

RUBY JAY'S CORNER

Due to a change in time, some members missed service Sunday.

We were scheduled to go to Odessa, Texas for afternoon service for the 42nd Anniversary of Rev. and Mrs. L. H. Hall.

Rev. M. A. Bell of New Bethel Baptist Church, Longview, Texas, brought the morning worship sermon which was wonderful. His scripture was I John 2:4-6, subject "Bottom Line is Always Read."

Those who missed the workshop meeting last week missed a treat. Rev. Bell had something to tell you. He really wants us to make up our minds to be better stewards. God is the owner and we are stewards.

We were glad to see Deacon Knighton at service Sunday morning.

Mrs. Fannie Young and Mr. N. P. Holmes is at home from the hospital.

The men will celebrate their Annual Day on March 13th at 7 p.m. They are looking for support from the entire church.

Rev. Sheldon Sedberry will preach the 3rd Sunday night at 7 p.m.

The Cook Family, Sis.

Post, Texas Pleasant Home Baptist

All services were at the usual hours. Devotion was led by Deacon Jim Colquitt and Jerry Colquitt were absent from church last Sunday. They had the flu.

Mrs. Winnie Knighton is home. Rev. S. S. Scott is still in Methodist Hospital. Mrs. Elnora Johnson's brother, Wade Parks, is very low sick. Mr. Ervin Sparks is still a patient at Lubbock General Hospital. His daughter, Willie Straws, from Colorado Springs visited him last week. She left Saturday for home. Whisper a prayer for all the shut-ins.

Thanks to Greater St. Luke Baptist Church for lending us your nice bus to journey to Odessa, Texas last Sunday. Also thanks to our chauffeur, he was very patient with

H. Oday, Sister Thelma Moore, and Sister Fisher Wynn. Sister Wynn read St. John 10:1-6. All officers were at their post of duty. Altar call was very spiritual by Rev. Kelly. The choir, at their post of duty, sang praises out of their hearts and souls. Rev. James read St. Luke 21:1-19 before the speaker, Rev. Kelly, our Pastor, preached from the scripture of St. Matthew 4:1-11. His theme was "Thank God for Jesus." He really preached from his soul and heart to the glory and honor of God. Truly God was here in the midst and moving.

Let's remember to pray for everyone, everywhere. Among our sick are: Sisters Rebecca Brewster and Sylvia Williams in Twin Cedars Nursing Home; Sister Sirloma Steel and Brother Harry Trueblood in United Convalescent Nursing Home; Sister Elizabeth Iles, Sister Emma Griffin, and Brother John Bustos each in their own residences; and Sister Helen Keeton in Garza Memorial Hospital.

Please continue to pray for their speedy recovery. This writer would like

First Faith Baptist

We started services one hour before the usual service time. The classes were combined and taught by Rev. Bell. The lesson was "An Expectant Fellowship," Acts 1:4-14. Morning devotion was carried out by Bro. Jackson and Bro. R. Portee, Sr. Our Pastor preached the sermon of the hour, his text was "Were You There, When They Crucified My Lord," John 23.

The Church motored to Mt. Olive Baptist Church, Slaton, Texas for the baptismal of Bro. Lonnie Portee, and returned for night service. Rev. F. B. Bell, Pastor. Ms. Alisa Henderson, Reporter.

The judge has ruled and that should be law. The only people opposing the six-member City Council is a few Council members which chasten effects and the daily newspaper which is very understood.

Lets set the record straight. First, the only people that have opposed the recent ruling was a few council members and the Lubbock Avalanche Journal. The total city, as far as letters to the editor and speak out, have favored the six-member district. The AJ's racist stand along with affected council people can understand their positions. To my friend Kenneth May and the Avalanche Journal, lets push for total unity of the total city and get off personalities. Times have changed, laws have changed, with the voting rights act, you are on the side by yourself. The total city is against you. All the letters to the editor to your paper and ours have been for. The total city was shocked that minorities cared. Now to get serious, if the city appeals the minority community will fight the city and cause a split in the city. The minority community is tired of being left out. We understand that 1984 will be a different situation for the better.

Along these same lines local Black politics, this writer has heard too much of who we pick to represent our community is totally out of order. We are trying to slip into the same traps as the white community was in years ago, a slating committee, which we do not need after just winning a lawsuit against the same thing. Let as many as want to run, that's what makes competition keener, whoever wins will know someone is looking over their shoulder.

One of the most vocal incidents in the last few years was the show "What's Going On" with T.J. Patterson on Channel 11 TV with this writer and Justice of the Peace McKinley Shephard which no one lied and important issues were addressed to the Black community. We had so much opposition to the truth by people who did not see the program, the only defense of the program was Shephard does not have an N.A.A.C.P. membership card. Judge let's get it.

