First 1968 Cotton Ginned Saturday

Mrs. C. E. (Hank) Hightower of Dodson ginned the first bale of cotton of the 1968 season Saturday night, Sept. 28.

This opens a harvest that in much of the county will be considerably better than last year.

Mrs. Hightower had 2,000 pounds of seed cotton and got a 520-pound bale, according to Grover Graham of the Davis Gin, which ginned the cotton.

The bale, hand pulled, came off approximately three acres, and Graham estimated it would grade middling with a staple of 1-1/16 inch or better.

The cotton was of the 4789 Lockett variety, was planted early and did not have to be replanted. It is just off the Dodson town section.

As a courtesy, the first bale will be ginned free, Mr. Graham said.

Mrs. Hightower, the former Mrs. Vey Wynn, was a partner in the Davis Gin for many years, and has approximately 23 years experience in the ginning business.

"But I've never had the first bale before," she commented.

Mrs. Hightower added that she would like to hand-pull some more cotton, as would other growers whose bottom crop is opening fast, but no hands are available in the Dodson area.

She said that Mrs. Coronado and her six small children pulled 1500 pounds of the first bale "and the Hightowers pulled the rest."

The cotton crop in the Dodson trade area may be up one-third more than last year, Mr. Graham said.

There is a large acreage that should yield more than a bale per acre, with the dry land cotton as good as that which was irrigated, he said. The dry land cotton in the tight land will be yielding a bale or more, he continued.

One Diapause Weevil Spray May Be Had

Enough money is left in the Diapause Boll Weevil Control fund to spray one more time if the cotton growers believe they need it.

This announcement came from L. A. Davis, an officer of the Collingsworth County Boll Weevil Control Association.

"We must have as much as 1,000 acres to spray, and if the buildup of weevil is enough, I think it would sure help," Mr. Davis declared.

Under this program, the grower and the state agriculture department share spraying cost 50-50.

"If the average man goes out and can find a grown boll weevil in the bloom and around the squares pretty often, I'd say he has buildup enough to spray," he explained.

A late spraying will not only help protect next year's cotton crop, it will also protect the small bolls on this year's crop by keeping the weevil grubs out.

Farmers wishing to have their cotton sprayed again should contact the Diapause Spraying office in the administration building at Marian Airpark, or contact Mr. Davis by phoning 447-2389, or Raymond Cearley at Dodson, phone 493-2601, or nights 493-2061.

FTA Plans Pre-Game Pot Luck Supper

A pot-luck supper will be held Friday evening, Oct. 4, in the school cafeteria, under the sponsorship of the Future Teachers Chapter of Wellington High School.

This is a pre-football game event, and supper will be served from 5 to 7 p.m.

Word was sent to Iowa Park of the supper, and a number of fans of that football team are expected to attend.

There will be a variety of meats, vegetables, salads and desserts, so that anyone attending can find something to suit his taste, said Mrs. Billy R. Long, one of the FTA sponsors.

Tickets will be in three price brackets, for children, students 12 years through high school, and adults.

Other FTA sponsors who are working on the supper, are Ralph Word and Charles Floyd.

This is a fund-raising event, and chapter members plan to set up a permanent scholarship fund, from which a senior planning to enter the teaching profession, will be awarded a scholarship, Mrs. Long explained.

Quail Covey Comes to City

The quail think Wellington is a friendly city, too.

Mrs. Frank Ford reports that about noon Wednesday, Sept. 25, she looked in her back yard and saw a covey of quail that numbered at least 35. They stayed for a while then flew away to the south and east.

"The whole back yard was full," she said.

Other residents of the neighborhood reported that during the afternoon they heard birds that apparently were separated calling to the flock.

Mrs. Ford said she also had a red fox squirrel in her yard a couple of days before the quail arrive

Brown Named Ag Teacher at Norwood

Jimmy Brown, who holds bachelor's and master's degrees from Texas Tech, was elected recently as vocational agriculture instructor at Samnorwood High School, Supt. Robert Dwight announced.

