Beaumont Tailor Killed When He Refuses Whipping

By The Associated Press.

BEAUMONT, Aug. 23—H. G. Bickham, 31, merchant tailor, was shot to death in an apartment house within two blocks of the county courthouse where the grand jury was in session. R. E. Word, 49, Port Arthur detective, surrendered to the police within a short time.

According to Word and other witnesses, the trouble is the outgrowth of an auto ride Bickman had last night with Word's step daughter. When they returned she told her parents that Bickham had beaten her with his fist and exhibited some bruises about her face. She also said that he had put her out of the car and that she had made her way back to the hotel in the car of another person who had picked her up.

Today Mr. and Mrs. Word sought out Bickham and found him in the Lyn apartments in the heart of the business district. Mrs. Word had armed herself with a blacksnake whip with which she expected to get revenge. Word said that he went along to see that no harm befell his wife. Bickham, however, refused to submit to the whipping and the shooting followed.

Poincare's Note Pleases French

By The Associated Press.

PARIS, Aug. 22.—Premier Poincare's reply to Marquis Curzon's reparation note seems to suit the French press and to strike a popular chord in public opinion. Few members of parliament are in Paris, most of them being occupied in meetings of the general councils of the various departments, but those who were in the lobbies of the chamber this afternoon united in approving the premier's stand.

The part of the note that appealed most to the political leaders was that in which Poincare asked Lord Curzon whether France should be treated by her allies more severely than Great Britain wanted to treat Germany, their former common enemy.

Great stress was also laid on the assertion that if the British theory prevailed the Germans would emerge from the calamity of their own making with no interior debt and foreign debt of only fifty million marks, with an annual interest charge much less than France is obliged to bear.

400 Pounds of Mail Taken From Eastern Coast to San Francisco

FOUR DAYS NEARER

Mail Consignment Rushed to Postoffice From Plane

By The Associated Press.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 22.—San Francisco moved nearly four days nearer to New York today through the success of the air mail service's first test of night flying westward. Pilot Clair K. ance brought more than 400 pounds of mail from eastern points to Crissy Field, here tonight at 6:24 o'clock, 34 hours and 23 minutes after the first installment of it had left Hempstead Field, on Long Island, yesterday morning.

This mail was delivered tonight so that within an hour an official message from Mayor Hylan of New York to Mayor Rolph of San Francisco, and from eastern mail officials to those in charge of the service's affairs in the west, were being read.

The propellor of Vance's plane had not stopped turning when a mail truck, waiting for his consignment of messages and small packages, was backed up directly to the plane and men threw the pouches from the cockpit to the truck, which sped away to the postoffice for sorting of the letters.

Flyer Not Bothered.

Half a dozen special messengers, with motorcycles whose engines were popping, stood by for the special delivery letters which accompanied the pouches and presently dashed away to begin deliveries.

Vance, who is a slender wiry figure of medium height, clambered out of his seat with a smile. He is a veteran air mail pilot, and except for an added effort to make speed on the fields and in flight, today's effort was nothing unsual for him. His home is in Logansport, Ind.

MEXICO DRY IN NEXT TEN YEARS SAYS OBREGON

Bishop Quotes Letter At Chautauqua Written By Mexican President

BOOST TEMPERANCE

Obregon Declared One of Greatest Statesmen of Modern Time

By The Associated Press.

CHAUTAUQUA, N. Y., Aug. 22. President Obregon of Mexico shares the belief of Bishop Wilbur P. Thirkield of the Methodist Episcopal church that within a few years the country below the Rio Grande will adopt prohibition.

In an address tonight before the conference on international relations from a Christian standpoint, the bishop quoted a letter from President Obregon to him which said

"I believe frankly that your prestige as a prophet is not being compromised too much when you state that our tendency is toward prohibition and that at an early date Mexico will enter into that estate."

Schools Teach Temperance.

The bishop declared that the government as represented by President Obregon and Secretaries De La Huerta and Calles stands firmly behind the dry movement. He said that more than one northern state is now largely dry and that the state of Oaxaca has taxed the saloons practically out of existence.

"The minister of education recently placed one thousand text books on temperance in the hands of the teachers in the public schools," he said. "In all deeds to land under the new agrarian laws the raising of the maguey plant, out of which intoxicating pulque is made, is prohibited. I confidently expect that within the next ten years Mexico will be dry."

Bishop Thirkield declared that President Obregon's achievement in bringing peace to Mexico, establishing an honest budget providing for the payment of the public debt places him as one of the greatest modern statesmen and rulers of the republics of the world.

Pointing to Mexico as a fertile field for American investment, he urged that the United States divert the money it now spends to maintain a single fort along the Mexican border to the establishment of friendly relations between the two nations.

LARGEST PLANE ON FIRST FLIGHT

85-Mile Speed By Bomber With Six Engines; First Plane 20 Years Ago

By The Associated Press.

DAYTON, Ohio, Aug. 22.—Surpassing even the wildest dreams of its designers and other air officials, the Barling bomber, world's largest airplane, completed its maiden flight at Wilbur Wright field this evening.

Ease with which the giant dreadnaught of the air with its six engines maneuvered both on the ground and in flight and the slow take-off and landing speeds was the feature performance, characterized as the most promising maiden flight every undertaken by any aircraft. The plane was in the air 28 minutes.

Designer Watches Flight.

Only one minor detail was found to be other than perfect during the flight. This was the connecting rod between the upper and lower elevator planes on the tail, which vibrated considerably, according to members of the crew.

The vibration was not sufficient to mar the complete success of this greatest of flights since the Wright brothers of Dayton made their memorable voyage through the air at Kitty Hawk, N. C., in December, 1903.

Even as the dreams and hopes of the Wright brothers were founded on this flight, so were the dreams and hopes of Walter Barling, the Englishman, who designed this ship, entered completely in this flight.

Before the ship took the air, he smiled and expressed his confidence in his handiwork, but his hands were shaking and his nervousness otherwise was apparent as he climbed through the small trap door into the fuselage of the ship following Lieut. Harold R. Harris, pilot, Lieut. Muir Fairchild, assistant pilot, and Engineer Douglass Culver.

Makes Perfect Landing.

As the Barling bomber circled the field, expressions of awe were heard on every side. This dreadnaught of the air travelled about 25 miles in its short flight.

The highest altitude gained was 2,500 feet, although pilots expressed the belief that a much greater altitude could have been obtained if desired.

And then came the time for the landing, which most engineers believed would be the critical time for the giant craft.

With the sunset as a background, this greatest of all airplanes majestically glided to earth, never wavering from the course set. Its landing speed was about 60 miles an hour, whereas the craft attained a maximum speed of 93 miles an hour while in flight.

The landing was perfect. The ship seemed to be suspended on some giant cable and gently lowered to the earth.

Heavy Rains About Pueblo Raise Arkansas River To High Levels

By The Associated Press.

PUEBLO, Colo., Aug. 23.—Telephone communications with all towns in the Arkansas river valley except Fowler, Colo., was lost at 11 o'clock tonight.

At 10:30 o'clock tonight the lowlands around Rock Ford and Manzanola, were under water, according to the sheriff of Crowley county, who reported over the only telephone remaining at Ordway to Pueblo at that time. He declared that the water would make outside connections with the flooded area impossible by midnight.

Rail Bridge in Danger

Reports from the area inundated late today by heavy rains and collapse of an irrigation resevoir south of Fowler, Colo., tonight said the Santa Fe trail highway and Santa Fe railroad bridge were in danger because of high water. A wall of water was reported moving down the valley unresisted, carrying farm house and livestock along with it.

Loss of human life has been averted as far as can be ascertained, because of the advance warning.

By The Associated Press.

PUEBLO, Colo, Aug. 22.—A large irrigation reservoir on the Apishapa river, south of Fowler, Colorado, has broken, according to information received here, and a great body of water is moving toward another reservoir at Rocky Ford. The water early tonight was running four feet over the dam. Rocky Ford and city officials express the fear that when the water from the broken reservoir south of Fowler reached the Rocky Ford dam, the latter would break, causing a serious flood.

