In Message To Begin... Reagan Seeks Cease-Fire

BONN, West Germany (AP) — As tens of thousands of protesters took to the streets, President Reagan and NATO leaders mixed alliance summitry with Middle East peacemaking efforts today in an attempt to halt Israel's drive into Lebanon and prevent a widening war in the Middle East.

In an unexpected development, Saudi Arabia's foreign minister, Prince Saud al-Faisal, flew here for hastily arranged talks with Reagan, British Prime Minister Margaret Thatcher and officials of France and West Germany who met with other leaders for the one-day meeting of North Atlantic Treaty Organization countries. Reagan sent a message to Israel Prime Minister Menachem Begin demanding an immediate cease-fire in Lebanon, according to State Department spokesman Christopher Ross in Washington. He also said Reagan had been in touch with Soviet President Leonid Brezhnev before sending the message.

The summit was expected to produce a statement on Lebanon, according to a member of the U.S. delegation, Richard Burt, assistant secretary of state-designate for European affairs. "It's a logical suggestion" that was made by Mrs. Thatcher, Burt said.

White House spokesman Larry Speakes, accompanying Reagan, refused to reveal details of the message. "I won't go into the content, except that it is consistent with our previous position. We want a cease-fire. We want an Israeli withdrawal," said Speakes.

Administration sources in Washington said there was a possibility that Secretary of State Alexander M. Haig Jr. might fly to the Middle East following the summit. David R. Gergen, another White House spokesman in Bonn, said there were "no firm plans" for such a trip. Speakes said the United States had asked "all parties with any influence to bear to help bring calm to the situation. We remain in contact with the Soviets on a wide range of issues."

Meanwhile, tens of thousands of people streamed into Bonn, painting the town red with bright "Reagan Go Home" stickers in protest of his Pentagon buildup and NATO plans to deploy new U.S. missiles in Europe. Huge crowds poured across a bridge named after the late President John F. Kennedy to a rallying point on the east bank of the Rhine River.

Israel blasted PLO targets in Beirut from the sea and air today and dropped leaflets warning that Israeli forces were about to storm the Lebanese capital and that Syrian troops should leave "within a few hours."

President Reagan urged Israel to cease fire and withdraw from Lebanon. The Tel Aviv command announced it shot down eight more Syrian MiGs and an assault helicopter in eastern Lebanon, and upped the number of MiGs it claimed it shot down Wednesday from 22 to 29. By Israeli count this brought the number of downed MiGs in four days to 44. Syria has admitted 16 MiGs downed and claims 19 Israeli jets downed.

Despite the bombing runs on Beirut and near its airport, there was no sign the Syrians were leaving Beirut, and the official radio of Yasser Arafat's Palestine Liberation Organization declared: "We shall fight from house to house, from room to room."

"The enemy is bombing our camps, our women, our children. But we shall fight, fight, fight," screamed the newscaster of the Palestine Liberation Organization's Voice of Palestine radio.

The Palestinian newscaster also announced that Arafat had just received an "important message" from Soviet President Leonid I. Brezhnev. He did not elaborate, but Arafat appealed to Brezhnev Monday to intervene and curb the Israeli invasion that was launched Sunday to push Palestinian forces back from the Israeli border.

PLO communiques said several residential neighborhoods in southern Beirut were hammered by the unabating air assaults that also hit areas around the airport and its highway. The PLO said its forces turned back Israeli attempts to land troops at Beirut airport.

Israel Radio said Reagan sent Prime Minister Menachem Begin an urgent demand for a cease-fire and that Secretary of State Alexander M. Haig Jr. would travel to the Middle East Friday and shuttle between Jerusalem and Damascus seeking a cease-fire.

Since the Israelis opened the attack Sunday, Syrian forces were drawn into the fighting as Israeli forces neared Beirut and the Bekaa Valley to the east, a stronghold of Syrian forces that went onto Lebanon in a peacekeeping role after the 1975-76 Lebanese civil war.

Israeli Cabinet Secretary Dan Meridor in Jerusalem said Reagan sent Begin a letter written "in a friendly spirit" and replied to it.

White House spokesman Larry Speakes, traveling with Reagan on his summit trip in Europe, said Reagan sent a message to Begin.

Syria's state radio claimed Israeli jets today strafed convoys of travelers from Lebanon to Syria at a border checkpoint in northern Lebanon, killing 57 travelers and wounding 75.

Israeli jets dropped leaflets over Beirut today warning that Israeli forces were about to storm the capital and calling on Syrian forces to leave the city "within a few hours."

"We shall capture the city (Beirut) in a short period," said the yellow, Arabic-language leaflets that were addressed to the commanding officer of the Syrian forces in Beirut and signed by the commander of Israel's northern front.

"Since we do not intend to fight the Syrian army... therefore we have issued orders to our forces to let you and your forces leave the city (Beirut) unmolested," they said.

There was no immediate Syrian comment on Israel's ultimatum. After the leaflets fell, Lebanese leftist organizations sent sound trucks into the streets warning citizens not to pick them up "because they are contaminated."

Meanwhile, Britain, Canada, France and The Netherlands urged their citizens to leave mostly Moslem West Beirut. Hundreds of local residents and foreign correspondents have begun moving to relatively tranquil Christian East Beirut.

Syria has maintained 30,000 peacekeeping forces in Lebanon since it stepped in to halt the 1975 civil war between rightist Christian militiamen and an alliance of Palestinian guerrillas and Lebanese leftists.

The leaflets were dropped shortly after Israeli jets and warships struck at the heart of the Palestine Liberation Organization in Lebanon today, pounding PLO chief Yasser Arafat's military headquarters in southern Beirut in a four hour bombardment.