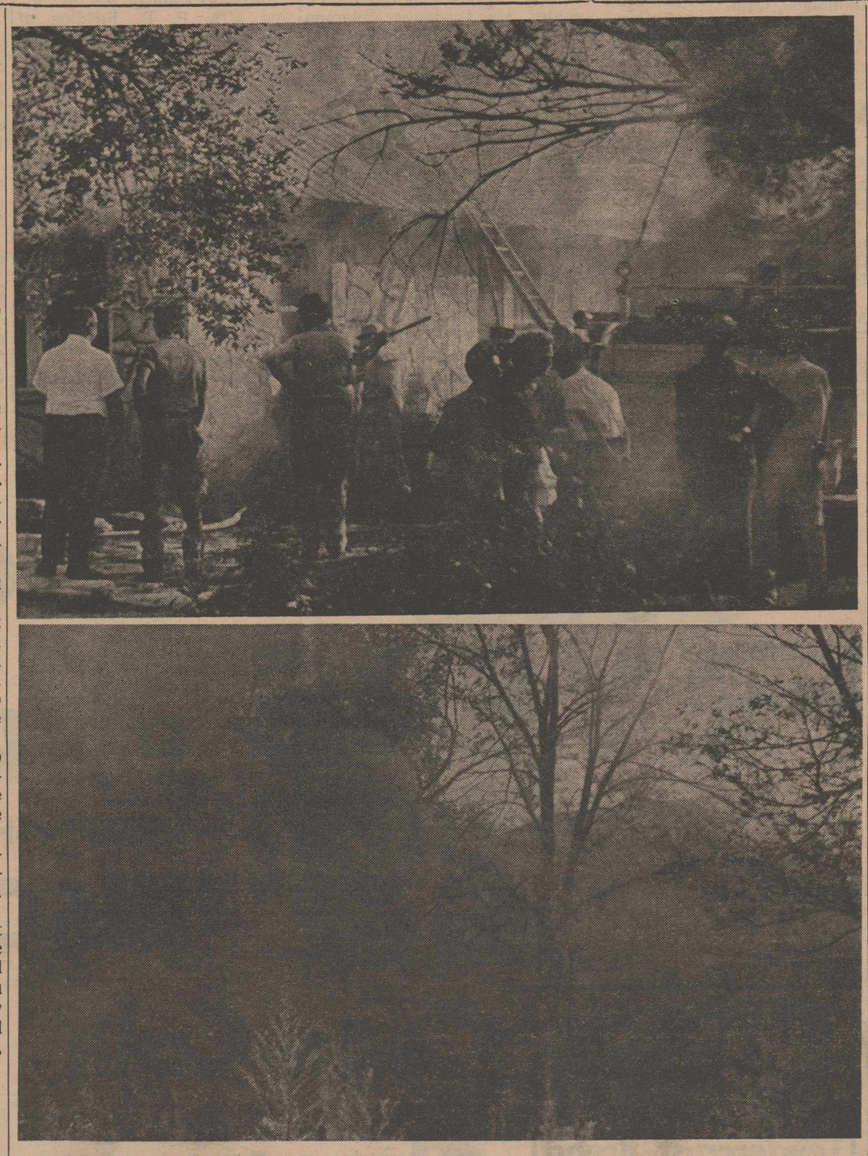

He succeeds John Dwyer, veteran ag instructor, who resigned due to ill health.

Reared at Wellington, Brown is the son of Mrs. Lena Mae Underdown and grandson of Mrs. Dodson Janes.

Since Sept. 1, 1967, he had been research associate in the range management department at Texas Tech, working on a brush control program.

As a member of the Tech range plant identification team in national competition at Las Vegas, Nev., Brown was second high individual in the contest, while his team won first. The following year at New Orleans, both Brown and the team came in first, and the third year at Seattle, Wash., the team was first while Brown and another member tied for individual high honors.

A graduate of Wellington High School in 1961, he took his BS degree in range management and the MS degree in range science.

FIRE THAT TOOK FOUR LIVES

Neighbors stood helplessly at the Cecil Duke home Monday morning, Sept. 30, as Wellington Volunteer Firemen went in the burning house time after time to bring out the bodies of four young children who perished, then went back more times to be sure that no other child was still inside. Below, smoke billowed out the windows on the north side of the house, but the search itself was on the opposite side.

J. L. Dollar Dies After Long Illness

John L. Dollar, 80, a retired Quail farmer and resident of the county 60 years until he moved to Amarillo two months ago, died in St. Anthony's Hospital there at 4 p.m. Saturday, Sept. 28.

His death followed a long illness.

During the years he was engaged in farming, and while his family was growing up, Mr. Dollar took an active interest in the affairs of the Quail area. He and Mrs. Dollar moved into Quail after his health failed.

Mr. Dollar was born June 20, 1888, at Kennedy, Ala., and he came with his parents to East Texas while still young. He lived at Paris before coming to Collingsworth County.

On Sept. 19, 1920, he was

Iowa Park Ready

Toughest Foe Comes to Rocketland Friday

Wellington Skyrockets meet their toughest foe of the season, the Iowa Park Hawks, Friday night, Oct. 4. Game time is 8 p.m.

The Rockets will have the familiar turf of Powell Field under their feet. But Iowa Park comes here fresh from a 16-15 victory over Hirschi of Wichita Falls, a strong Class AAA school.

Iowa Park is rated by everyone who issues ratings as one of the top ball clubs in Class AA in all of Texas.

Of their victory over Hirschi, Wichita Falls Record News Sports Editor Ted Buss wrote:

"With one swipe at the ball, Iowa Park's James Eke literally kicked the life out of the gallant Hirschi defense in Coyote Stadium Friday night.

"A magnificent defense struggle ended as 9,000 fans stood to watch Eke pound the ball through the uprights for a 23-yard field goal through the state-ranked Hawks a come-from-behind 16-15 victory in the bitter rivalry."

Eke also accounted for another of Iowa Park's scores on an 80-yard run, and kicked the extra point after Steve Barry had scored from four yards out.

But the Hawks are not a one-man team. In Jim Clapp, Iowa Park has one of the finer quarterbacks of the district, and French is regarded by Wellington coaches as an outstanding lineman.

"They are well balanced, have a good passing attack, a good running attack and a fine defense," said Rocket Head Coach Thayne Amonett. "They have what it takes to be a good ball club."

Turning to the Rockets, the coach said:

"We hope we can bounce back from Gruver and give Iowa Park a run for their money.

"We had several sick Friday, but we're not making any excuses. I felt we did not play the ball we are capable of playing against Gruver. At times our ball club looked real good, but other times we made those mistakes that cost us dearly."

Mrs. Duke and two children were burned and hospitalized at St. Joseph's Hospital. One child escaped injury and two others were in school.

Dead on arrival at the hospital were Johnny Lee Duke, four years and nine months; Sherrie Ann Duke, two years and nine months; Sheryl Renee Duke, 21 months; and Donnie Dean Duke, eight months.

Funeral for Duke Children Held Wednesday

Funeral services were conducted at 2 p.m. Wednesday, Oct. 2, for the four small children of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Duke, who died in a fire at their home Monday, Sept. 30.