Warning Saves Life.

Heavy rains last night raised the water and formed a lake five miles back of the river from the Fowler dam, which is half a mile wide. Close watch was kept at the dam and this afternoon when one end washed out, warnings were sent out by telephone to all families in the path of the flood. Prompt warning saved a loss of life, officials said.

The entire dam went out soon after the end was washed away. A wall of water is descending on Olney Springs, Manzanola, Rocky Ford and La Junta.

The Arkansas river into which all this water will empty, is already bankfull from the rains in Pueblo and surrounding territory yesterday and fears are felt for the safety of the towns in the flood's path.

27-Foot Water Coming.

Residents in all the lowlands are moving to high ground. A 27-foot wall of water is reported to be headed toward Manzanola by telephone operators at that place, who said the water had 25 miles to go before reaching them. The river can stand only about a five foot rise, observers said tonight.

Oil Head Denies Small's Claim Of 5-Cent Gasoline

By International News Service.

WICHITA, Kan., Aug. 22.—A stinging letter of reply to the recent reported utterances of Governor Len Small of Illinois relative to the cost of gasoline was made public here today by H. G. James, president of the Missouri Oil Men's association and former secretary of the Western Petroleum Refiners' association.

To the statement that gasoline costs less than five cents to produce, which Small is quoted as having made at a farmers' picnic at Salem, Ill., James, himself a refiner of many years experience, responds, gasoline cannot be produced for anything near that figure.

"It seems to me that a public servant, occupying such an important position as governor of a great state, should be informed on his subject before he attempts to speak concerning an industry so essential and important to the public as the oil industry," says James' letter to Small. "I challenge you to prove your statement. If it is not correct, you had no right in your exalt position to make it."

Rain Will Delay Installing Pump

The Wednesday rain which extended to Baylor county, where the diversion dam is located will probably delay installation of the new 10,000,000 gallon pump which arrived at Dundee Wednesday but should not interfere with work on the five mile high power line now under construction, according to Burton Stayton, public utilities commissioner.

Stayton says the rain will be a benefit to the canal because it will season the ground and save a quantity of water when actual transfer of the water from Lake Kemp begins.

FREDERICK, Okla., Aug. 22.—Rain Tuesday night and Wednesday benefitted Tillman county crops to the extent of a million dollars, according to farmers and business men of this city. An inch and fifteen hundredths fell here in a slow downpour and the cotton is expected to double its yield as a result.

The banks of Frederick today began a campaign, urging farmers to plant wheat for fall and winter pasturage, believing there will be a big demand for this sort of feed, occasioned by the drouth destroying the feed crops in certain counties adjacent and in the southwest generally.

American Tennis Cracks Lose To Australian Pair

By The Associated Press.

BROOKLYN, Mass., Aug. 22.—The Australian Davis cup team of James O. Anderson and James B. Hawkes, gave followers of the tennis courts an exhibition of championship doubles play today in defeating the Pacific coast combination of William M. Johnston and Clarence M. Griffin in a third round match of the national double tournament. The galleries at the Longwood cricket club saw the team which many expected would represent America in the challenge round against Australia next month go down to defeat by the score of 6-4, 4-6, 7-5, 6-2.

The other Australian team, Ian D. McInnis and W. E. Schleisenger, was defeated by Manuel Alonzo of Spain and W. F. Johnson of Philadelphia. The scores were 4-6, 4-6, 6-4, 7-5, 7-5.

William T. Tilden and F. K. Norton of South Africa, defeated W. W. Ingram and Arnold W. Jones, in straight sets, 6-1, 6-3, 6-2. R. N. Williams, Bryn Mawr, Pa., and Watson Washburn, New York, eliminated George P. Gardner Jr., and Harry C. Johnson, Boston, 6-0, 6-3, 6-3.

NEEDLE-WITTED

I heard a man say that a certain woman was "needle-witted" and as every one seemed to agree with him, I became anxious to meet the woman.

I had never realized before how much men admire wit in a woman. Not a word was said about her beauty or charm (and she had both as I afterwards discovered.)

But her wit did out-weigh her other good points. She was a sparkling, a wonderful repartee'ist, smart and the life of the party.

She made every one enjoy the evening and had a way of putting people in good spirits.

"There is a woman for you." The men all agreed "she is like champagne makes a fellow glad to be alive."

I almost came to the conclusion that men admire wit in a woman—almost more than anything else.

Governor Smith overuled Mrs. Creedon's protest against accepting a reward and pressed three $100 bills into her hand. The bracelet was a Christmas gift from the governor.

ZONAGALE

In Collaboration With Russell Gore Writes On

THE WINDOW CARD.

"Peace, not war," reads the card. This in the window of a stone house once a brewer's mansion, now waiting on a big city-s arterial highway for someone to see its advantages as an apartment sight. In the meantime, it is leased as a friends' meeting place.

Thousands of motor cars twist around the park which the old house overlooks. They are commanded by a city ordinance to come to a full stop before re-entering the highway. Almost very driver, before changing gears, glances at the card.

Men out of work shamble to this downtown park to sit on benches by the geyser of water spouting from the central fountain. Nursery maids wheel perambulators to the oasis of the grass. A policeman saunters by, swinging his club. Transients from apartment hotels nearby pass and repass. Messenger boys halt bicycles on the curb, and, with one foot on the grass, read the card.

The other day a young soldier stopped on the sidewalk after the girl on his arm had said, "Boddy, that sign writer's after your job!"

"He sure is," returned the brown clad boy. "And I hope he gets it. But he dosen't mean my kind of war alone. He's after the 57 varieties of devlitry inside us all!

At night an electric arc illumines the three single words. Lovers emerge from and re-enter the gloom on their way to the park. And some not lovers go this way to rendezvous; sauntering men, sauntering patchouli-scented girls whose eyes do not smile with their lips.

"Peace, not war," says the calm card from dusty plate glass windows.

"Peace, not war," reads the gunman whose trade beneath the trees flourishes as lovers depart and stragglers cut through the tiny park.

"Peace, not war," reads blue-coat with the club.

"Peace, not war," reads the boy who hopes the wind will blow patchouli odor from his hair.

"Peace, not war," reads the girl too tired to provoke another rendezvous.

Day and night the little sign's benediction, like the rain, falls on just and unjust, on youth and age, on ugliness and on beauty, on gay, on sad, on the indifferent and the serious, on guilt, on innocence.

An artless message. Perhaps not so much a message as an invitation. An invitation to all mankind to quell the war without by finding peace within.

Last week an airplane wrote in smoke the name of a tobacco against the blue.

Too bad there is no sky writer to hand the ancient and the simple invitation on the heavens!

Child-birth

Here is a wonderful message to all expectant mothers!

When the Little One arrives, you can have that moment more free from suffering than you have perhaps imagined. An eminent physician, expert in this science, has shown the way. It was he who first produced the great remedy, "Mother's Friend." Mrs. C. J. Hartman, Scranton, Pa., says:

"With my first two children I had a doctor and a nurse, and then they had to use instruments, but with my last two children I used Mother's Friend and had only a nurse; we had no time to get a doctor because I wasn't very sick—only about ten or fifteen minutes." Use "Mother's Friend" as our mothers and grandmothers did. Don't wait, start today, and meanwhile write to Bradfield Regulator Co., BA 46, Atlanta, Ga., for a free illustrated book containing information every expectant mother should have. "Mother's Friend" is sold by all drug stores—everywhere.

WANTS TO HELP OTHER WOMEN

Grateful for Health Restored by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Chicago, Ill. — "I am willing to write to any girl or woman who is suffering from the troubles I had before I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. My back always ached, so I could not go about my housework, and I had other troubles from weakness. I was this way for years, then my sister-in-law took the Vegetable Compound and recommended it to me. In the time I have been taking it, it has done wonders for me. I keep house and am able to do lots of work besides."—Mrs. HELEN SEVCIK, 2711 Thomas St., Chicago, Ill.

