Colorado City Record Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday.

This year the band will be attempting to surpass the all time high record set by the band last year as the band earned $1,500 selling Record subscriptions.

This will be the 17th consecutive year in which the band has conducted the drive which is the group's major money making project of the year.

By earning money on commissions and cash bonuses, the band finances educational trips, purchases special equipment and develops music projects.

For each subscription sold, the band gets a cash commission. Cash bonuses are awarded daily for volume sales. Individual students working in teams of two and three get cash bonuses for leading in daily sales.

In the 16 year period the band has been holding the subscription drive, the band has earned almost $16,500. Last year's record setting sales surpassed the previous record set in 1968 when the band earned $1,000.

Regular subscription rates are in effect for the band drive:

--$10 per year for in-county residents and service men out of county.

--$12.50 annually for out-of-county addresses.

--$9 for a nine-month college subscription, Sept. 1 to June 1.

Cotton Producers Need Late Freeze

For cotton producers, everything was about a month late this year—the first rain, the planting and the summer rains. If the winter freeze will come a month late, Mitchell County may have a good cotton crop.

"But if the freeze comes early, we're in trouble," said David Marion of the Farmers Home Administration office.

Rain has been scarce this year and what rainfall the county has received has been spotted.

"Some areas are in fair shape and some others are in water stress," said Marion. "From what I've been hearing from the areas around us, we're fortunate."

Several counties have requested to be declared drought disaster areas, thereby enabling low interest loans to be granted to farmers and ranchers who have lost crops due to prolonged hot, dry weather.

According to the Agricultural Stabilization Soil and Conservation office, no Mitchell County producers have filed for drought disaster yet.

"We haven't had anyone come in and say they've plowed their cotton up," said a spokesperson for the ASCS office. "Some have been talking about it, but none have done it yet."

Certified acres this year total 71,000 of cotton crops and 2,000 of grain sorghum.

According to a report by the ASCS office, recent rule changes permit producers to file a disaster request stating the crop potential production is so low, carrying it to harvest is not practical.

Producers may sign an agreement stating that harvest is not practical because potential production is so low or that the crop will be mechanically destroyed without feed or other benefit.

Full seeded crops may be planted on the area and a grazing crop may be planted and grazed, but not harvested.

Don Stewart, ASCS director, noted that producers should weigh the cost of harvest against crop income in making a decision.

For example, if 100 acres are planted with a farm yield of 500 pounds, 75 per cent of that 500 pounds—or 375 pounds—would be covered. Disaster payments would be .173¢ per pound and payment would be $6,487.50.

On cotton harvested, 100 planted acres makes 500 pounds. Claiming 75 per cent of the established farm yield of 500 pounds would tally 375 pounds, which is multiplied by 100 acres. Subtracting 15,000 pounds from the 37,500 pounds makes 12,500 pounds, which is multiplied by .173¢, equaling $2,163 disaster payment. Harvesting 15,000 pounds times .50¢ (estimated price) would total $7,500. Thus, harvest payment would be $7,500 and disaster payment would be $2,163, a total of $9,663. This is a comparison example.

The failed program crop acres is an alternative to the disaster filing.

But, according to Marion, a significant rain over the entire county "would put parts of us in real good shape—some of it is already too far gone."

Marion noted that the light rainfall received during the past few days has helped the crop some, offering relief from the scorching temperatures.

"What hurt us was those days of 105 degree temperatures and 25 to 30 miles per hour winds—those were the worst possible conditions," Marion said.

Last year, Mitchell County managed to produce a record breaking crop of cotton with 71,963 bales produced. But last year, planting conditions were excellent, said Marion.

"We had sufficient ground moisture to start with," said Marion. "There was no water in the jug when we started this crop."

Explaining that the final portion of the season was dry this year, Marion said, "The key is available water in the soil structure, which we do not have at this time."

But, Marion noted, the crop situation is far from hopeless.

"The rains we're experiencing right now may bail us out," he said. "We'll make half a crop or better."

Five Teachers Resign

Five teachers have submitted resignation letters to the Colorado Independent School District Board of Trustees.

The resignations will be considered and appointments will be made August 14 when the board meets in regular session.