The PLO said its forces turned back repeated Israeli attempts to land troops at Beirut airport.

The early morning attack on the Lebanese capital followed a day of furious air battles in eastern Lebanon Wednesday in which Israel claimed it destroyed all of the surface-to-air missile batteries Syria moved in 14 months ago and knocked down 22 Syrian jets. Syria said it lost 16 planes and claimed 19 Israelis downed, but Israel reported no losses.

Shortly after the Beirut bombardment began, Israeli and Syrian jets clashed again east of the capital.

The fierce bombardment sharpened fears here that Israeli troops were on the verge of invading Beirut to try to liquidate the PLO leadership.

The PLO said Arafat was directing resistance to the Israeli invasion from his secret command bunker, sending frequent morale-boosting messages to his troops over the Voice of Palestine radio, interspersed with appeals for collective Arab intervention to "stop Israel's anti-Palestinian genocide."

The Arab League was to meet today or Friday in Kuwait to discuss his appeal. The 10-nation European Common Market denounced the Israeli invasion.

The guerrillas put up massive barrages of anti-aircraft fire but the diving Israeli jets kept coming, dropping loads of bombs before veering off to the south, said witnesses who watched the raids from the balconies of high-rise Beirut apartment buildings out of the line of fire.

The Palestinians said southern Beirut beaches and the Bourj El-Barajneh neighborhood that contains a teeming Palestinian refugee camp near the shut-down international airport were under relentless bombardment.

The SDN Column

Now that commencement programs are past, a lot of young high school graduates have their sights set on college this fall. Perhaps more than usual are taking college courses this summer. Strange as it may seem, when immediate job opportunities are fewest, it seems that more decide to continue their formal education. This is sort of a protective move. When jobs are plentiful, employers are likely to put less emphasis on schooling than when job openings are scarce. They can be more selective in times when it is an employer's market.

Thus, a formal education actually is worth more during hard times than it is when jobs are plentiful. Nobody argues about the fact that many people with high school diplomas are capable of filling a lot of jobs as efficiently as college graduates, but when the job supply dwindles, those with more education usually get the inside track on the better positions.

Another factor we have noticed over the years and have pointed out from time to time is what we call the "shortage cycle." Because of it, we would tend to advise new high school graduates who are uncertain about a field of study in college to take on something that has a surplus today. Chances are good that some four or five years from now, the pendulum will have swung and there will be a shortage.

About three or four years ago, there suddenly was a huge surplus of teachers in Texas, except for a few highly specialized fields. Today, we are being told that the situation is reversed. School administrators in Houston are reported to have stated that they could place all teacher graduates from all colleges in Texas this year. At the same time, school officials in Odessa announced that, for the first time in history, they are trying to recruit teachers from out of state.

Other professions have had their ups and downs, and usually a cycle lasts three to five years.

Of course there are some who pay no attention to cycles. Like our cousin Alfred down there in East Texas. He was highly selective in seeking job opportunities, but somehow was able to "make it" on intermittent employment. One day as he discussed world affairs with contemporaries who had assembled at a perpetual domino game, a more industrious acquaintance stopped to pass the time of day. In his pickup truck were a couple of shovels, a hoe, a rake and a lawnmower.

"That's a depressing sight," said Alfred. "There's many a backache in those things."

There still are, but there are times when there is good money in them, also. It is in such times that the shortage cycle dictates preparation for something else.

Reject Peace Offer

NICOSIA, Cyprus (AP) — Iran's official news agency today rejected an Iraqi peace offer that did not include the Iranians' key political condition, the ouster of Iraqi President Saddam Hussein.

"If the Baathist-Zionist Iraqi rulers were seeking peace they could have achieved it before the outbreak of the new war in southern Lebanon by giving a positive response to provisions set by Iran," the new agency IRNA said in a commentary.

Demonstrate Against Reagan

BONN, West Germany (AP) — More than 100,000 protesters streamed into Bonn today and painted the town snap with bright "Reagan Go Home" stickers to demonstrate against plans to deploy new U.S. missiles in Europe and other nuclear arms policies.

FOR the rallying point, witnesses said a young man set aprons himself and tried to slit his throat before he was Sea away by helicopter with what police said were items—Jagreed burns.

Ask Us

Q.—Is it against the law for a person to be drinking beer while driving a car?

A.—Not necessarily. Charges such as driving while intoxicated, or drunk in an automobile may be lodged, but only if the person is intoxicated, or drunk. There is a movement underway in some of the major cities to tighten the laws, providing tougher penalties and more stringent restrictions on drunk drivers, and also an "open can" or "open bottle" law which would prohibit a driver from drinking while operating a motor vehicle, regardless of whether he was "drunk."

On Drunks...

Task Force Set For Crackdown

HOUSTON (AP) — A drunk driver coming into or leaving Harris County's northside this weekend will face a formidable law enforcement task force lined up with citation pads in hand and a paddy wagon ready to cart violators to jail.

As many as 100 police officers and 35 units will participate in saturation patrolling of major thoroughfares as part of the first coordinated crackdown of city, county and state agencies against drunk drivers.

The traffic safety blitz is the combined work of the Texas Department of Public Safety, State Department of Highways and Public Transportation, Harris County Sheriff's Department and the Houston and Pasadena police departments.

"Instead of eight or 10 units in that area, there will be 35 to 40," said Department of Public Safety Lt. Harold Couch, a member of the Traffic Safety Awareness Task Force. "We will not only be looking for drunk drivers but for all violations that might endanger motorists' safety."

The effort, announced Wednesday, will begin Friday about 6 p.m. and continue until about 6 a.m. Saturday. It will be coordinated from a central post to prevent agencies from overlapping patrol areas.