The things that were talked about on the show still prevails every organization in East Lubbock 2 - 100 members are still saying we have and agenda. That's what the program was about. Your agenda but what about our agenda, not yours, not theirs but ours. This is what was brought out on the show "we need an agenda. A good example was Saturday, March 5th, the N.A.A.C.P. regional workshop, some of the ones that complained about the program with J.P. Shephard did not attend but as Charlie Wilson, Amarillo N.A.A.C.P. veteran says, Ben Hooks says preachers should disperse their activities occasionally whenever there is a community activity to attend.

A very important thought all the hell raisers, complainers, all the letter writers and proposed letter writers, about the show, "we need an agenda with this writer, T.J. Patterson and McKinley Shephard, guess what none of them was at the N.A.A.C.P. Workshop Saturday. Is that put up or shut up!!!! What you do speak so loud cannot hear a thing you say!!!!

Remember if the "city appeals judge Woodward's decision, the minority citizens will repeal the city."

We close this column with "We need an agenda or a net, work." Read Congressmen Gus Savage column, all these little organizations running around in all directions is hurting us everyone say it is us. That is not enough we have to get it together. The most detrimental thing to the Black community is these suitcase leaders that just got into town and is trying to run something and be the new brief case leaders in Lubbock. It takes more than a brief case and a good intention. You cannot come into Lubbock, today and lead tomorrow, you have not convinced anyone, or shown your leadership. This goes back to what upset so many leaders and so called leaders as stated by J.P. McKinley Shephard "we need stronger leadership which include all of us"

Representative FROY SALINAS Capitol Update

Immigration Refugee Policies Studied At NCSL Workshop

As the only Texas delegate on a task force for refugee and immigration legislation, I traveled to sunny Sacramento, Calif. last week to meet with other state legislators at a meeting sponsored by the National Conference on State Legislators.

NCSL established the Task Force on Refugees and Immigration to provide information, recommendations and assistance to state legislatures on immigration reform, refugee assistance and refugee placement policy. In addition, we want to have some impact on the national immigration and refugee policy.

The task force has several goals. The one that most affects Texas is seeking to ensure the states will be reimbursed for 100 percent of the costs of providing cash and medical assistance to illegal aliens or refugees legalized under the Refugee Act of 1982.

Under current laws, the federal government dictates all refugee and immigration policies, and the states have no choice but to abide by them. For example, the government instructs the states to provide social services and education to certain illegal aliens and refugees, promising to reimburse them on a dollar amount per refugee for a specified period -- say, 18 months. However, the states are experiencing shortfalls in their own residents without the added pressure to provide for illegal aliens and refugees.

The task force has adopted the attitude that when the federal government mandates a program that increases state spending, then the government should be willing to pay for it rather than the citizens of the state. I support that attitude.

The task force played a major role in the Congressional debate on reimbursement of state and local costs associated with legalization proposals. However, the Immigration Reform Act died during the last days of the 97th Congress. Nevertheless, last year's bills were reintroduced in both the U.S. House and Senate in February.

A brief summary of the bills will help you better understand the problems we are trying to address. The U.S. Senate passed an immigration reform bill last year with a block grant to states to assist in meeting the cost of legalization. In the House, the House Judiciary Committee reported a bill which provided for reimbursement to state and local governments for public assistance and medical costs incurred by providing for newly legalized aliens. The House Judiciary bill also provided assistance to impacted school districts; however, the education aid did not involve reimbursement for actual costs.

Obviously, not all states are affected by the immigration and refugee problems that Texas, California, New York and Florida experience. In an effort to increase awareness of those problems, the task force plans to present testimony and content key members of Congress to express NCSL's views and concerns.

For me, the trip was very enlightening. The U.S. Congress will begin considering refugee and immigration legislation this month. I welcome your comments on this issue, and will attempt to keep you posted as things develop. Please feel free to write me at P.O. Box 2910, Austin, Texas 78769.

fluence the final platform and candidate selection.

We should be about raising our own issues, mobilizing ourselves, and strategizing to maximize our influence.

Otherwise, most so-called Black spokespersons will become available to the highest white bidder, trying to broker without a base, which amounts to begging as always, supposedly advising from behind some campaign trailer.

Why not a serious Black presidential candidate? If no more, at least one could get on television and answer loudly, as did the Black Mississippi sharecropper in the often told joke, in reply to the question, "How y'all doing down there, now?" "HELP!"

Unity, Unity, Unity Congratulations Chicago

Destiny directed me home last month. Ostensibly to be obedient to my mother. Make no mistake about it, there is nothing like mother's love. Chicago was indeed a rit of love for its 35 percent unified Black American population during my return.