Women suffering from female troubles causing backache, irregularities, pains, bearing-down feelings and weakness should take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Not only is the worth of this splendid medicine shown by such cases as this, but for nearly fifty years this same sort of experience has been reported by thousands of women.

Mrs. Sevcik is willing to write to any girl or woman suffering from such troubles, and answer any questions they may like to ask.

RAIN

About the time everyone had decided that it never was going to rain in this section of Texas, the rain came. True it is, that it would have done considerable more good had it come about three weeks ago, but even at this late day, it did thousands upon thousands of dollars worth of good.

While the feed crops in many instances are beyond recall, the pastures will receive much benefit and farmers estimate that the cotton crop will be increased probably 25 per cent. This, too, whn cotton is bing quotd at ably 25 per cent. This, too, when cotton is being quoted at a good price.

Aside from from the immediate benefits, the ground is placed in far better condition for the sowing of wheat.

It has been a hard year for farmers, and just now the general rain which fell between Fort Worth and Texline, is the biggest piece of news they have had in many a day.

WICHITA FALLS VS. CHICAGO

The Chicago Association of Commerce has just issued statistics which show that the population of that city is 72 per cent foreign. Only 28 per cent of the people of the windy city are Americans in the strict sense of the word. The total white population is less than 25 per cent.

More than 90 per cent of the population of Wichita Falls is American born and white. There are many desirable alien citizens in this country, but Chicago has the undesirables and a town like Wichita Falls in the southwest gets the desirable aliens.

Chicago is a great metropolis, but when it comes to a place in which to live, the young man of today will choose a small city like Wichita Falls. And it is the young men who are building the west and Texas, on the firm foundation that was laid by the sturdy pioneers of this section.

Chicago, with all its wealth and commercial life, has nothing on Wichita Falls.

DEAF AS WELL AS BLIND

Edward De Valera is a prisoner of war and the Irish Free State government will hold him as a hostage. Very merciful are these men of the Irish Free State government but are they wise?

Madero was merciful when he became president of the Mexican republic. He granted general amnesty to all the enemies of the republic. They murdered Madero. Kerensky was merciful when he became persident of a new Russia. He granted general amnesty, declaring that he would not stain his hands with blood. Those whom he had pardoned plotted and overthrew his government. Kerensky saved himself by flight or he would have been sent to a bloody grave.

There are times when justice and not mercy should be the watchword of the men who are creating stable governments in this world of ours. De Valera and his misguided rebels cost the Irish Free State people a hundred millions. They murdered many of its bravest defenders. They destroyed railroads, they applied the torch to historic buildings, they looted banks, they cost the people ten thousand lives and they ambushed and assassinated Michael Collins, soldier and statesman, who had made the Irish Free State possible.

Now De Valera is to be held as a hostage. It must be true that justice is blind, not only blind but deaf and dumb and as slow as a snail—not only in the Irish Free State but the wide world over.

WHAT IRRIGATION DID

There is an Imperial Valley in California. It was a desert waste not many years ago. Irrigation came not many years ago. This year twelve thousand freight cars handled the 3,450,000 crates containing 156,500,000 cantaloupes out of the valley. These melons were sold in the east, the largest market being New York City. These melon growers are co-operatives. They have their own selling agencies. This is what water and co-operation has done for the Imperial Vally of California. This is what it should do for Wichita Falls territory.

WHERE THEY SMILE

California comes up smiling with a ten million dollar black walnut crop. These California walnut growers are co-operatives. They have one selling agency. With them business is business. They get 55.6 per cent of the dollar of the consumer. There is no wastage for the grower. It is the same with the California raisin grower, the California orange grower; the California cantaloupe grower; the California potato grower. This should give inspiration to the Texas cotton grower.

Now the Ozark mountains and Arkansas and Missouri have been invaded by the North American company and a hydro-electric plant will be constructed at a cost of thirty million dollars. The survey will be completed in the early fall of 1923 and construction started early in 1924. There is a new civilization in the making and the industrial centers of the future will be found far away from the great centers of American population.

"This must not be again." Who said it? Warren G. Harding, president of the United States, on witnessing the soldier coffins brought from Europe. "This must be again." Who says so? All the militarists of Europe, all the selfish politicians of Europe, all the aristocratic rulers of Europe and their titled parasites. They have their sympathizers in America.

Senator Magnus Johnson fears no red rule in America. His latest is that he is going to Washington to fight for the farmer because the farmer is deflated more than anyone else. But he is not going to Washington to take anything away from the business man. Magnus' election was a seven days' sensation. Then President Harding died and the American world forgot that Magnus had ever happened.

All Dates Off Till Further Notice

The Letter Of The Contract

Gertie a girlhood friend, now also divorced, becomes chummy with Edith, when they met on the Riviera.

Sir Noel Ordway, an Englishman, apparently takes an interest in Edith.

She discovered she was a woman whom a relatively strange man might invite to dine with him alone. She had passed out of the fellowship of Hagar and Hecuba to enter that of Mrs. G. Cottle Scadding. She had laid herself open to hearing those words, spoken ever so respectfully, with a sympathy no American would have approached:

"Madame is so lonely. Madame is too much by herself. Wouldn't it distraire Madame to dine tonight, let us say, at Cairo's, or the Hotel de Paris, and look in at the Casino afterward? Madame is always so sad."

The man was too insignificant for her wrath, but not so insignificant that he couldn't be a warning. He was a warning. He was a warning that even if he failed to touch her heart it was by no means certain that another man might not succeed; and not long afterward a man did.

That was Sir Noel Ordway. She had met him almost at once after moving to Cannes. She moved to Cannes practically on the advice of the distinguished stranger.

Chapter XIII.
A Liking for Kids.

She met Ordway suddenly at one of the many turnings in the hotel at Cap d'Ail. She had never come abruptly face to face with him before. She knew she colored and betrayed a ridiculous self-consciousness. He was unruffled and sedate.

"Mrs. Chipman Walker, I think."

She acknowledged her identity and he mentioned his own name.

"I've just been seeing some friends of yours," he went on, "at Cannes. I've been lunching with the Misses Partridge."

"Oh, they're there?' They're friends of my unt's."

"I, too, have the pleasure of knowing Miss Winfield, which will perhaps excuse my self-introduction. The Miss Partridge asked me to say that they would be glad to see you, if you could ever make it convenient to go over. They wished me to add that they'd come to see you, but that, unfortunately, neither is quite well enough. You'd find them at the Villa Victorie, on the Route de Frejus."

She was murmuring something to the effect that she would go at once, when he said in a tone that struck her as significant:

"It's very pleasant at Cannes—more so than here."

(i.e. didn't resent this, perhaps because her need was too great. Besides—there was something about him—it might have been the tenderness of a man who himself knew what suffering was—that put him outside the region of resentment.. She only said: "Indeed? Why?"

"You'll see that when you go. For one thing, it's farther removed from the atmosphere that comes up to us from—down there." He pointed toward Monte Carlo. "In that way it's healthier."

She knew that as she thanked him and passed on she smiled, and that she did so from lightness of heart. Certainly her heart was less heavy. It was less heavy because of his kindness, because of this indication that someone cared what became of her.

She felt so forsaken that almost anybody's kindness would have had the same effect, almost anybody's care for her welfare; and so she came to respond to the appeal of Noel Ordway and went to Cannes.

Between him and her the friendship ripened rapidly and unexpectedly. It was so unexpectedly that it took her off her guard. It was beyond all the possibilities her imagination could foresee that he should fall in love with her—a woman who had had her tragic experience, of no great beauty, the mother of two children.

It was, in fact, through the children that he made his approaches, in so far as he made them intentionally. She judged that he didn't do that, that he was caught unawares, like herself.

He had merely expressed a "liking for kids," and offered to take the youngsters for an outing in his motor-car on the following day. The kids were to go with their governess; but when he drove up to the door, and Edith had come out to see them off, it seemed ridiculous that she shouldn't accompany them. Besides, the governess was young and pretty, necessitating an elderly person for purposes of propriety.