Officials admit that carefully combing one area will not solve the overall problem. "I don't think this will solve the problem but by concentrating on one area the public will at least be aware that we are trying to do something," said task force chairman Jim Freeman of the state highway department.

Couch said the DPS has individually attempted similar blitzes without lasting success.

"We have never been able to establish a deterrent but we hope with a concentrated effort of all agencies, we'll create one," Couch said.

Law enforcement officers have studied statistics to formulate their task force activities.

"Statistics tell us that most drunk drivers hit the road about 8 p.m. and they are still out there until about 5 a.m.," Couch said.

"We plan to be out there to meet them at 8 o'clock."

The county recorded 691 traffic fatalities in 1981, and National Safety Council studies showed more than 50 per cent of those were caused by drunks. Freeman said about 25 per cent of all traffic accidents in the state occur right here in Harris County.

Major C.W. Rust of the

Harris County Sheriff's Department, said drunk drivers would be taken to the Humble, Texas, jail to be charged.

Robinson With Snyder National For 30 Years

Rex Robinson rounds out 30 years in the banking profession today, and he has seen a lot of changes, not only in banking but in Snyder and Scurry County.

The executive vice president of Snyder National Bank actually went to work there on June 10, 1950. That was 32 years ago. However, he was away for two years, 1953-54, serving Uncle Sam in Korea.

Snyder National was located at the corner of Ave. S (now College Ave.) and 25th St., in what is now known as the Wallace Building when Robinson began working there as a filing clerk. He had just graduated from Hermleigh High School a couple of weeks earlier.

A. C. Alexander was president of the bank,

REX ROBINSON

Ralph Geisenhoner was vice president and George Frazier was cashier.

Robinson resumed work at Snyder National after his release from active duty by the military, and in 1956 he married Marsha Fisher. They have two sons, Phil, 24, and William 20, and a daughter, Sabrina, 16.

Robinson advanced up the ladder to assistant cashier, assistant vice president, vice president and, in 1971, he became executive vice president. Meanwhile, he found time for a full load of community service, and to become active in the cattle business.

He has served on the board of managers of Cogdell Memorial Hospital for eight years, serving as chairman in 1980-81; is now concluding his second year around as president of the Snyder Rotary Club; is vice president of the Scurry County Heart Association; is advance gifts chairman for the Scurry County United Way; has served on the board and is now on the sales committee of the Scurry County Junior Livestock Association; worked eight years in the Little League Baseball organization and 10 years in Teen-aged Baseball, serving both as president; has served on the board of the Scurry County Industrial Foundation and as a member of the community's Industrial Team; served as president of the Colorado River Angus Association; served on the board of the Texas Angus Association from 1962-72, holding the office of president in 1972; and is now secretary of the National Anxiety 4th Hereford Association.

Robinson has been a deacon at First Baptist Church for the past 15 years and served as chairman in 1972.

Scurry County was experiencing the height of the oil boom when Robinson began working at the bank.

"We could stand on the second floor of the old bank building and see 100 drilling rigs working back there in 1950," he recalls.

However, Snyder and the bank both have enjoyed considerable progress since those days. Snyder National's deposits were around $10 million in 1950, compared to about $72 million today.

Awards Go To Area Students

Two more area students have been named 1982 National Award winners by the United States Achievement Academy.

Bobbie Brooks of Snyder High School and Gregg Glass of Hermleigh Junior High School have been recognized for achievement in business education and mathematics, respectively.

Both were recommended by teachers, Miss Brooks by Billie Hartfield, business teacher at Snyder High School, and Glass by Mike Brown and Loretta Bridges, science and math teachers at Hermleigh.

Such awards go to less than five percent of American high school students, and names of those selected will appear in the United States Achievement Academy Official Yearbook, which is published nationally.

Students are selected for awards on the basis of academic performance, interest and aptitude, leadership qualities, responsibility, enthusiasm, motivation to learn and improve, citizenship, attitude and cooperative spirit, dependability and recommendations from a teacher or director.

Miss Brooks is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Brooks, 3200 Ave. A.

Glass is the son of Rex and Juanita Glass of Hermleigh, and is the grandson of Athylene Simons of Hermleigh and Bernice Glass of Sweetwater.

Did you read the story a few weeks ago about the man who picked up $1.2 million that had fallen off an armored truck? Six days later, he had spent $196,000 of it and was on his way to Acapulco. When he was caught and hauled into court, he pleaded not guilty by reasons of "insanity."

If a million two wouldn't make you crazy, what would? I tried that plea once with my husband and it didn't wash. He said I had a choice. I could either take the Ultrasuede skirt back or be committed in it.

I tried "I blacked out" when I bought my food processor. That didn't work either.

About three years ago I used, "When I opened my purse my credit card fell into that little machine and charged a silk dress to me before I knew what was happening." He said it was the closest I ever got to an insanity plea.