A renaissance was taking place for the Black American People in the city standing by the lake. Like a tidal wave over 400,000 voting Black American understand unity and all the riches that are its soul reward.

Black American businesses in Chicago will prosper, communities will be safer and improvements in public education evident before the end of the term of Black Churches to Face Economic and Social Ills: Striving to relieve worsening social and economic problems, many of the country's Black churches are taking steps to forge a united front. According to Kenneth A. Briggs, leaders of these churches believe this is the first effort by Blacks for a national church drive to combat economic social and political ills. They are seeking to build a movement from the largest institution among Blacks, a network of 65,000 churches and 20 million Christians. Though the vast majority of Black Americans are Protestant, the various groups have often been split by distrust and widely separated by traditions and church politics.

A coalition of the seven largest Black denominations, called the Congress of National Black Churches, pressed ahead with the concept of a recent meeting in New York City. Much of the incentive stems from alarm over the poverty and unemployment faced by Blacks and from a desire to use the church as a means of remedy.

"The congress is the first serious attempt to unite the seven major Black denominations" said Dr. Lawrence Jones, dean of the divinity school at Howard University in Washington. "Its concern is for the relation of the church life in the Black community. It is a forum in which denominationalism is muted and concern for the problems that are endemic and epidemic can be addressed", he added.

The seven denominations are the African Methodist Episcopal Church, the Christian Methodist Episcopal Church, the African Methodist Episcopal Church Zion, the National Baptist Convention, the Church of God in Christ, the Progressive National Baptist Convention and the National Baptist Convention U.S.A., Inc.

"So many of our people are out of work" one observer put it. "Our people are hurting very much. Those of us in the Black Church have to tell them again and again that God is with them". In the three day meeting, central themes emerging and receiving the most attention were joint projects to recruit young people for the clergy, continuing education for pastors, evangelism, communication through the communications media and most noticeably, economic development. Recently a staff director was hired to push ahead with programs.

Much discussion centered on creating financial services by "encouraging" Black Christians to build economic alternatives within their churches, such as forming credit unions, insurance programs and central purchasing plans among churches.

A related aim is to educate Black ministers in business management. The congress staff will soon call a three-day conference to help develop an economic plan for the coalition. After moving slowly to build ties among the coalition members, the congress appears ready to quicken its pace and become visibly active.

The theme for Black History Month (1983) is: The American Constitution and the Black American. From its founding in 1915 by the Father of Black History, Dr. Carter G. Woodson, the Association for the study of Afro-American life and history has been a bulwark organization with the strongest bent toward historical relevance and historical scholarly excellence. In spite of the fact that one month will be used in Black History Appreciation Month this year, what is really needed is an ongoing program the year around that will keep Black life, Black culture, Black inventions Black discoveries and Black contributions before the American nation each of the 365 days of the year.

Democratic elect Mayoral candidate Congressman Harold Washington.

Provided of course, that whites, both poor and middle-class, do not bolt the traditionally Democratic voting ranks in Chicago. Also, barring the possibility that Congressman Washington is not shot dead. Doing dirty deeds is part and parcel of party and people politics in Chicago.

Washington was not wished into office saved by Black Americans and he did not walk into office. He was pushed, pulled and prayed into position by Black American people with all their power in the city of Chicago. Black Americans ran his campaign by registering and voting everything that moved and some of those who don't move.

This "movement" as characterized by Congressman

Washington "began with no money and very little organization," but obviously a helluva lot of determination. Its success has put Chicago back on the map around the world. It will influence and shape politics in the national election next year.

You will witness a constructive drive to determine the direction of national politics to put Black American aims and ambitions at the top of the priority list of both political parties. A unified major Black American political team can threaten to start its own party!

Democratic presidential candidates dare not to do nothing for Black Americans that a Chicago Black American's coalition with other demand. For the first time there demands will come from the strength of pure-Black American political power, by and for the benefit of Black American people.

There will be no begging and very little compromise coming out of the Chicago camp. To the victor goes the spoils. Other plans in order to participate in the political payoffs after November of 1984.

In the words of my mentor, as practiced in Chicago, there is profit for the people in "Unity, Unity, Unity."

Blacks Need Political Agenda For '84

Presidential campaign time! Sen. Gary Hart (D-Colo.) announced recently. Sen. Alan Cranston (D-Calif.) a couple weeks ago, with Sen. John Glenn (D-Ohio) and former vice president Mondale tying-up their running shoes.

Each candidate will claim a distinguishing issue or image: Israel, El Salvador, arms de-escalation, economic stimulation, etc. Peace -- prosperity -- but not justice.