They were Johnny Lee, four years and nine months; Sherry Ann, two years and nine months; Sheryl Renee, 21 months; and Donnie Dean, eight months.

The services were at First Baptist Church, with the Rev. Leroy Gaston, pastor, officiating. Burial was in Fairview Cemetery, under the direction of Kelso Funeral Home.

All of the children were born in Wellington and had lived here all of their lives.

Survivors include the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Duke, two sisters and three brothers.

Johnny, Sheryl and Donnie are each survived by a twin, Ronny Allen, Daryl Ray and Lonnie Lynn. The surviving sisters are Jacqueline Sue and Glenda Kay.

Other survivors are the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Duke of Wellington and Mrs. Earl G. Crawford of Amarillo; and a great grandmother, Mrs. Mildred Lasley of Springfield, Colo.

Of the three sets of twins in the large family, one child of each set died.

Firemen received the call at about 10:05 a.m., and Chief J. B. Oney, first to arrive, said the fire had spread throughout the house by that time.

Fire Department members removed all but one of the children from the burning building and they were taken to the hospital by Kelso Ambulance and Police Chief Donald Nunnelley.

There was considerable blaze when firemen arrived, but smoke continued to hamper the firemen's work after the blaze was put out.

An investigation was conducted Monday afternoon by Police Chief Nunnelley, who is Fire Marshal, Chief Oney, Harold Gattis, and Glen Norman of Lone Star Gas Company, and Troy Marsh, former fire marshal.

Their findings, reported by Police Chief Nunnelley, were that it looks like an aluminum coffee pot on the stove boiled over and put out the fire in the burner beneath it.

"It could have been the heat from the aluminum or it could have been the hot water heater in the bath room caused the escaping gas to ignite. The gas leak kept feeding the fire. When Harold Gattis arrived and turned off the gas, he turned off the source of the fuel," Mr. Nunnelley said.

Those conducting the investigation do not believe there was an explosion.

It is doubtful if anything in the house can be salvaged, said Fire Chief Oney and Mr. Nunnelley.

The house, rock walls with metal roof, is owned by George Aaron of Dallas, and damage will amount to several thousand dollars, according to estimates.

Wallpaper was burned off in all rooms and floors were damaged, firemen report. Walls in the kitchen, bath and hall were charred, according to Mr. Nunnelley.

Three members of the fire department required medical attention after the blaze: Chief Oney, Leon Hartman and W. T. McAdams.

W. E. Brewster, Retired Farmer, Grocer, Dies

W. E. Brewster, a retired farmer and groceryman, died at a nursing home in Childress at 9:45 a.m. Friday, Sept. 27. He was 78 and had been in failing health several years.

Mr. Brewster came to this area 42 years ago, and for many years he farmed in the Kelley community. Later he operated the store at Arlie, then in 1951, he and Mrs. Brewster moved to Wellington. For several years they owned and operated a grocery at the southwest corner of town.

He had been retired since his health began to fail.

Wherever he lived, Mr. Brewster took an active interest in his community. At Kelley, he was a member of the school board, and was active in the Methodist Church. Later, he was a member of the Methodist Church at Dodson and Wellington.

He also was a member of the Masonic Lodge.

Born April 16, 1890 at Davis, Okla., William Elmer Brewster was the son of William and

Rockets Drop Game to Gruver 20-6

By JACK FORD

The Wellington Skyrockets came out on the short end of the score with the Gruver Greyhounds, 20 to 6, at Gruver Friday night, Sept. 27. This was the first loss of the 1968 season for the Rockets. An estimated 1500 fans saw the game, and watched the Rockets, many who became sick during the day Friday, move the ball well against the Greyhounds. They got drives going and penetrated deep into the Greyhounds' end of the field, once to the 6 yard line, but the Rockets just couldn't push the ball across.

The Rockets, led by Charles Mauldin, Ricky Brown, Nicky Watts, Andy Lowe, Teddy Martin, Jimmy Bohannon, Mark Killian, James Jones, Ricky Nall, Teddy McLain, Jerry Wooldridge, Chuck Wilbur and Danny West, were able to make a game of it, but the illness finally helped stop them. They had an 85-yard touchdown run called back because of an infraction of the rules, but it gave the Rocket fans a real thrill early in the game. The Rockets stood up good for most of the game, but they had some bad breaks that set them back and hurt their offense and defense.

It was early in the second quarter before any scoring was done by either team. The first quarter was one when neither team made any penetrations, playing most of the time on the Greyhound end of the field. It was a game of position. But the second quarter was a different game altogether.

The Greyhounds, not being able to move the football were forced to punt, and the bouncing ball touched a Rocket and the Greyhounds recovered the ball on the Greyhound 46. This recovery was the spark the Greyhounds seemed to need to get rolling. They ran and passed all the way into the Rocket end zone for their first touchdown. The try for extra point was good. Greyhounds 7, Rockets 0.

Six plays later the Greyhounds took off again on another drive. Putting the ball in play on their own 45, with the help of a 30-yard pass, they went into the end zone again for another touchdown. The try for extra point was good. Greyhounds 14, Rockets 0 at the half.

The Rockets finally scored late in the third quarter. Putting the ball in play on their own 25 yard line, the Rockets, led by C. Mauldin, N. Watts and A. Lowe ran and passed to the Greyhound 30. Then A. Lowe, following his blockers, plowed his way into the end zone for the only Rocket touchdown. The try for extra point failed.

