Wartime Navy Chiefs Blast Defense Plans

House Group Hears Plea By Admiral For Huge Carrier

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12—Salty Fleet Admiral William F. (Bull) Halsey scoffed at the air forces' big B-36 bomber today as a "siege" weapon. He said it can't stop an enemy and likely would never stop anything except bullets from fighter planes.

Grizzled and gray, Halsey was before the House armed service committee as the navy put its top sea dogs of the last war into its fight against a military policy that cuts down on the navy and builds up a big B-36 bomber force.

Backing Halsey up with a statement was Fleet Admiral Ernest J. King, wartime chief of naval operations who is ill but still punching for the navy.

New Carrier Urged

The navy also had a statement from Fleet Admiral Chester W. Nimitz to be put in later.

And it sandwiched in a direct plea from Capt. A. A. Burke, present assistant chief of naval operations, for reinstatement of the navy's thwarted plans to build a flush-deck super-aircraft carrier.

Halsey's general argument was that the need in even of war will be for fast planes which can harrass an enemy's armies, knock out bridges and disrupt his transport.

He said that by-passing the armies and hammering at urban centers far to the rear would not stop an army.

Statement Is Revealed

If military history shows one thing, Halsey said, it is this:

"Seige operations have never succeeded against an enemy while that enemy possessed troops in field which could attack the besieging forces."

Despite four or five years of bombing, the Germans increased war production and their armies, submarines and aircraft fought on, King said. So did the British under similar hammering from the air.

"Can we believe," King said, "that a government hardened by purging millions of its own people is to be frightened at the prospect of the bombs that might be dropped on its cities?"

Navy men contend the B-36 could be of use only for "mass attack" on large areas.

With a reference to that, Halsey said a successful war "cannot be fought by carrying on sep-

Crops In Area Undamaged By Mercury Drop

Low Of 39 Degrees Is Reported Here By Weather Bureau

There was frost on the punkin' this morning when Lubbock residents arose in chill early-morning temperatures, but by 2 o'clock this afternoon the thermometer had soared to a balmy 70 degrees.

The fall season's first light frost was seen principally within the corporate limits of Lubbock and other towns, winds keeping the frost from forming on crops in rural areas.

Making good the U. S. Weather bureau's prediction of 24 hours earlier that a frost was possible in the Lubbock area, a light coating of frost was in evidence throughout southwest and northwest Lubbock and a somewhat heavier frost was seen in the downtown area.

Gentle winds kept the frost off rural areas, however, and none was seen either at Municipal airport or the Lubbock experiment station east of the city.

Low Of 39 Degrees

This morning's minimum temperature by a sheltered thermometer five feet above the ground at Municipal airport was 39 degrees, said Harold Frost, chief meteorologist at the Weather bureau station.

He expected the mercury to climb to a maximum of about 74 during the afternoon. Tonight's temperatures are expected to drop to about 40 degrees again. Another light frost is possible.

Little if any damage was done by this morning's frost, the Weather bureau pointing out the difference between a light frost and a killing freeze.

Average Date Nov. 4

Average date for the first killing freeze is believed to be between Nov. 3 and Nov. 10, but for the past 10 years, according to records of the experiment station, Nov. 4 has been the average date for killing frost.

Earliest killing freeze dates reported in 38 years were Oct. 19 in both 1916 and 1917.

Opinions vary on the date for the latest killing freeze. K. N. Clapp, area observer for Anderson and Clayton cotton brokers, puts in Dec. 5, 1933. Experiment station records show Nov. 8 in 1933, and offer Nov. 26 in 1944 as the latest date.

However, Clapp explained that his records show that the temper-

Annexation Showdown Is Set

Commission To Get Report On Plan Thursday

Expansion Action On 10 City Areas Will Be Proposed

By H. I. KIEFER
Journal Staff Writer

The showdown on whether a broad program of city limits extensions will be attempted this year is expected in the semi-monthly meeting of the city commission in the city hall at 1:30 p. m. Thursday.

The report and recommendations of a chamber of commerce committee headed by J. Ray Dickey, former city commissioner on the program is scheduled for submission to the city officials by Homer D. Grant, chamber president.

Dec. 31 Is Deadline

If the extensions are to be made in time to give the city of Lubbock credit for the populations in developed and developing suburbs when the federal census is taken next year, the annexations must be completed by next Dec. 31.

Compliance with the legal technicalities involved in an annexation takes about two months when no snags are encountered. Only a little more than two and one-half months remain of this year.

Would Add 15,000 People

This means, chamber officials pointed out, that if the program is to be carried out in time to give the city census credit for its suburban inhabitants, action will have to be started at once.

They estimate that extensions will make a difference of close to 15,000 people in the official population of Lubbock as shown by the 1950 federal count.

Might Hit 80,000

With the extensions proposed, the chamber estimates, Lubbock will be shown with a population close to 80,000. Without the additions, they expect the total to be around 65,000. The 1940 census total was 31,853.

The chamber committee has considered the advisability of recommending the annexations of 16 different suburban territorial areas which adjoin the present city limits in all directions.

To Recommend 10 Areas

Of these areas, it was disclosed today, 10 will be recommended for annexation; at least one, and possibly two, for partial annexation and four for exclusion from any extensions program undertaken.

The four reportedly recommended for exclusion because of the opposition encountered within

Czech Communists Continue Purging Of Small Business

(By The Associated Press)

PRAGUE, Czechslovakia, Oct. 12.—New nationalized businesses sprang up in Prague today in shops whose owners had been seized in widespread police round-ups. The purge arrests were reported continuing.

Several peoples who went to trade with their former neighborhood druggists, bakers or book shops reported they found Communist-controlled national administrations had been installed.

The businesses had been seized by the government. In some cases it was reported the families of the former owners also had been thrown out of their apartments.

Drive On Businessmen

This lent substantiation to persistent reports that police action against small businessmen which engulfed most of Prague the last 10 days had been aimed at liquidating remnants of the middle class. Big enterprises had long since been nationalized.

But the businessmen were only one class arrested in these round-ups, which were reliably estimated to have seized thousands in this capital alone. Landlords and other propertied persons, together with many doctors and lawyers and just ordinary people, also had come into the police dragnet.

Reliable reports said many of the people seized had been sent to forced labor camps by Communist-controlled national committees.

After more than a week of such arrests there still was no government statement on the action, nor on wide-spread purges in government offices which, according to informed western diplomatic sources, had resulted in firing of hundreds of job holders considered "politically unreliable" and jailing of many of them.

Private Property Seized

People still found it difficult, if not impossible, to obtain information about arrested relatives.

The government yesterday extended its hold over Czech economy by taking control of privately-owned farm machinery, barns and storage spaces.

The cabinet approved regulations making them available for common use wherever necessary. There was speculation that this was the first step toward collectivization of the country's small

Fear Another Black Dahlia Slaying

Los Angeles Police Seeking Film Actress' Body In Park

(By The Associated Press)

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 12.—Fearing another Black Dahlia slaying, police today launched an intensive search of Griffith park's Fern Dell for the body of Jean Spangler, film bit player.

The 27-year-old beauty's purse, with handles ripped off one side, was found in Fern Dell some 36 hours after she disappeared.

Several hundred officers are participating in the hunt, including men, who entered the case yesterday.

Investigators said they had little to go on in a parallel with unsolved sex killings such as that of Elizabeth Short, called the "Black Dahlia," in January, 1947.

After Miss Short's nude, bisected body was found, someone mailed her purse to police. In the disappearance of Mrs. Mimi Boomhower, Bel-Air widow, last August, her purse was found at a market. No trace of her has been found.

In Miss Spangler's purse was found a cryptic note, apparently in her handwriting, stating: "Kirk: Can't wait any longer. Going to see Dr. Scott. It will work best this way while mother is away."

None of Miss Sangler's friends knew a "Kirk." Detective Lt. Harry Didion said the existence of the doctor has been confirmed, but that his

CIO Head Predicts Steel Dispute End

(By The Associated Press)

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 12—Philip Murray says the nationwide steel strike will end soon—with complete victory for his men in their fight for free pensions and insurance.

"I assure you that before very long we will all be happy," Murray said in a fighting address at Youngstown, O. It was his first talk of a pep tour to take him to several of the nation's steel centers.

There was no reply from industry to Murray's optimism—or to his charges industry had forced 454,000 of his men to strike.

The U. S. conciliation service went ahead setting up separate meetings with union and top industry leaders in an effort to break the strike. The first session is scheduled with Bethlehem Steel corporation tomorrow at New York.

The conciliation service also kept an eye on reopening of contract talks today between soft coal operators and the striking 30,000 United Mine workers. It's worried over the approaching crisis as the result of the 24-day coal strike.

Stockpiles Said Low

Both strikes are threatening a knockout blow at American economy. More and more industries are being affected.

Iron Age, the national metal-working weekly, says if real collective bargaining does not take place soon, the country can look for one of the worst tieups in its history, "because it will knock recovery efforts of the economy into a cocked hat."

Iron Age said steel stocks are generally smaller than had at first been estimated. It added that close checking indicates few big fabri-

Man Charged In Extortion

HOUSTON, Oct. 12 (U.P.)—A 42-year-old janitor at Glenn McCarthy's plush Shamrock hotel was arrested today on a charge of writing a $50,000 extortion note to the millionaire oilman.

Raymond Chambers, formerly a Harris county deputy sheriff, pleaded innocent before U. S. Commissioner W. F. Carothers, who freed him on $7500 bond.

FBI Called In

Chambers, a mild-looking man who drew a $7-a-day salary at the hotel, was arrested after the Federal Bureau of Investigation was called in by McCarthy last Sept. 30, when he received a note demanding the money.

Persons associated with McCarthy, and who read the letter, said it was full of mispelled words.

It asked for $50,000, and instructed McCarthy to "leave the money under a culvert at 1 p. m. tomorrow at Lawndale and Frio streets. Come by yourself and bring the money in your Kadilak. If money isn't there at this time, Iwill kill you and your children."

Evidence Not Revealed

McCarthy promptly called in Neal Polk, former Harris county sheriff and now chief of the Shamrock special guards. Polk checked every person employed at the Shamrock, and by accident found out that Chambers had been

Dallas Police Will Quiz Suspect Here

Dallas police informed City Detective Robert West they would be in Lubbock today or Thursday to interview a 53-year-old man West arrested Tuesday as a suspect in a Dallas embezzlement.

The suspect was arrested here after he had gone to a hospital for treatment. He seemed "out of his mind," hospital attaches said.

A name and telephone number in his pocket caused West to call Dallas. The name turned out to be the owner of a drug store that formerly employed the man held here, West said. Money and narcotics recently were "missed" at the store, the storeowner and Dallas police told West.

ITALIAN PRINTERS STRIKE

DROP IN FARM INCOME SEEN

Rigid Controls On Planting Prepared

(By The United Press)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12 — The government prepared today to extend planting controls over half a dozen major crops to hold down farm surpluses next year.

The crops are corn, cotton, rice wheat, peanuts and tobacco. They are the so-called "basic crops." They provide a large share of farmers' cash income. Crop production reports on the 1949 harvest issued this week indicated the need for curtailing output.

Income Drop Seen

If successful, the controls can be expected to put a dent in farm income next year. Producers of most basic crops this year were guaranteed a support price for all their production. Except for tobacco and peanuts, there was no over-all limit to the amount that could be produced and dumped in the government's lap.

As far as next year is concerned, cotton growers may get the bad news today.

Secretary of Agriculture Charles F. Brannan is expected today or tomorrow to tell cotton farmers they must choose between a cutback of about 20 per cent in 1950 plantings or a reduction of about 45 per cent in price supports on next year's crop.

Rigid Quota System

The cotton planting curtailment would be enforced by a rigid system of marketing quotas.

The quota system is the more drastic of two devices which the farm law provides as a means of hold down surpluses of price-supported basic commodities. The other is the acreage allotment program, which already has been put into operation on the 1950 wheat crop.

Allotments tell a farmer how much he can plant. For example, wheat farmers were asked to curtail plantings by 17 per cent. Price support is withheld from farmers who overplant their allotments.

Suspenders Aid In Cutting Waistline

DENVER, Oct. 12 (AP)—Want to reduce your waistline without dieting, fella?

Wear suspenders, says an expert attending the American Dietetic association. The slim, trim advisory who doesn't want to be named said the secret is this:

Belt wearing men unconsciously expand their stomachs to keep their trousers from slipping.

He said 26 pot bellied men switched to braces and reduced their waistlines an average of one and five-eighs inches.

Senate Okays Crop Support

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12 (AP)—A sliding-scale system of government price supports under major farm products won Senate approval today.

After weeks of angry arguments that split party lines, the senators sent the so-called 'price stabilization" act back to the House which has adopted a different plan. Passage was by voice vote.

Another bitter struggle between the Senate and House over what's best for the farmer—especially during the 1950 congressional election year—now looms. And an apparent disagreement between Presient Truman and two of his chief Senate lieutenants threatens to cloud the issue for the Democrats in next year's campaign.

House Plan Differs

Both the President and Vice President Barkley are said to favor continuance of the wartime level of farm price props now existing.

Senator Anderson (D-NM), former secretary of agriculture, is author of the Senate's bill and Democratic Leader Lucas (Ill) backed it.

Back in July, the House voted to retain 90 per cent of parity price supports under cotton, wheat, corn, rice, tobacco and peanuts during 1950. The House also retained present supports under a long list of other commodities.

The Senate bill would allow 90 per cent of parity supports for tobacco whenever growers voted controls but would permit supports to vary from 90 to 75 per cent on the other basic crops.

For next year tobacco, wheat, corn and cotton probably would stay at the 90 per cent level, since they presumably will be under production controls.

Parity is a price calculated to give farmers a "fair" return in terms of things they must buy.

Indiana Judge Takes Supreme Court Oath

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12. (U.P.)—Sherman Minton was sworn in a Supreme Court justice today at a White House ceremony attended by most high Washington officials and a lot of Minton's fellow Indianians.

More than 400 persons gathered in the rose garden of the White House to watch the former Indiana senator take a double oath of office from Chief Justice Fred M. Vinson. Minton placed his left hand on a Supreme Court Bible which has been in use since 1801 as Vinson administered the constitutional and judicial oaths.

Mrs. Minton and President Truman stood between the new associate justice and Vinson.

Minton succeeds the late Justice Wiley B. Rutledge.

HAIRCUTS HIKED

LONDON, Oct. 12. (AP)—Barbers in The City, London's financial district, raised the price of a haircut from a shilling sixpence (21 cents) to two shilling (28 cents) today. Outside the financial district, however, the 21-cent haircut remained.

58-Group Air Force Opposed

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12 (AP) — President Truman today renewed his opposition to a 58-group air force at a White House conference with members of the senate appropriations committee.

The senators told newsmen afterward, however, that the President suggested he would accept the House position on funds for stockpiling of strategic materials.

The two controversies are holding up passage of an appropriations bill carrying funds for all the armed services.

48-Group Favored

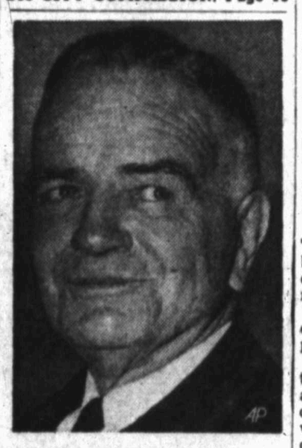

Senate Democratic Leader Lucas (Ill) who participated in the conference, said Mr. Truman was standing by his position in favor of a 48-group air force, instead of the 58 groups insisted upon by the House, because of the "savings of $741,000,000."

Lucas and the other senators, including Wherry (Neb), the Republican floor leader, said Mr. Truman did not say he would veto a bill carrying the House version.

The outcome of the conference at the White House left the future of the bill as uncertain as ever.

Wherry, who supported both the 48-group air force and the $271,000,000 Senate cut in the House figure for stockpiling, indicated that he would not yield on either count.

U. S.-Soviet Progress Toward Austrian Treaty Is Reported

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12 — Secretary of State Acheson told the Senate Foreign Relations committee today "a good deal of progress" has been made with Russia on an Austrian peace treaty.

Talking with newsmen after a closed-door session, Senator Connally (D-Tex), committee chairman, said Acheson advised the senators that the United States and Russia have agreed informally that Austria will have her pre-war boundaries.

"This will mean," Connally, said, "that Austria will have the same boundarieos she had before Hitler marched in."

China Situation Discussed

Connally said Acheson reported "substantial progress has been accomplished" toward the Austrian treaty, but he added that questions of Danube shipping, reparations, and ownership of German-controlled property in Austria remain to be settled.

Connally also said Acheson gave a "complete report" on

November Allowable For Crude Oil Hiked

HOUSTON, Oct. 12. (AP)—The Texas Railroad commission today boosted November's crude oil production allowables by 137,606 barrels daily.

November allowables were placed at 2,286,175 barrels daily, compared to 2,148,569 last Saturday.

The increase involves one additional producing day for all Texas fields, giving all areas a 20-day producing schedule except the vast East Texas field which will operate on 18.

Members of the commission estimated under production in November at 5 per cent or approximately 114,308 barrels daily. Production from new wells was anticipated at 17,000 barrels daily.

Action On Displaced Persons Bill Slated

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12 (AP) — The Senate judiciary committee finally turned loose the displaced persons bill today, opening the way for a Senate vote.

But the measure, voted out 7 to 3 over opposition from Chairman McCarran (D-Nev) who is in Europe, goes to the floor without any recommendation one way or the other on whether it should pass. The House-passed measure would let more of Europe's homeless enter this country.

Grabbing Granny Brags About Fun During Pick-Pocket Days

(By The Associated Press)

BERKELEY, Calif., Oct. 12.—There's a sweet-faced little old lady in jail here who brags about crime the way most women her age talk of sewing or knitting.

She was booked as Mrs. Frances Worthington, 73, wanted at Lansing, Kans., for violation of parole from the Kansas State industrial farm for women.

Closing a well-thumbed Bible yesterday, she reminisced to reporters: about her full and active life.

"You know, my dear, I'm one of the most accomplished pickpockets in the world. In forty years I have stolen close to half a million dollars.

"It's been a wonderful life," she sighed. "Travel and fun. The police are all such nice gentlemen and my Bible comforts me."

Mrs. Worthington was plucked off a train here and "invited" to spend 60 days in the Berkley jail.

Successful Sale For Vet Land Bonds Seen

AUSTIN, Oct. 12. (U.P.)—Officials of the Veterans Land board predicted today that a recent ruling by Attorney General Price Daniel "would insure a successful sale" of land bonds on Oct. 26.

Daniel held that bonds issued by the Veterans Land board are eligible investments for the permanent school fund.

Alvis Vandygriff, executive secretary of the board, said the decision would "considerably enhance the value of the bonds."

The $5,000,000 sale will be the first offering of bonds under the new $25,000,000 Veterans Land program.

FRAUD AND CONSPIRACY CHARGED

Preston Tucker Trial Starts Again Monday Following Error

CHICAGO, Oct. 12. (AP)—The government mapped plans today for a fresh start in the trial of Preston Tucker and seven associates on charges of fraud and conspiracy stemming from their promotion of a rear engine automobile.

The first trial, after running one week, was halted yesterday when federal Judge Walter LaBuy declared a mistrial in the case. He ordered a new trial to start next Monday. He dismissed the jury of six men and six women and three alternates and ordered 100 new jurors summoned to court Monday.

Error Ruled

Judge LaBuy, acting on a defense motion, ruled that a prejudicial error occurred in the trial Monday by testimony of a government witness that one of the defendants had a criminal record.

The witness was Mark Mourne, a Denver oil company employe, a cousin of Tucker, and one time secretary for the Tucker corporation. Mourne had testified that Harold Karsten, alias Abraham Karatz, had "a criminal record." The prosecution had questioned Mourne about a conversation he had with Tucker in July, 1946, about Karsten.

Mourne said he had not intended to refer to Karsten's criminal record but it "popped out" under prosecution questioning. Prosecutors told Judge LaBuy the government had not intended to introduce such evidence "at this time." They asked that the court order the testimony stricken from the record and the jury be instructed to disregard it.

Long Trial Seen

Judge LaBuy, however, said "the effect of instructing the jurors to erase the prejudicial evidence from their minds is at most conjectural.

"In the judgment of the court," he added, "the prejudicial testimony is of such nature that it cannot be cured by such admonition. Under these circumstances, these defendants will not receive a fair and impartial trial."

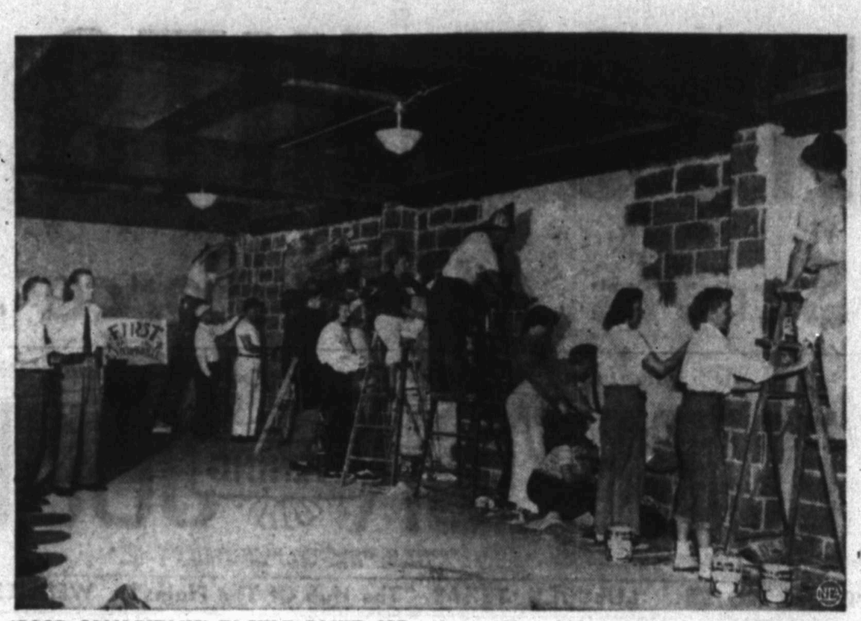

Mourne was the fourth of the 75 witnesses the government plans to call during the trial which is expected to last some three months.

Karsten, 59, of North Hollywood, Calif., was convicted in June, 1935, of a $55,000 embezzlement conspiracy against a Chicago bank. He served three years in prison. Later he was involved in Tucker's effort to get a Chicago war plant for the multi-million dollar auto venture.

Town Is Convinced That Earth Round

ZION, Ill., Oct. 12 (AP) — It's okay to celebrate Columbus day in Zion today without getting an argument on whether the world is round or whether it is flat.

That is a dead issue in Zion, says M. J. Mintern, overseer of the Christian Catholic church.

