Wallace Leads In Straw Vote Taken In Olton

A second week of the straw votes gives Wallace an even larger margin than the first week's running.

Votes cast for Wallace now number 21 total for the two weeks while Nixon only picked up two more this week to make a total for him of 11. Humphrey still received no votes.

In discussing the straw vote with a number of residents this week, it was revealed that a greater number were for Wallace than those who took time to participate in the straw vote.

Most everyone contacted said they felt like Wallace was the only candidate that was for the people.

As one man stated, "I just may vote for him. He is the only one running that is for America!"

Still another said, "I'd like to see him in the White House, but I am afraid that a vote for him would be a vote for Humphrey."

Meanwhile the Nixon backers had only good things to say about him and if there were any for Humphrey they failed to speak out for their candidate.

So, according to the straw vote taken here, it seems that Wallace is the favorite of Oltonites, while Nixon has the rest of them on his side.

Saturday Shooting In Olton Leaves 1 Dead, 1 Wounded

A double shooting here last Saturday resulted in the death of a man and the wounding of his wife.

Charles McClain, a lifetime resident of Olton, was pronounced dead on arrival at Olton Community Hospital.

His wife, Norma, was first taken to the hospital, then later transferred to Methodist Hospital in Lubbock, where her condition is listed as satisfactory. An investigation showed that McClain curbed his wife's car with his car, then stepped from his car and shot his wife through a closed window of her automobile.

He then turned the gun on himself, according to the report.

The tragedy occurred just west of the First United Methodist Church on third street. McClain was employed as an insurance adjuster at the time of his death. The couple had operated a drive in for several years prior to their separation.

Funeral services were conducted for McClain Tuesday at 10 a. m. in the First Baptist Church with the Rev. Tommy Nelson, pastor of the First United Methodist Church and the Rev. John E. Lewis, pastor of the First Baptist Church, officiating.

Burial was in the Olton Cemetery, under direction of Parsons Funeral Home. Pallbearers were David Maxey, Joe Hall, Eldon Franks, Howard Hall, Truitt Sides and Marshall Campbell.

Survivors include his wife, Norma, a son, Charles A. McClain, a daughter, Debbie, a brother, Earl McClain, all of Olton and a sister, Mrs. Gene Cottrell of Gruver.

Mary Carbajal Crowned Queen

A free chicken barbecue at the Merry-Go-Round, followed by the crowning of a queen and a dance Monday night topped off a three-day celebration here in observance of Mexican Independence Day.

Crowned as queen of the occasion was Mary Carbajal. Mayor Parley Myers placed the glittering crown on the head of the lucky young lady. Princess was Rosie Lopez.

The barbecue was sponsored by several members of the Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture and individuals, Tom Seawright and Jack Straw. Members of the C-CA participating were Walter's Dept. Store, Thompson Chevrolet, Gerald Allcorn, Olton State Bank, Kelley's Olton Enterprise, White Auto, Leon's, Zakka's, J. C. Jones, Olton Drug, Duncan's 5¢ & 10¢, Olton Furniture, Givens Texaco, Raines, Jesses and C. H. Bley. Dances were held each night during the three-day festivities at the Merry-Go-Round with different bands playing each night.

Saturday night music was furnished by Blass Hasso, Sunday night, Ray Lavera's conjunto played and Monday night an orchestra from Levelland, the Sun Lites, played.

Area Farmers Hope For Belated Freeze

A late freeze is the order most farmers in the area would give the weatherman if they had their choice in planning the event.

Crops were reported to be looking real good, with the exception of a very few. But most all farmers said they need a late frost in order that the cotton do as well as they would like for it to do.

Mrs. H. B. Carson said that they had finished cutting ensilage Wednesday and she wasn't sure when the grain would be ready to cut.

As for the cotton on their place northeast of Olton, she said "we need a very late fall with much dry weather."

Southwest of town, Mrs. George Bohner said their grain was almost ready and expected that cutting would begin soon. "The cotton looks real good -- if Jack Frost lingers long enough."

Elmo Bryant who farms north of Olton and also southwest of town, said the grain looks fine on his place and has about three more weeks to go.

"Cotton has a good way to go yet and we will not cut castor beans until after the freeze."

He said that the castor beans were developing fine and that they certainly didn't need any rain on any of the three crops he has.

Mrs. Willie Gene Green said that the grain on their place "looks great" and that they figured it would be ready in about two weeks.

"Soybeans look real good and we are still watering them. Cotton is good but sure needs a late frost," Mrs. Green continued.

Vance Estes, who farms northwest of town said he "needs two months more!" "The cotton is late and the feed is pretty and the castor beans are good. If one is good, all will be."

He said he didn't need any rain, "nor an October frost."

South of town on the Delmer Givens farm, Mrs. Givens reported that they had so much corn this year they were putting it into ensilage.

She said the cucumbers were fairly good this year and that their soybeans look good.

V. J. Carlisle, southwest of town, said crops were good or fair. The cotton is "a little late" but the feed is good and probably will begin cutting around Oct. 1 to the 10.

"Pretty good crops, possibly better than average," was the report from Thetis Haddad.

"I think we have some of the earliest cotton in the community and it looks good. Maize should be ready in about three weeks to a month."

She went on to say that according to the conversation of most farmers that it looks like the community as a whole will not be cutting for about two weeks with possible exceptions of dry land corners or damaged areas.

Mrs. Norris Sampler, northwest of Olton on the draw, said that they were almost through with ensilage corn for feed lot operation.

Only other crops soybeans, as the hail took the cotton out early in the year, The beans look real good, she said.

"But it was extremely cold this morning (Wednesday) there so much cement around the house that the temperature registered 36 degrees! Aubrey Oursbourne had a reading of 40 degrees so it was, cold on the draw this morning."

Gary Dickenson said that their ensilage was in the pit and that the grain harvest would probably begin in one or two weeks.

"Cotton is short but loaded,

We need nice hot weather. The soy beans are turning, beginning to look like it won't be too long until they are ready."

Northeast of town, Mrs. Robert Meinecke reported that all crops looked as well as could be expected.

"We lost quite a few pecans, through wind and hail but those left are real fine. We sprayed five times to produce lots of foliage and make good quality."

She reported that soybeans looked real good and might be ready to harvest before their maize.

