Old Rip Observance

County Commissioners recognized included Ken Lyerla, L. T. Owen, Calvin Ainsworth and Reggie Pittman. In turn, County employee Roy Rogers was recognized for the good condition of the courthouse, through the assistance of inmate participation, in Sheriff Ronnie White's program.

Old timers who assisted with the retelling of Old Rip stories were Truett Been, Joe Gray and V. T. Moser who were at the original Old Rip unentombment in February, 1928. Unfortunately Mrs. Peebles Boles who always attended could not be present for this event, Judge Bailey pointed out.

For the first time in many years, the remains of Old Rip in his original casket was taken from the secure display window so that the visiting newsman could make proper photographs, on the north steps.

Mrs. Bob White, secretary to Judge Bailey, and County Treasurer Mrs. Tom Hart assisted with registration and general planning for the annual event. Once again, the proof-positive story of why the story is true that Old Rip slept for 31 years in the corner stone of the old courthouse, was told: it had to be the original frog because a substitute could not have been found loose in late February because the horned frogs would not have been out of hibernation at that time.

Writer For German Press Agency At Old Rip Ceremony

A special writer attended the Old Rip commemoration Monday - Jorg-Michael Dettmer, a German native who now lives in Fort Worth.

Tall and personable Dettmer is a journalist with the International DPA (German Press Agency), and his account of Old Rip will appear in a number of newspapers in Germany and elsewhere.

The DPA is the fourth largest news agency in the world, Dettmer explains, with headquarters in Hamburg, Germany. He is the Texas and Southwestern correspondent for this news network.

Dettmer's career has included work as a political radio correspondent in Washington, D. C. He

County Commissioners Old Rip, Graders, Bank Accounts Occupy Commissioners Agenda

Eastland County Commissioners took brief time out Monday to commemorate Old Rip, the historic horned frog, but before and after, worked on a number of other agenda items.

They opened bids on motor graders for Pct. 2 and 4, and found that three companies had placed bids. These were West Texas Caterpillar Co., A.I.S. Continental, and West Texas Airmaster, all from Abilene.

Proposals ranged from $101,000 to $127,000 per machine, with some buy-back and maintenance offers. There would also be trade-ins for old graders.

The Commissioners approved a motion to study the proposals. Some type of action is expected to be taken at the next regular meeting, which will be March 13.

On another matter, County Treasurer Ruth Hart reported that the First National Bank of Cisco was more than adequately pledged to cover the County's General Funds, which will be deposited there another year. The Court authorized her to return the "good faith" check to the bank.

Hart said the Eastland National Bank is still in process of negotiating on how much money the County will need to move back to take care of charges for services on County and District trust funds.

The Bank will charge on a cost analysis basis, and would like to take the month of March to see how much these charges would be, Hart explained.

There will be no charges if enough money is returned from the $725,000 in District Trust funds now deposited with Tex-Pool.

On another item, County Clerk JoAnn Johnson announced that a salary grievance committee has been set up. Those agreeing to serve are J.R. Hunt of Ranger, Ed Allcorn, Eastland, Jerry Mehaffey, Carbon, Royce McGaha, Carbon, Kael Joiner, Eastland, Larry Vernon, Eastland, Mike Perry, Eastland, Lynda Wende, Cisco, and Jim Kennedy of Eastland.

The Commissioners discussed some of the bills now pending in the State Legislature, a number of which, if enacted, would take away money and power from the local counties.

One would be a state takeover of Indigent Health Care, where the County would have to set 10 percent of its budget aside for this and the state would take the money and dispense it as they saw fit.

It was recommended that the public write Bob Bullock and express their opinion on this proposal.

Another bill would provide higher weight limits for county roads and bridges. The Commissioners agreed that this would cause even more problems on county road maintenance.

On affairs in Austin, Pct. 2 Commissioner Calvin Ainsworth said: "We better show a little more interest than what we've been showing."

"The only chance we've got is working together."

people from the city, county, various chambers, EDC, our banking community, school and health.

It is essential that a cross section of public and private leadership is represented. The entire community working together.

Everyone interested in the Economic growth of Ranger should support this project. After the reading of the letter, Mayor Ainsworth and Commissioner Phil Tankersley agreed that this proposal would be in the best interest of the City of Ranger. The meeting was then adjourned by Mayor Ainsworth. Further discussion will be held at the regular Commissioners meeting, Feb. 27, 1995.