Actually, there's not a woman in the world who

Your Birthday

June 11, 1982

If you have been contemplating becoming more seriously involved in a sport you're fond of this is the year to do it. It will prove to be great fun and the results will please you.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) Look at life philosophically today. If you do you'll be a winner with "very little effort," even when dealing with those who can be difficult to please. Predictions of what's in store for you for each season following your birth date and where your luck and opportunities lie are in your Astro-Graph. Mail $1 for each to Astro-Graph, Box 489, Radio City Station, N.Y. 10019. Be sure to specify birth date.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) Someone has a piece of advice for you that could turn what may have been a problematical issue at home into a resolvable situation. Listen and act.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) Although some things might be tough to say, you'll find a diplomatic way to say what needs to be said. All will be glad the burden of presentation was yours.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) Don't be afraid to give vent to your larger ambitions today. You possess the ability to bring into being that to which you set your mind.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) In order to bring out the best that's in you, you need involvements today which offer a little friendly competition. Get an early tennis court or tee time.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) Don't be hesitant about making changes today if you feel that which you wish to alter will be of ultimate benefit to your family. You know what's necessary.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) You'll have what it takes to usher dissenting parties to the negotiating table today and show everyone how to settle matters, tightening ties that bind you to already good pals.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) This could be a red-letter day, bringing to a profitable conclusion something for which you have worked hard and long. It pays to be persistent.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) The key to getting others to rally to your banner today is to lead by example. Once they see your way of doing things works, they'll follow.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) There are two important projects in which you are now involved that can be successfully finalized today. They are slightly related to one another.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) Others will listen intently and heed what you say today. They'll know instinctively your judgments are based upon fairness and balance.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) When you know there are rewards for your labors, no job will be too tough for you to tackle today. Hard work will get you your desired results.

would be surprised or impressed by someone spending $32,666 a day. Shopping is our life. It's what we do best and no one is more aware of the selling traps than we are.

Beginning at the front door of a shop or store, the bright lights hypnotize you into a relaxed euphoria. As you walk down the aisles, handbags, boxes of cookies and nightgowns are placed near the edge of the counter so that when you brush by them you knock them off and experience the pleasure of holding them in your hand.

We don't have a chance. The advertising industry spends billions of dollars a year trying to figure out how they can get us to open our purses. I'm a cheap shot.

Meet a compulsive buyer. I buy in haste and repent at leisure. I can rationalize everything I buy from slacks that don't fit to polo scorecards.

Following the birth of one of the children, I was given a check by my mother to spend any way I saw fit. I ran through the department store for three days getting near to a purchase, then rejecting it for something else. Eventually, I paid the phone bill with it, but it got the color back in my cheeks again.

My friend, Mayva, read the story about the man who carried around $1.2 million and said, "How could any rational human being spend $32,666 a day?"

Mayva hasn't priced lettuce lately.

Spielberg High Bidder For Sled

NEW YORK (AP) — Filmmaker Steven Spielberg, who says he was influenced greatly by the classic "Citizen Kane," telephoned in a bid of $55,000 to buy the balsaled "Rosebud" used in the movie, an auction house says.

Spielberg bid by phone from the West Coast on Wednesday, beating out bidders from Chicago and Texas for the famous prop, according to Colby Kelly, spokeswoman for the auctioneer, Sotheby Parke Bernet.

"When I heard that the sled was going on auction, I was very hungry to have it," said Spielberg, director of "Jaws," "Close Encounters of the Third Kind" and "E.T."

"It's a symmetrical medallion of quality filmmaking," he said.

Minor Mishap Reported Here

Snyder police investigated one minor traffic mishap Wednesday afternoon.

Involved in the 4:07 p.m. accident at the intersection of 37th St. and College Avenue were a 1979 Toyota driven by Cheryl Diane Smith of 407 32nd St. and a 1978 GMC driven by Rick Glenn Powell of 2704 Avenue G.

No injuries and only minor damages were reported in the mishap.

Patti Cooksey was the leading feminine jockey in 1981, winning 197 races at nine different tracks.

Nukes Are Best Power Source

HEALTH

Lawrence E. Lamb, M.D.

Use low-fat foods in groups

By Lawrence Lamb, M.D.

DEAR DR. LAMB — I would appreciate any Health Letter you have concerning foods that aid in lowering fat in the blood. I attended a health fair here last spring and the only test that was outside established reference range was the cholesterol and triglyceride count. I have had a high cholesterol count for 10 years to my knowledge. I have never been very energetic. I'm 64 years old, female and otherwise in good health.

Also I would like to know the food value of buttermilk. I like it very much and hope it is not harmful.

DEAR READER — Both diet and exercise are important in controlling your cholesterol and triglyceride levels. The big goal is to eliminate any excess body fat that you might have. That means calorie restriction by your diet and increased calorie use by exercise. Your comment that you have never been very energetic may be a factor in your problem.

Buttermilk is not a problem, except that you need to control your total calorie intake. It is a good food and contains good quality protein. A whole quart will provide only 353 calories and contains only one gram of fat. It does contain 35 grams of protein and also needed calcium. It is a good choice for your diet.

Your diet should eliminate total fat, particularly saturated fat and limit cholesterol intake. When you do this right, and if you avoid concentrated carbohydrates such as sugar, honey and other sweets you will usually be able to cut your calories down a great deal.

I am sending you The Health Letter number 15-4, Diet to Prevent Heart Attacks and Strokes. It will give you examples of what to use in each of the four basic food groups. Others who want this issue can send 75 cents with a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope for it to me, in care of this newspaper, P.O. Box 1551, Radio City Station, New York, NY 10019.

DEAR DR. LAMB — Some time ago a man wrote to an advice columnist — I can't remember which — to discuss his wife's arms. They had become flabby, the flesh was hanging loose and was very unbecoming. He asked if she thought his wife should have an operation to remove the excess flesh. The columnist's opinion was the wife should have the operation.

Now I've been ill and my flesh on my arms has also become flabby and unsightly. I would appreciate your advice. Is this a dangerous operation?

DEAR READER — Any unnecessary operation is a dangerous operation. I do not know what you read before but each case has to be decided on the basis of the individual circumstances. Such extra skin can Potatoes are versatile. They can be distilled into vodka and aquavit, processed into starch, paste, and dye, and converted to fuel. Researchers have shown that one acre of potatoes in one year's time can yield 1,200 gallons of ethyl alcohol, or potato gasohol, for cars.

RICHARDSON, Texas (AP) — The "father of the hydrogen bomb" says nuclear energy is the best source of electric power and anti-nuclear activists are "murderers."