But the late Wilbur Glenn Voliva, Mintern's predecessor, preached that the earth is flat. He had a standing offer of $5,000 cash to anyone who could prove to his satisfaction that the earth is round. He never parted with the $5,000. But, Mintern said, Voliva had received some letters from persons offering to prove their point.

Voliva died Oct. 11, 1942, and so did the $5,000 offer. "The matter is a dead issue today," Mintern said.

There have been many changes in Zion in recent years compared to the days since it was founded in 1901 by the late Alexander Dowie as the home of the Christian Catholic church. Dowie and his successor, Voliva, banned smoking, chewing tobacco, Sunday movies, and newspaper and milk deliveries on Sundays. The citizens voted out the last of the blue laws last spring.

Frank Morgan's Will Left Money To Wife

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 12 (AP)—Frank Morgan left nearly his entire estate, believed valued at several hundred thousand dollars, in trust to his widow, Mrs. Alma Morgan.

The will was filed for probate yesterday. The comedian's attorney said only that it was "over $100,000" and Morgan's business manager declined an estimate.

Morgan, who died Sept. 9 at the age of 59, also left $5000 to his brother, Actor Ralph Morgan, and 10 per cent of the income of the remainder to his sister, Mrs. Zoyla W. Cook, Santa Barbara, Calif.

The will provides that upon the death of Mrs. Morgan, the trust fund will be dissolved and the proceeds will go to a son, George Morgan.

Solon Predicts New Sales, Income Taxes

GALVESTON, Oct. 12. (AP)—A state income tax, a general sales tax and an increase in the tax on natural resources was predicted for Texas after the next session of the legislature.

State Rep. Marshall O. Bell of San Antonio predicted these new taxes.

"The state is millions of dollars in debt and new and additional taxes will have to be raised," he told the Texas Automotive Dealers association. "It is evident that for the present biennium between $100,000,000 and $125,000,000 in new taxes will have to be levied."

The auto dealers ended their convention last night. Thomas F. Abbott, jr., of Fort Worth was named president; W. A. Williamson, San Antonio, first vice-president and general manager; C. P. Simpson, Houston, second vice president and Harry Kelly, Austin, third vice president.

Fort Worth was selected as site of the 1950 meeting.

Make This Home Recipe To Take Off Ugly Fat

It's simple. It's amazing, how quickly one may lose pounds of bulky, unsightly fat right in your own home. Make this recipe yourself. It's easy—no trouble at all and costs little. It contains nothing harmful. Just go to your druggist and ask for four ounces of liquid Barcentrate. Pour this into a pint bottle and add enough grapefruit juice to fill bottle. Then take two tablespoonfuls twice a day. That's all there is to it.

If the very first bottle doesn't show the simple, easy way to lose bulky fat and help regain slender, more graceful curves; if reducible pounds and inches of excess fat don't just seem to disappear almost like magic from neck, chin, arms, bust, abdomen, hips, calves and ankles, just return the empty bottle for your money back.

Follow the easy way endorsed by many who have tried this plan and help bring back alluring curves and graceful slenderness. Note how quickly bloat disappears — how much better you feel. More alive, youthful appearing and active.

Meet Don Clark— Another "Do-it-yourself" American

Today he's his own boss!

Donald M. Clark of Dover, Delaware, doesn't believe anything need stop a man from making a go of what he wants to do! Three years ago he combined the two things he liked best—flying and farming—and set up for himself one of the first aerial crop-dusting services in Delaware. Savings from Army pay bought the first plane. Now through profits he has six planes, flown by fellow Air Force vets. So Don's "Flying Flit-Gun Squadron" is paying off . . . at the age of 25 he's his own boss . . . and he did it on his own!

☆ It's the American Spirit!

YOUR OWN MAIN STREET, too, has its Don Clarks. They're the folks who find their own "new frontiers" to develop, who carve out their own futures. They wouldn't have it any other way!

Yes, the "do-it-yourself spirit" is still as strong in America as ever. One proof: 78 million people are holders of life insurance. They hold it because they want to take care of their own on their own . . . to put children through college . . . for retirement . . . for financial emergencies.

Through life insurance they can achieve these things which so many Americans want. So the life insurance business has grown to match their needs. With more than 150,000 trained agents throughout the country, 584 separate life insurance companies compete aggressively to help Americans help themselves!

It's a Fact . . .

It's a fact that the service of the life insurance agent is essential . . . because:

- Families have different incomes, different numbers of children. Some want maximum protection now, some want to assure a college education for their children, some want to plan for retirement . . .
- Life insurance companies are constantly developing new kinds and combinations of policies to meet these and other individual needs.
- It takes the experience that only the trained agent has to help you plan your insurance so as to accomplish what you want.
- Today more than 150,000 life insurance agents are qualified through training to help the people of America get the most out of their life insurance.

To make sure that you have a life insurance plan best suited to your present family needs, consult your own agent. Life insurance is a service! And the help of your agent's skill and training is yours for the asking. *The Institute of Life Insurance—central source of information—60 E. 42nd St., New York 17, N. LIFE INSURANCE—Helping American Families to Help Themselves

INDIA STAND IN COLD WAR EYED

Nehru Guest Of President At Washington On First Visit

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12 (AP)—Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru of India set out today on a strenuous get-acquainted tour of the United States. American officials hope it will help make India incline more strongly toward the west in the cold war with Russia.

Nehru is a hero of his country's fight for freedom and probably the outstanding figure in Asia. He was greeted personally by President Truman on his arrival late yesterday for a state visit of nearly a month. Last night he was Mr. Truman's guest at a formal dinner at Blair House.

First Visit To U. S.

A visit to Mount Vernon and the tomb of the Unknown Soldier were on the prime minister's schedule today. This will be followed by two more days of sightseeing, speeches and handshaking in the capital before he leaves Saturday for New York and a transcontinental tour.

It is Nehru's first visit to the United States, of which he has been critical at times, partly on the score of American race relations.

A moderate socialist who heads India's majority Congress party, he also has expressed doubts in the past of the virtues of American style capitalism.

Some of his ideas on these points may be changed, officials hoped, if he carries out his plans to talk to businessmen as well as politicians and people in all forms of activity.

India In Vital Spot

What is most important from the American official viewpoint is Nehru's attitude toward the cold war, from which he has sought to keep aloff though hostile to communism in his own country.

India with its 300,000,000 population, natural resources and geographical position is in a vital spot at the moment. The U. S. would like to see its leaders and the commonwealth government take a more definite role in blocking the advance of communism.

President Truman's plane, the Independence, was sent to London to bring Nehru to Washington. In London reports were that Nehru indicated his government favored early recognition of the Chinese communist regime.

At the airport, Nehru was greeted in a cordial manner by Mr. Truman, who had at his side Secretary of State Acheson, Secretary of Defense Johnson, and other cabinet members.

In Native Dress

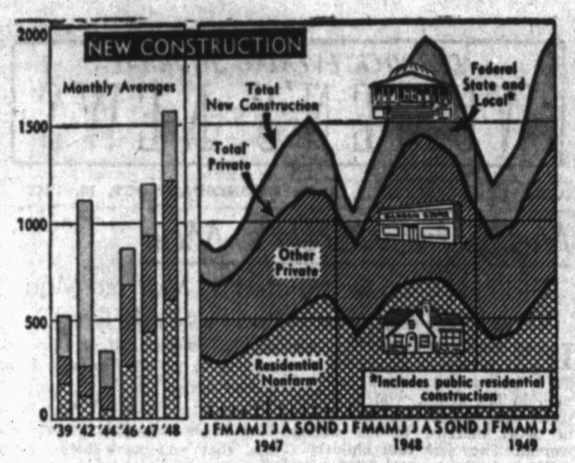

Nehru was clad in the Indian-style costume, which included a long brown coat, light colored Jodphurs and a small Gandhi-style cap.

He responded to Mr. Truman's welcome with a brief informal speech. He said he trusted that "these two republics of the western world and the eastern world will find many ways of working together in friendly cooperation to our mutual advantage and to the good of humanity."

Mr. Truman greeted Nehru with the expressed hope that the visit "will leave you with the firm conviction that we are indeed your warm friends."

With the prime minister is his daughter, Mrs. Indira Gandhi, his minister of external affairs, corresponding to the foreign minister, Sir Girja Shankar Bajpi. As a former resident commissioner for India in Washington, Sir Girja is well acquainted with the capital.

The arrival at the airport was the occasion for a reunion between the prime minister and his sister, Madam Vijaya Lakshmi Pandit, India's ambassador to the United States.

NEW CONSTRUCTION STILL BOOMING—The chart above, based on figures from the Departments of Commerce and Labor, shows trends of new construction in the United States to mid-year 1949. Total estimated new construction in July, 1949, was valued at $1,913,000,000 compared to $1,874,000,000 for July, 1948. This represented an increase of more than 9½ per cent over June, 1949. Private building gained somewhat more than seasonally in July, and public construction somewhat less. Monthly averages for years since 1939 are given at left in the chart. New construction for this year appears well on the way to matching 1948's record monthly average value of $1,565,000,000.

Ex-Italian King And Queen Still On Outs

GENEVA, Switzerland, Oct. 12. (AP)—It looks like Ex-King Umberto of Italy and his former queen are still on the outs.

Umberto and former Queen Marie Jose, who have been living apart for two years, left together Saturday for an undisclosed destination in France—stirring speculation they had patched up their marital differences.

But last night Marie Jose and her son returned to Geneva without Umberto, who has been living in Lisbon. No one close to the royal household was talking but there was no indication the couple had decided to end the separation.

Sheriff Faces Trial In Woman's Slaying

GREENVILLE, Oct. 12 (AP)—A special venire of 250 has been called for Oct. 17 trial of Nolan Maynard, former Delta county sheriff.

Maynard is charged with shooting Dorothy Palmer, 35, to death near Cooper, Tex., May 26, 1948.

The case was transferred here to Hunt county on a change of venue. It will be tried before Judge Charles Berry of the eighth district court.

EX-BANKER DIES

BONHAM, Oct. 12. (AP)—Thomas B. Williams, 87, former president of the Bonham State bank, died yesterday.

After oil well casings have been perforated with the well-known "gun," they nevertheless sometimes clog up. To clear this up, a blade-armed clyinder has been invented, which can be lowered into the well to scrape out the casing.

Travel Talk And Reviews Are Features Of Club Sessions

A travel lecture, talks on authors and democracy and a book review were features of Tuesday afternoon study club meeting.

MRS. YOUNG TALKS ON TRIP ABROAD

"A Woman's Glimpse of Europe" was the title of the talk Mrs. M. Norvel Young gave on her summer travels, when she spoke for Lubbock Woman's Forum Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Jimmie Kerr introduced the speaker and the musicians, Mrs. Charles Moeser and Mrs. James Atcheson. Mrs. Moeser, accompanied by Mrs. Atcheson, sang "The Lovely Song My Heart Is Singing" (Goulding) and "The Blackbird" (Weatherby). Mrs. J. B. McCauley presided for the meeting and the introduction of guests.

The guest day tea and program were held in the home of Mrs. Clem Boverie at 3210 Twenty-third.

Mrs. Young described St. Paul's cathedral, one of five designed by Christopher Wren which are standing today. Forty-seven of his churches were destroyed during the war. While visiting the British museum, Mrs. Young reported that she saw the Bible found on Mt. Sanai which was purchased by England from Russia.

Sees Peace Palace

As she saw the Peace Palace in Amsterdam, the speaker said she felt that it stands as a silent symbol of the inability of peoples and countries to get along with one another.

In Switzerland, Mrs. Young's favorite European country, she sat in a class of Emil Bruner, famous theologian. At each place she visited, Mrs. Young was impressed with the kind attitude of the people toward Americans, and she was also impressed that all the persons with whom she talked know something of Texas and wanted to know more. She noticed, too, that in the war torn countries, the people are clinging to the glories and beauties of the past.

The speaker described Egypt as being wonderful and terrible, rich and poor, gaudy and pitiful. She stated that the people along the "muddy Nile" have multiple uses for its water — they drink it, wash in it, bathe in it, and irrigate with it.

Mrs. Young explained that one of the best parts of an overseas trip for any Christian is the visit to the Holy Land. She saw Jerusalem, the Mount of Olives, Sea of Galilee, Gethsemane, etc.

Hostesses with Mrs. Boverie were Mesdames J. L. Downs, Earl Archer, Noel Stalnaker, Gradie Bownds and D. B. Pope. They arranged the tea table with a handmade drawn cloth and crystal and silver appointments. In the center of the table was a bouquet of rose and wine mums and tinted cattail interspersed with dark green and wine leaves. Semi-circles of dark green candles were placed on either end of the table.

DR. W. B. GATES PRESENTS PAPER

Junior Twentieth Century club members opened their year of activities Tuesday afternoon in the Colonial room of Hilton hotel. Their guest speaker was Dr. W. B. Gates, professor of English at Texas Technological college, who gave a paper on O. Henry.

Mrs. Paul Newman, vice president, presided.

Twenty-two members and one guest attended.

PIECES OF ART SHOWN FOR CLUB

Old china and Early American glass collected by Mrs. Vernon Brown in various European countries and Old Mexico were displayed for Sorosis club Tuesday afternoon.

The meeting was held in the home of Mrs. Brown, 2010 Broadway, with Mrs. J. D. Peters as hostess.

Twenty-two members and one guest, Mrs. J. A. Hutchison, attended.

STREETER BOOK IS DISCUSSED

A guest reviewer, Mrs. Ivy Savage, discussed Edward Streeter's book, "Father of the Bride," for Clement-Sorosis Study club Tuesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Lennis Baker, 1710 Thirty-first.

During a business session, a box supper for the first part of November was planned.

Those present were Mesdames S. H. Assiter, Baker, Herbert Bannister, L. L. Beck, Vernon Bell, Jerry Brooks, R. H. Canaday, R. E. Gee, Jason O. Gordon, Sam Henry, jr., Don D. King, T. Euel Liner, Dewey Malone, L. D. Marshall, Belverd Needles, W. B. Pearce, J. D. Sanders, C. A. Spencer, Frank L. Todd and Glenn Woody.

Mrs. Todd was program leader. The group brought crayolas and scissors to be donated to the Mexican school.

PROGRAM TALKS ARE ON EVOLUTION OF DEMOCRACY

Mrs. B. E. Needles and Mrs. Frank D. Wilson were speakers on a program entitled, "The Evolution of Our Democracy," given for Athenaeum club Tuesday in the home of Mrs. Paul Cates, 2110 Twenty-third.

The first speaker, Mrs. Needles, reviewed various events preceding the founding of the United States which had a bearing on the beginning of the U. S. government. Her topic was "The Genesis of Our Form of Government."

Mrs. Wilson who spoke on "Tendencies in Our Government Toward Socialism" cited contemporary instances of Socialistic governments. She said, "A democracy and planned economy by the government do not go together."

Twenty persons attended the program. Among the group was Mrs. Hubert Bratcher, a new member.

Girl Has Been Dominated By Married Man Who Wed Another When His Wife Died

DEAR MARY HAWORTH: I am past 40 now, but when I was 23 I was pursued by a married man in my office, who gave the usual story about his misfortune in being married to the wrong woman. They had four children.

Through the years I tried very hard to put him out of my life, but to no avail, and about 10 years ago his wife died. Of course it was understood that we would be married eventually, but his children were then involved and he had all sorts of excuses for not marrying again.

Having a very good position myself, I didn't urge marriage too much, not wishing to have his children live with us. But they are all married now. Although he has been dating me as usual and telephoning nearly every day, at the office or at home, he recently married another woman—and he had never even hinted to me that this was going on.

SECOND MARRIAGE CAME AS A SHOCK

SINCE this happened many things have been brought to light by my friends about how deceptive he has been. What a fool I was to believe in him all these years, giving up many desirable chances at marriage,—chances that he took care to break up, saying he would marry me; and we were lovers from time to time.

I would like to know, isn't there some way I could make him support me? My present health isn't very good and it may be that I will need some support soon. This man, I'll call him Dean, has managed to gai nsome standing in his company and earns a good salary; and he is about 55 years old.

In closing I wish to say to any young girl reading this pathetic tale—please stay away from any married man, no matter what his story is. They are all the same; for goodness sake don't trust them at any time. Signed—S. N.

WOMAN CONSPIRED IN CHEATING SELF

DEAR S. N.: Taking a technical view of the matter, you were past the age of consent when you let yourself become entangled in Dean's web of deceit, knowing that he was a married man.

Thus, though it may be a fact that he was the aggressor who played unscrupulously upon your feelings, hopes and naivete to corral and keep you as a conquest, nevertheless the history of the association has been that you cooperated with him in cheating his wife of perquisites that legally or morally were exclusively hers, according to ordinary standards of human decency.

Therefore, though it may be a dizzying shock to discover, at long last, that you were being even worse cheated than she, in this illicit relationship which cheated her, I hardly think you could qualify as an injured innocent in your dealings with Dean, or as a legitimate plaintiff for financial support to compensate for damages incurred in throwing yourself away on him.

GROWTH DEPENDS ON SEEING TRUTH

HOWEVER, I am not proffering a council of despair. Rather I think it necessary to face social realities, in order to reorganize your life along more profitable lines. If you are newly forty, you have another decade of prime youth ahead of you yet, according to modern reckoning,—as witness the fact that persons of distinction mentioned in the news are invariably called "young" if in their forties.

Figuratively speaking you are bankrupt of security at this time, due to unethical traffic with an utterly selfish hypocrite, and the obvious remedies are: 1. Stop throwing personal capital down the drain, by breaking flatly with Dean and wasting no more time or energy on him. 2. Use the vitality thus saved to cultivate and expand your chief durable asset, namely, your honest friendships.

As you expunge from your life this futile relationship which is a critical source of frustration and pessimism, your moral and physical health will mend; and as you begin to confidently feel that you are worthy of fine devotion, that is the kind of experience you will attract.—M. H.

Mary Haworth counsels through her column, not by mail or personal interview. Write her in care of The Lubbock Evening Journal.

NEW TYPE BOMB WAS BEING USED

Air Force Probes Reason For Crackup Of Plane In Florida

By JAMES J. STREBIG
Associated Press Staff Writer

EGLIN AIR BASE, Fla., Oct. 12.—Air Force officers looked today for a means of eliminating the danger of bomb release accidents in jet planes after a spectacular tragedy which took the life of a young fighter pilot.

Use of the type of bomb involved, known as parafrag, a contraption of parachute and fragmentation, has been suspended until investigation of the accident has been completed and corrective steps taken.

The accident occurred in the midst of a high speed jet war game carried out yesterday before 1,000 student officers and guests at one of Eglin's 12 airfields.

Bomb Parachute Snagged

The victim was Second Lt. Robert S. Kavanaugh, 26, son of Mrs. Lois Kavanaugh of Roanoke, Va. Kavanaugh was flying one of four Republic F-84 Thunderjets in a strafing and parafrag bomb attack on a simulated enemy command station. A few seconds beyond the target, one of the little bombs exploded beside his plane.

The tail section fluttered through the air and the plane crashed to the ground from about 100 foot altitude, ending a long skid in a burst of flame and smoke. Reports from studies of the wreckage and witness convinced Air Force officers that one of the bomb parachutes had snagged on the container hung under the plane wing. Then the bomb, armed by the opening of the chute, had swung against the plane and exploded. Official observers reported numerous fragment holes in the tail of Kavanaugh's plane.

Another Plane Hit

The four planes were from the 55th fighter squadron of the 20th fighter group based at Shaw airbase, Sumter, S. C.

The morning-long program called for participation by about 100 Thunderjets in the Air Force show of its ability to support ground forces. The single-engine, 600 miles-an-hour jet was used to carry every kind of ordnance ordinarily employed in tactical air fighting. The show will continue without the parafrag attacks for succeeding classes of officer-students.

The live ammunition mock war, condensed to a two-hour battle, is only a part of the overall training and instruction program. For the flying elements, the air indoctrination course is a two-month tactical training maneuver built around their ability to transport complete units and fight a simulated war.

Woman Didn't Wait For Roving Spouse

NEWTON, N. C., Oct. 12 (U.P.) Mrs. Abel L. Huitt, happily married for 22 years, today began lengthy legal proceedings to straighten out the marital tangle caused by the return of her wandering first husband after a 26-year absence.

Gray-haired Archie Cline, 65, missing since 1923, started it all when he turned up at his wife's door and told her he still loved her.

But today Cline hit the road again. He said his wife told him she 'was married, happy and that he couldn't come in the house.

Quilt Is Pieced For Girlstown By Group

Mrs. M. V. Parrott, 112 Ave. U, was hostess to the 1934 Needle club Tuesday at 3 p. m. with nine members present.

During the afternoon the group pieced a quilt for Girlstown. Plans were made for an entertainment to be held for the club in the Party house at Mackenzie State park sometime next week. The day and time are to be announced later.

Next regular meeting of the needle group will be on Oct. 25, at 3 p. m. in the home of Mrs. H. O. Allen on the Tahoka highway.

Doctors Puzzle Over Tot's Fractured Leg

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 12. (U.P.)—Mrs. Herbert Marinez and doctors at Charity hospital today were trying to figure out how 16-months-old Lydia Martinez could suffer two broken legs without getting out of her crib.

When the baby was only five weeks old, she whimpered painfully all day before her mother discovered that one leg was broken.

The same thing happened again Monday. Lydia cried in her crib until Mrs. Martinez called a doctor. The same leg was broken again.

Tech Dairy Judging Team Wins Trophies

A large silver milk can, fashioned by a jeweler, and four smaller trophies attracted interest today in the department of dairy manufactures at Texas Technological college, following return of the victorious dairy products judging team Tuesday night.

Texas Tech is the first college to win the silver milk can, awarded by the dairy industry of Texas to the high team in judging of all products at the Southwest intercollegiate dairy products judging contest held Monday at the State Fair of Texas.

The can will be passed to the first-place winner each year. The other trophies, won by Texas Tech's team for placing high in judging of each of the products, will be retained by Texas Tech.

The milk can, which is silver plated copper, is expected to create interest in the annual contest, perhaps eventually holding a place in the dairy industry such as the little brown jug and the old oaken bucket hold in the football world.

Members of the winning Tech team were Clarence Darter, jr., of Childress, Terry Smith of Roby, Royce Jackson of Quanah and Harold Sawyer of Evant. They were accompanied by Dr. J. J. Willingham, head professor of dairy manufactures.

The same team will compete Oct. 19 in the national dairy products judging contest in Los Angeles.

Soldier Makes Plane Escape

NASHVILLE, Ark., Oct. 12. (AP)—A daring young soldier named Pvt. Howard A. Shinneman may own the dubious distinction of being the first military prisoner to parachute from a plane.

Records on this sort of thing virtually are nil.

The 23-year-old Clinton, Ill., war veteran dived out of a C-82—commonly known as a "Flying Boxcar"—at about 3,000 feet over southwestern Arkansas yesterday afternoon. The plane was carrying a crew and 10 military prisoners from Forbes Air Force base at Topeka, Kas., to Barksdale Air Force base, Shreveport, La.