TALKING OLD RIP -- County Judge Scott Bailey and Mrs. Nelda Wood Wright of Fort Worth discuss the history of Old Rip. Mrs. Wright is the granddaughter of the late Earnest Wood who is credited with putting the horned toad in the corner stone originally. She was among many who attended the commemoration Monday at the Courthouse.

Texas Independence Day Observed By Countian

Too often Texas Independence Day on March 2nd comes and goes without much notice by most, but not for Eastland Countian Laura Lou Trammell.

She knows that her great-grandfather played an important part in that historic event, as well as having been instrumental in helping establish the Baptist church in Texas.

Columnist Jean Mansell recently wrote of Rev. Noah L. Byars in her recent Pathways to the Past column.

The column explained the significance, and said in part:

"The Declaration of Independence, 'which cut Texas loose from Mexican domination, was written and signed at Washington-on-the-Brazos on March 2, 1836,' according to the Rev. Noah L. Byars. And this good man would have known for sure what went on that day, for it was in his blacksmith shop where the convention framed and signed this famous document.

Byars came to Texas in the early part of 1835. A man who "was of a decided religious turn of mind," along with Z.B. Morrell, H.P. Cartwell, A. Burrington, Richard Ellis, J.R. Jenkins, W.H. Jenkins and one other man whose name was not recalled, organized the first Baptist church in Texas at old Washington in 1838. Undoubtedly other claims were made about the very first Baptist church in the state, but "this is beyond doubt the first," Byars claimed.

Byars was licensed to preach in 1838 and in 1841 was ordained to preach the gospel - a full-fledged Baptist preacher. President Mirabeau B. Lamar of the Republic of Texas and many other distinguished citizens were present when the ordination ceremonies were performed.

He moved westward, according to a 1925 newspaper article, and as the years passed, "he came to be one of the best-known preachers of the Baptist denomination in Texas during the earlier days of the state and for many years afterward."

Byars labored in the Brownwood area for many years.

As long as he was able, "he preached without ceasing." He died there and was buried at Greenleaf Cemetery. A small tombstone bears this inscription: "N.L. Byars. Born in Spartanburg District, S.C., May 17, 1808. Died at Brownwood, Texas, July 17, 1888."

It seems that the Rev. Byars had the time, the place and the opportunity to accommodate his new neighbors and friends. Read the list of those present when the committee reported the Declaration of Independence: Richard Ellis, Charles E. Stewart, J. Collingsworth, Edwin Walter, Thomas Barnett, J.S.D. Byrom, Francisco Ruiz, Jose Antonio Navarro, J.B. Badgett, W.D. Lacey, William Menefee, John Fisher, Matthew Caldwell, William Motley, Lorenzo de Zavala, S.H. Everett, Gregory W. Smyth, E. Stapp, E. West, William B. Scates, M.B. Menard, A.B. Hardin, J.W. Bunton, Thomas Gazley, R.M. Coleman, G.C. Childress, Sterling C. Robertson, Bailey Hardeman, Robert Potter, Thomas J. Rusk, Charles S. Taylor, John S. Roberts, R. Hamilton, Collin McKinney, A.H. Latimer, J. Power, Sam Houston, D. Thomas, E. Conrad, Martin Parmer, E.O. LeGrand, Stephen W. Blount, J. Gaines, William Clark Jr., S.G. Pennington, W.C. Crawford, J. Turner, B.B. Goodrich, C.W. Barnett, J.G. Swisher and Jess Grimes.

All these men immediately signed the declaration and later the following were added as others came in: S.I. Fisher, John W. Moore, John V. Bower, S.A. Maverick, S.P. Carson, Andrew Briscoe and J.B. Woods.

"Richie Rich" To Show At Majestic Theatre

The comedy "Richie Rich" and a new Warner Bros. cartoon will show at the Majestic Theatre in Eastland through next weekend.

The features will begin on Friday, March 3 at 7:30 p.m., and show nightly at the same time through Monday, March 6.

Admission will be $3.50 at the box office, with balcony seats available at $5 to persons 21 and older. The movie is rated PG.

The showing of the cartoon will proceed the full-length picture.