Edward Teller, 74, a physicist at the Lawrence Livermore Laboratory and the Hoover Institute in Palo Alto, Calif., is an unabashed exponent of nuclear energy, both in weapons and power plants.

Speaking here Wednesday on the "The Dangers of the Radiation Scare," Teller told a symposium composed mainly of engineers and oil and utility company executives that fears of radiation are exaggerated.

"I am not going to make a peace treaty with the anti-nukes because they are murderers," Teller said. "They have brought about the radiation scare, one of the most worrisome phenomena today."

He said irrational fear of radiation keeps "hundreds of thousands if not millions" of people from necessary medical X-rays or radiation treatments.

"I think our greatest hazard is stupidity, and this stupidity is caused at least 50 percent by the news media," he said.

Teller said that nuclear energy is the best electric power source available, but that expensive licensing procedures and high interest rates keep nuclear reactors from being cost-effective.

The conference — the second Texas Symposium on Energy held at the University of Texas at Dallas — was sponsored by UT-Dallas, Texas Power & Light Co., Dallas Power & Light Co., Lone Star Gas Co., and Energy & Man's Environment, an education group based in Utah.

DP&L and TP&L are among the owners of the controversial Comanche Peak nuclear power plant under construction near Glen Rose. Licensing hearings on the plant opened in Fort Worth Monday.

Teller said that all life is exposed to radiation from elements such as uranium that occur naturally in the soil, and that even if radiation causes genetic mutations, these are not necessarily bad.

Excavating uranium for use in power plants or weapons lessens the chance that people will be exposed to it, he said.

"So if you want to save people from radiation, you better build reactors," Teller said.

Teller said a nuclear war would not necessarily end life on Earth.

Grandma Puts Up Hard Hat

CREOLA, Ala. (AP) — Fire Chief Virginia Lawshe says she's tired of her beeper going off during church prayers on Sunday.

She also wants to "go out West" on vacation, take sewing lessons, and enjoy her 11 grandchildren.

For these and other reasons, Mrs. Lawshe, 53, who pioneered the volunteer fire department in this oil-rich Mobile suburb of 1,600, is hanging up her chief's hat.

"I enjoyed it. I was the only woman who could stay up all night with a dozen men and not get talked about," she said, looking back on her four-year career as chief.

She and Carol Sherman took on the firefighting job, she said, because none of the men in the community wanted to be seen riding the "white elephant."

That was the fire truck the town inherited from the state Forestry Commission. "We ran it in a parade and the engine got too hot and it burned out," she said with a hint of amusement.

The demise of the "white elephant" allowed the town to search for another fire truck, which they found in Brent, Fla.

It's a 750-gallon pumper that still operates.

But the pride and joy of the community is the spanking new 1,000-gallon truck purchased in November for $60,000.

"We worked and we worked and we worked to get these fire trucks," said Mrs. Lawshe.

With Mrs. Lawshe's resignation, the chief's duty fell to Police Chief Frank Hammond.

An accident with the new truck led five men and five women volunteer firefighters to resign recently.

The new truck's underbody caught fire during a sage-patch fire. Now the 750-gallon pumper is back in service, until the insured pride and joy is repaired.

Use of the new truck had been restricted to paved and dirt roads. The City Council got upset because it had been driven into the blazing field.

That led to some resignations, but Chief Lawshe said she had planned to leave before all that, and she'd stay "on standby" if needed.

After the resignations, Hammond said, 23 volunteers were still on call for fire duty.

During her firefighting career, Mrs. Lawshe takes pride in having saved a "$100,000 house" from a roaring blaze.

Among her biggest jobs were a Getty Oil fuel storage tank blaze ("We went over on standby"), and a railroad engine that caught fire after hitting a dump truck.

"I'm hoping the men will be able to handle it now," she said.

Swim Suits Lose Lots Of Weight

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP) — Back around 1913, Jantzen's swimsuits for women, created of wool and carefully covering a great portion of skin, weighed about 8 pounds.

That didn't count the matching wool knee socks and bathing cap the woman also donned to take a dip.

Today, a woman can slide into a skimp of spandex that weighs less than 4 ounces and covers only the bare essentials.

Technological advances in the fabrics industry, starting in the 1950s, revolutionized swimsuit fashion.

Earlier swimsuits had been made of wool and cotton. Then nylon and other quick-drying synthetics emerged, increasing the versatility of swimwear. Today Lycra, a fabric with incredible give and take, is used for swimsuits.

Jantzen Inc., which as late as 1917 sold only 50 dozen swimsuits annually, moved toward the water in 1913 when members of the Portland Rowing Club approached the Portland Knitting Co. to make a pair of rib-stitch trunks for wear during the rainy winter.

The suit, tested in the YMCA pool and the Willamette River, proved popular. It was a turning point in the fortunes of the Portland Knitting Co., the predecessor of Jantzen.

Style was not a consideration in the earliest days of bathing. Modesty alone dictated the fashions that women wore into the water.

A favorite bathing dress of the 1850s consisted of long drawers confined at the ankle and a long dress belted at the waist. By 1880 women were beginning to show ankles — even knees — although their bathing costumes were complete with heavy black stockings and a ruffled cap.

By 1900, women were starting to learn to swim. They needed more comfort and began to discard the skirt. The sailor look was popular and considered daring. Black stockings were still in evidence.

Gene Autry Home Again

ORANGE, Calif. (AP) — Former cowboy singing star Gene Autry has been sent home from the hospital in "100 percent great shape" after recovering from the flu, a hospital official said.

Autry, 74, owner of the California Angels baseball team and chairman of Golden West Broadcasters, was released Wednesday from St. Joseph's Hospital, said hospital spokeswoman Valerie Orleans.

