Home & Hobby

By Irene Keating

Gardens are beginning to produce enough for canning, freezing and pickling. Here are some recipes you might like to try.

Pickled squash are similar to traditional bread and butter pickles. Several types of summer squash may be used for pickling. But yellow and zucchini squash are most commonly used.

- YELLOW SQUASH PICKLES
 8 c sliced yellow squash, cut about 1/4-1/2 in thick
 1 T pickling salt
 2 c chopped onion
 1/4 c chopped green pepper
 1 c apple cider vinegar
 1 1/4 c granulated sugar
 1/2 t mustard seed
 1/2 t celery seed

Wash and slice squash. Sprinkle with salt and set aside for one hour. Bring vinegar and sugar to a boil. Add squash, onion and green pepper and bring to a boil again. Pack hot squash, onion and pepper into hot sterilized jars. Add mustard seed and celery seed to vinegar-sugar mixture. Bring to boil again. Pour over squash to within 1/2 inch of top of jar. Place lids on jars. Process 10 minutes with boiling water bath.

- CURRIED ZUCCHINI PICKLES
 7 pds medium zucchini (about 24)
 1/4 c pickling salt
 3 c granulated sugar
 3 c vinegar
 1/3 c mustard seed
 4 t celery seed
 1 T curry powder

Cut zucchini in 1/4 to 1/2 inch slices, sprinkle with the salt. Add cold water to cover. Let stand three hours. Drain, rinse with cold water. In a 10 quart dutch oven combine sugar, vinegar, mustard seed, celery seed and curry. Bring to boiling. Add zucchini, heat through but do not boil. Heat about 5 minutes. Pack zucchini and syrup into clean, hot pint jars, leaving 1/2 inch head space. Adjust lids according to package directions. Process in boiling water for 5 minutes. Start counting time when water returns to boil. Serve chilled. Makes 9 pints.

NIECE VISITS

Mr. and Mrs. Connor Parsons of Fort Worth visited with Mrs. Lucille Myers Tuesday. Mrs. Parsons is a niece of Mrs. Myers.

GRANDDAUGHTER VISITS
 Mr. and Mrs. Donald Featherston, Gary Don and Jan Marie of Hico spent the weekend with her mother, Lucille Myers.

Good Neighbor Club Sponsors Ugly Man Contest

By Marguerite McLain

Loads of fun are in the making as final plans are made for Hart Day Activities Aug. 13-14.

One of the highlights of this year's events will be the so-called "Ugly Man" contest sponsored by the Good Neighbor Club. Proceeds will go to the Hart Cemetery Association.

"Ugly Man" is really a misnamer because the contestants are NOT ugly nor are they required to be; they only have to be personable, have a good personality and the unique ability to laugh at themselves.

The first entrant was the Methodist minister, Bro. Elra Phillips, who is 70 plus years old, and sponsored by the Good Neighbor Club. He ought to be a sure-fire winner with twenty-eight club women supporting his candidacy.

Second entrant is equally sure that he will walk off with the victory since he won a similar contest in New Mexico, in a three county race. He will be bringing a bit of professionalism to the field. This entrant is Laurence McLain, sponsored by Hi-Plains, Inc.

The third contestant to announce is Harold Bob Bennett, sponsored by Bob's Farm Supply. He will be throwing his heart into the race as he recalls a similar contest in which his dad, Ed Bennett, was the winner, despite Harold's efforts to get Ed's opponent elected in that event.

Doug Higgins, sponsored by Ed Harris Lumber Company, says this is all new to him but with Bob Reed doing his campaigning he's sure to be a winner.

Aubrey Myers sponsored by Farmers Grain Company says if the Hart people will just recall how he looked during the Lion's Club basketball benefit game in March, he will win without any effort.

Bill Sanders thinks the contest will be great fun. He will be seeking the support of his many Dimmitt friends as well as Hart friends and relatives. Bill is the son of Mrs. M.L. Simpson of Dimmitt, and the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Smitherman of South Plains, formerly of Hart, and of the late Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sanders. Bill is sponsored by Farmers State Bank of Hart.

Jimmy Ray Davis, sponsored by Kittrell Electronics, says this is a first for him, but he's game enough to try anything once, especially since it is for a worthwhile cause such as this. With Jerry and Edna Kittrell seeking the support of his many friends and relatives, he will be running a good race.

James Jackson, one of the easiest going fellows around, is sponsored by B & K Grocery and Market. James is owner and operator of the Hi-Way Garage and if he can "Fix" an election like he fixes a car, he'll be a winner Aug. 14.

IN EARTH

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Beavers and Terry and Mr. and Mrs. Hoaks Beavers visited Sunday with their sister and aunt and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. D.E. Layman of Earth.

SATURDAY GUESTS

Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Myers, Terry and Karen; Lynn and Donna Myers and Cristal Dawn and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Featherston, Gary Don and Jan Marie were dinner guests of Mrs. Lucille Myers Saturday.

