Ambulance Contract Bids For New Vehicle To Be Taken

The City Council of Colorado City, Mitchell County Commissioners, and the directors of the Mitchell County Hospital District in meetings this week voted to approve a contract forming the Mitchell County Ambulance Service to be operated and financed equally and jointly by the three agencies.

The city approved the contract at its regular monthly meeting Monday night, the county commissioners approved it at their regular monthly meeting Tuesday morning and Tuesday night the hospital district board met in special session to give their approval.

A number of details on the ambulance service have yet to be worked out but the main setup of the operation has been established and the contract was drawn up so that bids may be sought for an ambulance. In the meantime, details of the ambulance service operation will be set forth by members of a committee which includes: County Commissioner Paul Hunter, City Councilman Eddie Piland and Hospital Director Wayne Shaw.

The ambulance service is expected to cost about $9,500 and medical supplies for it and the back-up unit will cost another $1,000. The committee plans to purchase a used vehicle for a back-up unit at a cost of about $4,000 or less.

All of the costs are to be split equally between the city, county and hospital district with any services provided for the ambulance service by any one of the three governmental units to be taken into consideration.

For instance, the city police will be the call in point and the city probably will provide upkeep for the ambulances and their monthly outlay of cash will be less than that of the other two agencies.

The ambulance service will be supervised by members of the committee that devised it and that committee will report to their respective governmental agencies every three months.

One clause in the contract calls for members of the committee, to be made up by one representative from each of the three agencies, to receive $25 per month for their services. Each of the three persons now on the committee has said this clause was included for persons serving on the committee in the future and those now serving on the committee will not accept the $25 monthly pay.

Under the agreement, each agency will provide one person to be on call. At the same time this person is on call, he will be working at a regular job. Each agency is also to provide a back-up person to serve when the regularly designated ambulance service driver is off sick, on or another call.

Those designated as part of the ambulance service will receive pay for the job they are doing other than driving an ambulance, plus standby pay, plus pay when they go out on a call. If they have to go out of the county to transport patients to hospitals in other cities, they will receive so much a mile.

When the system goes into effect, which could be as early as late January, calls will go to city police, who will in turn notify the person on call by bleep. He will then call the police to determine where an ambulance is needed and then proceed to that destination.

The date the ambulance service goes into operation will be determined by the date bids for a vehicle are opened and the vehicle is delivered. It could take months to get the vehicle.

The ambulance committee was formed in late September after Kiker-Seale Funeral Home asked the local governments to take over providing ambulance service as the funeral home could no longer bear the expense of operating an ambulance.

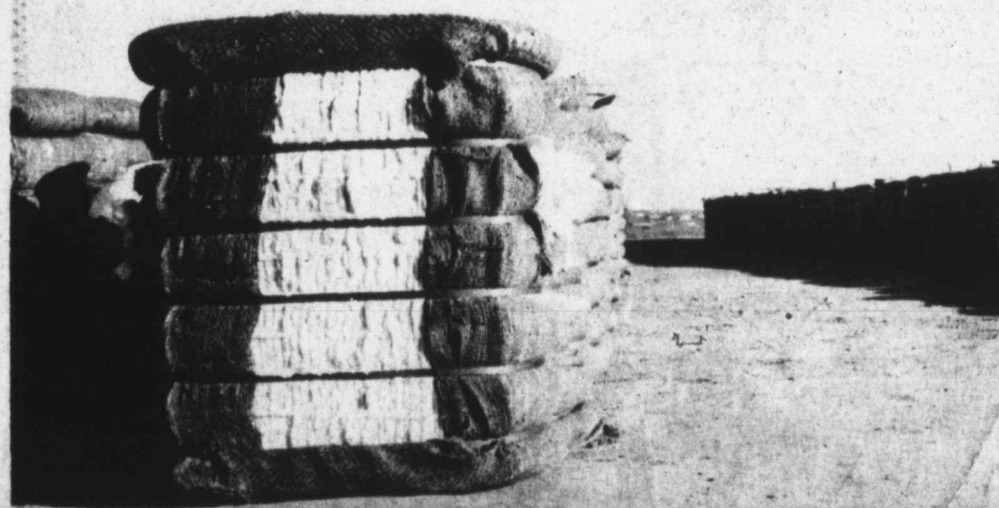

The state and federal governments in recent years have put very strict requirements on ambulance operations and even tighter regulations are expected to be put into effect soon.