It was partly, too, in thoughtlessness that Edith yielded to his persuasion, and, putting on a thick coat, jumped in with the rest.

Chapter XIV.
People in Particular.

Longer excursions came after that—to St. Raphael, to Valescure, and so far away as Mentone and the Gorges du Loup. Edith couldn't help liking the young man, first for his kindness to the children, and then for himself.

For himself she liked him because he was so simple, straightforward, and sincere. He grew confidential as time went on, telling her of his home, his mother, his sisters, his duties as squire and lord of the manor, and the bore it was to be kept out of a profession and away from England at the very moment of the hunting.

He formed the habit of dropping in so frequently to tea with her, in the little sun-pavilion of the hotel, that she fancied the Misses Partridge, who were friends of Lady Ordway's, began to look uneasy. She wondered if they had given the young man all the information concerning her that was his due.

She made up her mind to ask. Once the fact was recognized it would be a safeguard, in that any possibilities of their being other than friends would be out of the way.

He gave her the opportunity one afternoon in March by asking where she thought of going after she left Cannes.

"I don't know," she said at last. "It's so hard for me to make plans. You see, there's nothing to hinder me from going to Sweden, Switzerland, or Spain; and when that's the case you're indifferent about going anywhere." She waited a few seconds before saying, "You know about me, don't you?"

"Rather," he said, promptly. "I've known that all along."

He startled her by saying, with the bluntness that was curiously, but characteristically, at variance with the hesitations of his general manner:

"You could get married again, couldn't you?"

"Oh, no." She blushed helplessly.

"Oh, but you could."

She struggled to keep to the ground of mere discussion. "I could—legally; but I never should."

"Why?"

"Oh, for a lot of reasons I can't talk about."

"Oh, but I say, you're not serious in thinking you wouldn't are you?"

"Perfectly serious! I should never look on the matter as admitting discussion."

"Oh, but it does, you know."

"Not for me!"

"Well, it might not for you, and yet might for—for other people."

She still forced an unsteady smile. "That's something I don't have to worry about, at any rate. I've given up thinking of other people's opinions."

"I don't mean other people in general—only in particular."

"I don't know any other people—in particular."

"Yes, you do. You know me."

"I only know you—like that." She snapped her fingers so as to give him an idea of the entirely transitory nature of their acquaintance.

IRRIGATION

By A. M. McPHERSON

Kahn Bldg. Eighth and Indiana

Into What Sized Farms Should the Surplus Lands On the Irrigation Project Be Divided?

Direct And Indirect Soil Products.

Farm products are divided into two general classes. In the first class are products that comes directly from the soil and are marketed as such. Cotton and wheat are examples. The second class are products that come indirect from the soil. Examples are livestock and diary products.

We have considered most of the products direct from the soil that seem reasonably sure to grow here, and have determined as near as possible, the various acreages of the crops that the average farmer can handle, and which appear from present indications to have the greatest money making possibilities.

It is probable that the farmer who markets his products direct from the soil would and should have a farm unit of a different size than the farmer who is engaged in turning his products into pork, beef or dairy products. It is certain that he would raise different crops.

In the next article we will sum up the various crops that have present promise of being good money crops and give the acreage of each that it seems possible for the average farmer to handle economically on the average farm.

Following the discussion of size of the economic farm unit for the direct marketing farmer we will take up the acreage and kind of crops necessary for the farmer who proposes to convert these crops into pork or diary products and marketing them as such.

So Goes It

By B. H.

The spasm of sending things to the new president has begun. He has been sent watermelons and other food stuffs and now a Boston man has given President Coolidge a Fox terrier. Our guess is that the president will have about as much use for the terrier around the White House as a garage man would have for a curry comb.

The man with the least judgment is the one who dips into a family argument and tries to settle it.

Our idea of an optimist is a man who buys stock in an oil company that is "all on paper."

Man in New York was mobbed for singing "Yes, We Have No Bananas." It's a fickle public.

We'll bet the San Antonio golfer who played 19 hours without stopping spent 17 hours of that time looking for golf balls.

Too much winter wheat, we are told. Likewise too much summer heat.

Yes, we predicted the rain. Only yesterday evening we said we were sure it was going to rain. It did. The system is simple. If you say it is going to rain and keep saying it, some day it will rain, and you will gain a reputation as a prognosticator of precipitation.

WHAT TODAY MEANS

By MARY BLAKE

VIRGO

The sun enters Virgo which marks the beginning of a new astral sign. Aspects of different natures operate which are inauspicious, although not actually malign. Restraint is required in ardor and enthusiasm that is if you are of an impulsive disposition. This energy controled will produce originality in a marked degree.

A child born today will be solitary and calm but extremely appreciative and generous.

You are sensitive if today is your birthday and appreciative of all that is fine and beautiful in life. You naturally sense the form and rythm of all that goes on about you, and because of your insight into the artistic essence of all you see, your life should hold no end of rapturous enjoyment.

You have the faculty of discerning the value of a thing for its own, intrinsic worth regardless of its material meaning. On this foundation you have built your philosophy and you live and move in the spirit of an ethical fineness which is above the plane of earthly morality.

To others you will appear at times a trifle happy-go-lucky and careless of your own advantage, but you know that the only justification for your conduct is the beauty in what you experience and the opinions of others will matter little to you.

Of course this same trait of happy honchalance will be detrimental to you in any career of responsibility, but in the creative life you will find it an actual asset.

You have a good ear for music and a talent for study which will enable you to master the technique of any profesion in which you actually love the work you have to do. But it is quite essential that you love the subject for you have neither the patience nor the resolution to make a successful plodder.

You are energetic and enthusiastic and both easily depressed and quickly discouraged. You are sensitive to the moods and emotions of your associates and extremely generous and sympathetic because of your intuition, understanding of their feelings.

In affairs of the heart you are not apt to find many people who understand your character, but there will always be one, ready and eager to be your helpmate for your life.

Successful people born on your birthday are:

More Truth Than Poetry

By James J. Montague

PROOF

Aha! Let Mr. Bryan scoff,
But what has he to say
When baby bravely toddles off
Upon his feet today?
The little laggard's hands and knees
Shall carry him no more.
He's evoluted, if you please!
He's found what feet are for!

And soon those feet shall grow so strong
They'll bear him league on league
About the world the whole day long
And never know fatigue.
And presently he'll understand,
When time has taught him how,
To use that tiny shell-pink hand,
So frail and helpless now!

A babe he was but yesterday
A huddled, frugile mite—
But now he's started on his way
To set a bad world right.
And as he toddles here and there
Be sure that he will find
That underneath that scraggy hair
Is burgeoning a mind!

And soon the thoughts that slumber deep
Within that wondering brain
All unsuspected forth may leap
And win a world domain.
Though Mr. Bryan may protest
With deprecating cries,
Here's evolution at its best
Before our very eyes.

Organized labor in Fort Worth, Dallas, Houston, San Antonio, and other places will stage celebrations, reports to the state department show. Public gatherings on Labor Day will be addressed by prominent leaders from Texas and other states.

CHICAGO HOG PRICES GO HIGHEST EVER

By The Associated Press.

KANSAS CITY, August 22.—Hog prices at the local stockyards reached the highest point so far this year, today, when shippers paid $8.85 for the best. This was an advance of five cents over yesterday's top. Packers were holding out of the early trade. Receipts were 11,000.

Education Survey Object Explained By Texas U. Man

By The Associated Press.

AUSTIN, Texas, August 22.—To enable the average citizen of Texas to understand how wisely the expenditure of some 40 millions of dollars annually for public education is being made, is one of the primary aims of the state-wide educational survey of public schools and higher educational institutions which will be inaugurated in Texas in the near future, according to a statement made by T. H. Shelby, director of extension of the University of Texas.

Professor Shelby has prepared a detailed statement on the provisions of the survey act, the aims and the scope of the survey act and the expected results.