"Richie Rich" is a Warner Bros. release, and stars Macaulay Culkin, John Larroquette, Edward Herman and Jonathan Hyde. This is a comic spinoff of the comic-book series about the world's richest boy.

In this big-screen version, Richie Rich (Culkin) realizes he has wealth but no friends. The family's financial advisor, Lawrence Van Dough (Larroquette) had no friends either - only henchmen. He hatches a scheme to kill Richie's parents and take control of the endlessly profitable Rich Industries.

Standing in the way are Richie, his British valet, and a crew of neighborhood urchins that Richie befriends.

Some amusing angles in the movie are Richie's extravagant lifestyle, in which he treats his friends to motor-scooter tag games and his own private McDonald's.

All who enjoyed the comic strip will like this movie, and some new fans may also find it entertaining. This picture is doing well at Box offices across the country.

My Faith

He said He would meet me in the morning
In the sweet, gentle voice of His love.

As the birds sing so sweetly,

Undisturbed by the deeds of the world.

He said He would meet me in the garden

While the dew is sparkling on the grass.

I feel His presence near me,

And know that I have been blessed.

He said that He would lead me,

Although the path is weary and long.

There is a better place waiting,

For this path will lead me home.

He said He would meet me in the evening,

Here's a reason not to diet strenuously: eating only 70 percent of the calories expended causes the immune response to drop by 50 percent. Getting 80 percent of needed calories caused less of a drop. Eating enough and exercising moderately boosts immune function.

Another plus for a low-fat diet: it seems to protect against skin cancer. Doctors at Baylor College of Medicine in Texas, working with patients who'd had precancerous skin lesions, found the diet cut the expected number of new outbreaks.

BEWARE OF MONOPOLIES BEARING GIFTS!

Southwestern Bell Telephone
Is Making Big Promises To Keep Its Monopoly.

Five years ago, Southwestern Bell made a deal with the Texas Public Utility Commission: the PUC would postpone rate hearings and loosen regulation if Bell would upgrade telecommunications technology around the state. This deal did not work! Southwestern Bell's profits are close to tops in the nation, but Texas ranks close to the bottom in advanced telephone technology. Now Bell is at the Texas Legislature with yet another deal: to invest $1 billion in overdue improvements, but only if its earnings are kept under wraps, competition stalled, and regulation further diluted. It's time to give the Bell monopoly a wake-up call. It's time to give consumers and businesses alike a choice in local telephone service; and it's time to open the information superhighway in Texas to fair competition. If you own a phone, use a computer, subscribe to a newspaper or watch television, the telecommunications debate in the Texas Legislature will dramatically affect you and your family. Make your voice heard in Austin above the promises of Southwestern Bell's powerful monopoly.

Send Your State Legislators A Message-Now!

botham Bartless Lumber Yard. This was the site of the largest fire in Eastland County back in the '20's. It was promptly rebuilt.

At the time of the fire the yard's office and retail store were in the building at the southeast corner of the lot on the site nearest the Main Street entrance to the hotel. The building where the office is now was a former merchandising building. At one time it housed John H. Harrison's grocery who had back in those days a butcher working in the meat department by the name of Hayden Fry. Mr. Fry later moved to Odessa after the Harrison store closed and he was the father of the Odessa football star, who's name coaches the University of Iowa - Hayden Fry.

At one time this building housed a bakery. This is the place where I first learned that a baker's dozen, according to the trade then, was not twelve but thirteen. For a kid buying cookies or other sweets at a bakery this was certainly good news.

The building to the west of this one also housed a merchandising firm; I can remember that one of them was R.P. Couch Plumbing. He later moved to Odessa during the boom of that city. And Claude Lowe Motor Company, whom I have already mentioned in these articles as operating the Panhandle Filling Station at the site of the present Scott's Body Works, which was the local Star automobile dealer. The Star car was not a favorite seller in these parts and Star was not one of the best sellers in America then.

However I have known people who owned on these Star who said it was a very rugged little car. I think it had a Continental engine in it.

The post office was the site of Dr. Payne's hospital, which I have mentioned before. But west of the post office and on the north side of the street was a gin and a grist mill. I have discussed this in earlier articles.