The Greyhounds came right back to score again. Putting the ball in play on their own 11, one of the Greyhounds took off, followed by his blockers, and ran for an 89-yard touchdown. The try for extra point failed. Twenty plays later the game ended. Greyhounds 20, Rockets 6.

This Friday night, Oct. 4 at 8 p.m. at Powell Field here in Wellington, the Rockets open their district play against the strong Iowa Park Hawks, the team picked to win this district. The Rockets will really be the underdogs in this game, and will have to play their best if they overcome this strong team. The Rockets will need all the help and backing for this game that we fans can give them, so if you can, let's all get out to Powell Field and cheer our Rockets on.

There are six pretty girls competing for her crown. Lions District Governor Milton E. Laurie of Kress will crown the incoming queen.

Federated Club Scholarship Given Phillips College Student

Mrs. Guy Crawford, past-president of the Top of Texas District of the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs presented an Art Scholarship to Miss Janie Esley, sophomore art major at Frank Phillips College, Borger.

At the annual meeting of the Top of Texas District held in Borger in March of 1968, Mrs. Seay stated that "the Top of Texas District had never received a scholarship and it was her pleasure to personally present it to Mrs. Crawford, who would finally have the pleasure of presenting an Art scholarship to the Top of Texas District."

Marian Airpark Grows in Value to Wellington

Unless one has an errand at Marian Pirpark, he is not likely to realize the amount of activity based there, nor the economic value of this facility to Wellington.

For one thing, it offers the only passenger transportation out of here. Private vehicle is the only other way.

It is also the home field of agricultural operations whose total is large, as well as being the point of origin for the diapause cotton spraying now in the final stage.

The new surfaced, all-weather runway, along with the new terminal building, is in part responsible. It accommodates twin engine craft with ease, and pilots who formerly were hesitant to set down their planes on the dirt runways for fear of damaging delicate instruments, welcome the opportunity to land here.

If you have not been to Marion Airpark recently, we urge you to go out and see what takes place.

OTHER EDITORS SAY . . .

What About It, Citizens

Practically the constant talk of the President for a law to take guns away from peaceful citizens is the surest kind of policy to make crime. No gun control law ever disarmed a criminal; they know how to get guns.

The mayor of New York boasts of his gun law with a license of $3 for having a gun in the home. He wishes to make the license $25. Next he will move it up to say one thousand dollars, will make it almost certain that only the criminal will have guns.

A license means that every criminal will be able to know if the peaceful citizen has a gun in his home so the criminal will know if he may safely smash the window or door and enter.

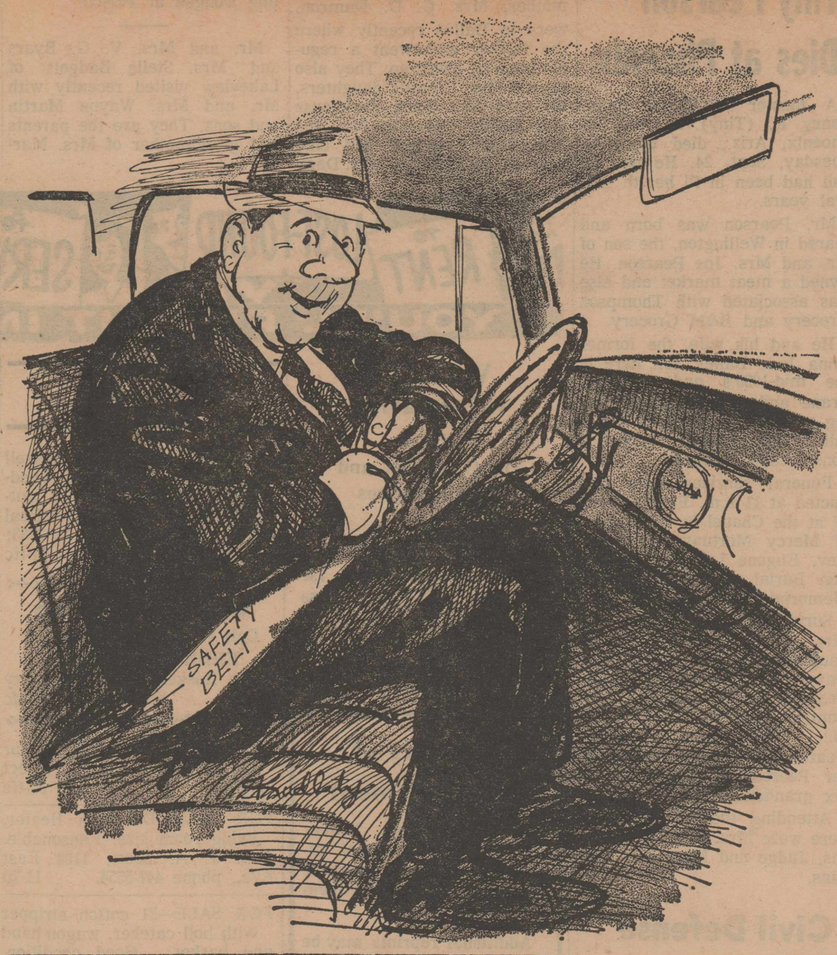

Of all the foolish folly the one that a license will hinder criminals from getting a gun is most absurb.

If every peaceful citizen had a gun in his home and knew how to use it there would be much fewer house break-ins. —Forsyth (Mo.) Republican

STATE Capital NEWS

BY VERN SANFORD

AUSTIN.— Presidential Campaign 1968 is starting to roll full speed in Texas.

Democrat Hubert Humphrey's official state organization — a political patchwork of two committees representing varying factions — was formed just six weeks before the Nov. 5 election.