The ambulance committee has been working for 2 1/2 months to come up with the most economical solution possible and at the same time, a solution that would give the best possible ambulance service to county residents.

Tournament

Wolves player Hoby Lee (24) goes up to make a basket during the tight game the Wolves had with the Seminole Indians for the championship of the Lone Wolf Tournament here last week end. The Wolves lost the game 61-58 to take second place honors in the tournament.

Compressed

Cotton bales have been coming through the compress regularly this past week as favorable weather aids farmers in the gathering of their cotton. The above scene is familiar to anyone passing by the Colorado Compress Co. on 2nd St. The cotton harvest has surpassed the 30,000 mark already, with a little more than 50 percent of the crop in, so that an estimation of the number of bales produced in the county might have to be revised upward, according to County Extension Agent Bob Benson.

Walker Trial Underway Here

A 10-woman, two-man jury was selected Monday and Tuesday and late Tuesday testimony got underway in the trial of John Phillip Walker who is accused of killing his wife last summer.

Walker has been held in county jail in lieu of $25,000 bail since he was arrested shortly after the body of his wife was found July 22.

Mrs. Walker's body was discovered on the floor of the dining room of her home at 712 Pine about 2 p.m., Sunday, July 22. It was her 52nd birthday.

Police Chief Jesse Browning discovered the body after receiving a telephone call indicating that a shot had been heard at the Walker home.

Mitchell County Sheriff Bill McGuire, who conducted the investigation along with Browning and Texas Ranger Gene Graves of Sweetwater, said at the time that Mrs. Walker had been shot once just above the heart with a .22-caliber revolver.

Ray Farabee, a Wichita Falls businessman and attorney, has announced his candidacy for the Texas Senate in the 30th District. A Democrat, Farabee will seek the Senate seat being vacated by Jack Hightower who has announced for U. S. Congress in the 13 District.

District Attorney Frank Ginzell said testimony for the prosecution would continue through Wednesday and possibly into Thursday. Attorney Tom Rees is representing the defendant and is to present testimony for the defense after the state rests its case.

Rees contended in a pre-trial hearing held two weeks ago that Walker's rights had been violated when he was not adequately warned of his rights prior to making his statement.

Ginzell maintained that the law enforcement officers did adequately warn Walker of his rights in the process of carrying out their duties.

District Judge Weldon Kirk, who is hearing the case, would not disclose his ruling to the Record late Wednesday, saying he was not at liberty to make a statement at this point in the trial.

The case could go to the jury late Thursday or sometime Friday.

Two Wolves Honored By District 3-AAA

Colorado Wolves Russell Hertenberger and Steve Hamrick Wednesday were named to District 3-AAA honorable mention football teams.

Hertenberger was named to the defensive team and Hamrick was named to the offensive squad. The first teams were dominated by Lamesa players.

The complete list of all-district players in District will be in Sunday's Record.

Bonus Voted For City Employees

The City Council of Colorado City Monday night voted to give city employees a Merry Christmas with a $25 bonus and a four day holiday.

The bonus will be received by some 40 city employees. The four day holiday will include the weekend before Christmas, Christmas eve and Christmas day.

City Manager J. A. Sadler Jr., told the council after Councilman Hank Bryant suggested giving a Christmas bonus, that during his many years with the city, a Christmas bonus was given only two years in 1958 and 1959.

In other business the council, which was presided over by Mayor Pro-Tem Finis (Buck) May, in the absence of Mayor C. C. (Mike) Burt, who was suffering from the flu, heard a report on water system improvements.

School Board Meets Sportsmanship, Energy Among Topics

Good sportsmanlike conduct at basketball games was one of the topics discussed by the school board at their regular monthly meeting Monday night in the High School library.

Board members Bob Motley, Drew Ballard, Edward Rosch, Truman Bodine and Jimmie Bodin were led by S. L. (Mac) Morris, presiding for board president Tom Rees who was unable to attend, into a discussion of the crowd behavior at basketball games in Wolf Gym.

The board talked about ways to increase spectators' enjoyment of the games and at the same time control the misbehavior of a few who display unsportsmanlike attitudes by booing and being discourteous to visiting players and their fans.

The board was unanimous in praise of the Wolves players' conduct during games, including the coaches for their good sportsmanship and for setting a good example for the players.