Teachers submitting resignations include Karen Gilliland, Plan A teacher at Hutchinson Elementary School who is transferring to the Panhandle Independent School District; Nelda Charlene Ridgell, first grade teacher at Kelley Elementary School who is relocating; Jo Ann Urban, SCE math teacher at Middle School; Ginny Sue Gage, music teacher at Kelley who is moving to California and Celia Jane Slaton Johnson, kindergarten teacher at Kelley who is moving to California.

According to Superintendent of Schools Charlie Uselton, applicants are presently being screened and will be reviewed by the board.

Police Statistics Show Increases

According to a report by the Colorado City Police Department, officers have been generally a little busier the first six months of this year than they were the first six months of last year.

Thefts have increased slightly this year over last, with 27 general thefts occurring during the first half of 1977 and 37 occurring in 1978. Of the thefts occurring during the first six months of 1977, police cleared 12, or 56 per cent. The amount taken totaled $3,721 and the amount recovered was $2,135.

For the first six months of 1978, police have cleared 11 of the 37 thefts, showing a 70 per cent success rate. Amount taken was $5,489 and amount recovered was $400. Theft for the first six months of this year has increased 37 per cent over last year's statistics.

creased 20 per cent for the first six months of 1978.

By June of 1977, some 31 burglaries had occurred in Colorado City with police clearing 15 or 42 per cent of the cases. A total of $3,812.19 was taken, with $1,150 recovered.

For the first six months of 1978, burglaries have decreased 42 per cent over 1977 with 18 burglaries occurring and nine (or 50 per cent) being cleared. Some $9,269 was taken with $4,862 recovered.

Clearance of burglaries have increased 84 per cent for the first half of 1978 over the first half of 1977.

Vandals apparently hit harder during the first half of 1977, with 21 cases occurring and police solving 10 per cent, or two cases. Amount taken was $2,065 with $250 recovered. For the first six months of 1978, some 14 vandal cases had occurred with four—or 29 per cent—being solved. Amount taken was $1,217 with $800 being recovered. Vandalism has decreased 33 per cent for the first half of 1978.

Regarding vandalism, for the first half of 1978, the clearance rate was 34 per cent higher over the first half of 1977.

In property crimes, 157 cases have been handled by police in both the first half of 1977 and the first half of 1978, with 59 cases being cleared.

A total of $25,573.19 has been stolen in property crimes for both 1977 and 1978, with $9,597 of that recovered. Broken down, See POLICE, Page 7

Blood Pressure Screening Clinic At Wallace Center

The Texas Department of Health, Public Health Region 4 Nursing staff will hold a blood pressure screening clinic at Wallace

Center on the Robert Lee Highway in Colorado City, August 10th. Clinic hours are from 6 p.m. to 8 p.m. About one in ten of all adults in the world has high blood pressure or hypertension, as it is known medically. In the United States alone, it is a major contributing factor in an estimated 250,000 deaths and many more than 1,500,000 heart attacks and strokes that occur each year. Yet, once detected, this disease can usually be effectively controlled.

High blood pressure is especially a serious problem for the Black people. At present, it is a major disease suffered by this country's Black population, as well as the most important factor in their shorter life expectancy.

You can have it and not know it! Millions of people who have high blood pressure do not know they do. You can feel healthy, look terrific, and have it, because it hits relaxed people and tense people, and often there are no symptoms.

Treatment reduces the danger—in most people, high blood pressure can be lowered and kept under control with continuing treatment. This greatly reduces the risk of serious complications.

The public is invited to attend and there will be no charge for these services.

JERUSALEM BOUND

Rev. Robert Bracy

Pastor

St. James

Baptist Church

Then he took unto him the twelve, and said unto them, Behold, we go up to Jerusalem. Luke 18:31.

Roads make life interesting. Some are long; some are short. Some are winding and narrow; some are broad and well-marked. Some are smooth; some are rough. Some have no exit, and some seemingly could lead to the end of the world. Some are old; some are new. Some we travel at our own risk. Some are highly patrolled, well-protected with emergency stations at certain intervals.

But roads in themselves, no matter how interesting otherwise, have significance primarily because of the persons who use them and the direction they decide to take.

Decisions are important. The traveler on today's super highway must know in advance just where to turn. Otherwise, in a split second he can take the wrong cloverleaf and spend an hour or so in rapidly moving traffic and seemingly endless confusion.

Jesus, however, assured His disciples, as He gave them the advance word, that He knew exactly where He was headed. His followers are also expected to be certain of their destination—which is heaven.