The spectacular break was engineered, Shinneman said, to win a $5 bet he doesn't expect to collect—and for a thrill. He said he didn't intend to escape; but had planned to report to Barksdale on his own.

Caught By Sheriff

It also (1) earned Shinneman brief freedom — five hours of trudging five miles over unfamiliar and muddy country a hunted man, and (2) created quite a commotion in these parts.

Sheriff Arthur E. Hicks of Howard county and a "courthouse friend," as he was identified, captured the young fugitive by following rumors of a man in uniform cutting across fields and roads. The catch was made in Buck Range community, five and one-half miles southeast of here.

Shinneman was brought to the county jail here to await military authorities. The sheriff's wife described him as "nice looking."

UT Prexy Asks Study Of College Problems

AUSTIN, Oct. 12 (U.P.)—Dr. T. S. Painter, president of the University of Texas, pushed an idea today which he felt would help eliminate over-lapping of the state's college and university facilities.

The proposal was a study of Texas' higher educational system, similar to a "Gilmer-Aikin" type study which the 51st legislature rejected last spring.

Painter told a university faculty meeting yesterday that the need for a "central administrative machinery" was growing as Texas colleges faced declining enrollments and the prospect of reduced legislative appropriations.

Tyler Man Sues To Get His Telephone

TYLER, Oct. 12. (U.P.)—Roy M. Mitchell today sought a court order to help him get a telephone.

In his petition, Mitchell said he had first applied for a telephone last January. The Southwestern Bell Telephone company said then it would be unable to install a phone at his residence until April.

Came April, Mitchell said, and the company put him off til July, and in July, he was put off until September.

September came and went and no telephone. Yesterday, Mitchell filed suit in seventh district court. He asked the court to order the telephone company to fulfill its promises.

House Speaker Is Given Club

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12 (U.P.) — House Speaker Sam Rayburn today sported a fine new Irish shillelagh fit for cracking Democratic heads if the need should arise.

The shillelagh, cut from the black oaks of County Wicklow, Ireland, was presented to the doughty Texan yesterday in a sly Republican dig at Democratic discipline.

Rep. Daniel A. Reed, R., N. Y., took the floor shortly after the House met at noon and announced solemnly that he had been "alarmed" at headlines he had seen on a recent trip to Europe.

"The headlines said that "Speaker Rayburn has lost control of his (Democratic) side of the House'," Reed said. "So I went to the village of Shillelagh, looked at the black oaks and had them make this."

To Control House

With a sweeping motion, he reached under his coat and pulled out a mysterious-looking long paper bag. He unwrapped it to display a black, knobbed shillelagh which he handed to Rayburn.

"I asked the people of Shillelagh what it was used for," Reed announced. "They said it was 'to bash heads'.

"I am giving it to the speaker to see if he can get control of his side of the House."

Rayburn grinned, hefted the cudgel, and said:

"I've always thought that a Democratic speaker needed this more than a republican speaker would. I'll at least threaten them with it."

GOOD REASON!

MOLINE, Ill., Oct. 12. (AP)—Jimmy Carl Jones, 30, seized by police on charges of burglarizing churches, offered this explanation: "They were the only places where I could find peace of mind."

The Netherlands' merchant fleet now is reported almost back to prewar capacity.

Polio Cases Decline In Texas Past Week

AUSTIN, Oct. 12 (AP) — Polio showed a drop in Texas last week, but the year's total is still far ahead of previous records.

The state health department reported yesterday the total for last week was 52, the lowest of any week since May 21 when there were 42 cases.

Week before last, there were 67 new cases.

For the year, the total is now 2,010 compared with 1,521 cases during the same period last year.

Two counties which had not reported any polio were included last week: Hansford with 3 and Maverick with one.

Counties with more than one new case were Bexar 2, Cooke 2, Dallas 4, Dewitt 2, Gillespie 2, Hale 2, Harris 4, Tarrant 2, Taylor 3, Throckmorton 2, Tom Green 3, Wichita 2.

Houston To Observe Oil Progress Week

HOUSTON, Oct. 12. (U.P.)—Oil progress week begins here Sunday, and Houston oil operators and companies are planning proper observance.

Chairman of a committee in charge of activities is K. S. Adams, jr., president of the Ada Oil Co.

Leaders in the nation's oil industry will be here to speak before various civic groups during the week, Adams said, and some addresses will be made in the Houston area bordered by Lufkin, Orange and Victoria.

Heavy Rains Stop Harvest

AUSTIN, Oct. 12 (U.P.)—Torrential rains, following last week's hurricane, have put an abrupt halt to harvesting of crops in upper coastal and east Texas counties, the United States Department of Agriculture reported today.

The tropical storm swept northward through the center of the rice belt, where about 5 per cent of the crop had been harvested.

Scattered showers and drizzles slowed harvesting operations in Central and North Texas.

However, the news was better from the northern high plains where most wheat was reported up to a good stand, with early fields providing some grazing.

Fall crop commercial vegetables continued to make good progress in all areas. Eggplant, peppers and squash were becoming more plentiful with an occasional solid carload lot being loaded in the winter garden area.

East Texas C-C Will Fight Amendments

GREENVILLE, Oct. 12 (AP) — Yearly sessions of the legislature and a boost in legislators' pay got a vote of disapproval yesterday from a group of businessmen from 12 East Texas counties.

They vote dagainst the proposed constitutional amendment at a district one meeting of the East Texas Chamber of Commerce. Paul Carrington, Dallas lawyer, outlined the 10 amendments which will be submitted to Texas voters next month.

The group voted against the proposal to make women eligible for jury duty. They voted down a proposal they go on record as endorsing the amendment to do away with the poll tax as a voting requirement. They approved the seven other proposed amendments.

Missing Girl Sought In San Angelo Area

SEMINOLE, Oct. 12 (Special)—Search for a missing 12-year-old Seminole girl shifted from El Paso to San Angelo today.

A girl, fitting the description of Mary Donna Nelson, has been seen hitchhiking near San Angelo, Gaines county officers said they learned this morning.

The Nelson girl, who was last seen by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Nelson, at 10:30 p. m., Monday when she went to bed, is believed to be dressed in blue jeans, a white T-shirt, a brown suede jacket and brown shoes.

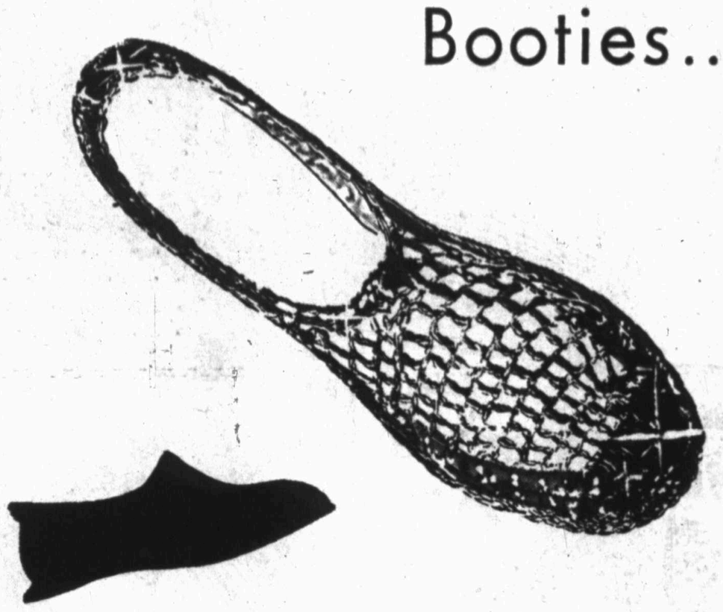

She is 5 feet 4 inches tall, weighs 110 pounds, has blue eyes and long brown hair, possibly in braids.

At first, it was believed she might be headed for California to see her grandmother. Police said they could find no reason for her to leave home.

Communist Defendant Declares Thought Control Trial Object

NEW YORK, Oct. 12. (AP)—"Thought control" is the object of the communist conspiracy trial, says defendant Engene Dennis, who offers final defense arguments in the case today.

Dennis, general secretary of the communist party in America and one of the 11 Red leaders on trial, is acting as his own counsel.

Opening his summation late yesterday, he said the government "could not bring us to trial for anything we had done, but seeks to convict us for our political beliefs and alleged dangerous thoughts."

"It is a political trial," he said, "a thought-control trial, a trial of ideas and political doctrines."

Dennis, a tall, bulky, white-haired man, is the sixth and last member of the defense staff to sum up before the federal court jury, which is expected to get the case late this week.

The prosecution plans to use about one day in summing up, and Federal Judge Harold R. Medina may take about the same time instructing the jury.

Dennis, who read most of his remarks in a quavering voice, claimed the prosecution was "pretending this is an ordinary criminal trial," while it is actually a trial "of a party and a political science."

"We are not guilty of committing any overt act to overthrow the government by force and violence," he said, "and indeed, we have not been so charged."

The charge is that the 11 conspired to teach and advocate forcible overthrow of the government.

Dennis claimed there had been no evidence that he and his colleagues taught or advocated such action.

"The evidence shows," he said, "that we put forth our efforts in the interests of the people and peace."

He accused the prosecution of "putting words in our mouths" and of pretending to be "mind readers and crystal gazers and to say what we would do."

Earlier, George W. Crockett, jr., of the defense staff, declared that if the communist party is outlawed, another party will take its place.

For two years he was given training in dancing and acting and has studied every film Valentino made to get the fine points of mannerisms used by the famous actor. His identity was kept secret until recently by the producers of the new film.

Train Mishap Fatal For 25

BUENOS AIRES, Oct. 12 (AP)—Twenty-five persons were killed and more than 100 injured in a collision of a freight train and a resort-bound passenger train just before midnight here last night.

Though the transport system's electric power was cut off to prevent further mishaps, one electric train caught fire due to a short circuit. Firemen were fighting these flames early this morning but no casualties were reported.

Passenger Train Late

Most of the casualties in the train wreck were in the second class sections, into which the incoming freight train ploughed head-on.

President Juan D. Peron, his wife Evita, and cabinet ministers hurried to the scene of the crash, inside the city limits near the President Peron railway station.

Texas Citrus Crops Said Below Normal

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12 (AP) — The Agriculture department predicted yesterday that Texas orange and grapefruit crops will be less than normal.

For the nation, the USDA forecast that early and mid-season oranges would total 50.6 million boxes, seven per cent above last season. rapefruit production, exclusive of the California summer crop, was estimated at 32.2 million boxes, 27 per cent less than last season.

The Florida crop of early and mid-season oranges is indicated at a record 33 million boxes, the report said, but Texas and California have short crops.

Texas early and mid-season oranges are forecast at slightly less than a million boxes, compared with 2.6 million boxes last season and 3.1 million in 1947-48.

Texas expects a crop of only 420,000 boxes of Valencia oranges —a half of last season and a fifth of the 1947-48 crop of 2.1 million boxes.

The Texas grapefruit crop at 4.8 million boxes is less than one-half of last season's 11.3 million and only about one-fifth of the 1 47-48 production of 23.2 million boxes.

British Bobbies Urge Hanging Be Retained As Murder Penalty

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
Associated Press Staff Writer

London's policemen (better known as "bobbies" and who ordinarily are unarmed except for truncheons, have told a royal commission that the hanging penalty for murder should be retained. They feel that this is their best protection from desperate criminals.

The commission is studying the question of whether the laws on capital punishment should be changed, and of course the bobbies' viewpoint is understandable. The only time they carry firearms is on the rare occasions when they are confronted with a desperate situation, and then guns are served out to them, to be returned to headquarters as soon as the emergency is over.

Laws Are Strict

The English laws about the use of firearms are pretty fierce. For example, if you as a householder catch a burglar in your home, you may not shoot him unless you believe he is about to do you or a member of your family bodily injury. The mere fact that the thief may be climbing out the window with the family silver doesn't give you the right to shoot. If you do use a gun under those circumstances and kill somebody, it is murder.

The bobby is a cool, steady and methodical individual who inspires respect. I encountered a typical example of how they work one day at the big Victoria railway station. Two men were having a furious word-battle, interspersed with fist blows. A bobby was standing beside them—listening to the argument—while a crowd of several hundred surrounded them. The policeman never spoke but every time one of the battlers aimed a fist at the other, the cop coolly blocked the blow and then listened some more.

Finally, having got the gist of the debate, the bobby raised a hand and said, partly to the fighters and partly to the big crowd:

"That's all! On your way!"

Bobbies handle all situations with that same studied calm, which more often than not is mixed with a sense of humor which bridges many rough places and engenders respect. They are handpicked—men of sound judgment and understanding. They are the law.

Postscript: among those who expressed approval of capital punishment by hanging were British prison wardens, who said it was humane, and three clergymen who had seen hangings. The ministers said in their report that "society may act on behalf of God."

Sec. Snyder Predicts Greatest Period Of Prosperity In U. S.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 12 (AP)—When the present strike situation is over the United States is in for the greatest period of prosperity it has ever known, Secretary of the Treasury John W. Snyder declared.

Snyder spoke here last night before the sixth annual correspondent bank meeting of the Pennsylvania Company for Banking.

The secretary said that when the official figures are released in a few weeks they will reveal that the national income of the past month was the highest on record.

Savings High

He was optimistic regarding the nation's economic situation. 'It is one of the finest we have ever known," Snyder said.

Snyder pointed out that in addition to more than $200,000,000,000 of income, people of the country have an additional $200,000,000,000 in liquid savings—money in the bank, cash, and savings bonds—while private business has working capital of another $65,000,000,000.

He said that since the end of World War II, private industry has spent $85,000,000,000 for plant improvements, expansion, and new machinery.

"And for the first time in a number of years," he said, "we have the world markets opened to us for raw materials."

Club Withdraws From AAUW On Negro Issue

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 12 (AP)—The College Club of St. Louis decided to withdraw from the American Association of University Women today because the association has decided to admit negro women as members.

The club president, Mrs. William Stead, said a vote of club members showed 188 favored withdrawing and 131 remaining in the association.

The college women's national group voted at its national convention in Seattle to change its by-laws and allow women of all races to enter the 100,000-member association.

Gasoline Taxes Hike Predicted For Texas

SAN ANTONIO, Oct. 12 (AP)—It will soon be necessary to hike gasoline taxes in Texas to pay the cost of highway maintenance, a highway department official said.

C. B. Finley, maintenance engineer, said cost of maintenance and operation has gone up 8 per cent since 1947 and that labor has increased seven per cent; materials 13 per cent and equipment 12 per cent.

He said Texas has a four cent gasoline tax, half of which is diverted for repayment of bonds and support of the school system.

He recalled that the last legislature voted $15,000,000 for farm-to-market roads but provided no money for maintenance.

Finley spoke yesterday at the American Association of Highway Officials convention.

Brownwood Group To Appear For Hearing

BROWNWOOD, Oct. 12 (AP)—A Brownwood delegation is en route to Washington to appear Thursday at a hearing before the corps of engineers board for rivers and harbors.

The delegation will ask approval of a flood control project at Lake Brownwood. The project involves construction of a new dam and works in the present spillway.

Petitions signed by more than 5,000 Brown county residents are being taken to Washington by the delegation.

The project has been approved by the Galveston district and southwestern division army engineers. A report by the corps of engineers has termed Lake Brownwood dam a flood hazard.

Mayor A. N. Thomason and City Manager Jack Broad and nine others are in the delegation.

District Games Hold Spotlight

Henderson To Test Longview

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Editor

The championship battles move into the preliminary stage this week in Texas schoolboy football.

More than half the 20 districts of the City conference and Class AA have conference games. For the first time this season the intra-district schedule overshadows sectional clashes.

There are 23 conference games involving three districts of the City conference and eight of Class AA.

Meanwhile, few of the state's undefeated and untied appear in danger of losing their status. In no instance do two of them meet each other.

Henderson In Danger

Henderson and Galveston appear in for trouble and both could fall from the list without causing surprise. Henderson takes on tough Longview in a District 9 conference clash. Galveston battles Austin in an inter-district test.

Galveston is the only unscored on team left in the state but hasn't met any opposition to date stacking up with Austin.

Other undefeated, untied teams are Wichita Falls, Lamesa, Lubbock, Ysleta, Grand Prairie, Highland Park (Dallas), Marshall, Port Arthur, Corsicana and Galena Park.

Fifty games will be played in the state. The schedule by districts:

District 1—Thursday: Weatherford at Sunset (Dallas); Friday: Orange at Woodrow Wilson (Dallas).

District 2—Thursday: Arlington Heights (Fort Worth) vs Amon Carter-Riverside (Fort Worth) (conference); Friday: Poly (Fort Worth) vs North Side (Fort Worth) (conference); Saturday: Fort Worth Tech vs Paschal (Fort Worth) (conference).

District 4—Thursday: San Antonio Tech vs Alamo Heights (San Antonio) (conference); Friday: Jefferson (San Antonio); vs Lanier (San Antonio) (conference); Saturday: Burbank (San Antonio) vs Harlandale (San Antonio) (conference).

Class AA:

District 1—Friday: Austin (El Paso) at Borger, Forrest (Dallas) at Amarillo.

District 2—Friday: Electra at Wichita Falls (conference), Graham at Childress (conference), Quanah at Vernon (conference).

District 3—Friday: Plainview at Brownfield, Sweetwater at Midland, Pampa at Lubbock.

District 4—Friday: Ysleta at El Paso High (conference); Saturday: Phoenix, Ariz., at Bowie (El Paso).

District 5—Friday: Cisco at San Angelo, Odessa at Abilene, Brownwood at Big Spring (conference).

District 6—No games.

Denton At Sherman

District 7—Friday: Denton at Sherman, Bonham at Paris (conference), Gainesville at Greenville (conference).

District 8—Friday: Jesuit (Dallas) at McKinney, North Dallas at Highland Park (Dallas), Crozier Tech (Dallas) at Grand Prairie, Jacksonville at Sulphur Springs.

District 10 — Friday: Peacock Military academy (San Antonio) at Bryan.

District 11—Friday: Kerrville at South Park (Beaumont), Corpus Christi at Port Arthur, Orange at Woodrow Wilson (Dallas), Galena Park at Port Neches.

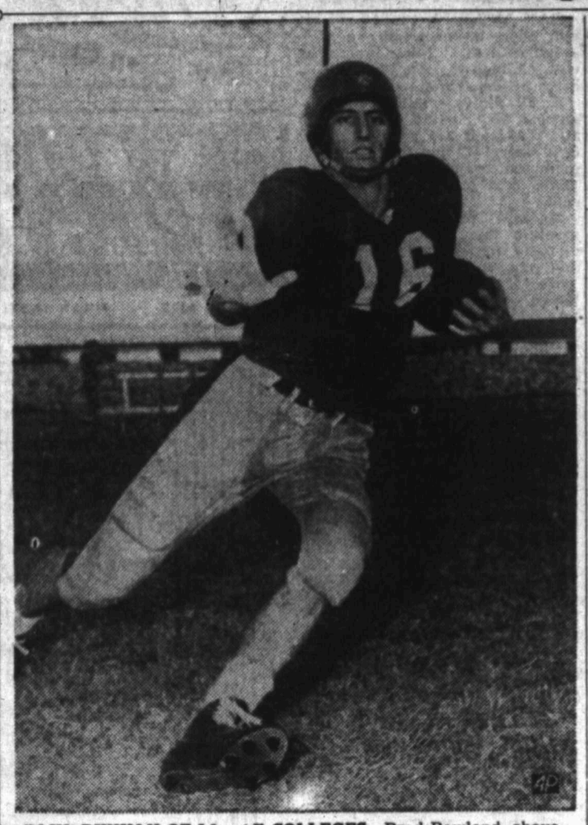

District 12—Friday: Victoria at Freeport, Kirwin (Galveston) at Texas City, Austin at Galveston, Austin (Houston) at Baytown.

District 13—Friday: Corsicana at Hillsboro (conference), Ennis at Temple (conference), Waxahachie at Waco (conference).

Lubbock Preps For Pampa 11

Stiff offensive and defensive drills were expected for the Westerners today at Chapman field, and tomorrow a lighter workout is expected to round Lubbock High into shape for the Friday night clash with the Pampa Harvesters of District 1-AA.

Tuesday Coach Pat Pattison put the team through a long workout, but there was very little of the rough stuff. The whole team went through a long session that lasted until after dark and was concluded with wind sprints.

Coach Pattison is not underestimating the strength of Pampa, and in line with the "one game at a time" policy is considering the Harvester fray the game of the year. This year's tilt is non-conference, but last season Pampa came from behind a 19-6 edge held by Lubbock to win, 26-19, and Coach Pattison is trying to prevent history from repeating itself by having his eleven in shape.

Pampa Lost Only One

Thus far Pampa has lost but one game, that loss being a 14-6 decision by Wichita Falls last week. The Coyotes are considered the number two team in the state by sports writers, and the narrow margin of victory considerably boosted Pampa's stock. The week before Pampa nosed out an inspired Vernon team, 8-7.

Comparing the Pampa-Vernon score with the Westerners-Vernon result would give the Lubbock team a great edge in the upcoming tilt, but sometimes the underdog has a tendency to play harder against an old foe. So a jam-up battle is predicted for Friday evening at Jones Stadium.

Tickets On Sale

Tickets for this week's game may be bought at the athletic office at Lubbock High school. A large crowd is expected, and the choice seats will probably disappear fast.

Yesterday's practice was marked by a minimum of hard scrimmage. Usually Tuesday is the day of the rough practice, with Wednesday and Thursday being the days for adding polish to the offense and defense.

Early practice was marked by blackboard work and group drills, with the linemen under Coach Bill Floyd and the ends getting attention from Coach Fred Taylor.

Concentrate On Passing

Play practice, with new plays thrown in, occupied the remainder of the session, with the exception of wind sprints. Concentration thus far has been both on passing and ground plays, and if pressed the Westerners can be expected to open up this week.

A few injuries are reported in camp. Morris Turner is nursing a bruised knee, and End Dean White pulled a muscle in his left thigh. White participated in the heavy work, however.

Change In Site Of Grid Game Talked

NORMAN, Okla., Oct. 12 (U.P.)—The annual Texas-Oklahoma football classic will be played at Dallas' Cotton bowl for at least four more years, but after the 1953 game, the site is problematical.

Oklahoma yesterday extended its contract through 1953 after the university obtained Big Seven conference permission. The pact was to have expired in 1951.

However, University of Oklahoma President George L. Cross said he didn't "see much hope" for getting conference sanction to play in Dallas after 1953.

He said he shared the opinion of OU students that the series should be scheduled on a home-and-home basis. The clamor for such an arrangement started in 1947 following the Sooners' defeat at Dallas in a contest during which spectators showered Referee Jack Sisco with pop bottles.

Fight Program Is Completed

Matches for five bouts, totaling 32 scheduled rounds, have been announced for the Oct. 18 Henderson-Oretga fight program in Chapman fieldhouse.