They are planting some oats and she said "it could use rain, but everything else needs dry weather."

Southeast of town, R. V. Allcorn said that he probably would begin cutting his maize around the first of October. Soybeans will be harvested right after that.

As for the cotton, "don't know about that!"

He said the wheat looked good at the time also.

There appears to be a good harvest in the future for most farmers if the weatherman will just hold back the cold weather and rain and send some hot dry days for about another month or two.

Canyon Eagles To Battle Mustangs Here Friday

Friday the Mustangs step up a class and take on the Canyon Eagles of class AAA. The Eagles have 6 offensive and 6 defensive players back from a 2-8 team of last year.

Canyon's team will be big and fast both on offense and defense. The defensive team is led by 210 pound Tom Tucker a middle linebacker and by 185 pound Jim McBroom a line-backer also.

One of the better tacklers on the Eagle team is a 155 pound defensive halfback by the name of Hair.

The Eagle offense is led by two speedsters in the backfield. The left halfback 185 pound La Grone has 10.2 speed along with 150 pound Erwin the other halfback who has 10 flat speed. Quarterbacking chores are handled by 160 pound Lon Connor who had good speed and is a very fine passer who can throw on the run very accurately.

The offensive line is big and fast, anchored by three boys weighing 200 pounds or over along with several boys weighing 170 to 180 pounds.

Coach Don Beck says that Canyon plays a two platoon system of football and that he is expecting a very tough ballgame Friday night. Canyon defeated Olton at Canyon the last time these two teams met in 1965. That game was a heart breaker as Canyon held Olton on the Canyon one yard line for four plays as the game ended and won 19 to 14.

Study Of Basic Instruments Made By Beginners In Band

Ever wonder who's on first base? Baseball is just about over but this bass is just beginning.

Sixth grade students will be starting their band training Oct. 1, and exploring the basic band instruments is part of the fun.

Band director Fred Stockdale has been evaluating the students interest and ability to continue their band training.

Parents of interested boys and girls are being contacted and advice about a particular instrument is the main topic.

Every student is not fitted for every instrument and such factors as teeth, mouth, lips and hands play an important part in making recommendations to parents.

The band director advises all sixth grade parents not to purchase an instrument or decide on one particular horn before personal conference.

After a decision has been made about a horn, parents may either purchase a new beginner instrument or find a good used one right here in Olton.

Stockdale suggests families who have used horns for sale advertise this week. He will be glad to examine the used instrument but points out that the sale should be directly between the seller and buyer.

Beginning band students will learn all the fundamentals in class and be ready to progress to the Junior High School Colt Band as seventh graders.

Parents will have an opportunity to hear this new band for the first time on their annual Christmas Concert.

THIS IS ONE of the bass horns in the Olton Band and the 6th grade student on it . . . or rather under it Marvin Harris.

Democracy Or Communism?

What are some of the best ways to destroy democracy and the American way of life? Here are a few:

Corrupt the young, get them away from religion. Get them interested in sex. Make them superficial, destroy their ruggedness. Get control of all means of publication, and thereby:

Get people's minds of their government by focusing their attention on athletics, sexy books and plays and other trivialities.

Divide people into hostile groups by constantly harping on controversial matters of no importance.

Destroy the peoples' faith in their natural leaders by holding them up to ridicule and criticism.

Always preach true democracy, but seize power as fast and as ruthlessly as possible. By encouraging government extravagance, destroy its credit, raise fears of inflation, and general discontent.

Foment unnecessary strikes in vital areas. Encourage civil disorders, and foster lenient and soft attitude on the part of government toward such disorders.

By spacious argument cause the breakdown of the old moral virtues of honesty, sobriety, continence, faith in the pledge and word and ruggedness.

Then cause the registration of all firearms in some pretext with a view to confiscating them and leaving the populace helpless.

Does some or all of this seem evident today?

Well, it's interesting to note that these rules were discovered in 1919 in Dusseldorf, Germany, and that a copy of them was obtained from a known Communist Party member by the Florida State Attorney. And this individual admitted the rules were a part of his unit's plans.

Think it over.

Dear Turnrow Tunkel

O. C. McBride

Did you read where a sociologist blames advertising for much of the unrest in America, by causing some people to be discontented with their lot?

He may be right, I know of one television commercial that is causing a lot of trouble--the one put out by an airline encouraging wives to go along with their husbands on business trips.

I understand that an electric saxophone is now on the market. It weighs 68 pounds.

I'll bet that thing makes a lot of racket, but anyone big enough to play it probably won't get many complaints.

Some political experts are saying that the Democratic party can no longer count on the solid support of organized labor as in the past. How did they reach this conclusion?

They probably figure that after some of the recent wage settlements, many union members are going to be in such a high bracket they will start thinking like Republicans--worrying about taxes and Government spending.

I read that a marriage counselor says many marriages suffer because of a lack of communication between the partners.