Are we? Again and again we need to check our routing. God, at the very beginning, set up the signposts, laid down the rules of the road, sent trail blazers to mark the way—gave us Jesus Christ, the trusted One, Who says, "Follow Me." It is obvious that He doesn't want us to go to hell. Looked at all the effort He has expended to show us the way to heaven!

Everyone of us, however, at some time or another, goes far on the wrong road. Yet we know we're not meant for it that's a healthy sign. Blessed is that man who knows that he's not where he's meant to be.

Life today is like one giant super-highway with its stream of people moving along at a furious rate. It is so easy to become confused. Whether we like it or not, we may find ourselves going along with the others, only to discover to our deep regret that we've been heading in the wrong direction.

Is there any hope for the confused, the bewildered, the lost? Can Jerusalem Road be found anew? Can a man be set right once more?

Of course! That's precisely why Jesus decided so deliberately to take the road to Jerusalem. That is exactly why He did what He did once He arrived at His destination. Knowing full well that we would, time and again, miss the way, He kept to the road in our behalf. He made it all the way because He knew we couldn't.

There is hope for us since Christ finds us where we are. In our lostness we don't always know how far we are from where we are meant to be. But He has His own way of coming to us, of finding us.

Sometimes He may come to us as we remember what we were taught in the days of childhood. Maybe He'll find us as the strains of an old Gospel hymn are recalled. Years ago, railroad-crossing signs warned us to "Stop—Look and Listen." Jesus says, the same thing to us. Let the lost listen!

★ POLICE, from page 1

In 1977, some $7,534.19 was stolen with $3,285 recovered. In 1978, a total of $14,758 was stolen with $5,262 recovered.

Regarding crimes against persons, assault is the only charge showing an increase for 1978 over 1977.

During the first six months of 1977, some 11 assault cases were reported with an 100 per cent success rate for solving the crimes. From January until June of 1978, police scored a 93 per cent rate of solving assault cases, conquering 13 of the 14 crimes.

Regarding robbery cases, in 1977, two occurred with one being solved, or 50 per cent. In 1978, two robberies also occurred, but both were solved, chalking up an 100 per cent success rate.

Three rape crimes occurred in the first half of 1977 with each case being solved. In 1978, no rapes have occurred.

Statistics for drunk crimes showed an increase in 1978 over 1977 for public intoxication but a decrease in driving while intoxicated charges.

In 1977, there were 43 charges of public intoxication. For 1978, there were 53, an 81 per cent increase over 1977.

However, driving while intoxicated charges for 1977 numbered 24 while in 1978 there were 14, a decrease of 42 per cent.

For the first half of 1978, some 666 traffic citations were issued while in 1977, only 499 were issued, marking an increase in 1978 of 75 per cent.

For the first half of 1978, the number of arrests have increased over the same period last year.

Two per cent more adult arrests have been made during the first half of this year—a total of 124—compared to the 121 arrests made in 1977.

Regarding juvenile arrests, in the first half of 1977, four arrests had been made but during the same period of 1978, 15 had been made, or 27 per cent more.

For the first half of 1977, the corporation court intake was $10,840.30 compared to $15,880.50 for 1978, marking a 68 per cent increase this year.

Accidents—both major and minor—have decreased during the first half of 1978 in comparison to the first half of last year.

In 1977, some 121 minor accidents occurred during the first six months, compared to 89 in 1978, a decrease of 26 per cent.

Seven major accidents occurred in 1978 while 11 happened in 1977. Major accidents decreased 36 per cent in 1978 over 1977.

There were a total of 132 accidents in 1977 and 96 in 1978, showing a reduction of 27 per cent.

In the first half of 1977, police handled 166 cases while in 1978, they handled 157, a decrease of five per cent.

A total of 4,126 calls (not including animal related calls) have been dispatched by Colorado City Police during the first half of 1977 and the first half of 1978. In 1977, police went on 1,893 calls. In 1978, the number increased to 2,011, a six per cent jump.

Total number of incident reports—those demanding immediate attention—in 1977 was 308 while during the same period of 1978 there were 253, a reduction of 18 per cent.

Total miles driven by police—excluding the animal warden—have increased 77 per cent in 1978 over 1977. In 1978, some 48,682 miles were driven in comparison to 37,682 in 1977.