Two four-round preliminary pairings were announced Tuesday by the fight sponsors. In one, Charley Neff of Petersburg is to meet tough Tony Olivas, El Paso, and in the other it will be Billy Bracken, Slaton, against Sam Inagio, also of El Paso.

Already scheduled were the 10-round main event between Levelland's Bill Henderson and Manny Ortega, El Paso; the eight-round semi-final pitting Lubbock's Gene James against Dickie Brown of Amarillo; and a six-rounder matching Leonard Duncan, Hale Center, with Dick Smith of Oklahoma City.

Officials of Veterans of Foreign Wars Post No. 2466, sponsor of the show which will be held in Chapman fieldhouse, said that more than 700 of 2,200 available seats already have been sold. Almost all of the 500 general admission ducats are gone, they added.

Tickets are on sale daily at the Hilton hotel, Hub clothiers and City Club gym, all in Lubbock, and at Talley's Barber shop in Levelland. Mail orders are being filled through City Club gym, 1313½ College avenue, Lubbock. Ducats are priced at $3.50 ringside, $2.50 reserve and $1.50 general admission.

Bowling Results

Action in the Major Bowling league was fast last night, with Hub Clothiers outclassing McFarland-Maisen to pick up four points, winning three games and total pins.

High series for Hub was Ben Brown's 224-617, and Chris Christensen was high for the losers with 190-559, beating Marvin Struve by one pin.

Walton's scored three points to only one for opposing Hemphill-Wells, with J. Welch and E. Blackburn pacing the keglers. Welch rolled a high 225-591 series, and Blackburn chipped in with 234-590. For Hemphill-Wells Jay O'Keefe was tops with 220-575.

The final match of the night saw Tate's Tornadoes rip Medlock's Cafe for three points while allowing the losers but one. Glenn Hennington and George Tate both rolled better than a 600 series. Tate was high with 233-616, and Hennington toppled pins for 222-610.

For Medlock's T. I. Brown had 208-584, and Bob Gresseti rolled 232-575.

The standings.

Stroud Averages 12.9 Yards Per Carry

Westerner Backs Set Torrid Offensive Pace In Tussles

Wayne Stroud continues to lead the Lubbock Westerners in scoring and yards gained rushing through the first four games of the season, and the fleet left halfback has racked up 41 points on six touchdowns and 5 conversions.

Close behind is Fullback Malcolm Young with 30 points on five touchdowns, and Halfback Charlie Williams and Mack Taylor are tied with 18 points each.

Stroud Is Leader

Stroud has carried the ball from scrimmage on 21 occasions, picking up 271 yards for a 12.9 average per carry. Williams has handled the pigskin 20 times, picking up 236 yards for 11.8 yards per try. Young is close behind with 9.04 yards per try on 26 carries for 235 yards. Quarterback Bobby Brown has gained 93 yards on 10 carries for a 9.3 average.

Four Westerners have scored 12 points each. They are Brown, Billy Tooke, Garnet Reeves, and Billy Pressley. All but Pressley's points came on touchdown. Pressley has converted 12 straight times for his total. Morris Turner has eight points, and Donnie Rawls six.

Turner leads in the passing department, completing 12 of 21 tosses for 191 yards, three for touchdowns. Brown has thrown 19 and completed nine for 127 yards, including one touchdown.

Leading in punt runbacks is Brown, with 211 yards on seven carries, better than 30 yards on each return. Last week he returned a punt 80 yards for a score.

Stroud is next best in the punt-return department, with an average of 30 yards on three carries.

Pass receiving honors go to Taylor with five for 78 yards, with Reeves catching four for 57, Williams three for 45, Billy Wright three for 44 and Lyndell Ross one for 38 yards.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 12. (AP)—This city's first heavyweight title fight in forty years found interest mounting by the minute today as NBA Champion Ezzard Charles and Pat Valentino finished training. Their 15-round battle will be waged at the Cow Palace Friday night.

Charles, recognized by the National Boxing association as the boss of the big fellows,, was a 1-5 favorite to defeat the San Franciscan, holder of the California state title.

Lamesa To Build Park

Club To Stay With League

LAMESA, Oct. 12(Special)—This city definitely will have a new baseball park next season and, so far as local baseball officials are concerned, they will operate in the West Texas - New Mexico league again.

This was brought out yesterday by Lamesa Baseball club officials, who said that there was nothing to substantiate an article carried in a column by Avalanche-Journal Sports Editor Joe Kelly in the Oct. 9 Sunday paper. Kelly quoted a "well informed source" to the effect that Lamesa baseball officials were balking at the cost of erecting a new baseball field and that the WT-NM league desired to expand, easing Lamesa out and taking in El Paso.

President H. A. Duke said today that plans are going forward as previously announced for the construction of a new ball park here before the next WT-NM League season gets going. Duke says that at least 144 of 176 $100 box seats for the new park already have been sold and "baseball interest here seems to be at an all-time high."

Dr. R. F. Nix, a member of the board of directors, reports that over $10,000 in box seat money has already been paid. Other directors, Dr. Sam Frazier, Bill White and Ed Dubose, agree that the Loboes are looking forward to a successful 1949 season in the WT-NM League.

Duke said that it would take a vote of all the other clubs, as well as that of the league president, Milton E. Price, to oust Lamesa from the loop. The Loboes definitely do not desire to step out of the WT-NM League and into the Longhorn, Duke asserted.

Lobo officials have inspected new parks at San Angelo, Ballinger and Sweetwater and a completely modern, spacious park is being planned.

Duke noted that the matter of the loop moving up to a "B" classification was one for the league to decide upon, but he indicated strongly that Lamesa would favor remaining a member of the league if and when "B" classification was approved.

He noted that Lamesa attendance last season was a new high of over 75,000, more than several larger cities in the loop registered, and he said that the Loboes expected to play before more than 100,000 fans here next season.

Between the Lines by Joe Kelly

As we expected, Lamesa baseball fans rose with a mighty oath and swore that we were working with the devil. 'Tain't so, dear friends. We merely quoted, indirectly, a person close to the baseball picture who told us that he was sure of his facts. Believe us, it was not an original expression with us. We merely passed on, as important and newsworthy, talk that was—and is—going around. We can say quite frankly and honestly that we're glad Lamesa intends to build a new park and that they look forward to attendance exceeding 100,000. We thought that their mark of over 75,000 persons this year was phenomenal. It was. We know that there is a great natural rivalry with Lubbock and that Lamesa has upheld its end of the West Texas-New Mexico league. It's a healthy condition.

• • •

But let's play "pretend" for a moment. Let's pretend the league does go up to Class B rating. That immediately increases the price of tickets. It means a heavier payroll for the club. It means additional players under contract. It enlarges the expense of operation all around. At the same time, the club benefits from the fact that it can sell a player's contract for more than under Class C rates. All right, let's pretend that Lamesa doesn't have the winner it had in 1949. Will the fans stay away as they did in 1948, when only 34,363 paid the freight and a couple of Sunday games drew crowds of 97 and 50-odd persons a couple of times? In that case, the club could not possibly operate under Class B stipulations without losing severely at the money till. For the good of the league and for baseball, we don't want that to happen.

• • •

Personally, we have no antipathy for Lamesa or Lamesa baseball fans. We're more interested in seing good baseball and a sound league. The West Texas-New Mexico league has proven itself both sound and secure. It's probably the best Class C league in the nation and it could be the best Class B. It could be both with or without Lamesa, Clovis or even Lubbock. There's no question in our mind at all that El Paso, with its greater population and its position as a resort city, would outdraw Lamesa. By the same token, it would outdraw Pampa, Borger and Clovis. Admission of the Border City would make the league stronger. And we also are convinced that loss of Abilene without being replaced by a bigger city would hurt the league.

• • •

Before the start of the 1949 West Texas-New Mexico league baseball campaign, the Amarillo Globe-News wired each sports editor of teams in the circuit for their candid appraisal of how his city's team would finish. The articles dutifuly appeared and now, with the season over, it is interesting to read back and see what the so-called "experts" had to say. Surprisingly enough, for a group that usually is redhot in back of its respective teams (they can criticize and knock their own clubs, but don't let them catch anyone else doing it), not one of the men predicted a first division berth finish. To a man, they hedge on going that far. Bern Gantner of Clovis and Bill Warren of Lamesa came the closest.

• • •

Bern said: "The Clovis Pioneers have their sights set on a first division berth this year; Manager Paul Dean plans to climb into the upper bracket with several new faces in the lineup, and returnees Second Sacker Jess Jacinto, First Baseman Chuck Novotney, Outfielders Ray Bauer and Wilcy Moore and Pitchers George Matthews and Mel Kramer." Bill said: "Jay Haney, new player-manager of the Lamesa Loboes, says, "We will finish in the first division this year if we can get another good pitcher and a top notch catcher' Haney is pinning his first division predictions on speed, strong defensive work and good pitchin. The Loboes have all three items this season."

• • •

Warren Hasse of the Pampa News said: "The Pampa Oilers, with Manager Grover Seitz again at the helm, look forward to an excellent year in the West Texas-New Mexico league. The team is decidedly stronger at the bat, and should be even more secure defensively than last season." Spec Gammon, then of the Borger News-Herald, said: "Stronger hitting and better pitching describes the Borger Gassers this year as they prepare to make a hasty climb from their 1948 seventh place finish in the West Texas-New Mexico loop. Manager Eddie Carnett has an eight man pitching staff and a powerful array of sluggers ready . . .". Wilbur Bentley, Albuquerque Journal, said: "The Alberquerque Dukes' chances for another first in the West Texas-New Mexico league this year hinges upon the showing of a group of young pitchers."

• • •

Probably the most terse and least informing statement came from Collier Parris of the Abilene Reporter-News. Said Collier: "Arrival of Joe Wessing, veteran second baseman who was with Beaumont before the war, apparently has strengthened the Abilene Blue Sox baseball hopes." What did we say? We quote: "Don't expect miracles from a team that finished third last year, but don't count them out of the very dangerous class. That's the way the Lubbock Hubbers appear less than a week before the season opens. They have made improvements and have strengthened the club, but the pitching remains the big question mark."

• • •

Dean's Pioneers didn't climb near to the first division, with even more and more new faces. Haney's Loboes definitely climbed into it, even though Jay had to make a lot of radical changes from the team that opened the season. Seitz's Oilers weren't more potent at bat or sharper defensively, which became more apparent as the year rolled on. Borger did have stronger hitting, but the pitching and defensive play was weaker. The Dukes' young pitchers didn't come through as anticipated and they had to recall Frank Shone to save them. Abilene came through, although it took Joe Cambria's best efforts all summer to keep a stream of Cubans coming who could keep the Sox up there. As for the Hubbers. Well, the pitching didn't materialize and the outfield remained, or grew, weaker than the preceding year.

Weekend Grid Games Slated

Home-town football followers will have their pick of nights to follow their favorite teams this week with the Pioneers, Cowhands and Westerners playing here Thursday, Friday and Saturday respectively.

The high point of the week will be the non-conference game between Pampa and the Westerners Friday at Jones Stadium, with the Pioneers playing Plainview at 8 p. m. Thursday at Chapman field and the Cowhands meeting Midland at the same field Saturday night. Dunbar High goes to Abilene.

At 3:30 p. m. Thursday J. T. Hutchinson plays host to Lamesa Junior High at Chapman field, with O. L. Slaton going to Plainview, and on Saturday afternoon Carroll Thompson plays at Odessa to complete the junior high schedule.

The Pioneers are playing Plainview B for the second time this year, the first meeting resulting in a 13-13 deadlock two weeks ago in Plainview. Since then the Pioneers have defeated Littlefield B, 31-12. Earlier the Pioneers downed Wolfforth, 32-0, and lost to Meadow by a 12-0 count.

The Cowhands are expected to bounce back from a 31-19 defeat at the hands of Odessa B and take it out on Midland Saturday night. Last week's game with Brownfield was cancelled.

Two victories are owned by the Cowhands, a 31-0 victory over Plainview B and a 32-0 shellacking of Lamesa's B team.

Getz Tangles With Fenton

Giving in to the wishes of the fans, Promoter Sled Allen is bringing together Al Getz and Rod Fenton in tonight's final wrestling event at the arena in a match that has all the earmarks of a thriller.

Both have recently returned to the area after successful mat campaigns elsewhere and both are in fine shape and ready to go the full hour if necessary.

Pat O'Dowdy will have his hands full with Herb Parks in the semi-final bout. Parks has stacked up lots of experience since breaking into the fight game back in the 1930's, meeting all comers in his weight division in this country and abroad.

Parks, a native of Canada, is interested in promotion of the game in his own territory and spends most of his time in that section around North Bay, Ontario. Parks prefers the clean, scientific part of the game, but he will be out for a rough evening with the wily O'Dowdy.

Pat has been around this area for many years, and he can be depended on to supply lots of action not customarily seen in a purely scientific match. Both are expected to go all out to win, with the match rated as a toss-up.

Appearing in the preliminary event are Bill Brooks, the five-by-five of the ring, and Dory Detton. Brooks has been in a bad mood since losing to O'Dowdy last week and can be depended on to try hard for the decision over Detton tonight.

Detton and his style of wrestling are well known to fans in this territory and will be seen in the opener at 8:30 p.m.

Tickets may be bought at the arena today until 5 o'clock.

Play Continues In Club Golf Tourney

Following play this week in the Lubbock Country club's President Cup golf tourney, only eight golfers will remain in the running for the trophy.

Sixteen linksmen were eliminated from the handicap tourney following third round play in the two flights last week.

Last week's results included Q. B. Taylor over W. E. Granberry, 1-up; Jim Black over Tom Ingram, 3 and 2; Orville Stewart over T. L. Sampson, default; Cecil Horne over George Carter, default; W. T. Fain over Wilkie Talbert, 2-up; J. E. Yares over Roy Cooper, default; M. R. Trip over Hugh Anderson, 4 and 2; and S. R. Forsythe over J. B. McCauley, 2-up, in the upper bracket.

Lower bracket scores included H. M. Chick over Preston Cochran, 1-up; O. A. Terry over John Scoggin, default; Chick Trout over G. G. Aycock, 3 and 2; John Raley over Dr. M. F. Swart, 1-up; J. A. Raley, jr., over K. N. Clapp, 1-up; Paul Pught over C. E. Fish, 1-up; Bob Harvey over F. L. McRee, 3 and 2; and Bill Bartley over R. J. Cheatham, 1-up.

Pairings this week are Taylor vs. Black; Stewart vs. Horne; Fain vs. Yates; Tripp vs. Forsythe; Chick vs. Terry; Trout vs. John Raley; J. A. Raley, jr., vs. Pugh; and Harvey vs. Bartley.

Raiders Scrimmage Freshmen Gridders

Texas Tech's potent freshmen squad was given a chance to test its teeth against a varsity squad eleven yesterday and the youngsters showed to good advantage.

While part of the varsity was going through one of the harder scrimmages of the year in Jones Stadium, the rest of the squad watched the remainder of the freshmen demonstrate typical Baylor plays that the Saturday visitors are expected to use.

Frosh Look Good

Freshmen players showed up well in the scrimmage, offering much more than token resistence. They often broke through to toss varsity backs for losses and gave the Raiders all they wanted in the way of scrimmage. Richard Crawford, a 154-pound linebacker, particularly proved troublesome.

But the varsity broke loose backs for several long gains and punched over several touchdowns. Halfback Herman Bailey showed up well in the session, as did Fullback J. W. Thompson. Quarterback Bill Lyman was doing a much better job of passing and at times the varsity offense worked well.

But the freshmen also were gaining ground pretty well, with Halfback Waldo Young running hard and well and Quarterback Carl Madison tossing some damaging passes. The Fish gave the varsity squad all it wanted and caused the only serious injury of the day.

Halfback Walter Maloney sprained his right ankle and may be lost for this week's game against Baylor. A half hour after the injury, there was no apparent swelling in the ankle, but Trainer Mason Gorby wasn't sure whether it would heal enough to allow Maloney to play.

The remainder of the varsity was sent into dummy scrimmage against the freshmen, who used Baylor plays. The Fish walked through various formations that the Raiders will face Saturday and several passes of the type Adrian Burk is expected to throw worked too well to suit the coaches.

Today, further work will be done on Baylor plays, with players getting instruction in defense against Bear formations. Meanwhile, the remainder of the squad will go through offensive drills in an effort to put more teeth into the scoring machine.

Morley Jennings, Tech athletic director, said that all reserved seat tickets for the homecoming game are sold out. There will be 1,800 general admission end zone tickets held for ex-students, if purchased before 10 a.m. Saturday.

These general admission tickets along with a block of reserved seat tickets, which must be claimed before 10 a.m. Saturday, will be placed on general sale Saturday morning at 10 if not claimed by that time. Ex-students should identify themselves by registering at a booth in one of the hotels or on the campus and purchasing their tickets immediately afterwards.

Tonnemaker Named As Lineman Of Week

NEW YORK, Oct. 12 (AP)—Clayton Tonnemaker, rugged 240-pound Minnesota center, was selected today as the lineman of the week in the third Associated Press poll of the season.

Tonnemaker's devastating play against Northwestern on Saturday won him top honors. He was outstanding on defense as line-backer and made many important tackles.

Minnesota won, 21-7, and in the words of Don Heap, assistant Northwestern coach, "it was that Tonnemaker who wrecked us in the first half." Minnesota held a 14-0 lead at the half.

Tonnemaker, a product of Edison High, Minneapolis, wrestled brewery kegs last summer to strengthen his arms and shoulders. In the opinion of George Svendsen, Minnesota assistant coach, "Tonny is the best college center and best pro prospect I've ever seen. Minnesota never has had an all-America center, but Tonny will correct that."

Tonnemaker joins Howard Houston, Harvard tackle, and Art Weiner, North Carolina end, who gained the lineman award in the first two polls.

Others who received high praise for their play last week included William and Mary's 235-pound tackle, Lou Creekmur, who made 16 tackles although playing only part of the game against Virginia Military; Bob Jablonski, Yale guard; and J. D. Ison, Baylor end.

Ison caught seven passes out of seven for 60 yards against Arkansas while Herman Hickman, Yale coach, said of Jablonski "he was brilliant against Columbia and it has been a long time since I have seen more effective defensive line play."

Game of the week.

Notre Dame over Tulane — One of these fine weekends the Irish are going to get flattened, but good. This just might be the spot, for the Green Wave is at flood tide. But on the record, you have to go with the South Bend bone-crushers.

Col-lin over Itawamba — What a goofy position.

Itasca over Ely — You're on your own now.

Hiwassee over Athens—Cuz I'm seasick!

New Braunfels Is Class A Favorite

By ED FITE
United Press Sports Writer

New Braunfels and Mount Vernon, long-time Class A schoolboy football powers, were beginning to emerge today as the likely opponents for December's state Class A championship final—the second in the Texas Interscholastic league's history.

With defending champion Monahans having plenty of trouble inside its own district, these two teams appear to be the standouts among the sectional favorites stepping to the forefront at the season's midway point.

New Braunfels Impressive

New Braunfels has breezed to four straight victories, scoring 182 points to the opposition's 33, while Mount Vernon has won five in a row and piled up 272 points to 38 without being extended.

Quite a few upsets marked last week's play, and one of them saw Monahans fall before once-beaten Wink 14-0 in a District 5-A clash.

Others included San Angelo Lake View's 26-14 blasting of Brady in 7-A; Pleasant Grove's 18-0 win over hitherto unbeaten Fort Worth Diamond Hill in an interdistrict clash; Rockwall's 21-0 win over the 13-A favorite, Farmersville; Class B white Oak's 18-0 win over Atlanta, supposed to be the 14-A power; Grand Saline's 21-18 upset of Mineola in an East Texas interdistrict squabble; Belton's 12-6 win over favored Killeen in 2-1A; Gonzales' 26-19 win over unbeaten Seguin, and Class B Sinton's 27-12 win over Beeville, a 29-A contender.

Mount Vernon Rolls

Meanwhile, Mount Vernon rolled on as the state's highest scoring grid machine with a 58-7 trouncing of Winnsboro, a team figured to extend Mount Vernon in 15-A, and New Braunfels chalked up its fourth straight by defeating Yoakum 62-7 in a 24-A battle.

There were other undefeated, untied teams in the state, such as Dalhart, Phillips and Hereford in the Panhandle, Kermit in far West Texas; Haskell, Hamlin and Ballinger in east-central West Texas; Garland and Irving in North Texas; Dekalb and Leveretts Chapel in East Texas; Nederland, Beaumont French and Jasper in Southeast Texas; Luling in Central Texas and Del Rio in Southwest Texas.

Lefors Is Unbeaten

Hereford, however happens to be in 1-A along with high-powered Dalhart and Phillips, which have won five each while scoring 105 and 190 points, respectively, and its record probably will end soon.

In 2-A, Lefors remains unbeaten after whipping Dumas 40-6 and Abernathy still rates tops in 3-A with a 19-18 win over Floydada, although pre-season favored Lockney kept its hopes alive by downing Tulia 20-0.

It's Littlefield all the way, apparently in 4-A, while Kermit has the inside track in 5-A with Monahans, Andrews and Pecos on the fringe waiting for a chance to get back in stride after defeats.

Haskell is tops in 6-A east, Hamlin in 6-A west, while Ballinger's top role in 7-A may be challenged by Lake View after that upset over once-favored Brady.

Pair Identified In Amarillo

AMARILLO, Oct. 12. (U.P.) — A pair of 25-year-old California twins were in the Amarillo jail today after being identified as the men who robbed two supermarkets of $11,400 last summer.

The twins, Edward Lee and Leo Rader, were brought to Amarillo late yesterday from Lubbock, where they were arrested Sunday by police, and employes of the two stores picked them out of a lineup in county jail.

Own Small Plane

Police said the two men own a small plane which the officers believed was used in get-aways from store robberies.

The Raders also are wanted for similar robberies in Bellflower, National City and San Diego, Cal.

Sheriff George Wilcox and Chief of Police Tommy Thompson, both of Roswell, N. M., took a witness to Lubbock to view the men Tuesday, officers said, but the witness, C. A. Anthony, said they were not the ones who took approximately $3,000 from a Safeway store there Aug. 29.

First Frost

ature on Nov. 8, 1933, was 30 degrees with wet weather, pointing out that a wet freeze doesn't kill crops as quickly as a dry freeze.

"Cotton on high spots was not killed by the Nov. 8 freeze," Clapp said, "and my records are for general freezes that stop the growth of vegetation."

Last year, the mercury went to 33 degrees on Oct. 7 at Lubbock, and spotted frost covered scattered parts of the South Plains. However, the official date for 1948 was Nov. 6.

Other dates down the line are Nov. 22, 1934; Oct. 28, 1938; and Oct. 22, 1945.

Whatever the date this year, Experiment station records back to 1911 show that the area has an average growing season of 212 days—from the last freeze of winter to the first of autumn.