"The last legislature appropriated $600,000 for a topographic survey in Texas," the statement reads. "It appropriated only $50,000 for an educational survey. In the judgment of leading educators, however, the latter amount will bring a return on the investment which by comparison will cause the topographic survey to appear relatively insignificant.

"It is a well-known fact that the cost of education has been mounting in recent years. It will be of interest to know whether in proportion to the increased inrollment of the schools and the increased number of days of school Texas is actually spending more or less in purchasing power for education than in the average state of the nation. The question generally in the mind of the average citizen today is not whether too much is being spent for education but whether a full return of 100 cents is being received for every dollar invested.

"The educational survey was inaugurated for precisely this purpose. It might be divided as follows: gather data concerning the schools; to organize this data into tables and graphs so as to render them intelligible to the lay mind; and to conduct a campaign of publicity among the citizenship to make known the true condition of the educational system."

Professor Shelby was one of the leaders in the state-wide educational conference at Waco.

Texas Rangers To Hold Yearly Meet September 6-7-8

By The Associated Press.

MENARD, Texas, Aug. 22.—A large representation of the "old guard" of Texas rangers is expected to be here September 6, 7 and 8, when the annual meeting of ex-rangers will be held. Preparations are going forward to give the former state officers an extensive entertainment.

Delegations from all parts of Menard and surrounding counties are expected to be here for the rangers meet. Races, ball games, polo, rodeo contests and a free barbecue are features on the entertainment cards.

It is estimated that there are 75 surviving former rangers. Many of these are picturesque characters in Texas history and are expected to retell some of the activities of the early rangers.

TEAL FLOCKS SEEN ON JOURNEY SOUTH

By The Associated Press.

France Maintains Entente Says Paris Editorial

By The Associated Press.

PARIS, August 22.—"France maintains the entente," is the caption of an editorial in Le Temps, discussing the French reply to the British reparation note.

Premier Poincare had to parry the thrust of the British note, it says, but in his reply he has refused to imitate the tone employed by the British and has preserved his calm and firmness. The least word implying an intenton to intimidate an ally or violate the treaty, the newspaper asserts, will be sought in vain in France's reply.

Spud Miscues Give Bears First Game, 9 to 8

OUTFIELD ERRORS BY DYER AND WILLIAMS' GIVE BRUINS RUNS ENOUGH TO WIN OPENER

With Score Tied in Tenth Spudders Score One Run But Osborne Gives Single to Pinch Hitter To Lose Game; Bears Get All Breaks.

SAN ANTONIO, Texas, Aug. 22.—After allowing the score to be tied on outfield errors by Williams and Dyer the Spudders lost the first game of the series to San Antonio here today, 9 to 8. The Bears won out in the tenth when they tied the score on three successive hits and closed the game when Kohlbecker, pinch hitting for Potter singled, putting the winning run across.

The Spudders had scored one run in the tenth, but Kunz weakened badly in the Bruin's half of the inning, being touched for three hits. However, Osborne was pitching when the winning run was put across. With a runner on third and one strike and no balls on pinch hitter Kohlbecker, Kunz was derricked and Osborne sent to the mound. Kohlbecker singled to left, scorning the winning run.

Errors Costly.

Errors by Dyer and Williams really lost the game for Joe Berger's crew. In the fifth inning the Bears filled the bases, and Boone hit a high one to Dyer who muffled the ball long enough to let three runners register. Williams muffed two fly balls that put runners in a position to score.

Other bad breaks also went against Spudders pitchers. In the seventh round after Fuller had singled Todt drove a single to Coombs in center field. Coombs stumbled going after the ball and before he could recover the sphere Fuller and Todt had navigated the paths for two runs.

The Spudders out-hit the Bears by 16 to 13 hits, but on a number of occasions runners were left stranded on the bags when a timely hit would have meant much to their cause.

Williams, Grigsby, Barrett, Berger and Bischoff all got a pair of singles each, while Art Weiss got three hits, one of them a triple in four times at bat.

Moke Myers was the leading hitter for the Bears with four hits and three runs in five times at bat. Ike Boone, the Bruins' heavy slugger went hitless for the day.

To open the game Williams and Grigsby rapped out singles, by Dyer and Cotter went out on easy flies to short, while Weiss forced Grigsby at second. San Antonio was retired in order by Meine in their half of the first.

Score in Second.

Barrett opened the second with a double to center, but was caught at third on Berger's bunt to the pitcher. Bischoff put Berger to second on a single to left, and both scored on Williams' double to right.

San Antone put over their first marker in the second also. After Simon had flied out Myers singled past third and sole second. Schulte walked but Gross scored Myers with a single to right.

The Spudders started the ball rolling again in the fourth long enough to rush over two runs. After Berger and Bischoff had been retired Meine reached first on Simon's error. Williams and Grigsby walked, filling the bases. Dyer's double to left scored Meine and Williams.

"Heine" Meine took his ownself out of the game in the fourth inning after getting a three and two count on Simon, complaining that he was bothered with a sore arm. Kunz went in to pitch and retired the next three batters easily.

Berger's protege's increased their lead by two more runs in the fifth inning. Weiss walked and reached second on a wild pitch. Barrett singled to center, scoring Weiss. Berger singled to center and Barrett was thrown out trying to reach third on blow. Bischoff got life on Gross' wild heave to first, and Berger scored.

Dyer's Miscue.

Eddie Dyer's error allowed the Cubs lets to score three times in their half of the fifth. With one out Gross walked and Lybrand singled to right, and Fuller's walk filled the bases. Todt fouled out to Bischoff. Boone hoisted a long fly in Dyer's direction and three runners scored when Dyer let the ball get away from him.

With a change of pitchers Coombs was sent to center in Dyer's place. Williams' error let a runner second on a single but no runs resulted.

Weiss opened the seventh with a triple to the center field boards and scored on Berger's squeeze to the pitcher. The other Spudder batters were easy outs.

Coomb's mishap on Todt's single to center let the Bears score two runs in the seventh. Fuller placed himself on first with a single and scored when Coombs fell going after Todt's single. Todt also scored.

Williams' muff of Myers' fly paved the way for a San Antone run in the eighth and a tie score. Singles by Gross and pinch hitter Booe scored Myers.

Bears Win in Tenth.

With the score tied the two clubs battled evenly till the ninth when the Spudders put over one run on singles by Berger and Kunz and a double by Grigsby.

The Bears won out in their part of the inning. Successive single by Myers, Galloway and Schulte put over the tying run, and with one strike on pinch hitter Kohlbecker, Kunz retired in favor of Osborne. Kohlbecker delivered a single scoring Galloway for the winnig run.

Thomas Forfeits Exporter Game

BEAUMONT, Aug. 22.—When Manager Ira Thomas of the Shreveport team refused to leave the bleachers today after having been ordered from the field, Umpire Weir forfeited the game to Beaumont at the beginning of the fourth inning. Umpire Weir called a balk against Brillheart with runners on first and second. Thomas objected and after a short argument, was ordered from the field. At the close of the inning, Weir discovered Thomas sitting in the bleachers and ordered him from that position. When Thomas refused, Weir allowed the visiting manager three minutes in which to comply with the latter request. When Thomas did not move the game was forfeited. Beaumont had hammered Brillheart for five runs in the first three innings that were played, while Gray had been touched for three, two of which were sent across when he passed hitters with the bases filled. Judge Starts Triple Play of Speaker's Line Drive

CLEVELAND, Aug. 22.—A triple play by Washington in the fifth inning featured their 8 to 5 victory over the Indians today. Jamieson and Connolly having singled, Speaker hits viscous line toward right. Judge grabbing it, touched first and his throw to Peckinaugh retired Jamieson before he could get back to second.

Take It Or Leave It

By BILLIE SMITH

Spudders and Bears again today in the second game of the series in Alamo City.

The Bergerites lost a good chance to go into second place yesterday. While the Spudders were losing to San Antone the Buffs were trimming the Steers at Houston. The standings now show the Spudders to be two points to the rear of Dallas, while a win would have put them six points in front.