The average clearance rate—which includes the seven major crimes: burglary, thefts, auto theft, vandalism, robbery, assaults and rape—was 58.29 per cent for 1977. For the first half of 1978, the rate was 70.33 per cent, an increase of 12 per cent.

Total crime has increased about two per cent in the first six months report of 1978 in comparison to the first six months of 1977.

Registration For Fall Quarter At TSTI To Begin

With two new associate degree programs and nearly $2 million in construction under way, the Sweetwater campus of Texas State Technical Institute (TSTI) will begin the 1978-79 school year in September.

For the first time in its history, TSTI in Sweetwater will offer studies leading to the associate of applied science degree. Students may earn the degree in Technical Office Training and Air Conditioning and Refrigeration Technology.

Still another program new this fall at TSTI Sweetwater is Solar Energy Mechanic, a three-quarter (nine-month) option course in air conditioning/refrigeration. The program is designed to train mechanics to install and service domestic solar energy conversion equipment.

Registration for the fall quarter of 1978-79 will begin Sept. 26. However, students may complete the registration procedure during the week of Aug. 14-18. Fall quarter classes begin Sept. 28.

Moises Perez, manager of student services, urged prospective fall quarter students to send in their $20 room deposit as soon as possible if they plan to live in a dormitory. Perez said student housing facilities probably will reach capacity by the end of August. Perez also stated that students who wish to apply for financial aid to attend TSTI should do so immediately. Processing of financial aid applications will cease two weeks before registration, the student services manager said.

Meanwhile, prospective fall students may take the required Differential Aptitude Test (DAT) any week day at 9 a.m. and 1:30 p.m. in the TSTI Student Center.

Softball Tourney Finals Today

Finals of the Colorado City Jaycee Slow-Pitch Softball Tournament will be held today (Sunday) beginning at 1 p.m.

Playing at Hertenberger Field, the competition should wrap up about 5 p.m. and trophies and awards will be presented at the end of the contest.

Results of the tournament will be printed in Thursday's edition of the Record.

EMT Class To Begin At College

Applications are now being taken for the Emergency Medical Technology program that will begin September 6 and end December 17 at Howard College in Big Spring. This basic EMT class will be taught by Bob Harbin and Knack Cox. Application and pre-registration forms

Fullers Visit Russia During European Tour

There's no laughing, no joking, the people never smile.

That's the impression Raymond and Virginia Fuller got during a recent two-day stop in Leningrad, Russia.

The two days in Russia were part of a 14-day tour that took the Colorado City residents through Scandinavia, Sweden, Finland and Norway.

They left Dallas-Fort Worth International Airport on July 6 and flew to Bangor, Maine and then on to Stockholm, Sweden where they spent four days. They took a one day trip to the last walled city, Visby on the island of Gotland. Then it was on to Helsinki, Finland where they spent one day and then on to Russia. After returning from Russia,

Dance A Success

Friday night's Optimist Club dance proved to be successful with more than 250 youth turning out for the event.

A dance contest was held for the group on hand and was carried out in elimination style. Ten couples were chosen to compete in the finals.

Taking first place in the dance contest were Stephen Calloway and Dana Cannon, who each received a gift certificate for an eight track tape from Stereo Corral. Lisa Sanchez and Ricky Ornelas took second place and each received a $6 gift certificate to Stereo Corral. Third place—and a $3 gift certificate—went to Lonnie Walraven and Lynda Walker.

Disco Jockey J. Franks of KRBC of Abilene was featured at the dance.

they spent another day in Helsinki and flew on to Copenhagen, Denmark where they spent four days and then returned home.

About the Russians, Fuller commented he doesn't see how they can go on without revolting. "I don't believe they like the (Russian) system."

However, he added that a revolt would be difficult as it seemed one out of every three men was a soldier. Everywhere they went, a soldier was there.

When they boarded the Russian airline in Helsinki to go to Finland, a Russian soldier was at the plane. When they got off the plane in Leningrad, soldiers were there. There was a soldier at the hotel, in the dining room, the Fullers noted.

Before leaving here, the Fullers had to fill out questionnaires and send three pictures to get a special visa to get into Russia. When they boarded the plane in Helsinki, they had to fill out another questionnaire and then make a list of everything they had with them including an itemized list of money down to the last penny. They could only take U.S. currency into Russia.

They were warned only to take a flight bag, not to drink the Russian water, and even not to use Russian water to shave with. They were warned to take no luggage other than a flight bag, no jewelry and there shouldn't be any wise cracks or jokes as their rooms probably were bugged.