Former State Democratic Chairman Will Davis of Austin and Congressman Jim Wright of Fort Worth head Texas Democrats for Humphrey-Muskie.

Cecil Burney of Corpus Christi is executive director and National Democratic Committee man Robert Strauss of Dallas is finance chairman.

At its initial meeting in Fort Worth, the group — made up predominantly of Gov. John Connally's friends — declared the election is yet to be won, and Humphrey has a chance of carrying the state.

U.S. Sen. Ralph Yarborough, leader of Texas liberals, heads a separate Texas Citizens for Humphrey-Muskie, and has formed a 137-member executive committee which met here Monday. Yarborough will work with traditional Democrats, ethnic minorities, independents, Republicans and "former supporters of Sen. Eugene McCarthy, Sen. George McGovern, Gov. Nelson Rockefeller and of the late Sen. Robert F. Kennedy".

Republican candidate Richard Nixon and American Party candidate George Wallace have had the benefit of months of spadework on behalf of their election efforts.

A recent Texas poll calculated Nixon and Humphrey are running close together (with about a third of the state's votes each) and Wallace is third with a fourth of the votes. Nixon was seen as having "the best potential for carrying the state." Most observers regarded that as an understatement as of now, although Humphrey's campaign could change the picture dramatically during the next five weeks.

Opinions vary widely as to Wallace's effect on the outcome of the hard-fought state contest. Democrats claim presence of the former Alabama governor on the ballot is hurting Nixon most. Wallace campaign leaders say they are cutting more deeply into traditional Democratic votes that normally would go to Humphrey. Nixon's Texas campaign director, John Hurd of Laredo, sizes up the Wallace candidacy as having "equal impact" on Nixon and Humphrey.

Both the GOP and organized labor (backing Humphrey) are mounting special campaigns aimed at winning back from Wallace votes for Nixon and Humphrey. Success of these efforts might spell the difference on Nov. 5.

University of the North

Staff of the higher-education Coordinating Board has recommended "a multi-campus urban university" for the Dallas-Fort Worth-Denton area to include—at first—North Texas State University, Texas Woman's University and the University of Texas at Arlington.

These schools would be put under a new board of regents for the area and would be joined in a system later by other state-supported colleges and schools to form a university system designed specifically for the area.

Board itself will hold a hearing on the proposal Oct. 11, along with UT's own plan for uniting some of its institutions in the area.

Homestead Change Urged

Constitutional Revision Commission has suggested tightening the homestead debt exemptions following a member's charge that the present basis state law provides a "haven for swindlers".

In its semi-final meeting, the panel agreed to a ceiling on a homestead exemption from foreclosure for debt should be limited to $25,000. Present constitution provides exemption for rural homesteads of up to 200 acres and urban homesteads (of any value) on lots of up to $5,000 maximum valuation.

Park Bonds Sold

First $5.75 million of a $75 million parks improvement bond issue has been sold at favorable interest rate.

Lehman Brothers and Associates of New York headed an investment syndicate which submitted 3.5846 percent net interest rate bid, lowest of 16. American National Bank of Austin was selected paying agent for the bonds.

Initial developments are expected to be a 120-mile range of the state's population centers. A $1 per car entrance fee at 30 existing parks and 50 cents per car charge at six others will pay off the bonds.

Junior College Plans

Texas' 40 public junior colleges have been given a new and expanded role in the state's educational processes, and now they're going back to the state for help in paying for it.

Long-range master plan of the Coordinating Board, Texas College and University System, says junior colleges should concentrate on (1) preparing some students for transfer to senior colleges and universities for their last two years, (2) setting up badly needed technical and vocational programs and (3) continuing education and cultural and public-service programs.

Now, junior colleges get state aid in two forms — a line-item appropriation for each school for direct academic instructional costs ($26,530,325 this year) plus another $6,476,000 distributed by the Texas Education Agency for technical-vocational programs.

For the two-year period beginning Sept. 1, 1969, the junior colleges are asking a strong increase in the first figure — $35,490,803 in 1970 and $37,577,190 for 1971 — and a change along with an increase in the second.

They want their vocational-technical money allocated via a line item — the same as the academic figure is computed — and increased to $15,025,375 for fiscal 1970 and $18,292,142 for 1971.

Anti-Pollution Exemption

Houston Rep. Rex Braun plans a one-man campaign against proposed Constitutional Amendment No. 6 to be voted on Nov. 5 to exempt from all property taxes pollution control equipment installed by industry.

Braun says the state should not subsidize the pollution-law breakers and, besides, other states have found that the exemption only costs money and does not encourage the installation of anti-pollution equipment.

CROSSROADS REPORT

Dear Editor:

My understanding neighbor says he can sympathize with all concerned in the hassle over confirmation of Judge Abe Fortas as Chief of the Supreme Court.

Especially Chief Justice Warren, who resigned on the condition that the Senate approve a man picked by President LBJ and himself to carry on his social expurgation crusade.

After all, great peoplewardens always worry about how in the world society can get along without them, and if they can't chose their own successors, they are likely to hesitate to resign or die.

Number of Farms Drops 23 Percent in Seven Years

From 1960-67, the number of farms in the U.S. declined 23%. But, while those with less than $2,500 annual sales declined by 27%, those in the $2,500 to $4,999 sales category declined 42% and those in the $5,000 to $9,999 declined 32% during the period; those with farm sales of $10,000 to $20,000 decreased only 1%. And those with farm sales of $20,000 to $40,000 increased by 40% and those with sales over $40,000 rose by 62%.