Houston Drenched

Houston, just recovered from floods caused by weekend downpours, was drenched again last night, the Associated Press reported.

The Weather bureau reported 2.71 inches fell in the Houston area during the 24 hours ending at 6:30 a. m.

However, the bureau said an end to the rain was in sight. It said it was clearing over most of the state and it would be clear and cool in most sections tonight and tomorrow.

Rain also was reported in a number of other sections overnight.

In the Crystal City area of South Texas a drought that started in August was broken by rains ranging from 1.32 inches to 2.5 inches. Ranchers had been hauling water. It also was of great benefit to vegetables.

Palestine reported 1.71 inches of rain, Tyler 1.31 and Palacios 1.06. Showers fell at Austin, Dallas, San Antonio, Beaumont, Corpus Christi, Del Rio, Fort Worth, Lufkin, Bryan and Alice.

In the Panhandle temperatures dropped to near freezing. Dalhart reported the lowest reading, 3 degrees. A cool front had reached the coast today. At San Antonio it dropped the temperature to 59 degrees early today. It rode in on gusty winds up to 32 miles an hour.

Don L. Jones Host To Lubbock Rotary

Members of the Lubbock Rotary club were guests of Don L. Jones at the Experiment station east of town in lieu of their regular noon luncheon at the Hilton today.

Jones explained the history of the station, and gave the Rotarians a brief description of experiments now being conducted before taking them on a tour of the grounds.

Dave Sherrill, the club's rural-urban committee chairman, arranged the program, which included a barbecue lunch on teh grounds. Dr. M. Norvel Young gave the invocatoin.

Guests included Mayor Art Chesher and M. L. Hall, both of Littlefield, Davis Pounds of Levelland, Floyd O. Boles of Midland, and Walker Watkins, Frank Benson, Sam Davis, and Al Roy Cooper, all of Ralls.

End Seen To Strike On Missouri Pacific

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12. (U.P.)—Gov. Sidney McMath of Arkansas said today he thought the strike on the Missouri Pacific railroad would be ended shortly.

McMath talked with President Truman about the effect of the strike on his state which he said was the hardest hit of any in the Missouri Pacific area.

The governor said he was hopeful of an early settlement on the basis of progress reported recently by the negotiators.

He also talked with the President about his desire to keep Camp Chaffee as an Army training center in Arkansas.

Amarillo C-C Head Praises Decontrol

AMARILLO, Oct. 12 (U.P.) — Rex Baxter, Amarillo Chamber of Commerce manager, praised rent-decontrol in his city today.

Since controls were lifted, Baxter said, rents in Amarillo have increased only 7½ percent.

The chamber conducted a survey of the housing situation and found besides the low rent boost, that:

1.—It will be 1952 before supply of housing catches up with demand. This despite the fact that $13,000,000 in building permits have been issued thus far in 1949.

2. — Fifty-five percent of the homes in Amarillo are occupied by their owners.

3.—Twenty to 25 percent of the housing now under construction is for rental purposes.

City Commission

them to annexation follow:

Northeast Lubbock in the area which includes the Purina mill.

East Lubbock along the Idalou highway in the vicinity of the Corral drive-in theater.

Southeast Lubbock Included

Southeast Lubbock bordering the Slaton highway.

The addition to be recommended for partial annexation also lies in Southeast Lubbock. The area to be proposed for inclusion in the city limits extends from the present boundary to the alley south of Thirty-seventh street and from Avenue A eastward to Clutter's second addition ,at about East Avenue E.

May Include 'Westchester'

Another area which may be proposed for partial annexation is "Westchester," west of the city limits, where some of the residents threatened a few weeks ago to form their own municipality rather than become a part of the city of Lubbock.

At present, three schools of thought are apparent as to "Westchester"

One proposes to try to take the whole thing in.

Areas Recommended

The third proposes to leave the whole thing out.

The areas to be recommended for annexation are:

North Lubbock from about North Tyler avenue eastward to include Country Club and Clayton Carter additions.

East Lubbock between Fourth and Nineteenth streets eastward about two miles from the present city limits, but not including the area around the Corral drive-in and the Puckett addition.

South Lubbock generally to about Fiftieth street but extending at points beyond the Traffic circle.

Procedure Explained

The procedure involved in an annexation, as explained by officials, runs about like this:

The city commission first must set a public hearing on any proposal to take in any new territory. At least 30 days advance notice of this hearing must be given, so those who may wish to appear for against it will have opportunity to do so.

After the hearing, the commission decides whether to take the affected area in or, if it chooses, to call an election on the proposition.

If an election is held, majority votes of approval are necessary both in the city and in the area proposed for annexation.

Houstonians Held In Passing Bogus Bills

HOUSTON, Oct. 12. (U.P.) — A young married couple, who allegedly dispensed counterfeit bills in several stores here, was bound over to the federal grand jury late yesterday.

Mrs. Woodrow Wilson Payne, 24, testified before U. S. Commissioner W. F. Carothers that a "friend" from Georgia visited in her home recently and possibly gave the bogus money to Payne.

Mrs. Payne added that she did not know the money was counterfeit until secret service agents nabbed the couple at their home a week ago

Salesmen Pull Convincing Gag On Club Members At Luncheon

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Oct. 12 (U.P.)—It was the weekly luncheon meeting of the City Salesmen's Club and automobile dealer Ross Reeder had the floor.

Reeder began tongue - lashing another club member who was present, J. J. Harris. "The club isn't big enough for me and Harris both," Reeder shouted, 'and I want a standing vote on who stays."

For six weeks, everyone in the club knew, Harris and Reeder had been at dagger-points. Nobody saw them together any more. They didn't even speak to each other at the annual picnic. And they had done a lot of talking behind each other's back.

At the meeting, Reeder confronted Harris and accused him of making accusations about his personal life.

"I'm calling you a liar to your face, Harris," said Reeder.

Harris jumped to his feet and whipped out a pistol. Taft Sykes, a visitor, leaped up to intercept Harris and just then the gun roared. Sykes slumped to the floor, and the 30-odd others ran for cover beneath tables or out the door.

The situation was tense. State Sen. E. B. Bowles, another member, knelt down beside Sykes and moaned, "Lord, fellows, he's hurt —hurt bad."

Another member finally persuaded Harris to hand over the gun.

But then the joke was up. The gun held a spent blank cartridge.

It was all a joke, Harris and Reeder, explained. Reeder had the program that day and they had been planning their "feud" for weeks.

Diabetic Detection Drive Reveals Sugar In Urine Specimens Of Several Students

Free laboratory examinations conducted by the City-County Department of Public Health in connection with a nationwide diabetes detection campaign show, after two days of participation by rural schools, that four students have a "significant amount of sugar" in their urine.

Findings will be referred to the private physicians of the four students for interpretation.

Collection of urine specimens in the rural schools will be continued.

In the meantime, R. W. Matthews, superintendent of Lubbock public schools, said "the schools will encourage the diabetes detection drive through the home."

Schools Push Drive

He said that announcements of the drive would be made to the students of all schools through their physical education classes.

There are more than 10,000 students in the system, approximately 2,500 students in the rural schools.

It was emphasized that not everybody who has glycosuria (urine sugar) is diabetic, but all diabetics have glycosuria. Diagnosis, under the program of the American Diatetic Association, Inc., which is sponsoring the detection drive through assistance of medical societies and public and voluntary health agencies throughout the country, remains the exclusive prerogative of the physician.

Actual and potential diabetics are estimated to total approximately 3 per cent of the population.

"Of every 140 persons met on the street," according to Dr. Howard F. Root of Boston, president of the American Diabetes association and chairman of the diabetes detection drive, one has diabetes and is under treatment, another has the disease and doesn't know it, and two others will contract it before they die.

"Incidence of the disease is higher among women than among men and, beyond age 40, is almost two to one."

Some of the early, easily recognized symptoms are excessive thirst and excessive urination.

Cases discovered before they become serious may be treated, after insulin establishes a normal blood-sugar balance, with diet alone.

Untreated or improperly treated diabetes results in calcification of the vascular system—the arteries, veins and capillaries — causing complications involving the feet, eyes, kidneys, heart, etc.

Tests Are Urge

All one has to do to get a test is collect a specimen of urine one to two hours after a meal and take it in a container to the city laboratory, on the first floor of the city hall. Or he may stop at the laboratory or the John Halsey Drug store, at 1118 Broadway, where containers will be supplied for collection of specimens.

Anyone who fails to take advantage for himself and his family of an offer that could save much misery and suffering," as one internationally - known authority said in a recent article.

"Every member of every family should take such a test at least once a year."

Heard In Briefs

A second mistrial occurred in the damages action of The Citizens State Bank of Slaton against Raymond L. Fletcher, when a 99th district jury reported it could not arrive at a verdict, it was announced Tuesday. Judge G. V. Pardue dismissed the jurors. Involved was $702, which the bank alleged it had overpaid Fletcher when he cashed bonds there.

Two school teachers from Matador visited in Lubbock schools Tuesday. Mrs. Laverne Doss, first grade teacher, visited classes in the McWhorter and Sanders grade schools. Mrs. L. D. Wilkerson, music teacher, was a visitor in the Carroll Thompson and O. L. Slaton Junior High schools.

Mrs. Paul Howell, 43, of Tahoka, was to be released from West Texas hospital today, where she was taken shortly after she had been struck by an automobile about 4:10 p. m. Tuesday at Main and Ave. L. Her injuries were confined to cuts and bruises.

Theft of approximately $40 worth of lugs and cases from Bob's Frigidway market at Nineteenth and Ave. Q was reported today to the police. The property had been stacked outside the building for resale to wholesale companies, Leon Hale of the store reported, but a heavy truck backed onto the lot and loaded it "without authority."

Homer D. Powell, charged with rape of a 23-year-old waitress, had not been reported arrested early this afternoon. The woman charged that such an offense was made on her Tuesday afternoon.

Thomas J. Novak, 33, of 1600-block Seventh, pleaded innocent of illegal possession of a pistol this morning. He will post trial appearance bond, officials said.

Houston Bank Robber Sentenced To Prison

HOUSTON, Oct. 12. (U.P.)—Richard Muhlbach, convicted robber of the North Side State bank here last June 25, drew an eight-year penitentiary sentence today.

Muhlbach, suave, 34-year-old self-styled gambler, smiled faintly as Federal Judge Allen Hannay pronounced sentence, to be served in Leavenworth penitentiary.

Muhlbach's loot was $5350, which he took in a bold, daylight holdup.

Inorganic Chemists Termed Explorers

OAK RIDGE, Tenn., Oct. 12 (U.P.) —Prof. Don M. Yost of the California Institute of Technology thinks that the inorganic chemist is just as much an heroic explorer in his own way as were Daniel Boone and St. Patrick.

The inorganic chemist unassumingly probes the earth's mineral treasures, Yost told the recent southeastern regional meeting of the American Chemical Society here.

"Like Daniel Boone, he enjoys exploring both the known and the unknown and being close to earth", Yost said. "The reason we admire St. Patrick is that he, too, was an explorer and bringer of light in the face of considering dangers."

And like them, Yost said, inorganic chemists have "sought for and found things and with a right good will." Any evil applications, he added, "will be due not to them but to ambitious men of evil intent."

Paint Execs Ordered To Repay $1,198,000

DALLAS, Oct. 12. (AP)—Two former officers of the Nu-Enamel corporation were ordered to pay $1,198,000 to the company's stockholders.

Federal Judge W. H. Atwell yesterday directed C. L. Lloyd to pay the corporation $1,008,000 and L. Frank Pitts to pay $190,000. Lloyd was the corporation's founder and chairman of the board. Pitts was former president of the firm. Both are Dallas oil men.

Atwell's ruling came in a lawsuit brought by James D. Collier of New York, one of the paint manufacturing company's minority stockholders, against Lloyd and Pitts.

One of the four major complaints in Colyer's suit alleged that both men got the directors' permission to buy a huge block of stock for $8 a share when they controlled the means to make it rise to $21 to $30 a share. Later, said Colyer, they did just that and cashed in on it.

Today Is Texas Tech Day At State Fair

DALLAS, Oct. 12. (U.P.)—An International flavor was added to the State Fair of Texas today with an appearance by Belgian Ambassador Baron Robert Silvercruys coinciding with Dallas day and the crowning of two queens at the exposition.

Belgium's envoy to the United States was accompanied to Dallas from Washington by Frans Leemans, Belgium representative to the United Nations. They dedicated the Belgian exhibit in the general exhibits building.

As part of Dallas day festivities, Miss State Fair of 1949 and the Texas Cotton Queen were to be crowned.

Texas Tech day was also observed.

Threatening weather culminating in showers yesterday sliced attendance to 33,815. However, total attendance since opening day of 424,290 was still some 16,000 above last year's figure for the fair's first four days.

Coal Contract Talks Resumed By Leaders

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, W. Va., Oct. 12. (AP)—John L. Lewis and soft coal operators went back to contract talks today with the tall shadow of Cyrus S. Ching, chief government mediator, over their shoulders.

Ching won't be present in person, but he advised Lewis and the operators last Friday to speed up their contract talks and end the coal strike, now in its fourth week.

A crisis is fast nearing, Ching said.

Lewis himself was showing signs of wanting to talk business with the operators from the north and west at this famous watering place, and with the southern operators who are meeting simultaneously at Charleseton, W. Va.

Webster Speaker At Exchange Luncheon

Rex Webster of the advertising agency of Buckner, Craig & Webster today told members of the Exchange club at a luncheon meeting in Hotel Lubbock that advertising has existed since Eve talked Adam into partaking of the forbidden fruit.

"Only an advertising person could have done that," he mused.

However, advertising as we know it today has only existed for 76 years, according to Webster.

"Advertising creates desire," he said. "Desire then creates demand and demand creates production, which results in more jobs and higher standards of living," he added.

"The sparkplug of business is advertising," Webster stated.

Expansion of consumption of existing goods, new uses for existing goods and new markets for new goods are direct results of a proper advertising campaign, Webster asserted.

Club President M. B. Hilburn, jr., announced te club will meet with the Rotary club at the Hilton hotel Wednesday, Oct. 26. Dr. James M. Reynolds gave the invocation. Dick Richards was a club guest.

It was also announced at the meeting that privileges of the club will be extended to personnel of Lubbock Air Force base without payment of the initial membership fee.

Buddy Clark Death Caused By Failure To Buy Enough Gas

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 12 (AP) — But for $6.50 worth of gas, Crooner Buddy Clark might be alive today.

That quirk of fate was brought out yesterday in testimony before a coroner's inquest of the Oct. 1 plane crash which killed Clark and injured five others. The coroner's jury found Clark's death accidental but blamed Pilot James Hayter, Fresno, Calif., for "lack of care and caution." Hayter faces a hearing Tuesday on CAB charges of incompetence.

Crashed In City

The chartered plane, returning from the Michigan-Stanford football game at Palo Alto, Calif., crashed landed on busy Beverly boulevard in midtown Los Angeles.

Hayter testified he knew he was low on gasoline when he was above Bakersfield, some 115 miles north of here. The pilot added he used about 60 gallons on the trip north and added 35 gallons and a quart of oil before taking off for the return trip to Burbank, instead of taking on 60 gallons to fill the tanks.

He admitted it was customary "not to overbuy gasoline away from the home port . . . we get it cheaper at Burbank."

Morton Grid Fans Plan Special Train

MORTON, Oct. 12. (Special) — Morton grid fans aren't going to let a little matter of the town not being on the railroad discourage them from running a special train to Slaton Friday for the Slaton-Morton football game.

A Morton special train will pull out from Whiteface Friday afternoon at 5:15 p. m. for Slaton with approximately 600 grid fans aboard, according to present plans of the Morton Quarterback club which is sponsoring the train.

The Morton fans will drive to Whiteface, a distance of approximately 12 miles to board the train. No railroad runs to Morton, the Santa Fe branch continuing on west to Bledsoe.

"Practically everybody in Morton is going," Mrs. Ann England of the Morton Tribune said today. She said stores would close early to allow owners and employes to go to Slaton for the game.

The train is expected to arrive in Slaton about 7:30 and will make the return trip following the game.

arate campaigns against industrial and civil populations."

Compared To "Seige Operations"

He scornfully compared this concept of strategic air warfare to medieval "seige' operations.

For weeks now, the Navy has been pushing an unceasing attack against policies it says favor the air force and its B-36 bomber while weakening the Navy to the point of crippling the national defense.

It says use of the B-36 means mass bombing of whole cities and mass slaughter of civilians.

All the while, Halsey has been sitting around, obviously itching to get in his licks at hearings of the House armed services committee.

And to the old sea dog the Navy assigned the mission of applying to the present the lessons learned in the past when his mobile task forces struck rock crusher blows at the Japanese all over the Pacific.

Chairman Vinson (D-Ga) shuffled the committee's witness list to bring on this morning a man he called "a great, fighting seaman."

Want to study the important 60% of your next new car? Start with this road's-eye view!

Fact to remember: When you look at a car, any car, you only see about 40% of what you're paying for.

That's why—when experienced buyers come in to look at a Packard—we often invite them to take a "road's-eye view." We like to show and describe hidden values such as these:

- Double-solid-panel body construction—over a frame that looks husky enough to be the backbone of a battleship!
- Special alloys that make the engine almost "wear-proof." Fact: In high-speed, 25,000-mile endurance runs, Packard cylinder wear is less than the thickness of this newspaper page!
- Extra ball and roller bearings—more than you'll find in any other car in Packard's price class. Like the jewels in a fine watch, these costly bearings guard vital parts against wear.

The list goes on and on, and on—and it covers all the big reasons for Packard's superior safety and comfort . . . and Packard's amazingly low operating and upkeep cost.

And how consistent has Packard quality been—in the hidden features, as well as the on-the-surface features? Answer: Of all the Packards built—in the last 50 years—over 50% are still in service!

Chicago Scientist Has A New Theory Of Earth's Formation

By PAUL F. ELLIS
United Press Science Editor

NEW YORK, Oct. 12—A new theory of the origin of the world was offered today. This time, a scientist believes that the world and the rest of the planets were formed from a sphere of gas and dust that rotated around the sun.

The time: About 3,000,000,000 years ago. The scientist, University of Chicago's famed astronomer, Gerard P. Kuiper.

He further believes that all the planets were formed in a matter of a few thousand years, with their satellites, or moons, being formed in a century.

Kuiper outlined his theory last night. He bases it on mathematical-physical calculations, a science in itself.

The new theory shows that gas and dust, forming a nebula about the sun, would have contracted to a thin pancake, like the rings of Saturn, in the plane of the present orbits of planets.

Formed Of Cosmic Particles

The mass of cosmic particles swirled about the sun, according to Kuiper's theory, and eventually broke into a number of whirling eddies. Such eddies were described as proto-plantets and they continued to shrink and finally condensed into planets and their moons.

Kuiper has calculated that the mass of the cosmic nebula about the sun was about half as great as that of the sun and from those figures can estimate the masses of the proto-planets.

The present planetary masses—such as that of the earth, Mars and Venus—have been determined by observation, so Kuiper sought to determine how much of each proto-planet went into the making of its planet. He found that earth used 1/120th of its proto-planet mass; Jupiter and Saturn about 1/3rd, and Uranus and Neptune, about 1/20th.

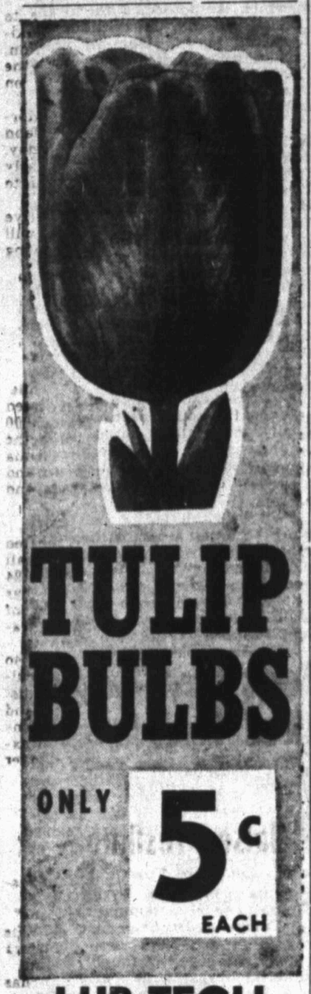

The scientist pointed out that the only feature still visible in the solar system resembling in shape the nebula from which the planets grew is Saturn, and its rings. The Saturn prenomenon is easily observed through an ordinary good telescope. However, the big 200-inch eye at Mount Palomar brings out Saturn and its rings 50 times brighter than any other telescope.

Kuiper believes that earth's moon is an exception to the ordinary run of satellites. He believes that it is not a normal satellite, but was probably formed as a double planet with the earth as a partner.

In the case of the earth, he believes, the minerals, gases and other condensation products from the cosmic nebula collected largely in solid form and except for the meteor crater in Arizona, the earth's pock marks have disappeared by erosion.

The moon, however, still retains its "pock marks," Kuiper points out.

Kuiper recently announced the discovery of two new moons—one for Neptune and one for Uranus. In 1948, he showed the presence of both carbon dioxide and small quantities of water and green areas on Mars.

"Most Beautiful Girls" Seek New Places

Earl Carroll Hollywood Club Ordered Closed By His Heirs

HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 12 (AP) — "The most beautiful girls in the world" will have to seek new portals after Saturday night's closing performance at the fabulous Earl Carroll theater-restaurant.

A for sale or rent sign will hang from the marquee of what is reputed to be the world's largest theater-cafe. Carroll opened the establishment on Christmas night, 1938, with such innovations as a curtain of water, two revolving stages and an elevating orchestra pit.

Slipped After War

The Carroll shows featured girls, glitter and raucous comedy. The theater flourished on the tourist trade and then on the war boom. Receipts started slipping after the war.

Financial ailments increased after the death of showman Carroll in a Pennsylvania plane crash June 17, 1948. His favorite beauty, both in his shows and in his private life, Beryl Wallace, also died in the crash.

Carroll heirs ordered the theater closed. With court approval, it will be rented or sold. Lou Walters, New York night spot operator, reportedly has offered a 10-year lease at a $75,000 annual guarantee, or five per cent of the take.

Columbus Day To Be Observed By Group

Columbus Day will be commemorated by the Knights of Columbus at 8 p. m. today as they entertain their wives and friends with a dance in Blakeslee hall, 2305 Main.

Prior to the dance, Rev. Frank Gilchrest, chaplain at the Lubbock Air Force base, will give a short talk. In further observance of the day, members of the organization will receive communion at the 8 a. m. mass, Sunday.

Serve canned drained beets in a salad; simply marinate them in a well-seasoned French dressing and turn onto shredded lettuce leaves. Or for a crunchier effect, add celery and green pepper strips to the beets just before serving.

Barbecue Held For Employes Of State

Employes of three state agencies and their families were guests at a barbecue held at the new state office building northeast of Lubbock at 6 p. m. Tuesday.