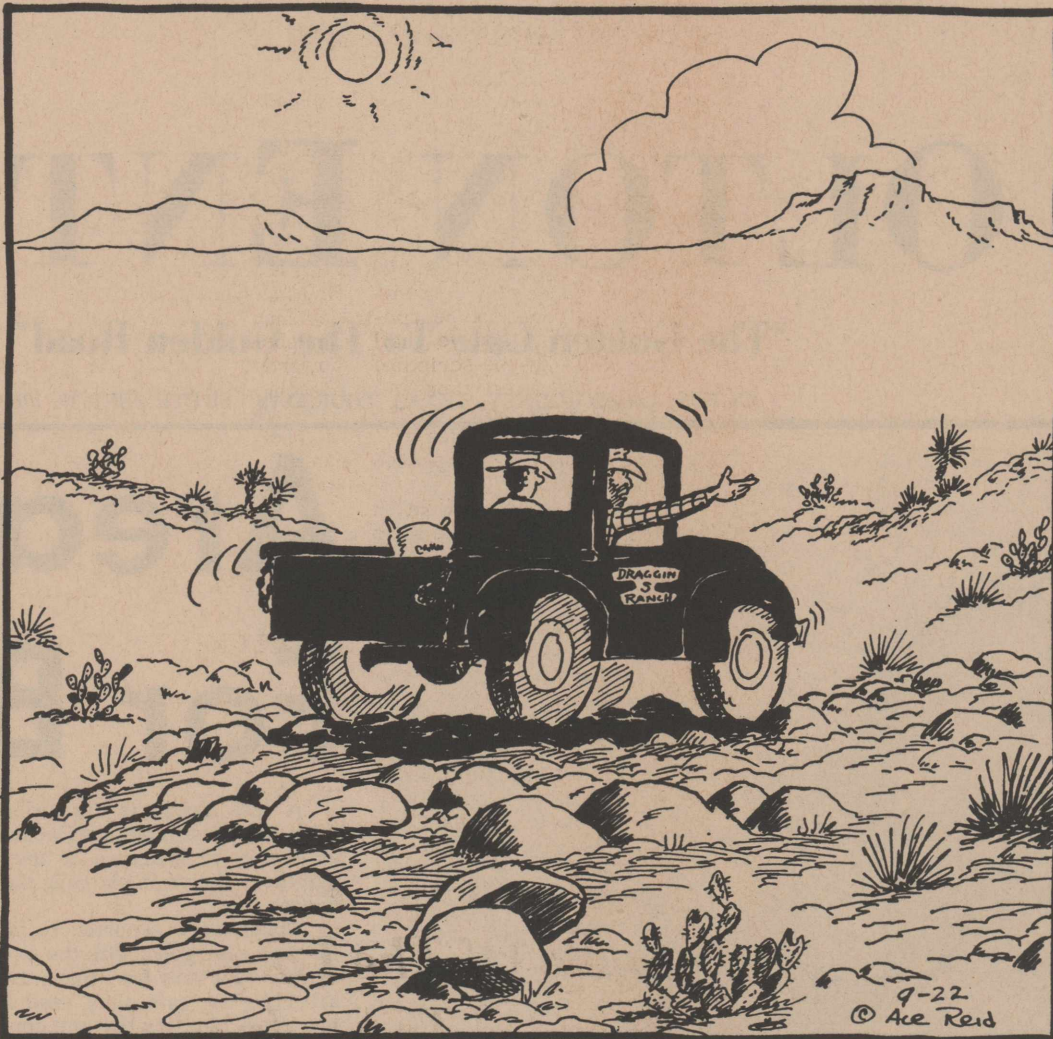

Maybe so. It might help if wives didn't always want to do their communicating while their husbands were trying to read the morning paper, or watch a favorite television show in the evening.

Did you know that a British scientist has invented an anti-snoring device? When a person begins snoring, it delivers an electric shock.

That's not much improvement over my wife's system--an elbow to my ribs.

Dear Editor

Dear Editor:

The 24th annual Boys Ranch Rodeo was probably the most successful of all the boys have ever put on with about 9,000 people turning out for the two performances over the Labor Day weekend. So much of the credit for this large crowd must go to you and our other friends of the newspaper industry, for without this fine help that you gave the boys with the advance publicity, the rodeo would not have been nearly so successful.

In behalf of all of our 348 boys and members of the staff of Cal Farley's Boys Ranch, thank you for this help and the interest you have shown in our boys, and with all good wishes, I am

FEED GRAINS FOR 1969

Barley has been added to be included with grain sorghum and corn for the total 1969 Feed Grain Base.

You may substitute between these three feed grains within your feed grain permitted acreage, and you may substitute between wheat and feed grains within the limit of your total permitted acreage for all of these crops.

Earlier information in pamphlets mailed with 1969 wheat allotment notices and publicized through news stated that barley would not be included in the Feed Grain Program for 1969. These statements are no longer correct.

Producers may still substitute wheat for barley just as they can substitute wheat for

Sue's Views

Meanest Mother

BY SUE CANNON

Have you ever been called a mean mother?

Well, I have -- many times and I also recall during my childhood calling my mother a mean mother.

I am lucky to have had a 'mean' mother.

Of course, I didn't consider myself very lucky at the time, when she refused to let me do things that I thought were so terribly important, but I realized it in later years.

This article was printed in the Littlefield Leader-News recently and I thought it was so typical of how kids feel -- like they have the "meanest mother" -- that I decided to use it this week.

"I had the meanest mother in the world. While other kids ate candy for breakfast, I had to have cereal, eggs or toast. When others had Cokes and candy for lunch, I had to eat a sandwich. As you can guess, my supper was different than the other kids' also.

"But at least I wasn't alone in my sufferings. My sister and two brothers had the same mean mother as I did.

"My mother insisted upon knowing where we were at all times. You'd think we were on a chain gang. She had to know who our friends were and what we were doing. She insisted if we said we'd be gone an hour, that we be gone one hour or less--not one hour and one minute. I am nearly ashamed to admit it, but she actually struck us. Not once, but each time we did as we pleased. Can you imagine someone actually hitting a child just because he disobeyed? Now you can begin to see how mean she really was.

"The worst is yet to come. We had to be in bed by nine each night and up early the next morning. We could not sleep till noon like our friends. So while they slept--my mother actually had the nerve to break the child-labor law. She made us work. We had to wash dishes, make beds, learn to cook and all sorts of cruel things. I believe she laid awake at night thinking up mean things to do to us.

"She always insisted upon our telling the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth even if it killed us--and it nearly did.

"By the time we were teenagers, she was much wiser, and our life became even more unbearable. None of this tooting the horn of a car for us to come running. She embarrassed us and to no end by making our dates and friends come to the door and get us. I forgot to mention, while my friends were dating at the mature age of 12 and 13, my old-fashioned mother refused to let me date until the age of 15 and 16. Fifteen, that is, if you dated only to go to a school function. And that was maybe twice a year...

"My mother was a complete failure as a mother. None of us has ever been arrested or beaten his mate. Each of my brothers served his time in the service of this country. And whom do we have to blame for the terrible way we turned out? You're right, our mean mother. Look at all the things we missed. We never got to march in a protest parade, nor to take part in a riot, burn draft cards, and a million and one things that our friends did. She forced us to grow up into God-fearing, educated, honest adults.

"Using this as a background, I am trying to raise my three children. I stand a little taller and I am filled with pride when my children call me mean. "Because, you see, I thank God. He gave me the meanest mother in the whole world."

Recipes Of The Week

A resident of Olton for 26 years, Mrs. D. B. Adair, shares some of her family's favorite recipes with Enterprise readers this week.