The USDA report said farms in the largest three categories accounted for only 31.5% of all farms in 1967, but they accounted for 85.1% of cash receipts from farming, more than 75% of the realized net income from farming.

GM MARK OF EXCELLENCE

Putting-you-firsts:

(A quick tour of some of the thoughtful new features the 1969 Chevrolets offer that other cars in Chevrolet's field don't.)

Headlight washers

You push the windshield washer knob and hold it, and your headlights come clean.

Fluid is diverted to two jet nozzles at each light lens. (Outer lights only on duals.)

The spray removes up to 80% of accumulated dirt.

The feature is standard on 1969 Corvettes. It comes with the hidden headlights available on Camaro, Caprice and Kingswood Estate Wagons. It is available on all other models except Corvair.

Heated glass

In a moment your rear window will self-defrost.

Because we've built onto it a network of tiny ceramic strips capable of heating the entire surface.

Fog and frost disappear quickly and quietly. You just flick a switch.

The heated rear window is available on the 1969 Caprice Coupe and Impala Custom Coupe.

Pushbutton tire chains

You press a button on the instrument panel and the rear tires get a shot of "liquid tire chain."

You spin your wheels once, wait a moment, and you're off—with traction you wouldn't believe possible on slick ice, or packed snow.

Available on all 1969 big Chevrolets.

Steering wheel lock

When you own a car as desirable as the 1969 Chevrolet, you don't take chances.

When you leave it, you lock it.

Not just the doors.

You lock the ignition, steering wheel and transmission lever, too.

Our new lock on the steering column takes care of all that.

Standard on all 1969 Chevrolets, Chevelles, Chevy Novas, Camaros and Corvettes.

Sorry, car thieves.

Power steering plus

The 1969 Caprice, Impala and Camaro are available with a new type of power steering.

Variable-ratio power steering.

What it does is give you faster steering with fewer turns of the wheel.

Variable-ratio power steering is particularly helpful in short, full turns.

And parking becomes unbelievably easy. You'll see.

Walk-in wagons

The tailgate swings open like a door on most of our 1969 station wagons.

Which in itself is no big deal.

But wait, there's more.

We've built a concealed step into the rear bumper.

You simply step up, over, and in.

(The way we build our wagons, you can do it without bumping your head, and without acrobatics.)

3 Wellington Men Leave for Active Duty

Three men from Wellington's National Guard unit, the Mortar and Anti-Tank Platoon, left Tuesday, Oct. 1 for their six months active duty. A fourth had reported for active duty Sept. 9.

Going with the group Tuesday were two men from Borger and one from Amarillo.

Dan Hatch and Lynn Derryberry, along with Joe D. Holt of Borger, reported to the reception center at Fort Jackson, South Carolina.

James Roy Fulcher, with David S. Kritser of Amarillo and Jerry D. Shelton of Borger, went to Fort Benning, Ga.

After completing basic combat infantry training, Hatch, Derryberry and Holt will remain at Fort Jackson for advanced individual training in anti-tank weapons. Fulcher, Shelton and Kritser will take their basic training at Ft. Benning, then go to Fort McClellan, Ala., for forward observer training, Sgt. Valliant said.

James K. Rudy is taking his basic training at Fort Dix, N. J., and upon completing this, he will remain there for advanced mortar training.

Upon finishing their active duty, these men will remain in the National Guard for a total of six years to complete their military obligation.

Shelton is a Borger pharmacist, while Holt is a Texas Tech graduate. Kritser was a student at the University of Texas.

Of the Wellington men, Hatch, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hatch, attended West Texas State last year; Fulcher and Derryberry, whose parents are Albert Fulcher and Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Derryberry, were at H. C. Lewis School of Electronics in Oklahoma City; and Rudy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Rudy, was enrolled at Clarendon Junior College.

Philippines Offer Opportunity to Cattle Men With Know-How

(This is the second in a series of letters from Dee Coleman, District 1 director of the Texas Farm Bureau, who with Mrs. Coleman and other FB members is on a tour of the world.)

After leaving the wonderful city of Hong Kong, where we spent most of our money in the market places, we were two hours to Manila, Philippine Islands, visiting Corregidor and meeting with government officials in import and export while there. The country was more like our Texas state than any we had visited.

There are not many ranchers here, but plenty of grazing land, of which the Philippinos do not know the cattle business. This land needs cattlemen with know-how. This grazing land can be leased for a very low price per acre for 25 or 50 years. A good opportunity for some young Americans to establish themselves.

We visited the Philippine College of Agriculture and got acquainted with some of the farming methods.

Arrived in Bangkok with around two hours, 40 minutes flying time from Manila. We have seen most of the temples, Grand Palace, Temple of the Emerald Buddha, and others.

As you have realized, I am not interested too much in old buildings, gods, etc. However, I saw most of what they have to offer.

Friday, Sept. 20, I met and was in the home of the General Advisor of the Ministry of Industry at Bangkok, a very educated and inspiring man, and his family.

Tonight at 12:30 we catch the plane for New Delhi, India.

USEFUL FLOWER FACTS

Flowers are classified into two groups. They are the round shapes and the spear shapes.

The round group includes carnations, chrysanthemums, daisies, roses, tulips and zinnias.

The spear shaped group ingladioli, hollyhocks, snapdragons, delphinium and the like.

If you don't have time to take care of flowers as soon as received, place them in a pail of cold water and set them in a cool place. This will keep them fresh for several hours.

As soon as possible after receiving flowers, cut the stems slantwise. This permits increased water intake.

When flowers begin to wilt, reviving may be accomplished by laying them in a basin and submerging the stems completely.

Never choke flowers by crowding them into one container. Use two containers.