Some areas for improvement were pointed out. One board member mentioned the aimless milling around the concession stand and by the door leading into the gym. Conduct in the restrooms was also brought under scrutiny. Supt. Lloyd McKee pointed out that the school hires two policemen to help supervise the crowds at basketball games, plus the supervision provided by High School Principal Bill Everett and coaches and teachers.

Morris mentioned that Everett had called a special meeting of the high school student body and had appealed to them to always conduct themselves as ladies and gentlemen, and to help control the 2 per cent of the students who are disruptive at games.

The board discussed the incident which occurred after the last game of the Lone Wolf Tournament. One of the Seminole players, Brian Mason, was attacked by a man with a knife. Mason escaped serious injury, but his jacket was cut and he was cut in the assault.

McKee showed the board a copy of the letter he sent to the Seminole superintendent of schools, apologizing for the incident.

A squad car will be stationed at the exit, close to the visiting team's bus, for the rest of the home games, said McKee.

In his letter to the Seminole superintendent, McKee noted that Willie T. Mayes had been charged with assault and was being held in jail. McKee further noted that Mayes was not a student at Colorado High School. A copy of the letter was

Winning Numbers

The drawing to give away Christmas dollars last Saturday on the City National Bank parking lot drew a large crowd, as Sefton Pickens, Chamber of Commerce vice president, calls out the winning numbers. Holders of winning tickets have until the following Wednesday at 5 p.m. to claim their prizes. As of late Wednesday, $175 was still unclaimed, and if no one claims it, it will be added to this week's drawing.

sent to Dr. Ray Williams, chairman of the University Inter-scholastic League.

In other business, the board also discussed a letter from the Texas Education Agency requesting school boards to submit plans that would comply with Governor Dolph Briscoe's request that school districts conserve their energy use, cutting consumption of energy by 15 per cent. McKee said that the area school officials should meet soon to discuss the proposal that student activities, including athletic events, be held in the afternoon.

The board also accepted the resignation of Mrs. Fannie Fay Feaster, 6th Grade teacher at Wallace Elementary, who is taking retirement at mid-term. Mrs. Susan Evermon was hired to fill Mrs. Jane Horton's position at Kelley Elementary, as Mrs. Horton will be re-assigned to Wallace in Mrs. Feaster's place.

The school district is expected to receive the $1.75 million from the sale of school bonds soon and plans were made to deposit the money in Citizens' National Bank in Abilene and to invest the money in guaranteed investments until it will be withdrawn to meet the school's obligations.

The Citizens' National Bank is a co-operating bank with City National Bank here and was recommended by City National as an alternate depository for the money.

Lee, Baumann Exchange Nuptials In October Ceremony

Miss Landie Sherril Lee and Roddy Karl Baumann were united in marriage in a late October wedding. The ceremony took place in the First Baptist Church in Medford, Oregon.

The Rev. David Croy officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Harry Lee of Grants Pass, Oregon and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Baumann of Kirley, Oregon. Grandmother of the groom is Mrs. Elsa Freeman of Loraine.

A circular candelabra and arrangements of blue and white spider mums decorated the sanctuary of the church.

Wedding music was presented by Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Morse who were accompanied by Mrs. Lynn Shellhorn at the organ.

The bride given in marriage by E. O. Light, wore an empire formal length gown of ecru covered with ecru cluny lace on bodice and lowered sleeves. The three tiered skirt was trimmed with ecru velvet and lace.

Her fingertip veil fell from a lace covered Juliet cap with attached bridal illusion. The bridal bouquet was a cascade of blue and ecru spider mums.

The only jewelry the bride wore was a diamond and emerald pendant belonging to the groom's grandmother, Mrs. Elsa Freeman.

Mrs. Sandra Fester served as her sister's matron of honor. Marcia Vaughn of Phoenix, Arizona and Marsha Jann Lee, sister of the bride were bridesmaids. All were attired in full length gowns of baby blue designed with scoop necklines and puffed sleeves. The attendants wore blue picture hats and carried baskets of blue and ecru flowers.

White tapers were lighted before the ceremony by Rita Smith and Eddie Baumann, brother of the groom.

Terry Prottsman of Salem Oregon was best man. Groomsman were Steve Baumann, brother of the groom and Tom Metcalf. Ring bearer was Jimmy Hagen.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Lee wore a princess line dress of blue and ecru. The groom's mother wore a matching coat and dress of blue. Both wore orchid corsages.