Roy Taack, another of Hart's truly nice guys, will be vying for a winning position. He says if he can just "go natural" the other eight contestants won't have a chance. Roy is sponsored by the Green Frog Cafe.

All contestants will be given a chance to actively campaign for themselves or one of their opponents at a fun-filled hour and a half program following the Merchant's Drawing Saturday morning. They will be entertained by "The Americans", a musical group from Tulia. Votes will be one cent each, and the voting will cease at 12:30 Saturday. Votes will be counted and the winner will be announced at parade time. Everyone is urged to select and support their favorite candidate, and to come and join in the fun Aug. 14.

INJURED TUESDAY

Alvin Beavers of Hereford, formerly of Hart, was injured last Tuesday in an accident. He and Clinton Holliman were riding in a jeep near Alamoso, Colo. where he was hospitalized for a week.

PARENTS VISIT

Mr. and Mrs. Hoaks Beavers of Emory are visiting their sons and families Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Beavers, Terry and Connie and Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Beavers, Henry and Larry of Hereford.

VISIT RELATIVES

Mr. and Mrs. E.E. Foster and his brother and sister-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Bob Foster of Lubbock, spent two weeks in Oregon and Arizona. They visited E.E. Foster's daughter and son-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Bob Lawrence in Sun City, Ariz. and his brother, Mr. and Mrs. C.A. Foster at Bend, Ore.

Hart Day Plans In Full Swing

By Mrs. Max Marble

Family booths and games, musical entertainment, the traditional Queen's pageant, parade, Lion burgers, street dancing, and other forms of entertainment will be on the agenda for the Bicentennial Hart Day Celebration Aug. 13 and 14. Final plans were laid Monday night as a large group of interested citizens gathered in the Hart Band Hall for one last look at the program outline.

Traditionally the activities will open Friday afternoon at 6 p.m. with the charcoals burning for the hamburgers and the many booths begin their fun and games.

A new feature has been added at 7 p.m. which is a street dance designed for the teenagers of the community. Everyone is invited to participate, if they like the teenage beat of today. All of this opening activity will be in the open on the school grounds.

At 9 p.m. the spotlight will turn to the Miss Hart Day Pageant to be held in the elementary school gym. Thirteen young ladies are vying for the title and the privilege to reign over the Hart Day activities. The queen will be honored during the annual parade Saturday at 2:30 p.m. Entries are Misses Melanie Upshaw, Stacey Averitt, Jana Mapp, Sharla Carson, Lisa Higgins, Mary Lou Mancias, Vivian Davis, Eloise Sarabia, Mae Ethridge, Abby Mancias, Diane Davis, Tammye Gilcrease, and Doniece Clark.

The senior class of Hat High is sponsoring a Little Miss Hart contest and the winner will be chosen by donations. Each entry has a money jar in the various businesses and each nickel counts as one vote.

Saturday's activities are to begin at 10 a.m. with the Merchants Drawing. Some 45 items will be given away. Persons must be present to win. The drawing will be held in front of the Band Hall.

Next a Bicentennial salute will be made by "The Americans" from Tulia. This program is to begin at approximately 11 a.m.

A time has been set aside for the managers in the Ugly Man contest to solicit votes for their candidates. A penny a vote will determine the winner. All proceeds from this event goes to the cemetery fund.

Contestants include Rev. Elra Phillips, Aubrey Myers, Harold Bob Bennett, Billy Sanders, Laurence McLain, Doug Higgins, Jimmy Ray Davis, James Jackson and Roy Taack.

Winners in the Best Dressed Bicentennial Man and Woman will be announced. The registration and reception for the public will be continuing throughout the day with the cafeteria as headquarters.

Laurence McLain and Houston Hamby are arranging a Horseshoe and Washer Pitching Contest.

Several items are to be given away with the winners to be revealed during the Saturday night square dancing. The Curley Q's of Nazareth are assisting Mr. and Mrs. Ben Kennedy with this portion of the activities to begin at 8 p.m.

Highlighting the day's activities will be the 2:30 p.m. parade. The route has been altered in order for the parade to pass by the school where most of the activities have been scheduled.

The group will assemble on Railroad Avenue which is the slanting dirt road south of the football field. It will go north on the Nazareth cut-off to Avenue E, proceed west to the Methodist Church for one block, then turn west to Broadway and proceed south to Railroad Avenue, where it will disband. Honorary parade marshal is to be Percy Hart, a descendant of the family for which the town of Hart is named. The working parade marshal will be Charles Black.

During the day, The Amarillo Gun Club will present two surprise performances. Following the parade, The Fire Department is to sponsor Water Polo, a fun time for everyone.

Out-of-town persons are invited to participate in all the activities and especially the parade. Trophies have been donated by Farmers State Bank for many divisions.

Some of the divisions include: most unusual entry, best commercial entry, best bicentennial equipment entry, first and second place commercial floats, first second and third queen's float, first second and third best decorated bicycles, best senior riding club, best junior riding club, and oldest person present.

Merchants in Hart are engaged in a Best Decorated Bicentennial Window display arranged by Nora Lee Zyburra. A trophy will be presented to the winner.