In the next block west of this site I have mentioned that I used to play under the bridge that crosses main but about the middle of the block. I also mentioned that I used to play under this bridge with Tillman Stubblefield and at the time that piece was written I had made an assumption that he lived somewhere in this neighborhood. However in a conversation with Mrs. Virginia Weaver Russell she told me that as far as she knew that Tillman then lived in the big house on Plummer Street that occupied the site of and with its garden in the back yard the entire block at the corner of Plummer and Daugherty. Mrs. Russell would know. According to my Mother, the Weaver's lived in the two-story house that then occupied the site where Jack Lee later had his filling station. That house was the Kinnebrew house and it had a regular orchard of fruit trees growing in the yard. Of these fruit trees there was an old pear tree that produced until the nursery that occupied this site before the present bail-bond service chopped it down.

As Tillman played with me under this bridge, I must conclude that he was visiting someone in the neighborhood. It would be a little far for him at a toddler to come to this place by himself from his home at that time.

About where C.W. Hoffman, Jr. had his flower shop there was a two-story building with a filling station in front that used to do a pretty good business selling gasoline not produced by one of the major oil companies. (ED. NOTE: This was our Uncle Baxter and Mae Bennett's Station and home).

The life of a filling station employee or operator in this day was a little different than it is now: A gasoline pump then was an electric pump, it is now. Each of the pump stands had at the top of the stand a 10-gallon glass container that had to be toe pumped up by hand, which took several strokes of the pump handle and could be hard work at a busy station. Then after filling the tank the hose was drained into the customer's gas tank. If the buyer was getting an even 10 gallons all was well and good. The attendant would then drain the hose by holding the low part of the line that always had a little gas when the upper tank was drained into the customer's tank. This was a purchase of an even 10 gallons, but if the buyer wanted more than ten, the operator hand pumped another ten gallons into the upper tank and then drained it into the amount that needed to fill the customer's tank. Add the amount taken on the second fill up of the upper tank to the original 10 and the operator had the amount of the sale. But here too, he had to drain the hose.

There has been a church on the corner as long as I can remember. Then we come to the lumber yard. This was established during the boom days by Mr. Tom Harrell who was a pretty important man in Eastland's early development. Pat Turner tells me that when he was in school at Flatwood that Mr. Harrell was one of the teachers at that school. He organized a lumber yard and named it the Eastland County Lumber Company. At that time Frank Cowell was managing a lumber yard on North Lamar called the Pickering Lumber Co., whose logo was pick and a ring. This was an out-of-town owned yard and I have no idea who owned it nor do I know if the firm is still in business at other locations.

After Eastland County Lumber got going pretty well Frank Cowell joined it as manager. He later bought it and operated it as Frank Cowell Lumber.

To the west of this on the lot that is now vacant immediately across the street from the janitor-supply store and to the south of Mrs. Pullman's home, Harry Pullman had a rather large merchandising operation. It was a frame building as well. I remember that it was divided into three sections.

One of them was a grocery store, one a hardware store, and one a grocery store. The principal part of this place of course was the grocery store. Years later in talking to Henry Pullman he told me that when a customer came in his store and bought as much as $10.00 in groceries that it took two grown men to carry the load to his car. Actually at that time Henry said many of his customers came to town on Saturday in their wagons. Even though they might have a car at home in the barn, he liked to use a wagon to take the groceries home. One reason groceries were heavier then, than now. Most housewives made biscuits from scratch then. Flour was sold in 24-pound, 48-pound, and 96-pound sacks. I never did know why it was that what should, it seems to me, be a 100-pound sack of flour had to be called a 96-pounder. The same thing applied to corn meal too.

According to my grandmother and some of the other housewives of that day a 96-pound sack of flour did not last long when one had a lot of hungry mouths to feed at home. I don't know how many years Henry Pullman operated this business but it seems to me that he had closed it out by the time the Depression had reached its depths here in Eastland.

Stephens County Genealogical Society To Meet Thursday

Joan Farmer, archivist for The Old Jail Art Center in Albany will be the guest speaker when the Stephens County Genealogical Society meets on Thursday, March 2 at 7 p.m. in Clark Auditorium at the Breckenridge Fine Arts Center, 207 N. Breckenridge Ave., Breckenridge.

Mrs. Farmer's subject for the program will be "You are the Guardian of the Past."

Mrs. Farmer joined the Old Jail Art Center as archivist in 1983. Prior to that she was archivist with the Shackelford County Archives.