Immediately after the ceremony the couple greeted guests at a reception in the Fireside Room of the Church. The chosen colors of blue and ecru were carried out in the lace covered table and candelabra holding blue tapers which flanked the four tiered wedding cake. The wedding cake was decorated with blue flowers and ecru bells. The top of the cake had three large lacy bells.

The groom's cake was served with scrolls from a woven basket.

Members of the houseparty were Mrs. Cheryl Smith, Mrs. Cheryl Prottsman, Mrs. Phyllis Milonovich and Mrs. Gwen Metcalf.

For a honeymoon trip to San Francisco and the mid-western states the bride wore a long dress and the corsage from her bouquet.

The couple are at home in Kirley, Oregon.

The bride is employed by Anders Beauty Salon and the groom is stationed at Siskiyou Smelter Base in Cave Junction, Oregon.

Out of town guests were from Nevada, Texas, Arizona and California.

Colorado Junior High really has the Christmas Spirit. We've put up our Christmas tree in the entrance hall. It is decorated differently this year. It has red and white checked bows and solid red bows with white doves scattered through out the branches. Valeria Lane, an 8th grade student, painted wooden ornaments for the tree. The tree really looks great and CJH is really proud of it. We have the Christmas spirit as well as the basketball spirit.

The National Junior Honor Society is sponsoring a door decorating contest. Each 2nd period class has picked out a committee to decorate the door. Each participating student will contribute 10¢ to be used to give a coke and cake party to the class which has the best decorated door. The seventh and eighth grade will be judged together in the contest. That means there can only be one winner out of the entire school. Each class hopes to win as the party is going to be really a big one.

Mrs. Burnam, is the 8th grade English teacher. She was born in Snyder, Texas on October 21, 1943 and married Ken Burnam who teaches in high school. They have a little 3 year old girl, Tracey, who is mascot for CJH cheerleaders.

Mrs. Burnam's favorite sports are motorcycling and tennis, also she likes sewing and painting.

She taught the 7th grade English in Albuquerque, New Mexico for 2 years, in Connecticut, 8th grade English for 1 year, and in Abilene for 1 year, she taught elementary reading. After this they moved back to Albuquerque where she substituted until they moved to Colorado City, in 1971. Last year she taught reading and now she is our 8th grade English teacher. She is very well-liked around CJH.

Last night the 8th grade "A" and "B" basketball teams traveled to Big Spring to play the Goliad Junior High Teams. Our 8th grade "A" team played Goliad's 9th grade team and were beaten by a score of 68-45. Frank Sanchez and Kevin Geiger were the high point men. The B team had a bad night with a score of 50-9 Goliad's favor. Randy Anderson was high point man for that game. Coach Hart said in spite of the losses there were several bright spots in the games. We know these boys will bounce back and we're behind them 100 percent.

Mitchell County Awarded Markers

Two historical markers have been awarded to Mitchell County by the state Historical Survey Committee and are placed on the courthouse square.

The granite marker was awarded by the state in 1936, restored in 1965, and reads as follows:

MITCHELL COUNTY—Settled after Indians left Texas in 1875, one of 128 counties created (Aug. 21, 1836) from Bexar Territory covering West Texas to the Panhandle and El Paso. Named for Mitchell Bros., Asa and Eli, Texas War for Independence Veterans. Organized Jan. 10, 1881, when the railroad came, making county seat Colorado City West Texas' "Mother City" and first boom town. Oil, sheep and cattle ranching center. Historic sites include Comanche Indian Village, Seven Wells, last Buffalo watering hole. Annual Events: Colorado City Frontier Round-up and Tumbleweed Festival. (1965)

