompanied my mother to Memphis, Tenn. On my way to Memphis on the train, I met up with four of my friends from Quail that I went to school with. They were from Fort Knox. While my mother and sister were here, we also spent one Saturday night at the Grand Old Opera in Nashville, Tenn.

I noticed your short piece in the Wellington Leader, but I am a corporal instead of a P.F.C. My mother sends me the Wellington Leader and I certainly enjoy it.

As ever,

Treating Cancer Is Discussed

AUSTIN.—A steady increase of deaths in Texas from all forms of cancer is disclosed by the fact that over 45,000 persons have died from this dreaded disease within the last 10 years, according to Dr. Geo. B. Cox, State Health Officer.

"The public should be warned against cancer 'quacks' and so-called cancer cures," Dr. Cox said. "Advertising of medicines and so-called cancer doctors puts dangerous misinformation before the public. Undoubtedly," Dr. Cox declared, "there are many persons who being thus delayed in seeking proper medical advice, unnecessarily lose their lives to this disease."

According to the State Health Officer there are two recognized scientific ways of treating cancer; namely, surgery and the use of radium and X-ray. Treatment must be started early and be carried out by a competent surgeon. In almost two-thirds of the cases, surgery is relied upon to remove cancerous growths, while X-ray or radium is used to good advantage in approximately one-third of the cases successfully treated. Frequently the two methods are combined.

"The greatest defense against death by cancer is early diagnosis," Dr. Cox stated. "Every case is an acute emergency demanding instant attention, and it is unfortunate that so many persons suffering from cancer do not seek medical advice until beyond possibility of cure."

Dr. Cox pointed out that any unusual bleeding from any body cavity, any lump in the breast, or any surface sores, especially on the face and mouth, changed appearance of any wart or mole, and even chronic indigestion may be symptoms denoting the presence of cancer.

"Where cancer is suspected, do not delay but consult your physician at once," Dr. Cox advised. "Self-medication, serums, colored lights, pastes, salves, and diets are absolutely worthless in the treatment of cancer."

Mrs. Hutch Adams of Big Spring left the first of the week after visiting in the home of her father, Misha Dukeminier. Mrs. Adams will go to Albuquerque, New Mexico, to make her home after a visit in Amarillo with relatives.

Adventures of THE TOTTIES

(READ THE STORY, THEN COLOR THE PICTURE)

The pony lifted Duncy high, until the lad cried, "Me, oh my! Please let me down. I don't like this. What have I done to you?"

"It may bring smiles to everyone, but, as for me, it's not much fun. I've had a lot of crazy rides, but this is something new."

The pony snorted. Then it ran. "Hey, try to catch him if you can," yelled Scouty. "He may try to take poor Duncy far away."

"Let's try a vine that's nice and long. One that will coil up and be strong. I'll try and pull a lasso stunt. What do you Totties say?"

"O, great!" said Dotty. "Here is a vine that I believe will work out fine. Come, help me pull it off the ground. We'll jerk until it's loose."

"I want to see brave Scouty's trick. I understand he's pretty slick at lassoing." It wasn't long till Scouty made a noose.

Then through the air the lasso flew and Goldy cried, "Goodbye to you, you crazy acting pony! Scouty's going to make you stop!"

The lassoing worked out just right. The beast was caught and held real tight. Duncy was quite startled when the pony let him drop.

HE jumped up to his feet and said, "Now I suggest we let our hound jump on the beast and ride around."

"A grand idea," all the bunch heard little Goldy yell.

"Behave or you will get a whack. This dog will sit upon your back," said Windy to the pony. Then the dog was put in place.

"Now, run," cried Coppy. "Our fine hound, I'm sure, can hang on safe and sound."

"O, great!" said Dotty. "Here is a vine that I believe will work out fine. Come, help me pull it off the ground. We'll jerk until it's loose."

"I want to see brave Scouty's trick. I understand he's pretty slick at lassoing." It wasn't long till Scouty made a noose.

Then through the air the lasso flew and Goldy cried, "Goodbye to you, you crazy acting pony! Scouty's going to make you stop!"

The lassoing worked out just right. The beast was caught and held real tight. Duncy was quite startled when the pony let him drop.

(The pony pulls another trick in the next story.)

Farmers Should List Compliance

All farmers who have not reported compliance with the 1943 AAA programs were urged this week to do so as early as possible. Approximately 400 farms have not yet been reported, Millard Brown of the AAA office said.

All government payments and loan provisions for the 1943 program depend on the report of performance, he pointed out.

RATTLESNAKE RECORD Brashear Kills 40 Snakes In Season

If a title of rattlesnake king were offered here, undoubtedly it would go to W. E. Brashears of the Aberdeen community.

His latest kill, made with Elmer Smith of the same community, was the largest—a family of 26 snakes.

The snakes, two old ones and twenty-four young, were drowned and twisted out of a prairie dog hole only about one-half mile from the Brashear home. The large snakes each had eight rattles and a button.

With these, Mr. Brashears has killed a total of 40 rattlesnakes on his ranch this year.

She stated that she and the family feel much better about Mr. Capps since receiving this letter. She added that if he had survived imprisonment for a little more than a year and had gained weight, she feels he has become adjusted.

Mr. Capps was a civilian employee at Wake Island when it was captured by the Japanese in December 1941.

This is the second letter his parents have received from him since he has been a prisoner of war. The first stated that he was doing garden work and learning the Japanese language.

LEWIS BROTHERS

SAY WHAT YOU THINK!

In Germany, Japan, and Italy you can not say what you think—you never could. In dictator countries, to speak the simple truth is often the speaker's own death sentence. And if the Axis wins this war, freedom of speech will remain in memory only, in these United States of America.

Sam, Gabe, and Henry are talking county politics down at the corner store tonight. How American that is, and how close to our hearts, as Americans, is the freedom, the thrilling sense of liberty it represents!

In America, freedom of speech, the right to say what you think, is one of the things that has made our country great. We cherish it, would fight and die for it.

Yes, freedom of speech is one of the first principles of the American way. It is like freedom of the press, freedom of religion, freedom of initiative, and freedom from want and fear. Anything else is unthinkable.

Listen to them: "Why, I wouldn't vote for them fellas," says Gabe... Speak your mind, Gabe... and you, Henry... and you, Sam. This is America!