The suit, tested in the YMCA pool and the Willamette River, proved popular. It was a turning point in the fortunes of the Portland Knitting Co., the predecessor of Jantzen.

Style was not a consideration in the earliest days of bathing. Modesty alone dictated the fashions that women wore into the water.

Plans have been announced for the 20th Annual July 4th Art Show which will be held in the Towle Park Barn.

Entries will be accepted on Thursday, July 1, between the hours of 1 p. m. and 7 p. m. at the park barn. They may be picked up from 5 p. m. to 6 p. m. on July 4.

There will be four divisions, including senior professional, senior amateur, and junior, and four ribbons will be awarded. The ribbons will go to first, second, third and honorable mention.

Classes will include landscape, still life, portraits and contemporary. Both copy and contemporary work will be accepted in their respective classes as be judged as such.

Each artist may enter four paintings in each class. There will be an entry fee of $3 per painting in the adult divisions and $1.50 each in the junior divisions. Artists will be allowed to price their work for sale, with 10 percent of the sales price going to the July 4th Art Show.

Insurance on entries when desired must be carried by the artist.

All paintings must be matted or framed and wired for hanging. Entries should not be more than two years old and should not have won any awards previously in this show.

Each entry must have a card attached to the back with the name of the artist, address, division and price, if for sale.

Trophies will be on display until paintings are picked up on Sunday, July 4. The show will be open to the public on Saturday, July 3, from 9:30 a. m. to 8 p. m., and on Sunday, July 4, from 1 p. m. to 5 p. m.

More information on the show may be obtained by calling Ethel Mae Sturdivant at 573-2315, or Lois Burney at 573-6594.

Woman Helps Trapped Man

HANSFORD, W. Va. (AP) — Faint cries for help woke Margaret Elswick, and she spent 45 minutes searching outside in the darkness before finding the source of the sound. Her persistence probably saved the life of fellow Hansford resident Joe Bess, officials said.

Mrs. Elswick found Bess, 32, trapped up to his chest in mud along the Kanawha River.

Police said Bess had been putting out a fishing line in the river when his rowboat tipped over. He was trying to get out of the river when he waded into mud that sucked him in like quicksand.

West opened the nine of hearts and the student sitting East, covered dummy's queen with his king.

South took his ace, cashed his two high trumps and went after diamonds. The ace of diamonds caught East's 10. Dummy's king plucked the jack and a low diamond accounted for East's queen. South ruffed and led a heart to dummy's jack.

Now South played one of dummy's two good diamonds. East ruffed with his queen trump, but South was able to get rid of his losing heart. East played a club and West scored defensive tricks two and three with the ace and queen. South took the rest without ceremony.

"If you had played your three of spades at trick one," said the professor, "South would never have been able to get to dummy to play a good diamond and declarer would have lost one trump, one heart, two clubs and probably his good humor."

"I thought I was supposed to cover an honor with an honor," replied the student.

"Not always," answered the professor, "and in particular not this time, when you could retain the king to cover any honor in the suit played by dummy later on."

Western Vaults To Ninth

SCOTTSDALE, Ariz. — Western Texas College had some trouble near the end of the round here yesterday but managed to off from its 16th place standing to ninth as the NJCAA National Golf Tournament reached the halfway point. As host Scottsdale, Ariz. steadily increased its lead, all but 15 teams were cut from the original field of 30. Scottsdale cranked out a 287 - by far the best round of the tournament - to take a 10-stroke advantage of 581 into today's round.

Alexander City, from Alabama, added a 293 to Tuesday's 298 for a 591 - 10 shots from the lead but another 10 ahead of third place teams Paris, Tex. and Edison, Fla. Both had 601s.

Meanwhile, Western shaved its previous 309 to a 304 and landed in a tie for ninth with a total 613.

"We came up a little bit," said Westerner Coach Dave Foster. "We were in a position to come up a lot more, say to about fifth place, but the last two or three holes really hurt us. We didn't play them well. But we're still in good shape. We're still waiting for our good round. Hopefully we'll play real well these last two rounds."

A full 32 strokes behind the leader, Western can hardly vision chances of coming away with a championship. But Foster feels the team can finish well.

"We too far behind Scottsdale and Alexander City to finish first, but I think we can feasibly shoot for third place if we play a lot better," he said. Western is 12 shots from third with 36 holes remaining, and seven shots from fifth place.

Darryl Henning of Paris continues to lead for medalist honors. His scores of 68 and 70 total a 140, while Chip Holcombe of Alexander City is runner-up with a 143.

Western's Jeff Seger equalled his Tuesday round of 73 yesterday to come in a 146 - tied for seventh place. Other Western Texas scores yesterday were a 76 by Ronnie Fletcher, a 77 by Rick Woodson, a 78 by Petey Petri and an 80 by Philip Jones.

Net Tourney Looking Good

The annual Snyder Fourth of July Tennis Tournament is forming as a top event here, according to tournament director Mike Boles.

"It looks like it might be the biggest tournament we've ever had," said Boles. "I look for the men's singles and mixed doubles to be real strong, added Boles, who said the tournament prizes are "outstanding".

Entries have been reported from throughout the area, including such locations as Houston. Several of Snyder's former standouts have also made plans to play in the tournament, which is sponsored by the chamber of commerce.

Events include 12, 14, 16 and 18 boys and girls singles and doubles, men's and women's singles and doubles open division; 35-year old and over men's singles; 35-year-old and over women's singles; and mixed doubles.

Entry fee for all singles is $6 per event, doubles $10 per team.

The tournament will be held July 3 and 4 and entries may be obtained by contacting the chamber, Snyder Athletic Center, or by calling (915) 573-3344 or 573-3940.