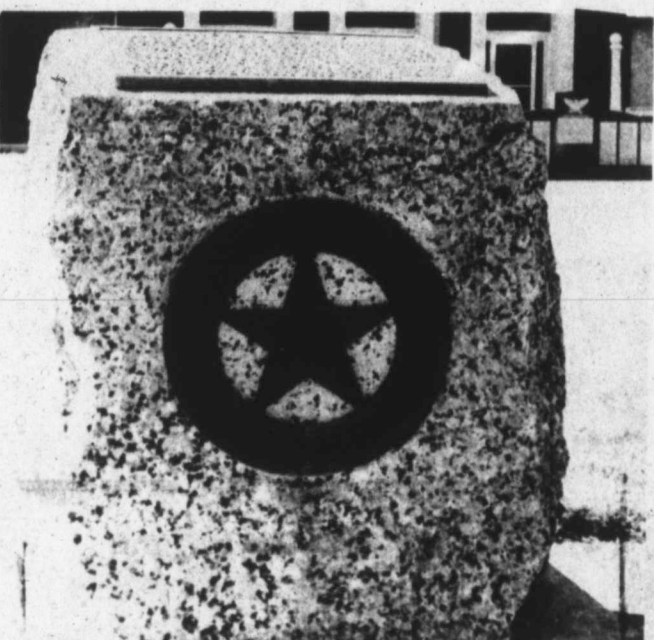

The more recent marker was placed on the courthouse square in 1968 and reads as follows:

THE FOUNDING OF COLORADO CITY—Founded 1880, at the crossing of the Colorado River and Texas and Pacific Railroad right of way; central shipping point and supply depot for the sprawling cattle ranches of West Texas and New Mexico.

From 1880 (when A. W. Dunn opened his dirt-floor, tent roof general store) to 1890, the boisterous cattle town garnered notoriety as well as fame.

The largest community between Fort Worth and El Paso, Colorado City had more millionaires than any other Texas town and the most saloons in the west. Law and order was housed in a dugout at the edge of town, where a company of Texas Rangers made all men check their guns. Modest, courageous ranger Dick Ware was elected sheriff in 1881.

Population soared from 700 to 5,000 in the first two years, as cowboys, cattlemen, merchants and (as a visitor said) "any number of bummers" vied for space.

Markers

Markers were awarded to Mitchell County in 1936 and in 1968. The 1936 granite marker has been updated and the plaque on it is dated 1965. Both are located on the courthouse square.

Rep. Martin Speaks Out On Energy

State Rep. Elmer Martin had these remarks to make after attending the briefing session of Gov. Dolph Briscoe's energy crisis meeting in Austin on Dec. 6. Lieutenant Governor Bill Hobby was moderator.

"There is not a quick solution to the energy crisis. It will take years of hard work and sacrifice before results can be meaningful and a solution can be found to a way out of this traumatic experience.

"Everything must be done to keep all industry in full production and certainly this applies to agriculture.

"In all probability a special session will be called in regard to this crisis by Gov. Briscoe, for something must be done now; farmers must have fuel now to keep up production to prevent a shortage in food and fibre.

"We in positions of public trust have the responsibility of presenting a true picture to the people of Texas, and this we must do."

Martin attended the Pre-Constitution Convention Revision Briefing Conference held in Austin, conducted by members of the Revision Commission to better inform the delegates who will convene Jan. 8, 1974.

pressed his concern over the growing lack of confidence in government and stated his belief that citizens who care must become involved in order to reverse the trend.

"Although I have not sought any office before, I am willing to enter public life at this time because I believe I can offer all the people of the 30th District the mature, effective, common sense type of leadership that they expect and deserve."

"Good government needs the involvement of citizens who know the daily problems of working for a living and raising a family. I have experienced these problems."

"I would like to use my abilities and knowledge to see that the interests and priorities of West Texans continue to be effectively represented and respected in Austin. I believe I am able to continue the type of quality leadership that Jack Hightower provided."

Retired Senior Volunteer Program

In our youth oriented society we tend to lose sight of the needs of our senior citizens. A full and meaningful life is not the exclusive prerogative of our young.

Our senior citizens have the same emotional responses. Advancing years have not denied the elderly their laughter and tears, the pleasures of warm companionship, or the bitterness that comes with being neglected and forgotten. They have not lost either the need or desire to feel wanted and needed.

Indeed, a meaningful existence is just as important to our senior citizen as it is to his younger counterpart--perhaps even more important, and it's time that we as a nation face up to this fact.

RSVP (Retired Senior Volunteer Program) is a national program created in 1969 through amendments to the Older Americans Act. It became operational in 1971 as a part of ACTION, the New Federal Volunteer Agency.

Each RSVP is planned, organized and operated on the local level. It's developed under the auspices of an established community service organization which is able to generate local interest. In Colorado City RSVP is located at the Mitchell County Mental Health Clinic and can be reached by calling 728-3953.

The RSVP works toward attracting retired men and women over the age of sixty into community volunteer service and arranges volunteer stations, including those that serve people of all ages, and assigning senior volunteers according to needs and preferences.