First Methodist Church Has Annual Dinner for Faculty, Board Members

The annual church-wide dinner for the Wellington school faculty and board members was held by First United Methodist Church Thursday evening, September 26.

A large bouquet of red poppies was used on the piano.

J. L. Harper, superintendent of the Wellington Schools, introduced the principals, who in turn introduced their teachers.

Mrs. A. L. Elliott was general chairman of the dinner, which is sponsored each year by the Women's Society of Christian Service.

Approximately 150 teachers, board members and their families, and church members attended the dinner.

Yea Rockets! We're With You All The Way

Deck's DIDACTICS

—By Deskins Wells

This is the time of the year to get out in the country, especially on the well graded dirt roads. There are two reasons for traveling over the unpaved roads. While they are in good shape you will naturally tend to drive at a slower pace thereby giving yourself a better chance to observe the fall colors in their many shades of yellow, red, green and brown. The second is that some of our most appealing scenery lies alongside the dirt roads.

The leaves of the trees and the flowers are not the only sights that are colorful. The red red maize with its leaves still green is glorious in its richness. Last week I traveled to Memphis as the sun was rising. A blue mist hung heavy in the valleys and shrouded the tops of the hill. After you leave Collingsworth there is little to see but grass until you drop out of the hills into the Red River Valley: but the valley is a pleasant sight.

Glenn Shelton in The Wichita Falls Record News:

"I have found over the years that I can do my best thinking, anemic though it may be, while walking. I discovered this some 30 years ago when I walked each morning nearly a mile to work in a cotton compress. In the early dawn, pacing briskly through the streets, inspiration seemed to flood into my brain. Often I could hardly wait to write down my thoughts.

"It seemed strange to me then that ideas should come so easily, that the brain should operate with such clarity, that words lined themselves up with such perspective. It was easily my time of inspiration."

Well, Glenn, it does not seem strange to me that a man could do his best thinking while walking for I have experienced it in Wellington and many other places: but walking is not my main mental stimulant. Riding brought the highest exhilaration to my mind and senses. At first it was the pure physical pleasure of riding horseback on which I was started a year or two before I was old enough to go to school. Like mystics going to the mountains to fast, I have attained some high levels of imagination while riding a horse on a long trip to gather in cattle or horses for which my father had traded. The mind and the body seem to become separated with the gentle motion of a good horse at a walk or a slow fox-trot. ★ ★ ★

With the coming of the Model T Ford there came another time for thinking, such as it was, when I drove my sister to Childress to catch the train and proceeded on to my destination in Memphis only to wake from my daydreaming to find I had taken the wrong turn at Estelline and was halfway to Turkey. The ancient automobiles were a tonic; but the peak in mental and physical stimulation came with the discovery of the luxurious passenger trains. There was magic in the rhythm of the clack-clack, ruummn, clack-clack, clack-clack, ruummn of the wheels as they pounded mile after mile over the iron rails through the prairie and the mountains and the timberland into the city with its brilliant lights and the strange noises of the night and day. There was exhilaration, excitement and enjoyment in the cities; but the main mental stimulation was on the train —in riding.

The 1¢ increase in the sales tax is now in effect. The schedule is different in towns such as our where there is no city sales tax. Not only is it one cent lower; it starts and changes at different figures. Here is the schedule that applies to Wellington:

1¢ tax on 17¢ to 49¢
2¢ tax on 50¢ to 83¢
3¢ tax on 84¢ to $1.16

Canadian and Quanah are two more cities that have started publishing financial statements as required by law. ★ ★ ★

R. L. Templeton brought the office force some Delicious apples that were perfect in appearance and taste and Monty Mitchell brought some fine looking peanuts which should make the largest yield ever grown on his land. They will have to dry before we can report on the taste.

★ ★ ★

Dr. J. M. Orr and Henry Sullivan, both UT graduates, went to the football game in Lubbock Saturday and have not been seen in Wellington up to Wednesday. They just kept driving west.

Eighth Grade Downs Paducah 36-6 Thursday

The Wellington eighth grade Firecrackers defeated the Paducah eighth grade 36 to 6 in the first meeting of the two teams this season.

Paducah received the kickoff, but was unable to move the ball and punted to Wellington. The Firecrackers went downfield from their own 40 to score on an end run by Nicky Guthrie from 30 yards out. The extra point pass was thrown to Alton Belew to make the score 8-0.

Again in possession, Paducah was unable to move the ball on the ground and went to the air. Bruce Oney intercepted a Paducah pass and set up Wellington's second touchdown.

Billy Lemmons took a pitch and scampered 45 yards for Wellington's second score. Guthrie added the extra points on a run up the middle to give Wellington a half time lead of 16-0.

On the opening play of the second half, Bruce Oney received the kickoff for Wellington and went 75 yards for a touchdown behind excellent blocking from Eliseo Molina, Dan Fires, Barry Long, James Amos, Billy Lemmons, Cecil Parker, and Alton Belew. The try for points failed and Wellington led 22-0.

Again in the third quarter, Wellington stopped Paducah's drive, took over and marched 50 yards to score with Billy Lemmons going over from 20 yards out on an off-tackle play. The try for extra points failed and the score was 30-0.

Liberal substitutions by both teams resulted in little scoring in the fourth quarter.

Paducah went 40 yards and scored on a one-yard dive with two minutes left in the game. The extra point failed and the score stood 30-6.

Wellington's final score came on an end run by Billy Lemmons, again on a 40-yard end sweep led by good blocking from Molina, Belew, Long and Dana Bell. Try for the extra point failed, and the game ended 36-6 in the Firecrackers' favor.