The building, new permanent quarters of the Highway patrol, Driver's license bureau and Texas rangers, was formally opened at the meet. Special guests included city and county officials, are a law enforcement officers, and several state officials. Joe Fletcher, assistant director of the Highway patrol, and Bill Browman, state communications supervisor, were flown to the barbecue from Austin by Mac Westerman, a highway patrolman.

Capt. Ed Posey, in charge of the Lubbock district of the Highway patrol, said an estimated 200 persons attended the affair.

Truman Talks To Diplomats

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12 (AP)—President Truman told a group of Latin American diplomats today that the United States is committed to "the exercise of representative democracy" in the Western Hemisphere.

The President made this apparent reference to Latin American military dictatorships in a statement to the ambassadors to the Council of the Organization of American states. The diplomats paid a brief visit to the White House in observance of Columbus Day, a holiday throughout Latin America.

"We in the inter-American system," Mr. Truman said in his prepared statement, "subscribe fully to the principle of non-intervention in the internal or external affairs of any American republic.

Cooperation Urged

"At the same time, we are definitely committed to the proposition that our solidarity and high aims are fostered by the exercise of representative democracy in the American states. I am confident that you will continue to provide inspiring leadership toward the achievement of those aims."

The Western Hemisphere's desire for security, Mr. Truman said, "is not primarily in order that our lives may remain unchanged, but that we may progressively realize our vast possibilities.

"We look forward to an even more vigorous technical cooperation through all available channels, including the United Nations and its specialized agencies. We intend increasingly to help one another in the effort of each to help himself."

Don't Pay Out Money For Psychiatrist, Yet!

House-Hunting Easy If You Have Right Purpose In Mind

By SAUL PETT
Associated Press Staff Writer

NEW YORK, Oct. 12—If you're having difficulty buying a house, pull up a chair and listen. I'm an authority on the subject.

I have been buying a house every Sunday for three years. I have driven 15,682 miles (in just the suburbs, of course) and I have spent $322.43 on gas and oil but I have been able to do all this with the same car, the same wife and the help of only three psychiatrists.

And so I say to you, friend, don't be afraid. You can have your home and sanity, too. House-hunting is not as confusing as you might think.

Lookout For Factories

Just don't buy on impulse. Don't buy on faith. Be practical. Make sure you answer all the vital questions before buying:

Who owns the lot next door and are they planning a glue factory?

Is the agent over-selling you or under-selling you and does he have a thin, hard mouth or a police record?

What exactly does he mean by saying, "you can own this home if you earn $4,000 a year." Does he think you'll be able to eat, too? When he says you can heat the place for $8 a month, does he mean in the winter or summer?

Do you really like a picture window and what do you get a picture of and what will the neighbors get a picture of and those small little sections which open, will they be enough to carry a breeze?

Gutters Important

Does the living room have a wall made all of glass brick and do you think that looks like a public comfort station?

What will happen when it rains? Will you get wet? Are the roof gutters wood, copper, sheet iron? Where will the roof water go? Do you need a dry well?

Do you want a house like 100 other houses in a development or do you want to pay more to be distinctive? And why this terrible urge to be distinctive? Are you undemocratic? Are you trying to fulfill a neurotic need to be different and what happened in your childhood to start this complex?

And what makes you think you want a house?

Sears Stores Handle Goods Made In Texas

Merchandise purchased last year from Texas manufacturers by Sears, Roebuck and company totaled $27,723,000, it was revealed today by W. C. O'Mara, manager of the local Sears store at 1625 Thirteenth.

A total of 990 different Texas manufacturing firms in 89 cities shared in the expenditure, O'Mara said. Many of the products purchased in this state were distributed nationally through Sears outlets.

According to O'Mara, these figures showing the extent to which Sears turns to industry in Texas were prepared in connection with the company's forthcoming "Southern Industrialization" sale. This event is scheduled for Oct. 13 through 22.

Now on display at the local store is a letter from Gov. Allan Shivers congratulating and supporting the company's "Made in the South" promotion.

Grave Labor Shortage Faced By South Plains Cotton Men

70,000 More Workers Needed; Weather Also Causing Worries

By C. W. RATLIFF
Journal Staff Writer

With cotton fields opening rapidly day by day, South Plains farmers face the greatest labor shortage in history in their task of gathering the area's largest cotton crop.

Not only does the labor shortage worry them constantly, but the weather has been cutting capers the past several days to add new wrinkles to their tanned brows.

Only about 30,000 of 100,000 laborers needed to gather the crop are now at work in the area and arrivals from other sections of the state are slower than normal.

Appeals For Aid Issued

From County Agent Dave Sherrill and B. T. O'Connell, manager of the Lubbock office of the Texas Employment commission, came appeals Tuesday for co-operation of the residents of the area in aiding farmers with the gathering of the crop.

Both Sherrill and O'Connell suggested that students "pitch in" to do their part in harvesting the crop. High school and Texas Tech students will be asked to go into the fields in their spare time during the next two or three weeks to offset as much as possible the labor shortage.

For the past several days, a truck furnished by the TEC, has been transporting approximately 20 students from a location at Ninth and College to cotton fields in the immediate vicinity of Lubbock. The truck leaves the College Avenue location at 7:15 a. m. daily and returns at noon; departs again at 12:45 p. m. and returns at night.

* * *

Students Earn Extra Money

Two score or more Tech students have been taking advantage of their spare time to earn extra spending money and college expenses by this means.

"It would be wonderful for the farmers of this area if several hundred high school and college students would volunteer to help gather the crop and at the same time they would be earning some spending money," Sherrill said. He said students could average about a dollar an hour in the fields.

Their only expense is the price of a cotton sack, about $2.65.

A total of 9,940 laborers are needed right now in Lubbock county, O'Connell said, and the total is rising rapidly every day as the cotton opens. Approximately 16,000 pickers will be required to gather Lubbock county's crop alone.

* * *

DELAY in the arrival of pickers on the South Plains is attributed to a number of factors.

In the first place, the cotton crop in other sections of Texas is later this year and pickers are staying longer in the fields in Central and Central West Texas because of the higher prices paid for picking cotton in those areas. Prices for picking in those areas range from $2.50 to $2.75 a hundred and crew leaders are getting 50 cents for weighing and hauling.

The prevailing prices in this area are $1.75 for pulling and 25 cents for weighing and hauling. The price in a good many counties off the Caprock is $2, with weighing and hauling 25 cents.

Pickers are eager to come to this area, O'Connell said, for the $1.75 rate for pulling is equal to $2.75 and $3 for picking in other areas.

Seeking More Pay For Work

Crew leaders are reluctant to leave the lower counties because of the 50 cents they are getting for weighing and hauling. They are shopping around on their arrival on the South Plains in an effort to get an extra ten cents per hundred for weighing and hauling.

Another factor in the labor shortage is the slowness of the Mexican nationals or "braceros" to move through the red tape process so that they can work in this area. Only 150 of the Mexican Nationals have arrived on the South Plains, although 13,700 have been contracted for in the nine-county area of the Lubbock TEC office. Lubbock county farmers alone have contracted for 4,700 of the Mexican nationals.

* * *

IF SURPLUS and idle labor, plus students, housewives and others would join in helping the farmer harvest the crop in the next two weeks, it is believed the labor shortage could be alleviated somewhat, observers believe.

One truck now is picking up approximately 30 housewives in the Hub Homes area and carrying them to adjacent fields for cotton pulling. In addition, soldiers at Lubbock Air Force Base have joined in the movement and are picking cotton in the fields in the Hurlwood area.

"We've got farmers who'll go any where and do anything to get hands," O'Connell said.

He said the average Mexican laborer could gather from 900 to

Star Farmer Given Award

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Oct. 12.—(INS)—Kenneth England, 19-year-old dairy farmer from Chandler, Arizona, last night was named the star farmer of America for 1949.

The title was bestowed on the youth at the 22nd national convention of the Future Farmers of America in Kansas City. The award carried a $1,000 cash prize from the Future Farmers of America Foundation, Inc.

Other Youths Named

Three other youths were named regional star farmers and each received $500. They are Robert Samuel Stevens, jr., 19, route two, Lynchburg, Va., John Castroginni, 22, Montrose, Pa., and Jack Hailey King, 20, Dadeville, Mo.

The star farmers were designated as outstanding among 237 FFA members who received the American farmer degree today, highest rank of achievement in the FFA.

England won the FFA national dairy farming award last year. His 50-cow herd is valued at more than $7,000. He owns other livestock, buildings, farm machinery and other assets to bring his net worth above $20,000.

Program Started Early

England's farming program started with one Jersey heifer while he was in grade school. During his four years of vocational agriculture study in high school he had a labor income of $19,021 from his supervised farming projects, most of the money coming from dairy cattle.

England, son of Mr. and Mrs. Willis B. England, Chandler, drives 15 miles daily to study agriculture at Arizona State college. He was third vice-president of the Arizona FFA association in 1947-48 and state secretary for 1948-49.

Stevens, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Stevens, is married and the father of a two-year-old boy and a four-months-old girl. He is farming in partnership with his father and has the major responsibility for a 167-acre operation. His program includes sixty head of registered Aberdeen Angus cattle. He practices contour and strip-corn farming for conservation and is diversifying his farm through addition of an orchard enterprise.

PARADE WILL BE STAGED TODAY

Fair At Lamesa To Draw Large Crowds

LAMESA, Oct. 12 (Special)—What is expected to be the biggest and best Dawson County Fair in history opens here today, with fair officials expecting more than 5,000 to attend on opening day.

More than 500 entries for the four-day fair were made before exhibit entry lists were closed at 8 p. m. Tuesday.

Judging in the South Plains Horse show will begin this morning, but the first official recognition of the fair will come at 4 p. m., with a parade through downtown Lamesa.

STAR FARMER OF AMERICA—Kenneth England of Chandler, Ariz., was named Star Farmer of America at the national convention of Future Farmers of America in Kansas City, Mo.

Band To Play

Floats by merchants, civic clubs, schools, and other organizations, with a cash prize for the school float winner, are featured in the parade along with the Lamesa High School band.

The parade route will be from the Methodist church on North Third west to Wasson, down Wasson to North First, down North First to the square, then west to Houston, and south on Houston to the fairgrounds.

The "Queen of the South Plains," Joy Culp, 17-year-old Lamesa High school senior, will be crowned Wednesday night at Lobo park during the first presentation of the pageant "Boom Days," which will be presented at 7:30 each night of the fair.

Miss Culp, the winner over eight other contestants for the honor, was presented tonight at a coronation ball in the Recreation hall in the City park. She will be crowned by Harley Sadler of Abilene, former state representative and widely known showman. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bonnie Culp.

The horse show includes over 100 entries from a wide area of West Texas. Divisions to be judged Wednesday are the halter, Quarter-horse, Palomino, and halfbreed classes.

The morning schedule Wednesday also will include judging of agricultural, ladies', educational, community, and farm youth exhibits.

Earl Sears, general superintendent of the fair, said there will be more exhibits this year than in the past. "Not only will there be more, they will be better," Sears said.

L. R. Morris will be in charge of the individual agricultural exhibits. There will be five regular divisions in this class. They will be grain sorghums, cotton, sheaf

Demos Plan New York Fund-Raising Dinner

NEW YORK, Oct. 12 (AP)—Texas Democrats already have made reservations for a $100-a-plate dinner at the Waldorf-Astoria hotel Dec. 2 to raise $250,000 for the party.

Speakers for the dinner are Vice President Alben W. Barkley and Speaker of the House Sam Rayburn.

Work Rushed At Girlstown

"By Jan. 1, we will have a full house of 64 girls," Miss Amelia Anthony, founder and director of Girlstown, U. S. A., said during a visit to Lubbock Tuesday.

The residence now under construction, with a goal of Nov. 13 for completion, will allow Girlstown to expand its membership from the present 10 girls who live there.

600 Seek Admission

"Over 600 girls are waiting to get into Girlstown, which means our building program in Girlstown is just starting," said Miss Anthony.

Plans have been drawn for a barn which will serve as a dining hall and general assembly hall, where girls will present plays for Scuth Plains residents once a month and where the Girlstown chorus and Girlstown orchestra plan to present radio shows. The barn also will serve as a meeting place for civic clubs, church organizations and business firms and organizations interested in Girlstown.

"By the time the barn is completed it will be time to start the workshop," said Miss Anthony. In the workshop, girls will be taught skills with their hands so they may make useful household items and where seasonal projects will be conducted.

Furniture Making Is Hobby

The Girlstown director has a hobby of making children's furniture. She will teach that to the girls, so they may make children's furniture along with adult furnishings.

"We will do that not only to teach our girls how to be good housewives, but we will do it for income for Girlstown," said Miss Anthony. Items made in the workshop will be sold.

Construction of the residence which will house 64 girls was started Aug. 13. The walls will be roof-high by the weekend, said the director. Twenty-five bricklayers are to work Saturday and Sunday to complete laying of pumice blocks. The partitions and roof will be started next week.

If weather continues as good as it has been this week, chances are fair that construction will be completed by Nov. 13. On that date, the cornerstone is to be laid and the building is to be dedicated. The cornerstone laying had been postponed earlier because of bad weather.

A crew of five to seven men is working daily. Labor organizations of Texas are paying the salary of the men five days weekly and the men are donating two days labor weekly.

Communists Defeated In Norway Elections

OSLO, Norway, Oct. 12 (AP) — Norwegian Communists suffered an overwhelming defeat in Monday's nationwide elections, losing all but one of the 11 parliamentary seats they had held since 1945.

Virtually complete returns showed today that Premier Einar Gerhardsen's ruling Labor party was returned to office with a gain of 10 seats in the Storting (parliament.)

The Labor party won 86 seats, 10 more than it held in the old parliament. Gerhardsen had ruled since 1945 with a one-vote majority over the combined opposition in the 150-member Storting.

The Communists, who alone of Norway's political party had opposed the nation's membership in the Atlantic Pact and the Marshall Plan, were the big losers. They retained their lone parliamentary seat by the narrow margin of 20 votes.

Seats won by the other parties were (previous strength in parentheses):

"ANOTHER TRY TO FOOL PUBLIC"

Reds Renew Demand For Count Of Bombs Without Any Check

LAKE SUCCESS, Oct. 12. (AP)—Russia has renewed her demand for a world wide count of atomic bombs by the United Nations. U. S. Delegate Warren Austin called the Soviet move "another attempt to fool the public."

The Soviet demand was made by Deputy Foreign Minister Jakob Malik late yesterday in the U. N. security council. It called for a tally of all weapons, from atom bombs to airplanes and artillery, from battleships to bayonets. Each nation would report on its own weapons under Malik's proposal, with no provision for checking on the truth of the statements.

Census Meaningless

Warren Austin, U. S. delegate who is this month's chairman of the council, did not answer Malik on the floor. But immediately after the meeting he told newsmen: "A census of weapons without verification is meaningless. This is another attempt to fool the public."

"The proposal for the addition of atomic bombs to the census adds nothing new," Austin said. "It continues to reflect an unwillingness on the part of the Soviet Union to recognize the real nature of the atomic problem."

The Russian proposal was not acted on and Malik refused to go into detail on it when he spoke to newsmen after the meeting.

Malik was directly asked if Russia has atomic weapons.

He answered, "read the Tass communication."

That Solvet press agency said on Sept. 25 that the Russians have atomic weapons at their disposal. The agency statement followed disclosure by President Truman that an atomic explosion took place recently in Russia.

First Formal Proposal

Malik's statements yesterday in the security council took on added interest because it was the first Russian statement of atomic policy since Mr. Truman's disclosure. Malik returned to the United States from Moscow after the news broke.

His resolution demanding the over-all tally was the first time that Russia has put its demand into a formal resolution. But the Russians have always opposed moves for an arms census unless it includes atomic weapons and have always said they should be outlawed.

A few minutes before Malik made his propisal, he cast Russia's 39th veto in the security council to kill a French proposal for conventional arms-counting—excluding the a-bomb—and the establishment of confidence among the nations. It did not include atomic weapons, Malik complained.

Group Deadlocked

Austin pointed out that the United Nations set up the atomic energy commission to handle the question of the use of atomic energy. That was the place, Austin hinted, for Russia's proposals.

Six members of that commission plan to hold another in a series of secret meetings tomorrow. It is deadlocked because Russia, one of the big five members that sits in the commission with Canada, always has refused to accept atomic energy controls that call for international inspection and checkup.

Sir Alexander Cadogan, who sat in the security council for Britain yesterday, invited Russia to make some concessions in the face of the majority always against her in the council, in the assembly, and in the deadlocked atomic energy commission. The veto of the French proposal was the reply.

Off the floor, Sir Alexander said Malik's preliminary statement was "the same old abuse, the same vilification of the United States and Great Britain."

PASADENA, Calif., Oct. 12 (AP)—Soprano Lotte Lehmann, veteran of American and European concert stages, has now made her debut as a painter.

Miss Lehmann said the paintings, in Tempera, were done during the last two years at Hope ranch, her home near Santa Barbara. She said the paintings also will be exhibited in New York when she goes there in January for her usual concerts.

Surgery On Elderly People Now Safer

ANN ARBOR, Mich., Oct. 12 (U.P.)—A University of Michigan doctor says that elderly people should not be afraid of operations.

"Present-day surgery has advanced to the point where many operations on older people may be conducted with safety, whereas before they might have been told that the risk was too great," said Dr. Philip W. Smith, fellow in surgery.

Smith said that persons between 70 and 90 should not have to suffer or possibly die from conditions which are relievable by surgery. These include appendicitis, bowel obstructions, fractures and ruptures, he said.

FOREIGN DIPLOMATS FLEE CAPITAL

Communists Pressing Canton As Chinese Defenders Routed

HONG KONG, Oct. 12 (AP) — The Red heat was on Canton today.

Communist newspapers in this British crown colony carried reports that Canton's defenders were preparing to evacuate and hand the city to the Reds.

Red forces were believed no more than 40 miles of the south China metropolis of nearly a million people—seat of the nationalist government in name only. There were no details of yesterday's reports the invaders had taken Tsingyun, 40 miles north.

Reds Claim Progress

Communist military dispatches said Swatow, on the China coast northeast of Canton, already had fallen. Amoy, they said, was tottering. The Reds claimed the nationalists were pulling out of most of their holdout positions all along the coast.

The communist press said nationaist troops guarding Canton's perimeter were getting set to evacuate by sea to Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek's island bastion of Formosa and to Hainan island.

Gen. Hwang Sen, commanding two communities just north of Canton's northern suburbs, was said to have gone over to the approaching Reds.

Government employes hurried to get out before the Reds came into Canton. Their destination: Chungking. The interior city 600 miles to the northwest will again be the refugee capital as it was during World War II.

Diplomats Gone

Practically all foreign diplomats already had quit Canton. Most of them came to Hong Kong. They will proceed to Chungking under their own steam rather than avail themselves of transportation offered by the nationalists.

Baggage-laden trucks and carts streamed endlessly towards Canton's railway station, docks and airport. Every plane, ship and train to the British crown colony to the south was loaded to capacity. Planes carrying government officials took off at frequent intervals for Chungking.

The poor, the hundreds of thousands of Canton's ordinary people, were stuck. They could do nothing but wait for the Reds to take over. Most didn't seem to care. Their attitude: how much worse could it be, anyway?

Communist war reports said the nationalists pulled out of the big Kwangtung seaport of Swatow by sea. It is 180 miles northeast of Hong Kong.

The communists also reported the nationalist had abandoned Tateng, island barrier to the big Fukien seaport of Amoy. Tateng is just east of besieged Amoy, opposite Formosa. The Reds said they took over Tateng after a 15-hour battle.

Another communist claim was landings on Liuhwang, third largest island of the Chushan chain 100 miles southeast of Shanghai. If so, it is the second island to fall in te Chushans, base for nationalist air and naval blockade of the east China coast.

On the mainland north of Canton, communist dispatches said Red troops were pushing slowly in pursuit of Gen. Pai Chung-hsi, nationalist central China commander who is pulling back into his native Kwangsi province.

Douglas Jokes About His 14 Broken Ribs

YAKIMA, Wash., Oct. 12 (U.P.)—Supreme Court Justice William O. Douglas said he thinks 14 fractured ribs are better than 13 and told an Indiana man that in his shape a pat on the back is "the most unfriendly act in the world."

Douglas said he was relieved to learn that 14 instead of 13 ribs were fractured when a horse fell on him nine days ago because "I have always considered 13 my unlucky number.

"When you have 14 broken ribs, a hiccup is a crisis, a cough is a disaster and a sneeze is a calamity. And the most unfriendly act in the world is a pat on the back."

Home Show Exposition Is Underway

Modern House Has Everything But Place For Shaving Gear

BY HARMAN W. NICHOLS
United Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12 — The Washington home show exposition has everything a body would want in the modern house — except what pop wants most.

One of the exhibitors at the elaborate show pumped up his shirt front and showed a cabinet that gives the old man a front-and-side-glance lighting effects for razoring his whiskers. But does it take care of the problem of fishing the mug, razor, and brush out of the metal cabinet? No!

If you use the brushless stuff for lathering, I suppose you can get by. I don't use it and I know a lot of other guys who don't, either. The new inventions of the past year don't seem to help.

It still happens. When you dig in for your equipment, down comes a shower of bobby pins, lip stick, tooth paste, cleansing cream and all of the other nonsense that goes to make a lady lovely.

For the cellar, you can see power tools for the man who has sense enough to use 'em. Make anything from a crib to the valances for the windows — in a jiffy.

There are model play rooms for the kiddies, with built-in cabinets for skates that the old man would skid and go hind-down on in the middle of the night if the rollers were left loose.

Garage doors which close as you roll across the gravel into the house — all operated by remote control. Stair-cases that look like Hollywood and cost only a few dollars more than they would in Hollywood.

Indirect lighting for every room if you want to impress the neighbors who can't afford that sort of thing.

At the home show, everybody tries to get into the act. Everything is commercial. The beer people are there with everything but samples. The coke people are there with samples. The pancake people make pancakes and plug this and that flour.

The television people didn't overlook a bet, either. There are television shows going on from time to time and what do you suppose! They picked a miss "television queen." She was a pretty miss, who might have gone far at the Miss America business in Atlantic City.

The bathroom department was interesting, too, except for the aforementioned medicine cabinet. One of the shower outfits displayed a stall-shower guananteed to keep you from falling down. It's a triangle affair and you'd have to be a little more than double-jointed to complete the fall.

In the kitchen — mama's delight. A new stove that cooks the dinner on one side and freezes ice cream on the other.

ALLOWS GLAND TO BE EXPOSED

English Doctor Advances New Method For Pancreas Surgery

BY FRANK CAREY
Associated Press Science Writer

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 12 — A New surgical technique for exposing the pancreas — one of the body's most important organs but also one of the most difficult to explore in time of trouble — was announced today.