Noma and Dan Adair moved to Olton from Noma's home town, Floydada. They have two married sons, James of Littlefield and Dale of Norman, Okla. The couple has seven grandchildren.

The creative homemaker enjoys all types of handwork. She has knitted numerous sweaters. She is presently busily crocheting not one, but two, tablecloths.

Noma's latest interest is oil painting and she confides, "I could spend all my time painting." She added that she had had little time for painting this summer because good yields from their cherry, plum, peach and apple trees have kept her busily canning. They also have two varieties of grapes.

Chevrolet To Unveil 1969 Line Thursday, Sept. 26

The widest choice of engines and transmissions in automotive history head a parade of exclusive Chevrolet features for 1969. E. M. Estes, general manager, said today.

"This unparalleled opportunity for the 1969 buyer to custom tailor his car's performance and economy typifies the variety and value with which Chevrolet expects to increase its industry leadership," Estes said.

"Other exclusive Chevrolet features are computer-selected springs for improved ride, jet stream headlight washers for better illumination in bad weather, wider wheels to improve vehicle handling and a 'liquid tire chain' system to increase rear tire traction on icy streets."

Estes said 35 new Chevrolet models in seven distinctive car lines for 1969 go on sale nationally on Thursday, September 26.

"The industry's top seller -- the big Chevrolet -- is all new in 1969 and has the largest base V-8 engine in its class," Estes said. "It is a 327 cubic inch V-8, increased from a base 307 engine in 1968."

"Two new 350 cubic inch V-8's are also introduced, one using regular fuel as does the base V-8. The big Chevrolet also offers a high torque, regular fuel 396 cubic inch engine, largest regular fuel engine in its field."

Other exclusive features Estes listed for the new big Chevrolet are full door glass styling with improved Astro Ventilation on all models, variable-ratio power steering for more responsive maneuverability, an electrically-heated rear window defroster and a one-of-a-kind roofline for the Caprice Coupe and Impala Custom Coupe.

Chevrolet introduces in 1969 a new Turbo Hydra-Matic three-speed automatic transmission specially designed for six cylinder engines and V-8 engines up through 350 cubic inches. Teamed with the regular Turbo Hydra-Matic offered on larger displacement V-8's, this gives virtual across-the-board availability of this highly advanced transmission, Estes said.

Chevrolet also introduces a new heavy duty, three-speed fully synchronized manual transmission. Others in the wide transmission selection are the standard three-speed, optional four-speed, Powerglide two-speed automatic and Chevrolet's pace setting Torque-Drive "clutchless" transmission for four and six cylinder equipped Chevy Novas and the six cylinder Camaro. Safety and security advances on the 1969 Chevrolets range from an improved energy-absorbing steering column, contoured windshield headers and front seat head restraints to an anti-theft ignition, steering and transmission lock mounted on the steering column.

Estes said there is also an all-new outside and inside look for Chevrolet's sporty Camaro in 1969, plus exterior and interior styling improvements in Chevelle, Nova and Corvette and continued Corvair individuality.

Use of computer selection to get the best spring combination for each individual car increases Chevrolet vehicle quality in 1969. Each customer order is analyzed with high speed data processing equipment to determine the front and rear weight of all equipment and the proper springs to carry it. The result is carefully tailored, more consistent trim heights which insure a good ride as well as correct appearance.

Other quality improvements include stronger V-8 engine construction for greater durability, smoother, quieter engine drivelines to help reduce noise and vibration, a new air cleaner snorkel design that makes six cylinder engines quieter and new accessory drive systems of V-8 engines which give improved durability and quieter operation. Frame and sound isolation improvements give better ride.

Advanced, power-assisted front wheel disc brakes are available for any Chevrolet, Chevelle, Nova or Camaro and are standard on SS-equipped models. Fined front wheel drum brakes and heavier duty linings at all four wheels are standard on all regular models in Chevelle, Nova and Camaro lines.

Chevrolet station wagons in 1969 are regrouped into a single line on two wheelbases for easier customer choice. A new rear design makes them "walk-in wagons." Using Chevrolet's new dual-action tailgate with a step built into the bumper, a passenger can step easily in an upright position into the passenger compartment, turn and sit in Chevrolet's rear-facing third seat. The dual-action gate is offered on all wagons.

There is sporty SS equipment for every coupe and convertible model of the big Chevrolet, Chevelle, Nova and Camaro. Besides a big V-8 engine and power disc brakes, special identification and suspension are included.

SS cars in Chevelle, Nova and Camaro lines also have a special hood and wide oval tires on seven-inch wide wheels -- one inch wider than in 1968. White lettered tires are included on Chevelle and Camaro SS cars.

An exclusive headlight washing system is among the newest of Chevrolet's more than 400 options and accessories for 1969. It is standard on Corvettes, included on Caprice and Camaro models with concealed headlights, and optional on nearly all other models.

When the wiper-washer control is held depressed by the driver, the headlights (outer lights only on four headlight systems) are washed by jets of windshield washer fluid. This removes accumulations of road dirt, giving improved illumination.

Chevrolet's exclusive "liquid tire chain" dispensing system gives increased rear traction on ice-surfaced roads. Activated by a button on the instrument panel, dispensers mounted at the top of rear wheel housings spray the chemical against tires. The four-ounce dispenser cans are replaced when empty through the trunk compartment.

Chevrolet air conditioning is improved for 1969 with greater air-flow through larger ducts and added passenger compartment outlets. An improved AM-FM stereo radio combination has all controls mounted on the radio.

Poor door locking is offered in 1969 on Chevelle models as well as on the big Chevrolet. Chevrolet's exclusive light monitoring system that tells when front and rear lights and signals are operating is again offered on Chevrolet, Chevelle and Camaro and is standard on Corvette.

Chevrolet offers 15 exterior colors for 1969, nearly all new. There are up to six two-tone combinations, five vinyl top colors and three convertible top colors.

Regular Chevrolet -- The all-new look emphasizes its "big car" personality. Length is extended more than one inch to 215.9 inches, making it the longest Chevrolet ever built.

A new one-piece bumper surrounds a precision molded grille and recessed headlights in a protective chrome loop. Horizontal bars accent grille width.