The overall team effort was greatly improved over last week's 32-0 loss to Clarendon, Coach Carroll Nunnelley said.

"Our kids worked hard this past week to improve, and it paid off. With the advancing season, I think we will continue to improve and have a good football team," he continued.

Coach Nunnelley named as some of the outstanding linemen, Bell, Cecil Parker, Molina, Long, Amos, Steve Hunter, Kim Wauer, and Belew.

The next game will be a double-header, seventh and eighth grades, at Childress Thursday, Oct. 19 at 5:30 and 6:30 p.m.

Ray Returns from Germany

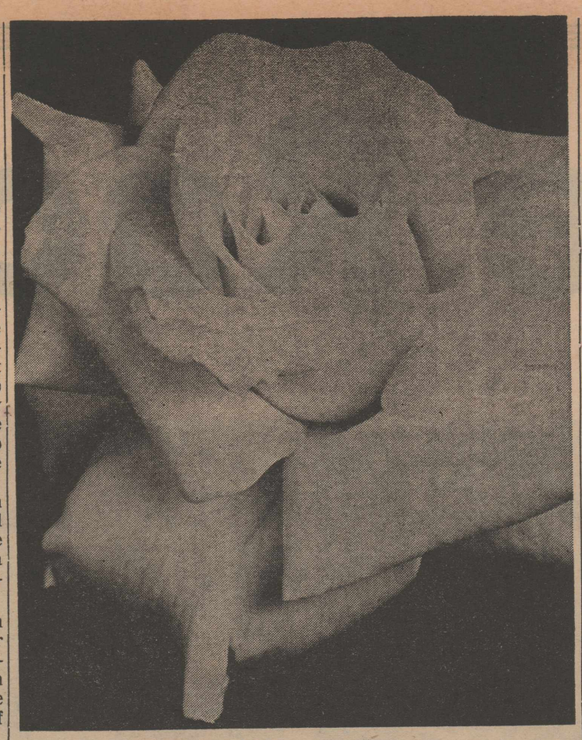

The highlight of Sp/5 Denzil Ray's homecoming was seeing for the first time his daughter, Angie, who will have her first birthday October 17.

Specialist Ray has been stationed with the Army in Germany for the last year. His wife, Beverly, and Angie have made their home in Wellington while he was overseas.

He also visited his mother, Mrs. Ethel Ray, and other relatives here.

He has now received his discharge from the Army and has bought the Dr. Pepper truck to service Childress.

The family will make their home there.

Cadet Parker Officer at Air Academy

U.S. AIR FORCE ACADEMY, Colo.—Cadet Roy E. Parker II, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Parker of Wellington is one of more than 700 cadets who have entered their senior year at the U.S. Air Force Academy.

Cadet Parker will serve during the fall term as a squadron athletic officer with the rank of cadet captain. He was selected for the position because of his demonstrated leadership abilities and effectiveness ratings.

During the past summer, he was among upperclassmen who served as senior staff officers for the rigorous basic training program for members of the academy's incoming freshman class. He was chosen for the special duty because of his leadership and teaching abilities. The training is designed to prepare basic cadets for entry into the cadet wing.

He also participated in the three-week academy "Third Lieutenant" program. He went to Howard AFB, C.Z., where he observed applied Air Force operations and gained practical experience while performing Air Force junior officer duty.

He will be commissioned a second lieutenant and receive his B.S. degree upon graduation from the academy.

The cadet is a 1965 graduate of Andrews (Tex.) Senior High School.

Rocket B Goes to Clarendon Thursday Night

The Skyrocket B team will travel to Clarendon Thursday night, Oct. 3, for their second confrontation of the season with the Broncho B.

Game time will be 7 p.m.

Wellington won the first game between the teams 20-0, but this may be another story, reminded Coach James Stavenhagen.

"We feel like it will be a tough game," he said. "The teams are evenly matched. We were able to get some breaks in the first game, which made a difference. It should be an interesting game to watch."

The Rocket B team has lost one of its key players, Larry Denny, who has moved to California.

Coach Stavenhagen said he probably would move Joe Cummings to the end slot vacated by Denny, then use Bill Henard as guard in place of Cummings.

The team's fans are urged to accompany it to Clarendon.

Work Week Held at Scout Camp

Approximately 35 men from throughout the Adobe Walls Boy Scout Council attended the council-wide work week end at the new camp north of Wheeler Saturday and Sunday, Sept. 28 and 29.

The concrete slab was poured for the caretaker's home, which will be moved from near Pampa to the site within the next two weeks, according to Dave Agnew, Comanche District Scout Executive.

The house was given to the Adobe Walls Scout Reservation by Cities Service Gas Company.

A road construction crew working in the vicinity of the camp gave the use of a 21-foot carryall, and more than 500 tons of dirt was moved, enabling the men to re-landscape the dining lodge, Mr. Agnew said.

The complete water system was winterized, as over two and a half miles of pipe have been installed at the new camp. Considerable work was done on the dams of four ponds which are located below the big lake.

"As a result of this work week end, specific work projects to be done by individual units will be undertaken throughout the fall and spring," the Scout executive said.

Robert Dwight, Scoutmaster of Troop 39, Samnorwood, and Glen McLain, Troop 32 Scoutmaster, Wellington, are preparing to set out approximately 200 trees at Camp Site No. 1, which they have taken on as their long-term project.

The units are free to use the camp any week end during the fall and winter, it was explained.

"As a result of the interest, the camp will have several new activities and facilities by the 1969 camping season," said Mr. Agnew.