The reason for the accounting of money was they were not allowed to leave with more money than they brought in. It was pointed out that the three things the Russians want from Americans are blue jeans, colored glasses and panty hose. Mrs. Fuller's colored prescription glasses were stolen while she was sitting at a table writing post cards and reported it but they were never recovered.

They were also told that if they attempted to take a Bible or New Testament into Russia, it would be confiscated.

Although those on the tour didn't dress up, the Russians seemed to pick them out immediately and watched them constantly.

One of the few happy things they saw were brides' cars, on the way to a statue of Lenin which apparently is a tradition for newlyweds in Russia, Mrs. Fuller said. The cars were decorated with flowers and streamers.

Fuller noted that the Russians appeared to be full of hate. He explained that at 18, every man goes into the Army for two years. Everyone has a job, you can't quit and you can't get fired. He noted that they saw a lot of drunks on the street.

One of the common sights were lines and lines of people waiting to buy cabbages and bananas at different stands that were about the size of telephone booths.

When asked, a guide explained that this was for the convenience of the people. There were lines everywhere including at the famed Hermitage where about 20,000 people were waiting to get into the former Winter Palace of the Czars. The American tour group was taken in through a private entrance.

Everywhere they went, they were controlled and supervised. They were taken shopping at a Dollar Store, the only place tourists can shop. The clerks, who spoke English, were cool and distant and didn't seem to want to wait on you, Mrs. Fuller said.

When you bought something, you got a slip of paper, had to take it to the cashier, get another slip of paper and take it back to where you bought the item and then you got what you bought with a slip of paper that showed proof of purchase.

They saw one of the best floor shows they saw anywhere in Leningrad where American music was played and dancers performed, adorned in colorful costumes, including red, white and blue skirts and hats.

They were told the performers were professionals and drew salaries comparable with doctors and lawyers. The food throughout the time in Russia was excellent except for hard boiled egg breakfasts with a type of meat something like salami.

Their guide was a Russian woman, obviously well educated. She believed in the Russian system. If she was asked a question she didn't want to answer, she would ignore it. If you asked again, she said she would answer later but the answer was never given.

When the group got back to Finland, it felt like they were back home again. Mrs. Fuller was told that was the first time she had laughed in two days.

It wasn't until then that they realized how intimidated they had felt in Russia, Mrs. Fuller said.

For Your Tire Dollars.

Every Michelin 'X' tire is backed by a 40,000 mile warranty for tread wear on domestic cars. That's just about twice the mileage you'd expect from a conventional tire under the same driving conditions. Also, because of its radial design the Michelin 'X' rolls with less road resistance than conventional tires, and that means you can save up to 10% on your present gas consumption (pretty good considering today's fuel crisis.) Plus, every Michelin 'X' tire gives you all the distinctive radial tire advantages over conventional bias-ply tires; smoother ride, easier handling, better traction and firmer road holding. And, they add up to a lot of comfort and safety. Invest in better driving. Stop in and have a set of Michelin 'X' radials installed today.

Production And Acreage Studied

Farmers in Mitchell County have been doubling as statisticians in completing questionnaires which become essential links in the sophisticated economic structure of Texas agriculture, Commissioner Reagan V. Brown said.

The county's producers were part of some 30,000 farmers across the state who recently responded to the mid-year survey on summer acreage and production conducted by the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service.

Results of the survey will be issued in an August 10 crop report which is available free of charge.

"Without the availability of unbiased, accurate figures through cooperation between Texas farmers and the Reporting Service, business and government agents from one end of the state to the other would suffer in their ability to predict coming trends and act accordingly," Brown said.

At the same time, the information is used by farm organizations and legislators in planning and administering programs, by extension economists and private farm management consultants in advising farmers and by almost every link in the agriculture service industry in allocating resources.

Banks and investment corporations also round out their economic profiles of counties through the use of the crop and livestock statistics.

"From the individual who sells fertilizers or designates railroad car placements to the government agent who makes decisions on crop payment programs, everyone in the agricultural production chain needs and uses the information made available through this continuing cooperative effort," Brown said.

"And at the bottom line, of course, is the agricultural product consumer, who reaps the benefits of a more informed agricultural industry, better able to minimize the drastic ups and downs which can translate into unpredictable supplies and prices," Brown concluded.