Side sheet metal sculpturing gives subtle emphasis to elliptical wheel openings. Distinctive rectangular taillights are mounted in the rear bumper. Besides the larger 327 cubic inch base V-8 and new 350 and 396 V-8's, a new 427 cubic inch V-8 developing 335 horsepower is introduced to fulfill higher performance requirements. It replaces the 396 cubic inch, 325 horsepower engine offered in 1968. Turbo Hydra-Matic transmission is offered with every engine in 1969.

Full door glass styling without ventpanes -- offering better visibility and quieter traveling without wind noise -- is standard on all models. Astro Ventilation, introduced on 1968 Caprice, is also standard. Larger ducts and new high level outlets, combined with built-in pillar pressure relief valves, nearly double the inner air flow rate.

A new concave rear window with "frameless" lower edge allowing rear deck to flow through to package shelf is a distinctive feature of the Caprice Coupe and Impala Custom Coupe, which have an exclusive roofline. Caprice models have a special grille and offer concealed headlights.

A color-matched insert molding identifies Caprice models and offers side protection. The popular raised vinyl side moldings continue on Impala models in black plus four added colors.

The "Electro-Clear" rear window defroster, optional on Caprice Coupe and Impala Custom Coupe, clears fog and frost by means of conductive ceramic strips .3 inches wide fused on the rear window glass.

Added double-cushion body mounts, more rigid body construction, added insulation and quieter operating engines combine with the computer-selected springs for a quieter, more comfortable ride in the 1969 Chevrolet.

Optional on Caprice and Im-pala models is new variable-ratio power steering. It gives more responsive maneuverability in turns and parking. Steering is faster, requiring fewer wheel turns without any increase in steering effort or change in the straight-ahead road "feel".

The interior includes a new instrument panel with all controls and instruments grouped closer in front of the driver. Heater controls are moved to the driver's left. Rich fabrics and vinyls give added luxury.

Sporty, SS 427 equipment can be ordered on Impala coupes and convertibles. With the 427 cubic inch V-8 come distinctive features including power disc brakes and wide-oval red stripe tires.

There are 11 big Chevrolet models on a 119-inch wheelbase, 1/2 and 2-ton medium-duty V8 gas models.

In 2-ton heavy-duty models, a 235 hp. 366 V8 is made standard equipment, replacing the former 185 hp. 327 V8. Again, all Chevrolet gasoline truck engines can be operated on regular grade fuel.

Also new for 1969 is a Chevrolet-designed 3-speed manual transmission designed to accommodate the power output of the larger V8 engines.

New for most 2-ton models with 366 and 427 V8 engines is an integral charging system combining a generator and miniaturized integrated circuit voltage regulator into one compact unit. Voltage settings remain precise because moving parts and contacts have been eliminated.

An important new option is an emergency stopping and parking brake system for 2-ton models equipped with air brakes. It starts to function when air pressure in the system falls below 60 PSI and automatically applies the brakes for an emergency stop when pressure drops to about 30 PSI. A manual control valve in the cab is used to set the air brakes for parking. Also available as a new option is a dual brake system for most chassis-cab models with vacuum-hydraulic brakes.

1969 CHEVROLET LIGHT-DUTY PICKUP TRUCK--Boldly restyled for a more massive front end appearance with higher hood line and silver-anodized aluminum grille, the 1969 Chevrolet light conventional truck models combine attractive styling with a sturdy chassis for work or pleasure use. Improvements include new brighter interiors, foot-operated parking brake, tighter door sealing, automatic choke on all engines, and revised cab and sheet metal moldings for a quieter ride. New options include a 4 bbl. 350 cu. in. 255 hp. V8 engine, and dressup moldings with black paint inlays or wood-grain vinyl inserts.

Other improvements include tighter cab door sealing, more convenient location of instrument controls, and new design foam seatbacks for increased comfort. New front clearance and identification lamps on inverted bowl lens design provide full 360 degree visibility for greater safety.

Chevelle -- Chevrolet's popular intermediate size car has a new front end styling with horizontal bars extending across the full width of a richer looking grille that encircles the headlights.

The side features new trim, ornamentation, side marker lights and modified rear quarter caps. The rear is restyled with distinctive vertically mounted taillights. Full door-glass styling is introduced to the Chevelle line in 1969 on sport coupe and convertible models. Improved Astro Ventilation is standard with this feature.

Chevelle again offers exclusive separate body frame construction in its field.

New interior features include the instrument cluster, steering wheel and a wide choice of trim and colors.

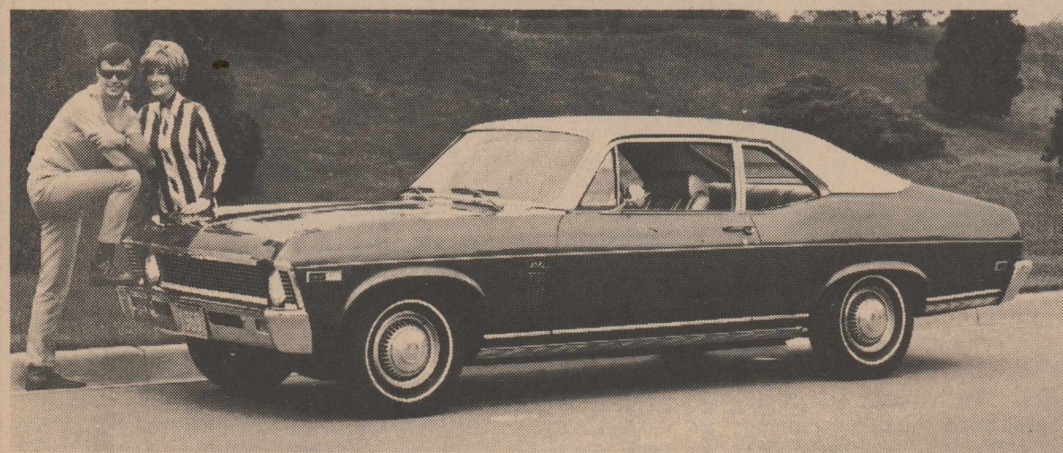

The popular, sporty SS 396 version of the Chevelle is expanded in 1969 and offered on all Chevelle coupe and convertible models. Besides a 396 cubic inch V-8 engine, it includes a black accented grille and real panel, power disc brakes, special sport wheels with 7-inch rims, wide oval white lettered tires, special suspension and chassis components and SS 396 identification.