What about us? Black Americans have dramatically closed the gap in years of school attainment, while our income as compared to that of white Americans has steadily decreased, during the past few years. Our unemployment percentage is twice as high as that of white Americans. And the Reagan administration, with the acquiescence of a Democrat-controlled U.S. House of Representatives, continues to cut-back on affirmative action and contract set-aside programs.

Indeed, it seems unless we speak for ourselves we will be ignored or taken for granted in another national political campaign.

At this stage, more important than who's ahead or behind in what issues are raised, for what purpose are voters to be mobilized, and how much can we in-

"I Thank God For Jesus"

"Lord, The Games People Play"

Matthew 1:21: And she shall bring forth a son, and thou shalt call his name Jesus. For he shall save his people from their sins.

Lord, life is like a baseball game. It's called a winner. Only the name changed.

Lord, we're playing against Satan. And you're our umpire!

We're trying to make it around the bases, with our lives.

Many don't make it, and is cast in a lake of flames.

Jeremiah 50:6: My people hath been lost sheep; their shepherds have caused them to go astray.

They have turned them away on the mountains; they have gone from mountain to hill, they have forgotten their resting place.

I'm taught very young how important Power, 1st base, is; I'm taught you've got to have it to live!

I was raised in a Christian home; but to be with the in-crowd, I left God alone!

I enter into teenage, my first time at bat!

I was told to get on without 3 strikes!

1st base is Power, Monarch, or Big Man Boss!

I've got to get on 1st base at all cost.

I wanna make it to 2nd base Pleasure!

Where there's drinking, smoking, sex and enjoyment beyond measure.

1 Corinthians 6:19: What? Know ye not that your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost which is in you, which is in you, which ye have of God, and ye are not your own?

As I head for 3rd base to get my fortune.

Then I'll own people & behind He They'll come marching.

I look towards home plate where I'll find fame.

Satan is the catcher trying to kill my name!

I run in & did a slide, Satan told I run in & did a slide. Satan said you're out and is to die!

The dust cleared; I looked up at the umpire Jesus & was amazed!

To see a big loving smile, and he said I was saved.

Psalms 121:1-2: I will lift up my eyes unto the hills, from whence cometh my help. My help cometh from the Lord, which made heaven and earth.

Matthew 11:28: Jesus said, come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest.

Brothers and Sisters, I could have been dead sleeping in my grave!

That's why I thank God for Jesus; He made death behave. AMEN

God is not through with us yet, Let's pray for one another. Always!!

The Outreach Prayer Breakfast

The members and friends of the Outreach Prayer Breakfast met Saturday at 9 a.m. in the home of Mrs. Pearl Ruth Bonner. Presiding was President Ward with Vice President Fair present. It was a real blessing to see Mrs. Fair.

Opening devotion scripture Psalms 100 with leaders M. Ward, M. Bogus and P. Baker.

Morning scripture lesson by Mrs. Mildred Bogus, Matthew 5:12; 14-16, subject "Let Your Light Shine." You are the light of the world a city that is set on a hill cannot be hid. (v. 16) Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in Heaven.

The speaker said, don't hide your light when with those that do not know Christ. Let your light shine before all men at all times. Don't be a lamp that needs the globe washed where you can't see the light. Be a city that set on a hill that cannot be hid. Remember the Lord's calling for those that live right each day. Now is the time to say this little light of mine I'm going to let it shine in our homes, community, schools, and churches so that our God will receive the glory.

Mrs. Bogus, you are a super lady, we love that kind of person. We realize there are a lot of super people out there. Let's get together and make the impossible possible. We love you Mrs. Bogus. Really we do!

Prayer for the week: Lord, help us see the inconsistencies between what we preach and what we practice. In the name of Jesus AMEN.

Mrs. Bonner sang "Shine On Me" and this was truly a blessing coming from the beautiful woman of God.

Breakfast was served by ladies that take pride in preparing the breakfast food that all may have a good appetite and so far they have succeeded.

Those of you that's not eating well, come on, improve your appetite both physically and spiritually.

Guest list: Mrs. Raymond Peppers, Mrs. Francis Greene, Mrs. Pearl Ruth Bonner and Mrs. C. E. Fair was back with the group also Mrs. Pearl Baker. Each of you are so special. Look for each of you again next week. Ok.

Sick list: Mrs. Pearl Ruth Bonner, Mrs. Artie M. Washington, Mr. Samuel Curtis, Mr. Anders Williams and Mrs. Nadine Smith. I am sure there are others out there not mentioned in this report. What God does for these He will also do for you.

Lets pray; Our Father heal us of all the things