Errors by Eddie Dyer and Red Williams practically lost the game for the Spudders. Dyer's error let three Bear runners cross the plate, while Williams muffed a fly ball that put a runner in a position to score. With better support things might have been different.

The Spudders outhit the Bears by a margin of three safe clouts, but as our friend Rube Goldberg will tell you, "it doesn't mean anything." Williams, Grigsby, Barrett, Berger and Bischoff all got two hits while Art Weiss secured three safe blows, one of them being a triple.

One noticeable feature about yesterday's game was that only one stolen base was registered and that one was by Moke Myers, the Bruin center fielder. On the Dallas catchers the Spudders ran wild. Probably Joe's athletes were simply run down from so much exercise at Dallas.

"Heine" Meine went out of the game on the complaint that he was suffering from a sore arm. He took his own self out in the fourth inning after he had Simon at a two-three count. One consolation that Heine can get out of that game and that was he wasn't forced to go out under the rain of blows, as has been the case for the last month.

After the Bears had touched Earl Kunz for three hits and scored one run, and with one strike on pinch hitter Kohlbecker, Berger sent Osborne in to pitch. Osborne's exercise was cut short when Kohlbecker lined out a single to left scoring the winning run.

Last week's Sporting News tells us that Ed Stauffer has been sent by the Cubs to Hartford of the Eastern League. The Cubs found Stauffer at Hartford and he is now back with the club he started out with. In his first game with his old team Stauffer was knocked out of the box. Seems like he had the same trouble which overcame him while with the Spudders, and that of not being able to win—a very common fault.

The American Legion has a galaxy of scrappers lined up for the Labor Day fights. They plan to stage two exhibitions that day, one at Lake Wichita and the other at the new athletic stadium near the Spudder ball park. Lee Morrisey, Harry Ryan, Billy Rose, Lance, Williamson, Simmons and others are being matched for fights on this day.

Ira Thomas is surely having trouble with Doak Roberts' best in the way of arbiters this season. A while back Thomas was put out of the game for several days for trouble with an umpire, and yesterday umpire Weir ordered Thomas out of the park in the Beaumont game, and when the Gasser pilot refused to leave forfeited the game to the Exporters. The mild mannered Ira probably says, "what difference does it make anyway?"

The rise of the Washington Senators in the American League race during the last two weeks is nothing less than sensational. They started deep in seventh place and right now are battling the Browns for a berth in the first division. Maybe Donie Bush will settle the worries of Clark Griffith about finding a new manager for next season. He is surely going fast now.

WOMEN'S SINGLES NET TOURNAMENT NARROWING DOWN

Tennis fans are looking forward with interest toward the final matches of the women's singles tournament being played at the Municipal Golf club.

Bright and Williams, recent winners in mixed doubles, are threatening to cop the honors in singles, but may meet with some pretty stiff opposition in the semi-finals, to be played soon as the courts are in shape after the recent rains.

Results so far are: first round, Bright drew a bye, Penney a bye, Fisk a bye, and Couper defeated Maxwell 5-7, 6-2, 6-3.

Knotts forfeited a game to Van Emden. Adickes defeated Winters 6-4, 6-2. Williams drew a bye, and Rugely defeated Ernst 6-1, 6-3.

In the second round, Bright defeated Penny 6-0, 6-0; Van Emden defeated Rugely 6-0, 6-3; Williams defeated Adickes 6-1, 6-3; and the Fisk-Couper match will be played as soon as weather permits.

This marked interest in tennis among Wichita Falls girls is greater than any year previous and forecasts a fast year of singles, doubles and mixed in high school athletics.

New Dallas U. S. Doubles Champion Leads in Singles Trap Shooting

By The Associated Press.

CHICAGO, Aug. 22.—Some expert trapshooting featured the big day of the 1923 grand American handicap tournament here today when 400 of the best sharpshooters took part in the amateur clay target championship of North America, the amateur championship of North America for women and also professionals, the special trophy race for state champions and the famous east-west team race.

Mrs. E. L. King of Winona, Minn., again captured the women's championship of North America by breaking 186 targets out of a possible 200 to lead Mrs. A. H. Winkler, Chicago, who scored 182 for second honors.

The amateur singles title contest closed at darkness with Phil R. Miller, Dallas, Texas, and winner yesterday of the doubles championship of North America, leading with 150 straight targets. Walter G. Warren of Chicago, E. F. Woodward of Houston, Texas, and George S. Mearty of Newfield, N. J., were tied with 195's.

Ira M. Carroll, Kansas City, Mo., clipped 191. J. H. Wantling of New York city broke into prominence with a score of 192, tying Dr. H. W. Armstrong, El Paso, Texas; J. J. Broderick, of Locust Dale, Pa., and C. W. Olney of West Allis, Wis., R. A. King, Wichita Falls, scored 188 and A. G. Dentheridge, also of Wichita Falls shot 186. F. W. McNeir, Houston, clipped 187.

DOUBLE FEATURE ON LEGION CARD

Simmons Meets Byrd and Ryan Faces Battling Williamson

With two main bouts as the attraction for Saturday night the Legion fight card promises to be the best of the season. Because of the many social affairs in Wichita Falls on Friday night the Legion has changed the fight night to Saturday.

The feature card for Saturday night has Red Byrd and Battling Simmons to go ten rounds, while Harry Ryan, the Dallas welterweight, who last week defeated "Country Boy" Lance will face Battling Williamson in a ten-round go. Williamson has been trying to get on the local boxing bills for some time but has been unable to get an opponent.

Red Byrd was the first knockout victim of Simmons' abbreviated list, which now stands at a Legion record of four. Simmons gave Byrd the "ko" in four rounds about a month ago in a headliner of the Legion program, but this time the read-headed scrapper believes that he is in shape to go all the way, and is confident that he can whip the Clay county puncher. So far Simmons has failed to find an opponent who can stay in the ring with him the full route.

Kid Harper, a negro light-heavyweight from Breckenridge wired Legion authorities last night that he would accept the challenge by the "Rattlesnake Kid," and is being listed to fight with the Wichita black instead of the Panther Kid from Fort Worth. Both negroes have an enviable record, in the fighting business and their reputations assure fans of a good battle.

The Legion is planning a fight night for next Thursday and one again on Labor Day. Two cards are planned on Labor Day, one at Lake Wichita and the other at the new Legion stadium.

Mickey Savage who broke his hand in a fight against Kid Snyder of Burkburnett wires Legion promoters from Sapulpa that he will arrive in town today and expects to go into training for his scheduled fight with Snyder on Labor Day. Snyder is also bringing along Billy Rose from Sapulpa, who has a draw with "Country Boy" Lance. Speedy Binion of Alvord and Battling Jennings of Henrietta are also in town and expect to get in trim for fights next Thursday night. Lee Morrisey has been sent transportation money and will probably leave Utah for Wichita Falls soon. He has not been matched yet, but will probably fight some well known fighter around Wichita Falls on Labor Day.

Jennings also asks The Record News to notify Sailor Grisham that he wants a return bout for next Thursday night. Jennings fought Grisham to a four-round draw a while back when the referee ruled that both had fouled. Reports from the local sanitarium have it that Don Wofford, Legion athletic secretary is resting nicely from the operation of Tuesday.

RAINS CAUSE COTTON DROP

Half Cent Decline With Uncertainty About End-Month Figures

By The Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Aug. 22.—A belief that the southwestern drought had been effectively broken, combined with uncertainty as to whether end-month crop figures would prove as bullish as recently expected, seemed responsible for the declines of about half a cent in the cotton market here today. December sold off to 23.88, or 47 points net lower and closed at that level, with the general market closing easy at net declines of 37 to 46 points.

Downward In Morning

The market opened steady at a decline of 7 to 12 points because of relatively easy Liverpool cables and private reports of rain in Texas. Prices then worked more or less steadily downward until the market showed net loss of about 27 to 34 points late in the morning. Moderate rallies followed publication of the detailed weather reports for the day. These showed showers or rains generally over Oklahoma, but rather less precipitation than expected in Texas, and led to scattered covering.