Two six cylinder and five V-8 engines including the two new 350 cubic inch engines give horsepower from 140 to 350. There are four transmissions. Models total seven with coupes and convertibles on a highly maneuverable 112-inch wheelbase, while sedans have a 116-inch wheelbase.

"A GOOD PLACE TO BUY A CAR"

OLTON, TEXAS

Chrysler-Plymouth Showing Slated Today

The 1969 line of Chrysler cars introduces a new concept of design called fuselage styling which substantially increases interior room and gives the cars a totally different appearance.

"The new styling is another giant step forward for the Chrysler line," White said.

"In every respect, it embodies the contemporary styling and solid engineering that has made Chrysler synonymous with quality in the automotive world."

The lines of the new cars are sleek and flowing. Overall length is 224.7 inches, five inches longer than the 1968 models. The 15 models in five series -- Newport, Newport Custom, 300, New Yorker, and Town & Country wagons -- go on sale September 19.

Nearly every interior dimension has been increased from last year for optimum comfort and roominess; more than three more inches of added legroom in the rear seats of four-door sedans and even more in most four-door hardtops; greater rear-seat knee room, and shoulder room increased more than three inches in both front and rear.

The rear compartment in wagons has been expanded to 48.5 inches between wheel housings, and the housings themselves incorporate three storage compartments.

Standard engine in the Newport and Newport Custom is the strong 383-cubic-inch V-8, with a big 440 optional. In the 300 and New Yorker, the 440 is standard, with a high-performance 440 option.

Chrysler styling for 1969

integrates aerodynamic smoothness into every component of the car, from a big wrap-around or looped front bumper to new concealed windshield wipers to the sleek hardtop roofline on the two-door models. Articulated wipers extend by some four inches the wiped area on the windshield lower corner of the driver's side. On two-door models equipped with air-conditioning, vent windows have been eliminated.

Concealed headlights on the 300 have a "fail-safe" device allowing emergency manual operation of the headlight doors.

Among the features in the Town & Country lines is an air deflector which deflects air over the rear window, keeping it clean and preventing fumes and dust from entering the rear window when it is open.

Wagons also are equipped with dual action tailgates, which can be opened as a door or a tailgate.

An optional driver aid accessory package is available, offering a fasten seat belt reminder light, a door lock reminder light and a new warning buzzer to remind a driver leaving his car that he has left his headlights on.

Other refinements and new options on Chrysler line include: full-width rear seats in convertible models; repositioned door locking button on two-door models for greater ease of operation; floating caliper disc brakes and improved automatic brake adjusters; improvements in Sure-Grip differential, the cleaner air system and power steering pump; suspended accelerator pedal to facilitate cleaning the front floor.

NEW IMPERIAL FOR 1969

Imperial for 1969 is all new and longer and more luxurious, reflecting its manufacturer's determination to gain a larger share of the luxury-car market.

"The manufacturer who wants to sell cars in the most expensive price class can take no short-cuts," said Glenn E. White, General Manager of Chrysler-Plymouth Division. "Elegance of style and decor must be provided along with the very best of quality and performance. The 1969 Imperial is the result of this point of view."

With an overall length of 229.7 inches, Imperial is more than five inches longer than last year. The wheelbase is 127 inches. There are three models: The Crown four-door sedan, the LeBaron four-door hardtop and the LeBaron two-door hardtop. They go on sale September 19.

The new fuselage styling is apparent from any angle. An identifying feature from the rear is the wide, thin tail lamp inset in the massive bumper which completely surrounds it. Length of the car is accentuated by a full-length side molding just below the beltline.

Headlamps are concealed behind shutters which serve as part of the grille texture, and the grille design is divided horizontally by an overlaid bright bar. The headlamp lids have a fail-safe device which allow manual operation. The optional headlight dimmer unit also is concealed behind the grille, and the new standard sequential turn signals are mounted in the outboard section of the grille. The wipers are concealed for greater beauty and in 1969 are articulated, extending the lower left side of the wiped windshield surface by four inches. A new motor on three-speed wipers completes a full wiper sweep before stopping.

Imperial's interior is formal and luxurious. The new dash panel places dials and instruments within easy reach of the driver, and its flood-lighting uses ultraviolet filters to illuminate the various numerals.

Top quality upholstery fabrics and 21 interior trim combinations make Imperial interiors as elegant as the exterior, and a new foam-pillow built into the inside of the rear roofline provides safety and long-trip comfort for rear seat passengers.

All models have a standard 440-cubic-inch V-8 engine, complemented by a number of mechanical advances in this year's Imperial. Among them are: a transistorized voltage regulator for more consistent electrical output from the alternator; Improved Sure-Grip differential; Optional fiberglass belted tires which increase tread life and fuel economy; A new, more powerful, power steering pump; A door lock control moved forward on the doors of the two-door LeBaron hardtop for greater ease of operation; A post type door latch, designed to withstand 30 g's inertial load from any direction, and much quieter in operation than previous latches; and Suspended accelerator pedals for easier cleaning of the driver's compartment.

BARRACUDA
A new high-performance series called the 'Cuda 340 has been added to the Plymouth Barracuda line. All models in the new line have new equipment and ornamentation, new front and rear styling and an impressive list of sports options.

The new 'Cuda 340 has a high-winding 340-cubic-inch V-8 engine standard and an improved 383 V-8 as optional. Inspired by the popularity of Plymouth's Road Runner, the new models offer go, stop and handling with no extra performance options required. The 'Cuda 340 is available in fast-back and hardtop models. The convertible is Barracuda's third body style.

For V-8 power, the 383, 340 and 318-cubic inch engines are offered with greater flexibility of accompanying equipment. The 340 is available with or without Barracuda's Formula

S performance package, the 383 with power steering. A 225-cubic-inch six-cylinder engine and the 318 V-8 are standard. The hardtop is available with a new yellow flowered Mod Top vinyl roof, and the fastback offers an optional vinyl roof with four colors available.

VALIANT
Valiant offers even more economy potential than in previous years in its Signet and 100 series, each of which has two models. It is available with improved standard 170-inch-cubic-inch and optional 225-cubic-inch six-cylinder engines and long-life, mileage-building fiberglass belted tires, also available in other Plymouth lines.

In styling, Valiant has a new grille, new taillights and trim, and a straight element rear window.