Prof. Ian Aird of the University of London reported that the operation allowed, for the first time, complete exposure of all surfaces of the gland.

The pancreas — which manufactures certain juices important for digestion and also insulin for maintaining a proper control of sugar in the blood — is a gland partly hidden by the stomach. It is covered by involved anatomical structures.

Tumor Can Be Reached

Professor Aird said the operation already had increased the opportunities for benefitting patients suffering with a scmetimes fatal condition called "hypoglycemia."

This malady might be termed the opposite of diabetes. It is a condition where the blood does not have enough sugar. It results from the development of minute, nonmalignant tumors called "adenomas" on the part of the pancreas that produces insulin. These tu- of insulin, with the result that too much sugar is burned up in the blood. This brings about weakness, coma, and sometimes death.

In the past, said surgeons who heard Prof. Aird's report to the international society of surgery, removal of these tumors has sometimes been incomplete because of lack of surgical technique for completely exposing all surfaces of the pancreas.

Surgeons Attend Meet

They said the technique described by Aird was "a distinct contribution to the surgery of the pancreas" — not only for reaching elusive adenomas but also for the surgical attack on other diseases of the pancreas, including cancer.

The method involves no fanmy tricks of surgery. Rather, it combines standard technique with a thorough knowledge of the geography of the structures covering the pancreas, doctors said.

It results, they said, in a complete exposure of the gland so that the surgeon can feel all its surfaces.

ITCHING

Tormented by itching of dry eczema, simple piles, common skin irritation? Soothing, medicated Resinol Ointment is a proved reliever of such distress. Its ingredients, often used by doctors, act gently to give lingering comfort. Well worth trying.

Star Farmer

Alberto Castroginni, owns 180 acres of land and rents an extra 140 acres for his farm work. His specialty is dairy production and he owns 51 Holstein cattle valued at $9,800. His total income from supervised farming projects for the past six years is $13,833.

King, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy King, has net assets of $13,585, most of them in livestock, equipment and buildings. He is married and the father of a nine-months-old daughter. His high school freshman projects in vocational agriculture included a sow, seven pigs, a beef cow and calf, five sheep, three acres of corn and three acres of oats. From these he made a $220 profit and invested it into an expanded farming program.

Judges in the star farmer of America competition were John M. Collins, editor of the weekly Kansas City Star; John L. Collyer, president of B. F. Goodrich company, Akron, Ohio; and Harry A. Bullis, board chairman, General Mills, Inc., Minneapolis.

A junior division will draw exhibits from the Lamesa, Welch, O'Donnell and Ackerly FFA Chapters and the various 4-H clubs throughout the county. A. H. Essary is in charge of the division.

The educational exhibits will tell a story of improved farming and entries are expected from the Union and Klondike 4-H clubs, the Lamesa, Welch, O'Donnell and Ackerly FFA chapters and the Lamesa FHA chapter. J. W. Reed will be in charge.

A special contest in the agricultural exhibits will attract entries of an unusual nature. It will include flowers, farm products and vegetables produced in Dawson County which are not ordinarily grown here.

Thirteen of the county's communities have indicated that they will enter exhibits in the community exhibit section. They are Mesquite, Hancock, Key, McMarty, Midway, Ackerly, Sparenberg, Klondike, and Patricia, Union, Pumpkin Center, Welch, Woody and Grandview and the veterans vocational school.

letters this week to labor organizations in several other states. Donations received in answer to those letters will be used for labor for completion of the residence and for the barn.

Miss Anthony said at least two additional women are needed to join the family of Girlstown. They should be from early 30's to 50 years of age. Minimum salary is $150 a month and room and board. The women would guide and direct activities of the children in the home and in conjunction with school work. Their duties will be "the normal duties of any home," said the director. They will have one day each week free from duties. Women interested may contact Miss Anthony at Girlstown near Whiteface.

Miss Anthony took the 10 girls of Girlstown to the circus in Lubbock Tuesday night. It was the first time for any of the 10 girls to attend a circus.

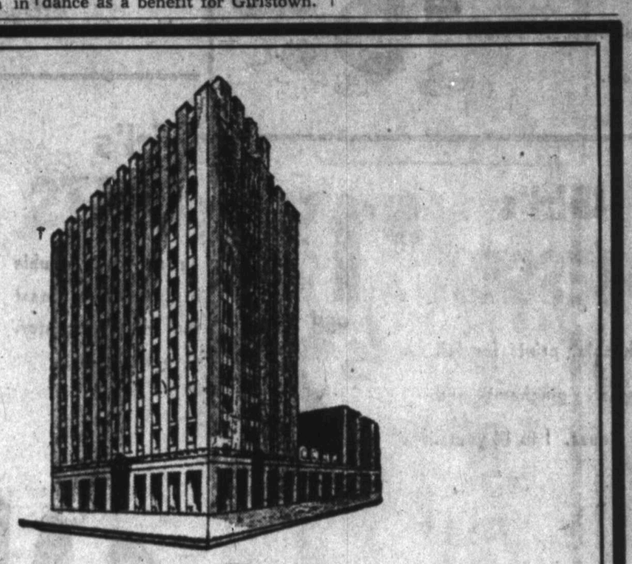

While here, the director received a check for $215 from Lubbock unit 26 of the Texas Association of Accredited Beauty Culturists. The unit recently sponsored a dance as a benefit for Girlstown.

Is medical science slipping? It has been several weeks since it has brought out a new vitamin or miracle drug.

★ ★ ★

That Man on Avenue Q says no one has ever received—or deserved—an honorary degree from the School of Experience.

★ ★ ★

Well, if science finds the key, we hope somebody'll unlock the door and let us go outside and walk around for awhile. It's getting awfully stuffy in here!

MEDICAL doctors, psychiatrists and psychologists most experienced in the study of excessive drinking are generally agreed that excessive drinking is an effect, rather than a cause, of the basic trouble of the individual involved.

Some put it: "Alcohol does not cause alcoholism any more than skyscrapers cause suicides." By that they mean that persons with deep-seated troubles turn to alcohol in the mistaken belief that alcohol will lessen, or cure, their troubles; not that the excessive use of alcohol is the cause of the deep-seated trouble.

This, basically, is the finding of numerous doctors and scientists after some years of careful study of what we call the "alcoholic individual." If they are right in their conclusion, it is time, then, to find a new name for the disease called "alcoholism."

First is that—unfair and erroneous as it is—there is, in the public mind, a stigma attached to the word "alcoholism." Too many people haven't yet learned that the uncontrolled drinker is just as much a victim of fate as if he were suffering from polio, tuberculosis, or rheumatism. Too many people cling to the erroneous theory that "anybody who drinks too much can stop whenever he wants to; the only reason he doesn't stop is because he's simply a 'sorry' individual."

The second reason for finding a new name for the disease which results in excessive drinking is that if its present name, "alcoholism," does not correctly describe the disease and ascribe its source, it is no good. If "alcohol doesn't cause alcoholism any more than skyscrapers cause suicides," then let's have a name which fits the illness.

To call an individual an "alcoholic" when the consumption of alcohol does not cause his basic illness is no more right, or correct, than to say that a man suffering with a headache is a diabetic.

A GREAT deal of very good work has been done in recent years by colleges, the people in medicine and, especially, by Alcoholics Anonymous, in the scientific study and attack against excessive drinking.

Although there remains, among the uninformed, a stigma in the term, "alcoholic," that stigma is not nearly so black, or so deeply rooted, as it once was.

But even so, it is logical to assume that numerous persons suffering from deep-seated trouble reflected in excessive drinking hang back, and refuse to seek help, simply because of the stigma which remains. If that is the case, as it doubtless must be, the sooner all the stigma is removed, the sooner more of those needing help and attention will seek it and will get it.

Anyone even vaguely familiar with the work done all over the U. S.—and right here in Lubbock—by Alcoholics Anonymous knows that there is a way to beat the excessive drinking habit. Those who are familiar with the lesser known scientific and medical advances against excessive drinking know that recent years have seen rehabilitated literally thousands of men and women who, a few years ago, would have wound up on skid row because of the then lack of scientific knowledge concerning the illness.

Since what we call "alcoholism" can be cured, all of us should do what we can to make the cure as easily and quickly available as possible. Our attitude toward the disease should be just as fair and just as sympathetic as it is toward other diseases which bear no false stigma.

Let's have a new—and better—name for "alcoholism," and for the "alcoholic."

Sudden Thought: If Mother Nature is so all-fired wise, why didn't she arrange for a human being to be a tadpole during its first four years, so it wouldn't worry its parents to death asking for drinks of water?

★ ★ ★

If a man thinks he's Napoleon, and nobody agrees with him, he goes to the bug-house. If a majority agrees with him, he gets elected!

THE extent that the currently ruling wing of the Democratic party will go to butter up the leftists, and also the extent of its faulty thinking, was mirrored the other day when Democratic National Chairman William M. Boyle sent out telegrams to party leaders over the national urging their support for Leland Olds.

Olds, an admitted and widely recognized leftwinger, has been on the Federal Power commission for two terms. He was nominated for a third term by President Truman. Noting the Olds background, the Senate Commerce committee voted 10-to-2 against his reappointment—real Democrats joining with conservative Republicans in the opposition.

Well, "powerful corporations" probably would oppose the appointment of Earl Browder to be Secretary of State, Henry Wallace to be Secretary of Defense, or Vito Marcantonio to be Attorney General.

So would a lot of "weak corporations," and, we are sure, most Americans in and out of corporations.

So when Mr. Boyle yells that "powerful corporations" oppose Mr. Olds that doesn't mean, automatically, that Mr. Olds is the sort of man the people want, or need, in public office—although that's what Mr. Boyle would like to have people believe.

In yelling about "powerful corporations," the "Tru-Deal" Democratic boss is simply dragging a red herring across the trail—an old, old political trick.

WITH all the able, experienced, patriotic people there are in this country, it seems to us that the "Tru-Deal" boys could find someone to put on the power commission besides a man of Mr. Olds' well known leftwing tendencies, some other man—one who never in his life found it expedient to write articles for the Communist newspaper, the Daily Worker.

But the 'Tru-Deal" boys feel it politically expedient to toss a bone every few minutes to the radical element in order to show its sympathy to the lefties, and to their goal of turning every American into a slave of the state, a la Russia.

That's very poor thinking; very selfish thinking—and the sort of thing which, if kept up long enough, will injure the nation beyond repair.

BY DREW PEARSON: TEXAN TELLS ADMIRAL HE SHOULD OFFER CONSTRUCTIVE CRITICISM

Oil Company Gives Free Ride To Bill Boyle Party

WASHINGTON — The public now knows what happened when Admiral Arthur Radford testified at an open session of the House armed services committee. But they don't know what happened at the closed door session which preceded his testimony.

PEARSON

After Admiral Radford read his confidential statement—later repeated in the open session of gripes against the air force and Defense Secretary Louis Johnson, Congressman Paul Kilday of Texas remarked to him:

"Admiral, I am disappointed that you did not come here with an affirmative statement of what the navy can do, instead of a criticism of what the air force can do."

"I'm just the leadoff man," replied Radford. "Later on we'll have some witnesses on the affirmative side."

"That's my point," shot back Kilday. "The navy has chosen to lead off by criticizing the other fellow, instead of telling us what the navy can do and how much you need in surface ships, submarines and air power.

"It's obvious to me that you want to promote all this discord, which must be of no little comfort to a potential enemy. I'm for ending it right here and now, without letting this committee be used to carry on such bickering at an open hearing."

Secretary of the Navy Matthews didn't open his mouth until after the committee overrode Kilday's protests and voted 9 to 6 to give the admirals an open hearing. Then he remarked to Chairman Carl Vinson of Georgia, who sided with the admirals: "The responsibility is now yours."

"Mr. Secretary," interposed Kilday, "you might as well cancel out your court-martial of Captain Crommelin. He is not promoting discord any longer. This committee has taken over for him after th vote today."

Germany Is Still Nasi

Just back from Germany, Senator Lester Hunt of Wyoming warns that it will take an army of educators following up the army of occupation to defeat Nazis in Germany.

"There is no such thing as de-nazifying a Nazi," the Wyoming Democrat insists.

The only solution, Hunt believes, is to place an American superintendent or principal over every German school and an American president over every German university.

"It would cost us less," he promises, "than the first month of World War III."

THE Democrats were tipped off that this columnist was checking on what air force planes might fly to Kansas City for Bill Boyle's big home-coming jamboree. Possibly this had something to do with the fact that not a single air force made the trip.

However, a few high officials got a free ride—in a plush, private plane owned by Phillips Petroleum company. This plane was put at the disposal of the Democratic national committee by Phillips' chief lobbyist, R. C. Joplin, and its free passengers included Secretary of Labor Maurice Tobin, U. S. Treasurer Georgia Neese Clark and Assistant Secretary of Commerce Tom Davis. The plane also stopped in St. Louis to pick up Vice President Barkley who had been courtin'.

After the party, Phillips Petroleum flew Barkley and Tobin back to Washington, then the plane returned to its home base in Oklahoma.

Note—the oil companies have been lobbying for control of tidelands oil and against Leland Olds' confirmation to the Federal Power commission. But if Mr. Joplin was in a mood to lobby, he didn't get a chance with Vice President Barkley. For the VP slept both ways.

Senator Miller's Vote

The bill removing religious discrimination from the displaced persons act was supposed to come up for Senate debate this week, but now the judiciary committee will be expected to attend Senator Miller's funeral in Boise.

Since this is the committee handling the displaced persons bill, it may prevent the bill from reaching the floor at all.

However, there is one thing the Senate ought to know. The evening before Senator Miller died, as one of his last wishes, he told Senator Magnuson of Washington that he wanted to vote for the displaced persons bill. Undoubtedly Senator Miller would have preferred to have his colleagues stay in Washington and vote to aid thousands of refugees who are still alive, than mourn over him in Idaho.

WHILE the State department plans to lower tariffs, a New England manufacturer is getting ready to put the blast on General Douglas MacArthur for encouraging Japanese production of cheap, competitive goods for the American market.

He is Alfred F. Reilly of Providence, R. I., president of Evans Case company, biggest U. S. producer of cigaret lighters. Reilly will demand a congressional investigation of MacArthur on the ground that he is using U. S. taxpayers' money to build up Jap industries at the expense of American business and labor.

Reilly will charge that MacArthur has encouraged Jap production of cheap cigaret lighters to a point where American manufacturers are in serious jeopardy.

The Japanese, he says, have made exact models of the Evans, Ronson and other American lighters, using a copper mold, thus saving research, tool-and-die, designing and other costs American companies have had to pay.

They now plan to go into large-scale production, using inferior materials and cheap labor, unless Congress blows the whistle on MacArthur.

Soviet Union's Promises Not To Use Atom Bombs Doubted

AUTUMN Leaves—Stage Door: The 1950 Show Season starts late this week with three entries. Despite the copious tear-shedding about the Theatre, there is just one show less on the boards than a year ago. One-third of them are sellouts . . . Maurice Evans' next, "Double Bill," opened promisingly in the suburbs. Variety's communique: "It can hardly miss" . . . "Blackouts" must gross $26,000 a week to break even. Just about doing that now. . . . The Angels of "Love Life" are getting back only two-bits on the $. And after a 9 months' run. . . . Mary Martin says her "S. Pacific" role is easier than her part in the touring "Annie Get Your Gun." Gets two rest periods in "Pacific." Had 22 numbers in "Annie" . . . Freedom From Issues Termed Reason For Series Interest

NEW YORK, Oct. 12—I am as sorry as sorry can be that the World Series is over, because now I got to go back to thinking about that heavy stuff again, and I never did have the head for it.

RUARK

I know people, people just like you and me, who can sit down and rattle off reams about the pound devaluation and sterling bloc areas and parity in farm truck, just as easy as pie. I know a whole kennel of experts on the atom, and a covey of economists and more experts on military matters, Communism and whither the globe than you can shake a stick at.

For a time I had a fast try at duplicating this omniscience, and never quite got away with it. I read Time and Newsweek and the New York Times and a million dull books about everything from aphids to zebras, and still felt real dumb and awful phony when I laid down the heavy law on the machine.

That's a funny thing, how the typewriter reacts to an operator who is pulling an act. When I am writing something I know about first hand, like merchant ships and stripteasers and baseball and the night life of Sydney, Australia, the mill clicks along as sweet as a cash register. When I go global on the stuff I know at arm's length, the keys stick, the ribbons twist, and it all comes out etaionshrdlu the next day.

Football Seems "Loose"

Baseball was a business I always thought I knew, and respected as an exact science, and it was always awful easy to write. Baseball made a lot of sense. They rarely changed the rules on you, for one thing. The experts couldn't ever expert it very hard, for the simple reason that no expert, sitting on a bench, could expert a wild pitcher into chipping the corners of the plate, or expert a .215 hitter into belting one out of the park.

At the opposite corner I never felt easy writing football. Football seemed as loose as psychiatry. They changed the rules to fit the situations. It was hard to see what was happening on the field, even on a clear day. Football coaches are chronic liars, as a group; football press agents are worse; referees and the other officials operate by inspiration.

ANY member of my firm who has ever seen an expense account submitted by me will know why I cannot profundify on the pound devaluation. As a man who never satisfactorily vanquished a blown fuse or a gummed-up carburetor, I cry quits on the atom. In three years and more of navy, I never once approached comprehension of navigation.

This used to fret me quite a lot, until I met some economists who couldn't add a column of figures or make a living outside the government or a college. I met marital experts who couldn't manage their own problems in the dovecote, and all shapes of professional advisors who couldn't hit their hat size in practice.

So now we are back with baseball. This past series, I do believe, was met more enthusiastically by more non-habitual baseball fans than ever before, and for the very good reason that baseball is simple and uncomplicated and reassuring in its basic components. We are a nation of people who confuse easy, and who puzzle easy, and who welcome the non-complex.

Issues Not Clouded

You cannot fog up DiMaggio with allegations of Communist infiltration or capitalist tool-ism or confuse Jackie Robinson's batting ability with an ideology. Robinson is a negro and any ball he hits out of the park sails as far and counts the same as if it were hit by a member of the first white family of Charleston, S. C. Three strikes is out and on four balls you take a walk.

The drama of a series is clear and easy on the brain. DiMaggio plays a bum series, because he is a sick man, still. Then he hits what should be a tripple, and is robbed by Duke Snider. Then he hit a line-drive single, and is robbed by the same Snider. So then he hits one into the seats, next trip, and who can argue that one in a congressional committee?

I believe I know why we all so eagerly embraced this series. In a world of woolly and frantic confusion, a series is so easy to understand; so satisfyingly free of the irritants of global double-talk and the uncertainties of remaining alive.

Presbyterians Seek Funds To Buy Ranch

SAN ANTONIO, Oct. 12 (AP)—Clergy and lay leaders of the Presbyterian synod of Texas have launched a drive for $750,000 to complete the purchase and improvement of a ranch for summer camps.

The ranch is located at Hunt, Tex., a summer resort community 25 miles north of Kerrville.

The drive to complete purchase of the property from the estate of the late Dan Moran was started at the meeting last night.

The synod approved purchase of the ranch last year at a price of $500,000 and a $75,000 down payment was made.

The Feminine Viewpoint

A MARRIAGE is safely through the dangerous years when—

She can hear him pay another woman a pretty compliment without seeing green.

MILLETT

He knows when "Yes, Dear" is the wisest answer.

She isn't hurt if he doesn't notice a new dress without a little prompting.

He doesn't have to explain why he's 20 minutes late to dinner.

She has given up trying to reform him.

He doesn't mind when she brings up the name of an old admirer.

She knows when to keep quiet and let him blow off steam at some minor annoyance.

He isn't surprised at anything she does.

THE ACID TEST

HE can announce that he's going on a week end fishing trip without her wondering if he is tired of her.

She no longer worries about the girls in his office.

She tactfully reminds him of important dates, such as her birthday, their wedding anniversary, several days in advance.

He doesn't feel hurt if she leaves him for a couple of weeks to go home to Mother.

They can quarrel at breakfast and greet each other that evening with sheepish grins that are a signal that each is forgiven and no reconciliation scene needs to be staged.

When a marriage finally settles down to this it may not be terribly exciting—but you can be pretty sude it is going to last a lifetime.

ALY KHAN, who tells fables when he is not preoccupied with Rita Hayworth, passed this one on to Irving Hoffman: A mouse lived in constant terror of a cat. A magician took pity on it and turned it into a cat. Immediately it became afraid of the dog. So the magician turned it into a dog. Now it began to fear the tiger.

So the magician obliged again and turned it into a tiger. Immediately it began to fear the hunter. Then the magician said wearily, "I might as well turn you back into a mouse, my friend. You have only the heart of a mouse, and alas, I cannot help you."

DENTISTRY BY TELEPHONE

That's probably a good thing for dentists interested in post-graduate courses and, of course, for the telephone company, too. After all, we don't know of any group of men better able to pay long-distance rates—especially since the more dignified gentlemen of the profession got dental advertising barred by law and thus eliminated, in one fell swoop, low-cost service in their field.

But, anyway, it's good to note this new wrinkle—post-graduate dentistry by telephone—and it may even open up another new sphere, namely, dental treatment by telephone.

Of course, that happy day may never come but the thought, at least, is intriguing!

Solution of Yesterday's Puzzle

Lucas Claims Congress To Act On Olds Choice This Session

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12 (AP)—Senator Lucas of Illinois scotched reports today that the administration may let the Leland Olds appointment go unacted upon at this session of Congress.

Lucas, the Democratic leader, told a reporter that Olds' nomination for a third term on the Federal Power commission is going to be taken to a Senate vote before adjournment — whatever the result.

President Truman has made confirmation of Olds a party matter for the Democrats, despite a 10 to 2 vote of the Senate commerce committee to reject the appointment.

Roll Call Vote Demanded

Lucas told the Senate last night that the President has demanded a roll call vote on the confirmation question. The senator refused to say when it will be held, despite pleas for an immediate showdown.

Senator Edwin C. Johnson (D-Colo), who heads the commerce committee which turned down the Olds appointment 10 to 2, said senators are leaving town so fast there may not be a majority on hand long to transact business.

Lucas replied that he couldn't be responsible for that.

Senator Lyndon Johnson (D-Tex), chairman of a subcommittee which voted 7 to 0 against Olds, said Lucas had called him in Texas recently and demanded quick subcommittee action. Why couldn't the Senate have it now, he asked.

Oil Companies Opposed

Lucas said he wasn't going to be "badgered or intimidated" into fixing any time for a vote.

Some members of the committee told reporters they had heard there might be no Senate vote in this session, which would leave Mr. Truman free to give Olds a recess appointment and send his name to the Senate again in January. Lucas said this isn't so.

Senator Murray (D-Mont) told the Senate yesterday that the issue before it was not the admittedly radical writings of Olds in 1920, which his opponents have criticized.

The real issue, Murray said, is that the big oil companies want Olds off the power commission because he favors government regulation of the price of gas sold at the pipelines.