Joan has lived in Albany all of her life. She is married to L.E. Farmer and they have one son, Bill James Farmer, four grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

From an early age Mrs. Farmer has been interested in the history of Texas, this area in particular, and an extended area outside Texas. In her youth she began to visit cemeteries and historic sites. She has an ongoing project of the cataloging of cemeteries in Shackelford County and surrounding counties. She compiled the first complete map of the City Cemetery, 1874-1992, cataloged all lots, names of persons buried and dates of birth and death and set up the ledger system used to bill for Cemetery dues.

Joan worked for the United States Department of Agriculture for 35 years and upon retiring in 1983 accepted the position of Archivist with The Old Jail Art Center. While working for the United States Department of Agriculture she attended many classes and work shops on various subjects.

Mrs. Farmer has won many honors and achievements. Some of which are: Award for Outstanding Contribution in the Conservation of Soil, Water and Related Resources in 1973; and Award for distinguished Service to Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation, USDA in 1966.

She contributed to the West Texas Historical Association Year Book. She indexed and annotated Shackelford County sketches, Don Biggers. She was a charter member of the Shackelford County Historical Commission and area chairman of the Texas Historical Commission.

Mrs. Farmer is a member of the Albany Chamber of Commerce, Robert Nail Foundation, Robert Nail Scholarship Fund, Shackelford County Historical Commission and Shackelford County Historical Commission and Friends of the Court-house.

Joan is also a tour guide for the Lambshead Ranch and of Historical places for the City of Albany. And she is chairman of the Cemetery Committee for the City of Albany. Recently, she has been doing some research for movie scriptwriters. The new movie "Tombstone," a movie about Wyatt Earp and Doc Holliday, is one that she did some research for a woman scriptwriter who is writing a script for another movie on Doc Holliday and Big Nose Kate.

This spring the museum will begin building additional space for Mrs. Farmer's office and additional storage. There will also be a History Learning Room where there will be videos on all phases of history of the area.

Mrs. Farmer describes herself as a small town person who loves history and people. She loves her community and her work. She says that the real rewards that she cherishes are being about to help others and to help her community be the best that it can be.

Desdemona News

By Vonnie Guthery

Neldon and Billie (Abernathy) Shipman of Alvin, Texas recently moved to Desdemona on the Abernathy home place north of Desdemona by the Howard Cemetery. We "welcome" this fine couple back "home." They were both born and raised here, attended school at "DHS." Billie graduated with the Class of 1947 - Neldon was in the Class of 1946. Billie's mother, Odessa Johnson lives in the downtown De Leon Traveler's Hotel Apartments.

"Happy Birthday" to Alla Rae (Friday) Kelley in Wallis, Texas (near Houston) on Wednesday, March 8th from Vonnie & Pug Guthery. Vonnie and Alla Rae were classmates at DHS with the Class of 1951.

Bernard and Ann Keith spent the past six weeks in Mission, Texas - visiting, sightseeing and having a good time.

Nell Ridens recently sold the Desdemona Cafe. She appreciates all the patronage and support from her customers through the years. She asks that you continue the same support with the new owner.

Beatrice Anderson Dean, 68, of Richardson, was buried Friday, Feb. 24 in the Gorman Oaklawn Cemetery. She attended school in Desdemona with the Class of 1942. Survivors include her mother, Onee Anderson; a son, Jimmie Dean, Jr. of Richardson; two daughters, Cassie Wheelis of Garland, Debbie Smith of Richardson; a brother, Arnold Anderson.

Desdemona Cafe has a new owner - "Shorty Fox" - a new name "Shorty's Place." Come by for a visit, cup of coffee, enjoy a meal and support the new owner. His daughter, Gay Moore is the assistant manager.

Desdemona PTA Organized In 1928

The Parent-Teacher Association yearbook of 1938-1939 was dedicated to the children of the Desdemona Public School. Officers for this PTA year were: President - Mrs. Lee (Dol) Dabney, Sr.; Vice President - Mrs. Jesse (Evah Abernathy) Sparkman; Recording Secretary - Edith Creighton (teacher); Corresponding Secretary - Jessie Mae Wrinkle (teacher); Treasurer - Mrs. Howard (Docy) Williams; Parliamentarian - Mrs. Charlie (Pearl) Maltby.