V-8 engines, at either the standard 273 or optional 318 cubic inches, are again available on the economy Valiant. THE NEW 1969 PLYMOUTH LINE

The 44 models in the 1969 Plymouth line, led by the all-new Plymouth Fury, go on sale September 19.

Substantial improvements have been made in the appearance and operation in each of four Plymouth series: the standard-size Fury, the intermediate Belvedere, the compact Valiant and the specialty sports Barracuda.

"In the past two years, three-quarters of a million competitive owners were won over to Plymouth," White said. "Our 1969 line has been designed to continue to attract competitive owners and to intensify loyalty to Plymouth among current owners."

NEW PLYMOUTH FURY
The Fury, Plymouth's volume leader, has 17 models, all new, cleaner, leaner and larger. It is 1.5 inches longer than last year's models, nearly two inches wider, and the wheelbase has been increased to 120 inches from 119 inches.

In station wagon models, Fury introduces a new and efficient air deflector, mounted at the rear of the roof to divert air around and across the big rear window, significantly reducing vision obstruction by blowing clean air over the window and preventing rain, dust and grit from accumulating on it.

Six engines are available in the Fury line, from the economical six-cylinder 225-cubic-inch engine to the high-performance 440-cubic-inch V-8.

OLTON PRESENTS Anissa Leigh Young, 3-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Loren Young of Golden City, Mo. Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Everett McBroome of Olton. Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Young of Dimmitt.

Everything But The Kitchen Sink

BY MOZELLE TROTTER

I'll admit that I've never been a boxing fan -- or a wrestling fan, either. Those sports looked to rough for me but something I read this week has certainly earned my respect and admiration for former lightweight boxing champion Archie Moore. I thought it was good and I want to share it with you. The following excerpts are in his own words:

"The retired champion has said, 'everybody must take a stand in this time of internal crisis.'"

"A man who stands neutral stands for nothing," Moore says in his statement.

"The devil is at work in America, and it is up to us to drive him out. Snipers and looters, white or black, deserve no mercy ..."

"I was born in a ghetto, but I refused to stay there. I am a Negro, and proud to be one. I am also an American, and I'm proud of that."

"Granted, the Negro still has a long way to go to gain a fair shake with the white man in this country. But believe this: if we resort to lawlessness, the only thing we can hope for is civil war, untold bloodshed, and the end of our dreams."

"The young people of today think they have a hard lot. They should have been around in the 30's when I was coming up in St. Louis. We had no way to go, but a lot of us made it. I became light heavyweight champion of the world. A neighbor kid down the block, Clark Terry became one of the most famous jazz musicians in the world. There were doctors, lawyers, and chiefs who came out of that ghetto. One of the top policemen in St. Louis came from our neighborhood."

"We had it made because

Dick Brown Names Campaign Coordinator

Dick Brown, candidate for United States congressman from the 18th Congressional District, has announced the appointment of Billy Hall of Littlefield as coordinator of the Dick Brown for Congress campaign for Lamb County. Hall is a well-known attorney and has long been active in civic and political activities.

"I feel that the 18th has been virtually without representation during the past two years", Hall said, "and I welcome this opportunity to help regain a positive voice for the Panhandle, a job which I know Dick Brown can and will do when he is elected to Congress."

Brown, a life-long resident of the Panhandle is general manager of Farmers Supply Company of Hartley, and owns and operates a farm in the Hartley area.

"I have been advised that Dick will be visiting in our county within the next few weeks. I know that all of his many friends will be on hand to give him a warm welcome, and that those who have not yet met him will want to get acquainted with this extraordinary man. You will be hearing from me, and I want to invite you at this time to contact me for information, cards, and bumper stickers," Hall said.

"I consider Dick's candidacy an opportunity to send to Congress a man who has the background, experience and reputation that will enable him to take with him a first-hand knowledge of the problems of the Panhandle. He has the energy to tackle those problems and the ability to handle them, along with a record of proven effectiveness in his profession, his community and his party, he concluded."

we had a goal, and we were willing to work for it. Don't talk to me of your guaranteed national income. Any fool knows that this is insanity. Do we bring those who worked to get ahead down to the level of those who never gave a --? The world owes nobody -- black or white -- a living. God helps the man who helps himself."

"Now then, don't get the idea that I didn't grow up hating the injustices of this world. I am a staunch advocate of the Negro revolution for the good of mankind. I've seen almost unbelievable progress made in the last handful of years. Do we want to become wild beasts bent only on revenge, looting and killing and laying America bare? Hate is bait, bait for the simple-minded."

"We have to have a meeting of qualified men of both races. Mind you I said qualified men, not some punk kid, ranting the catch phrases put in his mouth by some paid hate-monger. There are forces in the world today, forces bent upon the destruction of America, your America and mine. And while we're on the subject, do you doubt for a minute that communism, world communism, isn't waiting with baited breath for the black and white Americans to turn on each other full force? Do you want a chance for life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness in the land of your birth, or do you want no chance at all under the Red heel?"

"Something must be done to reach the Negroes and the whites in the ghettos of this country, and I propose to do something."

Moore developed a program called "Any Boy Can" -- a character building program for underprivileged boys aged 8 to 15. On the basis of this work, he has been named a consultant to the Office of Economic Opportunity.

Mustangs Take Alamo 59-0

Friday night the Olton Mustangs met and defeated the Alamo Catholic High Mustangs from Amarillo proving who had the better breed of Mustangs by the score of 59 to 0.

Class A Mustangs from Amarillo were outclassed and outplayed by Class AA Olton after the first two or three plays of the game, which had signs of opening night stage fright for Olton's Mustangs.

Steve Burleson got things going for the Mustangs by grabbing a fumble on the Alamo 30 yard line.

Hard running Benny Akin carried down to the 21 with Kenneth Johnson toteing it to the Alamo 11 yard line. Quarterback Johnny Lewis faked a hand off and drove the 11 yards into the end zone for the first touchdown of the game and year.

Lewis kicked the extra point also making the score 7 to 0 with 9:29 remaining in the first quarter.

The next score was set up on a beautiful run by R. L. Copeland returning an Alamo punt 60 yards to the Alamo 10 yard line. On third down, halfback Benny Akin bulled in from five yards out for the second TD to make it 13 to 0.

With 10:43 remaining in the second quarter, hard running fullback Kenneth Johnson plowed in from 10 yards out to make the score 19 to 0. Extra point try failed.