Anyone wishing can purchase chances on the Tin Lizzie given by the Fire Department; a bedspread given by the wives of the Volunteer Firemen; a half of beef given by the Athletic Boosters and donated by Farmers Grain; and homemade fudge made by Xi Mu Iota Sorority members. Just stop downtown and there will be plenty of opportunities. Activities booths to be open during the celebration include: Bingo and small carnival rides, by Hart Lions Club; balloon throw and cake walk, Xi Mu Iota; arts and crafts sale and bake sale, Chi Psi Sorority; plant sale, Home Demonstration Club; snow cones, Fire Department wives; homemade ice cream, The Zealot Club; Coke Ring Toss, Band Boosters; and dunking board, Athletic Boosters.

Band Practice

Rehearsals will begin for band students Friday, Aug. 6 according to Band Director Jerry Jansa.

All band members should meet at the band hall at 7:30 p.m.

Apples can be skinned more easily if boiling water has been poured on them first.

RETURN HOME

Mr. and Mrs. J.C. Miller and Laura returned home Saturday from a tour through Colorado and New Mexico. In Colorado Springs they saw Seven Falls, Cheyenne Mountain Zoo and Cliff Dwellings. They saw the Royal Gorge Bridge near Canon City, Colo. and spent one night at Espanola, N.M.

VISIT SON

Mr. and Mrs. Mack Davis, Deryl, Diane and Debra spent Thursday night and Friday with their son and family Mr. and Mrs. Donald Davis and Shanna at Dougherty.

THURSDAY GUESTS

Pandora's Box

WASHINGTON—In Greek mythology, the gods presented the First Woman, Pandora, with a beautiful box, but forbade her ever to open it.

Pandora's curiosity eventually got the best of her, and one day she did open the box. Out flew plagues innumerable, sorrow, pestilence and mischief.

Pandora's box was a myth, but Congress is presently preparing a real Pandora's box with the esoteric name of Senate Bill 1284.

S.B. 1284 is really five bills in one, an amorphous conglomeration of virtually every pea-brained notion about antitrust ever proposed in Congress. If enacted into law, the damage to our economy would be incalculable.

Title I is the bill's "declaration of policy." It lists Congressional findings with respect to the relationship of industrial concentration to various purported economic ills. The principal finding is that there is diminished competition and increased concentration in the marketplace today, which has contributed significantly to inflation and unemployment.

The trouble with Title I is that it asserts as fact some highly specious economic theories. There is no consensus among economists either that the economy is any more concentrated or less competitive than it was 50 years ago. Nor is there any evidence that such industrial concentration as exists has contributed to inflation.

Title II would expand the power of the Justice Department to conduct antitrust investigations. It would give the Department more wide-ranging investigative authority than it has via the grand jury process without affording those subject to the inquisition even the slender protections of the grand jury. It would in effect permit the Department to coerce information from any person, anywhere, about virtually any subject, with virtually no protection for those whom the Department chooses to victimize.

Title III is comparatively innocuous, a collection of miscellaneous amendments of varying impact and importance.

Title IV is probably the most dangerous provision in the entire bill. It authorizes states to sue on behalf of consumers for antitrust violations even if the state has not been injured by the violation, eliminates the requirement in law that "fact of injury" be proven with respect to potential claimants, and permits the state to take over the unclaimed portion of the damage fund.

Title V is a promoter notification provision which would in effect give the Attorney General unilateral power to veto any merger without any judicial finding of illegality.

Pandora made a grave mistake when she opened the attractive package the gods had given her. Hopefully the Senate will profit from her experience.

PICKLES FOR YOUR PALS. Not only are pickles a unique and interesting gift, they also make a visually striking display, as seen here. In addition, this type of gift shows special thought, since you had to make them in advance, and didn't rush out the last minute to get just anything. So, pickle that special someone's favorite food, for a house present, or a "thank-you" gift, or whatever else you can think of.

Test Your I.Q.

How about checking your I.Q.? How many dangers from smoking besides cancer can you think of? Now, pick a day for your I.Q. (I Quit) Cigarettes Day and pass your test, says the American Cancer Society.

Do You Know Them?

"If you don't know cancer's warning signals, how do you know you haven't got one?" asks the American Cancer Society. Ask the ACS for a leaflet with the Seven Warning Signals explained. Do it today!

Arts & Crafts Sale, Bake Sale To Be Held During Hart Day

Arts and crafts of all types are invited in the annual Arts & Crafts Sale Saturday, Aug. 14 during festivities of Hart Day. Sponsored by Chi Psi Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi, the sale will be held in the band hall at Hart schools.

A fee of $10 is charged for exhibitor's space. A table and chairs are furnished. Displays should be set up by 9 a.m. Saturday. To reserve space, call Daisy Huntsinger, 938-2326 or Nita Hooper, 938-2520 before

Aug. 11.

Sorority members will also conduct a bake sale in conjunction with the arts and crafts sale.