Rallies of some 15 or 20 points were checked by renewed realizing early in the afternoon, however, and the market weakened again as private reports of Texas rains continue to come in and some of them asserted that they would probably raise the crop indication. October broke to 23.85 and January to 23.50 in the late trading or 45 to 54 points net lower and the close was at the lowest prices of the day on the active months.

Crop Estimated

A private report published this morning placed the condition of the crop at 58 and the indicated yield at 10,900,000 bales. This condition figure was commented upon as pointing to a crop of about 11,500,000 bales on the basis of the government's estimated acreage, and the report was regarded as increasing uncertainty with reference to probable official figures.

Port receipts 8,196. U. S. Port stocks 180,282. Exports nil, so far this season 122,683.

Fort Worth Livestock.

By The Associated Press.

FORT WORTH, Tex., Aug. 22.—Cattle prices were generally steady and the calf market again leaned tow, and strength. Stocker steers of good quality sold to a fair demand on a strong basis.

Canners and cutters were shown in generous numbers, but a few cars of high priced cows were available, the best of which sold at 4.25@4.75. Cutters were taken at a general range of 2.25@2.75, and good canners sold around 1.75@2.10. Bulls of good weight brought 3.50@3.75, and the fair to medium kinds cleared at 2.50@3.25.

Consignments of calves sold to the recent broad demand at prices that were slightly higher. Quality on the top end was better, the top being 7.00.

Only 800 hogs were here at a seasonable hour, but the day's receipts were estimated at 1,000 head. Most of the useful hogs cleared at a range of 8.25@8.40. Pigs gained 65 cents and the market was active. Several drafts brought 6.00 and the bulk of the run found an outlet at 5.50@5.75.

In the sheep house receipts were close to 2,500 head, most of the run reaching the yards at a late hour. The market opened active and steady, with good ewes selling up to 6.25.

Twenty railroads averaged 78.76; net loss .55.

High 1923, 90.63; low 76.78.

By The Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Aug. 22.—Concerted selling of the railroad shares unsettled today's stock market after an early period of pronounced strength in a number of industrial stocks. Net changes, however, were largely of a fractional character.

Reports of another deadlock in the coal miners' wage conference brought a substantial volume of overnight selling orders into the market and imparted a heavy tone to the initial dealings. These offerings however, were well absorbed and the market was not long in resuming its recent upward trend.

Union Pacific Slumps

The relatively poor Union Pacific earnings report for July, combined with the failure of the carrier shares to participate extensively in the recent advance furnished an excuse for the selling of those shares. Union Pacific lost 1 3-8 on the day.

Baldwin was one of the early strong spots, touching 123¾, and then falling back to 122, up 1-4 on the day. Gulf States Steel sold between 79½ and 83½, closing at 83¼ for a small fractional loss. National Lead jumped 5 points to 124½. Sinclair preferred dropped 5 points to 81, a new low for the year.

For the first time in nearly three weeks call loans were renewed at 5 per cent, but the rate softened to 4½ in the last half hour. Bankers continued to ask 5½ per cent for time money with brokers bidding 5 1-4 and arranging a few loans at the lower figure. Commercial paper was moderately active with 5 1-4 per cent the ruling rate.

Foreign exchanges were irregular with principal interest centered in the French franc, which dropped 7 points to 5.56 1-4 cents. Demand sterling held fairly steady around $4.55.

Raw Sugar Quiet.

NEW YORK, Aug. 22.—The raw sugar market was quiet today and no sales were reported, prices being unchanged at 4 1-32 cents, cost and freight for Cubas, equal to 5.81 for centrifugal. Spot market closing: September 3.92; December 3.98; March 3.52; May 3.59.

OIL POLLUTION IS MENACE TO PORTS

Special to The Record News.

WASHINGTON, August 22.—An international conference of the maritime nations of the world to consider oil pollution, and means to prevent it, will be called at an early date by the state department, it was indicated today. The pollution problem threatens to become a serious one at the Texas ports of Galveston, Houston and Beaumont.

The introduction of oil as a fuel and the rapid increase in the number of oil burning ships discharging their waste into the harbors has developed what was originally something of a nuisance into an actual menace. The fire hazard has so increased that rates upon property adjacent to the harbors have gone up. Fishing upon costal waters is being interfered with and food fishes that have been for years found in certain places along the coast, are disappearing because of the oil impregnated waters. The oyster and lobster industry is facing destruction because of the impossibility of breeding and growth in impure waters. Surf bathing at many of the resorts is no longer conductive to comfort or health, and, in general, oil pollution of the harbors and adjacent harbors at every port in the country has become an intolerable nuisance for which a remedy is being sought.

Buying of December Corn Increases Demand for Corn

By The Associated Press.

CHICAGO, Aug. 22.—Buying of December corn just before the close started a covering movement on the part of shorts and served to increase demand for grain from other sources. As a result wheat prices rallied and closed near the top prices of the day, final figures showing a net gain of 3-8 to 3-4 cent, with December 1.05 to 1.05 1-8 and May 1.10 1-2 to 1.10 5-8; corn was up 1-4 to 1 7-8 cents, oats 1 1-8 to 1 1-2 cents higher, and provisions unchanged to 15 cents lower.

Trade in corn was market with irregularity. Orders in September were light, but it was difficult to execute them, and prices rose and fell in turns. More distant months were relatively firm and benefitted by the advance in hogs.

Oats exhibited firmness during the greater part of the session. Provisions were in light trade and tone, weak despite the firmness in hogs.

THE STUDEBAKER BIG-SIX SEVEN-PASSENGER TOURING CAR $1750

1924 Model Big-Six Again Leads in Intrinsic Value

Automatic gasoline signal mounted on instrument board.
One-piece, rain-proof windshield.

Tool kit in left front door, locked with master key.
Aluminum-bound running boards with corrugated rubber mats and step pads.
Aluminum kick plates.
Grip handles on body rails.
Thief-proof transmission lock.
Snubbers.

Many motorists who have always insisted on the best in everything they buy, have discarded their heavy, bulky, high-priced cars and have replaced them with the Studebaker Big-Six.

And they report that, in every way, it represents precisely their conception of what a really fine motor car should be.

They are enthusiastic over their all-round satisfaction with the Big-Six because of its dependability, surplus power, extreme comfort for seven passengers, the completeness of its equipment and its fine appearance.

The series 24 model—the finest Big-Six Studebaker ever built—presents a value unapproached by other cars at anywhere near the price. And its nominal cost of operation is a source of continual satisfaction.

Everything for which one can wish in motoring convenience, comfort and utility has been provided—even to an extra disc wheel complete with tire, tube and tire cover; handsome nickel-plated bumpers, front and rear; automatic gasoline signal mounted on instrument board, and many other features.

The low price of the Big-Six is due to large volume, the fact that Studebaker overhead is shared by three models, the manufacture of all vital parts in Studebaker plants and Studebaker's vast physical and financial resources.

After 71 years of service, the name Studebaker enjoys confidence and respect more than ever.

DAVIDSON TALK SATURDAY URGED

Palace Theatre Proposed As Place of Meeting for Saturday Night

An increasing interest in the possibility of Lieutenant Governor T. W. Davidson speaking in Wichita Falls Saturday night was manifested Wednesday when it was learned through W. J. Townsend that the lieutenant governor was anxious to make an address here.

Townsend said Wednesday night after conferring with a number of Davidson's friends here that it was very probable the speaking arrangement would go through. F. G. Swanson, desirous of Davidson coming here, suggested the speaking be held at the Palace theatre Saturday night, and an impromptu treat follow at the Kemp.

Archer Wants Davidson.

Townsend said the county judge of Archer county at the instance of other prominent citizens there, telephoned Wednesday that they wanted Davidson to speak there either Saturday morning or in the afternoon. Townsend said he would wire Davidson today at Nacogdoches where the latter is due to make an address, and let him know definitely, regarding a speaking engagement for Wichita Falls Saturday night.