Other Committee Chairmen were: Programs - Mrs. Charles (Lois) Skipping (teacher); Membership - Mrs. Raymond (Estelle) Joiner; Hospitality - Mrs. Anse (Polly) Brown; Publicity -

The P.T.A. first program for the year began with this poem - "Modern Youth" - We place the program in your hands, Its fate now lies with you -

Success, not failure, is assured,

If you - your part will do,

Share burdens, as well as pleasures,

And see if it is not true, That if you give the very best you have,

The best will come back to you.

All through the PTA year of 1938-1939 there were meetings and different age group of children presented a program at each meeting directed by their leaders.

Who Can MHMR Serve?

To receive mental health services, an adult must have a severe and persistent mental illness such as schizophrenia, major depression, manic depression, or other severely disabling mental disorders that require crisis intervention or long-term support and treatment. Life circumstance problems do not qualify one for admission to MHMR services. These include marital and family problems, financial problems on the job, and other problems in relationships with people. MHMR cannot give medicine for any health-related problems, such as diabetes, seizures, or other physical illnesses.

Children and adolescents under the age of eighteen may be admitted for services if (Docy) Williams, Elizabeth (Northcutt) Williams, Mrs. C. Woodard, Jessie Mae Wrinkle (teacher), Mrs. Ted (Jewel) Rogers, Mrs. Herb (Julia Nabors) Gregory.

Copied from the 1938-1939 P.T.A. yearbook by Vonnie (Keith) Guthery - reprinted at this time for those who are interested in the history of our school, town and churches. Hope you enjoy it.

they have a diagnosis of mental illness with severe emotional or social disabilities that are life-threatening or requires prolonged intervention. MHMR does not give medication for hyperactivity or for parent-child issues.

Admission to service is determined by the intake worker based on the problem presented by the person seeking services. The presenting problem must include the conditions described in the preceding paragraphs. Criteria for admission includes the level of functioning of the individual, the need of the individual, and the availability of resources.

To receive mental retardation services, a person must meet criteria for a diagnosis of mental retardation: (1) significantly subaverage intellectual functioning with (2) significant limitations in adaptive functioning in at least two of the following skill areas: self-care, home living, social/interpersonal skills, use of community resources, self-direction, functional academic skills, work, leisure, health and safety. Persons diagnosed with autism or children under three with developmental delay may also be eligible. The onset of these problems must be before age 18.

Admission to mental retardation services is determined by an admission team which reviews information such as school records and reports of psychological tests. There are no age limits for admission to services if mental retardation is present. (see attached Mental Retardation Priority Population).

All persons admitted must be residents of the seven county area served by Central Texas MHMR Center. Emergency services are available by calling the 24-hour Crisis number, 1-800-458-7788. Central Texas MHMR Center is directed to provide services to persons who meet the criteria and to have services designed to meet their needs. Other agencies in the community have services designed to meet the needs of persons experiencing difficulties who do not meet MHMR criteria.

Letter To The Editor

My compliments to the Ranger Times and to the person or persons responsible for informing the public the "truth" about your tax money, by the way of the Commissioners Roundup.

As a past tax-paying individual, I highly commend the Mayor for his outspoken candor and his genuine commitment to inform, not to conceal, how your tax money is spent. What a breath of fresh air in this time of political run around. This man would get my vote!

Behind closed door meeting, falsifying documents, kickbacks are very unprofessional not to mention illegal. Any person that would jeopardize the financial stability of your hometown to line his/her already deep pockets cannot have much of a conscience.

In the best interest of your city, this selfish desire to receive personal recognition must be abandoned. You must realize that to achieve there must be someone to give.

Those "givers" will be responsible for the future of your city. Support those responsible enough to give, to speak out, and to inform.

Speaking of "speaking out", one should take notice of the Police Commissioner. A person, most certainly unqualified to hold public office. In a previous Commissioners Roundup, I failed to read a justifiable reason on the firing of police officer. In previous months, I recall another officer fired without reason. Is this a precedent that future police officers should expect? Who is behind this? The Police Chief or the Police Commissioner who supports the chief?

Something is definitely wrong! THE CITY COUNCIL IS YOUR GOVERNMENT. THE CITY GOVERNMENT WORKS FOR THE PEOPLE.

Your vote will be decisive in the person who best represents your idea of City Government. Ask yourself one question before you cast your vote. Would YOU be willing to hire this person and put him/her on your payroll? Think about it!