Senator Capehart (R-Ind) told his colleagues that President Truman was aping the Communist line, attempting to make a Senate vote for Olds a matter of party discipline for the Democrats.

Large Crowds Attend Shows Of Two Circuses In Lubbock

The circus came to town in a big way Tuesday, with the Rogers Bros. and Clyde Beatty circuses presenting both afternoon and evening performances for circus fans—young and old—of the South Plains.

And, as might be expected—since Lubbock and South Plains residents always have been rabid "big top" supporters—attendance at both afternoon and evening performances by both circuses was large.

For many local yongsters the day was of the red letter variety, for it was the first circus performance they had seen. The Junior Chamber of Commerce, sponsors of the Rogers Bros. show here, distributed approximately 600 circus tickets to local youngsters who otherwise would have been financially unable to attend. The free tickets were made possible by the generosity of local merchants.

Girlstown Founder Attends

At last night's performance of the Rogers Bros. circus, 10 girls from Girlstown, U. S. A., accompanied by Miss Amelia Anthony, founder of Girlstown, were guests.

A capacity crowd of about 2,200 attended the night performance of the Rogers Bros. circus, which was located in the fairgrounds. An afternoon show was held at 4 o'clock and was attended primarily by several hundred school children.

Highlights of the show included Capt. Eddie Kuhn, wild animal trainer, who presented a show inside an iron cage with panthers, bears, and lions; the Doll Sisters, a trapeze team; Billy Sheets, animal trainer; Frankie Lou Woods, who performed on the high trapeze; and a pair of elephants, "Shirley Temple" and "Suzie Q," who were put through their paces by Miss Woods.

The Clyde Beatty circus, which pitched its tents south of East Broadway behind the Parkview Lodge, had a large attendance at its 2 o'clock performance Tuesday afternoon and a crowd of approximately 3,500 persons at the evening show, which began at 8 o'clock.

Featured act of the show was Clyde Beatty himself, who appeared in the ring in a lion and tiger taming performance. Other outstanding performances were turned in by a group of acrobats in a teeter board act, and by an exhibition of acrobatics by eight large elephants in the two side rings.

Woman Driver Fined Twice For Speeding

EAST ORANGE, N. J., Oct. 12 (AP)—Evidently Mrs. Mocile Lassiter, 31, of Orange, was in a hurry on Monday.

She was arrested for speeding 48 miles per hour.

Five minutes and half a mile later, Mrs. Lassiter was arrested again for speeding 58 miles per hour.

Last night she pleaded guilty to both charges before a police magistrate. She paid $80 in fines and lost her driver's license for 30 days.

New Credit Rating System Is Planned By Lubbock Grocers

A credit rating system for grocery store customers will be launched in Lubbock before Nov. 1 by members of the Texas Retail Grocers association, Clyde Stovall, district president, has announced.

Stovall outlined the plan at a meeting of the organization held in the Rocket room of Womble Olds building. Sixteen members attended.

The credit system, similar to that operated by the Retail Merchants association, will be the first attempt in Texas and possibly the nation to apply it to retail grocery stores, Stovall said.

He said plans have been approved by state headquarters of the association, and legal aspects are now being checked in Austin.

"Members will have credit records on customers," Stovall said, "and such records will be made available to all merchants participating."

A "walking" secretary will work out of the association's office here, going from store to store to circulate the credit ratings. In addition, the secretary will write letters of collection for any store needing that service.

Stovall said that approximately 100 grocery stores in Lubbock belong to the association. A total of 280 stores are in the district, which reaches out to Brownfield, Lamesa, Crosbyton, Plainview and Levelland.

"The plan will be tried first in Lubbock," Stovall said, "and will be expanded over the district if it is successful."

Stovall explained that the association is composed of independent grocers, most of them with neighborhood stores specializing in personalized service to customers.

Mother Unable To Rescue Son After Kitchen Explosion

CHICAGO, Oct. 12 (AP)—Walter Buciak, 26, a delivery man, was talking on the telephone to his wife yesterday when he heard an explosion.

His wife, Betty, 21, screamed: "There's been an explosion in the kitchen!"

Buciak called the fire department and rushed home. Meanwhile, his wife tried in vain to get through the burning kitchen, where the explosion occurred, to a room where the Buciak's two year old son, Gregory, was asleep. Fumes prevented her from reaching his room.

A neighbor carried Mrs. Buciak three floors to safety. Firemen arrived and took the child to a hospital but he could not be revived. He was suffocated by smoke. The cause of the explosion was not determined.

Truman Scheduled To Study Labor Problem

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12 (AP)—President Truman is scheduled to study the Mexican labor problem today.

Yesterday a group of Texans seeking to get Mexican nationals into the Rio Grande valley for jobs talked with David Stowe, an assistant to the president.

Stowe will take up the matter with the President today.

"And we hope to get some kind of an answer soon," said Austin Anson of Harlingen, manager of the Texas Growers and Shippers association.

C. B. Ray of Mercedes, manager of the Valley Farm bureau, and Anson talked with Stowe.

After talking with the Texans, Stowe discussed the problem with State department officials, Anson said.

Move Toward Third Big Union In U. S. Is Denied By Official

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12 (AP)—Talk that left-wing CIO unions may break away and form a third major labor organization ran into a denial today by a labor leader named as one of the key planners of such a move.

Grant Oakes, president of the Farm Equipment workers said it isn't true that he and other FE officials voted secretly to bring their union into another left-wing outfit which is slated for ouster from the CIO.

Oakes' denial, carried by the Chicago Sun-Times, conflicted sharply with a statement issued yesterday through the CIO by Peter Aversa of Auburn, N. Y., a member of the FE executive board.

Plan Opposed

Aversa said the board had voted secretly in Chicago two weeks ago in favor of such a merger, with the aim of setting up a third big labor organization to rival the right-wing CIO and AFL.

Aversa said he was vigorously opposed to the plan out of "allegiance to the CIO and American trade unionism."

The left-wingers have been under heavy attack from CIO leaders who call many of them pro-communist.

The principal target has been the United Electrical workers (UE), a union which is expected to get its walking papers at the CIO's national convention in Cleveland later this month for laying down an unacceptable ultimatum to CIO President Philip Murray.

Communist Front

Aversa said the Chicago FE meeting voted in favor of joining the electrical workers and other unions including the mine, mill and smelter workers and the food, tobacco and agricultural workers.

White collar unions, Aversa said, would be brought under the control of Ben Gold, an admitted communist who heads the fur and leather workers. In the white collar category, Aversa listed the united office and professional workers and the united public workers.

Under the plan, he said, Harry Bridges would lead west coast left-wingers into the international longshoremen's and warehousemen's union.

"This movement," Aversa said, "is obviously intended to tie in all the communist-led unions into a common front to continue the policies of the communist party, a program which the rank and file members of FE will not subscribe to and a program which I intend to resist out of my allegiance to the CIO and American trade unionism."

Situation To Be Reviewed

Oakes was in Auburn N. Y., reportedly to seek out Aversa and get him to change his mind.

But Oakes told the Sun-Times by telephone he had no plans to see the rebellious FE official "unless I happen to run into him at a meeting."

"I have no intention of forming a third labor federation," Oakes said. "The American labor movement is too divided now."

CIO Vice President Allan S. Haywood, who directs organization for the CIO, said in a statement that the situation certainly will be "carefully reviewed" at the Cleveland convention, with action following.

John W. Livingston, UAW vice president, commented in Chicago that the reported left-wing merger would be a "shotgun marriage" under "orders from the Kremlin."

War Hero Will Film Army Story Despite His Marital Trouble

By BOB THOMAS
Associated Press Staff Writer

HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 12—Audie Murphy's film career appears to be progressing despite his marital troubles. He is going ahead with plans to film his war exeriences.

The much-decorated hero told me before he left for a Texas rest that the outlook is bright for an early filming of his story, "To Hell And Back." He may discuss financing of the project with Texans. A deal is cooking with Glenn McCarthy, but Audie is hesitating because he wants to retain over what is put on the screen.

At first, the ex-soldier balked at playing himself on the screen, but he apparently relented. He told his story with modesty in the book, and perhaps can do the same on the screen.

Crosby And Garland?

Will Bing and Bob hit the "road" again? That's the prime question around Paramount these days. There has been talk about a "Road To Paris." But one producer told me: "There are only two men who can say whether it will be made—That's Hope and Crosby; and I haven't seen either of them making a move yet."

Judy Garland sounded great with Crosby on his air show. Wouldn't they make an ideal screen pairing? Bing could use a high-voltage co-star.

Gregory Peck goes to Warners after "The Gun Fighter." The picture, he hopes, will be "Sapt. Horatio Hornblower." Before doing it, Greg may go to Europe with the Hollywood deelgation to the English command performance.

Bob Taylor Petitioned

Loretta Young tops the radio theater sweepstakes when she does "Mother Was A Freshman" on the show's 15th anniversary next Monday. She has been on the program 22 times. Closest contender is Don Ameche with 21.

Robert Taylor received a petition from girl employees at his studio, usging him to return to romantic roles. He plays an Indian in "Devil's Doorway" and the gals would rather see him in something like "Waterloo Bridge" or "Camille." Taylor was impressed, and agrees that after a couple of westerns, he'd like to get back to something more romantic.

Woman Fined After Strip Tease Show

LAMESA, Oct. 12 (Special) — A blonde stripper today was stripped of $50 including costs when she made the mistake of performing here Monday night while Constable Roscoe Moore was in the audience.

The woman, who is with a carnival stopping here for the Dawson County Fair, was arrested on the spot and brought before Justice of the Peace D. M. Campbell today. She pleaded guilty to charges of indecent exposure.

NEW HELP FOR COTTON PICKERS—This new semi-mechanical cotton picker, being demonstrated at West Memphis, Ark., can gather in 3200 pounds of cotton a day. With the aid of eight compressed air suction tubes, the operators draw the cotton from the boll. The cotton is then deposited in the wagon behind the tractor and taken directly to the gin. Since the pickers do not have to drag a heavy bag of cotton behind them, the new machine greatly speeds the picking process.

Novelist Will Speak At Texas Gathering

HOUSTON, Oct. 12 (U.P.) — Novelist Louis Bromfield will be a featured speaker at the 27th annual conference of Texas industry, spokesmen for the Texas Manufacturers association announced today.

The conference will be held at Mineral Wells Oct. 20-21.

"We have secured a number of outstanding speakers for this event, and think they will develop some worthwhile ideas on how to keep the national economy operating on a high level," William W. Boddie, director of public relations for TMA, said.

In addition to Bromfield, who has made a reputation as a great farmer because of his wizardy in soil cultivation, speakers will include Gov. Allan Shivers; Hugh P. Bigler, president of Associated Industries of Alabama; R. B. Anderson, president of Mid-Continent Oil & Gas association; Dr. Umphrey Lee, president of Southern Methodist university; D. I. Johnson, general counsel of the Associated Industries of Oklahoma; Russell Taylor, economic analyst of the National Association of manufacturers; G. C. Morris, president pro tem of the Texas Senate; Merlyn S. Pitzele, labor editor of the magazine Business Week, and Rep. Ed. Gosset of Wichita Falls.

Slayer Must Die In Chair

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Oct. 12. (AP)—Earl D. Bircham, 45, called a notorious public enemy by the FBI, must die in the electric chair for the slaying of a Louisville policeman.

An all-male jury deliberated a little more than an hour last night before returning a verdict of guilty of murder in the shooting of Patrolman John Tennyson.

Captured In Yard

Bircham, the prosecution charged, shot Tennyson to death in a runing battle here on the night of Aug. 14 and wounded another policeman, John Allen Ross, six times.

Ross testified the officers had recognized Bircham as a wanted man.

Bircham, who is under indictment on a bank robbery charge in Nashville, Tenn., was captured by a former marine, Luther Williams, when he ran into the backyard of Williams' home after shooting Tennyson.

Judge Orders Youth Whipped And Jailed

WELLAND, Ont., Oct. 12 (U.P.)—A youth who asked a judge to whip him rather than send him to prison will receive five strokes and a prison sentence as well.

When Robert E. Acaster was convicted of indecently assaulting a young woman in a theater yesterday, he asked Magistrate T. George Street to sentence him to a strapping "because I don't think jail would do me any good.

Street ordered Acaster whipped and gave him a six months jail sentence with an additional three month indefinite sentence.

New Orthodox Greek Church Head Chosen

ISTANBUL, Turkey, Oct. 12. (AP)—The Archbishop of Corinth, Mihail Constantinides, is the new head of the Greek Orthodox church in North and South America.

The Holy synod of the church yesterday chose Mihail to succeed Patriarch Athenagoras, who was elevated last spring to head the entire church. Mihail's headquarters will be in New York City.

Oil Is Reported Recovered In Scurry Well Drillstem Tests

Progress Petroleum company of Texas, and associates No. 1 Carden, Central-North Scurry county, wildcat, two miles north of the North Snyder field, and 12 miles north of the town of Snyder was making new hole below 7,040 feet in lime, according to unofficial sources.

More detail reports have been secured on two drillstem tests taken at this prospector since it entered the Canyon reef lime at 6,998 feet, on an elevation of 2,496 feet.

The first test was at 6,997-7,007 feet. The tool was open five hours. Gas showed at the surface in 30 minutes. Recovery was 540 feet of oil and gas cut drilling mud and 870 feet of 41.5 gravity oil. There were no signs of formation water.

The venture then deepened to 7,017 feet and a three hour drillstem test was run at 6,997-7,017 feet.

Gas showed at the surface in three minutes. Recovery was 1,414 feet of clean oil, 300 feet of drilling mud and 180 feet of salt water.

Reports Not Official

The foregoing reports have not been officially verified, but are from sources which are generally accurate and dependable.

The wildcat is 660 feet from east and 467 feet from south lines of section 503, block 97, H&TC survey.

Stanolind Oil & Gas company No. 1 Whatley, Central-North Scurry county prospector, three and one quarter miles north of the northwest side of the nearest Canyon lime production on the northwest side of the North Snyder field, and 660 feet from south and east lines of the southwest quarter of section 548, block 97, H&TC survey, was making hole below 7,580 feet in the Strawn lime of the Pennsylvanian.

It ran a one hour and 30 minute drillstem test at 7,550-80 feet. Recovery was 150 feet of drilling mud, with no shows of oil, gas or water. The exploration may be continued until it finds and tests the Ellenburger. It failed to produce in the Canyon reef lime.

Well Is Completed

Completion has been made at L. H. Wentz Estate (Oil Division) No. 1 L. A. Hill, one location north of the closest completed producer on the southwest side of the North Snyder field in North-Central Scurry county.

Flowing natural through a one-half inch tubing choke it made a calculated daily potential of 1,284.8 barrels of 42-gravity oil and no water. Gas-oil ration was 868-1.

Flowing casing pressure was 90 pounds and the flowing tubing pressure was 550 pounds.

From the Canyon it was completed from open hole between the five and one-half oil string cemented at 6,752 feet and the total depth at 6,901 feet.

This new producer is 467 feet from south and east lines of the lease in section 330, block 97, H&TC survey.

Permit Is Asked

Claud B. Hamill of Houston has filed an application with the Railroad commission of Texas requesting a permit to drill his No. 1 Lois Sears Sentell as a 7,000-foot rotary exploration on the southeast side of the North Snyder field in North-Central Scurry county.

The project will be 467 feet from north and west lines of tract 3, secton 26, block 1, J. P. Smith survey and six miles north of Snyder.

Standard Oil company of Texas has completed its No. 6-7 J. Brown in the North Snyder field of north-central Scurry county.

Flowing natural through a one-half inch tubing choke, it made a calculated 24-hour potential of 1,188 barrels of 43.5-gravity oil and no water. Gas-oil ratio was 1,050-1.

GAINES WELL IS PLUGGED BACK AFTER WATER FLOW

Shell Oil company No. 1 Andrews, five-eighth of a mile north of the discovery well for Ellenburger production in the Flanagan field of central-south Gaines county, and 12 miles south of Seminole, developed salt water in the Ellenburger and has plugged back to 7,300 feet to try to complete a producer from the Clear Fork of the Permian.

The Ellenburger as tested for 32 minutes at 12,525-580 feet. Recovery was 390 feet of drilling mud, heavily cut with salt water. No indications of oil or gas were developed from the test.

Dry Hole Abandoned

Los Nietos company No. 1-B Pecos-University, 14 miles northeast of Fort Stockton, eight miles south of the Apco-Warner-Ellenburger field, and 660 feet from west and 1,980 feet from south lines of section 11, block 26, University survey, has been plugged and abandoned as a dry hole on a total depth of 5,649 feet in granite wash and lime streaks. It found no signs of oil or gas in any formation it penetrated.

Newman Brothers of San Antonio, and associates, No. 1 Eiland, central-west Scurry county wildcat, seven miles west of Snyder, and 1,787 feet from east and 467 feet from north lines of section 20, block 97, H&TC survey, and two and one-half miles west of the closest completed Canyon reef producers on the west side of the Kelly field, topped the Canyon reef at 6,611 feet, to give it a datum of minus 4,194 feet on that point.

The venture was drilling ahead below 6,615 feet and was to continue to 6,767 feet and then stop and run a drillstem test.

Marriage Problems Blamed In Suicide

FORT WORTH, Oct. 12. (AP)—A Fort Worth men took poison when a meeting between his two wives blew up in a quarrel.

That was the story police had in the death Monday night of Norman R. Lewellen, 32.

City detectives said the women told them Lewellen brought them together in an attempt to work out an annulment of his second marriage.

Wife No. 1 an expectant mother whom Lewellen married eight months ago, told detectives he called her daily from Terre Haute, Ind., where he had gone last week to marry wife No. 2, Mrs. Beatrice Thurman, a widow of two months.

Wife No. 1 said her husband told her by telephone of the Indiana marriage. She said he telephoned her Monday night and told her he would bring wife No. 2 to see her and try to work out a solution.

When the women met, words flew. Lewellen asked for a glass of water and swallowed two pills. "It will be only five minutes now," he said.

He was dead on arrival at a hospital.

NEHRU LEADS 300 MILLION PEOPLE

Indian Prime Minister Once Saved Correspondent, Others

BY JOSEPH C. GOODWIN
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12—India's prime minister, the Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru, says one of the principal reasons for his visit to the United States is to learn about Americans.

Perhaps Americans also may learn something about Nehru and the way he ticks.

Back in 1945 Nehru saved the lives of four of his Congress party colleagues and one Associated Press correspondent. I was the correspondent.

Nehru may have forgotten it. I doubt that he even considered that anything unusual had occurred except an annoying delay to a three-day political speaking tour.

But because I felt closer to death that day than before or since, I retain some pretty sharp mental pictures of Nehru, now the political and spiritual leader of some 300,000,000 people.

Crowd Poured In

We were late for a meeting at the Punjab town of Lyallpur. A quarter of a million people had waited two hours on a sun-baked plain outside the town when we arrived in a station wagon with an Indian driver. Lath-packing party troops—illegal in those days of British rule—held open a lane.

The crowd was still while Nehru spoke. When we climbed down from the platform, he shooed the rest of us off through the straining lane of laths and men. He hung back.

Turning, I saw that the lane was breaking up back of him and the crowd was pouring in.

We ran to the station wagon. Nehru dug along ahead of the adoring mob like a crisp little chip on the bead of a powerful wave. He screamed to the driver to get going.

Then he ran the last few steps and leaped in. The human wall closed about the car. The motor died.

Men Were Crushed

Men were crushed against the car. The pressure of thousands straining nearer lifted it off its wheels. The walls began to strain and crack.

"What a stupid way to die," I thought, "crushed inside an automobile by a scrambling mass of men fighting to see or touch another man."

Then, a lean white fury, Nehru pounced head first through the window on to the shoulders of the crowd. He pounced backs and heads with his silver-headed cane. He shouted and—I think—swore.

Wild-eyed people fell back before his violence. The car bumped back on its wheels. The motor caught. The crowd tried to push back. The car was in gear and crawling through falling men. We spurted out of the teeming mass.

Nehru followed on foot. We got away from there, fast.

Usually Relaxed

In three days I got to know and like the man Nehru more and more. Away from crowds he was relaxed and quiet, browsing through books and newspapers, chatting easily, joking about his days in English schools and English jails and talking earnestly about freedom and liberty.

He was trying at the time to give up smoking. Often he would take it out and cut in half with scissors he carried for that purpose.

But the moment the car stopped at a village he went into action. After a speech he was so tense he couldn't eat or sit still.

At another village we were stopped by a crowd at the tomb of an ancient holy man. The villagers showered Nehru with flowers. Men, women and children dropped to their knees and reached out to touch him. He didn't even glance at them. But he turned aside to a feeble old beggar,, patted her on the head and spoke a few words to her.

LOOK WHO'S ON THE WAY—Got your Christmas turkey yet? Uncle Sam has. At least he's bought about 1,250,000 pounds of them for GI's at Pacific bases. At Turlock, Calif., Leonard Knight thought it appropriae to don the red suit and whiskers to get the plump birds on their way to the Army's Christmas table. Lt. Col. Ward T. Blacklook of the San Francisco Quartermaster Market Center looks on.

Deer Takes Spaghetti Over His Usual Fare

CLARKSBURG, Cal., Oct. 12 (U.P.) —Bambi, a spaghetti-eating deer, has deserted the ways of the wild for the customs of civilization.

The one-year-old buck, who was found near starvation by Mrs. Emil Geigle, now snubs his nose at berries and tender green leaves. Instead he prefers such robust bill of fare as spaghetti, meatballs and good strong garlic.

"Useful" Citizen Is Death Victim

REDMON, Ill., Oct. 12 (AP) Dr. William S. Jones, 86, who will be buried tomorrow, often was called Edgar county's "most useful citizen."

Here's the record made by the minister-physician: A doctor for 10 years—while working his way through medical school in Louisville, Ky.—a member of the Redmon village board for 56 years.

He delivered 3,200 babies, conducted 1,200 funerals and married 900 couples. In many instances, he delivered a child, christened it, officiated at its marriage, and delivered its child.

PET SUMMONS HELP

WORCESTER, Mass. (U.P.) — Three-year-old Louis J. Bedard owes his life to his pet pooch Bootsie. When Louis tumbled into water over his head in a swimming pool, it was Bootsie that barked until two men came and fished his young master out.

Plainview Couple To Go To West Africa

RICHMOND, Va., Oct. 12. (AP)—The foreign mission board of the Southern Baptist convention last night approved the appointment of 12 Texans as missionaries overseas.

Church Group Fights Negro Segregation

NEW YORK, Oct. 12 (AP)—The federal council of the Churches of Christ in America is asking the U. S. Supreme Court to review the case of a negro who seeks admission to the University of Texas where segregation prevails.

The council announced today that its brief, the first it ever has submitted to the high court, was filed in Washington in the case of Heman Marion Sweatt.