The following letter regarding the proposed speaking engagement for Davidson Saturday has been received from F. G. Swanson by The Record-News:

"The Record-News this morning (22nd) indicated a posible visit of the lieutenant governor to Wichita Falls Saturday evening, if arrangements could be made for meeting.

"Wichita Falls has a sufficient number of people interested in governmental problems and law enforcement to insure either the governor or lieutenant governor or anyone in corresponding position and authority a fair audience at any time. Adding the surrounding country and other cities in the county no difficulty should be experienced in getting a crowd if hall secured and announcement made in advance.

Urges Speech At Palace.

"Such a meeting neither has nor should have any political significance in binding those attending or in charge of arrangements to vote for anyone in the future. For one, I will aid in contributions for arrangements for meeting for any governor or lieutenant governor of the state or other prominent authority in any line of public interest, at any time. It is suggested that those interested and especially willing to contribute ominmally to expense fund phone Senator Townsend, and that a meeting be held at Palace theatre Saturday evening rather than afternoon, and that a dutch treat luncheon at the Kemp be arranged for all desiring to meet the lieutenant governor at that time and find it convenient to do so.

"Views of executives on law enforcement or other problems of their office, should be of interest to all citizens at any time."

LUNATIC CAUSES DOWNTOWN SCARE

Considerable excitement was caused in the down town area shortly after Wednesday noon when it was reported that an insane man had escaped.

It developed that an old man who has been adjudged insane and was in the general hospital for treatment, escaped Wednesday afternoon. Sheriff officers got on the man's trail and after about an hour's search Deputies Bebout and Davis found him and placed him in the county jail.

THEY STOOD ON THEIR HEADS!

County Officials Favor Calisthentics

Had a stranger been passing through the county temple of justice about 3 o'clock Wednesday afternoon they would have probably thought they had entered a gymnasium.

A stranger would have found County Judge Guy Rogers on his knees waving a telephone above his head.

Justice Gibbs would have been seen bringing his telephone from "present arms" to "port arms" to a cadence of "HELL-o, HELL-o, HELL-o, shouted in stentorian tones.

Burl Bryant, school superintendent, would be in the background waving his telephone from left to right and then back over his head.

Assistant County Attorney Kuntz would have made the stranger think a telephone was a nice dumbbell for setting-up exercises.

The telephone calisthenics engaged in by the county officials were performed in what they thought was a good cause.

"Hello Judge Gibbs. This is the trouble department of the telephone department and we are testing out your phone," a feminine voice said.

"All right, test it," Gibbs answered. "Judge, hold your phone straight over your head and say hello," the voice commanded.

"Now hold it at right angles and say hello slowly."

"Now hold it to your left. Good. Now to your right. Over your head again. Say hello a little louder," the voice commanded as Judge Gibbs went from one command to another like a house afire.

"Judge, I cerianly thank you. Now will you do one more little thing?" the voice asked. Gibbs, panting, said he guessed he would.

"Well, judge, please stand on your head, will you?" and the ordeal was over.

Rogers, Bryant and Kuntz went through the same ordeal as Gibbs but all admitted they were too weak to obey the final order.

The four officials are offering a reward for the apprehension of the prac

SOUTH VERNON OIL COMPANY CHARTERED

The South Vernon Oil company of Vernon obtained a charter from the state yesterday. The company is capitalized at $40,000. Officers of the company as chartered: L. G. Hawkins, president; S. A. Castleburg, vice-president; V. S. Davis, treasurer; Luther Webb, secretary.

The company lost Rig and tools by fire several days ago. A rig and new machinery is to be installed and the work of finishing the well to the contract depth of 2,000 feet will be started as quickly as possible. The depth of the hole is approximately 1,100 feet. Two shallow sands were passed through, one between 000-700 feet and the other between 1,000 and 1,100 feet.

WORSHAM NO. 2 IN CLAY TO BE PLUGGED

The company shot the well with 140 quarts of nitroglycerine at the 3,300-3,448 feet horizon without results and have applied to the railroad commission for permission to plug the hole. The No. 1, 3,500 feet southwest of the dry hole, is pumping 125 barrels daily.

COTTON PICKERS IN BIG DEMAND

Dollar a Hundred Offer Here By Government Labor Agent

Cotton pickers are in greater demand now than for the last several years, according to Richard Hudson, who Wednesday opened up a free government employment bureau at the city hall, under the auspices of the department of agriculture.

Hudson on his first day in Wichita Falls sent out 38 single cotton pickers and five families to different North Texas counties. The price is starting at $1 a hundred and help is very scarce, according to Hudson.

Negro Pickers Scarce.

Pickers are at present time wanted mostly in Hill, Johnson, Collin, Dallas and Kaufman counties, where the dry weather has produced the earliest picking season ever known. The fact that federal employment agencies have for the past month been combing the state for pickers to harvest the Rio Grande valley crop has made the employment situation bad with the opening of the North Texas crop.

Only one negro applied at the employment office Wednesday and this is unusual, according to the man in charge. Negoes are usually among the first to apply as cotton pickers. The fact that 35,000 Mexicans have been taken from Texas since Jan. 1 to work in northern manufacturing cities, has also caused a shortage of labor.

"I would like to send 100 cotton pickers at once from Wichita Falls to Hillsboro but it looks like I won't be able to do so."

No Charges Made.

Two farmers were here today from Forney, Texas, wanting to take a crowd of negro pickers back with them but I couldn't find them. I expect a number of persons will come over from Oklahoma soon and sign up for work and this will relieve the situation," Hudson said yesterday.

There are no charges at all for service at the employment bureau, either for the farmers or those seeking employment, according to Hudson.

WHO SAID WATER'S NOT SOFT?

Dr. Douglas Gets National Figures

Wichita Falls water so far as softness and hardness is concerned ranks far above the water of many cities of the United States, according to Dr. A. H. Douglass, city health officer, who has just received a rating list from the United States public health survey.

According to Dr. Douglass, the main chemical which determines whether a water is hard or soft, is calcium carbonate. Wichita Falls water contains only 50 parts of calcium carbonate out of a million. This is so small that the water here can be easily classified as soft.

Where the classification of Wichita Falls water is 50 out of a million Chicago water is 131 parts; Buffalo 109; Indianapolis, 120, which shows how much less calcium carbonate is in the water here than in other cities. Wichita Falls water is the same grade as of Baltimore and New Orleans. The softest water in the United States is at Los Angeles, which contains no calcium carbonate, at all.

"Some Wichita Falls housewives get the idea the water here is hard when they boil water in an aluminum vessel and scum is left. This is not because of the water but is due to the aluminum vessel which affects the water that way," Dr. Douglass explained.

The True Blue class of the Lamar Avenue Baptist church will give a social at 8 o'clock tonight at the home of Rev. and Mrs. H. A. Holt, 1406 Austin street.

WICHITANS TO SHOW OIL EQUIPMENT AT TULSA EXPOSITION

Local manufacturers of oil field equipment and appliances will exhibit their wares at the International Petroleum exposition and congress to be held in Tulsa, Oct. 8 to 14. It will be the first show of its kind ever held in the United States. More than 125 manufacturers of oil field equipment and appliances have leased booths.

BRYANT BACK FROM STATE CONFERENCE

Burl Bryant, county school superintendent and member of the state education commission, returned Wednesday from Waco where he attended a state educational conference held there Tuesday.

Bryant says the conference was a success in every way and a large number of Texas educators were present. Superintendent E. B. Doloney of Vernon and Superintendent E. J. Woodward of Burkburnett also attend the meeting at Waco.

STREET CARS TO T-O FAIR

Company Will Build Spur Quarter Mile Long From Main Lake Line

The Wichita Traction company will construct a branch from the Lake route to the grounds of the Texas-Oklahoma Fair association. The spur will be approximately one-fourth of a mile in length and will be an aid in making the fair a greater success as more people can get to the grounds. The line will extend to a point behind the grandstand, where it is planned to build a loop. George T. Keith, president of the association, has been working on the extention plan for several weeks and through persistent efforts the traction company finally agreed to construct the spur.