Austin Pulls Out Of Meet

BIRMINGHAM, England (AP) - Tracy Austin, the U.S. Open champion, withdrew from the Edgbaston Cup women's tennis tournament with stomach trouble.

She had to retire after one set and almost two games of her third-round match against Betty Stove of The Netherlands.

Cooney No Pushover, Say Holmes' Trainers

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) Eddie Futch and Ray Arcel, the two elder statesmen who are preparing Larry Holmes for Friday night's defense of his World Boxing Council heavyweight championship, don't expect challenger Gerry Cooney to be any pushover.

"Gerry Cooney is young, strong and ambitious," said Futch, who, at 70, is the junior member of this raining tandem. "He's got power in his left and he's earned how to use his right."

Arcel, who is 82 years old and has been in the business of boxing for most of that time, echoed Futch.

"We're in with a strong, young bull who wants to be champ," he said. "We're not underrating him."

Victor Valle, responsible for preparing Cooney for his richest bout in boxing history, thinks Holmes' praisurist is approaching this thing sensibly.

"Gerry changes from a human being to a beast in the ring," he said. "You can see it in his eyes. I can tell when I give him his instructions."

Friday's fight comes almost two months after it was originally scheduled.

The March 15 date was postponed when Cooney hurt his left shoulder in training. But Valle says his man is 100 percent now.

He said he thought Cooney's injury may actually have helped the challenger's preparation for the biggest fight of his life.

"It helped him develop his right hand more. Now he can hurt you with either hand," Valle said.

Holmes' people are aware that Cooney packs a punch. But they're convinced their man can handle it.

"Larry has the tools, the knowledge and the experience," said Futch. "He knows what he has to do. Larry is a disciplined fighter. He will do what he has to do to win. I'm looking for a good fight and a successful conclusion."

Valle has the proper respect for Holmes' abilities, evidenced by 10 knockouts in 11 defenses since he won the championship from Ken Norton four years ago.

"He moves well. He's got good jabs and he punches good. But Gerry fights better against better fighters," the trainer said.

Holmes took Wednesday off while Cooney went through a final workout before today's weigh-in. The challenger seemed relaxed afterwards. He said he weighed 224 pounds after Wednesday's training session and that he would come into the fight at 227 or 228.

As he talked with reporters, he toyed with a hand puppet which he said two children had given to him. Occasionally he would answer questions in a high-pitched voice, gesturing with the puppet.

Cooney was asked when he would finish Holmes.

"The first chance I get," he said.

Series Format Permits Better Use Of 'Aces'

OMAHA, Neb. (AP) - The College World Series last year was expanded to allow all 12 or 13 games of the double-elimination tournament to be played at night and Miami Coach Ron Fraser says the format pays dividends.

"It's great, especially if you have only two pitchers," said Fraser, whose team has two days rest heading into Thursday night's winners' bracket final against Texas.

Both No. 1-ranked Texas, 59-4, and fifth-ranked Miami, 51-18-1, intend to return tonight with the pitchers who won first-round games over the weekend.

The winner of the 7:10 p.m. game plays again Friday at 8:10 p.m. against one of the winners of Wednesday night's elimination games matching Wichita State and Oklahoma State at 5:10 p.m. and Maine against Stanford at 8:10 p.m. The other survivor of the elimination round faces Thursday's loser at 5:10 p.m. Friday.

"We played Friday night, then we played Monday night with two days of rest," said Fraser. "Now we'll play again Thursday with two more days of rest. I can bring (Sam) Sorce back on Thursday. In other years you'd have to go with your third pitcher."

Sorce, 10-5, is considered Miami's top pitcher right now, according to Fraser. The right-hander went seven innings in a 7-2 first-round win over Maine.

Former Ranger Belts Mariners Past Texas

ARLINGTON, Texas (AP) - Richie Zisk's RBI single in the 11th lifted the Seattle Mariners to a 4-3 victory over the Texas Rangers Wednesday night.

Manny Castillo opened the inning with a single and moved to second on Bruce Bochte's sacrifice.

He scored when Zisk rifled his tie-breaking single to left off reliever Steve Comer, 0-3, the fourth Texas pitcher.

Ed VandeBerg, 4-1, pitched the final 12-3 innings for the win. Texas took a 3-2 lead on a disputed play in the seventh. Pinch-runner George Wright, in for Dave Hostetler, who walked, took second on an infield out and headed for home on Mark Wagner's single to short left field. Wright collided with catcher Rick Sweet eight feet from home but it was ruled that Sweet juggled the ball.

The Mariners tied the game in the eighth inning. Bobby Brown singled, advanced to second on Manny Castillo's single, took third on a wild pitch and scored on Bruce Bochte's grounder to second.

Niekro Tosses 3 Hitter For Win

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) - "That was a perfect defensive game," said Joe Niekro.

In other areas, the Houston Astros were at least near perfection Wednesday, beating the San Francisco Giants 6-1. Niekro tossed a three-hitter and the Astros totaled eight hits including four for extra bases.

A fine play by third baseman Ray Knight may have saved Niekro from falling behind in the first inning Wednesday. Joe Morgan drew a leadoff walk and Jim Wohlford followed with a line drive down the third base line, but Knight speared the ball and threw to first for a double play.

The Astros came back from a 7-3 loss on Tuesday night, when three errors helped the Giants.

"We're lucky to be as well off as we are. There are a lot of us who have to get going hitting," said shortstop Craig Reynolds, who had a .214 batting average before improving it with a single and his first homer of the season.

Houston, 25-30 going into tonight's game in San Diego, moved back into a virtual tie with the Giants for fourth place in the National League West.