RSVP also works to orient senior volunteers to their new activities, as well as the supervisory staff of the volunteer station, in ways of working with senior volunteers.

A question sometimes arises as to who can be a senior volunteer--the response is: Anyone who is retired and age sixty or over is eligible to be a RSVP VOLUNTEER.

All that is asked is that the volunteer be willing to share the benefits of a lifetime of living--their accumulated experience, knowledge, interests, abilities, skills, understanding, maturity and dependability. Of course, the volunteer should be in search of an opportunity to be useful, needed and appreciated, have the capacity to co-operate and accept instructions, and be able to offer a commitment to serve on a regular basis.

It is also important to note that as in all traditional volunteer programs, senior volunteers serve without compensation, although they may request reimbursement for such actual expenses as transportation and a meal. RSVP also has no restrictions for senior volunteers based on education, income, or experience. Everyone is needed.

Remember if you would like to be a RSVP volunteer contact 728-3953.

Test Given To Seniors

Betty Crocker tests were given to Senior boys and girls December 4 in the Colorado High School cafeteria.

Approximately 90 students took the 45 minute test, proctored by Claude Woolsey, counselor.

Scholarships will be given to students who have the highest score, if they want to major in home economics.

Mrs. Margaret Latimer and three of her students from Homemaking III Class, Sharon Scarber, Renee Beights and Diana Garcia gave a report to the Board on their re-decoration of the family living room in the Homemaking department.

Some of the improvements included reupholstering of chairs, making large floor pillows, new lamp shade, they re-lined the window drapes and made and covered a cornice board for the windows, a new coffee table was purchased, all of this at a very nominal cost, with a great improvement shown on the overall look of the room.

The Board accepted the resignation of Mrs. Linda Purdy, high school math teacher and Mrs. Donna Baker 3rd grade teacher, both effective at the end of the first semester, January 11, 1974.

They approved the employment of Miss Mary Sue Neff who will graduate from Western Texas State University, Canyon in December. She will assume her duties here as high school math teacher January 14.

The Board reviewed the independent audit and the consolidated application audit as submitted by auditor, Roy Davis Coles.

LIGNITE COAL

NUCLEAR

What TESCO is doing to provide the electricity you'll need:

We're diversifying the fuels we use to generate electricity. It's necessary, but expensive.

Natural gas is the major fuel for our generating plants, with oil used on a standby basis. Both are in increasingly short supply.

To reduce our dependence on natural gas and oil, we began several years ago to diversify to lignite and nuclear fuels which are not used extensively for any other purpose than the generation of electricity. We now have one East Texas lignite coal plant in operation and two others under construction. But plants that can use lignite cost about twice as much to build as gas-fueled plants.

Because there is also a limit to available lignite supplies, a nuclear-fueled plant, which will cost more than three times as much as a gas-fueled plant, is scheduled to be in operation by 1980.

In the next five years Texas Electric must spend more than $700 million on new construction, as much as we have spent in the last 21 years combined. The only way we can finance these much higher costs and provide the electricity that our customers depend on is to obtain rate increases when they are needed. We have such a need now and plan to ask the cities and towns we serve to approve an increase in electric rates in early 1974.

We are working to supply the electricity you need, but it will have to cost more in the future.

Question:

Is Lone Star doing everything it can to hold down costs?

Answer:

Yes!

We're operating more efficiently than ever before. But our costs are going up none the less... just like yours. For instance, the interest rates on money we have to borrow for constructing new gas supply systems have increased dramatically. These rates have recently been at all time highs. Within the last 18 months, we have invested nearly $100 million:

- ☐ to build a large diameter, 400-mile pipeline from West Texas to the Dallas-Ft. Worth area.
- ☐ for other facilities along this pipeline.
- ☐ to attach major new reserves and
- ☐ to pay for well drilling by producers... all for the purpose of assuring continuing natural gas supplies to our customers.

These investments don't even include the cost of all the gas we must buy to fill the line. In 1969, natural gas cost us about 19 cents per thousand cubic feet. Recently we paid more than 85 cents for major new supplies. And the price is still rising.

Costs like these are the price Lone Star must pay for your continuing natural gas supplies. It's important that you understand our need for adequate rates so we can continue to deliver clean gas energy to your home for winters to come.

We're doing everything possible to hold down controllable costs. But even with gradual rate increases, natural gas from Lone Star will still be your most economical and efficient non-polluting fuel.