After kicking off, the Mustang defense held Alamo forcing them to punt. Olton took the ball and moved downfield aided by a fine run by halfback Charles A. McClain to the Alamo 13.

Johnson plowed his way to the five and then McClain carried around his right end to paydirt making it 25 to 0 with 6:38 remaining in the quarter.

Johnny Lewis' extra point try failed as his kick hit Charles A. McClain going straight up the middle with a pass.

McClain made a beautiful over the shoulder, finger tip catch going on into the end zone for the score with the play covering 40 yards.

Lewis kicked the extra point to make the score 32-0.

Alamo took the kick off and moved to the Olton 34 yard line with Olton reserves playing much of the first half.

Steve Burleson playing heads up ball recovered his second fumble of the night on the Olton 34 yard line.

On second down with 2:01 remaining in the second quarter, big Benny Akin circled left end, broke a tackle or two and sprinted 54 yards for the touchdown. Lewis kicked the extra point making it 39 to 0.

With time running out in the second quarter, Alamo quarterback Jim Albracht lofted a long pass to his end Mike Hunt but it fell incomplete and time ran out with Olton reserves holding Alamo on the Olton 29.

Starting the second half off, Olton's Benny Akin charged 69 yards for a touchdown only to have it called back due to a penalty. Not going to be denied the touchdown Lewis sent R. L. Copeland on an end around play around the right end and 72 yards to paydirt for the touchdown.

With the score 45 to 0 the reserves were back in the game for good after having played part-time the first half.

Barry Cowart hit end Emiliano Marquez with a perfect pass and another TD with 1:57 remaining in the third quarter.

Akin kicked the extra point making it 52 to 0.

Sophomore Gary Durham scooted 49 yards for the final touchdown. Then big Eddie Hooper came in and kicked the extra point.

The reserves held Alamo scoreless for the remainder of the game with everyone getting some experience.

Outstanding players on offense were Charles A. McClain, R. L. Copeland, Benny Akin, Steve Burleson, Joe Luera, and Eddie Hooper.

Those making it on defense were Kenneth Johnson, Johnny Lewis, Emiliano Marquez, Eddie Hooper and Tony George.

JOHNNY LEWIS keeps an eye on Benny Akin as he runs for pay dirt again during play with Alamo High Mustangs. Olton Mustangs came out victor in the clash, 59-0.

Seventh Grade Loses Opener , Eighth Graders Win First

The Olton 7th grade Colt football team opened their season Tuesday night at Hale Center with a 16-0 loss to Hale Center. The Colts intercepted an Olton pass on the second play of the game and ran it back for a touchdown, therefore Olton had to play catch up the rest of the game. It was the first game for all of these youngsters and they made few costly mistakes, but as one player said, "Now we know what we are doing wrong and can correct it."

James Harris was one of the outstanding players of the game on offense along with John Carl Sudduth and Kenneth Davis on defense.

The Olton 8th grade Colts kicked the Hale Center 8th grade Owls to the tune of 46-0 in the second game of the night at Hale Center Tuesday night. The locals had scored 24 points with two minutes still to play in the first quarter of the game. Coach Ken Splawn substituted freely throughout the game but the Colts just kept on scoring. All of the boys played a while in the game and everyone gained some valuable experience. Danny Harris scored 28 points, his longest run was 71 yards. Outstanding players on offense were Keith Workman, Danny Harris, Reyes Rodriguez, Roger Clark, Joe Bob Daugherty, and Steve Lewis. Outstanding standing on defense were Otto Vera, Gale Long, Reyes Rodriguez, Dave Allen and Tim Givens who recovered two fumbles for the Colts.

Next game for the 7th and 8th grade teams is here at Olton next Tuesday afternoon, against Lockney. The 7th grade team plays at 5:30 and the 8th grade game is 8:00 so come on out and see the Mustangs of the future.

MOTHER DIES

Word was received early this morning of the death of Mrs. Raymond Lilly of Sunnyside, mother of Mrs. Raymond Lewis. Mrs. Lilly had been ill for several months.

Here it is! The fourth, thrilling, fun-filled week of school! And this column-- crammed full of earth-shaking, press-stopping, newsy tidbits -- is really in the groove.

That out of sight F.T.A. held a meeting Wednesday afternoon in the study hall. Thanks to the time, effort, and hard work of Jan Carson and the good guys that helped her, the completed 1968-69 F.T.A. handbook was passed out. A film was shown for the program, and then what everyone likes best -- refreshments were served.

Hey, all of the cool kids buy their annuals EARLY (hint) From our point of view the annuals look great, and we're not prejudiced either!

Congratulations are in order to Leslie Holladay and her staff for a fine O.H.S. paper that went on sale Friday. A complete sell-out proves the student body thought it was good too. Keep up the good work, okay?

It seems the old man in the sandhills has been getting around more than he used to. You would never guess what he told us about a certain red-head's ears, would you, Marsha Parker???

He also had a few things to say about W. G., but you'll have to ask Cheri Dorris about that -- we won't tell!

And just what DO you think about that, Gary Durham???

We also remember him saying something about Mike Burleson but he was eating a lollipop at the time and we couldn't quite understand him.

The old man in the sandhills has a strong feeling that there will be an epidemic of high school students getting to the mailbox before their parents, but he also said it would last only a few days so not to worry (much).

His last words were something about the "Mrs. 69" being just "all over town" but we wouldn't know about that. (?)

Since the fourth week in every six weeks is so activity-filled, we decided to brighten it a little by (no, not leaving our column out of the paper) having a Mr. and Miss Personality Plus during that week. Look, don't get so excited about it, it is just every fourth week in the six weeks, okay? Okay!

MISS PLUS

We'll gang, we hate to have to tell you this, but the old man in the sand hills feels somewhat left out of things. So solve this, he came up with the idea of having the students write to him, tell him their problems or what ever is on their minds, and the old man will even answer the letters. Just leave the letters in Locker 150 -- beside the water fountain at the west end of the south hall. (Can you remember all that?) The letters do not have to be signed, just addressed to the Old Man in the Sandhills. Help the Old Man out, Okay??

Oh, in case you missed it, we did win Friday night. Now, our definition of Love.--

What is love? Love to an Olton High School student is the 3:50 bell.