With his 150th career victory, the 37-year-old knuckleballer improved his season mark to 5-4 and lowered his earned run average to 2.53. Two of San Francisco's hits, a single by Johnnie LeMaster and a run-scoring double by Joe Morgan, came in the third inning, and the last hit was Reggie Smith's fourth-inning single.

The Astros did their scoring before and after Al Holland turned in an hitless 3 1-3 innings of relief pitching. They got four runs off Giants starter Bill Laskey, who was ruined by a three-run third, and two in the ninth on Reynolds' homer off Fred Breining.

Dear Abby

Teen-Agers' Self-Control A Matter of Faith, Love

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: Regarding the 19-year-old Texas "boy" who "tested his manhood" by getting two girls pregnant, let me tell you about another 19-year-old boy's test of "manhood":

He has been my special friend for almost two years. Six months ago, he asked me to marry him. He talked to my father, explaining that because of our ages (I'm 18), finances and college ahead of us, it will be some time before we can marry. We are normal teen-agers with the same desires as other kids and very much in love.

Many miles separate us, and we see each other only once every six weeks, but we have stayed with our commitment to keep our relationship pure and holy.

His test of "manhood"? When he is tempted to go beyond a kiss, he has me place my hand beside his on his Bible, and he asks God to give him the strength to be the man he needs to be.

Abby, our love is strong, but our faith in the Lord is stronger, and we have resolved that when we take our sacred marriage vows, we will do so with a clear conscience. WALKING WITH GOD IN BAY, ARK.

DEAR WALKING: God bless you both. And he will.

DEAR ABBY: I just about cracked up when I read the letter in the Dodge City Daily Globe from the person who received the wedding invitation with the note: "Because the bride and groom have everything, the ideal gift would be something that can be put into a pocket or purse."

I can't wait to get a wedding invitation with a similar message. I will simply put together a collection of the following items that "can be put into a pocket or purse": a small comb, mirror, toothpick, dental floss, handkerchief, money clip, key ring, etc.

I'm sure my gift would cost considerably less than the usual $40 or $50.

DORIS IN DODGE CITY

DEAR DORIS: And don't forget a "lucky" penny for good luck!

***

DEAR ABBY: About that woman who was constantly using a breath-freshener spray publicly and in mid-sentence: I worked with two women who did that. I later learned that both were pantry drinkers.

GRETTA IN ILLINOIS

DEAR GRETTA: If they were, they deserve more compassion than criticism. Stay tuned for some informative input from a dentist:

DEAR ABBY: Concerning the woman who uses a breath-freshener spray constantly: As a result of disease, medication, radiation therapy or simply aging, there are a number of people who suffer from "xerostomia" (dry mouth). This can result in acute discomfort, tooth decay, inability to eat, swallow or talk, as well as difficulty in wearing dentures. Mouthwashes containing various saliva substitutes are being used by increasing numbers of these people. While this should be done in private, it is obviously not always possible.

A little understanding and a private talk may be more instructive than the anonymous mailing of a newspaper column.

LAWRENCE WEISS, D.D.S., BELLEROSE, N.Y.

DEAR DOCTOR: Thanks for your professional and "weiss" comments.

***

DEAR ABBY: My wife and I have three sons and one daughter. Their birthdays are: Nov. 11, 1960; Oct. 1, 1961; Oct. 9, 1962; Sept. 17, 1963.

That is four children in two years, 10 months and six days. This may not be a record, but I think my wife deserves at least a B-plus, don't you?

PASSIONATE PROTESTANTS IN FLA.

DEAR PROTESTANTS: Yes. And a vacation, too.

New Priests Named To Catholic Parishes Here

Appointment of new pastors for Snyder's two Catholic parishes has been announced by the Most Rev. Joseph A. Fiorenza, Bishop of the Catholic Diocese of San Angelo.

The Rev. Christopher Coleman, MSC, will become pastor of Our Lady of Guadalupe Parish, and the Rev. Sean Sheeran, MSC, will become pastor of St. Elizabeth's Parish and St. John's Mission at Hermleigh.

The appointments will become effective July 1.

The new pastors will replace the Rev. Tom Jordan, MSC, of the Guadalupe Parish and the Rev. Louis Moeller of St. Elizabeth's.

Father Jordan, who has served in Snyder since 1975, will become pastor of St. Ann's Parish in Stamford and St. George's Mission in Haskell. Father Moeller, who came to Snyder last year, will take charge of the combined parishes of Sacred Heart in Menard and St. Theresa's in Junction.

Father Sheeran, a native of Ireland, was ordained a priest on June 29, 1947, as a member of the Missionaries of the Sacred Heart. From 1948 to 1969 he served in various parishes in South Africa.

In 1969, he became pastor of St. Ann's Parish in Stamford and in 1976, he was appointed a chaplain of the Santa Rosa Hospital

Passports In Big Demand

WASHINGTON (AP) — Record demand for passports, believed caused by the strong U.S. dollar and favorable exchange rates overseas, has passport offices working overtime, the State Department says.

The department said Tuesday that passport work loads also are being shifted throughout the system with a special focus on lessening the burden in Chicago, where the backlog is particularly acute.

Psychiatric Center in San Antonio.

Like Father Sheeran, Father Coleman is a native of Ireland and is a member of the Missionaries of the Sacred Heart also. He was ordained a priest on Dec. 19, 1965.

He taught at Princethorpe College in Rugby, England, from 1966 to 1976. Following his arrival in the United States, he was associate pastor of Our Lady of Holy Rosary Parish in Sun Valley, Calif.

He came to Texas in 1981 to serve as temporary administrator of St. Patrick's Parish, Brady. For the past six months, he has been studying in San Antonio.
